Probe Of Atlanta Pen Is Pending

Atlanta, Oct. 4.—(AP)—The Atlanta Constitution today said an investigation of the "affairs and administration" of the Federal penitentiary here had right of way with the co-operation of Warden John W. Snook.

The Warden returned from Washington yesterday where he had been summoned for conferences with Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general in charge of prison and prohibition enforcement.

"I am instructed to do certain things which I shall do," the warden said.

The paper added that Senator William E. Borah, Republican Idaho, lifelong friend of Mr. Snook was reported en route to Washington from the northwest where he had been speaking in the interest of Herbert Hoover, to defend the warden "against any unfair or unreasonable actions which may be taken to relieve him of the appointment."

The newspaper gave no authority for a statement that Snook was reported to have protested against an espionage system at the penitentiary when "grilled" by Mrs. Willebrandt in Washington.

German Dirigible To Begin Flight To U. S. Sunday

Berlin, Oct. 4.—(AP)—The new German dirigible Graf Zeppelin, having made her final test flight flawlessly, is ready to leave for the United States on Sunday. It was announced that only unfavorable weather would delay the dirigible's departure. The Graf Zeppelin on the test flight of 34 1-2 hours covered about 1,800 miles at an average speed of more than 32 miles an hour. The ship flew from Friedrichshafen, where it was built, over Holland and England and, after cruising over Germany, back to its base.

Sixty-nine persons were on board.

LEAF PRICES REMAIN FIRM IN THIS CITY

Quality Of Offerings Reported To Be Improving On Tobacco Market Here.

Sales were some lighter on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday but the price situation remained unchanged. The market paid out a total sum of $183,258.18 for 112,880 pounds of bright leaf at an average of $20.67.

These figures were given out today by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade following official compilation of the market's activities yesterday. It was stated that there was about a million pounds of leaf on the floors of the warehouses today. It was indicated that sales would be completed during the afternoon hours. The market has disposed of 22,813,720 pounds of tobacco during the twenty-two days it has been in this season and still maintains the average of over a million pounds of tobacco daily. Sales have been somewhat lighter this week, it was explained today, because of the fact that farmers are picking cotton and attending the Pitt county fair.

Better grades predominated on the floors yesterday. This fact played an important part in the price situation. It was stated that the quality of today's offerings was unusually good and that prices were expected to remain as strong as any day since the opening of the market.

Mrs. W. B. Murphy To Address Democrats In This City Friday Night

The fires of democracy will receive additional fuel in this section tomorrow night when Mrs. W. B. Murphy, of Snow Hill, addresses Democratic voters at the courthouse in this city. The speaking is scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock, and members of the Executive committee of Pitt county expect one of the largest crowds that has attended a political speaking here this year.

Mrs. Murphy is one of the best known women political leaders in this part of the country. She is Secretary of the Daughters of the American Revolution in North Carolina and in that capacity has rendered distinguished service. Although her subject had not been announced today, it was stated by members of the party here that she would cover the present campaign and set forth some of the reasons for Democratic supremacy.

Discussing the progress of the campaign in this county, W. E. Hooks, of Ayden, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive committee, stated this morning that other prominent speakers would appear here from time to time during the campaign. Among them will be O. Max Gardner, of Shelby, Democratic nominee for governor of North Carolina, and Clyde Hoy, another of the state's prominent political leaders. Although no definite date has been set for their appearance, Mr. Hooks said this would be determined tomorrow when he confers with Chairman Mull at Raleigh. He said he expected Mr. Gardner would come here in a few days.

Love Doctor Gives Testimony In Poison Case At Charlotte

Charlotte, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Sam Daniels, "Love Doctor," being tried in Mecklenburg Superior Court here on a charge of murder, continued this morning to make denial of accusations and made constant protests of his innocence while being cross-examined.

Daniels, also known as "Professor Brandorme," a fortune teller, who maintained a studio here on West Eighth street, has as joint defendant in the trial Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Preslar. The three are charged with murdering L. M. Lockamy, former husband of Mrs. Preslar, by administration of poison "love" powders. The trial is in its fourth day.

The "Professor" this morning appeared to have recovered from his confusion of yesterday afternoon, when he denied, then admitted he had a wife and five children. His sudden attitude and short temper of the late afternoon gave way this morning, and he spoke clearly, while the packed courtroom listened attentively to every word.

MORE COUNTS PRESENTED IN CARNES CASE

Southern Baptist Convention Appeals For Funds To Cover Shortage.

Atlanta, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Fulton county grand jury will be asked to indict Clinton S. Carnes on several more counts, charging embezzlement of $653,000 in funds of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, while acting as its treasurer. Two indictments already against him charged embezzlement of $100,000 and set bond at $50,000.

Presentments will be made to the inquisitorial body tomorrow, the day Carnes is scheduled to arrive in Atlanta in custody of local officers who brought him from Winnipeg, Man., the city where he was arrested last Friday.

Authorities in Milwaukee, Chicago, and other cities were pushing investigations intended to determine whether or not Carnes had deposited any sums in safety deposit boxes, or otherwise hidden cash or securities. Atlanta authorities, meanwhile, were preparing to meet Carnes and his custodians at the train here tomorrow morning with a detective squad, to cope with curious rather than troublesome matters.

A former financier who once served prison terms for fraud before becoming treasurer of the church board, was arrested in Winnipeg on information said to have been furnished by a former Atlantan.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 4.—(AP)—Southern Baptist churches today were in receipt of a request that a special offering be taken Sunday, November 11, to cover the shortage of $553,000 in the accounts of Clinton S. Carnes, former treasurer of the Home Mission Board.

In making public the request last night, the executive committee of the Southern Baptist Convention revealed that an audit of the books showed the building fund had lost $200,000 during Carnes' tenure in office, and that the rest of the money had been obtained on secretly placed notes, which have not yet been paid. The building program of the church is demoralized because of the shortage.

