WILLIAM TATE PROUD OF THE WRIGHT BOYS

Kitty Hawk Man Helped in First Plane Test Staged in His Yard Years Ago.

Kitty Hawk, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The man in whose front yard the assembly of the first airplane was started is one of the nation's most ardent aviation enthusiasts although he has never left the ground.

He is William J. Tate, now the lighthouse keeper near Kitty Hawk, and formerly postmaster in the days when the Wright brothers were working with their first flying machine. A modest monument in Tate's front yard marks the spot where assembly of the first plane was started.

The plane was later moved to the sand dune area near Kill Devil Hill for its first flight tests, but to Tate his front yard served as the cradle of aviation. He has taken a profound interest in modern aeronautical developments, watched each trans-Atlantic flight, and each new world air record, and enjoys satisfaction in the memory that the Wrights used his front yard as a work shop.

His only regret is that he was not present on the day that Orville Wright started the world by successfully flying the new machine for the first time. He was in the village when the word came that the Wrights, who were regarded as "fools," attempting to defy gravity, had flown.

Tate admits a bit reluctantly that he thought the queer antics of the Wright brothers would get them nowhere. But he at least enjoyed watching this new kind of foolishness and spent hours with the Wrights when they worked with gliders.

Tate also claims a slight share of the responsibility for the Wrights choosing Kitty Hawk for their experiments. The Wrights wrote to the weather bureau, asking for data on the windiest place in America and were told that Kitty Hawk measured up to that standard. A letter addressed to the weather reporter at Kitty Hawk finally fell into the hands of Tate, who answered it giving a long description of the character of the land, the sand dunes and other details the Wrights desired before making their decision. It was on the basis of this data that the Wrights came to Kitty Hawk in October 1900 to work with gliders "just for the sport of the thing."

Tate, his hair now gray and not quite as spry as he was when the Wrights first knew him, is a devoted friend of the genial Mr. Wright. He has taken an active part in the preparations for Orville's return to the scene of the first flight on the 25th anniversary next Monday.

It was Tate who rounded up the surviving members of that little party of five, who witnessed the first flight of man twenty-five years ago, so that they might mark the spot from which they remembered seeing Orville take off. They agreed on the location, and Tate drove a stake in the ground. Workmen a few days later began erection of the National Aeronautical Association memorial which will mark the spot for future generations.

Tate has never flown in an airplane. He believes that he might enjoy the experience, but says that perhaps it is just as well that he stay on the ground and take care of the lighthouse down here.

Kitty Hawk will be the scene of an international celebration in honor of the Wright brothers' achievements Monday on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the first flight. More than 200 official representatives of foreign countries are expected to make up the official pilgrimage, which will include Orville Wright, the first man to fly.

It will be Mr. Wright's first return to Kitty Hawk since 1911 when he made a short summer visit here to do some gliding with an English companion.

Start Fight For Rothstein Estate

New York, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A fight for the shrinking estate of Arnold Rothstein, now estimated at less than $2,000,000, is to be carried to the courts.

Beneficiaries under two wills, the last of which his widow and mother and father are attempting to have voided, were unable to arrive at an agreement.

Inez Morton, show girl friend of the slain gambler refused to accept a lump sum in place of the interest of one-sixth the estate willed her.

The will under which she is a beneficiary was signed by Rothstein as he lay dying in the hospital, too weak to write his full name and able only to make a cross.

The will which relatives wish to have declared his last testament does not provide for Miss Morton or several other persons named in the contested document.

Dr. Herbert Charles Clark of New York has been appointed director of the Gorgas Memorial laboratory to be established at Panama City by act of congress as a tribute to the health and sanitation accomplishments of the late Gen. William C. Gorgas.

POOR FUNDS IS STILL MOVING UPWARD HERE

Contribution Of $25 Received Today From Judge Franklin Wilson, of N. J.

A contribution of $25.00 from Morrisstown, N. J., today swelled the Merchants' Association Christmas fund for the poor to $445.25, according to information issued from the office of the secretary this afternoon.

The contribution was the gift of Judge C. Franklin Wilson, native of this county, but who for the past several years has been a resident of the New Jersey city.

Mr. Wilson's check was to take care of Christmas opportunity No. 20, recently announced by the investigating committee through the columns of the Daily Reflector. It is for a family living near Gum Swamp church. The contribution, Mr. Wilson stated, is in memory of his father, the late Louis Henry Wilson, long a resident of the Gum Swamp community.

The donor is a successful lawyer at Morrisstown, N. J., and a member of the firm of Vreeland & Wilson. He is a former judge who has seen long experience in the administration of the law in his section.

