HEAVY VOTE CAST TODAY OVER COUNTY

Much Interest Manifested In Election Of National, State And County Officers.

Some five or six thousand voters tramped to the polls in Pitt county today to express their preference for national, state and county officers. With ideal Indian summer weather prevailing indications at the noon hour today pointed to the largest vote in the history of the county.

The voting strength of the county in previous years has been between three and four thousand, but the unprecedented number of new registrations reported from all parts of the county will swell the total in today's election to near the six thousand mark. The total number of new registrations in Greenville township alone neared the six hundred mark. A similar situation was reported to prevail in other precincts, although the registration is not as large in any single voting place because of the difference in the populations.

At the noon hour today some over one thousand voters had cast their ballots in Greenville township. With three thousand voters in the entire township qualified to vote, political observers expressed some as to whether all of them would be able to cast their ballots by the closing of the polls at sundown. George Clark, chairman of the board of elections, said, however, that he believed the closing of the polls would see every man and woman voted.

A movement to speed up voting by putting in another ballot box was nipped in the bud when leaders of the Republican party voiced opposition. This action would have greatly expedited activities at the polls and prevented the delay of hundreds who were forced to get in line and wait their turn at the ballot box. The line up voters had increased to such extent that it required almost thirty minutes to reach the polls after getting into line.

From the opening of the polls at sunrise this morning an unceasing string of people swung into the long line on the court house portico and waited their turn at the polls. Most of the time the line doubled from one end of the steps around to the end of the portico and back. Voters stood on the side in hope of seeing the line thin were disappointed as the hours passed and the line continued to fill up.

Poll holders worked as they probably never had worked before in this township and a similar situation was reported from all parts of the county. Women voters played a conspicuous part in the voting in today's election. They were visible in the line all day long, and facial expressions indicated that they were intensely interested in the serious business of casting their ballot, especially for national officials.

The election today was notable also for the number of young men and women participating. Probably never before in the annals of county politics has the younger element taken more vital interest in the ballot. Much of this interest resulted from the strenuous campaign among the young people.

On the face of returns at the noon hour today Democratic leaders predicted a two to one victory for Smith. In Greenville township it was believed the margin would be greatly increased and probably go as high as three to one. While members of the Republican party made slight claims to success in this county, their hopes were buoyed up by predictions that the state would go Republican by at least thirty thousand majority.

Democrats declined to concede any such figures, believing the state would vote solidly as in previous years, giving Smith one of the greatest majorities ever given a candidate before.

While all offices of the county were contested by members of the Republican party, Democrats were leading by a comfortable margin at the noon hour today. In Greenville township this lead was pronounced as the opposition vote was negligible.

GREENWOOD STRONG FOR ALFRED SMITH

Greenwood, S. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Election managers of the Greenwood box of Greenwood county, reported at 11 o'clock that 523 votes had been cast divided as follows: 515 for Smith; 6 Anti-Smith; 2 for Hoover.

Indications were that the heaviest vote in the history of the county would be polled. Total registration for the county is 6,032.

The total vote for all precincts in 1924 was 1,835. A many women were reported voting as men.

Bright Leaf Market Establishes Highest Prices Of Season

The highest average price of the season was established on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday according to a report of sales given out today by K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales. The average for the day was given at $27.32 and was made on 1,445,862 pounds of tobacco. The total amount paid out by the market was $312,960.00. Many piles of bright leaf sold for from 60 to 92 cents per hundred pounds. A few piles brought as high as $1.00 a pound. Sales for the entire season were given at 46,194,656. The average price for the entire season is well above the 20 cent mark.

GAMBLER DIES REFUSING TO REVEAL KILLER

Arnold Rothstein Lives Up To Code Of Underworld; Carries Secret To Grave.

New York, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Arnold Rothstein, big time gambler, who has been a prominent figure in the city's night life for many years and whose activities the authorities have investigated on several occasions, died today refusing to disclose the name of the underworld, to reveal the identity of his slayer.

Rothstein, who was a witness at the trial of police Lieut. Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, who was once charged with having "fixed" the 1919 world series, and who was indicted in connection with the fuller-McGehee gambling case, was shot Sunday night in a hotel room to which he was lured by a telephone call.

Rothstein was a colorful figure in Broadway's gambling life. Whenever there was an element of chance or speculation has was a name to conjure with—on the race track, in a gambling house, a stock deal, a real estate development or a sporting event.

Of late, by his own avowal, he had largely given up gambling to devote himself to his real estate business but Broadway refused to believe that he had left his old pursuits flat and still linked him with gambling.

He came under the spotlight of notoriety in two great scandals. In 1919 he figured in the "throwing" of the world series by a group of Chicago baseball players to the Cincinnati Reds. He was believed to have put up the money accepted by players ostensibly to allow the Reds to win.

Before that he had come in for a little notice in the trial of police Lieut. Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

In 1923, Rothstein's name was brought into a bucket shop scandal here. Books of the E. M. Fuller brokerage house, an alleged bucket shop, showed they had paid him $385,000. But Rothstein, on the witness stand, was uncommunicative.

King George Opens Parliament Today

London, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The Kellogg-Briand pact renouncing war took precedence today in the address which King George read from the throne in opening parliament.

The speech was heard by a brilliantly robed assemblage of peers and their bejeweled perches with commoners looking on and listening in from their balcony.

"My relations with foreign powers continue to be friendly," the King began from a scroll. "My government have been happy to accept the treaty of renunciation of war in the form proposed by the government of the United States. To my great satisfaction this treaty was signed in Paris on August 27th by plenipotentiaries on behalf of all my governments and in behalf of the United States, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Belgium, Poland and Czechoslovakia."

Strong For Smith
Bailey, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Bailey township, Nash county, was reported at 9:30 to have voted 130 votes, of which 110 were for Smith and 20 for Hoover.

MAN SHOT TO DEATH IN POLITICAL FRAY IN WEST VIRGINIA

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Clyde Moore was shot and killed at a polling place near Left Hand Hill in an isolated part of Boone county today during a political argument state police headquarters were advised by an officer in that district. The report said that Judd Huffman had shot Moore.

TROOPS READY FOR ACTION AT TORAL TRIAL

Threats Feature Trial Of Murderers Of General Obregon At Mexico City.