Roosevelt Sees Smith Victory In Southeast

Warm Springs, Ga., Oct. 4.—(AP)—On the eve of his departure today for Columbus, Ga., Cleveland, Ohio, and Boston, to speak on behalf of the Democratic national ticket, Franklin D. Roosevelt said the southeastern states would give Governor Smith a large majority on election day.

The former assistant secretary of the navy who was nominated by New York Democrats as candidate for governor of that state, declared the "so-called Hoover-Democrat" movement in South Carolina, Florida, Alabama and Georgia had all but collapsed.

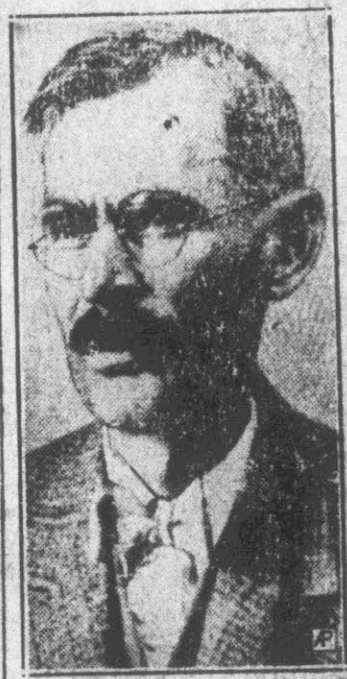

On the basis of observation in the two weeks he has been in the south, Mr. Roosevelt was of the opinion that the only Hoover people "who formerly called themselves Democrats" in those states would come from a handful who will vote "not for Hoover but against Smith on the simple and clear ground that the latter is a Catholic."

Asserting that he also had favorable reports from North Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma, the New York nominee believed that "a flood of scurrilous and disgusting literature in the south will prove to be a blessing because it had resulted for the first time in a generation in a definite campaign organization to work for the national ticket."

Defer Stewart Perjury Case.

Washington, Oct. 4.—(AP)—The case of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil of Indiana, charged with perjury in connection with testimony before the senate oil committee, has been postponed until November 12. The case had been set for October 8th.

SEN. ROBINSON GOING STRONG IN OKLAHOMA

Sees No Reform Of Republican Party As It Pertains To Prohibition.

By WALTER CHAMBLIN
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Robinson Special Car Enroute to Chickasha, Okla., Oct. 4.—(AP)—Campaigning here in Oklahoma, Senator Joe Robinson, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, has declared that if anybody believes the Republican party has reformed on the question of prohibition, that person should head immediately for the lunatic asylum.

The senator moved on today to Chickasha for his concluding speech in the state.

At Muskogee last night he said that the Republicans had used the word "observe" in the prohibition plank of their platform to make good women and ministers believe the Republican party is ready to abandon the drink habit and declare for tolerance.

In referring to the committee which drafted the plank, he declared that half of them probably were half intoxicated when they wrote it, and urged his audience to go home and read the Democratic and Republican platforms, and see if they could ascertain any material difference on the prohibition question.

He said both platforms declared for enforcement of the prohibition laws and that he and Senator Curtis, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, were dry and that Gov. Smith, the Democratic standard bearer, had stated his position. He argued, however, that Mr. Hoover had failed to make his position clear.

"Why he knows how to use language," he declared. "If he wanted to say he was against modification of the Volstead act he would do so. He either wants modification and doesn't want his position known, or he is against modification and he wants the wet vote."

SMITH GIVES THOUGHT TO SECOND TOUR

Democrat Outlines Future Plans Along Lines Of Those Of First Trip.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4.—(AP)—Governor Smith is proceeding with the mapping out of his future campaign plans along lines which he believes are most effective in the light of experience gained from his first two weeks' invasion of the west.

While keeping silent on the number of speeches he expects to deliver on his second swing beginning next week, and where they will take him, the Democratic presidential nominee is expected to chart his course around the eastern half of the country, probably taking a dip into the "Solid South" before touching several border states, and then complete the circle with speeches in more northern states.

How long this trip will take and what subjects the nominee will discuss are not known definitely, but it is certain that he will reserve the final week of the campaign for a whirlwind finish in the Atlantic seaboard states. His speeches there will be in more rapid order and probably will be confined to the strip between Boston and Baltimore as well as those cities, with New York getting the final address on the Saturday night before election. Definite announcement of the schedule for the next stumping tour will be made by the governor himself in a few days. Meanwhile he intends to get as much rest as possible and to limber up on the golf links. He is making no political engagements.

At a press conference the governor commented on a newspaper story by E. F. Youkum, former railroad president and student of the farm question, had come out for Herbert Hoover's "farm relief plan."

The governor said he could not understand how Youkum found basis for the claim that Mr. Hoover "has any plan." He contended that the Republican presidential candidate had held the tariff to be the foundation of farm relief in its acceptance speech, while "every student of the subject and every farm leader take a directly opposite view."

"The whole contention all along has been that the tariff does not operate where the farmer produces more than is consumed," said the governor. "That is the basis of the whole thing. No matter how high we might drive the tariff on wheat, if we have an exportable surplus and we are compelled to sell the whole crop at the price of the surplus, the tariff can not operate."

Louisburg Man Dies Of Injuries

Rocky Mount, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Edward Schoonover, Louisburg man, died at a local hospital last night of injuries received early Sunday morning when he was shot by his wife after he had come home in an intoxicated condition and attacked her.

After Schoonover's death, physicians at the hospital made statements in which they declared the injured man, during his conscious and rational hours, repeatedly insisted that he alone was to blame for the shooting.

The body of Schoonover was sent to Fredericksburg, Va., where he formerly lived. In addition to his wife, he leave a six months old child.

Man And Woman Killed By Wire

Sudbury, Ont., Oct. 4.—(AP)—An attempt to remove a discarded radio aerial wire from a power line carrying 4,000 volts, caused the death of a man and wife while neighbors looked helplessly on.

