MAX GARDNER COMING HERE OCTOBER 17TH

Democratic Nominee For Governor to Dis- cuss Campaign At Courthouse.

O. Max Gardner, of Shelby, Democratic nominee for governor of North Carolina, will speak at the courthouse in this city on the evening of October 17th. It was announced today by W. E. Hooks, of Garden, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive committee.

It was stated some days ago that Mr. Gardner would speak here but the exact date was not known until Mr. Hooks conferred with State Chairman O. M. Mull at Raleigh the latter part of last week.

At this conference Mr. Hooks was also assured that Clyde Hoey would speak here, probably on the 22nd of the month, the date to be confirmed within the next few days.

The coming of these two speakers has attracted more than usual interest. Both are well known in the political life of the state, especially Mr. Gardner whose record has long been a matter of favorable comment of voters in all sections of the State.

Both speakers will discuss principal issues of the present presidential campaign. They will make an effort to fully inform the voters of controverted questions, especially as they pertain to prohibition and religious intolerance. Then, too, there is tariff, farm problems, immigration and other significant questions for consideration. Nothing will be left in doubt when these two men have spoken.

The Democratic campaign over the county will be continued in Clinton and Ayden Wednesday night when Congressman Lipsday visits the former place and Stanley Witham the latter. Large crowds are expected to attend both speakings. Mr. Hooks stated today.

Congressman W. M. Whittington, of Mississippi, is scheduled to speak at Farmville on the first time in an out-of-the-state speaker has appeared at any other town of the county except Greenville. The Mississippi man is an orator of no little ability and his address is expected to carry more than usual food for thought for the great crowd expected to hear him.

Mr. Hooks stated that organization of Democratic clubs was continuing with marked success in all parts of the county. It is believed the party will be completely organized on by the date of the national election next month.

Much enthusiasm has been aroused by organization of young men's clubs, conducted in this district under direction of W. L. Whedbee, of Greenville. William Tyson is chairman of the Pitt county club. He reports good work in all precincts.

Mr. Hooks urged all members of the party to attend the speakings and in that way fully inform themselves of the vital issues of the day. Clear understanding of the aspirations of the party is necessary to proper thinking in one of the most extensive campaigns in years, he stated.

Episcopal Church Favors Healing Through Faith

Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Faith healing would be given the official stamp of approval of the Protestant Episcopal church under a resolution prepared by a special committee on that subject which will be submitted to the general convention of the church at its opening meeting Wednesday.

Theological schools, the resolution, as prepared, says, should be asked to "take notice of this widespread belief in the efficiency of prayer as an expression of a living rather than a formal faith. The popular attitude towards misfortune in all its forms as being a visitation by God for punishment for sin is no longer a universal belief, but is rapidly being displaced by a belief that such misfortunes are man-induced conditions which are hindrances to God's will."

The resolution says further that "throughout the Christian world, the power in faith to produce results in the material as well as the spiritual world is no longer the hope of a few, but the belief of a rapidly increasing number of persons; that the power and faith to produce such results is capable of being demonstrated empirically, if not scientifically."

Three Killed By Bomb.
Bombay, Ind., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Three passengers were killed and eight injured today at Mambay when a bomb shattered one car of a train enroute to Bombay.

CARNES PLACED BEHIND BARS

This exclusive photograph shows Clinton S. Carnes, charged with embezzlement of Southern Baptist Home Mission Board funds, after he entered the Fulton County Jail at Atlanta, where he was brought from Winnipeg, Canada.

Statement By Carnes Ridiculed At Atlanta

Atlanta, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The statement of Clinton S. Carnes, former fellow prisoner and others blackmailed him to financial ruin was met today by Solicitor General John A. Boykin with the query "who will believe he hrew $953,000 to blackmailers to hold a job that paid $4,500 a year?"

Pointing out that Carnes had not received more than $50,000 in alimony since he became treasurer of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board nearly ten years ago, the Solicitor General declared:

"Blackmailers did not force Carnes to steal from the mission board treasury to endorse his family in a beautiful $50,000 home, keep four motor cars and retinue of servants."

"That is the story of a trapped criminal. Who will believe he threw $953,000 to blackmailers who knew he had spent two terms in prison, to hold a $4,500 a year job?"

"His shortages are almost 20 times his salary for the entire period of his employ."

Carnes, in an interview published in the Atlanta Journal yesterday, had said he was forced to flee the city on August 15th, last by blackmailers who had made life unbearable.

Discharged guards at Atlanta penitentiary, and fellow prisoners who served with him while he was completing a 13 months sentence, headed a procession of extortionists.

"Many things piled up to make my situation unbearable," the interview said, "and I just had to get away by myself for awhile or go stark raving mad."

FOURTH GAME WORLD SERIES RAINED OUT

Judge Landis Defers
Game Until Tomorrow
on Account Of Wet Diamond.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The fourth world series game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Yankees was postponed until tomorrow by K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, because of rainy weather today.

The game was postponed after San Brendon, president of the Cardinals, had inspected the diamond. Although the infield was covered with water-proof canvas, he found the remainder of the field muddy with pools of water standing in low places and rivulets pouring from the edges of the canvas.

Begaud telephoned Landis that in his opinion, the field would not be in condition for a championship game even if the sun came out today and then authorized the postponement.

Shortly before noon the drizzle tapered and the sun was making feeble efforts to shine.

Tickets for the fourth game of the series will be honored tomorrow and tickets for the fifth game, if it is played, will be honored Wednesday.

SMITH LOOKS OVER PLANS OF NEXT TRIP

Democratic Nominee
Scheduled To Leave
Albany Tomorrow
At Noon.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Rested after a week-end of golf and motoring, Gov. Smith today turned to the task of revising plans submitted to him by the Democratic national committee for his second campaign tour.

Tentative plans call for the Democratic standard bearer's departure from Albany tomorrow at noon, although this may be deferred until Wednesday. After spending the better part of a day in New York City conferring with party leaders, he will board his special train, which has been kept intact since his 6,000 mile journey through the west, and head towards Dixie, stopping at several cities enroute for greeting well-wishers.

Washington has been mentioned as one of the stops where a reception probably will be held in the train sheds and several cities in the "solid south" are understood to be on the lists for rear platform appearances.

