Georgia Woman Stumps For Smith

Barnesville, Ga., Oct. 26—(AP)—A woman who resigned as an officer and legal advisor of Georgia women's Christian Temperance Union when that organization de- nounced the Democratic party and joined the Republican party, last night charged that the "W. C. T. U. and the church women of Georgia were making a fetish of the 18th amendment."

She was Mrs. Betty Cobb, trustee for the Georgia State College for Women and Georgia's first woman lawyer.

She told an audience of Democrats here in an address made while substituting for Mrs. Edgar Al- xander who was ill, that the his- tory of Tammany is not one to be ashamed of.

She said to arrive at this con- clusion Democrats need only "listen to the sweet voice of reason" and realize that Vane of Pennsylvania and big Bill Thomp- son were unopposed.

Mrs. Cobb declared she was at loss to understand how any Georgian could forsake the party of his fathers at such a time as now, when the objections to Governor Smith were only that he was a member of Tammany, an opponent of the 18th amendment, and a Catholic. None of these objections, she held, were valid when coolly and calmly analyzed.

And she reached this conclusion, she said, because she was a "dyed in the wool Democrat who married a Republican, practiced law with a Republican, and lived in the same house with a Republican mother-in-law for seven years."

Under those conditions, Mrs. Cobb held, to remain a Democrat was the supreme test of loyalty.

Voters May Be Stricken From N. Jersey List

Newark, N. J., Oct. 26—(AP)—Forty thousand registrants in the election districts of Hudson and Essex counties, Democratic strong- holds, today faced the prospect of having their names stricken from the voters rolls on the ground that they were illegally registered.

Proposed action against them was announced after the decision of the New Jersey Supreme court yesterday upholding the constitu- tionality of the State law which

NEW LINE OF DRESSES

AT Heeden's At Five Points

Fives to superintendents of elec- tions the right to strike from the lists the names of citizens they be- lieve to be illegally registered.

The law giving the superintend- ents such power was praised by the Republican legislature early this month, vetoed by the Democratic governor, Harry Moore, and repass- ed over his veto.

The act was the outcome of the investigation of Hudson county conditions by the Case Legislative committee which is still under way. Hudson is the home of Frank Hague, vice chairman of the Dem- ocratic national committee, and long power in New Jersey politics.

Mr. Hague is mayor of Jersey City. Democratic leaders interpret the action as an effort to defeat Gov- ernor Smith. They say that the redress to the courts given voters whose names are stricken from the lists means little as the time is so short before election that only a small part of the 40,000 will have an opportunity to be heard.

Prosecutor Louis Rapetta of At- lantic County, has charged that children too young to go to school, persons long since dead, parrots, cats and dogs have been registered. He is moving to have over 2,300 names of voters stricken from the list.

Seven Men Named In Warrants For Bombing Outrages

Kansas City, Oct. 26—(AP)—Warrants for seven men, named in grand jury indictments as alleged participants in recent bombings, sluggings and other racketeering activities here, were in the hands of Sheriff John Miles today. Offi- cers said they expected some of those named to surrender voluntarily for arraignment.

The Jackson County grand jury yesterday returned the indictments naming ten men, three of whom were arrested and arraigned forth- with. The bills were brought in at the conclusion of a month's inves- tigation of recent outrages here un- derstood to have centered largely around bombings of buildings where non-union labor was em- ployed, bombing of the home of an employer of non-union labor, and apartment and slugging of two em- ployers of non-union labor.

Judge Thomas J. Seearn order- ed names of the seven men not ar- rested withheld until they were ap- prehended.

The three men arraigned were Robert Jackson, alleged racketeer and W. H. F. Doerr, charged with second degree arson, and James Martin, gangster, indicted for sec- ond degree arson and as a habitual criminal.

SELL YOUR TOBACCO WITH The New Joyner Warehouse

The Greenville Tobacco Market will clean up all tobacco brought to the market this week, and we look for a good strong market all next week. We do not expect another block, as the weather is cool and farmers are saving cotton. We, therefore, think next week will be a good time to sell tobacco. We have three first sales next week:

First sale Monday, October 29th. First sale Wednesday, October 31st. First sale Friday, November 2nd.

We are making as good sales as any warehouse in the State and on good to fine tobacco we believe we are leading any warehouse in the State. Farmers are now selling the cream of their crop and it will pay them to sell where their interest can and will be protected. Bring your next load to us and we will satisfy you. We are working for your interest

KITTRELL-ALLEN

Ayden, N. C., Oct. 26.—A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends throughout the State was that of Miss Blanche Allen to Mr. Leon Lewis Kittrell which was solemnized Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at the Ayden Christian Church. The altar decorations of white dahlias, roses and periwinkles together with ferns and the use of candles formed a pretty background for the bridal party. The bride's pastor, Rev. W. H. Brunson, performed the ceremony, using the ring service. Just before the procession, Mrs. F. R. Taylor dressed in independence blue georgette with hat and slippers to match and shoulderette of sweetheart rose and valley lilies, took her place at the piano and began playing "Barcarolle" from "Tales of Hoffman."

