TOBACCO AVERAGED $20.48 YESTERDAY

PRICES SKY-ROCKET HERE ESTABLISHING NEW RECORD FOR THE ENTIRE SEASON

Market Has Disposed Of Over Twenty Million Pounds Of Bright Leaf In Twenty Sales Days—Over Million Pounds Sold On Yesterday—Similar Amount Here Today.

Prices sky-rocketed on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday and the highest average price of the season was established, according to official records of sales made public this morning by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade.

With 1,116,680 pounds of leaf on the floors here the market paid out to the farmers of this section the total sum of $228,701.17. The average price for the day was $20.48, between two and three cents higher than any other prices recorded this season.

For the entire season the market has sold 20,802,170 pounds of tobacco. This is said to be the best record in history. Three of the twenty sales days this season were featured by such unfavorable weather conditions that it was impossible for farmers to reach the market. Had it not been for this fact, tobaccoists believe the total would be at least three or four million pounds above what it is.

There was something like a million and a quarter pounds of leaf on the market this morning, with indications that price strength would remain the same as yesterday. Improvement in the quality of offerings played a conspicuous part in the upward trend of the price situation. It was stated and there is every indication that this condition will continue the remainder of the season.

Farmers have taken advantage of the warning issued by tobaccoists sometime ago relative to the marketing of wet, damaged tobacco, and their offerings the last few days have been marked by quite an improvement in quality. Wet tobacco, it was declared, should be held off the market until weather conditions justified rehandling, and even then considerable care should be used in marketing.

With such a pronounced change in prices it is expected the next several days will witness some of the heaviest sales recorded here this season, although the market has averaged selling over a million pounds daily since the opening. This is a record which every tobaccoist is proud of, and one they endeavor to maintain as long as possible.

The Greenville market has established and then shattered more records than any single season in history. Records have been set both from the standpoint of volume and price, making each week hold additional significance for the hundreds of growers who market their crops here during the course of a season.

With a goal of seventy million pounds ahead of them, and with twenty millions of that amount already disposed of, tobaccoists from now on will center their attention on realizing the ambition born with the sixty million goal last season. This sounds like a lot of tobacco—and it is—but considering that Greenville is situated in the largest bright leaf producing county in the world, it isn't such a great figure after all.

With the smashing of so many records already to their credit for the present season, nothing is more natural than to expect something of the kind to continue the remainder of the season.

King and Premier At Odds.
London, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Tales of coolness between King Alfonso of Spain and Premier Primo de Rivera the Spanish dictator, are reaching the Spanish frontier. Some observers think that the premier, who has just celebrated the fifth anniversary of his dictatorship, may be replaced.

Travelers from Madrid, arriving at St. Jean de Luz, France, said there had been a renewal of agitation against the dictator during the past few days.

ROOSEVELT NOMINATED GOVERNOR

Democratic Leader Nominated By Acclamation By N. Y. Convention Today.

Rochester, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt, former assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated by acclamation for governor of New York by the Democratic state convention today.

Great enthusiasm greeted the presentation of Mr. Roosevelt's name to the convention by Mayor James J. Walker of New York, who made the nominating speech. Seconding speeches were made by former Lieutenant Governor George R. Lunn, an assistant for the nomination, and Mrs. Daniel O'Day, vice-chairman of the state committee.

Mayor Walker said Mr. Roosevelt had many of the same characteristics as Governor Smith, and would give the state an honest, fearless administration.

Warden Snook Questioned.

Washington, Oct. 2.—(AP)—John Snook, warden of the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, called to Washington by Attorney General Sargent for a conference, was questioned today by Assistant Attorney General Willebrandt regarding his refusal to permit three Department of Justice agents to conduct an investigation at the prison until they could produce orders from one of the wardens three superior officers authorizing such an investigation.

Seat Brings $425,000.

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—A seat on the New York Stock Exchange was sold today at a record price of $425,000, an increase of $10,000 over the last sale not quite a month ago. The name of the purchaser will be announced later.

School Children Guests Pitt County Fair Today

The seventh annual Pitt county fair opened this morning with indications of one of the most successful seasons in years.

Today had been officially designated as "School Children's Day," and hundreds of children from all sections of the county thronged the grounds during the afternoon hours. Greenville schools suspended session at the noon hour in observance of the day, and hardly a single student failed to take in the hundreds of amusements provided for them at the fair grounds. They were admitted at the gate free of charge.

Haywood Dall, fair secretary, stated that price of admission to the fair grounds had been reduced to fifty cents. This price will prevail both day and night and will continue throughout the week. This is the first time in history of the fair association that prices have been reduced, and it is expected that the untold thousands will be attracted to the grounds by the reduction.

Midway, or midway, as it has been termed, is in charge of the famous Sheesley shows, said to be the largest carnival organization in the world. As the school children rambled up and down midway they were treated to a wealth of free attractions. All the glitter of the circus was to be seen on every hand. The voice of the hallyhoo men, mingled with myriad other sounds, furnished enough noise to keep nerves tense and the senses ready to take in anything extraordinary. The race program this season is complete in every sense of the

MYERS GIVES TESTIMONY IN POISON PLOT

Other Witnesses Called to the Stand In "Love Powder" Case At Charlotte.

Charlotte, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Dr. John Q. Myers, testifying as an expert medical witness, resumed the stand today as the state continued its efforts to prove that L. M. Lockamy died as result of an alleged "love powder" poison plot.

Lockamy's wife, now Mrs. E. F. Pressler, her husband, and Sam Daniels, alias "Professor" Brandorine, went on trial yesterday on a charge of first degree murder in connection with Lockamy's death.

Most of yesterday was consumed in selection of a jury and preliminary legal skirmishes. Dr. Myers, who attended Lockamy in his last illness and who assisted in the autopsy, took the stand late in the afternoon to begin a repetition of his testimony at the preliminary hearing in August.