Members of the local committee stated this afternoon that they expected the Christmas fund to mount rapidly from now on. Donations to this worthy purpose no doubt will be heavy over the week-end and cause the barometer to take a great bound upward by Monday morning. Persons who haven't yet contributed to the fund are urged to do so immediately. Fifty or more needy families must be provided for during the holiday season and this can not be done without the liberal giving of public-spirited men and women.

Watch the barometer in front of the Merchants' Association. It will remind you of the great movement in behalf of humanity and prove a constant reminder of the obligation which you owe this unfortunate element of citizenship.

Canton Doctor Fatally Hurt In Car Wreck

Canton, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Dr. J. S. Sturdivant, local dentist, was fatally injured early today when the automobile which he drove plunged off a high bridge on the new Canton-Ashville highway near here.

Belief is expressed that he lost control of the car as he neared the bridge.

Dr. Sturdivant was 38 years of age and a native of Monroe, N. C. He was unmarried. Funeral services are expected to be held in Monroe.

Confederate Veteran Buried at Washington

Wilmington, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Funeral services for Captain Walter G. McCrae, 88, Confederate veteran, were held this afternoon at the St. James Episcopal Church here. Capt. McCrae died at his home here last night after a brief illness.

He participated in the battles of Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. He graduated at the Harvard law school and was an active engineer. In 1898 he was selected sheriff of New Hanover county and in 1909 mayor of Wilmington.

ANXIETY INCREASES FOR BRITISH KING

London, Dec. 15.—(AP)—(6 p. m.)—Unusual activities of the doctors about King George's sick room late this afternoon occasioned keen interest not mixed with anxiety for possible new and unfavorable developments in the royal patient's condition.

Lord Dawson of Penn., the chief physician to his majesty, spent the entire afternoon at Buckingham Palace for the first time since the king's illness began.

Two other doctors who had not been included previously in consultations joined Lord Dawson and Sir Stanley Hewett about 4:30 p. m. These were Dr.

William Adlington Howitt and Dr. Robert Stanton Woods, both members of the royal college of surgeons.

After being present an hour, they left the palace and then quickly returned a half hour later, being again closeted with the other physicians.

The concern of watches increased as the consultation continued without explanation of its meaning being offered.

Dr. Woods is an eminent electrologist and radiologist and his presence naturally suggested some modification of the electrical treatment of the king and further investigation of the exact state of the lung part affected.

MAN ADMITS KILLING WIFE

Charles Taylor Tells Police Finances Were At The Bottom Of The Crime.

Shreveport, La., Dec. 15.—(AP)—Having confessed killing his wife by beating her over the head with a poker and then holding the body in a trunk, Charles S. Taylor today awaited the arrival of Memphis, Tenn., officers to return him to the scene of the crime for court action.

In the presence of four deputies and newspaper men, Taylor, last night, an hour after arrest, declared he killed his wife following a lengthy quarrel over financial matters 12 days ago.

"There was an iron poker lying on a chair near me and I grabbed it and hit my wife over the head," he said. "She fell to the floor and I don't know whether I hit her more than once or not."

Taylor said he walked out of the house then to clear his mind and that when he returned and found his wife dead he placed her body in a trunk and then locked it.

Taylor arrived here Wednesday morning and Frank Cravens, deputy sheriff, immediately had plans to take him into custody. He was lured on an automobile ride last night by a friend of the deputy's who was supposed to take him to his brother's home. Cravens arrested the driver of the car ostensibly for speeding and took advantage of the opportunity to search Taylor. Finding a razor in his pocket the deputy arrested him on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

The razor bore the name of a Memphis dealer and this fact was used in obtaining the confession.

WOOTEN HEADS PITT DOCTORS

Local Man Elected President Of County Medical Society Here Last Night.

Dr. W. I. Wooten was elected president of the Pitt County Medical Society at the annual meeting of the organization held in the basement of the Methodist church last night. He succeeds Dr. Willis of Farmville.

The session last night was in the nature of a celebration of the sixty-first anniversary of the founding of the society, combined with a ladies' night program of exceptional merit.

Other officers elected were: Dr. Joseph Smith, vice-president; Dr. J. M. Barrett, secretary; Dr. Malcolm Thompson, delegate to the State Medical Society.

Dr. S. M. Crisp gave an interesting biographical sketch of the seven founders of the county society. He brought out many points in connection with the early life of the profession and the service rendered by the pioneers of the society.

Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, secretary of the State Board of Health, native Pitt county, and former practitioner of this city, gave a vivid description of former doctors who practiced in this community. He threw considerable light on the gradual development of the profession and the splendid part which these men played in this direction.

A turkey supper was served by the ladies of the church. The session was attended by a majority of members, their wives and sweethearts.

NOTED ACTOR PASSES AWAY

Theodore Roberts, Grand Old Man Of Screen And Stage Dies at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Theodore Roberts, beloved actor who devoted nearly a lifetime to the stage and screen passed away unexpectedly here yesterday afternoon.