Mrs. J. D. McGlohon, wearing black transparent velvet with accessories to match and shoulderette of sweetheart roses and valley lilies, was first to enter. She sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told." The bridal chorus from Lohengrin and "To a Wild Rose," were softly played during the ceremony. For recessional Mendelssohn's was used.

The ushers, Mr. Eugene Edwards and Mr. Elwood Dixon, were next to enter. The maid of honor, Miss Viola Freeman of Washington, came next, wearing a beautiful gown of black low embroidered in gold with gold hat and satin slippers. Her flowers were an arm corsage of sweetheart roses. The ring bearer, little Joe Fowler, Jr., nephew of the bride, entered, carrying the ring on a white satin pillow. He wore a suit of black velvet and white satin. The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was becomingly gowned in a suit of transparent velvet with accessories to harmonize, and her bridal bouquet was of Madame Butterfly roses and lilies of the valley. The groom had as his best man his brother, Mr. W. M. Kittrell of Robersonville.

Mrs. Kittrell is the second daughter of Mr. T. B. Allen, and is a very charming person with a host of friends. She graduated from Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, and received her B. S. degree from Park View Hospital, Rocky Mount.

Mr. Kittrell is the son of the late Mr. Lewis Kittrell and Mrs. Stella Kittrell and is one of the city's most prominent young men.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a few days' trip and on their return will make their home in Ayden.

Honoring Miss Allen.

Ayden, N. C., Oct. 26.—One of the most attractive parties given recently was a miscellaneous shower given Friday afternoon when Mrs. P. R. Taylor and Mrs. Allen Johnson entertained at the home of Mrs. Taylor, the honoree being their cousin, Miss Blanche Allen, a bride to be.

The entire home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with rare dahlias, roses and wild asters. Seven tables were arranged for bridge and the guests found their places adorned with miniature brides and grooms, same being used as place cards.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Beatrice Carroll and Mrs. Lloyd Tingle, served a pretty salad plate with lead tea.

The guest of honor was remembered with a pretty piece of lingerie. Mrs. J. S. Holton, making high score in bridge, was given a pair of silk hose. Mrs. Colin Stokes, making low, received a pretty framed picture. Mrs. W. B. Covington cut for out of town guest prize and was presented with a jade necklace.

At this time Mrs. J. B. Eure took her place at the piano and began playing Lohengrin's Wedding March when little Alyce Gene Johnson made her appearance dressed as a bride, pulling a covered wagon laden with many beautiful gifts for the bride to be. Miss Allen very graciously received each gift and expressed her appreciation in a few well chosen words.

Those enjoying the most delightful occasion were: Mesdames W. B. Covington, Norfolk, Va.; W. A. Forbes and Roy T. Cox, Winterville; Miss Viola Freeman of Washington; Mesdames Leon Cannon, J. C. Andrews, W. C. Cannon, A. R. Cannon, T. G. Worthington, J. B. Beland, S. M. Edwards, M. C. Phillips, J. K. Quinerly, Sam Pierce, Jack Quinerly, L. P. Ellis, W. W. Salsbury, J. B. Eure, G. H. Sumrell, G. G. Dixon, C. R. Tyndall, Eloise Edwards, R. N. Johnson, Colin Stokes, R. L. Turnage, L. C. Burney, J. S. Holton and Miss Virginia Bell Cooper.

MRS. A. R. CANNON ENTERTAINS HONORING MISS BLANCHE ALLEN

Ayden, N. C., Oct. 26.—Miss Blanche Allen whose marriage to Mr. Leon L. Kittrell will take place Thursday morning, was honored at a rook party and handkerchief shower given Monday afternoon by Mrs. A. R. Cannon at her home on Third street.

The reception hall and living room where six tables were placed for rook were tastefully decorated with many fall flowers and potted plants. The place cards and favors were dainty dolls concealing powder boxes. The honoree's place was marked by a miniature bride. After several progressions scores were added and high score prize went to Mrs. J. C. Andrews, a lemon plate and fork. Low score was made by Miss Rosa Bland, she receiving a box of dusting powder. Miss Allen was remembered with a set of silver salt spoons. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Allen Johnson, Mrs. Linwood Kittrell, Mrs. W. C. Cannon and Mrs. E. L. Brown, served an ice course and individual cakes with the initials K-A done in green. The color scheme of green and yellow was used. A cheese and olive rosebud decorated the parties. Little Jean Cannon dressed in a dainty georgette frock showered with roses entered, carrying a parasol which she presented to the bride to be, showering her with many pretty handkerchiefs. Miss Allen accepted the gifts in a very charming manner.

Out of town guests were: Mesdames Linwood Kittrell, New Jersey; J. B. Kittrell, Greenville; Roy T. Cox, Winterville; and Miss Rosa Bland, Rocky Mount. Other guests included: Mesdames L. C. Burney, J. B. Eure, Leon Cannon, Anna L. Grimes, G. H. Sumrell, Sam Pierce, J. E. Burgett, Jack Quinerly, P. R. Taylor, T. G. Worthington, L. E. Turnage, M. C. Phillips, J. K. Quinerly, Colin Stokes, J. S. Holton, G. G. Dixon, J. C. Andrews, R. N. Johnson, R. L. Turnage, W. W. Salsbury and J. H. Coward.