Under the questioning of state's attorneys he said that Lockamy's death could have been caused by the means suggested in the indictment. Symptoms of his illness indicated that he might have been poisoned as alleged by the state, he said, but he could not state definitely that death resulted from this.

Dr. Myers' death certificate said Lockamy died from pachy-meningitis. At the preliminary hearing Dr. Myers related under cross examination that he gave pachy-meningitis as cause of death before the autopsy because the symptoms more closely resembled such a condition than any other normal illness in his opinion.

The state contends that Brandorine in his role of fortune teller, crystal gazer and soothsayer made a practice of selling the poisonous "love powders" which he told clients would effect harmony among disgruntled married couples.

Dr. Myers was followed to the stand by Frank N. Littlejohn, city detective, who told of his activities in picking up and following out the trail of the "love doctor," Sam W. Daniels, alias "Professor Brandorine."

Dr. Myers finished his cross question testimony shortly after court started and then the detective took the stand and testified that he found a can of poison in the fortune telling studio of "Professor Brandorine."

Tobacco Market Opens Today In Winston-Salem

Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 2.—(AP)—The Winston-Salem leaf tobacco market opened the 1928 season this morning with the four warehouses holding first sales well filled with the weed. The break was not as large as last year, today's sales being estimated at 400,000 pounds. The quality, however, was decidedly superior to the offerings on the opening day last year.

This being due to the fact that the growers this year saved comparatively few of the sand lugs. Some of the farmers on the sales today regarded prices as good.

The average for the day ranged around 15 cents a pound.

PROTEST USE OF LEGION HUT FOR POLITICAL SPEECH
Raleigh, Oct. 2.—(AP)—American Legionnaires of Fuquay Springs near here were called to meet today to consider protests against the use of the Legion hut for a speech by W. Earl Hotalen, advertised as a Ku Klux Klan lecturer. District Commander John Steadman, Raleigh wired officials of the Fuquay Springs post that the principles of the American Legion would not permit of its quarters being used for political speeches of any kind.

HOOVER WILL TALK TARIFF IN THE NORTH

Republican Candidate To Tell New England States Of His Viewpoint.

By JAMES L. WEST (Associated Press Staff Writer)
Washington, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Tariff is to form the keynote of Herbert Hoover's address in industrial New England the latter part of this month. He now is gathering the material for this as well as the other speeches he is to make in the East and the West before his final appeal to the voters over the radio from his California home on election eve, November 5th.

Business conditions and international trade will form themes in the New York City speech on the night of October 13, but the Republican presidential candidate had not yet definitely decided upon the topic of his seventh major address to be delivered in some western city during his journey to Stanford University where he will cast his ballot.

While work on these addresses is taking up much of the nominee's time he also is devoting considerable time to details of the conduct of the campaign in the states which generally have been listed as doubtful, and also to the situation in the Southern States. Of his engagement list today was C. Bascom Siemp, national committeeman for Virginia, who is in charge of the campaign in the Old Dominion.

Undoubtedly the recent letter which was sent out over the signature of Mrs. Willie W. Caldwell, national committeewoman for Virginia, calling upon the women to save the country from being "Romanized" will form one subject matter for discussion between Hoover and Siemp. Scarcely had Hoover finished repudiating that letter before another incident of the same kind cropped up in another southern state.

This is the action of Oliver D. Street, Republican national committeeman and state chairman for Alabama, in sending out a pamphlet entitled "Governor Smith's Membership In the Catholic Church and Its Proper Place in the Campaign."

Hoover has taken no action respecting the circulation of this document, as Chairman Work of the Republican national committee, had sent a telegram of protest to Street before the matter was called to the attention of the candidate.

On Hoover's behalf, however, it was stated at his headquarters that he stood squarely on his statement of last Saturday that he wanted no support on the basis of religion. The candidate has stated and reiterated that the religious question is not an issue in this campaign.

Woman Stumps For Smith

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Genevieve Clark Thomson, daughter of the late Champ Clark, has taken the stump through the middle west and south for Governor Smith, the Democratic national committee has announced.

WOMAN STUMPS FOR SMITH

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 2.—(AP)—The Pacific Coast, for the first time offering a favorite son for the presidency, holds a sizeable handful of electoral votes about which the Republicans are showing no worry. They count the whole coast line, from Canada to Mexico, as improbably Hoover's.

Predicts Solution Of Prohibition Problem In Present Campaign

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Edwin A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, in addressing the convention of the American Bankers' Association today, predicted that a solution of the prohibition problem would emerge out of the "heats and rancors" of the presidential campaign.

"There is comfort," he said, "in the thought that the candidates of both of the major parties for whom we shall cast our votes in November are ideally in line with the great tradition. Born and bred in humble homes, the one in the old rural fashion, the other in the city streets, by sheer force of ability, character and courage they have lifted themselves to the supreme honor of American citizenship—the right to contest for the presidency as leaders of millions of their countrymen."

Declaring that the "hotly contested" political campaign would add to the strength and accomplishments of democracy, the speaker added:

"I sometimes think that the Federal Reserve Act, that wise charter of financial safety, could not have been written upon our statutes without the knowledge disseminated in the hectic campaign of 1896 when the country was racked with discussion of what to do with the money, and I venture to predict that out of the campaign we are not engaged in, out of its heats and rancors and discussions, will emerge some plan to secure to our social betterment the enduring benefits of the noble purposes inherent in the idea of prohibition, unmarred by the grave menaces that now threaten the country with lawlessness and internal discord."

President Alderman declared that democracy had "abated sectarian fury" and said that Governor Alfred E. Smith would not be elected or defeated for the presidency because he is a Catholic.

