DEMOCRATS CARRY FIGHT OVER STATE

Speakers Appeared at New Bern and Other Towns of State Last Night.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Democratic leaders today had given fresh evidence that they were determined to conduct their campaign for a conciliatory basis, regardless of the division in the ranks of the party in North Carolina.

Aubrey L. Brooks, Greensboro attorney who delivered the "harmony" keynote speech of the State convention in June, opened the official campaign in Craven county with an address at New Bern, the home of Senator F. M. Simmons, who has continued his opposition to Governor Smith, but the speaker made no reference to the senator's attitude in the present political situation.

Arguing a lawyer would to a jury, Mr. Brooks summed up the case for Smith and the Democratic party, and the Republican party. At Forest City, the head of the state ticket, O. Max Gardner, reiterated the sentiments voiced in his first speech at Boone, saying that while he intended to support the full ticket locally, he conceded to all Democrats the right to differ with him.

Answering a question asked by Mayor Charles Democratic not replied that he would vote for all Democrats, regardless of whether or not they would support Governor Smith.

"If a Democrat cannot vote for me for governor, I do not want him to punish Zeb Weaver by not voting for him for congress," he said by way of illustrating his stand.

"No one realizes better than I that I could be elected governor by an unprecedented majority," he said, "if I would compromise my ambition, surrender my loyalty to the national ticket, and duck into a political storm cellar while the lightning flash and the thunders reverberate, but I cannot and will not pay the price. I have tried for 20 years to equip myself by training, study, and experience, to make for North Carolina a good governor. I was unanimously nominated by my party for governor, and I say in all humility, without the least defiance that I would go down in defeat, before I would desert the leader of my party in this campaign."

Josephus Daniels added his plea for tolerance of Democrats among themselves in a speech at Elizabeth City. Declaring there are no Judas Iscariots or Benedict Arnolds in the ranks of the party, he asserted "there are no Democratic advocates of corruption, or tools of enemies of the republic in North Carolina."

Senator L. D. Tyson spoke in his old home town of Greenville last night in support of the Democratic ticket. Tonight, he is scheduled to deliver an address in Fremont.

Other speeches on today's program: J. W. Bailey at North Wilkesboro; Josephus Daniels at Edenton, 11:00 a. m., and at Hertford tonight; Hallett S. Ward in Cumberland county, morning, and Wagram, Scotland county, night; F. P. Hobgood, Jr., Kernersville; J. C. B. Ehringhaus at Roxboro; A. L. Bittwinkle at Hickory; Mrs. Lyman Cotten and Mrs. E. C. Gregory at High Point.

Ganna Walska Refuses To Pay Duty On Jewels

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Rights of the modern woman form the basis of the appeal of Mme. Ganna Walska, wife of Harold T. McCormick, from the ruling of the collector of the Port of New York that she must pay duty on clothing and jewelry valued at $2,500,000 if she wishes to bring them into this country.

Mme. Walska had argued that she is a resident of Paris and therefore free to bring in her personal belongings without payment of duty.

Her contention was overruled by Philip Elting, collector of the port, and her lawyer has appealed to Washington. The collector ruled that as she is the wife of a citizen of the United States whose residence is in this country, her residence also is here.

The appeal points out that Mme. Walska and Mr. McCormick, although not legally separated, have been living separately and that she has established her residence abroad by purchasing a home, a theatre and setting up a business establishment in Paris.

PRICES STILL INCREASING ON LEAF MARKET

The Highest Average Price of the Season Registered on Local Market Yesterday.

Prices continued to soar upward on the Greenville tobacco market today and all averages of the week shattered by the day's advance according to information given out today by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade.

The market sold a total of 1,190,856 pounds of tobacco for $218,980.77 at an average price of $18.30 per hundred pounds. For the entire season the market has sold 15,274,982 pounds.

The report stated that there was about a million and a half pounds of tobacco on the floors of the nine warehouses today. Prices were expected to be even better than yesterday with more good tobacco in evidence.

The average price yesterday was unusually good, considering the amount of damaged tobacco on the floors. It was said that a majority of the leaf was either of an inferior variety or damaged, but prices advanced over any other day of the season regardless of this handicap.

WILL PROBE S. C. FLOOD CONDITIONS

Situation On Edisto River Said to Demand Immediate Attention.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 25.—(AP)—An investigation of flood conditions in South Carolina with the cooperation of Federal authorities was in prospect today.

A message of Congressman Thomas S. McMillan reporting to the War Department flood conditions with demand for immediate consideration, investigated the dispatching of Col. Henry C. Jewett of Norfolk, Va., by the War Department to survey the situation. He was expected to meet Congressman McMillan and Maj. N. Y. Du Hamel, United States District Engineer of Charleston, here today.

Congressman McMillan said yesterday that a recent tour of the territory between Charleston and Walterboro on the Edisto river revealed to him the necessity to bringing the matter to the attention of congress, and added that he planned to propose an amendment to the Mississippi flood control bill.

"Fifty families were driven from their homes on the lower Edisto river during the rise occasioned by the rains caused by the storm of last week," the congressman said. "I saw homes flooded to the eaves. Crops were destroyed. The valleys of the Santee, Pee Dee, Edisto, and all other rivers running into the coastal section are affected. It will be a week or more before normal conditions will be restored."

General Tyson Scores Heavily In Brilliant Campaign Speech Here

Principal issues of the national political campaign were discussed in an exceptionally brilliant way in this city last night when General Lawrence Tyson, of Knoxville, Tenn., delivered the third address of the local Democratic campaign. The speaking was held in the court room of the county courthouse. The audience was probably the largest attending any single speaking this season, and was liberally sprinkled with women of the city who have exhibited more than passing interest in the presidential campaign.

