BIG ZEPPELIN TO FLY OVER MANY CITIES

About Twenty-five Passengers To Be Carried On Inland Flight.

Washington, Oct. 20—(AP)—Captain Ernst A. Lehmann, first officer of the Graf Zeppelin on its trans-Atlantic flight said today that it was impossible definitely to name the cities over which the giant airship would travel on its inland trip scheduled to begin early next Wednesday morning from Lakehurst.

"It is an axiom of the air," he explained, "that our course is always decided by weather conditions. The take-off itself will depend on weather conditions at Lakehurst, for it would be out of the question to take the dirigible from the hangar if a cross wind is blowing. Such a wind might break it in two. If the repairs have been adequately completed, we hope to start Wednesday, but it may be Thursday. Once the ship is out of the hangar, we can get away in almost any weather, but our course will be guided entirely by conditions.

The diminutive officer, who speaks English fluently, said that many other factors were considered in crossing cities also, such as the time of day. "For instance," he continued, "we would not pass over a city at breakfast time. That would make many people get up and leave their tables and we don't want to disturb them at such time."

While Captain Lehmann was discussing lighter than air navigation in general, Dr. Hugo Eckener, his commander, was resting late from the busy welcome which extended into last night. The captain said that both Dr. Eckener and himself wanted to express their regret to the thousands of people all over the world who had telegraphed or written congratulations on the recent crossing. "I received some three thousand wires and about twice that many letters had been received, both at Lakehurst and here, coming from such persons as some South American Republics, and private citizens everywhere. "As much as we would like to, we cannot possibly acknowledge all of these kind communications."

Captain Lehmann said the Graf Zeppelin would carry about 25 passengers on its inland flight. Various government departments have been invited to be represented, but responses have not yet been received entirely and the list is not yet made up. The officer expressed regret that more passengers could not be carried, saying that it was possible theoretically to take about 700 persons on a short trip of the airship, because of the less weight required by fuel. "They would have to hang all over the girders like monkeys, though," he continued, "because the seating capacity is not available. It would be much easier to fly a balloon kite on a string for such a large number of people."

Lindbergh To Hunt Bears On Border Mexico

Mexico City, Oct. 20—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will come south of the Rio Grande next week to hunt bears in the border state of Coahuila.

The trip has been planned as a complete rest for the aviator and Colonel Alexander J. MacNab, military attaché at the University States embassy who organized the party, hopes that Lindbergh will be able to stay four or five weeks. He does the party will go also to the Sierra Madre Mountains in the State of Chihuahua to seek cliff dwellings.

Colonel Lindbergh is expected to arrive Wednesday at La Babla, ranch of Hal Mangum, an American where Ambassador Morrow recently was a guest. It is thought that he will travel by airplane as far as the border and make the rest of the trip by automobile to Lbia, which is 100 miles south of the boundary.

The party will rough it, camping in the open. There are many stories about cliff dwellings in the Sierra Madre Mountains and it is one of Colonel MacNab's greatest desires to find them. He hopes to persuade Colonel Lindbergh to go with him to a ranch belonging to Luis Leon, minister of agriculture, in the Chihuahua Mountains, which will complete the headquarters for the search for ancient dwellings.

Another member of the party will be Judge Leon Arminsen, resident of the municipal council of Pinar Del Rio, Cuba, who has been Colonel MacNab's guest in Mexico City.

WOMEN PLAY BIG ROLE IN U. S. POLITICS

Political Situation Subject Of Discussion In Every Walk Of Life.

By JAMES L. WILLIAMS (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, October 20—(AP)—Women are playing bridge, doing household chores, working in cities, villages and on farms this autumn as usual, but they are talking politics, and talking it as never before.

From one end of the land to the other the feminine is taking an interest in the 1928 presidential election which overshadows the hum drum routine and the every day conversation of other years.

It would seem, on the face of it, that the women are out to beat someone or to elect someone to the presidency of the United States on November 6th. Both sides believe the charm of the woman voter's smile is turned toward their candidate. The wise speculators are not getting any money on this important phase of the campaign.

Women are taking important parts in directing the campaigns of Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith. Women are on the national committees; the party headquarters are filled with them; the radio is choked with the voices of young women and old pleading for support for Hoover or for Smith; they are talking on street cars, in the subways, across neighboring fences, over the dinner table, and everywhere about the prospects of the Republican and Democratic tickets, and nearly everybody has a choice.