Frank Govaerts was returning from work when he saw his wife attempting to remove the sputtering wire with a mop handle. He ran from his car, seized the stick and just as his wife warned him that the wire was alive it dangled off the mop handle, and twisted around his wrist. He fell to the ground with the wire still around him, while his wife threw her arms about him and received the full force of the electric charge.

Colorful Pageant Draws Thousands to County Fair

A crowd variously estimated at between eight and ten thousand people attended Pitt county fair last night and witnessed one of the most extensive programs of free entertainment in history of the organization. While the crowd was not up to its customary size yesterday morning, the throngs were greatly augmented by visitors from many sections of the county during the afternoon and by eight o'clock last night midway was a regular sea of humanity, pushing, jamming, elbowing their way into the countless attractions offered by the Sheesley Shows and exhibit buildings.

Another large crowd was anticipated today and a program of entertainment equally as extensive as that yesterday was planned by fair officials. Thursday's racing card is always one of the outstanding features of the day, and Haywood Dail, secretary, said the program today would be no exception. The fireworks program tonight, combined with the many tree acrobatic performances in front of the grand stand, will be among the highlights of the evening.

The crowd last night was probably the largest that has attended the fair in years. They came from all sections of the county, numbers of them for no other reason than to witness the historical pageant, "George Washington's Visit to Pitt County," a local talent production put on under auspices of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The spectacle was dazzling in its brilliance and contained all of the atmosphere of the stirring days when the "Father of His Country" rode into Greenville and spent several hours before continuing his journey to New Bern.

The pageant was preceded by a lengthy acrobatic performance put on by an aggregation who appear twice daily during the five days; the fair is in progress. All through evening's program Victor's band, from the lower bandstand of the grandstand rendered selections, including the patriotic airs that made the blood surge through the veins of the spectators as the early life of Greenville was re-enacted by the hundred or more men, women and girls taking part in the pageant.

All of the characters wore costumes conforming with the colonial period. Bill Bradner, taking the part of Washington, made his appearance in an old-time coach drawn by two spirited horses. As he dismounted from the coach he was preceded along the race track to the performer's stand by a bevy of young women, scattering flowers along the way. Preceding the arrival the young women executed a colori dance. Soldiers, with drawn bayonets, stood at attention all through the arrival and departure of the distinguished guest.

The pageant was divided into four parts, depicting, preparations for the arrival of Washington, his arrival, reception and departure. After his meeting by the committee of safety and representative citizens, he was escorted to the main part of the city and entertained. The minut was one of the outstanding features in the entertainment program. This was executed in a most interesting way by several of the leading characters.

The pageant was ushered in with a specialty dance by Miss Bett Dixon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Dixon of this city. Her interpretation of the "clog" dance drew liberal applause from the countless spectators crowded into the grandstand and looking on from all other points of vantage.

The historical sketch of Washington's visit to Greenville was re-enacted by the judges' stand by W. T. Lipscomb, who, dressed in conventional fashion, held undivided attention of the crowd as they listened to each word of the short but illuminating description of General Washington's visit. C. B. Rowlett, acting the part of negro butler, was up to his usual standard.

The pageant was directed by Mrs. R. L. Smith, regent of Greenville Patriots chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. It was the first time the memorable visit of Washington had ever been re-enacted and was received with liberal applause.

At conclusion of the pageant the regular nightly pyrotechnic display was given. Numbers of aerial bombs were fired high into the heavens, their reverberations forming a colorful and thrilling aftermath to the pageant. The patriotic numbers rendered by the band.

State Student Shot Raiding Apple Orchard

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 4—(AP)—Dixon L. Poole, Jr., State College freshman from Spartanburg, S. C. was in a local hospital today seriously wounded as a result of a raid he and two other students made on the college apple orchard last night.

Marshall Hoover, negro night watchman, who, officers said, admitted firing on the trio with a shotgun, was held in the city jail.

Joe Harris and P. J. Hodges, the students with Poole, were quoted by police as saying Hoover rose up from a shadow and fired without warning. The negro ran, but was found later at his home, where he had been instructed to shoot at raiders by H. A. Miller, superintendent of the horticultural farm who employed him, but Miller and Dr. E. C. Brooks, president of the college, declared the watchman was directed to fire into the ground, if necessary to protect the orchard.

Poole was shot in the face and lungs. At 9 o'clock this morning, it was said at the hospital he was "not any better." An operation was performed late last night in the hope of saving his life.

Curtis Turns To The Races Today

Chicago, Oct. 4—(AP)—Finally salvaging a day from the grid of politics, Senator Charles Curtis, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, answered the call of his favorite sport today and turned toward the horse race tracks at Lincoln Fields.

Love of horses sent Charles Curtis to the tracks in the west as a bareback rider at the age of eight and for eight years he earned his schooling in summer time as a jockey on the frontier tracks. He felt today he had earned a visit to the tracks by his heavy campaigning of the last month winding up with an address here last night before a meeting in the auditorium under the auspices of the Swedish-American Hoover-Curtis club.

Despite a hoarse voice, the vice-presidential nominee spoke at some length, praising the Republican administration of Calvin Coolidge and calling for the election of Herbert Hoover "as the means of continuing this splendid administration." He declared that to be the "principal question."

Coolidge Observe Wedding Anniversary

Washington, Oct. 4—(AP)—The President and Mrs. Coolidge celebrated today their twenty-third wedding anniversary—their last one in the White House.

They had both carefully avoided special preparations for the occasion, telling friends that they wished to observe this day in the same manner as they had observed all previous ones, quietly and free from all show or artificiality.

Mrs. Coolidge left the bedside of her sick mother in Northampton, Mass., Tuesday to continue her practice of twenty-three years standing of being in her own home every fourth of October. The absence of their son, John, was the only change which Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge were forced to submit in their yearly observance of the date.

