SMITH SPEAKS LAST TIME AT NEWARK TODAY

Governor Will Then Begin Plans For Swinging New York In Line.

By D. H. OLIVER, Associated Press Staff Writer. New York, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Governor Smith will carry his fight for the presidency outside the borders of his home state for the last time tonight when he motored into New Jersey for a speech at Newark. A city only recently evacuated by his Republican opponent.

Returning to his headquarters here immediately after the address, the Democratic presidential nominee will spend tomorrow in preparation for his two efforts to swing New York into line with speeches in Brooklyn and this city Friday and Saturday.

Fifty-nine votes in the electoral college are at stake in New York and its neighbor state of New Jersey, and Governor Smith believes his chances are good for bagging them all, despite the fact that only once in the last quadrennial elections have they been found in the Democratic column. This was in the tri-cornered race of 1912 when Wilson carried both states.

President Coolidge had a plurality of more than 375,000 four years ago in New Jersey and topped the combined Davis-LaPollette vote by approximately 270,000. Smith campaign managers, however, see a different picture there this year and long have held that state to be a debatable territory.

What the Democratic nominee will choose for his text tonight in Newark has not been announced from the Smith camp today. It was considered likely, however, that he would devote a good portion of the speech to an appeal to the laboring classes, as he did at his Newark address this week for his Newark address.

Executive plans call for the governor's departure from the Hotel Biltmore after dinner for the 20-mile drive to Newark by way of Holland tunnel and Jersey City. Mayor Hague, of that city, who arranged the monster reception for the nominee at Sea Girt, N. J., shortly after his notification, was making preparations today for the second Democratic invasion of the state.

The New York executive had not been apprised just what the Jersey City mayor had in store for him in the way of a welcome, but it was believed the reception here would be so timed as to permit the nominee to participate in a torchlight parade before reaching his destination.

Whether Governor Smith will stick to his original plan to wind up his speaking campaign in Madison Square Garden Saturday night or consent to make a final radio appeal to the electorate Monday night is a subject of much discussion around headquarters here. Although no official announcement has been made, it is understood that negotiations for a radio contract on election eve are proceeding with a view to having the hook-up ready should the nominee decide to speak for the first time on the same night with his opponent.

Freight Rates On Potatoes Declared Reasonable Today

Washington, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Carload freight rates on potatoes from Aroostook county, Maine, to principal consuming territory were held "reasonable" today by the Interstate Commerce Commission except as they apply to a limited number of points in New Jersey, Virginia and North Carolina.

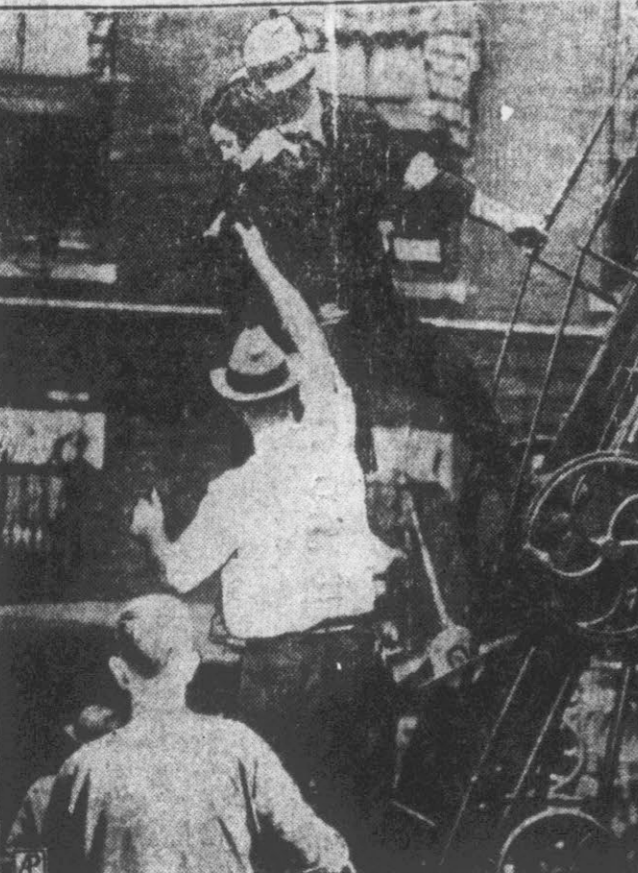

A complaint brought by organized Maine potato growers as to the general potato rate situation was dismissed. At the same time, the commission said that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad points in New Jersey should be given a rate of 50 cents per hundred pounds from the Aroostook potato centers and that New Jersey points on the West Jersey and Seashore railroad should be given a rate of 63 cents from the same origin points. To Richmond, Petersburg, Lynchburg and Suffolk, Va., potato rates from Maine ranging from 70 to 72 cents were established, while northern North Carolina territory was given schedules based on the Virginia group.

The commission issued no order as to its finding but suggested that railroads should make the changes described in their schedules in 90 days.

Giant Zeppelin Draws Nearer Germany Today

London, Oct. 31.—(AP)—After two nights at sea, the great airship, the Graf Zeppelin, today approached Europe. Advises as to the airship's position indicated that her first landing might be Southern England or the French Coast along the Bay of Biscay.

After buffeting headwinds and then sailing along at an increased speed with favoring winds in her wake, the dirigible was completing the first round trip commercial voyage of the Atlantic by air. Experts at Friedrichshafen, Germany, expected the airship to arrive at her hangar there by nightfall, ending the trip which had started at Lakehurst, N. J., on Monday morning.

At 6:45 a. m., Greenwich time today (1:54 a. m., Eastern Standard Time) the airship had been in flight for 48 hours. It took the British dirigible R-34 75 hours to make the eastern flight from New York to England in 1919. If the Graf Zeppelin arrives at Friedrichshafen by 7:54 p. m., tonight, Central European Time, 1:54 Eastern Standard Time) she will have been in the air 60 hours and will have reached her home port in our hours less time than it took her R-34 to reach Clifden, Ireland, in 1919.

On the basis of position reports available when the 34th hour of the air was reached, German experts calculated that the airship had covered 2,800 miles or 900 miles better than was covered in the same number of hours in her test flight over Europe.

These figures gave the airship an average speed of 52 miles an hour and indicated how favoring winds had helped her along her course over the ocean.

That these favoring winds would continue until the airship was over land was indicated in calculations of the meteorologist of the British air ministry, he said, that strong northerly winds, reaching gale force in some places, prevailed in the North Atlantic from mid-ocean to the Irish coast. A few heavy showers might be expected but visibility for the most part would be good. Cobb reported the weather in that neighborhood was excellent for flying with a brilliant moon shining during the night.

