GRAND JURY RECOMMENDS FEW CHANGES

County Offices Found In Splendid Condition By the Criminal Court Jury.

With exception of a few minor things, all county offices are in splendid condition, according to a report of the grand jury of the present term of Pitt county criminal court, presented to Judge R. A. Nunn, yesterday afternoon.

Members of the jury were much impressed with conditions prevailing at the county home and declared they felt sure that few, if any, like institutions in the State are as well supervised as that in Pitt county.

Examination of the county jail and convict camp resulted in the finding of everything in good order. Recommendations for painting the inside of the jail wherever needed, the purchase of a steel cabinet for the sheriff's office, were the only changes deemed necessary, the report stated. L. T. Pierce, of Farmville, was foreman of the jury.

Grand Jury's Report

To Honorable R. A. Nunn, Judge Presiding:

We, the Grand Jurors of this the August Term, 1928, of the Superior court of Pitt County, do hereby submit the following report:

We have passed on all bills that have come before us and made presentments in all cases that we deemed it just and proper to do so. We have visited the various offices and institutions of the county as required by law, viz: County Home, Convict Camp, Jail, the office of the Sheriff, Clerk of the Court, Register of Deeds, Auditor, Board of Education and the Welfare Office, all of these with the exception of a few minor things, are in excellent condition, and most efficiently managed. We found the sanitary conditions of the jail to be in good condition.

The public toilet outside of the jail for negroes be kept in a more sanitary condition.

We were very much impressed with the conditions as we found them at the County Home. We feel certain that few, if any like institutions in the State are as well supervised as the one in Pitt County and we commend Mr. Corbett for the elegant manner in which he handles the affairs of the Home. We found the Home to be in need of the following, and we recommend that such be provided: Screen doors to be re-wired, new doors be gotten where needed, benches installed to keep all food supplies in, repair roof where necessary.

Upon our visit and examination at the Convict camp we found everything in excellent condition.

We recommend that a steel cabinet be purchased for the Sheriff's office in which to keep records, and we insist that this matter be given prompt attention by the County Commissioners.

We recommend that the inside of the jail be painted where needed.

We find that all of the Justice of Peace have filed their reports with the Clerk of the Court, as provided by law.

We wish to express our appreciation to all County officials for the splendid co-operation they have given us in performing our duties as Grand Jurors, and we especially mention officer Hogbood who has served at his post so well in presenting all witnesses promptly in so far as it was possible to do so.

We wish to extend our thanks to the Honorable Judge and Solicitor for their services and courtesies extended us during this term of court.

We commend the presiding Judge for the manner in which he conducts his court, and earnestly believe that with more such Christian gentlemen presiding over our Criminal Courts, crime would be lessened because of proper justice being meted out to those who deserve such.

MEADOWS TO RETURN TO PIRATES NEXT SPRING

Pittsburgh, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Lee Meadows, veteran big-spectacled hurler of the Pirates, who was placed on the voluntary retirement list last week will be back in a Pirates uniform next spring, Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh Club, announced today.

"It is Meadows' intention to come back next spring," Dreyfuss said. "He believes he is far from done but did not wish to accept further salary this year when he could not give service in return. He believes his arm is making satisfactory progress toward complete recovery and is in better shape now than at any time since neuritis developed during the 1925 world series."

French Fliers Try to Break the Flight Record

Le Bourget, France, Sept. 1 (AP)—Captain Ludovic Arrachart, and Major Magnot, noted French fliers, took off here at 6:28 a. m. today in an attempt to break the world non-stop distance record.

They headed for Calcutta and hoped to be able to stay in the air 30 hours.

SMITH STILL FIGURES OUT BATTLE PLAN

Details of First Tour for Presidency Receiving Minute Consideration.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(AP)—September rolled around today and found Governor Smith still figuring out the details of the first tour he will make in the race for the Presidency.

Less than ten weeks remain before election day in November, yet the Democratic Presidential nominee was peacefully sequestered in the big brick residence on Eagle street which he has called home for nearly eight years while guiding the destinies of the New York state—putting the finishing touches on his initial itinerary.

Unlike campaigners of long ago, who at the stage of a Presidential year had covered much ground and made as high as six or eight speeches on prevailing issues, the New York Governor is one of those who believes in a slow start and a whirlwind finish. Until he is ready to announce his speech making plans he will do as much resting as his state duties will permit. His recreation will consist of his favorite pastime—golf—and possibly a few plunges in the private pool on the nearby country estate of Lieut. Gov. Edwin Gorman.

One thing was certain today in connection with the nature of the campaign of Governor Smith will make. He has decided to revert to his time honored custom of delivering only extemporaneous speeches in the belief that this type is more effective than the prepared address.

The Democratic nominee will spend the Labor Day week end in Albany.

DEMOCRATS TO RUSH WORK IN THIS COUNTY

Campaign Began to Take Shape at Meeting of the Executive Committee.

Plans looking toward the Democratic campaign to be waged throughout this county began to take shape last night at a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee and party representatives of the different sections of the county held in the city hall.

The meeting consisted of roundtable discussion of the political situation and there were talks by several of those present, and all were enthusiastic in their support of Governor Smith and the entire Democratic ticket.

One of the principal speakers of the evening was Lindsay Warren, of Washington, congressman of this district, who lauded the record of the party and urged the unstinted support of the candidates.

