PRICES SOAR SKYWARD ON LEAF MARKET

Storm Forces German Zeppelin To Change Her Course

HIGHEST AVERAGE PRICE OF SEASON ESTABLISHED ON HEAVY SALES THURSDAY

Over Million Pounds Of Leaf Nets Farmers Handsome Sum Of $242,332.82 At An Average Of $23.58 Per Hundred Pounds; Heavy Sales in Progress Today.

Prices again glided skyward on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday and the highest average price of the season was established, according to official report of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade. The market sold 1,027,592 pounds of tobacco, paying out to the farmers of this section the sum of $242,332.82. The average for the day was $23.58 per hundred pounds. Total sales of the season today stood around twenty-nine million pounds with indications that the thirty million pound mark would be reached with completion of today's sales. Much good tobacco was in evidence yesterday and this was largely responsible for the upward trend of the price situation, it was stated. Offerings of bright leaf have been heavy all the week, but the quality yesterday was described as much better.

NEW YORK CITY WILL WELCOME ZEPPELIN CREW

Elaborate Receptions Planned For Big Ship On Way From Germany.

New York, October 12—(AP)—New York City today eagerly awaited the arrival of the Graf Zeppelin and meanwhile planned elaborate receptions for her crew and passengers. Hugh Allen, an official of the Goodyear Zeppelin company, of Akron, Ohio, who is personal representative here for Dr. Hugo Eckener, builder and commander of the dirigible, said if the ship arrived tomorrow night she would be met near New York, Philadelphia and along the coast during the night. If however, she does not arrive until after daybreak Sunday she will probably circle the city and then go directly to Lakehurst, he said.

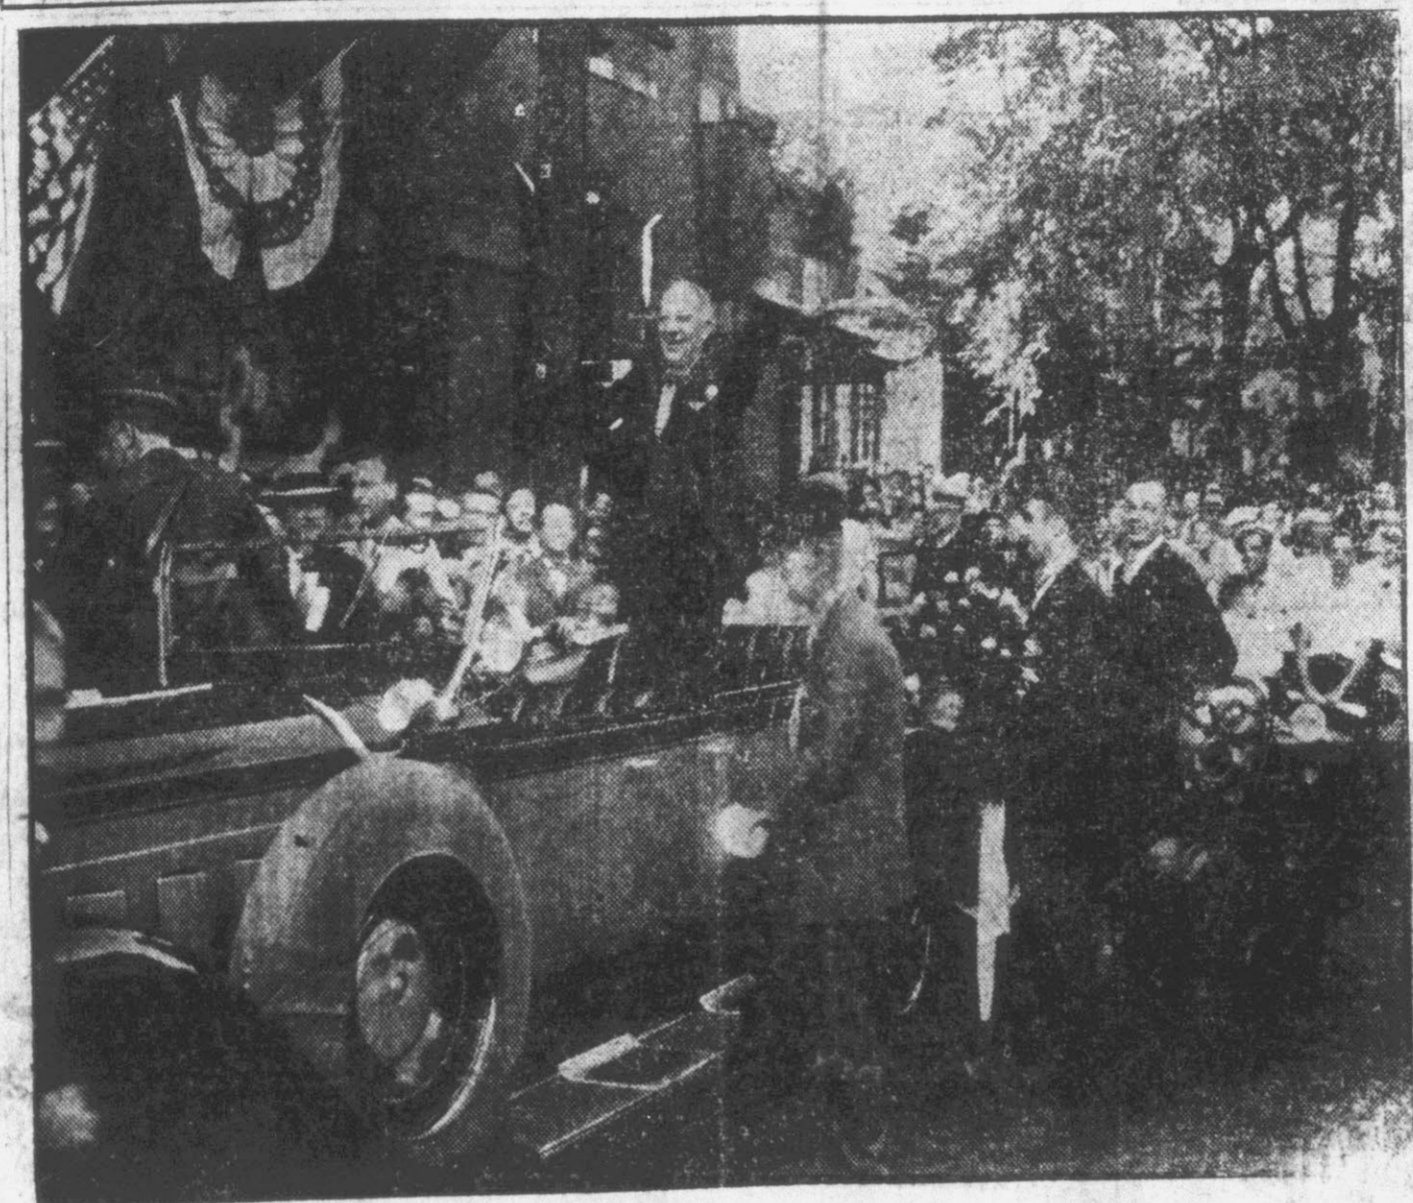

Five military planes from Mitchell Field, Long Island, and many commercial ships bearing photographers are to act as an escort for the dirigible, along with the two navy blimps from Lakehurst.

