GREENVILLE IS SET FOR VISIT OF SAINT NICK

Brilliantly Decorated Homes And Business Houses Form Fine Setting For Season.

With thousands of colored lights blinking their message of joy and happiness from windows and shop fronts, Greenville today stood on the threshold of one of the brightest Christmases in history. Holiday shopping, which started the first of the week, continued with a rush today and the business district was crowded with shoppers from many miles around.

All nature seemed to combine in furnishing the proper atmosphere for the Yuletide season. Shortly before the moon hour today leaden clouds hung over the city, and the mercury began to fall under the pressure of a biting wind out of the northwest. The community faced the best of indications for a snow-fall to form the proper setting for the holiday season.

The city is gaily attired for the annual appearance of Saint Nick, the patron saint of millions of people throughout the world. It is dressed more gaily and along more extensive lines than ever before and has proven a source of wonderment to thousands of people from other communities who have shopped here the last several days.

The outstanding of all the decorations is the thirty foot Christmas tree erected on the top of the traffic dummies in the center of Five Points. With several hundred lights gleaming and dancing in the shadows of the evening, the tree may be seen from a considerable distance down Dickinson avenue and Fifth street. The tree was erected by the Merchants' Association, as one of the crowning features of the campaign to make the city the best decorated place in Eastern Carolina.

Evans street from the east end to Five Points has been converted into a veritable fairyland. Strings of multi-colored lights have been strung across the street at each intersection. Christmas trees and hollyhocks, brilliantly lighted, blaze from the fronts of numbers of stores and banks. Show windows have been dressed in keeping with the outside decorations and present an appearance of beauty and splendor.

But the spirit of the year is not confined to the business district alone. Over a hundred homes, embracing every residential section of the city, have provided decorations consisting of brightly lighted trees, giant-sized Santa Claus, liberally sprinkled with evergreen, mistletoe and holly.

Today and Monday are expected to see a culmination of activities in the business district when thousands of shoppers make their last assault on the stores. Then will come the real celebration in which Santa Claus will make his annual visit to the thousands of homes of the community.

Cupid Still Busy Over Pitt County

Cupid continued to play around in Pitt county this week and succeeded in sending seven couples to the altar yesterday, according to records in the office of the register of deeds this morning. Five of those applying for licenses were white and two colored. Applicants follow:

Jesse L. Bowen, of Beaven Dam, to Miss Ruby Cox, of Craven county; Jack Wora to Miss Peed Pollard, both of the Farmville community; Albert Wiggins to Miss Esther Coward, both of Chocoid; John W. James, Jr., to Miss Callie Robertson, of Greenville and Carolina townships, respectively; Myron M. Teel to Miss Alice James, both of Greenville.

Colored
Rhodia Boyd to Frances Dickens, of Greenville; Jesse James Stanton to Rosa Moore, both of the Fountain section.

Confirm Nominations.
Washington, Dec. 22.—(AP)—The nomination of three members of Interstate Commerce Commission were confirmed today by the Senate.

They were those of Clyde B. Atchison of Oregon; Claude R. Porter of Iowa, and Patrick J. Farrell of Washington, D. C.

Stop Taking Volunteers.
Asuncion, Paraguay, Dec. 22.—(AP)—The government today ordered the army not to accept any more volunteers who began to flock to the colors when war with E. U. seemed imminent. The government believed that further additions to the army would withdraw vital manpower from both the farms and industries.

Awaits Death

Paul Jaworski, who is sentenced to die at Bellefonte, Pa., for the slaying of I. L. Gump during a hold-up in which a payroll car was dynamited near Pittsburgh.

GASOLINE TAX MAKES RECORD

Sales For Calendar Year In N. Y. Pass The Ten Million Dollar Mark.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 22.—(AP)—For the first time in history, the $10,000,000 mark has been exceeded by the gasoline tax collected for this calendar year. The State Department of Revenue said today gross collections have reached $10,001,888.16, as compared with $9,113,297.24 for all of last year. With $190,000 estimated as the revenue from this source during the remainder of the year, it was pointed out the receipts for 1929 will be a million dollars above the amount yielded in 1927.

