

SECOND PLANE ON ENDURANCE FLIGHT TODAY

Question Mark Still Shuttling Back And Forth At Los Angeles, California.

Marshall, Mo., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Blane M. Tuxhorn hopped off in his open cockpit monoplane at 8:54 a. m. today in an attempt to establish a new endurance flight record by refueling in the air by using a synchronized catapulting device. The ground was snow covered and the thermometer hovered about a degree above zero when the Kansas City aviator and his co-pilot Leonard Rihner, took the air. No trouble was experienced in getting off the ground.

The plane carried 25 gallons of gasoline, enough fuel for seven to eight hours, and planned to refuel for the first time about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Tuxhorn planned to fly at an elevation of about 1,000 feet. Although cold, the weather was bright and clear with prospects of the mercury climbing considerably.

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Shuttling back and forth from San Diego to the metropolitan airport here the Army's tri-motored Pumper Question Mark, was busily engaged today in putting aerial hours and miles behind it in the effort to set a new world's refueling endurance flight record. The fliers hope to keep the ship in the air for weeks.

At 3:24 a. m., twenty hours after the take off the plane had reached the third way mark toward the present record of sixty hours, seven minutes, held by Belgian fliers, and averaging a gait of 75 miles an hour had flown 1,500 miles which if in a straight line would have brought the ship and its five occupants over the Mississippi Valley country at that hour.

The monoplaner, which took off here at 7:24 a. m. yesterday, completed its fifth contact with refueling planes shortly after midnight when 200 gallons of gas was passed into her tanks from refueling plane number one, piloted by Lieut. Ross Hoyt. Contact was made 3,000 feet in the air over Del Mar, Calif., near San Diego and nine minutes was required to make the transfer of fuel.

Lieut. Hoyt reported on his return to San Diego that no message had been received from the plane's crew and this was accepted as a signal that all was well aboard. It was the first time that a refueling had been carried out in mid-air at night. Hoyt said the air was smooth and that there had been no difficulty.

The endurance plane, which is to remain in the air until its engines break down, took off with a minimum fuel load. Within an hour the first contact was established and 100 gallons of gasoline transferred in an eight minute contact.

At noon a turkey dinner was served to the crew. Shortly afterward the Question Mark flew to Pasadena and circled over Rose Bowl, where crowds were gathered for the football game between California and Georgia Tech.

Six Injured In Cruiser Blast

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Six men today were recovering from minor injuries incidental to the explosion of cruiser's gasoline tank and their rescue by three boats and a ship captain.

The men were taken from a row-boat by the youths and Capt. A. Fritz, commander of the Belcher, 38-footer, Marskee. The boys were attracted by black smoke issuing from the reconditioned cruiser of A. C. Duvall, Miami, three miles off shore. They abandoned their fishing cruise and raced the Marskee to the scene just as an explosion sank the craft.

Duvall and his brother, Oscar, were in bed today under treatment for prostration. They were unable to see newspapermen, and the names of the four members of the crew were unobtainable.

NEGRO EDUCATOR LEAVES $100,000 TO FISK COLLEGE

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Professor James Dallas Burrus, 82, first negro to take a bachelor of arts degree in a college south of the Mason Dixon line, left his entire estate, approximating $100,000, to Fisk University. He died here December 5.

The estate, which includes 85 houses in Nashville and stocks and bonds, will be used for an endowment of teaching and for the erection of a faculty apartment house on the Fisk campus.

32,000 Respond To Henry Ford's Call For More Laborers

Detroit, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Milling about the employment office of the Ford Motor Company at Fordham, a crowd estimated by officials of the company at 32,000 men today had responded to the announcement of the company that 30,000 additional men will be employed.

The crowd was unweildy and the employment office, which was to have opened at 8 a. m., remained closed until guards could form the men into semblance of a line.

Many of those outside the small building had stood all night in the snow. By 4 a. m. the number was estimated at 5,000 and by 8 a. m. Ford officials said that there were 32,000 on hand.