In the old days the first Tuesday in November was looked upon by the women as any other Tuesday, with sauce of curiosity to what their appetites for election news. This year, from all indications, they are jumping into the fight feet first, with their own convictions, and determined to take a major part in choosing the man who will guide the destinies of the republic for the next four years.

Edison To Receive Congressional Medal

West Orange, N. J., Oct. 20—(AP)—The Congressional Gold Medal will be presented to Thomas A. Edison at his laboratory, tonight with ceremonies that will be broadcast over WEAf and a nation-wide hookup of radio stations.

President Coolidge will open the program at 9:00 p. m. (Eastern time) with an address from the White House and at the conclusion of his address the broadcast will be shifted to the laboratory here.

The medal is to be presented by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, after which Mr. Edison will give a brief response.

An attempt is to be made to broadcast the rendition of Mr. Edison's first phonograph record, "Mary had a little lamb" as played on the first machine he built. The machine is being returned to Mr. Edison by the British Government. Presentation of the machine will be made by Rolaid Campbell, charge d'affaires of the British Embassy.

This Week Saw Highest Average of Season On Local Tobacco Market

The highest average price for any week since the opening of the Greenville tobacco market was established during the week just closed, according to official report of sales made public this morning by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade. The price was $24.84 per hundred pounds and was made on the sale of 5,366,534 pounds of bright leaf. The total amount paid out to the farmers was $1,333,172.02.

Conclusion of the week's sales yesterday saw the market pass the thirty million pound mark for the entire season. The exact figures as compiled by the Board of Trade were given at 35,081,198. This places the market almost two million pounds ahead of sales for the corresponding date last year.

The report showed the market had paid out to the farmers this season a total sum of $6,768,818.24, the average being $18.86 per hundred pounds, nearly two cents higher than the report of last week.

For the same week last year the market sold 4,736,198 pounds at an average price of $26.23 per hundred pounds.

The highest average price of any single day of the season was made on the market last Monday. This was $26.14 per hundred pounds. Since that time the daily average has varied from 24 to 25 cents a pound.

The market yesterday sold 1,031,578 pounds of tobacco for a total sum of $24,273.58 at an average of $23.68 per hundred pounds. The average of over a million pounds of leaf daily has been maintained by the market since the opening of the season, and with good weather in evidence this is expected to continue for quite awhile. Much good tobacco was offered this week, but there was also the usual amount of inferior grades that figured largely in the trend of prices. The best offerings of the week were noted last Monday when prices climbed to new high levels.

To Raise Funds For Democratic Campaign Here

Money is needed to carry on the campaign of the Democratic party, according to a telegram received today from James W. Gerard, Treasurer of the Democratic National committee. The paper was asked to receive and acknowledge subscriptions for this purpose.

As result, the Reflector is asking the Democrats of this community to contribute as liberally as possible and in that way help the party in its great fight for victory.

All contributions will be received and acknowledged in the columns of the paper and checks will be forwarded to the Democratic headquarters.

The treasurer declared that small contributions are welcome. Everybody who contributes will be mailed a contributor's certificate.

ROBINSON TO BEGIN FIGHT IN NEBRASKA

Senator To Make Three Speeches In Troublesome Territory of Middle West.

By RAYMOND Z. HENLE (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Enroute with Senator Robinson to Hastings, Neb., Oct. 20—(AP)—With an eye on the farm vote of the troublesome middle west, Senator Joe T. Robinson headed toward Nebraska today for three speeches which will give him the opportunity of emphasizing his criticism of the Republican record on agricultural relief legislation.

His itinerary brought him into the home state of Senator George W. Norris, a Republican, who has spoken words of praise for some of the campaign speeches of Gov. Smith, and whose arguments Senator Robinson occasionally has used to drive home his own contentions during his tour of the west.

The vice-presidential nominee had agreed to make a brief speech in Grand Island this afternoon during the time his train is switched for the trip to Hastings. At Hastings, Mr. Robinson will make a formal address tonight and another in Lincoln Monday night.

