BIG MERGER OF COTTON MILLS IS UNDER WAY

Largest Consolidation Of Mills In South Reported From Charlotte Today.

Charlotte, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The Charlotte News today says: "One of the largest consolidations of cotton mills in the history of the industry in the south is being worked out by a group of financiers at Charlotte, Gastonia and other towns in this immediate section. It was learned today.

"Another merger, involving a much smaller number of mills, all of which are located in Gaston County, also is being carried steadily toward completion, according to the reports obtained today from authoritative sources.

"The larger merger, of which W. C. Wilkinson, banker, financier and manufacturer, of this city, probably will be president, will involve perhaps a dozen mills, most of which are engaged in the manufacture of cotton yarns, the reports said. A. G. Myers, banker and manufacturer, of Gastonia, is another one of the well known textile manufacturers interested in this proposal, which, it seems, had its inspiration in the unsuccessful efforts of Flint and Company, New York financiers, to promote an amalgamation of approximately 150 southern cotton factories.

"Confirmation was not available for that part of the report regarding the larger one of the two pending merger proposals which related to the participation of the interests headed by the late John Rankin of Gastonia, in this movement. Mr. Wilkinson is known to be intimately concerned in the affairs of the Peerless and Lowell Mills of Lowell, and the Avon Mills of Gastonia, of which Sloan M. Robinson, of Gastonia, is president. George Fish, formerly with the Grey Spinning Textile Co., recently took over the active management of these three plants as treasurer and general manager.

"These so called Robinson-Rankin Mills have a combined capitalization of $1,500,000 and operate a total of 49,000 spindles.

"Mr. Myers is the head of the Myers Mill at Gastonia, and the Dilling and Coga Mills, at Kings Mountain. These three plants have capitalizations totaling $1,500,000 and operate approximately 50,000 spindles.

"Information available today was not sufficiently specific regarding plans to be included in this merger to permit compilation of statistics regarding capitalization and spindleage.

"Mr. Wilkinson said today that he cannot yet discuss the proposal.

"Some of the mills involved in the merger discussions now centering around mills of this section were included in the list of mills prepared in connection with Flint and Company's proposal, it was understood. Appraisals made by Robert and Company, engineers, of Atlanta, for Flint and Company, a total reported cost of approximately $175,000 are being used as part of at least some negotiations. Mr. Wilkinson is concerned with independent appraisals also are in progress of the mills included in the list of the new group's merger plan. Information made available today indicated that completion of the two Gaston county consolidations is being held up only by work of making the appraisals, which involve property valued at several millions of dollars."

Begin Probe Of Atlanta Prison

Atlanta, Nov. 15.—(AP)—An investigation of conditions at the Federal Penitentiary begins today by a Congressional committee acting under a resolution passed by the last Congress authorizing a House delegation to look into housing conditions at Federal institutions.

Congressman Thomas Bell, of Georgia, a member of the committee, last night announced that he would insist that activities of department of justice agents at the prison should form a part of the investigation. He said commitment of Peter Hanson of Detroit as a prisoner, and later transferred to the prison at Leavenworth, Kans., should be scrutinized in view of intimations reaching him that Hanson was a Department of Justice agent who had been "planted" in the prison here. Hanson's application for parole was refused here.

Turks Close School. Constantinople, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Advices from Smyrna today said the Turkish government was closing a French convent school there on the suspicion that three teachers were conducting religious propaganda.

Good Tobacco Still Selling Well Here

The Greenville tobacco market yesterday sold 989,322 pounds of tobacco for $232,047.70, at a general average of $23.45 per hundred pounds, it was made known today in the official report of sale submitted for publication by K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales.

It was stated that a large amount of trashy tobacco was in evidence, indicating that the end of the season is drawing near. Good tobacco continued to bring splendid prices, many piles selling from 35 cents and upwards.

Sales are expected to be fairly heavy from now until Christmas, which is only twenty-three days off.

Episcopal Church To Have Services By Church Army

Beginning next week, on Wednesday, November 21, through Friday, November 23, there will be preaching services at St. Paul's Episcopal church. These services are to be conducted by the Rev. Capt. E. Hurworth, missionary, assisted by two other clergymen. The preachers will arrive in Greenville, driving the Church Army Van belonging to the Episcopal Church in East Carolina. This church army van or truck is something unique in North Carolina church history.

It was dedicated by the Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Darst, bishop of East Carolina, who is the national head of Evangelical in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. And with it the bishop is reaching not only the large cities and town of East Carolina, but also preaching services are being carried to the most remote rural sections of our state. The van is visiting this week in the towns of Fayetteville, Goldsboro, Snow Hill and Farmville. In every place where it has been there has been a deepening of the spiritual life of many people. And the people of Greenville are looking forward to the privilege of having the van here for preaching services next week. Not only Episcopalians but all denominations are invited to share in the services which will be conducted at the Episcopal church every night. Capt. Hurworth, who will preach each night is a deeply consecrated man. And it will be a privilege to have him in Greenville.

Seventeen Drowned On English Coast

London, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The "Press" Association publishes a graphic account of the drowning of all seventeen members of the crew of a lifeboat sent out by the Rye, Sussex, station in a tempestuous sea at Jury's Gap when the boat returned while attempting to assist a small steamer in distress 9-1/2 miles off.

An eye witness was quoted as giving the following description of the tragedy which took place within the sight of relatives when the lifeboat was returning to the harbor after the crew of the wrecked steamer had been rescued by the German steamship Smyrna.

"It was at 7:30 o'clock this morning that a group of people including many women who had been anxiously waiting, saw the lifeboat returning to the harbor. The sea was in the teeth of a south-easterly gale. Every fresh wave threatened to overturn the boat and many of the waiting relatives began to pray aloud in terror.

"When the lifeboat was within a half mile of the harbor, the end of the crew's struggle against odds came. A gigantic wave overwhelmed and capsized the little craft and the crew was drowned within sight of the screaming and sobbing men and women waiting at the harbor side. They could see the men struggling in the angry waves and yet were powerless to do anything. It was some hours later before bodies began to float ashore at Jury's Gap, a desolate spot on the sands several miles from Rye."

SIX ARMY AIR PRIVATES KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Trapped in the cockpit of an army transport plane when it broke up 4,000 feet in the air, six privates of the army air school at Brooks Field here, were buried to their death yesterday as the ship crashed into a cotton patch, 10 miles from the field.

Two occupants of the stricken plane, which lost a wing and tail piece, were thrown clear and used their parachutes to descend safely. The victims, however, fell into the forward part of the cockpit as the ship nose-dived down, and were unable to crawl back to a small rear door through which they might have jumped to safety with the parachutes all wore.

The dead are: Arthur W. Hardesty, 24 son of Mrs. J. W. Howard, Lebanon

Junelion, Ky.; Nicoforo Villarreal, 29, son of Mrs. Virginia Villarreal, Puanca, Cochabamba, Bolivia; Carl W. Harris, son of Mrs. Minnie Harris, Wintersboro, Texas; Harry W. Gaudin, 26, son of Mrs. G. C. Gaudin, Callander, Va.; Deane T. McClusky, 19, son of Mrs. Martha McClusky, Placid, Tex., and Irvin Self, 23, son of Mrs. Lula Self, Victor, Texas.

Lt. Harvey T. Dyer, pilot, and Staff Sergeant Frank J. Siebnaler, survived the accident. Dyer was unhurt, while Siebnaler sustained a fractured rib.

Cause of the plane's breakup remained undetermined today as an army investigation board, summoned yesterday by Major S. W. Fitzgerald, Brooks' Field commandant, continued its inquiry.

Vestris Passenger

Mrs. Margaret Daugherty of Philadelphia was one of the passengers aboard the Lampport and Holt liner Vestris which went down off the Virginia capes.

