Wyatt Earp, Gun Fighter, Passes Away At Los Angeles, California.

Los Angeles, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Another of the old West's links with its glamorous past is gone in the passing here of Wyatt Earp, gun fighter, whose blazing six-shooters, notched a dozen times, were for most of his life alloyed on the side of law and order.

Although Earp majored in gun fighting and adventuring his one contact with pugilism brought him unforgettable renown. Earp's so-called "raw" decision in the Bob Fitzsimmons-Tom Sharkey fight at San Francisco December 2, 1896, when he awarded the fight to Sharkey on a foul that reverberated through the boxing world for years, and excited as much comment in its day as the long count given Gene Tunney at Chicago in 1927.

Part of Earp's life, after he had laid aside his guns which spoken often in the wild and woolly days of Dodge City and Ellsworth, Kansas, and Tombstone, Ariz., ran parallel with that of Tex Rickard, and a last vain effort to send a word of cheer to his friend, the promoter, contributed to his death.

Although he had been ill for some time, Earp left his bed here the day before Rickard died to send a telegram to his sick friend in Florida. The exertion caused a relapse and Earp died yesterday at the age of 80. His wife and a niece survive. The body will be held Tuesday.

Earp met Rickard in Baska during the gold rush, and the two were fast friends. While the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey fight was a non-title bout, the purse was but $10,000, Earp's decision after Sharkey had been knocked limp into the ropes, raised a squawk that was heard in far off Australia, home of the later world's heavyweight champion, Fitzsimmons.

Earp, a man of prompt and bitter courage, is said to have worn his six shooter into the ring the night of the fight, however, and despite vigorous ringside protest, escaped any attempts at physical violence. Sharkey had to go to the courts to get his money, and the protested decision blackened prize fighting.

At the age of 30, Earp began his career as a militia officer in Dodge City, where he was city marshal for two years. Of many famous gun fights in the cow-town, the one which he remembered was his battle with one "Curly Bill." From ambush "Curly Bill" sent a charge of buckshot into Earp. The marshal was not stopped by his wounds and brought down the outlaw.

In 1881 Earp moved on westward and became United States marshal in Tombstone where he and his three brothers, Virgil, Jim and Morgan, became famous for wiping out all but one of five men in the notorious Clanton gang in a street fight. Billy Clanton alone escaped.

The Earps were tried for the killing and exonerated on the grounds they had acted as peace officers. Later Morgan Earp was killed and two days afterward Wyatt and a confederate ran down one of his suspected slayers, Frank Stilwell, and killed him.

It was a slaying just outside the law, and Tombstone pulled in its lathering. The Earps were ordered to depart from the town never to return. Assembling five of his faithful followers Wyatt Earp bought a round of drinks at the Oriental where he had dealt for, toasted the lyn and his enemies, and rode in into the Nevada gold fields in March 1882. His brothers all preceded him in death, the last one being at Sacramento three years ago.

Until he appeared in the ring at San Francisco little was known of his movements, and little had been heard of him following his return from the Klondike.

Automobile Show Opens At Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 14.—(AP)—The motor world's largest offerings to 1929 buyers went on display today at the opening of the Annual South eastern Automobile Show, and first visitors were greeted with 127 types and models of many brilliant hues.

Blue and gold were the predominant shades, with the sombre tone apparently relegated to the background in 1929 coloring. Brilliant creations with all the latest appliances were shown with the combed dash and style to match any article in Milady's wardrobe.

Half again as many models were on display as those exhibited in last year's show, while 25,000 square feet of floor space were required for the various models.

Grand Jury To Get Vanderburg Case Tomorrow

Gaston, Jan. 14.—(AP)—A presentment of murder and arson against Jacob Vanderburg, 17 will be given to the new Gaston-county grand jury tomorrow, solicitor Carpenter announced today when superior court was convened.

The solicitor said "other matters that required immediate attention" would prohibit him from asking the indictment today. Young Vanderburg is held on suspicion in connection with death of five members of his family whose charred bodies were found in the ruins of their home near here December 28.

TO STAMP OUT WITCHCRAFT AT YORK, PA.

Prosecutions May Follow Conviction Of Pow-wow Doctor And Accomplices.