The candidate's departure from Wyoming left in his wake a wide range of campaign arguments for the Democratic party leaders of that state to use in their hot campaign to win Wyoming's three electoral votes for the Smith-Robinson ticket. Senator Robinson explained the Democratic position on the tariff, attacked the farm relief policy of the Republican party and spoke plainly on the religious issue.

Odd Laws, Sure.

Chicago, Oct. 20—(AP)—There are some odd laws to watch out for, even if one be "Jenkins, Sir." Butler to the vice president of the United States.

They arrested Jenkins (do butlers have first names) for riding a bicycle without a light on it. "I'm Jenkins, Sir," he said, "butler to Vice President Dawes, Sir."

TWO CHILDREN FALL TO DEATH IN NEW YORK

Baby Grandsons Of Benjamin Guggenheim Fall From 13 Story Roof Garden.

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—Two baby grandsons of the late Benjamin Guggenheim, copper magnate, playing on the roof of the Hotel Surrey in East 76th street, fell 13 stories to their death yesterday afternoon.

Terrence, 4, accidentally slipped his brother, Benjamin, 13 months, over a wall as he attempted to jump into his mother's lap and both fell on another building.

Their mother, Mrs. Milton Waldman of New York and London, youngest daughter of Mr. Guggenheim, who was lost on the Titanic, fainted and was prostrated several hours. Mr. Waldman, a writer and former New York newspaperman, is assistant editor of the London Mercury.

Mrs. Waldman recently returned from England and had been visiting in the Hotel Plaza suite of her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Guggenheim. She had gone to call on Mrs. Cornelius Ruxton Love, her cousin, in her beautiful Fenthouse apartment on the Surrey roof.

Mrs. Love was not at home but had left word for Mrs. Waldman and her two children to await her return in the roof garden. They had gone to the edge of the roof, Mrs. Waldman holding the baby in her arms. Apparently jealous of the attention given his brother, Terrence climbed to the seat of a swing and attempted to jump into his mother's arms. The baby was knocked from her arms over a three-foot wall and Terrence, losing his balance, followed.

Their bodies landed on a three-story building a hundred feet below. The medical examiner said they had been killed instantly.

Smathers Found Guilty Second Degree Murder

Sylva, N. C., Oct. 20—(AP)—Murder in the second degree was the verdict this afternoon by the jury trying Ed Smathers for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Claude Green. The verdict returned at 1:30 was reached after more than four hours of deliberation.

The verdict came as a surprise to many in the throng which has been following every move in the trial since it was begun Tuesday morning. Many believed the escaped convict would be acquitted.

After the verdict was rendered, attorneys for the defense made an appeal to Judge Walter E. Moore, presiding, for leniency. Indications were that sentence would not be pronounced until late in the afternoon.

Women Democrats To Organize Here

A Young Women's Democratic club will be organized in Greenville next Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, it was stated at Democratic headquarters here today.

The organization meeting will be held in the new high school auditorium. Every young woman of the city—either married or single—is urged to attend and use her influence in the campaign.

SMITH CLOSES HIS INVASION OF THE WEST

Democratic Nominee To Open Fight On Atlantic Seaboard; Indianapolis Today.

Chicago, Oct. 20—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith has brought to a close his last invasion west of the Allegheny Mountains for the campaign and after today will confine his drive for the presidency to the North Atlantic Seaboard states where his name rose to prominence.

From now until the ballots are counted in November, he will carry the Democratic standard into a group of states which with but few exceptions have been regarded as a citadel of Republican strength in national elections.

The governor in his final speech on mid-west soil here last night ripped into the Republican record for the last seven and one half years; he assailed, Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican National Committee, for renewing the Salt Creek oil lease to the Sinclair interests while serving as secretary of interior, and urged a cheering audience to remember the Republicans were promising a continuation of conditions in status quo.

Today, the nominee's schedule called for his departure from here at 10 a. m., with a stop during the afternoon at Indianapolis for a parade and a visit to a hospital where Tom Taggart, the Democratic chief of Indiana, is undergoing treatment. Then the candidate proposed to proceed direct to Albany, with the exception of a pause somewhere in western New York tomorrow morning to enable him and his family to attend church.

The governor opened his speech last night by quoting the Republican platform as saying the "record of the present administration is a guarantee of what may be expected of the next."

