PLAN TO CURB VILE REPORTS ABOUT SMITH

Wake Democratic Committee Offers $200 Reward For Those Circulating Reports.

Raleigh, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The Wake County Democratic Executive Committee has offered $200 reward for evidence resulting in the conviction of any person for the publication and circulation of anonymous slanders about Governor Alfred E. Smith of the Democratic presidential nominee.

The statement, signed by Chairman James H. Pou, Jr., was as follows:

"Certain cowardly, base minded assassins of character are sending out anonymous pamphlets and printed matter falsely attacking and slandering Gov. Alfred E. Smith. These men are too utterly lacking in courage to sign these statements which they know to be false."

"Two hundred dollars reward will be paid to any person furnishing evidence resulting in the conviction of any person connected with the publication or sending out of these statements, including the letter writing agencies doing the work."

"If these statements were true the Republican speakers would tell you about them. Their silence and the dastardly manner of publication proves their falsity."

"Section 4185, sub-section 11 of the Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina makes it a crime to send out such literature, without the signature of the person sending it."

"Voters, you cannot believe the anonymous publications of these vile and sunning criminals. See if you can find where they are coming from."

ROOSEVELTS TO EXPLORE SOUTH ASIA

Kermit and Theodore To Head Second Zoological Expedition From America.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Col. Theodore Roosevelt and Kermit Roosevelt will head their second zoological expedition for the Field Museum of Natural History November 19. It was announced today by Stephen C. Simms, director of the museum.

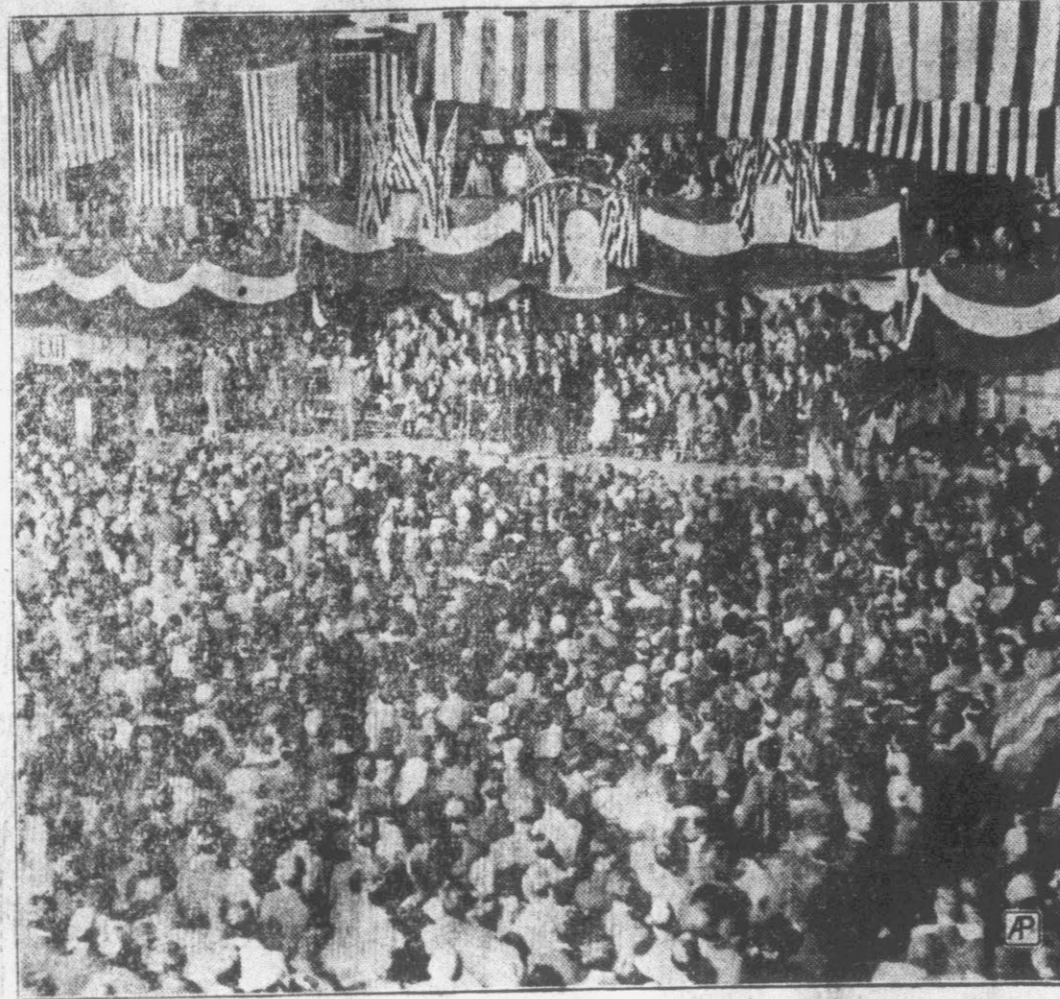

With Suydam Cutting of New York City, they will seek rare animals in unexplored mountains and jungles of Southeastern Asia. The expedition will survey the region lying northward of Indochina along the Ganges of the Mekong River and abutting the borders of Burma, Siam and Yunnan.

The latter objective of the expedition will be sought by a second party under the leadership of Harold Coolidge, Jr., a young mammalogist of Boston. He will be accompanied by Dr. Josselyn Van Tyne, assistant Curator of Birds at the Museum of Zoology of the University of Michigan. Dr. Ralph E. Wheeler of Cambridge, Mass., who will be medical officer and assistant naturalist, and Russell W. Hendree of Brooklyn, N. Y., recently returned from three years' work in South America as a zoologist.

Funds for the expedition were largely donated by William V. Kelley, president of the Miehle Printing Press and Manufacturing Company, Chicago, and in consequence the expedition has been named the William V. Kelley-Roosevelts Expedition to Eastern Asia Field Museum.

The first part of the expedition, under the Roosevelts, will sail from New York to India. There they will assemble equipment and proceed to the Yunnan border. Young Coolidge will leave for Hong Kong, 22 from Vancouver for Hong Kong, and then will take another ship for French Indo-China. Advance food supplies for this company were sent out six months ago and have been slowly pushed up 1,000 miles of river to various posts on the interior.

CHICAGO HEARS GOVERNOR ALFRED E. SMITH

The 131st regiment army in Chicago was crowded hours before the democratic presidential candidate spoke on farm relief and the republican party record. Thousands stood in the rain outside to hear Governor Smith. The speech climaxed a three day stay in the Illinois city and followed a parade through the metropolis.

The raids were conducted by the entire staff of the county detectives and 50 state troopers amid scenes of confusion. To prevent a tip-off the road-

NOT TO TALK U. S. DEBTS

Reparations Commission Will Omit Discussion Of What Europe Owes America.

Paris, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Premier Poincaré and Winston Churchill, British chancellor of the exchequer, it was learned today, have agreed that in the coming discussion of reparations that the question of French and other European debts owed to the United States shall not be discussed.

They also agreed that the best course in preparing for a revision of German reparations payments is to mention no capital sums nor terms of years within which the payments shall be made.

In regard to subs and terms of years, Hermann Mueller and Gustav Stresemann, respectively chancellor and foreign minister of Germany, hold views identical to those of M. Poincaré. They believe it useless to talk about how much Germany can pay and when, thus confusing and embarrassing the special committee to which revision will be referred.

