REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT OVER SPAIN

Soldiers And Civilians Reported Affected By Disorders In Many Sections.

Hendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Advises received here today indicate that revolutionary activities have broken out in many parts of Spain among both soldiers and civilians.

On September 12, 1923, General Primo De Rivera as leader of a military coup d'etat took over the reins of government in Spain and set up a directory which is now the governing body in that country. In the more than five years since that time there have been many minor revolutionary movements reported but none of sufficient magnitude to imperil the De Rivera dictatorship.

In December, 1925, announcement was made of a return to a civil cabinet of ministers, the military directory being dissolved. General Primo De Rivera became premier and the change was generally interpreted as being from a military dictatorship to a civilian and economic dictatorship. This change did not entail the complete or immediate restoration of the constitutional guarantees at present suspended.

Dispatches last September said that a revolutionary plot had been discovered but had been nipped by the premier. There were also rumors that the premier himself had been shot while on a visit to Barcelona, but these proved erroneous. Earlier in this same month many arrests were made in an effort to stamp out subversive movements.

While there has been a movement in Spain directed against the dictatorship in favor of a return to the constitution, there also has been a Catalan separatist movement designed to make Catalonia an autonomous state. In 1924 a series of arrests were made in France of persons involved in this movement including Deputy Macio.

In September, 1926, one of the most serious revolts against the government was crushed. The rebellion centered about elements within the Spanish army and numerous artillery corps dissolved. Later many of the officers were reinstated.

Of late months only minor difficulties have been reported from Spain. The premier has been suffering from influenza for the past few days and was kept to his bed. King Alfonso has been on a hunting trip near Cordoba. Whether the king's absence and the premier's illness have served as an incentive for the outbreak of the reported subversive movement remains to be seen.

Flu Still Takes Big Toll Of Life In Great Britain

London, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Influenza and pneumonia today continued to take a big toll in many parts of Great Britain and northern Ireland. The big cities were the worst sufferers, notably Glasgow, Liverpool and Belfast.

At Belfast influenza was raging unchecked. Doctors were sorely pressed and glad to accept any help that the Red Cross detachment might offer.

The Belfast Telegraph printed four columns of obituary notices. Grave diggers were working overtime and gardeners were employed to help them. Among the deaths within a week were those of the Rev. Robert Jackson, his brother and two sisters.

The unemployed were being recruited to help the grave diggers in Glasgow. Of 1,112 deaths there last week 654 were due either to pneumonia or influenza. Paisley, a few miles distant, the death rate last week was 43 per thousand. More than half of these deaths were due to influenza.

Fifty schools in Liverpool were closed. A large proportion of the city's deaths was certified as being due to influenza and pneumonia.

May Call Keyes' Wife To Stand

Los Angeles, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The prosecution in the bribery trial of former District Attorney Asa Keyes and two others made known today that it would call upon Mrs. Lillian Keyes, wife of the principal defendant, as a rebuttal witness unless defense attorneys stipulate regarding certain parts of her testimony already given.

Mrs. Keyes, testifying last week as a defense witness, declared that articles of furniture which came to the Keyes home through Ben Getzoff, co-defendant and alleged "fixer" for the erstwhile prosecutor and several persons who were facing criminal charges, had been obtained in that manner because Getzoff had

Only Minor Matters Get Attention In Legislature

Raleigh, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Matters occupied the attention of both houses of the legislature today. The House approved the resolution of Rep. Winston, Democrat, of Lenoir, to provide for the appointment of a commission to investigate the possibility of consolidating state agencies with a view to promoting economy and eliminating duplication and overlapping of effort. Six other bills were passed.

In the Senate a number of bills were passed, but none of them occasioned debate. Numerous new bills were introduced in both Houses. Committees prepared to hold meetings this afternoon. Senator Higgins, chairman of the committee on election laws, announced a meeting of his committee for tomorrow.