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Threats made at the trial of Jose De Leon Toral and Mother Concepcion Aceveda De La Plata caused government to have troops ready today. The jury was contemplating resigning. Toral is on trial for killing General Alvaro Obregon. The nun is accused of being an accomplice.

Threats of death were hurled at one of the defense attorneys when a group of men threw the courtroom into an uproar and shouted epithets, some which were disparaging to Mother Concepcion.

The members of the jury have received threatening letters. One jurymen requested that they be allowed to carry pistols to protect themselves. Each jurymen already has had two policemen assigned to accompany him and protect him all the time. The jurymen have not been locked up, but have been allowed to go home and do as they pleased when court was not in session. It was doubtful whether the jurymen would return to court this afternoon. Some said they would send their resignations to President Calles. They asked how they could reach a decision in such a bitter partisan atmosphere. They asked who would protect them against revenge by factions which would be displeased at whatever decision they might give.

Emilio Portes Gil, who will become provisional president of Mexico on December 1, in his capacity as minister of interior, announced that troops would be called out if necessary. He stated he was firmly resolved to give full protection to all attorneys in the case and to the jury.

Mrs. Emma Edwards Dies Near Ayden

On Friday morning, November 2, Mrs. Emma Edwards died at the home of her son, Carman Cox, about five miles from Ayden. She had been in bad health for several months, but suffered a stroke of paralysis a week before she died. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Laughinghouse at the family burial grounds, about four miles from Greenville, N. C.

She is survived by three sons—T. T. Cox, E. C. Cox and Charles Edwards; one grandson, T. T. Cox, Junior.

Cop And Gunman Shoot It Out At Philadelphia, Pa.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—(AP)—A fusillade of shots scattered 75 dollars early today when John Dorris, notorious gunman, and patrolman O'Hara shot it out on a street corner. Two by-standers were slightly wounded.

Two men drove up in an automobile and took the policeman's assailant away. Although Dorris fired eleven shots O'Hara was not touched. The policeman said he wounded Dorris.

The shooting started after O'Hara told Dorris to move on from a street corner in Philadelphia's Tenderloin. The gunman walked to a shooting gallery where he took a rifle and fired a few shots at the targets. Taking the rifle with him he walked to the street and blazed away at the patrolman.

Authorize Use Of More Boxes At Two Points

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Use of additional ballot boxes at precincts was authorized in a message sent today by Assistant Attorney General Frank Nash to election officials in Asheville and Winston-Salem.

Nash had been asked for a ruling by the officials who declared that congestion at the polls might make it impossible for all voters to cast their ballots before the polls closed at sunset. The law, Nash said, does not permit officials to hold the polls open after sunset, but they may hire as many clerks and balliffs as needed and may use two boxes instead of one for each ticket.

R. C. Maxwell, secretary of the State Board of Elections, was asked for a ruling this morning from a group of Fayetteville citizens who declared they wished to vote for the national prohibition party ticket. The fact that no electors were named by that party for North Carolina makes that impossible, Maxwell declared.

FRENCH CABINET RESIGNS TODAY

Paris, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The Poincare cabinet, which has been in office since July 23, 1926, resigned in a body today after four Radical-Socialist ministers offered their resignations. The radicals who resigned were Albert Sarraut, minister of interior; Edouard Herriot, minister of education; Henri Queille, minister of agriculture, and Leon Perrier, minister of colonies.

The radicals announced that their party's program made continued collaboration with the National Union cabinet impossible. Premier Poincare presented the government's resignation to President Doumergue shortly after noon. The cabinet, with the exception of the four Radical ministers who resigned themselves, devoted three hours to discussing the crisis. The view of the premier that the whole cabinet must withdraw instead of reorganizing to appear before Parliament which convenes this afternoon was finally accepted.

The cabinet crisis resulted from the action of the Radical congress held at Angiers. At this conference the party made demands for change in the governmental program, especially in regard to the budget, which Premier Poincare refused.

The resolutions passed at the Angers conference required that the Radical ministers should retire unless the government consented to the organization of government functionaries in trades unions, unless appropriations for national defense were reduced and unless the party's demand for important changes in the budget of 1929 were accepted.

Premier Poincare said he could not accept the demands. Premier Poincare made it clear that he was unable to accept any one of the demands. He left the Radical ministers facing the necessity of convincing their colleagues that the Radical resolutions meant nothing or of retiring. They apparently chose the latter course. The general opinion today was that Premier Poincare would be able to form a cabinet without them that would command a sufficient majority in the Chamber of Deputies to continue the program of the Union government.

The public first learned that the dreaded ministerial crisis had come when the four Radical ministers failed to put in an appearance at the cabinet meeting. It was learned that M. Herriot had called on the premier at the ministry of finance and had presented his resignation.

When the resignation became known there was talk of the consequences, with the majority of observers inclined to expect that President Doumergue will insist upon Poincare forming another government. There was also talk of Briand, Herriot, Painleve or Tardieu in case the premier insists upon retiring.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION CLAIMS SUCCESS AS VOTERS TROOP TO POLLS IN N. C.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Unprecedented situations in an unprecedented presidential election today developed as hundreds of thousands of North Carolinians voted in the presidential and state election. The heaviest vote in the history of the state, so heavy in fact that additional ballot boxes were authorized after the voting had started, was reported without exception.

Charges of possible fraud that had been flying in the form of unofficial statements and rumor for the last month developed into at least eight arrests within the last 24 hours, three of them at Asheville yesterday and five today at New Bern in the eastern part of the state. Two of the three arrested at Asheville on charges of fraudulent obtaining send out absentee ballots were held to the federal grand jury last night and the third was released. The two held were Harry E. Gruver and Doak Davis, Asheville business men.

At New Bern today C. D. Cherry and L. C. Newman, Ghent, N. C. pollholders; A. A. Kafer, chairman of the county election board, and C. A. Ryman and Winfield Gaskins, Bridgeton, pollholders, were arrested on charges of interfering with voters casting legal ballots, which they had taken from their pockets. A warrant for a sixth man was sworn out on insistence of United States Senator F. M. Simmons, leader of the anti-Smith Democrats, the senator predicted at least 100 arrests would be made.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Men and women of North Carolina trooped in unprecedented numbers to the voting booths today to settle with their ballots the question over which they have argued spiritedly, sometimes bitterly, for the last three months. Besides deciding whether the state's 12 electoral votes should go to Alfred E. Smith or Herbert Hoover, they cast their ballots for a full state ticket, ten Congressmen, hundreds of county and local officers, and for or against three proposed amendments to the Constitution.