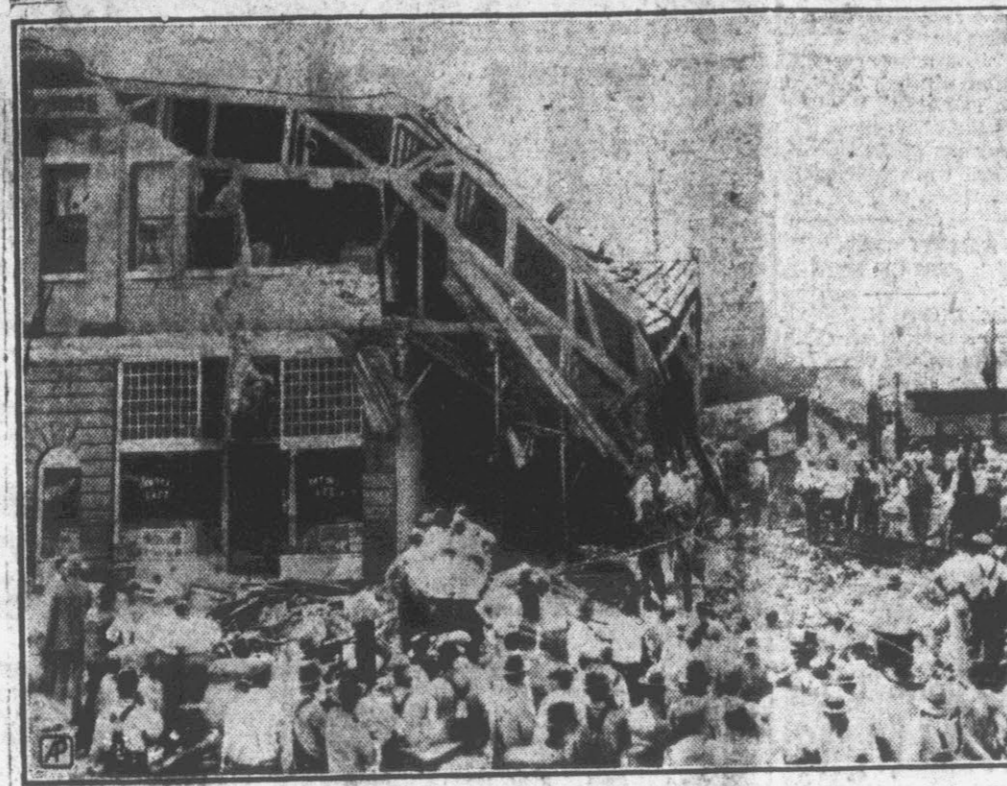

An advisory committee of five, Dr. W. W. Dawson, M. O. Blount, Ed. Flanagan, J. W. Holmes and George Venters, was appointed to work with the county executive committee in perfecting and carrying out plans of the campaign in the county.

Suggestions at last night's meeting indicate that there will be a series of Democratic speeches throughout the entire county and that during the campaign several Democratic speakers of state and national prominence will visit the county.

Lexington Doctor Dead.

Lexington, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Word was received here today of the death in a Charlotte hospital of Dr. E. J. Buchanan, physician of this city. He was 63 years old and was suddenly stricken last Thursday. A funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Forest Presbyterian church where he was a ranking elder.

WHERE SIX PERSONS WERE CRUSHED TO DEATH

When three structures collapsed in the heart of the business district of Shelby, North Carolina, six persons were killed and fifteen injured. Excavations which weakened the building foundations were blamed for the accident.

Political Seas Stirred By Bewildering Current Of Good and Bad Import

By BYRON PRICE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Bewildering swirls and eddies, stirred into motion months ago, still trouble the political seas as the parties approach the necessity of choosing definitely what course they will sail for better or for worse in the campaign for the presidency.

The South, in particular, continues to debate sharply the religious issue—a subject which Senator Robinson also has taken occasion to discuss publicly in the past. From Democratic headquarters in New York, Senator Harrison of Mississippi, has charged that an underground campaign of prejudice and misrepresentation is being conducted in the southern states, under the inspiration of someone close to the Republican campaign committee. Senators Copeland of New York and George of Georgia, have urged the voters not to reject Smith because he is a Catholic, and former Senator Hardwick of Georgia, has declared that certain "political persons" opposing the Democratic nominee in the south in the name of prohibition, were really actuated by religious intolerance.

None of these challenges appear to have lessened the determination of the Protestant churchmen who are at the head of the anti-Smith Democratic organization. They are appealing to the friends of prohibition and the foes of Tammany to redouble their efforts in every state. Bishop Cannon himself, attending a prohibition conference in Europe, cabled home a thundering attack on Smith's modification program.

There appears to be a growing belief among the Democratic leaders that a real party drive in the northwest would be worth the candle. Chairman Raskob, announcing at St. Louis a set of Democratic claims which left almost nothing to the Republicans, put Minnesota and Wisconsin in the front ranks of the state "assured" Smith and Robinson. With this classification as with many other things in Mr. Raskob's announcement, the Republican leaders disagree; but they do not conceal that they have had disquieting reports from the northwest wheat country and are prepared for a battle there.

It goes without saying that whatever other decisions they may make both Smith and Hoover will reserve a considerable part of their stump-speaking for the east. No plan of campaign has been brought forward in either party which does not contemplate a hammering offensive along the northern Atlantic seaboard, where electoral votes grow thickest and where both parties profess to see encouraging signs. The east will be encouraged early and late by both Democrats and Republicans, and October is likely to see the most persuasive spellbinders of them all concentrating there for the windup.

It is upon this section more than any other that political attention has been centered during the present week. Back in Washington, Mr. Hoover began a long series of discussions with party aides by talking over his prospects in New York and New Jersey. Gov. Smith, returning northward from a holiday on the Jersey shore, stopped for a short speech at Newark, and later in the week established an eastern contact with the farm problem by appearing at Syracuse. Hoover's running mate, Senator Curtis, also was on tour in the east, visiting Syracuse, Harrisburg and other cities.

Carrying into effect his original proposal for an intensive drive to overcome opposition in the south, Senator Robinson, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, will begin at once a swing through Dixie. In his speech of acceptance at Hot Springs Thursday he featured farm relief, and prohibition and he now proposes further appeal to his fellow-dryers in the South not to quit the Democratic ticket because of

Three Caledonia Convicts Are Still At Large Today

Caledonia Prison Farm, Halifax County, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Three convicts were still at large today of the seven who made a break for Liberty from the state prison farm here Thursday afternoon after overpowering one of their guards and killing A. D. Spivey, another. Officers and deputies from the farm kept up the pursuit in the swampy lowlands along the Roanoke river, plunging at times through waist-deep mud.

Two of the escapes were captured shortly after the outbreak, and two more were taken in custody late yesterday.

Those still free are Charlie Massey, Robert Smith, and Guy Caldwell. Rewards of $100 each for their capture have been posted by state prison officials.

CHILD CRUSHED TO DEATH BY FATHER'S AUTOMOBILE

Greensboro, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Randolph Bennett, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Bennett, was killed instantly today when he was caught beneath the wheels of the automobile his father was backing out of the garage. The child, unnoticed by his mother, left the house and followed his father to the garage, standing immediately back of the automobile as the elder Bennett started out.

HERB HOOVER RESTS AFTER WEEK'S WORK

Republican Candidate More Than Busy at His Headquarters In Washington.

Washington, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Herb Hoover will make his first eastern speech at Newark, N. J., about the middle of September, although the exact date is yet to be fixed.

Labor is expected to be the central theme of the address, his third prepared one of the campaign, and negotiations are in progress for a nation-wide radio hook-up. The time of his New Jersey appearance will depend upon the day on which the greatest number of stations can be made available.

While Hoover may make several other speeches in September, he probably will defer his visit to New York city and Boston until October.

Washington, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Herb Hoover is ready to rest a while after a week of grinding work at his general headquarters here.

He inaugurates a program of recreation today by visiting Griffith stadium to see Babe Ruth and the other New York Yankees struggle against the Washington Senators in their desperate effort to retain first place in the American League pennant race.

Tomorrow the Republican presidential candidate will attend church and spend the remainder of the day quietly at home save for an automobile drive in the afternoon. He has no engagements for Labor Day, but probably will put in a few hours at his office cleaning up a week-end accumulation of mail.

About the middle of next week he plans to leave on a fishing trip of several days in Chesapeake Bay, angling for trout and other fish that abound off the mouth of the Potomac river. He will be accompanied on this trip by only a few personal friends.

