PLANE BURNS WHEN FORCED DOWN TODAY

U. S. Mail Also Destroyed When Kytile's Plane Crashes Near Winston-Salem

Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Johnny Kytile, crack pilot of the Atlanta-New York air mail route, has paid his second enforced and unscheduled visit to North Carolina in as many months.

The airman crashed his ship early yesterday morning at Rural Hall, near here, after becoming lost in the fog between Spartanburg and Greensboro and flying blindly over the country side until fuel shortage forced him to earth.

A few weeks previously he brought his plane down on a mountain side near Old Fort under similar circumstances. Both times he escaped serious injury.

Kytile's latest crash proved the more serious of his enforced landings in North Carolina, although not the most serious of his career. After bringing his big mail-wing to earth yesterday morning, the pilot extricated himself from the wreckage and started off to summon aid when his ship burst into flame. All inflammable parts about the airplane were burned and the valuable bags of mail also were destroyed in the blaze. Kytile suffered only minor cuts and bruises in the crash up.

First word that the ship was probably lost came from Greensboro shortly after midnight when Kytile was more than an hour overdue from Spartanburg. The weather along the route was thickening and he was expressed for his safety.

He was more than three hours overdue when he finally landed and only a few quarters of gasoline remained in his tanks. Describing his experience to Rural Hall residents the pilot said that he lost his way after passing northward over Lexington, N. C.

The fog became so thick that he could not see the revolving beacons that mark the airman's route, he said.

At one time, he said, he thought he was over Greensboro and subsequent reports confirmed this belief, but the fog was so thick that he could not attempt a landing.

A glance at his gasoline gauges showed him that about 15 gallons of fuel remained in his tanks and he began flying in wide circles over the country side in hopes of finding a clearing in the fog that would permit him to drop a flare and land.

When he estimated that he had used up his reserve supply of gasoline he found a thin place in the low hanging fog through which he could catch glimpses of the ground. Dropping a flare he descended to land and then discovered that the spot he had picked was a steep hillside with pine trees at the lower edge of the only opening he could use.

It was too late to attempt escape the pilot related, and he braced himself for the crash that followed. The landing gear was torn away, a strut was broken and one wing ripped aside, but the ship remained upright and the pilot crawled out before it burst into flames.

This was the third major crash that Kytile has figured in since he became a pilot on the southern route. Several months ago Kytile blundered into Stone Mountain near Atlanta as he was bound northward with the night mail. His plane was demolished. He received major injuries that kept him in the hospital for some time. Immediately upon his recovery, however, he resumed his duties and later crashed at Old Fort with major damage to the plane, but only slight injuries to himself.

Premier Poincare Puts Cut of French War Debt Up To The United States

Paris, Oct. 1.—(AP)—A speech by Premier Poincare at Cambrey, where he unveiled a war memorial yesterday, was interpreted today as again putting the question of a cut in reparations and a cut in the French debt squarely up to the United States.

The Premier reiterated the French policy that any reduction of Germany's reparation debt to the former Allies "must be accompanied by a corresponding cut in the Inter-Allied debts to the United States. Washington has always maintained that the questions must remain apart."

M. Poincare insisted especially that France still considered the interdependency of reparations and Rhineland evacuation problems as definitely correlated to the Inter-Allied debt question. His reference to debts was brief, but clear, the Premier saying:

"If we are to consider the reparation problem anew, we are obliged to remember that an agreement to be equitable must guarantee France from our debtors beyond the integral amount of what we must pay our creditors, a clear indemnity for our war damages."

The Premier said the peace treaties assured France two things—security and reparation. All steps taken by France since the Armistice, even the occupation of the Ruhr, he said, had been made with a view to promoting either of those ends.

It was thought in American quarters that, should the French government remain adamant in such a policy, it would be practically impossible to make real progress in future negotiations regarding reparations and evacuation of the Rhineland without the active participation of representatives of the United States in the discussion.

Washington, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover is earnestly hopeful that his clear cut announcement on the religious question will serve to prevent over zealous workers in his party from adverting to this subject during the remainder of the campaign, either by written or spoken word.

There probably is no subject upon which the Republican presidential candidate feels more deeply concerned.

Hoover's hope had been that his original declaration to the party workers through Chairman Work of the National committee, and his voluntary pronouncement for religious tolerance in his acceptance address would clarify the atmosphere in this respect and permit the presidential contest to be fought out on the real issues.

Having again made his position clear in two statements concerning the mimeographed letter sent out over the korm signature of Mrs. Willie W. Caldwell, Republican National committeewoman from Virginia, which urged the women to save the United States from being "Romanized," the Return candidate turned today to preparations for the final five weeks' drive of the campaign.

While his plans for the time ensuing until election day, November 6th, still are far from complete, he will make at least five more major addresses before the voters go to the polls. One of these will be delivered at some large western city while he is en route to his California home, and another will be from Palo Alto on election eve.

Conford, N. Y.—Senator Moses declared Smith had not made himself clear on a single issue in western speeches.

GOV. SMITH AT CONVENTION IN ROCHESTER, N.Y.

After Two Weeks Of Campaigning, Candidate Is Sure Of Success In West.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER (Associated Press Staff Writer) Governor Smith's Train En Route To Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Feeling fit, but anxious for a rest after his first two weeks of arduous campaigning, Gov. Smith arrived on home soil today confident that his efforts in the West have had a beneficial effect.

Six formal addresses in as many states, six thousand miles of traveling the rails, approximately fifty persons appearances on the rear platform of his special train to meet political conferences was a matter of history for the Democratic presidential nominee as he neared Rochester for the New York State Democratic convention.

This was the only engagement standing between the governor and four or five days of light activity around the executive mansion and capitol offices in Albany, which he plans to reach tomorrow night. No announcement regarding the itinerary for his second stumping tour is expected to be made until after he reaches the capitol.

A series of conferences with State party leaders has been planned for the nominee soon after his arrival in Rochester. He will address the convention there tonight on the political situation in the State.

Summarizing what he believed had been accomplished by his first two weeks' campaigning tour, Gov. Smith had to say to newspapermen: "I think I have brought home to the people all the issues I spoke about. I think I gave them some pretty good plain talks on the things that were brought up in the course of the two weeks' travel, and I am satisfied that it was very effective."

Asked for an elaboration of his reaction, taking in the farm question, the nominee replied: "There is not anything more to be said about that. What I said about it is a mouthful." The governor based his statement on "the large number of telegrams that keep following my train and by what I hear from the people that listen in on the radio."

Asked if he thought the type of campaigning he followed had justified itself, he said:

"I think the people of this country are fed up on set speeches with meaningless phrases in them. There is no doubt about that. I think it is an innovation to talk right out, talk plainly and give them, as I put it in St. Paul, the 'low down' on the situation they never get in set speeches."

