HOOVER PLANS CLOSE WATCH OVER NATION

President-Elect To Keep In Close Touch With All Departments of Government

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Close contact with the more than half a hundred independent agencies of the federal government is planned by President-elect Hoover during his administration.

This explains the pending request before Congress for an emergency appropriation of $10,000 for an additional White House secretary. This official will be the liaison officer between the president and the independent organizations, which include the veterans' bureau, the shipping board, the federal waterpower commission and many others.

These agencies expend close to three-quarters of a billion dollars annually and the direct supervision of their policies has added a burden upon the presidency which both President Coolidge and Mr. Hoover have agreed should be lightened as far as possible.

If Congress approves the recommendation for the additional appropriation made by Mr. Coolidge, Mr. Hoover as president will have three secretaries who will have an equal rating and among whom will be parcelled the three major divisions of work in the executive office.

Besides the secretary who will keep in contact with the independent agencies, there will be one to give exclusive attention to the enormous volume of mail which flows through the White House and another with members of Congress and the public.

Just as he has kept his own counsel as to his cabinet selections, the next chief executive has given no indication as to whom he will place in the three secretarial jobs. The general expectation is that two of them will go to George Akerson and Lawrence Richey, who during the campaign bore the title of "assistants" to Mr. Hoover.

Mr. Akerson, a former newspaper man, had dual role while the fight for the presidency was on, handling a large part of the correspondence and dealing directly with the hundreds of callers at Mr. Hoover's headquarters. When the president-elect came to Florida he left Mr. Akerson in Washington to keep in touch with senators and representatives who might desire to consult the next president and yet who could not find the time to make the trip to Florida.

Mr. Richey has been associated with Mr. Hoover since the early war days and is acting as his secretary during the Florida vacation. When the president-elect was made secretary of commerce Mr. Richey made a survey of the various bureaus of the department with a view to the promotion of efficiency by reorganization, consolidation, expansion or otherwise.

In view of this there have been suggestions that Mr. Richey might be selected to act as liaison officer between the new president and the various bureaus.

Perjury Charges Now Pending In Case Of Keyes

Los Angeles, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Filing by the state of perjury charges against at least two witnesses in the trial of former District Attorney A. A. Keyes, Ben Getzoff and Ed Rosenberg loomed as a possibility today as the case approached its end. The three men are charged with conspiracy and bribery.

District Attorney Byron Fitts announced last night that he had ordered an investigation and that if the findings warranted, he would file the perjury charges. The names of the witnesses involved were not revealed.

Rosenberg, who took the stand yesterday to contradict the testimony of state witnesses that he paid $125,000 and made gifts to the Keyes family to escape conviction on a fraud charge a year ago, was expected to finish his story sometime today.

Rosenberg made a blanket denial of the evidence of his former co-defendant in the fraud case, Jacob Berman, Berman, who turned state's evidence in the present case, testified that Rosenberg told him he had paid $125,000 to Getzoff, the sailor, for Keyes and had induced him, Berman, to pay $40,000 toward getting charges against him also dismissed. Berman and Rosenberg were acquitted in the case prosecuted by Keyes.

Brawley Bills Passed By the Senate Today

After Lengthy Debate

Raleigh, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Senator Brawley's companion bill providing that mortgages on corporations, public service concerns, etc., should have priority over employees' claims for compensation was passed by the Senate today after a protracted debate. The vote was 50 to 14.

Senator Clark of Massachusetts led the fight against the measure. He was joined by Marvin of Davidson and Ward of Craven. Upholding the proposal, Senator Wake, who was joined by Broughton of Wake, Womack of Forsyth and Gossett of Johnston.

The House received a large number of new bills, but transacted little business.

Senator Clark declared that under the provisions of the Brawley bill, a corporation could put a mortgage on its property and defeat the claims of an employee, since the mortgage was given priority. This was denied by the author of the measure.

The Meeklenburg senator said that it "would be an open door to fraudulent conveyance" as well as "being war between capital and labor."

One of the defendants of the bill, Broughton, said that corporations were already oppressed. He said that the present statutes had outlawed their usefulness.

Brawley said that when the state wanted money it always taxed corporations, and that the bills would undo a hardship against them. He declared that he was not against labor and would sponsor nothing that would be to the detriment of labor.

