MELLON AGAIN DIRECTS FIRE AT CONGRESS

Secretary of Treasury Renews Attack On Amendments To Deficiency Bill.

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Since the failure of Senate and House conferees to agree on the first deficiency bill, the measure has gone into a state of legislative coma and there is doubt as to its recovery in time to be made a law at this session.

Practically all the reports about the measure's progress for more than a week have reported no progress at all and now Secretary Mellon has renewed his attack upon it.

The secretary of the treasury has opposed from the outset two amendments added by the Senate, one to increase the fund for prohibition enforcement and another for open hearings on proceedings on all tax refunds in excess of $10,000.

In a letter made public in the Senate yesterday he again directed his fire on the amendment affecting tax refunds and in it he said that through the picture of procedure gone through with regard to tax refunds in mind that it was difficult to see just where a public hearing could be properly injected.

Secretary Mellon declared that every claim was gone over carefully by a staff of trained men and that in his opinion the interests of the government were completely protected.

The secretary of the treasury asserted that it was misleading to speak of the present procedure as a secret one and contended that the disclosure of the financial position of new and struggling corporations might result in their ruin at the hands of business rivals.

Senator McKellar, Tennessee, who sponsored the tax hearing amendment, has declared that he would be willing to have his proposal changed to provide for one public hearing on refunds and this may lead to a compromise.

No agreement on the $24,000,000 for prohibition enforcement secured in slight today, however, Senator Harris of Georgia, having given notice that he would seek to add the amount to the next deficiency bill if this one failed.

TORAL TO FACE FIRING SQUAD

Assassin of Obregon To Pay Death Penalty Between Tonight And Morning.

Mexico City, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Jose de Leon Toral, confessed assassin of President-elect Alvaro Obregon, spent what probably is his last day of life incommunicado in a cell at the penitentiary today.

Hearing unexpected developments (some) before dawn tomorrow he will be taken to a courtyard within the penitentiary grounds and shot by a firing squad, execution of his crime in a restaurant at San Angel last July 17.

An exchange of telegraph messages between President Portes Gil and officials of the federal district waded away what faint hope Toral might have had of life.

His attorneys asked President Portes Gil, who was enroute from Ciudad Victoria, Tamaulipas, to the capital, to stay the execution until he had time to study a petition for clemency filed at the presidential palace.

The President answered with the granting of a 24-hour stay and requested the petition for clemency be wired to him. He received it last evening at Tampico, and telegraphed back denying further reprieve and executive clemency.

The petition for clemency had asked that he set an international precedent against capital punishment by commuting the sentence to life imprisonment in what some would regard as an extreme case. Mental irresponsibility of Toral at the time of his crime was alleged also.

Britain To Build Two New Cruisers

London, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Prospective American cruiser construction is seen in some quarters as the background for the statement of W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty, yesterday that arrangements for construction of two new cruisers were proceeding.

It is said that if there was a tussle between the treasury and the admiralty over the question of the

HOOVER WILL CONTINUE TO MEET SCRIBES

President Plans To Confer With Newspapermen Like Harding And Coolidge.

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 8.—(AP)—President-elect Hoover, after entering the White House will continue the semi-weekly conferences with newspaper correspondents inaugurated by President Harding and carried forward by President Coolidge.

Since his election Mr. Hoover has had but few meetings with the large staff of correspondents assigned to report his activities and this had given rise to conjecture as to whether he might adopt some other system than that in vogue for stating his views to the country on public questions at frequent intervals.

From the beginning of his campaign for the presidency, the next chief executive decreed that any statement that he might make for publication would be in writing so that there could be no misunderstanding as to what he had said and he has followed that plan since November 6. Aside from his speeches on his Latin American mood will tour he has made only a few public statements and most of them have been in writing.

This has been in accord with his decision to interfere in no way with matters which are before the present administration. His views frequently have been sought on pending legislation, foreign affairs and many kindred subjects, but he has steadfastly refused to make any statement even to congressional leaders.