Raleigh, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Another workmen's compensation bill was introduced in the Senate today by Senator Broughton of Wake, on request.

Protection for illiterates and others in taking out life insurance was sought in a bill sponsored by McKethan, Democrat of Cumberland, which provides that if the person is unable to state his own age the company is to accept whatever age he gives and it is to apply during the contract.

Millner, Republican of Burke, introduced a measure by House, relating to children committed to state homes of welfare providing that the children must be sent by authorized officials.

Other bills were to provide that contracts for fire insurance did not effect the installation of fire fighting equipment, by Smith of Stanley, relative to advertising of property for sale, by Joyce of Stokes; validating the probate of certain wills, and increasing by one hundred dollars the year's allowance to widows and their families, by Simon of Catawba.

A trio of companion bills relating to the supreme court were passed today. They provide that the supreme court shall regulate the number of reports printed; that each member shall be provided with a set of reports at his office and at his home; and for the annotation of reports, bringing them up to date.

The bill of Senator Canaday, providing that no time limit is to be placed on registering following a deed of gift was passed. The present law places a time limit of two years, and after that if no registration has been made, deeds of gift are held invalid.

Others approved were to authorize the validation of certain bonds of Brunswick county; to validate probate before stockholders and directors of corporations; to provide that 60 days notice of an assignment be given creditors for the filing claim; the authorization of the governor to appoint additional trustees for state normal schools at Elizabeth City, Fayetteville, the Cherokee Normal at the State Teachers' College for Negroes, at Winston-Salem.

Senator W. M. Person, Democrat of Franklin, author of the prescription whiskey bill, read a letter today which he said was from an official of the "liquor manufacturer" and defending his title against Howard Cantonwine, of Iowa, in Madison Square Garden.

In addition, Captain Fried probably added a neat sum to his income by his endorsement of a brand of cigarettes.

MR. COOLIDGE MAKES FINAL BUDGET TALK

President Declares Federal Government Best Big Business In The World.

Washington, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The Federal government, in President Coolidge's opinion, is "the best conducted big business in the world."

He expressed this view last night in making his final address to the Government Business organization at its semi-annual meeting. In addition, the chief executive reviewed the accomplishments of the budget system of regulating national expenditures in the eight years that it has been in operation, thanked government employees generally for helping to make it a success and urged a continued "constructive" economy as essential to national prosperity.

The meeting was attended by Vice-President Dawes, the entire cabinet, heads of many government bureaus, numerous government employees charged with making expenditures, and as many spectators as could be seated in the hall. Mrs. Coolidge, too, was present and sat in a box overlooking the stage surrounded by the wives of the cabinet officers.

At the conclusion of the president's speech, the gathering was addressed by Basil Cren Herbert M. Lord, the director of the budget bureau, who described the efforts being made to avert a threatened deficit at the close of the present fiscal year. He also declared indications were that increased Federal expenditures would be necessary in the future, which he said would make the need for economy all the more urgent.

President Coolidge said it would be a "great mistake" to suppose that "we can continue our national prosperity unless we continue to insist upon constructive economy in government."

Turning from the national administration to state and local governments, Mr. Coolidge viewed what he termed their "rapidly mounting" outlays as a warning "of the danger of depression and a repetition of the disaster that overtook the country in the closing days of 1920. Comparing present economic conditions with those of 1921, when the budget system was instituted, Mr. Coolidge said that while he could not claim for the government "all the credit for the restoration of our country's business," he did believe that "wise government policies, particularly wise economy in government expenditures with steady reduction of the national debt" had had a "dominant influence."

Rep. Flanagan, Democrat of Pitt., introduced a new road measure that would increase the state gasoline tax one cent a gallon. The funds collected and an additional one million dollars a year from the income from the present gasoline tax would be distributed to the counties for use in maintaining highways and building new roads. The fund would not be controlled by the State Highway Commission as proposed in a similar bill introduced last week by Rep. Carr.