The allied governments concerned are themselves not quite sure as to what sums they can exact and the German government has not formulated any proposals. The only preoccupation of the governments at present is to form a committee to draw up general terms of reference.

Concerning debts, Premier Poincaré is described as having said most positively that as far as the French government is concerned, there is no intention of asking the United States to reduce the debt by a sou. His position is that France has already acknowledged the debt, was paying installments on it under the Mellon-Berenger settlement and will not question the obligation.

Lindbergh On Way To Mexico

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, flying his fast Curtiss Falcon plane, today was combining business with pleasure. On his way to hunt bear in Mexico he was surveying landing fields.

Before his takeoff from Curtiss field yesterday he said he would make a survey of landing fields for the Transcontinental Transport Company, whose technical committee he heads. Advice from Mexico City that it was for him to go on a bear hunting trip this winter with Col. Alexander J. MacNab.

Lindbergh stopped at Columbus, Ohio, for the night.

Four Mexican military aviators plan to fly to the border from Mexico City Wednesday to meet their distinguished visitor of last summer and escort him to the La Babiá ranch of Hal Mangum where the bear hunt is to be held.

The private airplane of the secretary of war will be placed at Lindbergh's disposal, if he should desire to fly it instead of his own Falcon.

Lindbergh wore a heavy flying suit instead of his customary business clothes and also had a parachute strapped on. He carried a box of food. His Falcon plane is equipped with flares and landing lights for possible descents at unlighted air fields or emergency landings.

When an air pilot he frequently flew the night mail but had not taken such a trip since his appointment to the Transcontinental's board.

Find Diamonds After Wreck Of Mail Plane

Franklin, Pa., Oct. 22.—(AP)—A postal inspector today was collecting diamonds which disappeared in a "crash" on the burned remains of a mail plane in which a national air transport pilot fell to his death near Polk, Pa. The diamonds were part of the mail cargo in the plane.

The plane, piloted by William G. Hopson, crashed and burned sometime Thursday night. Wesley L. Smith, superintendent of mails of the air transport company, salvaged part of the mail and what he thought was all of the diamonds and then announced that the plane had been abandoned.

Souvenir hunters found a few diamonds in the wreckage and the rush was on. One man scooped up earth near the plane which he took home and sifted to find four diamonds. Some skeptical sold their finds for $2 to $3 only to find they were worth $85 or more.

When word reached post office authorities William Tafel, an inspector, was sent here to recover the diamonds. He obtained a list of those reported to have found diamonds in the wreckage and started search of the wreckage.

The value of the diamond shipment was not disclosed. Several finds of as high as dozen stones have been reported.

TWO MILLION POUNDS LEAF IN CITY TODAY

Today witnessed the heaviest sales of the season on the Greenville tobacco market, according to information given out this morning by W. W. Cobb, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade.

Approximately two million pounds of golden leaf was on the floors of the nine warehouses, the statement said. The price situation was reported firm, although it was impossible to estimate the average.

Heretofore the market has been quarter pounds of leaf dail, but the enormous amount today has shattered any record in the history of the market. The quality of leaf was reported similar to that of last week when much common tobacco was in evidence.

The average price of today's sales will be available tomorrow morning. These figures are compiled under supervision of the Tobacco Board of Trade and are accurate tabulations taken from the report of the various warehouses.

WIFE HOPEFUL FLIER HUSBAND STILL ALIVE

London, October 22.—(AP)—Hopes of Mrs. H. C. MacDonald that her husband had survived his attempt to fly the Atlantic in a tiny Moth plane were buoyed up today by the dreams of friends that he was on a small island. Government circles, however, were unwilling to send searching parties to try to verify the dreams.

Two friends of Mrs. MacDonald, one of them Sir Herbert Baker, a surgeon, told her that they had identical dreams that the airman had been cast on a rock island.

Mrs. MacDonald was swayed by this coincidence and decided that the island meant was Rockall, a lonely rock 200 miles off the West Coast of Scotland.

The flier's wife went to the Admiralty and asked if anything could be done. Officials were sympathetic but informed her that Rockall was nothing but a small, high rock, inaccessible to boats in the present stormy weather and so cold and exposed that nobody could survive there very long.

Mrs. MacDonald then went to Crocydon Airfield and suggested that a plane be sent to the islet. Again she received sympathy, but no help.

Sick Man Dies On Airplane

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 22.—(AP)—An airplane was hastily outfitted into an air ambulance to bring a patient here from Laredo, Texas, yesterday, but the patient, Edward St. Albans, 50, died in the air 25 minutes from the municipal landing field.

St. Albans, an oil operator on the border, and husband of Mary St. Albans, author who writes under the name of Mary White, was stricken with hemorrhages of the stomach in Laredo, and physicians ordered a plane from here to transport him to a local hospital.

Accompanied by physicians the dying man was loaded into the plane, and with his wife riding north in an air mail plane, the trip was begun. He died during a seizure before the plane landed and his wife did not know of the death until she reached the city where the body had been taken.

Confusion caused by a report that the plane had been sent to Laredo to bring Gutzon Borglum here for an operation caused a quick check of the whereabouts of the prominent sculptor and artist who was found safe aboard a train en route here from Raleigh, N. C.

EDUCATORS TO MEET IN CITY IN NOVEMBER

Conference of North- eastern District Scheduled For No- vember 9th and 10th

The Northeastern district of the North Carolina Educational Association will meet in Greenville on Friday and Saturday, November 9th and 10th, it was announced today. Approximately two thousand teachers representing educators of the nation are on program for the occasion, it was stated.

This will be the third time the Association has met in Greenville. Sessions held here the last year and the year preceding were highly successful. Entertainment was of such a high order that it was voted to meet here again this year.

Members of the committee having accommodations of the visitors in charge, said today that two hundred rooms would be needed. It was requested that anybody having rooms for rent notify the secretary of the Methodist Association. An equally large number attended the session last year and everyone was looked after in a commendable way.

The program for the conference will be completed in a few days and will then be given due publicity.

Son Of Former Pres. Cleveland To Speak Here

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Democratic headquarters announced today that Richard Cleveland, a son of President Cleveland, would make two speeches in North Carolina on the eve of the election. He is scheduled to speak in Greenville, November 2nd, and in New Bern the next night.

HUGO ECKENER VISITS CITY OF CHICAGO TODAY

Zeppelin Builder Tells Of Dream Of Airship To Carry 300 Passengers.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener, with dreams of future airships that would make the Graf Zeppelin a midget of the skies, was Chicago's guest today.

The commander of the trans-Atlantic dirigible, Graf Zeppelin, with Lady Drummond Hay, a passenger on the Atlantic flight, and members of his crew, arrived last night by train to be greeted by cheers of "Gut Heil," and a pageantry of tribute that bespoke the acclaim of "the sixth Germany city."

Long hours of vigil on his flight and the strain of America's welcome, however, had not lessened Dr. Eckener's ardor for dirigible travel.

Trans-oceanic airship carrying 250 or 300 passengers were among his predictions. They would be like the Graf Zeppelin, he said, but much larger. They would cross the oceans twice as fast as the fastest liners and would fly on regular schedules.

To a crowd in the huge stadium of Soldier Field, where he was officially welcomed, Dr. Eckener promised Chicago a glimpse of the Graf Zeppelin during its westward continental flight. The giant ship is to leave Chicago after it leaves Scott Field, Bellefonte, Ill.