His conferences with those in charge of affairs on Capitol Hill in Washington, it is explained, had to do only with legislation that will arise during his own administration and the subject of the time of holding the special session of the seventy-first Congress to enact farm relief and tariff revision measures.

York, S. C., Feb. 8.—(AP)—Rafe King, member of a prominent Shelby, N. C., family, charged with the murder of his wife, was released under $3,000 bond early today.

King had been held in the York county jail here since Monday night when he was arrested on a charge of murder shortly after a coroner's jury investigating the death of Mrs. Faye Wilson King found that she died from poison at unknown hands.

An examination of the body of the dead woman, which was interred at King's Mountain, N. C., was to be held at noon today.

King posted a cash bond in the form of a cashier's check.

Many Counties Line Up For Tax Reduction At Big Mass Meeting Here

Four or five hundred representative business and professional men from several counties in the eastern and central part of North Carolina attended the public tax meeting of the kind probably never before held in this section and provoked considerable discussion of unjust taxation which numbers of counties have had to put up with for months.

The principal speakers of the occasion were Hon. A. D. McLean, member of the Legislature from Beaufort county; Dr. James Parrott, of Kinston; E. G. Flanagan, Pitt representative in the Legislature, and W. O. Saunders, editor of the Elizabeth City Independent, who stopped over to attend the meeting while en route to Raleigh.

The gathering passed resolutions calling on senators and representatives in the Legislature to use their influence in the passage of the McLean eight months' school bill and the committee road bill, both of which are now under consideration.

The session was presided over by Haywood Ball, chairman of the Pitt County Highway Commission, and prominently mentioned to succeed Frank Page as state chairman, and Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Grifton, member of the County Board of Commissioners.

Dr. Dawson at the outset explained the plight which certain counties of the state found themselves in at this time and said some form of tax relief was very necessary to future development. He called on Mr. McLean to explain the nature of the eight-months' school bill which was introduced in the House some time ago. The bill was passed by a sub-committee yesterday and comes up before the House for consideration again today.

He declared action by the sub-committee at such an early date was entirely unexpected, and gave rise to hope that the measure might eventually receive more favorable consideration in the Senate, where most of the opposition is centered.

"Your governor is one of the serious opponents to tax reduction as represented in this bill," he declared. "He is not interested in increasing schools and reducing taxes and we will have to shift for ourselves."

The bill, he explained, provides for a State-wide eight-months' term by legislative enactment to be supported by an equalizing fund of about ten million dollars and a maximum ad valorem tax levy in counties of forty cents. Under it all special districts would be abolished and a State Director of Standards and Purchasers appointed to work with the State Equalizing Board and the State Department of Public Instruction to effect economies in school administration.

The bill, he said did not outline any special means of raising the additional money for the increased equalizing fund. The budget appropriations bill carried provision for a $5,000,000 fund, but were it increased to $10,000,000 by passage of the eight-months' school bill, new tax sources would have to be uncovered.

Mr. McLean suggested an automobile drivers' license fee, increases in certain income tax brackets and closer collection, a luxury tax, and a tax on electric energy as among the sources that could be tapped.

He said the eight-months' school term would afford greater tax relief on property by eliminating all special districts. His object to the six months' term, even with an increased equalizing fund, was that it still would leave the special district taxes for the districts having the longer term and which are considered the most burdensome item.

Dr. Parrott spoke about the necessities of the bill, or some legislation looking to tax relief. He said there was lots of bunk going around about taxes, and that most of it might be termed "propaganda" emanating from Winston-Salem and other sections. He declared lots of people said we were too poor to educate our children. He described such a statement as an equivocation, as North Carolina has greater taxable wealth than any state in the south. "We paid enough in income taxes last year to run the schools. Those who claim we are too poor to go forward are not only spreading a lot of bunk, but become outright liars."