The Flanagan measure further provided that the counties must reduce their ad valorem taxes by the amount received from the state fund. Distribution of the fund would be made one-half according to the area and one-half according to the population of the state.

Representatives Carpenter and Armstrong, Republicans of Gaston jointly sponsored a measure to reduce the legal working week for mill workers from 60 to 55 hours.

LIGHT SALES REPORTED ON LEAF MARKET

Season Sales Today Were Drawing Near The Seventy-one Million Pounds Mark.

Sales on the Greenville tobacco market were drawing near the seventy-one million pounds mark today, according to the official report of sales issued by K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales.

The report placed season's sales at 70,780,570. The total sum paid out by the market was $14,923,887. Sales yesterday amounted to 47,798 pounds of bright leaf for $7,406,827. The average price was not given.

The market will close for the season Thursday, January 31st. Farmers have been advised to market the rest of their crop as hurriedly as possible in order that the closing day may see all offerings disposed of.

Tobaccoists stressed the necessity of marketing tobacco in the best condition possible. This, it was said, would play an important part in the price situation.

Virtually all offerings at this time consist of the most inferior grades. Prices, however, were said to be unusually strong for this quality with indications of continued strength through the closing day.

Harsh's Accomplice On Trial At Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Selection of a jury began today to try Richard G. Gallogly for the murder of Willard Smith, a drug store manager who was shot to death during a hold-up October 16, last.

The young former college student was indicted with George M. Harsh when the latter told police he fired the shots that killed the druggist while Gallogly waited outside in an automobile. Harsh, who was convicted and sentenced to electrocution March 15, also told of shooting S. H. Meeks, a grocery clerk, in a previous holdup.

Solicitor General John A. Boykin, who prosecuted Harsh, has indicated the convicted youth will be called as the state's star witness against Gallogly.

Both Harsh and Gallogly were prominent college students. After his arrest, Harsh is said to have told officers that he had Gallogly engaged in the holdups that resulted in the killings "for a thrill."

SCHOOLGIRL LIVES BY ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION. Perry, Kansas, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Margaret Brown, 7-year-old school girl suffering with pneumonia, still clung to life today but by the narrow margin, and fear was expressed that the tiny spark of life in her body might soon flicker out.

After the endorsement, the club appointed a committee to take proper steps to urge Mr. Dail's appointment.

It was decided that the meeting next Monday night would be held at Stokes schoolhouse. Members are to assemble at Dail's Filling Station at 5:30 o'clock prior to the trip to Stokes.

Al Smith Visits Herbert Hoover

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 29.—(AP)—President-elect Hoover and Alfred E. Smith spent twenty-five minutes with each other today at the Hoover vacation home on Belle Isle, mostly reminiscing about the events of the spectacular campaign last fall in which they were the principals.

Wearing his celebrated brown derby and formal morning clothes, the Democratic standard bearer of 1928 reached Belle Isle promptly at 11 a. m., the hour for his appointment with his victorious opponent. His inevitable cigar was very much in evidence as he stepped from a Rolls Royce car in which he had driven from the Miami Biltmore, Hotel at Coral Gables, where he has his headquarters.

Accompanying the former governor were John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and William F. Kenny, life-long friend. Smith led the way up the short concrete walk to the door of the sun parlor where he and his companions were greeted by Lawrence Richey, secretary to Mr. Hoover.

The president-elect, in white trousers and shoes and a double-breasted blue serge coat, stood just within the doorway and shook hands first with his late opponent and then with the other two. The visitors were made comfortable in large easy chairs and the president-elect and the Democratic leader did most of the talking.

Gov. Smith said afterwards that he had congratulated Mr. Hoover and wished him luck.

"And I meant it," he added, emphasizing each word.

"We talked about some of the funny things that happened during the campaign," the former governor went on, explaining that Mr. Hoover related some of his own experiences that gave him amusement and that he did likewise.

