PLAN TO KILL PRESIDENT OF MEXICO FAILS

Bomb Wrecks Train Of Portes Gil, Who Escapes Uninjured; Another Bombing.

Mexico City, Feb. 11.—(AP)—The greatest excitement Mexico City has known since the assassination of President-elect Alvaro Obregon prevailed today.

Police guards were doubled because of dynamiting of the train on which President Emilio Portes Gil was returning here yesterday, and because of discovery shortly after midnight of an unexploded bomb in the campaign headquarters of Aaron Sauerz, presidential candidate.

Sauerz is governor of the state of Nuevo Leon, the candidate of the National Revolutionary party for the presidency, and is a son-in-law of ex-President Calles.

President Portes Gil arrived here shortly after 1 o'clock this morning aboard the special train which had been the object of a bomb attack in the state of Guanajuato, between the stations of Comonfort and Rincon.

Smiling, the president greeted officers and members of his staff from the observation of the rear car before leaving with Senora Portes Gil and his baby daughter in an automobile for Chapultepec castle.

Senora Portes Gil is the minister of war, General Joaquin Amaro, and Senora Amaro. A heavy military guard was kept about the station until after they left for their homes.

Adding to the Sabbath excitement were demonstrations accompanying the funeral of General Obregon's assassin, Jose De Leon Toral, who was executed Saturday. Of 34 persons arrested 20 were women. One person was killed and 30 were wounded.

The bombing of President Portes Gil's train took place as the locomotive passed over a bridge in the desert wilderness in the eastern part of the state of Guanajuato, between Comonfort and Rincon, south of San Luis Potosi.

The locomotive was partly destroyed and two coaches back of it were thrown from the tracks. The fireman in the locomotive was killed, the pilot train, which preceded the presidential special, passed over the bridge unscathed.

The president and the secretary of war left the rear coach and questioned some Indians whom troops captured in searching the vicinity. They, satisfied themselves, these had nothing to do with the attempt on his life and they were released.

Near the scene of the dynamiting troops found the remains of an open air meal, some sulphuric acid, and a receipt for a telegram sent at Tampico, where the president had been after a visit to Ciudad Victoria to attend the inauguration of his successor as governor of the state of Tamaulipas.

Further down the track another dynamite bomb—unexploded—was found affixed to the rails.

Troops were ordered out of garrisons to search for those responsible for the train dynamiting.

All were instructed to shoot or capture anyone connected with the incident.

A special train was dispatched from Queretaro, enabling the party to continue the journey to Mexico City. With the president aboard the train were a number of politicians, a considerable body of troops, and a number of newspapermen.

Mexico City police had their hands full at the funeral of Toral. A motor hearse carried his body to the Spanish cemetery on the outskirts of the city. As it passed through the streets a crowd fell in behind it, with occasional women breaking through police lines to grab a flower from the hearse.

Fire engines accompanied the procession with hoses ready to disperse the gathering should it become unruly. Neither father, mother, nor widow of Toral was able to participate in the services.

While interment was in progress a volley of shots nearby frightened some, but it developed soldiers had only fired above the heads of the crowd in an effort to disperse it.

There were frequent clashes between the firemen with the hose, the police, and crowds of mourners, many of whom threw stones to emphasize their feelings. It was in these clashes a man was killed and others injured.

Named U. S. Attorney

CONGRESS TO WRESTLE WITH SMALL ISSUES

Members Confident They Have Legislative Program Well In Hand Now.

Washington, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Members of Congress are confident they have the legislative program well in hand. Enough progress has been made on appropriation measures to practically assure the passage of all of them before March 4 and the Senate has Boulder Dam, the Kellogg treaty and the cruiser bill out of its way, only the usual grist from the mill is expected from now until the end of the session, but even so there will be enough problems to settle.

On the Senate program today was the Caraway bill to regulate trading on cotton and grain futures and the House had before it affairs of the District of Columbia. The Senate also had the Heflin resolutions asking that the Federal Reserve Board propose legislation to meet the speculative situation on the exchanges, in the offering. It seemed likely that the Caraway bill, already shelved once, would be laid aside when the resolution was taken up.

Before the week is out the Senate is also expected to pass on the Walsh report censuring the departments of the interior and justice for their part in the renewal of the contract for Salt Creek royalty oil to the Sinclair interests. The Senate public lands committee voted Senator Walsh down in committee on this question and he has taken the matter to the Senate. Dr. Hubert Work, former secretary of the interior, and William J. Donovan, assistant attorney general and a cabinet possibility, are censured in the Walsh report.

The House tomorrow is expected to take up the last of the nine appropriation measures, the legislative supply bill and Wednesday both houses meet in joint session to count the electoral vote.

The House passed the $347,000,000 naval supply bill Friday and since appropriation bills are given the right of way nowadays the Senate may get around to it Tuesday or Wednesday.

Mrs. Davenport Is Buried Today

Mrs. Nellie Davenport, 53, died at her home near Simpson, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Funeral services were conducted from her late home this afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. J. S. Starnes of Grimesland Methodist Church. Burial was made in the family burying ground.

The deceased was a member of the Missionary Baptist church at Pactolus.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. H. Mills, Mrs. W. M. McRoy, and Miss Blanche Davenport; two sons, J. W. and E. S. Davenport, a brother, A. L. Pilgreen all of Pitt county.