General Tyson was introduced by J. B. James, local attorney, who paid tribute to the splendid record of the former soldier, business man and political leader of Tennessee. He stressed the fact that General Tyson was one of the many Pitt county men who years ago went out into the world and won recognition in his chosen field of endeavor.

General Tyson confined himself principally to a discussion of the really great issues of the present campaign to elect a president of the United States and county and state officials. He said too much had already been made of questions that play only a minor part in the life of the American people, and that he hoped to be able to present the big problems in a way that would have a telling effect upon the public mind.

He discussed farm relief, immigration, tariff, conservation of water power, flood control, labor and veterans legislation, prohibition, and last but not least, the splendid record of Al Smith, Democratic nominee for the presidency of the United States.

"I regret exceedingly that the issues have been cast aside," General Tyson declared, "and that the issues of minor importance seem to have been magnified to such an extent that they may be the controlling factors in determining the election.

"If there is one thing more settled in our country it is that religious tolerance is the foundation stone of this republic, and yet a bitter, unreasonable, and intolerant whispering campaign which is going on throughout our country, not only on the part of the Republicans who are seeking to discredit the candidate of the Democratic party in every way possible, without regard for the truth, but to my surprise and deep regret some of the old true and tried Democrats of the South are lending their ears to the insufferable tactics being employed to discredit the great and splendid leader whom we have chosen as our presidential candidate. We find men and women and preachers of many denominations apparently lending their aid to unfair, unjust and false accusations.

"In view of these whispering campaigns, I feel that I should devote much of my time in attempting to prove the utter falsity of such accusations.

He declared that the platform adopted at the Houston convention was by far one of the most complete expositions of its kind ever before presented by a political party. The tariff plank, he declared to be the foundation stone of opportunity for success of the Democratic party this year. "Business men," he said, "who are against prohibition, will vote the Democratic ticket because of the fact that they are firmly and strongly of the opinion that the present prohibition laws are a bad thing for the country, but they would be unwilling to desert the Republican party but for the tariff plank and the Democratic candidate. This is the brightest opportunity that has been presented the Democratic party in a long time, and I feel sure it means the bringing of victory in November."

Discussing the malicious attack that has been launched against Governor Smith by the Republican party, augmented by both the press and the pulpit in numbers of instances, General Tyson said the party had "one of the most magnificent the most popular men in America today for its candidate for the presidency."

"In view of the fact that much misunderstanding and prejudice has been injected into this campaign, I feel that every man and woman should be apprised of the true character of Governor Smith." At this point he went into detail concerning the splendid record of service of Al Smith from his early manhood until the time he was elected governor of New York for the fifth consecutive time.

"It has been said that Governor Smith is an enemy of public schools. This is utter false propaganda. On the contrary he has done more for the public schools than any other governor in the history of the State of New York for the last 25 years." He told of the increased appropriations for public education under Smith's administration.

"Governor Smith has not been a Catholic governor, a Baptist governor, nor a Methodist governor, but he has been an American governor. He has sixteen departments in New York. Of these sixteen departments heads thirteen are Protestants, two Catholic and one Jew."

Referring to Governor Smith's position for modification of the prohibition amendment, he declared that he "admired Smith's honesty. No man has ever appeared before the American people who has been more straight-forward and honest and frank in stating his views."

He declared the position of Al Smith was in striking contrast to Herbert Hoover, who was "wet in the East and dry in the South" and had not expressed himself with any definiteness as to what his position is as it pertains to the Volstead Act.

Liquor Was High In Philadelphia, Testimony Shows

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Prices prominent Philadelphians paid for liquor they believed imported, out which the government says was merely colored alcohol, were on record today in the Federal court in the trial of Joel D. Kerper, so-called society bootlegger.

A chemist who tested some of the assortment seized when Kerper's place was raided last July, said that whiskey was colored alcohol and the gin distilled spirits with a gin flavor.

The government attorney said the liquor "was artificially colored so-called whiskey, not pre-war stuff, but drinkable."

Gardner Cassatt, a banker, testified that he paid Kerper $70 or $75 a case for gin and $92 for champagne.

Charles Wheeler, banker and former polo player, said he paid about $70 a case for Scotch and Bardard rum.

LEAF PRICES TO BE TALKED HERE FRIDAY

Public Meeting To Be Held Under Auspices Of E. C. Chamber Of Commerce.

"It is very evident that if we expect any better prices for the 1929 tobacco crop and the 1929 crop, the acreage will have to be reduced considerably." Secretary Bartlett stated Monday. The meeting called for Greenville, by the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce is for the purpose of getting things started towards a definite campaign for a big reduction in acreage for next year. The recent estimate by the Government of the 1928 tobacco crop of the United States, shows an expectancy of one billion, three hundred seventy-one million, seven hundred eighty-two thousand pounds, as compared with 1,221,301,000 pounds of last year. However, North Carolina shows an estimated decrease of about 15,000,000 less than last year. Kentucky shows an estimated increase over last year of 110,000,000 pounds; Georgia showed an increase of 25,000,000 over last year. All other states are booked in the deficit column as compared with last year. North Carolina is the largest tobacco producing state in the Union with Kentucky more than 150,000,000 pounds behind.

Cigarette Production Increasing.
Along with the announcement of the increase of production of tobacco comes the statement from the Government that in July 1, 446,645,126 cigarettes were manufactured in excess of the July production of a year ago. July this year showed an increase over June of the same year 32,550,501 cigarettes. It is the belief of the more conservative men of the section, that at least 25 per cent reduction should be made in the tobacco acreage in Eastern North Carolina for next year. Plans will be laid at this section-wide meeting at Greenville, Friday, for bringing about this reduction. Greenville was selected by the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce for holding this meeting on account of its being the center of the tobacco belt of Eastern North Carolina.

