GRID RIVALRY IS CLIMAXED BY SHOOTING

Birmingham College Student Shot To Death Preceding Annual Grid Clash.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 22.—(AP)—The fatal shooting of one student by another stood out today as a tragic climax to aggressive rivalry preceding the annual football game Saturday between Howard College and Birmingham Southern, two Birmingham institutions of higher education.

Montress Freeman, of Gadsden, Birmingham Southern student, was the victim, and O. H. Westbrook, Howard student, was in custody of police. He surrendered last night immediately after an altercation in a drug store where he is employed as night manager.

In absence of confirmed details, Dr. John C. Dawson, president of Howard, made only a brief statement.

"I know is the bare facts that two Southern students walked on a drug store where a Howard student worked to cut his hair and that a shooting followed. It is deplorable. That is all I can say."

Dr. J. E. Dillard, member of the Southern board of trustees and pastor of the largest Baptist church in Alabama, South-Side church here, asserted that he knew nothing of the facts and could say only that the incident was deplorable.

Westbrook told police he was on duty when Freeman and a companion entered the store and told to come with them. He refused and said he warned them not to advance further toward him. When they ignored the warnings, he said, he pulled a gun from a nearby drawer behind the counter. Freeman fired a bullet wound in the right breast on route to a hospital.

Westbrook, testifying at an inquest last night, said that he had received a notice from unidentified persons and signed "Birmingham Southern Committee," which said "you are next."

Neither Westbrook nor any others at the inquest identified the companion of Freeman, but Westbrook said they both were larger than he was and that he got the gun merely to frighten them away. Others in the party that had gone to the drug store, but who did not approach Westbrook, testified they went to "cut Westbrook's hair."

Both Freeman and Westbrook lived at Gadsden, and both were working their way through school. Freeman was a freshman and Westbrook a junior.

Six Drowned In Manitoba Lake

Winnipeg, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Five fishermen, who were swept out into Lake Manitoba on a cake of ice during a northwest gale Tuesday afternoon, and a sixth man who went to their assistance in a small boat, today were believed to have been drowned.

A search for them, hampered until today by the violence of the storm, was ordered on the possibility that they might have found safety on a small island four miles off shore. Several persons along the shore said they saw a light on the island Tuesday night.

The fishermen were working along the edge of the ice Tuesday afternoon when it broke away and was swept out into the lake. Joe Lop Stom, who was in a small boat near the men, went to their assistance. He also was lost to sight in the storm.

The five fishermen are: Swan Johnson, his son, Victor, Arthur Ashan, Fred Cooper and a man named Elko.

POISON WOMAN SENTENCED TO LIFE IN ASYLUM

Mrs. Bertha Gifford, Of Union, Mo., Killer Of Eighteen, Declared Insane.

Union, Mo., Nov. 22.—(AP)—The "poison woman," Mrs. Bertha Gifford, who was always ready to "cut up" with the sick and who killed eighteen persons by poisoning them in paroxysms of pain, the State believes, by poison she administered, must spend the rest of her life in an insane asylum.

A jury last night found the poison woman not guilty of the murder of Ed Britley "on the sole ground that she was insane at the time she committed the crime. The verdict was reached after three hours and twenty-five minutes of deliberation over the testimony that showed she had calmly poisoned one man and two small children.

Under a new sentence her three weeks to one of the State institutions for the insane, testimony of expert psychiatrists from St. Louis yesterday afternoon was to the effect that she was suffering from a mental degeneration known as paranoia, which they said was incurable.

As the testimony was unfolded during the three days of the trial, the jury was told of her desire for amusement, her passion for attending to her beds, for partaking in arrangements for funerals, for being often in the midst of tragedies.

Over it all hung, not only her admission of three murders, but fifteen other cases for which she has been questioned—instances where death occurred under mysterious circumstances, while she had acted as a volunteer nurse.

Before the final testimony was presented both the State and defense had agreed that she was "crazily insane," but it took the jury more than three hours officially to pronounce her so.

ADAIR TRIAL UNDER WAY AT GAINESVILLE

Four Senior Officers Of Defunct Bank Given Hearing On Charge Conspiracy.

Gainesville, Ga., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Four senior officers of the bankrupt Adair Realty and Trust company of Atlanta, went on trial in Federal court here today, to answer indictments which charged conspiracy to convert to their own and their company's use $2,875,000 bonds sold on hotel projects in Knoxville, Tenn., Birmingham, Ala., and Little Rock, Ark.

The indictments alleged that the Adair Realty and Trust company was involved at the time the bonds were offered for sale, and that the Adair concern guaranteed the bond buyers that the proceeds would be used for the construction of hotels which would stand as collateral.

It was also charged in the indictments that the defendants did not intend that the money received from the sale of the bonds should be used for the hotels but that it should be "converted to the benefit of the Adair Realty and Trust company and the four defendants."

More than two hundred persons were said in the indictment to have bought the bonds under a "scheme and artifice to defraud." Names of persons from Hawaii, the Canal Zone, South America, China and most of the States were listed.

The three projects for which the bonds were alleged to have been issued in 1926, the year before the company went into bankruptcy with liabilities scheduled at $9,000,000, were named as follows, together with the amounts of the bond issues:

Thomas Jefferson Hotel, Birmingham, $1,200,000; William N. Young Hotel, Little Rock, $725,000; Tennessee Hotel, Knoxville, $950,000.

The men who went on trial here today in answer to these indictments were Frank Adair, president, Forest Adair, Sr., chairman of the board, Forest Adair, Jr., first vice-president, and Evans A. Erwin, executive vice-president of the Adair Realty and Trust company. All are prominent in Atlanta's business and social circles.

The jury which was completed today, consists of seven farmers, a banker, furniture dealer, grocery man, bookkeeper and auditor.

U. S. District Attorney Clint W. Hager, representing the government, while the defense counsel is headed by Ruben Arnold, Ben J. Conyers and Marion Smith.

Slight Decline In Death From Auto Accidents

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A slight decline in the rate of deaths due to automobile accidents was indicated today in the commerce department's study for the four weeks ending Nov. 3. In that period 621 persons were killed in automobile accidents in 7 large cities of the country.

During the corresponding period in 1927 within the same cities the number of deaths reported was 641. During the four-week period ending October 6th of this year the death total from automobile operation in the same area was 622.