Governor Smith will deliver but one speech during the week, that at Louisville, Ky., next Saturday night. He has not disclosed what his text will be, but now that Herbert Hoover has made his formal bid for support in the south, some of the governor's supporters here believe he will devote at least a part of his address in the Blue Grass state to a reply to his Republican opponent's remarks at Elizabethton, Tenn.

Seventeen Convicts Die As Fire Sweeps Through Jail At Junction City, O.

Junction City, Ohio, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Seventeen convicts are believed to have burned to death while an equal number were injured when fire swept the wooden dormitory at the state-owned brick plant near here today. There were 275 prisoners locked in the building when the fire broke out at 1 a. m.

A check of the prisoners after the fire revealed 20 missing, but of these officials believe three escaped from custody of the guards during the confusion.

When the ruins had cooled sufficiently to permit a search to be started, officials said they could make out charred remains of at least eleven bodies. None had been removed, however, before noon.

Twelve of the most seriously injured were taken to the central prison hospital at Columbus. All were expected to recover but some were said to have been burned seriously.

The fire was discovered by prisoners Peter O'Day, of Dayton, and Edward Tillotson, of Toledo, according to guards. O'Day and Tillotson had been listening in on the radio and had shut it off about midnight. Shortly afterward, O'Day said, he smelled smoke coming from the south end of the building where the commissary was located. He opened the commissary door and found the room filled with smoke. A moment later there was a burst of flames.

O'Day and Tillotson cried "Fire!" and the alarm was taken up and echoed through the dormitory in which 275 prisoners lay sleeping.

The scene of confusion that followed was terrible, prisoners said. The great room with its double tier of steel bunks was in semi-darkness. Awakened by the cries, the bewildered prisoners ran about helplessly, struggling futilely with each other between the rows of bunks, seeking to reach doors and windows that were barred.

At this juncture, William O'Malley, a prisoner from Cleveland, began his efforts to save the other men that made him probably the outstanding hero of the occasion. O'Malley and Tony Vaciolo, also of Cleveland, are employed in the bakery at the north end of the building. When they heard the alarm they rushed to the huge bolted door that separated kitchen, bakery and dining room from the dormitory and attempted to open it. With the aid of Ex White, negro, from Fort Worth, Tex., on the dormitory side of the structure, they succeeded in breaking down the door opening another avenue of escape. O'Malley estimated 160 prisoners made their way to safety through that route. He said they were orderly.

Later O'Malley and Ex White ran around to a side window of the dormitory where prisoners still were vainly struggling to escape and using pieces of pipe sledge attempted to break open the window but were unable to do so. O'Malley has 43 months to serve, it was said, on a charge of taking an automobile without the owner's consent.

Shortly after the fire was discovered, Captain D. H. Howell, commanding the guard at the brick plant, who lives in a house on a hill above the plant, was awakened by the shouts. He came out immediately, and ordered the guards to open all the doors. There were five exits from the dormitory.

After the survivors had escaped from the building, O'Malley and others worked among them applying oil to their burns, when the doctors came they dressed wounds of more than thirty men.

It was said that three or four were so severely burned they probably would die.

The fire was believed to have started from defective wiring in the commissary.

Two Killed In Plane Crash At Denver, Colorado

Denver, Colo., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Carol and Mary Begole, prominent in Denver's social set, were dead, and Charles Wilson, student airplane pilot, was in a hospital with a broken neck today following a forbidden air trip yesterday which ended when their plane crashed from 2,000 feet.

In disobedience to the wishes of their father, George Begole, city auditor, the girls left home and went to the DuPont airport for a pre-arranged trip with Wilson, a student of the Denver School of Aeronautics, Mary, 22, a student pilot for some months, planned to take up a ship in a solo flight later in the day.

After gaining considerable altitude Wilson turned over one of the dual control sticks to the student aviatrice, and shortly afterwards one of the girls suffered air paralysis, and "froze" to the control, throwing the ship into a tail spin.

It was not determined whether Mary or her sister, Carol, 19, a freshman at the University of Colorado, was handling the stick when the plane went out of control.

Curtis Invades North Dakota

Enroute With Senator Curtis In North Dakota, Oct. 8.—(AP)—North Dakota, a state which has been the cause of some concern to some Republican leaders, was invaded today by Senator Charles Curtis, the party's vice presidential nominee, for two addresses. He was to speak this afternoon at Devil's Lake and tonight at Grand Forks.

The senator came into North Dakota prepared to discuss the controversial farm relief issue and be with wheat growers, flax producers, and said that he was going to talk on the subject from "every angle". The vice presidential nominee still carried his arm in a sling today as he opened the week of campaigning.

WHITE SUPREMACY LEAGUE WOULD HANDLE BOLTERS

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 8.—(AP)—A plea that state, county and city officials dismiss employees who have "bolted" the Democratic party was sounded here last night in a prepared statement of the White Supremacy League, which claims a membership of 7,500 women in the state.

The statement declares that county and state officials are beholden to the Democratic party for their offices and that they should dismiss any employee who is not supporting the party's choices from "constable to president."

MANY ISSUES GET LIMELIGHT IN MINNESOTA

Strange Mixture Of Political Aspirations Play Conspicuous Role Today.

By BYRON PRICE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 8.—(AP)—It is a strange mixture of political aspirations, some of them the common heritage of the whole northwest, which has drawn Minnesota into a conspicuous role in the political extravaganza of 1928.

Farm relief, prohibition, the tariff, the St. Lawrence waterway, and the racial and religious characteristics of a large foreign population are coming into play in making up the decision of November 6th.

What that decision will be still is disputed in these early days of October. By tradition Minnesota's twelve electoral votes should belong in the Republican column, and the Republican leaders declare that within the past two weeks they have seen the tide setting in steadily toward Hoover. This assertion is contradicted by the Democrats, who say Gov. Smith's visit here gave impetus to his campaign, and who are claiming better than an even chance to pry the state away from its long-established Republican anchorage.

The farm question has been the principal lever of the Smith men, and in public discussion this issue has outstripped every other. The Republicans have taken up the challenge of their opponents, and are presenting Mr. Hoover to the voters as better qualified than Gov. Smith to deal with the problems of agriculture. The Democrats are claiming wholesale Republican defections among the farmers, but the Hoover people pronounce these claims greatly exaggerated.

The bulk of Minnesota's delegation to Kansas City was for Lowden and the McNary-Haugen bill. Afterward there was a period of uncertainty and delay before the Hoover lines in the state were definitely drawn.

