AL SMITH OFF FOR MISSOURI EARLY TODAY

Democratic Candidate Spent Sunday At Lincoln's Birthplace in Kentucky.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Governor Smith's Train En Route To Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 15.—(AP)—After a Sabbath day visit to Lincoln's birthplace near Hodgenville, Ky., Governor Smith was bound today for Sedalia, Mo., where tomorrow night he will deliver the first of two campaign speeches before returning to New York State next Sunday to lay the groundwork for his final two weeks' drive for the presidency.

An address at Chicago Friday night will close this week's speech-making for the Democratic presidential candidate. After a two-day layover in Albany he will get under way again for perhaps campaign addresses before starting on his sea-speech dash down the Atlantic seaboard ending at New York City Saturday night before election.

Enroute to Sedalia, due to be reached at 6 o'clock this evening, the governor had planned a two and a half hour visit to St. Louis, home of Senator Harry B. Hawes, a Democrat's regional campaign manager, between 11:00 a. m. and 3:30 p. m., for a big parade and reception in his honor. A five minute stop at Belleville, in southern Illinois, for a rear platform appearance was scheduled before reaching St. Louis.

In coming to the border state of Missouri, the Democratic nominee also visits the home state of Senator James A. Reed, one of his opponents for the Houston nomination, and a region that, as a rule, fairly boils in political debate in presidential years. This year is no exception.

Arriving in Sedalia, Governor Smith will go into seclusion to work on his address, to be delivered tomorrow night in a huge closed-in livestock pavilion. Special trains are expected to bring thousands from all over the state to hear the speech.

The nominee will leave Sedalia Wednesday morning for Chicago, stopping to greet well-wishers at Springfield and Bloomington. Before reaching Chicago at 9:45 p. m., he will make another pause at Joliet.

Three nights will be spent in the Lake Michigan city, and Thursday and Friday are expected to be devoted to preparation of his second address of the week and conferences with party leaders. Leaving Chicago Saturday morning, the Democratic special will head across Indiana and Ohio for the New York State capital. A tentative schedule calls for a visit of probably an hour in Indianapolis.

It is not known definitely what Gov. Smith's plans are for next week.

As his train cut across Kentucky last night for the Missouri river, Gov. Smith carried with him inspiring recollections of his trip yesterday to the Lincoln shrine on top of a little knoll two miles south of Hodgenville.

Borah To Speak At Richmond, Va.

Washington, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Following close along the trail of Governor Smith through Southern States, Senator Borah of Idaho, one of the leading Republican campaigners, left Washington today to deliver a series of speeches which will start with an address tonight at Richmond, Va.

From the Old Dominion State capital, the scene of a reception and speech by the Democratic presidential nominee last week, the Idaho senator will go to Charlotte, N. C., to speak Wednesday night. His next objective will be Chattanooga, Tenn., where he will make on Thursday night another address replying to some of Governor Smith's campaign expressions and follow that Friday night with a speech at Louisville, Ky., the scene of Governor Smith's tariff address.

From Louisville, the Idahoan is expected to leave the train of the Democratic nominee and go to Dallas, Tex., to deliver a speech on Monday, October 22. His campaign schedule after Dallas has not yet been formulated.

President Congratulates German Airship On Successful Crossing Atlantic

Washington, Oct. 15.—(AP)—President Coolidge today radioed his congratulations to Dr. Hugo Eckener on board the airship Graf Zeppelin on his successful crossing of the Atlantic. Simultaneously, he radioed congratulations to President Von Hindenburg, of Germany. Dr. Eckener had, upon reaching the American line, radioed greetings to Mr. Coolidge.

"It gives me great pleasure," President Coolidge radioed Dr. Eckener, "to congratulate you upon the success of your voyage from Germany and to assure you that your arrival is welcomed as a symbol of the advance in air transportation which has been so ably furthered by your own efforts and those of your compatriots. I wish also to thank you for the message of greeting from you and the crew of the Graf Zeppelin upon crossing the coast line of the United States in this first trip by airship with passengers and mail from Germany to this country."

From the airship Dr. Eckener had radioed Mr. Coolidge as follows: "At the moment of reaching the American coast line on this diversified and very interesting initial crossing of the Atlantic ocean by airship with passengers and mail from Germany to America, in which we have had as comrade and experienced friend, Lieut. Commander Rosendahl, of the U. S. navy, the commander and crew of the

CHINESE TONG AT WAR AGAIN IN NEW YORK

Member Of Hip Sing Tong Shot To Death In Chicago Warfare

New York, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Chinese Tong wars were at war again today. The death toll soon after the outbreak Sunday was: One in Chicago, one in New York, one in Philadelphia, two in Washington.

Police guarded Chinese sections of these and other cities. Was Wong Chu, a New York waiter, played cards with a dozen other Hip Sing Tong men in his apartment. Agun described as an agent, pushed open the door, shot Wong Chu four times and killed him and then turned the gun on Won Wai, wounding him.

Eng Pak, a restaurant cook and member of the Hip Sing Tong, was shot by two men as he sat in a taxi in the heart of Chicago's Lon Leon Tong neighborhood.

Lin Sing, 72, of Boston, an On Leung, was killed in a pistol duel with two Chinese in Philadelphia. Two Chinese were killed and two others wounded in the outbreak of Tong warfare in Washington.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Flames of Tong war, kindled by a gambling dispute in New York, leaped the intervening miles last night, and one Chinese paid with his life. Oriental vengeance was coupled with accidental technique in the assassination of Eng Pak, 40, member of the Hip Sing Tong, who was put "on the spot" and shot dead in front of the Toy Den Quay Theatre on Archer avenue. ## Fascism Gains Prominent Place In Italy and China

By MELVIN E. COLEMAN

Cable Editor The Associated Press. Fascism in varying forms has been prominent in recent foreign news dispatches. The Italian victory was emphasized by Premier Mussolini at a press conference. The Austrian party that is trying to use Mussolini tactics against the Social Democrats of that country, was summoned to confer with its political foes, and China inaugurated a new government plan that gives promise of developing along fascist lines so far as one party control of national affairs is concerned.

Il Duce laid down the law for the press of Italy. He told the editors that they could call attention to his modest capabilities as a "violet player," but he warned them that "on questions strictly political, or others essential for the success of the regime, criticism is not allowed."