VESTRIS TOO SLOW WITH S. O. S. SIGNAL

Negro Fireman Tells Of Bad Condition In Engine Room Of Ill-Fated Ship.

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Evan Hampton, a negro fireman of the wrecked Vestris, landed by the tanker Myrian today, voiced on behalf of the 33 firemen of the party the belief that an S. O. S. should have been broadcast by the Vestris at 8 o'clock Sunday night, when he said the ship was listing at 15 degrees and water in the fire room was 6 inches deep.

The disaster, Hampton believed, was due almost entirely to a coal hole on the port side, four inches above the water line, which he said was open six inches when the Vestris sailed from Hoboken, N. J., and which was so defective it could not be closed.

When Hampton went on duty in the fire room at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, he said, the chief engineer was warned that water was leaking through the hole into the coal bunkers, but two men were unable to force the door closed with heavy wooden hammers.

When he went off duty at 8 o'clock, he said, the water was ankle deep in the fire room, and when he returned at 4 in the afternoon it had already put out the fires under the starboard boiler and was coming in fast.

Chief Engineer Avard Adams helped man the pumps, but the water entered so fast that a life line was laced between the end bunker and the furnace door to help the firemen keep their feet. Then it became so bad that two men supported the shovels to keep them from going down into hip deep water of lancing into the open fire-bricks.

At last, before he went off duty at 8 o'clock Sunday night, a bucket brigade was passing coal from bunkers to furnace doors, while bedroom stewards helped bail the boiler room. A heavy lurch of the ship sent the water up to the men's necks.

Up to this time, Hampton said, no S. O. S. had been sent out, although men had made the perilous journey from boiler room to bridge, after telephone communications went out, to keep Captain Carey informed of the situation.

SENATOR NYE ON STAND IN PERJURY CASE

Permit Sinclair's Testimony Before Senate Committee To Go Before Jury.

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Over the protest of the defense in the perjury trial of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, Justice Jennings Bailey today permitted testimony given by the oil man to the Senate Public Lands Committee last April 24 to go before the jury.

With Senator Nye of North Dakota, on the stand, government counsel brought up the April testimony, when Stewart had revealed that $750,000 of Continental Trading Company bonds had been received by him and turned over to a trustee. The court inquired as to whether Stewart had been sworn on that occasion, as he was on February 2 and 3 when it is charged that he perjured himself in denying knowledge of any distribution of bonds by the company.

"No, he was not," said Nye, explaining that it was not the custom to swear Senate committee witnesses when they appeared a second time.

The objection of Frank J. Hogan, defense counsel, against admission of the April testimony was overruled by the court. Justice Bailey took the position that the April testimony was a continuation of those of February and it was not necessary to swear a second time.

With this, the government excused Nye temporarily for the introduction into evidence of corrections to Stewart's April testimony to make it conform with the stenographic report taken then, reading of the record of Stewart's testimony then was resumed.

ROLL CALL OF RED CROSS IN SWING TODAY

Business And Residential Sections Canvassed For Additional Members.

The annual roll call of the American Red Cross was under way in this city today. Numbers of young women canvassed the business and residential sections, soliciting memberships in the national organization. Although it was impossible to estimate the total amount of money subscribed, it was stated that numbers of old members had renewed with many new ones being added to the list.

Mr. J. L. Hassell, chairman of the Pitt County Chapter, issued an appeal asking the people of Greenville and Pitt county to do their part by the roll call.

"Pitt county has never failed to respond to a call of this kind," said Mrs. Hassell, "and I feel confident he drive will be a greater success than ever before."

The splendid service of the Red Cross in time of disaster has been a matter of public interest for years and activities in this direction today are greater than ever. Money collected from annual memberships will be used for the same purpose, and those who join the organization are assured of having done their bit by suffering humanity, members stated.

The Roll Call covers a period of one week, but the local chapter will do the most intensive canvassing today. All persons who do not get an opportunity of joining today are urged to get in touch with Mrs. Hassell or some other member of the organization and have their names entered on the roll for next year.

The little red button given to subscribers by members of the canvassing committee are signs of service to humankind, it was stated, therefore, everybody is urged to wear one.

Quits Anti-Saloon League. Cleveland, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Fred W. Ramsey, newly appointed general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has severed his connection with the Anti-Saloon League because, he said, he is not in accord with that organization's political practices.

George C. Southwell, secretary of the Dry Maintenance League, said Ramsey's resignation had not been accepted.

Shoots Wife and Man Boarder And Commits Suicide

Los Angeles, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Angered at the sight of his wife smoking a cigarette, Robert Johnson last night shot and wounded her and a man who attempted to pacify him, then killed himself. The shooting occurred in the home of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mrs. Johnson was wounded in the jaw, while Bernard Hay, 45, a boarder at the home who interceded, was shot in the chest.

Farmer Charged With Death Of Son-In-Law

Concord, Nov. 15.—(AP)—John Austin, 65, farmer, is lodged in the Cabarrus county jail here charged with killing his son-in-law, Archie Parker, of the Brown Mill village, last night. Angered because his wife had moved to the home of Parker, Austin is said to have shot Parker as the latter sought to escape from his home.

Police officers say Austin was intoxicated. After the shooting Austin escaped but was caught in bed in a home here this morning. A coroner's jury will investigate the slaying during the day.

Arkansas Atheist Given Road Term

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 15.—(AP)—The maximum sentence—a fine of $100 and ninety days on the county farm—was given Charles Smith, president of the American Association for the advancement of Atheism, when he was convicted in municipal court today of a charge of violating an old English law against blasphemy. Smith appeared and was released under $1,000 bond.

Booked Passage On The Vestris But Did Not Go

Pittsburgh, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Two men who had booked passage on the ill-fated steamer Vestris and whose names had appeared in some lists of the missing, today were found to be safe, nothing having changed their plans before the vessel sailed.

M. R. Rosse, export manager of the Fry Equipment Corporation of Rochester, Pa., revised plans just before the ship left New York and was not aboard when the Vestris sank. Genaro Panzaratta is visiting relatives in New Jersey and so escaped the horrors of the ship disaster. The First National Bank of Pittsburgh, which booked his passage, reported.

Panzaratta had decided to postpone his trip to South America.

Schooner Still Is In Distress

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The radio marine corporation this morning picked up a message from the coast guard vessel Yamacraw saying that the schooner Anna R. Heidtler first reported in distress Tuesday night, was still flying distress signals today.

The message read: "U. S. C. G. Yamacraw 4 a. m. Schooner Anna R. Heidtler flying signals of distress. Latitude 31.58 north, longitude 75.08 west." The position given by the Yamacraw would place the two vessels approximately 300 miles off the South Carolina coast.

The Anna R. Heidtler left Charleston, S. C., Nov. 4th, bound for New York. She carried a crew of eight.

College Student Dead. Greeley, Colo., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Miles Noah, 19, a freshman at the Colorado State Teachers' College, died yesterday from injuries received Saturday in the annual Freshman-Sophomore sack rush.

ONE DEATH IS REPORTED IN IOWA TORNADO

Several Also Injured When Windstorms Strike Northeastern Communities.

Vinton, Iowa, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Tornadoes dropped out of black skies in three separate localities of northeastern Iowa late yesterday, causing at least one death, injuries to six, and property damage that will run into many thousands of dollars.

Two twisters struck, one sweeping down five miles south of Vinton, in Benton county, cutting a path 40 rods wide for 11 miles, then bounding to drop on the farming community called Silver Creek, 20 miles northeast. The other tornado, about the same hour, struck at Chester, 90 miles northwest of Silver Creek.