They both awaited with eagerness, however, a message from John from New Haven, Conn., where he is now working. They also expected to receive this afternoon greetings from their more intimate friends. Otherwise it was understood that they preferred to enjoy the occasion undisturbed.

Fate Of Freighter Unreported Today

New York, Oct. 4—(AP)—The gale-lashed North Atlantic today held the fate of the Dutch freighter Caeleno, reported sinking with her crew of 25 men.

Speeding to her rescue was the Hamburg-American liner, Albert Ballin, but failure of the latter to establish communication with the line's office here left the status of the rescue effort in doubt.

Twenty-seven men, the crew of the steam trawler Flitz, which sank off Montauk Point, Long Island, yesterday, were landed safely at New London, Conn., early this morning. They had taken to lifeboats when their ship sprung a bad leak, were picked up by the steamer American and later transferred to the Coast Guard destroyer Perry, which took them into New London.

The Flitz was bound from New York to the fishing grounds off Nantucket.

Th Albert Ballin turned from her course to go to the rescue of the Caeleno yesterday morning, but the only word of her progress was that relay through the United States liner America, which first sent word of the freighter's plight.

The only Essex point in common with cars in its price field—is price. There is little in either appearance or performance to distinguish it from many a costlier car.

In size, it possesses the advantage of compactness without sacrifice of passenger quarters or riding comfort. It steers as easily as any car you have ever driven. There is a quickness and nimbleness in its motor action that will make some costlier cars you have driven seem slow and sluggish. These qualities are lasting.

With whatever costly car detail you compare Essex you will be impressed by its high standard in design, material and workmanship.

Many exclusive and patented features contribute to these Essex advantages—among them being its high-compression Super-Six motor, which to our belief is the most powerful and efficient automobile motor of its size in the world.

Won't you examine and drive the Essex, whether as a prospective buyer or as one interested in knowing why it is the choice car in its price field as proved by sales?

Guiding Your Child

CUP AND SPOON
(By Mrs. Agnes Lyne)
Adults with decades of skill in table manners behind them have forgotten how hard it was to acquire. Until the child has mastered the rudiments of the art he should not eat with the family.

Consider how much the little one has to learn. The distance between late and spoon has to be gauged, the spoon must be balanced so as not to spill its contents and it must be carried safely to its destination, the cup has to be lifted evenly in both hands and gradually tilted just to the right degree to pour the milk into his mouth, then righted and brought back carefully to the table. Anything which distracts the child makes him more likely to dawdle over his meal and spill his food. The youngster sitting at table with adults who are talking and manipulating all sorts of tools and dishes, sure to be fascinated by them, he different foods the others have take him ask for things that must be denied him. Members of the family are apt to make unwise comments on his awkwardness. His mother can hardly help showing her annoyance at the spots he takes on table cloth and rug.

Learning how to eat should be made as simple as possible. It would be well for the child to have a little table of his own. It should stand on a floor which can be wiped up without too much trouble. He should, in any case, eat alone.

Whether may keep him company, at she should not give him her undivided attention. From time to time he may show him how to hold his spoon. She may suggest that he must try not to spill his food, that it is better to chew with the mouth closed, that he should wipe his lips with his napkin.

She must bear in mind that he can only learn slowly, and that scolding will make him unhappy and foster resistance to the very habits she wishes to establish. As an incentive to good table manners she can tell him that when he has learned to eat promptly and neatly he may join the family at the dinner table.

SURROUNDED BY FOOD, BUT NEARLY STARVES

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 4.—(AP)—Edward Connelly, 38, a chef, was surrounded by food for seven days and yet, he said today, he nearly starved to death.

Connelly found himself locked in a box car which was shunted to a lonesome siding. The car was loaded with boxes of canned food, packed all around him.

When his pounding on the door finally brought rescue yesterday, Connelly explained that he had feared to break into the food because it might be thought he was stealing. When hunger drove him to consider getting into the car, he had lost his knife and could not open the boxes.

CARTOS BABY IN BABY SHOW FORGES HEAD

Spirited Voting Expected Between Now and Tomorrow When Contest Closes.

Another sensation at the baby contest headquarters took place this morning when little Ann Smith who looked like the leader for today was nosed out of the first place by little Gus Cartos. This youngster has a world of friends who are voting for him and unless the voting is more than normal at the last minute it looks like a good bet on little Gus.

Baby Ann Smith jumped from twentieth place Wednesday afternoon to overcome the lead that Alice Ruth Bundy had.

The contest promises to be the most spirited that I have ever produced at any time, said Verne Newcombe, the Director General of this county wide event. There is sure to be more than one dark horse forged to the top before ten o'clock tomorrow morning, for the folks in Farmville, Ayden, and Bethel are surely not sleeping while they have candidates in this race.

The standings for today are as follows:

Gus Cartos takes the lead with a total of 88,500 votes; Ann Smith takes second lead with total 88,900 votes; Alice Ruth Bundy in third place today with 45,500 votes; Dorothy Davenport, 44,500 votes; Harry Lee Davis, 44,000 votes; Hubert Musselwhite, 43,750 votes; Jean Rush, 4th place, 42,500 votes; Helen Kemp, 41,000 votes; Melton McLawhorn, 41,500 votes; Virginia Simpson, 43,250 votes; Annie Oteal Clemens, 43,000 votes; Jean Harrington, 43,000 votes; David Clay, 41,000 votes; Dorothy Beland, 40,000 votes; Jean Hilton, 41,000 votes; Ione Hooker Bradsher, 40,000 votes; Cora Boyd Redditt, 44,000 votes; R. G. Jackson, Jr., 43,000 votes.