China's new government scheme contemplates that the Kuomintang, the political party which manages the whole Nationalist movement, shall be the source of power and its central executive council, the court of last resort on all government questions. Directly responsible to that central council there has been established a state council of sixteen members, with the chairman, Chiang Kaishek, recognized as "president of the national government," when personation of the institution is needed. Among the sixteen are the heads of the "Yuan" or administrative boards and reporting to each of these board are various ministers and other governmental departments.

Recent dispatches have revealed that there has been bitter religious strife in the province of In Kansas since April and to the horrors of merciless warfare have been added droughts, crop failures and famine. The fighting started when Mohammedans failed to obtain annulment of certain heavy taxes. It was fanned into fury by attempts to establish Nationalist reforms which interfered with cherished practices of Moslems.

In Austria the Fascists have been trying to overawe the Socialists by mass meetings to which armed and uniformed followers marched in impressive formations. The Social Democrats responded in kind and there have grown up "private armies" in the political groups.

BROWN DERBY CAUSES SMITH MUCH WORRY

Spectators Call For Headgear At Every Stopping Place Along Route.

By MARTHA DALRYMPLE (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Governor Smith's Train En Route to St. Louis, Oct. 15.—(AP)—A simple little brown derby has caused more grief in Governor Smith's party than any other one item in the campaign tour. It is constantly being lost, stolen, given away, or just disastrously missing for a few hours. Periodically a new custodian is appointed, and just as periodically is ousted for incompetence.

As part of the governor's campaign paraphernalia, the brown derby has become an essential part of his every appearance and cries from outraged spectators at every stopping place greet the candidate if he appears without the headgear that has been so long associated with him, since the early days, 25 years ago, when he first arrived in Albany as a debonair young legislator.

On the first trip the governor provided himself with two extras, explaining that it was always well to be prepared. He returned to the executive mansion in Albany with only one, the one he waved at his home town welcome. He has kept the fact of the number of reserves on this trip as a dead secret, fearful lest some logical adviser should demand one as a souvenir.

Alfred, Jr., the governor's oldest son, who is a member of the traveling party, has assumed the role of guardian of the brown derby, and until the Louisville speech had carried out his task successfully.

But a mishap Saturday night when young Al attempted to hand the derby to Bill Roy, the governor's special bodyguard, over the head of the crowd and an unidentified person intercepted it, has caused some speculation among members of the party as to the length of Al's tenure of office.

"Well, I tried to fix it up all right, when I lost the hat," explained young Smith; "I came right back to the hotel and got the manager of the men's shop in the hotel to open up. But he was all sold out of brown derbies.

"And now the boss has to wear one that's too small for him."

F. P. LATHAM IS SPEAKER AT FARM MEETING

Belhaven Man Stressed Need Of Live At Home Program Here Saturday Night.

Pitt County Agricultural Association had sixty representative Pitt county farmers as guests met Saturday evening from 7 to 9:30 at the Rotary building in Greenville to enjoy feast of food and thought.

This association has adopted as its motto: "Better Farming and Homes," and has outlined plans for 1929 farming, to-wit: 1. Plan within your capacity. 2. Plan for home supplies—food and feed. 3. Plan for surpluses and markets. 4. Plan to use farm and home agents.

Mr. Fred P. Latham, an outstanding successful farmer of Belhaven, addressed the meeting on these plans. His address emphasized advantages to be had from following the above outlined plan. To him it seems positively necessary that such be followed. He contrasted the prosperity of the cotton sections and the tobacco sections with those diversifying. In the latter he showed that prosperity is more general; indebtedness is less; homes are better and the people live in less strain.

The farming interest was begged to think, live and work as farmers in a systematic and business-like way. That their interest is the very largest in East Carolina, but that interest has not been harmonious and co-operative in the past. Any term was not used as being in any way connected with the corporation by name now bankrupt. That the other four major interests here are: Merchandising, banking, transportation and fertilizer manufacture.

That the four are co-operating splendidly; that their interests are in a degree competitive with that of farming and with each other. This drives the farming interest to stand together, think together, live and work co-operatively among themselves. That perhaps such would induce better prices for farm products and a more equitable distribution of tax burden.

This was the fourth of a series of such meetings and was, certainly, one of the most optimistic constructive meetings ever held among business interest in this section. Mr. Latham's address was the one outstanding and constructive features of the meeting.

HOOVER WILL APPEAR AT BOSTON, MASS.

Republican Nominee To Make Address at Educational Center Tonight.

By JAMES L. WEST, Associated Press Staff Writer
Hoover Train En Route to Boston, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover journey to New England today to throw his own weight into the presidential fight in this usual stronghold of Republicanism.

His personal campaigning was limited to a day and a night and confined to the State of Massachusetts. It begins early at the city of Springfield and will end late tonight with his prepared address at the Arena in Boston where he will discuss the tariff, foreign trade and the merchant marine.

Before reaching Boston, two speeches were planned, one on a platform near the track where his train will stop at Springfield at 8:30 a. m., and the other in front of the station at Worcester, at 10:15 a. m. Brevity was necessary as stops of fifteen minutes' duration were scheduled. In Boston, however, speeches were on the program in addition to the principal address in

LOS ANGELES READY TO AID BIG ZEPPELIN

Sister Ship Of German Bag Arrived In America Four Years Ago Today.

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 15.—(AP)—The little sister of the world's biggest airship was ready today for rescue work.

Four years ago today the U. S. S. Los Angeles arrived at the naval air station after a flight from Friedrichshafen, Germany, and today, gas filled and fueled and ready for the air, it was in condition, should conditions warrant, to offer assistance to the Graf Zeppelin flying its tortuous way to Lakehurst from Friedrichshafen.

Just what assistance the Los Angeles might render the Graf, should the larger ship run out of fuel or prove to be more seriously disabled than reports of a damaged vein yesterday indicated, remained a matter of conjecture. But officers asserted it was far from an impossibility that the smaller ship might drop a tow line to the newcomer and tow her into port like a tug escorting a liner.

Many People Interested In Coming Of Gardner

Prominent business and professional men of Greenville today were looking forward with interest to the appearance here Wednesday night of O. Max Gardner of Shelby, Democratic nominee for governor of North Carolina, who is scheduled to make his first political address at the courthouse at eight o'clock.