A real baseball fan, the Republican standard bearer frequently attended baseball games during his seven years here as commerce secretary and with his deck chair he revels himself of an opportunity to see one game in a highly important series in the American League.

While he will sit in a box in the main grandstand, he will munch peanuts along with most of the other fans, but he probably will show less partisanship than the thousands around him. His love of peanuts is second only to his love of baseball and he usually makes at least two calls on a vendor during the regulation time of play.

J. N. Gorman is one of the best known warehousemen in this part of the state. He has been long and fully in the tobacco business and is well prepared from education, training and experience to deal with the problems that confront the farmer from time to time.

Mr. Gorman has played a vital part in the rapid growth and development of the Greenville market. Every season has seen him using his influence for the best interest of the industry, always increasing his own business to keep step with the march of progress in every branch of the business.

Dick Gorman, son of the pioneer tobaccoist, will be associated with his father in the conduct of the warehouse. Raised in an atmosphere where tobacco was one of the chief topics of conversation, and having served actively in different branches of the business, young Gorman is easily one of the best informed warehousemen of this section.

Associated with the warehouse this season will be a competent staff of office and floor men. They will always be on alert for the best interests of their patrons to see that they get the best market has to offer.

Gorman's big brick warehouse has made improvements in keeping with the march of progress of tobacco interests here and when the curtain is raised Tuesday morning it will find them facing one of the greatest seasons in history.

The Greenville tobacco market this season will have nine mammoth warehouses, covering a total floor space of ten acres. The goal set for the season is seventy million pounds, exactly ten millions more than last year.

The market is capable of handling around a million, seven hundred thousand pounds of leaf daily, and the farmer may rest assured that there will be no long delays when selling his tobacco in Greenville, the "Shopping center of Eastern North Carolina."

GREENVILLE BANKS TO CLOSE LABOR DAY

Following an annual custom, banks of the city will close Monday in observance of Labor Day.

Labor Day coming between the first of the month and the opening of the tobacco market, the banks will be given sufficient time to get in readiness for the enormous volume of business featuring the opening of the leaf market.

FIND FLOAT TO SEAPLANE OF AMUNDSEN

First Definite Clue to Fate of Explorer Is Discovered On Fuglo Island.

Tromsø, Norway, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The first definite clue to the fate of Roald Amundsen and five men who accompanied him on his expedition to rescue members of the Noble Arctic party, was brought here today. It was a float from the seaplane in which the adventurers started from Spitzbergen on June 18.

The relic was found by a Norwegian fishing vessel, the Brood. It was picked up near the Fuglo Islands, a rocky group of this port that is seldom approached because it is so dangerous to shipping.

Officers of the steamer Michael Sars and the French vessel Durance, identified the float as belonging to the French naval seaplane Latham in which Amundsen rode with Rene Guilbaud as pilot. Comparison of the float with photographs of the plane tended to confirm the identification.

Besides Amundsen and Guilbaud the plane carried Lieutenant Lief Dietrichsen and three French navy men comprising the regular crew of the plane.

The brood, which had been operating off Vann Island, put into Tromsø at 3:30 Saturday morning. Captain Haeg told the authorities that he had picked up the pontoon at 9:30 last night, ten miles northwest of Phorsborg lighthouse on the northwest side of Vann Island.

The French consul in Tromsø compared the pontoon with photographs of the Latham and said there was no doubt that it had been a part of the Amundsen plane.

MANY NATIONS ARE READY TO RENOUNCE WAR

Forty Countries Signify Intention to Adhere to the Kellogg-Briand Pact.

Washington, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Forty countries—more than half the number invited—have signified adherence to the Kellogg-Briand Pact to renounce war.

Thus the treaty which is attempting to bring about universal peace is rapidly reaching the fulfillment that Secretary Kellogg envisaged when he sought the co-operation of the nations of the world to this end.

Included in the sovereignties to accept the invitation to become party to the pact signed at Paris Monday, is Soviet Russia. The Moscow Government made clear that it has neither enthusiasm nor admiration for the treaty but accepted it because "it does impose certain obligations upon countries before the bar of public opinion."

The pact, said the Russian note to Adherence, "likewise gives the Soviet Union a new possibility of submitting to all the signatory nations a question of the greatest importance to the cause of peace—that of disarmament—which is the one and only guarantee against war."

The speed with which so many countries accepted the pact greatly pleased the State Department at Washington. All of the acceptances were made to American diplomatic officials, except that of Soviet Russia which replied to an invitation from France, and were accompanied by expressions of thanks for the privilege of adhering.

The most recent batch of acceptances came to the State Department yesterday from Jugoslavia, Finland, the Netherlands, Brazil, Panama and Uruguay. The acceptance of Portugal was announced at Lisbon.

The roll of the countries which have signed to renounce war, in addition to the fifteen original signatories, now stands as follows: Austria, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Finland, Greece, Liberia, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Norway, Panama, Peru, Portugal, Rumania, Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, Spain, Soviet Russia, Switzerland and Uruguay.

Ahmed Zogu Made King of Albania

Tirana, Albania, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Ahmed Zogu, President of the Albanian Republic, was today formally proclaimed King by the national assembly.

The process of changing the government was carried out according to a strictly scheduled program. The assembly met at 9 a. m., unanimously adopted eight revised articles of the constitution and then by acclamation passed a resolution inviting Zogu to assume the throne.

A deputation of the assembly was sent to the Palace at noon to notify the new Monarch of this action.

The plans called for his solemn entry to Parliament at 5:00 p. m., to take the oath of office. The exact form for this obligation was not announced in advance but it was stated that it would be brief.

Troops lined the streets early today and crowds assembled several hours in advance to watch the procession in which Zogu was to rise in full state from the Palace to the Parliament building. A detachment of horse guards, carefully selected and under the command of high officers of the army, was ready to surround his automobile on its progress through the streets.

After Zogu had taken his new oath of office, it was planned that he should review the infantry and Gendarmes which lined the route of the procession. A number of civic organizations were also to march past the Palace.

State Revenue Collections On Big Increase

Raleigh, Sept. 1.—(AP)—North Carolina Revenue collections for July and August, the first two months of the current fiscal year, totaled $2,073,049.90, as compared with $1,821,634.11 for the same period of last year. It was revealed today in figures made public by R. A. Doughner, commissioner of revenue. August collections amounted to $1,258,068.73.

It was pointed out that the revenue for the two months came within $38,000 of equalling the estimated income for the first three months, $2,111,000.

Police Receive Millions In Bribes From Members Of Bootlegging Circle

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The finding of a grand jury that police are on the payrolls of bootleggers and have received millions of dollars in bribes caused a stir today.

The jury's report says also that liquor interests have been protected for years by an alliance of police and "misguided" politicians, and that the menace of gunmen and gangsters threatens to make this city a second Chicago, with target practice held in the streets and human beings the targets.

The grand jury was called two weeks ago to investigate gang murders, bootlegging and other underworld activities.

Judge Edwin L. Lewis after reading the report granted the jury's request to continue its investigation, to testify.