Today Dr. Eckener was to tour downtown Chicago and confer with Mayor Thompson and the city council. Following a banquet to be attended by 5,000 persons, the commander and his party will leave for New York tonight.

SMITH PINS HOPE TO FIVE STATES TODAY

Democratic Candidate To Make Whirl- wind Campaign On Atlantic Seaboard.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Albany, N. Y., October 22.—(AP)—Confident that he has lined up under his banner all of the states touched on his 3,600 mile tour just ended, Governor Smith now is pinning his hopes on five strategic Atlantic Seaboard States with a total electoral vote of 123, or ten less than half the number needed to place him in the White House.

Starting on Wednesday with a speech at Boston, the Democratic presidential nominee will carry his fight to Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, making his final ten days of campaigning before election a whirlwind affair closely paralleling his past gubernatorial battle finishes.

Only a tentative schedule had been mapped out today beyond the Boston address. Subject to change, it calls for speeches at Philadelphia Saturday; Baltimore October 29; New Ark October 31; Brooklyn November 2, and New York City November 3.

While labor, foreign relations, re-organization of government and other subjects remain to be discussed by the candidate, he has not definitely settled in his mind where he will take up these particular questions. He has indicated that he may make his Boston address an appeal to the labor elements of that center, but he is withholding decision.

All five seaboard states to be visited by the nominee were in the Republican column four years ago. Massachusetts with its 18 electoral votes, New York's 45, Pennsylvania's 33, New Jersey's 14, and Maryland's 8—all fell under the avalanche of ballots that swept Calvin Coolidge to victory.

Assessing the results of his second campaign tour he said: "We have a rocky well settled states we have been in, from what I can hear. Of course I never shared the doubt about Tennessee that was going around. I never believed that was off the hook, or North Carolina either. I did not know about Kentucky when we started, but I am satisfied with it."

The governor said his optimism also embraced Virginia, Alabama, Texas, Florida, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois.

Referring to Anti-Smith sentiment in some of the Southern States, the nominee said all that were heard from in those states "are the noisy minorities."

"They are loud, but not numerically strong," he added.

During a press conference, the governor was led into a discussion of "the value to the people of the candidate taking the issue to them."

That, he said, was "demonstrated in the first instance by the number of telegrams and letters that we get in response, in which the people say: 'That is the first explanation I have heard of that subject in any detail,' and that must be so because it is so completely at variance with the manner and method of conducting campaigns heretofore, where there has been no definite subjects before the house but all this general talk."

Democratic Fight Reaches Peak in N. C.

Raleigh, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The Democratic campaign reached its peak this week. One hundred and fifty speeches have been arranged in behalf of the state and national ticket for delivery before next Sunday, party headquarters here announced, most of them being in the rural sections and small towns.

Thomas W. Hardwick, former governor of Georgia, and former United States senator, will speak at High Point tonight. Other out of state speakers on the week's schedule are former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, presidential candidate in 1920, who will speak in Asheville Saturday night, Lieut-Gov. James Breathitt of Kentucky, who will use an airplane in his campaigning, and James F. Byrnes, former congressman of South Carolina.

Negro Fatally Hurt In Auto Wreck Here

James Price, an employee of the "M" system store was at liberty under $1,000 bond today in connection with the death of an unknown negro, fatally injured in an automobile wreck Saturday night. Price will be given preliminary hearing before Magistrate John W. Smith sometime tomorrow.

Price was driving a truck belonging to the local store when it collided with an automobile parked on the side of the road. The unknown negro was riding on the running board of the truck. The impact threw him off, producing injuries that resulted in his death yesterday.

Seize Foreign Ships With Liquor Cargoes

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to pass on a new question in prohibition enforcement challenging the right of the Federal Government to seize foreign vessels outside the three-mile limit when found to have on board cargoes of intoxicating liquors which had not been listed on a manifest.

The French Auxiliary Schooner "Mistinguette" and the British Auxiliary Schooner "Rosie M. B." were seized by the Coast Guard, the former 4 1/2 miles off Long Island, with liquor cargo valued at $198,000 and the latter 11 miles off Long Island, with a small cargo of malt and malt liquor.

Arrange For Coming Of Clyde Hoey Wednesday; Woman To Speak Friday

Final arrangements were being made today for the appearance here Wednesday night of Clyde Hoey, of Shelby, who is scheduled to deliver an address in connection with the Democratic campaign in this county. The speaking will be held at the courthouse at 7:30 o'clock. Members of the Democratic executive committee said today they expected the largest crowd of the campaign.

This is the first time in years the distinguished speaker from Shelby has visited this county, and the committee was making arrangements to care for numbers of people from other sections. Mr. Hoey has been greeted by capacity audiences in all section he has visited.

His championship in the cause of Democracy has fired the spirit of party members and caused the campaign to take on great impetus.

The committee today announced the coming to this city next Friday night of two women speakers. They are Mrs. Lyman Cotton and Mrs. Gregory, both of Salisbury. This is the third time women have appeared in this city in connection with the Democratic campaign and much interest is manifested in their coming. They speak at Farmville Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, coming directly to Greenville where they are scheduled to appear at the courthouse at 8 o'clock.

Both of these women are well known in Greenville and Pitt county. Mrs. Gregory is the daughter of Senator Overman and for many years has taken an active part in the social life of the state. Mrs. Cotton is the wife of the late Capt. Lyman Cotton, son of R. R. Cotton, of Bruce, who died some time ago.

These ladies have appeared at a number of places in Eastern North Carolina recently, advocating the cause of Democracy. They have been greeted by large crowds wherever they have appeared and members of the local committee stated they expected the courthouse would be well filled when they visit Greenville.

Plans looking to organization of the young women of Greenville will be definitely shaped at a meeting to be held at the high school auditorium Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All young women, both married and single, have been invited to attend to take part in organization plans. The purpose of the meeting will be to impress upon the young women the necessity of their participation in behalf of the campaign for Democracy.

Democrats were well pleased with progress of the campaign in different sections of the county today. They expressed belief that the majority of Democrats would be organized by the date of the national election, November 6th.

Superior Court Convenes Here

A two weeks' term of Pitt County Superior Court, for the trial of civil and criminal cases, convened in this city today with Judge R. A. Knum, of New Bern, presiding. This week will be devoted to the hearing of civil issues and next week will feature criminal cases.

The calendar for this week contains numbers of issues of more or less importance and the session is expected to be the busiest in some time.

COMMERCIAL SECRETARIES
MEET AT NASHVILLE

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Members of the National Association of Commercial Organization Secretaries from all over the United States opened a three-day convention here today.

After an informal meeting last night during which the delegates, who number more than 400 renewed acquaintances, the assembly opened its formal session this morning with an address of welcome delivered by John P. W. Brown, president of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce.

William Holden, general secretary of the Tulsa (Okla.) Chamber of Commerce and president of the association, made his address at the morning session.

The Associations' sponsorship of the National School and the cooperation that "put it on an efficient working basis," is among the outstanding accomplishments of the organization, Mr. Holden said.

Presidential Race Still Whirligig Of Argument

By BYRON PRICE (Associated Press Staff Writer) Charlotte, N. C., October 22—(AP)—Presidential politics still is a whirligig of argument and speculation in North Carolina, with experienced politicians disagreeing whether the final turn will give the State to Smith or Hoover.