"Max Gardner is one of the best informed men of the state," E. G. Flanagan, well known business and political leader, who was one of North Carolina's delegates to notification ceremonies of Gov. Alfred E. Smith sometime ago, said today. "Greenville and Pitt county people should turn out in large numbers and hear this apostle of Democracy." Mrs. Flanagan continued. "He knows North Carolina's needs better than any man of the present day, and his address here will contain a great store of information affecting our people."

"This will be the greatest speaking tour of the campaign," declared Marvin Blount, local attorney, who is scheduled to introduce Mr. Gardner. "We have had other big men from time to time, but this is the first time that a candidate for any high office of the state has visited us."

"The courtroom should be packed to capacity. Mr. Gardner always draws big crowds wherever he goes. It is certain that Pitt county will show as much enthusiasm and interest as any other section."

"Everybody knows Max Gardner," said W. E. Hooks, of Ayden, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive Committee. "He is one of the most outstanding figures in the public life of the state. His speeches have been instrumental in arousing Democrats wherever he has appeared and I am confident he will be greeted by a huge crowd in Greenville. Max Gardner knows the main issues of the day and what he has to say invariably colors the thinking of that great mass of supporters throughout the state."

Mr. Hooks stated that final plans had already been completed for Mr. Gardner's coming. It was announced at first that he would speak at 7:30 o'clock, but the hour was changed today until eight o'clock in order to give everybody ample time to reach the courthouse after supper.

Special arrangements have been made for the numbers of women expected to attend and it is hoped every seat will be occupied.

After Passing Over Washington and Philadelphia, Silver Bag Visits New York Before Proceeding To Hangar At New Jersey; Thousands See World's Largest Airship As She Flies Along Coast Completing Record-Breaking Trip Across Atlantic.

The Graf Zeppelin, German's greatest leviathan of the air, saluted the capital of the United States this afternoon and then showed her silvery sides high in the air to thousands in other cities before turning to her waiting berth in Lakehurst, N. J.

The Graf Zeppelin, which left New York City at 11:30 p. m.

Sighting land on the American continent near Cape Charles, Va., at about 10 o'clock, the airship cruised up the Chesapeake and arrived over Washington at 12:30 p. m. Baltimore, which registered her first successful commercial air crossing of the Atlantic at exactly 1 o'clock, the next day. The "list" was Wilmington, and then Philadelphia.

The dirigible, nearing the end of her 6,500-odd mile flight from Friedrichshafen, had completed all previous records for sustained flight by her type of aircraft.

The old Zeppelin record of 101 hours fell at 7 a. m., the mark of the ill-fated French Dirigible, which had remained aloft for 104 hours, was broken, at 10 a. m. and the world record of 108 hours made by the English R-34 in her westward Atlantic flight was in the discard at 2 p. m., when the Graf Zeppelin was over Elkhart, Md.

An intercepted message from the Graf Zeppelin to Lakehurst said the ship would pass over Trenton, N. J., and New York, and arrive at Lakehurst about 5:30 p. m.

Washington, Oct. 15.—(AP)—The giant dirigible Graf Zeppelin which for four days has battled through stormy weather over the Atlantic from Germany to Lakehurst, N. J., today, arrived over Washington at 12:31 p. m.

The Zeppelin supplemented its message and requested permission to pass over Washington at about 12 o'clock. Naval authorities said that this permission was granted.

The Zeppelin appeared to increase her speed as she began to fade into the distance in the direction of Baltimore.

As the dirigible faded into the distance, Secretary Wilbur, of the navy, Representative Darrow, Republican of Pennsylvania, had just been informed of the airship's arrival, rushed to the roof of the Navy Department to view her.

The big craft was sighted from the east and approached the city over the capitol building. The sky was overcast.

The airship was traveling rapidly, assisted by a trail wind of approximately 20 miles an hour.

She loomed up in the east when thousands of spectators from roofs of buildings were looking toward the south and southeast for her. She bulked huge in the clouds as she traveled steadily toward the heart of the city.

Changing her course to the west, she headed right over the city toward the White House. Her silver nose began to glisten as the outline became more definite and she seemed to maneuver without any difficulty. Apparently freed from the elements that attempted to stay her progress, her record-breaking trip across the Atlantic she almost gaily roared her way over the American capital.

The big airship circled directly above the Business heart of Washington as it made its way to pass above the White House. She was close down above the heads of the fringe of people on every high roof. The sound of her motors thrummed in the streets below, calling attention to her presence.

OKLAHOMA IS IN THROES OF HOT CAMPAIGN

State In Grip Of Vast Dispute Over Two Presidential Candidates.

By BYRON PRICE
Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 15.—(AP)—If anyone is longing for a taste of the good, old-fashioned brand of scorching politics, he has but to come to Oklahoma in the final weeks of this campaign.

The State is in the grip of one vast dispute over Smith and Hoover, running to issues of the most peppery character, and embracing many recognized uncertainties. Although in mid-October both sides are predicting victory, they both talk of shifting tides and a still silent vote, which is another way of saying that no one has been quite able to fathom all that may be going on beneath the frothy surface.

In the past there has been much talk of "whispering" in Oklahoma, but certainly at this stage the campaign is far from voiceless. It challenges attention in unexpected ways, fighting from a train here, in the State capital, the Associated Press reporter encountered an extremely vocal pack of newsmen, whose clamorous sales talk was composed entirely of political headlines. The smallest of the lot, as he counted out change, looked up eagerly and asked, "Are you for A. or Hoover?"

What does this incident over-draw the picture. The rival party headquarters here are not the decorous, proper hearing political sanctuaries common to latter day campaigns. They are crowded with animated and very busy workers. Tables and floors are strewn with a disarray of many kinds of campaign literature. In the entrance halls and on the sidewalks outside stand knots of voters arguing it out to their own satisfaction.

The inquirer who asked Democratic headquarters what this was all about was answered with the single word: "Religion". The answer to the same question across the street at Republican headquarters was "Prohibition. Immigration. Use of Coorsage pouches, the records of the candidate". When the inquiry was transferred to the Anti-Smith headquarters around the corner, the head of that organization replied that so far as he was concerned, the outstanding issue was "Tramman".