He became seriously ill two weeks ago, just after concluding his final film, "Noisy Neighbors."

Roberts, whose long career as a thesman earned him the title of the Grand Old Man of the stage and screen, was born in San Francisco in 1861. The stage claimed him in 1880 after he had fought election for a time in the Bay City, his first appearance being with James O'Neill in Richelieu.

He made his professional entry into New York with Fanny Davenport. Later he was associated there with other noted players, including May Robson and William H. Crane.

Roberts' screen appearances in "Grumpy" the "Old Homestead" and "The Ten Commandments" were among the outstanding ones.

The actor's manipulation with a long black cigar made him famous on the silver screen, becoming almost his trademark.

Roberts' parents were wealthy, his father owning a line of merchants' ships plying between the west coast and the orient. In obedience to his mother's wishes that he become a minister he entered an elocution school at the age of 17 but attracted attention in an amateur play at the school, and was given an opportunity to go on the stage. He went on a five year barnstorming tour that ended when he returned to San Francisco, re-nouncing the stage and shipped on a three year voyage with one of his father's schooners, which he commanded.

It was following his return from the sea that he returned to the stage that he never again left until he foresook it for the screen.

Roberts was the only movie actor to hold a lifetime moving picture contract, given him a few years ago by Paramount.

Arrest Two Youths In Connection With Attempted Holdup

Spartanburg, S. C., Dec. 15.—(AP)—Police today were holding two youths without charges in an effort to solve the attempted holdup of a payroll car which ended fatally for Ernie Belue, a payroll clerk.

Sheriff Sam K. Miller arrested Tom and Edward Couch, 19 and 20 years old, respectively, and declined to say why he believed one of them implicated in the attempt to stop a car containing $10,000 and driven by A. T. Greene, secretary and assistant treasurer of the Draifon Cotton Mills yesterday.

Greene speeded up his car when a common came from alongside to "stick 'em up." Bullets followed, and one of them struck Belue at the base of the skull. He died several hours later.

Roads were closely watched today, indicating that police believed they did not have the actual participants, who sped away after following the payroll car almost to the mill at the outskirts of the city. Greene was uninjured.

Signs Of Peace Appear In Controversy Between Bolivia And Paraguay

Washington, Dec. 15.—(AP)—There are signs that Paraguayan and Bolivian soldiers will be kept out of the trenches. War between the two countries still a possibility but forces working for peace seem to have gained the upper hand temporarily.

Conciliation efforts, which have been distributed over wide front, are beginning to concentrate now at the Pan-American conference on conciliation and arbitration here.

The conference after proceeding carefully since it opened, has offered its services as mediator in the dispute. This offer came in the form of a resolution drafted by a special international committee which also submitted to the convention a statement of policy.

The resolution committed "the conference to proffer its good offices to the interested parties for the purpose of promoting suitable conciliatory measures with the aim of preserving the principals of conciliation and arbitration as a solid foundation of international life."

It further declares that the conference should take "a prudent and effective course" in the dispute "with the assurance of general approval for its endeavor," and added "the friendly proceedings of an assembly of sister Republics must find favorable echo and most sympathetic reception, especially in the spirit of the nations directly interested in the incident."

Just what good this will result in can perhaps be determined when the replies are received from the Paraguayan and Bolivian governments.

The Paraguayan charge-d'affaires here said that he felt sure his government would approve any disinterested move toward peace. On the other hand, the Bolivian minister, Diez de Medina, indicated that his country wants what he terms "reparation" from Paraguay before there is any serious talk of conciliation.

FOUR SOUGHT IN RUM RING AT PASADENA

Los Angeles, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A Pasadena millionaire, an attorney and two movie actresses, whose names were not revealed, were to day sought by Federal authorities as principals in an alleged rum ring catering to wealthy persons in Pasadena, San Marino and Hollywood.

The hunt resulted from the discovery of 300 cases of expensive liquor yesterday in a fashionable San Marino estate.

When dry agents under Federal Prohibition Administrator Frank R. McReynolds swept down upon the place they arrested the caretaker who gave his name as Bert Smith but later changed it to Jack Desmond. He said he did not know the name of his employer.

The liquor which was found in the cellar of the house, which had been watched for several months, was said to have been imported some of it smuggled over the Mexican border and some landed from ships off the Southern California coast.

McReynolds said the estate had been used for eighteen months as a central point for the distribution of the liquor to wealthy persons in the country club and to film colonies. He said the residence had been leased and sub-leased several times, and that its owner probably did not know the use to which it was being put.

HOOVER SEES NEW ERA FOR WORLD TODAY

Buenos Aires, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Hailed as one whose friendly visit would do much to intensify good will between the United States and Argentina, Herbert Hoover today was winding up his sojourn in the South largest city of the world.