Like other leaders of their party throughout the South, the Democratic campaign managers declare a reaction has reestablished the normal ascendancy. The Republicans say this claim is made without definite knowledge, and purely for effect. Neither side is disposed to speak in terms of large majorities, and both concede that certain uncertainties still make it difficult to put the situation into exact figures.

The point of departure of all these calculations is the fact that North Carolina is in no other Southern State, the friends of Governor Smith face a double handicap. Not only is the presidential nominee opposed by a long-influential Democratic leader, in the person of Senator Simmons, but this is one State of the Southern sister-hood where the Republican party is no negligible quality. In the last two-way presidential division, in 1920, Harding received 232,848 votes in this State, to 305,447 for Cox.

This is one State, too, in which the Republican organization has not been agitated and disturbed in the midst of the campaign by a reversion process in the interests of "hilly-whites" Southern Republicans. In North Carolina, the party has been under white leadership for many years, while elsewhere differences after the Kansas City convention, but they were adjusted with dispatch and the State-wide machinery turned determinedly to the task of gathering in these twelve electoral votes for Hoover.

The Anti-Smith Democratic organization, being much newer, has not gone into battle with the same coordination of effort, nor does it number among its personnel anything like as great a number of experienced politicians. Headed by Frank McNich, a Charlotte lawyer, its executive committee does include men who have long been conspicuous in the business, professional and educational affairs of the State. Senator Simmons, who resigned from the Democratic national committee to oppose the party's national ticket, has not gone fishing, as many Smith leaders supposed he would, but has made one public speech denouncing the Democratic nominee and is to deliver another during the present week.

Caught between the jaws of this dual attack is a Democratic State organization built up largely by Senator Simmons himself, and still functioning with considerable purpose now that Simmons is on the other side. Simmons' colleague, Senator Overman, is stumping for Smith. So is Josephus Daniels, Wilson's secretary of the navy and a pronounced dry. All of the Democratic congressmen have endorsed their party's ticket. Other elective state officers also have remained in line, and the Democratic leaders now reckon the effect of Simmons' defection, not in terms of its influence on the central State organization, but in relation to his personal following among the voters.

What this may mean as to the reconstruction of the Democratic party in the State is not yet apparent. It is a singular feature of the situation that personal bitterness seems to have been kept at a minimum. The Democratic organization has not sought to discipline the Smith dissenters as they have been disciplined in some other Southern States. Those members of the State Executive Committee who went over to the Anti-Smith forces still are members of the Executive committee. The Anti-Smith committee is circulating literature in support of the Democratic State ticket, put out by the regular State headquarters.

Nor has the discussion of issues run to such bitter lengths here as in other parts of the South. There has been some public talk of religion and white supremacy, but more of prohibition and immigration, the two issues on which the Anti-Smith people declare the nominee has bolted the platform. The Republicans have made insistent use of the tariff issue in their appeals to the now extensive manufacturing industry of the State.

North Carolina stands virtually alone among the Southern States in the lack of fusion between the Republicans and the Anti-Smith Democrats. Each organization has not only maintained its own identity, but the leaders say there has been no cooperation between them. Each makes its own campaign in its own way, with its own speakers, and its own literature. The Anti-Smith Democrats are emphasizing their opposition to Smith, rather than support for Hoover. Even Senator Simmons has not said he was for Hoover.

These and other elements in the situation make it impossible to include North Carolina in most generalizations as to the campaign in the South. No other State south of the border state except Alabama, where the normal Republican vote is not a serious factor, has a Democratic official of senatorial rank campaigning against the party ticket.

South Carolina, the Anti-Smith movement has brought down upon its head the concerted condemnation of the ranking leaders of the party.

There is no question that the Smith Democrats of North Carolina have made a powerful resistance against the double attack, and now they insist they have the upper hand, although the opposition does not concede it. Much work still is to be done on both sides.

The Republicans and Democrats both are reaching down into their county and precinct organizations just now to determine the points where concentration is needed. In the course of this process both have probed into the unmeasured reservoirs of a now-recognized "silent vote", whose voice on election day—if heard at all—will be an important factor in swelling the chorus for Hoover or Smith.

State Fair Opens Today

Raleigh, Oct. 22—(AP)—North Carolina's first state-owned fair threw its gates open today, with hundreds of visitors already in the city for the opening. Installation of exhibits and other arrangements for the opening were completed late yesterday.

The gates were opened at ten o'clock, but formal opening ceremonies were delayed until 12:30 when Governor McLean was scheduled to deliver a brief address.

One last minute change in the program was announced. Automobile races scheduled for today were replaced by horse races. The change was necessitated, according to fair officials, because of the unexpected large number of horses entered, requiring more racing days to give them all a chance to participate.

Competitive events of the horse show will be sandwiched in with the races. Horses have been entered from many parts of the state and some of North Carolina's finest three and five gaited saddle horses and jumpers were ready to entertain the spectators.

Free vaudeville acts, a band concert, and fireworks display were also on the opening day's program. It was school children's day, and hundreds of young people were expected to attend. Schools in Raleigh and nearby points declared a holiday.

Nebraska Gives Robison Great Campaign Rally

By RAYMOND Z. HENLE, Associated Press Staff Writer. Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 22—(AP)—Nebraska Democrats working strenuously to put their state in the Smith-Robinson column, made the visit to Lincoln of Senator Joe T. Robinson today the vehicle for one of the biggest rallies of the campaign.

On hand to welcome the vice-presidential nominee of their party were former Senator G. M. Hitchcock himself a candidate at Houston for the presidential nomination, and Charles W. Bryan, brother of the Commoner, who is seeking the governorship of the state.

Senator Robinson was prepared to send the host of party workers who had come to hear him speak tonight in the 20,000-seat University of Nebraska auditorium, back to their labors with additional campaign arguments, among the subjects he has selected to carry on his middle western campaign are an attack upon the Republican farm relief policy and a bid for the support of women voters.

In expectation that this section would desire to hear the Democratic views on farm relief, Senator Robinson assembled his facts on this question for use in his speech tonight.

ELIZABETH CITY MAN DIES OF INJURIES

Elizabeth City, N. C., Oct. 22—(AP)—G. Ruffin Connoek, 22 Norfolk, died at 11:05 this morning at the Elizabeth City hospital of injuries received in a motorcycle accident at Wintfall about 7 o'clock last night.

Connoek, who was riding toward Elizabeth City, was on a blind curve at Wintfall when he lost control of his motorcycle. The machine tore down a fence and struck a tree before coming to a stop, and Connoek suffered a fractured skull and broken collar bone. He was rushed to the Elizabeth City Hospital in an unconscious condition and died today.

HOOVER WILL END TOUR OF EAST TONIGHT

Republican Vice-Presidential Candidate to Speak in New York City.

By JAMES L. WEST (Associated Press Staff Writer) New York, Oct. 22—(AP)—Herbert Hoover today was on the home ground of his Democratic opponent to wind up his campaign in the east with an address tonight at Madison Square Garden.

The Republican presidential candidate arrived here last night from Washington so that he might give a full day to conferences with party leaders and aid them in mapping out the strategy for the closing days of the fight for the 45 electoral votes of New York State.