When the first twister took its last dive at Silver Creek, it caused the death of Mrs. Alpha Hawkins, 30, when it crushed the barn in which she was milking. That was the only casualty reported there, but two farmsteads were demolished, and about a score others damaged, much livestock was killed and trees and telephone poles were laid flat. Damage in that vicinity was estimated at $75,000 or more.

On its earlier journey, the twister had caused injuries to at least four persons and had wrecked ten farmsteads, in addition to damaging many others. Near the start of its course south of here, it turned toward the William Herman home, causing severe cuts to Mrs. Herman and her two children. They had taken refuge in the cellar, but when the fire broke out they were driven from their haven. Working in a nearby field, Mr. Herman escaped injury.

Next the tornado destroyed the house and barn on the John Fry farm, where one man was injured. From that point on to the end of the eleven mile stretch, eight more farm layouts were reported leveled, and many more damaged, with much loss of livestock. Damage in this ravaged strip may exceed $150,000.

Chester, Iowa, just below the Minnesota line and 40 miles from Austin, Minn., which was visited by a death dealing twister August 15, was the only town reported hit. The second funnel-cloud, 250 residents, injured two and damaged the Methodist parsonage, a creamery building and a residence.

Among the bodies aboard the Shaw were those of Major Uashio Inouye, Japanese Consul at Buenos Aires, whose wife was rescued by the battleship Wyoming; Carl Franke, representative of a German firm, and his 22-year-old daughter, Ingeborg.

Of the four bodies brought by the Tucker only two were identified. Brass tags worn about the necks identified one as that of Jose Gonzalez Rus, of New Bedford, Mass., and the other as that of Raymond Garcia Pelal, of New York.

Rus, who had sailed with his wife and two-year-old son, had $7,800 in his pockets when found. His wife was rescued by the Wyoming, but no trace of the son was found.

The two other bodies were those of a negro woman and a white man, apparently a member of the crew.

Aboard the American were the bodies of Ralph P. Whitehead, of Woodstock, N. Y., and Tom Jones, barman of the Vestris. The identity of the other two was not known.

BEGIN FEDERAL PROBE OF SINKING OF THE VESTRIS

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Federal investigation of the Vestris disaster, said that when the steamer last Saturday at this port he was informed that his cabin steward would be unable to attend him because he steward was drunk.

Puppe, whose wife and seven-months-old child were lost, said that when he first went to his cabin he found that most of his baggage was not there. He later located it in the hold where it had been dumped with the heavy baggage. Later he learned that other passengers had similar experiences with their luggage.

"The handling of the baggage was absolutely careless," Puppe declared.

He said he asked another steward what he should do about personal service and that this employee replied:

"I'm not supposed to take care of your cabin, but I will do the best I can to get around to you because your steward is drunk in his bunk and will be unable to attend to you."

At dinner Saturday night, Puppe continued, the passengers remarked at the speed the ship was making.

"We said to ourselves, 'If it goes like this all along we'll be there in no time,'" the witness asserted.

Puppe was on his way to take an executive position in Buenos Aires.

MANY BODIES RECLAIMED IN SHIP TRAGEDY

Twenty-two Of Vestris Dead Returned To Grieving Relatives Today.

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Reclaimed from the sea, 22 bodies of the Vestris dead today were being returned to grieving relatives and friends.

The first body was brought to this city early yesterday on the rescue ship Berlin, while last night the eight bodies were brought by the coast guard destroyers Tucker and Acushnet. The coast guard destroyer Shaw left the scene of the wreck for New York with 13 bodies.

Many of the dead had not been identified today, the clothing being devoid of identifying marks.

Among the bodies aboard the Shaw were those of Major Uashio Inouye, Japanese Consul at Buenos Aires, whose wife was rescued by the battleship Wyoming; Carl Franke, representative of a German firm, and his 22-year-old daughter, Ingeborg.

Of the four bodies brought by the Tucker only two were identified. Brass tags worn about the necks identified one as that of Jose Gonzalez Rus, of New Bedford, Mass., and the other as that of Raymond Garcia Pelal, of New York.

TANKER LANDS 57 SURVIVORS AT NEW YORK

Battleship Wyoming To Land Last Eight Survivors Of Vestris At Norfolk Today.

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—All except nine of the known survivors of the Vestris were safely in New York today, the last 57 being brought ashore in Brooklyn early this morning from the French tanker Myrian. The nine others were rescued by the battleship Wyoming, bound for Norfolk, Va.

The Tanker came only to the harbor mouth, anchoring in Gravesend Bay where government tugs went alongside and brought the Vestris passengers ashore. She was bound for Thame-Shaven, England, from New Orleans and did not wish to delay her passage.

Of the 57 survivors only eight were passengers, the others being members of the crew.

Most of the passengers were silent concerning the ship's rescue. Delay of an S. O. S. message but members of the crew were outspoken in their criticism of their skipper. The S. O. S. should have been sent out hours before it finally was transmitted, they agreed.

Mrs. Cline Slaughter, the only woman passenger on the Myrian, defended the captain's action. "He did his duty and did his best," she said.

Most of the passengers were clad in clothing and wrapped in blankets furnished by the officers and crew of the Tanker.

Harry Fay, a Pittsburgh pugilist who was enroute to South America for three bouts, said as soon as he had rested he planned to start again.

Dr. J. Seas, of the Long Island College Hospital, the ship's surgeon, declined to talk of the disaster at all, and A. Patterson, of Edmonton, Ala., was almost as reticent. Patterson said he would start again Saturday on the Lampport and Holt liner Vestris, of which Captain Carey was to have taken command after the voyage in which he met death.

W. Fields, of New York City, said he had no difficulty in getting on a life boat, and that the boat picked up what swimmers it could.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Leaving only the coast guard cutter Manning and the coast guard destroyer Tucker to continue the search for survivors at the scene of the Vestris disaster, the battleship Wyoming today was on her way to Hampton Roads today with the last eight known survivors to make port aboard and was expected to reach her anchorage off the Hampton Roads naval operating base at 3 o'clock.

Aboard the battleship which hastened to the sinking vessel on Monday when news of her disaster was flashed to the world in urgent S. O. S. calls are eight persons, five passengers and all women and three colored men of the ship's crew.

Preparations are being made to have the hospital launch from the naval base meet the Wyoming when she drops anchor and transport the survivors immediately to the naval hospital in Portsmouth for examination and medical treatment if necessary.

With the rough seas yesterday afternoon making search very difficult, Admiral Taylor in command decided to give up the search at his discretion and proceed to Hampton Roads.

Coast guard craft from New York and New London also will about last light for port.

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Survivors of the Lampport and Holt liner Vestris who arrive at Hampton Roads aboard the battleship Wyoming today will be placed in the care of Red Cross nurses. Those who need hospital care will be sent in ambulance boat to the United States Naval Hospital at Portsmouth, Va.

New Mouth Of Etna In Eruption Today

Rome, Nov. 15.—(AP)—A dispatch to the Giornale D'Italia from Alfa, Sicily, said that a new eruptive mouth opened this morning in Mount Etna about 150 feet from mouth of Anaca. The lava stream from the new mouth advanced rapidly and destroyed numerous vineyards which had hitherto escaped damage.

The dispatch added that on the main front of the eruption the lava had slowed down to a velocity of 25 feet an hour and that the volcanic activity was decreasing all along the line.

MISS FLEMING HOSTESS FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Having as honor guest Miss Ernestine Forbes who will be married this month, Miss Margaret Fleming charmingly entertained at a buffet supper and handkerchief shower Monday evening.

The home was elaborately decorated with various fall flowers. The dining room was especially attractive with white chrysanthemums and lighted candles. The table was centered with a gondola of white rose petals driven by cupid which glided on a miniature lake bordered with southern smilax.