CITY SCHOOLS RESUMED WORK THIS MORNING

Approximately 90 Percent Of Enrollment Present; Precautions Against Flu

The Greenville City Schools resumed work this morning with a splendid attendance on the part of both pupils and teachers. Approximately ninety per cent of the enrollment was present. Only three of the teachers were absent, Misses Moore, Clark and Coates are at home sick with the influenza.

Out of an enrollment in the white schools of 1,655 there were only 161 absentees. The colored schools have not opened yet, but will resume work tomorrow morning. The attendance as a whole is better today than it was the week preceding the Christmas holiday.

The schools are taking every precaution to prevent the spread of the disease. Cloakrooms are sprayed with germ-killing solutions three times a day; classrooms and halls are also sprayed and ventilated; temperatures of all those with colds and coughs are taken, and if pupils have any fever they are taken home immediately. All these precautions would seem to make the child safer in school than if he were wandering around the streets.

The schools settled down to work in earnest. Twenty-five new pupils were entered in the schools this morning. These pupils moved into Greenville since the schools closed for the holidays. There are only two holidays slated for the spring term, and both of these come at Easter time, Good Friday and Easter Monday, March 29 and April 1, respectively. The final commencement exercises of the schools will be held Tuesday evening, June 4.

Says Sea Travel To Show Increase

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Sea travel between the United States and Europe in 1929 will show some increase over 1928, but will not tax capacities either afloat or ashore, according to Vice-President P. V. G. Mitchell, of the International Mercantile Marine Company.

"There is an entirely wrong impression current that the number of Americans going abroad in recent years greatly exceeds the pre-war numbers," Mr. Mitchell told the Associated Press. "The fact is there has been very little increase in this 15 year period. And the new tourist cabin with its popular price appeal accounts for all there is. If we exclude about a fortnight or three weeks in early summer when Americans are leaving this country, and a corresponding period in the late summer when they are returning from Europe, there are few steamers carrying capacity lists at any season."

FLU IS INCREASING EAST OF THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Influenza is believed to be decreasing in most of the states west of the Mississippi River and increasing east of the Mississippi. A warning against optimism was seen, however, reiteration by the public health service of the possibility of a second and more severe wave of the disease later in the winter. It was recalled that in 1918 there was at first a widespread outbreak, most of the cases being mild, but then it came again, and this time the malady was virulent in its nature.

Reports from 24 states and New York City for the week ending December 29 showed 90,000 new cases, as compared with 168,000 cases in the same states and New York for the previous week.

NOT TO PROBE LYNCHING OF NEGRO KILLER

Gov. Bilbro, of Miss., Declines to Take Action In Case Of Charley Shepherd.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Governor T. G. Bilbo's official notice of the lynching Monday night of Charley Shepherd, convict killer and kidnaper, was his announcement that he would not instigate an investigation in the torturing to death of the negro by a mob.

"I have neither the time nor the money to investigate two thousand people," the governor said in reply to telegrams of protest reaching his office on the North Mississippi mob violence. Arthur Jordan, district attorney, however, was considering a call for a grand jury investigation.

National guard officers leading groups of possemen in the negro's search were ordered to cease their duties by Adjutant General J. M. Hairston, when word was received that the negro had been taken. General Hairston said the troops were requested to aid in capturing the murderer of J. D. Duvall, carpenter sergeant at the state prison farm, and if possible to deliver him to the law.

To this Governor Bilbo added that if a request had been made to guard the negro after his capture by a person authorized to do so, "I would have granted it."

The verdict of the coroner's jury stated that Shepherd came to his death "from causes unknown to this jury." His burned and mutilated body was buried in the prison farm cemetery after lying at the pyre ruins for hours.

The mob which raced over north-west Mississippi since last Thursday night when the convict trusty killed the prison worker in his home grew by leaps and bounds when Duvall's daughter Ruth stumbled into prison camp Saturday morning with her story of ill treatment from the slayer.