The sale of 1929 license tags was reported by the Motor Vehicle Bureau as behind the figure for this date last year. More than 425,000 vehicles have yet to obtain plates for next year, it was stated.

The bureau announced it would at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the Christmas holidays, and would reopen Wednesday morning.

Public Prosecutor Wounded In France; Assailant Is Held

Paris, Dec. 22.—(AP)—Shot down because of his success as a public prosecutor last May against Alsation autonomists, Charles Henri Facht today lay gravely wounded and his assailant was held in the hands of police. The act brought to the rest of France a sudden realization of the persistence of unrest in Alsace.

The assailant gave his name as Georges Benoit, 38, a Strasbourg butcher. Police said that he told the examining magistrate when interrogated after midnight that he was a fervent autonomist, although he belonged to no political organization. He first conceived the idea of killing M. Facht after reading autonomist newspapers at the time of the Colmar trial, at which four men were convicted as leaders of the movement which seeks to separate Alsace and Lorraine from France.

Benoit told the magistrate that he struggled against the idea of killing Facht and even planned to emigrate to Madagascar to escape from it. From constant brooding on the idea it became an obsession. Finally he decided to come to Paris and put his plan into execution.

The assailant acted with the greatest coolness. He rang the door bell of the Facht apartment. As the attorney answered the ring he shot him down and then walked leisurely down three flights of stairs. To other tenants of the building who hurried into the hallway, the assailant said:

"There probably has been an accident up there, but I am too busy to investigate it."

Ten hours after the crime Benoit walked into a police station and said:

"I killed Facht. Lock me up. I have nothing else to say."

She Is For Married Women
New York.—One common objection to married women working outside the home is unreasonable, in the opinion of Bessie Q. Mott, chairman of the national committee for the Education of Women in Financial Matters. Instead of the employed married woman keeping an unmarried woman out of a job she usually makes employment for other women, such as maids and nurses.

John Langley Pardoned
Washington, Dec. 22.—(AP)—President Coolidge has granted a full pardon to former Representative John W. Langley, of Kentucky, restoring him to citizenship.

HOOVER GOES ON TOUR OF RIO JANEIRO

Tells Brazilian People Modern Invention Has Lifted Accomplishment.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Dec. 22.—(AP) President-elect Hoover, who is now winding up his good will tour of Latin-America with his visit to the Brazilian capital, was up early today for a round of sightseeing and further receptions with which he is being showered.

Mr. Hoover left the Guanabara palace, once the home of a Brazilian prince during the empire, and began an automobile tour to see some of the magnificent ocean bays and to make an excursion into the mountains around the capital. The palace, which was set aside by the Brazilian government during his residence at Rio Janeiro, is considered among the most beautiful in the world.

A large consignment of mail from the United States has reached Rio Janeiro for Mr. Hoover and as soon as he returns to the U. S. S. Utah to resume his two weeks' voyage to Key West, the president-elect, will devote himself to the mass of correspondence brought in these pouches.

President-elect Hoover, in responding to the welcome given him by the president of the Brazilian senate today, said the modern invention has lifted accomplishment as never before.

The text of his response follows: "I cherish as an honor this opportunity to meet the men selected by various communities to enact into law the will of the people of Brazil. We are engaged in the common task of working out effective government by the people.

"This great experiment in public welfare rests upon our confidence that the majority of conclusions by an instructed people will in the long run be right and wise. We know that mistakes will be made and that failures may discourage those who look for the millennium overnight. But in a survey of a century of experience in the western hemisphere we see that we have made more progress in human welfare than there has been in any such period of history.

"We can emphasize further that the methods of justice and ordered liberty have been built upon foundations more firm and more promising for the future than ever before. The road of opportunity for the individual man to rise by his own accomplishment was never clearer than today. The world has entered upon a great period of economic expansion. The energies of the world were stirred by the war but, of far greater importance, we today are receiving the powerful impulses from years of advancement in education and technical training; from great scientific discoveries and their application through the invention of myriad appliances; from enlarged skill in workmen and in leaders of organization.

"Transportation and communication have been quickened by improvements in steam, by automobile, airplane and radio. The splendid advance in application of electrical power has lifted the burdens from the backs of men and relieved the drudgery of woman.