In addition he was to receive various groups of foreign born voters and delegations from independent organizations working on behalf of the Republican national ticket and make an address at a luncheon to which county chairmen and vice-chairmen of the Empire State and many Republican campaign workers had been invited.

After spending the entire day at his hotel, the nominee is to go to Madison Square Garden shortly before 8 p. m. to deliver the last set speech he will make until he starts to his California home to vote, early next week.

Ellihu Root, secretary of state in the administration of President Taft, will preside and will first present Vice-President Dawes, who will make his first speech of the campaign. Hoover will start speaking about 8:30 o'clock and the whole program will be carried to the country on an extensive radio hookup.

New York State Republican leaders in charge of arrangements for the garden rally said there had been 70,000 applications for the 18,000 available seats. They announced that in order to accommodate an overflow meeting, loud speakers had been set up outside the building.

First on the rather strenuous program arranged for the Republican standard bearer during the day was a breakfast conference with Charles D. Hilles, national committeeman for New York; H. Edmund Michold, state chairman and other organization heads. These included Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the national committee; William H. Hill, head of the independent Hoover-Curtis League; Daniel E. Pomeroy, vice-chairman of the Republican national committee; Jeremiah Millbank, eastern Republican treasurer; Senator Geo. H. Moses of New Hampshire, chairman of the eastern campaign advisory committee; and Rep. John Q. Tilson, head of the eastern speakers' bureau.

After breakfast, Hoover was to receive a number of groups of foreign born voters.

Segrave To Steer Speed Automobile By Rifle Sight

London, Oct. 22—(AP)—When Major H. O. D. Segrave goes hurtling over the sands of Daytona Beach, Florida, in the near future, at a speed of well over 200 miles per hour, he will steer his car which he hopes to attain a speed of 240 miles per hour, perhaps more. Steering at so enormous a speed is of inestimable difficulty. The slightest error when the car is going at four miles a minutes would plunge it into the sea and mean disaster.

Major Segrave will try to obviate this difficulty by steering the car with sights just like a rifle, and direct it just as a bullet is directed to its target.

The apparatus on the car consists of telescope sights. These will be trained on a bull's eye target hanging from two coal-posts, 26 feet apart. There will be another pair of goal posts, similarly equipped, one mile away.

MOUZON CONFERS WITH METHODIST MINISTERS Charlotte, Oct. 22—(AP)—Deliberations incidental to the thirty-ninth annual conference of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, were begun here this afternoon when Rt. Rev. E. D. Mouzon, Bishop in charge of the Carolinas District, went into the first of a series of conferences with the presiding Elders composing the Bishop's cabinet.

Evolution Fight Causes Stir In Little Rock, Ark.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 22—(AP)—Arkansas Anti-Evolution fight figuratively has developed strange bedfellows—the Rev. Ben M. Bogard, Missionary Baptist minister, and the Atheist head, Charles Smith, of New York.

Both have availed their position on the proposed bill to be voted on in the general election in the same premise "Evolution is Godless". The pastor seeking to have passed a bill prohibiting the teaching of the theory of evolution in the schools of the state, while the unbeliever wants to "save Arkansas" from the alleged ridicule the passage of such an act would bring.

The rival contenders were equally condemned in a statement signed by 20 of the most prominent citizens in the state and published in an advertisement in a local Sunday paper. Smith was classed as a "public nuisance" and the ministers who would travel about the state debating with him were criticized. The advertisement sought to persuade the public of the compatibility of evolution and spirituality, the while using Smith's argument that the passage of the Anti-Evolution bill would bring the state to ridicule.

Last night the Rev. Bogard from his pulpit arraigned the local authorities for arresting Smith and for bringing to trial for "expressing his opinion of the Bible". The minister defended the right of the Atheist to a freedom of his views, whatever they are.

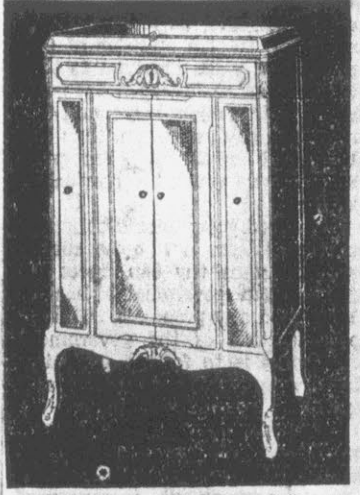

TO CALL TWO MORE WITNESSES TO STAND

Washington, Oct. 22—(AP)—The Federal Trade commission announced today that A. E. Smith, Comptroller and Assistant Secretary of the Electric Bond and Share company of New York, and Ralph P. E. P. Summerson, secretary of the company, also is expected to testify.

Further inquiry into publicity activities of the Public Utilities will be made Wednesday when Robert Montgomery, sales manager of the Louisville Gas and Electric company, Louisville, K., and Mrs. Josephine Corless Preston of Olympia, candidate for superintendent of Public Instruction for the state of Washington, are to testify.

Hon. William F. Evans, Raleigh, N. C., a distinguished lawyer, and a native of Pitt County, will address the voters of Pitt County, in the Courthouse in Greenville Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Ladies especially invited.—(Adv.)

MRS. PURRINGTON SPEAKS TO MEMBERS GREENVILLE CLUBS

On October 16 at the country club house, the Round Table Club entertained the members of the End of the Century, the Sans Souci and the Woman's clubs. The room was tastefully decorated with fall flowers, yellow and white, the club colors predominating.

The guests were received and welcomed by club members. They were introduced to Mrs. A. L. Purrington of Scotland Neck, the speaker for the occasion, by Mrs. W. C. Vincent, president of the Round Table Club. After placing their names on the register they were served lunch and seated. Promptly at four o'clock, Mrs. Vincent called the meeting to order, welcomed the group and introduced Mrs. H. E. Austin, chairman of the program committee of the hosts club. Mrs. Austin spoke briefly to the club women of the work for the library and for public health which they did together. She expressed pleasure that they could also meet in a "friendly sort of way."

Mrs. E. W. Griffin, accompanied by Miss Veazey, sang Tosti's "Goodbye," and "A Little Pink Rose," by Carrie Jacobs Bond. The audience thoroughly enjoyed these numbers. Mrs. Austin then introduced Mrs. Purrington, who spoke on "Woman's Place in the World Today." This unusually gifted and fluent speaker delighted the whole group as she traced the development of woman's influence up to the present time when it is a power that is being felt in every phase of life. An outline of her address is given below.

Miss Gorrell of the college faculty, and an orchestra of six talented young girls then rendered very beautifully two selections, "Will O' the Wisp," and "Minuet," by Brahms. Light refreshments were served during a social half-hour following the program.

The outline of Mrs. Purrington's address was as follows:

I. Introduction. (a) Salutatory. (b) Background of biologic inheritance as factors in life today. 1.—Man's protective strength or instinct to dominate. 2.—Woman's passion for life—its production and fostering.

II. Woman submerged—quiescent. (a) Victorian woman—product of two factors. 1.—Puritan or religious element in renaissance. 2.—

Revolt from severe repression under restoration. Ethical. (a) Status—Inert—slow of change under Anne and Georges.

III. Women emerging—struggling. (a) Industrial revolution—fiery furnace of regeneration. 1.—Purely mechanical in origin but affected all life in its results. 2.—Produced. (a) Hampered—overworked. (b) Pampered—underworked—Divine discontent. 3.—Wider experience breeds revolt. 4.—Struggle for opportunity and justice. (a) Economic. (b) Educational. (c) Political.

