LOCAL RIVER REPORTED AT STANDSTILL

Tar River Reached Its Crest at 21.6 Feet at 2 O'clock This Afternoon.

At two o'clock this afternoon Tar river, which has been rising at the rate of a foot every eight hours since the torrential rainfall of last Wednesday, was reported to be at a virtual standstill with indications that the crest had been reached.

The dam constructed sometime ago in connection with the new river bridge, was today holding against the terrific pressure of millions of gallons of water sent seething over the banks of the stream by the terrific downpour last week.

Frank Kugler, of Washington, and other members of the State highway commission, were in the city today looking over the flood situation.

The local weather observer, who has been furnishing reports on the condition of the river since the flood began, stated today that the water would remain at a standstill after reaching its crest.

The total extent of damage to the new dam could not be determined today, but indications are that it would approximate several thousand dollars.

In connection with recent reports relating to the destruction of the old bridge across Tar river, Mr. Kugler stated today that the State Highway Commission has never had any intention of removing the old bridge across Tar river at Greenville until the new one had in every way a dependable approach, and finally the paving of same as soon as we believe it sufficiently settled.

United States Mentioned In Connection With Two Big European Problems

By MELVIN E. COLEMAN

Cable Editor the Associated Press. Persistent mention of the United States in connection with the two big European problems, war payments and disarmament, marked recent news dispatches from abroad.

In the first case the proposed evacuation of the Rhineland by allied troops was linked with reparations payments by Germany and with war debts owed by the various European nations to each other and to this country.

In the other program for future disarmament conferences was made contingent on word from Washington respecting the officially concealed, but generally known Franco-British naval accord.

Germany has been struggling to have its reparations total treated as an individual problem, distinct from evacuation of the Rhineland. She has maintained also that neither should be mixed up with European debts to the United States.

Support for this position, so far as reparations and allied debts are concerned, has come from Great Britain and the French government has let it be known that it recognizes that Washington would not consent to making French debt payments contingent upon amounts which that country receives from across the Rhine.

But the Quai D'Orsay added that in the minds of the French people the two factors were indissolubly blended and that the government itself would like to know what it is to get from Germany before it definitely considers ratification of the temporary agreement under which payments to the United States are now being made.

Lord Cushendun said that Great Britain would not agree to any appeal to the United States for a remission of debts, but neither would he agree to any liquidation of debts due to the British Treasury which would mean she would receive from Continental Europe less than she must pay to the United States.

The "big six," consisting of Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Germany and Japan, is to thrash out the whole thing at future conferences. Admittedly this will take many months.

There was hectic debate at Geneva on the disarmament question. At the end of the week one man, much against his will, was saddled with the responsibility of deciding when and where the next preparatory conference would be held. He was told only that it should be convoked late this year or early 1929, a French formulation. This man is Jonkhoeur Dr. J. Loudon, Ambassador of the Netherlands to France and president of the preparatory disarmament commission of the League of Nations. He stuck manfully to his previous declaration that unless the five chief naval powers—the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan—came to conference would be useless.

About the only fully positive action which the disarmament commission took was to urge all nations to enter into treaties of friendship and non-aggression. These, it was calculated, would reduce temptations to go to war and by that much diminish the need for armaments.

Steps to perpetuate fascist policies were taken at Rome where the general council of the party endorsed Mussolini's program for making that body an integral part of the Italian government. The present Parliament was told its must pass this law before it is dissolved in December.

The new measure will center all government activities in the party

It already has been legally charged with approving candidacies for Parliament. It now will be given authority to approve or disapprove international treaties, changes in the territory of the Kingdom, succession to the throne and succession to the power now wielded by Benito Mussolini.

In Sweden Conservatives gained eight parliamentary seats and Agrarians nine in an election. The losses were charged mostly against the Socialists, but the Social Democrats and other Liberal elements retained the majority bloc.

The "epic of the north," resulting from the Noble disaster, has about closed. Italian searchers for trace of the missing "balloon party" of the dirigible Italia abandoned the effort and the Russian ice-breaker Krassin was ordered back home.

In China the Nationalist government troops, aided by Manchurians, cornered and disarmed the last appreciable remnant of the North China forces. The alliance between Nanking and Mukden in this effort was marked, but it brought no comment from Japan to indicate that the latter was disturbed by this evidence of an ultimate union of Manchuria and Nationalist China.

Many Perish In Theatre Fire In Madrid, Spain

Madrid, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Approximately 120 persons were officially estimated today to have been trapped and perished in the Novedades Theatre when it caught fire during a crowded Sunday evening performance. The injured were estimated at more than 350. Exact figures have not been established because dense smoke coming from the smouldering ruins prevented the authorities from learning how many bodies were yet to be extricated.

Most of the victims were not burned, but were either suffocated or crushed during the stampede for exits.

Bodies were being taken from some sections of the ruins this morning and soldiers with fixed bayonets kept back a large crowd of anguished persons who clamored for news of relatives and friends.

A family in Chambery, a suburb reported 18 members missing but it was believed that they might have passed the night with friends.

The blaze started during a storm scene on the stage. The theatre, which is one of the largest in Madrid, held 4,000 persons, and it was crowded to capacity for a performance of "La Mejor Del Puerto."

Electrical sparks ignited the ropes of part of the scenery and the flames spread rapidly to other parts of the stage setting.

As the curtains in front burst into flames, there was a mad rush for the exits. Men, women and children were trampled in the stampede. The theatre was equipped with modern precautions against fire but it was very old and the wooden framework burned rapidly.

LAWYER INDICTED FOR VOTING TWICE

Raleigh, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The Wake county grand jury today indicted A. B. Breece, local attorney, on a charge of having voted twice in the Democratic primary of June 2. The indictment sets forth that Breece voted in Raleigh and also in Cumberland county.

FLOOD CAUSES FIVE MILLION DOLLAR LOSS

Raleigh, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The sudden flood waters of Eastern North Carolina rivers continued their relentless drive south and east to the sea today, overflowing wide stretches of the flat lowlands of the coastal plain, adding to their already high toll of crop damage, and threatening further interruptions to highway lanes.

Although generally fair weather prevailed over the headwaters of the streams, heavy rains were reported in the flood areas of Columbus county, North Carolina, and across the state line in Horry county, South Carolina, three miles of Atlantic Coast Line tracks were said to be under water between Nichols and Mullins, and the Lumber river was due to reach a crest at that point early this week. At high water, it was predicted, only one highway out of the city will be open, but arrangements have been made for ferry service to connect with roads leading to lower Carolina points, and highway department officials have taken precautions against the damaging of bridges.

Negroes, driven out of their homes in the low-lying sections along the Lumber, the Cape Fear, the Tar, the Neuse and the Roanoke, during the floods bequeathed to North Carolina in the passing of the West Indian hurricane last week, are counted in the hundreds, but so far there has been no loss of life attributable to drowning.

Damage to crops has not been estimated by an authoritative source but unofficial figures run all the way up to $5,000,000. The state highway department has been heavily hit, with many roads throughout the eastern half of the state subjected to interruption, principally by water rising over the roadbeds and not by washouts.

At Goldsboro, the state hospital for pegrro insane was reported marooned, no communication being possible by boat.

Boy Dies From Injury Received In Grid Game

Dunn, N. C., Sept. 24.—(AP)—After fighting for his life for more than 40 hours, Hugh Lee, 16, star player on the Dunn High School football team, died at a Fayetteville hospital yesterday from injuries suffered in a game last Friday.

A broken vertebra caused paralysis of his body below the shoulders and physicians held little hope for his recovery from the first. Lee, while in the hospital, seemed little perturbed over his condition and talked freely. He suffered little pain.

He received the injury while in play with the Mount Olive school team.

He was the son of Dr. and Mrs. S. P. J. Lee and president-elect of his class.

Funeral services will be held today with members of his class and the school team acting as pall-bearers.

DEATH TOLL ON INCREASE IN FLORIDA

Actual Number Of Dead Today Placed At 1,500; New Stories of Tragedy.

