HOOVER TAKES LIFE AT EASE ON WAY SOUTH

President-Elect To Given Himself Over To Rest On Board Battleship.

U. S. S. Maryland, En Route to Corinto, Nicaragua, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Now that he has had time to get his sea legs, President-elect Hoover on route to the republics of Latin America on a mission of good will and understanding, today was enjoying himself on shipboard and for the next few days will give himself over almost entirely to rest. Even the job of posing for the cameraman

As the ship moved down the coast has been banned for that period. Hoover conferred at length with Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Italy and a student of Latin-American affairs, concerning the details of the itinerary of his trip on which he embarked Monday morning and which will continue through January.

While Corinto is his first stop Mr. Hoover may drive thence to Tegucigalpa, Honduras. He also has been invited to go to Guatemala, Costa Rica, and other Central American countries, but it may be impossible to visit them.

Both Mr. Hoover and Mrs. Hoover find great interest in watching the activity on shipboard. They move about on the quarter deck, a part of which has been reserved for them, for quite long stretches at a time, and the president-elect took a brick constitutional early this forenoon.

Mr. Hoover is keeping in close touch with the world by radio. Recollections of 600 words each will be received twice daily throughout the voyage in addition to the regular radio news supplied by the Associated Press. The latter is printed in the daily ship's paper, a one-page sheet entitled the "Evening Hurricane."

Regular radio programs also can be received merely by tuning in a set which has been installed in Mr. Hoover's quarters. The president-elect plans to listen to the Stanford-California football game Saturday.

Nightly movies also are furnished for the entertainment of the distinguished party and also for the ship's officers and men. More than sixty news reels were placed aboard the Maryland before sailing. Some were sent from Hollywood so that they might be released for the Hoover party on their release in the regular run theatres of the United States.

Thus far the weather has been delightful with scarcely any wind and only a gentle rolling sea. Mr. Hoover is a good sailor. He has crossed the Atlantic and Pacific on many an occasion, but at present is moving into waters unknown to him since this is his first visit to South America.

The Maryland has set a pace of fifteen knots, her usual cruising speed, which will be maintained unless it is necessary to speed up the schedule of visits between Corinto and Valparaiso. The Maryland will remain at the latter port a week after the Hoover party starts by train from Buenos Aires.

Before reaching Orizaba, Mr. Hoover plans to inspect the ship. As he moves about the craft he always has in the background one of four secret service men who are accompanying him on the voyage. They will remain with him at least until inauguration day.

Dr. Stresemann Is Given Vote Of Confidence

Berlin, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The Reichstag today rejected a motion of non-confidence in Dr. Gustav Stresemann, the foreign minister, by an overwhelming vote of 219 to 88.

The motion was introduced by the German Fascist and those who supported it were the Fascists, the Communists, the Christian farmers and the German Nationalists.

The Foreign Minister, who yesterday presented his views on the various international problems facing Germany before the Reichstag, came off victorious.

Wrong Kind of Seed Savannah, Ga., Nov. 20.—(AP)—For days and days gangs of men worked on greens at the City Golf Club, plowing, planting and rolling the ground so Savannah golfers would have fine putting greens.

Two days ago, things began to come up. Seven greens must be made over because officials at the golf club decided Savannah golfers could not put on the crop of mustard greens and carrots.

Earth Shocks Felt Again At Asheville, N. C.

Asheville, Nov. 20.—(AP)—For the second time within a month, the southern tip of the Allegheny Mountains was shaken by earth tremors shortly after ten o'clock, eastern time, last night.

The shock was distinctly felt at Asheville, N. C., Johnson City, Tenn., Hot Springs, N. C., and other towns within a radius of some 200 miles, although no damage was reported. As before, newspapers were deluged with telephone calls.

The mountain area in Tennessee, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, was slightly rocked about a month ago at about the same hour of the evening. No damage was reported at that time, although the tremor was felt as far south as Chattanooga and Atlanta. These cities felt no shock last night.

AL JOLSON IN FIST FIGHT IN LOS ANGELES

Floors Man Who Became Abusive at Adjoining Table in Hotel Dining Room.

Los Angeles, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Al Jolson was being hailed by his friends here today as a fighter as the result of his demonstration Saturday night that the hands that reach for "Mammy" also carry a decisive wallop.

Belated reports of the battle which took place among the century plants in the ball room of a hotel here vary widely, but all witnesses agree that there was a fight, and that as a result an unidentified heavyweight has a black eye.

As a preliminary, according to spectators, Jolson and a big ginger ale ice consumer at an adjoining table got their chairs tangled.

"Then he made a lot of remarks," said Jolson in his version. "They were just general remarks, you know, I didn't like the music and the words were terrible."

"I got up and told him that my wife was present, and that his speech was obnoxious. He made a pass at me and I just knocked him down."

"I don't know who he was, honest. He had on a Tuxedo and I guess it made him feel big. He was big too, about as high as Tom Ireny, I reckon, but not big enough."

Employees at the hotel stated that a hotel steward moved a table in to accommodate Jolson and his wife, Ruby Keller, and their guests, Joe Lewis, the comedian, Stanley Hartman, Chicago radio manufacturer, and two young women.

Jolson's opponent, they said, objected and began to make disparaging remarks, which developed into profanity and slurs on Jolson's racial origin.

Spectators said Joe Lewis also hit the man, then the head waiter with the assistance of others, put him out.

Jolson said he was as much surprised as his friends over his pugilistic prowess.

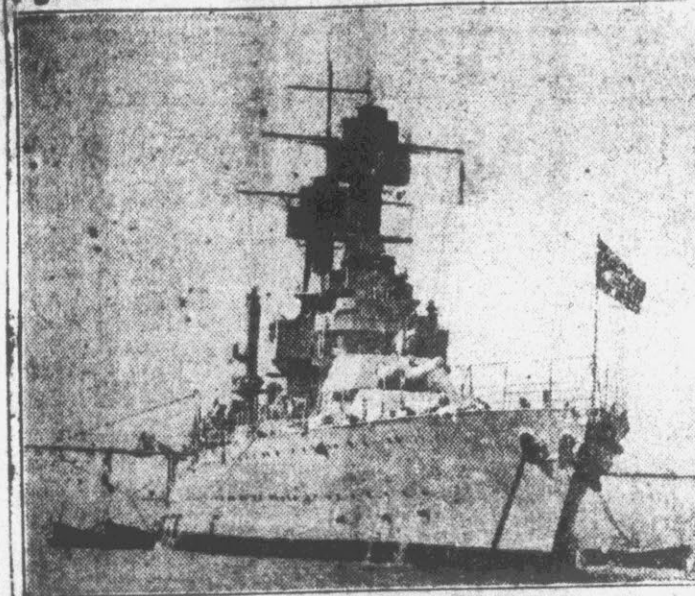

"Maybe I'll have to get a manager and change my racket," he confided.

The resignation has not yet been accepted by the president, but he expects to do so.

Seventeen Lives Claimed By Raging Flood Waters

(By The Associated Press) Quincy last night registered 17.5 feet, the highest mark ever recorded in the half century it has been in use.