The governor said he felt fine and he looked it when he appeared in the club car for his last press conference.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 1.—(AP)—A story of the heroism of an engineer who by sheer grit triumphed over intense physical distress long enough to insure the safety of his passengers arriving here late yesterday aboard the Srescent Limited.

It was while piloting the Southern Railway's fast train yesterday morning between Monroe, Va., and Salisbury, N. C., his regular run, that Engineer Joe M. Stedman suffered an acute attack of indigestion as he sat at the throttle a few miles out of Danville, Va.

He felt insensibility rapidly closing over him from the stabbing pains in his stomach. Then he thought of the train load of passengers and by a superhuman effort he will managed to apply the brakes. The train rolled to a steady stop just as he collapsed on the floor of his cab.

The summoning of medical aid and organization of an emergency train crew resulted in a delay of about 40 minutes. Finally, with a reman at the throttle and a baggage master acting as fireman, the Crescent was brought into Salisbury.

Passengers made up a purse of $147 for Engineer Stedman, who was reported by officials of the road today to be well on the way to recovery. He was expected to resume his regular post in a few days. Stedman's home is at Cary, N. C.

HOLD FUNERAL FOR VICTIMS OF HURRICANE

Common Funeral Held For 1,000 Dead At West Palm Beach Yesterday.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Blossoms spared by the hurricane today covered the common graves of nearly 1,000 persons who passed in a single night—the visible tokens of Florida's grief for her 2,000 storm dead.

Invisible, but perhaps more expressive of the grief of the 6,000 or more who attended yesterday afternoon's common funeral services here, were the prayers and hymns voiced by massed choirs and the several clegymen who officiated.

The hymns and prayers were lifted skyward even before the yellow smoke had ceased to curl upward from everglades funeral fires over the ashes of those who of necessity were denied even a final resting place. The thousands gathered by the rude graves that were scooped up for the most part by a steam shovel. Metal identification plates marked the graves. There were 69 of them on the grave at a white cemetery here—a cemetery that lay scarred and debris strewn whereas two weeks ago it was a spot of quiet and colorful beauty.

In the case of the 674 negro dead just as for the white victims, the utmost simplicity marked final rites, although cries of bereaved often times drowned out the chanting voices of the ministers.

West Palm Beach laid aside the urgent work of reconstruction as far as possible for the Sunday community funeral, which was not alone for those whose bodies had been buried, but also in honor of all who had been swept into eternity by the hurricane.

Bloody Shirts In Car. Columbia, S. C., Oct. 1.—(AP)—An automobile in which two bloody shirts were found, was taken in charge here last night by Columbia officers who also held for investigation a negro identifying himself as John Gayman, driver of the car. The machine bore a North Carolina license plate and showed evidence of having been in a wreck.

Pitt County Fair Will Open Tomorrow Morning

With main business thoroughfares of the city gaily decorated and intense activity prevailing at the fair grounds, everything was in readiness today for opening of the seventh annual Pitt County fair tomorrow morning. The fair this year is described as the greatest in history, and thousands of people from many parts of the state are expected to be in attendance during the five days it is in progress.

Haywood Dail, secretary, stated today that more new features would be on midway this year than ever before. This part of the attraction will be in charge of Sheesley Shows, which arrived here yesterday from Canada in its thirty-car train. This same aggregation of entertainers are scheduled to play the State Fair at Raleigh the latter part of the month.

Two of the outstanding attractions at the fair this year will be the Baby Show and a colorful pageant, "George Washington's Visit to Pitt County," which is put on under direction of the local chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution. One hundred people will take part in the pageant and they will be dressed to conform with the early period of American life. The play is supposed to represent the Baby Show has attracted attention of parents all over the county and hundreds of infants have been entered in competition for the numbers of grand prizes offered for the perfect child. A grand parade of contestants will be staged in front of the grandstand at the fair grounds next Friday. This is expected to attract possibly the largest crowd of the week.

While these may be counted the leading attractions, there are hundreds of other things that will grip attention of the thousands to be thronging the fair grounds from day to day during the week. Mr. Dail stated that the race program would be above the average and that some of the fastest horses of the circuit would be seen in action. Pur-

Two Killed By Bad Liquor In New York City

New York, Oct. 1.—(AP)—A city-wide clean-up of speakeasies, planned at a secret meeting of police officials last week, was believed to have been given impetus today by the death over the week-end of two persons from alcoholic poisoning and the treatment in hospitals of 25 others. Police said the number was unusually large.

It was said at headquarters that wherever possible the source of the liquor was being traced and that speedy action would be taken against those places and other known saloons. One of the dead and three of those treated at hospitals were women.

Six of the hospital patients were said to be in a coma from which physicians feared they might not recover. Most of the patients were picked up unconscious in the streets.

Margaret Malloy, 40, died in Bellevue Hospital without recovering consciousness after a policeman had found her on 54th street. Robert McKay dropped dead in the Bronx.

HOTEL BURNS AT WILSON

Score Of Persons Have Narrow Escape When Barnes Hotel Is Wrecked By Fire.

Wilson, Oct. 1.—(AP)—More than a score of persons had narrow escapes when the Barnes Hotel, ten-story brick structure here, was destroyed by fire early today. There was a rumor that a guest had been injured by jumping from the third story, but it could not be verified. Most of the guests fled scantily clad from the blazing building.

Discovered at 2:25 o'clock, the flames had already made much headway and were not brought under control for an hour and a half. The walls of the building crashed before the fire was distinguished at 7:30. Guests lost their personal effects, and the hotel's equipment. A grocery store, furniture store, wholesale candy house and bottling plant in adjacent buildings were damaged by smoke and water.

"After you get back to Washington, did you change your mind and urge that a bill be passed providing for 20 per cent local contributions on flood control?"

"Do you approve of the leases made by your two associates in President Harding's cabinet, A. B. S. and Edwin Denby, of the government oil preserves to Doherty and Sinclair or to their corporations?"

"Have you ever expressed your approval of their acts in making these leases?"

"Do you approve of the conduct of Will H. Hayes and John W. Weeks, two more of your associates in the Harding cabinet, in using bonds obtained from Harry F. Sinclair in paying the debts of the Republican party to which you now belong?"

"Would you submit to the senate and recommend its approval of the treaty recently entered into by Secretary Kellogg and Representatives of certain other Great nations to outlaw war, in view of the more recent action of France and England in entering into naval compact against the interests of the United States?"

"Would you recommend to the congress that Muscle Shoals be retained by the government always ready for use for explosives in time of war and to manufacture fertilizer for the farmers in time of peace and the surplus power to be sold on terms which will guarantee the use of cheaper light and power rates?"

"Would you, under any circumstances, recommend to the congress that this vast plant be turned over under lease to a private company or companies?"

SEN. M'KELLER ASKS HOOVER 13 QUESTIONS

Would Determine Republican's Position On Pertinent Issues Of The Day.