Thousands Of Bargains To Feature Dollar Day In This City Tomorrow

Greenville Merchants today were making final arrangements for Dollar Day," which is to be staged in this city tomorrow. The twenty-three business houses to take part in the great semi-annual bargain event put final touches to stocks and decorations late this afternoon preparatory to receiving thousands of people all day tomorrow and until late in the evening.

Never before probably has a trade event been staged upon such an extensive scale as this. Merchants have left nothing undone to make it surpass all previous occasions and when the doors of the twenty-four firms swing open tomorrow they will offer the most complete assortment of goods at bargain prices in history of the city.

"We are satisfied that 'Dollar Day' this time will eclipse all previous records," C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Merchants' Association, said today. "It is believed thousands of shoppers from a radius of many miles will visit the city and take advantage of this opportunity to purchase reasonable merchandise considerably under prices usually charged for such goods."

The twenty-three firms to take part in "Dollar Day" this year are all members of the Merchants' Association. They represent some of

BOBBY TROUT BREAKS THREE AIR RECORDS

Mines Field, Los Angeles, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Miss Bobby Trout, Los Angeles girl aviator, landed here at 10:16:22 o'clock this morning in her Golden Eagle Monoplane, setting a new world's endurance flight record for women of 17 hours and 53 minutes, 37 seconds.

Her plane taxied across the long field in a graceful landing and came to a stop before one of the large port hangars. Together with her endurance record, the pretty flier had brought down two other marks, the night flying record and the distance flight mark for women.

Miss Trout was haggard but she smiled cheerfully as an enthusiastic group of officials pect about the plane and helped her from the cockpit.

Los Angeles, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Miss Bobby Trout, of Los Angeles, captured three world's aviation records here today by exceeding the existing marks set by women flyers for endurance, high flying and distance covered in a solo flight.

Miss Trout regained the women's endurance record at 7:27:30 o'clock this morning by remaining one hour longer in the air than Miss Elinor Smith of New York, who a few days ago established a mark of 13 hours, 16 minutes and 45 seconds.

The girl aviator, who held the endurance record before Miss Smith made her attempt, broke by a wide margin the women's night flying record of eight hours. The third record, for distance covered by a woman in a plane such as Miss Trout is flying, was broken when she passed the 929-mile mark.

Miss Trout, who is 22 years old, took off at 5:19:45 p. m. yesterday with the intention of remaining aloft 20 hours. She showed no inclination to land when she had broken the three records.

Injured Aviator Holding His Own

STEWART IS CHARGED WITH HOLDING BONDS

Statement By Rockefeller Proxy Committee Branded as False By Stewart.

New York, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Condemnation of bonds by Colonel Robt. W. Stewart is stressed in a 71-page letter sent to stockholders of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana today by Winthrop W. Aldrich, of the proxy committee, headed by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

The document includes excerpts from testimony before the Senate committee which investigated the Teapot Dome scandal and quotations from the opinion of the Supreme Court in which the purpose of the company was declared to have been illegitimate.

"The letter sets forth in detail the connection of Colonel Stewart with the Continental Company and charges that he concealed from the directors of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana for six years that part of Liberty bonds which he knew was early as November, 1921, belonged either to the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Company or the Standard Oil Company of Indiana."

It goes on to say that Stewart "instead of disclosing this fact to his board of directors and turning over the bonds, immediately created a secret trust making a subordinate employ of the company to keep any record whatever of the transaction except the trust agreement written in pencil which was kept in his (Stewart's) own safe deposit box."

After Colonel Stewart testified before the Senate committee he was tried under indictment for contempt of the Senate and for perjury in his testimony before the Senate committee and was acquitted in both trials, the latter says.

Chicago, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Colonel Robt. W. Stewart, through his personal attorney, last night pronounced as "nothing short of a cowardly and dastardly libel" statements made public in New York opposing Colonel Stewart's re-election to the Standard Oil Company of Indiana's board of directors.

Albert W. Hopkins, the attorney, issued a statement which, he said, was in answer to two attacks upon Colonel Stewart published in New York, one unsigned, the other by Winthrop W. Aldrich, New York lawyer, a brother-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and chairman of the Rockefeller proxies committee seeking Stewart's defeat at the stockholders' meeting March 7.

The Aldrich statement was described by Hopkins as "a cunningly drawn document to deceive the stockholders and the public" and the lawyer further described it as "untrue in many places."

Taking up the lengthy statement by Aldrich, Colonel Stewart's lawyer noted "the intermingling of matters with which Colonel Stewart had no more to do than Aldrich himself, in an apparent effort to cast reflections on Colonel Stewart." This Hopkins said, "is nothing short of a cowardly and dastardly libel."

The Chicago attorney went again into the Consolidated Trading Company transaction, which played a prominent part in the attack upon Colonel Stewart, and reiterated denials that the oil company head made any concealment of his part therein or that any action by him was taken except with the interests of the Standard Company in mind.

Hopkins was asked about the Aldrich statement that Colonel Stewart for six years did not tell about the bonds received in the consolidated deal.

Armed Poses Seek Slayer Of Chief Of Police

Windsor, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Poses of armed men this morning renewed their search of Juniper forest, Bertie county swamp, in which Percy Miller, negro slayer of Chief of Police Pat White of Windsor, is thought to be hiding.