Monday the city's official welcome will be given the air travelers. They are scheduled to arrive at Jersey City by train from Lakehurst at 12:07 p. m. They will be met by the Municipal Tug Macon which will bring them across the Hudson river to pier A, the battery, landing place of many distinguished visitors. There they will enter automobiles and with an army and navy escort parade to City Hall where Mayor Walker will extend the city's official welcome. The ceremonies are to be broadcast by WYNYC.

Tuesday they are to be taken on a tour of the harbor aboard the Macon, returning in time for luncheon at the Hotel Astor as guests of the Associated Business For Better New York. They will be guests at a reception at the German club that afternoon and at dinner at the Hotel Astor that night.

AL AND HIS FAMOUS SMILE SNAPPED ON HIS ARRIVAL IN RALEIGH

The above photograph of Governor Alfred E. Smith was snapped in front of the union station in Raleigh yesterday upon his arrival in that city where crowds estimated at a hundred thousand had gathered to greet the Democratic presidential candidate. As the picture was taken Governor Smith was accorded the usual honorary salute by a detachment of North Carolina National Guardsmen. (Photo published through courtesy News and Observer).

New Facts Brought Out In Probe Of Shooting At State

Raleigh, N. C.—Spartanburg, S. C., freshman at North Carolina State College who was shot and badly wounded by Marshall Hoover, negro night watchman at the college apple orchard last week, was not the first student shot by Hoover, it was learned today.

Although the name of the other student hit by shot from Hoover's gun was not divulged, Dr. E. C. Brooks, president, revealed that investigation had shown that another State student had received a superficial wound in his leg prior to the shooting of Poole. Dr. Brooks said he learned of the first shooting Friday, and had prepared a full report ready to turn over to the solicitor if wanted.

The preliminary hearing which was scheduled today for H. A. Miller, superintendent of the college farm, and who is charged with aiding and abetting in the assault on Poole, was postponed until October 19th because of Poole's inability to appear in court.

Hooks Says Al Smith Greatest Man In U. S.

"There is no question but that Al Smith is the greatest man in American life today," positively declared W. E. Hooks of Ayden, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Pitt county, on a visit to Greenville today.

"I had the pleasure of seeing the New York governor in Raleigh yesterday. After seeing him, I am stronger for him than ever and firmly believe he will be the next President of the United States."

"Judging from the enthusiasm of the immense crowd and comment heard on all sides, there is no question in my mind but that Governor Smith will carry the state of North Carolina by a majority of 75,000 votes. There are those who would say the state is going Republican. The magnitude of the demonstration given the Democratic candidate through this state brands such an assertion as untrue."

"I discussed the present campaign with political leaders from all sections of the state. They unanimously agreed that Smith is gaining ground. Some who were outspoken against the candidacy of the New York governor some weeks ago have come over to his side and are now counted among the most loyal supporters.

"Many demonstrations have been held in North Carolina from time to time, but never has a political candidate been given a more cordial welcome than that extended to Governor Smith at Raleigh. One hundred thousand people vied with one another in an effort to make the day a big one, and that they succeeded is attested by the glamor of the celebration. Hundreds of people who had never seen Governor Smith were so impressed with his response to the cheering thousands that they immediately decided he was the man they needed in the White House. Smith is what might be termed as a 'mixer' and he is gaining support in every section of the country he visits."

Speaking of the progress of the campaign in Pitt county, Mr. Hooks said that "conditions were getting better all the time." He said he had always thought that when the people knew the truth about Smith they would support him. "I feel safe in saying," he declared, "that Pitt county will give him a good majority when our people go to the polls in November."

MANY LEGION DELEGATES GO INTO MEXICO

Veterans Of World War Seek Pleasure Across Border After Convention Closes.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 12—(AP)—Veterans of the world war moved on Mexico today in a pleasure-seeking peacetime invasion of the southern republic. Close of the 10th annual American Legion Convention here found hundreds of the delegates enroute to the border for a week-end of entertainment.

Excursions into Mexico and bull fights at several below-the-border points were scheduled activities. One contingent of the veterans will push on to Mexico City for a visit in the capital city.

Paul V. McNutt, 37-year-old dean of the school of law at the University of Indiana, will direct the destinies of the Legion during 1929, succeeding Edward E. Spafford of New York, retiring commander. The youthful dean, who rose to the rank of lieutenant colonel in the field artillery during the world war, was elected on the third ballot yesterday after two of his chief opponents had withdrawn in his favor.

S. E. Conroy of Fargo, N. D., was selected to head the 40 and 8, fun-making division of the Legion.

The convention was one of the most peaceful the organization has ever known and very few controversial issues were uncovered. The only question of policy which created a real fight was an effort made on the party of California, Nebraska and several other states to force the expenditure of all child welfare funds in direct relief. Under the present system a portion of the fund is spent in hiring directors and editors to develop and encourage local effort. The proposed change failed to carry, proponents of the present regime arguing that the funds were too small to add a great many children unless they were spent in interesting communities in making local efforts.

Greek Steamer Reports Sinking French Submarine

Paris, Oct. 12—(AP)—The French submarine Ondine, overdue for the past three days, was sunk by a Greek ship off Porto during the night of the 3rd of October. She had aboard three officers and forty men.

The Ondine, which was 600 tons, left Cherbourg on an endurance trial October 1. She was last heard from October 3rd by a Spanish wireless station. Her position was then given as off Cape Finisterre.

The Ondine was due at Bizerta, the seaport of Tunis, on October 9. When she did not arrive the French naval authorities began a search for her in the hope that she might have met with some accident which made it impossible for her to give her position.

The French ministry of marine informed the Associated Press that a Greek cargo boat which recently docked at Rotterdam reported having sunk the submarine.

The ministry of marine fears that all hands aboard the submarine were lost, but to make certain has ordered the second squadron of destroyers which is cruising near Oporto to proceed immediately to the scene of the collision and to search for possible survivors and wreckage.

Democrats Still Have Some Money Left In Coffers

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Democratic National committee in its report for September shows receipts of $876,420 which, with the balance carried over from August collections, made by State directors, interest on bank deposits, and other items gave the committee a total of $1,110,148. The disbursements during September were $933,036, leaving a balance at the beginning of October of $177,111. The report of contributions of $1,000 and over include: W. N. Reynolds, Winston-Salem, N. C., who is credited with having given $3,000 during September.