A few historical hearings are illuminating. Oklahoma has voted for but one Republican for president, and that in the Harding landslide of 1920. Four years ago, in the Coolidge landslide, the State gave Davis 255,798; Coolidge 226,242 and LaFollette 41,141, but in that same election, on an entirely different set of issues, it elected a Republican senator by a margin of 148,000. Seven of the eight congressional districts are represented in the house at Washington by Democrats.

It so happened that interest in the McNary-Haugen bill has centered in the one Republican district, comprising the northwestern corner of the State, and including many wheat farmers. Hoover's nomination was followed by some Republican objections there, but the State as a whole is dry, and was once a strong Klan State. Four days after Smith was nominated at Houston, "The Anti-Smith Democratic organization" of Oklahoma was organized.

Chairman Raskob insists, however, that the state is fair fighting ground, and three weeks ago Governor Smith came to Oklahoma City, assailed former Senator Owen, and denounced the campaign against his record and his religion.

The speech of the Democratic nominee here was followed by an appreciable increase in the activity of the Democratic state headquarters, which seconded his stand by charging openly that the Hoover campaign in Oklahoma was based on the religious issue. The Republicans denied that they had sponsored any talk about religion, and they now say that if the religious issue is in the campaign, the Democrats put it there. Anti-Smith Democratic headquarters interpreted the governor's remarks to the voters as an accusation of bigotry against the State of Oklahoma.

This flight has filled the American people with admiration and has marked another step in the progress of the development of air communication."

North Carolina to Vote On Three Amendments In The November Election

By H. M. LONDON

Legislative Reference Unraveled

At the next election three amendments to the Constitution of North Carolina will be submitted to the people.
The first amendment provides for an increase of pay for the members of the Legislature so that they shall each receive a salary for the term of their offices of $600 but no allowance for mileage. The present pay is $4 a day not exceeding 60 days and 10 cents per mile each way as a mileage allowance.

The second amendment provides for solicitorial districts, granting to the Legislator the power to increase or decrease the number of judges without increasing the number of solicitors or vice versa as needed. The State Bar Association has unanimously endorsed this amendment.

The third amendment is the most important. This is known as the taxation amendment, amending section III of Article V, and authorizing the classification of intangible personal property.
In the constitution as now written, all property of every description is required to be taxed by a uniform rule. That section alone provides machinery for what is known as the home exemption provision. The rest of the section contains authority to tax trades, professions, franchises, and incomes.

The amendment to this section changes it materially. The rule of uniformity required in the old section is eliminated entirely except as to real property and tangible personal property as follows:
"The rate of taxation on real property and tangible personal property shall be uniform within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax"—then comes the vital feature of the amendment—but tangible personal property may be classified by the General Assembly which shall prescribe a uniform rate of taxation throughout the State for each class."

The object of this new provision is to permit a different rate of taxation for intangible personal property such as bonds, notes, investments in stock, and all other chosen in action from that imposed upon tangible real and personal property. It is said that the universal experience of imposing a moderate rate of tax upon what is known as solvent credits results in increasing largely the amount of such solvent credits given in for taxation. This amendment, too, seems to permit a classification of the various kinds of solvent credits. The home exemption feature of the existing section is entirely stricken out but that in relation to the taxation of trades, professions, franchises and incomes is identical in every particular with the part of the old section that deals with this subject.

As was recently stated by Assistant Attorney-General Nash: "Not only must the same rate be levied, but the method of assessment must be the same uniformly. As a result of this so far as ordinary solvent credits are concerned, the only persons who give them in for taxation are those scrupulously honest and trustees in charge of trust funds or the benefit of wives, orphans or incompetents, the latter class recording them for taxation because a record of such solvent credits is kept."
"This method of taxation is not only unfair, but is an absolute temptation to dishonesty. It is unfair in that anyone who wishes to borrow money on a first mortgage cannot get it without in some form paying usurious interest. No one will lend money on six percent interest on a first mortgage when he will have to pay out, as he has to do in the city of Raleigh 284 percent of this six percent in taxes, and in some cities an even larger rate. And 3.16 per cent can in no way compensate the lender of money. Consequently the system, as it is, is unfair to borrowers."
"It is dishonest, because much the larger number of holders of solvent credits fail to give them in at tax assessing time on account of the burden of taxation upon them. Thus it is a constant temptation to take false oaths, when oaths are administered, and to deprive the county of taxes that legitimately belong to it."
"When scrupulously honest persons give in solvent credits for taxes or when trustees of widows, orphans or incompetents are compelled to give in such solvent credits, they are in reality bearing a much greater burden than is fair, just or right."
"The proposed amendment does away with this by permitting solvent credits to be classified for a different rate of taxes from that of real estate and personal property. If a low rate of taxation is set for solvent credits and is made applicable to all classes of solvent credits, then it is astonishing how rapidly and how greatly this class of property is increased upon the tax list."
"This has been the experience of every State that has adopted this system. These nearby States are Virginia, Maryland and Kentucky. In Maryland when the system was put in force there, taxable intangibles increase from six to sixty million dollars. In 1922 they had increased to 300 million dollars in 1927 to 400 million."
"A recent experience in North Carolina is to some extent an illustration of this principle. In 1921 when the State ceased to levy an ad valorem tax, there were about 205 millions listed in the various counties of the State, the tax rate then being an average of 78 cents.

CHINESE TONG AT WAR AGAIN IN NEW YORK

Chinese, fled through the streets of Chicago's Chinatown, escaping.

While police reserves were being deployed about Chinatown, another shooting took place farther south. Willie Took, owner of the China Cafe on East 43rd street, was fired upon through the window of the restaurant. He suffered a flesh wound in the neck, and two negro patrons were wounded, not seriously.

The slaying of Eng Pak, a cook, might easily have been a gang killing, so closely did it follow the style of Chicago Gunmen executions. A Chinese told Edward Bernstein, a cab driver, that a fare awaited in front of the Toy Den Quay Theatre.

When Bernstein halted his cab in front of the theatre, the Chinese who had spoken to him ushered Pak to the motorcar and held the door open for Pak to enter. Thus the victim was put on the spot. His assailants stepped forward as Pak leaned toward the driver to give instructions. Two revolvers, held close against his side, were fired and Pak dropped. Those who shot him ran.

