JONES RESIGNS PASTORATE OF LOCAL CHURCH

Memorial Baptist Pastor Called To Brantley Baptist Church At Baltimore.

Rev. H. Frederick Jones has resigned as pastor of Memorial Baptist Church of this city to accept the pastorate of the Brantley Baptist Church of Baltimore.

Announcement of the resignation was made by Mr. Jones from the pulpit yesterday morning. The church immediately accepted the resignation and appointed a committee to provide another pastor.

Mr. Jones expressed regret over his decision to leave the congregation here, but stated that he felt the broader field of service offered by the church at Baltimore justified him in the change.

Mr. Jones has been pastor of the local church slightly over three years. The congregation has shown splendid growth during his pastorate and probably drew larger crowds to each service than during the stay of any former preacher.

The Baltimore church has a membership of over two thousand. It is situated in the principal business section of the city. It has been without a pastor since the death of Dr. Broughton several months ago.

Mr. Jones delivered his first message to the congregation on Christmas Day. He was immediately issued an unanimous call but declined to accept it. He returned to Greenville to fill the local pulpit during the remainder of the year. He will take charge of the Baltimore pastorate about the first of January.

His resignation, as read from the pulpit yesterday morning follows: My Dear Brethren:

It becomes my painful duty today to resign the pastorate of this church in order to become the pastor of the Brantley Baptist Church of Baltimore, Maryland. To leave the people whom I love sincerely and dearly is among the most trying ordeals of a devoted pastor's heart.

It is due you that I give the circumstances which have led me to this decision. In August of this year, Dr. Richard White of Baltimore, met me in Richmond and said: "That I was the man for Brantley Baptist Church." In October I was asked to come to Baltimore and preach for the church and look over the field. I visited them on November the eleventh but did not have time to make inquiries to any great extent.

However, asked the privilege of recommending me unanimously to the church as its permanent pastor. When this was done, the church voted unanimously to call me to the work. I was informed of the action of the church and asked to meet a committee in Norfolk to arrange the details and help me come to a favorable decision. We met this committee in the Monticello Hotel last Tuesday and after two hours of thoughtful and prayerful conference, we gave our answer to their call. In taking leave of you, I must acknowledge for numberless favors and kindnesses shown me in many ways.

KING GEORGE EXHAUSTED BY LONG ILLNESS

Feeling Of Uneasiness Pervades England as Result Of Monarch's Condition.

London, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Information that King George was somewhat exhausted by the strain of his long illness produced a feeling of uneasiness today. His physicians, however, referred to the exhaustion as the inevitable and stated that his pulse was steady.

It was recognized that the king's constitution had undergone a severe strain. The hope was expressed that he had sufficient vitality left to enable him to overcome the results of this strain.

Those who have been near the king said that he was showing much courage and the will to get well. While he is thus able to help the doctors in their fight against his illness, it was felt that they would have a strong ally in the patient himself.

Yesterday was the first time in the course of his illness that the pulse of the king had been especially mentioned in an official bulletin. Apparently this was done as a reassurance that the pulse was keeping its steady beat although the fever persisted.

The fact that the king's pulse remained steady seemed to indicate that his exhaustion had not yet reached the stage reaching adversely on the action of his heart.

Options of medical experts written for newspapers on the king's condition vary. One expert said: "The whole question now is the ability of the constitution and the system generally to recover. If at this stage the king is beginning to become exhausted and the fever is still going on, the outlook is very serious indeed."

Diplomatic Relations Between Paraguay and Bolivia Severed Today

La Paz, Bolivia, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Popular demonstrations demanding war with Paraguay made the situation in regard to that country more tense today. Diplomatic relations between the two countries were severed as a result of a border clash between troops on Thursday.

"If war is necessary, we will all go," President Hernando Siles told a crowd that gathered before the presidential palace and shouted: "We want war, Mr. President."

Six thousand youths paraded to the offices of the general staff and offered to enlist immediately. They were told that they would be called only if necessary. The youths then marched through the streets swinging lanterns and torches and shouting: "Viva Bolivia, muera Paraguay."

Congress met in secret session and endorsed the foreign policy of the government and applauded the stand that had been taken. Two commissions of leading statesmen were named to advise the government and were remaining in continuous session to draw emergency measures.

President Siles warned the people in an impromptu speech, that both

LEAGUE OPENS SESSIONS AT SWITZERLAND

Aristide Briand Presided At Council Sessions At Lugano Today.

Lugano, Switzerland, Dec. 10.—(AP)—The 53rd session of the Council of the League of Nations opened today with a private session presided over by Aristide Briand, foreign minister of France.

The council met in the Kursaal in a room decorated with exquisite mural paintings. It was decided to waive scruples that gambling had occurred in the building and might occur there again now that the people of Switzerland had voted to restore gaming tables.

Meetings of the "Big Three" statesmen who formulated the Locarno peace pacts, today were expected to do much to lessen the general tension in Europe. The statesmen will hold their conferences in connection with the session of the League Council. The council is meeting at Lugano instead of Geneva, on the suggestion of Dr. Gustav Stresemann, German foreign minister, because of his health and the great value he attaches to meeting his colleagues.