Throughout the night every road and pathway into the forest was closely guarded.

White was shot and killed while taking Miller to jail after he had been arrested on charge of shooting traps. Crews of armed men gathered quickly and took up the chase. They were warned by officers that the negro must be brought in alive and there must be no lynching.

Gov. O. Max Gardner sent a message urging that, if the negro is caught, the law be permitted to take its course.

Juniper forest, in which the negro is believed hiding, is a triangular shaped tangle of undergrowth, best of the ordinary dangers of searching through a swamp. Juniper forest is infested with water meadow and poisonous insects.

Dry Leader To Begin Serving Jail Sentence

Indianapolis, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Dr. Edward S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, announced today that he would go to the state penal farm tomorrow morning to begin serving a sixty-day sentence for contempt of the Indiana Supreme Court.

Shumaker was sentenced more than a year ago and last October went to the penal farm but on his arrival there was notified that Ed. Jackson, who was governor, had pardoned him.

Later the Supreme Court issued a recommendatory order and the dry leader took his case to the United States District Court. Judge Robert C. Baltwell denied a writ of habeas corpus.

Since then there had been some talk of taking the case to the Circuit Court of Appeals and to the United States Supreme Court.

Forester To Give Demonstration In County Wednesday

R. W. Graver, forester of the State Extension department, will give a demonstration in forestry at the Herman McLawhorn farm Wednesday at one o'clock, it was announced from the office of the Pitt county farm department today.

The demonstration will consist mainly in the care and thinning of forests. This is considered of special importance in the development of young forest growth in this section at the present time.

Farmers were urged to bring along their axes and take part in the demonstration.

LINDBERGH ON HIS WAY TO BELIZE TODAY

Flying Ace On Return Trip To America With Plane Load Of Mail.

Boston, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Belize, British Honduras, at 11:50 a. m. Eastern Standard time, today from Managua, Nicaragua, the Tropical Radio Company reported in a radio message received.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 11.—(AP)—A 600 mile flight across three countries to Belize, British Honduras was today's stunt for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

The route was, in the main, the reverse of that which he followed last week when he brought air mail here from Miami, Fla., and continued to Cristobal, Panama. He was not sure, though, whether he would stop today at Tela, Honduras, one of the stops on the trip from the Florida city.

"Accompanying Lindbergh on his return flight to the United States is an escort plane piloted by Ramon J. Merritt. Another companion is Lieut. Christian Schilt, marine corps aviator, who is going to Miami to become district superintendent of the Pan-American Airways mail route.

The two planes, flying from Cristobal, swooped down out of a cloudy sky yesterday at 1:35 p. m. fully three hours ahead of the time they were expected. The fliers drove up to the United States location in a marine corps automobile long before Charles C. Eberhardt, minister, had even intended starting for the flier's field to greet them.

Roman Question Settled By Signing Of Treaties By King And Pope Today

Rome, Feb. 11.—(AP)—After more than half a century of estrangement, peace was formally established today between the Holy See and the Italian government, marking one of the most momentous chapters in the modern history of the Church and State.

Representing the Vatican and the Italian government, respectively, Cardinal Gasparri, famous papal secretary of state, and Premier Mussolini, creator of the Fascist state in Italy, placed their signatures upon three historical documents, one a treaty solving and eliminating the Roman question, which has existed ever since the loss of temporal power in 1870, and the second a concordat designed to regulate the relations of the Church and State in Italy, and a third convention settling the financial relations between the Holy See and Italy.

The text of these documents was not made public since it must still be represented for discussion to the legislative assembly, but it was announced that an exhaustive and precise synopsis would be given out tomorrow, which is the anniversary of the coronation of Pope Pius.

While the official text has not been made public, it is known that the first "treaty" recognizes the absolute independence and sovereignty of the Pontiff, at the same time, slightly rectifying the boundaries of the Vatican without any great increase in its actual area. The concordat, regarded in some quarters as of even greater importance, con-

LEGISLATURE IS FACED BY HEAVY GRIND

Solons Confronted With Action On Major Issues Of The Calendar.

Raleigh, Feb. 11.—(AP)—A busy week confronted members of the North Carolina legislature as they returned to the capital after week-end recess today, with major issues on the calendar for action. Both houses will meet tonight at eight o'clock.

Holding right of way in the Senate is the Australian ballot bill, which is a special order of business for tomorrow morning, after the usual morning hour. Administration leaders have indicated they will seek to amend the committee measure on the floor of the Senate to eliminate the provision making it optional with county authorities whether the secret ballot is used in county primaries. Gov. Gardner, who took the lead in the fight for a revision of the election laws along this line, has expressed his strong disapproval of this action.

The House has a special order for tomorrow morning, Rep. Winston's proposal to submit to the voters of the state the question of calling a constitutional convention. His measure was given a favorable report by the committee on constitutional amendments.

As soon as the Australian ballot question is disposed of, the Senate is expected to get around to consideration of the highway bill passed by the House last week, by which the gasoline tax would be increased from four to five cents a gallon, and a county road fund of $3,000,000 would be established. As approved by the House, the measure was in the form reported out by the public roads committee, and the corresponding committee of the Senate also approved it at the same time. Hence, it is expected that the bill will lie long in the hands of the Senate committee.