While the strong winds had aided the ship, these and the northern course she had followed it was thought might have made the passengers somewhat uncomfortable, especially those who were not provided with clothing warm enough for the frigid weather.

The call for breakfast this morning found those aboard eager for a warming meal. The menu was Spanish meringue, fried eggs, bacon and sausage, cereal, marmalade, coffee and rolls.

Florida Bank Closed; Seek Cashier Today

Groveland, Fla., Oct. 31.—(AP)—At eight o'clock this morning the time lock on the vault of the Bank of Groveland had been closed 72 hours. The bank had been closed Monday morning "to protect depositors," and a warrant was issued for the arrest of J. H. Highower, missing cashier.

The time lock was set for a 72-hour period last Saturday morning at eight, and directors have been waiting for the time limit to expire before checking up on cash on hand, which was said to reach $20,000 at times.

P. B. Ruggles, director of the bank last night announced that officials expected to find a "shortage of several thousand dollars" when the vault was opened, but declined to amplify or further explain his statement. He said it was his personal opinion that Highower had left Groveland, and indicated that the cashier had not been seen here since Saturday by repeating his assertion that a warrant had been issued, and Raleigh, N. C., authorities notified. Highower left that city several years ago, shortly after his trial and conviction on charges of complicity in the failure of the Central Bank and Trust company there.

Thumbprints For Election.

The report stated that sales were light today and would be completed by the noon hour.

HOOVER WILL SET OUT FOR HOME NOV. 1ST

Republican Presidential Nominee To Make Last Appeal In California.

By JAMES L. WEST, Associated Press Staff Writer. Washington, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Another oddity will take its place in this campaign of oddities this week when the Republican high command directs the party's west field forces from general headquarters on a swiftly moving special train carrying Herbert Hoover to his California home.

Since the day of his nomination, Hoover has had personal charge of the conduct of his fight for the presidency, and so it will be until the last shot has been fired and the army of voters begins to march upon the polling places.

When Hoover turns westward again tomorrow he will be surrounded by most of the advisers who have been almost constantly at his side in this greatest battle of his career. There will be his personal assistant, George Atkinson, Dr. Hubert Work, chairman, and Ralph Williams of Oregon, vice-chairman of the Republican national committee; George Barry Baker of New York; Harry Robinson of Los Angeles, and T. T. C. Gregory of San Francisco.

As his opponent is concluding a spectacular appeal for the votes of normally Republican strongholds in the east, Hoover will be kept advised of events as they take place and after conferring with his advisers will send forth orders for moves intended to counteract the Democratic activities.

The Republican standard bearer will also be firing some solid shots himself. He will deliver a major speech at St. Louis Friday night, and also will speak at noon that day and on Thursday and Saturday nights.

His range will cover a field from Maryland to Colorado while his Democratic opponent is active in and around New York City. Aside from these principal speeches, Hoover will make nearly a dozen brief rear platform talks and for the first time during this campaign his private car will be equipped with loudspeaker and microphone. Heretofore at stops where speeches were to be made the local committees furnished their own loudspeakers and microphones.

As was the case during his last trans-continental trip, Hoover will use two different private cars. He will ride to St. Louis in one furnished by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, but while he is speaking in the Missouri city this car will be detached and replaced by the private car "Sunset" of the Southern Pacific Railroad. The loud speaker will be transferred from one car to the other along with the baggage of the candidate and his immediate personal party.

Besides his political advisers, the nominee will be accompanied by Mrs. Hoover and their son, Allan, as well as Lewis Straus of New York secretary to the presidential candidate during the world war period.

There will be a corps of more than thirty newspaper correspondents and news photographers, the largest group that has accompanied the candidate on his trans-continental journeys of which this is the third since he was chosen to carry the standard for the Republican party.

MISS DAVENPORT HAS HARROWING EXPERIENCE.

Miss Edna Davenport, daughter of J. F. Davenport of this city, is one of the two young women whose room was entered by a negro at Spring Hope Monday night. The negro has been apprehended and confessed the crime to the sheriff, according to a report received from Rocky Mount.

One of the young women grappled with the negro when he was discovered in their room, but he succeeded in jumping through the window and making his escape.

Miss Davenport is a member of the faculty of the Spring Hope school.

METHODIST CONFERENCE AT WILSON

Three Hundred Ministers And Laymen At The Annual Session This Week.

Wilson, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Three hundred Methodist ministers and laymen were in attendance at the sessions of the 92nd annual meeting of the North Carolina conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which convened at nine o'clock this morning in the Methodist church here, with Bishop D. Mazon, presiding.

The conference opened yesterday with special conferences between Bishop Mazon and presiding elders of the district and last night the annual meeting of the North Carolina Historical Society was held.

The first official business session of the meeting, though, was held this morning and Dr. Gilbert T. Rowe of Duke University, made the devotional address. Business matters of importance to the conference and member churches were then engaged in, the quadrennial boards and committees are in session this afternoon and tonight's program, celebrating the anniversary of the Sunday school board, will be featured by an address by Dr. John W. Shackford.

Last night Dr. Paul N. Garber of Duke University, addressed the historical society. He related the history of Methodism in America from its inception in June, 1773, with a small following to its present flourishing condition, being the subject of his talk. He asserted that the Methodists today were the largest protestant body in America and declared that this growth is a record of which all Methodists can justly be proud.

It is considered that "this growth was not the result of immigration, but the church had always gone out in the byway places of the world and found unconverted men and brought them to a saving knowledge of Christ.

"The most glorious page in the history of Methodism is the suffering and hardships endured by the early circuit riders," Dr. Garber said, as he gave the early ministers of the church with their fighting spirit due praise for the achievements of the church during the past. He drew vivid pictures of the sacrifices and hardships of the Methodist itinerants of other years.

The meeting of the historical society was presided over by the Rev. Jesse Marvin Ormond, president of the organization. The Rev. John H. Shore of the ensuing year, the Rev. B. C. Thompson was named first vice-president and Josephus Daniels of Raleigh, was appointed second vice-president.

Daniels Praises Smith In Speech At Snow Hill, N. C.

Snow Hill, N. C., Oct. 31.—(AP)—In O. Max Gardner, nominee for governor, and Alfred E. Smith, nominee for president, the Democratic party has put forward two candidates who above all else are courageous. Josephus Daniels, Raleigh publisher and secretary of the navy in Wilson's administration, declared in a political address here today.