Statesmen attending the council meetings acknowledged that they were disturbed and anxious over the European political situation. They hoped, however, that the anxiety would be lessened by the conferences between Dr. Stresemann, Aristide Briand, French foreign minister and Sir Austen Chamberlain, British foreign secretary.

Dr. Stresemann has publicly expressed his pessimism over the relations between his country and the allied powers due to hesitancy in removing troops from the German soil. Since his arrival here, he has talked with M. Briand and later the French foreign minister called on Sir Austen.

There is some possibility that the June session of the council may be held at Madrid. Quinones De Leon, Spanish representative to the league has extended no official invitation beyond reminding the league that Spain's original invitation given two years ago is still maintained.

In Spanish circles it was believed, however, that owing to the fact that Spain next spring would be the center of two international exhibitions, the Spanish government might express a hope that the council would sit in Madrid in June.

The council adjourned to meet at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Prices Continue Strong On Local Tobacco Market

The price situation continued strong on the Greenville tobacco market today. There was about seven hundred thousand pounds of leaf on hand with indications that sales would be completed during the afternoon hours.

Prices were reported decidedly favorable on practically all grades of leaf. Common grades were as strong as any other time this season.

Farmers were again urged to market their crop as early as possible. They were also advised to rework their offerings and present it in the best condition possible.

Pioneer Lawyer Shot To Death

Walla Walla, Wash., Dec. 10.—(AP)—John W. Brooks, pioneer attorney of Walla Walla was shot to death by an unidentified man as he sat playing cards in his home yesterday with his housekeeper, Mrs. Gertrude Burshaw, who was the only witness.

Mrs. Burshaw told prosecuting Attorney William A. Colman, that she and Brooks were playing cards when some one rapped on the door. Brooks rose and opened the door and a masked man entered. The intruder made no statement but fired twice, both shots entering Brooks' breast, she said.

Brooks was born in Asheville, N. C. September 9, 1870, was admitted to the bar in 1892 and came to Walla Walla in 1893.

Aged Hermit Dies Surrounded By Gold

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Surrounded by wealth the body of James T. Cowden, 78, a hermit and a pioneer resident of this resort, has been found in his dingy top floor quarters in a rooming house.

Seven worn and rusty wallets, bulging with silver and gold coins, were hidden in the room. Packets of stocks, bonds and mortgages had been stuffed into old shoes. Under the shabby carpet were bank books, one of which showed a $37,000 balance.

Gold pieces blackened with age and valuable papers which crumbled as police opened them for examination had been tucked away in hiding places and left long undisturbed.

TAKE ACTION ON BOLIVIAN CRISIS TODAY

Pan-American Conference Pledges Move For Amicable Solution of Quarrel.

Washington, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Swinging into action immediately after it convened, the Pan-American conference on conciliation and arbitration today adopted a resolution pledging co-operation in any move toward amicable solution of the Paraguayan-Bolivian border dispute.

The resolution was sponsored by Ambassador Ferrera, of Cuba, and Dr. Victor Maurtua, delegate from Peru, and its adoption was the first act of the conference after it had been welcomed by President Coolidge, who elected Secretary Kellogg as its chairman.

The two authors of the resolution and Manuel Posner, of Chile; Ambassador Gurgel Do Amaral, of Brazil, and Charles Evans Hughes, of the American delegation, were appointed a committee to examine the controversy and to co-operate with whatever agencies are engaged in endeavoring to reconcile the two countries.

High praise for the part played by the republics of South America in the advancement of peace was expressed by President Coolidge in welcoming delegates.

Delving into the history of international relations on the western hemisphere, the chief executive cited instances after instance of conferences and treaties, all looking to the cause of peace, which he termed "milestones" that mark the way to future progress and the foundation of the work of the present conference.

"There are represented here," he said, "twenty-one nations of the western hemisphere, who have a common purpose to advance the cause of civilization by substituting the obligation of reason for the coercion of force. It is an effort to raise humanity to a higher level of existence, where nations may dwell together in peace and harmony according to the principles of liberty and equality under the fostering influence of justice and equity."

"It is impossible to conceive of a more inspiring motive for an international conference. Here is no shadow of past conflict and no thought of future conquest. All is peace and all thoughts are bent upon establishing a better method through which a higher degree of justice may be done each to the other."

Mr. Coolidge went on to declare that "from the earliest period of their independent existence the Americans have held an advance position in their advocacy of the orderly settlement of international disputes." In this connection he mentioned treaties between Greater Colombia and Peru, Chile and Mexico negotiated in the years between 1822 and 1825, "the first conference of a Pan-American character at Panama in 1826," the congress of Lima in 1847, and similar international meetings in the last half of the nineteenth century.

HOOVER PARTY WELCOMED TO CHILE TODAY

President-elect To Deliver Address At Santiago Sometime Tomorrow.

Valparaiso, Chile, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Welcomed by a 21 gun salute, Herbert Hoover landed at Valparaiso about eight o'clock this morning. He left shortly afterwards on a special train for Santiago.