A buffet supper was served by Mrs. E. T. White, Mrs. Swanson Graves, Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr., Mrs. Curtis Perkins, Mrs. W. I. Wooten, Mrs. Malcolm Thompson, Mrs. W. W. Lee, Mrs. W. T. Boykin, Mrs. D. M. Clark, Miss Helen Gray Jones and Miss Ada James.

After several progressions of bride's sweet course was served. For table prizes, dainty handkerchiefs were won by Mrs. W. W. Lee, Mrs. D. M. Clark, Miss Closs Pickren, Miss Agnes Fullilove and Miss Ada James.

Miss Fleming presented Miss Forbes, bride-elect, a shower of lovely handkerchiefs, concealed in the petals of a large white pond lily.

SANS SOUCI CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. C. S. FORBES

One of the most delightful meetings of the Sans Souci Club was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. C. S. Forbes, hostess. Besides the club members Mrs. Forbes had as guests Miss Wilkes, Miss Miller, Mrs. Rivers, Mrs. Dodson and Mrs. Burnette, of Danville, Va.

After routine business and passing of books, Mrs. J. H. Blount, who lead the program for the afternoon, presented Miss Wilkes, who led us into the land of Modern Poetry.

As only one who loves her subject can, Miss Wilkes dipped here and there into the poetry of Joyce Kilmer, Allen Kilmer, his wife, and Ethel M. Kelly about children and the home, interpreting for us a new where he attended the annual convention of the North Carolina Secretaries Association. He reported a splendid time and much good work in behalf of the organization.

Dr. W. L. Davis, eye specialist, will make his next visit to Greenville, Monday, Nov. 18th, at Walters Jewelry Store. 15-33

ENTERTAIN DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION

The Greenville Patriots Chapter D. A. R. held the October meeting with Messdames S. T. White, J. H. Boyd and W. L. Best as hostesses, at the home of Mrs. White.

Caroline Scott Harrison, wife of President Benjamin Harrison, founder and first President General of the society, was the subject of the program for the afternoon.

After the salute to the Flag, the Regent told of the origin of the salute which was written during the administration of President Harrison when he set aside October 12th as Columbus Day.

A very interesting account of the life of Mrs. Harrison and of the dormitory which is being built as a memorial to her at the Oxford College, in Oxford, Ohio, where her father was once president, was given as a dialogue by Miss Snodie Moore and Mrs. George Hadley.

Mrs. J. R. Moye gave such a realistic description of the home of Mrs. Croseau, the present President General of the society, every one felt they had made her a real visit.

Round Table Club Meets.

Nineteen members of the Round Table Club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. R. L. Smith on Tuesday afternoon in an interesting and entertaining meeting.

The business session, which brought out discussions on the work of the State Federation, Art Department, the Library, Red Cross, new Woman's Club building and unfinished business, was quickly dispatched so that members might have ample time for the splendid program in store for us.

Mrs. Auslin, chairman of the program committee introduced Mrs. J. R. Moye whose subject was "Women of the Stage, as related to 'The Legitimate' and 'The Cinema.'" Mrs. Moye's paper portrayed both the evolution and the revolution of both the stage and the cinema through the many years of their existence. The hardships, the battle of public opinion, the fight for clean, wholesome and worthwhile atmosphere by those most interested, including the public, in their subjects was depicted. Intimate glimpses into the lives of several of the most noted actresses were also given.

The legitimate, or speaking stage, in other countries has since the beginning of stage history, respected and venerated their great actors and actresses. Among these are Rejani, Duse, Sarah Bernhart and Ellen Terry, four of the greatest who have lived within this century in European history.

Eva La Galliene, a distinguished figure in the American theatre, made the most distinctive contribution of the year 1926—of any American woman to the arts, letters or sciences. She established the repertory theatre of New York, a place to go and see good drama just as one would go to a museum, a library or a symphony concert. It is a definite need in the cultural life of a country, a stimulus to community culture.

The motion picture is the most tremendous invention of printing. It is the stage enormously multiplied, just as the printed word was an enormous multiplication of the old-time hand inscribed book or manuscript. It is the stage plus the printing press.

These subjects were handled by Mrs. Moye in a most able and efficient manner and everyone present thoroughly enjoyed this splendid paper.

The hostess served delicious refreshments and the social hour completed a delightful afternoon.

GORMAN'S MARKET REPORT

All sales finished Wednesday except our's. We got the buyers an hour late and it took about this much time to finish the sale this morning. Today's sales are much lighter and all houses should finish. We sold yesterday 208,510 pounds. There was lots of nondescript, damaged and very common tobacco in the sale, yet it averaged $25.00. The lugs and thin cutters are easier than they were ten days ago. The fine brights and bodied to bacco sold fully as high as at any time this season, as will see from sales below. We have first second sale Friday, first sale Monday, second sale Tuesday, first sale Wednesday, second sale Thursday and first sale Friday. Send us your tobacco and you will go home satisfied that you have received the top of the market. We know tobacco and protect you:

of election laws he is very wrong.
 Max Gardner is committed to the Australian ballot. With the decline in Simmons' influence and the ascendancy of Gardner, there is reason to hope that the next legislature will give it to the State. So far as this newspaper knows there was no irregularity at any voting place in Richmond county, but under the present system there is so much room for it that voters are to be commended for not yielding to the temptation.

ABOUT TOWN

"The best thing the school board has done for the city of Greenville and Pitt county," said J. L. Little, chairman of the school board, with reference to the granting of offices to the Public Library, "is the use of two rooms in the Evans Street School building."
 "The national health survey has been started in Pitt county," members of the Pitt County Department of Health said today.
 "This survey will be conducted by experts of the American Public Health Association and the National Health Association. Their findings will be used as a model for public health work elsewhere throughout the nation."
 "Only two other states in the union have won such surveys, North Carolina is especially fortunate in winning the award. Pitt county as center of the survey is also fortunate in being chosen as the logical place for the activities."
 "Much good should result from the investigation, especially in the life of the county school children."
 "Today is the last day of 'Pay-up Week' in Greenville," mentioned a member of the Merchants' Association.
 "If you haven't settled overdue accounts, why not get busy and so today. Your rating is vitally affected in this movement and it is your duty to see that it is protected."
 "The Merchants' Association will compile a new list of credit customers immediately after the campaign closes. If you have paid promptly your rating will be A-1. If, on the other hand, you have not been prompt in meeting your obligations you will be rated accordingly and will find it difficult to obtain credit in the future."
 "Protect yourself by paying your bills during this last day of Pay-up Week."
 "Greenville is staging her Red Cross roll call drive today," said members of the Pitt County Chapter of the American Red Cross today.
 "If you haven't joined this organization, why not do so, or if you are already a member, renew your membership and in this way help the Red Cross continue its splendid work."
 "The Red Cross has done some wonderful work in the country the last several years. Especially has this been the case in disasters, such as that in Florida. The organization may always be relied upon to render aid in case of some great catastrophe."
 "Don't forget your obligation to humanity. Enroll today and rest assured of having done your duty by suffering humanity."

JOIN NOW
 If you have not already joined the Red Cross, do so at once. The work carried on by the American Red Cross is such that it deserves the financial and moral support of every citizen. If those soliciting memberships fail to call on you get in touch with the chairman and send in your membership.

TRY GREENVILLE MARKET
 With an average of $23.63 per hundred pounds for the month of October, according to the government report, the Greenville tobacco market again led all the large markets in the belt, from the price standpoint. Greenville's average price was the highest in the entire belt save that of one of the smaller markets in the 2,000,000 pound class which showed a average of $23.68.
 In view of the unsurpassed facilities on the Greenville market together with the fact that the market always shows an average well above the aggregate average of the belt, growers who are not selling here would do well to bring their next load to Greenville.