"Mr. Hoover looked well," was the comment of the distinguished visitor.

This was the first talk the late opponents ever had had although they had met once before back in 1921 when both were speakers from the same platform in New York.

The former governor when leaving the house agreed to go to the executive offices a couple of hundred yards away to talk with the newspaper correspondents, who are here with the president-elect, but before he reached there he changed his mind.

Mr. Smith drove directly back to Coral Gables for breakfast, explaining that he had come away from his hotel without the morning meal in order to be on time for his call, which was arranged for last night by Mr. Raskob after Mr. Hoover had issued a public statement saying he would be glad if the Democratic leader could find the time to call.

For the first time since his arrival in greater Miami last Sunday, Mr. Smith's car was unaccompanied by a motorcycle police detail. It crossed the Venetian causeway leading to Belle Isle at rather high speed and entered the J. C. Penney estate by a little-used entrance. Pews of the hundred or more persons gathered in automobiles along the highway realized that the former governor had arrived until after his car was within the grounds.

RAISE FUND FOR SALVATION ARM YACTIVITY

Check-up Of Recent Drive Indicated The Raising Of $3,100 For Work Here.

After closing what he termed a "very satisfactory campaign" in this city, D. G. Coy, campaign director of the Salvation Army, left today for Tarboro where he will begin another drive for raising funds to carry on that work of the Salvation Army in that place.

Mr. Coy stated that the various campaign committees, working under supervision of Arthur Corey, chairman of the local committee, succeeded in raising $3,100 for this year's activities. The total amount asked for was $4,000. Mr. Coy expressed opinion that the deficit would be raised at public meetings held in various communities the remainder of the year.

"Please express my appreciation to the people of Greenville for their splendid assistance in making the fund possible," he said. "The co-operation of various organizations and religious bodies contributed greatly to the success of the campaign. I wish to thank the school children for the liberal way they responded to the call for aid."

The campaign got under way Monday last week. Soliciting committees canvassed the city in a whirlwind effort to raise the desired sum as early as possible. A complete check of activities was completed by Mr. Coy before his departure, and this indicated the splendid response which the citizenship had made to the call for funds.

Hold Mission At Catholic Church

Last evening an arge congregation of Catholics and non-Catholics greeted the Rev. Francis J. Berrong, a Catholic missionary of the Redemption Order, when he addressed them in the second of his series of sermons. The topic of last night's sermon was the "Effect of Sin."

The priest drew several word pictures and beneath each picture he pointed to the same title, "Effect of Sin." The congregation listened with great attention to the words of the speaker and seemed to profit by the salutary lessons taught.

The mission exercises will continue during the entire week. Each evening the services take place at 7:45. All are invited to hear what is expected of the Catholic in fulfilling his duties towards his God.

WOMAN GIVES TESTIMONY IN HARDY PROBE

Aimee Semple McPherson Admits Giving Judge $2,500 At Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Ex-forts of a legislative committee to draw from Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson some of the facts relating to her mysterious disappearance nearly three years ago failed yesterday when the woman evangelist declined to answer several questions from the witness stand, although she told how she had given $2,500 to Judge Carlos E. Hardy of the Los Angeles Superior Court.

The committee is investigating the payment of the $2,500 to the jurist in an effort to determine whether impeachment charges should be brought against him for misdemeanor in office, and in questioning Mrs. McPherson, was seeking to learn whether payment had any bearing on the conspiracy charge which was brought against the evangelist and later dismissed.

Although the records of Angelus Temple, Mrs. McPherson's church, which were laid before the committee, showed that the $2,500 expenditure was classified as having been for "legal and defense" work, the evangelist told the legislators that it was an "offering" to Judge Hardy for radio addresses, church work and financial advice.

In a recent statement Judge Hardy described the $2,500 as a "free will offering" given by the Angelus Temple management in exchange for "legal advice." He declared the payment had no bearing on the conspiracy case.