"I will do this," Judge Lewis said, "if it takes the commission years to complete the task, and if it necessitates the use of the most extraordinary methods ever evolved to combat crime here."

"I have information that gunmen have been hired in the business world of our city. They have been brought here to carry on trade rivalry—the blowing up of business houses, the assassination of business rivals. They do it in Chicago and St. Louis, now they are trying to do it here, but we are not going to let them."

"The civil service commission has the power to find out how many motor cars every policeman has, how many diamond rings, the lavish scale he lives on, the money he has and to find out if he is taking graft."

District Attorney John Monaghan revealed that a graft payment of $10,000 had been paid by the rum ring to a person indicated on account books in his possession, along with other data showing that records were kept of payments to police ranging from $800 a month, upward and downward.

NEW BUILDINGS ARE READY FOR FALL SESSION

Teachers College to Open Sept. 25 With Many Improvements Completed.

East Carolina Teachers College is now completing its building program started something like a year ago. It will have ready for use at the beginning of the fall term which opens on Sept. 25 two new dormitories which have been rebuilt and put in first-class order, a new Model school, a new kitchen with modern equipment, a new dining room, and rest and recreation hall, a new power plant and a laundry.

With these new buildings and equipment the college will be able to accommodate on the campus some three hundred more students than it has been able to accommodate in the past. But with these additional facilities the college has been compelled to turn away for the year several hundred more students than it accepted. It has been refusing students since last January.

The construction program has been carried on under the architectural supervision of Berryman of Raleigh. The John W. Hudson, Jr. Company of Tarboro has done the building. The amount of the several contracts, including equipment was $400,000.00.

The new model school will accommodate the practice teaching in the grades while the old model school will be used for practice and observation in junior high school work.

At the last meeting of the Association of Southern Colleges and Secondary Schools, the college was admitted to full standing as an "A" class college. There is probably no other college in the association that has achieved its position under sounder leadership and over a shorter period of time than this institution. The college was founded in 1897, and opened its doors to students in 1909. It has had but one president and a large measure of its success has been due to his wise leadership. Around him President Wright has gathered a capable faculty, each of whom is a specialist in his or her line.

His influence with legislators and political leaders as well as among educators has enabled him to carry through programs for the college much larger than were apparently possible. During the last session of the General Assembly he was one of the few heads of state institutions that was able to make the appropriations committee see that the amount allotted by the budget commission was too small, getting it increased by more than one-third. This was possible not only on account of his cycle of friends, but on account of the worthiness of the cause he represented.

The college has but one passion, and that is the training of teachers. It has never lost sight of its mission and ideal—to put a trained teacher in every room school in the state.

In a recent interview, President Wright said:

"During the last college year and the present summer term the college has had the most satisfactory twelve months in its history."

The organization of the college for the coming year and the qualification of the teaching staff insure us that 1928-29 will be even more successful than the past year. The enrollment to live in the dormitory is over 300 more than we have ever had before.

The enlarged kitchen with two dining rooms, and the new laundry with the best type of equipment, will insure the most satisfactory home life the college has ever had.

"We are looking forward to 1928-29 with bright hopes for a great year in teacher training at East Carolina Teachers College."

American Wins Over British In Golf Play

By BASIL G. WYRICK
Associated Press Golf Writer

Chicago, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Further proof of the supremacy of American golfers today was placed in the archives with the records of the overwhelming victory over the British in the Walker cup team matches which ended yesterday.

The invaders were able to salvage only one point out of 12, by the slight, one up victory of T. A. Torrance over Chick Evans in eight single matches after the home players had won all four points in the foursomes. This made the result: America 11; Great Britain 1.

Even some of the individual victories were just as sweeping as the aggregate result, for Bobby Jones, scoring one under par for 24 holes, smothered the British amateur champion by 13 and 12, one hole better than his drubbing of Cyril Tolley two years ago at St. Andrews in a Walker cup meet.

Then Watts Gunn, who although he did not play closer than 13 strokes of par, found his opponent R. H. Hardman easy and won 11 and 10. And again the feat of Francis Ouimet, who first sprang into fame as a boy by defeating Ted Ray and Harry Vardon for the American open title, in scoring within 3 strokes of par for 29 holes to down the doughty Major C. O. Hezlet, 6 and 7, made the Americans stand out as giants of the links.

Not far behind was Jess Sweetser, formerly American and British amateur champion, who overcame W. L. Hope, 5 and 4.

The next widest margin of victory was that of Jimmie Johnston, who took the measure of Eustace Storey, 4 and 2.

George Von Elm, who finally won 3 and 2 from Dr. William Tweddell, captain of the British team, found the 1927 British champion hard to overcome.

Politics Grow Warm In S. C.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Smith and anti-Smith lines in this southern capital city were fairly well drawn today as the result of an egg-throwing, free-for-all fighting exhibition which threw the first meeting of the Hoover Democratic Club of Richland county into disorder last night.

The whole business appears to have ended in a draw although the Smith men claimed the distinction, at least, of having invaded an unfriendly meeting and succeeded in getting one of their number to make a speech for the New York governor.

Both that speech and several attacking Governor Smith were accompanied by so much heckling that it was at times difficult to hear the orators and a resolution to call a meeting on September 25 of true "Jeffersonian Democrats" was punctuated with so much caterwauling that no one should say whether it had been adopted or voted down.

The high light of the evening came about when an owner of a bag of eggs got into a rough and tumble during which the bag was crushed. One egg remained intact, however, and this the owner seized and pitched at the head of one of his opponents. It landed squarely and the fighting commenced. For several minutes the free-for-all continued while a group stood on benches and cheered.

Finally restoring order the crowd listened to George W. Beckett, a Smith bolter, make a speech. Promptly half of the audience left the hall and a part of the group remaining demanded a speech from R. Charlton Wright, editor of the Columbia Record, who responded with an address for Smith. Both Wright and Beckett were heckled.

The meeting came to an end by the announcement of H. O. Salley, Columbia salesman, that he was secretary of the Hoover Democratic Club and a suggestion made to him by someone on the floor that he hereafter call secret meetings because "they will only break up every open meeting."

During the whole show, the campaign portraits of Smith and Robinson gazed down benignly upon the scene.

VIRGINIA FARMERS TO SELL TOBACCO HERE

That the Greenville tobacco market serves a wide territory was evidenced recently by messages from tobacco growers in Virginia asking for information concerning the opening of the local market. These growers stated they had their tobacco ready and would be here when the voice of the auctioneer officially opened the season.

Beaman to Preach Special Sermon To Local J. O. U. A. M.

Members of the Junior Order United American Mechanics of the city have made arrangements with the pastor of the Free Will Baptist church, Rev. Thos. E. Beaman, to preach a special sermon for the benefit of the order to-morrow night at 8 o'clock, according to an announcement made today by an official of the order.

The Junior Order is purely a patriotic and benevolent fraternity, composed of those who have been born in America, or under the protection of its flag. Existing for the purpose of instilling into the hearts of every American a spirit of patriotism which will insure true allegiance to our country, its constitution, institutions and laws. It believes in the Bible and the Church, and it strives to support the church and the gospel.