Paris, Tenn., Oct. 1.—(AP)—United States Senator Kenneth D. McKeller, of Tennessee, in a speech at a Democratic meeting here today, addressed 13 questions to Herbert Hoover, Republican presidential nominee, with a request they be answered by Mr. Hoover in his Elizabethan address Saturday. "The questions follow:

"If elected, will you appoint or continue Andrew W. Mellon, commonly held to be more interested in the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors than any other man in the country, as your secretary of the treasury, and by virtue of his office, chief prohibition enforcement officer?"

"Should you not appoint Mr. Mellon, would you appoint any one else directly or indirectly interested in the liquor business, or in any way directly or indirectly connected with these in the liquor business as your secretary of the treasury?"

"Do you believe in the desirability of the white and colored race on terms of equality?"

"Did you issue an order compelling for such equality in the management of Commerce on the day then presided last winter?"

"Will you appoint as your collectors, district attorneys, and inspectors enforcement of the law in the South?"

"Did you give out a number of interviews while in the Mississippi valley in the spring of 1927, declaring that Federal Government should take over entirely at its own expense the problem of flood control?"

"After you get back to Washington, did you change your mind and urge that a bill be passed providing for 20 per cent local contributions on flood control?"

"Do you approve of the leases made by your two associates in President Harding's cabinet, A. B. S. and Edwin Denby, of the government oil preserves to Doherty and Sinclair or to their corporations?"

"Have you ever expressed your approval of their acts in making these leases?"

"Do you approve of the conduct of Will H. Hayes and John W. Weeks, two more of your associates in the Harding cabinet, in using bonds obtained from Harry F. Sinclair in paying the debts of the Republican party to which you now belong?"

CARNES PLANS HIS DEFENSE AT WINNIPEG

Baptist Mission Board Secretary To Fight Charges Of Embezzlement.

Atlanta, Oct. 1.—(AP)—While Milton S. Carnes was preparing in Winnipeg, Manitoba, to defend himself against the charge that he embezzled with $1,000,000 in Baptist Church funds, Fulton County authorities were preparing to present new evidence to a grand jury tomorrow.

The former treasurer of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board now faces two indictments charging embezzlement of a total of $150,000 while church authorities and auditors were compiling figures, which they said would show he was about $1,000,000 short in his accounts up to August 15, the day he disappeared from Atlanta.

In jail at Winnipeg, and awaiting removal to Atlanta, Carnes was wired a local firm of attorneys a request that they defend him, and announced the intention of putting up a vigorous fight when he reached the city in custody of an officer and a deputy solicitor who were sent to Canada to get him. They were expected to retrieve him tonight, and bring back the prisoner some time this week. He has expressed a desire to return and "get it over with" as soon as possible.

Carnes was apprehended in Winnipeg last Friday. He had gone here with the expressed purpose of starting a cereal manufacturing concern under the name of F. L. Lewis, of Milwaukee. A former Atlanta was said to have "tipped" Winnipeg officers that a quiet, dignified business man who appeared in the Canada city three weeks ago answered the description of Carnes.

Production Of N. C. Industries Show Increases

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 1.—(AP)—North Carolina industries in 1927 turned out products valued at $1,124,821,64, an increase of ten per cent over the 1925 output, it was announced today by Major Wade H. Phillips, of the Department of Conservation and Development, on the basis of returns taken for the Federal Government's biennial census of manufactures. The industrial trend of the state, it was said, was shown by an increase of 23,370 in the number of wage earners, who numbered 205,604 last year.

Mail Plane Delayed. Mexico City, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Foggy weather today delayed departure of a Mexican mail plane on its first trip to San Antonio to establish an air mail service between the United States and Mexico.

The pilot said that he hoped to reach Laredo before nightfall, but that he did not expect to reach San Antonio today.

WOULD AVERT REFERENCES TO RELIGION

Herbert Hoover Hopes Religious Issue Will Be Left Out Of Campaign.

New York.—Program of 33 speeches on Ohio to Pacific coast announced for Senator Robinson.

TO PUSH COX FOR HEAD OF LEGION BODY

Van of N. C. Delegation On Way To San Antonio Convention Today.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 1.—(AP)—The announced intention of pushing the candidacy of General Albert L. Cox, Raleigh, for National Commander, the van of North Carolina's delegation to the annual convention of the American Legion, was on its way to San Antonio today. A special car left here last night carrying the party.

Aboard the car were R. C. Powell, State Adjutant; George K. Freeman, Goldsboro, National committeeman; and Mrs. Freeman; M. S. Robinson, Goldsboro, District Commander; and Mrs. Robinson; Capt. and Mrs. Al Gosney; Joseph Daniels, Jr., Grand Conductor of the "Forty and Eight"; Miss Margaret Fetner, of Charlotte, and General and Mrs. Cox. Dr. I. T. Mann of High Point, was scheduled to join the car at Greensboro.

The local delegation expressed optimism over General Cox's chances, saying it is time that a southern man be elected to the Legion's highest office, and that leading veterans of the south have announced their support of the Raleigh candidate.

Geneva, Ala., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Three prisoners whose identity was carefully guarded by officers, and documents taken from a dead man's pockets which led to their arrest were factors today in the mystery which still cloaked the murder of Prof. C. F. Avant, Slomcomb, Ala., school principal.

Sheriff G. C. Hughes, who had been investigating the sudden disappearance of the teacher a week ago until the discovery of his crushed and stabbed body last Friday near Bonifay, Fla., said he hoped to clear the case within 24 hours.

WRIGHT TELLS OF RELIGIOUS POLICY HERE

President Of Teachers' College Outlines School's Attitude Toward Religion.

Dr. Robert H. Wright, president of East Carolina Teachers College, in a clear and forceful manner outlined the college's policy and attitude toward religion and the spiritual development of its students. His speech was in part as follows:

As is my custom, on the first Saturday of each fall term, I make a talk to you young women on the subject of religion. I do this because I want you to get a clear conception of this college and its attitude towards matters spiritual.

To start with, ours is a state institution and in the state institutions we are not supposed to teach denominationalism. The constitution of the United States, the constitution of our state, the fundamental law of government under which we live is based in a large measure on the separation of church and state. This school, therefore, being a state school does not use its influence in any way, shape or form to set you to attend any particular church. You have your religious freedom if you are a student of this institution.

There is, however, another side to it that I feel should be called to your attention. The state is exceedingly anxious through the public school system and other educational institutions, through its laws and the operation of its government to develop every human being in this country into the very best possible citizen. While church and state are separated officially, as a matter of fact, the state includes all of the churches. Just the nature of the thing makes it so.

Now if the state includes all the churches and if the state wants to help make the best possible citizen of each child born in this country then it is a vital interest to the state that each individual be given an opportunity to develop so as to make the finest possible type of citizen. That cannot be done unless the individual develops his spirit life.