Mrs. McPherson was charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice by telling a false story about her disappearance. She testified before a grand jury that she had been kidnapped and taken to Mexico; but had spent a part of the time at Carmel, Cal., with the Temple radio operator, Kenneth G. Ormsby.

The firewits started yesterday when Walter J. Little, chairman of the investigating committee, asked: "Do you know Kenneth Ormsby?"

Mrs. McPherson stiffened. Her lawyer, Cromwell Ormsby, leaped to his feet.

"Don't answer that question, Mrs. McPherson," he said, and then he formally objected to it on the ground that it had no bearing on the subject of the investigation. The objection was overruled.

"I decline to answer, on advice of counsel," said Mrs. McPherson. The evangelist refused to answer numerous other questions relating to her kidnapping story, but replied freely when questioned concerning giving of the check to Judge Hardy.

The jurist was expected to follow Mrs. McPherson on the stand today.

Paris, Jan. 29.—(AP)—A light but expensive lunch of electrically riped strawberries heartened the labors of the Academy of Sciences today.

The berries were produced at a meeting as an illustration of the feasibility of making different plants grow rapidly by artificial light. Two research workers, Georges Truffaut and M. Thurney-Essen, took only forty days to bring the berries to maturity as against 90 days required by Old Sol.

The strawberries came a berry, however, it costing five dollars a bush to produce them, but the academicians found them no less delicious for that reason.

Mrs. B. W. Moseley Entertains.

An occasion of rare charm and unusual delight was held Saturday afternoon when Mrs. B. W. Moseley entertained the Colonel Alexander McAllister chapter D. A. R. Large vases of white snapdragons adorned the reception and music rooms.

When the guests had been seated and the flag salute given, the chaplain chose as a basis for her remarks the text: "Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

Mrs. W. B. Murphy of Snow Hill, regent of the chapter, in her own inimitable way dispatched the business of the day, which among other things, included a discussion of taxes, chairs, memorials and markers.

The report of the nominating committee was read by Miss Catherine Clark, and was as follows: Mrs. W. B. Murphy, regent; Mrs. J. W. Parker, secretary; Mrs. J. I. Morgan, treasurer; Mrs. F. H. Wright, historian; Mrs. T. A. Person, chaplain.

Delegates to the state and national conferences were then elected. To the state conference: Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Person. To the national: Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Person, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Moseley, Mrs. Felix Harvey.

Two vocal selections, by Mrs. Knott Proctor, accompanied by Miss Meade.

Two violin selections by Miss Gorell, accompanied by Miss Biser of Teachers College.

Two vocal selections by Mrs. Tom Farrar of Tarboro, accompanied by Miss Meade.

This program of select artists was a treat indeed.

Following this Mrs. Moseley invited the guests and members in the dining room, which was beautiful in its appointment of napery, crystals, and pink sweet peas. An elaborate buffet luncheon in two courses was served.

The following guests added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon: Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mrs. Jesse Moye, Mrs. J. E. Winslow, Mrs. June Rose, Mrs. S. M. Crisp, Mrs. E. B. Picklen, Mrs. James Ficklen, Miss Frances Wahl and Miss Roof.

REFUSES TO STAY DEATH OF KILLERS

Judge Declines Action In Case Of Mrs. Leboeuf and Dr. Dreher To Die Friday.

Washington, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Justice Sanford of the Supreme Court today refused to stay the execution of Dr. T. E. Dreher and Mrs. Ada Bonner Leboeuf, of Morgan City, La., under sentence to be hanged on Friday for the murder of the woman's husband, James J. Leboeuf.

Walter B. Hamlin of New Orleans counsel for the condemned persons, will continue his effort to find a justice of the Supreme Court who will order the hanging postponed until he can file a petition for review on the ground that his clients are insane.