Satisfied that the time he has devoted to gaining a personal acquaintance with the people and problems of other American republics was well spent, Mr. Hoover today approached the end of the first day of his good will tour. He was eager for his call upon the "A. B. C. nations," beginning today with his arrival at Santiago, from Valparaiso.

The call will end about ten days hence at Rio Janeiro and then he will start for home on the battleship Utah, by way of Havana.

Mr. Hoover was in fine physical condition although the program which he has carried out on the west coast of the Americas was as strenuous as those he followed during his campaign.

He has prepared for delivery tomorrow at Santiago, the longest speech that he has made on his tour. The occasion of its delivery is to be a luncheon in Mrs. Hoover's honor after he had been greeted by President Ibanez.

The last day on the Maryland was much as usual. The mighty ship sped along the bleak, Chilean coast at 15 knots and the crews spent much of the day packing for the trip across the continent of South America.

Many gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. Hoover during their visits to Honduras, Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Peru, and when he received the Bolivian delegation at Antofagasta were crated on board the Maryland for shipment to the United States. They will be sent to Washington for later disposition.

The most valuable presents from Peru, a gold inca death mask and a tapestry, both museum pieces, will probably be given to Stanford University. Presents received by Ambassador Fletcher include a valuable rug from Ecuador which is being sent to the State Department, since under the law he is unable to accept gifts from foreign governments.

AUTOS CLAIM TWO LIVES IN PITT COUNTY

One Man Held Under Bond And Another Exonerated by Coroner's Jury Today.

Two persons were killed in automobile accidents in Pitt county last night, resulting in the holding of one for the next term of criminal court and the exoneration of another by a coroner's jury early today.

The dead are Levi Barrow of near Ayden, and Duffy Croom, colored, also of the Ayden community. Barrow came to his death when an automobile in which he was riding, skidded from the road and went down an embankment on the Swift Creek road, a few miles from Ayden. His neck was broken by the impact. Jesse Barfield, said to have been driving the car, was ordered held for criminal court under $500 bond following an investigation conducted by County Coroner E. S. Williams early this morning. Barfield is alleged to have gone to his home near Ayden and retired, without attempting to render aid to Barrow, whose body was found pinned underneath the car by passersby a short time after the accident occurred. Both men are said to have been drinking.

Croom was killed on the Greenville-Bethel road, a short distance from Greenville early last night when he was hit by an automobile driven by David Beach of this city. Beach was exonerated by a coroner's jury this morning, the accident being declared unavoidable on the part of Beach and the result of negligence on the part of the victim of the accident.

Croom it is said, was patching an automobile tire at a roadside filling station. Beach was blinded by an approaching car and did not see the negro bending over at the edge of the road until it was too late to avoid running into him.

White Star Liner Wrecks On The Coast Of Ireland; Save Crew and Passengers

Cobh, Ireland, Dec. 10.—(AP)—The White Star liner Celtic, which left New York on December 1, with 253 passengers, ran on the rocks off Roaches Point at the entrance of the harbor early today and at low tide was held fast, in fifteen feet of water with the possibility that she might break up if she did not get off on the next tide.

All of the passengers were rescued, being debarked safely in tenders despite rough water around the stranded liner. A British destroyer co-operated in the work and aided in bringing the passengers to safety through the harbor to the docks.

The liner, which saved a hole, dislodged with a severe list to port. She struck the rocks near the light-house at Roaches Point at 5:40 a. m. She was within a short distance of where trans-Atlantic vessels usually cast anchor to meet tenders. A gale had been in progress off the coast and the pilot had been unable to get aboard. It stated that she had 12 feet of water in some of her compartments.

The Dutch tugs Gelizee and Morveeck tried to tow the line off the rocks, but were unsuccessful and preparations were made to make another effort to get her off on the next tide. For this reason members of the crew remained aboard the liner after the passengers had been removed.

The passenger list of the Celtic composed 87 cabin passengers, 47 third class passengers and 119 tourist class passengers.

The grounding of the great ship took place in a miserable weather condition with a cold rain and biting wind adding to the discomfort of the removal of the passengers through the harbor to the Cobh docks.

A Press Association dispatch from Liverpool said that it was understood that 27 survivors of the Vestris' disaster were aboard the Celtic when it ran ashore.

White Star officials this afternoon said that the Celtic was in no immediate danger. There was a heavy ground swell and a light southeasterly wind blowing. Rounding Southeastern Island in a gale, the Celtic made for Cobh harbor and Cobh, her first port since she touched at Boston after leaving New York. The pilot could not be taken aboard because of weather conditions and the liner made for the harbor entrance which requires the utmost skill to navigate even under normal conditions, particularly for a 21,000-ton ship like the Celtic.

Instead of clearing the entrance, the liner moved at a very slow speed, thus probably averting disaster, and rammed a ledge known as Cow and Calf rocks.

Noted Robber Is Killed By Victim

Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 10.—(AP)—A robber, believed to be Reddy O'Brien, of Seattle, was killed and his victim, Julian Tison, was wounded in a gun duel at an inn on the Mount Ranier highway, 32 miles southeast of here last night.