DR. ANDERSON SMITH GUEST CHARGED WITH TAKING MONEY OF TENNESSEE DURING TODAY

Head Of State Insane Hospital, Indicted For Misappropriation Of Funds.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 12—(AP)—Dr. Albert Anderson, superintendent of the State Hospital for the insane here since 1913, today stood charged with embezzlement and malfeasance in office by three indictments handed to the Wake County grand jury by Solicitor L. S. Brassfield. There were 11 counts in the embezzlement indictment and 15 in the one alleging malfeasance. The grand jury was expected to act today.

Of the malfeasance counts, three concern the deaths of inmates in the hospital.

One alleges that in January, 1926, a Mrs. Nelson, an inmate, was placed in the strong room without clothing, bedding, or covering, or heat of any sort and allowed to freeze to death "with the knowledge, consent and approval of Albert Anderson."

Another charges that a patient, whose name was not given, became ill in the dining room, and was allowed to lie on the floor until dead without being given medical attention.

The third count of this nature sets forth that a patient cut his throat and was allowed to bleed to death without any effort being made to save his life.

Dr. Anderson was charged with embezzling supplies from the institution and with unlawfully using patients of the State institution and State paid labor on his personal farm, and also on a real estate development he promoted.

James Adams, superintendent of the State Hospital farm, was charged with embezzlement jointly with Dr. Anderson in three of the indictments.

GIANT DIRIGIBLE SPEEDING TOWARDS UNITED STATES BY THE WAY OF BERMUDA

G. O. P. Auto Is Wrecked In Smith Parade

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 11—(AP)—David Peebles and Harry Seawell, drug clerks and Hoover supporters, today were sadder but wiser young men than before Governor Alfred E. Smith made his visit to Raleigh. And all because they attempted to drive a car decorated with their candidate's banners in the Smith parade. A mob of spectators broke ranks at the curb, halted the car, smashed its headlights, wrenched off a door, ripped up the upholstery, slashed a tire and plastered the body with Smith stickers. Seawell and Peebles fled.

Big Ship Expected To Leave Storm Behind When She Passes South Of The Azores; Lakehurst Naval Station Prepares For Receiving Visiting Bag.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Oct. 12—(AP)—Dodging far to the south to avoid strong headwinds, the giant dirigible Graf Zeppelin today was headed south of the Azores, planning to reach the United States by way of Bermuda.

Advised after leaving Gibraltar enroute to the Azores that the headwinds would make a flight over those islands inadvisable if not impossible, Dr. Hugo Eckener, the dirigible's commander, decided to change his course and head for the island of Madeira off the northwest African coast and thence to fly for the United States by way of Bermuda.

News of Dr. Eckener's decision was received by the Zeppelin works at noon today.

It was believed by early this afternoon that the dirigible would be sufficiently south to profit by the eastern winds and that she would be able to communicate with ships on the South American route. The Zeppelin company's radio station was out of communication with the dirigible this afternoon.

It was stated that because of bad weather there was no possibility for the present of getting into wireless touch with the airship from Friedrichshafen.

The latest weather reports indicated that the storm area reached down to the Azores and that the ship would pass to the south of these islands.

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 12—(AP)—Officers and enlisted men of the naval air station today settled down to a period of watchful waiting for the Graf Zeppelin.

If the wind is favorable and not too strong the big Zeppelin will be run into the hangar with the Los Angeles, and the two navy blimps J-3 and J-4. If the wind is unfavorable, she will be moored to the far side of the field.

One hundred and eighty additional men from the Brooklyn navy yard have been ordered here to assist the 270 men of the regular landing crew. The extra men are needed because of size of the Zeppelin which is 100 feet longer than the navy dirigible Los Angeles.

The detail of 55 marines stationed here has been augmented by 12 coast troopers to handle the crowds which are expected.

Rear Admiral Moffett, head of the naval air forces, and Rear Admiral J. L. Latimer are to be on hand to welcome the visitors.

The J-3 and J-4, if the weather is favorable, will go to meet the Zeppelin somewhere along the coast and escort her over New York City and then to the naval field here. The Los Angeles will not be taken out.

Officers of the naval station are supremely confident that the ship will arrive as scheduled, and without mishap. "She's just as sure of coming in as the Leviathan," one of the said.

New York, Oct. 12—(AP)—The huge trans-Atlantic liner Graf Zeppelin was over the Atlantic today well on her way to the United States after having fought headwinds which delayed her passage along the Mediterranean coast of Spain.

Turning her blunt silver nose to the southwest after passing Gibraltar at 5 a. m., Greenwich time (midnight E. S. T.) the airship apparently headed for the Madeira Islands with a water jump of some 3700 miles ahead of her before the American coast was reached.

Expectations at the ship's destination, the United States naval air station at Lakehurst, N. J., are that she will arrive Sunday noon.

LOCAL MAN PASSES AWAY

Walter Harris Laid to Rest At Cherry Hill Cemetery This Afternoon.

Walter Harris, 44, died last night at his home on Third street at 12:20, following illness of only a few hours.

Funeral services were conducted at four o'clock this afternoon from his late home on Third street, by Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. Burial followed in Cherry Hill Cemetery.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. G. A. Wilkie of Sanford; Mrs. J. A. Long, of Charlotte; Miss Nora Harris, of Greenville; one brother, Carlos Harris, of Greenville.

Active pall bearers were: C. E. Rountree, George Gardner, John Briley, T. T. Hollingsworth, W. H. Dail, Frank Savage.

Honorary: D. D. Overton, George Clark, John Clark, Charles Horne, Henry Renfrow, K. W. Cobb, Dr. E. P. Spence, S. T. Hicks, D. C. Beach, J. K. Brown, W. C. Dresbach, W. W. Martin, Jesse Brown, T. R. Moore, C. A. Musselwhite, George Dail, Earl Sellars.

Members of the Hope Fire Department, accompanied by a truck, acted as an escort.

The deceased was apparently in the best of health when taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon about six o'clock. From that time until his death he never regained consciousness.

He was a familiar figure at the city fire department and baseball park, having taken an active interest in fire-fighting and baseball for a number of years.

Cold Wave Expected At Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—The good old summer time, a calendar traunt dallying over into mid-October, perked an apprehensive ear today to cold whisksers from the Alaskan wastes.

After threatening Chicago to the hottest October 11 in twenty years, the mercury reaching 87.2 during the day, summer temperatures today were confronted with warnings of fur and topcoat weather by nightfall. A cold wave is moving down upon the Midwest from Alaska, the government weather office said, threatening to drive temperatures as low as the freezing point by tomorrow.

