

THE WEATHER

Fair, continued cold tonight; Friday increasing cloudiness; slowly rising temperature; moderate north winds.

VOL. 95. NO. 56

Full Leased Wire

GREENVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 14, 1929

Associated Press

Price: Five Cents

COLD CLAIMS MANY VICTIMS OVER EUROPE

Thousands Reported Suffering From Hardships Of Frigid Weather Conditions.

London, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Estimates of deaths from abnormally cold weather in central Europe along today ran as high as 300, with other thousands suffering from frost-bite and kindred injuries.

Apparently worse was in prospect, with suffering acute, particularly in southeastern Europe, from fuel shortage. Mines of Poland and Czechoslovakia were looked to relieve the situation, but disruption of railway traffic added even those countries to those hardest hit.

Rivers and sea channels over most of Europe, save in Spain, were frozen over and choked with ice. Rome, celebrating Ash Wednesday, had a heavy snowfall. The Riviera was covered with snow. In Berlin the schools were closed for a week to meet the icy conditions.

Temperatures in many cases within precedent and lower than for 200 years were reported over Europe. Meanwhile northern Scandinavia was normal and Iceland and Spitzbergen reported temperatures as high as 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

In Budapest shivering men and women stormed a coal depot during the night after the government had announced distribution of free coal at 8 a. m. because of the intense cold they were unable to wait and they smashed doors, looting bags, boxes, even packets with the precious fuel. Fifty persons were sent to hospitals with sprains, lacerations, and frozen hands as a result of the ensuing riot and conflict with police.

In Vienna Chancellor Seipel ordered Parliament suspended for two weeks because of the weather, explaining that this would save five tons of coal daily. The Austrian ministers at Prague and Warsaw made personal appeals to the rulers of Czechoslovakia and Poland for additional fuel, pointing out that Austria's coal supply had shrunk from 125,000 tons to 20,000 tons.

But in Czechoslovakia miles of coal laden freight cars were frozen fast to tracks and could not be moved while in Poland rationing of coal supplies had been resorted to to avert a shortage there. At Lwow, Poland, not a single train had arrived or left for the last three days and a food shortage as well as fuel shortage faced the city. Forty per cent of the railroad staff in Poland were incapacitated for work either by frost or influenza.

In the catagat and the sound between Denmark and Sweden 130 steamers were frozen fast, awaiting attempts of ice breakers to release them. Baltic Sea traffic was subject to the greatest hazards. Bitter cold prevailed in England, and many rivers were beginning to solidify. While London was free of snow there were heavy drifts elsewhere, and roads were impassable. The Isis and Cam were frozen over, with the effect of stopping practice of the crews of Cambridge and Oxford, as fair for one, however, as for the other.

Pension Slayer

Mrs. Minnie J. Stahl, St. Louis, widow of Spanish-American war veteran she killed in self defense, awarded pension by congress.

REScue CREW OF FREIGHTER

Twenty-five Members Of Disabled Vessel Taken Aboard Steamer Illinois.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 11.—(AP)—Twenty-five Japanese, who were snatched from the freighter Meiyu Maru while it was being ground to pieces on the Alaskan Islands, were safe aboard the steamer Illinois and the Japanese ship Nankoh Maru today.

Statements of messages reaching here last night, told of the exciting rescue but many details were lacking. It was presumed that the rescue crew had been taken to Dutch Harbor, Alaska.

The rescue was effected by shooting breeches buoys from the Illinois and the Nankoh Maru to the doomed ship and pulling the crew of the Meiyu Maru to safety one by one.

In a pounding sea and with the rescue ships working dangerously near the rocks, the buoy lines often sagged until their human cargoes were dipped into the roaring surf before being hauled to safety.

The Meiyu Maru, a freighter of 5,400 tons ran aground early Tuesday morning during a storm. Several hours later the Nankoh Maru reached the scene but was unable to effect a rescue because of the ferocity of the sea. All day yesterday she stood by until the Illinois arrived. The latter encountered great difficulty in reaching the scene.