He said only forty-three per cent of our wealth was on the books. There is fifty-seven per cent of our collect not paying any taxes at all. Collect these taxes and we would have enough money to meet almost any exigency.

He said real estate was bearing most of our county burdens, while corporations were bearing state burdens. If that fifty-seven per cent could be forced to pay their taxes, we would be safe for any great emergency.

He said the McLean bill was necessary to the economic advancement of this section of the country. He also saw considerable benefit to be derived from the roads bill as explained by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan explained the road bill, showing where the state expects to derive nearly three million dollars from the extra tax and as the school equalizing fund. He said Pitt county's allocation under terms of the bill would be $40,000.

He said the measure was meeting with determined opposition from many unexpected sources, but saw victory ahead with proper support of those interested in solution of the tax problem.

Mr. Saunders said it was "time for a little hell-raising and as he was a natural hell-raiser he felt perfectly at home." He didn't fear any tax on cigarettes. "Let them tax my snokes if they want to. I use them and am ready to pay the extra tax to relieve burdens in other ways."

He understood why the McLean bill should have met with opposition from the governor and other individuals. They have stock in cigarettes concerns and have reaped hundreds of thousands of dollars from the investment.

His shafts of sarcasm delivered in real Saunders style provoked much merriment and formed a splendid aftermath after the various discussions bristling with facts and figures.

The resolution adopted by the committee follows: "Whereas, delegates from thirty counties of eastern and Central North Carolina, meeting at Greenville, N. C., February 7, are convinced that the ad valorem tax situation has become intolerable and almost confiscatory as a result of the unequal method of distributing the burden of supporting the school system, and

"Whereas, we are informed of a bill pending before the House and Senate education committees which provides a measure of relief in addition to which there is pending the committee road bill, both of which measures have been fully explained and discussed at this meeting, and it resolved:

"That the Senator and Representatives from these and all other counties in North Carolina in like plight, be and they hereby called upon and urged to do their utmost to pass these bills, known as the McLean bill and the committee road bill, for tax relief so that the unequal burdens of ad valorem taxes now depressing North Carolina may be more evenly distributed."

DE VALERA IS SENT TO JAIL AT BELFAST

British Republican Leader Charged With Attempt To Flout Ulster Laws.

Belfast, Northern Ireland, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Ernon De Valera, noted British Republican leader, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment today for attempting to enter Northern Ireland in contravention of an order of seven years' standing.

The magistrate in sentencing the leader of the opposition in the Irish Free State Dail, said that De Valera was really trying to flout the law of Ulster.

De Valera was arrested on Tuesday while entering Ulster to open the Gaelic bazaar in Belfast. He was taken from the Dublin train by the Ulster police at Newry and was held in jail until today's hearing.

When De Valera was brought from the prison to face the charge of contravening the civil authorities act, he found a crowded courtroom awaiting him. He came in the prison van with an escort of armed police.

In answering the questions put to him by the magistrates, the Republican leader used Gaelic.

Six Killed In Bombay Rioting

Bombay, India, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Six Hindus were killed in a fresh outbreak of Pathan-Hindu rioting here this morning. It was the sixth successive day of the disturbances.

Assaults continued intermittently throughout last night and more troops and armed police were brought in today to combat the situation.

The base of the military operations presented the spectacle of a huge armed camp with armored cars everywhere in evidence.

NORTHCOTT TO APPEAL FROM HIS CONVICTION

Found Guilty Of Slaying Children By Jury In California Court Yesterday.

Riverside, Cal., Feb. 8.—(AP)—Gordon Stewart Northcott, 22-year-old Canadian, today began preparations for an appeal from his conviction by a jury of the murder of three boys at his chicken ranch near here.

The jury of men last night found him guilty of slaying Lewis Winslow, brother, of Pomona, and unidentified Mexican youth after three hours of deliberation. There was no recommendation for clemency, making the death penalty mandatory. Northcott received the verdict calmly and thanked the jury. He will be sentenced Monday.