Declares Farm Relief Should Get Attention Of The Next Congress

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Declaration that farm relief legislation should be passed at the coming regular session of Congress rather than be held up for a special session was made today by Senator McNary, of Oregon, before the National Grange.

"If this thing is delayed until spring any legislation that Congress passes will not go into effect until 1929 and that is too late," he said. "Of course, if, for political reasons, Congress does not get around to it this term, then it must be dealt with at an extra session called for the purpose."

Declaring that he was for any measure that would bring relief to agriculture, Senator McNary said he would continue support of the legislation he felt until it was proved that it could not be passed. Then, he said, he believed consideration of the Grange's export decontrol plan would be advisable.

HOOVER LANDS TWO FISH ON WAY TO SOUTH

U. S. S. Maryland, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Having hooked two fish from the deep sea waters off the southern tip of lower California, Herbert Hoover today put thoughts of fishing behind him as the Maryland steamed south toward his first port of call on his goodwill tour.

Fishing from a motorboat 25 miles off Cape San Lucas, Mr. Hoover in 45 minutes caught a 15-pound dolphin and a five-pound Spanish mackerel. He lost what was apparently his largest strike when his line fouled.

Mr. Hoover is in fine spirits and apparently is enjoying the voyage greatly. The weather has been sub-tropical with pleasantly warm skies. The president-elect has appeared on deck wearing a chief's white cap, white flannel trousers, white shoes and a double-breasted blue coat.

The Maryland is expected to arrive at the Gulf of Fonseca on Sunday and Mr. Hoover will then visit the ports of Amapala, Honduras and La Union, Salvador. As the vessel continued southward today plans for the trip northward from Rio Janeiro on the U. S. S. "Abner Doubleday" were still under discussion.

Mr. Hoover expected to visit Havana and might go from there to Mexico. He will also visit Montevideo and may possibly go to Santo Domingo.

The only Central American capital to be visited is San Jose, Costa Rica, where he will journey by automobile from the port of Punta Arenas. Time and distance will prevent overland journeys to other Central American capitals.

King George On The Sick List

London, Nov. 22.—(AP)—King George was suffering from a cold and slight fever today. He was forced to cancel engagements to open the new market at Spital Fields and the rebuilt "Old Hall" of Lincoln's Inn. The king is senior brother of the inn. Queen Mary substituted for him at both ceremonies.

A bulletin issued at Buckingham Palace and signed by Dr. Stanley Hewitt and Lord Dawson, said: "The King is suffering from a slight cold and some fever and is remaining in bed."

It was stated that the advice of physicians for him to remain in bed was simply a matter of precaution.

King George ordinarily enjoys such good health that even a slight indisposition tends to create a certain amount of surprise.

There was nothing, however, to indicate that the illness was more serious than had been stated. It probably would not have been made the subject of a physician's bulletin but for the fact that there have been instances in the past when a trifling indisposition of the King led to startling rumors. The result was that it has become a rule to make such incidents fully public at once.

SALES SOME LIGHTER ON LEAF MARKET

Season Sales Today Had Passed The Fifty-Seven Million Pound Mark.

Maintaining a firmness that has predominated since for the past several weeks, the general price average on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday continued to hang around the twenty-four cent mark, according to official report of sales made public this morning.

To be exact, the market averaged $24.25 on 944,262 pounds of tobacco. The total amount paid out to the farmers was $229,015.57. Sales for the entire season were given at 57,114,000 pounds, covering the 1926-27 season. The market has been in operation.

It was the first time in several days that sales fell under the million pound mark and this enabled the tobaccoists to clear the floors of the market at noon. It was stated that there was about a half million pounds of leaf on the floors of the nine warehouses today, with indications that sales would be completed by the noon hour.

With four more sales days before Thanksgiving holiday, it was believed season's sales would reach nearly 60 million pound mark. This will place the market exactly ten million pounds short of the seventy million goal set for the season with favorable weather conditions after the Thanksgiving season if it proved the goal will be reached before the market closes.

The last season was sixty million pounds. This was reached several days before the closing of the season and over a million pounds was added for good measure. With additional warehouse and factory facilities this year, tobacco sales set the past year's million pounds as the best record, and the outlook for success seems bright indeed. At least, that's the way the majority look at it and their prediction apparently will be sooner said fruit at the end of the season.

British War Head Not To Seek Re-Election

London, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Sir Lancelot Worthington-Evans, secretary of State for war, has announced his intention not to seek re-election to the House of Commons at the general election next year. It is understood, however, that he will not retire entirely from political life.

As a member of the Colchester Conservative Association, Sir Lancelot said that his health was not strong enough to enable him to do his work as a secretary of State and member of the cabinet and also to look after his constituency in Colchester.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS!

Beginning Saturday, December 1, all copy for display advertising must be received at our office on the day before the date of publication in The Reflector. This change in our working schedule is necessary in order that we might give our advertisers the best service and at the same time give service to our readers, and we earnestly ask the co-operation of our advertisers in making this better service possible.

Under our present system of accepting ads the same day of publication, we are forced to crowd a day's work into a half-day, with the result either the advertisements do not receive the attention to which they are entitled, or the paper must reach the reader late, and it is in an effort to overcome this bad situation that we are making the above change.

For the benefit of our advertisers our solicitors will call upon the business houses each day between the hours of 8 a. m., and 1 p. m., for advertisements for the next day's issue of the paper and after that hour ads will be accepted at our office until closing time.

Remember! After December 1—no ads accepted for publication on the same day. Help us give you and our readers better service by giving us your ads on time.

London, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Radio advices received by Lloyd's from the Greek steamer Virginia, which was sinking today off the shore of Portugal stated that the master hoped to be able to reach the shore as she was submerging very slowly.

Lloyd's agents at Oporto also telegraphed that a Portuguese warship and a tug have gone to the assistance of the vessel.

Missing Man Was Slain By Negroes

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 22.—(AP)—C. Quinn, 40, retired insurance man in Mobile, who mysteriously vanished from a hunting camp near here on November 12, was slain by negroes and his body thrown into Hal's Lake.

Quinn's disappearance was revealed in a confession published today, which quoted Percy Lang and Carson Lang as admitting they caught the hunter to death, robbed him and threw his body in the lake attached to a wagon wheel with the bodies of three other negroes.