The Red Cross has issued orders to several dealers at Okeechobee City to furnish seed to the farmers who can get to their land. It was understood to be the purpose of the Red Cross to furnish the farmers with sufficient necessities to meet the emergency, then when the census is completed, to rebuild their homes, furnish them with supply farm implements sufficient to meet the needs. A requisition upon national headquarters would be made for sufficient funds with which to permanently rehabilitate the homeless, many of whom now are destitute.

While the outlook in the storm area was far from bright, rays of hope continued to shine through. Adjutant General Vivien Collins has ordered a gradual evacuation of state troops who have been doing guard duty for the past week. Meanwhile funds for relief continue to mount and each incoming train brings supplies to fill an urgent need.

Generally the refugees in the farming section do not wish to leave the territory but prefer to remain, against the time when they again may be a happy peaceful people.

Relief crews report each day some additional gruesome find of bodies out in the flooded section of the Everglades, overflowed when Lake Okeechobee borne on the wings of the storm, swept away and carried a message of death and destruction to unsuspecting populace.

In Jacksonville, Governor Martin, worn and haggard from his experiences during a week's inspection tour of the district, issued a further call for the people of the state to respond even more generously than they have already.

Several appeals have reached the governor asking that he call a special session of the legislature, but so far he has not made any comment regarding the possibility of a storm measure.

Smith Expected To Made Speech
At Capital City

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Raleigh is likely to be selected by the Democratic National committee as the city in North Carolina where Gov. Alfred Smith, of New York, Democratic Presidential nominee, will speak, if he visits this State as contemplated.

Local party leaders based their assertion on the fact that O. M. Mull, chairman of the State Executive Committee, of the party, and former Gov. Cameron Morrison, National Democratic Committeeman from North Carolina, yesterday recommended the State capital in answer to inquiry from the national committee. Both explained that "such auditorium facilities at Raleigh added a large part in giving that city the advantage over Greensboro and Charlotte, which had also been suggested as suitable places for receiving the candidate.

The deceased was a native Pitt county and spent most of his life in Greenville. He was well and favorably known by numbers of people throughout the county.

PLAN CENSUS OF FLORIDA STORM AREAS

Death Toll Today Stood at 2,200; Ex- act Figures Will Never Be Known.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Sept. 25.—(AP)—One of the first definite moves toward permanent rehabilitation of the storm swept area of southeast Florida, will amount to a virtual census and will be conducted by the Red Cross, it was announced.

More than a week after the disastrous hurricane the reports of chaos which resulted, continued to come in. Red Cross officials here definitely have fixed the known dead at approximately 2,300, with the announcement that the exact total dead never would be learned.

Apparently the most crying need of the survivors was an occupation. Their farms were ruined—those in the Lake Okeechobee sector—and those who could go back to work do not have even the seed necessary to starting out.

The Red Cross has issued orders to several dealers at Okeechobee City to furnish seed to the farmers who can get to their land. It was understood to be the purpose of the Red Cross to furnish the farmers with sufficient necessities to meet the emergency, then when the census is completed, to rebuild their homes, furnish them with supply farm implements sufficient to meet the needs. REGISTRATION UNDER WAY AT THE COLLEGE

First Classes To Be Held Tomorrow at E. Carolina Teachers' College.

Registration began at East Carolina Teachers College this morning. Between 900 and 1,000 reservations have been made for the fall term, but scores of letters and telegrams have been pouring in for the past 24 hours saying, "Water bound. Hold my reservation." The rivers and streams are playing a more prominent part in registration than usual. Registration will probably not be completed before next week.

The new dining room seating 500 additional students is now open and in use, though the workmen have not yet put on all of the finishing touches.

Classes will begin tomorrow. The following are new teachers: Misses Annie C. Newell, Education Dept.; Mary H. Greene, English; Ella Graves Thompson, Foreign Languages; Marie W. Peterson, Geography; Eugenia Thomas, Public School Music; Hazen B. Moore, Industrial Art; Catherine Cassidy, Science; Lucy Nulton, Training School; Eunice McGee, Training School; Alma Browning, Training School; Katherine Holtzclaw, Home Economics; Mrs. Adelaide Bloxton, Home Economics; Dr. Herbert Rebarber, Mathematics; Marion K. Fort, director teacher training.

The first year class just entering numbers approximately 450. This is the largest first year class the college has had. This is brought about by the increase in the number of students over previous years. Seventy-five out of the hundred counties are represented in the enrollment for this year.

Dr. Robert H. Wright in his remarks to new students in chapel this morning, urged them to make up their minds just what they wanted to teach and prepare definitely for a particular line of work. He called attention to the fact that the State is tightening the requirements constantly for teachers and that soon at teacher must be definitely trained for definite work if she is to teach in the schools of North Carolina.

Leob and Leopold May Get Parole In Six More Years

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—An error in the mittimus under which Richard Leob and Nathan Leopold, Jr., were sent to the Joliet penitentiary four years ago makes these two slayers of little Bobbie Franks eligible for parole in six more years. Hiram Clabaugh, chairman of the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, said today.

Clabaugh spoke of Leob and Leopold as "sons of wealth, who are tempered pets in Joliet."

These men, each under a life sentence for murder and 99-year sentences for kidnaping, are building up "fine records," Clabaugh said, with a view to seeking parole when the error in the mittimus, which makes them eligible within six years.

"One is private secretary to the first warden," Clabaugh said. "The other is private secretary to the Protestant chaplain. Yet Leopold is generally believed to have been the brains of the pair, and he has been months ago which has cost, so far, several innocent lives and resulted in the hanging of three men."

"The court in passing the double sentences on the youths, recommended that neither should be granted a parole, no matter how long they might serve."

Clabaugh did not explain what the error in the mittimus was.