The foundation of this republic is laid in this one great book called the Bible. This government is founded upon the laws of Jehovah as revealed in his written word and while the state does not in any way interfere with the various and sundry ways of worshipping Jehovah, it does protect the citizens and encourages them to worship.

We do not require you to join a Sunday school but we urge you to connect yourself with one of the religious bodies of this community. For that reason the college allows the students to go regularly to the morning worship and not only allows but really and truly urges you to go. If you happen to belong to one of the churches that carries a Sunday school we urge you to join it and to be a regular attendant. The churches in Greenville are always glad to see you and they are putting themselves out to provide the necessary space and the necessary teaching force to see that you have the opportunity to study the word of God in the Sunday schools and in the churches of the community and I want to urge you with all the earnestness I can to join one of these Sunday schools and go to Sunday school every Sunday and to go on time. I want to urge you to study the lesson before you go, to study the word of God and become acquainted with His law that you may shape your life in keeping thereto.

Now I want to tell you what church to go to. You belong to some church at home, or your family belongs to some church. Find that church in Greenville and go to that church. If you are a Baptist at home, be a Baptist here; if you are a Presbyterian at home, be a Presbyterian here; if you are an Episcopalian there, be one here; Christian there, be one here, and so on clear through the whole list of churches.

There are forms of organizations throughout this land, working in the high schools and colleges trying

Japan Begins Jury System

Tokyo, Oct. 1—(AP)—Today witnessed the incorporation of that essentially Anglo-American institution, trial by jury, in the legal system of the Japanese Empire. Heretofore Japan has drawn almost entirely in China and Continental Europe for its juristic patterns. The purpose of the innovation was explained to the Democratization of Criminal Procedure and the increase of popular confidence in the courts by opening the way for greater public participation in criminal trials.

The new jury law is limited in scope, and the inauguration of the new system followed a long period of study. The jury system law was passed by the Diet nearly six years ago and promulgated in April, 1923. In the intervening period many Japanese judges have visited America and England to witness the use of jury trial, sat on the bench with American and British judges and studied the methods of presenting evidence to juries and judges' instructions to jurors. The principal criminal courts of the country have undergone considerable physical remodeling, to make room for the seating of juries and provide dormitories for jurors held from public contact during a long trial. These accommodations embody the latest improvements and comforts.

Trial by jury will be used only in criminal cases, and is limited to cases punishable by death or by imprisonment exceeding three years. It must be granted on application of the accused, who must ask for trial within ten days of his formal summons for public trial.

I want to ask you this morning, you who are away from home for the first time, to make up your mind this morning that you are going to live the kind of a life that will help to make of you the best possible type of young woman and you cannot do that without working at it. You are going to get homesick tomorrow and I hope you do. I hope you love that home so much you will miss it tomorrow because if you love your home it is a good sign. Go to church, come to the Young Women's Christian Association tomorrow night, write a love letter to mother tomorrow and if you cannot hold it in any longer, get up to the lavatory and cry it full, but have backbone enough and think enough of the home folks to stick to it and work out your own solution and religion will help you more in that than all the books and all the teaching we can do for you.

JUDGE GUY ELLIOTT RESIGNS IN KINSTON Kinston, Sept. 30—The eight years' service of Guy Elliott as judge of police court here ended this evening. Elliott resigned for an unexplained reason. Friends said he would give closer attention to his law practice.

In the 1928 primary Elliott was defeated for re-nomination on the Democratic ticket by P. D. Croom. Croom will be formally elected next month and his term will begin December 1. It is believed the council and commissioners tomorrow night will name him to fill out Elliott's term.

BIG GORILLA FEATURED AT COUNTY FAIR

Sheesley Shows To Play Midway At Pitt County Fair This Week.

Big Jim, the only gorilla in captivity, is being featured by the Greater Sheesley Shows which arrived this morning with a wealth of entertainment features for the Gladway at the Pitt County Fair this week. Big Jim is attended by a retinue of servants and his health is as carefully guarded as that of an operatic prima donna.

A magic city sprung up in a few hours on the fair grounds after the 26-car special circus train arrived and the 75 big wagons had been taken to the lot. The Sheesley Shows played three months in Canada this season at leading fairs and expositions. Capt. John M. Sheesley, noted American showman, who is well known here, is in personal charge of all departments of his organization.

Big Jim was acquired at the Canadian National Exposition in Toronto by Captain Sheesley. The giant simian having been exhibited to thousands during the big show there. Big Jim will be presented in Greenville in a specially built cage. His form resembles that of a human being; he tops the scales at about 300 pounds and his reach is ten feet. It is well known that gorillas are difficult to rear in captivity, but he is a hardy specimen and may live many years more. He is a strict vegetarian and will not touch meat. At times he becomes hard to manage and covers himself with a blanket to shield him from curious eyes. His legs are very short and he is covered with long, golden-brown hair. Big Jim was caught in the wilds of the island of Borneo and was brought to New York last autumn.

Jean A. Lussier, the Canadian? Frenchman, who went over Niagara Falls in a rubber ball of his own manufacture last July 4, is with the Sheesley Shows and will exhibit his big ball on the midway and lecture on his thrilling experience, he now being the only man living who accomplished the feat and lived to tell the tale.

Captain Sheesley this season is said to have the best show in his long career as a caterer to outdoor amusements, there being an exposition of modern riding devices and the last word in strange and curious attractions for the tented shows.

Wright Plane To Stay in London For Five Years

London, Oct. 1—(AP)—Whatever the outcome of the controversy centering about the original Wright airplane which is now in the Victoria and Albert Museum, the plane will remain here for at least five years under the agreement by which it was accepted.

Officials of the museum, commenting on reports that the plane might be sent to the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, said that they had not received any such request from Orville Wright.

The Smithsonian Institution last week published a booklet in which all the details of the controversy concerning the proper proportion of credit for the invention of the airplane as between the Wright brothers and Samuel Pierpont Langley were discussed. What were interpreted in some quarters as many concessions to the cause of the Wright brothers were made, but in an interview with the Associated Press in Dayton, Ohio, Orville Wright merely reiterated a previous request that the whole matter be referred to disinterested persons.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. # LOCAL FLOOD FUND STILL ON INCREASE

Eighth Street Church Of Christ Contributes $40.00 to Florida Sufferers.

A contribution of $40.00 by the Eighth Street Church of Christ today swelled the local Red Cross hurricane fund to $620.55, according to figures compiled by Mrs. J. L. Hassell, chairman of the Pitt county chapter of the American Red Cross. Pitt county's quota for the storm area is $750.00 and it was believed by members of the committee today that the total sum would be raised during the week. The quota was first placed at $500.00 but as the seriousness of the flood situation continued to increase the quota for this county was raised to the present one.