Minnesota's farm population is predominantly of foreign descent and here the farm issue crosses with prohibition and religion. The largest group is German, rated wet, and the next two groups in points of size are the Swedes and the Norwegians, rated dry. Thousands of all three nationalities are members of the Lutheran church, and there is among them all much talk of the religious issue. The tariff is strongly urged by the Republicans as an aid to the farmer, and there is widespread interest, particularly in northern Wisconsin, in the St. Lawrence waterway.

Such is the jumble of elements which make up the high lights of the picture—a picture which is better understood when it is examined against the background of the recent political history of the northwest. Throughout this whole region, for one reason or another, the voters have been dividing along lines other than the old accepted party lines. The Dakotas have had their battles over the non-partisan league. In Wisconsin the LaFollette offshoot dominated the whole political field for years. In Minnesota, the farmer-labor party rose to a strength which has permitted it to debate seriously for state control.

FIVE KILLED WHEN PLANES RUN TOGETHER

Occupants Of Two
Planes Die In Collision
Yesterday.

Detroit, Oct. 8.—(AP)—A spectacular duel with death in which the latter was ultimately victorious, climaxed a crash between two airplanes 300 feet in the air here yesterday, which cost five lives.

The crash occurred over the Burns Flying Field when a plane piloted by Russell Paulger, and carrying two passengers, collided with one piloted by Captain Element W. Brown of Detroit, who was circling the field with his fiancée, Miss Marjorie Yuill, 27, of Vanderbilt, Mich.

Paulger's plane in attempting to dive under the other ship, caught on the underpinning and was ripped apart. The plane dropped to the ground and burst into flames carrying to their deaths, besides the pilot, Allen Sutton, 26, of Detroit, and an unidentified man.

Brown's ship, a small biplane, manufactured by a concern of which was president, jerked free of the mid air tangle, with a crippled wing and her underpinning gone.

As the field ground crew and a few spectators looked on, the flier began to spiral, in an effort to straighten the damaged wing by wind pressure and finally succeeded in doing this. After getting the plane on an even keel, he swooped down to attempt a landing made perilous by loss of his lower gear. As the plane neared the earth, the wing folded, and the pilot banking the plane, again ascended the dropping wing gradually straightened out under the air pressure.

After circling a bit, the second desperate effort at landing was attempted and as the crippled plane dropped slowly earthward it appeared as though the game try would be crowned with success. But when the ship was within 100 feet of the ground the broken wing collapsed and flapped against the lower parts. Out of control the ship nosed down and plunged into the earth. Brown and his companion were dead when witnesses arrived at the scene.

"Dad" Vail Dead.
Madison, Wis., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Harry E. "Dad" Vail, coach of the University of Wisconsin since 1911, and formerly nationally-known as a sculler, died today at Cagetown, New Brunswick, according to word received by university authorities.

Wreck Victim Buried
Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Funeral services for Sara Josephine Graham, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Graham, of 408 Belvedere avenue here, who was instantly killed Sunday when struck by an automobile at Wilkesboro, will be conducted today at China Grove.

SMITH WOULD TRY TO AID TOBACCO FARMERS

Richmond, Va., Oct. 8.—Governor Alfred E. Smith has written Governor Byrd assuring him that if the Democratic party is successful on November 6 there is to be an immediate investigation of the tobacco farming industry with a view to devising remedial legislation.

Governor Byrd called the Democratic nominee's attention to the tobacco situation in Virginia and other tobacco states and asked for his views.

Governor Smith wrote: "I am very grateful to you for calling my attention to the critical situation existing with respect to the tobacco growers of your state and other tobacco-growing states. It confirms my opinion as to the serious condition of agriculture in general, which includes this plight of the tobacco farmer."

"You may be sure that, if I am elected, there will be a thorough investigation of this tobacco situation with a view to immediate remedial legislation that will logically and soundly rehabilitate the tobacco farming industry."

THIRTEEN DIE OF BAD LIQUOR IN NEW YORK

Many Others In Hospitals Suffering From Alcoholic Poisoning.

New York, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Thirteen men were dead today, presumably of alcoholic poisoning, with 57 other persons in Manhattan and Brooklyn hospitals suffering from the same complaint. Police said it was the largest week end death toll from that cause since New Year's.

Dr. Charles Norris, Chief Medical Examiner, ascribed the unusually heavy death toll to the increase in the number of private stills in the slum districts and the spread of the habit of drinking "smoke" or raw alcohol. Most of the dead and many of those in hospitals came from the lower East side.

"Smoke," the name being derived from a chemical which is introduced to soften the burning effect on the throat and which gives the alcohol a smoky appearance, is distilled out of corn mash, potatoes, fruit, and so on. Dr. Norris said, and sells for from 5 to 10 cents a drink.

"This stuff is not poisonous in the ordinary sense of the term," Dr. Norris explained, "but an ounce or two of it has an effect on the heart equal to that of a whole bottle of hard liquor that has been properly aged in the wood."

Retired Governor Of Rome Wounds Prince In Duel

Rome, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Prince Spada Potenziani, retired governor of Rome, has defended his honor with the sword, wounding Prince Lancelotti in a duel and Roman society today was wondering what punishment was in store for the duellists.

Premier Mussolini is reputed to have prohibited in Italy, and since the Fascists came into power permits for those found guilty of settling differences on the "field of honor" have been increased. The premier has stated that the custom should no longer be employed by Italians who had fought shoulder to shoulder in the world war against a common enemy.

Prince Potenziani fought to vindicate the honesty of his administration of the oldest functioning municipality in the world in a garden of a Villa outside of Rome.

His duel was the second to grow out of a remark attributed to Prince Lancelotti that Mussolini had dismissed Prince Potenziana because of graft.

Killed By Falling Tree.
Jesup, Va., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Two young men of three who built a camp fire against a pine tree, were mourning the death of their companion today. The fire burned through the tree trunk and it fell across his head.

E. Brennan, the victim, and his two friends had been living four miles from Jesup. One of them dropped his pistol enroute home, and, confident it could be found at dawn, the trim built fire and spent the night in the woods.

CALL FOR CONDITION OF NATIONAL BANKS
Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The Comptroller of the Currency today issued a call for the condition of all national banks at the close of business on Wednesday, October 3.