York, Pa., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Convictions of a pow-wow doctor and two accomplices for a murder seemed likely today to be followed by prosecutions for the practice of witchcraft.

"Something's got to be done about it," said County District Attorney Amos W. Herrmann in regard to the situation, which culminated in last week's trials.

Ever since Nelson D. Rehmeyer, a farmer, was slain on the theory that he practiced black magic and bewitched an entire family, state officials have been trying to learn the identity of other practitioners of witchcraft and obtained evidence warranting prosecution. Under state statutes it is a criminal offense to practice healing without a license.

The man and two youths convicted last week were in jail today awaiting removal to the penitentiary or perhaps another trial.

John H. Blymer, pow-wow doctor, John Curry, 44, and William C. Hess, 18, were convicted within five days after they were indicted for the murder of Rehmeyer.

Hess, last of the trio to be tried, was convicted Saturday night of murder in the second degree, which carried a penalty of 10 to 20 years imprisonment.

Blymer and Curry were found guilty of murder in the first degree. Life imprisonment was recommended by the trial juries.

Revenge Prompted Assassination Of Russian General

Moscow, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Assassination of General Jacob Alexandrovich Slaschoff today was attributed to motives of personal revenge. Formerly a czarist and white Russian commander, he rose high in the Soviet war commissariat during the last six years.

Commenting on the assassination the newspaper Krasnaya Zvezda, chief organ of the Red Army, said it was a "purposeless and politically unjustified act of personal revenge." The newspaper, Krasnolovskaya Pravda said that an unidentified Prava man entered the general's home and shot him to death. The assassin fled before witnesses to the slaying could lay hands on him.

General Schaschoff began his service with the Czar's army in 1902. He commanded the Moscow guards regiment in 1916 and afterward was prominent in White circles in opposition to the Bolsheviks. After the collapse of the anti-Bolshevik crusade he fled to Constantinople with General Wrangel.

In 1922, however, General Slaschhoff returned to Russia and became head of the General Tactics Course of the Soviet general staff. He recently published a work called "General Tactics."

There were numerous stories of his cruelty while with General Denikin in the Crimean campaign. He was entrusted with various military duties under the Soviet government which he was regarded as having accomplished conscientiously.

Reynold's Tobacco Company Earnings Break All Records

Winston Salem, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The annual statement of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company sent to stockholders, reveals that for the eighth consecutive year that company's earnings break all records for tobacco manufacturing firms.

During the past year the company earned $30,172,563, equal to $7.53 per share on four million shares of common stock outstanding, as compared with earnings of $29,080,664.76 for the year 1927.

NORTHWEST IN GRIP OF BITTER COLD

Middle Section of Nation Also Swept By Sub-Zero Temperatures Over Week-end

Chicago, Jan. 14.—(AP)—All that had gone before was as nothing compared to the bitter cold that held middle- and northwest America in a sub-zero hug over the week-end.

No relief of consequence is in sight before Wednesday, and the weather bureau was not prepared to say if the cold would be dissipated even then.

One of the low thermometer readings of the week-end was at Duluth where a minus 24 was the coldest the Minnesota city, at the head of Lake Superior, has had in 11 years. Green Bay, Wis., was another frigid spot with 20 below, while temperatures throughout the middle-west with hardly an exception skated under the cipher mark yesterday and last night.

Chicago had an official 10 below, with some suburban thermometers showing as low as minus 17. There were three deaths directly attributable to cold, and there were several hospital cases of persons suffering from frozen hands, feet or faces or persons injured in falls on slippery sidewalks and pavements.

Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas all experienced the severe cold. Snow banked railroads, disrupting schedules, and many highways were blocked.

Temporary relief late today—about 20 above, the weather man said—was expected to be followed by new cold, borne across the mid-west by winds from Alaska and accompanied by snow.

LOS ANGELES STARTS TRIP TO LAKEHURST

Giant Dirigible Took Off from Florida This Morning At 11:28, Bound For Hangar.

Port St. Joe, Fla., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Facing ideal flying conditions, the Navy's dirigible Los Angeles, took off from the tender Patoka in St. Joseph's Bay here at 11:28 a. m. today for a direct flight to its base at Lakehurst, N. J., after completing a 36-hour aerial tour of Florida.