SMITH THROWS CHALLENGE TO HERB HOOVER

Asks Him To Prove That Party's Record Has Been One of Courage and Leader- ship.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Helena, Mont., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Governor Smith turns eastward today after having thrown a vigorous challenge to the Republican opponent, Herbert Hoover, to prove in the face of "corruption and crime" in high government circles, the assertion in his speech of acceptance that the Republican party's record during the last seven and a half years "constitutes a period of rare courage and leadership and constructive action."

With party responsibilities as his text and a state next door to Teapot Dome as his battleground, the Democratic nominee in his fourth speech of the campaign in this valley capital of Montana, last night traced the history of the oil, veterans bureau, and alien property custodian disclosures, and directed a plea to the Republican nominee whom he charged with sitting silently by during the enactment of this "story of intrigue and corruption," to show how he can look back with any degree of satisfaction on that record.

Governor Smith delivered his speech before a crowd that taxed the capacity of the Shrine temple, and applauded him at frequent intervals, especially when he concluded by saying that it "would be exceedingly harmful if the American people were willing to look back complacently over the past and call it a record of great accomplishment."

Senator Thomas J. Walsh, who prosecuted the oil inquiries, and Senator Burton K. Wheeler, who had a leading part in the investigation during the Harding-Coolidge regime, both Montanans sat on the platform and both joined in the handclapping at important junctures of the speech.

Governor John Erickson of Montana, also sat near the candidate, who today starts the long jump back to his native state of New York with two more speeches on his schedule—at St. Paul Thursday night and at Milwaukee Saturday night.

After attending the New York State convention at Rochester next Monday, he will return to Albany and rest the remainder of the week before taking the stump again.

Governor Smith opened his address last night with a reference to a dispatch quoting Mr. Hoover as telling a group of young students from Maryland that the new generation "must begin now to take over the responsibility of the party and carry it out." He then recited the long history of the oil and other investigations, declaring the sworn testimony that came out of the investigation of the leasing of the oil reserves, was a "story of intrigue, of corruption, of trickery, and of chicanery that has never been equaled in all the history of this nation."

"Not only did the evil influence of this whole deal contaminate the administration, but it disgraces party leadership," he asserted, adding that "nobody in the United States can say there is no party responsibility for that. That's right on the doorstep. It couldn't get away if it tried."

"Is the record, the real record of the past seven and a half years 'shown to the Republican candidate for president?' he asked, and then continued:

"Why, there is not a single man in this country that knows it better than he does. He sat in the cabinet of the president while all of this was going on, and you can search that record from one end to the other, you can examine it in the minutest details, and you will fail to find a single word of condemnation on his part."

Governor Smith also trained his guns on the secretary of the treasury whom he charged with "concealing knowledge" from the senate committee that traced $260,000 in Liberty bonds, profit from the Continental Trading company oil transactions to Republican campaign coffers to help cover a deficit hanging over from the party's 1920 presidential campaign.

"He was unwilling to become a party to that deal, he got the stake of oil, and he gave his take the bonds," the governor said. "Honorable enough," he said, "this must be said: During the period that the senate committee was endeavoring to unfold this crooked deal before the people of the United States, he had the knowledge and could have given it. He chose to conceal it."

HOOVER PLANS ONE-DAY TRIP TO THE SOUTH

Republican Nominee to Make Two Speeches in State of Tennessee in October

By JAMES L. WEST
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Washington, Sept. 25—(AP)—A rather strenuous schedule has been arranged for Herbert Hoover on his one-day excursion into the South early next month, during which he will visit two cities and pass through half a dozen others in the Tennessee and Virginia mountains by train or automobile.

The Republican presidential candidate will make two speeches, the principal one at Elizabethton, Tennessee, in mid-afternoon on October 6th, and the other at Johnson City, Tenn., late in the day just before he boards his private train for the overnight return run to Washington.

As the schedule is now arranged, the party will leave here over the Southern Railway at 11:00 p. m. on the night of October 5th with the first stop at Lynchburg, where the transfer will be made to the Norfolk and Western, Bristol, which straddles the Virginia-Tennessee line, is to be reached around 9:30 a. m., and there the nominee will make a rear platform appearance.

Switched back to the Southern, the special train will then proceed to Elizabethton, arriving about 11:30 a. m. The train will be halted outside the city limits and the party will motor through the town, the parade ending in time for luncheon at 12:30 o'clock at which Mr. Hoover will be the honor guest and at which he may have a word or two to say.

At 2:00 p. m., the nominee is to review a pageant in connection with the industrial and battle of King's Mountain celebration which then will be in progress. From the reviewing stand the nominee will be taken to a natural outdoor amphitheatre where he will deliver the fourth prepared address of the campaign, but one which will be as nearly non-political in character as can be delivered by a candidate for the presidency.

Should Hoover run into bad weather—and if he did it would be the first he has encountered while on the road campaigning—the speaking will be in a huge pavilion, which is reputed to have a seating capacity of 7,000. If the exercises are held out of doors a crowd many times that in size is expected to be within the range of his voice as preparations are being made to run excursion trains into the town from four states—North Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky.

The speech is to be carried over a large part of the South by radio, but there has been no effort at a national hook-up because of the hour of the delivery.

After the address, Hoover and his party will enter automobiles for the ten-mile ride over a mountain highway to Johnson City, which is planning a fine welcome for the Republican nominee. Hoover will go to the Soldiers Home there, one of the largest of the country, and will make a brief address. Then he will motor through the city to his train which will be run over from Elizabethton early in the afternoon.

Speedy Justice For Slayer Of Honolulu Youth

Honolulu, Sept. 25—(AP)—His desire to plead guilty and accept quick justice for the slaying of Gill Jamieson, denied by territorial law Myles Yutaka Fukunaga today faced a speedy jury trial and equally swift justice in the island's fast moving kidnaping-murder drama.