"From it all productivity of men is increasing a thousandfold and with growing productivity the standards of living are rising and surplus capital of the world for new ventures and for building up the open spaces and accumulating.

Co-Ops. Paying Off Members

Following an established custom, the North Carolina Cotton Growers Co-operative Association is sending out checks to all members holding cotton in the seasonal pool amounting to $125,000.00, stated U. B. Black, general manager of the cotton association yesterday.

"A very limited quantity of our seasonal pool cotton has been sold," he said, "but a sufficient amount to warrant us in making this Christmas distribution to our seasonal pool members."

It was further announced that the total deliveries to the association were running considerably ahead of last year's deliveries.

Traffic Resumed Over Brick Road During Holidays

Traffic over the Greenville-Farmville brick road was resumed today and will continue until next Thursday, it was announced this morning.

Construction work on this stretch of highway had been suspended until after the Christmas holidays and it will not be necessary for motorists to make the detour which has been used for the past several weeks.

LOCAL CHRISTMAS FUND INSUFFICIENT TO MEET DEMANDS OF THE POOR

With the constantly increasing demand for aid from destitute families of the community, C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Merchants' Association, stated, this afternoon that the Christmas fund for the poor was inadequate to meet requirements.

"We are sending out our last appeal for funds today," the secretary said, "and are hopeful the public response will be liberal enough to enable us to meet the need of so many of these families as possible. It is impossible for the public to imagine the distress prevailing among the poor people and unless donations are more liberal we will be unable to brighten many of the cheerless festivities.

Contributions amounting to $30.00 were reported from the office of the secretary this afternoon. A considerable amount of clothing was also included in the report. The total fund has reached $589.25, but it is hoped the amount will be greatly increased between now and next Monday when the committee will make its final rounds distributing gifts to the poor.

Contributions over the 24 hours period were: Mrs. H. A. White, $2.50; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ficklen, $5.00; Jesse Speight, $5.00; Mrs. Myra S. Ficklen, $2.50; W. P. Moore, $5.00.

Contributions of clothing and food came from the following: Mrs. R. D. Harrington, several suits and underwear for children; Greenville Supply Company, one box of oranges; Jack Foye, one bushel of apples; ladies of Immanuel Baptist church, large box of groceries, fruits, canned goods and confectionaries.

All who haven't contributed to this fund are urged to do so immediately. The investigating committee of the Merchants' Association has already started the distribution of gifts among the poor and this will continue without let until funds have been completely exhausted.

America Might Participate In Reparation Talk

Washington, Dec. 22.—(AP)—The United States would probably participate in a conference to study the German reparations situation if a suitable invitation were received.

President Coolidge has made it known that he would consider such an invitation sympathetically, though the reparations question as one primarily for the European nations to solve.

No such invitation has been received, though reports from London and Paris have indicated a movement toward a reparations conference, and Sir Esme Howard, the British ambassador, is understood to have been delegated to approach the Washington government. He, however, has been ill for several days.

The president believes that delegates to a reparations conference should be free to form their own conclusion and should not be hampered by previous instructions does participate in a study of reparations after an invitation, the president feels that if later it responded to similar invitations from Latin-American nations there should be no unfavorable criticism in Europe.

While the president made it plain that he might look with favor upon an invitation from European nations to study the reparations question, he also indicated that acceptance would depend largely upon the terms of the invitation.

Salvation Army Fund Continues To Grow

Funds for the Salvation Army Christmas dinner for the poor is coming along nicely. Just received from the Greenville High School a nice box of toys, also from West Greenville School a nice lot of groceries and confectionery; Immanuel Baptist Church, Circle No. 2 a lot of clothing and cash, $2.00; a friend, $5.00; cash, $5.00; Merchants Produce Co. one box of apples.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this dinner in the way of groceries, confectionery or money, please call 584-W.

Protest Against Possible Visit Of Hoover To Mexico

Mexico City, Dec. 22.—(AP)—In protest against any possible visit to Mexico by Herbert Hoover a group of men and women carrying red banners and singing the Internationale, invaded editorial offices of Mexican newspapers shortly before midnight.

The demonstrators shouted "Hoover, No! Viva Sandoira." They also called "Morrón" (down with Morrow).