Flying conditions were ideal, and Commander Charles Rosendahl, before taking off, said he anticipated no difficulty on the homeward journey.

Having completed a 36-hour aerial tour of Florida, the giant dirigible moored to the last of the tender at 8:15 a. m., Eastern Standard time, today.

With the arrival of the huge air liner here, preparations for refueling the gasoline and oil tanks began immediately, and it was expected that Lieut. Rosendahl and his crew of 45 men would be ready to start the homeward journey back to Lakehurst about noon.

The dirigible, which took off from the Patoka late last Saturday for a belated trip over Florida cities, which included Tampa, St. Petersburg, Fort Meyers, Miami, Palm Beach, Orlando and Jacksonville, appeared over the bay here at dawn and hovered high over the waters awaiting daybreak.

Marshal Foch Seriously Ill At Paris Home

Apparently he had recovered fully from that affliction but the strain of illness took on him and he suffered a severe heart attack.

Three doctors were called into consultation today. It was said that a bulletin would be issued late this afternoon.

Seeks Stewart Ouster

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is taking action to force Col. Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, out of the company. Stewart refused to resign during the dispute that arose over his refusal to testify before a senate committee.

LEGISLATURE TO RETURN TO WORK TONIGHT

Senate And House Committees To Be Named; Budget Report Pending.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Organization still to be perfected in both houses, members of the General Assembly returned to Raleigh today for the second week of the current session, scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock tonight.

Lieutenant-Governor Fountain and Speaker Graham were expected to name some, if not all, of the Senate and House committees, respectively, at the night session, and it was regarded as likely that Governor Gardner would transmit to the House the budget report.

Representatives of the Railroad Brotherhoods were under call to meet here today for consideration of possible legislation affecting their interests. It was understood the railway men were primarily interested in preventing the passage of any workman's compensation law deemed inimical to their welfare.

On Thursday, the State Highway Commission is scheduled to meet with the highway committees of each house to discuss the situation resulting from the resignation of Frank Page as chief highway commissioner and to plan a future program for the department.

Mr. Page's resignation was before Governor Gardner when the latter took office, but no action has been taken on it.

N. Y. ARTIST IS SUICIDE

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Because he suffered from cancer, Emil Fuchs, famous painter and sculptor, committed suicide by shooting in his studio yesterday. He was 63 years old.

After writing a note to his sister, Renee Fuchs, the artist fired a bullet into his heart, directing his aim with the aid of a hand mirror. The body was found by his sister when she went to the studio in the Hotel Des Artistes to prepare her brother's luncheon.

In the note, Fuchs said he was a burden to himself and his surroundings and "to live longer would only mean prolonging my agony."

A native of Vienna, Fuchs had won renown with his portraits and other works, especially in England and America. He numbered among his patrons and clients members of royalty as well as persons socially prominent.

After studying at the Imperial Academy of Fine Arts in his native city, he went to Berlin where he won the Prix de Rome, a travelling scholarship under which he studied in Italy for seven years. While in Italy he executed what he termed his finest piece of sculpture, "Mother Love," a work which won him the gold medal of honor of the International Exhibition.

This piece of work brought Fuchs to the attention of members of the royal household of England and led to his meeting with the then Prince of Wales, later King Edward VII, with whom the artist formed a friendship which endured throughout the king's lifetime.

Evans St. School Wrecked By Fire

Evans Street School, the oldest of the public school buildings of this city, was wrecked by fire of undetermined origin this morning. The building and equipment was insured for $45,000, which will completely cover the loss. J. H. Rose, superintendent of schools, stated this afternoon.

The building housed the Greenville Public Library, and the office of the superintendent of city schools. The library, containing several thousand books, was a complete loss. James Ficklen, library chairman, stated this afternoon that the library was insured for approximately $9,000, which would cover replacement value of the books. A few of the library records were saved.

Superintendent Rose said preparations were already under way for providing room for students of the burned structure. He said all grades had been instructed to meet at the old Model School building, Co-tatch street, tomorrow at 12:30 when preliminary preparations would be made for continuing work.