A total vote of upwards of 700,000 was predicted by party leaders as the polls opened at sunrise with long lines of voters awaiting their turn. The heaviest previous vote on record was that of 1920 when 538,000 ballots were cast for Harding and Cox.

The regular Democratic organization, on the eve of the election, claimed a victory for the entire ticket, but anti-Smith Democrats joined with Republicans in predicting that Governor Smith, the Democratic presidential nominee, would be defeated in this state. Senator F. M. Simmons, veteran Democratic leader who took his stand early in the campaign with the forces opposing the new York governor, was on record as believing Hoover would lead Smith by 30,000 votes in the state.

In a final appeal to the voters, Democratic regulars and anti-Smith forces took to the air via radio last night from station WPTF of Raleigh. Former Judge J. Crawford Biggs, speaking for the Democratic State Committee, urged support of the straight ticket, while the anti-Smith position was advocated by W. L. Knight, Weldon attorney, who has been managing the Eastern Carolina headquarters in the movement.

Political forecasters generally believed the Democratic state ticket would not be threatened by the voters, because it was supported by the anti-Smith campaigners as well as by the regular Democrats.

In some of the Congressional districts, Republicans asserted they would take seats away from the Democrats, who hold all ten places. O. Max Gardner, head of the Democratic ticket, was opposed by Herbert F. Seawell, Republican, of Carthage, in the race for the governorship.

Congressional candidates were—First district, Lindsay Warren, Democrat, incumbent; Marion B. Prescott, Republican, Second district, John H. Kerr, Democrat, incumbent; L. L. Johnson, Republican, Third district, Charles L. Abernethy, Democrat, incumbent; W. G. Mcbane, Republican, Fourth district, E. W. Pou, Democrat, incumbent; L. L. Wrenn, Republican, Fifth district, C. M. Steadman, Democrat, incumbent; J. H. Harden, Republican, Sixth district, J. B. Clark, Democrat, incumbent; W. C. Downing, Republican, Seventh district, W. C. Hammer, Democrat, incumbent; A. I. Ferrel, Republican, Eighth district, R. L. Doughton, Democrat, incumbent; W. S. Bogle, Republican, Ninth district, A. L. Bulwinkle, Democrat, incumbent; Charles A. Jonas, Republican, Tenth district, Zebulon Weaver, Democrat, incumbent; G. M. Pritchard, Republican.

The state tickets were—Lieutenant-Governor, R. T. Fountain, Democrat; W. H. Fisher, Republican, Secretary of State, James A. Hartness, Democrat, incumbent; Mrs. Emma R. Tighe, Republican, Auditor, Baxter Durham, Democrat, incumbent; John W. Yeager, Republican, Treasurer, Ben R. Lacy, Democrat, incumbent; J. Tyson, Republican, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Arch T. Allen, Democrat, incumbent; I. G. Greer, Republican, Attorney General, Dennis G. Brummitt, Democrat, incumbent; J. R. McCrary, Republican, Commissioner of Labor and Printing, Frank D. Grist, Democrat, incumbent; J. B. Gaslen, Republican, Commissioner of Agriculture, W. A. Graham, Democrat, incumbent; D. A. Patterson, Republican, Commissioner of Insurance, Dan C. Boney, Democrat, incumbent; A. E. Hampton, Republican, Corporation Commissioner, W. T. Lee, Democrat, incumbent; J. D. Gregg, Republican, Commissioner of Revenue, R. A. Doughton, Democrat, incumbent; N. O. Pitts, Republican, Supreme Court Justices, W. G. Brogden and George W. Connor, Democrats, incumbents; W. B. Love and T. J. Harkins, Republicans.

The three proposed amendments to the Constitution, which were generally overlooked in campaign speaking, due to the overshadowing fight of the presidential question, provide: First, to increase the pay of members of the General Assembly from $4 per day to $10 per day; second, to authorize the erection of 24,000 judicial districts separate from the 20 judicial circuits, and third, to authorize the General Assembly to classify property for taxation.

AL SMITH IS CONFIDENT OF WINNING OUT

Mrs. Smith Sure Her Birthday Will Be Crowned With Victory For Husband.

New York, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Gov. Alfred E. Smith hopes the voters will make his wife first lady of the land as a birthday gift. Today is Mrs. Smith's birthday and the only other time during their marriage that election day fell on November 6 was ten years ago when her husband was first elected governor of New York.

The election of her husband to the presidency today, said Mrs. Smith, was the only thing she wanted, "and," she added, "I'm going to get it, too."

Satisfied with the campaign he has made, Gov. Smith awaited the verdict of the nation confident that he and his running mate, Senator Joe T. Robinson, would "go together to victory."

The governor and his wife decided to vote at noon. They had to go to a stationery store in 48th street, near Madison avenue, the place for the precinct in which the Hotel Biltmore, their city residence, is located. Other members of their family live in various parts of the city.

In the evening the governor will pay an early visit to Tammany Hall and then will hear the returns at the National Democratic headquarters on Broadway and later at the Biltmore.

The final day of the campaign was a busy one for the Democratic nominee. Shortly after noon he broadcast a final plea to the farmers of the mid-west, later he met newspapermen and told them he felt "all right" about the outcome and in the evening he summed up his campaign in a radio message.

In his final talk to the voters, delivered in the quiet of a broadcasting room at Carnegie Hall but relayed over ninety radio stations, Gov. Smith assured them his hands were untied and free.

"I have made no promises to any man or any group of men," he said. "Nobody was authorized to make any promises for me and, in fact, none has been made. I can enter upon the duties of the greatest office in the world without commitment to anybody except to the American people."

The governor reviewed his administration of the affairs of New York state and said he was willing to stand on that record.

He cited the record of legislation which he had favored and which had enacted into law in the face of a Republican legislature.

He asserted it "the duty of every American citizen, man or woman, to vote according to the dictates of conscience, solely upon the basis of what he or she believes to be for the best interest of the country itself and not upon the basis of any passion or any prejudice."

He thanked the voters for the receptions accorded him in the many cities he visited and expressed regret he had been unable to visit every state in the Union. "Particularly," he said, "am I grateful to the women of the country for their official greeting to Mrs. Smith and my daughters."