Less than six days after he kidnaped the 10-year-old son of Frederick Jamieson, Honolulu banker from school, Fukunaga was indicted yesterday and arraigned before Circuit Judge Alva E. Steadman who refused to accept the Japanese student's plea of "Guilty, Sir."

The judge advised the confessed slayer forbade a plea of guilty to a first degree murder charge, and required making of a defense. Accordingly, the judge said he would appoint a defense attorney today.

The slayer, who has told police he killed the boy within a few hours after the kidnaping, and before he collected $4,000 ransom from the frenzied father, has expressed willingness to die for his crime. Local law prescribes that two days must elapse after conviction by a jury before sentence can be passed, and 14 days elapse between sentencing and execution, in case the extreme penalty is given.

Speeds to Cutter's Aid
Washington, Sept. 25—(AP)—The coastguard cutter Cheilan has been ordered to speed to the assistance of the cutter Newport, which reported by wireless that she had lost her propeller 1,500 miles off Bermuda. The Newport radiated that she was short of provisions.

Search Senator's Baggage

New York, Sept. 25—(AP)—Despite his indignant protests, the baggage of United States Senator Lawrence C. Phipps, of Colorado, was thoroughly searched when he arrived on the French Ile De France today.

The Republican senator told customs inspectors that his 17 pieces of luggage contained only trifling foreign purchases, all of which he had properly declared, but at the direction of a deputy collector of customs everything was opened at the pier and carefully examined.

Mr. Earle Carter, manager of the Credit Tire Stores, Inc., of Eastern Carolina, advises that this firm is now operating stores in Goldsboro, Rocky Mount, Greenville, and within the next few weeks a number of other towns will be added. Curtis Prepares To Give View On Relief Of Farmers

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON Associated Press Staff Writer

En Route With Senator Curtis in Nebraska, Sept. 25.—(AP)—With almost a full day of travel ahead of him today, Senator Curtis, the Republican Vice-Presidential nominee, was preparing a statement on the Republican position on farm relief to deliver tonight in Omaha on the same platform from which Governor Smith discussed this issue a week ago.

The senator also was taking as much advantage as train travel affords to get in some rest during the day's trip across Nebraska from Denver, where he spoke last night.

He spoke also yesterday at Cheyenne, Wyo., and upon crossing the path of Governor Smith in the West took occasion to make some references to him yesterday.

Partisan politics were at high time in Denver where the Democratic standard bearer had appeared on Saturday and Republicans crowded the high auditorium to overflowing for the Curtis meeting. When the senator referred to Governor Smith as "the man who marches to the tune of 'The Sidewalks of New York." A heckler got into action, but he and a woman who shouted at the speaker were quietly led from the hall by police amid considerable confusion and with the senator protesting.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(AP)—An investigation of "protected vice" in Pittsburgh, much similar to the Philadelphia inquiry now under way, was launched today by the county grand jury.

We have had our gin machinery thoroughly overhauled and NEW SAWS installed in both systems by the Lummus Cotton Gin Company, Columbus, Ga.

Our equipment is in first-class condition and our entire organization will endeavor to give you the best service possible.

WARNING—

Farmers lose thousands of dollars every year by having their cotton ginned straight from the fields as soon as it has been picked, often wet with dew or picked immediately after a rain.

We are ready to start ginning, but we advise everybody to have their cotton picked and bulked down in the house until it takes a heat and dries out. By so doing you will get a better lint yield, a better grade and staple and avoid getting gin cut cotton. No machinery will gin wet cotton without cutting it.

the religious question. Much of it is subterranean, but there also is more open discussion of the subject than ever before.

The old argument about Al Smith is that, inasmuch as he owes allegiance to a foreign potentate—the Pope—in things spiritual, he would not be a proper leader for the United States in things temporal.

We believe that a Catholic might be so devoted to the interests of his church as not to be the best choice of a conglomerate people for leadership in temporal affairs. Such a man might be a good cardinal and a poor governor.

There might also be Methodists or Baptists so devout as to be excellent bishops and pastors of their churches, but not ideal congressmen or senators.

In deed, so far as the experience of this country goes, everyone has been better off when there has been a complete severance as possible of church and state. As we look back through history we see few instances in which theocracies—states governed or largely influenced by religion; the Aztecs or the Sublime Porte of Spain or royal France—have been governed according to our ideas of what is good government.

In the case of Al Smith, however, as far as his public record goes—and that goes back almost to his boyhood—there is no evidence that his private religion has ever influenced his public acts adversely to the public welfare.

We feel convinced that in measuring the qualifications of Al Smith it is proper to exclude his religion as a reason for voting either for or against him.—Liberty, New York.

ABOUT TOWN

"The time has come when the man who lives on the farm must think seriously for himself and act with his neighbor as a group," Judge Frank Wooten declared today, discussing the need of readjustment of farm life in this community.

"There are five big industries in Eastern North Carolina, namely: Farming, banking, transportation, fertilizer business and merchandising. Of these farming is the greatest and should act as other groups in maintaining the business on a profitable basis.

"While these groups are competitive in a sense, yet there exists a mutual interest and the farmer should avail himself of every opportunity to co-operate with other lines of business for the common good."

"The meeting held at the Rotary Club Saturday night was the beginning of a series of conferences looking to readjustment of farming in Eastern Carolina, and particularly in Pitt county," E. F. Arnold, director of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture, said today.

"The group Saturday night voted for a conference early in October to continue discussion of the subject and to stimulate and encourage the farmer to put his farm on a self-sustaining basis. Channels by which poultry and livestock may be sent to the outside market will be one of the high lights of the conference discussion.