Work of caring for the thousands of homeless in the storm devastated regions of Florida is being conducted by the Red Cross. The task is one of the greatest in history of the organization. The death toll to date has reached the 2,300 mark which is way above the figures given in first reports of the disaster.

Numbers of communities in Pitt county, Mrs. Hassell said today, have not yet contributed to the flood fund, but they are expected to do so within the next several hours. The contribution of the Christian Church was raised during services yesterday, many members of the congregation having previously contributed.

Another dollar was added to the fund today when J. E. Allsbrook gave the sum of $1.00.

Alumnae Association Of N. C. C. W. To Meet In Bethel Thursday

On October 6th at Bethel, N. C., at 12 o'clock, there will be a meeting of the Pitt County Alumnae Association of the North Carolina College for Women. The meeting will be in charge of Miss Sallie Joyner Davis.

Every alumnae within reach is urged to attend this meeting.

On October 5, 1893, the North Carolina College opened its doors as the first college established by the State for the education of its young women, although the State University for young men had been in existence for a hundred years.

This event marked the beginning of a new epoch in the life of the State. In commemoration of its significance, and in member of its first great leader, Dr. Charles Duncan McIver, the college in 1910 set aside October 5th as an annual holiday, known since then as Founder's Day.

Regular work is laid aside on the campus and appropriate exercises in which faculty, students, and alumnae join, mark the occasion.

Alanson B. Houghton, ambassador to Great Britain, is mentioned as a likely candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator at the New York state convention at Rochester.

Among the most interesting features are the messages of good will and appreciation which come from the absent daughters of the college from all parts of the world and which are read to the assembly. Founder's Day has come to be regarded as one of the notable events in the college calendar.

For four years the alumnae throughout the State and elsewhere have joined with the parent college in a local celebration of this most significant date in the history of their college, and in many respects, their own history. A uniform program is sent out from the office of the alumnae secretary, Miss Clara B. Byrd, to the local chairmen. This year the program was prepared by the Roanoke-Rapids-Rosemary Alumnae Club, with Miss Annie Cherry as chairman of the special committee. Other members are Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Lehman, Miss Wilma Beckwith, Miss Mary Nixon, and Miss Hildergard Brock. It is called a "Fantasy in Two Acts," the two scenes being laid, first in the assembly hall of "Service," the reigning spirit of the realm, and the second around the banquet table.

Simple but effective costuming and pageantry have been outlined. The speeches of the leading character, "Service," are especially good, some of them being written in blank verse. At the banquet table, certain objectives are set forth—the Golden Quest, to accomplish which Service sends forth her Knights. Appropriate songs, ritual and lighting—all have their part in the play.

Within reach will make every effort to be present and thus give concrete evidence of your own sense of gratitude to your college and your faith in its future.

PITT CO. ALUMNAE ASSN.

Mrs. J. A. Stator, President.

Miss Elizabeth Bost, Secretary

Tonight the Bonus Vote ends, and it is going to cause many drastic changes in the standings of the babies in the race for the Grand Prizes that are to be awarded at the Pitt County Fair grounds on Friday afternoon at 2:00 p. m., October 5th.

The early morning voting was very brisk and before 8 o'clock it is sure to break a few records in the annals of Baby Shows, for the Director Manager, Mr. Verne Newcombe, says that he has never seen so many interested parents that are really working hard for the Grand Prizes which are to be awarded. ABOUT TOWN

"Quite an honor has been conferred upon W. L. Whedbee, of this city, in his appointment as chairman of the young men's Democratic club of the first congressional district," asserted members of the Pitt county executive committee today.

"We don't know of anybody more capable of filling this position than the recently elected judge of Pitt county court. He has shown marked ability as a member of the bar and in political skirmishes in this section, and it is a conceded fact that he will do much to assure success of the Democratic party in this district."

"Young men are going to play an important part in the coming election to choose county, state and national tickets, and with men like Bill Whedbee behind the campaign it is a settled fact that success is as bright as it has ever been before."

"With the local tobacco market a million pounds ahead of last season's record for this period, it is confidently expected the goal of seventy million pounds set for this season will be realized," said a member of the Greenville market today.

"Had we been favored with weather conditions similar to that of last season we would be beyond the twenty million mark at this time. However, with improvements in the weather situation the next several weeks is expected to see sales of sufficient volume to put us way ahead of the same period last season."

"The Greenville market has the farmers of Eastern North Carolina at heart. They have made improvements looking to his convenience and comfort, and his visits here should be filled with pleasant memories of good treatment and fair prices."

"The Yanks and the Cardinals will participate in the world's baseball series this year," remarked a reader of The Reflector today, discussing the remarkable come-back of the Yankees during the final days of the battle.

"This is the sixth time in the last eight years that the Yankees have taken part in a world's series. Their ability to win over insurmountable obstacles is one of the outstanding features of their success."

"Murderers' row performed with remarkable effectiveness in the closing games of the season and enabled the veteran Miller Huggins to draw the first breath of relief in several weeks."

"The game fight of the Giants to oust the Cardinals held fans in breathless suspense the closing days of the battle, but somehow, John McGraw's machine just couldn't deliver in the crisis."

"Lovers of the game will have the opportunity of seeing play-by-play reports on the Reflector playograph beginning next Thursday, and continuing daily until the end of the series. This service is of exceptional merit and will give the fans each play as quickly as they are made."

"We hope to be able to reach our quota of $750.00 within the next several hours," declared members of the local organization of the American Red Cross today.

"Greenville and Pitt county people have responded quite liberally to the call for aid of the hurricane devastated areas and are to be congratulated for raising the desired amount."

"While we have apparently been slow, other sections have not responded as quickly as we have. In fact some towns in this immediate section of the State not only responded slowly, but failed to raise the sum asked of them."

"This is one of the greatest causes the public has had an opportunity of contributing to in years. It is a cause launched in behalf of humanity, and certainly one the public should be intensely interested."

"Organization of democracy among the young men and women of the country is proceeding nicely," members of the local Democratic Club said today.

"The young men and women are exhibiting more than passing interest in the campaign to elect a president this year. They realize that the men who are to sit at the helm of government for a period of four years should be as representative as possible of the American people. With this end in view, thousands will go to the polls in November and cast their vote for their party."

KIDNAP FARM OPERATOR IS APPREHENDED

Andrew Capelano Held By Chicago Police On Serious Charges Today.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Mafia fingers that have reached into the homes of many Chicago Sicilians, seeking tribute by kidnaping and terrorism, were caught today in a police vice steadily tightening to crush them.

Police held the man they say operated the "kidnap farm" at Bourbonnais, Ill., on which little Billy Ranieri was held 13 days while his captors sought unsuccessfully to extort $65,000 ransom from the boy's father.

With this information, the authorities said, they had evidence which they expect will undermine the entire structure of terrorism which has kept hundreds of Chicago Italian families in fear of their lives over a period of many months.