Pineville, Ky., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Flood waters of the upper Cumberland River were sweeping into Tennessee early today after claiming the lives of three persons at Tejay, about 15 miles from here, forcing over 1,000 to flee for their lives and causing property damage estimated at over $300,000.

The swollen stream, resulting from excessive rains Saturday and Sunday, swept the countryside of Bell, Harlan and Knox counties, in southeast Kentucky, and when the crest had passed, late last night, the high waters had approached within a few inches of the record of 1913, the most devastating flood in recent years.

Lawrence Miles, Melvin Tatron and C. C. Saylor, all residents of Pineville, employed by a coal mining firm, lost their lives when a large tree trunk, floating in mid-stream, crashed into the flimsy bridge on which they were standing and swept the trio and debris many miles downstream.

Hundreds of Pineville residents were forced to abandon their homes and flee to high ground as the waters rushed into homes and damaged personal property.

Middleboro was cut off from communication for many hours yesterday and much property damage was reported. Damage to property was reported heavy at Varilla, about 10 miles above Pineville.

Fugitives were reported still quartered in the Harlan and Bell county courthouses, several hours after the crest had passed.

River communities in northern Tennessee, warned of approaching danger, made preparations for safety today as the flood began to sweep in from the stricken Kentucky area.

PRICES SHOW STRENGTH ON LEAF MARKET

Greenville, Sold 1,086,316 Pounds of Tobacco Yesterday; Averaged $25.19.

The price situation underwent a favorable change on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday, the general average of 1,086,316 pounds of golden leaf being estimated at $25.19. It was stated in the official report made public today by K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales. The total amount paid out to the farmers was $273,750.63.

With fifty-four sales days completed the market had disposed of 55,094,716 pounds of tobacco. This is slightly less than fifteen million pounds of the goal set for the season. With slightly over a week to go before Thanksgiving, it was believed that the sixty million pound mark would be reached by that date. The market handled something over sixty million pounds last season.

It was stated that there was a million pounds of bright leaf on the floors of the nine warehouses today. While much common grade tobacco was in evidence, prices were as strong as yesterday with indications that the average would be as good if not better than the previous day.

There was no accurate estimate immediately available of the number of wounded, but it was thought to be high.

The factory specialized in ammunition for small arms. Rifle cartridges were scattered over a large radius by the violence of the explosion.

ADAIR CASE GIVEN HEARING AT ATLANTA

Tangled Affairs Of Bankrupt Realty & Trust Company Go Into Court.

Atlanta, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Tangled affairs of the bankrupt Adair Realty and Trust Company of Atlanta, which have resulted in numerous civil suits and several criminal indictments, were docketed for an airing today before Harry Dodd, referee in bankruptcy for the United States District Court, northern district of Georgia.

A hearing on exceptions to claims aggregating $6,000,000 against the Adair concern was ordered for today by Judge Dodd. Upon the final decision of the issues raised in the hearing today, the referee said, would depend the status of a great majority of claims against the bankrupt real estate, mortgage and bonding concern.

"The exceptions referred to," the referee said, "are equally applicable to 75 per cent of all claims proved in this matter."

A schedule of affairs of the concern which it filed with the referee showed $2,755,588 due creditors whose claims are unsecured.

The referee said $225,670 had been realized from property disposed of to meet the claims of which $81,582 had been disbursed, leaving a balance on hand of $144,087. Some property, he said, is yet to be disposed of.

Outstanding bond issues listed by the bankrupt totaled $27,170,500. These issues, the referee said, are worth whatever amount the property was worth on which they were issued. They included:

- American National Company, Sarasota, Fla., $350,000; Arnold Apartment Corporation, Knoxville, $280,000; Biscayne Bay Hotel Company, Miami, $860,000; Braden Apartments, Tarenton, Fla., $550,000; Carlton, Inc., Atlanta, $500,000; Central State Hotel Company, Lakeland, Fla., $480,000; property owned by A. J. Comeau, West Palm Beach, Fla., $650,000; Court Properties, Inc., West Palm Beach, $275,000; Crescent Apartment Corporation, Tampa, $400,000; Dickson-Ives Company dry goods, Orlando, Fla., $225,000; Durham-Citizens Hotel Corporation, Durham, N. C., $950,000; Henry J. Dynes, New Pennsylvania Hotel, West Palm Beach, $625,000; Florida Guaranty Company, West Palm Beach, $180,000; all redeemed but $1,000; Florida Realty and Security Corporation (S. A. Lynch estate), Atlanta, $1,350,000; Forest Hills Corporation, Augusta, Ga., King Cotton Hotel Company, Greensboro, N. C., $650,000.

WRECK CLAIMS SECOND VICTIM

Hugh Woodall Dies of Injuries Received With M. L. Briley At Turkey.

A telegram received in this city today conveyed intelligence of the death of Hugh Woodall, young man of this city, injured in the automobile-motorcycle wreck near Turkey Sunday morning in which M. L. Briley, also of Greenville, received injuries from which he died four hours later.

Woodall, an employee of the McGowan Battery Company of this city, was on his way to his home in Fayetteville with Briley, when the motorcycle on which they were riding, crashed into an automobile a few miles from Clinton. Briley died in a Fayetteville hospital four hours later. It was not thought Woodall's injuries were of a serious nature at first, but after complete examination it was understood that hospital attaches at Fayetteville entertained little hope for his recovery.

The collision occurred at a cross roads at Turkey, a small place a few miles from Clinton. An automobile ahead of the motorcycle made a left turn at the crossing, forcing Briley to crash into it. Both of the young men were rushed to Clinton by a passing bus and later sent to the Fayetteville hospital where Briley died a few hours later.

Briley's body was brought to Greenville by hearse. Funeral services were conducted from Williams Funeral Parlor yesterday afternoon, interment following at Parkers Chapel, on the Pactorus road, about six miles from Greenville.

Captain Keane Denies He Was Drunk When He Inspected The Vestris

New York, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Captain Edward Keane, department of commerce inspector of Hulls, shouted a denial today that he had been intoxicated when he passed as sea-worthy the steamer Vestris which sank a week ago yesterday with a loss of more than 100 lives.

Captain Keane was the first witness today at the investigation of the Vestris foundering being conducted by the United States steamboat inspection service at the customs house.

The presiding officer read a letter dated November 14 and signed "Samuel Lawson." The letter was received by the steamship inspection service in an envelope on the flap of which was printed "United States Lines."

The letter contained charges that the inspection of the Vestris by Captain Keane and an inspector of boilers, consisted of the inspector enjoying a hearty breakfast on the ship and "swilling whiskey and beer in the ship's bar."

"The inspectors left in the afternoon," the letter read, "with a certain weakness in their legs and each with a package under his arm."

The letter concluded with the remarks that this was "the kind of murderers" that comprise the personnel of the steamboat inspection service.

Captain Keane was asked how much, if any, of this letter was true. "The whole thing is the most outrageous lie I ever heard," he said. "I am the fourth generation of my family which has never touched a drop of any stimulant."

Captain Keane was then asked in detail about each specific charge in the letter. He said that neither he nor the other inspector had breakfast on the Vestris, that neither of them had anything, or were offered anything to drink on board and that they did not carry away with them any packages.