In his appeal, Northcott will be aided by McKinley Cameron, Canadian lawyer who has advised him since he dismissed his American attorneys early in the trial and took over the conduct of the case himself.

The young Canadian was brought to trial here as the result of disclosures made in Los Angeles last fall by his 19-year-old nephew, Sanford Clark, who was being held for deportation to Canada. Young Clark said several boys, including three who had disappeared from Southern California homes had been slain at the chicken ranch.

Clark admitted participating in the alleged murders under threats by Northcott and his mother, Mrs. Sarah Louisa Northcott. Cyrus Northcott, father of Gordon, was held as a material witness.

Northcott and his mother were arrested in Canada. Northcott was brought to trial January 2, shortly after Mrs. Northcott had pleaded guilty to complicity in the slaying of 9-year-old Walter Collins at the ranch. She was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Promise Variety At Hoover Inauguration

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The promise of variety and color in the presidential inauguration ceremonies has assumed definite proportions with the announcement by the inaugural committee that 22 state governors have reserved space for themselves and retines in the parade.

At the same time, the committee announced other entertainment features on the tentative program of events—among them being concerts, air stunts by army and navy fliers, and a great display of fireworks on the mall.

Many of the executives, with escorts, will be in gay uniforms. The governor of Alabama will be accompanied by two companions of foot soldiers from the state national guard and a band of 53 pieces. From Delaware, New Jersey and Virginia artillerymen and cavalrymen will come with their chiefs. The governor of Virginia will have 450 members of the Richmond Blues, the Richmond Howitzers and the Richmond Grays, and a fife and drum corps.

In the second division of the parade, the committee announced, sixteen additional military and civic units already have been assigned positions. Among them is a delegation from the San Diego Army and Navy Academy of Pacific Beach, California, and one from Coe College, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The tentative program of public entertainment is to begin two days before the inauguration. On March 2 the navy yard will be thrown open to visitors. The army and navy on this day will stage an air circus over the city, and there will be a riding circus at Fort Myer, Virginia.

On Sunday, March 3, special services will be held in all Washington churches. There will be a pilgrimage to the tomb of the unknown soldier in the afternoon, with a concert in the evening.

Tuesday will be given to the inaugural ceremonies, with the parade and the charity ball in the evening.

Labor Wins Out In Battersea Area

London, Feb. 8.—(AP)—A victory for labor in the South Battersea by-election drew varied comment from English political leaders today.

Sir William Joynson-Hicks, home secretary in the Conservative government, said: "Those Middlethians have let us down again. This is the second instance within a week of Liberals sacrificing their principles by running a perfectly hopeless candidate and thereby letting the Socialist get in."

Ramsay MacDonald, labor leader and former premier, said: "In view of the coming general election we all regard Battersea as a test case. I think the result shows just about

Highway Measure Passes Second Reading In House; Senate Has Many Bills

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Rejecting all amendments, the House today approved the public roads committee bill to raise the gasoline tax one cent a gallon and to create a $3,000,000 county highway aid fund by a vote of 104 to 1. Representative Poole of Hoke county, cast the negative vote. The bill will come up for its third reading tomorrow. Representative Hancock's amendment to make the county aid fund $5,000,000, was voted down, 78 to 26.

The bill contemplates an income of $2,500,000 by ear from the added gasoline tax, and the diversion of $1,000,000 from the present sources of revenue. Of this $1,000,000, half would be added to the $2,500,000, making a $3,000,000 fund to be allocated to counties on a population-area basis, while the remaining $500,000 would be used by the State Highway Commission as an equalizing fund without regard to county or district lines.

Argument centered around the question of whether the committee provision of a three million dollar county aid fund should be increased to five million dollars.

Rep. Mull, Democrat of Cleveland and a member of the road committee, spoke in favor of the lower fund. He said the larger fund would tend to make some of the counties extravagant since they would receive more money from the state than they are now spending on roads themselves.