Capelano was arrested at the home of a brother near Herrin, Ill., yesterday. Statements he was reported to have made to arresting officers were so significant, according to Assistant State's Attorney Hoffman, that the grand jury today was to be asked to indict Capelano, his wife, Alfonza, and their 17-year-old son, Tony, for complicity in the kidnaping plot.

"Yes, the kid was at my farm," Capelano was quoted as telling officers. "Two men brought him there. I don't know who they were. They came out there with the boy and told me they'd 'bump me off' if I refused to keep him."

Student Dies While Taking Initiation

Austin, Texas, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Holte McElroy, 19-year-old University of Texas student and athlete of Houston, Texas, was dead today, the victim of a mock delta kappa Epsilon fraternity initiation which turned from a bit of student horse-play to tragedy.

McElroy died last night a few minutes after being shocked by light wires, connected by a rheostat to two sets of bed springs through which he crawled as part of the traditional fraternity ritual for neophytes.

Two physicians who examined the body declined to say whether fright or the electricity itself caused death. Strength of the electrical charge which entered his body was not determined.

District Attorney Moore, who instituted an immediate investigation by questioning upper classmen who participated in the initiation early today had not announced an inquest. No arrests had been made.

The fraternity issued a statement saying the stunt, through which it was asserted five other students had preceded him, and to which 184 other students had been subjected during the local chapter's history.

McElroy was said to have been fed a raw oyster, Saturday with castor oil, as another part of the mock initiation preceding the bed springs stunt.

drafted against his will. Dixie Stalwarts' View Borah's notion of sounding off for Hoover in Southern territory brings to light the stoutly maintained view of such Southern democrats stalwarts as Swanson, of Virginia, that the Hoover forces are due for a surprise when Dixie's votes are counted in November.

They maintain that there has always been reserve regular democratic voting strength in the South, which will be turned out for the first time in decades due to the agitation of anti-Smith factions. They even insist that most Southern anti-Smith Democrats will not go beyond a sort of political sabotage, staying home from the polls and urging friends who think as they do to follow the same protest course.

The celebrated case of Senator Simmons in North Carolina, who failed to round out his anti-Smith pronouncements with a pro-Hoover declaration, is cited in this connection.

The Smith Democrats hold that whatever reduction of normal Democratic pluralities in the South might flow out of this stay-at-home protests will be far more than offset by the election day turn out of Smith voters who in other years would have been satisfied to let the primaries and national convention settle things.

Brookhart Has Question While this skirning was in progress, Brookhart, of Iowa, Hooverized Republican irregular, passed through Washington bound homeward. He was planning a flank attack on Smith prohibition modification declarations. The Iowan will ask, he indicated, why, if Governor Smith really desires to bring about modification of prohibition enforcement, he is supporting for election or re-election some 20 Democratic senatorial candidates, all but three or whom are pledged to keep the Volstead Act virtually intact and without whose votes in the senate, if elected, no modification could actually be accomplished.

Confesses Killing. Slocumb, Ala., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Jim Dunlay, 21-year-old Geneva county farmer, has confessed to the killing of Claude F. Avant, local high school principal, and implicated Giles Bracewell, another farmer, L. E. Gibbons, Henry county sheriff said today.

MASS. LABOR UNIONS REJECT WAGE CUT New Bedford, Mass., Oct. 1.—(AP)—A majority of the seven unions in the New Bedford Textile Council today voted to reject the five per cent wage cut urged as compromise by the state board of conciliation and arbitration and the citizens mediation committee and already accepted by the New Bedford Manufacturers' Association.

The strike against a ten per cent cut in cotton mills here began its 25th week today.

Worth More A house that's heated with radiator heat is worth a lot more—can be rented or sold for more—than a house that isn't so heated.

Radiator heat adds three times the cost of the heating plant to the value of the house. That's a fact.