Hot weather has prevailed during the past few days over territory as far west as Nebraska and east to Pennsylvania. Cleveland, O., had its hottest October 11 with a temperature of 86° degrees, only six degrees under the high mark for the entire year, while it was 90 degrees at Sandusky, O.

HOOVER WORKS HARD ON NEXT TWO SPEECHES

First Address To Be Delivered At Boston On The 15th Of The Month.

By JAMES L. WEST
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover is driving himself harder this week than he has at any time in the campaign, as he has been faced with the task of preparing two speeches in even less time than he usually has devoted to the writing of a single one.

These addresses are to be delivered on the next two Mondays and that to be made in the Arena at Boston on October 15 had to be in the hands of the printer today to be available to the press by next Sunday.

While the Republican presidential candidate will have four days next week in which to put the finishing touches on the New York address of October 22, he must get the rough draft out of the way before going to Boston, as some of his time next week must be given over to political conferences and direction of the campaign.

If the nominee finds that he will not have time to treat at Boston on the maintenance of a merchant marine, after he has expanded his views on the tariff and foreign trade, he probably will touch upon that subject in his New York speech.

The itinerary of the Boston trip finally has been completed in detail and calls for an absence from Washington of slightly less than 36 hours. This is accomplished by two hundred overnight trips and by limiting public appearances to a small number of cities.

Going direct from Washington to New Haven, Conn., the Hoover special train will be transferred to another railroad for the run to Springfield, where a brief stop and rear platform appearance will be made. Then the special will proceed east across the greater portion of the State, going to Worcester and then to Newtonville where the party will detain to visit the suburbs of Boston and drive by motor into the city.

After the speaking at the Arena there will be a hurried getaway, the train leaving for Washington at 10 p. m., making the return trip through Providence, Hartford, New Haven and New York. Except for Providence all of these points will be passed late at night and early in the morning, so that there will be no opportunity for the candidate to make platform appearances.

In The Political Life Of America

(By The Associated Press)
Smith Train—Smith headed into Tennessee, after series ovations in Virginia and North Carolina.
Washington—Hoover busy preparing Boston and New York speeches.

Janesville, Wis.—Curtis attacked Smith position farm relief; reiterated pledge of increased tariff on agricultural products.

Reno, Nev.—Robinson assailed Hoover for "instability and vacillation" with respect to boulder dam; said Smith had taken "firm stand on prompt action."

Chicago.—James W. Good, western Republican manager, accused Governor Ritchie of Maryland, of raising issue of bigotry and attempting arouse intolerance.

New York.—John M. Davis, 1924 Democratic presidential nominee, called upon Republican chieftains to rebuke Mrs. Willebrandt.

New York.—Senator Harrison, Mississippi, said Smith's southern tour already demonstrates Republicans cannot make inroads there.

New York.—Raskob announced Dr. Arthur Twining Hadley, president Emeritus of Yale, endorses Smith.

New York.—Socialist headquarters made public telegram sent to Smith by Norman Thomas, Socialist presidential nominee, urging that Smith tell South of views on negro problem and prohibition.

as a more southerly route was mapped out for the Graf Zeppelin, it was thought that her first landfall might be either the Massachusetts islands of Nantucket or Martha's Vineyard, or the Long Island shore sometime Sunday.

Passengers today had their first experience at breakfasting in the air—unless they were too airsick to eat. The menu was coffee, tea, bread, butter and eggs or sausage.

The twenty persons lucky enough to obtain passage on the air liner, some of them at a fare of $3,000, viewed from the air the lights of cities on the Spanish Mediterranean course as the airship passed over the miduring the early hours of the night at a speed of about 50 miles an hour. They slept in the ten cabins which line the gangway of the ship, five on each side. Each cabin was equipped with two berths the upper one being a hammock.

Aboard the largest dirigible are 60 persons in all, the greatest number ever to cross the Atlantic by air. When the R-34, flew from East Fortune, Scotland, to Mineola, N. Y., in 1919 she carried a crew of 29 and the Los Angeles, then the ZR-3, brought 32 men over four years ago.

Among the Graf Zeppelin's passengers is Lady Drummond Hay, English writer, who hopes to be the first woman to make the east to west crossing of the Atlantic by air. There also are three Americans on board, Lieut. Com. Charles E. Rosendahl, U. S. N.; Robert Reiner, of Weehawken, N. J., and Frederick Gillilan, who resides in Switzerland.

Besides the 60 passengers there is one other living being aboard the airship—a canary. The bird was one of the five presented by well-wishers and was chosen as mascot for the voyage.

Starting from Friedrichshafen at 2 a. m., Eastern Standard time, yesterday, Dr. Hugo Eckener found that unfavorable weather to the north had forced him to take a long detour and at a speed of around 60 miles an hour he swung south across France. Adverse winds cut down the mileage and when the ship was passing over the Mediterranean shore of Spain the speed was estimated to be around 50 miles an hour.

The dirigible nosed her way through clouds blanketing the Rhone Valley and then left the French coast behind her heading into more favorable weather. Reports to the Paris weather bureau showed good weather over the Atlantic south of the 40th parallel.

The dirigible came in sight of the Spanish Mediterranean coast at twilight and passed over Barcelona at 6:50 p. m., (1:50 E. S. T.)

MRS. BOST AND MRS. PHELPS' GIVE BRIDGE LUNCHEON

One of the most attractive affairs of the Halloween season was given yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. A. Bost, when Mrs. Bost and Mrs. W. W. Phelps entertained at a bridge luncheon.

The home was very attractive with roses, dahlias and other fall flowers. The Halloween idea was effectively carried out in the table appointments. The guests arrived at twelve-thirty.

An elaborate course luncheon was served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Bost and Miss Elizabeth Phelps.

Following the luncheon bridge was played at eleven tables.

Mrs. W. M. Scales, winner of high score, was given a linen cover. Miss Ward Moore was given table number and pencils for low score. Mrs. N. S. Fulford of Denver, Colorado, and Mrs. Ryeland Harris, who recently moved to Greenville, were presented linen tray covers. Miss Nancy Beach of Petersburg, Va., was remembered with a score set.

TEA FOR MISSES BRIDGEFORTH AND BEACH

Outstanding among the social events of the past week was the tea on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 5:30, given by Mesdames L. R. Eakin and G. B. Bridgeforth, at the home of Mrs. Boykin, on Fourth street, complimenting Misses Nancy Beach of Petersburg, Va., and Sue Bridgeforth of Kenbridge, Va.

The guests were met at the door by Mesdames W. T. Lipscomb and David Turner who invited them into the living room, which was beautifully decorated in goldenrod, purple asters and ferns.

Receiving with Mesdames Boykin and Bridgeforth in the living room were Misses Bridgeforth and Beach, Mesdames R. W. Starke, Beard, Walter Jones, George Stone and Frank Bendall.