Rep. Woodard, chairman of the roads committee, quoted Governor Gardner as favoring the committee bill. Yesterday Rep. Hancock declared the governor favored the larger fund.

Rep. Pruden offered an amendment to increase the equalizing fund in the committee bill from $500,000 to $1,000,000. His amendment would not change the three million dollar "county aid fund" provisions.

Support for the Hancock amendment to increase the county aid fund to five million dollars came from Rep. Lumpkin, Democrat of Franklin. He said the "people back home" needed "real relief" and that they couldn't get it with the smaller fund.

Though he declared the bill did not in all ways meet with his approval, Rep. Wilson, Democrat of Pasquotank, said he believed it to be the best compromise possible.

Rep. Boren, Democrat of Guilford offered an amendment to make a 10 per cent extension of the state highway system each year mandatory.

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Oratorical warfare over the gasoline tax increase and county highway aid fund bill continued in the House today, while the Senate used its time on several measures, but concurred in the House resolution extending an invitation to President-elect Herbert Hoover to address the General Assembly.

The Senate tabled the police pension bill introduced in response to a request by the North Carolina Police Chiefs Association, and dealt a similar fate to the House resolution proposing to create a joint legislative committee to investigate the feasibility of consolidating state agencies and departments.

Senator Millner's bill to authorize the sterilization of mental defectives under certain circumstances was given its third reading and sent to the House by a unanimous vote. Debate in the House centered around the size of the county aid fund to be created with the aid of a one cent a gallon increase in the gasoline tax, making it five cents a gallon.

Rep. O. M. Mull of Cleveland, a member of the road committee, declared Governor Gardner favored the committee plan, which called for a $3,000,000 county aid fund, to 900 equalizing fund to be expended by the State Highway Commission without regard to county and district lines. The revenue from the added gas tax is estimated at $2,300,000 a year, and this plan contemplates the diversion of $1,000,000 from the proceeds of the present taxes.

Rep. Frank Hancock's proposal to make the county aid fund $4,500,000 leaving the equalizing fund at $500,000 found support in debate today, and a new proposal was advanced by Rep. Pruden who offered an amendment to make the equalizing fund $1,000,000, leaving the aid fund at $3,000,000.

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The bill to relieve the "defaulting taxpayers" of North Carolina from the tyranny and oppression contained in chapter 221 of the public laws of 1927, introduced by Senator W. M. Person, Democrat of Franklin, will be considered under a special order next Wednesday, the Senate voted today.

The House bill allowing public officials to trade with banks in which they are officers or directors, under a proposed resolution, was passed on third reading.

Bills to amend the game law to provide open season for rabbits, quail and turkeys, from the 20th of November to the 15th of February, and to allow a defendant in claim and delivery proceedings to re-levy his property after he has objected to the plaintiff's surety and to provide for the giving of additional security by the plaintiff, were passed.

Before adjournment until ten o'clock tomorrow morning, the bill of Senator Clark, Democrat of Mecklenburg, regulating the guardianship of incompetent world war veterans and minor children of disabled or deceased veterans and providing for their commitment to United States government hospitals, was passed.

Senator Weaver, Republican of Buncombe, introduced a bill out of order to annex Little Sandy Mush township in Madison county to Buncombe county.

Senator Higgins, Democrat of Allegheny, announced that he would make a motion tomorrow to call the police pension bill from the table.

In connection with the warning of the Federal Reserve board to member banks regarding extension of speculative loan financial circles displayed unusual interest in the statement of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York which showed brokers' loans to have set a new record of $5,689,000,000, an increase of $110,000,000 in the week.

EDWIN DENBY PASSES AWAY AT DETROIT

Former Secretary Of Navy Succumbs To Sudden Heart Attack Early Today.

Detroit, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Edwin Denby, former Secretary of the Navy and one of the figures whose political career was abruptly terminated by the Teapot Dome scandal, died at his home in the Whittier apartments here this morning. Death resulted from a heart attack.