Mrs. Frank A. Barthold of New York, authorized authorities to offer a reward of $500 for the recovery of her father's body.

Commute Woman's Death Sentence

Atlanta, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The death sentence of Ella E. Thompson has been commuted to life imprisonment several months after two men who were convicted with her of the murder of Dr. Chatsworth, Chattanooga, were electrocuted at the state prison.

In reducing the penalty yesterday, Governor L. G. Hardman held that the evidence had been insufficient to show that Mrs. Thompson conspired to kill Coleman Osborne, the storekeeper, but was sufficient to indicate that she had participated in the crime.

Osborne was killed on a summer night in his store near Shattalsworth. Mrs. Thompson's husband, Clifford, and Jim Hugh Moss, a negro, were electrocuted for the crime last summer. Mrs. Thompson recently was granted a stay of sentence to permit the governor to study the evidence. A hearing was set for today, but the governor's commutation made it unnecessary, as attorneys had asked only for that action.

Beautiful Girls In America

New York.—(AP)—Beautiful American girl, McClelland Barclay, artist, just back from Europe, says she can see more pulchritude in half an hour on Fifth Avenue than in four months abroad, and Mme. Minti Halum, Turkish artist, who is visiting here, thinks American women are miracles and have the most beautiful limbs in the world.

Think Hoover Tour Will Help Trade

Atlanta, Nov. 22.—(AP)—American factors regarded as favorable to expansion of trade between Latin and South America and the southeast which were placed before the Southern Trade Conference just closed, was the good will tour of President-elect Herbert Hoover.

Robert Maddox, Atlanta, former president of the American Bankers' Association, told the delegates yesterday that Mr. Hoover's trip which is now in progress, was "most timely" in the development of a greater south.

"No section of the United States," Mr. Maddox said, "has grown so rapidly in the immediate past as the south. The south is over threshold of its greatest development."

Another factor was the marine. General A. C. Dalt, president and general manager of the United States Shipbuilding Corporation, declared that "this is the eve of the great foreign trade boom in any section of the American bottoming trade."

FAVOR PLANS TO STABILIZE U.S. INDUSTRY

Conference Of Governors At New Orleans To Give Hoover Proposal More Thought

New Orleans, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Commonwealth Governors ended their annual conference here a day ahead of schedule time to lend their moral support to Herbert Hoover's proposed $3,000,000,000 surplus to remedy slack times unemployment, up for final consideration by the American Federation of Labor today.

The Governors yesterday clung to precedent by declining to adopt resolutions endorsing the President-elect's plan for stabilizing industry of the nation, but Governor Ralph O. Brewster, of Maine, who outlined the proposal in their conference, stated that seven of the chief executives favored the movement and said they would put it into practice. The plan received consideration in an executive session of the Governors.

After gubernatorial response to the Hoover construction plan it was accorded, informal acceptance in the labor convention when the address of Governor Brewster was read before the labor men by John P. Fry, secretary of the Metal Trades Department of the Federation of Labor.

The Hoover industrial program was described generally by William Green, president of the Federation of Labor, as a full and complete endorsement of the wage policy of a federation.

Such tremendous interest was displayed in the surplus proposal as the governors transcribed their round table discussions shortly after the conference.

With the labor delegates during their discussions on formal consideration of the plan, today and saved the annual governors' banquet as the concluding social feature tonight.

At that time the governors will elect a chairman for the coming year and name a New England city as the next meeting place for the conference.

Huntingtons Pay Six Million Tax To California

Los Angeles, Nov. 22.—(AP)—California and Federal Inheritance Tax Departments were nearly six million dollars richer today as the result of huge checks for balances "we having been paid by executor of the Henry E. Huntington estate."

The largest check ever paid to the California Inheritance Tax Department, totaling $3,577,071, was given to the Los Angeles county treasurer. Another check for $2,108,623 was paid to the United States Internal Revenue office.

The Huntington estate, valued at more than $40,000,000 was left by Henry E. Huntington, Los Angeles traction magnate, who died a year ago last May. The payment of the huge checks was the outcome of a long struggle by obtaining a loan of more than nine million dollars on the estate.

Another factor was the marine. General A. C. Dalt, president and general manager of the United States Shipbuilding Corporation, declared that "this is the eve of the great foreign trade boom in any section of the American bottoming trade."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENTERTAINED

On Friday evening, Nov. 16, Miss Alma and Esther Lee and Dorothy Ward were hostesses to the Sodalis Wesley Class of the Methodist Sunday school.

A short devotional program was led by the president, Miss Mildred Mangum. The principal business of the evening was the answering of a questionnaire to become a standard organized Wesley Bible class. The class adopted the name "Sodalis," which means companionable, friendly or helpful.

The following committees were appointed: Devotional, Mary Wright and Virginia Perkins; Recreation, Alma Lee, Verna Dare Corey and Dorothy Ward; Service, Julia Woolard; Attendance, Elizabeth Austin, and Alice Foley; and Study and Training, Ruby Midyette and Marie Hardee.

Several games were played at the conclusion of which the hostesses served a delicious refreshment.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Mildred Mangum, with Elizabeth Austin and Alice Foley assisting hostesses. A hundred percent attendance is desired as this is the last meeting before Christmas.

Round Table Club Meets.
On Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 20, the Round Table Club held one of its most delightful meetings with Mrs. W. B. Tilghman.

Mrs. H. E. Austin gave interesting sketches of the work of three of the most famous aesthetic dancers, Ruth St. Denis, Anna Pavlova and Isadora Duncan. During the twenty years Ruth St. Denis has been on the stage she had overcome the ill-repute attached to oriental dances. She proved, to her own satisfaction, that dancing is an independent art. Some of her numbers have been given without music. The incomparable Pavlova, interpreter of the aristocratic in sentiment and action, was paid tribute for her contribution. Remarkable facts were also given of the life and work of Isadora Duncan.

Miss Margaret George then gave a most interesting and instructive talk on types and care of blankets.

The guests sharing the hospitality of Mrs. Tilghman were Mrs. Hillman, Mrs. Darden, Mrs. Underwood, Miss Morton and Miss George.

STRING QUARTET AT COLLEGE FRIDAY EVENING

The Eddy Brown String Quartet concert at East Carolina Teachers College, in the campus building, tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock, is the last attraction in the fall series of entertainments for which season tickets were sold.