From the receiving line the guests were asked into the dining room by Mrs. Durwood Tucker. Ferns and baskets of goldenrod and purple asters added much to the attractiveness of the room. An artistically arranged basket of flowers surrounded by fallen rose petals and silver candlesticks holding burning yellow tapers formed a lovely centerpiece for the table at which Mesdames J. L. Fleming and E. B. Ficklen poured tea. They were assisted by Misses Mamie Lou White, Mary James Lipscomb and Helen White who handed tea, sandwiches, nuts, mints and cheese biscuits.

The guests were shown from the dining room into the den by Mrs. C. H. Dodson. Here, too, the color scheme of lavender and yellow was carried out in the flowers and burning tapers which formed an imposing background for the table from which punch was served. Preceding at the punch bowl in a most gracious manner were Misses Ernestine Forbes and Ethel Montgomery, assisted by Miss Mamie Ruth Fleming.

About a hundred guests called during the afternoon.

MRS. SCHULTZ AND MRS. BOWLING ENTERTAIN LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary met on October 10th, with Mrs. S. M. Schultz and Mrs. L. H. Bowling as hostesses. Mrs. V. A. Ward, vice-president, presided over the meeting and a short business meeting was held. Mrs. J. B. Kittrell gave an interesting talk on rehabilitation. A report from the nominating committee was heard and the following officers elected for the new year:

President—Mrs. K. B. Pace; Vice-President, Mrs. V. A. Ward; recording secretary, Mrs. W. C. Bryan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. N. Graham; treasurer, Miss Hennie Whitehead; historian, Mrs. C. A. Bowen; chaplain, Mrs. P. G. Dennis.

The Auxiliary decided to give the joys a Halloween party, and a committee was appointed to look after that.

We were very glad to welcome Mrs. J. L. Horne as a new member. The President appointed a number of committees for the new year, which closed the business of the afternoon.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Entertained At Birthday Party.

On Monday evening, October 8, Mrs. N. T. Stokes was delightfully entertained at a surprise birthday party, celebrating her fifty-fifth year.

While Mrs. Stokes was away for a ride the guests assembled at her country home. When she returned she was greeted by cheers, and wishes for many happy returns of the day.

The home was lovely with autumn flowers and crepe paper. The color scheme being yellow and blue.

After a few cocktails and much conversation the guests were ushered to the dining room where refreshments were served and much fun was had over cutting the birthday cake.

Then everyone was invited into the parlor where they were entertained by piano selections by Mrs. R. A. Tyson and Mr. Chester Allen.

WHAT IS IT?

That is a question that has been asked hundreds—yes, thousands! of times during the past week in the City of Greenville

WHAT IS THIS CLUB OF ONE THOUSAND

And the thousands who have asked the question, who have been interested in knowing what it is, will be even more interested in it after getting that information.

The Club Of One Thousand Is—

A group of Greenville's leading spirits—men and women keenly alive to their own opportunities for success, but never forgetting their greater opportunities and responsibilities in service to Greenville.

An unofficial, unchartered organization of volunteers who during 1928 will make an investment of $130,000.00 for themselves—an investment that will pay them over 6 per cent, TAX-FREE, with the utmost safety and security.

A body of men and women who, while thus profiting themselves directly, will profit themselves and all of Greenville by the investment of that $130,000.00 in homes for a still Greater Greenville.

With An Individual Investment of Only $2.50 a Week.

The Club Of One Thousand

Will Finance the Building of Over 300 New Homes in Our City During the Next 6 1-2 Years.

How will they do it? Simple enough: Each member of this CLUB OF ONE THOUSAND will subscribe for at least ten (10) shares of Stock of the Home Building & Loan Association. Their joint effort—a weekly investment of ONLY $2.50 EACH—will make available $130,000.00 a year for the financing of Greenville homes. The average home loan is slightly over $2,800. That will mean the addition to our city of approximately 50 new homes a year for a period of six and a half years.

Can You Imagine a Finer Service to the Community? Or one that is Possible With so Little Individual Effort?

The Club of One Thousand will be composed of many people who have never before discovered the opportunities and privileges for themselves, and the service to their city, offered in the Building and Loan plan; and of many others who have long participated in both its profits and its service. To the latter, this story of service is more or less familiar; but a part of it is worth repeating:

We Aided 76 Greenville Citizens to Build During 1927.

Applications For Loans Now On File 52

A Very Large Percentage of Them For New Constructions.

Are Much In Excess Over Available Funds

It is evident, therefore, that there is open to the Club of One Thousand a very large service to Greenville—one of which the city is in pressing need. It is a fortunate circumstance that the thousand rare spirits of this Club can perform that service and at the same time profit themselves through steady investment in one of the strongest savings-investment plans known to the world; their money handled under strict State supervision and safeguarded to them by first mortgage liens on Greenville real estate! Of course, you will want to join the Club of One Thousand. Its membership, being voluntary and unhindered, will not only be a mark of distinction in civic service, but a tribute as well to your keen business judgment—for here is an investment that pays profits in two directions, direct and indirect—Big profits, too!

Join at Once. The First Opportunity You Have. Let's Write a Club List That Will Make History in the Home Building of Greenville.

York governor that North Carolina on November 6 will again take its proper place in the Democratic column.

ABOUT TOWN

"Paul Whiteman's famous orchestra headed the series of fall entertainments at the East Carolina Teachers' College last night," observed a local citizen who attended the concert.

"The new auditorium was packed to capacity. It was probably the largest crowd that ever attended an entertainment there, and it was apparent that everybody enjoyed the program."

"Paul Whiteman has enjoyed an enviable reputation in the musical world for many years. His appearance here last night drew the interest of music-lovers not only in Greenville, but from many sections of the county."

"Such entertainments should prove a big drawing card for the college during the winter months. They go to show that officers of the school are endeavoring to give the locality the best to be had. That this is appreciated was attested by the large crowd at the concert last night."

"It is the intention of the Democratic clubs of the county to get all young people lined up for the national election next month, through an educational campaign tending to inform everybody of their duty as representative American citizens," said a member of the executive committee today.

"There are people in all parts of the country who do not vote because they have never known what it meant to exercise this privilege. The local committee intends to impress upon the public the importance of its duty, and to stimulate interest in the great principles which the Democratic party is fighting for."

"If you are a Democrat do what you can in your community to enlighten your neighbors of what is the necessity of voting so that they may express a preference for those to sit at the helm of government the next few years."

"A great crowd witnessed the visit of Governor Alfred Smith at Raleigh yesterday," said one of the several Greenville men who went to Raleigh for the sole purpose of getting a glimpse of the Democratic candidate for president.

"It is probable the State never before extended such a splendid welcome to a visitor. For miles crowds thronged the streets of the Capital City cheering lustily for the man who stands out distinctly as one of the greatest leaders of the era."