All members of the order will assemble in the basement of the church at 7:45. Visitors are also invited.

Allen Not Guilty Of Poison Charge

In the report of the case of Jennings Allen, charged with an attempt to poison the family of Jesse Hardee, carried in this paper yesterday, it was stated that the defendant was found not guilty "by a jury" of this term of court. This was a mistake. Although a jury sat through the deliberations, its members were informed by the presiding judge that not enough evidence had been produced to justify their consideration of the case, and consequently dismissed the action.

A Letter From Mrs. Evans.

Former Greenville Boy Heads Great Advertising Firm

Another Greenville boy has gone out into the world and made a success. This time it is L. Ames Brown of this city, who was recently elected to the presidency of Lord and Thomas and Logan, succeeding the late Thomas F. Logan, who died recently while abroad.

Lord & Thomas and Logan are among the leading advertising firms of the nation. Mr. Brown was one of the organizers of the firm of Thomas F. Logan, Inc., in 1919, serving as first vice-president of Lord & Thomas and Logan and general manager of the New York office prior to his elevation to the presidency.

News of the rise of the Greenville young man will be received with interest by friends and relatives here.

The Reflector is especially interested in the rise of Mr. Brown because he was a member of our staff during his study of journalism.

The New York Times had the following to say about the change: "Lord & Thomas and Logan, Inc., today announce the election of L. Ames Brown as president to succeed the late Thomas F. Logan."

"Mr. Brown was one of the organizers of the firm of Thomas F. Logan, Inc., in 1919, serving as first vice-president and treasurer until the merger of that agency with Lord & Thomas in 1926. He then became first vice-president of Lord & Thomas and Logan and general manager of the New York office.

A graduate of the University of North Carolina, Mr. Brown was for a number of years a Washington correspondent of New York and Philadelphia newspapers. He has been the chief consultant in the New York office on problems of market analysis and merchandising, and has directed the work of the statistical and research staffs of the agency. He has also had much to do with the development of radio broadcasting as a medium of advertising.

Local Firm Gets Dollar A Minute

The Home Building & Loan Association of this city which is one of the twenty five largest associations in North Carolina, had paid into its last year by its shareholders $511,632.50, which makes a daily payment of $1,490.19, hourly payments of $38.33 or practically $1.00 per minute for the year of 1927.

The Home Building & Loan Association has recently increased its capital from $2,500,000 to $5,000,000. This association was organized in 1906 and since that time has increased its capital stock several times because of rapid growth.

Last year they matured 1135 shares which means they paid to their shareholders in cash and cancelled mortgages $113,500.00 in the year 1926 they paid back to shareholders $210,600.00.

TWO MURDER CASES HEARD HERE FRIDAY

Three Defendants Draw Terms to State Prison During Longest Session of Week.

Pete and Carey Ford, white men of the Farmville community, found guilty of second degree murder and manslaughter, respectively, by a jury in the criminal term of Pitt county Superior court, were last night sentenced to terms in the State prison. Pete Ford drew not less than fifteen nor more than twenty years in the pen, while Carey was given ten and not more than fifteen years.

Sentence was pronounced by Judge R. A. Nunn shortly after twelve o'clock, within thirty minutes after the jury had received the case.

The Fords were charged with the killing of Jack Jones, in an affray occurring in the Farmville community sometime ago. Jones was cut to death. Members of the party are said to have been drinking.

In one of the longest sessions of the week, extending to the wee hours of the night, court officials yesterday succeeded in disposing of two cases, both involving charges of murder. Session was continued through today with indications that the case of K. G. Johnson, Simpson storekeeper, charged with clopping with Mrs. Alva Lee Hardee, wife of Moye Hardee, also of the Simpson community, would be given consideration during the day.

The grand jury was discharged yesterday afternoon submitting their report covering an investigation of all departments of the county government. The report was gratifying, in that it recommended only two or three changes of a minor nature. A number of presentments were returned during the five days the jury was on duty.

The docket for this term was one of the heaviest in months. Despite long sessions and every effort to speed up action in the numbers of cases given consideration, it was indicated this afternoon that several cases would not be reached. Most of the important jail cases, however, have been disposed of and Monday morning will find quite a number of criminals convicted this term beginning their trek to the county prison camp.

The other murder case given attention yesterday was that of Jim Jones, negro, of the Bethel territory, charged with the killing of Jesse Wooten, also colored. He was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to not less than ten nor more than fifteen years in the state prison. "Wooten, it is alleged, was shot to death by Jones as result of an argument over profane language which he is said to have used in the presence of the defendant's wife.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our sincere thanks for the many kindnesses shown us during the accident and death of our devoted son and brother, Claude Columbus Forbes, Jr. Claude C. Forbes and Family. (Colored).

SPOTS BEFORE EYES

Miner Had Dark Spots Before Eyes. Felt Dull, Tired, Achy. Doesn't Get Down Any More.

Somerset, Ky.—Telling how he had known of the merit of Theoford's Black-Draught since he was a boy, Mr. Albert Garland, of this city, recently said: "I used to work in the mines, but lost quite a bit of time on account of the sick spells I had. I would get to having a bad taste in my mouth, and a very dull, tired feeling and ache. I would have dark spots in front of my eyes, and I would be so dizzy I would stagger like I was drunk. I took medicine, but didn't seem to get any better. My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did, and after a few doses I felt much better. Now I take it as soon as I feel the least bad, and I don't get down. I certainly can say that it has done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken. I never get without Black-Draught. If I go on a visit, I take a package along in my suit-case. My health is better now than it has been in years, and I believe it is the use of Black-Draught that did it." Black-Draught is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, of highest quality. Try it. NC-195

a segregation order in the Department of Commerce issued by Senator Harris of Georgia, when the latter was Director of the Bureau of the Census. So much has been said about this matter that Senator Harris has made a statement saying that his order was in force until, just before the Ohio primaries, a Negro editor from Ohio appeared at the office of Secretary Hoover to protest against segregation, and that, after the visit of the Negro editor, an oral order was issued which revoked the segregation order. As a result white men and women were put to work side by side with Negro women. It is well to keep history straight.—News and Observer.

UNDERHAND CAMPAIGN METHODS REACT

Republicans are beginning to feel the reaction which has been produced throughout the country by the unwarranted accusations made against Governor Smith by William Allen White. The result of the Kansas editor's assault has been decidedly harmful to them and helpful to him. The public, without regard to party affiliations, has shown itself to be resentful of this method of campaigning. Despite the warning by their presidential candidate, such overzealous partisans as Mr. White have sought to aid his cause by resort to weapons which he had placed under the ban, and particularly in this instance because the charges are wholly without foundation.

The New York Herald, one of Mr. Hoover's ardent supporters in the newspaper field, voices not only its disapproval of the attack, but points out its injustice when it says:

"Governor Smith's righteous indignation at the blundering White charges will find an echo in the heart of every fair-minded citizen. How the normal, mild, and generous editor from Kansas came to make such hasty and unfounded accusations has been a mystery to his friends. To link Governor Smith's name with vice was a cruel slander utterly at odds alike with his personal life as with his official career."