"Democracy," he said, "however it may muddle, has the capacity to pull together and keep together in emergencies better than dictatorships, and this after all, is the supreme test. There is in the democratic system a self-adjusting quality in its actions like a safety valve or a gauge on a boiler, protecting itself against explosions and finding the way to fair equilibrium. Democracies may muddle, but they seldom explode."

MAE WEST IN TOOLS OF LAW IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Mae West, actress and author, who served ten days in jail last year for taking part in an indecent performance, was again arrested early today after police raided the Broadway premiere of her latest play, "Pleasure Man."

Fifty-five men and women composing the play's cast were loaded in patrol wagons at the close of the evening's performance and taken to a police station a block away where after several hours they were released on bail.

Miss West, who is author of the play, but not a member of its cast, was arrested at another theatre where she is starring in "Diamond Lil". She posted $500 bail for a hearing. All were charged with producing or taking part in an indecent performance.

Imposter Operates In This City Today

To the Merchants of Greenville: The offices of the Merchants Association has been advised that a stranger is operating in Greenville representing himself to be affiliated with the Merchants Association. Such a party claims to be creating a fund to fight the chain stores of Greenville and the State. For the information of the merchants of Greenville and vicinity we wish to state that such a party is an imposter and is in no way connected with the local or State Association.

Challenges G. O. P. Gains In Southland
New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Republican claims of gains in the Solid South are challenged by Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, member of the Democratic Advisory committee with supervision over campaign work in the Southern States.

SEN. ROBINSON PREPARE TO HEADED TODAY FOR OKLAHOMA TAKES CARNES TO ATLANTA

Democratic V.-Pres. Nominee Discusses All Issues In Speech In Kansas.

By WALTER CHAMPLIN, Associated Press Staff Writer.
En Route With Senator Robinson to Claremore, Okla., Oct. 2.—(AP)—After running nearly the whole range of issues in a one-hour speech in Kansas, Senator Joe Robinson was headed today for Oklahoma, where his rival for the vice-presidency, Senator Charles Curtis, preached a Republican doctrine only last week.

Both parties are making desperate drives for the 10 electoral votes of the State which in recent years has shown something of a fickle disposition to deliver four prepared addresses in the State, as well as a number of extemporaneous speeches from the platform of his private car. He is expected to center chiefly on religion and farm relief, which along with prohibition constituted a part of the many subjects fired upon by him on Kansas soil at Wichita last night.

The Democratic vice-presidential nominee was winding up his Wichita speech when somebody in the audience shouted out: "What about prohibition?" and this started him off all over again.

"All right, I'll tell you," he fired back. "Neither the Republican nor the Democratic platforms declare in favor of prohibition, now get that and go your way."

He then said that Governor Smith had made clear his position for modification of the Volstead Act and an amendment to the Eighteenth Amendment, but declared that "if you know where Mr. Herbert Hoover stands you know more than he seems to know himself."

Would Meditate Dispute

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Lieut. Martin Rasmussen, commander of the ninth district of United States Coast Guards, came to Cleveland today to mediate between two Yacht owners and his men of the border patrol in a difficulty caused by searching Lake Erie craft for liquor.

Bruno Berger, a garage proprietor, and Barney Rieke, who lives on an island in the Chagrin river, charged that their speed boat had been sunk yesterday while being towed by a coast guard cutter after an unsuccessful search for liquor, that they had been beaten and mistreated and one of them had nearly drowned.

Smith Sounds Battle Cry In Speech At Rochester

By D. HAROLD OLIVER, Associated Press Staff Writer.
Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 2.—(AP)—With a two-fisted attack on the New York State Republican platform and an earnest plea to the voters who have elected him their chief executive four times, to return the Democrats to power at Albany in vindication of their progressive policies, Governor Smith, the Democratic national committee has announced.

Addressing the delegates to the Democratic state convention here last night, the Democratic presidential nominee challenged statement after statement in the opposition platform adopted last week at Syracuse, attacked the Republican leaders of the State for alleged obstruction of his policies and declared "not a single constructive achievement that took place in the last six years had Republican support until they were beaten down to the earth."

He said the attitude of the Republicans of the Empire State was one of defiance, that they unjustly claimed credit for reforms sponsored and fought for by Democrats against a hostile legislature, and that the record of progress could be continued only by the election of the candidates to come out of the convention here.

"Irreparable injury can come to the State by any other course," he said, "and I earnestly hope and pray that the sixth of November will be a vindication of progressive, Democratic policies and a repudiation of Republican stand-pat, reactionary policies."

The governor said he had looked very carefully through the Republican platform for something about the Eighteenth Amendment or the Volstead Act, but found nothing because "we are in a great national campaign and they are quiet this year."

Search Is Begun To Recover Some Of Embezzled Funds Of Baptist Church.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 2.—(AP)—The assistant solicitor general of Fulton County, Georgia, and a deputy sheriff from Atlanta were here today with extradition papers seeking the return to Atlanta of Clinton S. Carnes, indicted former treasurer of the Southern Baptist convention.

Carnes, since his arrest here last Friday, has repeatedly said he would not fight extradition. He is under indictment in Atlanta on two counts of embezzlement involving sums totaling $150,000.

The officers are not expected to return to Atlanta with Carnes immediately. When he was arrested here $2,000 and it is the theory of police that he has other cash or assets concealed in safe deposit boxes either here or in Chicago or Milwaukee where he is believed to have hidden before coming to Canada. Search of his private papers has failed to reveal any trace of this, and it was believed by local police officials that the Georgia man might stay here a few days to make a further investigation.

The assistant solicitor general, John H. Hudson, declined to say when he would start the return trip, or any plans he might have to seek the money. He intimated, however, that he was not interested in questioning Carnes in an effort to obtain a confession. "We have the indictments in Atlanta. That is enough," he said.