The lynching of another negro is set for investigation by the Forrest county grand jury at Hattiesburg next Monday.

Mrs. Emma Hardee Passes Away In Stokes Community

Mrs. Emma J. Hardee, 79, died last night at 9 o'clock at her home in the Stokes community following an illness of some time.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at 1:30 at the Red Banks church by Elder Luther Joyner. Burial followed in the Hardee graveyard nearby.

Of her immediate family the deceased is only survived by one brother, J. S. Edwards, of Pitt county.

Mrs. Hardee was a loyal member of the Red Banks church and a lovely Christian character.

Three Girls Burned To Death in Oregon

Monmouth, Ore., Jan. 2.—(AP)—A part of flame from an illuminated Christmas tree set fire to a private dormitory on the campus of the Oregon Normal School here last night and three girl students were burned to death. Six others escaped by leaping from a second story porch of the burning building.

The dead are: Miss Evelyn Ohman, of Portland; Miss Florence Graham of Newport, Ore.; Miss Margaret Hemmers, Gresham, Ore.

The tragedy came on the eve of the opening of school after the holidays, and the girls had just returned from their homes to resume their studies today.

Occupants of the dormitory had retired for the night and were trapped when the tinder-like Christmas tree burst into flames, presumably started by faulty electrical wiring.

A HOME IS FUNERAL PYRE OF FIVE NORTH CAROLINIANS

Bodies of J. W. Vanderburg, Gastonia, N. C. farmer, his wife, two daughters and a son were found in the ruins of their farm home. Another son, Jacob, 17 (inset), who is held in the investigation of their deaths, said he waked to find the home in flames and members of his family slain.

D. S. SMITH SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS HERE

Wholesale Merchant And Farmer To Be Buried At Green- wood Cemetery.

D. S. Smith, 55, farmer and wholesale merchant, died at his home on Evans street this morning at 8 o'clock following illness of two months.

Funeral services will be conducted from his late home tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock by Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. Burial will follow in the new Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Smith contracted the flu about two months ago, complications set in and eventually resulted in his death. He had been in a critical condition the last two or three days and death was not unexpected.

He was born and raised in Pitt county. He had spent practically all of his life in Greenville, having been interested in farming and the Greenville Wholesale Company, prior to the close of the firm to make way for construction of an other building. He was a member of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church and served on the board of stewards for a number of years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by four daughters, Misses Rena, Ella Tucker, Frances and Katherine; four sons, W. J. C. L. D. S. Jr., and Harry B. Smith, all of Greenville; one sister, Mrs. M. T. Frazier, of Ayden; one half-brother, W. J. Hardee, of Greenville.

Funeral services will be: Active—A. M. Moseley, S. E. Gates, Jim Starkey, G. B. W. Hadley, J. Key Brown, M. F. Hardee, F. J. Forbes, Bruce Sugg.

Honorary—J. C. Gaskins, Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, R. L. Humber, J. K. Spey, Lunsford Fleming, D. S. Spain, L. W. Tucker, Haywood Dall, Dr. Joe Smith, Dr. L. C. Skinner, Dr. K. B. Pace, J. R. Turnage, G. S. Porter, Tom Moore, L. C. Arthur, W. H. Woodard, Jim King, Sam White, G. V. Smith, J. H. Blount, J. G. Moye, W. E. McGowan and Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church.

FAMOUS JUNGLE CAT KILLED NEAR SARASOTA

Sarasota, Fla., Jan. 2.—(AP)—List Jack Ocelot among those who sped meteorically across the bright lights of Broadway and came to an ignoble end.

The former pal of Jack Dempsey and friend of Billie Burke, the wife of Florenz Zeigfeld, was shot to death by Orman Hodges, son of the sheriff of Sarasota county, as he roamed the woods near this city.

Jack Ocelot was identified today as a pet, the prize fighter had his dangerous claws trimmed and tamed him. Later the former champion presented him to Mrs. Zeigfeld, who in turn placed him in the care of the circus which winters here.