THE SEGREGATION ORDER

In the South, where the Negro population is large, the practice of having separate schools and churches for the races is general. It requires no order. Its virtue is approved by both races. In the North, where the Negroes are few in number, no such practice is observed. In Washington City the rule of segregation as to schools and churches is voluntarily observed. In the government departments there have been varied practices. When there were few Negro clerks there was no such rule. When their number multiplied more executive offices, upon their own initiative, divided the clerks of the two races in separate rooms. There was vigorous protest of this by Negro leaders, particularly in the Treasury Department. But the rule was not abrogated in certain departments, though it was not in force in others. During the campaign for the Republican nomination, just before the Ohio primaries, Herbert Hoover revoked

ABOUT TOWN

Tobacco growers have started their annual pilgrimage to Greenville, and by Monday night every available space in the nine great warehouses will be taken, confidently predicted one of the old citizens, who has seen many seasons come and go. "The opening of the tobacco market has been one of the greatest occasions of the year to this city for a number of years, and as the industry continues to grow it becomes even of greater significance. "Thousands of people will begin arriving here Sunday. Tobacco town will be thronged by Tuesday morning when the voices of auctioneers begin singing off the prices for the product. "If you have never seen a tobacco sale on one of the world's greatest markets, take my advice and attend. You will witness a scene you will be long forgetting."

"A meeting will be held in Greenville September 6th for the purpose of discussing forest fire protection," said a member of the district forestry department who was in the city today for a short time arranging for the meeting. "Prominent speakers will discuss the subject from many angles at the Evans street school building. Persons who are not familiar with the work of the State Department of Conservation should attend and inform themselves of what is being done to preserve the giant forests of the State. "Organization work is progressing nicely in Pitt county at this time. Under the capable leadership of S. I. Dudley, who has just been chosen county warden, we expect to accomplish much good within the next several months. "Forest fires destroy an enormous amount of timber in the course of a year. This loss would be far greater than it is were it not for that aggregation of the fire fighters—the wardens—to lend their services to extinguish the flames. Attend this meeting next month and see what is being done in this interest."

"Another Pitt county boy has gone out into the world and made good," proudly remarked a citizen today, referring to L. Ames Brown, who was recently elected to the presidency of Lord & Thomas and Logan, one of the great advertising agencies of New York City. "Greenville people are always glad to hear that one of their former citizens has received some distinction in other communities. "The honor to Mr. Brown is an exceptionally fine one. His career has been crowned with more than average success because of his ability to make his stand out prominently where genuine efficiency is recognized. "Ames Brown is to be congratulated upon the elevation to the head of this old and honored organization. Greenville will continue to watch this son, believing he is destined to rise even to greater heights in the business of the nation's great metropolis."

"If you don't like the kind of town you are living in, why not pack up your little old kit bag and beat it for some other community?" advised one of the leading boosters of Greenville and Pitt county today, referring to the number of people who make it a regular habit of growing about the community in which they live. "No town has strings on its citizens. The only thing it requires of them is to observe the laws and be as respectable as possible. Beyond that they are master of their fate and captain of their soul. They have the moulding of their destiny in their own hands, and nobody is going to deprive them of this liberty. "The world is a mighty big place. Consequently, a dissatisfied, disgruntled human being may search all of his life, if necessary, to find the kind of place he wants to live in. "Greenville has vast and unlimited

KINSTON WINS FROM ABBOTT AND COMPANY

Greenville, Aug. 31—Rusty Walters and his Stemmers, relying principally upon their southpaw, Emmons, captured this afternoon's game from Greenville by a score of 4 to 2.

Kinston secured sufficient number of hits for the count to have been greater in their favor, but poor base running on their part held the Stemmers' margin of victory close.

Mattox and Parks, playing the left garden for their respective crews did some sensational fielding, while Cox and Frisbie for the Stemmers featured with the willow, each securing three out of five at-bats. Dudley, for the home club, led his teammates with two hits out of three tries.

GRID TEAMS BEGIN WORK NEXT WEEK

By the Associated Press. With the first game of the season only three weeks away the college and University football teams of North Carolina start their pre-season workouts Monday in nearly every instance though Guilford, Mars Hill and others will not start until September 4 or later.

All of the big five teams get their work underway Monday with probably 300 men reporting for practice at the five institutions.

The outlook before the practice sessions start seems to indicate that North Carolina State and Duke have the greatest arrays of veteran material returning though North Carolina will have a dozen letter men at Chapel Hill.

Gus Tebell and Slaughter will have 13 letter men back, according to predictions, with Captain Warren leading the crew. Other veteran state griders will be Otten, Jordan, Goodwin, Childress, Leop, Floyd, Metts, Crum, Adams and Morris. In addition the back mentors expect about two score other candidates, maybe more.

When Tar Heel practice starts Monday Bob Fetzer and Collins look for 12 letter men and three score or more other candidates to turn out at Chapel Hill. Gresham, Ward, Lassiter, Foard, Whisnant, Maus, Cox, Gray, Spalding, Jackson, Redfern, Williams, Reese, Edwards and other men with more than one year of experience are expected to provide a nucleus for the Tar Heel machine.

Wake Forest, with Stanley Cofall of Loyola assuming charge, has ten veterans slated to return with an unusually large number of promising Sophs also coming up.

Cofall will have Pat Miller and Fred Emmerson to assist him in molding a 1928 Baptist machine and among his experienced men will be Hackney, Cox and Connelly, varsity backs with Benton, Herd, Lewis, Covington, Gregson, Dupree, Forebee and other Soph players. Veterans of the forward wall will include Phifer, Captain Weir, Levine, Hamrick, and Zimmerman while there are a couple of dozen new varsity linemen.

Duke will build its eleven around Jankoski, Buie and Warren this fall. Coach Dehart will have only 35 men report Monday but these have been picked out of a squad numbering about a hundred that went through a long session of practice last spring. He also expects to have Lake, Hollingsworth, Jones, Kistler, Hatcher, Eanes, Thorn, Brummitt and other veterans back also, as well as group of husky Sophs.

Davison is putting out little dope so far but the general impression is that the Presbyterians do not have such a bright outlook due to numerous losses of veteran players. Davison is the first of the big five to open the season, starting September 22 against Guilford, so some unlooked for strength may be uncovered before the crucial mid-season conference games.

RACE BEGINS TO NARROW IN AMERICAN

Chicago, Sept. 1.—(AP)—With only a month left before the season ends, the races for individual and team honors in the American League are tightening up.

In batting, "Goose" Goslin, Washington outfielder, is only three points ahead of Lou Gehrig of the Yankees; Waite Hoyt of the Yanks is three games in front of Lefty Grove, Philadelphia pitching ace, and the Yankees are only two percentage points ahead of the Athletics in team batting, unofficial averages including Wednesday's games show. In team fielding, Boston is leading by only one point.