He declared that Gardner in the past had supported "woman suffrage, the Australian ballot and, in this fall, the Democratic national ticket in spite of the fact that friends told him "it would cost him votes."

"A consideration of courage, of steadfastness, to the common good," Mr. Daniels said in naming Smith, "should inevitably suggest the name of the man who stands preeminent in public thought today as the champion of the rights of the people against the privileges of special interests, as a warrior for progressive principles against the forces of the status quo, as the personification of common honesty challenge through the nation the orgy of Republican corruption."

Richard Hudnut Dies In France

Nice, France, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Richard Hudnut, former New York druggist who became a millionaire through the manufacture of perfume, is dead at Chateau Juan at Juan Les Pins, a resort near Nice.

Mr. Hudnut owned a villa there and spent much of his time in recent years at it. He died last night of heart failure. He was 66 years old. His widow is the mother by a former marriage of Winifred Shaughnessy Hudnut, known on the stage as Natacha Rambova, who was the second wife of the late Rudolph Valentino.

STUDENT "THRILL SLAYERS"

George Hersh, 19, Oglethorpe University student, whom, police allege, confessed to a series of holdups and two slayings in Atlanta, Ga., implicated Richard Gray Gallogly, 18 (right), also an Oglethorpe student, as driver of the automobile used in their forays on drug and grocery stores.

Local Tobacco Market To Suspend Sales Nov. 6th

At a meeting of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade last night, it was decided to suspend sales on the local market election day, November 6th, providing other markets of Eastern Carolina did likewise. It was stated today that numbers of the other markets had already agreed to close, and it was believed that suspension of sales would be general throughout the belt.

This action was taken, members of the board said, in order to give tobaccoists from other localities an opportunity of returning home to vote. It will also give the farmer a chance to remain at home to take part in election activities of his community.

ROBT. LANSING BETHEL NEGRO PASSES AWAY FOUND GUILTY

Prominent Figure Of World War Succumbs To Heart Trouble.

Washington, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The last of three figures that bulked large in the enunciation of American foreign policy during the critical days of the world war and the period that immediately preceded the great conflict has gone.

Having claimed Woodrow Wilson and William Jennings Bryan, death succeeded as Secretary of State, Robert Lansing, who held the portfolio during the entire time that America was one of the belligerent nations.

For several years, Mr. Lansing had suffered from a heart ailment, described by his physician as myocarditis. Four weeks ago he returned to Washington from his summer home at Henderson Harbor, New York, and a short while later his illness became acute. For the last three days he was semi-conscious. The former cabinet officer had so withdrawn from public affairs that only a few knew of his critical condition and word of his death came as a surprise and a shock to official Washington generally.

Robert Lansing was a life-long student of government, diplomacy and international law. Bryan's celebrated break with Wilson, arising from a disagreement as to what the official American attitude toward the tragedy of the Lusitania should be, found Mr. Lansing holding the post of counselor of the State Department with Bryan's resignation. He was promoted to the cabinet and was faced at once with the intricacies of what already was a tense international situation.

As with its predecessor, Mr. Lansing's tenure of office ended in disagreement with President Wilson. In Mr. Lansing's case the break was brought on, ostensibly, by his action in calling a meeting of the cabinet while the president was ill. A sharp exchange with his chief followed and when the documents were made public they included Mr. Lansing's resignation.

Mr. Lansing was 64 years of age. He was born at Watertown, New York, and was a graduate of Amherst College and a lawyer by profession. Before becoming actively connected with the State Department in 1914, he had represented the United States in connection with various arbitration treaties for more than twenty years.

Thomas Crocker, Raleigh, is managing the freshman team at State this season.

GIRL BURNS HERSELF FOR SPIRIT LOVE

Finding Of Body Of Girl In Illinois Partly Cleared Up By Rier Confession.

Lake Bluff, Ill., Oct. 31.—(AP)—Self-torture by fire to prove her faith in a "spirit love" was advanced today to explain the strange case of Miss Elfrida Knaak, 30-year-old Sunday school teacher and book agent.

It was a weird, uncanny explanation, full of holes and wide open to practical minded police skepticism; but it came from the lips of Miss Knaak herself, lying next to death from burns mysteriously inflicted in the basement of the Lake Bluff police station some time Monday night.

Physicians were unconvinced. "To believe her story," said Dr. A. J. Reinger, attending her, "you would have to believe these facts:

"That she first placed one foot, then the other, in the furnace and kept them there for some little time; that she thrust head and arms and held them there under what certainly must have terrific pain. The fire box is only 12-3-4 by 8-3-4 inches.

"It does not seem possible that a person, even in a trance, could do that. Muscular reaction alone would cause her to jump back from the flames."

The name of Charles W. Hitchcock, 45 years old, married and the father of four children, was brought into the case by Miss Knaak who during the night frequently cried out: "Hitchcock, Hitch. Why don't you come to me?"

"Who did this?" said the State's attorney, bending over the girl's cot.

"I did it myself, for faith, for purity," was the response. At intervals, the officers obtained her story. She had known Hitchcock four years, she said, having studied "eclecticism" and "self-mastery in classes" in seminary here.

"A few months ago I got to know him spiritually," she was quoted as saying. "This was no material love affair. Advanced psychology made me understand him. For weeks I have been hearing his voice saying, 'have faith; have faith.'"

"I had an appointment with him Monday night. He did not keep it. Hitchcock, who besides being a teacher, is night policeman at Lake Bluff, has been confined to his cot with a broken leg for a week. When he did not appear, I again heard his voice urging me to have faith.

"To prove my faith, I thought to be fire. I removed my clothes and undressed them. I burned myself. I survived. I proved my faith, and I'll live. Be sure of this: I new I would survive.

Hitchcock, his leg in a cast, was unable to clear up the girl's story. "Poor girl, if she had a crush on me, I certainly didn't know it," he said.

Hitchcock said Miss Knaak came to him four years ago to study "eclecticism" and "eclecticism." Since finishing the course she has occasionally communicated with him. Hitchcock said, seeking his advice on problems confronting her. One heavy utter investigation was that Miss Knaak not knowing of his injury, had gone to the police station Monday evening to await his arrival after his official rounds. The station is closed at night, but Miss Knaak was presumed to have had a key, as did many other persons.

It is possible, police said, that she may have gone to the furnace room for warmth, and that she may have been attacked by some vagrant who himself had gotten into the basement to keep warm during the chilly night. Physicians said the burns were probably inflicted shortly before the young woman was discovered by the janitor.

Jays Democrats To Give Smith Great Majority.