Miami, Fla., Sept. 24.—(AP)—The Daily News West Palm Beach correspondent today said that Howard W. Selby, chairman of the Palm Beach County Red Cross, had announced that a total of 2,200 dead has been revealed by surveys of hurricane casualties.

Reports from other officials agreed that the loss of life will be found to exceed 2,000 it was said, although the exact number never will be known.

Dr. E. D. Clawson, city health officer in charge of medical relief work, was quoted by the correspondent as saying he had burial records of more than 1,300 persons and did not doubt that the total loss of life was between 2,000 and 2,500. The Red Cross intelligence department said 800 bodies have been brought to West Palm Beach, 500 disposed of in the Lake Okechobee district, and 700 are un-found or awaiting burial.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Rehabilitation needs crowded the picture of emergency relief today in the hurricane stricken areas of Florida.

While caring for the immediate needs of the thousands of homeless, officials looked forward to measures for re-establishing the refugees and furnishing them a new start until they can pick up their own burdens.

Count of the dead went on, but relief workers said there was no assurance the actual death toll ever would be known. Unable to get bodies outside of the flooded area for burial, they are cremating many of them. Official estimates variously placed the death list at 1,200 to 1,500. Additional bodies constantly are being found.

Howard W. Selby, chairman of the Palm Beach County Red Cross committee, said his chapter was ready to request formally that the national Red Cross take over all relief work. He said his workers would continue through this week, but that the actual emergency period probably would end by the middle of the week.

With 28 workers already in the field, A. L. Schafer, director of disaster relief for Florida, said he expected to have 40 others who are now en route, he said.

New stories of tragedy came daily from the devastated area. The Red Cross announced receipt of reports that 400 bodies of the inhabitants of Pelican Bay, a sugar cane village, between Pahokee and Belle Glade, have been located a week after the hurricane tore the settlement. This discovery, said Schafer, fixed the Red Cross' official death list at 1,200 persons.

Florida cities were speeding additional supplies and personnel while in the midst of vigorous campaigns to raise funds for the sufferers. Boats and trucks offered the most feasible means of transporting relief to the tier of razed towns along the shores of the Lake Okechobee. Crews were engaged in clearing highways that have not gone under water and were reporting discovery of many bodies while at the work.

The problem of rehabilitating farms worried relief forces. Estimates made by Fred H. Harris of Miami, for the Federal Government, said that the farm loss had been approximately $2,500,000 in Broward and Palm Beach counties, and that a minimum of $300,000 was required to assure that there will be a winter crop.

Definite reports that all the Seminole Indians were safe were received from E. L. Lasher, owner of an Indian village at Miami, who said that one party of hunters nearly met disaster but managed to save themselves. The Indians are said to move out of danger when the saw grass blooms and are believed to have followed this health precautions being taken to prevent any outbreak of disease. State health officials said there was no influenza epidemic among the refugees at Clewiston as reported by relief workers there Friday.

The military continued its vigil in aiding local law and order forces in the area, while coast guardsmen and units of the American Legion were furnishing personnel for recovering bodies and rushing supplies.

FLU CAUSES CONCERN IN PORTO RICO

15,000 Cases Reported Today With Epidemic of Malaria and Measles Also Raging.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 24.—(AP)—With 15,000 cases reported by health authorities and the Red Cross, an epidemic of influenza caused grave concern in Porto Rico today. Five thousand cases of malaria, measles and other diseases have also followed the tropical hurricane.

Physicians said they were frankly alarmed at the situation. Red Cross officials announced that no town was without an increasing number of influenza cases and that pneumonia was gaining.

It was possible if the influenza cases continued to develop into pneumonia that there would be an outside call for nurses. The Red Cross was ready to assist the health commissioner if he decided he needed additional forces.

Hospital units arriving from New York will be broken into small groups and scattered where the danger is greatest because travel conditions make the concentration of the sick difficult.

Health conditions were aggravated yesterday by numerous rainstorms, with only temporary shelter, it appeared that many people faced added misery. Plans were rushed to unload the transport bridge, which is bringing 20,000 blankets and 2,000 beds. A train was loaded with lumber and ready to proceed inland, opening up the railroad for the first time since the disaster.

At a meeting of representatives of 76 of the island's 77 towns, 284,000 homeless were reported from 38 of the towns. The towns reporting gave 210 dead and 2,771 injured.

Two Killed In Auto Accident

Gastonia, N. C., Sept. 24.—(AP)—The bodies of Luther Pressley and Allen Gantt, of Liberty, S. C. victims of an automobile accident near here yesterday, were sent to relatives last night.

Jack Scaunders and Luther Morgan, of Clover, S. C., were being held this morning in the Gaston county jail without bond pending investigation of the accident. Scaunders was said by coroner W. A. Bentley to have been driver of the car which was occupied by the two killed, together with Morgan.

All of the men were between 20 and 25 years of age.

Mrs. Louise Northcott who was arrested in Canada with her son, Gordon Stuart Northcott, who is accused of the slaying of four boys in his Riverside, Cal., farm.

PRICES STILL MOUNTING ON LEAF MARKET

Price Situation Today Described As The Strongest Of The Season.

The price situation again took an upward turn on the Greenville tobacco market today. With much good tobacco in evidence prices were described as the strongest of the season with indications that the market would eclipse all other records of the season from the standpoint of average of the entire day's sale.

It was stated there was some over a million pounds of bright leaf on the various warehouse floors. With flood conditions improving and the roads becoming passable again in many surrounding communities, it is expected the week will see the heaviest sales of the season. Farmers have listened to the admonition of tobaccoists to be careful in the handling of their crops and good results are expected to be obtained.

The highest price average of the season was established on the market Friday, but it is believed today's sales will shatter it completely and at the same time set a new record for the season. Volume records have been exceeded at least two times this year, and it would not be at all surprising if something new in the line did not result from this week's sales.

Coolidge Returns

Washington, Sept. 23.—(AP)—President Coolidge acaerived in Washington early today after a tour through his native state of Vermont, in the course of which he inspected the reconstruction work that has followed the floods of last year.

Mr. Wooten added: "These enterprises are not antagonistic to one another, yet there is competition among them. And, realizing this, the farmers plan to stand as a group, thinking and working to an end that will preserve the agricultural interests. They realize that it is unwise for their industry to be guided by advice emanating from competitive sources, that necessarily advise from a competitive source is naturally, in some degree, influenced by the environment of the source.

"Following this plan the purpose is to have a committee representing the agricultural interests confer with a committee representing the banking interests for the purpose of making plans to finance agriculture in 1929. In such conference there will be no dependency of the one interest on the other, but planning for the best interests of each, each taking care of its interest.

"In the past a marketing scheme for the benefit of agriculture was launched but this seems to have been defective, especially from the viewpoint of operating on the product; the present plan is to regulate production. There will be based on past experience, incomplete harmony among those who are planning, but this lack of harmony will by results be taken care of. The farmer who sees fit to stake all his earnings on those crops with which he cannot deal independently will realize that he is enslaving himself. Those who farm primarily to make a living will be independent, in that they can live on their products.

"In this connection, to get away from the two-crop idea, a creamery is under consideration. The production of livestock has greatly increased. These two industries are especially adapted to Eastern North Carolina in that a temperate climate and rich grass-producing soil are present for livestock.

"And it is upon the foregoing definite plans that the farmers of Pitt county are now thinking with a conference of farmers to be held in Greenville at the Rotary Club within the present week."

PROBLEMS OF FARMERS ARE TALKED HERE

Readjustment Of Farming In Pitt County Discussed At Meeting Saturday.

Readjustment of farming in Pitt county received pronounced impetus here Saturday night when thirty or forty farmers from all parts of the county met with members of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture at the Rotary club to discuss the problems confronting agriculture at this time. Although no definite action was taken as to methods of procedure in bringing about the desired change, it was decided to call a meeting of approximately two hundred farmers during the early part of October to more fully impress upon the growers the necessity of a self-sustaining program for this great agricultural district.