The grand stand at the fair grounds will be open earlier than usual on Friday afternoon, on account of the prolonged program that is in store for the folks. The prizes are on display in the windows of the Tolar Jewelry Company, on Evans Street. The Grand Prize Loving Cups were donated by the Greenville Cafe and Rocks Cleaners and Dyers. The Greenville Bank and Trust Company have donated many bank accounts, which will be used as consolation prizes, and the Taft Furniture Company donated a beautiful rocking chair for some lucky baby.

EAST CAUSES HOOVER CHIEF WORRY TODAY

Varied Reports Received Today Cause Republican Candidate Concern.

Washington, Oct. 4.—(AP)—His attention centered now upon the present exigencies of the campaign, Herbert Hoover is leaving to the future his precise program for the closing days of the presidential contest.

His chief concern for the time being is the Eastern sector of the country from which he receives varying reports as to the outlook. Some of these are of a very pessimistic nature, while others are less gloomy.

Assessing the whole, the Republican presidential candidate is convinced that the real fight is along the Eastern Atlantic seaboard, from Jersey's shores to the point where begin the rock-lined coast of Maine, and his efforts are directed toward strengthening the party in these parts.

Leaders in that section believe that his personal visits to New York City and New England will be of great benefit and that after his personal conferences with the workers and his two addresses, one in New York and the other in Boston, there will be a rising tide of support for the national ticket.

Such party warhorses as Moses, of New Hampshire, and Reed, of

Leaders in that section believe that his personal visits to New York City and New England will be of great benefit and that after his personal conferences with the workers and his two addresses, one in New York and the other in Boston, there will be a rising tide of support for the national ticket.

Such party warhorses as Moses, of New Hampshire, and Reed, of Pennsylvania, have frankly told the candidate that persistent work must be done in the East if the party is to hold ground, which in national elections, it usually has been rationally certain of long before election day.

The situation in the South also is one to which Hoover is directing some of his energies and his personal bid for support in that section will be made Saturday in his visits to Elizabethton and Johnson City, Tenn., in both of which towns he will make addresses.

While this is largely Republican territory, it is well into the Southland, and Hoover's messages will be directed in part at least to all of the country south of the Mason and Dixon line.

On his trip to Elizabethton, upon which he sets out tomorrow night, Hoover will be accompanied by Mrs. Hoover, their son, Herbert, Jr., and George Anderson, his personal assistant.

There will be a brief rear platform talk at Bristol, Va., the first stopping place. The candidate will be presented by C. Bascom Slem national committeeman for Virginia, who will join the party there leaving Bristol at 11 a. m., the special train will proceed to Childers where the party will transfer to automobiles for a trip through the principle streets of Elizabethton to headquarters at a hotel, where a luncheon also will be served.

Early in the afternoon Hoover will proceed to the fair grounds to speak at 3 p. m. J. Will Taylor, national committeeman for Tennessee, will introduce former Governor Alfred A. Taylor, who will present the nominee to the audience. The former governor, who now is 82 years old is living in retirement in Happy Valley.

Hoover will appear again at Elizabethton at 5:15, Eastern Standard time, the noon party will proceed to Johnson City, arriving there at the same hour, Central Standard time. After a second address at the Washington, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Andrew W. Mellon is well satisfied with his present work and has given no thought to changing, he said today in discussing reports that he had been selected to retain his post as Secretary of the Treasury in case Herbert Hoover is elected in November. The secretary added that Mr. Hoover had determined he would again head the financial department of the government he new nothing of it.

"At my age I might as well work here as anywhere else," he said. "I have made no plans about retiring."

GOVERNOR SMITH AND THE WAR VETERANS

Recently speaking on what Governor Smith had accomplished in behalf of the war veterans and urging support of Smith for president, Colonel John D. Langston, of Goldsboro, recited the following record of the New York Governor in so far as the war veterans were vitally concerned:

"The record of Governor Alfred E. Smith's accomplishments on behalf of the veterans of his State bear witness to his gratitude for their sacrifices. What he did in New York State only indicates what he would do under enlarged powers and influence as President of the United States.

"After four years of hard work in the legislature and on the stump he procured in 1924 the issuance of $45,000,000 in bonds to provide a bonus for the war veterans.

"He succeeded in getting a $5,500,000 bond issue to extend payment to the next of kin of deceased war veterans.

"He procured appropriations of $4,500,000 for hospital construction for the care of veterans, $3,000,000 of which was later diverted to other purposes by a Republican governor in 1922. In recognition of this great work and the untiring efforts of Governor Smith in behalf of the veterans that General Hines, head of the Veterans' Bureau in a speech in 1928, said, 'It has never been necessary to send a New York veteran out of the state for treatment.'

"He procured the passage of a bill providing that every employee of the Department of State could return to his former position when mustered out of service.

"He had a bill passed creating scholarships for veterans who had left their colleges and schools to serve and were financially unable to complete their education. "He provided for tax exemption of bonuses invested in homes, and exemption from taxation of all property owned by veteran organizations.

"He also approved the extension of the state system of employment bureaus and secured additional appropriations for them so as to facilitate finding positions for demobilized soldiers. In many other ways he has demonstrated his sincere friendship for the war veterans.

"Not until we consider that all of this was done over the protest of a hostile Republican legislature do we realize the aggressiveness of Governor Smith in procuring same." In the face of such a record, to be sure the war veterans will give Governor Smith their support for the office which he now seeks.

ABOUT TOWN

"The historical pageant, George Washington's Visit to Pitt County, presented by local talent at the Pitt county fair last night, fully accurred up to expectations," a citizen who saw the production, mentioned to the writer of this column today.

"This is the first time the visit of the 'Father of his country' has been re-acted in this county and it created more than general interest among that great mass of people interested in the early history of the county. "While Washington evidently didn't think much of the geographical location of the town at the time, he might change his mind were he to appear here today. From a straggling hamlet the town has developed into one of the thriving young cities of the state and bears a sharp contrast to the 'muddy little town on Tar river,' as described by Washington in his diary.

"Don't forget to settle up all of your outstanding accounts during Pay-Up Week which opens here November 1st," said a member of the Merchants Association today.