The fire was discovered in the basement of the Evans Street school building this morning shortly after 9 o'clock by Miss Louise Galphin, principal. She immediately notified the teachers to organize the pupils for fire drill and within less than 40 seconds the building had been completely cleared of the four hundred or more children. Evacuation took place so quietly and with such little of disorder that children didn't know of the fire until they were safely outside the building and had been instructed to go home.

All three trucks of the local fire department responded to the first alarm, and faced one of the most difficult tasks in years. The flames quickly ate their way through the first and second floors and at the noon hour today only the bare walls of the building remained. They were expected to crumble momentarily under the heavy streams of water which the fire department was still playing on the conflagration.

Situated near the heart of the business district, the fire attracted hundreds of spectators who milled about the street and campus from the first alarm until the noon hour when the flames were finally gotten under control.

H. J. Williams Died Sunday At Cox Mill Home

Henry Jordan Williams, 74, well known planter of the Cox Mill community, died at his home Sunday morning at eight o'clock following lingering illness of a year or more.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at three o'clock from his late home by Elder W. H. Laughinghouse. Burial followed in the family graveyard near the home.

Mr. Williams was twice married, first to Miss Betty Carroll, and second to Miss Augusta Pines, who died in April, 1923. He is survived by five sons and four daughters, all by his last wife, Levy, Herman, Anthony, Henry and Woodrow; Mrs. Willie Buck, Mrs. Heber Jolly, Mrs. Roy Wrenn and Miss Adell Williams, all of Pitt county; a half-sister, Mrs. Della Haddock, of Pitt county.

Pallbearers were J. C. Gaskins, J. F. Harrington, Major Smith, Harvey Mills, Johnnie Carroll, D. N. Bradshaw, S. A. Whitehurst and Henry Trapp.

Fire Maroons Sightseers In N. Y. Building

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Six sightseers, one a young woman, were marooned in the observation tower of the Woolworth building for ten minutes yesterday, their escape cut off by the highest blaze that the New York fire department was ever called upon to fight.

The fire was at the level of the 55th floor, apparently caused by a short circuit in electric wires in the elevator shaft.

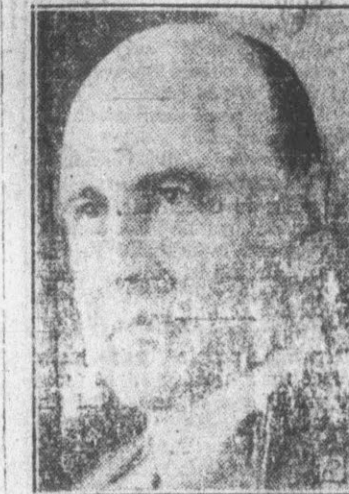

Firemen who had to climb from the 47th floor quickly put out the blaze after three of the men and Miss Margaret Shields, of Bay City Mich., made a dash down a stairway through the smoke and flames to the safety of the 54th floor.

Crowds gathered in City Hall Park and on Broadway as the smoke began to pour from the tower windows. Damage was confined to the wires and cables in the elevator shaft from the 55th to the 57th floors.

Little Jesse Bowen Died Saturday A. M.

Jesse, the year old son of Jesse Bowen, of Ballard's Cross Roads, died Saturday morning of influenza. Services were conducted from the home Sunday afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. Mr. Davidson, of Ayden. Burial followed in the family graveyard at Ballard's. The child's mother died last May.

Cabinet Possibility

DEMOCRACY IN MOOD TO WIN NEXT BATTLE

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 14.—(AP)—After analyzing replies to a questionnaire sent to more than 3,000 Democratic leaders throughout the country Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt was convinced today the party has the "will to win."

Former Governor Alfred E. Smith was in Albany today and yesterday and had what was described as a "heart-to-heart" talk with his successor. Next Wednesday Mr. Smith will deliver an address of a nationwide radio hook-up. His subject has not been announced.

Mr. Roosevelt said replies to his questionnaire indicated that Democratic party leaders were in a militant mood and stood ready not only to contribute enough to wipe out the party deficit of $1,500,000 but enough more to carry on the work of the national party during the next four years.

Mr. Roosevelt said the fighting spirit of the Democrats had been aroused by what he termed the methods of the Republicans "to cheat the Democratic party out of the presidency."