Captain Keane said his inspection covered four days, during which he thoroughly examined lifeboats and their equipment and the life preservers. He declared the 12 lifeboats he had inspected and which were ample to take care of passengers and crew, were in first-class condition.

The inspector's testimony was given before Dickinson N. Hoover, supervising inspector general, and Thomas J. Padarell, assistant United States attorney, representing Federal Attorney Charles H. Tuttle, was delegated to examine the witnesses for the government.

Of the 691 life preservers aboard, which he said he examined, Captain Keane said he had found 68 new ones defective.

Captain Keane said food, water, lanterns and flares in the lifeboats conformed to regulations. Some witnesses at the inquiry before United States Commissioner O'Neil testified that flares were defective and that there was no oil in lanterns.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The perjury trial of Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil of Indiana, moved into its final phases today with counsel for the government and the defense summing up their case before the jury in District of Columbia Supreme Court. Each side has two hours, and it was problematical whether the case would get to the jury today.

Opening the argument for the government, District Attorney Leo A. Rorer declared that Stewart, who is charged with having perjured himself before a Senate Teapot Dome committee in testimony concerning the Continental Trading Company of Canada, had made up his mind that the committee would obtain no information from him with respect to the "Bertha Bond profits of that company."

Stewart is charged on three counts with giving false information to the committee which was seeking to determine the disposition of the Continental bonds, a portion of which had been traced from Harry P. Sinclair, oil magnate, to Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior.

Rorer declared that it was for the jury to determine whether Stewart testified as is alleged when he was before the committee; whether the answers he gave to the committee's questions were deliberately false; and whether the committee meeting was lawful.

He asserted that the official minutes of the committee showed a quorum of eight to have been present and he maintained that the official printed record, corrected by the committee reporters, furnished the best record of what Stewart told the committee and added that Stewart's later testimony shows he had made up his mind to evade, refuse to answer and to make false answers.

British Indignant Over Investigation Of Vestris Tragedy

London, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The conduct of the inquiry being held in New York into the sinking of the Vestris drew indignant comment from two of this morning's papers.

The Daily News characterized the procedure as "bullying, biased, ignorant and inconceivably stupid, suggesting a prearranged resolve to vilify British steamship at all costs and despite all proof to the contrary." The paper added that the methods had aroused deep indignation in Great Britain.

SEEK HATCHET MURDERER AT OMAHA TODAY

Slaying Of Three People Starts Most Intensive Man Hunt In Years.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 20.—(AP)—A maniac "hatchet man" who in brutal fury pounces upon his victims as they sleep and smashes in their heads with his instrument of death was sought by Omaha police today for the killing of two women and an aged man and the wounding of another man and his wife within a 48 hour period.

While the madman apparently slays grown persons without mercy, he does not harm babies. Three children of two of the families he attacked were left unharmed in their cribs.

The latest victims of the killer, described by the police as "a fiend, a crazy man" were Harold Stribling, 33, former high school football star, and his wife who were attacked early today as they slept.

He entered the Stribling home at 3 o'clock, sat in Stribling's bed after a struggle, then calmly turned on the lights, washed his hands and asked Mrs. Stribling to see the baby. He stood over his crib for several minutes; then forced Mrs. Stribling to go with him to the East Omaha swamps where she finally escaped after three hours. Stribling, doctors said, probably will die and his wife is in a hospital, cruelly beaten, and may lose the sight of one eye.

The attack on the Striblings came while hundreds of police were searching the city for the assassin for the slaying of two women and an aged man 24 hours earlier.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 20.—(AP)—"Hatchet man," blamed for three slayings within a 24-hour period, had started police today on one of the most intensive killer hunts in years.

Two women and an aged man were the victims, all bearing the marks of the handax. Similarity of the crimes, the uniform brutality manifested, convinced officers that the man they sought was mad; "a fiend, a crazy man," was the way Police Inspector Danbaum classified him.

The victims were Mrs. Walter Resso, a 21-year-old mother of three children; her sister, Grete Brown, 18, and J. W. Blackman, 75-year-old expressman.

Blackman was slain as he slept early Sunday morning. His son, Cecil, found the body, hammered and chopped about the head, covered with a comforter. A hatchet, stained with blood, and a shoe were found in a woodpile behind the Blackman home.

The blunt side of the hatchet apparently was used in the Blackman killing. In the case of the two young women, however, the killer employed the sharpened edge.

When Walter Resso, husband of the slain mother, returned from his milk route yesterday afternoon, he found the bodies.

The form of his wife lay in a bed downstairs, covered by a comforter. The marks of the weapon that had caused her death were plainly discernible about the neck and head.

In a crib beside the bed lay the Resso's nine-month-old baby and three year old son, asleep and unharmed.

Upstairs Resso found his sister-in-law's body covered with a comforter and bearing the same hatchet marks.

The clothing had been stripped from both women, but there apparently had been no attempted criminal attack.

The Blackman and Resso homes are in widely separated parts of the city; but police attached significance to the fact that a stub line railroad runs within a few blocks of both homes, and that trains operating over the line during the night, may have provided transportation for the slayer.

Trade Conference Held At Atlanta

Atlanta, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The second southeastern foreign trade conference will hear about foreign trade expansion by air. Meeting here today, delegates looked forward to a speech tonight by William P. McCracken, Jr., assistant secretary of commerce for aeronautics.

Many other discussions will occupy the attention of delegates during the two-day sessions which began this morning with a welcoming program. Gov. L. G. Hardman and Mayor I. N. Bagdikian will address the men who come here to talk about marketing of southern farm products abroad, and other products and commodities.

PERJURY CASE NEARING FINAL STAGE TODAY

Counsel For Government Sum Up Stewart Case At Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Two score persons were injured, several seriously, when a Homestead street car ran down a long grade, jumped the tracks and crashed into the side of another car today.

Most of those injured were women and girls, en route to work.

The second car, cut almost in two, was hurled against a pole.

Mr. Mary Atkinson, a passenger, said that when the car reached the derailing device, the motorman attempted to stop it with the air and hand brakes. He failed, she said, and the car gained speed. The motorman, she added, shouted to the derail switchman to get out of the way.

Swedish Author Has Faith In Future Woman

Stockholm, Nov. 20—(AP)—Selma Lagerloef, Swedish author and Nobel prize winner, reached the age of 70 today hopeful that the woman of today would become the glorious woman that "we old people wish".

Miss Lagerloef, whose work, Gösta Berlings Saga, was translated into English 30 years ago, was asked what she thought of the modern type of woman. Her first answer was a question:

"Instead of telling you my opinion regarding the modern type of woman, I should like to ask this: Does there really exist any modern woman type?"

Then she continued:

"The type of woman of the past was developed during centuries of constraint and strict supervision. She could when at her best with regard to goodness, forsaking tenderness, and with regard to graceful appearance be said to have reached almost perfection.

"The type of today, that one which is now being developed under a far greater liberty, is a queen who is herself responsible for her behavior and her doings. She may be yet only a creation in being. To be just, one ought to let her grow in peace, neither criticizing nor blaming her.