Henderson, N. C., Oct. 31.—(AP)—John H. Kerr, Congressman from the Second North Carolina district, predicted during a speech here last night that the Democratic party would roll up a majority in favor of Governor Smith, presidential candidate, and the entire state ticket.

He attacked Herbert Hoover's non-committal attitude in the campaign and said he himself was supporting Smith without making any apology for it because of several reasons, namely: Because Smith was one of the most remarkable executives of the country; because he honestly thinks Smith is a good man and for purely political reasons; that he might turn out the "den of thieves" at Washington. He declared it to be a moral obligation on every man to follow the majority in his party.

BRINGING IN THE NEGRO

The injection of the negro question into the campaign in this state by the anti-Smithites apparently is an acknowledgment of a feeling on their part that in urging the support of Herbert Hoover they are supporting the negro party and must somehow, somewhere find some negroes in the Democratic party in order to alibi their present stand. Rightly declaring that the issue is one that should have no part in this campaign and that the action of McNinch and his associates is nothing more than an appeal for the moron vote, the News and Observer says:

Nobody will give more severe condemnation of the attempt to McNinch to charge Smith with following the example of Republicans than the quiet, conscientious citizen who declared some time ago he could not vote for Smith because Smith wishes to change the prohibition law.

That would be proper, if Smith had made any order, as Hoover did, to compel white business clerks to work side by side with Negro clerks in the Department of Commerce. It is utterly misleading to say that because ex-Mayor Hylan, driven from office by the Smith forces in New York, appointed one Negro to office and he dictated a letter to a white woman stenographer, Smith is to be opposed. It is no secret that the Republican party has since 1898 given the ballot to illiterate Negroes and subjected the South to the rule of corrupt white and Negro politicians wherever it had the power. As late as 1900 in North Carolina the White Supremacy campaign put an end to the orgies. The ignorant Negroes were far less to blame than Russell and Butler and the political leaders who fattened upon the credulity of their Negro followers. These and other white politicians, who opposed the purified suffrage, were false to the Negroes who served them as soon as they could no longer give them office. And intelligent Negroes know that.

If the Negro issue has any place in this campaign, and this paper thinks it has none, the only possible suggestion is that it behooves Southern white men, having gone through the flames in past years, not to trust the State or National Republican party, seeing that it stands today for the Dyer bill and Tinkham threats to decrease Southern representation and that a Republican victory may again bring the menace of the Force bill. For McNinch to appeal to voters to support Hoover because a defeated Democrat appointed one Negro to office in New York City, when the Republican party has appointed 100,000 to office and would do so again, is to make no appeal except to the moron vote. And fortunately, there are not enough morons in North Carolina to greatly influence the election.

Declaring that farm relief, the power question, and Republican corruption in office are the real issues of the campaign, the Observer asks McNinch to state his mind on these things and concludes:

These are great questions in the campaign and they cannot be side-tracked by the absurd and ridiculous appeal to the morons.

ABOUT TOWN

"Friday night is the date set for the appearance of Richard Cleveland, son of the late President Cleveland," mentioned a member of the Pitt County Democratic Executive Committee.

"Mr. Cleveland is one of the most prominent speakers that has appeared in Greenville during the present campaign and we are expecting a large crowd to be present. Keep the date in mind and come out and hear this well known member of the party champion its cause."

"Pay-up Week gets under way in Greenville tomorrow," observed a member of the Merchants' Association today.

"If you have any outstanding obligations get busy immediately and see that they are settled in full or make such adjustments satisfactory to your creditors."

"This is the first event of the kind held in Greenville in many a day, so it is incumbent upon you to assist your merchant by paying up all outstanding obligations possible."

"F. C. Harding will explain the amendments to the constitution of North Carolina to be voted on in the election, November 6th. Friday night when Richard Cleveland speaks at the courthouse," said a prominent banker today who has shown more than passing interest in the new legislation.

"Mr. Harding is fully familiar with the various phases of the question and should be able to discuss them in an interesting and convincing way. He will speak before Mr. Cleveland, but his remarks will consume very little time."

"These meetings of farmers and business men should have a salutary effect upon the agricultural life of the community," declared a business man today who attended the farmers' night program given by the Rotary Club Monday evening.

"It is an established fact that farming never will be what it should in this section until the farmer learns how to plan a well-balanced program. By this I mean that he should plant along with his main crop sufficient stuff to feed his family and stock during the year without having to purchase it from some other section."

"The addition of a cow, chickens and some hogs would make it possible to live at home and prosper, despite the trend of the market for principal crops. It is hoped these meetings will be held more frequently and that the farmers will give them the consideration of which they are so deserving."

"Greenville felt the breath of King Winter yesterday," observed a merchant today.

"This reminded many people that the time had come to purchase winter clothing and prepare for the long siege a head. Local merchants are better prepared than ever to serve the thousands of patrons in this trade territory and everybody should begin shopping early in order to avoid the rush later on. Don't wait until the most severe weather of the winter season comes before making your purchases. Buy now and be prepared."

"Don't forget to notify the Merchants' Association if you have any spare rooms," reminded a member of the organization today.

"We shall need three hundred rooms when the Northeastern District of the North Carolina Educational Association convenes in this city November 9th. $1.00 a day will be allowed for each room."

"This is the third consecutive year Greenville has had the honor of entertaining the educators and we are endeavoring to make their stay this time more pleasant than ever. This cannot be done, however, without proper accommodations. Therefore, don't forget to let us know about that spare room."

"Not enough milk in American homes is the cause of so many frail looking children," said a member of the State Department of Agriculture, speaking here this week.

"Advocating more cows on the hundreds of farms throughout the state, he declared that the milk was absolutely indispensable to the growing child."

"Take milk out of the country and the nation would be depopulated in one generation," he declared.

"The cow is one of the most valuable assets of the farm, yet countless hundreds are without them. The average farmer takes his cow out behind the barn to milk her because he is afraid his neighbors will see him. Milk is absolutely essential to the growing child and the cow that supplies it is one of the most valuable assets of the farm."

OPEN FORUM

The Uncalled For Lie.

There is being circulated through the town and county a political propaganda handbill entitled "Democrats nominate negro for Congress in Missouri." The party or parties distributing same know or could learn by reasonable inquiry, that same is absolutely false. No person, regardless of religious creed or political faith, will place such untruth in the hands of an innocent people, when they know same to be false or it is in their power to ascertain the falsity of same, except they be base, vile cowards, afraid to face the issues on the justness of their cause.

I glory in the spunk of human beings to fight for the cause they think right, whether I agree with them or not, but I detest the person who will resort to untruth to further his purpose.