"The Association is preparing a new list of those extended credit the past year and will be rated at the end of Pay-Up Week. See that you make some satisfactory settlement with your creditors and get a clear rating in the new list.

"This is mighty important as a clean record will assure you of a continuance of credit next year."

"Employment of a whole-time secretary by the Greenville Merchants Association is another indication of the rapid growth and development of Greenville," said one of the old business men today.

"The Merchants Association has grown along with the city and its activities have become so numerous that it is impossible for a part time official to serve it as effectively as desired.

"The Association gives Greenville the same service of the chamber of commerce of other towns. Coupled with its own activities, this makes duties of the secretary arduous at times.

"The business interests of the city should stand behind the organization and see that it gets support necessary to continue its great work in behalf of a greater Greenville and Pitt county."

"Pitt county has gained more distinction in winning the national health survey," commented a member of the medical profession today. "The survey will be conducted by members of two of the greatest health organizations in the country. Their findings in Pitt county will become a model for all other counties of the State."

"North Carolina is the third state of the union to be awarded a survey of this kind. It comes thru the interest of the Federation of Women's clubs in public health activities.

"One of the health experts connected with the survey will outline a constructive program for the schools and this in itself is expected to have a salutary effect upon the life of the state.

"Pitt county generally pulls together in anything she undertakes, and this spirit of co-operation again has given her prominence in the life of the nation."

"Are you registered for the presidential election in November?" asked a member of the Democratic club today.

"If you are not go to the office of the register of deeds of Pitt county Saturday and have your name placed on the books.

"Much confusion exists every national election because of the failure of people to understand that registration in city elections does not give them the privilege of voting for state and national officers.

"Registration books opened last Saturday. They will be open every Saturday hereafter, and if you are not sure about yourself, the thing to do is to go to the registrar and get right."

MANY CHANCES FOR GLORY IN WORLD SERIES

By ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
New York, Oct. 4.—(AP)—No world's series is complete hero-or-its-goat. The wreath of wild razberries is bestowed, a glance over baseball's main chapters reveals, as impartially as the crown of laurel.

Seldom has a world's series offered as much opportunity for heroic stuff, as much chance for lowly substitute, aging veteran or ambitious youngster to jump into the spotlight as does the current tussle between the Yankees and Cardinals. Will one of the stars of other years repeat or will some obscure performer leap into the glare with a great catch, home run, daring play or startling pitching feat.

Babe Ruth can testify as to how it feels to have been the goat of a hero. The Bambino was "bust" in 1922 when his batting mark fell to a miserable .118, but four years later, in St. Louis, the big fellow was acclaimed as he seldom has ever been when he laced out three home runs in one afternoon in the enemy stronghold.

Mark Koenig, in a much shorter career, has also known the two extremes. The sturdy Yankee shortstop, then in his first major league year, contributed the error that started the Cardinals on their winning rally in the final game of the 1926 series. But last year, in the Yankee clean sweep over the Pirates, Mark was the outstanding star, leading the regulars of both clubs at bat and shining afield.

Old Pete Alexander, 41 years old pitcher, probably wouldn't make a creek statue envious, but the veteran was cast in heroic mould in the great Cardinal victory two years ago. Two years have exacted some toll from this remarkable Nebraskaan but he is still one of the greatest "money pitchers" of them all and may still have the Indian sign on the Yankees.

Much younger in years but a veteran of five world's series, Waite Hoyt, the Yankee twirling ace, has known the glamour of being proclaimed a world's series hero. The Brooklyn undertaker pitched sensational ball against the Giants in the 1921 series, and he is ready to shoulder the main burden for the house of Huggins.

While these few erstwhile intimates of the hall of fame will be knocking at the door again, others will be striving to climb up on the pedestal. There's many a slip on the way up, as John Miljus found out last year by tossing a wild pitch and losing the final game just when it looked as though he would complete a heroic pitching stand.

Of the Cardinal clan there will be the picturesque little rabbit Maranville, back in the world's series 14 years after he helped the Braves upset the Athletics. It would be a dramatic touch for the Rabbit to come through. If not, there's Frankie Frisch, capable of super-stuff around second base, or Jim Bottomley and Chick Hafey, the big guns at bat.

There will be a chance, among the Yankees, for Cedric Durst or Ben Paschal to show their calibre as replacements for the injured Earle Combs in center, or for old Tom Zachary and Young Henry Johnson to demonstrate their pitching stuff, should Hoyt or Pigras, and mainstays, fall.

CODY BRINGS CLEMSON TO LIFE AGAIN

Fred Chez, fullback, is captain of the 1928 Montana State gridiron team.

By HORACE C. RENEGAR, Associated Press Sport Writer
Calhoun, S. C., Oct. 4.—(AP)—Josh Cody is bringing Clemson back with a vengeance—the Tigers can not be considered pushovers any longer.

Last year, he beat many of the teams that formerly brushed the Tigers aside. This year, he hopes for even more success.

And from the start he has had, none can doubt, but what such will be his reward. Saturday he will have a chance to win his third game of the season and incidentally make it two in as many years over Auburn's Plimsden. The game will be played in the Alabama village and Cody has reason to expect another victory.

This 1928 Clemson team has experience and reserve strength. Both are vital to a winning squad. To recite his first line-up briefly, taking the eleven from left and down the line, finds Woodruff, M. Gill, G. Davis, Presley, Ewofford, Hall and Mouldenou, a forward wall possessing the weight, drive and experience to stop many an offense. It'll be no paper wall. That 180 pounds or more of brawn from end to end will be hard to penetrate and the secondary of Pitts (C. McMillan, Padgett and McCarley will be forming a constant threat of passes, plunges and end jaunts.

In the line, Presley will be the maulspring. He was one of the best centers in the conference last season and shows promise of being better this season. His passes are Tobacco goodness, and without over-sweetening; mildness with character—that's the Chesterfield difference. And it's the most important difference any cigarette could offer!