Another special order on the Senate calendar for Wednesday is Senator Person's bill to repeal the act of 1927 imposing heavy penalties for default in the payment of taxes. This measure has a favorable committee report.

At adjournment Saturday, the House was debating a bill to require sheriffs to exhaust personal property before selling real estate for taxes and it is expected final action will be taken tonight.

Other important measures of the session—the eight months school bill, the workmen's compensation act and the proposed highway patrol and drivers' license measure—are still in the committee stage, but any of the three may reach one house or the other at any time.

The finance committee of the two bodies prepared to continue their joint sessions, preliminary to drafting of the biennial revenue bill with a schedule calling for completion of hearings by Friday. The appropriations committee finished up their joint hearings last week, and expected to get down to the actual writing and the maintenance and permanent improvements appropriation bills early this week.

Rep. Winston, Democrat of Bertie, who has been connected with North Carolina legislatures for 42 years, on Saturday declared that never in his experience had he seen a session operate as smoothly, efficiently and harmoniously as the present.

James Oakley Buried Today

James Oakley, 28 years of age, died at his home near the cotton mill yesterday morning at five o'clock, following an attack of pneumonia.

Funeral services were conducted from his late home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. W. S. Harden, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Burial was made in the Winterville cemetery.

Mr. Oakley was a member of the Presbyterian church. He moved to this city from Person county about a year or so ago. He was employed at the cotton mill. He is survived by his wife and father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Oakley.

Deplores Companionate Marriages

New York.—A committee of the Federal Council of Church of Christ in America, reporting on the "present unsettled condition of the home," deplores companionate marriages, easy divorces, clerical men who marry divorced persons and runaway couples without due caution, and low wage scales which force mothers into industry. The Russell Sage Foundation has found that there are 57 marriage market towns in 29 states.

GREENVILLE GIRL AMONG HONOREES

Goldsboro, Feb. 10.—Miss Mary Borden entertained last evening at her home on George street at a beautiful bridge dinner honoring her house guests, Misses Louisa Hooker of Greenville; Ellen Broadhurst of Smithfield; Frances Quinn of Kinston; and Miss Eleanor Bizzell and her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Twyman.

Dinner was served in the dining room, with the table centered with an attractive arrangement of Japanese quince. A delicious course dinner was served, after which the guests played bridge at three tables.

In addition to the guests of honor the following were present: Misses Rachel Hemphill Edgerton, Claire Davis, of Mt. Olive; Elizabeth Mitcham, Annie Lee Bynum, Helen Daniel and Elizabeth Hood.

Thomas emerged with only his voice and a suit of clothes, but went right on, undaunted.

He turned down a sure fortune when he left light opera, but says he only wanted to make money, in enough to go on with his training and study. He expected years of work with little hope of quick returns when he went to Europe. But the fates have been kind. He went straight to the goal of grand opera in the capitals of Europe, a goal rarely reached by any American.

NORTH CAROLINA MAN HEADS LIME COMPANY

Today's issue of the Reflector carries an advertisement of the Falling Spring Lime Company, of Covington, Virginia, which will be of interest to North Carolinians, and especially those living in the eastern part of the state, because of the connection with that company of Guy I. Buell.

Mr. Buell, who is treasurer and general manager of the Falling Spring Lime Company, was for 23 years a resident of Spring Hope, where, as president, he directed the railroad and lumber operations of the Montgomery Lumber Company.

Several months ago he acquired an interest in the Covington Lime Plant, and since that time he has been gradually expanding the business of the Falling Spring Precipitated Lime Plant.

Falling Spring Lime is, in composition, a pure lime, chemical analysis showing that it contains 94 per cent of calcium carbonate, which is 100 per cent soluble. Results obtained by users in North Carolina have been, according to letters in the company's Covington office, highly satisfactory.

The table appointments were very attractive. An elaborate course dinner was served. Covers were laid for twelve.

ECONOMY NECESSARY

It has well been pointed out that the economic progress of any state depends a lot on the economic progress of the various communities that make up the state. In studying our tax situation in an endeavor to gain a more equitable distribution of our burdens let us also give an eye to obtaining a dollar's value for every dollar public money spent. In too many instances public money does not have the purchasing power of an equal amount in private hands. Strictly business principles in every department of government will help some toward lightening the tax burdens.

BRAKES ON WALL STREET

It is well that the Federal Reserve Board has called a halt on borrowing from Reserve Banks for stock speculation. Such a warning was needed.

Brokers' firms with seats on the Stock Exchange have carried loans lately aggregating almost $7,000,000,000. The volume has been rolling up at the rate of hundreds of millions a month, as the bull market plunged ahead.

This speculative use of credit has diverted so much money from the ordinary channels of business that it threatened to check prosperity, if not checked itself. Normal business has had to pay excessive rates for accommodation. Credit for home-building and other constructive progress has grown scarcer and scarcer. Ordinary commercial and personal loans have been harder to obtain. The financial blood of the nation has been drained into Wall Street to help gambling and inflate securities.

Broadly speaking, this has seemed legitimate to those responsible. It has been lawful, at any rate. Those having money to lend at higher rates than usual have considered it good business. It has been good for them, but bad for the country as a whole, and it threatened to grow worse. It was time to apply the financial brakes.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

The undersigned having this day qualified as Administrator of the estate of D. S. Smith, late of Pitt County, this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to file them with the undersigned at Greenville, N. C., within twelve months from date of this notice will be pleaded in bar of any recovery thereon. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement.