Carnes has said that the charges of embezzlement standing against him are a mistake. He explained his mysterious disappearance from Atlanta last August was actuated by an effort to escape from persons who, he said, knew of his prison record and were attempting to blackmail him.

The theory that Carnes has assets other than the $2,000 found on him was given credence by local officials because of his efforts to interest local business men in a proposed cereal plant. He had represented himself to them as a man of wealth. He had purchased considerable clothing, suitable for a northern winter, and grown a mustache since leaving Atlanta. He also had parted his hair in a different manner.

Atlanta, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Search in all of the cities in which Clinton S. Carnes sojourned before he was captured in Winnipeg, was instituted today at the request of the receivers of the property left here by the man who is accused of embezzling about $1,000,000 in Baptist church funds. It was hoped more embezzled funds might be discovered.

A nomas R. Scott, named by Fulton superior court as receiver, said Milwaukee, Wis., and Star Lake, Wis., a little town at the end of a local railroad line were at present the centers of an investigation. Milwaukee police yesterday began a canvass of all local banks to determine whether or not Carnes obtained safety deposit boxes under the name of L. L. Lewis, which he used there.

INDIAN FAIR OPENS AT CHEROKEE, N. C.

Cherokee, N. C.—With indications pointing to a brilliant four-day fête, the Cherokee Indian Fair, an annual event which draws thousands to this mountainous government reservation each autumn, was officially opened here this morning.

From all parts of the reservation the Cherokee came, while a comparatively small number of visitors appeared in the early hours of the day. Hundreds arrived before noon, however, with thousands expected during the day.

More than 10,000 persons passed through the gates on each of the four days during the fair in 1927, and an even larger number of visitors was expected this year.

The fair opened with an archery contest this morning, while tonight Loder Indians of the Big Cove section of the 65,000-acre reservation will stage the "Green Corn Dance."

BLACK HORSE FORGES AHEAD IN BABY SHOW

Race Tightens as Contestants Draw Closer Together In Fair Event.

Quite a sensation last night at the headquarters of the Pitt County Grand Prize Baby Show when the final bonus votes were counted at 1:45 A. M. Two recounts were made to assure the director that it was true. A dark horse in the race for the Grand Prize Loving Cup and $50.00 in Gold, came up to tie the baby that was thought to have cinched first place. At this time it is anybody's race. Some of the parents are waiting, but the old slogan is "he who hesitates is lost". The bulletin will be changed daily. The last bulletin will be posted at noon Thursday when the voting will continue until 10:00 a. m. Friday, when the winners will be called upon the stage at the Fair Ground in front of the Grand Stand on Friday afternoon. If you have not purchased your tickets for that afternoon, do so at once, for everyone entering the Grand Stand on Friday afternoon must have one of the baby show tickets.

In connection with the Baby Show there will be the regular program of high class Vaudeville acts and horse races. On that afternoon, this ticket is good for all of the events that take place in front of the Grand Stand on that afternoon.

Get your tickets from any mother or father that has a little one entered in the Grand Prize Baby Show, or at Baby Show Headquarters. You can also buy them at the regular box offices on the Fair Grounds on Friday.

The following is the way the race stands today: Gus Cartos, Greenville, has 45,000 votes and is tied with Alice Ruth Bundy, of Bethel, who has the same amount of votes. Then comes Dorothy Davenport, who has 44,250 votes; Harry Lee Davis, Farmville, is another dark horse in the race with 43,750 votes; then little Jean Harrington, of Greenville, has 43,750 for a tie with Master Davis of Farmville. The next in line is Master Hubert Muschelwhite who is running a close race with them all. He has 43,250. Next in line is Master Ralph Robt. Reed with 43,000 and then Annie Oteal Clement who has totalled 42,500. Then Jean V. Rush with a first score of 42,500 to tie baby Clement. Next in line is R. G. Jackson, of Ayden, with a score of 42,250 also. Then comes the diminutive little Cora Boyd Redditt with 42,000, and little Evelyn Jean Mills has 42,000 also.

Of course Gene Skinner is still in the race for he has 41,000 real good votes tallied to his credit. Then next in line is J. Charles Whitford with 40,750. Little Virginia Simpson is going to be there also, for she has a total of 40,750, and Jean Bryon Hilton comes in with a score of 40,500. Helen Joan Kemp is next in line with a total of 40,250. Next in line is Melton

Edw. Lawhorn who also has 40,250. David Sager Clay is running steady with a total of 39,000 votes. Then Ann Smith is still going with 38,500. Dorothy Band has 38,000. Ione Hooker Bradshaw is next with a total of 37,500.

These votes will count on the Grand Prize ONLY, as there will be many other loving cups and bank accounts given on Health and Beauty and parade decorations.

The prizes are on display in the Tolar Jewelry company's window on Evans street. The second Grand Prize Loving Cup has been donated by the Greenville Cafe; the first Grand Prize by Cullen Dry Cleaners.

exhibits of a most commendable nature, and sometime this week they will be awarded ribbons for the excellence of their work.

In this same building there is the usual display of arts and crafts, and the home demonstration department of this county. Numbers of booths representing some particular line of business also hold sway in this department.

But away down at the end of the fair grounds, far removed from the din and noise of music-making devices and yelling men and women, may be found displayed some of the products of one of the coming industries in Pitt county. It is here that "Hog and Hominy" hold supreme sway, and it is in the rude buildings that the majority of Pitt county growers find most entertainment.

Mr. Hog, weighing from ten to a thousand pounds, will be found in this department. Of course, he looks lazy—and he is—but he realizes that he represents one of the coming industries of the county, and realizing it as he does, makes as much noise over the prospect as the best ballyhoo man on the fair grounds.

The poultry department is featuring some of the finest specimens ever brought to the city. Both common and fancy stocks are on display, but to the novice they all look alike, except of course, some of the large kind with pedigrees as long as the beautiful tail feathers of the peacock strutting about his cage with such a display of vanity.