In presenting the case to Justice Sanford he said that Mrs. Leboeuf believes herself dead and that Dr. Dreher is a rambling idiot, madly making no plea that his clients are insane at the time the murder was committed, but declares that their reprieve twice by the governor a day or two before the time set for their execution and other developments since their trial had rendered them insane.

Mrs. Leboeuf is described as a state of coma, unable to recognize her children. Under the laws of the state of Louisiana insane persons cannot be hanged, but must be committed to an institution for treatment, to be hanged should their reason be restored.

It is under this state law that counsel is insisting that his clients cannot lawfully be hanged.

Major Steadman Congratulated On His 88th Birthday

Washington, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Representative Charles Mauley Steadman, of North Carolina, today was 88 years of age. He is the only Confederate veteran left in either house of Congress.

He entered the southern army as a private, served under Lee, was wounded three times and surrendered at Appomattox, and yet today he looked toward the future, not the past.

Erect, courtly and bearing a remarkable resemblance to his great leader, Lee, he talked of state's rights, but not in reminiscence of the time when men shouted the words as a battle cry.

"Always realizing the necessity for this government to permit the states to retain their rights," Major Steadman said: "I wish to admonish the citizens of this country, to guard them. I feel that the rights of the states are being absorbed so rapidly through the centralization of power in Washington that some reaction must come in the future."

Hopeful for world peace through the Kellogg anti-war treaty, he nevertheless declared that he was anxious for the passage of the curfew bill now pending before the Senate saying he believed it was necessary to aid in insuring adequate defense of the nation.

All day congratulations poured in upon Major Steadman, and the United Daughters of the Confederacy observed his birthday by founding another chapter at the Woman's Party headquarters and giving it his name. The veteran was invited to attend as a guest of honor.

While some of his colleagues were defeated in the "Republican landslide" at the last election, Major Steadman won in the Fifth District after a spirited battle.

STOLEN BOND DEALERS HELD IN PITTSBURGH

Two Men Arrested In Connection With $10,000,000 Worth Of Stolen Bonds.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Two of four persons suspected of having headed a gigantic clearing house for stolen bonds were under arrest today and apprehension of the other two was expected before nightfall.

Securities totaling $10,000,000 in value, allegedly stolen from various banks throughout the country, are thought to have been involved in deals consummated by the quartet.

Those arrested are Charles H. Knapp, principal figure in the $920,000 Brotherhood Savings and Trust Company Liberty bond swindle here in October, 1926, and his wife, Irma Knapp. They were taken into custody on indictments returned by a federal grand jury in the Southern District of New York state.

Two others whose names police refuse to divulge, were indicted at the same time, it was learned, and it is the arrest of this pair that police said would be made momentarily.

Romeo Forlini, a federal prisoner at Atlanta, whose testimony, it is believed, led to the indictment of the Knapps, is being held in New York for possible further questioning in the case.

A bond deal at Hamilton, Ga., in 1925, in which it is said Knapp had a hand, was the direct cause of his and his wife's arrests.

Police records in Hamilton reveal that Knapp approached a firm there to negotiate a loan of $800,000 on $1,000,000 worth of Liberty bonds. A member of the firm became suspicious, it was said, and the bonds were revealed by police as proceeds of a $1,250,000 daylight bank robbery in Missouri, to which Forlini is said to have confessed. Knapp denied knowledge of the source of the bonds.

Knapp recently completed an 18 month sentence following conviction with the local bond deal, in which it was charged he offered for sale Liberty bonds at fifty cents on the dollar and disappeared, with funds posted by the Brotherhood Bank without delivering the bonds.

Assistant United States District Attorney Thomas J. Todarelli is here from New York arranging for extradition of the Knapps.

Start Fight On Influenza Germ

Washington, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The public health service plans to go into the business of rearing influenza germs in an effort to find a cure for the disease. In this not only is dependence placed on the aid of the service personnel but on that of members of their families—if they contract influenza.