The party's "will to win," he believes, "can only be compared to that which followed the theft of the presidency in the case of Mr. Tilden. Bigotry, ignorance of Democratic principles; the spread of un-speakable and un-American methods of the most atrocious falsehoods; unfair and improper pressure brought to bear upon workers in specially favored Republican industries, false claims for the prosperity of the country and kindred propaganda, so my correspondents feel, our party of the presidency."

Touching upon the $1,500,000 deficit in the party, the governor said: "Four years ago the burden of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars loomed large in the minds of my correspondents as indicating an impossibility of financing active organization work. This year I think at least half of my correspondents have noted that sum, while large in itself, would represent the contribution of only a few cents from every one who voted for the ticket and many hundreds of county workers have expressed a willingness to raise, by an exceedingly modest contribution from the individuals in their district, not only their portion of this indebtedness but enough in addition to finance the national work during the next four years."

Witnesses who had been summoned for today appeared, proved their tickets and returned home. The criminal term of court, set for next week, will open Monday morning as scheduled unless illness of the officials continues longer than expected.

Judge F. A. Daniels was reported confined to his home in Goldsboro suffering from an attack of the flu. While his condition was not described as critical, it was sufficiently serious to justify his confinement several days.

Solicitor D. M. Clark was confined at the Pitt Community hospital in this city this morning. He was also suffering from an attack of the flu which probably will result in his remaining indoors several days.

Clerk of Court J. F. Harrington said that criminal court would be held next week unless a change for the worse occurred in the condition of the two officials.

Small Retires As Illinois Governor

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Len Small became a private citizen today and ended a tempestuous eight year reign as Governor of Illinois.

Of his many disappointments and regrets, the one which seemed to weigh most heavily with the little gray haired man, who for years has been a storm center and object of bitter attacks, was the fact that he had never learned to play. "I leave office a much poorer man financially," he said "but money counts for little. I'll always have enough to live."

RUTH'S WIFE DIES AS FIRE WRECKS HOME

Watertown, Mass., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Babe Ruth, home run king, today mourned his wife, while police sought for questioning Dr. Edward H. Kinder, Boston dentist, in whose home here Mrs. Ruth, known to neighbors for the last year and a half, as Mrs. Helen Kinder, was burned to death last Friday night.

The New York Yankee star arrived in Boston from New York City yesterday just in time to halt the burial of the supposed Mrs. Kinder for whom a death certificate had been issued on information supplied by the dentist.

While State Detective Edward P. O'Neil, who investigated the fire at the instance of District Attorney Robert T. Bushnell of Middlesex county, declared that there was no evidence that a crime had been committed. The district attorney ordered an autopsy performed and a search instituted for Kinder.

Ruth was prostrated with grief as he arrived in Boston from Scranton, Pa. From his hotel suite he gave a brief statement to newspaper men.

"My wife and I have not lived together for the last three years. During that time I have seldom met her. I have done all that I can to comply with her wishes. Her death is a great shock to me, that is all I can say now."

But Ruth, through his friend and legal adviser, John P. Feeney of Boston, immediately took steps to see that a new certificate was issued that the dead woman might be buried as Mrs. Ruth rather than as Mrs. Kinder.

Feeney and a member of Mrs. Ruth's family decided to go to Watertown, where the Babe's nine year old daughter, Dorothy, is a student in a private academy, and break the news of her mother's death.

The discovery that the supposed dentist's wife was Mrs. Ruth came with the publication last week of a picture of the woman found in the house. A friend of the Ruths identified it. Mrs. Ruth's sister, the Misses Catherine and Mary Woodford, of South Boston, were summoned and established identification.

Kinder, who was attending a boxing exhibition last Friday when his house caught fire, was paged at the show and returned to identify the dead woman as his wife and to make funeral arrangements. His whereabouts since then constituted a mystery today.

The dentist's father, William F. Kinder, and a brother, William P. Kinder, Jr., said they believed the couple had been married in November of the Boston Red Sox in 1913. The dentist had long been regarded as a close friend of the Ruths. His family and that of Mrs. Ruth lived in South Boston and, according to his father, he had known her before her marriage.