Edw. Lawhorn who also has 40,250. David Sager Clay is running steady with a total of 39,000 votes. Then Ann Smith is still going with 38,500. Dorothy Band has 38,000. Ione Hooker Bradshaw is next with a total of 37,500.

Admits Attack On Religion Of Governor Smith

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 2.—(AP) Oliver D. Street, Republican national committeeman for Alabama, last night said he was author of a circular entitled "Governor Smith's membership in the Catholic Church and its proper place in the campaign."

Declaring he had received no communication from Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican national committee, objecting to the circular, as stated in Washington dispatches, the Alabama committee said 200,000 of the had been distributed by mail, and nearly that many were ready for the mails.

The circular was taken up for the most part by a letter Street had written to the Birmingham News, declaring that Governor Smith's membership in the Catholic Church was "a very live and vital issue in the presidential campaign."

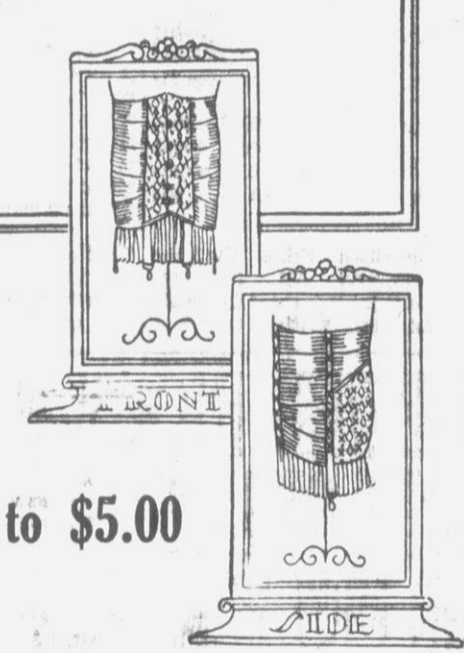

"But in saying this," the letter continued, "I do not mean that the religious beliefs and practices of the Roman Catholic Church or of Governor Smith are involved. So long as he and his church confine themselves to religious doctrines and practices, it is a matter of no concern to me what they believe or how they worship."

FLOOD FUND SUBSCRIPTION STILL GROWS

Contributions to Florida Relief Had Increased to $664.05 Today.

Contributions to the local Red Cross fund for the relief of storm sufferers in Porto Rico and Florida continued to increase today with indications that Pitt county's goal of $750.00 would be reached during the middle of the week.

The total amount of the contribution today stood at $676.05. Battery E. local military unit, and the Junior Philathea class of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church were among the contributors. Individual subscriptions came from Winterville, Greenville and other parts of the county.

Mrs. J. L. Hassell, chairman of the local Red Cross Chapter, stated today that there were still organizations in the city which had not given to this cause. She expects these contributions to come in within the next several hours and hopes they will complete the amount asked of the county.

Work of rehabilitating the flood districts continued today under supervision of scores of workers of the American Red Cross who have charge of rescue operations. The task is one of the most tremendous that has faced the organization in its long years of service and an enormous sum of money is required to complete it.

If you haven't given to this cause, hurry and do it, so the local committee can make its final report to national headquarters. Mrs. Hassell urged.

The following have contributed since the last report:

Holding Noses

Do you do much sniffing? Do strangers when they have their noses? Do they say things to others that keep others from coming our way? If they do, then our town is out of order. And all of us who live here are losing money.

There are two sides to a town—outside and inside.

It's all right to keep the outside looking fine—the streets, the parks, the lawns, the buildings.

But how about the inside—the atmosphere, the water, the health-breathing air? They are things people remember and talk about.

Have good plumbing in your buildings, and then see to it that the plumbing is kept in good condition. Watch the toilets. Keep them sweet. Then there will be no holding of noses. And all of us will have better health and more money.

ABOUT TOWN

"The seventh annual Pitt County Fair opened today," observed an out-of-town man who was here this morning to witness the opening.

"It is the greatest attraction of its kind in the history of the county.
Never before has such a great crowd of entertainers been assembled here as those appearing with the Sheesley Shows. This big carnival is scheduled to play the State Fair the latter part of the month.
They are fresh from a long stay in Canada where they play to numbers of fairs similar to that here.

"There is a wealth of agricultural exhibits representative of this prosperous farming community. They reflect great credit upon the thrift of the Pitt county grower and show how intensively he is cultivating the fertile soil of this wonderful locality.
"Anybody will be well rewarded by attending the fair and seeing what Pitt county has to offer. It is one of the best advertisements we could offer to the outside world and one from which we should derive much benefit."

"Pitt county is nearing her quota of $750,000 for relief of flood sufferers in the Florida and Porto Rico sections," mentioned a member of the local Red Cross today, under whose auspices contributions are being received.

"This is splendid considering the lax way other communities have responded to the call for aid. Pitt county has never been known to fall down in a case of this kind and certainly not when such a heavy toll of life and property was involved.

"If you haven't contributed to this fund, get busy and do so now. You will never have an opportunity of giving to a cause greater than this."

"Pigs and more pigs," is the way Pitt county growers sum up the display of swine at the Pitt County Fair.

"Exhibits this year are everything expected of them. There are big hogs and little pigs, each remindful of the campaign now under way in this section to interest the farmer to grow as a means of increasing his annual revenue.

"It is an inspiration to anyone to see the size of some of the hogs at the fair. They tip the scales around 700 and a 1,000.

"Pitt county has increased her earnings considerably the last year or so through the raising of hogs, but we hope to make it even larger in the future when the farmer becomes convinced of how it pays to have something other than his crops to depend upon."