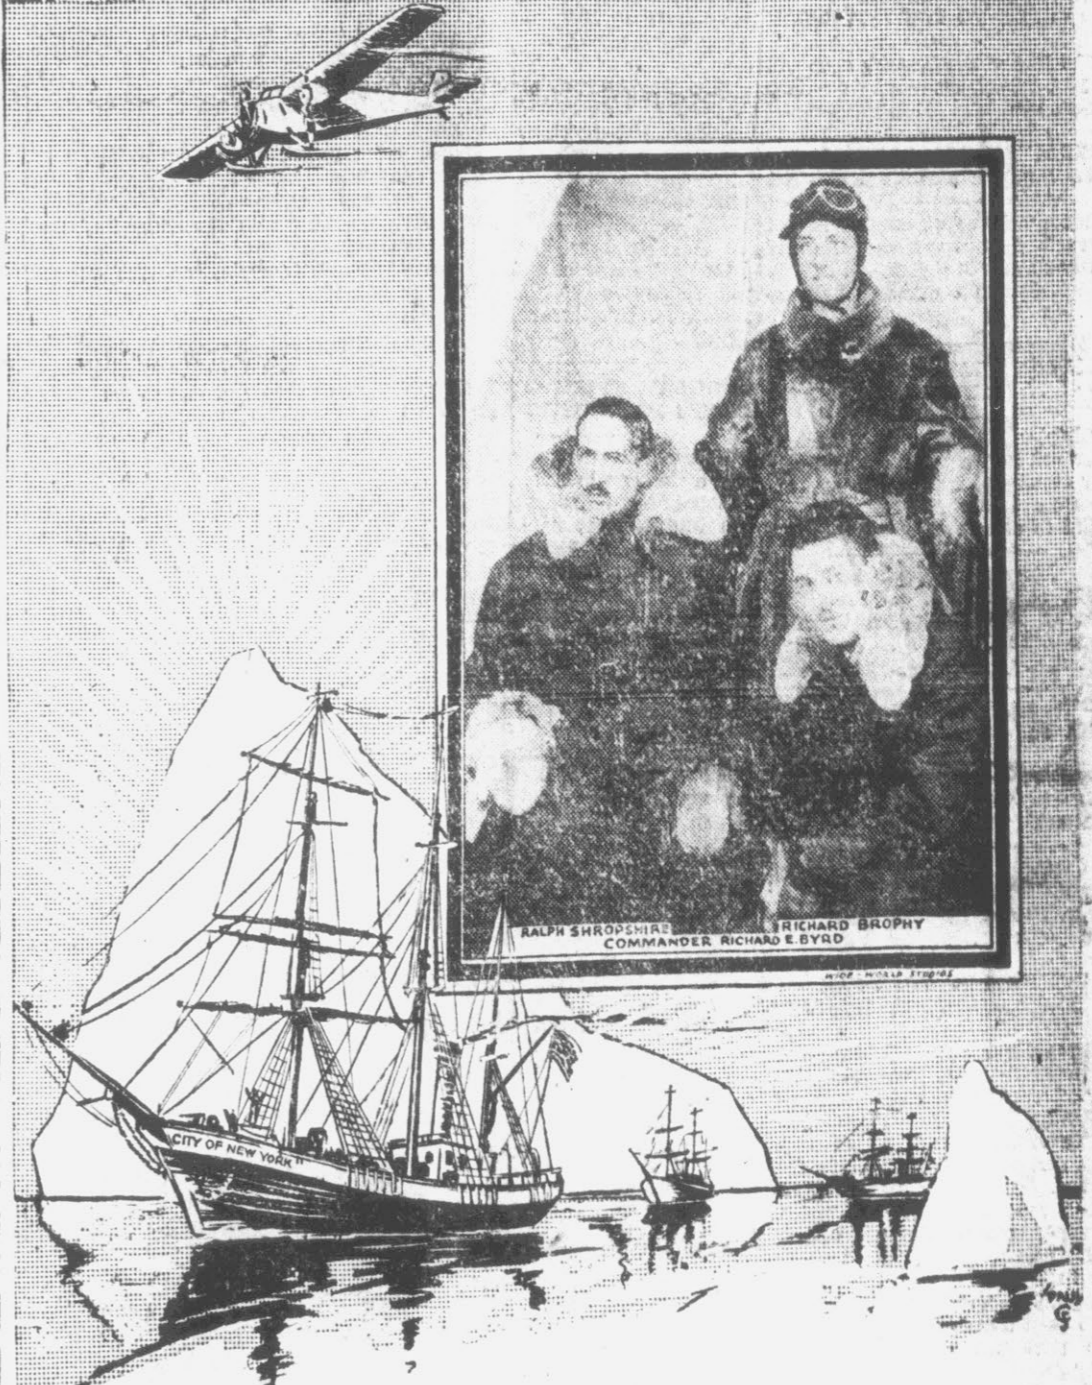

The reason is simple: People are willing to pay extra money for real comfort. Then, too, radiator heat saves fuel, dirt and labor.

And another thing: You can save money—also much trouble—by having a new heating plant installed, or an old one repaired, right now—now while the weather is fine.

Let's talk it over. Why wait till cold days force you to think of better heating?

The great statesman evidently was not favorably impressed, as he made a note in his diary in which he referred to the 'muddy little town on Tar river'."

Work Optimistic For Hoover Over The Southland

Washington, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Chairman Work of the Republican national committee, is highly optimistic of Herbert Hoover's prospects in the usually staunchly Democratic south.

He issued a statement last night saying that for the first time in years the Republican party is actively campaigning in Dixie. A report submitted by Horace A. Mann, the director of Hoover activities in the southern division, was appended which predicted that Hoover would receive an overwhelming electoral majority in the south, and declared that in some of the southern states the Republican nominee is in the lead at the present time.

In his report, Mann, who has been referred to as the "mystery leader," declared untrue charges to the effect that his office had flooded the

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON Washington.—Just what Senator Borah's part in the Hoover election campaign is to be does not appear as yet.

The burly Idaho senator, whose prohibition questionnaire before the nominating convention afforded the Republican nominee a chance to express himself, with due delay, so much to his own satisfaction that he repeated his answer to Borah in his nomination acceptance speech, would like to get a crack at the Republican spell-binding in the South. He received a lot of letters from the South in connection with the questionnaire business and thinks he could be effective in Dixie. But there is no present sign that grand strategy of the Hoover field marshals will cast him for that role.

On the contrary, there is some talk of starting out to follow Governor Smith's western invasion route. He's a hard hit talker and comes of the same stock as the folks in the farm states to whom he would be talking in an effort to offset whatever inroads on Republican vote strength the New York governor had made. Borah himself is said not to fancy the job, and if that is the case he is so much a free agent in the Republican camp that it's certain he can't be

IMPORTANT GRID GAMES THIS WEEK

Atlanta, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Southern conference football followers reviewed Saturday scores with interest today and made mental notes of what to expect this week-end when the first clashes within the organization get underway.

No less than 14 conference eleven were to lock up in engagements of championship bearing, all of important nature, while two others were to get real intersectional tests.

Within the conference, the Alabama University of Mississippi affray at Tuscaloosa probably carried the greatest interest as Ole Miss displayed great power Saturday in beating Arkansas, while Wallace Wade's team is yet untried.

South Carolina, by virtue of brushing away Stagg's Chicago Maroons, will bear watching at Charlottesville when the Game Cocks tie up with the Cavaliers. Virginia showed a crushing offense Saturday in beating back Randolph-Macon.

North Carolina was to carry what apparently is the greatest team in years to College Park for a flink at Maryland, both showed power in opening contests.

Alabama, not disheartened by a licking at the hands of Birmingham Southern, one of the strongest of the S. I. A. A., hoped to get off on the right foot against Clemson. Cody's men, however, have two victories already stowed away.

Georgia Tech, as usual, will line up what seems its greatest team in a long while against Virginia Military Institute. They play at Grant Field, home of the Tornado.

Tulane and Mississippi A. and M. will open their conference cards in a game at Jackson, Miss.

Washington and Lee and North Carolina State play at Lexington. In the intersectional limelight will be Vanderbilt meeting Colgate at Nashville and Sewanee testing Texas A. and M. at Dallas.

The Commodores hope to show a reversal of form from the raggedness displayed against Chattanooga Saturday.

Georgia will open at Athens against Mercer; Florida meeting Southern College at Gainesville; Louisiana State acting hosts to Southwestern Louisiana; Tennessee playing Centre at Knoxville and Kentucky tying Carson-Newman at Lexington.

Outside the conference, Duke, an unaffiliated team, will be at home at Durham, meeting South Dakota in a game of importance.

Chattanooga and Furman will meet at Greenville in the outstanding combat of the week between S. I. A. A. teams.

STICK FIGHT IN AMERICAN IS UNDECIDED

New York, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Although Rogers Hornsby clinched the National league batting title early last week beyond any possibility of doubt, the American league battle between Goose Goslin, of Washington, and Heinie Manush, of St. Louis, remained unsettled until the last ball was pitched yesterday. Final settlement, in fact, will be definitely made only when official statistics are published next winter.

Goslin and Manush grappled down the strength of the closest batting duel in the younger major league since 1908 when Larry Lajoie thought he beat out Ty Cobb on the final day of rolling five singles down to Red Corriden, of St. Louis, who played third base back on the grass.

The semi-official statistics of the official American league statisticians show Goslin in the lead over Manush today by the thin margin of one point, 379 to 378.

Neither Goslin nor Manush came anywhere near the figure with which Hryr Heilmann won the 1927 championship—398.

Paul Waner, of Pittsburgh, second to Hornsby in the 1928 National league scramble with 370, won the 1927 championship with an average of 379.

Babe Ruth retained his mastery over both leagues in home runs and in runs scored, but again yielded to Lou Gehrig in runs batted in.