The session Saturday evening was presided over by J. E. Winslow, chairman of the Board of Agriculture. He gave an illuminating talk dealing with problems of the grower and stressed the need of concerted effort to improve conditions at the present.

The principal address of the meeting was delivered by Judge F. M. Wooten, lawyer, banker and business man of Greenville, who for many years, has taken an active interest in the development of county farm life.

Judge Wooten showed how important it is for the farmer to get away from the two-crop idea of farming. He said the raising of live stock, poultry, etc., had gained considerably in recent years, and urged a continuance of this as a means of providing a source of more revenue.

Numbers of prominent growers took part in a round-table discussion and evinced much interest in the plan of bringing about more favorable conditions in this community.

Judge Wooten had the following to say in regard to the readjustment movement:

"Tobacco in Eastern North Carolina is averaging about 15 cents per pound and cotton about 17 cents per pound. These two commodities are below the cost of production and are the principal sources of income of the farmers. Taxes are high and especially burden the agricultural people. Realizing these aspects, a group of farmers in Pitt county are planning to offset the gloomy prospect now approaching. Their idea is to meet as farmers, realizing that they are farmers and that their business is one of five large industries in their section—the others are mercantile interests, banking, fertilizer business and transportation," said F. M. Wooten, of Greenville, who was in Raleigh yesterday.

Mr. Wooten added: "These enterprises are not antagonistic to one another, yet there is competition among them. And, realizing this, the farmers plan to stand as a group, thinking and working to an end that will preserve the agricultural interests. They realize that it is unwise for their industry to be guided by advice emanating from competitive sources, that necessarily advise from a competitive source is naturally, in some degree, influenced by the environment of the source.

"Following this plan the purpose is to have a committee representing the agricultural interests confer with a committee representing the banking interests for the purpose of making plans to finance agriculture in 1929. In such conference there will be no dependency of the one interest on the other, but planning for the best interests of each, each taking care of its interest.

Woman Hacked To Her Death With Hatchet

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Her back hacked and battered with a hatchet, Mrs. Katherine Clark, 36, of Boston, Mass., was found dead at Poothills, 15 miles from Spokane late yesterday.

The woman had been dragged some distance to a spring, blood stains disclosed. A hatchet was found near the body.

County Prosecutor Greenough said he had learned that Mrs. Clark, who was divorced in 1925 at Watertown, Mass., arrived in Spokane last Friday in response to correspondence concerning marriage.

She went to stay at the residence of Archie F. Mook, a mill worker, who is held for questioning. Mook was said to have driven the woman in the direction of Couer D'Alene, Idaho, Saturday to meet her intended husband, the prosecutor said.

Greenough expressed the opinion that robbery was the motive for the killing.

SMITH PARTS WITH HIS BROWN DERBY

Billings, Mont., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Governor Smith parted with his first campaign brown derby here today. He threw the famous hat to Mrs. George Rathburne of this city, after she had been prevented by the crowd from shaking his hand.

SMITH GOES TO MONTANA FOR ADDRESS

Democratic Nominee Scheduled To Open Political Campaign In State Today.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Governor Smith's train enroute to Helena, Mont., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Well satisfied with his first "week's work" as a presidential campaigner Governor Smith came into Montana today to take another shot at his Republican opposition—on the subject of party responsibility. The oil scandals will be an allied target.

Leaving behind speeches on farm relief, intolerance and whispering and water power, in Nebraska, Oklahoma and Colorado, the Democratic presidential nominee, after a day and night ride through northern Colorado and Wyoming, was headed across the wide open spaces for the heart of Montana, where tonight at Helena he will open his second week's stumping tour of the middle and far west. He was due in the capitol at 4:40 p. m. Mountain time.

His speech, to be delivered in the Shrine temple, was completed last night after his special train left Casper, Wyoming. A big crowd is expected to turn out for the address, as thousands are in Helena attending the state fair and many of these are looked upon to swell the audience. Governor Smith will visit the fair immediately after his arrival.

On the platform in Helena tonight will be Senator Thomas J. Walsh, prosecutor of the oil investigations in Washington, who will introduce the nominee, and Senator Burton K. Wheeler, who was a driving force in the inquiry into the administration of Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty.

Members of the Smith party had made no secret of the fact that they believed the governor's speech tonight would be one of the strongest and most sharply worded of his campaign. The nominee himself had stated that he would speak plainly and frankly on the subject of Teapot Dome and again would lock horns with Herbert Hoover on the subject of party obligations.

After reading newspaper accounts of the Republican presidential candidate's remarks Saturday in Washington to a visiting delegation of

REFUGEES SALVAGE POSSESSIONS

Refugees wading through mud and water carrying possessions which they salvaged after their homes were destroyed by hurricane and flood at Oklawaha City in area of great Florida lake.

Republicans from Maryland, Gov. Smith told newspapermen at a press conference on the train yesterday afternoon that at Helena he would "vigorously challenge the statement that the Republican party has always been a constructive, progressive party."

"Will you talk on corruption?" he was asked.

"I don't like that word, but 'Party Responsibility' makes it necessary," the governor replied.

Montana will be the farthest west Governor Smith will travel during the campaign. His managers are making a determined effort to win the state, which has a Democratic governor, two Democratic senators, and one Democrat among its two representatives in Congress. J. Bruce Kremer, Democratic national committeeman, who is accompanying Gov. Smith throughout his first two weeks' campaign drive and is one of his advisors, has told the nominee that Montana is in the bag for him.

CHARLOTTE WANTS ALFRED E. SMITH

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Continuing their efforts to make it possible for Governor Alfred E. Smith to speak in Charlotte, the Mecklenburg Democratic Executive Committee members today were considering the possibility of converting the old wizard automobile building, into an improvised auditorium with a seating capacity of 10,000.

Another auditorium considered was the second floor of the old exposition building with a possible seating capacity of about 6,000.

Leaders here expected a decision to come within a day or two from State Chairman O. M. Mull and Cameron Morrison, national committeeman, as to which North Carolina city would be selected for the Smith speech—Charlotte, Raleigh or Greensboro.

PLEADS GUILTY ON EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 24.—(AP)—W. L. Propst, former head teller of the Atlantic Bank and Trust company here, entered a plea of guilty on the first count in a bill of indictment charging him with embezzlement of the bank's funds when arraigned today in Superior court here.

Propst, it is alleged, lost more than $30,000 of the bank's funds in speculations through a brokerage house under the name "Hill". Judge Thomas J. Shaw deferred passing sentence.

It is believed sentence will be passed late today.

Propst, formerly of Lexington, is a young married man. He has no children.

WANT ADS PAY

CONFESSES TO MURDER OF YOUTH

Japanese Tells Honolulu Police Of Killing Jil Jamieson Through Revenge.

Honolulu, Sept. 24.—(AP)—A studious young Japanese, Miles Yutaka Fukunaga, who has confessed the kidnaping and murder of 10-year-old Jil Jamieson and avowed was under heavy guard in his jail cell here today as he awaited the legal proceedings by which he expects to be put to death.

Fukunaga, who is 19 years old, and who graduated from high school here at the head of his class, confessed Saturday night after officers had traced him by means of identified five-dollar bills paid to the kidnaper by Frederick W. Jamieson, banker father of the slain boy.

Although feeling ran high among the populace when it was learned that the slayer had been apprehended, possibility of vigilante action seemingly waned today.

Crowds gathered around the Oahu jail yesterday after details of Fukunaga's confession had been published and firemen were called upon to play streams of cold water on them when the pleas of peace officers failed to bring dispersal. The water was effective.

National guardsmen and additional deputy sheriffs patrolled the street's last night but there were no indications of disorder.

Fukunaga seemed unconcerned about the murmurings of the crowd but admitted that for the first time in his life he feared the prospect of death. He insisted, however, that he wanted to die because "my crime was awful. I don't want to live because I would hear screams of the child the rest of my life."

Fukunaga said he would plead guilty to a murder charge. A grand jury was ordered to meet today to consider the case and it was expected that an indictment would be forthcoming at once.