This 16th day of January, 1929.

W. J. Hardee, Administrator

ABOUT TOWN

"The tax reduction talk sounds mighty good to people down my way," asserted a visitor from the lower end of Pitt county.

"We have been trying to get some relief from oppressive taxation for years, but couldn't get started somehow. Now that the roads bill has been passed with the eight months school term in the offing it really seems we are going to get some benefit from the Legislature after all.

"The next great problem is enactment of the new laws. We pay income one way and get twice the amount back another way. That is pretty good way to do business. In fact, it is such a change all of us will like it. The principal point at issue, is how long will it continue?"

"The next great problem is enactment of the new laws. We pay income one way and get twice the amount back another way. That is pretty good way to do business. In fact, it is such a change all of us will like it. The principal point at issue, is how long will it continue?"

"Tomorrow is Dollar Day in Greenville," said a member of the Merchants' Association, putting final touches on his store this morning.

"This is going to be one of the greatest days Greenville has had in many a year. Thousands of people will flock to the business section, both day and night, to look over the countless bargains on the shelves of the twenty-odd business houses participating.

"To be sure that everybody is cared for the merchants have put in extra stock. This combines every conceivable thing in the merchandise line. It offers one of the greatest opportunities in his history to the progressive shopper desiring to lay up material for the spring and summer.

"Don't fail to visit the city tomorrow. The Merchants' Association has left nothing undone in making the occasion the greatest ever. See that you are one among the thousands to come here to take advantage of the low prices prevailing on this day of days."

"The annual banquet of the Merchants' Association next Thursday evening will be one of the outstanding social features of the year," declared a member of the organization today.

"J. G. Dawson, of Kinston, one of the best known speakers on business problems in this part of the state, will be present to tell why Eastern North Carolina is going forward by leaps and bounds in the business field. Mr. Dawson has had the distinct honor of speaking at several affairs of this kind in the last few months. We feel sure he will bring a message of more than passing interest.

"Then, too, D. Holloman, of Raleigh, will speak. He is recognized as one of the best informed men in North Carolina on merchandising, and his appearance at the annual meeting here will be greeted with enthusiasm.

"If you are a member of the organization, don't fail to be present and hear of the progress made the past year and some of the objectives for the future."

"Twelve houses under construction at one time in a residential section here shows to some extent how Greenville is growing," asserted a citizen today, referring to the rapid strides which the city is taking at this time.

"More people and more houses for them to live in is what it takes to make a thriving city. Residence sections have experienced healthy growth here the last three years, and it looks as if the present year is going to set the pace for all time.

"The future of this city as a business center was never brighter and it is to be hoped everybody will pull together to make all promises an actuality."

Still Planning For Miami Bout

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 11.—(AP)—An Everglades fishing trip and a strenuous campaign among the sand traps and bunkers of Miami Beach golf courses were training highlights this week in the Stribling-Sharkey camps, while Promoter Jack Dempsey remained ever busy counting ticket receipts for the February 27 battle of Flamingo Park.

Deprived of his aerial exercises in his personal airplane by Dempsey's injunction to keep him on terra firma, Young Stribling turned to the uncharted and devious trails of the Everglades, where different species of fish may be had on occasion. Accompanied by a party of friends the pride of Macon will leave tomorrow, equipped with tackle necessary to Everglades angling.

Sharkey, who has not entered his training ring officially since his arrival here a week ago, has mapped out a hard going program for the week. Both fighters believe they are in trim for the match and are going along easily for fear of over-training.

Stribling yesterday worked out briefly in his training ring at Hardie's casino for the benefit of a fair sized crowd of curious, while the Boston sailor held to the golf course.

All boxers signed for the preliminaries of the Sharkey-Stribling battle are expected here by the end of the week.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor. New York, Feb. 11.—(AP)—It will be a long time, at least a decade, before any tennis player can hope to match the Randino record of William Tatem Tilden II.

Reinstated just in time to gain number one position on the American list for the ninth consecutive year, Tilden not only established a new national mark, but a world's record as well. Tennis has produced a long list of stars from Sears and Penschaw, down through Lawford, the Dohertys, Brookes, Wilding, Larned, McLoughlin, and other forerunners of the modern generation, but none can match this mark of Big Bill's. Larned topped the United States list eight times and together, but they were not consecutive.

Tilden has watched his oft-held American singles title go to France three times in a row along with the Davis cup. He has passed from one stormy episode to another, tried to stage, the movies and the typewriter, with somewhat disastrous results, but since 1920 no one has come along to usurp his place as the number one man at home, even though some of the former lustre lacking.

Perhaps it has been because the U. S. L. T. A. desired to make Big Bill a birthday gift for his celebrated his 36th birthday yesterday.

Rene Lacoste, the solemn young Frenchman, started a winning streak when he succeeded to Tilden's American singles title in 1926, but he allowed this crown to pass to the hands of his countryman, Henri Cochet, without defense last year. These two are so well matched that neither appears able to gain and hold the top for any great length of time.

But the two young Frenchmen, combined in team play, may outdo the great record of Tilden and little Bill Johnston, who were the main factors in seven successive Davis cup victories for the United States from 1920 to 1926.