Lowden Advises Farmers Against Pressing Demands

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Frank O. Lowden has advised the farmers to await the inauguration of President-elect Herbert Hoover before pressing their demands for some form of agricultural relief.

The former governor of Illinois suggested that the question be held in abeyance until after Mr. Hoover takes office because he is convinced that what legislation, if any, congress deems necessary should be acted upon at the special session proposed by the president-elect.

Before departing yesterday for a four-months' tour of Italy, Egypt, the Holy Land and Greece, Mr. Lowden quite definitely opposed any attempts to tinker with the farm program during the present congress.

"Undoubtedly congress will wish freely to consult with the president as legislation is being shaped," he said. "I understand that a special session is to be called."

"That, I think, would be the proper time for action upon this important question."

"As Mr. Hoover will have the responsibility of administering whatever laws may be enacted, it appears to me that the wise course at present is to wait the inauguration of the new administration."

He urged the farmers and friends of agriculture to support Mr. Hoover and lend their support in making his program effective. And Mr. Hoover, he recalled, advocated formation of a stabilization corporation with liberal advances from the government.

THINKS WORST IS OVER FOR BRITISH KING

Home Secretary Leaves For Riviera At Reassuring Reports From Doctors.

London, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Sir William Joynton-Hickson, home secretary, said today that he believed the worst is over for King George. He expressed the opinion on leaving for the Riviera where he feels free to go after a talk with the king's doctors about his majesty's condition.

From the fact that the king's doctors did not make their usual visit to the palace this afternoon it was gathered that they were satisfied with the progress that his majesty is making.

It is understood that their next visit will be at the usual time this evening prior to issuance of the regular night bulletin.

TO PUSH VOTE ON PEACE PACT IN THE SENATE

Borah Attempting To Get Measure In Ahead Of Naval Construction Bill.

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—An agreement to put the Kellogg peace pact ahead of his companion measure on the Senate calendar, the cruiser construction bill, was entered into today by Senators interested in the two proposals.

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Proponents of the Kellogg peace treaty were in a position on the eve of the reconvening of the Senate to push the pact to a vote ahead of its companion measure on the calendar, the naval construction bill.

So confident were the treaty advocates, that an agreement is being sought by Chairman Borah, of the Foreign Relations Committee, which would specify that the treaty be disposed of ahead of the cruiser measure.

Whether Chairman Hale, of the Naval Committee, consents to the agreement whereby his naval construction bill would be brought up after the treaty, appeared to be immaterial, for the treaty advocates have the votes to go ahead. An agreement, however, would serve to assure a vote on the naval measure.

Realizing that Senator Borah has the strength to press the treaty to an early vote, Senate leaders have given tacit consent to placing it ahead and in return have received some assurances from opponents of the naval bill that this measure will be allowed to come to a vote.

If an agreement goes through, votes would be definitely assured on both the treaty and the naval bill and predictions have been made that such an agreement would lead to disposition of both propositions within two weeks.

Before the Christmas recess the Senate agreed to make the naval bill the unfinished legislative business and the treaty the unfinished executive business. This will automatically bring the naval bill before the Senate tomorrow at 2 o'clock, at any time, however, treaty advocates can move to go into executive session for consideration of the peace pact. With a majority vote they will be able to thus keep the treaty constantly before the Senate.

Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri will wage a fight against the treaty. A more serious threat impends again the bill to construct fifteen new cruisers with Republican independents under the leadership of Senator Norris, of Nebraska, opposing it.

Buzzing Telephone Costs Woman $5,000

Pensacola, Fla., Jan. 2.—(AP)—A buzzing sound at the telephone of Mrs. M. A. Tourt which never was heard, cost her $5,000.

A man who represented himself as a telephone lineman told the maid to listen at the phone for a "buzzing sound" while he worked on the line in the house. He then looted the boudoir at his leisure. Mrs. Tourt, a society leader was away from home. The loss was jewelry.