Denby, one of the most popular figures in public life at the time of the oil scandal, was 59 years old. While he had been in poor health during recent weeks, announcement of his death was a distinct shock to his friends here.

Following his resignation from the cabinet, the "sea-going secretary of the navy," as he was termed, returned to Detroit and resumed his banking, industrial and legal activities.

Although he virtually was compelled to resign from the cabinet as a result of the Teapot Dome affair, Denby did not attempt to place any of the responsibility that was charged to him upon the shoulders of anyone else. Blamed mainly for agreeing to the leasing of the naval oil reserves, Denby insisted his action had been for the best interests of the country.

Denby arose as usual shortly before eight o'clock this morning, but complained of feeling ill. A physician was summoned but before he could arrive, the former navy secretary was dead.

STOCK MARKET TO CLOSE 9TH

Curb Market To Also Suspend a Day To Give Employees Chance To Catch Up

New York, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The Stock Exchange and the Curb Market will be closed tomorrow. The reason assigned by exchange officials is that brokers' clerical staff, crippled by influenza, must catch up with their work.

Announcement of the suspension of trading was made at the close of a session marked by a general drop which carried some stocks down 15 points.

A wave of selling which hit the market soon after the opening gong brought a turnover of 1,328,000 shares in the first half hour, and started a plunge which rallies later in the day were unable to stem. The total turnover for the day was 5,511,900 shares.

A threat from the Federal Reserve board that unless the funds "going into" speculative channels were curtailed, drastic action would be taken, coupled with the announcement by the Bank of England of an advance in the discount rate from four and one-half to five and one-half per cent were the chief factors in the break.

In connection with the warning of the Federal Reserve board to member banks regarding extension of speculative loan financial circles displayed unusual interest in the statement of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York which showed brokers' loans to have set a new record of $5,689,000,000, an increase of $110,000,000 in the week.

London, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Influenza, increasing in its virulence, has nearly doubled the death rate in 107 English cities and towns. London has been hit hard, but Liverpool and Manchester have suffered even more. Even Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds and Bristol, where the epidemic is comparatively light, show high figures of mortality and infection.

Due to the epidemic and resulting causes of bronchial pneumonia—the death rate in 107 cities and towns increased from 164 deaths per thousand population January 12 to 21 per thousand last week, nearly double the ordinary annual rate of eleven per thousand.

The 107 urban communities listed 652 deaths last week from influenza alone as compared with 321 the week before. Since January 1 there have been 1,373 deaths from influenza, as

LEGION SERVICE AFFORDS A PROUD RECORD FOR VET

A record of service to the community in years of peace as a member of the American Legion will in time constitute as proud a service as that given the nation in time of the World war," declared A. B. Corey, post commander of the Legion today in an appeal for all those eligible to renew their 1929 membership at once.

"The American Legion is one organization into which no amount of money, political pull, or social standing, will admit one. Only an honorable discharge from the service during the World war makes it possible to belong, regardless of whether the applicant served as a general or a "buck private" in the rear rank.

"Service to God and country constitute the purpose of the American Legion. Every veteran is proud of service rendered in 1917-18" and the service he rendered to buddies of war days and to the community as a member of the Legion now is second only to that war time service. The Legion is an ex-serviceman's lodge or fraternal order. It enables him to associate, upon a basis of brotherhood and comradeship, with men to whom he is bound by common experience and a mutual willingness to face this country's foes. Millionaires and laborers rub elbows on common grounds in Legion halls.

"The Legion has before it an ambitious program for the good of all veterans and there should be no gaps in its ranks the coming year. The Legion is the veteran's advocate. It represents him in the halls of Congress, in the state legislature, and in local affairs. Every line of legislation upon the statute books of Congress for the benefit of World war veterans has been placed there by Legion effort.

"The Legion's great days are ahead and there should be no gaps in its ranks made by veterans who fail to join."