The young kidnaper revealed that he had studied the crimes of Leopold and Loeb, Chicago "thrill slayers", and if William Edward Hickman, killer of Marian Parker of Los Angeles. The Jamieson kidnaping and slaying resembled the Los Angeles case in many respects.

Young Fukunaga has taken the developments in the traditional oriental manner. Although he said he disliked the publicity, the young slayer has conversed with police and interviewers freely.

In an interview Fukunaga gave the reason for his crime by saying he wanted money to give his parents so they could return to Japan.

PERMANENT PASTURES BEING PROVIDED

The basis of a profitable live stock production in the South, as well as other sections, is an abundance of cheap and nutritious grazing. Time, labor, seed and fertilizer properly applied to pasture improvement will give higher returns than any other improvement applied to livestock.

The Coastal Plain section of the South has a long growing season and an abundant rainfall for the growing of grasses; however, our native grasses are those of the "lump" type (opposite of turf grasses) and furnish grazing for only a few months in the early spring and then become so tough that practically no gains in weight can be had. Our farmers, who have attempted pasture building, have in many cases thought they must duplicate methods to the north of us, but experiments conducted in recent years reveal that we must look still further south for our best pasture grasses—those of the sun-loving type and that form a close turf that will stand heavy grazing.

Babies Still Being Entered In Fair Show

With success of their efforts assured, the directors of Pitt County's first Grand Prize Baby Show are more than pleased with the responses to the nominations that have been sent out over the entire county. The last day to enter the babies in the Grand Prize Baby Show will be on September the 29th, ready there has been over one hundred entries.

The physical examinations will begin Tuesday afternoon when at that time the Pitt County Health department doctors, under the supervision of Dr. Futrell, assisted by County Health Department staff of trained nurses, will begin a strenuous task of trying to find the county's most perfect baby.

The Cullins Cleaners and Dyers have donated the loving cup for the grand prize baby and the prizes will be on display in the window of Cullins store beginning on the 29th of this month.

It is also keeping the official photographer, Mr. Baker, very busy taking photographs of the little ones, for each baby has its photo taken free of charge. With the 29th far away it is the request of the committee that the parents that have not entered their little ones in this beautiful event to do so as early as possible for the babies receive wonderful physical examination under the supervision and regulation of the American Medical Association's health department.

That alone is worth your trouble entering your little one. Baby show headquarters where you enter the babies in this event are located at 320 Evans street, in the chamber's Association offices. Office hours are from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Judge Ricaud To Be Buried Today

Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Funeral services for Judge Addison G. Ricaud, former mayor of Wilmington, who died at his home yesterday, will be held at 3:30 p. m. today at the Grace Methodist church.

Mr. Ricaud, a son of the late Rev. Thomas Page Ricaud, was born in Washington, N. C. He came to Wilmington when 18 years of age and practiced law with the late Governor Russell for a number of years.

MORE FUNDS REQUIRED IN FLOOD AREAS

Red Cross Increases Greenville Quota From $500 to $750 In Appeal Today

With conditions growing more serious in the flood devastated regions of Florida and Porto Rico, Mrs. J. L. Hassell, chairman of the Pitt county chapter of American Red Cross, today received an appeal for more funds from the national headquarters of the Red Cross organization.

The total amount asked of Pitt county at first was $500, but the telegram received today calls for an additional $250.00, or a total sum of $750.00 for the entire county.

Mrs. Hassell stated this morning that the total amount contributed today was $402.64. The solicitation of funds was to have been brought to a conclusion Saturday, but the urgent appeal received today has spurred the local chapter to a renewal of activities.

Mrs. Hassell said it had been impossible to reach everybody of the city, therefore, it was urged that anybody desiring to contribute, send in their donations to the local chairman or the Daily Reflector.

The telegram today said that conditions in the flood territories far exceeded first estimates, and that the former amount asked for by the Red Cross was insufficient to cope with the situation. Four hundred thousand destitute people in Porto Rico alone must be cared for by the relief committees, and with disease increasing by leaps and bounds, the task had become extremely difficult even with ample funds on hand.

Florida's death toll has increased to over a thousand. Fifteen thousand families are homeless and requiring rehabilitation. Five million dollars is the absolute minimum required at this time.

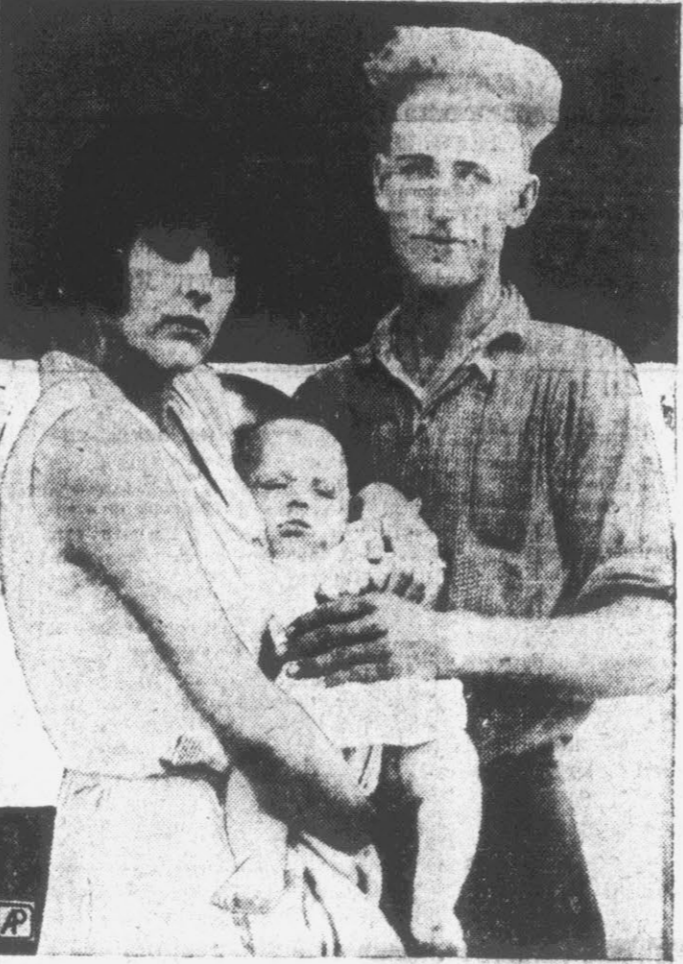

The telegram received by Mrs. Hassell follows:

"First surveys of both Porto Rico and Florida disaster, received at midnight by cable from Baker and telephone from Schaefer indicate the needs of both places far exceed preliminary estimates. In Porto Rico four hundred thousand are destitute and near to starvation with grave health problems and threatened epidemics. Refugees must be fed, clothed and sheltered by Red Cross for long emergency period. In Florida fifteen thousand families are requiring immediate emergency aid and later rehabilitation. Five million dollars will be absolute minimum required as relief fund. This places your chapter quota at $750. Confident when people of your community realize the grave need that response will be immediate and generous. Urge you to bend every effort to exceed this quota if possible."

Additional contributions:

Dr. A. B. Pace, $2.00; Mrs. R. H. Wright, $1.00; Miss Annie Lawrence, $1.00; Miss Mattie Lawrence, $1.00.

COUPLE SAVE SON FROM DEATH

Alternately supporting their three months old baby above water for 15 hours, Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Jones, of Military Park, Fla., imprisoned beneath the wreckage of their home by the hurricane, were finally found and removed to safety. None of the family was injured, although all suffered from exposure.

Mrs. L. B. McCormick, 50c; Miss Clara Small, 75c; Miss Maud Bryan $3.00; Miss Elizabeth Quinerly $1.00; Miss Addie Johnson, $2.00; Mrs. Lee Moore, $1.00; Mrs. W. P. Moore $1.00; Mrs. J. B. BOY KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 24.—(AP)—William Johnson, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Johnson, of Ridgeway, Va., was killed outright and Ernest Compton, seven-year-old son of Cole Compton, also of Ridgeway, and a Mr. and Mrs. Walsh and a Mr. Myers, all said to be presidents of the State of New Jersey, were injured, the Compton boy thought to be seriously, in an automobile collision which occurred yesterday afternoon about two miles north of Ridgeway, according to information received here.