POLICE HUNT FOR SLAYER OF UTAH GIRL

School Girl Kidnaped, Assaulted And Kill- ed By Unknown Party New Year's Eve.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The hat, shoes and galoshes worn by June Nelson, 12, who was kidnaped and slain New Year's eve, were the objects of an extensive search here today as a possible link to the identity of the murderer, who attacked the girl before strangling her to death. Scores of police and deputies continued the hunt for the killer today.

Those articles were missing when the body of the school girl was found yesterday partly submerged in a shallow canal on the outskirts of the city, and a painstaking search for them in the vicinity was unavailing.

A pair of child's gloves, found in a stolen automobile parked near a bridge crossing the canal, could not be identified by Mrs. Charles H. Nelson as those of her daughter, despite the fact that it was believed June's kidnaper used the car in carrying the girl to the spot. The car was returned to its owner who had reported its theft Monday night, a short time before the kidnaping.

Four suspects, including an ex-convict, who had served terms for attacking girls in this city, were grilled at police headquarters yesterday, but all were released when officers stated their conviction that the men knew nothing of the crime.

Authorities expressed the belief that the slayer, who kidnaped the girl while she was returning from her father's confectionery store to her home less than half a block away, was known by the victim and that he killed her to escape detection. Absence of footprints in snow along the bank of the canal led to the belief that the slain girl had been hurled from a car as it sped across the bridge.

SAYS GERMANY IS IN SOUND CONDITION NOW

Reparations General Sees Economic Soundness Of Nation For The New Year.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Seymour Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations, expresses confidence in Germany's economic soundness in the report for the fourth reparations annuity year.

"The most encouraging feature for the whole four years from the standpoint of public finances," he says, "is the great productivity of revenues notwithstanding important reductions in taxation."

In regard to payments for the current annuity year, the report forecasts that "no question can fairly arise, in the light of practical experience thus far, as to the ability of the Reich to provide the full amount of its standard contribution to the plan."

Criticism is made of German budgetary practices, however, in a paragraph saying:

"The current budget of the Reich gives evidence of some effort to curb the tendency towards rising expenditures, but many new demands are being made on the budgets and the indications are that new taxes will have to be imposed unless expenditures can be compressed to a considerably greater extent. Moreover, the financial settlement with the states and the communes which comes up for reconsideration next year, still remains on a basis which automatically deprives the Reich of the benefit of some of the year-to-year growth in most of its principal revenues."

In an introductory covering letter, Mr. Gilbert remarks that the German Railway company is in a strong financial position and able to carry the full annual charge for service on its reparations bonds.

The Reich's mark continues to satisfy all requirements of stability with the gold reserve of the Reich's bank at the highest point ever reached.

Exploding Still Causes Bad Fire

New Orleans, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Fire early today believed to have started from an exploding iron still, wiped out nearly a block of small residences in McDonoughville. Nine dwellings were destroyed before a volunteer fire department brought the flames under control. Officials will investigate.

HOOVER WILL CONFER WITH PARTY HEADS

President-elect To Be- gin Discussions Fol- lowing His Arrival In Washington.

U. S. S. Utah, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The selection of his cabinet being the next important task ahead of him, Herbert Hoover immediately after his arrival in Washington next Sunday plans to begin a series of conferences with Republican party leaders from practically all sections of the country on the make-up of his executive family.

Mr. Hoover probably will invite to his first conferences those congressional leaders who took a leading part in his campaign. These will include undoubtedly Vice-President-elect Curtis, Senators Moses, of New Hampshire; Borah, of Idaho; and Sackett, of Kentucky; Speaker Lonsworth and Representative Tilsen, the Republican house leader, and Representatives Wombine, of Minnesota, and Fort, of New Jersey, secretary of the Republican national committee, who was the Hoover floor manager at the Kansas City convention.

The president-elect indicated clearly today that he has not made up his mind on the cabinet appointments. The first task he set for himself was his Latin-American goal will tour and he feels it is unnecessary to begin the cabinet selection until he reaches the capital.