One of the bills applies to conveyances, the other to mortgages. They unite in providing that mortgages of corporations, except public service corporations, have priority over the claims of any employee for personal injury.

It is favored by insurance companies, it was stated.

Its sponsors asserted that it would enable corporations to borrow money much more easily than they can under the present statutes.

Raleigh, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Creation of a barbers' licensing board to examine and license all barbers in the state was proposed in a bill introduced in the House today by Rep. Young of Durham, and Ewing of Cumberland, both Democrats.

The bill was similar to that defeated in the 1927 General Assembly. Its provisions would not apply to barbers already operating in the state.

The House also had placed before it today a bill providing for amendment of the constitution to divorce judicial and judicial districts. Rep. Smith, Democrat of Wake, sponsored the measure. Its provisions were largely the same as that passed by the electorate in the November election. It would put the number of judicial districts at 30, giving the General Assembly

Court Grants Injunction To General Booth

London, Jan. 30.—(AP)—An injunction against the High Church of the Salvation Army was granted in Chancery Court today by Justice Eve preventing it from acting on its resolution deposing General Bramwell Booth and electing a successor until after a further meeting of the council at which the general will have an opportunity of being heard.

The justice said that a mistake had been made in not giving the general an opportunity of stating his case before the council and that therefore the resolution deposing him could not stand.

FUNERAL FOR J. K. YOUNG IS HELD HERE

Interment Of Chain Store Head Made In Family Mausoleum At Wilson Today.

Funeral services for J. K. Young, head of Young's chain of stores, who died at Denver, Colorado, last Thursday morning, were conducted from his late home on Fifth street this afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, officiated. Interment took place in the family mausoleum at Wilson.

The body arrived in Greenville this morning, having been brought from Rocky Mount by motor hearse. It was immediately carried to the Fifth street home. A large concourse of sorrowing friends attended the final rites. An extensive floral tribute attested the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. Young's death was preceded by illness extending over a period of two years. He and Mrs. Young left Greenville about three weeks ago for their former home at Santa Clara, California, to spend several months. Enroute to the west coast Mr. Young's condition took a serious turn and they were forced to stop over at Denver where he entered a hospital for treatment. He died about 9:30 o'clock last Thursday morning.

Mr. Young was a native of Wilson. He came to Greenville about eight years ago and opened up the Greenville branch of Young's stores. A few years ago, after the death of his brother, who was president of the chain of stores, he became president of the organization and headquarters were moved to this city.

Mr. Young was a veteran of the World War. It was while in service that he met Miss Ethel Nelson of Santa Clara, Calif., who later became his wife. Aside from his connection with the chain store concern, Mr. Young was a heavy purchaser of real estate in the city, having been connected with a number of important deals during the last several years.

He is survived by, beside his wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Young of Wilson; two sisters, Mrs. K. T. Lloyd, of Key West, Florida; Mrs. W. B. Colette, of Landdowne, Pa.; and a brother, Foster Young of Wilson.

The following acted as pallbearers at the funeral:

TWO STATES IN GRIP OF SNOW STORM

Wisconsin And Michigan Experiencing Coldest Weather In History.

Milwaukee, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The conversation here today was "We aren't having the winters we used to have." It has been frozen stiff and buried under tons of snow in the Wisconsin and Michigan northland.

Today, as word began shivering forth from entire communities that have been winterbound for days and weeks, some idea of the season's severity was realized.

Kewaunee, Wis., was one of the places where the oldest residents were ready to admit that never before, in their memory, had there been such a winter.

No Kewauneean was better able to attest the severity of the weather than Dr. W. M. Woehls. One of his experiences became known today. At dawn, with the temperature far below zero he telephoned from the Ebenel Beaurain house, nine miles away.

The physician set forth in his ski-equipped motor car, only to abandon it after three miles of tedious travel, bucking the heavy drifts. He started ahead on foot, floundering slowly through the snow.

Finally he came to a farm house and phoned Beaurain instructions on how to welcome the stork should the bird arrive before he did. A snowplow was put to work to cut a path through the drifts, but even the plow was able to advance only three miles, after five hours.

Dr. Woehls, banished in woods, and carrying his instrument case in many battered hands, pressed ahead on foot, fighting with cold and snow that was waist high in places. After several days, a snowplow was put to work to cut a path through the drifts, but even the plow was able to advance only three miles, after five hours.