The program will be composed of chamber-music of the finest type. The four artists, each an artist of international reputation as a musician of distinction, have pledged themselves to untiring efforts in order to present the highest in the art of quartet playing. The musicians and music lovers of the community will hear music that will delight their ears and souls. Those who have not had the opportunity of hearing such chamber music will find that when it is played by great artists they enjoy it. The first violin will be played by Eddy Brown, who they claim, has the reputation among musicians of other countries of being the greatest American violinist. Those who play the second violin, the viola and the violoncello, have all had many honors conferred upon them and have achieved fame both thru their solo playing and through their connection with organizations playing chamber-music and symphonic music.

In arranging the series of entertainments the committee attempted to have a well-balanced series of attractions that would have a wide range of appeal and to have each type the best of its kind available. The artists for tomorrow evening were chosen for the same reason that the Cherniavsky trio was chosen last fall, the best group on hand this season that could be secured at this time, presenting a program of ensemble, or chamber, music.

Jew Evangelist Holding Revival At Winterville

At the Free Will Baptist Church at Winterville, an unusual revival is in progress, and will continue for the next two weeks, with a Converted Jew evangelist preaching every night.

Rev. George Winniman, who is said to be the only Converted Jew Evangelist in the United States, and assisted by his organization is preaching to the largest crowds ever attending a meeting in this section.

On Sunday night the evangelist will give his testimony, and will tell the story of his life. He will tell how he was brought up by a strictly orthodox family, and how he was being educated for a Rabbi, and how he was converted to the Christian faith, then his confession to his people, and how he was excommunicated by his folks and deserted by his wife and baby, then kidnaped and forced to witness his own funeral in effigy, and saw himself an outcast from his people.

As it is expected that there will be a large crowd to hear the story of his life, arrangements have been made to use the school house auditorium on Sunday night, the service to start at 7:30 p. m.

Friday night the message will be on "Modernism," at the church. The meeting is attracting much attention in this vicinity and many preachers are present every night.

BECOMING KNOWN

Greenville, North Carolina, and its advantages as a place in which to live and do business is graphically set forth in an illustrated article in Sunday's Baltimore American which already has reached this city. As each day passes more people are beginning to learn about Greenville. Since the Advertising Committee of the Merchants' Association, sometime ago began to advertise Greenville to the world many requests have come from individuals seeking information about Greenville while various newspapers have requested data from which articles about Greenville could be prepared for their publications. As a result of this favorable publicity Greenville is becoming known to the outside world, many new people are being attracted to our city and we are showing a steady and healthy growth. Thanks to our Merchants' Association for this fine piece of work in behalf of Greenville.

DESTROYING THE KLAN'S COVER

The Supreme Court is virtually unanimous in upholding the New York law which requires such secret organizations as the Ku Klux Klan to file their constitutions, oaths and membership lists. Justice McReynolds's dissent was based merely on the ground that the court lacked jurisdiction. It is an opinion which will be useful in more States than one, for similar laws have been proposed elsewhere. Its essence is plain common sense. Whenever a secret organization threatens to enter corruptly into politics, to set race against race, or to exercise terrorism, the public has a right to know who belongs to that organization. The Supreme Court declares this right a part of the police power of the State. Secrecy has always and almost everywhere been the essence of the Klan's strength; the value of secrecy explains why it has fought this case, up to the Supreme Court. The Klan's decay and the decay of secrecy have gone hand in hand. In various States where it has been most dangerous, such as Indiana, Georgia, Pennsylvania and Alabama, legislation has been passed or vigorously pushed to compel it to unmask.

Education, enlightenment, the disillusionment of multitudes of dupes, have robbed the Klan of its strength. The best safeguard against the recrudescence of any such body is simply strong light.—New York World.

ABOUT TOWN

"You have a few more days grace in which to settle up your overdue accounts with local merchants," said a member of the Greenville Merchants' Association today, "discussing the slight delay in compiling the list of credit customers."
"Why not take advantage of this extra time and insure yourself of a clear rating with the association next year."
"The new list of customers will contain every man and woman who has been given credit by any member of the association and they will be rated according to the way they pay."
"If your rating is A-I you should not have any trouble obtaining credit next year. If on the other hand you are rated as unreliable or slow your standing will be greatly impaired. Settle your accounts now and rest assured of good credit in the future."

"If you have faith in the community in which you live, boost it." This is the advice given by a lifelong resident of Pitt county, who not only is satisfied of the possibilities of the locality, but is using his influence in behalf of continued advancement.
"If you don't really think the section in which you live has a future, the thing to do is to move to some other town where you would feel more like accomplishing something. Like of faith is detrimental to human growth. It is the same in every branch of life."
"Help the community in which you live by telling of its opportunities to people in other parts of the world."

"We are going to start Christmas shopping early this year," said a member of one of the leading business houses today, searching the advertising books of this paper, preparatory to an intensive holiday advertising campaign.
"There is no reason on earth why people delay shopping until the holiday season actually begins. By goods they would be able to get had they traded earlier."
"Christmas goods are arriving daily in virtually all stores of the city. Many firms have started remaining open at night in order to give their customers an opportunity of inspecting their stocks and having gifts set aside for them."
"Start your shopping earlier this year and in this way insure yourself against the many inconveniences of

New Mack Fire Truck Put In Service Here

The new Mack fire truck recently purchased by the city to augment the fire fighting equipment of the Hope Fire Company, was today stationed alongside the other two trucks at the fire station on Fitts street, ready to assist in protection of life and property of the city.

The truck will actually be placed in service the latter part of the week after Underwriters have given their approval. The truck is expected to be given the O. K. by insurance men either today or tomorrow and after that time will go out with the other trucks in response to fire alarms from various sections of the city.

The new truck is one of the finest in Eastern North Carolina. Equipped with high pressure pumping equipment, it is capable of rendering greater service than any other truck the city has ever had. The pumper was demonstrated here some time ago in competition to other makes and showed up to splendid advantage.

Getting Up Nights Is Nature's Danger Signal.

Rev. W. H. Mitchell, 321 North Park Street, Columbus, Ohio, says: "I feel I am doing real religious work when I tell or write how my wife was relieved of a serious case of bladder irritation with Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula). She had to get up 6 to 8 times each night." It acts on bladder as epsom salts do on bowels. Drives out foreign deposits and lessens excessive acidity. This relieves the irritation that causes getting up nights. The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicville, Ohio, or locally at Greenville Drug Co.