ACTION NECESSARY FOR RELIEF

The large attendance at the meeting in the court house last night and the enthusiasm of those attending in adopting resolutions urging the legislature to enact measures for some relief from the present ad valorem tax burdens was a clear indication that citizens have reached the stage of realization that action is necessary if we are to get any relief and that they are willing to lend their efforts to a movement to bring about this needed relief. So long as we do nothing but grow a little every time we have to pay our taxes we are getting nowhere, for organized machines representing certain sections and properties naturally will see to it that they get by with as little burden as possible and leave it to us to make the best of a bad situation. If we continue to let such conditions exist we may expect our lands and visible personal properties to bear more than a just share of the tax burdens. As expressed by Representative A. D. McLean, speaking before last night's meeting, an organized effort for relief is necessary if we are to accomplish anything along this line, and it may take a little hell-raising at that to get it. Mr. McLean and other speakers in explaining the measures now before the legislature set forth the fact that under our present system 43 per cent of the property of the state is paying the taxes and that fifty per cent of the persons using our schools were paying nothing for the support of these institutions.

the books to work day in and day out to keep it there. In the face of the fact that at present less than fifty per cent of the property is paying all the taxes, the suggestion of Dr. Parrot is one that once put into effect would take care of our tax problems for all time to come. Such a plan must eventually be worked out if the people of North Carolina are to receive just treatment from the standpoint of taxes, but our system, we realize, cannot be made over in a day, and pending the just relief afforded by this plan we urge the adoption of the McLean bill to take care of the situation.

ABOUT TOWN

"Believe it or not, but Dollar Day in Greenville next Tuesday is going to be one of the greatest events ever conducted in this city before," said a well known business man today. "Greenville never does anything by halves. This has been proved time and again and we mean to prove it more than ever this time. Merchants have gone to the trouble of laying in new stock for the event, and shoppers will have the opportunity of picking hundreds of values for a dollar they would pay a much higher figure for any other time of the year."

"Be one of the thousands to throng the business district next Tuesday, laying in values which should prove useful all the year around."

"Dollar Day is saving day in Greenville, so don't fail to be on hand when the stores throw open their doors next Tuesday morning."

"This kind of weather reminds one that springtime is close at hand," remarked a citizen today.

"Bright sunshine and balmy weather like Floridians are enjoying is what Pitt county people are getting at this time. It is a pleasant change from the blasts of winter which gripped the section the first of the week."

"It is such changes that break the monotony of climate in this part of the country and causes our citizens to lay claim to the God-blessed part of the universe."

"Did you attend the tax meeting last night?" inquired a citizen of another this morning before either had adequate time to get his eyes open.

"Yep," mumbled the person addressed. "I was right there and some of the things mentioned by the speakers sounded mighty good."

"There is one thing this state needs worse than anything else at this time. That is tax reduction. Various ways have been suggested as to how this may be accomplished. The best plan should be adopted as early as possible so the majority of people may feel like they are getting what's coming to them."

"We haven't got away from extravagance of war days, but we are making a mighty good start in the effort to reduce taxes. May the good work continue."

"Who's the biggest man in town?" interrogated an aged citizen this morning.

The fellow addressed scratched his head two or three times and then mentioned several names. But the inquirer shook his head at the mention of each name.

"None of those," he declared. "It is the man working on a $125.00 a month salary, supporting a family of ten."

He didn't mention how many men in the city with ten children were working at such a salary, but said there were quite a few.

The friend smiled. "Aw that's nothing. I know two of three fellows with large families with no salary at all. How about that?"

"Well, providence is taking care of these families, that's all there is to a case of that kind."

"It was proper that state and county authorities should increase the reward for apprehension of the murderer of the Bethel policeman."

"This was one of the most brutal killings that has occurred in this section in many a day and should not go unpunished. It is puzzling how a criminal can remain undetected for such a long time without of every county on the alert for his appearance. But it has happened time and again in other cases of the kind and this is no exception."