FARM PROBLEM IS PUZZLE TO REPUBLICANS

Members Find Question Is No Myth In The Farm Lands Of The Northwest.

By BYRON PRICE, (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 4.—(AP)—The final month of the presidential campaign finds the accumulated grievances of agriculture still dragging very heavily on the wheels of the Hoover candidacy in the normally Republican Northwest.

Just as the Democrats have awakened to the seriousness of the anti-Smith movement in the South, so the Republicans here in the northwestern States no longer speak of the anti-Hoover farm movements as a myth. They realize that through Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas they must turn in and fight, and they are doing it.

North Dakota is one of the States which both parties are claiming just now with much earnestness. But on both sides these claims are coupled with a reminder that much work remains to be done before election day, and there are leaders among the Republicans and Democrats alike who say quite candidly, when they speak privately, that if the election were held today it might very well turn out a horse race.

That this tradition became disturbed in a State which four years ago stood by Coolidge in the face of the LaFollette crusade and gave Davis only 13,000 votes out of a total of nearly 200,000.

Governor Smith recently has traversed the State, and his western flings as the Republican farm policies were broadcast over the northwest. On his trail have come a swarm of Republican spellbinders, including Senators Brookhart and Borah, preaching Hoover.

The outstanding State leaders of organizations, in turn, are redoubting their pleas that Hoover be defeated.

Although North Dakota was not the hardest hit by the period of distress in the farm States, her farmers and business men nevertheless have passed through some trying times.

Most of the other issues have been crowded into the shadow. Prohibition is talked about, but with no great show of confidence on either side. The State is rated normally dry, yet a larger percentage of its country population is German and wet.

Just three months ago, a proposal to repeal the State prohibition amendment was lost, 96,837 to 103,696.

The religious issue has had little public prominence.

The difficulties of both parties from an organization standpoint, are increased by the complicated plight of local politics. The real lines of political division within the State run crosswise of old party lines.

State and national politics do not mix, and State politics is held paramount by most candidates.

Calls were sent for ambulances and doctors.

Four persons were brought to St. Joseph's hospital here. The accident occurred about a mile east of Aldershot in a heavy fog.

STATE PLANS RUNNING ATTACK FOR GENERALS

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 4.—(AP)—With only today and tomorrow left for getting his varsity in shape for the expected stiff game with Washington and Lee at Lexington, Va., on Saturday, Coach Tebell at North Carolina State today turned his thoughts to what kind of an offensive he will use.

"Mostly a running attack," said Tebell this morning in answer to what he had planned to use against the Generals. For this kind of an offensive he had two backfields in shape, Captain Bob Warren, Fullback, Freddie Crum and Norris Jeffrey. Halves, and Sparky Adams, quarterback, are classes as the first varsity lineup, while Morris Johnson, quarterback, Basil Melton and Buster Albright or Cheaney Gardner, halves, and Arthur Morris, fullback, come in the second quartet.

JEWISH RABBI QUESTIONED IN MURDER CASE

Governor Smith Orders Investigation Into Death Of Girl In New York.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4.—(AP)—At the order of Governor Smith, an investigation of the questioning of a Jewish Rabbi at Massena, N. Y., on a rumor of ritual murder, was in full swing today.

Lieutenant Edward F. Heim and Corporal McCann of Troop B, State police, were ordered to report to Major John A. Warner, superintendent of State Police and son-in-law of the governor, to explain their side of the case growing out of the questioning of Rabbi Burlington.

Ordering of the troopers to the headquarters in Albany became known after Governor Smith made public a letter to Dr. Stephens S. Wise, president of the American Jewish Congress, lamenting resurrection "of the rumor of ritual murder which developed on Jewish Atonement Day" in the St. Lawrence county village. The letter called attention to a law by which mayors could be removed from office.

The incident came to light with a protest by Louis Marshall, president of the American Jewish committee, over the questioning of the Rabbi, which Mr. Marshall termed an "unspeakable calamity" against the Jewish race.

Mr. Marshall in a letter demanded that Mayor W. Gilbert Hawes of Massena apologize. The letter declared that on Saturday, September 22, two days before Yom Kippur, the mayor "arranged" for troopers to interrogate Rabbi Burlington "on the intolerable assumption that the Jews required the blood of Christian children on their Holy Days" and that this requirement had had some connection with the disappearance of four-year-old Barbara Griffith from her Massena home. She was found the next day in a nearby woods.

A report by Lieutenant Heim Troopers to his superior officer at Malone, N. Y., said that while the girl was missing a Jewish boy "of low mentality" appeared voluntarily at the police office at Massena and talked about the girl in a rambling manner.

A member of the Jewish faith in Massena then was questioned, said the Rabbi be interviewed. Trooper McCann then questioned the Rabbi, said the report, with reference to this boy.

Young Democrats Organized In N. C.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 4.—(AP)—Fifty thousand young Democrats are now organized in North Carolina to fight for the cause of Al Smith and the whole ticket, with 75,000 as the goal for the end of next week. Tyre C. Taylor, state chairman of the Young Democrat Movements, said today, after returning from Raleigh, where he conferred with district leaders.

Several of the districts, he said, are now 100 per cent organized, and are daily increasing their membership. The membership drive, he said, would continue for another week, when the organization would enter upon a new phase of activities, that of seeing that all Smith supporters were registered and eligible to vote and of conducting Democratic rallies in all parts of the State.

"We have found that the more the people know about Al Smith the more they are in favor of him, and we propose to make him as well known to all the citizens as we possibly can between now and the election," the chairman said.

The colleges and universities of the State, he said, would announce their organizations within the next week.

HAGEN HAS HARD ROAD TO TRAVEL

Baltimore, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Day by day the going is getting tougher for Walter Hagen in the National professional golf championship now in its quarter final round.