The group first entered the editorial rooms of El Universal and then went to Excelsior and other newspapers. They were headed by Diego Rivera, a Mexican painter who is general secretary of what he calls the Mexican division of the Anti-Imperialist League.

The league was created to "wage war to the death on imperialism." Its motto is "For the union of Latin America is people, to expell the Yankees from Latin America." The demonstrators were members of the Anti-Imperialist League and the Hands Off Nicaragua Committee, both of which are affiliated with the Communist party.

The group distributed leaflets announcing a meeting to be held tomorrow in protest against Hoover's visit to Mexico, recognition of President-elect Moncada's government in Nicaragua, the Bolivian-Paraguayan dispute and in sympathy with the banana workers who have been on strike in Columbia.

Civil War Veteran Loses Life In Fire

Statesville, Dec. 22.—(AP)—Funeral services will likely be held here today for Augustus A. Moore, 85, Confederate veteran, who lost his life last night when he attempted to extinguish a fire in his barn.

The aged man is believed to have climbed into the barn where the fire originated in hopes of saving the structure. Flames quickly enveloped the barn and efforts of neighbors who arrived on the scene, to save him were futile. His charred body was found in the ashes.

Besides his widow, he is survived by several sons and daughters.

TEACHER IS MURDERED AT CARMI, ILL.

Body Of Miss Anna Prher Almost Decapitated By Ruthless Slayer.

Carmi, Ill., Dec. 22.—(AP)—Immediate apprehension of the slayer of Miss Anna Prher, about 45 years of age, whose body, nearly decapitated, was found in her home here yesterday, was promised by Sheriff Jesse Grissom today. He would not reveal the nature of leads upon which he was working.

Miss Prher, a grade school teacher and civic leader of Carmi, apparently struggled with her assailant. Part of her clothing was torn away and effects in the little four-room cottage were disarranged. There was no evidence, Sheriff Grissom said, of the house having been ransacked.

The slayer failed in an attempt to burn the home. A partly burned bundle of bed clothing was found near the body which was discovered in a bedroom by Mrs. Maude Chalfant, city superintendent of schools. A hole in the floor approximately three feet in diameter, was burned before the fire died.

Miss Chalfant went to the cottage to learn why Miss Prher had not attended the White County Teachers' Institute, of which organization Miss Prher was secretary-treasurer.

Bloody finger prints were left by the slayer, Sheriff Grissom said. He removed a dresser, scarf, used by the killer as a towel after washing in a basin. Prints were also left on one lattice-work outside the home, and this too, was taken by the sheriff to a vault for safekeeping.

Isaac Austin, another school teacher, who had an argument with Miss Prher Thursday, was questioned by the sheriff last night at his home in the country. Sheriff Grissom did not reveal what he learned from Austin, but immediately after his return started in search of another man whom he wanted to question. Austin was a former neighbor of Miss Prher.

A sister of Miss Prher, from whom she was said to have been estranged, was also questioned. The sheriff said he was sure she knew nothing of the slaying.

Methodists To Present Pageant Sunday Night

The Christmas pageant entitled, "The Light of the World," by Augustine Smith, will be presented at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church Sunday evening, December 23, at 7:30 o'clock. This pageant has five scenes as follows:

- Scene I—Prophecy of the Coming of the Messiah
- Scene II—The Mangar at Bethlehem
- Scene III—The Vision of Isaiah
- Scene IV—The Light from Bethlehem Spreads Into All the World
- Scene V—Consecration and Coronation

There are approximately twenty-five characters in the pageant. The characterizations are as follows—in the order of their appearance: Three Old Testament Prophets, Fourth Ambassador, Three Magi Kings and Three Attendants, Fifth Ambassador, Five Shepherds, Seventh Ambassadors, Spirit of Christianity, Student of Bible Group, Education, Primary Children, Ten Grecian Maidens, Burdened Souls, Church, Religious Teachers, Ten Crusaders, Business Men, First Ambassador, National Group, Second Ambassador, International Group, Third Ambassador.

Appropriate Oriental costumes will be worn by all the characters, altar of the church, choir loft, chancel rail have all been beautifully decorated. Special lighting effects have been worked out and the full dress rehearsal last night was most inspiring and impressive.