Ruth first met Helen Woodford shortly after he became a member of the Boston Red Sox in 1915. The girl had been a waitress and was employed at the time in a Back Bay restaurant near the ball park.

Late in 1915 or early in 1916 they were married and in September, 1922, they announced that sixteen months previously a daughter had been born but they had decided not to announce it earlier. That the path of their marital life has not been a smooth one the past few years has been generally known by their friends.

Kinder was graduated from Tufts Dental School in 1924 and although he maintained an office in Boston he continued to live with his parents. About a year and a half ago he moved into the house where the fire occurred. The child, Dorothy Ruth, was known to the neighbors as Dorothy Kinder and was frequently seen about the place with her mother.

King George Still Shows Improvement

London, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Good news came from both royal patients at Buckingham Palace this morning.

After an interval of several days in which King George's condition was officially reported as stationary today's medical bulletin brought the gratifying news that he was making progress. It was indicated that the advance was slow. But this was expected as all predictions have been that gains in strength were bound to be achieved only by gradual stages.

Queen Mary, it was authoritatively stated was getting the better of her cold. It was evidently thought advisable that she remain quietly in her room as a precaution.

ABOUT TOWN

The proposed industrial survey for the city of Greenville deserves more than passing consideration, declared a well known business man today, discussing action of the Board of Aldermen in appointing a committee to investigate the feasibility of the proposition.

The purpose of the survey is to set forth the resources and possibilities of Greenville in such way as to invite the coming of more manufacturing concerns. The survey has proven profitable to other communities. Why should not it prove of similar value to Greenville?

The survey can be made at a small financial outlay and it certainly would result in far greater returns.

"Greenville people are justly proud of their electric light and water plant," said an interested taxpayer today.

"The plant is one of our greatest investments. It is valued at between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 and has shown constant growth for several years. The revenue derived from operation is invested in improvements, at the same time leaving a sufficient sum for emergency purposes.

"This is the greatest business owned and operated by the city, and one in which every tax payer ought to be interested, especially since his light rate is less than any other town in this part of the state."

Shortly after basketball season is over, the boys will begin limbering up for baseball season," said members of the High School Athletic Association this morning.

"We hope to turn out a real team this season—one that will be able to turn in the longest string of victories in years. Both the football and basketball season have been fairly successful, leading to hope that baseball will experience similar success.

"We want more support of the public this season than we had last year. Let the boys know the public is behind them and they will be encouraged to greater efforts. Watch for the opening of training season, and then resolve to attend as many of the games as possible."

"Will we reach our goal of 70 million pounds? asked a local tobaccoist in surprise today. "Sure we will and with some to spare.

"We have less than a million pounds of bright leaf to sell before the goal is realized. That amount will be handled during the remainder of the month.

"When we reach the goal line we shall be about nine million pounds ahead of the record of last season. That's a record to be proud of and there is not a man on the local market who does not feel he has done a good season's work."

"I don't know what objective Ralph Deal has under consideration, but it is safe to say they are of a constructive nature," ventured a member of the local Kiwanis club new club president in his maiden referring to a declaration of the address the other night.

"Ralph has been one of our most earnest workers since his coming to this city. We expect his administration will be marked by progress of a most brilliant nature.

"There are lots of things an organization of this kind might do, and it is hopeful the club will step out in achievements of the coming year."

"I am sorry to see that water-melon goes to waste," mourned a well known Greenville man, inspecting the melon left in the Reflector office Saturday afternoon by Mrs. E. W. Smith, of the Beedy Branch community.

"The fact that the melon has retained its freshness over a period of several months is all the more reason for its proving inviting. Think of a melon, pulled last October, remaining in a state of preservation to the month of January.

"The committee of awards at the County Fair knew what they were about when they gave Mrs. Smith a blue ribbon for display of this same piece of fruit.

"This melon has set a record the Smith family will be proud of for some time to come. It will hold good, too, until somebody comes along with the information that they were able to preserve a whole patch of melons for several months."

"Do I want to take a ride in an airplane? Well I should say not," emphatically declined an aged citizen today upon being asked if he would like to go for a little spin in the clouds.