"Maybe, however, with the $500 reward offered as price of capture, authorities will redouble efforts to bring the man to justice. It is to be hoped so, atleast."

"Send in your subscription to the Reflector immediately and avoid missing a single copy," reminded the manager of circulation today.

"We are forced to drop all subscribers at date of expiration. But this will not be necessary if you will watch your date and renew a few days in advance."

"The Reflector's new service contains all of the latest developments in touch with what the world is doing by reading every day's edition."

Four tablespoons of KLIM instead of a cup of milk

The modern way to use milk is the KLIM way. When your recipe calls for milk, take it from the KLIM can in snowy spoonfuls and mix it with the other dry ingredients, just as you do sugar, flour or baking powder. Then add an amount of water equal to the amount of milk called for in your recipe and your dish is ready for the oven.

KLIM is milk—dry—minus only its water content. All the vitamins and other health-giving elements remain. To make KLIM into sweet, fresh fluid milk for drinking, you simply add the water.

You'll be surprised at the added goodness KLIM gives to the things you cook or bake. And you'll be delighted at the time and needless trouble it saves you.

Get a can of KLIM today and try the recipe below.

Old-Fashioned SPOON BREAD
(Serves 6)
10 tbs. KLIM 1 cup cornmeal
1 tsp. salt 2½ cups water

Thoroughly mix 10 tbs. of KLIM, 1 cup of cornmeal, and 1 tsp. of salt.
Place 2½ cups of water in a saucepan and when it boils add the cornmeal mixture, stirring smooth. Let cook until thickened. Separate 2 eggs. Beat the yolks and blend with the cornmeal mixture. Beat the whites until stiff and carefully fold into the mixture. Pour into a greased baking dish and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve hot at table from baking dish with a large spoon.

LOCALS WIN GAME FROM GOLDSBORO

Greenville's travelling horsemen led one more to their long string laurels when they took Goldsboro camp last night to the tune of 15. In spite of the rather one-sided score, the game was fast and exciting throughout, with the visiting visitors fighting through to the last whistle. For some time at the beginning of the game, no one on either side scored, but finally Greenville forwards broke through, eventually to score three goals each, besides doing excellent floor work. Burnette slipped through while playing, and he added three more by the use of excellent "spin" on the ball. For half, the only Goldsboro man to prove a dead shot when given chance. The half score was 21-4.

Goldsboro started off the second half with a rush, and played a close game in ways. Spicer took Moore's place at center, and Greenville recaptured Peacock at guard. Eleven points rewarded their new line-up for strenuous efforts, while Greenville made exactly the same number of points in the opening frame. This was Hearn's big half, for of the points, each were awarded by center. Respass capped the half twice, and Crow, Hicks and on each once. The second team led for the entire third quarter, but did very well for the period, ranking the Goldsboro team for the time. The game visitors played up until their quarter, but in the contest, fighting for the ball the very end just as hard as at the beginning of the first quarter. Each Bullock's protégées showed the best fighting spirit of any team that has been here during the season.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 1 point to a decline of 6 points. The more active months were relatively easy under some further liquidation and a little selling on the indifferent showing of Liverpool. Early offerings were absorbed by trading and covering, however, and prices stiffened up a few points. Active months were about net unchanged to 3 points higher at the end of the first half hour.

Trading was quiet. Private cables said there had been liquidation and hedging in Liverpool and reported only a small turnover in cloths and yarns.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Reports of persistent active demand for breadstuffs in importing countries brought about a strong undertone today in the wheat market here. Traders gave attention to dispatches telling of famine in Bessarabia, in China and in South Africa, and to unfavorable weather prevailing throughout the greater part of the northern hemisphere. Corn advanced with wheat, but profit taking sales led to a decided reaction later. Wheat closed nervous at a shade net lower to 1-4 advance; corn 1-2 to 7-8 off; oats unchanged to 1-8 down and provisions showing a rise of 2 to 17.