This pageant is being given by the Sunday school and takes the place of the regular White Christmas program usually given at this time. The White Christmas service will be had Sunday morning, at the Sunday school hour. Every department of the Sunday school are holding their own White Christmas program.

The general public is invited; there is no general admission charge, but an offering will be taken for the benefit of the unfortunate ones in the community.

WINTERVILLE CHURCH TO URESENT CANTATA

The choir of the Baptist Church at Winterville is to present the sacred cantata, "The Everlasting Light" by Ira Bishop Wilson, at 7 o'clock Sunday evening. This cantata is very beautiful and being appropriate to the Christmas season, it is expected that a large congregation will be present.

Mrs. White Gives $50.00 Cash Prize To Community Poor

Mrs. H. A. White, winner of the $50.00 cash prize for the best decorated home in Greenville, today authorized distribution of the money among four different agencies of the city attempting to meet demands of the poor this Christmas.

The prize will be equally distributed among the Merchants' Association poor fund, King's Daughters, Welfare department and the Salvation Army. First announcement of the winner of the prize was made yesterday, and Mrs. White immediately announced her intention to give the money to the poor.

BRITISH KING CONTINUES TO HOLD HIS OWN

Monarch Has Another Restful Night; Making Slow But Sure Progress.

London, Dec. 22.—(AP)—King George had a fairly restful night with no noticeable alteration of his condition and there was no disposition among the public to regard it as other than satisfactory under the circumstances.

The king's physicians by their recent statements have satisfied the popular mind that his majesty's case has taken a more favorable turn and that he has been making real, if slight, slow progress.

Consequently Christmas activities went on today in the same atmosphere of subdued cheerfulness which was marked them during the past few days.

While the king's condition has remained stationary for the last 12 hours, it was stated in authoritative quarters that he has lost no ground. Therefore optimism continued at Buckingham palace.

Booth May Be Deposed

Rumor Has It Evangeline Booth May Succeed Aged Salvation Army Leader.

New York, Dec. 22.—(AP)—The New York Times today says the Commander Evangeline Booth, chief executive of the Salvation Army in the United States, sailed secretly for England on the Olympic early today on a journey that may end with the removal of her brother, General Bramwell Booth, as international head of the army and her election.

A reform element within the Salvation Army, which for eight years has been seeking to persuade General Booth to give up his automatic rule, says the Times, has caused the calling of the high council of the Army in London on January 6 to decide whether General Booth should be removed on the ground of unfitness to continue his duties.

General Booth is 72 years old and has been in failing health for some years. Negotiations to persuade him to change the constitution were halted last May when he became seriously ill.

Under the constitution of the Army General Booth is the sole ruler and upon his death can pass the leadership to any one of his choosing by placing the name in a sealed envelope to be opened after his death. This was done by his father, William Booth, founder of the Army, who appointed the present ruler.

Bramwell Booth is understood to have followed his father's example and to have enclosed the name of one of his seven children in an envelope.

Fatally Hurt When Auto Strikes Pole

Salisbury, Dec. 22.—(AP)—Funeral services for Mason E. Moore, 26, student of a Keystone W. V. military academy, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Hopewell Presbyterian Church near Charlotte. The youth was fatally injured near here yesterday when the automobile which he was driving struck a telephone pole.

Moore is the son of missionaries in Japan. James E. Moore, professor in the Salisbury high school, and John E. Moore, teacher in the Winston-Salem high school, are his brothers. He was visiting the former for the Christmas holidays.

CONGRESS TO DROP WEIGHTY CARES TODAY

Numbers Of Members Have Already Made Their Exit From Capital City.

Washington, Dec. 22.—(AP) Congress drops its weighty cares until January 3 today, proud of its record of accomplishments during the first three weeks of the short session.

Leaders in both senate and house were well pleased with the results and felt the legislators had earned their Christmas and New Year respite.

Many senators and representatives had made their holiday exits from the capital, leaving only small attendances for the final session today. This was a brief, only a few hours, and remaining to be taken up in both houses.

Representative Tilson, of Connecticut, the Republican leader in the house, was particularly jubilant over the record established by this body in passing four of the nine annual appropriation bills before the holidays. More than a billion and a half dollars are provided in these measures. One, the treasury-post-office bill, has been signed by the president.