"Why limit the declaration to the present administration?" he asked. "The Republican party has been in power in this nation since the fourth of March, 1921, and I can read from that declaration only one thing, and that is a desire to get away from the black, dark record of the administration immediately preceding this one."

The audience broke out in applause. The nominee asked what it was the Republicans desired to get away from, and shouted:

"Oil! the veterans' bureau and the administration of the office of the alien property custodian!"

Turning to the Salt Creek lease, he said Mr. Work had been quoted by the press as saying "the people are tired of hearing of these oil leases."

"I think they are not only tired," the governor said, "but they are thoroughly and completely disgusted with them."

The nominee said Work had renewed the Salt Creek oil lease negotiated by Albert B. Fall, as interior secretary, with the Sinclair interests in December, 1922, and that earlier this week Attorney General Sargent had held the contract illegal and improper.

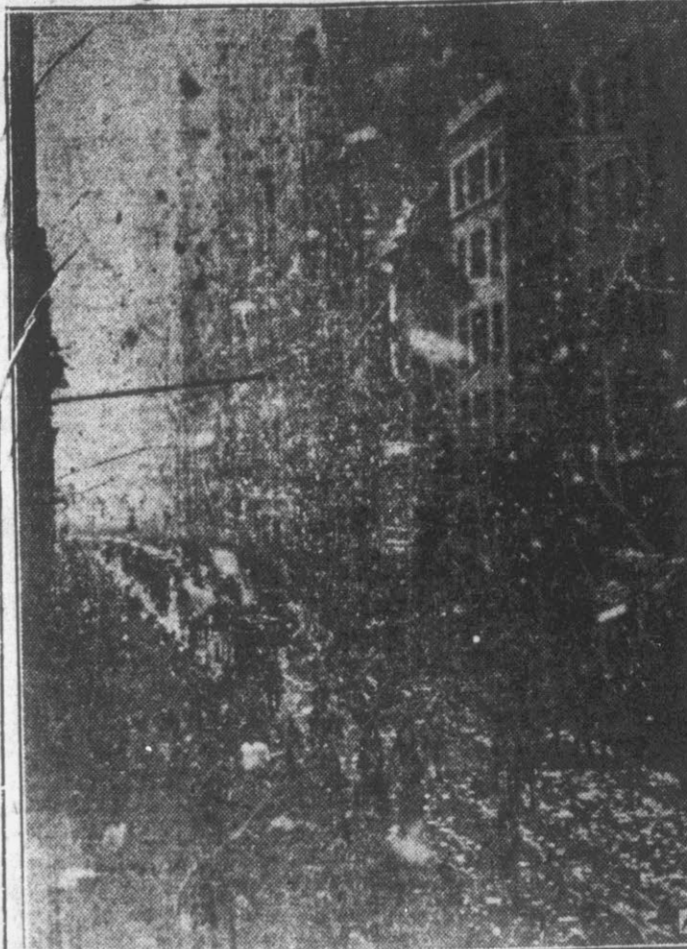

The governor opened up on Senator Borah of Idaho, now stumping the country in behalf of the Republican ticket. The nominee said that "Men will talk when presidential elections are away off" and told his audience that the Idahoan in speaking on farm relief in 1925 had said the problem still was with the farmer.

"Yes, Senator," he continued, "in 1928 it is still with him."

The remark brought laughter from the audience, and the nominee then accused Borah of having voted against the "only bill suggested to bring farm relief and offering nothing in its place."

Gov. Smith declared the Idaho senator had not always thought "so much" about Herbert Hoover, whom he is supporting."

BROADWAY'S GREETING TO FLIERS

Cheers and a storm of paper and ticker tape welcomed Dr. Hugo Eckener and members of the crew of the Graf Zeppelin when they paraded up Broadway to receive New York's official welcome.

Presidential Fight Has Taken Definite Shape

By BYRON PRICE (Associated Press Staff Writer)

The bill of particulars of the presidential campaign, as regards both men and measures, is beginning to assume definite character after much feverish revision.

Both of the nominees have shown themselves in East, west and south, and the farthest precinct has had repeated opportunity to judge of their tariff, water power, and many other aspects of the party platforms. Governor Smith's religion has been discussed openly, and reports that Mr. Hoover once sought to become a British subject have been publicly denied. The reserves have gone into action on the stump, and the busy printing presses of rival party headquarters have about completed their heavy grist of pamphlets and hand bills.