President Irigoyen welcomed Mr. Hoover by saying, "We cannot count that your spontaneous visit must intensify the relations established between our people and so harmoniously maintained."

Mr. Hoover replied that the world stood on the threshold of a new era of advancement and that Argentina was among those countries to which the western world looked with confidence for its contribution to the future.

During a day crowded with sight-seeing and various receptions, Mr. Hoover and President Irigoyen spent two hours conferring on various questions that have risen between the two countries. It was believed that they discussed the future tariff policy of the United States, the embargo on Argentine wheat and other problems.

After this conference President Irigoyen in officially welcoming Mr. Hoover, said that Argentina was held fast to the United States by bonds of friendship, since it was the example given by the founders of the North American republic which gave Argentina its first lessons in democracy. He added:

"Argentina, if not America and the world at large, hopes that from your nation will radiate such high and noble ideals as that which led your eminent late President to convocate at Geneva after the tragic slaughter of contemporary civilization all peoples so that a solemn sanctuary, the eternal and enlightening precept of the divine teacher: 'Love one another'."

Mr. Hoover said he believed that the fundamental forces of the world were not only making for progress, but the world, and particularly the western world, stood upon the threshold of a new era of advancement. Never before had the outlook been brighter for the march of peace and economic progress, the growth of ordered liberty and liberal institutions.

Mr. Hoover will leave tomorrow morning on the Argentine cruiser Buenos Aires for Montevideo, Uruguay, thence he will go to Rio Janeiro aboard the U. S. S. Utah.

Million Dollar Fire AT BELLMOND, IOWA

BELMOND, Iowa, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Fire that started late last night and continued burning several hours after midnight today destroyed the warehouse and season's sugar supply of the American Beet Sugar Corporation here. The loss was estimated at nearly $1,000,000. The building contained 167,000 one-hundred pound sacks of granulated sugar.

HEAVY SALES CONTINUE ON LEAF MARKET

Sales Heavier And Prices Higher This Week Than for Same Period Last Year.

The Greenville tobacco market during the week which closed yesterday sold more tobacco at a higher average price than for the corresponding period last year, according to information contained in the official daily report of K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales, made public this morning.

Total sales on the market this week were estimated at 3,672,414 pounds for $666,927.65 at a general average of $21.07. For the same period last year sales totaled 1,874,384, at an average of $20.82 per hundred pounds.

The ending of sales yesterday saw the market considerably nearer the goal of seventy million pounds set for this season. Total sales today stood at 66,382,156, slightly over three million pounds short of the coveted goal, which has become the ambition of every member of the industry in this city. The total amount paid out during the season was given at $14,149,705.83. The general average on this amount was $21.31.

Up until the same date last year the market had sold 60,426,082 at a general average of $23.62 per hundred pounds. Total season sales last year amounted to slightly over sixty-one million pounds. It was the most tobacco the market had ever sold before and it inspired tobaccoists to move the goal up ten million pounds.

With over a month to go before the market closes for the season, it is believed the best million pounds of the extra ten million will make the seventy million pounds an actuality. At least tobaccoists are hopeful this will be the case and are using every influence at their command to make it possible.

Sales yesterday amounted to 758,744 pounds for a total sum of $158,064.48, at an average of $20.71 per hundred pounds.

The highest prices of the season were paid here during the early part of the week, the report of the supervisor of sales indicated. While the general average has been held down considerably by the unprecedented offering of common grade tobacco, prices were far above the average for this type of tobacco.

Very little good grade tobacco has been marketed the last three weeks, and the amount continues to decrease as the season draws to a close. Farmers have been advised from time to time to give more attention than ever before to the remainder of their crop and see that it is in best condition possible when offered for sale.

They have been asked to see that the leaf is kept dry and that it is carefully reworked before presented for sale. This, it was stated, should play an important part in the price situation and enable the grower to obtain the highest prices prevailing at this time.

The market will close for the Christmas holidays next Wednesday and reopen January 8th. It was stated the season would in all probability close the latter part of January. This should give the growers ample time to market the last of their crop, it was believed, and afford tobaccoist ample time for improvements for next year.

Saratoga Shatters World Speed Record

San Pedro, Cal., Dec. 15.—(AP)—The United States Navy's huge air-plane carrier Saratoga, was hailed today as the most powerful ship afloat, following her performance in breaking the world's record for power recently set by her sister ship the Lexington, and establishing a new speed mark for fighting ships.

Steaming over almost the same course on which the Lexington exactly one month ago set a maritime record, the Saratoga's turbo-electric plant yesterday developed a peak of 215.512 horsepower, which drove the 35,000-ton cruiser through the sea at a speed of 43.99 knots, or more than forty statute miles an hour. The Lexington's record was 209.751 horsepower and a speed of 34.82 knots.