Aside from disposing of four big supply measures, the house also approved the senate amended Boulder dam bill without sending it to conference and paved the way for its new-holiday signature by President Coolidge.

Nearly a score of bills and resolutions passed both houses and were signed by the executive. Almost 2,000 were proposed.

A total of 1,507 bills, 37 resolutions and 38 joint resolutions made their appearance in the house. Of these, approximately 50 bills, 16 resolutions and 6 joint resolutions were passed.

Of the four appropriation bills put through the house, the senate has yet to act on two, those providing funds for the agriculture, state, commerce, justice and labor departments. The interior bill is in conference.

The house is believed to have hung up a record in passing 17 naval bills in two days, several of which provided large amounts for modernization of battleships.

Both houses passed a $12,150,000 measure to aid hurricane sufferers in Porto Rico, while the senate approved a $15,000,000 authorization for the same purpose in the South Atlantic states.

Senate committees were busy during the three weeks' session, investigating the Salt Creek royalty oil leases, federal patronage in the south and passing on a host of nominations. The nomination of Roy O. West for secretary of the interior was one of many receiving committee approval.

Barge Hits Rocks Near Savannah, Ga.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 22.—(AP)—The steamship Gulf Coast was standing by the grounded barge Troquois early today, awaiting assistance from the coast guard cutter Yamacraw in pulling her off. The Yamacraw was en route from Savannah to the scene, which was 130 miles south-southeast of Savannah, and expected to reach there after daylight.

Messages from the Gulf Coast last night, did not say whether the Troquois' crew had been taken off, or how the barge got on the rocks. They described the position of the barge as above water aft, with the stern 15 feet in the air. The Gulf Coast had a line to the Troquois, and was standing by in a stiff northerly wind, which was kicking up a choppy sea.

The Yamacraw, in leaving Savannah abandoned search for two of its crew, B. H. Kennedy, engineer, and George A. Merritt, carpenter, who left Thursday morning for a days' trip to St. Catherine's Island and had not returned last night.

GEORGIA TECH TO ADHERE TO FORMER RULES

Aboard Georgia Tech Special Car En Route to Pasadena, Calif., Dec.

22.—(AP)—As the Golden Tornado roared through Texas toward Arizona today and into New Year's assault against California's Golden Bears in Rose Bowl, Coach Bill Alexander revealed that he must adhere to his regular scrimmage hours as in previous years.

"I am going to try for Rose Bowl between 2 and 4 p. m. every day beginning Monday," old Alex said, "and I can't get those hours, the varsity squads will practice somewhere else."

In these words he revealed one of the secrets of his success with Tech teams—regularity in living and training for his squad. He has carried the principal even to the daily routine aboard the special car attached to the Sunset Limited. The men eat on time, sleep the same prescribed number of hours every night and otherwise follow the same program they had at home except for practice and studies.

Alex insists that his men forget football during trip, eluding indirectly to training only with his admonitions about regularity, and advice to each man that he must walk around or trout about station platforms at every daylight stop. ... Alex's mentor has prescribed as ignored the night, much to the cold air in the car, and every vent disconcerted of the five newspaper men aboard.

But Mrs. G. A. Alexander, mother of the coach, who is making her first foreign invasion with her son's team, is used to sleeping conditions, and worries no more than the men. Her knowledge of football is somewhat limited, being forced to find out about it from somebody besides Alex. He won't discuss the game at home. But she is a Tech enthusiast and regards the trip as a great experience.

Alex and Dr. J. G. Riley, team physician, are worried over Bob Durant and Stumpy Thomas, backfield aces, who are suffering from symptoms of influenza. Thomas, winning quarterback particularly adept at the deceptive ball passing of the Tech backfield, has a terrific cough, while Stumpy says he aches all over. Dr. Riley centered his attention on the erratic and plugging fullback today in an effort to defeat the bugs.

WOOLARD-VANDYKE

Pretty Home Wedding Solemnized Friday Evening.