Two men entered the inn and held up Mrs. Tison. Her husband, in the kitchen, opened fire, killing one of the men. The other fled twice at Tison, then fled. Tison was wounded in the abdomen and side.

S. S. Leaders Meet At Nashville, Tenn.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Approximately 200 Sunday school leaders and experts in religious education gathered here today for the 20th annual meeting of the General Sunday School Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, following a series of meetings of associated groups which have been in session during the past week.

Dr. J. Fisher Simson, of Austin, Tex., president of the council, was to address the assembly this morning and election of officers was expected sometime today.

COOLIDGE SEES NEED OF WHITE HOUSE IN COUNTRY

Washington, Dec. 10.—(AP)—To Herbert Hoover and other presidents to come may go the benefit of President Coolidge's suggestion that the Chief Executive be provided with a country White House.

Only a few months before his retirement from office, the president has declared that the health not only of the president but of the mistress of the White House would be benefited if there were some place in the hills near Washington where they might go to escape the heat and tedium of summer.

Writing for the fiftieth anniversary of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, President Coolidge said: "As a president about to retire, I feel at liberty to write of certain phases of that office which one who was entering upon its duties might feel some hesitation in discussing."

He declared that he referred to the and physical condition of the president, adding "not so much for my own sake as for my successor."

"I have often remarked that at least I had one distinction, that the healthiest president that the country has ever had."

"Washington is practically at sea level," he said. "Its climate is an exceedingly good all-the-year-round climate, but at times the humidity is high and relieved. It becomes monotonous. The only avenue of escape for the president is the naval boat Mayflower."

President Coolidge explained the chief has little freedom of movement and he asserted that the only place he could enter without considerable preliminary disturbance is the White House.

"While I have made no mention of the mistress of the White House," he added, "she is, of course, to be considered. The public little understands the very exacting duties that she must perform and the restrictive life that she must lead. Fully as much as the president, she needs the opportunity for a change and some place where she can have the seclusion of the White House without a constant reminder of its obligations."

He declared that such a residence would not be in a strict sense, a Summer White House, but added: "It should not have desired to leave Washington so early in the season or return so late. Being distant from the capital for a considerable length of time each summer is attended with a good many inconveniences, even when we have the use of the airplane for mail purposes and a special wife running into the White House."

SECOND WEEK OF CONGRESS HAS BIG TASK

Boulder Dam Problem And Appropriation Bills Hold Center Of Stage.

Washington, Dec. 10.—(AP)—The beginning of the second week of Congress found the House drawing away from the Senate as far as tangible accomplishments were concerned, the Senate having an old problem, Boulder Dam, yet to solve, while the House, with the first of the nine appropriation bills behind it was free to take up the Austrian and Greek debt settlements.

Week-end developments made it seem that the row between Arizona and California over the distribution of water from the proposed dam was its solution in prospect. This question was gone over at conferences, as was whether Boulder Dam is to be built by the government or private enterprise. Arizona has been fearful that if the government builds the barrier, the state would not be able to levy taxes on it. While no definite compromise on these two major questions was announced, it was known that there is hope that a final adjustment is not far away.

Even before the debt settlements reached the House, it was known that a fight on one of them was in prospect. Rep. Garrett, Democratic floor leader, had announced that he would join Rep. Crips, Democrat of Georgia, in opposing the proposed Greek debt settlement. It amounts to approximately $20,000,000, and under present arrangements made for funding it another $12,000,000 would be loaned the country by the United States.

In addition to the war debts, the House had on its calendar today the joint resolution authorizing the appointment of a congressional committee to attend the exercises at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, December 17, to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the first airplane flight by the Wright brothers.

Farm relief and tariff revision the marking time as present Senator McNary's bill on farm relief has yet to be passed on by the agriculture committee. The Democratic members of the House Ways and Means Committee are to meet tomorrow to fill committee vacancies and may consider their attitude toward the tariff bill which the Republicans plan to write.

When the Senate gets through with Boulder Dam it has a bill to regulate interstate shipments of goods made by prison labor before it. Next in line comes the important measure calling for the construction of fifteen cruisers for the navy.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee had no task set for today but tomorrow it plans to take up the Kellogg-Briand treaty for the renunciation of war. Opposition to the pact has failed to crystallize and administration leaders are confident that it will be ratified by the Senate.

Two Bums Prove Heroes Of Fire At Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Sometimes heroes are, as in the case of the Reliance Hotel fire yesterday, just "a couple of bums."

The Reliance is one of those South State street hostilities which the flossam of the city calls "flop houses." The Salvation Army operates it as a refuge for the poor who, too, must sleep.

Smoke billowed through the hotel where nearly 200 "guests" were in their rooms. There was a stampede for the street. Many men were roughed and bruised, but all got out safely; all but three. Two of those who remained, choking on the smoke, could easily have gone out with the others. They elected, however, to remain to help the third.

This third man was Peter Rector, 58 years old, who earned a precarious livelihood peddling handbills. He was trapped on the third floor, hemmed in by the flames, which were lapping at the coverlets of his bed, he made his cries audible to the other two.