MRS. JAMES GIVES TEA HONORING MRS. BROWN AND MRS. BAKER

Honoring her mother, Mrs. Henry R. Brown, and her sister, Mrs. Rena Brown Baker, both of Greenville, Tenn., Mrs. J. B. James delightfully entertained numbers of her friends at a tea at her home on East Fifth street, on Wednesday afternoon, October 24. The home was lovely with quantities of fall flowers combined with Scotch heather and with pots of trailing English ivy in the wide windows.

At the front door the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Sam White and Miss Ada James and introduced to Mrs. A. J. Moore and Mrs. Larry James who, standing at the living room door, presented them to the hostess and her guests.

Receiving with Mrs. James were Mrs. Henry R. Brown, Greenville, Tenn.; Mrs. F. G. James, Mrs. Rena Brown Baker, Greenville, Tenn.; Mrs. John Gorham, Washington, N. C.; Mrs. Marvin Snyder, Salisbury, N. C.; Mrs. M. I. Fleming, Rocky Mount, N. C.; Mrs. Harry McMullen and Mrs. Claude Carrow, Washington, N. C.; Mrs. Hyman Phillips, Tarboro, N. C.; Mrs. D. M. Clarke and Miss Ernestine Forbes.

Mrs. J. H. Blount and Mrs. A. M. Moseley ushered the guests into the dining room where Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb, Mrs. F. J. Forbes and Mrs. W. E. Hooker seated at the table, served mint cream from silver platters. The table was exquisite in its appointment of silver, green and rose. In the center on a lovely cloth of Italian cut work was placed a low silver bowl of long stemmed pink roses with tall pink tapers in matching silver candlesticks around it.

Pink cakes in silver baskets and leaf shape green mints in small silver baskets completed the charming effect. Serving in the dining room were Mrs. Person Nicholson, Mrs. W. H. Bradsher, Mrs. John Flanagan, Mrs. Walter Harrington, Mrs. George Hadley and Miss Margaret Fleming.

As the guests left the dining room they were shown into the hall by Mrs. Hortense Moye and Mrs. J. L. Little and received by Mrs. L. C. Skinner, Mrs. N. O. Warren, Mrs. L. G. Cooper and Mrs. J. B. Kittrell who stood at the foot of the wide winding stairway.

Mrs. C. S. Forbes, Mrs. R. H. Wright and Mrs. J. L. Fleming met the guests at the door to the music room where they registered in the guest book presided over by Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley and Miss Ward Moore. At the two doors leading into the sun porch were Mrs. J. L. Kligo, Mrs. W. I. Wooten, Mrs. M. K. Blount and Mrs. Edward Batchelor.

The sun porch made a lovely setting for the coffee table with the afternoon sun streaming in on the ferns and the profusion of exquisite flowers. The table was beautifully arranged with a handsome silver service, pink roses in a silver vase and pink candles in silver holders. Coffee was poured by Mrs. W. A. Bass and Mrs. Henry L. Rivers and passed with cheese rings by Mrs. James Ficklen, Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr., Mrs. Lee Hannah, Mrs. E. B. Ferguson and Miss Lucy James. Mrs. Georgia James, in her gracious manner, assisted in receiving during the afternoon.

Mrs. H. L. Hodges and Mrs. C. H. Dodson said good-bye to the many friends who had enjoyed Mrs. James' hospitality.

Later in the afternoon, the friends who had assisted Mrs. James in receiving, were served a delicious buffet supper.

1918—HOOVER—1928

With Senator Borah and his Republican colleagues
now stumping the country and giving such ardent support to the candidacy of Herbert Hoover it might be well to turn back the pages of the records of a few years ago to see what these same Republicans had to say about Hoover in order that we might know just how much of their present talk
can be taken with any degree of seriousness.

In a recent address Gov.
Smith declared that Senator Borah in his estimation of the fitness and value of Herbert Hoover was either wrong ten years ago or is wrong now, and if he is right now the least that can be said is that he was so utterly reckless in his former remarks as to prevent has present utterances from being taken seriously by the American people.

Here are a few former Republican opinions of Herbert Hoover:

Senator William E. Borah (Republican) of Idaho, said, page 1663
of the Congressional Record, January 16, 1919:

"I say here upon the floor, and I challenge successful contradiction, that three of the vast monopolies,
which control food in this country,
have, with relation to their commodities, directed and controlled the Food Administration since its organization. * * * He (Hoover) permits those people to, in effect, fix their own prices. * * * I have been utterly amazed at the facts which show how these combines have influenced and controlled the situation."

On the same page and date of the Record, Senator Kenyon (Republican) of Iowa, said:

"I call the Senator's attention to the testimony now being taken before the Agricultural Committee on this question. In which Mr. Heney stated that Mr. Cotton, the eminent lawyer who had charge of the meat end of the packing bureau under Mr. Hoover, stated to him that the profits of the packers for 1917

had exceeded nothing less than a scandal."