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Inez Vandyke and Garland Gilbert Woolard, which was solemnized at eight o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's mother on Dickinson Avenue. The home throughout was decorated with suggestions of the Yuletide season. In the living room, where the ceremony was performed, the color scheme was green and white. A mirror formed the background of the improvised altar, which was flanked with ferns and tiers of burning tapers. From a large marine bow above the mirror, streamers were draped and tied to tall baskets of white carnations, which faced either side of the altar.

Miss Frances Taft, wearing pink satin with shoulderette of pink roses, played the wedding music. Just before the ceremony, Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, wearing pink taffeta with a shoulderette of pink roses, sweetly sang, "Oh, Promise Me."

Miss Annie Shields Vandyke, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink taffeta dress made bouffant and carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds.

The bride wore a bridal gown of white Duchess satin elaborately trimmed with Chantilly lace and beaded with pearls. Her court train was made of meline with inserts of Chantilly lace. The gown and train were worn over flesh. Her lace veil was becomingly worn in coronet style and caught with pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a "bower bouquet of bride's roses. She entered with her brother, Z. P. Vandyke, Jr.

The groom entered with his best man, Paul Chauncey of Pactolus, and met the bride at the altar. Rev. L. R. O'Brian performed the impressive ring ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Woolard left for a wedding trip to Florida. The bride wore a long-away gown of brown tulle with accessories to match.

Mrs. Woolard is the daughter of Mrs. Z. P. Vandyke and the late Z. P. Vandyke. She is a pretty, petite brunette and a popular member of the younger set. She is a graduate of the Greenville High School and the East Carolina Teachers College.

The groom is the popular son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Woolard.

Double Wedding.
 This morning at nine o'clock, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Bamber on East Eighth street, Miss Callie Roberson and James W. James, Jr., and Miss Alice Moore James and Myron N. Teel were married by Mr. Bamber.

Mrs. James is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Roberson of Stokes, Mr. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. James of this city. Mrs. Teel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. James, and Mr. Teel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Teel of this city.

Mrs. James and Mrs. Teel wore dresses for traveling with accessories to match. Following the ceremony they left for a short wedding trip. They have a host of friends who will be interested in their wedding.

IF IT WERE EVERY DAY

Christmas commentators

long stressed the wish

as the inquiry as to the glorious spirit

prevails that day

is not extend to the other

61 days in the year.

It does seem a misfortune

human nature so radiant with cheer and kindness so uniformly successful in finishing care and criticism so fraternal and company, should remain so for a day and then shed off these attributes to the less appealing vestments of every day interest.

Is it possible that people

retain this high estate struggle throughout the year? Are they incapable of a sustained kindliness could this millennial sort of existence become tiresome if it became a commonplace daily emotional diet?

Why cannot people live cheerfully always in amity and well? Are these virtues so perishable that after a few days they wither and fade away? Could they not be nurtured into perennials

would not be if people

wanted them to be?

Why not every day the spirit of Christmas day?

Why not the same spirit of well? Is it because human will not or is it that humanity is not capable of endured goodness?

Perfectly charming

ABOUT TOWN

"Don't get careless with your fir-crackers this Christmas, boys," is the advice of those interested in the protection of life and property of the community.

"Lives may be snuffed out in a few minutes by the careless handling of large crackers, therefore, it is incumbent upon everyone to be as careful as possible.

"It is against the law to shoot fireworks in the city limits. Boys who wish to stay within the law should go on the outside of the city to do their shooting. But it will pay even then to be careful to prevent loss of life and property."

The writer of this column today ceases his labors until after the Christmas holidays. He desires to extend his best wishes to his hundred of readers. It has been a happy year for all of us and Yuletide has a great many messages.

All of us have toiled untiringly throughout the year in the interest of a greater and stronger civilization. We may pause at Yuletide, look back over the well beaten path of life, and let our failures prove stepping stones to the future.

"It is a better gold philosophy that failure is the foundation to success.

It is not proven so in other lives, why not our own?"

Let us join in making this the happiest Christmas of our lives, feeling sure that the future holds forth adequate compensation for what we have put into the task allotted to us.

"Mrs. H. A. White is to be congratulated upon winning the prize offered for the best residence decoration," said a citizen today.