"I've been living in this world much longer than you have, young man," he said, addressing his inquisitor, "and experience has taught me there is enough to worry about down here without going up into the clouds for more trouble."

"Down here on old terra firma I have something to hold to if my feet begin to slip and slide. But up there in the air there is not a single cloud durable enough to hold to when one starts falling.

"I appreciate your asking me, son—but I'll continue the rest of my earthly existence on the ground."

Red Tennis Balls
 New York—Now come red tennis balls. The idea is that on sunny days the visibility will be greater than that of white ones. The same was said of yellow golf balls the last season. But the boys who usually win hit white ones.

Bond Explains Refund Of Taxes

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Answering recent attacks in Congress upon the treasury because tax refunds for the year were estimated at $205,000,000, Assistant Secretary Bond has explained that the government collects first and settles disputes over taxes afterward.

"Why refunds?" he asked. "Simply because we find we have money to which we are not entitled," he answered.

The attention of the treasury were made chiefly by Representative Garner, Democrat, Texas, after the United States Steel Corporation was awarded a $15,000,000 refund with $11,000,000 interest. This taxpayer, the assistant secretary said, paid over $217,000,000 in taxes and added that on a $10,000 refund to a taxpayer who paid only $50,000 total, no objection was made though the percentage of refund was much greater than in the case of the steel corporation.

The system of collecting taxes as prescribed by Congress, Mr. Bond said, was based upon the proposition that the needs of the government demand and justify an insistence upon the immediate payment of taxes.

BEWARE THE COUGHS THAT FOLLOW FLU!

They May Weaken Your System and Lead to Serious Trouble

You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germ.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion may help you avoid flu, but is not sold as a flu remedy. If you have fever, or think you may have the flu, see your doctor immediately. (adv.)

CAGE TEAMS START MAJOR OFFENSIVES

By HORACE C. RENEGAR, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Atlanta, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Southern conference basketball teams this week launch out into the first major offensive of the season, 19 of the 23 institutions competing in 28 games.

Seventeen of the contests will be between conference quintets, while the others involve a foe from without the organization.

The University of Mississippi, boasting most of its championship material of a year ago, will engage Tulane and Louisiana State in a couple of games each and from the manner Homer Hazel's basketballers disposed of the Baton Rouge outfit last week, they must be counted upon for plenty before the title tournament in March.

Another blood-and-thunder engagement will be the Virginia Tech-V. M. I. clash Saturday night at Lexington.

Wednesday night—Kentucky vs. Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

SENATORS SET FOR BIG YEAR IN BASEBALL

By PAUL N. SEXTON, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—If sentiment can win baseball games, the Washington Senators will start the 1929 playing season with a big lead over the other American League entries.

This is because in selecting Walter Johnson to replace Bucky Harris, who goes to Detroit, Clark Griffith has touched a soft spot in the hearts of thousands of capital fans.

The return of the "big train," for twenty years the hurling ace of the Senators, after a brief absence as manager of the Newark club, has undoubtedly bolstered the morale of the Griffith cast.

Aside from this, however, the Senators have other reasons for their pre-season confidence, chief of which is the promise of a revamped infield, a more effective outer defense and some promising new pitching material from the minors.

The acquisition of Buddy Myer, brought back from Boston in a deal that cost Griffith five players, expected to brace the inner wall effectively. Johnson believe that with Myer at third; Ossie Bluege can be switched to short where he played when he first entered the big show.

The belief of "Goose" Goslin, leading hitter of the league last season, that his throwing arm has returned to form, is one of the main factors in Johnson's hope for a more efficient outfield.

Garland Braxton, most effective pitcher of the league last year, will head the mound staff, supported by...

Atlanta Student To Plead Insanity

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Insanity probably will be the defense plea of George R. Harsh when the former university student goes on trial in Fulton county court tomorrow for the murder of one of two men shot to death in holdups.

A physician who examined the youth Saturday, said he found him "in a nervous condition," and alienists employed by the boy's family have made numerous physical and mental tests of the confessed "thrill" slayer.

Attorneys for the youth were said to be ready to introduce evidence that Harsh's father died from a tumor of the brain in a Baltimore hospital in 1921. Alienists for the state also have examined the youth and are expected to testify.