Turning back, these two fought through the blinding smoke, and with their bare hands beat out the flames which already were licking at Rector's flesh. Choking, and breathing out the fire which had spread to their own meagre rags, the two carried Rector to the street, aided him into a waiting ambulance and then shambled away down the street.

No one got their names; no one inquired. They were just "a couple of bums."

FUND FOR POOR PICKS UP OVER THE WEEK-END

Total Amount of Merchants' Association Fund Today Stood At $224.00.

Greater interest was manifested over the week-end in the Merchants' Association Christmas fund and contributions totaling $28.00 were reported from the office of the secretary today. The total amount so far contributed stands at $224.00.

The committee recently appointed to investigate the condition of needy families of the community today reported several other cases deserving of aid. Many families were described as in pitiful condition and in immediate need of assistance.

The committee stated that it would be glad to accept gifts of wearing apparel as several of the families were without adequate clothing to keep them warm during the winter.

The public is urged to give as liberally as possible to this fund looking to the carrying of Christmas cheer to the destitute families of the community. The fund is expected to increase rapidly during the next two weeks. Everybody is urged to contribute as early as possible in order that the committee may know exactly how many families can be cared for.

The following cases have been presented to the committee since the report of Saturday, bringing the total number to about forty.

REGARD HELD FOR ROBBERY AT BLUE BIRD FILLING STATION.
Henry Riddick, colored, broke into the Blue Bird Filling Station last night and rifled the cash drawers to the extent of $19.00. He was confined in the city jail this morning on a charge of robbery after police had recovered the $19.00. Entrance to the building was made through a window.

High Class Vaudeville.
As in all minstrel shows as well as Van Arnam's Minstrels, after the traditional "first part" comes the "old" or second part.

Mr. Van Arnam has always presented high grade vaudeville acts that are of recognized metropolitan prestige and success, and his aim is to present high grade modern minstrelsy good enough to win hosts of patrons who compare us favorably with anything in the minstrel world.

Our vaudeville this year is made up of the following acts: "Ardell" on the silver rings is a sensational novelty act with a marvelous sensational finish, Garner Newton, "the apostle of mirth" will drive your cares away besides showing you some of the world's best wooden shoe dancing. "The University Five" are real harmony singers who sing songs from grand opera to the barber shop chords. Every singer a soloist, so if you love quartet singing, they surely will please you.

Then comes "The Palace Trio" Snyder brothers, and Roberts without any doubt the fastest dancing act you have ever looked at. They do all styles of dancing and their wonderful military dance is a classic.

Van Arnam's Minstrels will be at White's Theatre Wednesday.

Close up your flat, take down your hat, get out and see the comedy—"Help Yourself." December 11, 8 p. m. 35c and 50c.

SALVATION ARMY APPEALS FOR POOR FAMILY

Dear Mr. Editor:
Will you allow a space in your paper to announce that the Salvation Army is again, as usual, to give the poor a Christmas dinner, and we find quite a few needy cases in the town and surroundings. After investigating we found that these cases also need clothing and shoes, as well as food and fuel, and would like to say if any one has any clothing they would like to give, it would be appreciated so much and could be used in supplying the needs of the needy ones. In making up our Christmas baskets we can use groceries of all kinds, fruits, candies and toys for the little ones. Will be glad to call for anything you would like to give.

Our phone number is 584-W. If any one would like to give a check please make it payable to the Salvation Army.

SCHOOL TEACHER SLAIN AFTER CRIMINAL ATTACK

Sheridan, Mich., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Miss Flossie Carter, pretty Sheridan school teacher, was found beaten to death yesterday in her small coupe parked on a little traveled road. She had been criminally attacked, there were marks on her throat and face, and her clothing had been torn nearly away. The 27-year-old school teacher's head had been crushed, apparently with an axe.

Beside the body, which was found by Ray Collier, 14-year-old hiker, there was a note. It read: "I did this myself. Please don't blame anybody else—Miss Carter."

The handwriting resembled that of Miss Carter, but friends declared it was not hers. The note was written on an envelope addressed by her. State police and sheriff's officers were convinced the note was a crude attempt by the slayer to forestall an investigation.

Lee Bracy, a 19-year-old Olivet College student, had an engagement to meet Miss Carter Friday night—the night she was last seen alive. Bracy, who was taken into custody last night, was unable to aid officers in their investigation, satisfying them that he was at the college at the hour Miss Carter left Sheridan to drive to her home, four miles away.

Bracy said that when he finally reached Sheridan Tuesday night, Miss Carter had been gone two hours. Bracy was being held, however, for questioning at the inquest today. Young Collier was also to be questioned again concerning his discovery of the woman's body.

POINTER CLUB TRIALS TO BEGIN TODAY

Pinehurst, N. C., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Trials of the Pointer Club of America will start on the Continental Field Club courses at Pinehurst today. A great muster of pointer dog owners and their dog handlers from many states have arrived for the event.

A plentiful stock of game is reported at the Name sanctuary here, on which are the trial grounds of the Continental Club.

Killed By Automobile.
Durham, N. C., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Struck by an automobile. C. W. Justice, 34, steel worker for the Dyle University Construction Company, was almost instantly killed last night.