The Lexington's high power marks were made on a full power endurance run for one hour, while the Saratoga's new world's record, made on her final acceptance trial, was confined to a one-mile course.

Battle fleet officers were jubilant over results of the Saratoga's final trials and declared that the performance of the sister ships proved the worth of the American idea of applying electric power to warship construction.

The Saratoga was expected by naval officials to develop an even greater speed and power when she runs off her one hour and four hour full power tests.

BEGIN PROBING CONSPIRACY AT CHICAGO, ILL.

Irregularities Charged in Awarding Contracts For Public School Buildings.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Investigation of what the Herald and Examiner describes as a far-reaching conspiracy to buy and sell contracts for board of education building work has been started by the state's attorney following a "dictograph" investigation conducted by the newspaper.

With the evidence obtained by the newspaper at their command, State's Attorney John A. Swanson and H. Wallace Caldwell, president of the school board, immediately began questioning several persons whose names were contained in the stenographic notes taken from the "whispering wires" by representatives of the newspaper.

Roy W. Ammel, a broker, representing cut stone contractors seeking a share of the school building business, was named as the man who assisted in obtaining much of the evidence on which the inquiry was based.

The alleged irregularities had to do with the efforts of a group of cut stone contractors to obtain work on school buildings which for a long time has been monopolized by terra cotta manufacturers. The cut stone men finally engaged Ammel to represent them in the effort to get some of the school business which had been denied them for four years.

Ammel dealt first with one official then another, he said. A dictograph was installed in Ammel's office by the Herald and Examiner and representatives of the newspaper listened go-between of the "high-ups" until, as the paper said, "the whole thing was dragged into the light."

"These underlings," the newspaper continued, "repeated promises of contracts to put Ammel's men in the money," and they talked glibly of a complete honeycombing of the educational system by organized looters, buying and selling public work."

President Caldwell said he had been conducting a personal investigation and had dealt particularly with the terra cotta contracts. Caldwell said that the whole administration of school money except only the educational fund, "seems to have suffered from the organized looting."

LEAGUE SENDS NEW APPEAL TO BOLIVIA TODAY

Paraguay Also Asked To Settle Dispute By Pacific Methods and Avert War.

Lugano, Switzerland, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The council of the League of Nations today voted to send a new appeal to Bolivia and Paraguay to settle their border dispute by pacific methods and in the mean time to refrain from military measures.

La Paz, Bolivia, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The Bolivian reply to the League of Nations was made public today. It said that Paraguay had been guilty of aggression in attacking a small Bolivian garrison with superior numbers, killing 20 soldiers, 2 officers and taking the remaining members of the garrison prisoners after setting fire to the living quarters. The reply continued: "Paraguay had agreed with Bolivia to submit all differences regarding the zone of demarcation to arbitration and to submit to the peaceful solution of all differences. Despite this agreement and in an inexcusable and surprising manner Paraguay, breaking articles 10 and 13 of the covenant of the League of Nations committed the aggression which we denounce solemnly to the council."

The reply then said that the only duty left to Bolivia was to satisfaction and in case satisfaction was not forthcoming to take such military measures as might be necessary to preserve and defend Bolivia's security. It charged that Paraguay had concentrated forces in the vicinity and was assembling general staff in the neighborhood of the frontier. The note said that it was logical to expect that new clashes would occur and that the Bolivian government should be prepared for such clashes.

Held for Killing.—Gastonia, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Larson, 40, of Belmont, was in jail here today charged with fatally wounding Jack Pennington at the Linford Mills last night. Pennington was struck over the head with a heavy stick and died an hour later in a Charlotte hospital.

Would Stop Disputes

Washington—There is a story that Daniel Webster, gesturing with one hand in a pocket, offered to pay the national debt. An unidentified woman has telephoned the Bolivian minister repeatedly offering to buy the territory in dispute between Bolivia and Paraguay. The last time she called he told his secretary to tell her he had gone to war.

Typhoid Treatment Effective In Navy

Washington, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Preventive medicine plays an increasingly important part for the Navy Medical Corps, and "aviation medicine" is now classed under that head. Fourteen years of compulsory anti-typhoid inoculation has shown it to be almost 100 per cent effective. Rear Admiral Edward Swift, Surgeon-General of the Navy, declared in his annual report today that only 15 cases of typhoid occurred in the navy during 1927. He said, "no individual who had received the complete course (of inoculation) was attacked." Anti-cholera vaccine was given to 13,900 members of the expeditionary forces in China, and no cases of the disease were reported. Influenza, which showed 15,826 cases per-100,000 took the highest toll of lives, in combination with other respiratory diseases, and the report condemned "serious overcrowding" and over heating in living quarters on board ship as causes, recommending installation of radiators on the larger vessels. "Asiatic medicine" consisted largely of research to determine applicant's "temperamental adaptability" to flying.