The stork had beaten him, and Mrs. Beaurain and a baby girl were going well as though the doctor had been there on time.

Death as well as birth has written its story in the snow. At the town's old residence near Street, Mich. William Herron, the caretaker, died despite a five-day journey on snow shoes by Dr. Fisher of Manistique. As though death itself were not heavy enough, further hardships and dangers greeted themselves.

Herron's widow had her son, William Herron, body in blankets, the woman and her boy placed in a tub and started with it across the snow-drifts to the nearest undertaker.

Night overtook them as, floundering through the deep snow, they staggered slowly ahead, dragging the tub and man and his cargo of death they became hopelessly lost.

A little white dog was their salvation. The animal, of the three living things moving across the desolate northland, was the only one who appeared to know a way out. Spent worn and exhausted by the exertion of burrowing the snow and dragging the tub, these three arrived at midnight at a settler's shack.

Restored and given aid, Mrs. Herron and her son reached Manistique the following day.

MAN HELD FOR DEATH WOMAN

Perfume Salesman Tells Of His Survival In Suicide Pact With Miss Klink.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—(AP)—A perfume salesman's story of his survival of a suicide pact in which a woman was drowned, was under scrutiny today.

As floating ice and low temperatures hampered efforts to retrieve the body of Miss Verna Klink, 30, from the Susquehanna River, the police contemplated making a formal charge of murder against Harry Bowman, 39.

Bowman said that by agreement he and Miss Klink jumped into the river, that the icy river had brought him to his senses and he climbed to safety.

The salesman was arrested with Miss Ethel Miller, 30. She was accused of carrying concealed weapons.

He admitted having obtained $1,025 from Miss Klink, part of the $1,700 which Mrs. Alma Esheim, mother of Miss Klink, mortgaged her home to finance her daughter in a candy business.

Bowman who is married, claimed Miss Klink gave him the $1,025. Police said they believed that he robbed her. When arrested with Bowman, Miss Miller had $300 in the lining of her coat and authorized.

Flanagan Bill Would Empower Counties To Spend Roads Money

A bill for the levy of one cent additional gasoline tax, the money to be placed in the County Aid Road Fund and devoted over the counties of the state according to area and population, was introduced in the General Assembly yesterday by Hon. E. G. Flanagan, one of the principal features of the bill, that differs it from other road measures now before the law-making body is that it provides for expenditure of the money by the counties instead of the state highway body and provides that in no instance can any county raise a penny more than the commissioners of such county have reduced the ad valorem tax in its part of three-and-a-half cents.

Representative Flanagan's bill follows:

A Bill To Be Entitled An Act To Levy An Additional Tax On Gasoline and Further Reduce the Counties By Aid From The State Highway Commission.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter ninety-three of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, entitled "An Act to Amend Chapter Fifty-five, Article Three of the Consolidated Statutes, Relating to the Tax on Gasoline," be and the same is hereby amended so that the tax of four cents per gallon levied on the use, distribution or use of motor fuels therein, shall be and the same is hereby changed to a levy of five cents per gallon.

Section 2. That the increase of the funds of the State Highway Commission provided for by this act shall be used and treated by the State Highway Commission as a separate and special fund known and designated as "The County Aid Road Fund" and expended only in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Section 3. That the State Highway Commission shall allocate upon its books to the credit of the several counties of the state and the said "County Aid Road Fund," one-half upon the basis of the area of said counties and one-half upon the basis of the population of said counties, according to the last available United States census.

Section 4. That the State Highway Commission shall certify to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of each county in the state, on or before the first Monday in July, of each and every year, an estimate of that county's participation in the fund herein provided.

Section 5. That the State Highway Commission is hereby authorized and directed to supplement funds heretofore provided for from other funds of the State Highway Commission to the extent of one million dollars per annum, and no county in the state shall participate in any part of this fund, or in the fund set out in section two, unless the county commissioners of the respective counties shall have reduced the ad valorem tax levied and collected during the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, by an amount equal to the sum allocated to the said county under the provisions of this act.

Section 6. That the fund herein provided for and allocated to the several counties of the state, shall be expended in the several counties by the County Highway Commission or road governing bodies for any one or more of the following purposes:

(a) Furnishing and maintaining of the county.

(b) Purchasing or renting road maintenance equipment.

(c) Building bridges or drainage structures or furnishing the necessary material therefor.