Cochet and Lacoste wrested this trophy from the United States in 1927, successfully defended it last summer in Paris and look invincible for some time to come.

Lacoste is only 24 this year and Cochet only 28, a year older than Tilden was when Big Bill first won the American championship.

To Talk To Byrd. New York—Commander Byrd, way down at the bottom of the world, will hear voices from home next Saturday. General Pershing, Dr. Cadman, Charles Evans Hughes and many others will speak cheery messages to him over the radio.

BROWN - GUARD

Billy Brown, a scrappy guard, seems to have clinched a varsity berth on the fast stepping University of North Carolina basketball team. After sticking with the scrubs all last year, Brown got his chance this season when the university lost its two star guards of 1928, Pinky Morris and Bill Dodderer. Brown was one of the big guns in winning the game against Virginia, scoring 10 points. Brown is a son of Dr. Zeno Brown of this city.

Kentucky Forges To The Front In Basketball Realm

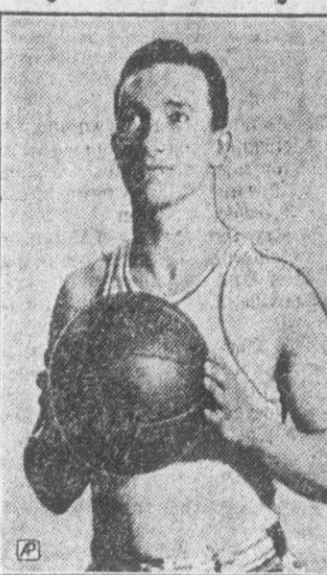

Atlanta, Feb. 9.—(AP)—The University of Kentucky today loomed as a contender for southern conference basketball honors as a result of its closely contested victory last night over Washington and Lee's fighting Generals. The 20 to 21 loss to Kentucky was the General's first defeat of the season as against five previous victories over swang outfits.

Although showing only five victories for the season against four defeats, the Kentuckians almost might show they must be reckoned with in the conference tournament at Atlanta at the season's end.

The General gave way to Tulane's Greenies who moved into second place in the conference standing; by overcoming Auburn, 43 to 35. North Carolina defeated Maryland, 23 to 22, and Clemson added another victory to its column at the expense of Sewanee, 40 to 14. It was the fifth straight conference loss for Sewanee, which has its first conference victory yet to win.

The leading Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets go into action against Alabama's Crimson in the feature game of tonight's card of five conference games. The Tech quintet is pointing for its ninth victory, while Alabama will be attempting to set back the Jackets for the other

Versatile Kentuckian

Elmer Gibb, University of Kentucky basketball player, also is a football and baseball player.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Cough from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Where Nature Precipitates Our Lime

Experience Confirms Experiment Prize Winning Tobacco Grown by Use of Falling Spring Precipitated Lime

First premiums were won at the Agricultural Fairs at Wilson, Rocky Mount and Tarboro, N. C., in Fall of 1928, with tobacco grown by use of our Precipitated Lime. The premium winners were Joe Mills, W. H. Alligood and J. Luther Brake. To grow price-getting and prize-winning tobacco, fertilize it liberally with Falling Spring Precipitated Lime, which is guaranteed 90 per cent calcium carbonate. It contains the actual lime itself, not "lime equivalents," and is readily soluble and available in the soil.

In tests made at the Tobacco Experiment Station, at Reidsville, N. C., agricultural lime of high calcium carbonate content with American murate of potash produced $42.86 more an acre than the muriate without lime, and $24.15 more an acre than muriate with dolomitic (magnesian) lime.

In the same tests, where double manure salts were used, containing a high percentage of magnesium sulphate, the high calcium lime produced $31.83 more an acre than the double manure salts produced without lime, and $25.41 more than the double manure salts with dolomitic (magnesian) lime.

These facts are shown in Table 34, page 54, Technical Bulletin No. 12 of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and in Table 7, page 16, of Bulletin of the N. C. Department of Agriculture, June, 1927, entitled "Fertilizer Experiments with Flue-cured Tobacco." On page 53 of Bulletin No. 12, appears this statement; "There is no indication in Table 34 that the use of magnesia in any form produced increased yields."

To grow Price-getting and Prize-winning Tobacco, use Falling Spring Precipitated Lime—Guaranteed 90 per cent Calcium Carbonate.

Read what two farmers say who have used both dolomitic (magnesian) lime, with guarantee of but little over 50 per cent calcium carbonate, and our high grade product:

Henderson, N. C., August 1, 1928. Littleton, N. C., August 3, 1928.

The Falling Spring Lime Co., Covington, Va. Gentlemen:

Dear Sirs:

On my farm tended by Mr. John Foster and Mr. W. G. Watkins I used your Falling Spring Precipitated Lime on all my tobacco crop, except one field I used _____ Lime, a dividing row separating these fields, with same fertilizer and quantity and same cultivation.

Results: Mr. Watkins says a blind man can tell the difference. _____ field has diseased badly with "sand down" and burning. The Falling Spring Precipitated Lime field is free from "sand down" and all diseases; holding firm and with twice the body and texture. This field was planted the same day, and I feel there will be a one-third difference when all is cured in favor of the tobacco under which your Falling Spring Precipitated Lime was used.

Yours truly,
(Signed) R. J. Gill
John Foster
W. G. Watkins.