It was said that the two automobiles which crashed were headed south on the Winston-Salem-Roanoke highway.

necessary insight into his attitudes. The mother can help her turn her observations to account by her more intimate knowledge of her child's feelings.

The mother should, therefore, take particular pains to know her child's teacher. She must take the initiative in establishing an honest and friendly understanding. She will find it worth while to spend some time at school and see the teacher on her job. Teachers, like other people, like to feel that their work is interesting to others and that their efforts are appreciated.

If the teacher occasionally spends an evening at her pupil's home it will help the friendly relationship still further. The child, himself, will be pleased to have his teacher treated as a friend of the family. And teachers are human these days and often play a good game of bridge.

A good understanding between parent and teacher will certainly bring about wiser treatment of the child both at home and at school. Working together they stand the best chance of forming the child's habits and directing his responses in such ways that he will be a poised and happy individual.

Europe Wins Tennis Title
New York, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Once more Europe has taken away the palm from America on the tennis courts. In three straight matches, Karel Kozeluh, of Czechoslovakia, defeated Vincent Richards, American champion, in their series for the world's title, kinning the final match yesterday by scores of 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3. The first two matches were played in Europe.

Attention! Cotton Planters Let Us Gin Your Cotton

We have had our gin machinery thoroughly overhauled and NEW SAWS installed in both systems by the Lummus Cotton Gin Company, Columbus, Ga.

Our equipment is in first-class condition and our entire organization will endeavor to give you the best service possible.

WARNING—

Farmers lose thousands of dollars every year by having their cotton ginned straight from the fields as soon as it has been picked, often wet with dew or picked immediately after a rain.

We are ready to start ginning, but we advise everybody to have their cotton picked and bulked down in the house until it takes a heat and dries out. By so doing you will get a better lint yield, a better grade and staple and avoid getting gin cut cotton. No machinery will gin wet cotton without cutting it.

Thanking you for all past favors, and assuring you that we will appreciate your continued patronage, we are

Yours very truly,

Greenville Oil & Fertilizer Co.

WHAT WILL SENATOR
BORAH SAY NOW?

With the reports that Senator Borah will visit North Carolina in behalf of Mr. Hoover's candidacy for the presidency, we are wondering what means the Senator will use to convince his hearers that the Herbert Hoover of 1928 is any better to be trusted with the presidency than was the Herbert Hoover of 1919 to be trusted with the $100,000,000 flood relief fund.

From a speech by Senator
Borah, in the United States Senate January 18, 1919, taken from Page 1664 of the Congressional Record, opposing the appropriation of $100,000,000 to be turned over to Herbert Hoover for European relief.

"Whatever may be the great ability of Mr. Hoover, there is one individual whom he does not know exists in this country, and that is the taxpayer. He seems to think that money comes like manna to the children of Israel from Heaven and not from the sweat and toil and sacrifice of the people. He has no conception of the existence of the taxpayer, and his distribution of funds is utterly regardless of his existence."

EIGHT BARREN YEARS

Republican misrepresentation of the farm issue proceeds apace. Secretary of Agriculture Jardine, in a statement issued at Washington, talks about all the horrible things that would happen to the farmer if the tariff were to be reduced.

He neglects to mention the fact that on the farmer's major cash crops, such as wheat, hogs, corn and tobacco, the tariff is not working for the farmer, and on cotton there is no tariff at all. He neglects to mention that the Republican party has failed utterly so much as to recognize this glaring injustice, let alone proposing to correct it, and what is still more important, he forgets to say that it is one of the cardinal points of the Democratic platform and of Governor Smith's policy to give the farmer the full benefit of the tariff to which he is entitled. The American farmer will not be fooled by Secretary Jardine's attempts to blind them.

After eight years of Republican opposition and hostility in the White House, it is too late now for Republican publicity agents to try to change the record.

CLEAN GOVERNMENT

Governor Smith is a towering giant on the side of clean government, and naturally invites opposition from grafting politicians. Smith stands four-square for the things that he believes in, and has never been classed as a pussfoot. His acceptance is a challenge to the country to get behind him and to relegate to private life politicians who have been bounty seekers a goodly portion of their lives.—

ABOUT TOWN

"We need several horses and an old time coach for the pageant
George Washington's visit to Pitt County," to be given at the Pitt County Fair," Mrs. R. L. Smith, chairman of the pageant committee, said today.

"Preparations for the pageant are proceeding rapidly now and we hope to have the hundred persons to take part fully prepared to play their roles to perfection by the date it is to take place.

"This is the first time the visit of the first great American citizen has ever before been attempted by local people, and hundreds of persons are expected to be in attendance. No extra charge will be made, the regular admission to fair grounds giving everybody the privilege of seeing it.

"If you have any horses or a coach you would like to take part in the pageant, please notify members of the committee at once."

"The baby show will be one of the outstanding attractions of the fair this year," said Haywood Dail, secretary and goodness only knows what not, of the Pitt County Fair.

"We expect to have several hundred babies entered in the exhibit.
They will be awarded prizes from the standpoint of health and beauty. Nominations have been coming in rapidly the last few days and by the date of the fair we expect to see the pride of every family entered as full-fledged contestants.

"If you think your baby is the best looking in the neighborhood, bring him along and let the country pass on it. There are no limitations, and the prizes are sufficiently inducing to cause mothers to desire to compete for them."

"The coming of three women to Pitt county to speak in behalf of the Democratic campaign should be greeted with interest all over the county," said a well known woman today.

Miss Mary Henderson and Mrs.
Palmer Jermon, who are scheduled to speak here Friday evening, September 28th, are well known in the social and political life of the state, and well informed concerning state and national issues.

Miss Nell Battle Lewis, of Ralph, is scheduled to speak at Farmville Thursday night. As a newspaper writer Miss Lewis has gained considerable recognition over the state and no doubt will draw large crowds to Farmville.

Pitt county women ought to turn out and hear what these women have to say on political questions of the day, and in that way become more intimately in touch with one of the most vigorous campaigns waged in this country in many a day.

"Don't forget the date of the speaking, and be on hand."

"It has been a long time since you have had anything to say about raising of poultry and hogs," said a member of the department of agriculture today.

"I wish you would impress upon the farmer the importance of raising hogs and chickens that he may increase his revenue.

"Ten carloads of hogs were shipped out of Greenville this year, bringing growers several thousands of dollars they wouldn't have had if they hadn't given this extra money crop proper attention.
"Nobody is adverse to receiving more money, even if they have to put out a little extra labor for it, and next year ought to see more Pitt county growers experimenting."

"Do your fall and winter shopping in Greenville where you have a large assortment of goods to choose from," advise members of the Greenville Merchants Association, who are doing everything possible at this time to make this the greatest shopping center in Eastern Carolina.

"Thousands of dollars worth of values have been placed on the counters of Greenville merchants this season and the man and woman that shops early may rest assured of receiving the pick of the stocks.
"It will pay you to make a trip to Greenville if you can't find what you want in your home town. Your savings in increased values will pay your gasoline bill for a trip of many miles."

"Don't forget that General Lawrence Tyson will speak in the court house in this city tonight at eight o'clock," reminded a member of the local Democratic club today.

"General Tyson is one of the best speakers that will appear here in this campaign. The fact that he is a native Pitt countyan should be be instrumental in drawing hundreds of people from all sections of the county. While he has spoken ere before, this will detract little from the desire of the people to hear him again. His subject is entirely different today from what it was the last time here, and it is the duty of every member of the Democratic party to turn out and hear him.

RACE GROWS TIGHTER IN BIG LEAGUES

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer)

With the wire and pennant victory in full view, baseball's thoroughbred, responding gamely to whip and spur, gallop down the major league home stretch in a driving finish so hot and furious that even at this late stage the naked eye cannot, with certainty, discern the ultimate winners.

Of the field of 16 that started so confidently in the spring, only four real contenders, two in each league remain. The rest are also-rans, more or less content to finish this race without undue effort and wait for the next to roll around.