BIG PROBLEMS CONTAINED IN FOREIGN NEWS

Domestic Political Problems Dominate Situation In Most Of The Countries.

(By The Associated Press)
Domestic political problems, but of international import, have dominated the news dispatches from foreign sources for a week. They have ranged from the peaceful discussions of tariff and similar subjects by English conservatives and liberals, through agitation against the Spanish dictatorship to a flaming revolt in Alabama, the military aspects of the opposed mass meeting in Wiener Neustadt, Austria, and the savage rioting that has marked some of the resistance to the new labor registration law in Australia.

Running through the web of the pattern has been a plainly marked design of widely scattered governments in resistance to encroachments of radicalism in various forms, but chiefly the communistic doctrines of Soviet Russia. The favorites of England and Australia, the Prussian Diet, the Foreign Ministry of Argentina and the government of Finland have all taken steps to halt the infiltration of ideas destructive to the established order of society and government.

Sweden has just passed through a similar campaign and now has a conservative cabinet in power for the first time in several years.

The British labor party had its meetings with the annual conference if the organization at Birmingham, the conservatives already had their gathering at Great Yarmouth and the Liberals, led by Lloyd George, find up the convention aspects of the English campaign by a conference in London this week.

But the Communist aspects of British domestic politics made the reports of the convention. George Lansbury, retiring president of the party, said that the English Communists had opposed the laborites, both politically and industrially, and a virtually real them out of the party. James Maxton, a Communist leader, raised a row in the debates and finally had an acrimonious dispute with Mr. MacDonald over activities outside his own parliamentary bailiwick.

At the other end of the British empire the Australian police raided Communist "clubs" and Trades Union leaders backed by James Henry Scullin, parliamentary leader of the Dominion's labor party, ought a proposal to make a general strike out of the dockworkers' trouble.

Coincidentally, northern Europe is experiencing three big strike movements. Ten thousand miners of Czechoslovakia, 60,000 dock laborers in Germany and 80,000 textile workers in Poland are seeking higher wages.

There was a flash of Anti-Communism in Berlin when the Prussian Diet rejected a motion which would have refused money for a projected battleship. The communists argued that the money might be used to feed children and relieve distressed victims of the world war, but Deputy Hesterman of the Economic party said the lighting vessel might be needed to show the soviet fleet the way home from the Pomeranian coast" and he voted indicated agreement with him.

In Albania the "blood feud" recently declared against the new king, Zogu I, spread from the northern mountains to the vicinity of the capital. There were hangings in the market place of Durazzo, arrests by secret police everywhere and the mobilization of two divisions of troops to replace the single regiment first sent to the north.

Cotton Ginning Shows Decrease

Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Cotton of this year's growth ginned prior to October 1st totalled 4,961,132 bales, counting round bales as half bales, the census bureau announced today. This compares with 1,944,730 for 1927 and 5,643,139 for 1926.

Alabama, 336,754; Arizona, 27,158; Arkansas, 363,221; California, 19,232; Florida, 11,251; Georgia, 308,889; Louisiana, 370,727; Mississippi, 561,892; North Carolina, 60,342; Oklahoma, 268,127; South Carolina, 120,954; Texas, 2,420,042; Missouri, 13,575; New Mexico, 6,129; Tennessee, 64,737; Virginia, 968; Other states, 225.

Two Shot To Death.
Beaumont, Texas, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The Rev. Anthony Desimone of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, and John Rose, a painter and paperhanger, were found shot to death in the Priest's home here today.

The bodies of the two men were found after a neighbor had heard shots and called an ambulance.

HOOVER GETS ALL SET FOR THIRD TOUR

Republican Only Slightly Fatigued by Visit To Two Tennessee Cities.

By JAMES L. WEST.
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover crowds a lot of campaigning into the few days he is on the road, but no matter how strenuous the schedule he seems to enjoy every moment and apparently never becomes fatigued.

In spite of the strain of such days as the Republican presidential candidate has put on his trips to Eastern Tennessee and New Jersey, he has returned from each in fine physical condition and stimulated by his contacts with the crowd which have greeted him.

Back at his headquarters today after his whirlwind visit to Elizabethton and Johnson City, Saturday, Hoover set about preparing for his third campaign trip in the eastern section of the country—that he is to make to Boston next Monday. Meantime party leaders are arranging plans for his trip to New York on October 22, the date of his last speech, before starting for his California home to vote.

These two excursions into territory where party managers are making a concerted drive, will be no less arduous than the other the nominee has made.

His New England journey calls for rear platform talks at Springfield, and Worcester, Mass., with an automobile ride of an hour and a half through the suburbs of Boston.

Arriving in the city proper, Hoover will go to the Common where he will be welcomed by the mayor and will respond with a brief talk. Later he will be the guest of Governor Fuller with whom he will have dinner before going to Mechanics Hall next Monday night to deliver his address.

Upon the occasion of his visits to the home city of his Democratic opponent, Alfred E. Smith, Hoover will address perhaps the third largest crowd that has gathered for his campaign address. Madison Square Garden has a seating capacity of about 20,000 which compares with the 70,000 who attended the notification ceremony at Fall Alto on August 11, and the 25,000 or more who were gathered on Harmon Field on the outskirts of Elizabethton Saturday when he made his personal appeal to the voters of the Democratic South.

Hickmore Denied Appeal Today

Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—William Edward Hickman, of Los Angeles, Calif., under sentence of death on October 19th for the murder of Marion Parker, a twelve-year-old school girl, was denied an appeal to the supreme court by Justice Sutherland today.

Jerome Walsh, of Kansas City, Hickman's lawyer, held a long conference with Justice Sutherland who had charge of cases in the Pacific coast circuit, explaining to him in detail the grounds for asking an appeal. He was unable, however, to convince Justice Sutherland that there had been miscarriage of justice. Had Justice Sutherland granted an appeal, Walsh intended to ask for a stay of execution.

Walsh said that he had not abandoned hope of getting the case before the supreme court. He will be unable to take it before the court as a whole but he intends to call upon other justices in the hope of finding one who will grant an appeal.

Under the practices of the court it will be necessary for Walsh to explain fully to other justices the refusal of Justice Sutherland. Those familiar with the procedure were of the impression that Walsh was not likely to find a justice who would give him an appeal after it had been refused him by Justice Sutherland.