(d) Improving county roads preparatory to incorporating said roads into the State Highway System and permanent relieving the counties of the maintenance thereof.

(e) Reducing county indebtedness which was originally incurred to aid in state highway constructions.

Section 7. That from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any county or other political sub-division to levy or collect any tax upon the use of any of the public roads for the distribution of petroleum products. Provided, however, that this limitation shall not apply to the automobile vehicle annual license tax.

Section 8. That from time to time as the opinion of the commission, to justify it, the State Highway Commission is authorized and directed to increase the mileage of the State Highway System under the provisions and authority of sub-section (b), section two, of the State Highway law, being chapter two of Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, not exceeding however ten per cent increase in any one fiscal year.

Section 9. That the increase of mileage shall be allocated to the several construction districts on a uniform fixed percentage of existing state highway mileage, and so distributed as to render as nearly as practical, equal state highway service to each county, according to its area and population.

Section 10. That all laws or clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act, whether included in any public, public local, private or general act, to the extent of such conflict are hereby repealed.

Section 11. That this act shall be in force from and after first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

LAST MEMBER OUTLAW BAND IS SHOT DOWN

Haywood Register Falls Under Lead Hail From Officers At Palm Beach, Fla.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Jan. 30.—(AP)—When Haywood Register fell mortally wounded yesterday under a leaden hail from an ambuscade of officers, Sheriff "Bob" Baker fulfilled a job he undertook four years ago when he set out to exterminate the notorious Ashley gang.

Register died with his boots on in best approved outlaw fashion, with his guns blazing defiance at the officers who attempted to return him to the state penitentiary and a life sentence for murder.

The last member of the gang of desperadoes who from their hidden retreats deep in the swamps of the Everglades preyed for years on the villages along the Florida East Coast, escaped last December 14th from the state penitentiary at Raiford, where he had been serving concurrent life sentences for murder and an additional 13 year-term for highway robbery.

Yesterday he walked into a carefully prepared ambush, arranged with the aid of a friend of Register, when the outlaw last Saturday held up and relieved of $2,000. The friend pleaded for the return of his money, and Register agreed, on the condition that he be furnished transportation to West End in the Bahamas Islands.

The victim conferred with Sheriff Baker, and yesterday when he went to keep his rendezvous with Register near a canal at Boynton, 11 miles south of here, he was followed by Baker and his deputies.

The hold-up victim met Register, seated in his automobile, and drove to the canal where a small skiff was moored. The two left the car and started on a 100-yard tramp to the bank, where Sheriff Baker, hidden behind a bush, set out on Register to "throw up your hands."

Instead, Register whirled, a blazing pistol in each hand, and made his way back to the automobile through the combined fire of five officers. Taking refuge in a baggage carrier on the automobile, he emptied three pistols at the officers and was attempting to draw a knife, when four bullets from the posse's pistols struck him.

The Ashley gang terrorized the lower East Coast for many years, committing highway robberies and holding up banks, until four years ago, when Sheriff Baker and his deputies suppressed the outlaws at Sebastian bridge near here. In the gun battle that ensued four of the gang were killed and several captured.

Father Testifies In Behalf Of Son In Murder Case

Riverside, Cal., Jan. 30.—(AP)—The testimony of Cyrus Northcott in behalf of his son, Gordon Stewart Northcott, encouraged the latter today to continue single-handed his own defense in his trial on charges of murdering three boys on his ranch near here.

The elder Northcott, who has been held in jail for months as a material witness for the state, repeated some of the statements he made to investigators at the outset of the case when called as a defense witness. The prosecution did not put him on the stand.

More testimony from the father was in prospect for today after which the accused youth may place a mother, Mrs. Sarah Louisa Northcott, on the stand. She was returned here as a witness from San Quentin prison, where she is serving a life sentence on her plea of guilty of participating in the murder of Walter Collins, one of the four youths alleged to have been slain at the ranch.

Cyrus Northcott was on the stand most of yesterday. At first his attitude was hostile, but as the day's questioning progressed, it became apparent that the father was not going to help the prosecution.

The son apparently wanted the charge, was quick to modify the tone of his questioning. He began to address as "Laddy" the gray-haired man whom previously he had vowed to "take to the gulches with me." It testified that he never had seen anything at the ranch indicating a crime had been committed there.