Of course, some surprises may remain for the final two weeks, for such a campaign as this would not be expected to end in an anticlimax. It even has been hinted on high authority that the last days before election will be the most exciting. But certainly the bulk of the evidence promised in the opening statements of the litigants now is before the court.

The past week has seen the principals in the contest giving increased attention to issues related to the public and private pocketbook.

Mr. Hoover journey into industrial Massachusetts for a series of speeches on the tariff, foreign trade and shipping, and after his return to Washington he talked to a delegation of exporters about co-operation between government and business. Governor Smith, on tour through the border states and the midwest, chose the tariff and governmental economy as the burden of his speeches.

Meantime, Chairman Work of the Republican campaign, was declaring that prosperity was the one big issue, and Secretary Mellon, aroused at the Democratic nominee's glib at the Coolidge fiscal policies, defined them at length.

Although many of the lesser lights of the campaign have been talking in this vein from the beginning, the country has heard more about economics and economy from the outstanding figures on the campaign in this one week than in all of the preceding weeks of the campaign put together.

A charge of "whispering" again has been heard in the political news, out of this time the charge is made by the Republicans. In a statement denying that Mr. Hoover ever had sought British citizenship, or ever had voted or attempted to vote in England, Chairman Work declared the Republican nominee had been the target for "one of the most unjust whispering campaigns in the history of presidential contests."

The party chairman said Hoover's name had been listed on an English voters' roll without his knowledge years ago, when he was lessor of a house near London. The state department also announced there never had been a question of Hoover's American citizenship.

Both Smith and Hoover continue to be surrounded by applauding

STORY ABOUT HOOVER NEGRO DANCE DENIED

Campaign Leader Says Nothing To Tale About Nominee Dancing With Negroes.

By JAMES L. WEST (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, Oct. 20—(AP)—Governor Theodore C. Bilbo, of Mississippi, was the recipient today of a stinging message of censure from Herbert Hoover's general headquarters because of a statement attributed to him that the Republican presidential nominee had danced with a negro woman of Mississippi—a statement which was branded as "indecent" and "unqualifiedly false."

George Akerson, Mr. Hoover's assistant, took cognizance of remarks credited to the governor in southern newspapers and dispatched to him one of the sharpest messages of the campaign. It bristled with expressions of indignation and asserted that "no more untruthful and ignoble assertion ever uttered by a public man in the United States than that attributed to you."

"You are quoted by the press in the South," Akerson said in his telegram, "as having stated in a public address that Herbert Hoover on one of his flood relief trips got off the train at Mount Bayou, Mississippi, and paid a call on a colored woman and later danced with her."

"That statement is unqualifiedly false. There is not the slightest foundation for it. It is the most indecent and unworthy statement in the whole of a bitter campaign."

Asserting that he was with Hoover "every hour of the four months while he was engaged in the flood," the nominee's assistant declared that Hoover was never in Mount Bayou except for a three minute stop of his train there and that he never left the platform of the train, but received a memorial from the negro people of that vicinity "for the service he had rendered their race."

"This was the second time during the campaign that Akerson had taken cognizance of attacks leveled at the Republican nominee. The first statement issued by Akerson was after Senator Bruce, Democrat, Maryland, had stated in a speech that Clarence Darrow, noted criminal lawyer, had said he had had a drink with Herbert Hoover. The nominee's assistant said Hoover had not taken a drink since he became a constitutional officer of the United States government and subsequently Darrow denied that he said he had drunk with Hoover.

Hoover, himself, is keeping clear of these matters as he is determined to stay out of controversies. He also has refrained from any statements regarding "whispers" that have been circulated about him. Hoover, when a statement was sent out on the official stationery of the Republican national committee urging women of Virginia to save the country from being "Romanized" he quickly repudiated such campaign tactics.

Boy Enters Suit To Keep Out Of Chicago School

Chicago, Oct. 20—(AP)—A suit by a 16-year-old boy to keep out of school was something new in Circuit Court records today.

The suit, brought by Russell Gilday, is against the board of education, to restrain it from compelling Gilday to attend school. It is the youth's contention that the board has no right to interfere with the boy's privilege to earn a living, and that its action is unconstitutional.