The primary purpose of Mr. Hoover's visit to Washington is to confer with these leaders. While there he also will ask for a conference with President Coolidge to make a report on his observations on the good-will tour. In addition he will formulate a precise program for his inauguration which he desires to be as simple as any held in recent years.

It is no secret that Mr. Hoover has found amusement in some of the stories emanating from Washington as to his reasons for going there. He pointed out that his home is there and that he wants to make arrangements regarding his home and to pack his personal belongings before entering the White House. He also stated that, if he went direct to Florida, it would put the senators and representatives with whom he desires to confer at a great inconvenience.

It also was pointed out that every Republican president-elect since Hayes has visited Washington between the time of the election and the inauguration.

Mr. Hoover reiterated that he will not discuss the legislative program of this congress with any leaders as he would regard it highly improper for the president-elect to interfere in any way with the legislative affairs pending during another administration.

Three Arrested On Kidnapping Charge At Orrville, Ohio.

Orrville, Ohio, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Three men were arrested at three o'clock this morning in connection with the supposed kidnaping of Melvin Horst, 4, who disappeared from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horst of Orrville, late last Thursday.

The men were placed in the city jail after being questioned for more than six hours. County Prosecutor Walter J. Mougey said that formal charges of kidnaping would be filed against the trio before noon.

After the suspects were locked up, Deputy Sheriff Lee Pontius said a special detective left in an automobile on a mysterious 100 mile trip.

Authorities would not reveal the destination of the two officers but it is understood that they were going to Columbus. It was believed they were taking a woman there in an attempt to have her identified by a Columbus woman as the person who was seen on a street car in Columbus Saturday night with a boy who resembled the missing lad.

Melvin was last seen late Thursday when he told a chum with whom he had been playing, that he had to go home for supper. He left pulling the little red wagon in which he had been giving his playmate a ride. His parents became alarmed soon afterwards when he failed to appear and a search was started. The wagon was found in the edge of the yard.

Reducing Ruins Voice, New York—Frances Alda of the Metropolitan Opera believes that her voice is better than ever, but that her figure isn't "a singer," she explains, "can't be as vain as the woman in her wants her to be. Radical reduction ruins the voice."

UNJUSTIFIABLE

A report just issued shows that there were in this country during 1928 only nine lynchings, as compared with sixteen in the previous year and thirty in 1926.

THE DEMOCRATS AND THE TARIFF

Washington correspondents err by a wide margin when they depict Representative Hull's views on tariff revision as being wholly at variance with those set forth by Governor Smith during the recent campaign.

Protection, Mr. Hull says, should be given where there is economic justification for it, but that is a far call from the Republican practice of accepting large campaign funds from tariff beneficiaries and later permitting them to come to Washington and write their own rates on the plea that the tariff must be revised by its friends.

U. S. Ambassador To France Sick

Cleveland, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The condition of Myron T. Herrick, American ambassador to France, who has been ill at his estate here, took a sudden turn for the worse early today, but his condition is not considered critical, it was announced by his son, Parmaley Herrick.

It is true that Mr. Hull says that some duties under the present law are too high, but even so staunch a Republican as Senator Smoot has said the same thing.

ABOUT TOWN

County officers should be congratulated upon the splendid record established in the capture of stills during the past year, mentioned a citizen today.

"The illicit manufacture of whiskey is one of the greatest menaces of civilization today, and unless county officials do everything possible to check the lawlessness, the final outcome will be appalling."

"Business is going to be good after all of us settle down from the holiday activities," declared a business man today.

"It is always quiet in the business world immediately after the holiday season. It requires time for the heads of great industries to get their eyes open and determine their course of action."

"Dr. Laughinghouse was right when he advised state schools not to defer opening of their spring terms on account of the flu," said a well known doctor today.

"Watch us finish the season with seventy million pounds of bright leaf for credit," challenged a member of the local market yesterday afternoon.