State Student Is Recovering

Raleigh, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Dixon L. Poole, Jr., of Spartanburg, S. C., State College freshman, who was shot by the watchman at the college apple orchard Wednesday night was today on the road to recovery. It was believed by his physicians. Their statement of last night that he seemed to be "over the hill" was followed with a report from the hospital this morning that he was "doing very nicely."

Marshall Hoover, negro night watchman who fired upon Poole when the latter and two other students went into the orchard, and H. A. Miller, foreman of the college horticultural farm, who employed the watchman, remained in jail today, while college authorities and Solicitor L. S. Brasfield prosecuted independent investigations into the circumstances.

LEGION HOSTS GATHERING AT SAN ANTONIO

Annual Convention to Open This Morning With Thousands In Attendance.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 8.—(AP)—The rhythm of drums and the blare of bugles resounded through the streets of San Antonio until dawn and showed no signs of abating as delegates and visitors awaited opening of the tenth annual convention of the American Legion today for a five-day session.

The frolicsome spirit of the veterans asserted itself throughout Sunday, but with the arrival late yesterday of fresh throngs of visitors and delegates including General John J. Pershing, the horse-play which has marked every Legion convention to date, suddenly came into its own. The pillow stunt, in which a large number of legionnaires cut holes in pillows and shake the feathers into the street, ushered in a night of carnival such as this city has not known since the old cowboy days.

Fire crackers and torpedoes reverberated frequently from all sections of the city. Joyous legionnaires marching and capering and state delegations bantered each other in the tongue of the A. E. F. Wild cries of "powder river" proclaimed the arrival of northwestern state delegations.

San Antonio is traversed by a meandering river which twists through the business districts under a number of steel bridges and some of the legionnaires devoted part of their time to walking the high curving arches on either side of the bridges.

"Black Jack" Pershing found

more than 30,000 of "his boys" present when he stepped from his train last night and heavy police lines were necessary to hold the crowd back as he walked to his automobile. He was whisked away to his hotel before the eager crowds could get within 100 feet of him.

The message of National Commander Edward E. Stafford and the race for commander in the ensuing year were the most absorbing topics of the first day's session. Stafford was expected to recommend a drive for legislation that would enforce an universal draft in the next war. The political race was still too embryonic to warrant more than speculation. General Roy Hoffman of Oklahoma City, continued to acquire prestige as a candidate for National Commander with indications that the Texas delegation might swing to him after its first caucus.

It was too early, however, for any of the state groups supporting favorite sons to swing their votes to another candidate. General Albert L. Cox, of North Carolina, and J. Monroe Johnson, of South Carolina, were among the leading contenders for the office, supported by active campaigns.

NO VIOLENCE FEATURE POLITICAL GATHERING AT AUSTRIAN CITY

Weiner Neustadt, Austria, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Howitzers frowning on the public square from a plateau overlooking this city kept the peace Sunday when 70,000 members of two rival political organizations assembled and verbally attacked each other. Not a shot broke the Sabbath calm, although both sides were secretly well armed.

Inhabitants of this normally peaceful industrial city, 30 miles from Vienna, were returning today to the homes that they had abandoned in fear of warfare. Those who remained in the face of dire predictions of bloodshed and revolution witnessed a display of military force and what appeared to be a hilarious picnic when Social Democrats who control the city or Vienna and the Heimwehr or Home Defense League of Christian Socialists, who control the federal government assembled.

EVANGELIST IS SPEAKER IN THIS CITY

Dr. B. B. Crimm, Of Texas, Spoke at Memorial Baptist Church Yesterday.

Dr. B. B. Crimm, of Texas, known throughout the southeast as the "Billy" Sunday of the West, spoke at the Memorial Baptist church yesterday morning. He brought to the city one of the most stirring messages heard here in many a day. The church was packed to capacity, the congregation overflowing into the aisles, with only standing room being afforded in the rear of the building.

Dr. Crimm is holding a series of revival services at New Bern and came here at the invitation of the Rev. Mr. Jones, who described him as the greatest preacher of the west and destined to win similar recognition in the east.

Displaying an individuality as distinctive and compelling as the world-famous evangelist himself, the Texan gripped attention of his congregation and held it until the last word of the discourse had died away. He spoke with rapidity and vigor and with a voice which at times grew strained and hoarse from emotion. He carried his hearers to heights of spiritual life, and from that vantage point drove home fact after fact, tending to show that the life of righteousness is the way to eternal reward.

The evangelist was introduced to the congregation by H. Frederick Jones, pastor of the local church. Mr. Jones told of having visited Dr. Crimm at his ranch in Texas, and their thrilling chases after timber wolves.

A man of unusually large stature, and wearing a sombrero typical of his native state, Dr. Crimm was the cynosure of all eyes the minute he entered the church. His eyes twinkled merrily as he began speaking, but the twinkle was succeeded by a look of seriousness as he hit his stride and portrayed the reward of those who serve the Master willingly.

Although he said he never confined himself to any given subject when speaking in his tabernacle, he limited himself to a forty-five minute discussion of "Stewardship." He based his sermon on the biblical story of the talents, mixing in stories of many of his personal experiences to carry out his point.

He told of his early life spent on the range as a cowboy, of his salvation, his college days after 21 years of age, and his life in the evangelist's field. He said he served as janitor of church after his conversion and in that humble post served as ~~missionary~~ ~~to his~~ ~~pos-~~ sible to serve. He declared he believed he was given as much credit for his services there as in any other branch of endeavor.

"Whatever I do I put my best effort in the task," he declared.

He graphically portrayed his boyhood when with several brothers he worked as cotton picker for his father. He said he had picked as high as 440 pounds of cotton daily, that his father always set the amount of work expected of them

LARRY SEMON PASSES AWAY IN CALIFORNIA

Noted Screen Comedian Succumbs To Attack Of Double Pneumonia.

Victorville, Cal., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Larry Semon, motion picture comedian, died here today.

The comedian has been waging a losing battle against death since last Friday, when he was stricken with double pneumonia. He sank rapidly, and his life was despaired of Saturday.

Semon went to a ranch near Victorville about six weeks ago in an attempt to recover from a nervous breakdown, which came several months ago after a series of financial reverses incurred in the motion picture business. Never of robust health, he seemed unable to rally from the depression and illness.

His wife, Dorothy Dwan, screen actress, and her mother, Mrs. Nancy Smith, attended him during his illness.