Senator Boise Penrose (Republican) of Pennsylvania, said, on page 1795 of the Congressional Record,
January 21, 1919:

"How can he (Hoover) be called to account for it? He may never return to the United States. He has been living in England all his life; he owns a palatial establishment there; and more than likely,
with the close of the war, he will resume his residence in that island
among those congenial foreign surroundings. * * * I am willing to trust the President * * * but I do object to having a non-resident of the United States, who may never return to this country again * * *

made the trustee of this fund."
The following dialogue is found on page 1980 of the Congressional Record of January 24, 1919:

Mr. Borah (Republican): "Mr.
Hoover, who violated the most fundamental principles of the Constitution of this country, will not have very much regard for a statute in Europe."

Mr. Lodge: "I do not think Mr.
Hoover will pay the slightest attention to the terms of the statute. He was entirely lawless here. He undertook to abolish by his decree the laws of States, with which he had nothing more to do than the Sultan of Turkey, and he will not regard these limitations."

On page 1354 of the Record, January 13, 1919, Representative Will
R. Wood (Republican) of Indiana, said of Mr. Hoover:

"I deny that we have an American at the head of this distributing committee. * * * This statement
should be sufficient to condemn him in the minds of all men as being unfit for a responsible position of trust."

Representative Charles Brand
(Republican) of Ohio, said in Congress on March 13, 1928:

"Mr. Hoover has been the supreme opponent of agricultural prosperity for the past ten years.
He came to this country in 1917 because the English nationals wanted him to come here and secure cheap food for them and the Allies, which he succeeded in doing at the expense of the American farmer."

In an interview printed in the Washington Post on June 11, 1928,
wired from Kansas City, Senator
Goff (Republican), said:

"No man who lived twenty years
under the Union Jack can love the Stars and Stripes. Hoover spent $300,000 in his campaign and $4,600 was used to buy the delegates in Mississippi, $3,000 in Georgia, $2-100 in Florida and $1,000 in Alabama."

Senator Fess (Republican) of Ohio, was quoted in the Fort Wayne
Journal-Gazette of February 4, 1928
as saying:

"Hoover must be greatly embarrased in seeking nomination at the hands of a party he conspired against to defeat in 1918."

On page 1694 of the Congressional Record, Senator Borah (Republican)
showed the combined profits of five packing companies jumped from $22,108,000 in 1914, to $95,639,000 in 1917.

The New York Times, on April 17, 1920, quoted Gifford Pinchot as saying that Mr. Hoover was opposed to the farmer and that he (Pin-chot) frequently heard him abuse
the farmers.

ABOUT

"Mrs. Lyman Cotten and Mrs.
Gregory, who are to speak at the court house tonight, are numbered among the best speakers in the State," said a member of the Pitt County Executive Committee of the Democratic party.

"Both of these women are campaigning in behalf of the party because they believe the truth should be known about Governor Smith.
They realize that numbers of people not acquainted with reasons for the circulation of vicious reports about the Democratic nominee unwittingly give them credit.
"This is the third time women

have taken the speaker's platform
in this county and they will no doubt be greeted by large attendance."

"Don't forget that Saturday and Monday will be known as Dollar Days for the raising of funds for the Democratic party," urged members of the organization in this city today.

"Greenville and Pitt county people are urged to respond liberally to the call for funds by the National Democratic Committee. It takes money to run a campaign
such as that in progress at this time and if the people do not respond
the work cannot be carried on as it should."

"If you haven't contributed to this fund get busy and do so at once," headquarters send you a certificate. Contributions are received at the collector office and forwarded immediately to the National headquarters."

"Clude Hoy certainly produced a revival of Democracy in his speech at the court house Wednesday night," asserted a member of the party today.

"Mr. Hoy is one of the most magnetic speakers of the party. He swayed his audience as no other audience has been swayed in this city in many a day. His support of the party has had an outstanding effect on the campaign to elect Governor Smith as president.

"His declaration that no power on earth could get him to join the liquor-soaked Republican ranks should receive attention of those who would brand Smith because of his advocacy of light wine and beer
of non-intoxicating nature."

"Much interest is being attracted by Pay-Up Week to be held in this city during the first week of November," stated a member of the Merchants Association today.

"We expect numbers of credit customers to close old accounts during that week in order that they may get clean rating with the Association when the new rating of credit customers is made.

"This is the first pay-up week conducted by the city in years and it is hoped everybody will give attention to old accounts while it is in progress."

"Attend the series of revival services now in progress at our 'church,' invited L. R. O'Brien, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church today.

"The preaching is being done by Dr. McFarland. He is eloquent and forceful and much good is expected to be accomplished through his plea for christianity.

"Cheaper fertilizers for the farmers of North Carolina is the object of the North Carolina Co-operative Association," said a member of the organization today.

"We hope to be able to obtain fertilizers for the farmer at a more reasonable figure than formerly by a plan which we have under consideration at this time.

"Farmers interested in the plan should confer with the local director and let him explain how the plan works."