Herbert Weaver, Durham county youth, driver of the car, and his companion, Warren Wheeler, also of Durham county, are being held for investigation by police.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

ABOUT TOWN

"Did you have a Christmas savings account?" asked a well known business man today.

"If so, why not contribute a part of it to the Merchants' Association fund for the destitute people of Greenville. There is no other thing to which you could give your money that would bring such widespread happiness.

"Forty or more destitute families have already been found in need of attention. A considerable amount of money is going to be necessary to carry Christmas joy into these homes and others to be uncovered by the investigating committee.

"If life has been good to you during the past year, show your appreciation by giving in behalf of those who have not been so fortunate."

"Any tobacco market that can sell a million pounds of leaf daily for a period of sixty days is certainly deserving of one's consideration," said a prominent official of an adjoining county as he offered his first load for sale here last Friday.

"I read of the remarkable achievement of the Greenville market in the columns of the Reflector and thought I would come up and give you boys a trial."

"I am gratified at the rapid way sales are conducted and the splendid prices obtained.

"You can get your last cent I'll sell the most of my crop here next season."

"The string of multi-colored lights swung across Evans street at Five Points and the courthouse corner certainly adds to the spirit of Christmas which is beginning to make itself felt in Greenville," remarked a local citizen last night.

"Combined with the hundreds of similar lights blinking from the fronts of the various stores, this form of decoration should give the city a fairy-like atmosphere during the Yuletide season.

"Greenville business men are to be congratulated upon the splendid way they are competing for the cash prizes offered for the best decorations of this type.

"It is to be hoped this week will see numbers of electrically lighted Christmas trees spring into being on lawns and porches of the residential districts."

"Remember suffering humanity while wrapping your Christmas packages and mailing your cards and letters," urged a member of the Pitt County Chapter of American Red Cross today.

"Tuberculous Christmas seals not only make a splendid adornment for each package but express in a mute way the thought of that great mass of humanity suffering from tuberculosis and unable to enjoy little of the spirit of this season of the year.

"Funds derived from the sales of these stamps will be devoted to the countless number of men suffering from the disease who are unable to provide for themselves.

"Buy liberally and rest assured of having done your bit in the interest of a better and stronger civilization."

"It should be unnecessary to remind Greenville people to do their Christmas shopping early this year," declared a well known business man today.

"With practically every store in the city reflecting the spirit of the Yuletide season, no one should forget that they have their shopping ahead of them.

"It will be to the advantage of everybody to do his shopping at the earliest convenience. By so doing they will not only be able to get the best of the stores but will also have that much out of the way so they can enjoy the pre-Christmas social events.

"Do not forget that the Reflector makes an appropriate present for the former Greenville man or woman living in some other section of the country," reminded the manager of circulation this morning.

"Think of how glad you were to get the paper the times you were away from home among strangers, unable to get in intimate touch with things back in your old home town.

"The Reflector graphically portrays the happenings of Greenville and Pitt county and anybody who has ever lived here should not be without it.

"Include a year's subscription in your lists of gifts this year and rest assured of making somebody happy."

"Do your holiday shopping in Greenville and rest assured of getting the best values on the market," suggested a visitor today.

"Stocks are probably more complete in Greenville than any other town in Eastern Carolina. The merchants are living up to their slogan of the principal shopping

ANOTHER YEAR

Turning another milestone The Reflector today embarks on a new year of its now long career with the sincere hope that during the past forty-odd years it has justified its existence and that as each future day passes the paper will prove an asset and a benefit to Greenville and the surrounding section of Eastern-North Carolina.

Looking backward for nearly fifty years The Reflector sees a struggling little village of just a few inhabitants as a contrast with Greenville of today, a modern small city of more than ten thousand persons with conveniences and advantages never dreamed of back in those now almost forgotten days. During this period of growth and accomplishment for Greenville and Pitt County The Reflector, as it is today, was the county's newspaper heralding the events, praising its citizens and communities on their accomplishments, sorrowing with them in their grief and trying at all times to point the way to better things ahead.

We reiterate that it is our sincere wish that during the years to come the community will move ever forward toward those better things of life and that The Reflector can to an extent help make this possible.

One of the local banks this week paying our approximately $8,000 to persons who last December began saving for this Christmas. To be sure, this money comes in very handy for those who receive it and if you are not one of them we urge you to make your plans now to save systematically during the coming year so that you, too, may have spending money for next Christmas or for whatever

GEORGIA TECH HAS PERFECT GRID SEASON

Atlanta, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Georgia Tech's Golden Tornado today surveyed a perfect season of nine victories which carried it to the Southern Conference football champion and the prospect of greater triumph at Rose Bowl on New Year's Day against California.

The Yellow Jackets rounded out their first perfect season Saturday by their conquest of University of Georgia, 20 to 6, while the Florida Gators were slipping from the throne by a heart-breaking defeat at the hands of Tennessee's Volunteers in Knoxville, 12-12.

Thus, with Tennessee unbeaten but tied by Kentucky, the Tornado and the Volunteers stood side by side among the six greatest major teams of the nation—and yielding to none of the other four in prestige. At least until January 1, the Tornado and the Vols hold sway with Detroit, Boston College, Southern California and Utah.