Democrats Claim State of Alabama

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 6.—(AP) Eleven hour appeals having brought to a close Alabama's most bitter political campaign in history, approximately 300,000 registered voters were greeted with bright, clear weather as they prepared to cast their ballots in the national election today.

Democratic leaders claimed the state by a majority of 50,000 in the face of declarations by anti-Smith leaders that Alabama would go Republican for the first time in history by a majority of between 25,000 and 30,000.

Grandson Does Some Campaign Work For Smith

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Arthur Smith, Jr., two and one half year old grandson of Governor Smith, is not too young to campaign for the Democratic national ticket, although he is a long way from voting age, Arthur has been repeating with Great Gusto, a rhyme composed by one of the maids at the executive mansion. This is how it goes:

Put on your old brown derby, For we are out to beat Herby, No matter what they say, And through the fields of clover, We'll put grandpa over On election day.

Five Arrested In Election At New Bern Today

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Five men were arrested here today and other warrants have been sworn out charging conspiracy to prevent free exercise of the franchise.

Those arrested were C. D. Cherry and L. C. Newman, Ghent pollholders; A. A. Kafer, chairman of the county elections board; and C. A. Ryman and Winfield Gaskins, pollholders in Bridgeton, across the river from this city. Cherry, Newman and Kafer were released under bond of $1,000 after a hearing while Ryman and Gaskins have not been given a hearing yet. The pollholders are alleged to have prevented voters from casting ballots taken from their pockets. All maintained they had been instructed by Chairman Kafer to allow only ballots taken from tables in the voting precincts to be cast.

NEW ASHFORD IS FIRST TO REPORT VOTE

Massachusetts Village Gives 28 To Hoover And 3 To Al Smith.

New Ashford, Mass., November 6.—(AP)—To this town nestled in the heart of the Berkshire today went the distinction of being the first place in the entire country to complete its vote for president.

It gave Hoover 28; Smith 3. And the vote was flashed to the nation at 6:33 A. M.

It was the fourth time that New Ashford had been first to complete its vote for President. Through arrangements by the Berkshire Eagle two amateur radio operators cooperating to flash the news to that newspaper at Pittsfield, 10 miles away, and to the Associated Press. Everyone of the town's 31 eligible voters had arrived at the school house which was used as polling place. By 5:57 A. M. And instead of a booth they sat at the children's desk to write their ballots.

The count was complete by 6:26 when Prentiss Bailey of Pittsfield operating station IKGD reached Walter Groves of that city at station IAXW.

The vote for the rest of the state ticket included: For U. S. Senator, Walsh (D) 4; Young (R) 2; Governor Allen (R) 27; Cole (D) 3.

The two oldest voters were Emery Baker 71, and "Sister" Hattie Baker 72. The latter, although seriously ill with rheumatism insisted upon being assisted to the school.

With more than forty millions of the registration books, every sign pointed to the pyramiding of a record-breaking vote before the closing of the polls tonight. Women, by unnumbered thousands, were counted among those who for the first time were answering the call of the franchise. In many places, extraordinary facilities had been provided to permit a complete recording of the vote in the single day set aside by law.

Two precincts separated by the width of the continent numbered among their voters the two men who have most to gain or lose by the national decision. Mr. Hoover found his polling place housed in a women's club building on the campus of Stanford University, near his residence in California; Governor Smith discovered his in Stationer's shop on busy East Forty Eighth street in his native city of New York.

Having spoken their last pre-election word to the electorate in speeches last night over the radio, the two great figures of the campaign were today just two more voters, exercising the American right of suffrage on a party with the millions of their fellow citizens.

Election day also found the two vice presidential nominees, returned from their long travels up and down the country, on hand in their home precincts. Senator Robinson at Little Rock, Ark., and Senator Curtis at Topeka, Kan. President Coolidge made a flying trip from Washington to vote at his home in Northampton, Mass.

Prompted by experience and mindful of the explosive issues which have gone into the making of the campaign, election officials and citizens committees in several states took extraordinary precautions to police the polls. Texas Rangers were sent to preserve the peace in one possible trouble sector near the Mexican border in Chicago 15,000 special watchers were detailed to the voting places.

With so much popular interest centering about the contest for the presidency, the making over of congress and most of the state campaigns have been cast into shadow.

MILLIONS OF VOTES BEING CAST TODAY

Every Sign Points To The Pyramiding Of Largest Vote In History Of Nation.

By BYRON PRICE
The mighty political currents of 1928 met at the polls today in a tremendous whirlpool of ballots. Reports gathered by the Associated Press from every corner of the country told an unvarying story of a national turnout, quickly leaving previous records far behind. Almost everywhere, women were among the voters in unprecedented numbers.

In nearly the whole country, it was a fair-weather election. A part of New England and some other northern sections voted under overcast skies and there were showers at scattered points in up-state New York, in southern and eastern Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, and in some parts of the Rocky Mountain states. Over most of the farm country and the south, skies were clear and roads good. Even where wet weather prevailed, it did not greatly reduce the big outpouring of votes.

The first hours of the voting were orderly despite the bitterness of the issues which were being washed out of the today upheaval at the ballot box. In widely distributed precincts some minor troubles developed. New Jersey, where party leaders have been quarreling over registration, reported a few arrests.

The day's nation-wide tendency toward early voting was reflected in a new record in the two Massachusetts precincts which for years have prided themselves on being first to report their returns. Both of them came under the new law of their state under the choice of percent reports of the vote in the year before 7:00 a. m., with 100 Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, and heavily Republican, these precincts gave all the best of it to Hoover.

Two early-counting precincts in the south, one in Alabama and one in South Carolina, showed top-sized majorities for Smith. One collection of precincts in Houston, Tex., however, reported Smith and Hoover running neck and neck.

Glorified in the full power of the sovereignty, the nation's voters are speaking their collective mind today in an election which will establish a new administration at Washington, determine the politics of the next congress, and bestow governorship in more than two-thirds of the states.

In every political subdivision of the whole country, all roads lead to the polling place. After a stirring season of debate, the ballot box has become at last the meeting point of the warring emotions of a remarkable campaign.

Senator Robinson Resting Today

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Senator Joe T. Robinson, rested at his home here today, planning but one formal activity—the casting of his ballot at a neighborhood drug store.

The vice presidential nominee said he was confident of victory for the Democratic party. He planned, with Mrs. Robinson, to receive the returns by radio in his home tonight.