The Reflector will receive complete reports of the national election on November 6th. These reports will be compiled by the Associated Press and flashed over the leased wires.

If your subscription has expired,
see that it is renewed immediately
in order that you may take advantage of the extra service offered by the paper on this occasion.

Much interest is centered in the election this year and everybody will want it in detailed form. This paper will give everything of any importance, and readers may be assured of prompt deliveries."

Stops Rum Runner.
Buffalo (AP)—A source of humor for rum runners had been dried up. It has been the practice of Canadian customs officials to ascertain the consignees of liquor cleared for export, then give the names to American customs officials. Since the 'exporters' often named officials of the Anti-Saloon League, the Canadian officials have discontinued forwarding the misin-formation to this side.

J. H. Rosenberg To Speak Here Sunday

At the evening service on Sunday, the 28th, Rev. J. H. Rosenberg, a Christian Russian Hebrew, will speak in behalf of Jewish Missions
at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Rosenberg was for some years Student Lecturer of Biblical interpretation, and was the first Russian Jew to be ordained by the Southern Presbyterian Church. He is known as "The Wandering Jew," having spoken in 23 countries, and 4 continents to Jews, Mohammedans and Hindus. He is now connected with the Hebrew Christian Missions of St. Louis, Mo., and Memphis, Tenn., jointly supported by the Presbyterians and Methodists. He will make an appeal to take the gospel to the Jews, and show how it ought to be done. He is a fluent speaker, a well educated man, and above all, a genuinely converted man. The public is urged to hear him.

Case Against
Former Officer
Is Dismissed

The case of the Police Commissioner against C. E. Jones, former policeman of Greenville, for recovery of a uniform and overcoat, was dismissed when it came up for hearing before Magistrate C. B. Rowlett yesterday.

Evidence tended to show that the coating was considered a part of the salary of the officer by reason of a ruling established during the administration of former Mayor D.
M. Clark.

CLEMSON IN THE FRONT GRID RACE

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 26.—(AP)—Seven southern gridiron machines were in transit or whereabouts today, bound for football engagements that offer as much in conference rivalry as they lack in tradition of the time-honored variety.

The traditional element was removed to all practical purposes yesterday by the victory of the Clemson Tigers over South Carolina's Gamecocks. The 32 to 0 rout put the Tigers in the lead. Three games won and none lost for conference championship.

But with such the contenders as Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Georgia, Florida, Vanderbilt and North Carolina State, meeting family rivals, Clemson has but a shadow of a chance to hold alone its seat on the throne it has never occupied before.

Tennessee took to the air in the week's practice in the hope of beating Washington and Lee with passes. Perhaps this trend of practice for the team that beat Alabama's crimson tide, and injuries to backfield men are relative developments. Quarterback Dodd, at any rate, won't hear the whistle, Reineke, a sophomore, will direct the Volunteers. Captain West, the triple threat, won't star but may get a chance, despite a lame back. Washington and Lee was expected to arrive this afternoon at Knoxville for a light workout with Cocks and Sproul, ends, back in the lineup. There were injuries.

Likewise Georgia Tech was expected at Chapel Hill this afternoon for a light workout for their engagement with North Carolina. Fresh from their Notre Dame victory, Tech was endangered only by overconfidence, while the Tar Heels had everything to gain and nothing to lose. Gresham, Tar Heel back, is lost to the team through injury.

Georgia, as yet untried in the conference, spent yesterday trying to patch up a line to face Tulane's Greenies, who left New Orleans last night for Athens, touted as completely armored on the defensive. Dick Baumbach was in the Greenie van all set for a return to the lineup. The Athens Red Shirts were still without the service of pivot Joe Boland, who probably will be replaced by Hollis Morris.

Vanderbilt's Commodores will be without the services of Charlie Hawkins at tackle and Gene McIlwain at half. Both have had shoulders and will be replaced by Marty McNamara and Charley Scheffer, respectively, in the Virginia game Saturday. The Cavaliers left Charlottesville yesterday for Louisville, Ky., where they will hold a light workout before proceeding to Nashville. With Lefty Close and Hunter Faulcner dashing backs, both injured, the starting line-up will not be decided until a final close-up by Coach Earle Neale at Louisville today.

Florida's four clever backs, Brumbaugh, Crabtree, Bowyer and Owens, were in good shape, but injuries to Bethea and Clemons didn't help the line-up against North Carolina State. The Raleigh aggregation left last night for Jacksonville, with a greatly shifted line-up. Jimmy Mayfield had a bad leg and probably will give way at guard to Al Vann for the Raleigh team.

V. M. I. and Maryland were scheduled for Saturday at Richmond, with the military squad's eleven "Iron Men" who played fifty minutes against Virginia last Saturday ready to repeat again tomorrow.

Alabama's crimson, although humbled by Tennessee, expected no difficulty with Sewanee at Birmingham, in the other conference engagement tomorrow.

Other conference teams are outside the fold this week. Ole Miss engaging Loyola at New Orleans. Auburn playing Howard at Auburn; Virginia Poly lined up against King at Blacksburg; Kentucky facing Centre at Lexington, and Louisiana State ready for King at Baton Rouge. Mississippi Aggies were unscheduled.