"We old people only wish for her that she may become all the glorious woman that we hoped she would when we provided her with her freedom."

Kills Wife And Commits Suicide

Fort Myers, Fla., Nov. 20—(AP)—A 50-year-old bride and mother of 10 children, and Frank Box, her laborer-husband of 32, were dead today and the verdict was murder and suicide.

Although a note in the husband's handwriting described the woman as "the sweetest woman on earth," the coroner's jury decided that he had beaten her during a quarrel at a fish pond and, unable to revive her after taking her home, had shot himself to death.

The children ranging from 10 to 30 years in age, were by three other marriages.

War Opened On Chinese Queues

Shanghai, Nov. 20—(AP)—War has opened on the Chinese of Hailang Island who persist in wearing queues.

Before the revolution which began in 1911, a Chinese without a queue was a rare sight. With the coming of Republican China a queue came to be looked upon as a symbol of the Empire and the long braids of hair were banned. Queues by the millions were cropped off, not a few heads met the same fate when the owner objected too strenuously to losing his queue.

But Hailang Island, a spot of land off the central China coast, escaped the wrath of the government barbers and for seventeen years has afforded a haven where wearers of queues could live in comparative safety. But the nationalists, although upsetting policies of predecessors right and left have the same opinion towards queues. As a result soldiers have been commissioned as barbers and the men of Hailang have been named their prey.

The Haves of queues is under way on Hailang and is scheduled to continue until there are no more queues to cut. Thousands more await the same fate.

FORMER DESERT MINER BECOMES MILLIONAIRE

San Francisco, Nov. 20—(AP)—A quest for wealth which started in boyhood began to bear fruit today for George Campbell Carson, who grubbed the desert nearly thirty years in a vain search for gold and then in the evening of life invented a reverberatory copper smelting furnace which at last promises to make him a millionaire.

The first returns to Carson for his invention were announced here yesterday when his attorneys said that the United Verde Copper Company had made a settlement in the suit which he brought charging infringement of patent. The amount of the settlement was not made known, but it was announced that the company had taken out a license for future use of the Carson furnace.

Almost simultaneously came word from Tucson, Ariz., that judgment had been entered in his favor in a suit against the Phelps Dodge Corporation and the Acumet and Arizona Mining Company. The court did not fix the amount of damages in the latter case, which also involved the use of the reverberatory furnace but an accounting was ordered.

Although the amount of money accruing to the old prospector and his associates cannot be computed in exact figures, it is said that the total will be between $7,000,000 and $20,000,000.

After years of prospecting on the California and Nevada deserts and failed to enrich him, Carson turned to the study of chemistry and engineering. The furnace was the result. The copper companies contended that it was based on an old principle and that Carson was not entitled to royalties.

Penniless, Carson was forced to form the Carson Investment Company in order to press his claims against the copper producers and stock was sold to finance the litigation. Carson was obliged to surrender a large portion of his claims through sale of the stock. Continued litigation was said to have left him with a minor share in the stock company, but still enough to make him wealthy if he realizes fully on the claims.

Chicago, Nov. 20—(AP)—Death in the electric chair, Illinois' new and untried mode of execution, was fixed by a circuit court jury last night as David Shanks' punishment for the murder of Miss Jennie Meta Constance.

The trial ended quickly as the negro bootblack had admitted slugging Miss Constance, an English teacher at Bradley Polytechnic Institute, Peoria, Ill., on the night of August 14. Attorneys suddenly waived closing arguments and the jury's verdict followed in 49 minutes.

QUARTET AT COLLEGE FRIDAY EVENING

The name Eddy Brown may be misleading, for Eddy Brown, the violinist, who is leader of the Eddy Brown String Quartet, is a musician, every inch of him, as much as if he had an unpronounceable name from one of his Russian or Austrian ancestors. Chamber music of the highest type is what the quartet will give on next Friday evening in their concert at East Carolina Teachers College. The music lovers of the vicinity will have the rare opportunity of hearing ensemble music that will delight their souls as well as their ears. Those who think they do not care for high-brow music as a rule will find that when it is played by real artists they do like it.

The concert will be the last in the series of entertainments offered by the college this fall, which means that it is the last for which the season ticket is good.

Get a turkey dinner, chicken salad lunch and supper Thursday with ladies of Memorial Baptist Church.

BUSY WEEK AT THE GREENVILLE LIBRARY

The week of November 12-17 was a busy one at the Greenville public library. During this time 880 books were loaned, 32 new members were registered and 97 people assisted in reference work done in the library rooms. These are the largest numbers the library has reported for one week. This interest was due in part, to the space which the Reflector gave to articles about the library and its growth and to the splendid publicity work done by Mrs. James Ficklen and Mrs. Louis Cooper in connection with Children's Book Week. Mrs. Ficklen and Mrs. Cooper were requested to do this by the library trustees.

Some of the books which have been placed in the library during November are:

Chapman—Happy Mountain; Glaspell—Brook Evans; Benefield—A Little Clown Lost; Bromfield—Strange Case of Miss Annie Spraggs; Gibbs—Harness; Monroe—Singing in the Rain; Fairlie—The Man Who Laughed; Millay—Buck in the Snow; Juniors—Parlor—Come Christmas; Skinner—Christmas Stories; Bemis—Thanksgiving Day in Story; Adelberg—Clean Yeter; Fox—Doings of Little Bear; Milne—House at Pooh Corner; Garnelle—Raggedy Ann's Magical Wishes; Howard—Amelia Anne and the Green Umbrella; Abbott—Harriet's Choice; Skinner—Ranch of the Golden Flower.

Mrs. W. C. Vincent, Librarian.

Turkey dinner, 75c; chicken salad lunch, 50c; served in basement of Memorial Baptist Church, Thursday.

Doll House Draws Much Interest At Bount-Harvey Co.

A miniature house in the show windows of Bount-Harvey & Company attracted the attention of hundreds of persons passing along Evans street today. The house, containing tiny furniture invitingly arranged, was loaned to the local store this week by the Edmond Blanket Mills.

In its eight little rooms all built on the scale of 1 in. to the foot, are perfect replicas of American 18th Century furniture from the Governor Winthrop Desk and the Higby to the sleigh beds and the benjo clock. Of course, it has electric lights and a shining porcelain bath room, but it also has painted top mirrors and an authentic 18th Century Lowboy whose tiny drawers pull out, as indeed do those of the desk and dressing tables. One of the most beautiful pieces is a graceful piece in a graceful tip top table which is an exact miniature replica of one on which George Washington had tea in Newport, R. I., and which he autographed on the under side.

This information was all gathered from Miss Margaret George, Interior Decorator for Edmond Blankets under whose direction the house was built, the furniture made and the tiny draperies and harmonizing blankets arranged. Miss George points with particular pride to the color harmonies suited to each member of the family. There's the Master bed room in soft rich rose and blue with rose and blue reversible blankets on the mahogany twin beds and the newest innovation in blanketry—rayon and lams' wool throw blankets across the foot. Then there's the room of the daughter of the household—done in green and gold from the tiny green bordered curtains and wee candle sticks on the dressing table to the green and gold reversible double woven blankets on the dainty little bed, with the green and gold homespun throw blankets across the foot. Of course, points out Miss George, in the upper hall there is a tiny chest of fluffly brush wool blankets to use instead of comforters on really cold nights.