"Governor Smith didn't have an opportunity to speak to the North Carolinians. But this detracted none from the noise or liberality of the demonstrations. He was acclaimed the leader of Virginia and North Carolina during the day. This was sufficient to convince him that his stay was much too short. He should come again and let the people of these two States know more about him, rub shoulders and clasp hands, in order that they may know something more of the spirit to dominate the White House should he be elected."

"Mrs. Palmer Jerman had the pleasure of welcoming Governor Smith to North Carolina when the train rolled into the station at Norlina," reflected a Greenville man today.

"The people of this city will remember the recent visit of Mrs. Jerman to Greenville. She is a gifted orator, and it is safe to say she made the visiting candidate feel perfectly at home."

"As national committeewoman of North Carolina, Mrs. Jerman has been instrumental in greatly furthering the cause of Democracy. Her work should be of inestimable value in the approaching fight."

"Come to Greenville and do your fall and winter shopping," is the invitation extended by our merchants.

"Stocks were never before more complete than at this time. If you can't find what you want in your home town, visit the numbers of stores here and take advantage of the splendid bargains which they have to offer."

"Winter will soon be upon us, so see that you are properly clothed to withstand in the blast of cold weather."

"The price situation on the Greenville tobacco market compares favorably with any other market in the country," commented a man who makes it a point to keep informed upon developments in this particular branch of industry. When high prices are the order of the day, they may be found here. Good tobacco, as a rule, is always in demand by the big buying concerns. The farmer that gives his attention to the production of this grade will find it to his advantage.

"Watch the Greenville tobacco market. Compare the official figures with other markets and be convinced that the top of the market reigns here all the time."

UNIVERSITY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

N. C. State School Observes 135th Year of Its Founding At Chapel Hill.

Chapel Hill, Oct. 12—(AP)—The University of North Carolina, the oldest state university in America, the cornerstone of which was laid October 12, 1793, today celebrated its 135th birthday.

The annual procession formed in front of south building at 10:30 o'clock this morning and marched to Memorial Hall where the exercises were held, with President Harry W. Chase presiding.

Delivering the principal address, Robert Lathan, editor of the Asheville Citizen, declared that "it is the vigor, the faith and the intelligence with which North Carolina has accepted the Democratic principle during the past thirty years that has distinguished her beyond her neighbors."

Slavery and the civil war proved a great setback to the progress of the state, he said, "but the abolition of slavery came for North Carolina fortunately and at a fortunate time—before the system had gone so far here as to become a source of blight to the extent that it was true elsewhere; in time to release North Carolina from its handicaps and hazards and set her people free to develop their resources at the earliest favorable opportunity; in time, above all else, to allow her leadership to swing back to the true Democratic principle and set in motion once more forces that had been checked and thwarted so long."

"Outsiders are astonished at the progress of our schools and even more astonished at the sources of our road program," he said. "North Carolinians are astonished themselves at these things. But there is no mystery about any of it. The school movement which was initiated by Alderman and Aycock and McIver was but a revival of the movement which first fruited on this very spot a full century before. Where else could such a revival have been looked for with such assurance.

"Your fame has spread abroad. A year ago at Geneva I heard one of the greatest teachers in Europe speak of Chapel Hill as the 'intellectual dynamo of the south.' It is that, and more than that. It has proved itself a spiritual dynamo as well as an intellectual dynamo; and the energy generated here has quickened and can increasingly quicken the currents of life throughout this commonwealth and far beyond its borders. Thus, and thus only, can you fulfill the trust committed to your sacred keeping."

Doctor Removes His Own Appendix

Los Angeles, Oct. 12—(AP)—Robert Meals, young Hollywood surgeon, who three days ago received his own appendix, today said he felt well enough to get up and walk and "I would do so now instead of waiting the necessary ten days if I thought it would be safe."

Neither economy, necessity, nor desire for operation was an experiment to verify his previous conclusion that "the shock" which most patients suffer from operations was due largely to anesthesia rather than the operation itself.

ROBINSON IN CALIFORNIA

Democrat After Enough Votes To Swing Normally Republican State.

By RAYMOND Z. WENLE
 En Route With Senator Robinson To Seattle, Oct. 12—(AP)—Votes in California, enough of them to swing the normally Republican home state of Herbert Hoover into the Democratic column was the goal today of Senator Joe T. Robinson on his journey north from Nevada to Seattle and Portland.

Practically the whole of the day's ride from Reno, where the Democratic vice presidential nominee spoke last night, lay through northern California and his schedule called for as many rear platform speeches as operating stops permitted.

The decision to depart from his usual custom of merely appearing on the platform of his special car when his train stopped and instead to make brief addresses was reached after conferences with western campaign workers who told the nominee they considered the Democrats have a chance in California in spite of Republican claims. Senator Robinson himself declared he was completely taken by surprise at the reception accorded him in Hoover's state and that he would do everything possible during his brief stay in California to help the ticket.

Denny Elected As Head Of University Of Virginia Today

Lexington, Va., Oct. 12—(AP)—Dr. Henry Louis Smith, known as one of the most distinguished educators in the South, yesterday resigned as president of Washington and Lee University and in his stead Dr. George D. Denny, now president of the University of Alabama, was elected, it was announced by the board of trustees last night.

Dr. Denny has not indicated whether he will accept the office, declining to comment last night because, he said, he had not had time to consider the offer.

CURTIS REFUSES TO APPEAR AT ALBANY

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—A proposed appearance of Senator Curtis, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, in Albany, N. Y., the home town of Governor Smith, was vetoed today by the Republican candidate.

"I never have campaigned in the home city of an opponent," he declared, "and I am not going to start now. I don't play the game that way."

Plenty Apples.

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—An apple a day may keep the doctor away, but two apples per day would suit the fruit growers, with 10,000,000 bushels ready to market, a great deal better.

The Government Bureau of Agricultural Economics today pointed out that bumper crops of fruit have resulted in a consequent price drop.

Happy Over Divorce.

Chicago—(AP)—Eugenia Zicha, Countess of Czechoslovakia and opera singer, is happy to have received a divorce from Dr. Michael H. Yriak. She was so delighted that she kissed Judge Sabath—on the forehead.

Of course you want to vote in the coming election. It is your duty and privilege. In order to vote you must be properly registered and now is the time to make sure that you are. If you have not voted in a former general election, if you have become of age since then or if you have changed your place of residence since that time you must register to be eligible to vote on November 6. Don't put this matter off longer. Visit the registration booth at the court house or at your precinct polling place and get your name on the books.