"This is going to be a busy week
in Greenville with the Pitt County Fair and tobacco market going at full blast," declared a citizen today, noticing the enormous amount of traffic on the principal streets of the city.

"Fair week always draws tremendous crowds to the city, and traffic becomes usually heavy when it is mixed with the hundreds of farmers coming here to sell their tobacco.
"Greenville is always a busy place,
but fair week always brings bigger crowds if not so much trade."

"We have our first football game of the season on Friday of this week," said members of the local high school pigskin organization today.

"We hope to be able to take the initial skirmish and enough after that to enable us to take part in the championship series. We were eliminated early in the race last season, but with good luck it is hoped we may be able to go further this year."

"If you haven't done your fall and winter shopping, come to Greenville and look over the stocks of local merchants before doing it."

invited a member of the Merchants' Association today.

"Our merchants have a splendid line of good to choose from at this time. Values are better than they have ever been before, therefore, the man or woman ready to buy should do so while they have such a large assortment of goods to choose from."

"Big Jim," man-size gorilla at the Pitt County Fair, attracts attention everywhere we go," said a member of the carnival organization today.

"Big Jim" is awfully timid at times. In fact, he often covers up to shield himself from the gaze of the curious.

"He is the largest gorilla of his kind in captivity, and one of the greatest drawing cards of the show.
"People who visit the fair should not fail to see "Big Jim" and get an idea of what the largest specimen of his species looks like."

Gardner Builds
Fire Under G. O. P.

Morehead City, N. C., Oct. 2.— (AP)—O. Max Gardner, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, was delivering another campaign address last night. Suddenly the town fire alarm sounded and the entire volunteer fire department, who were in the audience hastily made for the nearest exit.

"What's going on back there," inquired Mr. Gardner who had not recognized the alarm.

as leaders of millions of their countrymen over his shoulder.

"Well, hurry and put it out and then come back here," he said.

"I'm going to build a fire under the Republican party and they might need you."

BIG GORILLA
AT THE FAIR

"Big Jim" To Enter
t a i n Thousands Along Midway During Present Week.

Big Jim, the only gorilla in captivity, is now safely ensconced in his home for a week in a big steel cage on the Pitt County Fair Grounds, where he will be a feature of the midway of the Greater Sheesley Shows, and where he will be exhibited to thousands.

Big Jim, a giant simian, is the most powerful of his race and while he seems docile in captivity, except for occasional tantrums, he could kill a lion or tiger with ease and his species is easily the kings of the jungle.

Capt. John M. Sheesley personally supervised the setting up of all attractions of his big company yesterday and this morning all of the modern riding devices and the host of other attractions were in readiness for the fair crowds. The
tractive at night, as they carry their own lighting plants and have many novel features in multicolored lighting effects.

Jean A. Lussier, the man who went over Niagara Falls in a rubber ball of his own make last July 4, is on the Sheesley midway and this daredevil has an interesting experience to relate in his lectures, as he is the only man living who survived the Niagara rapids after passing over the falls.

The Sheesley Shows will appear
this year at the North Carolina State fair in Raleigh the week of Oct. 22, and have a long season of southern fairs before them. The company is much larger and more replete with the last word in modern midway attractions than when it last appeared in Greenville at the fair in 1923.

Herbert Hoover's failure to find any constructive or genuine policy for the farmer in the present campaign has not been overlooked in the agricultural districts of the country.

From South Dakota comes a pamphlet entitled "My Promises—and What I Shall Do for the Farmer, by Herbert Hoover." The pamphlet consists of six pages of perfectly blank paper.

SENATOR TYSON RIGHT

There is no doubt that there are numbers of people in North Carolina and New York and in other States who will be influenced in their voting because of church affiliations. Some will decline to vote for Governor Smith because he is a Roman Catholic and some will vote for him because he belongs to that church. And that's the true situation, regrettable as it is. People ought to vote on political issues and not because of religious creed. Anything that even squints at connection between Church and State has in it the element of danger.

But the chief trouble in the Democratic party in the South grows out of Governor Smith's statement that he will make recommendations to submit amendments to the eighteenth amendment.
If Smith was as dry as Walsh there would be no doubt he would carry North Carolina by 60,000 to 70,000 majority in spite of the church membership question. But, as the people are seeing that, no matter who is elected President, the eighteenth amendment can neither be amended nor repealed, this opposition to him decreases.

"In Tennessee," says Senator Tyson, "we have found that the religious question is not so important as we once thought and that prohibition is the most important objection our people have raised to Smith." It is the same way in North Carolina. Senator Tyson is also right in saying that, as it is better understood that Hoover has never said a word for prohibition, and takes no stand except to oppose repeal of the eighteenth amendment, dry Democrats are declining to support him.

Moral—Let every Democratic speaker emphasize what Senator Sheppard, author of the eighteenth amendment, says: Prohibition is in no danger. If that truth can sink into the minds of all the people, the solid South will be solid for Smith and he will carry Western dry States also.—

CARDINALS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) New York, Oct. 2—(AP)—If they'd only play this world's series in a hospital ward the Yankees would win without a struggle. As it is the bettors think the St. Louis Cardinals are going to repeat their world's championship victory of 1926. And being gentlemen of firm convictions, they're ready to put $10 down on the line against $7 to back their judgment.

While Bill McKechnie spends his spare time gloating over the fact that his Cardinals came through the strenuous National league pennant battle without so much as a bruise, Miller Huggins turns his wistful eye to the Yankee ranks and sees nothing but the lame, halt and the blind.

But strangely enough, Huggins, the gloomy old dobie of baseball, is not ready to bury his hopes of another world's title to add to those he won in 1923 against the New York Giants, and last year when his clouting circus made the ferocious Pirates of Pittsburgh seem quite innocuous by comparison.

Some of his cripples day by day are getting better and better and besides, Huggins has a "hot of confidence" in his team.