Gilday gets $165 a month in the employ of an insurance company, and supports his mother, who has no other means of support. The school board had notified the boy's employe that because he is not yet 17 years old he is required, under state law, to spend eight hours a week in school.

Bomb Wrecks Part Of Chicago Hotel

Chicago, Oct. 20—(AP)—Bombers tossed a black powder missile onto a rear porch of the Grant Arms Hotel on Sheridan road last night. The explosion wrecked the rear of the building, injured one woman and threw several of the hotel's 100 guests from their beds.

Persons trying to gain control of the hotel were blamed by police for the blast. Earl Leffelman, who with his wife owns the building, formerly was a prohibition agent. He discredited theories, however, that the bomb was placed by persons he arrested on liquor charges.

ONE MORE WEEK TO REGISTER

Persons who have not registered for the coming election have but one more week to do so, and if you are not sure that you are already on the books you should give the matter your attention at once. If you have never voted in a general election or if you have changed your place of residence since you last voted you will have to re-register if you want to vote on November 6 and after next Saturday it will be too late to get your name on. Don't overlook this matter until it is too late. Of course, as a good citizen, you want to have a voice in choosing those officials who are to run the affairs of our government for the next four years and in order to exercise this privilege you must be properly registered. CONTRIBUTE NOW

An appeal for contributions to the National Campaign fund of the Democratic Party has been received from Treasurer James W. Gerard, and we pass this appeal on to the good Democrats of our community with the hope that they will respond to this call for help and do it at once. Of course every loyal Democrat wants the party to win and no doubt wants to have a part, no matter how small, in sharing the financial burdens of the campaign. Send your contributions in to us now. We will send it to national headquarters and you will receive a certificate listing you as one of the contributors to the campaign of 1928 which we sincerely hope will be a victorious one for the party and mark the beginning of a new and better era in the life of our country.

ABOUT TOWN

With hard surfaced roads leading into the city from all directions, Greenville is certainly the ideal shopping center of Eastern North Carolina, declared a local business man today.

"The city is easily reached from all sections over one of the finest road systems in the country and there is no reason on earth why people within a radius of a hundred miles or more should not come to Greenville and view the hundreds of old bargains which local merchants have to offer.

"Values here justify one making the trip from a long distance. The saving will more than cover the expense incurred in the trip."

"The Kiwanis had a big time last night celebrating the anniversary of the founding of the local club," said a prominent member of the organization today. "This club has been quite active in behalf of the city for a number of years. It is not only a dinner club, but also uses its influence in the upbuilding of the wonderful community in which it is located."

"We are making elaborate preparations for the coming of Clyde Hoey, of Shelby, next Wednesday night," said a prominent member of the Pitt County Democratic club today.

"This is the first time this distinguished citizen has visited this community. It is a settled fact that he will bring a message vitally concerning every man and woman of the locality.

"Everybody is invited to attend the speaking and hear the principal issues of the campaign discussed by one who knows the needs of the nation probably better than any man in his section."

"Hogs may be nothing more than plain hogs to some folks, but to the farmers of Pitt county they are beginning to represent an unusual monetary consideration," said a well known member of the Department of Agriculture today.

"Not so long ago the average farmer raised enough hogs for his own need, but today numbers of them are branching out and producing for market purposes. This resulted in the bringing of several thousands of extra dollars to Pitt county this year and promise of a greater sum in future years.

"These extra money crops are meaning much to this community and should eventually be instrumental in putting the farmer on easy street—that is a majority of them sufficiently industrious work for it."

"Pay-Up Week," said a member of the Greenville Merchants Association, "is not far off now and people ought to get busy and see that as many of their outstanding obligations as possible are settled in full.

"The Association is planning a new list of creditors for the next year and those who pay up will have a clear rating. Those who fail to pay will be rated accordingly. They will find it mighty hard to obtain credit from any of the reputable firms in the future.

"If you have any outstanding obligations, get busy and make settlement at once."

"If you are not sure about your eligibility to vote in the coming election, go to the court house and

BARNARD SEES HARD FIGHT NEXT SEASON
Chicago, Oct. 20—(AP)—With the injection of new managerial blood and strengthening of all clubs, President E. S. Barnard of the American League predicts a hard fight for the 1929 pennant in the Junior Circuit.
"Every club has added players that should bolster up weak spots so that it will be hard for the Yankees to repeat," he said.