"It was an honor of which she was deserving. Of the many homes that stood out prominently in the decorations, the White home was the foremost of all. The spirit of Yuletide was expressed in a plain and interesting way by the figure of Saint Nick going down the chimney, and the additional lights of various colors added considerably to the effect. There were other outstanding decorations, and all of the home owners are to be congratulated upon the enthusiasm which they put in the contest to beautify the city during the Yuletide season."

BETTER GAGE TEAMS SEEN THIS SEASON

By HORACE C. RENGAR,
Associated Press Sports Writer
Atlanta, Dec. 22.—(AP)—The increase in well-balanced basketball teams in Dixie this season should be more pronounced than ever with at least a dozen teams looking to high ranking when the southern conference tournament rings down
the curtain early in March.
While all 23 institutions of the conference already have begun preliminary work, some starting even before football had ended, only the University of Alabama, Mississippi
A. and M., and one or two others have played warming up games against non-collegiate opponents.
After Christmas it will be different. North Carolina's terrible Tar

Heels, four Times-conference champions since 1922, will inaugurate an extensive trip into the north just after the holidays. Others will follow suit, either playing intercon-fessional opponents or teams drawn from their own ranks.
University of Mississippi, the present championship quintet, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Washington and Lee, North Carolina, Louisiana State, Clemson, Kentucky and Maryland are among the teams shaping up finest at this stage, all finding veteran material on hand for the start.
"Auburn, runner up for the crown last season, probably was the hardest hit of the leaders. The Plainsmen lost four of its five first string, only Captain DuBose, center, returning.
Cie Miss has Harry Philly, guard;
Cary Phillips, forward, and Captain DeWitt Laird, guard, all of last year's pack, although Coach Homer Hazel is having difficulty in finding a center to fill the vacated spot of Lee, captain last season.
The Tar Heels of Chapel Hill returned four letter men, including Captain Rufus Haekney, Henry Satterfield, George Cathey and Red Price. Coach Jim Ashmore must replace such stars as Bill Dodderer, Pinky Morris, Carr Purser and Billy Vanstory, four outstanding men.
The General of Washington and Lee, a team that lost eleven of its games last winter, by one or two points, has an outlook more promising. Led by Captain Jim Lowry, flashy forward, the Lexington team will have Gene White, Ernie Wood and Henry Groop returned. Coach Dick Smith has an array of material to select other members of his squad.
Virginia Polytechnic Institute, weak on the court since 1923, will have Captain Brown John Looney and Sam Rice, veterans, to build around in addition to many promising recruits.
Josh Cody's Clemson Tigers, a team that bowed to Auburn by only one point in the last title tournament, will be back strong. Cody has Captain O'Dell, Lest, Hewitt, Jones,
Asbill and Woodruff returned.
Esbey and McCrone are the only two losses.
Fencing Booster
New York—The country biggest Salle D'Armes is to be here. In a new building for the Fencers' Club there will be a hall 82 feet long.

On December 29th we shall present to the people of this community our Initial Showing of The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History—a Six in the price range of the four. The tremendous popularity accorded the Chevrolet car during the last few years combined with the enormous resources of General Motors and the manufacturing facilities of Chevrolet has at last made it possible to achieve the building of a quality six-cylinder car in the low-price field.

We cordially invite you to attend this Initial Presentation—for it will constitute one of the greatest automotive surprises this community has ever seen. Not only do these magnificent new cars introduce an order of performance, comfort, safety and handling ease that has never before been approached in a low-priced automobile—but in sheer beauty and elegance of appointment they rival the costliest custom creations. Be sure to attend our Initial Showing of this spectacular new car.

Red Cross Plays Santa In Florida

West Palm Beach, Fla., Dec. 22.—(AP)—Thousands of citizens scattered from one end of the nation to the other, were probably unaware today that they had been cast in the role of Santa Claus for residents of Florida's hurricane stricken area.

Anyone who contributed last September to the Florida hurricane relief fund may claim a part in the Red Cross Christmas program in the storm area, which began yesterday at Green Acres school near here.
A. L. Shafer, director of relief workers from national headquarters last night, announced that 72 per cent of applicants for relief since September had been awarded aid, and that of the 12,618 cases considered, only 3,535 remain open. During this week, 478 cases were permanently closed, indicating the speed with which the national organization is cleaning up its work.