The three greatest teams in the south came down the stretch of the most exciting season on record with every prospect of a tie. Tennessee's light was weakened first by the Wildcats in a Thanksgiving Day scoreless tie, and Florida's went next.

Saturday's games lacked none of the climatic thrills expected of them. The Tornado for the first time this season found itself forced to come from behind to beat Georgia. The Bull Dogs unleashed a passing attack in the first quarter that netted a touchdown and led the Atlanta crew, 6 to 0. But the powerful line and ramming backs of the Tornado were not to be denied their final triumph as was fully indicated before upwards of 35,000 partisans in a magnificent third quarter drive.

At Knoxville, McEver, Hackman and Dodd turned loose everything their sophomore training and capable minds gave them and turned the tables on the nation's greatest scoring machine of the year. In the Volunter backfield had a margin of victory over the Gainesville players somewhat more decisive than one point would indicate. Perhaps Florida can attribute the loss to the lateness of its rally, which if sustained, should have carried the Gators over for another encounter and a clinch on a share of the conference title.

But the one, two, three finish of Tech, Tennessee and Florida in one of the most dazzling seasons in history, during which the south established itself more firmly in the football firmament, demonstrated the powerful gridiron machine of Dixie more strikingly than if the season had ended more tamely.

Lagging not far behind these leaders were Virginia Poly with four conference victories and one defeat at the hands of V. M. I., and next stood the battered crimson of Alabama with six victories and two losses—to Tennessee and Tech.

They came in order then, Louisiana State, Clemson, Vanderbilt, Tulane, Mississippi, South Carolina, Kentucky, North Carolina, Virginia Military Institute, Maryland, Georgia, N. C. State, Mississippi A. & M., Washington and Lee, Virginia, Sewanee and Auburn.

The Yellow Jackets broke training today for a few days before getting themselves to the grid of work preparatory to meeting the Californians. The squad is expected to leave before Christmas and work out on the western field three or four times. The hot-up in training was believed necessary if the squad maintains its present heads-up power.

QUIZ WOMAN IN DEATH OF N. Y. GAMBLER

Head Of Narcotic Ring Believed Financed By Arnold Rothstein at New York.

New York, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Mrs. June Boyd, reputed agent of the international narcotic ring, Federal officials believe, was financed by Arnold Rothstein, slain gambler, was brought here from Chicago today and taken to the Federal building for questioning by U. S. Attorney Tuttle.

Four persons, including Mrs. Boyd, were arrested last week as the result of clues found in the business papers of Rothstein.

The first was Joseph Unger, taken from the Twentieth Century Limited at Buffalo, after his trunk were taken from the train at the Grand Central Terminal and found to contain $2,000,000 worth of narcotics.

Then Mrs. Boyd was picked up in Chicago when it was found that Unger had telephoned her before leaving this city. Narcotics valued at about $500,000 were found in her possession.

The next two arrests, Samuel Lowe and Mrs. Estel Meyers, were made here. The last two were believed to be pawns rather than principals in the narcotics syndicate.

Mrs. Boyd was brought to New York by deputy U. S. marshals stationed there and the party was joined at Harmon outside New York City by James Kerrigan, narcotic agent of Washington, who was sent here to take general charge of investigating Rothstein's alleged connection with the drug syndicate.

At the station they were met by

Assistant U. S. Attorney John Blake and two narcotic agents.

Mrs. Boyd said she was separated from her husband and that clothes found in her room in Chicago belonged to Unger. The suitcase filled with narcotics in her room was brought back with her. In opening the packages of drugs agents found a quantity of Christmas cards and gay holiday ribbon.

Police Commissioner Warren refused to comment on a letter to all Republican county committee chairmen and Republican members of the legislature from W. Kingsland Macy, Suffolk county Republican leader, recommending legislative investigation of police department in the Rothstein case. He acknowledged that he had read the letter.

That the powers in control of the great metropolis have grown more than usually arrogant of late is generally recognized by the public. Mr. Macy wrote. He said he believed Governor-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, a Democrat, would favor such an inquiry.

There have been frequent charges that political influences were responsible for the apparent inaction of police in seeking Rothstein's murderers or murderers.

Mr. Macy suggested as the prosecutor of such an inquiry former Governor Charles S. Whitman, former United States Attorney Emory P. Buckner or the present United States Attorney, Charles H. Tuttle.

Football Season About Over Now

By ALAN J. GOULD.

New York, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Except for a few echoing post-season shouts in the far west, the college football tumult for 1928 is stilled.

The experts, as soon as they have finished dodging the all-American rebounds, may turn their attention from now on, among other affairs of sport, to baseball palaver as well as such burning questions as whether Dempsey will stage a comeback, nurni turn pro or Tilden be reinstated. Off hand the answer to all three of these issues inclines to the affirmative but for the most they have nothing to do with summing up the gridiron grid.

Pyle, or his backers, were reported to have dropped considerable cash on the first drive, won by Andy Payne, of Claremore, Okla., last spring. This time he plans to charge each contestant an entry fee of $300 and furnish neither meals nor lodging as he did in the first race. Some $50,000 in prizes are to be distributed, says the promoter, with first prize again $25,000.