Woman Killed Accidentally

Crossboro, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Local police today had before them the body of Mrs. Nell Jones Ballinger, whose death from a gunshot wound had been a fifteen day mystery was accidentally killed.

The theory was advanced by "Mrs. B." who wrote anonymously to the Crossboro Record. The letter was turned over to the police.

"Mrs. B." who thus signed the letter, wrote that "personally I think it was an accident, probably caused by drinking." The letter originated in the Crossboro police department in a casual way.

The letter was written on a good grade of stationery in a florid and somewhat staid handwriting and purple ink. It was postmarked Cross-boro.

It relieved me completely and I have had no more trouble of the kind since in case I ever do. I will know what to take which is something I never knew before. Large Congregation At Catholic Mission

Again last evening the congregation at the Catholic Church was a large one. Father Berron, the missionary, spoke on the subject of "Death." He admitted that it was not a pleasant topic, but nevertheless one that we must all face and therefore he asked, why not face it like real men, like real women?

He said that death was the most certain thing in life, for all must die, but again death is the most uncertain thing in life, for who can say when, where, how, we shall die? The answer to these questions is hidden in the mind of God.

Tonight and every night of the week the mission services will be held at 7:45. All are invited.

Takes Stand In Own Defense Today

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Walter Liggett prepared for his second examination on the witness stand today by attorneys defending him and prosecuting him on the charge of first degree murder filed after he killed Turney Cunningham, manager of a Nashville hotel.

Part of the story of the movements when he and Cunningham came face to face in the night last October and ended their quarrel over Cunningham's wife with a pistol duel, was told by Liggett when he began his testimony yesterday.

Denying that he began or sought the quarrel, he testified that Cunningham fired twice before he shot, and that the pistol he carried was used only when he thought it necessary to protect himself.

Prosecution attorneys tried to elicit evidence to refute part of the testimony of Cunningham's widow, who last week told the court Liggett made at least one threat against Cunningham.

Much of the questioning was directed at testimony presented by Earl Kiger a detective, who was with Cunningham when the hotel manager was killed. Kiger ended his testimony Monday.

LOCALS BEAT WASHINGTON

An avalanche of baskets carried Greenville, quint to the most overwhelming victory she has yet registered this season, last night in Washington, and put those of the Pitt following who attended on keen edge for the real game with Farmville this Friday.

From the score, it seems that Greenville was everywhere. Washington nowhere, but for a while it did look something like a basketball game—at least like the variety of game that Greenville traveling horsemen have been showing to almost all comers lately. Shortly after the game was called Burnette dropped a pretty shot through, and feeling encouraged by his unusual success, soon repeated the act. After that the party broke up, and all the visitors began to enjoy themselves throwing the ball through the home team's goal. The center of the court seemed about as far as Washington could advance the ball, except when they had a foul shot given them. And in the game they had almost as many foul throws and chances for field goals although the score would not seem to show it. The first half score ran to 22-1, with the Greenville points nicely scattered. It seemed as though a sort of "senatorial courtesy" prevailed among the visitors, and none would score more than his teammates. Bostic, Respass and Burnette each counted three ringers, and Eason four for the half.

In the second half Greenville had notice to make the game interesting from Coach Porter, as the crowd seemed to be getting bored, so the boys went in to do the best they could. Six more baskets scored for Bostic, five for Respass, two for Burnette and one for Eason tells the score, but not the story. Tucker and King went in for Respass and Briley, but not for long. This is proven by the fact that neither scored a point. Washington added to her total with four more fouls, but could not count a two-point tally.