Semon was born in West Point, Miss., thirty-nine years ago. The stage claimed him as soon as he was old enough to appear in juvenile parts. He played in several small theatres in his home state in juvenile roles and then became a newspaper cartoonist but the stage called him again and he toured in vaudeville as a tumbler.

Semon's first efforts in the film were in comedians of the "slapstick" variety. He wrote some of the first photoplays in which he appeared.

FIREMEN TO AID IN FIRE PREVENTION

Local Organization Urges Co-operation For Fire Prevention Week.

This week has been designated "Fire Prevention Week" by Governor McLean and the mayors of various cities of North Carolina.

Mayor J. C. Lanier, of Greenville, issued a proclamation Saturday, calling on the people of Greenville to do everything possible to decrease the fire loss during the next year.

Co-operating with other fire companies of the State, the local fire department will tomorrow demonstrate the use of fire alarm boxes on Five Points. From this vantage point where thousands of people pass daily, the firemen will instruct everybody in sending in alarms.

Chief George Gardner said today that citizens were urged to do away with all rubbish around their houses. Nearly every home has a collection of rubbish in some cellar or garret, saving for some person. This has been described as "false economy," by members of the insurance department, and may result in the loss of thousands of dollars through fire.

The proclamation issued by Governor McLean, calling for full observance of the week, follows:

"During the year ended December 31, 1927, the State of North Carolina lost 256 lives by fire and property valued at $5,744,077 was destroyed. During the previous year, 293 human beings died by fire and the property loss in 2,436 fires was $6,640,000. While I am deeply gratified at the reduction of 37 in lives lost and of $805,000 in property loss in 2,333 fires, this loss of life and property is still inexcusably high and I appeal to the citizens of our State to give most thoughtful and earnest consideration to the great problem involved in this enormous economic waste.

"I am not unmindful of the fact that North Carolina's fire waste record, compared with that of our sister states, is favorable. Our per capita fire loss last year was $1.31 as against a national average of $4.40. But it was still much too high for such an enlightened and progressive citizenship as ours.

"With the view of arousing the people of the United States to the importance of eliminating fire hazards and to the large part that carelessness and ignorance play in our tremendous national fire waste, October 7 to 13 inclusive, has been designated as National Fire Prevention Week.

"I, therefore, urge that the week of October 7th to 13th be set aside as Fire Prevention Week, in accordance with section 6080 of the Consolidated Statutes, which provides that the Governor of North Carolina shall, each year in October, issue a proclamation urging the people to proper observance.

"During this week I urge that fire drills be held in schools, State institutions, factories and stores, and that they be continued at regular intervals.

"That schools, theatres, churches, public and private hospitals and institutions, factories, stores and hotels be inspected to see that every safeguard against fire is provided, and also that exit facilities are sufficient in the event of fire.

"That local municipal authorities examine their fire ordinances and make them sufficient if they are lacking in any particular.

"To this end I appeal to our citizens to thoroughly co-operate with our Insurance Department, and I request that every mayor issue a proclamation. I earnestly solicit the co-operation of Chambers of Commerce, Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and Women's Clubs, and all other civic bodies and the press.

And now, therefore, I do issue this my Proclamation and to set aside and designate October 7th to 13th, 1928, as Fire Prevention Week and do urge all our people to a proper observance of this week in obedience to the law of North Carolina.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this 12th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and in the one hundred and fifty-third year of our American Independence.

ANGUS W. McLEAN,
Governor."

Every Dollar Counts—

A piece of thread is not a very strong thing. But woven together with thousands of other threads, it becomes a cable strong enough to tow an ocean liner. The dollars here and the dollars there which you permit to slip through your fingers may not amount to much in themselves—but combined with other dollars deposited week by week in your savings account, they build up real wealth in a surprisingly short time.

Don't miss a save day—it's like losing a pay day. "You can have what you want if you save for it."

FARMERS

Governor Smith's announcement in a letter to Governor Byrd, of Virginia, that should be successful in the election on November 6, he will immediately give his attention to the situation as regards the tobacco growers in the various states and will undertake to restore tobacco growing to a staple and prosperous condition, should have its effect upon the farmers of this section who heretofore have had a question in their mind as to how to vote. Since his nomination, Governor Smith has been plain spoken and frank in what he promises to try to do if elected, and surely such a stand should appeal to everyone. This promise to use his efforts and influence in behalf of the farmers of this section is quite a contrast to the evasive promises made by Mr. Hoover and the Republican party, and this feature alone, should be enough to convince the farmers that Smith is their candidate.

INSULTING
INTELLIGENCE

Young Mr. Roosevelt (the Republican who rattles around in his distinguished father's boots) and Mr.
Hoover both spoke in the South last week—both in a section where agriculture suffers depression and farm products of late years have sold sometimes for less than cost of production and most farm lands have gone down in price. In fact most farm lands have greatly reduced in value and for most farms
there is no sale.

Why? Mr. Roosevelt says:
"There is no denying the fact that the farmers are suffering real hardships," after seven and a half years of Republican policies. He adds: "We must not confine our actions to merely opposing an unsound solution, but must make up our minds to find and put through a sound solution for this evident evil." Exactly, but for seven and a half years Coolidge and Hoover have suggested no "sound solution."
The McNary-Haugen measure was vetoed, but nothing suggested in its place. What does Roosevelt offer? Hear him: "I believe Herbert Hoover is the type of man who will do this"—that is find a "sound solution."

The farmer will say truly that "faith without works is dead."—News & Observer.

ABOUT TOWN

"What do you say about that?"
questioned a local baseball fan yesterday as he stood in front of the Reflector office and watched the Reflector photograph describe the third Yankee victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.
St. Louis' supporters standing nearby didn't make any reply, and the interrogator grinned broadly, and confined his attention to the score-board again.
Like numbers of others, this fan thought the third victory of the world's series, crippled and with odds against them, the indomitable fighting machine of Miller Huggins literally swept the Cardinals before them in the three engagements so far played, showing the world that the greatest baseball machine in history is capable yet of winning, even under extraordinary circumstances.

The whole country will watch the next game with interest. If the Yankees win the series comes to a close. If the Cardinals win, it will be prolonged another day, or possibly longer, all depending upon the come-back of the St.
Louis aggregation. Supporters of both clubs are praying the same prayer—a prayer for victory—and should the Yankees win, they will be classed as real immortals of American baseball.