Both Goslin and Gehrig slumped during the past week, the averages show, but Lou gained, as he dropped only three points as compared with the "Goose's" six. Most of the other leading hitters gained slightly, including Bab Ruth who hiked his average five points.

The ten leadin batters and their averages: Goslin, Washington, .377; Gehrig, New York, .374; Manush, St. Louis, .357; Simmons, Philadelphia, .356; Lazzeri, New York, .343; Miller, Philadelphia, .341; Fox, Philadelphia, .340; Ruth, New York, .336; J. Sewell, Cleveland and Bishop, Philadelphia, .329 each.

Hoyt added another game to his string during the week and now boasts a record of 17 won and three lost. Grove, however, won two and is second in the pitcher's race with 20 victories and six defeats.

On the basis of actual pitching, Grove has an edge on Hoyt. He has huried 213 innings, allowed 192 hits and 53 walks. Hoyt has pitched 200 innings, allowed 203 hits and 44 walks.

Johnny Mostil of the White Sox still leads in stolen bases with 21 to his credit, but Myer of Boston, is only one behind. In double plays, Cleveland is far in front, adding eight more during the past and raising its total to 159.

Other leaders: Team batting, New York, .300; team fielding, Boston, .774; runs scored, Ruth, New York, 138; doubles, Meusel, New York, and Flagstad, Boston, 38; triples, Combs, New York, 17, and home runs, Ruth, New York, 46.

ATHLETICS HELP DOWN THE YANKS

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) Indisputably the Philadelphia Athletics are cutting into the New York Yankees' American League lead until it has dwindled to next to nothing, but apparently it will take more direct methods to dislodge the St. Louis Cardinals from their position at the head of the National league standing.

Defeating the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 2, yesterday, the A's advanced to within two games of the title world's champions, the closest they have been to the summit this year.

On the other hand, the Pittsburgh Pirates, driven on by the indomitable will of little Donnie Bush, engaged the Cardinals twice at Forbes Field and got no better than an even break for their pains. Although the Corsairs, still hoping for their second pennant in as many years, remained six and a half games distant from the Cardinals, they did advance past the Cincinnati Reds into undisputed possession of fourth place and no further away from the third place New York Giants than three percentage points. The Chicago Cubs, alone of the five contending clubs, registered a positive gain. Their defeat of the Reds put Joe McCarthy's men within four and a half games of the lead.

The Pirates pounded out an early lead off Grover Alexander in the first game of their double bill with the Cards, and then withstood the Red Birds' closing rush to win, 6 to 5. Behind good pitching by Jess Haines, the Red Birds had little trouble taking the nightcap, 6 to 2.

The Reds got a lot of hits off Artie Nehf and Hal Carlson, but could not make them count and the Cubs won, 5 to 3.

COWBOY MIX IS VINDICATED IN ASSAULT CASE

Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Tom Mix, screen cowboy and former Texas ranger, today stood vindicated by the court for using his fists to reply to the "wise cracks" of Will Morrissey, stage comedian about the future of the silent Tom and his horse Tony in the talking movies.

Mix was acquitted of battery charges in his trial in municipal court yesterday after the judge had declared that the Western Star had acted only as "any prudent, red blooded man" would act in the battle that came early one Sunday morning at end of a beach house warming party.

Summing up the evidence in the case, Judge Leonard Wilson concluded that both Morrissey and his wife, Midge Miller, were intoxicated at the time of the after party struggle; that the comedian provoked Mix by a volley of profanity and that Screen actor had a right to defend himself from the verbal and fistic attack.

Mix brought a supporting case of film and business notables to the court room with him. They included Monte Blue, Dorothy Dawn, Mary Aikin, Leo Carrillo, Adelia Rogers Hyland and Finis Fox, all of the films; Irving Hellman, the banker, and others. They testified as to his character.

In response to a question as to his occupation, Mix described himself as a "rancher and film actor". He testified that he had not taken a drink of "hard liquor" in twelve years.

"I never use the stuff at all," said the cowboy. "The only thing I drank at the party was several small glasses of fruit punch."

after having held leadership for several weeks, the Bugs will come back today with determination to retaliate against the Pirates.

The Eastern Carolina loop season closes Monday after which Goldshoro and Wilmington are to battle for the pennant in a championship series scheduled to open Wednesday. All other teams are mathematically out of the running.

The Wilmington run, came through clouting out homers, after taking an early lead.

Rocky Mount won two games at the expense of Fayetteville, the first coming to the tune of 4 to 3 and nightcap 10 to 6. Dispute arose as to whether the last run pushed over by Fayetteville should have counted and knotted the score 4 all. President W. G. Bramham, was called over the telephone for a decision but could not be reached.

Buenos Aires, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The foreign minister says his government will consider the Kellogg-Briand treaty with sympathy and interest such as is always extended by Argentina toward initiatives tending to maintain peace.

Charlotte Romps Away With Macon

By the Associated Press.

Charlotte continued its belated display of form in the South Atlantic league by trouncing Macon yesterday, making five games in a row for Lep Mackey's team.

Home runs by Smith and Hood were largely responsible for the big fifth inning when the Hornets scored all their runs and sewed up the 5 to 3 result.

The Hornets secured eight hits off Wical but were not able to place them to advantage and had ten men stranded on the basepaths. Spike Hunter was wild, so wild that he walked eight Greenville men and the Spinners beat Knoxville, 9 to 5. The Spokie hurler worked three men in the ninth and forced across the winning run.

Spartanburg at Asheville and Augusta at Columbia were rained out.

San Francisco: Eddie Dampter, San Jose, Cal, won from Harry Gairland, Brooklyn, N. Y. (10)

WHAT COULD BE SMARTER

You want a car that's new. A car that's smart—dashing—youthful. A car that combines style leadership, brilliant performance and exceptional value. In short, a car like this new Oldsmobile—the Fine Car of Low Price.

Fine-car styling is apparent in every line of its voguish new bodies by Fisher. Fine-car luxury is evidenced by rich upholstery and appointments. Fine-car comfort is assured by deep-cushioned form-fitting seats and four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers.

And this new Oldsmobile provides performance in keeping with such style and luxury. Its great new 55 horsepower engine gives brilliant high-compression results without using special fuel. You can slip in and out of traffic with almost no effort at all, and park in unbelievably small spaces, for it requires only a touch to steer at any speed.

But you cannot fully appreciate this car until you see it and drive it yourself. Then you'll know why we say "What could be smarter?"

STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Heavy week-end profit taking interrupted the resumption of the strong upward price movement on the New York stock exchange today, but not until after more than a score of issues had been lifted to new high ground. Early gains ranged from 1 to 6 points with trading in enormous volume.

The market started off at a brisk pace set by large-scale pool operators, supplemented by extensive public participation. Toward the end of the first hour waves of selling swept through the market and traders reduced their commitments and took profits over the holidays. This selling had been anticipated in view of the sharp advances in prices earlier in the week and good support was provided for most issues.