It immediately soothes the irritation and goes direct to the internal cause not reached by patent medicines and cough syrups. The very first swallow usually relieves even the most obstinate cough. Thoxine contains no chloroform, opium or other dangerous drugs. Safe and pleasant for the whole family. Also excellent for sore throat. Quick relief or your money back. 35c, 60c, and $1.00. The most notable advance in driving convenience since the self-starter

The Superior Whippet is the first car to offer the new "Finger-Tip Control"—a single button conveniently located in the center of the steering wheel, which controls all functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn.

This ingenious device does away with all troublesome foot fumbling for the starting button, usually located in a somewhat inaccessible position, and obviates a change from the comfortable driving position to reach the light switch on the dash.

While everyone will welcome this new feature, it will appeal particularly to women drivers. Its simple operation is clearly explained by the illustrations above.

of their achievement. This week and next, however, will mark a new awakening for Americans in recent years who have contributed much to the advancement of aviation, and all honor will be paid Orville Wright and his lamented brother, who gave his life in the cause after he had seen their dream a reality.

Lindbergh, 27rd, Chamberlain and a score of other Americans have aided in establishing what the Wrights demonstrated, and now by the Virginian, is undertaking to duplicate at the South Pole what he accomplished at the North. Great Britain, France and Germany have kept pace, often forging ahead, as witness their development of passenger air traffic and lighter than air craft, consummating in the recent transatlantic voyages of the Graf Zeppelin; and yet it is universally acknowledged aviation of either type is yet in its infancy.

What is yet to come? Nothing the imagination can picture seems beyond the bounds of possibility with respect to aviation.

The United States cannot afford to lag behind in the advancement of aviation, as it did in appreciating what the Wrights had accomplished. — Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.

ABOUT TOWN

Greenville unquestionably is one of the best decorated towns in the state," emphatically declared a traveling man today who said he had visited many of the larger cities the last few days.

"The business district, I feel confident, is more brilliantly illuminated with Christmas lights than any town I have visited. Display windows show a deftness of touch which reflects much credit upon the thrift of the merchants.

"The spirit of Yuletide should prevail here throughout the entire holiday season and everybody should get more out of the occasion than ever before because of the extensive way they have decorated."

ual increase in the Merchants Association fund for the poor people of the community," stated a prominent citizen today.

"Everybody is watching the barometer recording the daily contributions and all are hopeful the sum will become of sufficient size to take care of the needs of the poor people.

"The investigating committee has found many families without sufficient food and clothing. These people will experience little of the spirit of Christmas without aid such as the merchants plan to give them."

"If you haven't contributed to this sum, get busy and do so immediately. It is one of the greatest causes the city has given to in years and you should do your part."

"Residents contemplating decorating their porches or lawns for the Christmas holidays should get busy and do so immediately if they have any intention of competing for the prize offered for the best decoration," said members of the committee today.

"Remember that the time limit for entrances in the contest expires Monday night. There will not be further extensions, and it is imperative that you submit your name before that date.

"Help beautifully the city during the Yuletide season by decorating as elaborately as possible. Christmas lights gleaming from lawns and porches greatly intensify the spirit of the season and instill good-will and happiness into the hearts of everybody."

"I tore the trousers to the best suit of clothes I had helping get that Five Points Christmas tree out of the woods," complained C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Merchants Association today, describing his difficulty in obtaining decorations for Christmas.

"I read it been skin instead of my best trousers it wouldn't have been so bad. Skin will grow back, but clothes cannot be replaced without the outlay of a considerable number of 'berries.' And right here is where I lose—berries are scarce this time of the year."

Don't forget! tuberculosis Christmas seals while mailing Christmas letters and packages next week," reminded members of the local Red Cross organization today.

"Money derived from the sale of these seals is devoted to caring for sufferers of the dread disease. Buy generously as you can and in this way help provide for the sufferers."

"The giant Christmas tree at Five Points is going to do more to spread Christmas cheer over the city than anything imaginable," asserted an old citizen this morning.

"This is the first time Five Points has been decorated in this manner. Rays from the hundred multi-colored lights should lighten the hearts of countless numbers of shoppers the next several days. Money spent in this way is not spent in vain. The results may not be counted in dollars, but the psychological effect is incalculable."

"There ain't no Santa Clause!" exclaimed a youth on Main street yesterday, using a brand of parlance so common among the juvenile American today.

"The remark was addressed to another youngster peering intently at a display of toys in a shop window.

"Maybe there ain't," was the reply, "but my stocking always gets filled every Christmas and they say Santa Clause did it."