S. O. Worthington, Chairman Democratic Veterans Organization for Pitt County.

Hallowe'en jingles written by children in Fifth Grade at the Model school.

Hallowe'en is the time to play. Be sure to watch your way. When you go home and go to bed, Don't forget to cover your head.

Hurrah! hurrah for Hallowe'en. It's the jolliest time ever seen. The goblins and witches are all about. And they'll get you, if you don't watch out. They hide behind haystacks so they can't be seen. So you better watch out on Hallowe'en.

Whether you are a spook, goblin, Jack o' lantern, witch or cat. Come to my house and you'll find welcome written on the mat.

Oh Hallowe'en night the goblin take flight. But in the day the witches will play. Hallowe'en! Hallowe'en! Pumpkin pie and jelloine.

November 8 was chosen as the date for the second entertainment in the fall series at East Carolina Teachers College, partly because there will be a number of visitors in the town who will come early for the meeting of the North Carolina Teachers Association. They will welcome the opportunity of hearing a star singer and as a radio prima donna and of seeing her in a costume recital. Suzanne Keener will give the kind of entertainment that will appeal to the visitors, as well as to the home people.

The election will be in the past, there will be a reaction from politics and speaking and every one will be glad to relax and listen to lovely songs sung by a charming singer who will please the eye as well as the ear.

Young Peoples Conference To Be Held Here

The General Chairman of the Young Peoples Conference which is to be held in this city December 4th, 5th, met with the General Conference Committee last night and discussed more definite plans for the conference.

This County Young Peoples Conference is an annual gathering of young people from Sunday schools of all denominations and a few adult leaders for the purpose of inspiring greater Christian effort, giving youth an opportunity of wider Christian fellowship, enabling personal living through the devotional programs, Bible study, wholesome entertainment, and the study of religious education in the church.

There will be worship periods, inspirational lectures, Bible study periods, discussion periods, recreation, and the closing feature will be a banquet.

All young people in the town, nearby towns and community are urged to come. This is the first conference of its kind that has been held in Greenville. They have been in the larger cities heretofore. Invite your friends, boost it, talk about it, and let's have the largest number of young people together in Greenville. Register now and get your ticket to admit you to the entire conference, banquet included. Don't forget the dates, December 4th, 5th. Watch the papers for further announcements.

There will be worship periods, inspirational lectures, Bible study periods, discussion periods, recreation, and the closing feature will be a banquet.

Robinson Takes Fight To Indiana
By RAYMOND Z. HENLE
En Route With Senator Robinson to Evansville, Ind., Oct. 31.—(AP)—As Senator Joe T. Robinson carried his campaign into Indiana today he looked back on his experience in Illinois as indicative that an unusually large vote will be cast in next week's election.

The Democratic vice-presidential nominee expects the result to be favorable to the Democratic ticket, but whatever happens November 6th, he is sure the people have manifested the greatest interest in politics this year in the history of the country.

His expectation that a huge vote will be cast is based primarily on the reactions that have been his wherever he has spoken, despite the fact that the last three weeks of his nation-wide tour carried him through states usually Republican at national election time.

And although Senator Robinson has been in nearly three-fourths of the states and has made upwards of 150 formal and informal speeches, he declares as the campaign draws to its close that he feels better than when he started. His voice has stood up fine shape and he has been able to get the exercise he needs by an occasional game of golf.

He said Governor Smith had "intimated" he stood for the principles of the McNary-Haugen bill, but later had declared he had not endorsed the equalization fee of that measure, "and he now proposes to name a commission to study the problem." The crowded auditorium cheered when he said "you needn't worry, for Governor Smith will not be elected."

In his second Wisconsin visit, the Republican vice-presidential nominee made no reference to Senator LaFayette, Republican of Wisconsin, who has been silent on the national ticket. Previously he had endorsed him. Last night, however, he did praise the record of Representative Frear, of Wisconsin, and called for his election and the election of Walter Kohler, Republican nominee for governor, who is supporting the Republican national ticket.

REVIVAL TO CLOSE HERE

Dr. McFarland To Preach Final Sermon At Immanuel Baptist Church Tonight.

Despite the inclement weather a good-sized crowd was on hand last night to hear Dr. R. A. McFarland deliver a sermon on church membership at the Immanuel Baptist Church in this city.

As with all previous sermons, Dr. McFarland brought his message in a clear, simple form, using various illustrations, and urging members of the church to stand by the pastor, get into the work of building up the church and kingdom.

The music, which has been under the direction of Rev. O'Brien, pastor of the church, was very good last night, many of the old hymns being sung and the audience entering into the singing whole-heartedly.

The meeting will close with tonight's sermon. It was stated this morning that a number of additions have been made to the church and that the revival was a success in every way. This was made possible, according to the pastor, by the full co-operation of the members and those of other churches of the city who joined in the services.

The new Buick is the new Style

Men and women on every street-- in every city and town-- are pronouncing the new BUICK with Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher, the most beautiful automobile of the day.

Never before in the history of motor car manufacture have the motorists of America welcomed any new automobile as they are welcoming the Silver Anniversary Buick with new Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher!

Sweeping into the market at a time when motor car lines were practically standardized—when imitation was destroying individuality—these epic Buick creations introduced an entirely new mode—

A mode of body-symmetry—of size and magnificence—of soft contours instead of straight lines—of embossed side and hood panels involving the most costly steel paneling work employed on any car in the world!

And as the weeks have passed—and the full significance of Buick's achievement has become apparent to the public—enthusiasm for this car has swelled and grown to unprecedented proportions!

Buick sales records have been broken! Production schedules have been increased again and again! The great Buick plants are working to the limit of their capacity to supply the demand.

Both Parties Claim Lead In States of Connecticut And Rhode Island Today

By BYRON PRICE (Associated Press Staff Writer) New Haven, Conn., Oct. 31.—(AP)—Habitually later than most of their neighbors in opening the season of active campaigning, the southern New England states of Connecticut and Rhode Island are taking their politics in concentrated portions as the national dispute over Hoover and Smith nears its end.

As they make the feverish round of conferences and rallies the leaders of both parties are claiming victory. When these predictions are made in public they are cheered mostly on both sides, by large assemblages of the Connecticut and Rhode Island voters themselves. The bystander can pay his money and make his own forecast whether these twelve electoral votes—Connecticut's seven and Rhode Island's five—will go eventually to Smith or to Hoover or be split between them.