Fluffly blankets of the light fluffy-tick-in-able kind and long enough and wide enough for relaxation to sleep right along with harmonies of line and color in the accomplishment of family harmony.

The master's bedroom has his domain; next his mother's furnished in blue and white with fluffly blue and pink blankets on the wee crib.

Perhaps the most interesting room in the house from several viewpoints is a den and bedroom on the first floor devoted solely to the man of the house. Here we have rich brown and orange shades with a touch of blue, and here with the typewriter, easy chairs, ash tray and capacious desk is a little bed made up with a manly down camel's hair blanket and covered over with a couch with an equally masculine homespun blanket in brown and tan.

Everything in each room must be harmonious, says Miss George, and most important of all, each piece must harmonize with the owner's taste and personality. The blankets, of course, are no exception to this rule for blankets are such intimate things.

The tiny kitchen and built-in breakfast room are all green and white paint, neat patterned linoleum and frilly little curtains. The living room, done in soft blue, yellow and orange, boasts a cozy fire place with brass fire irons, a Sheraton Sofa, great comfortable wing chairs and a player baby grand piano which, when set in motion, regales its listeners with the appropriate ballad "Home Sweet Home."

Parent-Teachers' Council To Meet Here November 21

Falkland, Nov. 19.—The mental and physical health of children will be the chief theme for thought and discussion when representatives from the various Parent-Teacher organizations in Pitt county come together in Greenville on Wednesday, November 21st, for the second meeting of the Pitt County Parent-Teacher Council. The meeting, which will be held in the social building at the college, will convene at 10:00 in the morning and will be divided into morning and afternoon sessions. Dr. Walker, nationally known specialist who is now engaged in carrying on the health survey in Pitt county, is to be the principal speaker on health problems, a topic on which he is well qualified to throw definite and helpful light. A large number of delegates from local Parent-Teacher associations have been invited to be present, and in addition to the regular program these representatives will give short reports of the work being done along various lines in their home organizations.

At a recent meeting the executive council of the Pitt County Parent-Teacher Association the following general objectives were set up as goals to be offered to the local units—some of these objectives being unfinished from last year's work, some of them being added new:

1. A continuation of the health program, with special work to install rest room equipment in the schools.

2. A continuation of the work begun for standard library equipment.

3. A continuation of the beautification of school grounds program.

4. Purchase of necessary equipment for art appreciation courses in the schools.

5. The adoption of parent-teacher study course for parents.

6. The introduction of agricultural and economic education in the schools.

PERSONNEL OF THE DUKE MUSICAL CLUBS

A special price has been made to the schools of both Greenville and Pitt county for the concert by the Duke Musical Clubs, at East Carolina Teachers College, this evening at 8:30. There will be no advance sale of tickets. A special table will be placed conveniently so that the pupils and teachers from the schools can easily find where to pay their admission fee. Some one will be at the door to act as guide.

Holders of season tickets will present their tickets for admission, as they always do when there is no special arrangements made for advance exchange. This is the third and next to the last attraction in the fall series of entertainments. The last one will be on Friday night of this week, the Eddy Brown String Quartet.

The fifty odd men in the Duke Musical clubs arrived today in a special bus. After the concert the senior class of the college will give them a special reception.

Real Estate Men Meet At Salem

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov. 20.—(AP)—The seventh annual convention of the North Carolina Real Estate Boards convened at 10:30 this morning in the ball room of the Robert E. Lee hotel. The attendance is the largest in the history of the state association and before night the registration is expected to number more than 250 out-of-town realtors.

President B. Frank Gudger, of Asheville, presided. Following the usual opening exercises, reports were submitted by several officers. In his annual report President Gudger stated that the two outstanding features of the year were the addition of two new boards to the state association, these being Rocky Mount and Statesville, and the effort put forth to have the University of North Carolina add a course in real estate salesmanship to its curriculum. He reported that this course is expected to be added at the next session.

Secretary-Treasurer C. C. Knight reported the association's finances in good shape; that there were now about 250 real estate firms embraced in the state association and that these have an associate membership of 500 or more.

After the appointment of committees, I. M. Bailey, counsel for the North Carolina Corporation Commission, delivered an address. His subject was "taxation."

Cold Snap Bears Down On South

Atlanta, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The first cold snap of winter bore freezing temperatures toward the south today on the heels of a week of sultry summer weather.

Drops in temperature of 20 degrees and more within four and five hour periods were common throughout Dixie yesterday, as rain and northwest winds continued to spread the icy wave eastward toward the Atlantic.

Only Florida escaped, together with a fringe along the Gulf Coast, as temperatures as far south as Mobile began to fall. Louisville, Ky., and northern Arkansas awaited freezing weather today as the cold spell passed eastward.

Birmingham reported a drop of 56 to 47 degrees last night with a minimum of three degrees above the freezing point (32) expected today. At Mobile the highest temperature yesterday was 85, the lowest 53, with 40 degrees likely today. The mercury already stood at 40 degrees last night at Nashville, Tenn., while Memphis reported 42.

Columbia, S. C., where Monday a record high in the eighties had been reported, had 76 maximum yesterday, 58 last night, a drop of 18 degrees between four and eight p. m.

Labor Federation Plans To Abolish Secretary Office

New Orleans, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor in annual convention here today considered a proposal to abolish the office of treasurer by combining the post with the secretaryship while Paul V. McNutt, national commander of the American Legion, was here to speak on labor and the Legion.

Commander McNutt emphasized the want of universal draft legislation as "the one hole in our scheme of national defense." As a general explanation of the proposed universal draft law the Legion is sponsoring. He said the law, if enacted, would place the country the instant war is declared in much the same position we were in at the end of the last war as far as government machinery is concerned.

"The universal draft enunciates in brief form the principles that profiteering would be impossible and that everyone would be subject to service in accordance with his ability and needs of government.

"Universal draft would plug the loopholes of the draft dodgers". In connection with the proposal to combine the two federal offices into one, Daniel J. Tobin of Indianapolis, who recently resigned as treasurer because he said he considered the office unnecessary, announced that the plan had been brought forward in his annual report.

ter. No one can do a finer thing at this blessed Thanksgiving season than to show his or her love and appreciation for them and for the thousands of helpless children whom they are nourishing and bringing up under religious influences, by remembering them at Thanksgiving in a generous way.

The President of the United States and the Governor of North Carolina issue their Thanksgiving proclamations calling upon our people of every faith and denomination, and in every walk of life, to "give thanks" to the Almighty Author of our being, the Preserver of our lives, liberties, and all the blessings we enjoy through the gracious mercies of the Protector of our Country—the Great Architect of the Universe. But the measure of one's thankfulness is found in what he is willing to do, and WILL do, for those who are less fortunate.