With only a week to go, the pennant struggle in each league has developed into a duel rather than a general, free-for-all engagement.

In the National, the fight lies between the St. Louis Cardinals and John McGraw's Giants with the Chicago Cubs still mathematical contenders. Only a game separates Bill McKechnie's club, in first place, from the runner-up Giants, while the Cubs trail New York by 3 1/2 games.

Two games ahead of the Philadelphia Athletics, their sole rivals, Miller Huggins' New York Yankees are odds-on-favorites to win their third American League pennant in a row. Overwhelming choices have lost before, however.

Although all of these contenders were in action yesterday there was no change in their relative positions.

The Giants had the closest escape. They had to go 14 innings before they could nose out the Cincinnati Reds 2 to 1, in one of the finest games of the season at the Polo grounds. Joe Genewich, who came to the Giants from Boston with the reputation of being an in-and-outer, was very much "in" yesterday. He held the Reds to five hits during the entire game and strangely enough, was lucky to win. The Reds entered the first half of the ninth with the score tied at one-all. Wally Pipp led off with a triple and it appeared that nothing could prevent the big first baseman from scoring. But Jimmy Welsh came to Genewich's rescue, his triple throw catching Pipp at the plate when he tried to score on Allen's fly to centerfield. The game was finally won on Jackson's line single in the 14th, scoring Lindstrom who had singled.

The Cardinals met this Giant victory with one of their own over Brooklyn, 7 to 1.

The Yanks and Athletics kept step in the American League, the champions defeating Cleveland 5 to 0, while the A's were defeating Dan Howley's St. Louis Browns, 11 to 7. Lena Blackburne's Chicago White Sox moved up into a tie for fourth place with Washington by turning back the Senators in the first game of the series, 8 to 3.

At Detroit, Phil Page, Eastern League recruit, won his second major league victory in as many starts when the Tigers beat Boston 4 to 1.

ARMOUR STILL TO BE RECKONED WITH

Shinnecock Hills, N. Y., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Although stripped of the national open crown, Tommy Armour, the Washington Pro, still remains to be reckoned with when and wherever golf is played. Tommy beat a great field to capture the metropolitan open championship in July. Yesterday he beat the cream of the country's professionals in a special invitation tournament at the national golf links here, recording a 72-hole score of 302.

Trailing him by a single stroke was Joe Kirkwood, the Albany, Ga., trick shot performer. Bobby Cruikshank, the wee Scot from the Progress club, and Bill Burke, of Fort Chester, tied at 304 for third place.

Back of the leaders were such notables as Walter Hagen, Johnny Farrell, Gene Sarazen, Bill Mehlhorn, Harry Cooper, of Buffalo, Jock Hutchison, Willie McFarlane and McDonald Smith.

Jack Kirkpatrick, who will lead this year's Lehigh university football team.

THREE MAJOR GRID GAMES IN CAROLINAS

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Football in the Carolinas got underway for 1928 with three games in the two States in which major teams took part. In North Carolina Davidson opened against Guilford and in the Palmetto State South Carolina faced Eskine, while Clemson met Newberry.

The three games resulted in verdicts in favor of Clemson, South Carolina and Davidson by about the margin expected, but none of the six teams playing showed anything more than the usual first game style of play.

This week the old lid will fly completely off the football season for both States, as nearly all of the major teams play games. The Citadel in South Carolina will wait another week before starting but the other teams fly into their seasons in full force.

In North Carolina interest will center in the North Carolina-Wake Forest game at Chapel Hill Saturday. In South Carolina—two games—Presbyterian and Mercer at Clinton Friday and Furman and Duke at Greenville Saturday—will hold the principal interest for fans.

North Carolina State and Elon will battle at Raleigh Friday, so that there will be no conflict in the largest State Saturday when the first of the big five battles is staged.

Carolina and Wake Forest should have a merry little bout to open their seasons and the result will be watched with interest as an indication of the strength of the two seven.

The University of South Carolina has a reputation for intercollegiate honors in recent years Saturday when Chicago is played in Chicago. Billy Laval, eleven, looked pretty good against Eskine, but what it can do against bigger company is a question.

Wofford will play High Point at Spartanburg to open its season.

The Presbyterian-Mercer game will mark the opening of the new Bailey stadium at Clinton, and several thousand fans are expected to turn out for the contest. P. C. will have a green team to play against, but Walter Johnson says his men are in better and speed demons.

Both Guilford and Long-Point have games in North Carolina. Guilford plays Campbell at Guilford and Newberry faces Lenoir-Rhyne at Newberry.

Davidson will meet a strong foe in Josh Cody's Clemson eleven when the Wildcats invade the South Carolina Tiger lair.

When Furman and Duke clash at Greenville Saturday, the game will be watched eleven with its "weave drill." Palmetto fans are accustomed to seeing a lavashift at the Baptist school and much interest is being shown in what kind of a team Amis will turn out his first year in the State.

Women Golfers Begin Plat at Hot Springs, Va.

Hot Springs, Va., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Long, narrow and sloping fairways, indented traps and a laughing, mocking, mountain stream, lured the contestants to control their tempers as well as their clubs today in the National Women's Golf Tournament.

The fairways were difficult and the traps vexing, the stream was never so close as ready to catch an unfortunate shot.

While the field of 112 was the largest since 1924, it was regarded as unusually strong. Mrs. Miriam Curtis Lyon, of Kansas City, president of the tour, found six former winners of the crown as well as a host of younger stars disputing the name. One of the younger stars, practically unknown in comparison with the widely heralded former champions, are hitting the ball with a force and direction that stamps them as formidable contenders.

Shortening of the distance on female courses caused many of the golfers to breathe a sigh of relief. The one thing necessary from the back tee was to bring the ball in to the green, and the championship of 200 yards gave them something of an even break with the long drives.

Another test was seen in the steep climb over the rising mountain land, which promised to make endurance a factor. As the sixth hole, the players began a flight of 100 steps to reach the tee before beginning the long and five-tee to the green.

Jimmy Armistead, Vanderbilt star, will captain this year's football team of the Nashville school.

INDIANAPOLIS MEN NEW CHAMPIONS

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Another foreign tennis threat has been turned back and George Lott and Jonny Hennessey of Indianapolis, are the new national international team champions.

Fighting back in the face of defeat, Lott and Hennessey, representing the Western Lawn Tennis Association, won the title on the turf courts of the Chicago town and tennis club yesterday by whipping the young Australian team of Jack Crawford and Harry Hopman, 1-5, 6-4, 12-10, in one of the hardest fought double matches of the year.

BENTON SENT TO MOUND BY GIANTS

New York, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Still trailing the Cardinals by one game John McGraw sent the star of his pitching staff, Larry Benton against the Reds in the second game of their series today. Benton was McGraw's best hope for keeping the Giants in the running, when a single defeat would do no serious damage to their pennant hopes.

Ray Karp was pitched against Benton on the mound.

BRUCE CALDWELL IN PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

New York, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Bruce Caldwell, Yale's great half-back of last year, has made his professional football debut with a bang.

Playing at half for the New York Giants in an exhibition game against the Orange A. C. Eleven yesterday, Caldwell scored the only touchdown of the day ten minutes after the opening whistle.

CONFERENCE GRID TEAMS BEGIN WORK

Atlanta, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Three Southern Conference football teams today resumed practice sessions with the satisfaction of victories—shallow though they may be—behind them.

Virginia Military Institute, Clemson and South Carolina all pranced or fought, as the case turned out, through Saturday's contests. The flying squadron of Lexington was the only one of the number to find more than enough opposition to worry over.

In winning 14 to 7, the Cadeys found the Tigers from Hampden Sidney battling a full sixty minutes for their victory although it was cheering to find Al Barnes, the dynamo little half back, as good as ever. Barnes slipped through the line for the first touchdown and repeated with another tackle smash for the other late in the game.

The Death Valley team of Charlie Bernier obtained its only touchdown with a 40 yard pass and added to a line play by Willis for a marker.