Impactical, it still might be possible to lower fuel for continuance of the journey from one ship to the other.
But all official word was to the effect that no real anxiety was felt for the Graf Zeppelin despite its many hours in the air.
Roads for miles about the hangar were congested with tangled traffic composed of the thousands of automobiles in which a Sunday multitude had come to see the overseas ship and had tried to go home all at once when it was learned that the new Zeppelin would not arrive until today. It was the worst traffic snarl in the memory of the state police who labored through the night to unravel it, and thoun-

Leaders from Massachusetts and neighboring States were invited to confer with the nominee during the afternoon.

Accompanying the nominee, who left Washington shortly after midnight last night, were Mrs. Hoover; their son, Allan, George Akerson and Larry Richey, assistants to Hoover; Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, member of Congress from Massachusetts; Representative and Mrs. Charles L. Underhill, also of the Bay State, and Representative Franklin W. Fort of New Jersey, secretary of the Republican National committee.

tion of passers-by who stopped to stare up at the gigantic vessel.

As the ship approached the White House, President Coolidge left his desk and went out in front of the executive offices to stand a moment, almost unnoticed in the little group gathered there. He stared up at the ship, bareheaded for a minute, then turned back into his work-room.

Circling after passing over the White House, she headed out for Baltimore with a dozen airplanes roaring alongside her.

The ship took a turn over the Navy Department building as planes from the naval air station loomed into the air in greeting. She then sailed over historic Potomac park and around the Washington monument, over the White House and then after completing her great circle, bore away due north for Baltimore. At 12:38 the ship was almost lost to sight in a high mist from the center of the city.

The big ship arrived over the capital as thousands of government workers were out for lunch and the streets were crowded with spectators.

Cream of Celery Soup, For Eight 1 cup diced celery; 2 tablespoons chopped onions; 3 tablespoons chopped green peppers; 3 cups water; 1 teaspoon salt. Mix the ingredients and cook slowly in a covered pan for 25 minutes. Strain thoroughly into the sauce mixture.

Sauce Mixture 3 tablespoons butter; 4 tablespoons flour; 4 cups milk; 1 teaspoon salt; 1-4 teaspoon paprika; 1-2 cup whipped cream; 2 tablespoons chipped parsley. Melt the butter and add the flour. Blend well and add the milk and cook until a creamy sauce forms. Stir frequently to prevent scorching. Add the salt, paprika and strained celery mixture. Cook for 1 minute. Serve in hot cups and add portions of whipped cream and sprinkle with parsley.

Use a coarse meshed strainer or colander to strain the celery mixture. As much as possible of the vegetables should be pushed through the strainer with the aid of a potato masher or cup.

Pineapple Sherbet. 2 cups water; 2 cups sugar; 1-2 cup lemon juice; 2 cups grated or finely chopped pineapple; 2 egg whites. Beat the sugar and water for 2 minutes. Cool and add the lemon juice and pineapple. Pour into a sterilized freezer and when half frozen add the stiffly beaten egg whites and freeze until very stiff.

Almond Circles. 1-2 cup fat; 1-2 cups sugar; 1 teaspoon lemon extract; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1-4 teaspoon salt; 2 eggs; 1-4 cup milk; 3 1-2 cups flour; 2 teaspoons baking powder; 2-3 cup shredded almonds. Cream the fat and sugar for 2 minutes. Add the lemon extract, salt, eggs, vanilla and milk and beat for 2 minutes. Add the flour and baking powder and with the aid of a spatula shape into a roll, 1 1-2 inches in diameter. Chill for 24 hours. Use a sharp knife and cut off thin slices and place 3 inches apart on well greased baking sheets. Press several almond shreds on the top of the cookies. Bake for 12 minutes in a moderate oven.

When the ice box is large enough, store fresh vegetables in it until ready for cooking. You will be surprised how much fresher and better flavored beans will be when cooked, after they have been chilled. Little of the moisture is lost when vegetables are stored in cold places.

Announcement. I wish to announce to the voters of Chiood Township that I was duly nominated by the Democratic Primary last June for Constable, and will appreciate your support in the General Election on November 6.

Guiding Your Child

Things He Mustn't Touch. (By Mrs. Agnes Lyne)

The little child wants to touch everything. It is his way of discovering the world.

He wants to handle and pull, pound and tear. He has no judgment as to the proper field for his investigations. Matches and knives, mother's perfume and a red morocco binding attract him as much as his own woolly dog or his nest of boxes.

What shall we do when the child insists on playing with objects which are taboo? Though he may be doing something which has been forbidden many times he should not be checked with harsh words or a slap. For if he is a live youngster his curiosity will always triumph over his fear of punishment. There are other methods far more effective.

First of all dangerous and breakable objects should as far as possible be placed out of reach and out of sight. But some dangerous things cannot be put away, the first must burn in the stove and the hot coffee pot must come on the breakfast table.

With an adventuresome youngster it is a good plan to let him partially experience the results of touching these things which are forbidden because they are dangerous. He should be allowed to go near enough to the hot stove or the boiling coffee pot to feel that they are decidedly unpleasant. If we do this he will be sure to watch carefully lest he really hurt himself. At the same time we must show no emotional concern over the incident, merely saying in a matter of fact way that certain things are bound to hurt you if you touch them.

The easiest and most usual way of keeping the child from touching a forbidden object is to attract his attention to something else. If Betty seems to be gravitating toward mother's powder box, a box of buttons or a shining shoe horn may prove a winning counter attraction.

A little forethought in removing temptation, diverting attention, and in allowing the child to taste the results of disregarded warnings will do much to avert the crises that usually end in tears, frustration and punishment.

How Big Is Redmanship? (Reported)

A query asked and answered by C. E. Bruce, editor of "Redmanship in New England."

Well, it just "sprung-up" out of a hotbed of patriotism in and around Boston, scarcely as 1765. Our numbers were only a few hundred strong and were known as the Sons of Liberty; many meetings were held under the wide spreading branches of the liberty elm in Boston.

Ninety of these patriots gathered in the Green Dragon Tavern on the night of December 16, 1773 and disguised themselves as Indians and shortly afterwards the contents of 342 chests of tea were let loose into Boston harbor.