WANTED: AUSTRALIAN BALLOT

Perhaps nothing was more clearly proven by Tuesday's election than the fact that this county and 72 others in North Carolina needs a decent election law. For many legislatures past a bill providing for some form of the Australian ballot throughout the State has been introduced and as regularly killed. Twenty-seven counties, however, have such a law.

The Simmons influence is generally credited with killing the proposal. The fact that the senator Tuesday had several poll holders in his country arrested because they refused to permit voters to take marked ballots out of their pockets and vote them lends credence to the charge that he opposes a law that will safeguard elections against just such practices as that. Talk of having the senior senator to resign because he could not support Smith is foolish and should not be tolerated. The idea that he is infallible is also absurd and on this matter

"Come to Greenville and get the best to be had in merchandise," is the invitation sent out by local business houses.
 "At this season of the year our counters are literally loaded with all kinds of merchandise. Prices conform to the larger cities and easily justify shoppers coming a great distance to take advantage of them."
 "Holiday goods will soon appear on the counters of a majority of the stores and it would be advisable for the discriminating shopper to look over the stocks before they are depleted. Bear this in mind and shop while the best of everything is obtainable."

"Why not send the Reflector to that friend or relative for a birthday present?" suggested the manager of circulation of this paper today.

"Nothing would be more appropriate, especially if the recipient happens to be a former resident of Greenville or Pitt county. The Reflector will keep them in intimate touch with activities of their home town. They will be able to know what so-and-so is doing and what progress has been made in certain branches of human life."
 "Think the matter over and when birthdays roll around, send the Reflector with kindest good wishes."

Dr. Walker Dead At Huntersville

Huntersville, N. C., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Dr. H. J. Walker, 63, one of the best known physicians in North Carolina, died today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Cochran, at Huntersville, where he had made his home for the past several years. The infirmities of age caused his death.
 Dr. Walker is survived by two brothers, T. F. Walker, of Charlotte, and L. J. Walker, of Asheville; two daughters, Mrs. Cochran and Mrs. J. C. Crowell, of Charlotte, and a son, J. O. Walker, former mayor of Charlotte, and 21 grandchildren.
 Funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Huntersville Presbyterian church. The Rev. John W. Grier, pastor of the church, will officiate. Burial will be made in Elmwood cemetery here.
 Dr. Walker was born in the Steele Creek section of Mecklenburg county June 24, 1836, the son of the late Thomas Jefferson Walker and Mrs. Jane Beatty Walker. He was educated in the public schools and Erskine College, Due West, S. C.
 He became a lieutenant in Company B, Thirteenth North Carolina Regiment, in the Civil War. He was wounded at the Battle of Gettysburg. At the same battle and almost at the same time, his brother, T. F. Walker, was wounded. Both lost a leg. After the war he graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa.

He also was treasurer of Mecklenburg county for eight years. His wife, who was Miss Catherine Elizabeth Berryhill, died about fifteen years ago.

Thief Tells Of Stealing Cars

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(AP)—There are many reasons why a person might steal an automobile, and William L. Fenker knew them all. Judge Lindley, before whom Fenker appeared enumerated the cars Fenker was charged with having stolen.
 "My wife and four children needed food, so I stole cars," replied Fenker.
 "And the second car?" pursued the court.
 "My wife needed an operation, so I stole a car," said Fenker.
 "And the next two cars?"
 "A friend of mine needed money," said Fenker, "so I helped him steal the machines".
 The court gave Fenker a year on probation, suggesting that should any financial emergency arise he cast about for some means of meeting it other than taking automobiles that belong to somebody else.

UNDECIDED ABOUT VESTRIS INQUIRY

London, Nov. 15.—(P)—Board of trade officials in London today were understood to be considering whether an inquiry should be held into the sinking of the liner Vestris.
 It was pointed out that such an inquiry is not obligatory and that it rests with the department whether witnesses will be summoned to give an account of what happened.

Concrete tobacco barns reduce fire hazards
 Do you entrust your valuable tobacco crop to an old-fashioned curing barn built of inflammable materials?
 To do so is false economy.
 A modern curing barn, built of concrete tile, provides maximum insurance against fire loss. It also permits accurate control of temperature and humidity, assuring uniform quality and color in your tobacco.
 A concrete tobacco barn is economical to build, and will serve you indefinitely without high maintenance and repair costs.

Republicans After Australian Ballot

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 15.—(AP)—A bill providing for "a simon pure Australian Ballot" system of voting in this State will be one of the first bills to be introduced by some member of the Republican delegation in the next General Assembly when it meets in January, Brownlow Jackson, of Hendersonville, chairman State Republican Executive Committee, declared here today in the first statement made by him since the smoke of the battle cleared away.
 The new bill will include provisions for the State wide operation of the system by a bi-partizan board and will be modeled after laws in other states, which political leaders have asserted "gives the right to members of all parties to vote as their conscience guides them", said the chairman.
 One provision of the law, advocated by members of the Republican party who have studied the question, is that the registrar for either party should check against the other. This system could be carried out by establishing certain days for registration requiring the registrars to be at the polling places. This would not inconvenience the voters and by making it a pre-requisite to voting that the voters names be on both registration books the possibility of fraud of an unintentional or intentional nature would be obviated, it was pointed out.

 Mr. Jackson said that he had not studied the statements in advocacy of a change in the election laws of this state made by Governor-Elect O. Max Gardner and was not at present in position to comment on these.
 Mr. Jackson felt that any help from any quarter in bringing about a reform in the election laws of this State would be a stellar service to this State.

ON SOUTHERN GRIDIRONS

By MORGAN M. BEATTY

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 15—(AP)—If the Messrs. Bill Alexander, Charlie Bachman and nervous disorders of this week, the football teams of these three mentors have steered through four southern victories, respectively, are wholly responsible.

Out over at Knoxville, Tenn., and down in Gainesville, Fla., it all the same—the week's conference foes hold few terrors to compare with those born of the stagnation and overconfidence which are roaming unleashed in home camps.

Tris, Alexander's Yellow Jackets, Bachman's Gators, and Maryland's Volunteers all are showing increasingly apparent signs of trying to ally the jumpy condition of their tutors, as the week's work assumed the usual tapering off proportions.

Alex's remedy for the poor work of his Jackets in preparing for the invasion of the Alabama tide is hard scrimmage and history. Time and again in practice yesterday he thrust the Regulars at the Aggressive Scrubs, until he roused their dander. Before sessions were over, Mizell and Lumpkin were striding through the scrimmaging off the line with regularity. Alex pointed out that Alabama has won four of the last five contests between the two teams.

In the peninsula camp Bachman was using different tactics to achieve the same end. He abruptly withdrew two regulars from the line, and inserted two sophomores. Dashwood Hicks went in for Joe Bryan at tackle and Ben Clemons became the pivot in place of Frank Clark. There was a hint that the change would stand for the Clemson game Saturday. The Clemson squad was clicking as it never clicked before in practice yesterday, splashing huge hunks out of the Florida defensive play as interpreted by the Scrubs and Fresh.

Neyland had quite a different problem. He was drilling his youthfulness in a forward passing and end running game against Vanderbilt that had many features as yet untried by the Knoxville squad this year. The work showed scrimmage down considerably. The Volunteers are fully aware that they must beat both Vanderbilt and the Commodore Jinx that has dogged their trail since 1916.

At Nashville, Dan McGugin apparently was mastering the letdown that struck the Commodores, and was putting them through terrific paces. Drill indicated that he expected to meet the Vols' aerial attack with like thrusts.

Of the six remaining conference games Saturday, the Louisiana State-Georgia clash at Athens and the V. P. I.—Washington and Lee encounter at Lexington held prime interest because neither L. S. U. nor V. P. I. has been beaten in the conference. The Tigers left Baton Rouge yesterday for Athens in order to gain workouts on the enemy field. V. P. I. confidently expected victory although Washington and Lee had the advantage of being at home.