DUKE TO MEET GEORGETOWN SATURDAY

Durham, N. C. Oct. 26.—(AP)—After a light workout today the Duke University Blue Devils will leave for Washington where they will meet Georgetown tomorrow.

The squad with the exception of Jankoski, fullback, who has been on the crippled list, is in excellent condition. Sam Blue showed fine form in passing, kicking and running in scrimmage yesterday. Jankoski will likely start in the game, although fear was expressed that he might not be able to stick.

TIME RIPE TO SETTLE OLD SCORES

By HERBERT W. BARKER

New York, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The times appear ripe for the squaring of some football accounts outstanding since last fall. A half dozen Eastern College Eleven take the field tomorrow given at least an even chance to avenge defeats they suffered at the hands of the same opposition last fall.

Army's Cadets, well aware that there is no Bruce Caldwell at Yale this year, have high hopes of getting even for a 10-6 defeat last fall. Caldwell threw the pass that enabled Quarrier to score a touchdown against the Cadets, kicked the extra point and then a field goal to figure directly in every score. But the army feels that Cagle, Murrell and the rest of the Cadet backfield, backed by a veteran line, can atone for that losing effort with plenty to spare.

Navy trimmed Pennsylvania 12-6 in 1927 but most Annapolis supporters will be content if the Midshipmen finish within two touchdowns of Penn tomorrow.

Although beaten by Nebraska, Nebraska, Syracuse is favored to defeat Penn State, which won last year 9-6.

Pitt overwhelmed Carnegie Tech last year, 23-7, but the situation is somewhat different at this moment. Pitt has been beaten by West Virginia and Gibby Welch is missed. Howard Harper is the Gibby Welch of Carnegie this year.

The Princeton-Cornell and Har-

V. M. I. READY TO MEET MARYLAND GRIDDERS

Lexington, Va., Oct. 26.—(AP)—With the gridiron battle with the University of Maryland scheduled for tomorrow in Richmond, Virginia Military Institute's flying squadron will leave today for the Old Dominion capital.

In the final workout on their home field the Cadets yesterday afternoon devoted a full practice to football fundamentals and a long dummy scrimmage against expected Maryland plays.

Fort Bragg Eleven To Play Local Unit Saturday Afternoon

Considerable interest is centered around the football game here tomorrow afternoon at the fair grounds between the local military unit and Fort Bragg. Fort Bragg has one of the strongest and most formidable aggregations in years. Such players as Spurlock, former Center College halfback, Newbold, famous Pennsylvania University halfback and the Kelly Brothers will be seen in action in the Fort Bragg lineup.

The Greenville Eleven is said to be the strongest in years and is expected to make an exceptionally fine showing against an aggregation composed of former college gridiron stars.

UNIVERSITY ALL SET FOR TECH GAME

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 26.—(AP)—Spirits were lighter today in the University of North Carolina football camp after the Tar Heels had plunged through the final intensive practice yesterday preliminary to the Georgia Tech battle here tomorrow.

Though the cooler weather may have had something to do with it, the scrimmage work pleased the coaches immensely and prediction was made by them that the golden Tornado may be due a surprise before the sun sets over Kenan Field tomorrow.

Golfers Getting Ready For Winter Tournament Tests

By BRIAN BELL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Golf professionals willing to take a chance, and most of them are, are oiling their spiked shoes and polishing their niblicks for the winter hunt for glory and prize money in a score of tournaments. The pros are about to set out on a winding trail, leading west and then south, to shoot for the big prizes waiting for those fortunate enough to be in the money.

The first of the winter tournaments is the Oklahoma City open November 2-4, with the Oregon open on its heels and a dozen worthwhile events to follow in California. While the team is abroad the Britnew records for courses or themselves on the Pacific coast they will adjourn to Florida with side excursions into Arkansas and Texas on the way south.

After Florida comes Pinehurst and by that time the personnel of the Ryder Cup team will have been

STATE TO MEET GATORS TOMORROW

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 26.—(AP)—The North Carolina State football squad of 23 players here left last night for Jacksonville, where they will meet the Gators of the University of Florida tomorrow in the second annual series between the two Southern conference aggregations.

A lengthy scrimmage preceded the departure yesterday and recent changes in the lineup given careful coaching. Jimmy Mayfield, who is suffering from a sore leg, may give way to Al Vann at guard for the game.

SEN. SIMMONS SAYS OFFICERS BOLTED PARTY

Charges Democrats With Desertion Of Party By Supporting Al Smith.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 26.—(AP)—Democratic nominees for state offices in North Carolina were charged with bolting the state party platform in supporting Gov. Alfred E. Smith. Democratic presidential nominee, by Senator F. M. Simmons near the close of a three-hour anti-Smith address here last night in which he announced his intention of offering for the United States Senate again in 1930 when his term expires.

The senator's reference to the state ticket came after he had delivered an attack on Smith in which he said the New York governor's nomination at Houston was the result of eight years of planning by Tammany Hall and the "liquor interests" to secure control of the Democratic party. He charged that Smith had bolted the party platform in his acceptance speech, and declared "I would rather die, I would rather have my arm cut off, than to vote for Alfred Smith."