In that event, Surgeon General Cumming has required that the hy-genic laboratory be notified and if the volunteers volunteer, cultures will be taken from the nose and throat of the persons ill. The germs are to be reproduced in specially prepared media. Inoculation later of animals with the germs is seen as a probability and of persons as a possibility. Before persons are inoculated, however, ample safeguards are to be established.

COTTON MARKET

The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 3 points to a decline of 2 points. Some over-optimistic orders around the ring were supplied by liquidations.

Southern and local liquidation was promoted by the relatively easy showing of the laer Liverpool cables. Old crop positions, which were relatively steady at the opening, reacted to about yesterday's closing quotations, the new crop sold off a few points right after the call.

The offerings were suitably well taken to give the market a steady, however, and trading was quiet, with prices about net unchanged to 4 points lower at the end of the first half hour.

GRAIN MARKET

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN, Associated Press Market Editor (Chicago, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Wheat values dropped today to about 61-2c a bushel under figures that were current last week. Trade sentiment appeared to be considerably more bearish than has been the rule of late, and there was free selling on the part of speculators and of houses with eastern connections.

Numerous standing orders to let go of wheat holdings when the market touch various fixed limits were forced into operations on the decline.

Wheat closed unsettled 11-3 to 11-2 below yesterday's finish; corn 5-8 to 11-8c off; oats 5-8 to 11-8c down, and provisions unchanged to a setback of 20c.

STOCK MARKET

By STANLEY W. PRENSIL, Associated Press Financial Editor (New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—A tenting of credit and upward revisions of margin requirements prompted heavy selling on the stock market today, which depressed a score of recently strong issues about 2 to 6 points. Heavy accumulation of utilities continued, however, several reaching new high ground.

Call money mounted above 6 per cent for the first time in nearly two weeks as loans were called in preparator for the month-end payments. The rate was expected to go higher before the end of the week.

Conflicting reports from London indicated that between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 in gold had been taken for New York.

The overnight business news was largely favorable, including several excellent railway earnings reports, the Pennsylvania reporting a record net income for 1928, Inland Steel increased its annual dividend rate from $2.50 to $3.50.

An unsettling development was a drop of about 3 points in U. S. Steel. Directors meet this afternoon, and Wall Street has grown skeptical over the rumors an extra stock dividend believing that such action, if contemplated, would probably be taken later in the year.

Philadelphia Company mounted 9 points, while Commonwealth Power, General and Foreign Power, American Water Works, and Detroit Edison rose 3 to 6 points to new tops. Commercial Solvents jumped more than 3 points to a new top on an expected fourth quarter earnings report.

Wright Aero, Allied Chemical, Johns Manville, and Mexican Steel advanced 4 to 7 points, while American Telephone, General Motors (old), Westinghouse, Anaconda, U.S. Reback and others yielded 2 points and more.

TED SHAWN

RUTH ST. DENIS

Ruth St. Denis in an East Indian costume formerly worn by a Raean Princess, and Ted Shawn, the two stars with the Denishawn Dancers who will appear at East Carolina Teachers College on Wednesday evening, Jan. 30.

have called at the county agent's office and treated and re-cleaned 190 pounds of seed for the 1929 crop. This seed will be distributed among some 1,000 croppers. The farmers are learning the value of eliminating weak diseased seed and treating the good ones to prevent the carrying of leaf spot diseases.

One "Doubting Thomas" asked another farmer on his way to the county agent's office how he knew it payed to re-clean and treat tobacco seed. This farmer from down in the Cox Mill section, said, "Well last year I treated and re-cleaned my seed but did not have enough plants from my bed, so I borrowed some plants from a neighbor who did not believe in such things. You ought to have seen the difference. You would treat seeds, too. I never expect to sow another bed without giving the seed a fair chance to make a strong healthy plant."

According to Agent Arnold, the treating and re-cleaning program is about over, but next week a drive will be started to get the best field preparation, fertilization and cultivation practices adopted by the growers of the county.