Both states have been voting for Republican presidential nominees for years, and each is the stamping ground of a compact and experienced Republican organization. Yet both lie within that coveted eastern bloc of electoral votes for which the Democrats are making an insistent appeal in 1928. They are the only two states in the Union that never ratified the prohibition amendment. Each has far above the national average of Catholic population, and each is the home of large colonies sprung from immigrant stock from continental Europe.

Nowhere are the racial considerations that mingle in the present national campaign more persistently discussed. Politicians who talk of the prospects of November 6 veer around quickly to the probable disposition of what they call the Italian vote, the Polish vote, the French vote, the German vote or the negro vote. Nearly all of these racial groups have been in recent years preponderantly Republican. This year both parties are claiming them on one ground or another.

Of the two states, Rhode Island was singled out from the beginning of the campaign by Democratic leaders, who argued that it would be one of the most likely of all of the eastern group to go for Smith. They based this hope not only on the known wet sentiment of the state, but on the further fact that Senator Peter Gerry, a Democrat, had twice overturned the Republican's normalcy, and is this year a candidate for re-election. Senator Gerry is chairman of the advisory committee of the Democratic national campaign organization, and has not overlooked his home state in his efforts to garner in an electoral college majority for Smith.

As in other New England states, the Republicans have countered the Democratic attack in Rhode Island by arguing that the prosperity of the state's dominant industrial interests rest on the protective tariff. In Rhode Island the French-Canadian element is credited with having the balance of power.

The politicians do not agree just what application the religious issues may have as regards the French Canadians, who are an important element in the electorate of New Hampshire as well as Rhode Island, and who reside in lesser numbers in Massachusetts and Connecticut. This group is Catholic, but it has not always been in harmony with the Catholics of other races.

The Democratic leaders now declare the French element will vote for Smith, but the Republicans deny it.

In Connecticut, however, the French constitute one of the lesser racial groups. Their principal voting strength is concentrated in a single county next to the Rhode Island boundary. The Italian colony is large, and there are many of the German, Austrian and other nationalities. Nearly all of them live in the cities, and it is upon the cities that the Democrats base their greatest hope.

At the present stage of the campaign the Smith supporters are claiming every one of the twenty cities of Connecticut, although most of them are normally Republican. The claim is disputed by the Republicans. It is conceded, however, that Smith is likely to get a big vote in New Haven. It is upon the country districts, including the small towns, that the Republican organization is relying to keep Connecticut safe for Hoover. In past years, those sections have been an unfailing reliance of the party. In some voting units the returns of the last election showed a ratio of as many as 500 Republicans to one Democrat. Registration has increased greatly in city and country in both Connecticut and Rhode Island, complicating the task of those political leaders who are attempting to figure out just what significance can be attached this year to the vote of four years ago, when Coolidge carried Connecticut by more than two to one over Davis, and Rhode Island by only a slightly smaller vote.

GORMAN'S MARKET REPORT

The sales are lighter this week, all sales finishing each day. Prices have held up well, considering the quality and condition of the offerings. Owing to the cool, dry weather much of it showed too dry and we had a hard time getting SOME of the BUYERS to see the quality and we had to buy right much tobacco to sustain prices. Our Tuesday's sale of 214,490 pounds brought $56,500.59 and averaged $26.34. Some of this sale was as high as at any time this season, as you will see by the sales below. It was decided by the Board of Trade last night not to sell on election day. The houses which would have had first sale on that day get a first sale on Wednesday for three and one-half hours and then the Buyers go to the houses which the sales cards show to have the first sales. We have first sale Thursday, third sale Friday, first second sale Monday, first sale Wednesday and first sale Thursday.

THREE TEAMS IN FINE TRIM FOR SATURDAY

Atlanta, Ga.—Only the mightiest of the mighty in the Southern Conference have succeeded in inoculating themselves against an insidious epidemic of the hospital variety that has gained a foothold in many Dixie football camps.

Clemson, Tennessee and Georgia Tech., leading the family pack with three victories each, apparently are in excellent trim as the season reaches the Hallowe'en stage. Vanderbilt with two victories and Armstead sprinting capriciously in daily scrimmage, also had nothing to fear in the clash against Kentucky Saturday.

But not so Florida, the only other team that has won two conference victories and lost no games. Tony Owens, veteran backfield star, and Clyde Crabtree, quarterback of the much vaunted Gator offensive, won't see action this week, due to injuries. The Gators will play Sewanee Saturday.

Three of Kentucky's star performers are members of the hospital squad. Portwood, Trierber, and Johnson, are not yet in shape from injuries received in the last two games, but there was a bright spot at Lexington. Bull Brown, line man, has recovered from his injuries and will face the gold and black Saturday.

Georgia's line still is weak from absences, although Coach Harry Mehre has little to fear Saturday in Auburn, whose line consisted chiefly in not having the punch to command conference attention.

Ole Miss is groping about more or less effectively in its efforts to thrust away a conference hoodoo of undetermined nature, by reorganizing for the Clemson game Saturday. Joe Houston, a newly developed back may get a show in the struggle.

With several regulars hurt Washington and Lee is making ready for Virginia with Spradley and Day at ends, Hostetter and Tillar at tackles and Taylor at guard, and Rainor at fullback.

V. P. I. took advantage of its freedom from ill omen by indulging in one of the hardest scrimmage sessions of the year at Blacksburg yesterday in preparation for the Maryland clash.

University of North Carolina was shifting backs for more effective showing in preparation for the game with North Carolina State. Nash Maus may start at half, but the coaching staff would not commit itself. State had a white-washed ball yesterday, with Chink outen back in the regular backfield, which also had a new member, Hank McLawhorn.

Alabama, preparing for its inter-sectional clash with Wisconsin at Madison, not only had lost two backs who broke training regulations, but Tony Hoim was still lame. Campbell or Lowry will replace him in all probability. Mississippi & M., however, was apparently in good shape for the clash with Michigan State at Lansing in the only other inter-sectional game scheduled for Southern teams this week.

The rest of the conference members were taking it fairly easy this week in preparation for non-conference competition.

SPAULDING GOES TO SECOND STRING

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 31.—(AP)—Yank Spaulding, after ruffling at right halfback position all season, scrimmaged at full back yesterday with the second backfield of the University of North Carolina. Eleven, Nash Maus, sophomore, appears to have earned a monopoly on the right half assignment. However, coaches were unwilling yesterday to say which will start in the encounter with the State's Wolf Pack at Raleigh Saturday.

This shift may strengthen the Tar Heel secondary, for the big Pennsylvanian played a nice brand of football in the new position.