Last night he closed his campaign with an address delivered at a home-coming celebration signaling the end of a tour of 30 states, one of the longest a candidate for the vice president has undertaken.

Riding with Mrs. Robinson at the head of a torch light parade he received the cheers of Little Rock's thousands. Behind him in the parade rode six former governors of Arkansas and hundreds of political leaders and well wishers from over the state.

In his address at the state capital he declared he expected a political revolution today, saying he placed his dependence for Democratic victory especially on the farmers of the nation.

"For the first time in history the decision rests with the farmers themselves," he said. "They have the balance of power."

LOUISIANA WARD GOES FOR SMITH

Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 6.—(AP)—The first returns to be reported to the state of Louisiana came from the ninth ward of Pointe Coupee Parish, which gave Smith 158 and Hoover 5.

AFTER THE BATTLE

With just a few more hours left for voting throughout the nation it will soon be all over but the shouting and the wires will begin to flash the results of the balloting in the various sections. It is at this late hour, too late to endeavor to convince you which is the best side, but before the result is announced we do wish to call to your attention the fact that whatever the outcome, it will be the wish of the majority of the American people, and therefore, and as a Republic it is our duty to abide by the majority rule. Of course we hope the Democrats win. If you are on the other side, of course you hope you will win, but in either event we are all Americans, owing allegiance to the same government and the same flag and as Americans let us strive together to make the next four years of our nation's affairs the best in its history. With the close of the polls today the partisan battle should be over and it will be time for peace in the interest of the common cause of a greater and better America.

BETTER VOTING SYSTEM NEEDED

The continued congestion at the polls here today was evidence that our township should be provided with more than one voting place and it is to be hoped that before another election such a change will have been effected. Today's balloting will no doubt be the heaviest that has ever taken place in this city, but with more women taking an interest in politics and with the natural increase in the number of new voters each election the time has come when we must get away from our antiquated method of trying to vote everybody in Greenville township in one ballot box. Not only do we desire more convenient polling places but also the Australian ballot or a similar plan whereby the voters can go to the polls and cast their ballots without being intimidated by having to run the gauntlet of petty politicians to get to the ballot boxes.

day. Many political experts were at a loss as to which way the tide of public opinion would travel, but their claims success—the best they could under the circumstances. "The whole nation will await the sunrise with expectancy tomorrow morning as by that time the complexion of vote should be sufficiently pronounced to determine the winners."

"With two sets of leased wires in operation tonight, the Reflector will furnish its hundreds of patrons with election returns from all parts of the country," the news department head said today.

"This will be the most complete telegraph service in history of the Associated Press service in North Carolina. Every paper in the state will be linked up with the main service line and receive everything sent out from the headquarters in every state."

"Reflector readers are invited to come down and watch the reports as they are flashed on the screen in front of the office. This is a feature that should prove interesting to hundreds as it tells in terse terms of how the election goes in each state."

"Pay-up Week is about over, so if you have any outstanding obligations, get busy and settle them immediately," urged a member of the Merchants' Association today.

"You will be rated according to the way you settle your accounts. If you pay promptly you should have no trouble obtaining credit next year. But if you should neglect your debts, you will find yourself rated accordingly in the association's collection department."

"Get busy and look after your obligations at once and be on good terms with your creditors the remainder of the year."

"The value of the sweet potato crop can hardly be measured accurately in dollars, because the sweet potato constitutes one of the principal home used foods throughout the United States," Dr. R. F. Poole, of the Department of Botany of the North Carolina Experiment Station, said in a recent article sent this paper.

"The sweet potato can be grown economically on many farms at small cost, but its susceptibility to diseases has always been a great drawback to its usefulness as a dependable substitute for other carbohydrate foods. In accord with the live at home movement, and there is a distinct need for saving from rots that is made at home, we are starting control experiments with the sweet potato, since it is probably our most useful vegetable during the winter months."

"The sweet potato house is perhaps the best storage for protecting sweet potatoes, but the bank is and will remain for some time a serviceable means of storing sweet potatoes for the tenant as well as the larger grower. When done with care, there is no better method of keeping the potatoes for home use."

"The crop should be gathered before low temperatures injure the crop; elimination of diseased potatoes should be practised before banking. To prevent infection the banks should be treated with hydrated lime."

"The public is cordially invited to turn out to the Armistice Day celebration to be held at the Eastern Carolina Teachers' College next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock," said a member of the Pitt County Post of the merican Legion today.

"All churches of the city will join us in these exercises. The sermon of the day will be delivered by Dr. B. R. Lacy, president of the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. Mr. Lacy is considered one of the most eloquent speakers in the south and those who attend are assured of hearing a sermon of exceptional merit."

"Immediately after the services, members of the Legion and former service men will be entertained at dinner."

"I am satisfied with the progress of the Democratic campaign in Pitt county," said W. E. Hooks, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive Committee, while in the city today.

"I conscientiously believe every member of the Democratic organization in the county has done his duty in the best way he saw it and will reap the result of his labors in the final counting of votes today.

"That Pitt County will return her usual splendid Democratic majority, I have not the slightest doubt. Having long been recognized as one of the strongest Democratic strongholds in the country, it is only fitting that she should stand by the party at a time when support is needed."

"Every party member is urged to vote the straight ticket today. This means, from constable to president and the persons that do so may rest assured of having been faithful to the party of his father and his father's father."

Heavy Vote In Virginia Today

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—(AP)—With the shouting and tumult almost stifled, captains and kings of the Old Dominion marshalled their forces today for the battle of ballots to designate a presidential standard bearer, a United States senator and ten congressmen.

Offering a registration unparalleled in recent years, Virginia was expected to cast approximately 300,000 votes today with both Hoover and Smith advocates claiming a majority of them in the presidential race. State Republican headquarters predict the state will give Herbert Hoover a majority of between 15,000 and 25,000, while Democratic headquarters see a minimum of 30,000 votes for Governor Alfred E. Smith with the probability of this being doubled.

EGGS PLAY BIG PART IN RALLY

England, Ark., Nov. 6.—(P)—Eggs turned an anti-Democratic rally in this, the home county of Senator Joe T. Robinson, into an all-Democratic affair last night.

The Rev. Ben M. Bogard, Missionary Baptist pastor of Little Rock, was greeted with several of the campaign "bombs" when he began an address in opposition to the Smith-Robinson ticket. Democratic speakers later took the platform.