IV. Woman dynamic in world today. (a) Progress perceptible everywhere. 1.—India, China, Turkey, Russia, Balkans, Germany, as well as in England and America. (b) Woman's influence in politics. 1.—Can secure whom and what she pleases. 2.—Function—not merely to double poll—but to support issues which mean basic racial improvement.

V. Conclusion. (a) Analysis of American economic life. 1.—Four classes: (a) Providers—struggling. (b) Old-fashioned domesticates. (c) L'ndependent but ambitious. (d) Wealthy independents. (b) Whither is woman tending? 1.—Selfish induence. 2.—Social service. (c) Place still is home—with a difference. 2.—Sphere co-extensive with ultimate horizons.

STRAW VOTES
 Of what value is a straw vote in reaching a conclusion as to what the actual vote will be on Election Day?
 The poll now being conducted by the Literary Digest has aroused a feeling of optimism among Republicans which is entirely unwarranted by a careful analysis of its figures, particularly when considered in the light of the Digest poll of 1924.

By a comparison of the Digest poll, as it has thus far progressed in 1928, with the final figure of its poll in 1924 it is even easier to figure a victory for Governor Smith than success for Mr. Hoover.
 In the first place, the percentage of change from Republicans to Democrats in the present poll, far exceeds the change from Democrats to Republicans.
 The real flaw in the Digest poll, however, is the fact that it is getting its returns chiefly from Republican instead of Democratic voters.

This is exactly what it did in 1924.
 For example, in 1924, its poll showed that Coolidge would have 4 1-2 times as many votes as Davis in New York State; that Coolidge would have 5 times as many votes as Davis in New Jersey; that Coolidge would have more than 7 times as many votes as Davis in Massachusetts.

The actual election figures showed that Coolidge had less than 2 times as many votes as Davis in New York instead of 4 1-2 times as many; 2 1-2 times as many votes as Davis in New Jersey instead of 5 times as many; and 2 1-2 times as many votes as Davis in Massachusetts instead of 7 times as many.

All of this simply means that the Digest poll was largely taken among Republicans and that Democrats did not take part in it.

The same thing has happened this year. The Digest poll is being taken largely among Republicans; Democrats are not taking part in it to the extent that Republicans are.

Thus with Smith getting one-half as many votes as Hoover in the Digest poll instead of one-fifth or one-seventh as many as Davis did against Coolidge, it is easy to be seen that when the ACTUAL VOTES are cast in the election, Smith will have the actual majority.

The simple fact is that the Democrats are not participating in the Digest poll except to a limited extent while Republicans are participating in it to a large extent.

This does not mean that the Digest poll is a dishonest poll, but rather that it is a poll of Republicans instead of Democrats.

An example of a tricky or dishonest poll is seen in a newspaper poll being taken in Chicago where, for instance, 10 times as many votes have been taken in the Rogers Park section of Chicago which is strongly Republican, as in the Eightteenth Ward of that city which is overwhelmingly Democratic. Thus, for example, a poll of one thousand votes in Rogers Park would show seven hundred for Hoover and three hundred for Smith and a poll of two hundred votes in the Democratic Eighteenth Ward would show Hoover 50 and Smith 150, but in the aggregate the showing would be seven hundred and fifty for Hoover and four hundred and fifty for Smith—obviously a very unfair estimate of the strength of the two candidates in that city, yet this is just what is being done in order to make a showing of Hoover's strength in Chicago or rather, a lack of Smith strength there.

It may be said further upon good authority, that straw ballots in many instances have been sent to Republican postmasters to be filled out by them in the names of their patrons and returned as expressions of their intentions. At least one such batch of straw ballots has been sent by a postmaster to the Democratic National Committee.

Straw votes very largely show what their sponsors wish to have them show; it is the actual vote on Election Day that counts!

ABOUT TOWN

"Clyde Hoy comes to Greenville Wednesday night," reminded members of the Pitt County Democratic Committee, as they went about making preparations for the visit of the distinguished orator.

"This is the first time Clyde Hoy has paid a visit to this immediate part of the country in years. All Pitt county Democrats want to turn out to hear him champion the cause of Democracy—the cause for which all party members are lined up."

"The court house should be packed to overflowing at this meeting.
 It is hoped those who have not yet made up their minds about voting will be present with hearts open to conviction and hear what this majestic speaker has to say about the political situation of the country."

"Greenville Highs won the first game played on the local gridiron this season last Friday," reminded members of the organization today as they reiterated a desire to make the championship finals.

"The whole clubs showed up exceptionally fine and won out over Elizabeth City in a way that drew the approbation of those in attendance. The remainder of the games are expected to witness a continuance of good playing, and it is hoped larger crowds will be present to cheer the boys on to victory."

"Pap-Up Week is just a few days off now," said a member of the Greenville Merchants Association today.

"If any merchant of the city has extended you credit during the year, go to him and make settlement so that you will get a clean rating in the new list to be compiled by the Merchants Association after Pay-Up week comes to a close.

"Credit customers will be rated according to the way they pay. If you settle your bills promptly your rating will be A-1. If you fail to give the accounts the consideration they are so deserving then you will be rated accordingly.

"Get busy and give this matter attention before your rating makes it impossible for you to obtain cred-

BIG CLASHES SCHEDULED AT END OF WEEK

By ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—(AP)—The intersection angle that has been so conspicuous so far in college football fades into the background this week. The spotlight turns on at least a dozen games of outstanding importance to conference or sectional championship aspirations in the east, south, and middle west.

Three of these conspicuous contests bring together six undefeated teams, among the nation's best gridiron products so far, and the atmosphere may be distinctly cleared as a result.

The east's big spectacle will see West Point's cadets charging upon Yale before a 75,000 crowd in the bowl at New Haven. Minnesota's Juggernaut invades Iowa's stronghold for the all-important "Big Ten" clash of the day. Those ancient Missouri Valley rivals, Mis-souri of the new "Big Six" at stake.

In the south, where the main conference race is hotter and hotter every week, two of the pace-setters, Clemson and South Carolina, renew an ancient feud on Thursday, in advance of such other important battles on Saturday as Georgia Tech-North Carolina, Vanderbilt-Virginia, Georgia-Tulane and Tennessee-Washington and Lee.

Tennessee scrambled the Southern Conference race and simultaneously boosted its own stock by upsetting Alabama, aided by the sensational exploits of Jimmy McEver, sophomore back, whose main stunt was to grab a kickoff and run 98 yards for a touchdown. This week the volunteers hope to extend their winning streak at the expense of Washington and Lee.

Georgia Tech exhibiting a great line in downing Notre Dame for the first time, is the favorite over North Carolina. Vanderbilt, another leading title aspirant, will be tested by Virginia, which met an unexpected setback at the hands of Virginia Military last Saturday.

In the southwest, the Texas Aggies, 1927 champions, virtually have been put out of this season's conference race at the start, by defeat at the hands of Texas Christian.

All three of the undefeated Pacific coast conference contenders meet non-conference foes this week.

Dartmouth Ace

Al K. Marsters, left halfback of the 1928 Dartmouth football team, is one of the stars that will appear against Harvard October 27.