In Bucky Harris and Walter Johnson, President Barnard sees two managers who will put the Detroit Tigers and Washington Senators up among the leaders next year.
Kahn To Restore Columns.
New York—A gift by Otto H. Kahn will enable the restoration of columns on the north side of the Parthenon, in Athens, wrecked by an explosion in 1877. And Leihu Root says: "How old time will rub his eyes to see the pins set up for him to bowl at, let us hope, two or three thousand years more."

late in the first quarter and led the team to the first score. King starred on the defense and in catching passes and these two boys should make the all-conference team.

The crowd was rather disappointing in size and it is hoped by the officials of the school that next Friday a much better crowd will be to cheer the team and give them the support that their showing in yesterday's game deserves.

In Politics Of Nation Today

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago—Smith attacked Hubert Work for renewal of Sinclair oil contract; charged Borah with inconsistency in supporting Hoover; assailed Republican administration, citing oil scandals and farm depression.

Washington—George Akedson, Hoover assistant, denied charges attributed to Governor Bilbo, Mississippi, that Hoover danced with negro woman; denounced such an utterance; Dilbo at Jackson, denied made statement as his own, saying he quoted it as having made at public rally.

Trenton, N. J.—Curtis reviewed Republican record; said party declares that "with few exceptions its act of government have been to the great benefit of the nation."

Casper, Wyo.—Robinson declared Smith "especially fitted," by career in New York to assume presidency; said Hoover's "long career as business man has not specially qualified him" for White House.

Louisville—Borah charged Smith with having accepted protective tariff system for "political expediency."

Washington—Bishop James Cannon, Methodist Church South, said in statement Democratic charges of religious intolerance not made

In good faith but voiced to raise same intolerance in behalf of Smith.

New York—John W. Davis, said Smith's election make government "one more an instrument of human justice."

Uzcudun Loses When He Fouls Big Peterson

New York, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Paulino Uzcudun, Spanish woodchopper, had a defeat on his fistic record today to remind him that haste makes waste.

He acted a bit hurriedly in his 10-round battle with Big Boy Peterson at Ebbets Field last night, made the mistake of hitting a man who was already down and out and accordingly was disqualified on a foul.

Peterson, a Minneapolis product, gave Paulino as good as he received in the first round but the Spaniard, opening a new American invasion after a long layoff, soon found the range in the second round and doored Peterson for a count of nine. As Peterson got up the Basque leaped in with both hands and sent the big boy down and out. Losing his head completely, Paulino then landed another punch while Peterson lay unconscious, his head hanging over the middle rope.

AVERT STRIKE OF WYOMING MINERS

Rock Springs, Wyo., Oct. 20.—(AP)—Threat of a strike by coal miners in Southwestern Wyoming was belied by state union officers to have been definitely removed today after conference last night with leaders of every union in the district and the promise of miners in the three camps which were idle that they would return to work tomorrow.

Blast Shakes Houston, Houston, Texas, Oct. 20.—(AP)—A blast, believed to have resulted when a hot rivet fell from a skyscraper under construction into a pocket of gas, rocked the business district here yesterday. A brick building was wrecked and a girl injured by flying debris.

Local Highs Win On Grid

The Greenville High Tobacco Worms yesterday defeated Elizabeth City to the tune of 13 to 0. The game was hard fought throughout but the locals clearly demonstrated their superiority by making ten first-downs to their opponents' 3.

Straight football predominated through most of the game as the ball was to wet to take chances on forward passes and trick plays. However, it was a pass in the first quarter, Respass to King, completed for a gain of thirty yards put the ball in position to be carried over by Briley on the next down.

In the third quarter Greenville gained the ball on Elizabeth City's 40 yard line and were held for three downs. From a punt formation on the fourth down Respass swept around right end for forty yards and a touchdown. Hodges made one of the prettiest plays of the day on the try for point. The pass was short and low and with opponents closing in on him from all sides, he picked up the ball and made a beautiful drop kick for the extra point.