Motor stocks again were heavily bought. Hupp and Chrysler were pushed up to new high levels; Studebaker ran up a few points on a large turnover and sale of a block of 24,900 shares of Nash was made at 96 3/4; an extreme gain of 6 points. General Motors, which recorded a spectacular advance yesterday, fell back on realizing.

National cash register continued to respond to reports of expanding earnings by crossing 89 to 94; Barnsdall "A" sold above 28 for the first time this year in anticipation of resumption of dividends in October. Loos-Wiles, in which Arthur W. Cutler and a group of middle western associates have acquired a large interest, continued its move to new high ground above 2. Curtis was in brisk demand on rumors of important developments next week. Montgomery Ward was another strong feature.

There was increased buying of railroad stocks, especially St. Louis Southwestern, Wabash, Missouri Pacific preferred, Erie, Chesapeake & Ohio and St. Paul preferred, which established a new high at 55 1-2.

The closing was firm. Total sales approximately 1,800,000 shares.

Miss Earhart Has Close Call When Her Plane Wrecks

Pittsburgh, Sept. 1.—(AP)—A plane successfully flown from England to South Africa and back by one aviator came close to being a death plane for another woman flyer, who had earned her fame by being the first of her sex to negotiate the treacherous Atlantic.

At Rogers field, near here, last night, Miss Amelia Earhart, Boston social worker, and co-pilot of the trans-Atlantic plane Friendship, cracked up the English plane Avro-504. It was once the property of Lady Heath.

As Miss Earhart was making a landing, a wheel became mired in a rut. The plane swerved, stood on its nose for a moment and appeared to stagger in the wind. Then, as it seemed certain it must turn over, it settled, nose in the ground and its tail 15 feet in the air. Miss Earhart and her passenger, George P. Putnam, New York publisher, were uninjured.

A lower left wing was broken and the landing gear was smashed. Repairs are to be expedited through the sending here of a duplicate Avro plane from which necessary parts will be salvaged.

Undaunted by her experience, Miss Earhart stated she would remain in Pittsburgh until repairs were completed. She said she did not care to continue her journey in any other plane. It was her first crash in 10 years of flying.

Miss Earhart and her passenger flew here from Rye, N. Y., and said she had no particular destination, simply being on a vacation.

Woman Evangelist Forced to Defer Her Missionary Trip

Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Investigation of her alleged fraudulent real estate operations at Lake Tahoe, a northern California summer resort, today caused Mrs. Alma Temple McPherson, "four square gospel" evangelist, to postpone a missionary trip to Europe.

Mrs. McPherson had planned to leave Los Angeles next Monday, but was notified by the county prosecutor's office that she must remain here until the case is disposed of.

A grand jury was ordered yesterday to conduct the inquiry into the alleged sale of land made to members of the evangelist's flock on the promise that a religious colony would be established at the resort. Buyers who filed two civil suits to recover the purchase price, when it appeared the colony would not be established, yesterday demanded of the county prosecutor that he issue a criminal complaint against her. Soon afterward attorneys for the suing purchasers obtained a court order directing her to appear in their office to make a deposition.

Grand jury investigations are not new to Mrs. McPherson. Once before—after she had disappeared in the surf of a nearby beach and popped up in the Mexican desert weeks later—she was called before a county grand jury investigating her story of kidnaping and escape. Conspiracy charges against her were dropped after a lengthy hearing.

Egyptian Swimmer Crosses Channel

Folkestone, Eng., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Ishak Helmi, Egyptian swimmer, succeeded in crossing the English Channel in 23 hours and 5 minutes after he entered the water at Cape Gris Nez, France.

A huge crowd welcomed the Egyptian when he came ashore here, his feat, accomplished after several unsuccessful attempts extending over several seasons, brought the total number of channel swimming to 16.

Helma has been a training champion of several of the successful paddlers, including Gertrude Ederle, first woman to make the crossing.

BELIEVE CONVICT KILLED DEPUTY

Sylvia, N. C., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Belief that Claude Green, Jackson county Deputy Sheriff, was killed by an escaped convict from State prison whom he recognized last night at a balsam box supper and tried to arrest, was expressed by county officers trailing the suspect today.

STRATON TO SPEAK AT RALEIGH MONDAY

Raleigh, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Rev. C. A. Upchurch, North Carolina superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, announced today that the address of Dr. John Roach Straton, New York minister, who recently attacked Gov. Alfred E. Smith from his pulpit, in Raleigh will be delivered at 8 o'clock Monday night in the city auditorium. Dr. Straton will appear under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League. Upchurch said.

LOS ANGELES LEAVES FOR AIRPORT OPENING

Lakehurst, N. J., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The naval dirigible Los Angeles under the command of Lieut. Commander H. V. Wiley, left the field here today for the opening of an airport at Sunbury, Pa., and the state convention of the American Legion at Bridgeton, N. J.

It was estimated the ship would reach Sunbury about 1:40 p. m. The dirigible will circle both Sunbury and Bridgeton twice. Its itinerary also includes Trenton, Allentown, Pa., Reading, Pa., and Wilmington, Del.

The trip of 350 miles will bring the ship back to its hangar about 6:15, it was estimated. Forty-nine officers and men were aboard.

PRESSMEN PROVIDE FOR WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

Pressmen Home, Tenn., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Delegates to the 32nd Biennial convention of the International Printing Pressmen's and Assistants' Union were en route to their homes today, after voting a $1,500,000 campaign for funds for widows and orphans.

After deciding to ask a voluntary assessment of $12 a year for three years of members, the pressmen chose Maj. George L. Berry as their president for another term and decided to hold conventions every four years in the future and meet biennially. The next convention will be held here in August, 1932, president Berry, who is serving his 24th year as chief executive, announced at the close of the sessions yesterday.

Outstanding achievements of the convention were the decision to construct a widows' and orphans' home here in connection with the $1,500,000 campaign, completion of a hydro-electric project here, and renewal of a five-year arbitration and conciliation contract with the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

Twins Tighten Grip On Lead In The Piedmont

(By The Associated Press)

The Winston-Salem Twins tightened their grip on first position in the Piedmont League yesterday by winning over the Greensboro Patriots, 8 to 5. The game was halted in the seventh stanza by rain.

High Point, now in second berth, came out on top of the Colonials 8 to 3 in a merry mixup. Joe Acosta twirled the team to victory while his mates banged out timely hits off Mitchell and took advantage of miscues and wild pitches.

A field all-score was registered when rain halted the Durham-Raleigh affair in the seventh inning. McMahon had just doubled to send in two runs and knot the count for the caps.

COLLEEN MOORE

with Laurence Gray, Alan Hale, Ford Sterling, Claude Gillingwater

From a big Broadway musical hit comes Colleen's most pleasing picture hit—just as saucy and delightful as the dance tunes it made famous—just as thrilling as its story of a sweet little girl who mixed into a bootlegger's business only to find herself in the strangest sea adventure that ever befell maiden.