But there's no gain saying that the Yanks are going to enter the first game of the series on Thursday badly handicapped. Pennock as good a world's series pitcher as baseball history can name, will not be in there mystifying rival batsmen with his left handed slant. Nor will Wiley Moore who also won one of the games against the Pirates last fall. Waite Hoyt, George Pipgras and Tom Zachary will have to bear the burden this time.

Most of the infield would appear to better advantage in a hospital bed than on the ball field. Tony Lazzeri, who can throw out hand only at the price of excruciating pain in his shoulder, will be at second base; Mark Koenig, suffering from a sore foot will limp about shortstop territory; Lou Gehrig, struck in the face by a batted ball in the last game of the regular season, will do his first basing with a pair of swollen lips, but otherwise in sound health. Joe Duan's accustomed place at third base probably will be taken care of almost exclusively by Gene Robertson, who is untried as yet, in series fire. Bob Meusel and the one and only Babe Ruth will be in the outfielding although the latter is troubled by a trick knee. Center-field duty probably will be divided between Cedric Durst and Ben Paschal, although there's a possibility that Earle Combs' injured wrist may mend fast enough to let the "Kentucky Colonel" into the line-up before the series ends.

In sharp contrast to these misfortunes that have struck the American league champions, the Cardinals are quite ready for the series. McKechnie's club is in first rate shape and with we Willie Sherdel, Jess Haines, Grover Alexander, Clarence Mitchell and Flint Rhem "ready to do the pitching. Bill, who went through all this with the Pirates in 1925, is not worrying over much.

Indications are that Sherdel and Haines will pitch the first two games here and that Alexander will be sent to the mound in the third game at St. Louis on Sunday.

All the reserved seats for the opening game at the Yankee stadium have been sold, but 40,000 unserved tickets will go on sale the day of the first game. Prospects are for an opening day crowd of close to 80,000.

Wild Cat To Fight Kentuckian. Los Angeles, Oct. 2—(AP)—Ace Hudkins, Nebraska "wildcat", middleweight, making his first start since his June title sally against Mickey Walker in Chicago, will fire his slashing salvos at Joe Anderson, fiery Kentuckian, in a ten-round fight here tonight.

Walter Hagen's Title In Danger

By F. G. VOSBURGH (Associated Press Sports Writer) Baltimore, Oct. 2—(AP)—Unless Walter Hagen can break the spell of a Jinx hole, which forced him to take a seven both times he has tried it in the National professional golf association championship tournament, the end of the week may find him minus the title he has worn in the last four years in a row.

Those disastrous sevens on the tenth hole of the five farms course of the Baltimore country club over which the touny is being played cost him a chance for the medal or at least for runner-up honors in the 36-hole qualifying round, which opened the six-day competition yesterday.

As it turned out, the medal went to Al Espinosa, gaily plumaged and self-confident gluber from the Illinois country club with a brilliant 142, but given par fours on his two tries at that bad tenth, sir Walter might have saved six strokes and given Al a run for his money. The weight of those sorrowful sevens, however, shoved the haig's total up to 150 and a tie with two others for fourth place.

Hagen now finds in the lower half of the match play draw, where most of the strength is congregated. His immediate opponent today is Willie Ogg.

Run-Down, Nervous, Appetite Gone, Lady Shows Great Improvement After Using Cardui.

Waterloo, S. C.—"I took Cardui at intervals for three years, and have been in good health since last fall," says Mrs. Noble J. Hayes, who lives near here. "My improvement after taking a course of this medicine was really remarkable.

"I am much stronger and can accomplish so much more work now. My weight increased twenty pounds, and my color is fresh and good.

"For a long time I had been feeling poorly. Some days I dragged around the house and had not enough energy to do my housework. "I worried a lot about myself. I did not seem like myself, and my nerves were all on edge. I did not sleep well, and my appetite left me.

"I found Cardui to be an excellent tonic. After I had taken it a few weeks, I began to pick up and to gain in weight and strength. "Now I am in fine health. I have recommended Cardui to many of my friends, and shall continue to do so."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been used with success and recommended by thousands of women for weakness and similar ailments. Try it for your troubles! At all drug stores. NC-192

MISSISSIPPI LOSES GREAT GRIDIRON STAR

By HORACE C. RENEGAR (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Starkville, Miss., Oct. 2—(AP)—His greatest backfield light, Gene Chadwick, lost by ineligibility, has suddenly thrown upon Coach Hancock the construction of a new form of offense for Mississippi A. & M.'s 1928 gridiron campaign—but the big mentor is not disheartened.

Down here, the maroon followers had counted on a big year with Chadwick passing, kicking and running the ball—it was to have been principally an aerial offensive but now a change must be wrought unless another effective hurdler, the oval can be found.

Until such a back is developed, the maroons will have to concentrate on a running attack although Pappenheimer, quarterback, can handle the ball very well. Coach Hancock doesn't figure a passing team can be effective unless two good throwers of the ball are available. Burkes, a sophomore, may be the necessary link.

The Aggies this season will be lighter than usual, the line averaging only around 175 or 180 pounds while the backs will average around 155. Coach Hancock, however, expects to have a good reserve calling—two teams he can use without weakening his line-up. For the heavier opponents he will use the larger array and for the light, fast teams, he expects to match speed.

In his backfield squad, he will have Carley, a triple threat man, although not highly consistent; Pappenheimer, Vandever, Pickens, captain; and Harris, all veterans, and Allen, Bridges, Burkes and Stone of less experience. Allen and Bridges can also triple threat fairly satisfactorily.

Pickens and Stone, each weighing around 170, will alternate at full back.

In the line, six end prospects all look good. Ashcroft, Lewis and

RACE HORSES LOST IN FIRE AT CARY, ILL.