COLLEGES GET LINED UP FOR BASKETBALL

By HORACE C. RENEGAR

Atlanta, Nov. 22—(AP)—With basketball schedules almost complete already, the collegiate sports swing will be turning to the court by the middle of December with a number of strong quinquets challenging the University of Mississippi's bid to continued supremacy.

The boys of Oxford, however, will be back strong. Cary and Ary Phillips, the rambling twins of the Ole Miss team, in addition to Allan Selby and Dewitt Laird, four of the five who last year won the title, will again take the court for Coach Homer Hazel.

It was this little rambler, Selby, who ran the conference courts to a perfection last season, shooting baskets and finally touching off Auburn's hopes in the Atlanta tournament by a great exhibition of basket tossing. Cary Phillips, the other little forward, will be remembered for his great all-around work while his brother was one of the outstanding guards of the South. Laird, who also stars at football, is one of the best pivot men in the conference.

The playmen, runner up in the 1927 title race, however, are Frank hit by graduation. Captain Frank Dubose, center, will be the only letter men returned. Louis James, brother of the versatile James Twin, another pair of basket playing brothers. Mullins, A. L. Smith, Kennedy, McGhee, De Vaughn and several others of considerable experience, however, are expected to furnish coach George Bohler plenty of material.

Incidentally, Coach Bohler, now in his first year at Auburn, produced the championship team of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association last season while at Mississippi College.

An eye also must be kept on North Carolina. The Tar Heels, champions four times of the Southern Conference courts, are coming back with a bang. Coach Jim Ashore will have four more letter men to build around and a host of untried material.

Captain Rufus Hackney and Henry Satterfield, forwards; George Cathey, center; and Red Price, guard, are the veterans returned.

The Tar Heels open their season with a long jaunt into the middle west, playing Ohio State, Cincinnati and others.

Feature Match At Pinehurst Links

Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 22—(AP)—North Carolina, Ohio and the Canadian Province of New Brunswick morning were rapping mashies and nibbicks on the fairways and links that lead to Pinehurst's coveted golf championships.

Only North State in the spectacular playing of its lone representative in the championship flight, Norfleet P. Ray, of Pinehurst, loomed as the favorite by a very narrow margin as the tourney medalist faced Walter Watson, of Youngstown, O., today in the feature match.

After a glittering 82 to qualify, Ray yesterday maintained his ready pace to easily eliminate W. W. Lyon, of Bald Peak, N. J., 7 and 1 after taking a 38 going out. Watson experienced trouble in taking a 3 and 3 victory from Charles Hagan, of the Oakmont Club, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Ray provided herself with an additional chance for the annual Pinehurst crown when Donald Parsons, also of Youngstown, earned the right to battle the last remaining Canadian in the top flight, Eric D. Thomson, of the Rothsay Club, New Brunswick.

Parsons, prominent Mid-West player, and Thomson, lauded as one of the Dominion's younger golf stars, both vied with Ray in clipping off 38 on their first five yesterday. Parsons vanquished S. H. Stedden, of P. L. Handley, N. J., 8 and 7, while the woman had little trouble in eliminating a fellow-Canadian, Frank Rudel, of the Royal Club, Montreal, 6 and 5.

Second flight pairings today brought together C. B. Shea, of Fox Chapel Club, Pittsburgh, Pa., against R. E. Rubicam, Ardsley, N. Y., and C. S. Strout, of Portland, Me., against C. B. Hollingsworth, of Greensburg, Pa.

Cold Wave Hits Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 22—(AP)—Smudge pots glowed in Florida last night for the first time this winter, as growers of produce sought to ward off the first real attack of King Winter.

Gradually moderating temperatures, forecast for today, however, brought mental relief to growers in some sections where tender growing vegetables lacked only a few weeks of having grown past the dangerous age.

SHAM BATTLE ON SOUTHERN GRIDS TODAY

By MORGAN M. BEATTY

Atlanta, Nov. 22—(AP)—Sham battle on the firing lines were resumed today by Southern Conference football teams as they prepared for Saturday's scattered skirmishes and the ten major engagements of Thanksgiving Day.

The sharp "bumps" of punts ran through the chill air of Dixie's own private cold war yesterday as practically every team in the conference settled down to drill that will carry them through the Turkey Day action which embraces clashes of traditional importance almost exclusively.

Meanwhile, North Carolina State Wolfpack was enroute to East Lansing, Mich., to join battle with the Michigan Aggies in one of the few interconference games on the national football card this week. The charges of Coach Tebell were confident they could beat the team that was tied by Mississippi's Aggies, and which in turn held the University of Michigan to a 3 to 0 decision. The Wolfpack will be out at East Lansing Friday before the game on Saturday.

Too, Washington and Lee was up to the hill in hard work in preparation for Maryland Saturday. Although the Generals had only an outside chance of beating the purple and white team, neither has much of a record in the conference this year, but the Generals go to Washington, D. C., for the tilt determined to redeem themselves in this one major engagement. Although Maryland already has beaten Yale as a step in that direction, her football warriors doubtless would like to climb in the standings.

While the practice for the most part was limited throughout the conference yesterday to punting and signal drill—a mere limbering-up—such was not the case for the Mississippi Aggies, who will meet Ole Miss in time-honored encounter next Thanksgiving. The A. & M. squad went into secret practice to study the offensive of Ole Miss, barring even students from the field.

Coach Alexander, whose Yellow Jackets out at Tech flat will meet known on Thanksgiving Day, blew the whistle on his squads yesterday in the belief that too long a rest might prove more harmful than beneficial for a team that has bent everything in sight this year. The Florida Catons, whose scoring record is more impressive than

Prohibits Binding Of Feet In China

Shanghai, Nov. 22—(AP)—General Feng Yu-Hsiang has prohibited foot-binding in the Province of Honan, Shensi and Kansu which is notorious and is conducting a tireless campaign for the improvement of social conditions throughout the country.

He says that China has an estimated population of 400,000,000 and that only about half of them serve any useful purpose because of the age-old custom of binding women's feet.

During a lecture before girl students in an inland town the Honan warrior exhibited a picture of girl rack athletes in Germany taking part in a foot race.