Those who are truly thankful for this Christian land of ours, for the creature comforts that God has given them during the year, for the prosperity that their Community, their State and their Nation enjoy, will show it by trying to pass on to those worthy of their benefactions some of the blessings that they themselves are enjoying. To those who are looking for some such an outlet as this for the joyful spirit of Thanksgiving we commend to their consideration the appeal of the North Carolina Orphan Association which is, once again, asking every citizen of the "Old North State" to contribute the income of one day out of 365 to the orphanage of his or her choice on or before Thursday, November 29, the day set apart for the celebration of divine goodness. Make the offering on the basis of your earning capacity for a single day—more if you will; less if you can do no better. Make it through your church, or lodge, or individually to the orphanage in which you are most interested.

And, remember, you are asked to do this in the name of Him who said, "And whoso shall receive one such little child in My name receiveth Me." It is for His little ones bereft of parents that this appeal is made. To the liberal giver it will bring happiness and contentment; and the liberal contributor is the one who gives in the right spirit, be it much or little. "For God loveth a cheerful giver."

It is the hope of the Committee and the North Carolina Orphan Association that represents that many thousands of people will enter into the spirit of this message, which seeks to help gladden the lives of hundreds of orphaned children now under the fostering care of the fine orphan homes located in the various sections of this progressive commonwealth. From year to year responses to similar appeals have been most gratifying, not only because of the liberal gifts to the various orphan homes, but because there has been revealed tender and practical sympathy which many of our people feel towards the thousands of our fatherless children.

One day's income to the orphanage of your choice would help mightily in directing little footsteps into the ways of pleasantness and peace. So little for YOU, but in the aggregate a princely sum. Citizens of North Carolina, do your duty and realize the full delights of service to humanity.

ABOUT TOWN

The new list of credit customers will be compiled by the Merchants' Association within the next few days," said the secretary of the organization today.

"In the meantime it is hoped those who failed to settle up their obligations during Pay-up Week will get busy and do so. Persons who liquidate debts before compilation of the new list will be given a clean rating.

"It is important that you look after this matter as your credit rating is vitally affected. Rating of A-1 will give you favorable standing with all firms of the association and you should find little trouble obtaining credit among the leading concerns of the city."

"More care should be used in the driving of motor vehicles," observed a Greenville man today, scanning the columns of yesterday's Reflector in which three or four wrecks proved fatal.

"It is not only necessary to watch ourselves, but also the other fellow. More accidents occur from the carelessness of the other fellow than our own and it is highly important to keep our eyes open at all times.

"Many lives may be saved through careful observance of certain traffic laws, and a desire on the part of the public to protect human life even at the cost of time. Don't be in such a hurry. It is much better to get where we started alive than dead."

"Banks of the county are to be commended for participation in the County Pig Club contest," observed a member of the Board of Agriculture today.

"Encouraging the raising of hogs by young people of the county, especially the boys on the farm, can be accomplished in no better way than the offering of prizes such as those mentioned by the banks.

"The rivalry created by the banks should have a salutary effect on the hog raising industry and result in the production of more hogs and bigger hogs than ever before."

"Don't forget the mass meeting of the Salvation Army to be held at the courthouse November 22nd," urged a member of the organization today.

"F. C. Harding, one of the best known lawyers in this section, will discuss the work of the organization and attempt to show what is being done by the body of faithful workers in Greenville.

"The record of the Salvation Army is one of the continued service to that mass of humanity which no other American agency is capable of reaching. Its service in Greenville has been of a most commendable nature and it is hoped the public will support these activities in every way possible."

"Today's news today is a slogan the Reflector is constantly living up to," declared a reader of this paper today, discussing some of the important news breaks of recent months.

"The Associated Press Leased Wire Service keeps Greenville fully informed concerning events in other parts of the world. A few seconds after anything happens it is on the A. P. wires and virtually every member in the country receives a complete report. These reports are compiled all through the day. They faithfully portray the various events in a way that is intensely interesting.

"Pitt county people who read the Reflector daily should always be able to keep themselves fully informed on all developments."

"That cold wave is going to bite mightily hard after all of the Indian summer weather we have been enjoying the last few days," declared a local citizen today, carefully scanning the pages of the Reflector to see what the weather man had to predict for the remainder of the week.

"Although the warm weather was mighty unseasonable for this time of the year, it cheered the hearts of hundreds of people who prefer summer time to winter. However, it is time for the reign of King Winter and we might as well get ready for his arrival and make the best of him until spring time rolls around again."

"Numbers of stores will remain open at night from now until Christmas," said a member of the Merchants' Association today.

"This is done in order to give the thousands of shoppers of this trade territory an opportunity of selecting their Christmas presents before the rush season begins. Everybody should take advantage of the opportunity to visit the stores now while they have the privilege of getting the best of the stocks.

"With Christmas hardly more than a month off the thrifty shopper will find it to his advantage to buy early and in that way have all of this out of the way when the holiday actually comes. It should give everybody more time to enjoy the Yule-tide season."

DEMPSEY REFEREES SALT LAKE CITY FIGHT
 Salt Lake City, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Re-entering the ring where he fought in preliminaries years ago, Jack Dempsey refereed the main event of a fight card here last night. He called the engagement between Adrian Elton of Salt Lake City and Dave Popp of Denver, a draw.

The Manassa Mauler, who stopped off here to visit his parents before returning with his wife to the coast, was given a tremendous ovation. He told newspapermen that while he was keeping in good shape, he would not fight again.

"I want to get out while I'm whole," he said.

CALM REIGNS ON SOUTHERN GRIDS TODAY

By MORGAN M. BEATTY

Atlanta, Nov. 20—(AP)—The calm before the storm pervades Southern Conference gridirons this week, and apparently it will last until next week except in isolated instances.

Nowhere on the striped fields was there anything more than routine activity, and even that was dispensed with except in the case of the five conference teams that will see action Saturday.

Even North Carolina State, who had only 3 days to practice in preparation for a long trip to East Lansing, Mich., to meet the Michigan Aggies, was knocked out of a practice session yesterday by rain. That inter-sectional contest and the Washington and Lee-Maryland game at Washington are the only high spots of a dull day this Saturday. Even in the Washington and Lee-Maryland tussle can have no bearing on the standings, at least not on the top flight, which is monopolized until Thanksgiving day by Georgia Tech, Florida, Tennessee, V. P. I. and Louisiana State.

The five teams on top have gone unbeaten in the conference, and the top three have won five victories. V. P. I. has taken four decisions, and Louisiana State two.

Although several North Carolina State regulars are on the injured list this week, all except Silver are expected to get into the inter-sectional clash in Michigan Saturday. Neither Washington and Lee nor Maryland is badly crippled for their game and both are so far down in conference standings that little difference can appear in there. Maryland is distinctly the favorite, if for no other reason than she beat Yale. Other games in which conference teams meet unaffiliated foes, are the Vanderbilt-Centre clash at Nashville and the Tulane-Louisiana College encounter at New Orleans. The conference teams both are rated to come out far on top.

But this week ends the period of rest for football warriors that have gone through a bitterly fought campaign. Ten conference games are on schedule Thanksgiving day, most of them of traditional significance. Unless some of the leaders suffer an upset, all should survive until December 8th when Florida meets Tennessee, and Georgia meets Georgia Tech. These climactic struggles stand an excellent chance of scrambling the conference situation effectively.