ELEVEN GRID TEAMS BOAST CLEAN SLATE

By HORACE C. RENEGAR
Atlanta, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Eleven Southern Conference football teams today rolled with spotless records in the Dixie championship race. Most of them, however, stand a chance, slight as it may be, of meeting reverse by next Saturday night.

The four leaders—Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Clemson and Tennessee—each boasting two conference victories and no defeats—all have worthy opponents. The Golden Tornado will try its third conference victory in a game against North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The great inter-sectional triumph over Notre Dame last week end should inspire the Tornado while the Tar Heels will be trying a right-about-face following their loss to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

South Carolina and Clemson will settle their annual wrangle at Columbia Thursday at the State Fair. A meet-offence here is pitted against a sturdy defense. The Gamecocks have shown a versatile scoring ability while the Tigers have held all opponents so far scoreless.

Georgia playing its first conference game will be at home to Tulane. Undefeated Vanderbilt meets Virginia at Nashville. Tennessee tangles with Washington and Lee at Knoxville and Sewanee opens its conference season against a dazed Alabama at Birmingham.

Florida's great backfield boasting such stars as Brumbaugh, Crabtree, Owen and Bower, will have a shot at North Carolina State down in Peninsula territory.

Virginia Military Institute, buoyed by a victory over Virginia, meets Maryland at Richmond in another all-conference engagement.

Auburn plays Howard of the Saa on the plainmen's field. Louisiana State is host to Spring Hill, another Saa team. Virginia Poly tackles King and Kentucky plays centre, ancient rivals of the Wildcats.

University of Mississippi goes to New Orleans to battle Loyola, the team of Bucky Moore and other scoring aces.

Wonder Coach

Homer Norton, head coach at Centenary College, is leading the Gentlemen to great heights in football. Last year, his team won from strong teams in the Southwestern Conference and the S. I. A. A.

MORE UPSETS EXPECTED ON THE GRIDIRON

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 22.—(AP)—The University of Mississippi broke even in her Alabama conquest by sending Alabama Polytechnic Institute down to its fourth consecutive conference defeat of the season, 19 to 0.

Only one game is booked for Friday, Presbyterian meeting its ancient rival Newberry, at Clinton, P. C., is favored to win.

Saturday will see Duke visiting Washington to meet Georgetown. The Devils stand a good chance to win, after losing to the Navy, though outplaying the Middies, according to the dope. Duke had a touchdown in the last half, but fumbled over the goal and lost the counter and the game.

In Greenville the fans of the Palmetto state will have a chance to see Furman and Wofford meet in their first football game in many years with the hurricane slightly favored over the Terriers, due to its performance against Georgia.

Down in Charleston the Cadets of the Citadel will be facing the seceders of Erskine in what is billed to be a hard struggle with the Soldiers holding the odds to win.

North Carolina State seems in for another tough battle, and probably in loss, as it faces Florida at Tampa. The Techners have not found the sledding easy this season and Florida has been giving every indication of having a good—and more, a powerful—team.

High Point will meet Lenoir-Rhyne at Hickory, with the Pointers the favorites, while Guilford stands on top before its battle with Elon starts.

Mars Hill will journey to Tennessee again, this time to meet Tusculum.

Rutherford and Appalachian will meet Saturday also.

Montana Captain

Ed Chinske, quarterback, is captain of the 1928 Montana State university football team.

Farmville High To Play Locals Here Tomorrow

The Farmville high school football team will play Greenville Highs at the Fair Grounds in this city tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock, according to announcement made today by C. W. Porter, athletic director of the Greenville high school.

The game will be in the nature of a practice contest for both clubs. No admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited to attend and see the two clubs in action.

Jack Dunn Dies At Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Jack Dunn, owner and manager of the Baltimore Orioles, seven times pennant winner in the International League, died suddenly today while riding at the dog trials of the Maryland Field Trial Association near Towson, a Baltimore suburb.

Dunn's death was believed to have been caused by a heart attack. Others attending the trials said he had exhibited intense excitement after one of his dogs, Bell the Devil, had come to a beautiful point. A moment later, they reported, his head sagged forward and he slumped from his horse's back.

Hon. William F. Evans, Raleigh, N. C., will address the voters of Pitt County in the Courthouse Tuesday night, 8 o'clock. Mr. Evans will defend true Democracy, and discuss the record and the reasons why Tammany, Governor Smith and Republican Raskob should not be given the control of the Democratic Party, and our National Government. Ladies invited.—(Adv.)

GRID RACES AT A GLANCE

Yale and Army, victorious last Saturday and among few major unbeaten or untied teams, play in feature game this week. New York University and Georgetown, also with clean slates, have high powered scoring machines. Boston College, Carnegie, Pennsylvania and Dartmouth also in top group. Pittsburgh, 1927 claimants of eastern title, defeated once while Princeton and Lafayette tied.

Western conference "Big Ten"—Minnesota, Iowa, Ohio State and Illinois, 1927 champions, only teams neither beaten nor tied. Wisconsin tied once, by Purdue. Minnesota and Iowa meet in big game this week.

Missouri Valley "Big Six"—Missouri and Nebraska, each with clean slates, meet this Saturday, after victories over Iowa State and Syracuse respectively. Kansas has scalps old rival, Kansas Aggies.

Southern Conference—Tennessee, by upsetting Alabama's perennial team, 15-13, shares title aspirations with Georgia Tech, Vanderbilt, Clemson and Satuth Carolina, among the unbeaten teams. Tech's victory over Notre Dame added to south's intersectional score.

Southwestern Conference—title race opened with upset of Texas Aggies, 1927 champions by Texas Christian, while Southern Methodist swamped Rice and Texas University beat Arkansas. Baylor, in non-conference game, obtained revenge on Centenary which lost first game in two years.

Rocky Mountain Conference—Colorado College, with three victories and no defeats, leads race as result of upset of Colorado Aggies, 1927 champions, by Utah. University of Colorado, with two victories, and Utah with one, next in line.

Pacific Coast Conference—Stanford, with three victories and no defeats, in pace-setting position, as result of scoreless tie between California and Southern California. Washington tumbled from front position by defeat at hands of Oregon.

DOWN AND OUT GRIDDEERS RISE IN TENNESSEE

By HORACE C. RENEGAR
Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—(AP)—These volunteers of Tennessee, ranking high on the Dixie Gridiron for several years, but counted "out" in pre-season discussions this season, have given the wisacres something to think about.

With mid-season games almost in sight, the volts of Bob Neyland are among the first four teams of the conference, tied with Georgia Tech, Clemson and South Carolina for first place at two victories each.

And it's a sophomore team that is turning the trick.

McEver, Hackman, Dodd—those sophomore backs—literally ruined Alabama's high hopes Saturday. It was McEver who ran 98 yards for a touchdown against the tide from the first kickoff.

McEver can pass and take passes. Hackman do anything necessary. Dodd is an able passer and punter. Hoher, reserve of last year, and Witt, regular, give the touch of old campaigning to the secondary.

Up front, the Vols seem to have everything necessary. Howard Tripp, a guard, is one of the best in the conference. Bidding fair to make the all-Southern guard position left vacant by the graduation of Barnhill, a former teammate, Tripp's playing all season has been a revelation.

At the other guard, F. Johnson is a hard blocker. Finney, a sophomore center, stood out against Alabama, causing the tidal centers to make several bad passes, one costing them a safety.