The Yankee swatman remains the only man in either circuit who has hit fifty or more home runs.

The Babe crossed the plate 162 times this year against 158 runs last season, and batted in 144 markers only to see Gehrig shade him by one. The first baseman beat out the Babe last year in runs batted in by a margin of 175, the Major league record, to 164, although Ruth was setting a new home run mark of 60 while Gehrig was smashing only 46. Lou again was second in homers this season, but with a mere 27.

Paul Waner led the National league in runs scored this year with 141 against the 133 his brother Lloyd and Hornsby brought in last year for a time.

Larry Benton, of New York, retained pitching honors in the National, this time with 25 victories and only nine defeats for 739. Last year he won 17 and lost 7 for 708.

CRIMSON IS BIG THREAT OF GRIDIRON

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Oct. 1.—(AP)—There's a stormy tide of crimson pounding the sea walls of Tuscaloosa and it wouldn't be surprising to see the red waves overflow the entire southland before the autumn is past.

All of which means, in a metaphorical vein, that Wallace Wade, stands a real chance of winning his fourth southern conference football championship within five years for the University of Alabama.

Not that Coach Wade admits it. Not by any means. But he does go so far as to say his boys look better than they did last year and that's real optimism for Alabama's chief of staff, a man sometimes known as football's outstanding disciple of gloom.

True, some of his backs lack yet in experience, the blocking must be perfected much before this team will be of championship calibre, the men must hold to the ball with greater consistency and a few other details must be looked after. But this is October and Coach Wade has proved his ability to bring great changes in a squad within a short space of time.

Coach Wade, however, soundly reasons that optimism must not run too high even at the season's start with Ole Miss and the Mississippi Aggies coming up in straight Saturdays.

"Those teams are better right now than we were at this time last year," Coach Wade declared, "and therefore, our improvement must be pronounced to overcome the difference."

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Indianapolis was leading Rochester by one game in the Little World series today as the two teams traveled to Indianapolis where they will renew the contest on Wednesday.

The Indians took yesterday's game here 5 to 1.

YANKEES TO ENTER SERIES HANDICAPPED

New York, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Yankees enter the world series with a paper offensive thirteen batting points greater than that of the Cardinals, but with much of their theoretical advantage offset by injuries to star players who helped complete it.

The announcement today that Earl Combs had suffered only a sprain and not a fracture of his right wrist in Detroit last Thursday, bolstered Yankee hopes as his 210 bat did much to help the American League champions along to their team average of .295.

Babe Ruth, Mark Koenig and Tony Lazzeri, who outfit their respective Cardinal rivals by generous margins, are handicapped by injuries of one degree or another, and the loss of any one of them would more than eat up any batting margin which may be left to the Yankees.

Alarm was felt particularly over the conditions of Lazzeri through the last three weeks of the American league season when the Yanks tried to save him. Perhaps he can repeat in the title series.

The tradition of hitting has remained about the Cardinals ever since 1920 when Hornsby first scaled the heights. The fans at large have looked upon the St. Louisians as uncommonly dangerous with the willows—regardless of the actual averages. The new champions are by no means poor batsmen, but the fall far short of being the hardest swatmen in even their own league and in dual league statistics rank fifth to the Pirates, the Giants, the Yankees and the Athletics.

Cardinal teams of recent years have known the knack of making the most of their hits, however, and the runs have pattered over the plate when needed. The National league invaders will be forced to make most of their drives when the championship series starts at the Ruppert stadium on Thursday with Combs in centre field. Unless Dugan resumes his post at third base, six Yankees will enter the game with a margin over their various Cardinal rivals.

The series will bring together the respective league leaders in runs batted in, and will pit the American league home run champion against the man who tied for fourth base honors in the National. Babe Ruth's margin of 54 home runs to 31 over Jim Bottomley gives the Yankees a big bulge in long distance clouts, but Sunny Jim's 133 runs batted in compare more favorably with Gehrig's 148.

WORLD SERIES TO GET UNDER WAY THURSDAY

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Major League drama is done for another season, but the Yankees and the Cardinals still have an epilogue to offer. They meet in the world's series starting at New York on Thursday and ending when one team has won four games.

With both pennant campaigns already decided, there was not much to interest fans in yesterday's closing engagements. Most of the game's faithful stayed away in large numbers, some of them, no doubt, resting up for the excitement that is to come later this week.

With a $2,000 bonus as incentive, Waite Hoyt, right handed ace of Miller Huggins' Yankees, pitched the American league champions to a 7 to 6 victory over the Detroit Tigers. Hoyt had been promised "two grand" as they say in the very best pugilistic circles, if he won 22 games this year. He was hit rather freely by the Tigers, but won his reward with the aid of Babe Ruth's 54th and Lou Gehrig's 27th home runs.

The world's series begins Thursday, October 11th, and Friday, October 12th.

Postponements, in event of postponements, teams will remain in whatever city they chance to be until games scheduled for that city have been played. Dates of following games will be shifted accordingly.

Time of games: New York games will start at 1:30 p. m., Eastern standard time; in St. Louis at 1:30 Central standard time.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 17 to 23 points on higher Liverpool cables and continued talk of a probable reduction in the end-month crop reports. There was considerable realizing promoted by a favorable weather map, but it was readily absorbed and the market sold up from 19.16 to 19.37 for December and from 23 to 25 points net higher on more or less general buying. Prices held well up to the best at the end of the first half hour, with trading active. The south was credited with selling some cotton here on the advance while the buying appeared to come from both trade and commission houses. Private cables said the Liverpool market had been influenced by continental and Bombay buying, together with covering and said that hedging had been light.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 1.—(AP)—High call money rates, the outgrowth of unusually heavy quarterly disbursements, had a restraining effect on trading in today's market, which displayed an irregular price trend. Flurries of selling swept through the market at intervals causing sharp recessions in some of the recent favorites.

Resumption of pool operations lifted a number of specialties to new high records. Coty responded to the announcement of a 4 for 1 stock split-up by advancing 4 points to a new high record at 264. Other issues to move into new high ground included Paramount famous Lasky, A. M. Byers, Lambert, Federal Mining and Smelting, Rock Island, and Pittsburgh and West Virginia, the gains ranging from 1 to 5 points.

Call money renewed at 7 per cent but advanced to 7 1/2 and then 8 as banks called more than $25,000,000 in loans. There was a marked scarcity of loanable funds, reviving fears of a further advance in the rate during the next few days. Easier credit conditions are anticipated later in the week.

Reports of a marked expansion in September sales of Woolworth and Sears Roebuck apparently had been discounted, as several of the chain stores and mail order shares turned weak in the afternoon. Selling pressure also was quite effective against such issues as General Motors, Gillett Safety Razor, Warner Bros. A and B; McCarty Stores B, Allied Chemical and International Telephone.