Blacksburg, Va., Nov. 15—(AP)—Thorough drills in plays to be used against Washington and Lee Saturday at Lexington are keeping the Virginia Tech football squad busy until dark daily this week.

Coach Gustafson, announced then that Owen, big sophomore, will probably be in Looney's places at fullback.

Lexington, Va., with a complete rest, Monday, Virginia Military Institute's football squad since that time has been undergoing an intensive drive preparing for the Cadet-Kentucky clash at Louisville Saturday.

Al Hawkins, who was used up in the Davidson game and did not appear against Clemson, is back at his old position at quarterback.

Charlottesville, Va.—Things are looking a bit brighter on Lambeth Field here as one by one the University of Virginia football regulars are reporting for practice for the Maryland game at College Park Saturday.

Injuries have disrupted the Cavaliers this season. It now appears that Byrd and Turner will get back on their regular flank positions and that Johnny Sloan and Gus Kamler will again make their backfield berths.

Lexington, Va.—The Washington and Lee Generals are to face another high speed football session this afternoon as has been the order of Coach Pat Herron this week preparing his men for the nuptial with Virginia Polytechnic Institute in the Washington and Lee homecoming game here Saturday.

Gainesville, Fla.—Two new faces, replacing regulars, will appear in the first line of Florida's defensive against Clemson at Jacksonville Saturday. Coach Charlie Bachman has replaced Joe Bryan, veteran tackle, with Dashwood Hicks, a sophomore, and Ben Clemons goes in at center for the remainder of this week in place of Frank Clark.

Alex Reeves, guard, also will be out of the lineup with Clemson, unless his injuries improve. His berth will be filled by Mike Houser.

Lexington, Ky.—Kentucky State's hopes of victory in the game here Saturday with Virginia Military Institute suffered a blow yesterday when Al Portwood, star ball carrier, and Warner Ford, whom Coach Gange had been grooming for a special offensive against the invaders, appeared with injuries

Signs As Manager

Tris Speaker, famous major league outfielder for the past 22 years, has signed a two-year contract to manage the Newark team of the International League. He succeeds Walter Johnson who becomes manager of the Washington Senators.

which will keep them on the bench the entire game.

Injuries to the pair resulted in the scrimmage of Tuesday afternoon. The injuries leaves the Wildcats with but two aggressive backs, Gibb and Covington.

Raleigh, N. C.—A full scrimmage against the Fresh eleven is scheduled for Gus Tebell's State eleven this afternoon after rather easy sessions this week. Several new plays are being used in practice and will probably be baptized against Duke Saturday. Sliver, Vaughan and Outen are still on the partially injured list.

Chapel Hill, N. C.—North Carolina's second team went at it with a vim yesterday and ripped through the Rat eleven for five touchdowns as indications pointed to the second string men starting against Davidson. Coach Collins handled the second stringers while Coach Cerney and Fetzer drilled the varsity in dummy scrimmage and signal work.

GREATEST FOX HUNT IN VIRGINIA

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 15—(AP)—The greatest race known to fox hunters was off at dawn today in the rolling countryside adjacent to Charlottesville when the entries in the all-age stake of the trials of the National Fox Hunters Association, now in progress here, were unleashed.

The finest of fox hounds are out again for the coveted Walker cup, donated by Howard Tracey of Chicago, in honor of his friend, E. Walker, of Kentucky, originator of the celebrated Walker strain of fox-hounds. No money award is attached to the all age race.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

New York—George Courtney, Oklahoma, knocked out Paul Swiderski, Syracuse, N. Y., (8); George Hoffman, New York, outpointed Larry Benson, New York, (6); Detroit—Billy Shaw, Detroit, won on foul over Archie Bell, New York, (8); Jim O'Brien, Bridgeport, Conn., outpointed Chuck Minnella, Linton, Ind., (8); Boston—Jack Britton, New York, outpointed Larry Brignola, Cambridge, Mass., (10); Tony Samuco, Boston, outpointed Johnny Casper, Lansing, Mich., (6); Joe Cabana, Falmouth, Mass., knocked out Zebull, Milwaukee, (4).

Florida Has Great Defensive Record

Gainesville, Fla., Nov. 15—(AP)—Not only have the Florida Gators the greatest scoring record in the Southern Conference to date, but they have the best defensive record of any of their 21 sister schools. Only three teams have crossed the Florida goal line.

In six games the Gators scored 237 points to their opponents 19. Tennessee is a close second in points scored with 230 while Georgia Tech's great line holds the next best defensive record with 21 points against it. North Carolina, Oglethorpe and Vanderbilt each marked up seven points against the Yellow Jackets, Georgia carried the ball over in the second period against Florida last Saturday for six points. Sewanee found the second period good for six points two weeks ago and North Carolina State netted seven points the previous week. Compared to most of the conference even the Florida line is light but speed and keeping the enemy guessing is believed to be the secret of Coach Charley Bachman's success in his first season as the Gators' mentor.

DOUGLAS SUCCEEDS TAYLOR AS GOLF HEAD

New York, Nov. 15—(AP)—The nominating committee of the United States Golf Association has selected Findlay S. Douglas of New York to succeed Edwin A. Taylor of Chicago, president of the association.

Minnesota And Michigan May Scramble Big 10

Chicago, Nov. 15—(AP)—The race for Big Ten championship honors won't be ended by the Iowa-Wisconsin game Saturday if Minnesota and Michigan succeed in their ambitions to scramble the conference standings.

Only a victory Saturday and another November 24 can insure either Iowa or Wisconsin a clear claim to the championship. A defeat for either or both would allow Ohio and Illinois a chance to tie for the title.

With non-conference opponents headed for this week, Minnesota and Michigan have forgotten everything but the two championship contenders—Iowa and Wisconsin—and are working overtime for next week's races.

FORMER TELEGRAPHER RETIRES WEALTHY

Toronto—Until eight years ago, A. L. Hudson of Toronto was a telegrapher. Now he has retired wealthy, having sold his seats on several stock exchanges. At 40 he is leaving the throes of high-pressure business before it burns him up, he says.

New York—Three magnates of General Motors are taking to water luxuriously. Alfred P. Sloan, Fred J. Fisher and another undisclosed executive have ordered identical $1,000,000 yachts.

Big Games On For Week-End

By HUGH S. FULLERTON

New York, Nov. 15—(AP)—The games backed by age and tradition will have the call over those with nothing but the records of the present season behind them in the minds of Eastern football fans this week. Games won and lost in September and October will be forgotten as the players get down to the serious business of fighting for a victory over the one all-important rival.

The Yale-Princeton encounter holds the center of the spotlight as the climax of the traditional games. The series started in 1873 and Saturday's game will be the 52nd meeting. Yale has won 27 games against 15 for Princeton. Nine games have been tied. Glimpy reports of injuries and poor showings in practice sessions have been coming from both colleges.

Another series which dates back into the early days of football will be resumed at Philadelphia between Pennsylvania and Columbia. They first met in 1878, playing a scoreless tie. Penn has since won 14 times in the remaining 17 games of the series.

With the little three championship at stake, Williams and Amherst will meet in their 45th game since 1884. Williams has won 23 games, lost 14 and tied four against Amherst.

Colgate and Syracuse first met in 1891 while Dartmouth and Cornell started their series nine years later.

Loudspeakers Too Loud

Memphis, Tenn., (AP)—Merchants professional men and others have asked the aid of the city officials in keeping jazz music from Main street. One merchant said five radio loudspeakers were operating in hearing distance of his store and that "the din is terrific and terrible."