Redmanship then, while only an infant was the forerunner of the Declaration of Independence which crystallized into the United States of America.

Today we have a membership of close to a half million including about 133,000 members of the degree of Pocahontas. There are over 4100 tribes and councils scattered all over the United States or wherever the U. S. flag flies. More than 50,000 new members are admitted each year. We are growing steadily. Our yearly receipts are over $5,000,000. One million dollars is spent for relief of members each year; one-half a million for burials; $140,000 for relief of widows. We are great enough so that we aid over 3,000 orphans and pay out in the work nearly $200,000 each year.

Presidents have been members of the Improved Order of Red Men. We now have U. S. senators and congressmen, governors and members from all walks of life. We are growing bigger and better and will be more recognized as the years roll along.

By G. D. SEYMOUR

New York—When Il Progresso, Italian daily newspaper of New York, was sold the other day for two million dollars, the transaction became the largest on record involving the city's foreign language press.

Il Progresso is the largest and oldest of Italian dailies here, founded half a century ago and now owning its modern plant and having a circulation of 80,000 weekday readers. But it is only one of 35 newspapers published daily in New York in foreign languages.

There are, in fact, four Italian dailies here—the largest group, save that of Jewish dailies, of which there are five. One may, within a radius of a few blocks downtown, buy daily papers hot off the presses in 17 languages, ranging from the better-known European tongues to Syrian, Croatian and Chinese.

The oldest foreign language daily in New York antedates any daily paper here except the Evening Post. It is the Courier des Etats Unis, printed in French, in the vicinity of Fulton street, since 1828. The Staats Zeitung, oldest German daily, is 94 years old, only a year younger than The New York Sun.

Even In Chinatown. New York has three German dailies, three Polish, three Russian, three Arabic or Syrian and three Yugo-Slav, one for each of the principal national groups: the Croatsians, the Serbians and the Slovenes. It has two dailies printed for the Czechoslovaks, two in Hungarian, two in Greek and two in Ukrainian. The Chinese Nationalist is issued each 24 hours from a Pell street site in Chinatown, and those who speak Spanish may find the day's news in La Prensa.

A Serbian editor on the east side gathered his news for years and set it himself on a linotype used for other editorial work by day, but rented to him from six at night until dawn. His wife read proof for him, and together they trundled the locked forms across the pavements to the print shop where the paper went to press. Then he carted the papers back to his own shop, wrapped some for mailing, and delivered the rest to the doors of his subscribers.

But the bigger foreign language dailies do business much as the average metropolitan newspaper does it, as they must to serve swiftly the 146,000 subscribers of The Jewish Forward, the 55,000 weekday readers of the Staats Zeitung, the 66,000 who take the Jewish Day or the 63,000 whose paper is the Freiheit.

Jesting In Ladino. And the daily foreign language press makes up only a small part of the publications issued in New York for those who still speak the tongues of other lands. The Japanese have a monthly literary magazine, the Syrians and Portuguese their commercial papers, the Spanish a monthly magazine which deals with arts and letters, the Italians and Armenians their fraternal journals. And a humorous weekly is issued even in Ladino, a dialect so much a mixture of Spanish, Tyroloese, Latin and Jewish that it defies classification.

J. E. Winslow, President Turnage-Winslow, Inc., Says:

To build a home is to build a career. A community is measured by the number of home-owners, for they have at heart the welfare of the city. An attractive, convenient and well-kept home also measures the individuality of the occupant. Your association by helping people to acquire their own home is doing a wonderful work in making better citizens and a better city.

J. H. Waldrop, Cashier Greenville Banking & Trust Co., Says:

Saving is the first principle of success; it creates independence; it gives a young man or young woman poise and standing. It fits him or her with vigor. It stimulates him or her with confidence, and brings to him or her the best part of success, happiness and contentment. Every young person ought to join early in life a Building and Loan Association and keep it up.

ABOUT

"The Greenville tobacco market is two million pounds ahead of her record for the same period last year," said the report of the supervisor of sales the latter part of last week.

This information will be read with interest by people here. The goal set for this season was seventy millions pounds. With this splendid lead over last season it begins to look like the ambition is going to be realized. What more could be expected of one of the greatest bright leaf markets in the world?

"King Winter is on the way", reminded a reader today, referring to the snow and rain reported in the West.

"Indian summer will soon give way to the cold blasts in this section and all of us will find ourselves returning to the fireside to seek cheer and comfort.

"Already the vegetation is drying up and when the first frost comes, the golden hue of autumn will give way to the dark brown of winter.
This is a mighty sad time of the year with dying leaves and blossoms on every side. But it is one of those inexorable laws of nature—one mortal has no control over.

"A little patient waiting and winter will give way to spring, spring to summer, and hearts will be gladdened again by the balmy southern weather. King Winter may bring cold, bleak days, but he also will bring joy and gladness for all of those who realize the responsibility life places upon them and endeavor to discharge them to the best of their ability.

"It is an old and true saying,
"Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you!"

"All members of the Democratic party are urged to remember the date of Max Gardner's coming to Greenville—Wednesday, October 17th," reminded a member of the local executive committee today.

"Mr. Gardner will discuss some of the things of interest to the party in the present political campaign and will show why Al Smith deserves the support of the public.

"Mr. Gardner knows North Carolina and North Carolina people better than any other man of the era and his speech will contain a direct appeal to them to stay with their party in this crucial period of American politics".

"How about your subscription to the Reflector, Mr. Subscriber?" asks the circulation department of this paper.

"Are you paid up so the paper will come to you through the long winter evenings ahead? This is the time of year you feel the need of a good newspaper the most. It is a season of firesides, news and gossip and you cannot keep correctly informed without having a daily newspaper at your command at all times.

"Many important happenings are in store for the winter. These stories will be covered in detail by correspondents of the Associated Press, the greatest news gathering organization in the world. As members of this service the Reflector keeps in touch with world events over its full leased wire.

"Let us have your subscription so that you will be assured of having the paper at hand when you want it the most".

"Don't forget Pap-Up Week", reminded members of the Greenville Merchants Association today.

"If you haven't settled up your obligations, do so this month and be sure of getting good credit rating on the new lists to be compiled by the Association immediately after Pap-Up Week is over.