Senator Robinson spent much of his early life near England on the family farm in Lonoke county.

GUILFORD COUNTY CASTING HEAVY VOTE

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—The heaviest vote in the political annals of Guilford county is being cast today. The weather is ideal. Men and women are flocking to the polls in record breaking numbers. The number of voters registered in city and county is said to be 36,687. It is estimated that today's vote will total 30,000. The heaviest vote heretofore cast in Guilford was 15,650.

ABANDON FLIGHT TO BERMUDA TODAY

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 6.—(AP)—After spending a week at the Hampton Roads naval station vainly awaiting favorable flying conditions along the course to Bermuda, the Ireland amphibian plane, Flying Fish, this morning abandoned the Bermuda flight and took off at 11:40 for New York, accompanied by another Ireland amphibian plane.

Coolidge To Vote At Northampton

Northampton, Mass., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Anxious to set an election-day example to the nation, President Coolidge traveled to his old Massachusetts home to cast his ballot today in person.

Accompanied by Mrs. Coolidge, the chief executive left Washington last night intending to spend only two hours in Northampton this morning before boarding his train again for the return trip to the White House. While in Northampton Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge had also the opportunity of visiting once again Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, Mrs. Coolidge's mother, whose condition has been a source of constant anxiety.

Business in Washington obliged Mr. Coolidge to plan for only a short stay here. By reaching the White House in the early evening he will be able to receive practically all election returns over the radio. His special train has been equipped however, with a radio set so that the earliest returns can be received.

Curtis Closed His Campaign At Topeka, Kan.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 6—(AP)—The habit of a political lifetime unbroken at the end of his greatest campaign, Senator Charles Curtis was ready today to turn immediately from the current election to his neglected senatorial duties.

Closing his campaign last night in the city auditorium before his home town people, a custom of the past 33 years, the Republican vice-presidential nominee retired early, as is his habit, to rest for his full day ahead.

Always an early riser the 68-year-old senator's announced program was simple routine on the day when the nation's electorate decides if he will be the next vice-president of the United States, privileged as such to preside over the senate in which he has served for 20 years.

G. O. P. Paraders Are Attacked By Jeering Thousands

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 6—(AP)—An election eve disturbance in which a policeman was beaten senseless, women manhandled and 10,000 marchers in a Republican demonstration showered with eggs, oil, bricks and refuse furnished a spectacular conclusion to the political campaign in this city.

Although warned of impending trouble by reports during the day of an extraordinary demand for eggs, police proved helpless in the face of jeering thousands who assailed the marchers.

Harry Hyde, a patrolman, was knocked unconscious and lost several teeth when he attempted to intervene in a brawling group while Mrs. Lloyd Byrd was taken to a city hospital with a horn shoved down her throat.

The battle was confined largely to the "Meadows" district where the paraders had gathered for a display of fireworks which was to close the demonstration. But at other points along the line of march including Washington Square, where both Herbert Hoover and Governor Smith were recently accorded ovations, the marchers were easy targets for a steady hail of missiles.

UNUSUALLY HEAVY VOTE EXPECTED IN THE SOUTH

UNPRECEDENTED VOTE—

By W. F. CALDWELL
Bestirred by the issues of prohibition, religion, white supremacy and party regularity, an aroused South today recorded its choice for president.

Gone was the apathy of former years. Nor was it necessary for party leaders to urge voters to turn out.

The section from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, with its 114 electoral votes, left its traditional sideline position of previous presidential years immediately on the nomination of Governor Al Smith at Houston and the resulting spread of its first real campaign in more than half a century brought voters to the ballot box in unprecedented numbers.

Generally fair weather for the day except for probable showers forecast for Mississippi, southern Louisiana and parts of Florida, which helped to swell the tide of voters.

Predictions of victory from Democratic leaders were met by equally optimistic claims on the part of Republicans and Anti-Smith managers.

Texas, the bell wether of the "solid south", was claimed by the Democrats by a 200,000 majority. Anti-Smith leaders said Smith would lose the state by 50,000, while Republicans foresaw a substantial margin for Hoover.

Democratic State chairman Hartsill Ragon placed the majority for Smith and Robinson in Arkansas at from 75,000 to 100,000 against counter claim by A. J. Russell, Republican chairman, that Hoover win "if a fair election is held". He added, however, that regardless of the outcome the vote would be so close as to bring about a re-ignition of political parties in the state.

Mississippi and Louisiana Democratic chiefs forecast a landslide for Smith. Republicans said Hoover had a chance to take both states and in any event, would pile up a big vote.

Chairman William B. Oliver predicted Alabama would return a Democratic majority of 50,000, while Horace C. Wilkinson, Anti-Smith leader, said the state would go Republican by between 25,000 and 30,000. Republicans said their prospects were never brighter.

Georgia, said John R. Slater, Democratic campaign manager, would return a majority of from 40,000 to 75,000 for Smith and Robinson.

Harry Wright, chairman of the Anti-Smith organization, predicted Smith would lose the state by about 50,000, and H. G. Hastings, Republican general, forecast a Hoover majority of upwards of 20,000.

George W. McCrory, secretary of the Florida Democratic committee, predicted that Smith and Robinson would receive 68 to 71 per cent of the total vote. On the other hand, Glenn B. Skipper, Republican national committeeman and chairman of the campaign committee, said that Hoover would win by a comfortable majority which he fixed at near 50,000.

The Republicans in South Carolina, in the opinion of Democratic chairman Roach Stewart, would not poll more than 5,000 votes, while he said the Democratic majority would be the largest in the state's history. The heaviest Hoover vote was forecast for Charleston county, Ben Adams, chairman of Anti-Smith forces, saying there was a possibility it would be in the Hoover column.

Anti-Smith forces claimed North Carolina for Hoover by 30,000, but the Democrats said the state would retain its accustomed place with the rest of the south by 25,000 or more.

In Virginia, R. H. Angell, chairman of the Republican committee, predicted a Hoover-Curtis majority ranging from 15,000 to 25,000. J. Murray Hooker, chairman of the Democratic committee, said Virginia was safely in the Democratic column by upwards of 30,000 votes. Although overshadowed by the presidential race, claims of victory emanated from the major parties in several vigorously contested congressional districts in Florida, North Carolina and Virginia.

Nutbush Township Goes For Smith

Henderson, N. C., Nov. 6—(AP)—Nutbush township, Vance county, at noon officially reported the following vote:
Smith 32; Hoover 1.