"I want you to look at this picture and think for yourselves," he said.

Robbers Get $5.00 At Dinner Party

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 22—(AP)—Two robbers added social insult to financial injury last night after invading a dinner party given at the home of George W. Busey, banker, and University of Illinois trustee.

When they took a five dollar bill (all they could find), Busey urged: "Won't you please have dinner with us?" The robbers declined.

This is a sweet dump no to have more than five bucks in it," they said, and departed.

MALTIMORE PUBLICATION CARRIES STORY ABOUT GREENVILLE'S GROWTH

The Sunday American, Baltimore publication, this week contains a two column write-up setting forth the "achievements" and possibilities of Greenville. The story is illustrated with two pictures showing Dickinson avenue and the arrival of an airplane here last year with a load of goods. The story was written by C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Greenville Merchants Association.

On Southern Gridirons

Blacksburg, Va., Nov. 22—(AP)—Virginia Tech's grid squad is back to long scrimmage sessions as daily routine now in preparation for the annual encounter with V. M. I. at Roanoke, Va., Thanksgiving Day.

Yesterday afternoon the Tech squad shivered through its first long hard practice session of the week. Andy Gustafsen started his men at a fast clip and kept the pony express drilling until dark on offensive tactics.

Washington and Lee coaches are testing today the paper defense

Washington, Va., Nov. 22—(AP)—Washington and Lee coaches are testing today the paper defense worked out by them to be used against the old liners of Maryland at Washington Saturday.

Yesterday afternoon the Generals engaged in short signal punting and a long drill against the attack Maryland used to smother Virginia last week. Dummy scrimmage with the first eleven combating forward passing threats occupied a large part of the session.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 22—(AP)—The Wolfpack of North Carolina

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 22—(AP)—The Wolfpack of North Carolina left enroute today for East Lansing, Mich., where on Saturday Coach Tebell's charges will play Michigan State. Before leaving, all charges were pronounced in good condition, including Vaughan, star guard, who has been on the injured list. The pack will take a week on Michigan State's field tomorrow.

Wolfpack Is All Set For Game On 24th

By MORGAN M. BEATTY (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Atlanta, Nov. 21—(AP)—The North Carolina State Wolfpack is training with an intensity that denotes determination to triumph over the Michigan Aggies at East Lansing Saturday, in the only interconference clash involving a Southern Conference team.

Although the Wolfpack has not demonstrated championship calibre in the conference this year—no body has run away with the aggregation and chances for victory are more hopeful than not.

Because of rain and the necessary week-end rest, Monday's practice was eliminated, but the Pack began the first of three intensive scrimmage sessions yesterday in weather that apparently was taking sides with Coach Tebell. He figured that a dash of freezing weather this week not only will speed up practice, but will help to acclimate the charges for the more intense cold of Michigan.

Yesterday's drill was devoted largely to a defense against the passing and running plays that took the Aggies to Michigan's 10 yard line last Saturday. Coach Tebell reminded the Wolfpack that the Mississippi Aggies held the Michigan Squad to a scoreless tie this year, and that Michigan's victory was but by a lone field goal—a measly three points.

It appears, too, that only one casualty possibly can mar the fitness of the squad when it takes the field Saturday. George Silver has a leg injury that may keep him off the train Thursday night when his mates leave for the north. Vaughn, Warren and Goodwill, others on the hospital squad, will be ready for action.

Only one Southern Conference game is booked for Saturday. It is the Washington and Lee-Maryland clash at Washington, D. C., in which Maryland is the favored favorite, particularly because of a victory over Yale.

Neither of these teams have shown more than passing strength in the conference this year, although both are training with a concentration that indicates a finish fight. Neither has a serious hospital list.

Two other conference events will go into heavy drill today for invaders outside the family circle. Vanderbilt will entertain Centre College at Nashville, and Tulane will be host to Louisiana College at New Orleans. Neither of these unaffiliated elevens are regarded as dangerous.

The rest of the conference teams took signal drill yesterday or today, including the five leaders, Florida, Georgia Tech, Tennessee, V. P. I., and Louisiana State. The "Big Three" deadlocked with five conference and no defeats, awaits semi-serious Thanksgiving Day clashes, and climatic engagements on December 8, when Tech meets Georgia and Florida treks to Knoxville.

HATCHET MAN ARRESTED AT CHICAGO, ILL.

Negro Believed Wanted For Slaying In Omaha Held For Identification.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A negro hatchet-man, beaten down by his own hand-ax, was held here today as a suspect in the Omaha, Neb., "hatchet" slayings.

The prisoner, confined to the Blidwell hospital under close guard, said he was Harry Gonsha, 39 years old. He was arrested early yesterday after he had robbed the home of Alfred Samuelson, city fireman. His description, even to his clothing, fitted that of the man sought for the series of Omaha attacks.

Gonsha carried a hatchet in his belt when he entered the Samuelson home. Feeling, he was overtaken by Samuelson who wrested the hand-ax from the negro's hand and struck him several times, knocking him unconscious.

After questioning Gonsha, Police Captain James Doherty said he was somewhat hazy concerning his movements of the past week. Capt. Doherty said:

"Sure, I've been in Omaha," he said, in reply to a question, then added, "but not since about last June."

He said he came to Chicago from Milwaukee. "I think it was yesterday, I don't remember exactly," he added.

"Where did you get the ax?" the captain asked, and the answer was: "I got it next door, in a basement."

(The theft of a hand-ax from some place near his victim's home was an act of the Omaha axman in each of his three attacks.)

Gonsha was asked how long he had been in Milwaukee before coming here, and he said, "four days, maybe two; I don't remember." He was not sure, police said, where he had been before that, but thought it was St. Paul, Minn.

Samuelson told police he was awakened early yesterday to see the negro standing over him, hatchet in hand. The negro demanded money, and Samuelson gave him all he had in the house, about $25. After the robber had left, Samuelson dressed and went down after him, overtaking him a short distance down the street.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Although Omaha's hatchet slayer did not swing his weapon yesterday morning as he had for three previous mornings, bringing death to three, seriously wounding another and injuring a fifth, police and citizens maintained another all-night vigil.