"Good credit rating will insure you of continued credit among the merchants of the city. On the other hand, if you haven't properly adjusted your accounts you will find it difficult to get credit during the year the list holds good.

"See your merchant at once and make arrangements for settlement of whatever you may owe him".

LEADERS DRAW TO THE FORE IN FOOTBALL

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 15.—(AP)—The hurdlers in the southern conference football race are getting no higher but the regularity is beginning to tell, with leaders fast drawing to the fore.

Alabama, today standing with South Carolina, Georgia Tech and Clemson at the front at two games won each and none lost, will have a chance this week to take an undisputed lead. The Crimson Tide will be the only team of the quarter playing within the conference thus giving Wallace Wade's men an opportunity to make it their victories against two for the most coveted competitors.

The Tuscaloosans will be entrenched on Denny field, home plant, to attempt a repulse of Coach Bob Neyland's Tennessee Volunteers—a team winning its first conference tilt last Saturday and with hopes of continuing its spotless record.

The tide will unleash Suther, Deal, Hicks, Holm and other scoring threats, supported by a 200 pound line, in an endeavor to vanquish the rather inexperienced Knoxville band. It will be interesting to watch Sophomore Suther of Alabama's backfield against the heralded second year student, McEver of Tennessee's secondary.

While six intra-conference games are holding an important niche in the week's play, the inter-sectional clash of Georgia Tech and Notre Dame at Atlanta will draw the greatest interest. Some 35,000 are expected to pour into Grant field to see the Golden Tornado make its greatest attempt to down Knute Rockne's hersemen.

Coach Bill Alexander admittedly has the greatest source of reserve strength in years to draw from this season and will "shoot the works" against the South Benders.

Vanderbilt's Commodores, fresh from two straight inter-sectional victories, will be engaged in their first conference game of the season when they invade New Orleans to meet the strong Greenies of Tulane. The clash of Armistead and Banker should be well worth seeing.

North Carolina will be back at Chapel Hill following the Tar Heels' march into New England. They will be playing Virginia Poly's Gobblers—a team that also traveled in vain Saturday. The Carolinians will be trying for a second straight conference victory while the Techmen will be engaged in their first conference game.

Louisiana State's Tigers, making their debut in the conference under Coach Russ Cohen, will be tending with the battered Aggies of Mississippi A. & M. with Jackson as the battleground.

Virginia's Cavaliers, elated over holding Princeton Saturday to a scoreless draw, must face Virginia Military Institute this week at Lexington. This meeting of Bama and cadet flash, with Close and Sloan should prove worthwhile.

Auburn and Ole Miss, each with two conference feasts already, will round out the Birmingham schedule, meeting at Birmingham. As for inter-sectional matches, however, the week is not confined to the Tornado-Notre Dame affair. Washington and Lee's General's will be trekking over to Charleston, W. Va., to meet the Mountaineers. An annual combat and Coach Pat Herron's men have hopes of doing even better than last year. They fought to a tie then.

Sewanee Depends On Passing Today
By HORACE C. RENEGAR (Associated Press Sports Writer)
Sewanee, Tenn., Oct. 15.—(AP)—The purple Tigers of Sewanee, faced with the prospect of a disastrous season, are hoping the passes will get going to their mark and cushion touchdowns will result to turn some dark spots ahead to bright linings.

As usual, Coach Mike Bennett's team will follow the passing game. Mike was one of the first to institute the lateral pass and his teams always concentrate on all methods of overhead play.

Schoolfield, a half back, is a fine all-around man and it will be his versatility that much of Sewanee's offense will be based. Then, there is Autin and Boyd, both of whom can hit a line and are fair at skirting ends.

Boyd plays quarterback and Autin at half back.

Bean at full back is a good defensive and also can handle passes in the line, starting at left end and going across. Piper, Bean, Griswold, E. C. Young, Bruton P. Young and Ezzell form a fairly experienced line of average weight.

Bruton at guard is the mainstay of the forward wall. His work has been outstanding all along, last year, he proved a sensation in games in which he participated.

In brief, Bennett has a fair line-capable of rising to heights at times during the season and a backfield that possesses little brilliancy but should be able to get consistency.

HOP OFF ON ENDURANCE FLIGHT
Oakland, Cal., Oct. 15.—(AP)—Roscoe Turner and Jack Rand hopped off from Oakland Airport at 6:02 a. m., today in their second attempt to establish a new world's record for endurance flying.

WILSON HIGH WINS OVER GREENVILLE

Wilson High defeated the Greenville High football team in Wilson Friday afternoon by the score of 12 to 0. The game was fast and was hard fought throughout.

Greenville elected to receive and the first quarter ended with the local boys having the better of the ground gaining. Respass clipped off several first downs around Wilson's right end but failed to get in scoring position. With about one minute to play in the first half, Wilson recovered a fumble and on the next play passed to their left end over the line for a touchdown.

In the third quarter an intercepted pass gave Wilson the ball in scoring position and again it was a pass that was tipped into the Wilson end's hands by two of Greenville's backs that gave Wilson her second and last score of the game.

The local charges of Coach Porter showed much improvement over their showing of last week against Farmville. Several times the Wilson backs were stor down and Respass ripped the line wide open and circled the ends for long gains numbers of times. Bostic, despite a lame back, was on the receiving end of several passes from Respass and on one of them was caught from behind on the Wilson five-yard line.

Greenville made more gains from scrimmage than did Wilson and was on the offensive most of the time. Lack of scoring punch and fumbles at critical points were the things that caused a defeat to be chalked up instead of a victory.

King was the defensive star of the game and Respass the offensive star. For Wilson, Lamm and Forbes were the best bets.

Greenville's lineup, follows:
Skinner ..... Right End
Anthony ..... Right Tackle
Atkinson ..... Right Guard
Hodges ..... Center
O'Brian ..... Left Guard
Crow ..... Left Tackle
King ..... Left End
Respass ..... Quarterback
Tucker ..... Left Halfback
Bason ..... Full back
Bostic (C) ..... Right Halfback

BIG SURPRISE IS PREDICTED IN GRID CIRCLE

Chicago, Oct. 15.—(AP)—With a startling succession of upsets already in its wake, although the season is only a few weeks old, the 1928 college gridiron campaign seems certain to witness a record turnover.