Pyle Plans for Races In March

New York, Dec. 10.—(AP)—C. C. Pyle plans a second cross-country marathon run, starting from New York, tentatively, on March 31. Just where it will finish Pyle can't say at the moment except that some Pacific coast city will get the honor.

Pyle, or his backers, were reported to have dropped considerable cash on the first drive, won by Andy Payne, of Claremore, Okla., last spring. This time he plans to charge each contestant an entry fee of $300 and furnish neither meals nor lodging as he did in the first race. Some $50,000 in prizes are to be distributed, says the promoter, with first prize again $25,000.

Roosevelt Ends Period Of Rest

Warm Springs, Ga., Dec. 10.—(AP)—An extended rest period came to an end today for Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor-elect of New York, who expects to be in his New York home tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock.

The governor-elect spent his last Sunday here in the new glass enclosed swimming pool erected for infantile paralysis patients and indicated that this stay or more than a month in his winter home had proved very beneficial.

Mr. Roosevelt made public yesterday his letter to more than 5,000 Democratic leaders a month ago, in which he asked for a statement from each as to the strength of the party after the national election. He said he had received many favorable replies, and that many had been sent to his office in New York, indicating that the party had a "militant working organization in the making."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Dec. 20.—(AP)—A renewal of the selling movement which developed right after publication of the government crop report Saturday sent prices on the cotton market down from unchanged to 15 points. This was promoted by relatively easy Liverpool cables but the decline to 19.60 for January seemed to bring in considerable covering or trade buying and the market recovered 9 to 10 points of its losses during the early trading. The beluges, however, met continued selling from one source or another and the market was more or less unsettled at the end of the first half hour, with the active months showing net losses of 10 or 11 points. Private cables said that heavy general liquidation on the crop estimate had been absorbed by continued and Bombay buying in the Liverpool market.

Futures closed very steady, 3 points lower to 8 higher; spot quiet; middling 20.00.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Grain prices went lower all around today, affected to a noticeable extent by continued liquidating sales associated with stock market weakness. Sell-off of grain disclosed a lack of buying support and professional speculators included to the bear side in all pits. A decrease of 1,876,000 bushels in the U. S. white visible supply total today failed to act as counter-balance.

Wheat closed unsettled 3-8 to 1-2 to 7-8 to 1 net lower; corn 5-8 to 7-8 to 1 off; oats 1-8 to 1-2 to 5-8 down and provisions showing 2 to 10 drop.

STOCK MARKET

By STANLEY W. FRENOSIL, Associated Press Financial Editor

New York, Dec. 10.—(AP)—The "weeding out" progress of margin accounts resumed in the stock market today after an initial outburst of strength had carried many issues up 3 to 23 points.

Renewal of weakness in Radio, Montgomery Ward, Wright Aeronautical and some of the other high priced specialties turned the general course of prices extremely irregular before midday. In general, most of the high-grade, seasoned dividend-paying rails and industrials received good support.

Call money renewed at 9 per cent and dropped to 8 when a plentiful supply of funds appeared in the market. Banks called about $15,000,000 in loans but these were easily replaced.

The day's trade news also was less favorable than usual. The United States Steel Corporation reported a decrease of 78,000 tons in unfilled orders last month, but this probably was due to the maintenance of a high level of operation in the face of a seasonal slackening in demand. The Standard Oil Co. of Indiana announced a cut of 1 cent a gallon in gasoline prices in Chicago, and the reduction was immediately met by its leading competitors.

Renewed selling pressure against the high priced specialties undoubtedly was influenced by the unofficial denials of widespread rumors that organized banking support had been provided for the market. Radio was the hardest hit, breaking from an early high of 314, which represented a week-end gain of 75 points, to 275, but it quickly snapped back to 290. Montgomery Ward fell from 342 to 318. Wright Aeronautical from 221 to 196, and National Tea from 330 to 310, while General Motors, Johns Manville, Nations' Biscuit, International Nickel, Rossa Insurance, Columbia Graphophone, Packard Motors and Victor Talking Machine fell 4 or more points below their early high levels.

Some of today's selling undoubtedly represented the liquidation of weakened marginal accounts. Saturday's reaction was so drastic and the tape so late that prices or many stocks were down 5 to 26 points before most traders could act to protect their commitments.

When "Pa and Ma" come loitering around with little Bud and big Sis, they want something that will be of service, at the same time be within reach of their pocketbook—not leave it in a helpless condition. This store anticipated the needs of those kind of Christmas shoppers and bought early and we are now showing the most attractive line of—

Bicycles	Foot Balls	Tool Chests
Velocipedes	Erector Sets	Casseroles
Tricycles	Wagons	Percolators
Sidewalk Bicycles	Airplanes	Shotguns
Skutters	.22 Rifles	Clocks
Waffle Irons	Automobiles	Air Rifles

Ever shown in Greenville. Space forbids to mention many lines that we carry, but one visit to our store will convince you of the many bargains we are offering at this time.