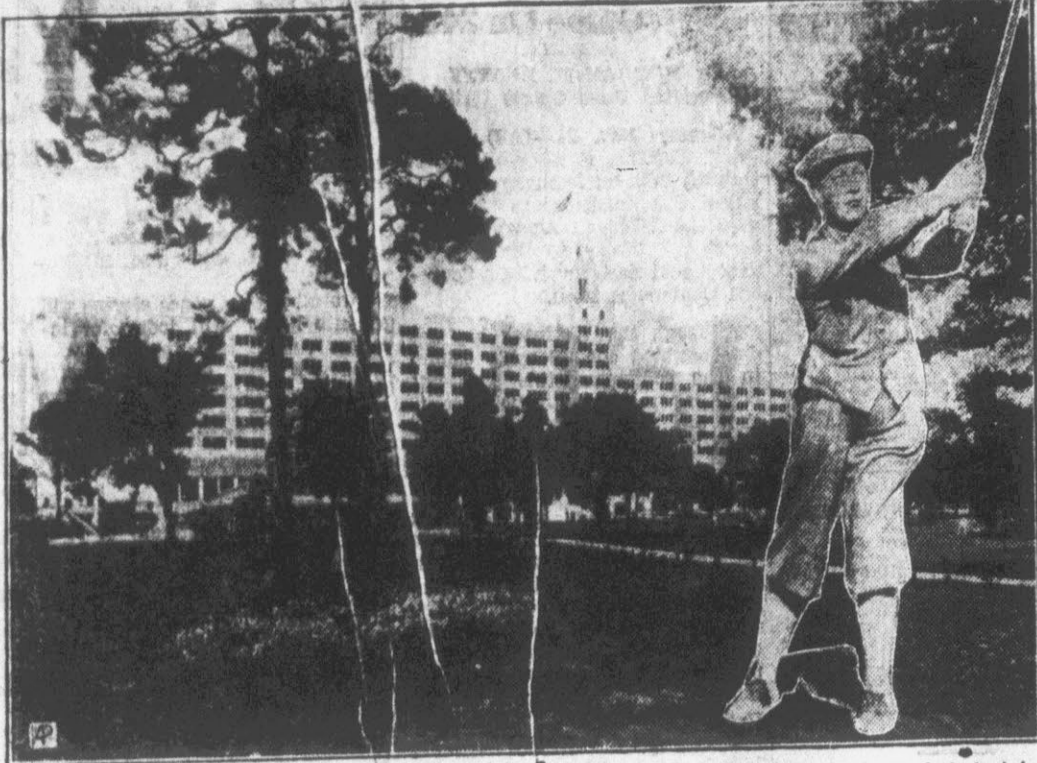

The only development in tracing the negro, hunted as perpetrator of the three crimes in as many days, was the report that a man, hatchet in hand, attempted to stop an automobile driven by Frank Spiker, in the northern part of the city last night.

Spiker sped by the man and called police. A posse was organized and a search that lasted far into the night failed to locate the man or reveal any clues as to his whereabouts. The man threw his hatchet at the car, but Spiker was unharmed.

Mrs. L. T. Hankins also reported to police that a man, who somewhat resembled the slayer appeared at her door a few hours after he had freed Mrs. Harold Stribling Tuesday morning, one of his latest victims, and refused to leave until she produced a gun. After he fled, a small ax, believed to have been taken from the woodshed on her place, was found leaning against the kitchen door where he had been standing.

Stribling, husband of the woman the killer had abducted from their home and held captive for three hours, after slashing Stribling with a hatchet, is improving at a hospital where he underwent an operation yesterday to relieve pressure on his brain, caused by four fractures from the hatchet.

ALMA RUBENS CHARGED WITH INTOXICATION

Maid Of Actress Beats Up Woman, Resulting in Charge Of Drunkenness.

Los Angeles, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A charge that Alma Rubens, screen actress, was "extremely intoxicated" and that she thrust herself into an argument over an automobile collision which led her negro maid to administer a beating to a Beverly Hills woman motorist, drew an indignant denial from the actress here last night. Miss Rubens declared she would ask her lawyer to "protect my interests in the affair." The charge was made in an affidavit filed in the city prosecutor's office by Mrs. W. N. Schoelwer of Beverly Hills. Mrs. Schoelwer obtained issuance of a complaint charging Miss Rubens' maid, Edna Clayton, with battery. The affidavit also declared that Miss Rubens threatened Mrs. Schoelwer with bodily harm during the argument.

The affidavit said Miss Rubens, automobile occupied by the maid and a chauffeur, collided with Mrs. Schoelwer's car, which was parked at a motion picture studio in Hollywood. It was alleged that an argument ensued between Miss Rubens' employes and Mrs. Schoelwer and a friend, Mrs. W. G. Swenson, which was climaxed by the maid seizing Mrs. Schoelwer by the throat and beating her in the face with her fist.

Miss Rubens affirmed, when she according to the affidavit, when she heard the argument and came out of the studio, "extremely intoxicated," and told Mrs. Schoelwer that her maid "only done what she should have done. We are all God's children. There is no creed or color."

The affidavit stated Mrs. Swenson then accused Miss Rubens of "being drunk" whereupon the actress came around the car and said "I'll smash your nose in." The argument was ended, the affidavit said, when a young woman came out of the studio and led the film star into the office.

After depositing bail for the release of her maid, Miss Rubens indignantly denied the drunkenness and abusive language charges. She said she "went out of the studio to see what was wrong and do what I could to settle whatever dispute there was," but declared "I was not wobbling as they say."

"It is most amazing that they mentioned my name," the film actress declared. "I had nothing whatsoever to do with it. I absolutely deny being intoxicated or being abusive in front of the two women."

Miss Rubens said that the court would hear both sides of the story "if I'm going to be dragged into it just because I'm a motion picture actress."

IDENTITY OF BOND THIEF REAL ENIGMA

New Orleans Police Have Hard Time Solving Case Of Alleged Bank Teller.

New Orleans, Nov. 22—(AP)—Conflicting reports of admissions and denials have further complicated the enigma of the identity of the New Orleans newspaper reporter known here as Kenneth T. O'Hara and sought by California authorities as a thief and embezzler.

California police believe the man known as O'Hara is James B. O'Neill, former Los Angeles bank teller, under federal indictment there charging the theft of $25,000 in bonds and also charged with the embezzlement of $176,000 in bonds from the First National Bank where he worked.

New Orleans police quote O'Hara as admitting he was the man wanted in California and as saying "they may call me what they please."