The registration of the township is 36. One voter is out of the township and two failed to cast a national ballot.

The Democratic vote for the state ticket was the same as that for president. There were no votes for the Republican state ticket.

Voting Is Brisk At Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, Nov. 6—(AP)—Three hundred thousand voters had cast their ballots here, two and one-half hours after the polls opened, election officials estimated, adding that Chicagoans were going to the polls at the rate of 100,000 an hour.

The registered Chicago vote was 1,385,642 and about 100 persons had voted at 6:30 o'clock in each of the city's nearly 3,000 precincts.

Ideal weather greeted early Chicago voters, a cool, sunshiny fall day adding to the expectations for the largest vote ever polled here.

Virtually no trouble was experienced during the first few hours. Fifteen thousand vigilant watchers and officials were on the alert. Indications that much scratching was being done was evidenced by the fact that election officials reported that each voter was averaging more than five minutes in a booth.

WILMINGTON RECORDS EXTRA HEAVY VOTE

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 6—(AP)—A check of the voting places in Wilmington and suburbs at 11 o'clock this morning showed that a total of 3,283 votes had been cast up to that hour, indicating a record vote in the county. Election officials estimated that the total vote would reach 9,000 which surpasses by a wide margin the old mark.

RUSH BALLOT BOXES AT HENDERSON, N. C.

Henderson, N. C., Nov. 6—(AP)—The heaviest vote in the history of Vance county was forecast by an unprecedented rush on the ballot boxes shortly after the opening of the polls today. Voters stood in lines nearly all forenoon awaiting their turn at the ballot boxes. A warm November sun made the weather ideal.

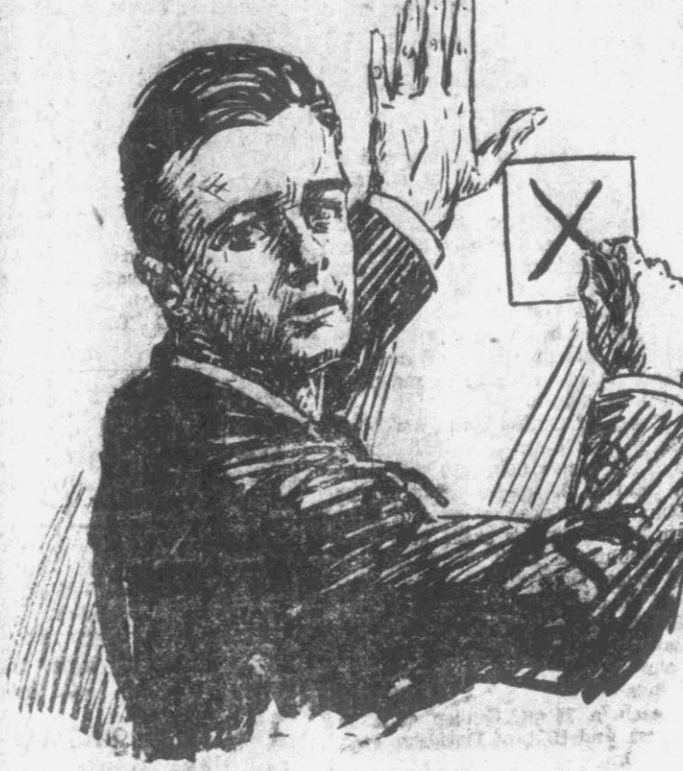

AMERICANS IN FRANCE ARE VOTING TODAY

Paris, Nov. 6—(AP)—Forty-five Americans in France voted in today's election of the president of the United States. Forty of the absentee voters were women. They cast their ballots through the American Consulate in Paris.

HICKORY VOTE IS HEAVIEST IN HISTORY

Hickory, Nov. 6—(AP)—Election officials in Hickory were working strenuously in the face of an ever increasing line today as voters massed at the voting precincts. At 11 o'clock 2,162 out of a total registration of 8,014 had cast their ballots. Indications were that a record vote would be polled.

HALF DOZEN BIG CONTESTS ON SATURDAY

By HERBERT W. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
New York, Nov. 6.—(AP)—There are a half dozen intercollegiate football contests on the eastern college football schedule next Saturday but only two of them will take much of the center spotlight away from the Georgetown-Carnegie Tech battle of undefeated teams at Albany, N. Y. Nearly 80,000 will see Army's victorious cadets tangle with Notre Dame at New York and close to 70,000 are expected at the Navy-Michigan battle at Baltimore.

Army's undefeated record will be at stake in the Yankee stadium, Notre Dame, beaten by Wisconsin and Georgia Tech, has been coming along fast but there are few who believe Knute Rockne's eleven can upset the Cadets.

Michigan and Navy have known defeat rather often this season but both have shown remarkable recuperative powers. After three successive setbacks, the midshipmen have defeated Duke, Pennsylvania and West Virginia Wesleyan in a row. Michigan accepted four reverses before staging one of the season's outstanding upsets with a 3-0 victory over Illinois.

Yale, Princeton and West Virginia all face intercollegiate foes they are favored to defeat. The Elis battle Maryland, which lost 9-6, to Virginia Poly last week. Princeton, undefeated but tied twice, meets a Washington hand Lee team downed by Virginia 20-13. West Virginia's Mountaineers, who play Fordham at the Yankee stadium today, face the Oklahoma Aggies on Saturday. Syracuse, sixth team to uphold the eastern prestige against an eleven from another section, takes the field against undefeated Ohio Wesleyan. The schedule does not lack for the big-time battles among the homebreds. In addition to the Carnegie-Tech-Georgetown game there are such outstanding attractions as Pennsylvania-Harvard, Dartmouth-Brown, Fordham-Boston College, Pitt-Washington and Jefferson, Wesleyan-Williams, Lehigh, Bucknell and Lafayette-Rutgers.

BIG SLEEPY AND LITTLE SLEEPY STAR

New York, Nov. 6.—(P)—Any mystery as to how West Virginia's two football players, "Big Sleepy" and "Little Sleepy" Glenn, came by their nicknames can now be ended. Both are here with the team for the Fordham game.

It seems that "Big Sleepy" was the first of the brothers to come to college and it was no bed of roses for him. To earn his way through he worked nights as a railroad trowman, going to classes and playing football day.

When his kid brother came up to Morgantown, he of course, became "Little Sleepy," although now he is larger than Big Sleepy. Incidentally the younger is the backfield star of the varsity team.