"With main streets draped of flags and bunting, Greenville today is getting down to normal, after a week of festivities at the Pitt county fair," remarked an attendant from another section of the county today.

"The fair this year was by far the greatest in history. It probably did not measure up to last year, from the standpoint of farm exhibits, but amusements were more numerous than ever before and midway never failed to attract the countless thousands in attendance from day to day.

"With the fair growing from year to year, it is impossible to look far into the future and see its possibilities. It has been a great medium for advertising the county and everybody has been benefited to some extent."

"Pap-Up Week in Greenville is not far away," observed a member of the Merchants Association today,
"and it is important for the credit customers to get busy and settle up as many accounts as possible before the week is over."

"This is a time when merchants balance their books and determine who pays promptly and who fails to pay. The record is given to the Association for future reference, and the merchants extend credit accordingly during the following season.

"Every citizen should make an effort to get an 'A' rating during Pap-Up Week and in that way be able to obtain credit with all of the reputable firms."

"O. Max Gardner, Democratic nominee for governor of North Carolina, will speak in Greenville September 17th," W. E. Hooks, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive Committee, said today.

"The people of this section of the state know Mr. Gardner. His record in the political life of the state is an open book. He will bring the greatest message of the campaign in his visit here, and no one should fail to hear him."

"If you are in doubt about any of the principal issues of the campaign, go and head this speaker and get straightened out."

LAND SALE.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed in trust executed by Sheppard Wilson and wife Henrietta Wilson, to F. C. Harding, Trustee, on the 11th day of February, 1925, which was duly recorded in Book W-15, page 30, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, the undersigned will sell at public auction, for cash, before the court house door in Greenville, on Thursday, October 18th, 1928, the following described two parcels or tracts of land, situate in Chicod township, Pitt County, to-wit:

First Tract: That certain tract or parcel of land lying in Chicod township, bounded on the North by Chicod Creek, on the south by the right of way of the Norfolk-Southern, on the East by the lands of H. H. Proctor, on the West by lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, in the division of the lands of Lennie Hardee, and being lot No.
6A, in said division, containing 41.4 acres, by actual survey, as shown by map of survey made by W. C. Dresbach, in January, 1923.

Second Tract: That certain tract or parcel of land lying in Chicod township, and adjoining the lands of Susan Gaskins, Tom Hardee and John Hardee on the North being lot No. 7, in the lands of Queenie Galloway, being lot No. 5, on the south, and the lands of Sheppard Wilson and wife being the first tract above described and being lot No. 6A in

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified cresote that is pleasant to take.
Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.
Of all known drugs cresote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to cresote, other healing

CREOMULSION
FOR THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the cresote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

YANKS TAKE THIRD GAME FROM CARDS

By BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Louis, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Riding high on the crest of a good inning have brought over from the last world's series, the New York Yankees came to their fourth game of the 1928 series today, needing but one victory to make them baseball immortals.

If the New Yorkers can stop the St. Louis Cardinals once more as they have halted them three times since last Thursday they will carve a new record in the archives of the game. The Yankees won from the Pittsburgh Pirates in four straight games last year, but this feat had been performed before—by the Boston Braves as far back as 1914. No team has won two world series without wasting a motion.

The American leaguers in making it three straight over the National league champions have already made one record in this series by winning seven successive world series contests.

Starting the series odds on favorites, the Cardinals in four days have seen the situation change until there are no odds on the outcome of the series.

The Cardinals are not yet removed from the picture for they have a chance to win the series—by taking four straight games, a good trick if they can do it. All the more honor would follow such a baseball miracle for it never has been done. Not in the 23 years of Inter-league competition under the rules in existence today has a team won four world series games after losing three.

The Yankees were confident that they could not be stopped after they won the third game when they got by Jesse J. Haines, who won two of the games the Cardinals captured in the 1926 world series. The big Ohio farmer saw his hopes crumble about him in two heart-rending innings of the third game. He pitched good ball for six innings out left the mound with six runs counted against him on six hits when under a kinder fate he might have gone on with only one charged to him.

The big fellow made the same mistake Alexander did in New York, gave Lou Gehrig a ball he could hit. There was a difference of an inning but the result was the same. Alexander threw one down the buster's alley in the first inning Friday and Haines in the second yesterday. In both cases the ball sailed out of the park. Haines' broad shoulders bore the brunt of that devastating wallop but his mates felled him sweetly while the other five were being scored.

Ruth singles with one out in the fourth and Gehrig crashed another fairies pitched hard, but not over the bleachers. This ball went on a line center and Douthitt, forgetting that discretion has been shown to be the better part of valor, charged on it and tried to pick it off his tops. The speed of the flying ball was not arrested an iota by the outfielder's effort and when it rolled to the centerfield fence, Gehrig followed Ruth home to put the world champions ahead.

After the home team tied the score, the bottom fell out of the baseball world for Haines in the sixth. Koenig reached lazily over the outside corner of the plate for a slow curve and drove it whistling to left for a single. Frisch made a sparkling play on Ruth's hard smash to force Koenig at second. Jesse was too careful in keeping the ball out of Gehrig's reach and passed the big first sacker. Meusel rapped sharply to high but with a quick throw to second.

GEHRIG'S HOMER BRINGS IN THREE RUNS FOR YANKS

The New York Yankees' heavy artillery got into action early in the second world's series game with the St. Louis Cardinals. Picture shows Durst, Yankee outfielder, crossing the home plate ahead of Ruth on Lou Gehrig's home run off Alexander in the first inning. New York won, 9 to 3.

Andy forced Gehrig. Frisch trying for a double play made a poor throw to first and Bottomley had to run one side for the throw. The faring Ruth increased his stride a notch and threw his massive body toward the plate. Bottomley made a perfect throw to Jimmy Wilson and Umpire McGowan raised his hand high over his head to indicate the demise of the bambino. Only to spread his palms down with a reprieve when he found the ball had escaped Wilson's grasp after he had tagged the big fellow.

To make matters worse, the catcher grabbed the ball and threw it into center field in a vain effort to head off Meusel who by this time was tearing around the bases with wild abandon. Bob pulled up at third and was in position to further humiliate Haines and Wilson at the business end of a double steal after Lazzeri walked. Robertson bobbed up with a single to score Lazzari and Haines was thru. So was the ball game. Sylvester Johnson came in and allowed a run when Hafey dropped a fly ball and them finished by disposing of six Yankees in order, but the ball game was over when Ruth and Wilson met in the dirt around home plate.