Department of Justice agents who questioned O'Hara about the federal charge say he denied knowledge of the theft. Finally a New Orleans friend who talked yesterday with the accused man quoted him as saying his real name was neither O'Hara or O'Neill, but was an honored name of Kentucky and he'd die before he'd reveal it.

Harry O. Gregson, captain of detectives, who so fastidiously reported in his routine of police headquarters that O'Hara featured the captain in a story as the detective "who always gets his man" was the man who arrested the reporter "on the job" with his newspaper.

Continuing to cloak his identity, Kenneth T. as he was known familiarly, denied various conjectures that drifted in from widely separated sources.

George H. H. Pratt, business manager of the veterans hospital at Gulfport, Miss., told police that a newspaper photograph of Kenneth T. O'Hara bore a close resemblance of the O'Hara he served with in the aviation school during the war at Kelly Field.

O'Hara, Pratt said, was "an excellent officer, a playwright and poet".

O'Hara denied this and also gained at the supposition that he was Louis Atwood, a well-known old Kentucky farmer.

To reveal his identity, O'Hara persistently maintained, would only add to his predicament by involving others. He said, however, he did not intend to fight extradition to the west nor to resist prosecution on the embezzlement charge.

The reporter was traced to New Orleans through a letter written a Los Angeles friend whose identity detectives decline to reveal.

Youthful Prisoner Keeps Jailers Busy

Waycross, Ga., Nov. 22—(AP)—The advice of Miami police that Herbert Craven, Florida's 15 year old "Bad Egg" must be deprived of his clothing and handcuffed if he were successfully jailed, has proved not only correct but timely. Arrested here for investigation, Craven was apprehended in the act of picking the lock on his cell door with the main spring of his watch. The Miami officers had advised by phone:

"He's a bad egg, who can pick a lock and get out of handcuffs. Take his clothes away from him and you can keep him."

The advice was taken. Craven, who escaped from Florida prison authorities at Raiford recently, where he was serving a three year term for robbery, boasted yesterday that his cunning liberated nine prisoners there. He said a master key opened the portable steel cage used to incarcerate the road gang. Two charges of theft of automobiles await him in Florida, among others.

"If they get me back, it will mean life," he boasted, "but 30 days at Raiford will be my limit."

PLANS FLIGHT FROM AMERICA TO COLOMBIA

Lieut. Mendez To Take Off On 4,600-Mile Air Voyage Sometime Tomorrow

New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—Lieut. Benjamin Mendez, American trained chief pilot of the Columbia Air Service, has tentatively set tomorrow as the starting date for a projected 4,600 mile flight from New York to his native capital.

Weather permitting, he plans to take off tomorrow morning from the Rockaway Naval station for Bogota, Colombia, in a Curtiss Falcon seaplane. Stops are planned en route, at Jacksonville, Fla., Havana, Puerto Barrios, Guatemala and Colon Canal Zone. From Colon he will start on the final 1,250 mile hop to Bogota.

Lieut. Mendez, known to Curtiss Field pilots as "Benny," the gas boy, came to this country four years ago to study aviation. He applied to Casey Jones at the Curtiss Flying school for a job at which he might earn his tuition and was given the arduous duty of fueling the planes. He earned his pilot's licence and then entered the Curtiss aeroplane factory as a mechanic.

Learning of his feats the Colombian government commissioned him a lieutenant in the air service and through diplomatic channels obtained an appointment for him to the air service school. He took instruction at Brook and Kelly Fields and then was assigned to Mitchell field where he has been preparing for the flight.

A few months ago the Colombian newspaper Mudo Al Dia started a popular subscription to buy him a plane. They raised $25,000. The plane, built at the Curtiss plant at Garden City, has been christened Roca in honor of the Colombian patriot.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 6 points on a continuation of yesterday's buying movement. The advance met some southern hedging and a considerable volume of realizing but it was absorbed on reactions of 6 or 7 points and prices soon firmed up again on a pricing commission house demand continued trade buying. By the end of the first half hour December had sold up to 20.15 and March to 20.08; with the general list showing net advances of about 8 to 14 points. No fresh news factor was particularly emphasized in explanation of the advance which was supposed to be a further reflection of the buying movement which started yesterday afternoon and which was accompanied by talk of a firming up in the southern spot markets and of a bullish statistical position.

Futures closed steady, 26 to 30 points lighter; spot steady; middling 20.45.

GRAIN MARKET

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN, Associated Press Market Editor, Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Assessments that the wheat crop in southern Argentina has suffered damage from hot winds led to a brisk upturn in the wheat market today. However, the reports were disputed, increased selling especially by the northwest took place on the bulge, the gains failed to hold well. Considerable selling of corn against buying of wheat developed, and there were reports that ownership of between 1,000,000 and 2,000,000 bushels of corn taken off late for deferred shipment to Europe had been transferred back in the last 48 hours to the former holders.

Wheat closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish; corn 1-2 to 7-8c off; oats unchanged, and provisions unchanged to 17c down.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Speculation for the advance was resumed in a violent manner in today's stock market after yesterday's sharp set-back. Powerful pools brought forward at least a dozen high priced specialties and whirled them upward 5 to nearly 35 points, over-crowded the exchange of an ever-crowded short interest. With the exception of the motors which were again under pressure, the general list joined the upswing.

Although there was still a widespread divergence of opinion as to whether yesterday's reaction had sufficiently corrected the weakened technical position of the market, there was no question but that the market had developed an enormous reserve of buying power. There was a marked scarcity in the floating supply of high grade issues, tending to confirm the belief that investors were not yet ready to sell and that large blocks of these securities had been taken out of the market by investment trusts.

Fears of an increase in the Bank of England redcount rate, which might result in a withdrawal of foreign balances from New York, proved to be unfounded. Call money renewed at 6 1-2 per cent but time money was firmer as a result of approaching holiday demands. Widespread curiosity developed as to what the weekly brokers' loan figures would show. Ordinarily, an advance such as that of the past week would bring about a huge increase, but the relatively insignificant gain last week made guessing a futile pastime. Many bankers are of the opinion that loans are being arranged through private, corporate and foreign sources which do not appear in the Federal Reserve totals.

Wright Aeronautical furnished the main pyrotechnics of today's session, soaring 34 3-8 points to a new high record at 255 3-8.