Thayer and J. Johnson at tackles are heavy and fast. The former is a roving type of player and can be expected to Bob up anywhere to intercept a pass or break into a play.

Alley and Mug, the ends, are at least average, although probably not as yet as effective as the former and McKee were in 1927. In short, Tennessee cannot be counted out by a long shot. Coach Neyland, formerly of Westpoint, has made a remarkable showing in bringing along a green team so fast.

Stupendous Reductions

Curtis To Speak At Utica Tonight

Enroute with Senator Curtis to Utica, N. Y., Oct. 22.—(AP)—A double headed Republican attack for New York's 45 electoral votes today brought Senator Curtis, the party's vice-presidential nominee, into the up-state sector while Herbert Hoover was in New York City.

Senator Curtis speaks tonight at Utica, Wednesday he speaks at Rochester. This is his second rally into upper New York. He appeared at the state fair in August at Syracuse.

The senator has objected to coming into the official home city of the Democratic presidential nominee, saying it is against his way of campaigning, but it is planned for him to have luncheon at Albany at noon tomorrow with party leaders.

Senator Curtis has abandoned writing his speeches in advance but he indicated today he would discuss the tariff and Gov. Smith's views on his campaign in New York. He has gone in entirely for extemporaneous speaking of late.

He goes to Ohio for speeches in Akron and Columbus on Thursday and Friday nights, respectively, and then to Detroit for Saturday night. The last week will see him besting through the farm belt with appearances probably in Indiana, Wisconsin, South Dakota, Iowa and Missouri before he winds up in Kansas on election eve.

ORDERS INQUIRY INTO DEATH OF CHILDREN

New York, October 22.—(AP)—An inquiry into the death of two baby grandsons of the late Benjamin Guggenheim by falls from the roof of the Hotel Surrey Friday afternoon has been ordered by Chief Medical Examiner Charles Norris.

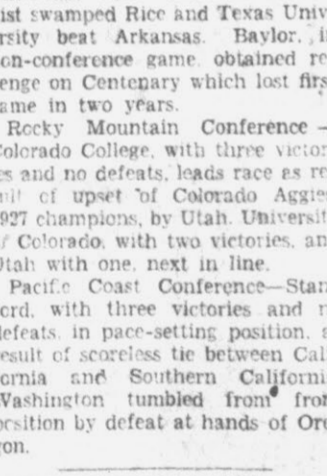

While playing on the roof with their mother, Mrs. Milton S. Waldman, wife of the associate editor of the London Mercury and youngest daughter of the late copper magnate, the two boys Terrence, 4, and Benjamin, 14 months, fell 13 stories to the roof of an adjoining building.

Mrs. Waldman told police the older boy was attempting to climb into her lap and knocked the baby from her arms, then lost his balance and followed his small brother over the two foot wall. She has been confined to a hospital since the occurrence.

Money In Onions.

London.—(AP)—There is money in shoes, ships, sealing wax and onion peeling. Much of the world of people who pickle onions seems to have trod a path to the door of the late Peter Tyler of South-east London. His business was purchase of raw onions and the sale of them, peeled. He could neither read nor write, but died at the age of 70 leaving an estate of some $33,000. At first he and his wife did the peeling. Later he hired scores of people to do it.

Quits the Game

Lillian Boyer, daredevil woman stunt flier, has announced her retirement from the game after federal authorities warned her pilot his license would be revoked if he continued "stunting."

UNIVERSITY PREPARES FOR GEORGIA FRY

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Chuck Collins and his staff today began intensive training of the University of North Carolina football squad in the hope that the Notre Dame system, as exemplified by the Tar Heels, will be more effective against Georgia Tech in Kenan Memorial stadium here next Saturday than it was in Atlanta last Saturday when Knute Rockne's charges bowed to the Tornado 13 to 0. Smarting under the 16 to 14 defeat inflicted by V. P. I., the Chapel Hill Griddeers bent with a will to the task of preparing for the Tech game, generally conceded to be the heaviest on the 1928 schedule.

Hon. William F. Evans, Raleigh, N. C., will address the voters of Pitt County in the Courthouse Tuesday night, 8 o'clock. Mr. Evans will defend true Democracy, and discuss the record and the reasons why Tammany, Governor Smith and Republican Raskob should not be given the control of the Democratic Party, and our National Government. Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 22—(AP)—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 8 to 13 points and soon showed net gains of 22 to 28 points on active buying which was evidently inspired by reports of frost in some northern sections of the southwest. Predictions of frost again tonight in North Texas and for freeing weather in North Oklahoma stimulated the demand. The advance met considerable resistance around 19.84 for December and prices showed reactions of a few points by the end of the first half hour. Liverpool was lower than due and was credited with early sales were absorbed by the demand from that source or commission house buying. Private cables said that some London and continental buying had been supplied by hedging and liquidation in Liverpool. They also reported a fair inquiry for cloth and said that yarn production was well cleared. Futures closed steady; 14 to 15 points higher; spot steady; middling 20.20.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 22—(AP)—Wheat prices descended today to within 1-4c a bushel of the lowest level yet this season, but then scores rallied. The upturns were mainly due to buying to collect profits for traders who previously had been selling in anticipation of a big increase of the United States wheat visible supply total, an increase that was larger announced as more than 6,000,000 bushels for the week. This increase raised the domestic wheat visible to 129,763,000 bushels, a new high record which contrasted sharply with only 55,002,000 bushels a year ago.

Wheat closed at the same as Saturday's finish to 3-8c off; corn showing 3-8c to 3-4c advance; oats at 1-8c decline to 1-8c gain, and provisions varying from 10c decline to a rise of 25 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 22—(AP)—Speculative sentiment turned decidedly bearish in today's stock market. Heavy selling accounts carried a long line of recent favorites down 1 to 5 points, with breaks of 6 to 15 points in a few of the high-priced specialties. Coppers were a conspicuous exception to the general downward trend, at least six issues in that group moving to new high ground.

There was nothing in the business news over the week-end to account for the change in speculative sentiment as most of the trade and mercantile reports continued favorable in character. Several of the large commission houses urged a lightening of long commitments on the ground that the rapidity of the recent advance had weakened the technical position of the market, and carried several issues beyond their intrinsic worth. Others regarded the national election, only two weeks away, as likely to mark a turning point in the market although no effort was made to associate the price movement with the outcome.

Credit conditions were slightly more favorable. Call money renewed at 6 1-2 per cent, and dropped to 6, with a plentiful supply available. Time money was quoted at 7 per cent for nearby maturities and 6 7-8 for the longer dates.

Man Burned By Two Assailants

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 22—(AP)—Ernest H. Sykes, 35, of Clyde, 30 miles from Savannah, was in a hospital here today suffering from burns inflicted when two assailants dashed a bucketful of gasoline over him and fired his clothing.

The victim was brought here yesterday in serious condition after the attack which he said occurred about 4 o'clock Sunday morning. His version was that he slowed his car for bad road near his home, to be set upon by two men with gasolene. The assailants shoved him aside and drove the car down the road.

After a brief ride, Sykes said he was dragged from the car and a match applied to his clothing. His wife, awaiting his return, and a neighbor answered his screams, but he had succeeded in extinguishing the flames before aid reached him, although he had been seriously burned. Sykes was blinded by the gasoline, but said he knew one of the men who attacked him.