CLEMSON TIGERS TO PLAY OXFORD

Clemson College, S. C., Oct. 31.—(AP)—General practice today and tomorrow at home resumed for the Clemson Tigers as they turned toward their first football game to be played here tomorrow night in a special program, stopping for workouts at Tupelo, Miss., Friday and at Holy Springs, Miss., before the Oxford game.

Hard practice through a biting cold drizzle of rain filled yesterday afternoon. The scrubs put on "Ole Miss" formations against the second string and then against the varsity. Earlier the varsity had taken on a freshmen team for scrimmage on offense.

Atlanta—William "Young" Stribling, Georgia, knocked out Sid Terris, North Carolina, (3).

Des Moines, Iowa—Henry Falciano, San Francisco, outpointed Frankie Larabee, Lincoln, Neb., (10). Cincinnati—Sammy Tusker, Newark, N. J., and Joe Dragon, Cincinnati, drew, (10).

GEORGIA HAS TWO GRID LEADERS

Lautzenheiser (left), tackle for University of Georgia, and Jacobson (right) a guard, are alternate captains on alternate Saturdays for the Athens, Ga., eleven. They both are expected to see action against Tulane this week.

CENTERS GET MUCH PRAISE ON GRIDIRON

By HORACE C. BENEGRAR.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 31.—(AP)—A flock of capable centers are winning some of the praise that often goes to football halfbacks this with a half-dozen, at least, giving good accounts of themselves consistently.

Harry Schwartz, of North Carolina; Babe Pearce, of Alabama; Peter Pund, of Georgia Tech.; "Och" Pressley, of Clemson, and Boland, of Georgia, all brought over reputations from last season and are more than living up to them this year.

The bristled pivot man of the Tar Heels has proved conclusively that he is of the first ranking, his roving style of play having been a thorn in the side of many teams already. His play this season is even greater, apparently, than in 1927, all accounts of his team's games having mentioned him among the stars. He is captain of his team.

Another captain who has been showing plenty of rush, drive and steadiness is Pund, of the Golden Tornado. With the exception of the North Carolina game, his consistency in passing the ball to the backs and his blocking has been outstanding against Notre Dame he played perhaps the greatest game of his career, winning admiration from every side.

Pearce starred in the tournament of roses a couple of years ago when the tide met Stanford and was one of the best of the southern conference. Unlike Pund, who is not ferociously personified, he is more aggressive. While Pund is not the tense type of center, he is powerful and consistent. Pearce is a driving center.

Josh Cody also presents his captain in the role of a star center. Pressley is the mainstay of the Clemson line, probably as hard a tackling and charging outfit as the conference has yet seen—and he is generally accorded much of the credit for the forwards success.

Boland, Bulldog pivot man, was another man in the trick of things when an injury cut him down for several weeks. He is not expected to return to the Athens line-up before the middle of November.

Oliver, successor to Vernon Sharp at Vanderbilt; Taylor, of Virginia; Finney, of Tennessee; Laird, of Ole Miss; Evans, of Tulane, and Huffman, of Louisiana State, are others who have started the season by giving line-plungers and spin artists trouble, while several others have flashed the ability in a game or two at least to give forebodings of what may be expected before the season has ended.

Young Stribling Knocks Out Terris

Atlanta, Oct. 31.—(AP)—William L. Stribling, the youngster, whose next bout will be fought in Tex Rickard's heavyweight elimination arena in New York, disposed of Sid Terris of North Carolina, in three rounds last night.

Terris, who weighed in at 207 pounds, against Stribling's 181 1-2, entered the ring with a record of 13 consecutive knockouts, but soon capitulated to the Georgia youth. Despite Terris' persistence in clinching, Stribling found his face repeatedly and rapid punches to the jaw in the third round floored the Caucasian for the count, and several minutes more.

Stribling's next appearance will be against Napoleon "Jack" Dorval.

Boston—Jack Gagnon, New Bedford, Conn., outpointed Tony Fuente, San Francisco, (6).

Giants Begin Brisk Trading

By BRIAN BELL

New York, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Trading Lefty O'Doul to the Phillies for Fred Leach, the Giants started a trading season that probably will prove very brisk before the major clubs assemble five months hence in the South and West for training.

The real trading comes by custom when snow has covered the diamonds and outfielders in the big time stadia, but the Giants had the Phillies started the ball rolling with a deal when the frost is just on the pumpkin.

That many others will follow seems a safe guess. Several teams are known to be dissatisfied with past performances of some of their highest priced players and the managers are prescribing a change of scenery.

Although the New York Yankees have won two world series in eight games, Manager Miller Huggins is believed to be spending his time between golf shots at St. Petersburg, Fla., in looking over railway time tables with a view to buying tickets for some of his athletes to cities other than New York.

The Yankees have several players sitting on the bench most of the time who could take their places in the regular lineups of other clubs in the American league. An example is big Ben Paschal, can hit, run and throw, three essential assets for an outfielder, but he cannot crowd out Babe Ruth, Earle Combs or Bob Meusel.

The Yankee infield may see some changes before another season starts. Joe Dugan's place at third base as a regular is not believed to be any to secure although he can remain a Yankee subject to emergency call. Only time will tell how good Tony Lazzeri's arm will be after a winter's rest and treatment.

Intersectional Clashes Saturday

By HERBERT W. BARKER

New York, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The inter-sectional flavor is pronounced at next Saturday's Eastern College football schedule, outstanding duels between home teams.

The Princeton-Ole State at Philadelphia will share the spotlight with such affairs as Georgetown-New York University; Dartmouth-Yale; Syracuse-Pittsburgh; Cornell-Columbia; Holy Cross-Irondale, and Lafayette-Washington at Jefferson.

Army and Colgate will be at home to Depauw and Wabash, inter-sectional foes, who on their records at least, appear to rank some notches below their prospective eastern rivals. Pennsylvania, despite a 6-0 defeat by Navy, should carry too many guns west for Chicago, now in the midst of an extremely unsuccessful season.

New York offers the only struggle of the team between undefeated and united teams—Georgetown and New York University at the Yankee stadium. Georgetown has scored 249 points against Mount St. Marys, Susquehanna, Lebanon Valley, West Virginia Wesleyan and Duke. N. Y. U. has scored approximately 70 fewer points against stronger opposition that included Niagara, West Virginia, Wesleyan, Fordham, utgers and Colgate.

Blue Devils Ready—Durham, N. C., Oct. 31.—(AP)—The Durham University Blue Devils snapped into excellent form yesterday in the scrimmage preparatory to meeting the Mercer Bears Saturday.

Bue continued his stellar passing work with Rosky and Warren doing the grabbing in good style.