E. Y. Floyd, state tobacco specialist, will be with County Agent Arnold the 4th and 5th of February to assist in this work.

Announcements of meeting dates and places will be made later.

FARM HINTS

According to County Agent E. F. Arnold, the poultry growers delivered 17,178 pounds of poultry to the poultry cars at Ayden and Greenville last week and carried away $3,832.15.

The growers will have the privilege of selling poultry at car door for cash each month from now until July.

Now is the time to plan to have some good fat hens to sell next year. Arrange to hatch off plenty of chicks early. Have them ready to lay through November, December, January and February, and then load them on the car for cash.

One hundred good hens will bring $100.00. Figure out how many hens it will take to pay your taxes. Then hatch out or buy four times that many chicks. The money from the roosters as broilers and the eggs from the pullets in the fall and winter will pay all expenses and the sale of the hens will take care of the tax problem in the spring for the average farmer who lives on his farm. We are talking about farmers and not land owners. Try it once. Plan to meet obligations. Some farmers have sweet potato curing houses from which they get cash to pay taxes. They planned it for that purpose. And when the time comes to pay they are not wondering where it's coming from, neither do they have to borrow the money.

SICK STOMACH

First Trial of Black-Draught Convincing, Says Lady, Who Escaped Suffering By Taking It.

Jackson, Miss.—"My first experience with Black-Draught convinced me that it was a good medicine," says Mrs. Ida Kersh, 311 South Congress Street, this city, who says she has taken Black-Draught for years. "My trouble," writes Mrs. Kersh, "was sick headache which seemed to be caused by constipation. I used to have a thick, slimy taste in my mouth, and such a tired, bad feeling. This would be followed by headache and sick stomach. I would have to stop my work and go to bed. I read about Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found that by taking the Black-Draught in time, I could ward off these sick spells. "And so for the last twenty years, when I feel the least bit bad, I take Black-Draught and feel that it has saved me much pain and sickness." Constipation damps up poisons in the bowels, where they are absorbed into the general system, causing many serious symptoms. Thousands of letters of praise from users of Theodor's Black-Draught, on file at the laboratories where Black-Draught is made, testify to the high esteem in which it is held for the relief of constipation and attendant ills. Police Capture Ten In Clash With Fanatics Grand Forks, B. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Holding ten prisoners, taken with the aid of tear gas, police stood victorious today in their second clash with the Boukhorob fanatics.

The first skirmish was won last Friday by naked fanatics, when they put to rout two provincial policemen sent to arrest members of the colony for taking their children from school.

Returning to the attack yesterday 14 police found 50 members of the colony, men and women, mobilized in a house. The fanatics resisted the invaders and a lively battle ensued in which the women joined.

When the officers turned the tear gas into the house there was a rush for windows and the heating stove was overturned. Despite the smarting gas and the smoke from the overturned stove, Strennikoff, the leader of the colony, refused to leave the house. Police dragged him naked into the snow before he ceased to resist.

The Boukhorob, otherwise known as the Sons of Freedom, are Russians whose religious tenets include the belief that Christ was wholly human. The rules of their sect also forbid the wearing of clothing for 75 cents; 700 for $1.00; 1,000 for $1.25; 5,000 for $4.00; 10,000 for $7.50. Can supply order of any size. Fine stocky plants. L. Mule Wrecks Car

Forest City, Jan. 29.—(AP)—When a man bites a dog, that is news, says one definition of "news."

And, when a mule runs into the rear end of an automobile, it might be said that that, too, is news.

Herbert Randall's mules, two, strayed last night. One became irrogated. It ran into the rear end of a sedan being driven by Stanley Hall with such velocity that the car was overturned into a ditch, badly damaged and Hall and his companion, Bush Doggett, were slightly injured. The mule was so badly injured that it was destroyed.

The other mule did nothing to get its name in the papers.