A virtual unknown, Julian Blanton, of Toledo, under the stimulus of having everything to gain and nothing much to lose, gave the Haig a great run for his money yesterday and today. Hagen, champion for the last four years, faced the prospect of playing Leo Diegel, Gene Sarazen and Al Espinosa on successive days.

Unless Hagen plays considerably better than he did in winning from Blanton 2 up yesterday, he is apt to find himself in considerable trouble against any of these three veterans. But Hagen has a way of rising to occasions and he still is a heavy favorite for the crown.

LIFE OF BIG FAIR GORILLA NOW INSURED

"Big Jim" Recipient of $30,000 Insurance Policy While Playing Here.

Big Jim, the giant gorilla, the only one in captivity, being exhibited this week by the Greater Sheesley Shows at the Pitt County Fair, was the recipient of an insurance policy this week from the famous firm of Lloyd's, in the sum of $30,000.

Capt. John M. Sheesley, owner of the big midway shows, has insured his pet attraction in this sum, and has paid a pretty premium for this protection. Big Jim, who was captured on the island of Boreno and brought to New York last autumn, has not become acclimated and is in constant danger of colds. Gorillas, as is well known, are difficult to keep in good health in captivity, they having only one lobe of lung instead of two, like human beings. Every care is taken to guard Big Jim against exposure. He appears to be in perfect health and is such a hardy specimen that he may live many years in this climate which is so foreign to his native habitat. Big Jim has been showing daily to thousands of sightseers at the fair.

The Sheesley Shows will keep the midway intact, with all attractions operating until midnight Saturday after which the 30-car special circus train will depart for Florence, S. C. to furnish attractions at the Pee Dee fair in that city. The Sheesley Shows will be greatly augmented with new shows and riding devices for the new North Carolina State Fair at Raleigh during the week of October 22.

Jean A. Lussier, the daredevil who went over Niagara Falls in a big rubber ball on last July 4, is another feature of the midway new this season. Jean exhibits his strange craft in a special tent on the midway and lectures interestingly on that thrilling trip which he made over the Canadian falls and through the rapids, having been encased more than five hours in his living tomb.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT SPEAKS IN TENNESSEE

Lawrenceburg, Tenn., Oct. 4. (AP)—The Republican party needs a "whispering campaign" but has sufficient legitimate grounds against the Democratic party, was the declaration of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, who spoke here last night in the interests of Herbert Hoover.

"There is no place in American politics for religious prejudice," said the man who opposed Governor Smith, the Democratic presidential nominee in the New York state election four years ago.

PUBLIC SAFETY CRUSADE TO BE STARTED HERE

Community Safety Councils to be Organized For Saving Of Human Lives.

(Special To The Reflector.) New York, Oct. 4.—A nation-wide educational safety crusade having for its object the saving of human life to reach Greenville and every other progressive community in North Carolina by a conservative campaign calling for Greenville newspaper advertising. The organization of community safety councils where they do not already exist, co-operation of merchants associations, railroads, public utilities, and corporations under the direction of the National Safety Council is now being planned for the ensuing year, according to the announcement made at the seventeenth annual Safety Congress (re today, previous local plans of safety week a / to be augmented and undertaken continuously throughout the year.

Eight thousand men and women mobilized in five hotels in this city assembled as delegates to the Safety Congress resolve that the current year shall not witness a repetition of the sacrifice of 95,000 lives in preventable accidents last year backed by companies interested in the prevention of accidents and supported by the leading great insurance companies relief of the present perilous conditions with the increase in motor vehicle fatalities which is even greater in proportion than the increase in cars registered, and with 25,000 workers losing their lives in industrial accidents annually, seems assured this year. Insurance companies have learned through experience that in the cities where the best organized safety work has been done actual decreases have been secured and they are now ready to give financial assistance towards the program of caution which will call for the interest and effort of every human being throughout the year to help reduce accidents held yearly preventable which in this state alone cost more than $1,000,000,000.

A new avenue of safety work, the prevention of accidents in homes, was opened. Last year there were 5,000,000 non-fatal home injuries, it is estimated, and the Safety Congress proposes to reduce the number this year by the organization of North Carolina women's committees to determine the methods of reducing the hazards peculiar to that state.

Mrs. Roosevelt To Debate Fish. Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., are to debate October 15th on a political subject not yet announced. The one is for Smith and Roosevelt; the other for Hoover and Ottinger.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 4.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 4 points to a decline of 3 points and worked higher right after the call on covering or rebuying which appeared to be influenced by relatively steady cables, reports of showers in the eastern belt, and a feeling that recent liquidations had improved the technical position of the market. Some trade buying was also reported on the advance which carried the active months about 10 to 13 points net higher during the early trading with December selling at 18.17 and March at 19.02. Very little Southern selling was reported by local brokers, but the market met some further realizing or liquidation at the end of the first half hour. Private cables reported calling and covering in the Liverpool market and said that hedging was light with the Manchester goods trade more cheerful, owing to better advices from China.

Buying became more active during the middle of the morning and the market made net advances of about 13 to 17 points, but realizing became a little more active and at midday active months were about net unchanged to 1 point lower.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 4.—(AP)—A sweeping advance in stock prices today was temporarily checked by a heavy selling movement which followed the publication of a statement by John J. Raskob, former General Motors executive, that prices had far outrun demonstrated values and that a material readjustment was necessary. Early gains, which ran from 2 to nearly 6 points in many cases, were cut down, and in a few instances replaced by losses, but strong buying support was quickly provided and the market was headed upward under new leaders early in the afternoon.

Call money renewed at 7 1-2 per cent, as against yesterday, and then dropped to 7 as a large volume of funds became available. Funds were available below that figure in the "outside market", leading to expectations of a further advance of the official rate before the end of the week. Sterling exchange dipped to another new low, reviving hopes of further gold imports.

The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 4,200,000 shares.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