"If the nominees of the state ticket stand on the state platform," Senator Simmons said after saying the state had endorsed prohibition, "they cannot stand on the Smith liquor platform. They cannot stand back of the national campaign. The Democratic candidates in North Carolina are not standing on the state platform. I ask them to read it and then explain how they can support Smith. The Democratic candidates in North Carolina stand neither on the Houston platform nor on the state platform."

Addressing himself to anti-Smith men, the senator told them they could not be read out of the Democratic party by the regulars. But you can read them out," he shouted, and added that he would again seek the party nomination for the senate when his term expired.

Senator Simmons devoted the first half of his address to sketching the history of the Democratic party in North Carolina since the "Populists had control of the state in 1896, stressing his own part in securing dry legislation and then attacked Smith largely on the Democratic presidential nominee's stand with regard to prohibition. "I will not vote for the man who repudiates the platform upon which he was nominated. Who would put liquor in place of the glorious name of Temperance in the Democratic platform," Senator Simmons said. His audience cheered. He declared Governor Smith had picked John J. Raskob as chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee "because he is in favor of liquor."

"Raskob," he said, "is also a monopolist. He favors privilege and was a Republican until Smith was nominated. And because I oppose them," added, "I am called a Republican, a bolter, a traitor and a Judas Iscariot."

Any attempt to try to keep southern Democrats from bolting Smith was an attempt to hold them in mental slavery. Although women did not vote then, it was their influence that brought about prohibition laws. The women of the south are now told they must vote for liquor because Smith is the Democratic nominee. They want to do it."

The senator repeated his charge made in an earlier speech at New Bern that the Democrats are waging a "two-faced" campaign. They are soft-pedalling liquor in the south and placing it as an issue in the wet north.

"Speakers in North Carolina are abandoning state issues," he said and are speaking almost entirely for Smith. "But they say nothing about liquor. They talk about intolerance and the bigotry of the southern people."

Senator Simmons spoke under the auspices of the Wake County Anti-Smith Committee. He was introduced by Dr. R. P. Noble, the local anti-Smith chairman.

Frank R. McVinch, Charlotte, state anti-Smith chairman, was on the platform.

SAYS EMPIRES MOVE NORTHWARD

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 26.—(AP)—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, famous Arctic explorer, told the Empire Club here that the old statement "westward the course of Empire takes its way," now should be changed to "northward."

Starting with the birth of civilization on the Tropic of Cancer each succeeding cycle of 1,000 years has seen a northward trend, he said.

"Just because the Arctic is the traditional home of Santa Claus," he continued, "people imagine the place is unreal and therefore impracticable. Recording thermometers of Fort Yukon have shown an average temperature of 80 and 90 degrees in the summer time and a maximum temperature of 100 degrees in the shade. At Great Bear Lake trees grow 100 feet high, are close together, large in diameter and not stunted in any way."

HOOVER WILL SPEAK ALONG HIS OLD LINE

He Plans To Give All Smith's Statements Some Attention In November.

By JAMES I. WEST
Washington, Oct. 25 (AP)—Events of the presidential campaign down to the present time have caused no change in Hoover's major political strategy of confining his speeches to a discussion of what he conceives to be the issues and to keep clear of exchanges with his Democratic opponents and others.

As has been the case in the past, party leaders and speakers are replying to the latest attack of Governor Alfred E. Smith. However, in his next address at St. Louis on the night of November 2, Hoover will take up two subjects which Smith has emphasized—waterways development and farm relief.

The Republican standard bearer already has spoken on these, having declared for a coordinated system of inland waterways and for Federal financial aid to a farm board to assist in meeting the seasonal surpluses in the major farm crops. He also has stated that if elected he would invite farm leaders, such as former Governor Frank O. Lowden, into conference to help work out the details.

Additional details of the final western trip which will take Hoover to his California home to vote are now being worked out and the nominee will make a number of addresses aside from the one at St. Louis during his four days' journey to Palo Alto.

The first of these will be at Cumberland, Maryland, within a few hours after the journey begins at 5:00 p. m. next Thursday. Hoover will speak there from a stand in the town square. His second talk will be at Louisville, Kentucky, on November 2, his train stopping in that city for an hour and ten minutes.

Crossing the Ohio River, the nominee's special train will pass through Indiana and Illinois during the afternoon of November 2, making stops at North Vernon at 12:35 p. m.; Vincennes at 3:15 p. m.; and Washington, Indiana, and East St. Louis, Illinois, before arriving at St. Louis at 7:20 p. m.

The departure from St. Louis will be at 11:00 p. m. the same night.

with additional stops at St. Joseph, Missouri, at 7:00 a. m. the next day and at Gibson, Nebraska, at 3:30 p. m. The train is scheduled to reach Cheyenne, Wyoming, at 10:30 p. m. on November 3rd, and at Ogden, Utah, at 12:30 p. m. the next day. There will be some few stops in between.