MANY BUMPS IN SATURDAY GRID GAMES

Atlanta, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The football bumps are coming hard and early this season for many Southern Conference machines and today several were checking up the casualties while others were buoyed high by decisive victories.

Alabama, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Tulane, Washington and Lee, Clemson and South Carolina were in the fore in the conference standing, each having registered a victory to start the season, while on the other hand Maryland, Virginia, V. M. I., University of Mississippi, Mississippi A. & M., North Carolina State and Auburn were one down at the beginning.

The others yet have their first intra-conference game to play. Six conference games will hold the boards this week while several other elevens will step out in inter-sectional clashes.

Friday, Clemson, undefeated yet, will meet North Carolina State at Florence, S. C., with considerable regional interest worked up. Justice of the Tiger backfield, will be pitted against Warren, star Wolf-pack fullback.

Tulane and Georgia Tech will probably furnish the feature combat of the week within the conference. Both displayed great power in winning Saturday's games and will meet at New Orleans.

Billy Banker, blonde halfback will match speed with the redoubtable Thomason in this affair. Washington and Lee will be trying to make it two straight conference victories by trimming the Kentucky Wildcats at Lexington, Ky. It will be the first game within the organization this season for Harry Gamagay's eleven.

The Crimson Tide of Alabama will be at Starkville, Miss., engaging Mississippi A. & M.'s battered team with Wallace Wade's new hopeful of adding another victory to an already impressive start.

Bob Heyland's Tennessee Volunteers, starting the season with almost a new eleven, will try his strength against Ole Miss at Knoxville. This should be a toss-up in view of the Oxford team's unimpaired showing so far. The Vols will have several sophomores stars to be put on exhibition for the first time.

Auburn's Parham, means an offensive so far, will be at Gainesville, Fla., battling Crabtree and Company of Florida. The Alligators have every reason to hope for

BABE GETS FIRST HIT OF GAME

Babe Ruth sliding into second base after getting a double in the first inning of the opening world's series game between the Yankees and the Cardinals. The Babe's double was the first hit of the game, and he scored the Yanks' first run when Gehrig brought him in with a double. The Yanks won, 4 to 1.

Sidelights On World's Series

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Any world's series the New York Yankees and their madman, Babe Ruth, participate in is bound to be a record-breaker. The current affair is no exception, with at least a dozen records shattered so far and a half dozen more in prospect, not the least of which would eventuate with another four-straight triumph for the disabled soldiers of Gotham.

Babe Ruth, who has been in more world's series than any other ball player, sets a record every time he scores a run, hits a homer or any other variety of extra base hit, bats as a runner, receives a pass or strikes out.

The bambino and his hitting partner, Lou Gehrig, also have designs on the high individual batting mark in one series. For three games, their marks were .636 and .556, respectively, with Ruth especially having a good chance to display the record of .545 made by sergeant Hank Gowdy while catching for the Braves in their gallop over the Athletics in 1914.

A record players pool of well in excess of $400,000, a mark never before reached, seems assured. The "pot" for the world's series performers, as well as for the second, third and fourth clubs in each league, was up to $332,300.52 for the first three games. Since $91,111.50 was added to the pool yesterday it would take only a majority of this amount today to break the record of $399,440.67, made last year.

Notes.

To the Voters of Chicod Township: I have been informed that C. W. Evans (our regular nominee for Constable of above named township) is circulating a statement that I persuaded Jesse Haddock to run independent for said office for my own benefit.

I wish to state that such a statement is absolutely false and unwarranted, as I have never mentioned such a matter to Jesse Haddock.

ELIJAH MILLS.

LOCALS WIN SLOW CONTEST AT FARMVILLE

In a listless and unexciting game the Greenville High griders defeated Farmville there yesterday afternoon by the score of 25 to 0. Farmville put up a good fight in their effort to win their first game in two years, but the Greenville team was too strong for them in all departments of the game.

Farmville won the toss and elected to kick. Greenville received the ball and advanced it to the twenty yard line where it was lost on a fumble. After that the ball passed from one team to the other until Respass got loose on an end run and ran 45 yards to a touchdown late in the first quarter. In the second quarter he again performed the same stunt and the half ended with the score 13 to 0 in Greenville's favor.

After the rest period, Farmville

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 8—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 4 to 10 points on trade buying and covering, but soon eased under a renewal of liquidation which appeared to be accompanied by some southern hedging. December sold off from 18.83 to 18.70 by the end of the first half hour, with the general market showing net declines of about 2 to 3 points. The bulk of the business was attributed to further evening-up of accounts in preparation for the government report expected at 11 o'clock, but there may have been some selling on reports of good weather for picking and ginning in the south. Private cables reported continental buying and trade calling supplied by Liverpool and said that business in Manchester was quiet and buyers of cloths and yarns cautious. Futures closed barely steady, 35 to 40 points higher; spot quiet; middling 19.45.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 8—(AP)—Despite an early advance, the wheat market here went down grade today in the late dealings. The setback followed announcement of 6,530,000 bushels increase of the domestic wheat visible supply total to 116,577,000 bushels, the largest amount on record for this time of year. The aggregate given contrasted sharply with 80,986,000 bushels constituting the United States visible supply a year ago. Receipts, supporters of the corn market, were persistent sellers today, and corn values dropped notwithstanding 1,380,000 bushels decrease of the corn visible supply. Wheat closed heavy, 3-4 to 1c net lower, corn 5-8 to 13-16c down, oats 1-8 to 1-2c off, and provisions varying from 15c decline to a rise of 25¢.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 8—(AP)—The stock market continued to move to higher ground today under the leadership of the high price specialties, but the advance was checked, at times, by flurries of selling in some of the recent speculative favorites. New high records were established by more than a score of issues, the gains ranging from fractions to 12 1-2 points. There were several soft spots also. Call money renewed at 6 1-2 per cent and the supply became so plentiful at that figure that a lower rate was looked for. Sterling exchange stiffened somewhat, but hope was still held out that the flow of gold from London to New York would reach at least $25,000,000, of which $10,000,000 already had been shipped. Allied Chemical soared 12 1-2 points to a new peak at 215 1-2, organized in 1927. The closing was irregular. Total sales approximated 3,700,000.