As usual, Respass was the offensive star of the game. Held out of the game at the beginning because of a knee injury sustained during the Wilson game, he was sent in

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—A low opening was followed by rallies in the cotton market here today. There was southern selling and liquidation at the start, but offerings soon tapered off and trading later was quiet with prices of December working up from 1946 to 1960 on trade buying and covering. December closed at 19.57 with the general market closing steady net 1 point lower to 6 points higher.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 20—(AP)—Wheat prices tumbled today to within about 1c of the lowest figure of the season. Standing orders to sell out at various fixed limits and thus stop losses were forced into operation as values gave way. Approach of Harvest in the Southern Hemisphere with prospective consequent additions to big supplies of wheat already in sight elsewhere, was a bearish factor, and so, too, were rain reports from India and predictions of large world shipments.

Wheat closed heavy, 1 3/8 to 2c net lower; corn 3/4 to 1 1/8c down; oats 1/8c to 3/8c off; and provisions unchanged to a setback of 47 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—Heavy selling of the motor shares unsettled today's stock market after an early outburst of strength had carried a score of issues to new high ground. Extreme gains of 1 to 10 points in a long list of pool specialties were offset by a number of 1 to 5 point declines. Trading was again in large volume, with the ticker 20 minutes or more behind the market during the greater part of the session.

There was nothing in the overnight news to explain the selling of the motors although the strong resistance encountered on recent rallies probably discouraged the speculative following in those issues.

General Motors was hammered 4 points below last night's final quotations and Nash, Chrysler and Hudson dropped 2 points or more. Fluctuations in Intl. Nickel became extremely erratic. Opening 4 points lower at 180, the stock then ran up to 167 and then back to the opening price in the last hour.

Most of the coppers continued to press forward in expectation of an early advance in red metal prices.

The closing was irregular. Total sales approximated 2,220,800 shares.

LOCAL KIWANIS CLUB OBSERVE 7TH BIRTHDAY

Anniversary Marked By Splendid Program At Rotary Building Last Night.

The Greenville Kiwanis club was seven years old October 14th. The anniversary was celebrated at the regular twice-a-month meeting of the organization last night. The occasion was a happy one. It was marked by several spirited talks by some of the fifteen charter members, an inspirational musical program, awarding of prizes, and a large birthday cake which was presented to Miss Carolyn Fullilove, a member of the named quartet that furnished the musical numbers of the evening.

The session was presided over by President J. F. Harrington. Speeches dealing with the ideals of Kiwanis were made by R. G. Fitzgerald, J. B. James, Charlie Forbes, W. H. Woolard and Herbert Wald. Mr. James, and Misses Carolyn who, aside from congratulating the Kiwanians on their birthday, told of the tax amendment to be voted upon in the forthcoming election.

Each talk vibrated with the spirit of the organization, "We Build". Bert James sounded the highest ideal of the club's life when he said its real mission was the "application of the Golden Rule as it applies to the present day."

The musical program was rendered by Messrs. C. B. Rowlett, and James, and Misses Carolyn and Agnes Fullilove. Their rendition of a Kiwanis birthday song, composed for the local club by Miss Loraine Hunter, Science teacher of the Greenville high school, was one of the outstanding features of the program. They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Lotta Veasey, director of Music of city schools.

Miss Carolyn Fullilove was presented the birthday cake after she had won it in a contest arranged especially for five visiting ladies. The presentation was made by Ralph Deal, R. G. Fitzgerald was awarded a package of unknown contents as result of his birthday coming nearer that of the club than anybody else in the building. The presentation was made by his brother, Dr. Paul Fitzgerald, who candidly expressed belief that Bob had led his way to the coveted honor.

It was voted to send Miss Hunter's song to the Kiwanis magazine for publication. The composition follows: (TUNE: "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes.")

Greetings to thee, Kiwanians, on this, thy own birthday. Many other clubs we've known, but none like thee, we say. The spirit of each member wise, doth prove a club so fine, So, might we, of all clubs choose one, we'd be Kiwanians.

No Knights, who lived in days of old, tho they were brave and bold, Could equal our Kiwanians, with hearts as pure as gold. "To Build" the purpose of each one an aim so pure and high. With members like these, Kiwanians, your club can reach the sky.

You had your birth, Kiwanis Club, in nineteen twenty one. Since then, a record you have made, excelled by not a one. So, here's to you, Kiwanians, Loud may your praises ring. And when this time comes round next year, may we return to sing? —Lorraine Hunter.