CASEY MAY BECOME HARVARD HEAD COACH

Boston, Nov. 20—(AP)—The Boston Post says today that it has become a generally accepted fact at Harvard that Arnold Horween, of Chicago, head coach of football, will direct the team for the first time at Yale next Saturday. Although no official action has been taken, the Post says it is expected that Eddie Casey, all-American half back in 1919, and for the last three years head coach of the team, will succeed his chief. Freshmen under Casey have met only one reverse since he took charge in 1926 and his victories have included three straight wins over Yale.

STRIBLING-MITCHELL BANNED IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 20—(AP)—An official ban was put on Young Stribling's match with Andy Mancini, California heavyweight, by the New York State A. C. today. The bout, scheduled for this Friday night at Madison Square Garden, was reached on the ground that Mitchell was not a suitable opponent.

Quality Rather Than Quantity Is Grid Demand

By HERBERT W. BAKER
New York, Nov. 20—(AP)—Quality rather than quantity is the keynote of the Eastern College football schedule this week. Less than half the usual number of games are on the list, but there are such attractions as the Yale-Harvard, Carnegie Tech-New York University, Princeton-Navy, Nebraska-Army and Georgetown-Fordham.

Most of the other major college eleven are saving their final battle for Thanksgiving day. Then will be held the annual frays between Pennsylvania and Cornell; Syracuse and Columbia; Colgate and Brown; Pittsburgh and Penn State, and Washington and Jefferson and West Virginia.

Not even so important a game as that between Carnegie and New York University can take much interest away from the Yale-Harvard duel at New Haven. Both teams have been "tossed" about a bit recently, but the significance of a claim to any championship honors, yet 75,000 will throng the Yale bowl Saturday.

Whatever grip the Yale-Harvard battle has on the public in general, many an eager eye will be cast in the general direction of Pittsburgh, when Chick Meehan's Violets of New York see whether they can do what no one else has done—stop the rush of Carnegie's husky Tartans.

At Philadelphia, another of the few unbeaten eastern teams, Princeton, tackles Navy which has a victory over Pennsylvania and a tie with Michigan to show for its battles with major opponents. Although the Tigers undoubtedly reached their peak for the Yale game, they will be favorites and heavy ones, to finish the season unbeaten although tied twice.

BOOTH'S CONDITION REPORTED UNCHANGED

London, Nov. 20—(AP)—The condition of General William Bramwell Booth, commander of the Salvation Army, was unchanged this morning. He passed a fair night.

On Southern Gridirons

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 20—(AP)—North Carolina State's Wolfpack had only three possible days to practice at home this week before going to East Lansing, Michigan, to play the Michigan Aggies Saturday, and bad weather yesterday ruined one day. Today and tomorrow the pack has hopes of getting in good workouts with injured men returning to the fold and Friday afternoon a light practice will be held on the field at Lansing, the team being due to reach there Friday noon.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 20—(AP)—North Carolina rested yesterday after trouncing Davidson Saturday, but today Chuck Collins will start his men on an intensive grind to prepare them for their Thanksgiving game with Virginia. The Heels suffered only minor bruises in the Davidson game after having had a number of injuries in recent games and it is believed that every regular will be able to present his full strength against the Cavaliers.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 20—(AP)—The Blue Devils of Duke University started another week's practice with a heavy workout yesterday despite the fact that they do not play until Thanksgiving Day and the coaches sent both the varsity and Reserves through heavy drills.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 20—(AP)—Louisiana State University, one of the undefeated conference members to date this season, has been added to the Duke University football schedule for 1929. It was announced yesterday by the athletic officials of the institution.

The announcement comes close on the heels of the win by Duke over N. C. State, which was the first victory a Blue Devil team has returned over a Southern Conference foe since the organization of that body.

The Tigers will be played in the stadium now being built at Duke November 9, 1929. The new structure, which it is believed will be completed before the season opens next fall, will seat 35,000 persons.

Lexington, Va., Nov. 20—(AP)—No scrimmage practices are scheduled this week for the Washington and Lee football team in preparation for their game with Maryland Saturday at Washington. Coach Pat Herron gave his tired men a rest yesterday following their valiant stand last Saturday against Virginia Tech when they forced the Tech men, undefeated in seven southern battles, to the limit before the winning touchdowns was made by the Gobblers.

Blacksburg, Va., Nov. 20—(AP)—Virginia Tech's football squad is resting today under orders from Coach Andy Gustafson to forget football for the day. Tomorrow, however, the Gobblers will swing into a week of intensive preparation for the final game of the season on Thanksgiving day—the annual classic with V. M. I., Dying Squadron at Roanoke, Va.

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 20—(AP)—Virginia is making preparations for the Thanksgiving game with North Carolina here with conservative practices to prevent further injuries to the squad. Many of the squad members went home for the week end and some had not returned yesterday.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 20—(AP)—The South Carolina Gamecocks, after their victory over Furman Saturday, took things easy today. They were not in practice until Thanksgiving when they clash with the North Carolina Wolfpack in Raleigh.

Clemson College, S. C., Nov. 20—(AP)—The Riggs Field Gridiron was soggy today from rains this morning, and the varsity was given a day of rest. They returned Sunday night after a long trip and a hard game, played in extremely hot autumn weather and it was expected that a layoff would be helpful.

Here is the man baseball followers call the bravest in the game. He is Judge Emil Fuchs, owner of the Boston Braves, who elects to pilot the 1929 Braves although he never played professional baseball and has had no managerial experience.

GOVERNORS GATHER AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, Nov. 20—(AP)—A formal reception to twenty governors arranged in the Louisiana Supreme court rooms today was the event formally ushering in the twenty-first annual conference of the chief executives, here to exchange ideas on the welfare of their several states and the nation.

Among officials welcoming the visiting heads of government were Governor Huey P. Long, of Louisiana, and Associate Justice Winston Overton, of the Supreme Court of this state.

The governors planned to take up a variety of subjects during their three days of sessions in New Orleans, one of the first mentioned bearing on the general significance of government and business. Another was listed under the broad term "Taxation."

JOHN COOLIDGE NOT TO WED IN WHITE HOUSE

Expect More Arrests Diamond Smuggling Case in N. Y. City

New York, Nov. 20—(AP)—A trail of smuggled diamonds, over which it is estimated $35,000,000 in gems has been passing, was expected by federal agents today to lead to the doors of several other jewelers.

Held for the federal grand jury under $5,000 bail is Morris Landau, a jeweler with a store in John Street, who the agents contend was the destined receiver for the $30,000 worth of diamonds, found in the bank of William Ballyn, "smuggling" toward the Cunard Line's flagship Berengaria.

Ballyn said the agents admitted the bringing into the country in the last two years about $1,000,000 in unset diamonds and they believed that part of this and other shipments of smuggled gems were disposed to other jewelers. They intimated other arrests would be made.

Ballyn also was held under $5,000 bail for grand jury action, while Patrolman John T. McIntyre, alleged go-between, was held under $3,500 bail and Landau's 20-year-old daughter, Marion, who served as his bookkeeper, was held in $1,500.