On one field of my tobacco I used about 700 pounds of your Falling Precipitated Lime in drill. My yield on this field will be 1,200 pounds per acre or about—free from "Sand Down" and all diseases—a smooth, firm texture field of tobacco.

On an adjoining field I used about 700 pounds of _____ Lime in drill—plants from same bed same day with same cultivation. Results: diseased badly, and I will lose 25 per cent or more from this cause and diseases. "Sand Down" predominated when I used _____ Lime.

I prefer your Falling Spring Precipitated Lime to any I have used or seen used.

Yours truly,
(Signed) B. F. MORRIS.

EUROPE BURIED UNDER TONS OF SNOW AND ICE

Bleak White Blanket Stretches from Scandinavia to Balkans; Much Suffering.

London, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Ice and snow stretched today in a bleak white blanket across Europe from Scandinavia to the Balkans.

Some towns frozen in faced food and fuel shortage. Ice was piled high in rivers. In the Baltic 140 ships of various sizes were held tight in an ice crush.

In Jugo-Slavia the Moslem town of Gradsko, near Sarajevo, was dug out of the snow after being buried for nine days. Food and fuel was gone and many of the 3,000 inhabitants were delirious. Army sappers reached the marooned villagers after other had failed.

Passengers on the Simplon express, which a week ago was buried in an avalanche near Tcharaidja, arrived at Constantinople from Rodosto, little the worse for their harrowing experience. Among them was Sir Gilbert Clayton, new British high commissioner to Iraq.

Denmark had the worst ice conditions since 1893. Many islands were cut off. One of them, Pelevarum, has been isolated since January 11. Ice breakers had the greatest difficulty keeping channels open. Two skaters crossed the sound to Sweden.

An ice breaker rescued the passengers of a liner frozen in the Cattegat. The ferry Mecklenburg was stranded with a ship load of passengers from Germany.

Germany suffered severely from the ice and cold. Many rivers were frozen over. River traffic almost everywhere stopped. There were many deaths. Danzig harbor froze over. At Kiel three battleships worked to keep a channel clear.

Twelve hundred miles of the Danube River were frozen over and blocked with ice which in many places piled several feet high.

JENSEN FAILS IN ENDURANCE TRY

Martin Jensen's "hoodoo" followed him again and forced him to give up his second attempt to establish a solo endurance flight record at Mitchell field.

The 24-hour delay of the cold wave was due to the slow movement of a storm area officials said. This delay gave the elements opportunity to moderate slightly.

Louisville, Ky., with a minimum of 10 degrees, again was the coldest in the south today, while Nashville, Tenn., second with 16. Birmingham reported 18, Memphis 20, Atlanta 24 and Asheville 26.

The wintry blasts had not penetrated Florida, however, Jacksonville recording 54 and Miami 66, while over on the west coast Tampa had a reading of 62 minimum.

Although still colder weather was forecast for tonight and tomorrow, the bureau said it would be generally clear and fair.

Cold Weather Hits Southland

Atlanta, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Sharply colder weather overspread the south today but because it was somewhat late in arriving, it was not so intense as it might have been.

It was cold enough, however, to bring freezing and sub-freezing temperatures to virtually every section except Florida and weather bureau predictions promised a continuation of the frigid spell, with even lower marks, for every state save Arkansas, tonight and tomorrow.

Governor Johnston Goes On Trial

Oklahoma City, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Henry E. Johnston, Oklahoma's suspended governor, was brought to trial today before the Senate court of impeachment which will decide whether he shall be removed from office of charges of official misconduct preferred by the House of Representatives.

The House board of managers, directing the prosecution, elected to try Johnston first on a charge of general incompetency, one of the eleven impeachment articles pending.

Elder Lester Reported Dead

Wilson, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Elder P. G. Lester, editor of Zion's Landmark and considered one of the ablest ministers of the Primitive Baptist Church, died at his home in Roanoke, Va., Saturday night, it had been learned here. He will be buried Tuesday.

For fifty years or more Elder Lester had been associated with the Landmark and for two terms he represented the fifth Virginia district in Congress. At the time of his death he was pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church in Roanoke.

He is survived by his widow and three children.

College Accepts 200 Students For Term Next Fall

East Carolina Teachers' College has already accepted applications and promised accommodations to two hundred more students for the fall of 1929 than the college has capacity to accommodate.

Experience in the past has shown that about one girl out of every four will either change her mind or get married, or do both, and fail to claim her room when the time comes if the application is made this far in advance. For this reason the college does not begin to refuse application until it has accepted up to 25 per cent more than its capacity.

The college has room on the campus for 787 students. It has actually promised to accept 990 for the coming year. These figures do not take into account around a hundred who come in from home for class work.

The same reason the college has a larger proportionate number of students apply for self-help for the coming year than ever before. This may be due to the low price of farm products making those who come from the country more dependent upon their own efforts than ever before or it may be due to a constant attempt on the part of students to go to college from homes of lower and lower financial ranking.

The college already has applications from more than 150 students asking for self-help. These figures tend to refute the claim of some that young people are no longer willing to persevere and sacrifice for an education. The college has only about 50 positions that it can give to students. The others will have to resort to the loan funds or be denied help.

Rawley Is Speaker At T. P. A. Banquet

R. P. Rawley, state secretary, was the principal speaker at a banquet of the local post of Traveling Men's Protective Association at the Rotary Club building Saturday night.