After an hour at Ogden, the special will proceed across the Great Salt Lake, the route being via Reno, Nevada, and Sacramento. There likely will be a home-coming reception at both the California State capital and Oakland through which the party will pass en route to Palo Alto, which will be reached at 1:00 p. m. November 5th.

Mary Pickford Happy.
New York (AP)—Having talked over income tax matters in Washington with Uncle Sam, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford are in town to see the shows. "Everything is lovely," said Mary. "And we had a wonderful time." And she is thinking of having her Bob tobbied still more.

G-1 Filters Disciplined.
New York (AP)—Ellnor Smith, 17, high and low flyer, must stay on the ground two weeks. She has been disciplined by the Department of Commerce for flying under the East River bridges. This stunt was done shortly after she broke an altitude record.

Fights Last Night

(By the Associated Press)
London—Jack Hood, England, stopped Bruno Frattini, Italy, (9); Teddy Baldock, England, knocked out Phil Lotosky Aldgate, (3). McKeesport, Pa.—Davey Adelman of Philadelphia, outpointed Johnny Ryan, Erie, (10).

GAMECOCKS TAKE STOCK OF TEAM

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 25 (AP)—With the Orangeburg Fair game with Citadel but six days off, the South Carolina Gamecocks today took stock of the damage to their football squad, after yesterday's disastrous meeting with the Clemson Tigers.

Injuries proved less serious than had been feared, although Zobel, flashy half back, was knocked out early in yesterday's game with a torn ligament in the ankle and it was unknown when he might be in uniform again.

Jeliam Beall and Wimberly were apparently little worse for the hard knocks in the head which sent them out dazed yesterday, while Boineau was recovering from an injured back muscle which effectively put him out of the running in the Clemson game.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 26—(AP)—The cotton market opened barely steady at a decline of 6 to 8 points under renewed southern selling and liquidation accompanied by reports of continued good weather for picking and of a continued easy spot basis in the south. December sold off to 19.17 and March to 19.13 under the heavy offerings, or about 12 to 15 points net lower, but the decline was checked at this figure by trade buying and prices showed rallies of 10 or 11 points from the lowest by the end of the first half hour. Liverpool absorbed by trade calling and continental buying of recent months in the market there. They also said there was a fair demand for cotton cloths from South America and a fair turnover in cotton yarns.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 26—(AP)—Speculative buying of wheat against simultaneous selling of corn tended to hold the wheat market today. There was also buying of wheat future deliveries on account of estimates current that exporters had taken 1,200,000 bushels of wheat today from North America, largely Canadian wheat. Meanwhile declines of 1 to 5c a bushel in the cash corn trading basis, mostly on old corn, acted as a weight on prices of corn future deliveries. About 90 per cent of Chicago arrivals of corn, however, are now of the new crop. Wheat closed firm 5-8 to 3-4 to 1c net higher; corn varying from 1-4c decline to 1-8c advance; oats 1-8 to 1-4c off and provisions unchanged to a setback of 15c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 26—(AP)—The stock market displayed a firm undertone today in the face of a recurrence of 8 per cent. Call money and an increase of $107,000,000 in brokers' loans. Buying was again rather selective in character, but a long list of merchandising, copper, public utility and aeronautical issues registered substantial gains, several of which ran from 4 to 12 1-4 points. Week-end profit taking was again rather heavy, but with few exceptions, the declines were held to from 1 to 3 points. Call money renewed at 7 1-2, but advanced to 8 as banks called $20,000,000 in loans. Wall Street found some comfort, however, in the recent reassuring statements on the soundness of credit conditions by Charles E. Mitchell and other leading bankers. Except for the usual month-end firming up of money rates, bankers generally look for relatively easy monetary conditions for the rest of the year.

Considerable stress was laid in commission house comment on the excellent character of a large majority of the earnings reports now being published. This, together with the fact that no signs of any marked recession have yet developed in any of the basic industries, helped to maintain bullish enthusiasm.

A further advance of 1-4 of a cent a pound to 16 cents in the price of export copper brought fresh buying into that group. American smelting and Kennecott each ran up more than 5 points to a new peak at 272 1-4 and 122 1-8, respectively, and Greene Cananea recorded an extreme gain of more than 8 points.

Oils were mixed. Maryland moved into new high ground but Sinclair and Barnsdall, which were in the forefront of the recent advance in that group, fell back on realizing. General Motors rallied 2 points on buying influenced by the publication of record-breaking third-quarter earnings, but lost its gain. Chrysler also was heavy, while Jordan moved up more than 2 points to a new high on merger rumors.

Montgomery-Ward came back into the speculative spotlight with an extreme gain of 12 1-4 points. R. H. Macy, radio, Shubert theatres, Best & Co., National Dairy products, Wright, Sears Roebuck and National Bellas Hess sold 4 to 5 points higher.

International Harvester fell back 7 1-2 points. Atlas Powder 4, American Machine and Foundry 3 and Howe Sound, General Ice Cream and Century Ribbon yielded 2 points or more.

The closing was irregular; sales approximated 3,500,000 shares.