Scientists Expose Secrets At Annual Gathering In N. Y.

By COLEMAN B. JONES

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 20—(AP)—Reporting on their latest explorations into the infinite fields of the unknown, members of the National Academy of Sciences, at its autumn meeting here, are exposing secrets of nature which touch man's pocket book or have aroused his curiosity time out of mind.

Exploring the heavens in search of the center of centers among the great galaxies of stars, in only one of which the earth is but a small clinker spinning as it circles about a little sun, Dr. Harlow Shapley of Harvard, speaks in terms of a hundred million light years. One light year is the distance that light, moving at 186,000 miles a second, travels in 12 months.

Exploring the misbehaving molecules of gasoline and other fuels for internal combustion engines, Dr. C. F. Kettering, vice-president of the General Motors Corporation, is able to speak with confidence of the time when more economical engines can be used in automobiles and airplanes than is now practicable.

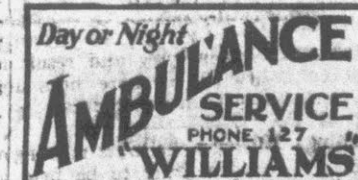

Speaking of the galaxy of stars and planets and nebulae in which the earth is such a small part, Dr. Shapley expresses confidence that he and his associates have found its center in the milky way, at a distance of about 47,000 light years, although it is entirely hidden by one of the mysterious dark clouds which hang in the heavens.

Lakeland, Fla.—Jock Steele, Arcadia, knocked out Bid Cheko of Tampa, (2).

Makes Fight Against Gin

London, Nov. 20—(AP)—Sir Ofori Atia, Omaniene (paramount chief) of Akwem Abuakwa, a province of the Gold Coast, West Africa, is making a determined fight against gin.

When he visited England last summer he urged that in the interests of the natives, the large imports of Dutch gin into his country be stopped. Not all Englishmen knew of his feelings on the matter, however, and among the gifts he received in England was a case of gin. Since returning home, the African potentate has written to friends describing the disposition of the gift. His letter said: "I had a case of gin presented to me in London. I brought this with me to the Gold Coast and on the date that my spokesman gave to the State a report of my visit on tour, the proceedings were ended by burying the gin. The contents of twelve bottles were poured out by people unanimously agreeing that gin would no longer be their friend."

British business men associated with West African commerce are prepared to support Sir Ofori in his efforts toward ridding his domains of gin.

GIANT POWER at your command

For climbing hills, for pulling through ruts and pot holes, for crawling along in thick traffic—there's no motor fuel like ESSO. With ESSO in your tank there's giant power at your command.

ESSO is far more powerful than gasoline. It ignites quicker and burns more smoothly. In high compression motors it produces astonishing results. Even in old cars, gagged with carbon, ESSO makes the engine run like new.

ESSO sells for a few cents more than gasoline, but it's worth the difference in the extra power and the added satisfaction it gives. Actually you'll probably get enough extra mileage to offset its slightly greater cost.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 11 to 13 points in response to firm Liverpool cables and soon showed net gains of 16 to 17 points with December selling up to 1928 and March to 1929, Liverpool was reported a buyer here, while there was buying for trade account and commission houses, together with considerable covering. On the whole, business was more active than for some time past, but the market met a little more cotton at the higher prices and the volume of business tapered off somewhat by the end of the first half hour, although the tone continued steady. Private cables reported trade calling with local and London buying in the Liverpool market and said there was a scarcity of contracts in that market. A private report placing earnings at 11, 250,000 bales to November 14 was published, but appeared to be without much influence on the market.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Announcement of export wheat sales out of Mexico November loading at the same price as Chicago May delivery helped to strengthen wheat values late today. Earlier, the wheat market was bullishly affected by enlarged estimates of world requirements of wheat and by upturns in the price of corn. Meanwhile, owing largely to increasingly bullish reports of corn scarcity in Europe future deliveries of corn here rose today to within a fraction of the season's top quotations.

Wheat closed firm, 1-2 to 3-4c net higher, corn 1-1/2 to 1-3/4c up, oats unchanged to 1-4c advance, and provisions varying from 10c to 1c line a rise of 6c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Nov. 20.—(AP)—High priced stocks whirled upward in sensational fashion on the New York stock exchange as the "bull" movement, interrupted by profit taking yesterday, was resumed in full swing. So great was the accumulation of orders that the ticker tape fell 63 minutes behind the market at 1:00 p. m., the longest delay at that hour on record, and there were indications that the day's sales would run around 7,000,000 shares.

Dupont was the spectacular individual feature, soaring 68 points to a new high record at 500. Case Trenching Machine run up 32 points to 481, Radio 23 1-2 points to 255 and Greene Cananea copper, Keith-Albee-Orpheum preferred, Liquid Carbonic, International Harvester, Johns Manville, Woolworth, May Department Stores, Pittsburgh Coal and Standard Oil of California climbed 5 to 10 points, all touching new peak prices. Curtiss Wright, Allied Chemical, Victor Talking Machine and Rossie Insurance soared 5 to 9 points, but did not touch new highs.

The rapidity of the advance in these issues indicated a marked scarcity in the floating supply as a result of the excited public speculation of the last 2 weeks. Several of the large commission houses increased their margin requirements, and sent cautionary advices over their wires in an effort to keep their clients within bounds. Wall Street was flooded with rumors that this or that stock was going to $200, $300 or $400 a share, and such rumors veteran market observers invariably regard as danger signals.

Mrs. Coolidge To Christen Flagship Of Air Line Fleet

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge tomorrow will christen the "Christopher Columbus" flagship of a fleet of air-liners to be used in an air-mail transport system to connect this country with the West Indies, according to an announcement at the headquarters of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad here.

The ceremonies will take place at Bolling Field, Washington, at 3:00 o'clock, said the announcement, and high government officials and diplomatic representatives in the capital have been invited to attend. The new service will begin January 10th. Passengers and mail will be carried by rail over the Atlantic Coast Line and Florida East Coast lines to Miami. There they will be transferred to tri-motored air liners for their West Indian destinations.

Gangsters Busy At Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—(AP)—A grand jury investigation of gang murders, bootlegging and police corruption, apparently holds no terrors for the gangsters, for with the inquiry in full swing, there have been three outbreaks of gang warfare in the last three weeks.

It has, however, created consternation in Republican organization circles and in the police department.

In a statement defending Harry C. Davis, director of public safety, who has lost the services, either by suspension or arrest of 68 members of the police force since the investigation began 14 weeks ago and whose resignation has been reported imminent, Senator-elect William S. Vare declared that a number of prominent Republicans had asked him to bring about harmony in the party and straighten out differences in the Mayor's office and District Attorney's office.

Wrestling Match Comes To Light

Philadelphia—A great wrestling match nine years ago has just come to light. John Wanamaker, merchant prince, pulled the rickles of his friend, Thomas A. Edison, askew. Then they grappled. The inventor finally got the merchant's head in chancery. The story has been told by a physician in testifying at a tax hearing on the merchant's excellent physical condition.