"Growers should not fail to attend these conferences. They are of benefit to everybody, having the future welfare at stake. Make it a point to attend the conferences when invited, Mr. Grower, and assist in every way possible in increasing the revenue of the section."

"The assurance of Frank Kugler, district highway commissioner, that the old river bridge over Tar river will not be dismantled until approaches to the new bridge have been made safe for traffic, will be received with pleasure by people in this city, although numbers still maintain that the old structure should be left standing," said a local business man today.

"Since the Highway Commission has not seen fit to let the old bridge remain intact, it is gratifying to note that the approaches to the new span will be put in such condition that travel may be carried on as usual. Both bridges could be used to splendid advantage in the busy season of the year, and it seems a pity that something that might easily continue to serve the county should be totally destroyed."

"Our baby may not be the prettiest in the county, but he may possess sufficient physical charm to win a prize in the baby show at the Pitt County Fair," said members of the organization today.

"It is impossible to say right at this time how many children will be entered in the contest. But it is safe to say every part of the country will be well represented. Numbers of babies have already been entered and before the fair begins it is believed many others will be on the lists.

"If you think your baby is particularly attractive, why not enter him in the show and stand a chance of having him placed among the number of successful contestants for honors of the fair?"

"Hitting a nail on its head is not always a pleasant process," commented a reader of this paper today as he told us a story of a love-lorn young man attempting to win the hand of the idol of his heart.

"Don't believe you love me, the young man is quoted as saying.

"You certainly hit the nail on the head that time," she replied. "I repeat, hitting a nail on the head in a case like this is not only displeasing, but actually disconcerting," our informant declared.

"General Lawrence Tyson, of Knoxville, Tenn., certainly put across a great message in behalf of democracy in this city last night," declared a member of the Democratic Club today.

That party members should stay with their ticket regardless of what may be said to the contrary. It might be all right to consider a change if anything better was in view, but since the party offers something far superior to the other dominant party, it might be well to do as the former Pitt County agitators.

"Such men as General Tyson are doing a wonderful work in the present campaign. They know what the people want, and knowing it, are able to present it in a highly informative and interesting way."

"People living in the precincts to be visited by Democratic speakers next Thursday should take advantage of the opportunity to hear the issues of the present campaign discussed," asserted a party member today.

"These speakers are well informed regarding the controverted questions facing the county at this time and should be able to give an illuminating description of recent developments.

"Don't forget the date—next Thursday evening—and go out to hear what your speaker has to say."

The Hope Of A Nation.

The TRUTH for us to remember at all times, and especially in these critical times, is the TRUTH that the hope of a nation is not in its forms of government, nor in the wisdom and equity of its executive. Nor in the justice and purity of its administration, so much as in the elevation and redemption of individual character among its people. Yet when you are a bred and born Democrat, you should stick to your party and you will, unless you are a turncoat.

So let's jump on the wagon. The Democratic wagon. And all take a ride: Hoover is the wagon Curtis is the horse, Robinson's the driver, BUT Al Smith's the BOSS. Then jump on the wagon. The Democratic wagon. Jump on the wagon. And we'll all take a ride.

Garbisch To Play Big Part in Navy Football Season

West Point, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The drop-kicking genius of Ed Garbisch may play a part in whatever successes the Army football eleven wins on the next ten Saturday afternoons.

Four years have passed since the great Garbisch, center of the Army team, won a Navy game entirely single-footed by footing four field goals for the only points of the game and a 12 to 0 victory.

Since that day the slim young man with the accurate toe was graduated and substituted the miff of the business man for the gray of the service school. His business allows him quite a bit of leisure and he has placed his services at the call of Head Coach "Bill" Jones. There has been no official announcement about it and there probably won't be, but it would not be at all surprising to see the captain show some hitherto unexpected strength in goal kicking from the field this year. "Bill" Jones has a pretty accurate idea of the importance of the foot in this game of football. It was the good right toe of Bruce Caldwell that cost the Army the Yale game and a clean sweep of its schedule last season.

So since Garbisch is available there is little doubt that he will be used. He has done a bit of instruction already and as a result some of the more obscure members of the squad may be seen at odd moments, booting away at the goal posts on their own initiative, hopeful of developing a kicking talent that will make them valuable to the team.

But as Garbisch sees it, the kicker should be some regular member of the line-up. If so, it is not unlikely that the man picked will be Chris Cagle, the read headed ace of the backfield. Cagle is no novice at drop kicking. He booted over two extra-points after touchdown in the Navy game of last year. The coaching of Garbisch might make him a kicking star. Another prospect is Charley Allan, of Tampa, who has been picked to fill the shoes of Harry Wilson, the one first-class back lost through graduation.

Giants Pitch Fitzsimmons
New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Striving to hold their place in the National League pennant race by making it three straight over Cincinnati, the Giants sent Fred Fitzsimmons to the mound in the final game of the series today. Fitzsimmons, huge left-hander, opposed him. This was Andy Cohen's day at the Polo Grounds, and before the game the players of both teams gathered at the plate, while a group of Andy's admirers presented a check for $1,000 to him.

Bas Season Extended
Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Announcement was made by the State Department of Conservation and Development today that the open season for taking small mammals in mountain counties of the State, under a ruling by the fisheries committee, will not close until November 1st, instead of October 1st, as originally advertised.

CONNIE MACK SEES FAILURE AHEAD TODAY

By HERBERT W. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Connie Mack has had many a bitter disappointment, but none to compare with what 1928 seems to have in store for him. To fail at the very edge of splendid triumph will cause him more grief than he knew when his Philadelphia Athletics were chronic tail enders.

And fall it seems the 1928 Athletics must. Connie built this year with the utmost diligence, carefully blending veteran experience with fiery youth, so that the qualities of both were used with the best advantage. That product of his genius bettered its way to the top of the league only to slip back after a tenure of only one day.