VENI-VIDI-VICI

To those persons who have been claiming North Carolina for Hoover or naming it as a doubtful state, yesterday's gathering in Raleigh would truly have been an eye-sore for surely they would have faced the realization, from such a demonstration, that there are still enough true Democrats left in the Old North State to preserve our traditions. In the long history of our capital city there has never before been such a gathering of people from all sections, and if there were among those present any who did not favor Governor Smith they were changed by his winning manner during his brief stay or they went into hiding lest they feel out of place in such a gathering of representative North Carolina citizens. "Veni-Vidi-Vici" truly could be applied to Governor Smith's visit to North Carolina for close at hand wherever his train passed or wherever he stopped the demonstrations by the countless thousands was such as to convince the New

GENOA CELEBRATES DISCOVERY OF AMERICA

Genoa, Italy, Oct. 12.—(AP)—This city celebrated today the anniversary of the discovery of America by its native son, Christopher Columbus. A solemn te deum was celebrated this morning and Archbishop Inoretta laid wreaths at the house and at the monument of Columbus. All public buildings and many private dwellings were decorated with Italian and American flags. Tonight the public square will be illuminated for open air concerts.

BODY OF MISSING MAN FOUND IN THE WOODS

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 12.—(AP)—C. L. Nipper, 73, was found dead yesterday in a patch of woods near his home at Cary. He had been missing from his home since Saturday and was found by searchers who were drawn to the spot by carrion birds circling overhead. Nipper was said by relatives to have had upwards of $3,000 in cash buried in the woods and they expressed the belief that he had gone there to retrieve it. Coroner L. M. Waring, who made an investigation, said there was no evidence of foul play.

Queen Likely To Be Dethroned.

St. Louis.—(AP)—A Queen of love and beauty is likely to be dethroned because she is a bride. Mary Ambrose Smith, banker's daughter, presumed to be single, was crowned last week at the veiled Prophet's Ball, a society function. The rule is that the Queen shall remain unmarried during her reign of a year. It turns out that Miss Smith was married in August to Dr. T. C. Birdsall at Winston-Salem, N. C.

Archbishop Has Six Wives

Plock, Poland, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Archbishop Kowalski, head of the Maryavite church, a dissident Catholic sect, has been found guilty of offenses against the inmates of a Maryavite convent. He was sentenced to 32 months' imprisonment, but granted provisional liberty under bail. During the trial it was brought out that the archbishop has six wives.

today for another round of receptions and flying rear-platform campaigning. Before heading for Louisville, Ky., tonight, where tomorrow night he will deliver the first formal address of his second campaign tour, the Democratic presidential nominee faced a big reception in Chattanooga before noon and another late today in Nashville. Between these two cities, the governor's special train was to make a slight incursion into northern Alabama for a brief stop or two.

Touched by the warmth of his reception yesterday in Virginia and North Carolina, the nominee heeded demands for an informal speech in both Richmond and Raleigh, the two state capitals, and used "Dixie" and "The Sidewalks of New York" which bands had played for him en route, as an illustration that sectionalism no longer existed in the United States.

"We all belong to the one great family of states that make the greatest nation in the world," he told a large and demonstrative audience in the Raleigh auditorium, "and we are all the same, no matter where we are to be found, provided we are well intentioned and we have our minds on the single objective of what is best for the greatest number."

Most of the Raleigh speech was a reception of his impromptu Richmond talk, made inside the Old Dominion capitol building, but the crowd that jammed into the auditorium upon the governor's heels, after being informed at the last minute that the New Yorker was to be officially welcomed to North Carolina there, was receptive from the moment Joseph Daniels introduced Gov. and Mrs. Smith until the nominee had concluded his brief address.

No one, not even the governor, knew in advance of the plans in store for him at the auditorium. In fact, it was learned later that he was to have been requested to make his talk at a hotel. Consequently the crowds that had been waiting at the hotel, upon being informed of the switch in plans, swept like wildfire to the auditorium and reached it just as the governor was being escorted—almost carried—into the ball. The place easily was filled in five minutes.

Introduced by the former secretary of the navy as the "next president of the United States," the nominee brought his first big response when he made joint reference to the turnes of "Dixie" and "The Sidewalks of New York."

"And I am entirely satisfied from the cordial and, I might say, affectionate greeting of the people of this section of the South, he said at one point, "that the two tines can be blended together."

Leaving the auditorium, the nominee, at the head of a long automobile procession, was taken through cheering crowds on a tour which led past the state capitol and three miles out of the city to a place called Method, where his special train had been switched during the hour, and a half stay in the Tarheel State capital. Here, while waiting for his train to pull up, the governor stood in his automobile autographing college student brown derbies and shaking hands with scores who climbed all over his car.

Once out of Raleigh, another series of stops were made for rear-platform appearances. These bore heavily into the time the nominee wished to devote to the preparation of his Louisville address. He would not disclose the topic of that speech, but in concluding his Raleigh remarks he requested his listeners to tune in on the radio Saturday night for he would talk "on a very interesting subject."

Durham, Greensboro, Salisbury and Charlotte were greeted in the order named, crowds gathering about the rear of the special train at each city and pushing and stampeding for a clasp of the New Yorker's hand and for a better view of his new brown derby. Mrs. Smith also took a leading part in the greeting of the throngs, while Mrs. John A. Warner and Mrs. Francis J. Quillinan, daughters of the nominee, also put in appearances on the platform and helped distribute campaign buttons.

At Greensboro, Gov. Smith detoured for a brief automobile tour of the downtown section where thousands cheered him to echo. He made no speech there. At one point in the procession of his car was halted so he could shake the hand of Maria Pope, an invalid 96 years old, who had been taken from St. Leo's Hospital, where she has been a patient for fifteen years, to greet Governor Smith from an ambulance.

He made another brief auto tour in Charlotte, where a large crowd greeted him in the torch-light parade. At Burlington, another large crowd appeared to greet the nominee, but his train was making up just time and did not stop. Later, from the train, the governor sent a message to the people of Burlington expressing his regret that "train conditions" prevented his stopping there and thanking the Burlington citizens "for their rousing cheers and good wishes" caught on the fly.

The governor also addressed a message of appreciation to the young people's Democratic clubs of the state "for their enthusiastic and loyal support." "I will never forget their loyalty," he said, "and am confident of their ability to cooperate in the carrying of North Carolina to a great Democratic victory on November 6th." Governor Norton, of Tennessee; Senator McKeller and the entire Democratic congressional delegation from that state, had planned to board the Democratic special at Chattanooga today to welcome Governor Smith to the southern border state and to accompany him to the capital at Nashville where a parade, similar to the long motorcades in the "Solid South" capitals yesterday, was understood to have been arranged.

GEORGIA ALL SET FOR GAME WITH YALE

By HERBERT W. BARKER
New York, Oct. 12—(AP)—Representing the end of the St. Louis Cardinals, Georgia's football warriors will meet Yale at the stadium at New Haven on Saturday.