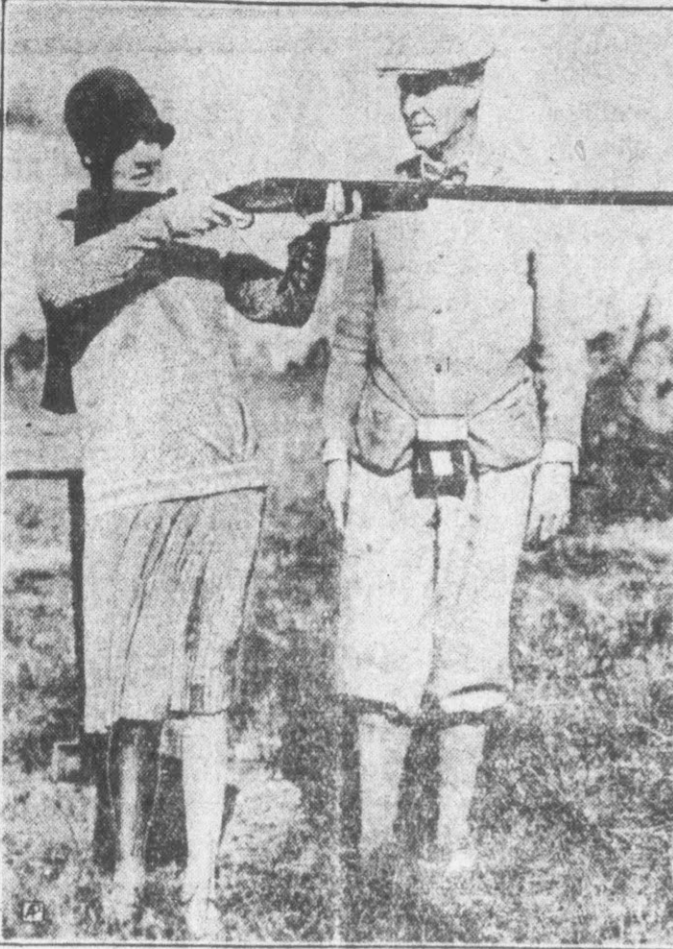

This was even more of a humiliation, on their own court, than the record of a 54-5 score. Washington played nine men in an attempt to find a stronger combination, but all they found was that each Greenville team was stronger than the other. Plentiful and complete revenge for the close, but losing game of football between us last fall was obtained by all who desired revenge and even some of them began to call for money for the sake of a better looking contest.

Captain Hicks, who is always in the midst of the fray in every contest, was out of the game on account of a slight injury, and it would be unkind and untrue to say that he was not missed, for his strong defense and ability to advance the ball make him a key man in many a play. But with things as they were, there was no appreciable break in the teamwork of the Greenville basketballers, and the forwards, Briley, Eason and King, all played exceptionally well. As for our forwards, we are always talking about them, and this time, for variety, we are going to omit the next three sentences. Instead, see the score.

Farmville will doubtless bring a strong and determined squad here on the game Friday night, which will determine the leadership of the N. E. A. C., as neither of the contenders has lost a conference game. We will even dispense with a summary this evening, as all the narrowing details have been told.

Final score: Greenville 54; Washington 5. Referee, Burroughs.

Framville To Play Here Friday Night

The victorious team of Framville, which has challenged and defeated five teams in succession, the netted teams being Goldsboro, Roanoke Rapids, Weldon, Rich Square and Kinston, will ride from the west on their four-wheel chargers, to do battle with the fast Greenville team which is equal to the task of meeting so worthy a foe.

The Farmville team started the public when it defeated Goldsboro 35 to 9 and Roanoke Rapids 30 to 25 to be followed up by an overwhelming victory over Weldon 36 to 0. Kinston was easily overcome with a finisher score of 24 to 7, and Rich Square was beaten 29 to 16.

The Greenville team does not need to be advertised as it advertises itself by its actions. They have only lost two games this season, and have had the satisfaction of winning from both teams in a second battle, these being waged against Jamesville and Hugh Mason High.

The Greenville boys have developed steadily since the beginning of the basketball season under the supervision of Coach Porter and are in a fine condition to meet the strong Farmville team.

Critics say that Friday's game will probably be the fastest and hardest fought game to be played on our floor during the whole season. Be sure to be there and cheer your team on to victory.

Slaying Of Officer Proves Puzzling

The slaying of County Detective William E. Jackson, widely known as a criminal investigator and a sharp rider, puzzled the public today.

The body was found by his wife and daughter when they returned from a store half a mile away last night less than 40 minutes after they had left him sitting at the kitchen table reading the evening paper.

A bullet, which entered his head on the right side, directly under the right cheek bone apparently found its way to his brain. Death was said by examining physicians to have been instantaneous. No powder burns or marks were found on his face or clothing, indicating that the bullet was fired from a distance of more than four feet.

Detective Jackson figured prominently in the investigation resulting in the arrest of the Diamond, brothers of New York who were electrocuted at Sing Sing for killings in bank holdup. He was one of the chief witnesses for the state in the recent trial of the so-called "Ice Box Bandits," Roland G. Lalone and Albert G. Raymond, of Rochester, Mass., who are now serving a life term in Wethersfield prison for the murder of State Trooper Irving H. Nelson.