Since that late series with their dread rivals, the New York Yankees, when the Athletics lost three out of four and their hold on last place, Connie's charges have been presented with a number of opportunities to overhaul the leaders only to fail at the most critical moments.

Take yesterday for example: Walter Miller, tricky left hander, of the Cleveland Indians, set the Yankees down with five hits and beat them 4 to 3. Presented with a golden chance to snip the Yankees two game lead to two, the A's instead were bowled over by the St. Louis Browns, 2 to 2, leaving the relative standing of the two clubs unchanged. It was the second time in three days that the A's passed an opportunity to gain with only five games on Philadelphia's schedule and six for the Yankees.

Connie's chances of winning his first pennant since 1914 seem slim indeed.

The Washington Senators took undisputed possession of fourth place by turning back the Chicago White Sox 8 to 4. The Boston Red Sox found Sam Gibson for only five hits and Detroit coasted to an 8 to 0 victory.

Meanwhile the St. Louis Cards protected their one game lead in the National by trouncing Brooklyn 9 to 2, while the New York Giants home-ran their way to a 7 to 4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. All of the Giants' runs were scored on homers, Lefty O'Doul getting two with one each for Mel Ott and Travis Jackson. Jackson's came with two on in the eighth and broke a 4-4 tie that existed at that moment. Outside of these home runs Ray Kolp pitched well, outpitched Larry Benton, in fact, but those long clouts enabled the Giants' Red Head to record his 25th victory of the year.

The Cubs retained their mathematical chance to win the pennant by trouncing the Phillies 7 to 6. The Pittsburgh Pirates took the first game of a double header from the Braves, 3 to 1, in ten ninings but were beaten in the nightcap 4 to 2.

REVISE POLO TEAM FOR MATCH SATURDAY

New York, Sept. 25—(AP)—A revised polo team will represent the United States Saturday in the first match with an Argentine team for the championship of the Americas.

J. Cheever Cowdin and W. Averell Harriman have been dropped in favor of Winston Guest, former Yale star and Stephen Sanford.

The new squad, as revised by the defense committee of the United States Polo Association will line up with Sanford in Harriman's place at Number 1. Captain Tommy Hitchcock in Number Two position, Malcolm Stevenson at Number Three, and Guest, former Yale star and Stephen Sanford.

The committee announced the new lineup in a terse statement which said that the change had been decided upon as a result of developments of the past two weeks. What these "developments" were the committee neglected to say.

N. C. points: You will be filled on Gould story and first of Hot Springs.

Postpone Terry Fight Greensboro, N. C. Sept. 25—(AP)—The scheduled fight between Bill Terry and "Ko" Billy Dugan here last night was postponed on account of poor attendance and chilly weather. Promoters announced that the affair would be staged Wednesday night.

Some 350 or 400 fans were around the ring when the announcement was made.

New York, Tommy Green, Omaha, outpointed Sammy White, New York 10.

Women Begin Golf Play in Virginia

Hot Springs, Va., Sept. 25—(AP)—The women who was one among many to qualify found it harder to get one out of two with match play beginning today in the annual national women's golf championship. It was no longer a battle against old man par in a general melee, but the smothering of stroke for stroke with a zealous opponent.

Sixteen of the 32 who won the right to continue play today were contestants last year, but a sprinkling of younger stars who matched the best efforts of the veterans was among the newcomers. Five players who qualified last year had dropped by the wayside, as did Miss Margaret Curtis, of Manchester, Mass., three times a champion.

Miss Maureen Orcutt of Englewood, N. J., whose 80 was good enough for low medalist honors, was matched against Mrs. Austin Pardee of Chicago, who came out of the west to lead the way for more than half of those to qualify.

Miss Beatrice Gottlieb of New York provided herself with a strange set of clubs for her round with the long-hitting Glenna Collett of Providence, a former champion and a favorite again. Miss Gottlieb decided that her own clubs were too light and borrowed a set slightly heavier.

Canada's bid for the title was upheld by Miss Helen Paget of Ottawa, and Miss Dora Virtue of Montreal. The former found the way to the championship blocked in the first match by a formidable opponent Mrs. Miriam Burns Tyson of Kansas City, the champion. Miss Virtue's opponent was Mrs. L. C. Nelson of Dayton, Ohio, whom she beat by four strokes in yesterday's play.

Buffalo—Fredde Mueller, Buffalo, outpointed Pete Petrolle, Fargo, N. D. 10.

Leads Big Green

Richard W. Black, one of the big cogs in Dartmouth's backfield, will captain the 1928 Big Green football team.

Asheville Wins Another Game

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 25—(AP)—A game saved is a game earned in the axiom log of the Asheville Tourists. When they resumed play in the series to determine the baseball championship of the South, Class B today, they do so with count even, two all thanks to their ability to stop rallies and stage them with equal facility.

Asheville won 5 to 3 yesterday, after a ninth inning rally. Until that time they were on the short end of a 2 to 1 count in games rolled up by Montgomery in the first three engagements at Asheville. The team first winning four games, will take the title.

YANKS HAVE BIG HITTERS OF CIRCUIT

By ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 25—(AP)—The infield strength or weakness of the four clubs still in the thick of the major league pennant battles offers a wide range of contrast in figuring the world's series dope.

The Yankees have the heaviest hitting array of the lot and the most experienced. The Giants have the fastest and youngest set of inner workers, a brilliant quartet that averages only 25 and hits for .308.

The Athletics are another seasoned group with a young fire brand in Jimmy Foxx. The Cardinals rely chiefly on the Twin stars of the right side, Bottomley and Frisch.