Imitation Too Life-Like

Louisville, Ky., (AP)—A grocer used a wooden imitation of a tempting ham in a window display and as a result must pay for a new glass for the show case. A passer-by saw the advertisement after midnight, shattered the window and seized the ham. He soon dropped it, however.

*MILDNESS is not the whole story of a fine cigarette. Chesterfields are genuinely mild but they are something more. They stand out as the cigarettes that satisfy because they are made of high quality tobaccos; because they are blended and cross-blended in a way that can't be copied—and that blending produces a satisfying taste and fragrance. They are "the mild cigarettes that satisfy."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 7 to 11 points, with the active months showing net losses of about 9 to 13 points during the first few minutes under further southern selling and liquidation, which was probably promoted by relatively easy Liverpool cables. January sold off to 19.52, but there was some trade buying as well as covering on this decline, and the market steadied up after the early selling had run its course. With prices showing rallies of 3 to 8 points from the lowest at the end of the first half hour. Private cables reported local and London liquidation absorbed by trade buying in Liverpool and said there was a good inquiry for cotton cloths from India, although many of the offers were unworkable.

Trading became quiet and prices fluctuated within a range of 5 or 10 points. The early decline brought in trade buying and covering but in small volume and sufficient only to absorb further realizing and southern selling. At midday January was holding around 19.47, with the general market showing net declines of 6 to 10 points.

Futures closed steady, 3 to 5 points lower; spot quiet, middling, 19.70.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Wheat advanced sharply today, after early downturns in price, but on the bulge met with increased selling, especially from the southwest. Upward swings of the wheat market followed reports that President Coolidge might outline farm relief plans in addressing the National Grange tomorrow night.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1-4 to 3-8c net higher; corn 1 to 1-3-8c off; oats at a shade to 1-4c advance, and provisions varying from 17c decline to a rise of 1-8c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The stock market, which has been moving upward at a 5,000,000-share pace a week, slowed up today, but the main price tendency continued upward.

Although heavy profit taking forced a number of recent favorites such as Sears-Roebuck, Montgomery-Ward, Hudson Motors and Radio down 3 to nearly 6 points, several new specialties were brought forward by polls and marked up 3 to 9 points to new high records.

There were a few large blocks at the opening, but as the session progressed, the bulk of the transactions appeared in lots of less than 300 shares. These small transactions again delayed the stock ticker, which was about 40 minutes late at 1:30 p. m.

Call money renewed unchanged at 6 per cent despite the heavy mid-month demand for funds. Much of the day's selling undoubtedly was inspired by predictions of an increase of more than $100,000,000 in brokers' loans, which have been rising now for eleven consecutive weeks.

Radio dropped from an early high of 277 to 268 and Montgomery-Ward from 383 to 385 1-2, but both made partial recovery. Sears Roebuck sold down 5 1-2 points below last night's final price. Peoples Gas 4 and Midland Steel Products preferred, Keith Albee preferred, and Warner Brothers A, sold down 3 points or more. Sinclair, Barnsdall and several of the motor shares also turned heavy.

U. S. Steel common, and Bethlehem Steel crossed their previous 1928 highs on buying influenced by expectations of a substantial gain in fourth quarter earnings. Other new highs included Phillips Petroleum, Public Service of New Jersey, Andes Copper, United Drug, National Bellas Hess, May Department Stores and Dunhill International. The closing was firm. Sales approximately 4,750,000.

HOOVER PLANS TO SPEAK IN MANY NATIONS

President-Elect To Carry Peace And Good Will To Republics Of South.

By JAMES L. WEST (Associated Press Staff Writer) Stanford University, Cal., Nov. 15. (AP)—Going to Latin America as an itinerant of peace and good will, Herbert Hoover will interpret the character of his mission in addresses which he will deliver in each of the republics he will visit on his two months tour.

The president-elect already is outlining some of these speeches, the first of which may be made at Corinto, Nicaragua, now tentatively fixed as the first port of call after the battleship Maryland leaves San Pedro next Monday. He would be welcomed by Corinto by President Diaz.

A speech in this Central American republic would afford an opportunity for the president-elect of the United States to indicate the policy his administration would pursue in dealing with situations such as arose in Nicaragua and resulted in the landing of marines to police the country.

The use of the marines to supervise the election in Nicaragua has evoked much criticism both in the United States and in Latin America. Foremost among the critics in this country has been Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Without mentioning any specific cases of the use of armed forces for the protection of Americans abroad, Hoover, in one of the major speeches of his campaign, delivered at Boston, expressed the hope that such incidents would not arise again.

"Unless there can be constantly evidenced amongst all nations proof that the lives and property of all citizens abroad shall be protected," he said, "the foreign trade and economic life of the world will degenerate instead of thrive. This does not imply that our citizens going abroad are not subject to the laws of the country where they reside. They must be subject to such laws unless these laws are a violation of international obligation. This implies no imperialism. It is the simple recognition of the principle of comity and mutual interest among all nations. Confidence in this principle is a necessity to the advancement of civilization itself."

With Corinto as the first port on the sailing schedule for the west coast voyage, the others are Balboa, Canal Zone, Callao, Peru and Valparaiso, Chile. Others may be added, however, as Colombia, Ecuador, and Bolivia are urging upon the State Department that they be included in the good will call.

With the possible exception of Santiago, Chile, Hoover plans to spend only 24 hours in each of the capitals where he will call. The schedule probably will be so arranged that he will arrive in each early in the day and leave late at night.

FARM HINTS

"In planning a poultry house, keep in mind the necessity to develop and maintain normal health and activity of the fowls kept within it," says the New Jersey Experiment Station. "In other words, it must furnish a thoroughly sanitary and healthful environment."

The floor is a very important part of the poultry house, especially from the standpoint of maintaining sanitary conditions. It is important that the floor be smooth for this will aid in cleaning out the litter from time to time. The smooth, concrete floor can easily be swept, washed and disinfected, if necessary."

Concrete mixtures may be described as "stiff," "medium" and "wet." If a stiff mix is shaped into a cone, it will flow very slightly. A cone made from medium mix will drop to about half its original height. Cones of wet concrete flow to but a fraction of their original height.

A stiff mix is suitable for foundations and other work where mass concrete is used. Tank walls, fence posts and similar structures are built with a medium mix. A wet mix is employed only in very thin sections, such as those found in vases and garden furniture.

Concrete for fence posts, flower boxes, garden furniture, and all other work having very thin sections is made with 3-4 gallons of water to the sack of cement, when ordinary damp sand and pebbles are used. In most cases a satisfactory concrete can be made by using two parts each of sand and pebbles to each part of cement. The pebbles should not be more than 3-4 inch in size.

DUKE MUSICAL AT COLLEGE TUESDAY EVENING

A special rate is made to the schools for the concert by the Duke Musical Clubs, which is to be given at East Carolina Teachers College in the Campus Building, on Tuesday evening of next week, November 20, at eight-thirty o'clock. Admission will be paid at the door, but a special place will be designated for those from the schools.

Not only the girls and boys in the high schools, but those in the grades also are interested in music by college organizations, for even those in the lowest grades have their bands and orchestras.

The three big clubs from Duke are the glee club, the symphony orchestra, and the jazz orchestra, but there are sub-divisions of these, that give specialty combinations, as the quartet. This group of musical organizations perhaps gives the finest cross section of the musical activities of a college or university that can be found in the South.

The Musical Clubs have six engagements in the eastern part of the State, one for each night in the week they are out on their fall tour. They will be in Roanoke Rapids on the evening before they are here and in Kinston on the following evening. Their other engagements are in Goldsboro, Laurinburg, and Dunn. This is the only tour they are planning for the east this college year, so this will be the only chance to hear them. In the spring they will go to the western part of the State.