New Bern High To Play Here Friday

The best game of the season, at least so far, is expected when New Bern High invades Greenville this Friday. Comparative scores, with all their unreliability, seem to show an exact equality of offensive and defensive strength between Greenville and New Bern. Wilson took the measure of the local outfit, 12 to 0, and defeated New Bern by 14 to 2. On points, therefore, the two teams are even. New Bern comes here with a fleet pair of ends and a heavy backfield. This means action galore for both our line and backfield. With an attack which is likely to be largely in the air, and the threat of a dangerous line plunge at any time, our backs will have their hands full for the day.

Breaking up passes has been, before now, our especial weakness, and it may be that by the overhead attack New Bern will furnish the thrills of the afternoon.

The local boys are in the best of condition and expect to give New Bern a run for their money. Respass has shown enough to be rated as one of the best if not the best backs in the conference. He is ably assisted by the other members of the team and the season that looked bad at the beginning is now brightening.

The support given the locals has not been of the best and it is hoped that the citizens of Greenville will turn out in vast numbers Friday at 3:45 to spur the boys on to victory.

Indianapolis—Tommy Cello, San Francisco, outpointed Freddy Muller, Buffalo, (10). Lon Lovelace, Terre Haute, Ind., knocked out Harry Kreindler, of Cincinnati, (5).

Health worth more than fortune

Heir to millions

THE baby to be envied is the one who is born with an inheritance of perfect health, to begin with. And who's lucky enough to have a mother who knows how to build up this fortune.

"Perhaps I'm old-fashioned," she'll say to the doctor who pronounces her child physically 100% at a baby show, "but this health certificate means more to me than all the stock certificates in the world. If my baby grows up strong and well, I'm willing to leave it to him to make a career and fortune for himself.

"Already I'm teaching him the value of regular habits. Regular sleep, regular meals, regular functions. He's never once been off schedule, not even when he was cutting teeth or traveling to the country. I make sure of that by giving him Nujol regularly.

Nujol works so easily and naturally that it won't upset a baby under any conditions. It keeps everything functioning properly. It not only prevents any excess of body poisons (we all have them) from forming but aids in their removal. It is safe and sure. Nujol was perfected by the Nujol Laboratories, 26 Broadway, New York.

Every purchaser of a new Ford is entitled to Free Inspection Service for the first 1500 miles

THE modern automobile is a finely built piece of machinery and it will stand a lot of abuse. Considering the work it does, it gives surprisingly little trouble. But there isn't a car made that will not run better and longer if given proper care.

The first few hundred miles are especially important because that is when the mechanism of your car is being broken in. Proper attention during this period will lengthen its life and prevent unnecessary trouble later on.

We are particularly interested in this matter because we believe it is our duty not only to make a good automobile, but to help the owner get the greatest possible use over the longest period of time at a minimum of trouble and expense.

With this in view, the entire Ford dealer organization has been specially trained and equipped to service the new Model A car.

Furthermore, we have instructed every Ford dealer to give the following Free Inspection at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles:

- Check battery
- Check generator charging rate
- Check distributor adjustment
- Check carburetor adjustment
- Check lights
- Check brakes
- Check shock absorber adjustment
- Check tire inflation
- Check steering gear
- Change engine oil
- Lubricate chassis

No charge is made for labor or materials incidental to this service, except, of course, where repairs are necessary through accident, misuse or neglect. The only charge is for new oil.

See your Ford dealer, therefore, and get this Free Inspection of your new car at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles. Find out, too, how little it will cost to have your car given a thorough going-over at regular periods thereafter.

A periodic checking-up, together with oiling and greasing every 500 miles, will add months and years to the life of your car and mean more economical and pleasurable motoring every mile you drive.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 31—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 8 to 12 points on reports of a cold rain in the South and a rally in Liverpool. January contracts sold up to 19.46 shortly after the opening. January eased to 19.33 and May to 19.20 under these offerings, with the market within 3 or 4 points of yesterday's closing quotations at then the first half hour. Private cables said that there had been selling and liquidation in the Liverpool market, but reported a waning cloth demand from Egypt and the near east and said that the improved position of Lancashire spinners was maintained.

Greene Cananea copper from 139 3-4 to 134, Warner Bros. pictures common from 122 7-8 to 117 1-2 and U. S. Steel common from 163 to 160. Du Pont was hammered down 7 1-2 points from last night's close. Victor Talking Machine 6, Wright Aeronautical 5, National Tea 4 and R. H. Macy, Atlantic Refining (old), Johns Manville, Curtiss, Republic Steel, Chrysler and General Motors sold 2 1-2 to nearly 4 points lower.

Express shares showed independent strength, Adams soaring 28 points and American 11.

The closing was heavy. Total sales approximated 3,600,000 shares.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 31—(AP)—Talk of prospective damage by rust in Argentina, together with persistent buying for houses with eastern connections led to wheat price upturns today. Besides the estimated world surplus of wheat, 300,000,000 bushels, was asserted to be really less than one month's supply for the world, not more than a safe economic reserve. On the other hand, the Northwest was steadily selling wheat future deliveries and export demand today for wheat from North America lacked buying.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-4 to 1-2c net higher; corn 5-8 to 3-4 to 1c up; oats showing 1-8 to 1-4c advance, and provisions varying from 7/16c decline to 10c gain.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 31—(AP)—Selling pressure increased in today's stock market as speculators, large and small, began to dispose of at least part of their holdings. Fear of a general "shake-up" either just before or just after election day were reflected in the increasing number of cautionary advices by leading commission houses. The reaction, which followed an early outburst of buying in which a dozen or more issues were lifted to new high records, was an orderly trading quieted down considerably.

The bulk of the day's trade news continued favorable, but had little effect on the general price movement. U. S. Steel common and General Motors both yielded to selling pressure, after initial outbursts of strength, despite the unexpectedly favorable character of the steel third quarter report, and the optimistic comment on earnings and dividend action by president Sloan of General Motors.

The Iron Age Weekly Review laid particular stress on the impending purchases of railroad equipment and seasonal orders for rails but also called attention to the tapering of the automobile industry. Ingersoll Rand declared an extra dividend of $1 and announcement was made of a forthcoming merger of Vitacoud and American Drugists Syndicate.

Credit conditions continued favorable, with call money holding steady at 7 1-2 per cent. A fresh import of $2,500,000 in gold was announced from Great Britain, bringing the total on the current movement to about $17,500,000.

Radio, which advanced 4 points to 239 3-4 in the early trading, fell back to 227. International nickel dropped from 189 1-8 to 183 1-2. Western Union from 194 to 188.