Two Held For Attempting To Prevent Votes

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Harry E. Gruver, Asheville business man, and Doak Davis, of Reems township, near here, were under $1,500 bond for trial in Federal district court today after a hearing on a charge of "conspiracy to prevent an American citizen from exercising the free rights of the ballot." Roy Morris, deputy sheriff, arrested with them was released.

It was brought out in testimony at a hearing yesterday that Gruver obtained ten absentee ballots from the county elections chairman and took them to Reems township, where as land-owner, he is interested in development of an airport site.

The government charged that Gruver "persuaded" citizens to vote for state and county Democratic candidates and a dially marked ballot as a means of promoting the aviation development.

The witnesses were all Republicans. It was brought out that the ballots were marked for the National Republican candidates and the state and county Democratic candidates, and that those persons approaching Gruver did not misunderstand the manner in which he wished them to vote, and in which the votes were actually marked.

It was also added that Gruver returned to the persons whom he had approached and destroyed the ballots in their presence.

BIG HOOVER VOTE AT HIGH POINT

High Point, N. C., Nov. 6.—(AP)—An hour before the polls opened here on morning hundreds of people were standing in line at the voting places, indicating that the greatest vote in the history of High Point would be polled today, and as the hours passed the lines grew in length. Women were numerous, indicating it was believed that Herbert Hoover would poll a heavy vote here. There are nearly 11,000 persons registered in High Point.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS VALUE TO COLLEGES

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The average football player in larger universities brings $10,000 to his school through gate receipts and endowments but gets nothing in return but cracked ribs and mean looks from stern professors for failing in his studies. James Weber Linn, professor of English at the University of Chicago, said yesterday.

Speaking before a group of football enthusiasts, professor Linn said:

"Many of the big universities clear $200,000 a year in their football season. That's $600,000 for the players' three years of eligibility. Divide that by a squad of 60 men and it means each player has paid $10,000 each in the gate receipts alone. What does he get in return. Only the opportunity to sweat blood and rack ribs on the field and try to keep up with his studies. Why he ought to have the best special attention obtainable."

ABOLISH SPLIT SEASON IN SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 6.—(AP)—After one trial, the split season in the Southern Association has been abolished.

Directors of the league in annual meeting here decided last night to revert to the straight 154 game season in 1929.

Re-election of president John D. Martin, for five years at an annual salary of $10,000, a $1,000 increase, marked the fifth time he has been chosen. He had previously served ten years in successive terms.

SEEK EGG TOSSERS AT ANNISTON, ALABAMA

Anniston, Ala., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Persons responsible for hurling eggs at Senator J. Thomas Hefflin in the course of the senator's attack on the candidacy of Governor Al Smith here last night were being sought by Anniston police officials today.

The meeting was thrown into disorder for several minutes when the eggs were thrown onto the stage by persons in the audience.

Police were called to quell the disturbance and Senator Hefflin was able to continue with his address after a few moments delay.

Police said they were virtually without clues to the identity of the persons responsible for the egg throwing. Several persons left the audience during the confusion.

An audience had gathered in the high school auditorium to hear Senator Hefflin. He had practically finished his speech when the disorder began.

There was no disorder following the meeting.

PERDUE LEADS ALL SCORES IN COLLEGE GRID

(By The Associated Press)
Perdue, High Point College's Star Back, leads all scores in ten colleges in North Carolina, according to game scores through last week. The purple panther back has scored four touchdowns and two extra points for a total of 26.

He leads Warren, high scorer in the big five by two points and Jordan, a teammate of Warren at State, is also tied for second place with 24 points.

Check of Guilford and Adams of State each have three touchdowns and four extra points to give them a total of 22 apiece to sit in the fourth place position while Gresham of Carolina is sixth with 19.

Robbins of High Point, Janoski of Duke, Goodwin of State, Jackson of Carolina, and Flinn and Brohard, both of Davidson, each have three touchdowns and 18 points.

Bule of Duke is next with two of each for 14 and Quillen, of Wake Forest, and Kell, of Davidson, each have 13.

Scores included are on the 10 teams listed below.

Team	Score	Opponents
Carolina	118	81
State	113	65
Davidson	97	77
Duke	63	90
Wake Forest	72	138
High Point	72	74
Guilford	62	72
A. C. C.	34	7
Lenoir	32	39
Eich	12	174

Totals 635 817
The individual scoring does not include the one field goal made in North Carolina this year, which Mann of Atlantic Christian College has to his credit, nor two safeties made by Guilford. There are 64 men who have scored for the ten teams but only those scoring a total of more than one touchdown are listed below. This does not include Thompson, of High Point, who with Adams of State, leads in extra points with four.

Chicago Tricky On The Gridiron

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Alonso Stagg's reputation for "playing tricks" on the football field is making the comeback campaign of his Chicago Eleven difficult one.

The "Grand old Man" of "Big Ten" football played possum so often in his 37 years of coaching at Chicago that no matter how weak his maroon team may be, not one of his opponents believes it. Consequently, Chicago loses a chance to catch any team over-confident and lazy.

This week's example is Wisconsin. Stagg's comparative scores this season, Coach Glenn Thistlewaite's big ten team is favored to win Saturday's contest handily. But instead of overconfidence, the Badgers appear imbued with the spirit that nothing but long, hard work can turn back the Chicago invasion and keep them in the championship struggle.

Saturday's contest, the 32nd between the rivals will be the first at Camp Randall, Madison, since 1912. All were played at Chicago and then to give Wisconsin Alumn an opportunity to see their team in action. Wisconsin has won 14, Chicago 13 and four have resulted in ties. It will be homecoming at Madison Saturday and every seat has been sold, assuring a crowd of 40,000.

Chicago's hopes for successful conquest soared yesterday when its captain, Saup Weislow, a rugged tackle, reported for practice for the first time in weeks. Ohio State and Iowa, who meet at Columbus in the headline attraction of the big Ten's program Saturday, are framing aerial attacks.

Notre Dame List of Injured Increases
South Bend, Ind., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Notre Dame's already large list of cripples has been increased by three first stringers, two of whom were injured in the Penn State game Saturday.

Jimmy Brady, quarterback, is laid up with an injured knee that caused his removal from the game in the first period, and Ed Collins, who played a great game at left end, is in the hospital with an arm infection.