Clemson, scoring a 39 to 0 victory over Newberry, had the easiest engagement of the day. Josh Cody's boys started a passing attack early, performing antics in handling the ball that forbodes ill for opposition.

In three passing attempts, the Tigers advanced the ball 85 yards, while Davis, big backfield man, added the only sparkling piece of offensive of the day when he dashed 35 yards for a touchdown. The Tigers showed a sustained line smashing offensive throughout.

South Carolina's Gamecocks won their first game under their new coach, Billy Laval, 19 to 0. The Columbia team found no setup in Eskine, the light scudder team holding the big Gamecock's secondary men in check until the late moments of the game.

Bob Wimberly and Zobel scored the three touchdowns, the former getting two of them.

This week, however, will find 13 of the 22 conference teams in action although only in one or two instances will the opposition be classed dangerous.

North Carolina's Tar Heels will be after revenge when Wake Forest comes to Chapel Hill, the Deacons having plastered the Blue team three times during recent years.

The University of Mississippi also will have plenty of opposition on at Oxford, when the Arkansas Razorbacks, hardy team of the Southwestern Conference, comes up.

Vanderbilt plays Chattanooga; Tennessee tests its strength against Maryville. Sewanee starts against Bryson, Virginia will have Randolph Macon at Charlottesville, the gooblers of Virginia Poly play Roanoke, Richmond tackles Virginia Military Institute, Lynchburg opposes Washington and Lee, North Carolina State draws Elon, Auburn tangles with Birmingham Southern, Tulane has Louisiana normal coming to New Orleans, and the Mississippi Aggies face Ouachita.

Alabama, Georgia Tech, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, South Carolina, Clemson, Florida and Louisiana State all have two more weeks before officially getting off to another playing season.

INDIANAPOLIS TO MEET ROCHESTER IN FINAL SERIES

New York, Sept. 24.—(AP)—In the baseball classic of the larger minor circuits for the inter-league supremacy, Indianapolis of the American Association will meet Rochester in the International League.

Indianapolis will play at Rochester on Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. The scene then will shift to Indianapolis for any remaining games necessary to decide the championship. The starting date in Indianapolis is to be fixed Wednesday, October 3, is the most probable date.

Donn D. Greenshields, captain of the Penn State football eleven, will be back in his berth at right tackle for this year's season.

MASTER MINDS AGAIN TO PLAY WORLD SERIES

By ALAN J. GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The world's series figures to bring about another conflict of master minds, no matter how the hot and heavy pennant races finish.

Of the five clubs that still have any kind of a chance to get into baseball's big money classic, the manager of only one, Joe McCarthy of the Chicago club, lacks experience in the series. The Cubs are a long shot, anyway, but if they should happen to perform the miracle and come through, McCarthy won't concede much battle of wits.

If it's the Yankees and the Cardinals again, Miller Huggins will have somewhat the edge of his St. Louis rival, Bill McKechnie, in experience, whether or not that has any decisive bearing. The diminutive Yankee pilot has been through five of the last seven of baseball's world wars but McKechnie had a good workout when he led the Pittsburgh Pirates to an uphill victory over Washington in the memorable 1925 series. Bill therefore has a perfect batting average, at any rate, to stack up against Miller's record of two victories and three setbacks.

Its outside possibility that it would offer the most dramatic possibilities if John McGraw's Giants and Connie Mack's Athletics should be matched for the championship. They were big rivals back in the period of 1905 to 1913, clashing three times in the world series. McGraw, however, has been much more in the spotlight of recent years, figuring in his last world's series in 1924. Mack's famous scoreboard hasn't wig-wagged its signals from the bench in a world's series since 1914, when his team was crushed by the Boston Braves.

The present-day contrast would be the more all interesting because "Little Napoleon" on the Giants now leads a youthful peppery crew while the tall tutor is surrounded by the greatest collection of old heads and experienced talent in any club's history.

Imagine what a world series picture it would be, or, on the other hand, marvel at the master minding possibilities with McGraw matching wits against Mack, Eddie Collins, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker and Kid Gleason.

Here are the comparative world's series records of the Pilots, of contending clubs:

Manager	Series	Won	Lost
Connie Mack	3	2	13
Bill McKechnie	1	0	4
Miller Huggins	2	3	14
John McGraw	3	6	26

HOOVER PLAYS CLEAR OF ALL CONTROVERSY

Distracting Issues Avoided by Republican Candidate in Present Campaign.

By JAMES L. WEST
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Washington, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Hoover is playing clear of all open and der cover attacks upon him, Herbert Hoover is pursuing his course conducting a campaign in favor of the issues and the candidates of the Republican party and keeping clear of distracting controversies. His determination in this respect was given public expression again Saturday in a short talk to former service men who called on him here and was reiterated yesterday by his intimates in connection with an attack made upon him by Senator Bruce, Democrat, Maryland, who charged hypocrisy in connection with the nominee's declaration of constitutional prohibition.

Before the Bruce charge had been called to the attention of the republican presidential nominee, his secretary, George Akerson, had denied it, declaring that not only Hoover never taken a drink with Clarence Darrow, as the Maryland senator averred, but had not taken a single drink of intoxicating liquor since he became a constitutional executive officer of the United States and has never had a drop of liquor served at his home. Darrow, at his home in Chicago, denied his denial, and it was indicated that the matter would rest here so far as Hoover headquarters were concerned. Detailed information has been received at these headquarters of various under cover attacks on Hoover, but these have been ignored. As represented by close associates, the feeling of the Republican candidate is that they should not be dignified by a denial.

Having passed the half-way mark of the campaign, counting his acceptance speech as the opening of a fight for the presidency, Hoover had behind him three of the six major addresses he has mapped out before beginning the return trip to his Stanford University home in California, where he first began his fight with his acceptance speech on August 11. The other two were delivered at his West Branch, Ia., birthplace, and Newark, N. J.

The rough draft of the fourth address, to be delivered at Elizabeth, Tenn., on October 6, was completed today and the nominee hopes to have the finished product ready within a few days. If he does his friends will seek to prevail upon him to take a few days of rest and recreation.

The fifth speech will be at New York on October 16 and the sixth at Boston, probably some time between October 22 and 25. Hurrying back to Washington from Boston, the candidate will clean up affairs here and set out around October 1 for the long run back to Stanford University, where he will vote in November 6.

Hoover had no engagements for today and planned to put in most of his time redrafting his Elizabeth address before going to the National Press building in the early evening to attend a dinner given by editors of business and trade papers.

Negro Delighted At Attitude Of Senator Simmons

By H. E. C. Bryant, in the Asheville Citizen.
Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—In the Populist-Republican fusion days Edcombe County had a very few negro in the person of W. H. Person, who became a member of the Legislature and held other offices. He was very active in the Republican party. After the great White Supremacy Campaign he came to Washington, and is now employed here. Hearing that Senator Simmons had declared he would support Smith he gave to a newspaper man this statement: "I welcome," said he, "the accession of Senator Simmons to our ranks. Conversion is better late than never. Long years ago we were antagonistic but we never struck below the belt. Today I welcome him with open arms to the grand old party of God and morality. After all of these years of defeat and disaster for the black man's party in the South I can see us again coming into our own. A great many of us remain alive who can recall the days when black men sat in the chairs of state in the Southern Capitals. Those days have long been gone. Oh, bless God, I can see them returning. It is said that a house divided against itself cannot stand and now I see the white people of the South dividing.

The machine which carries four huge blades rotating on its top is capable of making a practically vertical landing, eliminating necessity of a large landing field.

"I wish to use the newspapers of North Carolina to urge my people to get behind Senator Simmons and support him. What is true in North Carolina may be true in other Southern states. Just let us get control of the State machinery this time and Mr. Hoover in the White House will give us such help as will wipe out all the laws in the South which keep the black man from moving on the same plane as the white man. I am getting old, but before I die I would like to see my race again enjoying its just deserts. Then I will say like Simeon in the Bible: "Now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace."

Denies Religion Dominates Fight On Gov. Al Smith

Lorain, Ohio, Sept. 24.—(AP)—A denial that religious motives underlay her recent appeal to the Ohio conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to oppose the election of Governor Smith was embodied in an address prepared for delivery here last night by Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt.