He spoke of the progress of the organization in various parts of the state and the outlook for continued growth.

Other speakers of the evening were J. B. Kittrell and B. B. Sugg. They spoke of the development of the local post during the past year and predicted continued progress for the future.

The session was presided over by J. J. Summerell. The Greenville post is the baby organization of the state. It is credited with greater growth during the past two years than any other post in the state.

About one hundred members attended the banquet and numbers joined the principal speakers in expression of optimism concerning future growth.

The baby post will give another banquet during the summer months. Although plans have not yet been worked out, it was stated that numbers of interesting social features would be added to the program.

Fear Mob Action In Northcott Case

Riverside, Cal., Feb. 11.—(AP)—A cordon of deputy sheriffs stood guard at the cell of Gordon Stewart Northcott, convicted by murderer, here today to prevent possible mob action such as was threatened over the week-end.

Led by N. H. Winslow of Pomona, father of two of the boys alleged to have been killed by the young Canadian, 250 men swooped down on the county jail early yesterday morning and demanded an opportunity to see the prisoner and "get the actual truth."

Winslow walked to the jail door and rang the night bell while the mob remained in the background. Sheriff Clem Sweeters and three deputies answered. Winslow told the officers he wanted to learn from Northcott where he could find the bodies of his boys, so they could be given a Christian burial. The father offered to give quit-claim deeds to all his property as a guarantee that Northcott would not be harmed.

Five men advanced from the crowd and followed Winslow into the jail.

"I know we are outnumbered 20 to one," the sheriff told the crowd, "but you men can get Northcott only over our bodies. The law will take Northcott's life. Bloodshed now would be foolish."

Northcott awakened by the noise, was terror stricken and began to plead for protection. Winslow and the five men conferred for a moment and finally signified their intention of allowing the sheriff to have his way.

The six men left and the crowd dispersed.

There is a bill introduced in Raleigh which will relieve the farmer of some of his spare cash, that is those who have any—I refer to the change of time of listing taxes.

On the first of January a prudent farmer has corn, hogs, cattle, some money with which to buy fertilizers. On the first of June, the corn has been consumed, the hogs disposed of and the money spent. The money has gone for fertilizer and to pay the doctor, etc.

Was this bill mentioned? One by one the farmers' home are passing to other farmers—no. Is there no "Balm Gilead"? It may be all for the best, but my, how I hate it.

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Feb. 11.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at 4 to 12 points advance, with active months soon showing net gains of 2 to 15 points on covering together with trade and commission house buying which was accompanied by talk of bullish private figures on domestic consumption for January and promoted by higher Liverpool cables. The advance met a good deal of realizing and some southern selling around 10.10 for May and 19.97 for the new October contracts. Selling, however, was absorbed on reactions of 4 or 5 points, with the market fairly active and steady at the end of the first half hour.

GRAIN MARKET

By JOHN F. BOUGHAN, Associated Press Market Editor
 Chicago, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Exceptionally cold weather in Europe with indications of crop damage did much today to lift wheat values. Besides, a decrease of 2,301,000 bushels in the United States wheat visible supply total was a bullish factor, and there was considerable buying of wheat against sales of corn. In the other hand, houses with connections northwest and southwest were sellers of wheat on the price bulges.

Wheat closed firm, 5-8 to 1; net higher; corn varying from 1-4c decline to 3-8c advance; oats 1-4c down to a shade up, and provisions, unchanged to a setback of 5-7c.

STOCK MARKET

By STANLEY W. FRENDEL, Associated Press Financial Editor
 New York, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Disregarding an 8 per cent renewal rate for call money and the mysterious meeting of the directors of the New York Federal Reserve Bank after the close, the stock market rallied briskly today under the leadership of the Copper and Public Utilities shares. Some irregularity developed at the opening but the losses were quickly cut down or wiped out, and scores of issues were marked up 2 to 11 points.

The renewal rate for call money was the highest since January 4, when the market was still in the throes of year-end readjustments, but a flood of new funds was attracted by the high charge with the result that loans in the "outside market" were available at 7 1/2 in the early afternoon.

Wall Street apparently recovered from the fears that the New York Federal Reserve rediscount rate would be increased this afternoon, although some of the more conservative commission houses continued to urge caution in the making of new commitments. Except for the announcement that the Studebaker Corporation had entered the Radio business and a series of favorable week-end news reports, there was little in the day's news to influence the price movement.

Suggestions have been made in some quarters that leading bankers looked with favor on a check to stock speculation and lower interest rates in the hope that such action would facilitate the distribution of the German bond issue expected to result from the meeting of reparations experts. It is considered unlikely, however, that such an issue could be floated before late spring or early summer.

Heavy buying of the coppers was stimulated by talk of still higher prices for the red metal. Oreida Cananea ran up 7 points, Anaconda 5 and St. Joseph Lead, Calumet & Arizona, and Kennecott sold 3 to 5 points higher.

Radio (old stock) soared 11 points and American & Foreign Power, Pere Marquette, U. S. Realty, Real Silk Hosiery, Commonwealth Power, Goodyear Rubber, General Electric, Bethlehem Steel, A. M. Byers, International Business Machine, Westinghouse Electric, Simmons Co. and Victor Talking Machine all sold 4 to 7 points higher.