Before the late world series the New York Yankees were supposed to be at the stadium. The Cardinals, however, were rather lively during the ball game.

Yale has been unable to send his first team through a single scrimmage this week. All the other teams have been in action since the beginning of the season. The Cardinals have a record of 1-0, while the Yankees have a record of 0-1.

Although they battled for as long as Georgia, Princeton and Harvard may be put to considerable trouble to beat Virginia and North Carolina, respectively. Virginia is expected to be a strong South Carolina eleven last Saturday but has had a week to correct the mistakes of that encounter. North Carolina turned back Maryland 26-10.

Duke gets the jump on its southern competitors in the present invasion of the north, meeting Boston College today. The Durham, N. C. College turned loose a bewildering flood of forward passes to Jerry Backus, College under a 25-0 count last year, and showed another impressive aerial offensive in trouncing south Dakota last week.

Allentown, Pa.—Johny McGinnis, Allentown, outpointed Pancho Brown, Philadelphia (10).
McKeesport, Pa.—Ike McFowler, Allentown, Pa., outpointed Joe Smith, Toledo (10).

DUKE PLAYS AT BOSTON

Boston, Mass., Oct. 12—(AP)—Duke University's Blue Devils from North Carolina and Boston college will meet here today for the second gridiron clash between the two elevens. Duke won last season over Boston, 25 to 6.

Both teams were reported this morning in excellent physical condition. The North Carolinians arrived here last night. They were accompanied by the University of North Carolina squad as far as Washington. The University squad remained overnight at Washington in order to get a workout here today before proceeding to Boston to meet the Harvard aggregation Saturday. The Chapel Hill group is, however, expected to reach here this afternoon in time to witness the Duke-Boston game as guests of the teams, and the compliment will be returned on the following afternoon when guest tickets are passed out to the Duke players for the Carolina-Harvard game.

Probable lineup for today's game announced by the coaches early today are:

Duke	Position	Boston
Warren	Left End	Doxon
Hunter	Center	Kilroy
Thorne	Right Guard	Wilczowski
Brummitt	Right Tackle	McGuirk
Klister	Right End	Murphy
Buis	Quarter Back	Weston
Hatcher	Left Hand	Marrin
Janoski	Right Hand	Creeden
Murray	Full Back	Smith

Officials: Kelly, Harvard; Referee, Bergen, Princeton; Umpire, Hallahan, Boston; Headlinesman, Sherlock, Harvard. Game begins 2:30 p. m. Place, Fedway Park, Boston.

Fights Last Night

(By the Associated Press.)
New York—Rene Devos, Belgium, outpointed K. O. Phil Kaplan, New York (10); Mixie Rosenbloom, New York, outpointed Tiger Payne, Australia (10).
Davenport, Iowa—Tuffy Griffith, Sioux City, Iowa, outpointed Kayo White, New Orleans (10); Joey Thomas, Toledo, outpointed "Snake" Aguinado, Philippines (10).
Huron, S. D.—Bob Stenag, Winder, S. D., outpointed Howard Otterson, Sioux Falls, S. D. (10).

Walter Johnson May Manage The 1929 Senators

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—The way apparently was cleared today for the triumphal return to Washington of Walter Johnson, not as a pitcher, but as manager of the team for which he toiled for twenty years.
President Clark Griffith, on being informed the Newark, N. J., club would not place obstacles in the path of the veteran pitcher's promotion, said that if Newark would let him go, Washington would sign him.

If Johnson is given the management of the Senators he will replace Stanley Harris, who was recently relieved of command. The ultimate destination of Harris has not been determined, although it has been predicted freely that he would lead another Major League club, with Detroit foremost in the gossip.

Johnson took over the Newark club at the beginning of last season. He was ill much of the time during which the team was in training and did not produce a consistent winner. There is much sentiment in Washington for him, however, and a determined effort had been made by some of his friends to have him return to the only Major League club for which he has ever worked. There has been no indication here that Johnson has accepted the management of the Washington team, although he has had at least one conference with Griffith.

V. M. I. LOOKS LIKE ONE MAN OUTFIT TODAY

(His is the fourteenth of a series dealing with Southern conference football prospects):

By HORACE C. RENEGAR, Lexington, Va., Oct. 12.—(AP)—The flying squadron of Virginia Military this season—to the brutally frank critic it is namely a "one man team"—but the power of A. B. Barnes is not to be taken lightly.

Medium in built, almost small, Barnes carries the necessary versatility to throw construction into the ranks of any team. He passes exceedingly well, punts above average and runs like a scared rabbit. And in Moss, he has an end who can get many of the passes, but whose lack of natural running ability handicaps him in getting away. This Barnes last season threw Georgia Tech and others into an uproar with his lightning-like tactics and most opponents were glad when the game had ended. Only a week ago he shot eight passes to completion through the defense of the Golden Tornado.

He also hikes a punt or kick off with the best of them, can slip through any field, broken or otherwise, and has to be watched carefully all the time.

Coach Bill Rafferty has constructed a fair, but not sensational team, to aid him—yet these cadets may get going anytime, and if they do their opponents can look for trouble.

At ends, aside from Moss, Coach Rafferty has Scott, Palmer, Moody and Ben Smith, all well built and agile and carrying enough experience to make them valuable.

The tackles number Hewlett and Dunn, both veterans, and Grow, Gravatt and Wender. F. Haase, Smith, Ford and Willard handle the guard position and V. Grow, Chadwick and C. Haase give the Cadets three good pivot men.

This line contains plenty of experience and a fair amount of weight—enough probably to be heard from yet.

While the backfield has shown no offense with the exception of Barnes' pyrotechnics, the experience of Hawkins, Harner and Holtzclaw should prove or merit one of these Saturdays soon. Laughorn, Williams, McCrary, Biggs and Walker are other back to alternate as the need may arise.

And in closing, the Cadets showing against Georgia Tech doesn't stamp the team as a pushover. Not by any means. Tornado followers modestly admit Tech is probably better than at any time since 1917, and the score was only 13 to 0.

Famous Football Star Sentenced To San Quentin

Los Angeles, Oct. 12.—(AP)—In strange contrast to the thunderous applause which followed Johnny Hawkins, four years ago when he was Captain and Star quarterback of the University of Southern California football team, the former grid hero heard a sentence of from five to seventy-five years imprisonment for burglary pronounced against him in court here yesterday.

The one-time hero of thousands of students on the University campus and the idol of Southern California grid fans stood with head bowed when his long personal appeal for probation was denied and sentence to San Quentin was pronounced.

Hawkins pleaded guilty to five charges of burglary after being caught robbing a house here last January. Discovery later of $35,000 worth of plunder in his home resulted in thirty charges of burglary being placed against him.