"Go on home, baby, and let your Mama put a dress on you—you ain't no man at all."

The other apparently didn't notice the derisive remark, but went on down the street confident of the existence of a Santa Clause—the patron saint of millions of other little boys throughout the land.

Somewhat, we felt sorry for the little fellow with the world-wise air. His wisdom will cause him to miss the thrills of Yuletide. His disillusionment lifts out of his life forever the oldest of us to experience a quickening of the pulse as memory travels back to the days when we believed implicitly in the authenticity of Saint Nick stories.

Just seven more shopping days before Christmas.

If you haven't decorated your premises for Christmas it is time you were getting at it if you want to compete for the $50 cash prize to be awarded for the best decoration in the residential section. Monday night is the time limit set for the contest so you have but one more day to finish the job. $50 will be a fine Christmas present for somebody. It is well worth trying for.

The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History

- with Marvelous New Bodies by Fisher!

Only a short time has elapsed since The Outstanding Chevrolet was introduced—but already it has swept on to one of the greatest triumphs in automotive history. Never before has the American public so overwhelmingly endorsed a new Chevrolet—for never before has there been provided, at prices within the reach of everyone, such a generous measure of beauty, comfort, performance and dependability!

New Fisher Bodies
 The marvelous new bodies by Fisher—longer, lower and roomier, with all closed models equipped with adjustable driver's seat that may be moved forward and back for proper driving comfort—represent one of the most valuable contributions ever made to motor car comfort and beauty. The hood streams back from the voguish new chromium plated radiator in straight, unbroken lines and blends flawlessly into the body contours. Body moldings divide at the cowl line—giving a panoramic effect to the cowl and hood that is both distinctive and pleasing. Concave front pillars lengthen and smarten the profile. And distinctive new Ternstedt hardware lends a final touch of custom elegance.

New Six-Cylinder Motor
 The great new six-cylinder valve-in-head engine was developed from more than a hundred motors that were built and tested over a period of four years by Chevrolet engineers. Not only does it develop 32% more power than any previous Chevrolet engine... not only is it sensationally faster and swifter in acceleration—but it performs with a smoothness and quietness of operation that are almost unbelievable in a low-priced automobile.

It idles along in the traffic line with remarkable ease and quietness. It leaps ahead at the signal light like an arrow from a bow. It takes the hills, no matter how steep, with truly astounding ease. And it delivers this amazing performance with an economy averaging better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline!

New Comfort and Handling Ease
 But sensational as this performance is—it is matched in impressiveness by the marvelous comfort and handling ease that have been engineered into the chassis. The heavy, rigid, channel steel frame extends beyond the entire length of the body and rests on four semi-elliptic shock-absorber springs—set parallel with the road. The front springs are 36 inches long and the rear springs 54 inches—while all spring shackles are equipped with Alemite fittings. The steering mechanism is designed with ball bearings throughout, with complete lubrication at all points of contact. Brake pedals are correctly spaced for easy and safe manipulation. The two-beam headlights are controlled by a foot button located on the floor boards. And a slender, flat-type steering wheel fits snugly into the hands.

BOYS WIN IN BASKETBALL, GIRLS LOSE

The basketball season opened in Greenville last night with a bang when the Greenville high basketball team took the strong Winterville quint into camp to the tune of 41 to 13. The game was fast and despite the one-sided score the game never lagged. It was the first test of strength for the locals and while they showed some rough spots that will have to be ironed out, their showing greatly pleased the coach and the local fans. A large crowd was out to cheer the boys and girls on in their first double-header in the new gym and it is hoped that the attendance will pick up at each game.

Coch Porter started Team B against Winterville and that team played the entire first quarter, making 11 points and holding their opponents to 4. At the beginning of the second quarter Team A went in and ran the score up to 23 while holding Winterville to one field goal. Team B against started the game in the third quarter and 4 points to Winterville's 3. Team A finished the game making 14 points to Winterville's 5.

These two teams, A and B, are fairly evenly matched, but the passing of team B was better, while the basket shooting and general offensive of A was a little the best. Tucker was high scorer with 8 points for team B, while King and Eason were the best defensive bets for that team. Hicks of team A, was high scorer for the night, with nine points and was closely followed by Bostic with 8 points. For Winterville, Worthington was the outstanding player, with 7 of his team's 13 points to his credit.

The girls' game with Washington was hot and closely contested throughout. The girls from Washington, however, held the edge in size on the locals and eked out a 25 to 19 victory. Respass and Kasey starred for Greenville, while Paul, Sadler and Styron were Washington's best.

Between halves a boxing bout was staged between Bob Forbes and Curtis Clark. Forbes was declared the winner by Referee Corey. This is a new feature that the officials of the high school are putting into effect and if the local fans like it, some form of entertainment will be given during the halves at every game.