Later, dispatches from Chicago said that five pages of publicity containing a portion of Mrs. Willebrandt's speech had been recalled by western Republican headquarters after distribution to newspapers. No explanation was given beyond a statement that "a mistake had been made."

In reply to criticism voiced by Smith in his Oklahoma City speech, Mrs. Willebrandt in her address, as given to the press, made a counter charge that Smith had "become the greatest force for disregard of the prohibition laws in America today," and as such "drew" her opposition. The address was for delivery before the Northeast Ohio conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Two resolutions endorsing Herbert Hoover were submitted for action at the conference today.

"Religion has nothing to do with it," Mrs. Willebrandt said in the prepared copy of her address. "We condemn his (Smith's) record, acts and utterances. These make him wince, so he seeks to shield himself behind a religious issue—an issue that he raised himself in this campaign."

She declared in the prepared address that the churches were justified in entering the campaign by Anti-Smith Democratic State committee, left today for Asheville, where he will speak tonight in the campaign against the Democratic presidential candidate. He will speak in Winston-Salem this week, and Friday night will go to Columbia, S. C., where he will be the speaker at the organization of the Anti-Smith organization of that state.

Mrs. Willebrandt, who said that because Gov. Smith raised the religious issue in attacking her in a campaign address at Oklahoma City he must "accept the consequences of his act before the bar of public opinion," adhered closely to the text of her prepared address.

The auditorium was crowded with ministers and laymen of the church and her thrusters at the Democratic presidential candidate because of his prohibition stand were met with frequent cheers.

SOUTH IN GRIP OF POLITICAL UNREST TODAY

Leaders Recognize Southern Bolt As Vital Force, Byron Price Says.

By BYRON PRICE (Associated Press Staff Writer) Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Rocked by dissension of surpassing bitterness, the dry Democratic South is passing through a season of political trial and torment not easily understood by other sections, and involving possibilities extremely difficult to assess.

Although wholly unable to visualize a complete obliteration of the overwhelming Democratic majorities of other years, party leaders no longer regard the southern bolt as the whim of a few agitators. They recognize it as a vital force, having its fountainhead in issues of the most explosive character. Protestant ministers and women make up an important element in its militant leadership, imparting much of the fervor of a crusade, and its ranks include also politicians of consequence, who contribute the practical knowledge of their years of political schooling.

The issues of prohibition and Tammany furnish the visible motive power behind this southern thrust at Smith. Whether its real mainspring is religion, is a much argued subject. The Democratic regulars do not hesitate to say it is, despite repeated denials. It is certain that the nominee's Catholicism is widely talked about among the voters, that Anti-Catholic literature is circulated, and that some campaign speakers openly attack Smith because he is a Catholic. Against this attack the Smith leaders raise the rallying cries of tolerance, white supremacy, and a party loyalty in all kinds of weather.

In Texas, largest of the Southern States and rated the banner Democratic state of the Union, these considerations and uncertainties are intensified by the state's vast geographical and political dimensions. It is difficult for the best informed to make predictions. The leaders for and against Smith have given their Associated Press their respective estimates, and the sum total of them all is a candid agreement that for the first time in a generation, Texas is a political battleground.

To understand the immensity of the possibilities here involved, it is necessary to consider that Texas about equal to that of the state of Rhode Island; that all forms of organization are accordingly handicapped; that the others include alike the flower of the old Southern aristocracy, and a considerable group of Mexican emigrants; that material interests are represented by such diverse symbols as the cotton field, the ranch, the oil well, and the factory; and that the present campaign has inherited at least a half dozen old political feuds, like that over the Ferguson and that over the Klan.

CRIME HIT HARD BLOW AT CHICAGO

Solution To Many Crimes Divulged In Arrest of 27 Criminals in Raid.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(AP)—A series of weed-and-raids that snared 23 men and two women, was being pointed today as one of the greatest single blows at Chicago crime in recent months. More than 100 "time-bomb" men solved as a result of the arrests, Deputy Commissioner Stege said.

There were three raids, personally conducted by the deputy commissioner. He announced hours spent questioning his prisoners that confessions had been made clearing crimes ranging from robbery to murder.

Among crimes in which the commissioner said he had confessions were:

The slaying of Maurice Younglove, private watchman, Durino, a holdup-September 8th.

The shooting and serious wounding of two policemen and the slaying ing of John Pecora at the Turkish village cafe, September 21st.

The daylight holdup of the Davis Hotel, September 9th; the $6,870 payroll robbery of The Herald and Examiner, July 28th; the attempted payroll robbery at the Chicago Tribune, July 30th.

Police said that most of their prisoners were members of one big gang that practiced crime in all its branches. "Big Leo" Trimiloff, sometimes called "Big Jack", is being sought as the leader.

Charles Stanley, 36, one of the men arrested, was the most talkative, the commissioner said. After questioning Stanley and others, police declared Stanley was present at the slaying of Younglove and had a hand in the Herald and Examiner robbery. He previously had been arrested for participation in the attempted Tribune robbery.

A battery of police stenographers was kept busy throughout the night taking statements of those arrested.

"They're telling on each", was Commissioner Stege's comment.

PIPGRAS ON MOUND FOR THE YANKEES

Cleveland, O., Sept. 24.—(AP)—George Pippas braved cold to pitch for the Yankees against Cleveland today in the second game of the series. He was opposed by Walter Miller, Cleveland Southpaw, who won the only game the Indians have bagged in their last sixteen encounters. The Yankees used the same lineup that worked so well yesterday with Gazzella on third and Loeung and Lazzeri around the Key-hole sack.

Pittsburgh Leads Braves

Boston, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Pittsburgh scored two runs in the tenth inning to defeat the Braves 3 to 1 in the first game of a double header today. Gantwell, who started as pitcher for Boston had to retire in the second when he broke a finger of his left hand in attempting to stop Cousens's single.

Another Bombing At Chicago. Chicago, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Chicago's 59th bombing of the year last night blew out the front of a three story building hurried through the building and into the rear alley, and rocked dwellings in the vicinity. The explosion set the building afire and the flames drove residents into the street.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Reports of frost damage to the corn crop together with predictions of more frost tonight, gave a lift to corn prices today toward the last. Wheat rallied with corn, despite 7,500,000 bushels increase of the United States visible supply total and notwithstanding hedge selling from the northwest. The corn visible supply was curtailed 967,000 bushels for the week. Export bids today for wheat from North America were on a higher basis than of late.

Corn closed irregular 1-4 net lower to 1 3/8 advance, the former for September; wheat finished unchanged to 1-4 off; oats unchanged to 1-2 down and provisions unchanged to a setback of 60c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The line of least resistance in today's stock market was again toward higher prices. Reactionary tendencies developed in some of the air-plane issues and specialties in the morning trading, but a broad buying movement in the steels, coppers, motors, oils and foods eventually turned the general course of prices upward. Nearly two score issues, including Anaconda Copper, Packard Motors, Sinclair Oil, Union Carbide and U. S. Steel, common, established new 1923 high records.

Except possibly to hold down the volume of trading, money rates apparently had little influence on the market. Call loans renewed at 7 1/2 per cent with indications that the ruling rate would deviate little from that figure during the rest of the week.

With Sterling around the year's low, hope was still held out for further gold imports to relieve the credit situation.

U. S. Steel returned to its old role as a market leader by climbing more than 3 points to a new high at 161 3/8, one block of 8,500 shares changing hands at 161. General Motors sold down a point to 212 1/2 in the early trading and then rebounded to 215 1/2. Packard moved up 2 points to a new high at 93 3/8, and Hudson was in brisk demand in the early afternoon.

Must Pay Full Duty.
New York, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Mme. Ganna Walska, opera singer, wife of Harold McCormick, will have to pay full duty on the baggage she brought with her to this country last week and which is reported to be worth about $2,500,000. Unless the decision of collector of the port Ellitt is overruled by Edward W. Camp, commissioner of customs at Washington.