We knew the gentleman was no braggart, and listened to him with interest. In fact, we were reared in the same school of thought, and he at once found a sympathetic listener.

"Keep on telling the people about the suggestion not to park any longer than possible in the main business district of the city," a city official said to the writer of this column today.

"Bear this matter in mind from day to day. If you do not really need your car, leave it at home and in this way help city officials improve the traffic situation."

The veteran diplomat, who is 74 years old, has been ill with bronchitis for the past 16 days. He was seriously ill a year and a half ago, but gradually recovered after an operation and resumed his post in Paris. Mr. Herrick returned to Cleveland a few months ago.

There is no use worrying every time you draw a breath for fear you will breathe in some influenza germs.

"As a first precaution, I am prescribing Mistol in protects the nose and throat against the germs of influenza."

"Just tilt your head back and apply Mistol with the special dropper which comes with every package, until you feel it trickling down your throat. It will clear your head wonderfully, relieve any inflammation; it will help dry up a running nose. Gargle it for a sore throat or a little irritating cough."

"The combination treatment of Nujol and Mistol is a double safeguard against colds and influenza. Start this wise twofold precaution now. Don't delay. Put worry out of your mind. The chances are good that you will escape influenza and colds. Nujol and Mistol are on sale at all druggists."

"Take it night and morning; it will keep you in first class condition. You will have a far better chance to resist 'flu' or any other diseases that are going the rounds."

Among a number of buffet suppers given following the New Year's dance, was a very attractive one given by Charles and James Skinner at the home of their grandparents, Colonel and Mrs. P. G. James, on Fifth street.

A large number of guests were present.

Mrs. Bland Ill.

Friends will be sorry to learn that Mrs. J. A. Bland is ill with influenza.

HARRY SHANNON PLAYERS AT WHITE'S THEATRE

White's Theatre is to house the Harry Shannon Players for three nights starting Thursday, Jan. 3.

The Shannon show is not new on the road, being one of the oldest here in Greenville. No doubt they will be prime favorites with the people of Greenville before the duration of their engagement.

The opening play, "In Self Defense," is not one of those old plays, but one right up to the minute. Plenty of good comedy, and has a plot that will hold its audience, from the moment the curtain goes up on the first act.

Vaudeville between the acts, that are pleasing will also be one of the features with the show.

Notice.

The undersigned will offer for sale on the premises known as the E. H. Shelburn place (being a part of the Whitehead tract of land) about three miles from Greenville, the following personal property:

One mule; one horse; two stacks of hay; a quantity of corn and all farming implements of said farm used in the cultivation of said farm.

Time of sale, Saturday, January 5th, 1929, 10:00 o'clock, a. m.

Terms of sale, cash.

This December 31st, 1928.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at an advance of 3 to 10 points in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables which evidently promoted covering. Some trade buying also was reported, but after selling up to 20.28 for January and 20.25 for May at the start, prices reacted under realizing while there also appeared to be some southern or New Orleans selling. March eased off to 20.14, with the general market showing net losses of about 6 to 8 points, but this decline brought in a little more trade buying and the market was steady at the end of the first half hour. Business in the new contract for October and later deliveries started this morning with a considerable show of interest at prices ranging from 15 to 17 points below the old style contract for October delivery. Liverpool cables reported continental and Bombay buying in Liverpool and an optimistic sentiment in Manchester with a fair business in cotton cloths pending. Futures closed easy, 42@47 points lower; spot quiet; middling 20.10.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—A wild outburst of bullish enthusiasm in which nearly two score issues were lifted to the record high levels ushered in the beginning of the new year in the stock market. High money rates and rumors of heavy profit taking by powerful financial interests were disregarded by speculators for the advance who counted on an unusually heavy January reinvestment demand and de-

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Predictions of colder weather tomorrow in parts of the west where wheat is under a snow blanket tended today to make wheat prices average higher. A feature was buying of futures derivatives of wheat against simultaneous selling of corn futures. The corn market, however, showed stub-