The line-up for the boys game follows:
 Greenville: Winterville: Tucker (8) R. F. (16) Jackson Crow (8) L. F. (7) Worthington Briley (1) C. Vincent Eason (4) R. G. MacLachorn King (2) L. G. Uobles Substitutions Bostic (8), Hicks (9), Hearne (4), Respass (5), Burnette. Referee—Brown, U. N. C. Timekeeper, Whedbee, U. N. C. Scorer, Wilson, G. H. S.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 4 to 8 points under some southern selling and week-end realizing. The decline to 20.15 for January, brought in a little covering and trade buying but business was quiet and prices fluctuated within a range of 6 or 6 points during the first half hour.

There may have been some biting on reports of a somewhat steadier basis from some grades of white cotton in the south and prospects for continued large exports, but bulges of a or 6 points from the lowest were checked by continued liquidation. Private cables reported American and Bombay buying in Liverpool and said the improved demand for cotton cloths was maintained in Manchester. The amount of cotton on shipboard awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 256,155 bales against 170,124 last year.

Future closed easy; Spot quiet, middling 20.37.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Brisks advances which were witnessed in the corn market today failed to hold well and profit taking sales did much to nullify for at least the time being the effect of the government crop report sharply reducing the 1928 estimated yield.

Corn closed unsettled 3-8 to 1-2 to 3-4 net; higher; wheat 1-4 to 3-8 to 3-4 down; oats unchanged to 1-8 off; and provisions varying from 2 decline to a rise of a shade.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Violent fluctuations in the high priced specialties again featured the price movement in today's stock market. The general list showed alternate periods of weakness and strength, reflecting in some measure the usual week-end readjustment of speculative accounts and the struggle of opposing speculative account, and the struggle of opposing speculative forces for control of the price movement. Trading was only moderate in volume, indicating an absence of any widespread public participation.

Airplane shares were booyant. Wright and Curtis each soaring about 11 points. Despite reports that the Radio Corporation-Victor Talking Machine merger was nearing completion, the stocks fluctuated in an erratic manner. Radio advanced 2 points to 352, broke to 335, rallied to 348 1-2 and dropped back to 342. Victor talking machine advanced 3 points to 144 1-2 slipped back to 137 1-2, and then bobbed up and down just above the 140 level. A. M. buyers dropped from an early high of 191 1-4 to 184 1-2 and International Nickel dropped from its record high price of 238 1-2 to 248.

Greene Canaan's copper sold off nearly 4 points after yesterday's brisk advance, but scale buying was noted in the other coppers on recurrent rumor of a further advance in red metal prices within the next month. St. Joseph's lead advanced 3 1-2 points to a new high of 56. Pittsburgh terminal coal and Pitts burg Coal advanced 8 and 6 1-2 points respectively, to new highs. Johns Manville, Liquid Carbonic, Sears Roebuck, Goodyear, American International and Warner Brothers Pictures were among the score or so issues to sell down 2 to 3 points. U. S. Steel dropped to within a fraction of last week's low but General Motors, which broke through last week's low yesterday, received better support today.

Establishment of the highest price in several years by Chicago Great Western preferred featured the trading in the railroad issues. The close was irregular. Sales totaled 1,288,400 shares.

man. Election of a secretary to succeed C. B. Rowlett will take place at the next meeting of the board of directors.

The two new members received last night were Rev. W. A. Lillycrop, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. The address of welcome was made by M. K. Blount. Both of the new members, who had seen service in the Kiwanis clubs of other towns, made short but interesting talks, pledging their loyalty to the high ideals of the organization.

President Harrington called on the chairman of all committees for reports of their activities during his administration. The reports are to be read at the next meeting when new officers will be installed.

The newly elected president was called on for a minute and a half speech. He declined, declaring that the time allotted him was insufficient. He promised, however, to make the desired speech when the club had about forty minutes to spare. It was indicated that the desired time would be granted him following induction ceremonies at the next meeting.

Make Newspaper From Cornstalks At Danville, Ill.

Danville, Ill., Dec. 15.—(AP)—From corn stalks to newspaper in six hours was an epitome of the achievement of modern science today in the publication of the Danville Commercial News.

A special edition of 100 pages printed on corn stalk paper was issued by the Commercial News, it being the first time such paper has been used by a newspaper.

This unique edition actually was printed on paper made from stalks grown on farms surrounding Danville. It was described as heralding a new epoch in the paper industry as well as creating a new market for farm products which once were merely waste.

The corn stalk pulp was manufactured by a Danville company and made into paper by manufacturing company at Kalamazoo, the entire process requiring only six hours of actual operation. Discovery of the use of corn stalks for paper was made by Dr. Ela Dornier of Hungary.