Police today were looking into the major cases upon which Jackson had worked to determine if any of the men for whose conviction he was responsible had been released from jail.

Six Fights Set For New York

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—With the signing of Paulino Uzcudun for a bout on February 22 with I. O. Christner, Madison Square Garden has revealed plans for six heavy-weight elimination battles during the coming year. The wind-up, under present plans, will come in September with Jack Dempsey in his old role of gladiator rather than promoter.

The Garden's plans, as outlined by Colonel John S. Hammond, acting general manager of the corporation, are:

Paulino-Christner, February 22, winner to meet Tom Heeny.

Max Schmeling-Johnny Risko, February 1; winner to meet survivor of Heeny and Paulino or Christner battle.

Survivor of these matches to clash with the winner of the Jack Sharkey-Young Stribling bout in Miami Beach, February 27.

Ultimate survivor to battle Jack

Endurance Flier

Dempsey probably in one of New York's ball parks in September. Now, all the Garden has to do is to make arrangements for this ambitious program.

UNIVERSITY LICKS VIRGINIA CAGERS

Atlanta, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The University of North Carolina maintained its pace in the southern conference basketball chase last night by nipping out Virginia in the last few minutes of play to win, 29 to 20. The game was slow and featured by much passing with Cathey, forward, leading the Tar Heels' attack.

Louisiana State University definitely left the cellar position by a victory over Alabama Polytechnic at Auburn. The Tigers set the Plainsmen back by the one-sided score of 65 to 28.

Only two conference games are presented on tonight's card, with the University of Georgia again as host to North Carolina State and Louisiana State moving on from Auburn to engage Alabama.

Martin Jensen, Dale race flier, will attempt to set a new solo endurance flight record.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Cotton today opened barely steady at a decline of 10 to 12 points under liquidation combined with some southern and local selling inspired by relatively easy showing of Liverpool and weakness in Egyptian market. There was trade buying on the decline as well as covering but it seemed to be quite readily supplied with the market easing off to 19.84 for March and 19.33 for July by the end of the first half hour when active months showed net declines of about 11 to 16 points.

Private cables said Liverpool market had been influenced by holdings, liquidation and weaker ruling of Egyptian. They reported a fair cloth inquiry for Indian but said many offers were unworkable.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Pronounced increase of unfavorable weather and crop reports, especially from the west and south west, did much to bring about a sharp bulge in wheat prices today.

Export demand for wheat from North America showed improvement, an dno of the largest Winnipeg handlers admitted having sold out all wheat they had across the lakes. In some quarters, talk was current that India and Japan were buying wheat, and according to some estimates world demand needs will total as high as $20,000 bushels.

Wheat closed strong 1 13-4c to 1 1-4c net higher, corn 1 1-8c to 1 1-4c up oats 1-2 to 5-8 to 7-8c advanced and provisions unchanged to 25c down.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The stock market was extremely unsettled today as a small money rose to 8 per cent. For the first time since the middle of the month, a score of important issues lost about 2 to 6 points, but strong buying contained in the utilities, lifting several to new high levels.

Call money renewed at 7 and was lifted to 8 in the early afternoon. Calling of loans was slight, but replacement funds were scarce. The banks are in fairly good position at the Federal Reserve bank but they appeared reluctant to increase their borrowings to support the market. Fears of 10 per cent money tomorrow became pronounced.

Other unsettling factors were the selling of U. S. Steel, which yielded 3 points, by holders who were disappointed that no extra dividends was declared yesterday, and uneasiness over the possibility tomorrow of an increase in the Bank of England's discount rate to stop the flow of gold to New York.

The day's business news was largely favorable, but failed to strengthen the market. "Iron Trade Review" described the month as "undoubtedly the best January in the history of the iron and steel industry from the standpoint of production."

"Iron Age" was more conservative, saying that expanding demands for railroad, automobile, and structural steel had "strengthened the industry as January draws to a close."

Legislative and Messrs declared an extra dividend of $1 on the common and B. stocks.

North American Company and American Telephone rose about 6 points each to new peaks, but irregularly clipped out in the Utility division, as some commission houses warned their customers that the advance in this group seemed to be proceeding at a rather too rapid pace. Consolidation Gas and Western Union lost 2 and 3 points.