On paper, the Yankees, averaging .320 at bat, present the most formidable array but their defense has been weakened by the removal of Joe Dugan, and the long absence of Tony Lazzeri, now back at his post, but not up to his 1927 form. The substitution of Gene Bevenson for Dugan at third adds more punch to the quartet, all the inner members of which are well over the 300 mark, but jumping Joe's skill in the field is missed.

Much of the late season spurt of the Athletics was due to the infield shift that first put the hard hitting Foxx on third base, then moved him to first, with the veteran Jimmy Dykes at the far corner. Bishop and Boley form a great combination around second base, while Moe has taken a new lease on life at bat.

There isn't a snapper combination to watch in either league than the infield quartet of the Giants, no matter whether Andy Reese or Andy Cohen is at second base. Terry, always a hard stalker, has developed into one of the game's best first basemen, while Jackson and Lindstrom present a stone-wall defense on the left side. There is dash and fire in this quartet with Lindstrom probably the ranking third sacker of the senior circuit now, a smoother workman than even the famous pie traynor, Pirate Captain.

The Cardinal infield, oldest and weakest hitting of the four now in the limelight, has not been together long enough to function as smoothly as any of the others. It has the most spectacular fielding second sacker in Frisch, whose batting has fallen off, and the league's leading clean up slugger in first baseman Jim Bottomley. But the old war horse, Rabbit Maranville, can't scoop 'em up at short the way Tommy Thevenow did in 1926 before a broken leg stopped his progress. Andy High has replaced Lester Bell at third and is doing nicely at it, but he does not compare with Lindstrom in any department of the game.

Dundee To Fight Thompson. Baltimore, Sept. 25—(AP)—Joe Dundee, welterweight champion of the world, has signed to meet Jack Thompson, California negro, in Madison Square Garden with the title at stake. Thompson knocked Dundee out in the second round of a non-title bout in Chicago last month. The bout will be 15 rounds to a decision on Friday, November 16th.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 14 to 23 points under realizing and selling for a reaction after yesterday's advances. The disposition to take profits on long cotton was increased by relatively easy Liverpool cables, while there also seemed to be extensive southern selling, but initial offerings were absorbed by trade or speculative buying, and the market soon turned steadier.

GRAIN MARKET

(Associated Press Market Editor) Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—With millions of bushels of wheat being delivered from Canadian farms, and with Argentine underselling Canada in Europe, wheat prices here suffered a material setback today. Meanwhile, beneficial rains in Argentina were reported and, showers in Australia, with export demand for wheat from North America virtually at a standstill.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1 1/8- to 1 3/4-¢ net lower; corn, carrying from 1-¢ decline to 1¢ advance; oats, 1-8¢ to 5-8¢ off, and provisions unchanged to 5/16¢ down.

STOCK MARKET

By STANLEY W. PRENOSI, Associated Press Financial Editor.

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Heavy selling from both accounts turned the course of prices reactionary today after an early outburst of strength had carried more than a score issues to new high levels. Except for the calling of about $10,000,000 in loans, presumably in reflection of the semi-weekly adjustment by banks of their position at the Federal Reserve, there was nothing in the day's news to influence the selling movement. Brokers generally were inclined to regard the setback as a natural correction of a top-heavy speculative position.

Brokers reported that the belief had been growing in speculative circles that no serious reaction was likely before election day, although obviously there was nothing tangible on which such an opinion could be based. Thousands of small speculators have been attracted to the market in the hope of making quick profits. "Bear" traders, sensing an unhealthy market condition, began to hammer stocks around midday, being aided in their operations by the fact that the ticker had fallen 40 minutes or more behind the market.

So quick was the decline in some issues, and so late the tape, that prices on the floor, in some cases, were several points away from those appearing on the tape. When this information was circulated throughout the country over the private wires of brokers, selling pressure increased.

Montgomery-Ward dropped from an early high of 258 1/2 to 250. Murray Corporation dropped 10 points from its early high and Radio and Greene Cananea Copper sold 5 points below yesterday's final quotations. General Motors, Hudson, Atlantic Refining, Case Threshing, Freed Steel Car, preferred, Johns Manville and Rossia Insurance were

Draw the Fires

Two frogs—pessimist and optimist—fell into a pail of milk. The pessimist opened his mouth and croaked. The optimist swam round and round and soon was sitting pretty on a pat of butter.

You may have been having a lot of trouble with your heating plant. Maybe your house hasn't been warm all over; maybe you haven't got as much heat out of your fuel as you ought to get.

No use being a pessimist. There is a way to make every wrong right.

Now—right now—before you draw your fire for the season, let us look at your heating plant and see what's the matter. Then when the fire is out, we can make repairs, replace old parts, do all that should be done to put your plant in order.

Do this, and when the days grow cold next Fall you will be sitting pretty. And you'll save money, too.

NERVOUS HEADACHE

Kentuckian Tells How Taking Black-Draught Relieved His Pains and How Well He Feels Now.

Waynesburg, Ky.—How a few doses of Theodor's Black-Draught brought relief to a man who had been suffering from frequent spells of severe headache, is told below in the statement of Mr. Charles F. Todd, of Esteburg, near this place. "I was suffering with nervous headaches. About once a week I would have these headaches, and have to quit work, and go to bed for about twenty-four hours. I would have pains in my neck, and right behind my right ear.

"A merchant at Esteburg saw me one day when I was suffering, and told me to try taking Black-Draught, which I did.

"I took a package home that night, and took a few doses. It relieved me. From that time on, I would take Black-Draught as soon as I felt like I was going to have one of those headaches—and they wouldn't come on.

"Every few weeks, I take three or four doses of Black-Draught, and I feel so well, and do my work, and don't lose any more time with headache.

"I haven't had a headache in six months."

Costs only one cent a dose. Get a package today. NC-159