The ranks of the ordinarily mighty have been unusually hard hit in the October onslaught. Many gridiron Rip Van Winkles who snoozed off only a month ago would be amazed to wake at this early stage of the game and find such stalwarts as the Navy and Michigan yet to win a single contest with Pittsburgh, Penn State, the Texas Aggies, Notre Dame and Stanford also among the ranks of the beaten clan.

The Navy, which has not scored a point in three successive games against Davis and Elkins, Boston College and Notre Dame will make a desperate attempt to check its losing streak against Duke University this Saturday. But the Midshipmen, if they are to turn back the Southerners, must put together a much smoother working attack than they exhibited to the gaze of a record crowd of 122,000 at Soldier Field Saturday in dropping a 7-0 decision to Notre Dame.

They have another battle on their hands this week, playing Georgia Tech at Atlanta, but it will behoove the Southerners to watch out for the shifty, pivoting efforts of Cheviens and Niemelo, as well as a pair of reserve named Colerick and Carideo, who played under roles in beating the Navy here.

In the East, Army's strong eleven, after easily disposing of Providence moves down East to resume a rivalry with Harvard that was let off 18 years ago. The Crimson, after some what impressive victories over Springfield and North Carolina, figures to give the cadets a real battle.

Yale is not likely to have much difficulty beating Brown, but Lafayette finds its path impeded by Buckness, which surprised by trimming Penn State Saturday.

The big game in the far west this week brings together California and Southern California in the big arena at Berkeley. It should provide a few thrills, to judge from the way the Golden bears beat Washington State Saturday, while the Trojans were polishing off St. Mary's.

LINOTYPE OPERATOR

COMMITTS SUICIDE

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 15.—(AP)—William Tippet, 45, linotype operator, was found in his cell in the city jail here this morning choked to death with his trousers' belt. Coroner Esa Allen pronounced his death due to suicide.

Tippet, formerly of Baxley, Ga., was arrested at about 9:30 last night for driving an automobile while under influence of intoxicants after having been warned by officers a little earlier.

Evidently sometime during the night Tippet placed his belt around the cross bar of the upper bed of two tiers in his cell and then buckled the strap, placing his head in the noose and drawing it tight.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 15.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 8 points to a decline of 3 points, with near months relatively firm on covering by October later deliveries on the failure of early weather reports to contain any mention of frosts in the south. The demand for October was supplied on the opening advance, apparently, and that delivery eased off with the rest of the list after the call, with active months soon showing net losses of 5 to 6 points. December sold off to 19.00 and March to 18.85, but there was a little more buying at these figures and prices held fairly steady at the end of the first half hour. A private crop estimate of 13,500,000 bales by eastern belt trade interests attracted some bullish comment which may have helped to steady the market at the decline. The census report showing 492,221 bales of cotton consumed for the month of September was considered about in line with expectations.

Offerings became less active after the decline to 19.07 for December contracts or about 9 points below Saturday's closing quotations, and the market later was quiet with prices covering. At midday December was selling around 19.08 and prices generally were holding within a point or two of the previous close.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Notwithstanding 7,062,000 bushels increase of the United States wheat visible supply, wheat prices today showed a rally at the last. The increase made the domestic total stock in sight 123,639 bushels, the largest ever known and was much in contrast with 85,451,000 bushels a year ago. Beneficial rains in Kansas and Nebraska, together with slowness of export demand today for wheat from North America were an additional handicap to wheat bulls, but such factors had apparently been more or less discounted in advance, and during the late dealings previous sellers turned buyers.

Wheat closed nervous, 1-8c net lower to 3-8c net advance; corn unchanged to 3-8c up; oats 1-4c to 1-2c off; and provisions varying from 10c decline to a rise of 5c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 15.—(AP)—Marking up of the call money rate from 6 1-2 to 7 1-2 per cent, coincident with the calling of upwards of $30,000,000 in loans in connection with mid-month requirements, turned the course of prices irregular today after an opening outburst of strength. Pool operations lifted more than a score issues to new high records for the year, some of the gains ranging from 5 to 18 points.

Sale of a stock exchange seat was arranged today at the record breaking price of $465,000, an advance of $15,000 above the previous sale. Meanwhile, a committee was appointed by the exchange to consider and report on the advisability of increasing the present membership of 1100, presumably to meet the demands created by the unusually heavy trading in the past few years.

Legion Members Denounced By Mexican Radicals

Mexico City, October 15.—(AP)—Posters denouncing them as "assassins, strike-breakers, and American Fascists" today stared down upon 100 members of the American Legion from the walls of various buildings. Even the walls of the American Consulate had been placarded with the denunciation when the Legionnaires arrived for a visit of several days.

The posters bore the signature of Diego Rivera, an artist who is Secretary General of the Mexican section of the anti-imperialist league of America.

"Judge the assassins and strike-breakers of the Legion to abandon our territory as soon as possible," the posters read in part. "Away with the Fascist North American Legionnaires. Down with the man who tried but failed to conquer Mexico—General Pershing."

The posters said that there could be no friendship until the United States took its hands off Latin America. Despite the goodwill visit of Colonel Lindbergh and the entreaties of Ambassador Morrow, Mexicans were urged to refrain from greeting the visitors.

The Legionnaires are guests at the home of Thomas A. Robinson, son-in-law of President Calles and a member of the Executive Committee of the American Legion for Mexico.

Dr. Anderson To Be Given Trial At Special Term

Raleigh, Oct. 15.—(AP)—With a special term of court ordered for October 29 to try cases pending against Dr. Albert Anderson, superintendent of the state hospital, the board of directors of the institution were called to meet today for the purpose of making available to Solicitor L. S. Brassfield any hospital records he may desire.

Announcement that the special term had been ordered and Judge James A. Devin designated to preside was made last night by Gov. McLean after he had talked with the solicitor. The governor and Attorney General Dennis G. Brummitt expected to attend the board meeting today.

Dr. Anderson was indicted by the Wake county grand jury last week on charges of embezzling state property, and of malfeasance in office, it being alleged, among other things, that he permitted patients at the hospital to die because of lack of medical attention.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agents for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germ.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