MANY CASES DISPOSED OF IN COURT HERE

County Court Worked Over Time Yesterday Completing Heavy Docket.

Holding its first session in two weeks, county court yesterday disposed of probably one of the heaviest dockets in months. Court opened yesterday morning at ten o'clock and continued until seven o'clock last night when decision was rendered in the final case set for hearing.

The session was presided over by Judge W. L. Whedbee, with W. S. Tysid prosecuting. The docket consisted mainly of larceny charges and violations of the prohibition law. Heavy fines, accompanied by conditional road sentences, was the order of each case. Forty-one cases were disposed of.

As one of the court attendance expressed it: "The school fund coffers received the greatest boost of any court in sometime." And this was correct. Fines varying from $50 to $100 were paid by a number of defendants. It was either do that or go to the roads for a period of six months or more.

Judge Whedbee showed no sympathy for members of the illicit traffic and fines in such cases invariably carried suspended road sentences for violation of any of the criminal laws within a period of two years. The same situation prevailed among those found guilty of larceny. It was evident the young judge, presiding over the third term of court since his induction into office January 1st, meant to leave a lasting impression upon the criminal element.

J. D. Davenport, charged with driving an automobile while drunk, paid a fine of $50 and costs and had his license revoked for ninety days.

Pleading guilty to a charge of unlawful possession of whiskey, Isaac Phillips, colored, was fined $50 and costs, and given a suspended sentence of two years on the county road in case he should violate any of the criminal laws during the next two years. He also paid a fine of $100 and costs on another charge of a similar nature.

Frank Bright, charged with possession of wine and home brew, paid a fine of $200 and cost and was given a 12 months' suspended sentence to the roads in case of violation of criminal laws in two years.

James Henry Dunn and Andrew Miller were fined $50 and costs each on a charge of larceny. They were sentenced to 90 days on the roads in case of failure to pay the fines.

Johanne O'Neil, colored, was given the privilege of paying a fine of $100 and costs or going to the roads for six months, on a charge of larceny. The case of Percy Johnson, held on the same charge, was transferred to superior court for jurisdiction.

James Thigpen, colored, was given choice between $50 fine or six months on the roads.

John Allen Harper, colored, was fined $50 and costs on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

John Ross and Hyman Hunt, charged with an attempt to break in a store, were allowed to pay fines of $50 each or go to the roads for six months.

Lamus Sugg, colored, paid a fine of $50 and costs in preference to going to the roads for six months, for assault with a deadly weapon. He also paid a $50 fine for carrying a concealed weapon.

Charlie Mabry and Marshall Mabry, colored, paid fines of $100 and $25, respectively, on charges of carrying a concealed weapon.

Ola Gray, colored, paid a fine of $25 on a charge of larceny instead of going to the roads for 90 days.

Leslie Wilson, charged with larceny, was required to pay $25 and costs or go to the roads for 90 days.

Man Carman, colored, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was fined $25 and costs.

MAKE FINAL ATTEMPT TO SAVE KILLERS

Counsel For Dr. Dreher and Mrs. Leboeuf Pin Hope To Habeas Corpus Application.

New Orleans, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Defense counsel today pinned their last hopes for escape from the dole of death Friday of Ada Bonner and Dr. T. E. Dreher, on a habeas corpus application in federal court. They hope to start their case back to the United States Supreme Court on a plea of denial of constitutional rights to their "idiotic" clients.

Bernard J. Daly and L. O. Pecot, counsel for the ill-fated pair, expected to apply for writs before Judge Wayne G. Borah in Federal District Court today, with appeal to the Fifth United States Circuit Court of Appeals in event of Judge Borah's refusal to interfere with the executions.

The double hanging for the murder of James J. Leboeuf, husband of the doomed woman, once was delayed to permit slayers to enjoy another Christmas day. Twice later stayed because of a complicated situation arising in the State Supreme Court, the time of death is fixed between noon and three o'clock Friday in the Paris jail at Franklin.

Fine was written by the State Supreme Court two days ago when the court issued final denial of the pleadings by defense counsel for a lunacy commission trial for Ada and the physician, described by their lawyers as now crazy from intense suffering since their conviction.

Disposal of the case by the Supreme Court of Louisiana, without further stay, led to double quick action in Washington where five associate justices of the United States Supreme Court declined to interfere with the last word of the state courts.