Chicago, Oct. 2—(AP)—The John D. Hertz Racing Stable near Cary, Ill., in which were quartered Reigh County, 1928 Kentucky derby winner, and 14 other thoroughbreds, was destroyed last night by fire of mysterious, possibly incendiary, origin.

Eleven thoroughbreds valued at more than $200,000, were burned to death. Reigh Count, who is generally regarded as the premier three-year-old of the American track, was brought unscathed from the burning barn by a quick-thinking stable boy, Jimmy Allen. Anita Peabody, another star of the Hertz string and known as the two-year-old champion of 172, also was saved.

Among the animals lost were Leona Ett, named for Leona Hertz and being groomed for the 1929 Kentucky derby; Sandal Pan, Insula, Sandal Bar, St. Lucia, fillies by Black Servant, Kohkona and Sir Galahad; and fillies out of Luanna.

John D. Hertz, owner of the model stables, is chairman of the board of directors of the Yellow Cab company, two large garages of the cab company were bombed Sunday night. The fire at the Hertz farm, following within less than 24 hours of the two bombings, was seen by Chicago police as another violent gesture in the "Taxi War" which flared a week ago when a taxicab driver was shot dead.

Cary officers found several indications of incendiarism. Fire broke out simultaneously at opposite ends of the long brick barn, they said. There were indications that oil had been used to give the flames quick headway. A gate some distance from the stable was found to have been broken down.

Following the garage bombings Sunday night extra precautions were taken to guard the valuable thoroughbreds at the Cary farm. Extra watchmen were employed, and a close guard was arranged to be kept in the vicinity of the stable itself.

Hertz and his farm superintendent, Arthur Naylor, both said they had no suspicions as to the origin of the fire, and both were reluctant to see any connection between it and the trouble between employees of Hertz's Yellow Cab company and drivers of checker cabs. It was pointed out by Cary police, however, that the stable was of most modern construction, and presumably fireproof.

"Tom's of hay were the tinder that gave the flames a start which resisted all efforts of firemen. Aurora Naylor, 10-year-old daughter of the farm superintendent, was the first to see the fire, which even then was sending a border of flames from four sides.

"Daddy!" she screamed, "Reigh County's stable's on fire!" Jimmy Allen, a stable boy, was the first to reach the barn. Through the smoke he groped his way to Reigh County's stall. All about him the high strung thoroughbreds were stomping in their fright.

Allen placed a blindfold about Reigh County's eyes, vaulted to the nervous animals' back and drove the derby winner to safety.

Princeton To Use Old Signal System

New York, Oct. 2—(AP)—Princeton, first of the big eastern colleges to adopt the Huddle system, has reverted to the old signal-calling system in vogue before quarterbacks had so much vocal opposition from the crowds.

The change was not made because Bill Roper, the Tigers' head coach, thought the crowds were going to be any smaller this season. But Bill feels that the huddle system has lost one of its chief advantages through the new ruling which forces players coming out over the huddle to halt a full second at the line of scrimmage before the ball can be snapped.

Coach Tebell and his assistants made no bones of the fact that they were impressed by the Generals' 56 to 0 victory over Lynchburg last week.

Changes Players

Wake Forest, Oct. 2—(AP)—Planning to strengthen the team that was crushed 65 to 0 by the University of North Carolina Tar Heels Saturday, Coach Stanley Coffall has sent four of the eleven Demon Deacons who took the field in the opening contest to the second string. Cox and Connelly, of the backfield were replaced by Hard and Covington. Dorsett and Grant were sent in the line in the positions filled by Honingman and Levine. The Deacons play Presbyterian College here Saturday.

SELL YOUR TOBACCO IN GREENVILLE WITH

McGOWAN & CANNON

The Leaders In Pounds and Prices

We sold Monday 244,000 pounds and averaged $21.46 per hundred for our entire sale. In this average we had over 20,000 pounds of 2 cent tobaccos. This is the highest average that has been made in Greenville since the market opened. The Imperial and Export were stronger than any time of the season. We had over 75 new customers one hundred miles from Greenville, and they all said we had the highest sale they had seen this season. We are still looking for good tobacco to get stronger. If you are not selling with us, come around and watch the leaders and they will convince you that they sell it higher. There is a reason why we lead. We have first second sale, Wednesday, October 3rd; first sale Thursday, October 4th.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 4 to 12 points with the active months showing net gains of 8 to 13 points, after the opening on reports of rains in the eastern belt and unfavorable crop advices. The market met increased offerings around 19.30 for December and eased off to 19.18 or within a point of yesterday's closing quotations, but the volume of the business tapered off and the market showed a fairly steady tone at the end of the first half hour.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Wheat scored a material advance today, largely as a result of an address by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine being construed as favorable to higher prices. There was no particular selling pressure in evidence, and when buying developed the wheat market responded quickly. The fact that the government of India was reported buying wheat both from Australia and Argentine acted also as a bullish influence. Besides, private crop estimates given out today indicated that the United States wheat crop is 7,000,000 bushels under official September returns.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Extreme nervousness characterized the trading in today's stock market, which experienced frequent shifts of speculative sentiment. Prices headed upward at the opening but ran into a heavy volume of selling around mid-day when banks called $35,000,000 in loans and sent the call rate from 8 to 9 per cent. A partial recovery set in during the early afternoon but the line of least resistance appeared to be downward.

STOCK MARKET

There were a few stocks which showed independent strength. Lamont ran up 6 points to a new peak at 122 7/8 and Grasseil Chemical moved up 4 to a new top at 75 7/8. The can shares, Murray Corporation and Chrysler also received strong buying support but encountered stiff selling resistance around their old highs.

Weakness of several of the high grade investment rails had a disturbing effect on speculative sentiment. Pittsburgh & West Virginia dropped 4 points and Union Pacific,