The special rate for schools is not only for those in Greenville, but for those from other schools as well. Those from the surrounding towns, it is hoped, will take advantage of the opportunity to hear the concert by the half a hundred Duke men.

You can make $100 extra TO-DAY!

Your present car is worth more to you today than it was worth a month ago, and at least $100 more than it will be worth in another month or so.

On that basis, buying your new car now is like finding money. It means you can have the pleasure and comfort of a new car at once, and save real money by doing so. Plainly, then, you can't afford to wait.

More People Buy Hudson-Essex Cars Than Any Other Six

The outstanding leadership of the Essex Super-Six is a matter of actual and vital fact on the outright issue of what people want. On that basis it has established its long time position as the world's largest selling "Six."

Here, for the first time, real car luxury, with brilliant performance and fine appearance, were presented at less than $1,000.

Essex alone combines these qualities. They result from original design, with a chassis as remarkably engineered in every detail as its Super-Six motor.

It is that characteristic which differentiates Essex from any but costly cars. It is that which accounts for its smooth, effortless ease in every phase of performance.

Hudson's two great factors of performance supremacy are exclusive inventions and can be shared by no other maker.

The released Super-Six principle converts to useful power, energy that in other types is lost in vibration.

And Hudson's companion invention to the Super-Six principle, upon which patents have been granted, adds a further step in efficiency by actually converting hitherto wasted heat into useful power.

The new Hudson motor gives the snap and performance of the high compression type without sacrifice of flexibility and smoothness.

J. C. TURNER ELECTED HEAD OF BAPTISTS

Greensboro Minister Chosen As President At Final Session Of State Convention.

High Point, N. C., Nov. 15—(AP)—Dr. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church, Greensboro, was elected president of the North Carolina Convention of the Southern Baptist Convention at the closing session here today.

The Rev. J. W. Kincheloe, of Rocky Mount; Dr. J. A. Campbell, of Buies Creek, and Rev. J. W. Suttle, of Shelby, were elected vice-presidents.

Reports on various activities of the church were made at this session.

The convention today reconsidered its action of yesterday limiting the borrowing power of church owned institutions in the state. It was agreed to let the proposed constitutional amendment go over until next year for final action.

The motion for reconsideration was made by Charles E. Maddry of Raleigh, general secretary of the convention. "There has been some misunderstanding," he said. "It is far from my desire to hamper or limit any institution. Surely after eight years I do not need to demonstrate my loyalty. I would like for us by general consent to reconsider yesterday's amendment and let it wait until next year for final action."

Appointments to general boards and of trustees of Wake Forest College were made today.

Trustees of Wake Forest whose terms will expire in 1932 follow: W. Carey Dowd, Charlotte; E. W. Timberlake, Wake Forest; W. J. Ferrell, Raleigh; John A. Oates, Fayetteville; J. C. Watkins, Winston-Salem; J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro; J. B. Willis, Hamlet; A. J. Hudson, Asheville; A. D. Ward, New Bern and C. C. Coleman, Durham.

General Board: Rev. W. L. Griggs, Charlotte; Rev. J. T. Alderman, Henderson; Rev. J. S. Snyder, Fayetteville; Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson, High Point; Rev. J. W. Kincheloe, Rocky Mount; Rev. B. A. Bowers, Gastonia; Rev. J. C. Canipe, Siler City; Rev. E. N. Johnson, Dunn; Rev. J. Herman Bowers, Garland; Rev. John R. Jester, Winston-Salem; Rev. J. M. Kester, Wilmington; Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Roxboro; Rev. G. H. Payne, Elizabeth City; Rev. W. R. Bradshaw, Morganton; Rev. S. L. Morgan, Smithfield; Rev. Wallace H. Hartsell, Brevard and Treda D. Collins, Durham.

Trustees of various other institutions in the State elected were:

Baptist Foundation: J. D. Wilkins, Greensboro; T. F. Pettus, Wilson; C. H. Durham, Lumberton. Baptist Hospital: W. L. Wyatt, Raleigh; Dr. Lloyd T. Wilson, High Point and Wingate M. Johnson, Winston-Salem.

Campbell College: Stanford Martin, Winston-Salem; W. M. Morgan, Winston-Salem; Miss Mattie Bain, Coats; D. H. Senter, Chalybeate Springs; W. Krand, Durham.

WOMAN TELLS OF RESCUE IN SHIP TRAGEDY

Separated From Husband When Forced Into Ocean, Finds on Landing in N. Y.

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—A pretty, auburn-haired woman who last saw her husband floundering in the sea as the steamship Vestris sank found him waiting at the pier when she landed today with 56 other survivors from the French tanker Myriam. She was the only woman survivor aboard.

Mrs. Cline Slaughter had learned of her husband's rescue by wireless. He recognized her despite her borrowed seaman's clothing, rushed over and embraced her. The husband landed yesterday from the rescue ship American Shipper.

Mrs. Slaughter, who is 21 years old, said she was the last woman to leave the stricken Vestris. When she left the liner she was wearing a new gown which she said had been transformed into a French creation by shrinkage. The borrowed clothing in which she descended to the pier included a pair of trousers and a white woolen undershirt given her by Captain Fernan Foray of the Myriam, and a hat loaned by another person on board the ship.

Mrs. Slaughter said she fell out of the boat and was pulled under the water by the suction from the liner as it sank. "It seemed as though I was under a long time," she said, "and when I finally bobbed up I saw my husband paddling a few yards away. Both of us were nearly exhausted." Another lifeboat, in which was Second Officer Leslie Watson, of the Vestris, approached. When he saw them, she said, he jumped into the sea and swam towards her, but the lifeboat kept pulling away.

She said it was probably twenty minutes before Watson reached her side and that he supported her in the water for perhaps an hour, when he hailed a passing lifeboat and helped her into it.

As she lay exhausted in the bottom of the boat, Mrs. Slaughter said she could head whistling and cries of despair from the water, some of them apparently from women, but the boat did not stop to pick up any others. As they rowed along, she said, she heard members of the boat crew say they were passing floating bodies.

Charges of negligence on the part of the master of the Vestris, voted by other passengers landed yesterday, found no confirmation from Mrs. Slaughter.

"So far as I know," she said, "there was no such thing as criminal negligence. The captain did his duty and did his best." She added that she did not know whether it would have been better to send out the SOS earlier than it was broadcast.

As to a charge made by other passengers that members of the crew had rushed to the lifeboats, Mrs. Slaughter said: "I wouldn't blame the crew. After all, I was in a pretty excited state just before I went down with the ship, and don't know what they were doing, except they could not find axes or hatchets to cut loose the boat which I was in, which was struck." Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter said that although their last address was Chicago they had no permanent address in the United States. They were enroute to Buenos Aires where her husband had a position with the International Harvester Company.

CONDEMN 1,000,000 PEACH TREES IN GEORGIA

Macon, Ga., Nov. 15.—(AP)—The Georgia peach growers' exchange has pronounced a sentence of death on 1,000,000 peach trees, but the means of carrying out the sentence are lacking.

The State and Federal Departments of Agriculture will be asked to aid in financing destruction of diseased trees. With the request will also go a plea for help in taking a general census of peach trees.

SAY SOUTH CAROLINA SQUAD IS CRIPPLED

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Reports that the South Carolina squad would be crippled Saturday when it meets Furman could not be confirmed yesterday, although it was generally known that several of the players, including the redoubtable Carlisle Beal, have been in bed this week with influenza.

Practice continued behind closed doors as Billy Laval prepared to watch his "crazy quilt" formation against Davis "weave shift," it being rumored that the Furman mentor would present this style of play in South Carolina for the first time Saturday.

Zobel, the Gamecock flashy back, is expected to be able to get into the game Saturday, despite his injuries last week.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