At Dutch Harbor the crew of the freighter Alloway was recuperating after having been picked up by the steamer Montauk about 100 miles from the wreck of the Meiyu Maru. Thirty-three men, all but one of the crew, abandoned the Alloway as it seemed about to crash into the rocks of Unimak Pass. Latest reports were the anchor was holding the vessel a few yards of the rocks with the lone man still aboard.

Not Enough Good University Heads

Madison, Wis., Feb. 14.—(AP)—The trouble with university professors, as President Glenn Frank of the University of Wisconsin finds it, is that there aren't enough good ones.

"The brutal truth" he told a joint committee of the State Legislature yesterday, "is that there are not enough able and inspiring men in the teaching profession adequately to man all the universities of the United States."

President Frank was urging legislative action to keep professional salaries high. He told the committee that the average annual salary of a professor in Minnesota is $5,037; in Illinois, $5,062; in Michigan, $5,980.93, and in Wisconsin, $5,306.76.

Consumption Of Cotton Increases

Washington, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Census Bureau announced today that cotton consumed during January totaled 668,389 bales of lint and 68,552 bales of linters compared with 534,352 bales of lint and 59,555 bales of linters in December and 587,142 bales of lint and 56,138 bales of linters in January last year.

On January 31 was held as follows:

In consuming establishments 1,767,742 bales of lint and 202,736 bales of linters compared with 1,470,892 bales of lint and 176,567 bales of linters on last December 31 and 1,708,646 bales of lint and 226,576 bales of linters on January 31, 1928.

In public stores and at retail compresses 4,615,337 bales of lint and 82,516 bales of linters compared with 5,715,211 bales of lint and 65,962 bales of linters on December 31, 1928, and 5,013,611 of lint and 58,990 on January 31, 1928.

Cotton imported during January totaled 54,939 compared with 39,670 bales in December last and 41,445 in January, 1928.

Exports totaled 788,645 bales not including linters which numbered 27,226 bales compared with 1,958,017 bales and 30,240 linters in December last and 712,128 bales and 16,803 linters in January, 1928.

Cotton gins active during January totaled 30,757,552 compared with 30,622,172 for December last and 31,716,746 for January, 1928.

Higgins Heads Salvation Army

London, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Salvation Army had a new commander-in-chief today—its former commissioner, Edward J. Higgins, of England. The immediate future of the Army, however, seemed to depend upon the actions of its deposed head, General Bramwell Booth.

Higgins was chosen at a secret session of its high council last night, receiving 42 votes against 17 for Commissioner Evangeline Booth, sister of General Booth. The action followed adjournment earlier in the day of General Booth as unfit, because of his health, to continue at his post.

Several developments appeared possible today, any one of which would disturb peaceful assumption of office by General Higgins and would prevent the Army's entering quietly into life under the new regime.

General Booth has already taken his adjudication as unfit once to the courts of England and there is nothing to indicate he will not do so again. Some London newspapers this morning state positively he will continue his chancery court action challenging the validity of the deed poll of 1904, under which the high council functioned.

Elsewhere it was unofficially stated that he would refuse the new Army head custody of Army property and

NO SPECIAL COURT HERE FOR MARCH

Governor Declines To Call Special Term In Face Of Commissioners' Protest

There will be no special term of Superior court in Pitt county during the month of March, as recently stated, according to announcement made today.

This information was contained in a letter received today by Judge Albion Dunn from the private secretary of Governor Gardner. It was stated that Pitt county commissioners had advised the governor that funds were not available to defray expenses of any special session of court, and for that reason it was deemed advisable not to call an extra term.

Judge Dunn went to Raleigh several days ago and conferred with the governor regarding the need of a special term of court to relieve the congestion in this county. It was indicated at the time that such a term would be ordered, but since that time action of the commissioners apparently has caused the governor to reconsider the matter.

Members of the bar stated a few days ago that over seven hundred cases were hanging fire in Pitt county at this time, and that the docket would be hopelessly congested for months without a special session of court. It was believed that two weeks of extra court combined with the regular two weeks' term in March would have done much toward relieving the situation.

The letter received from the office of the governor follows:

"Replying to your letter of the 7th, relative the special term of civil court for Pitt county, I beg to advise that Governor Gardner could not, under section 1450 C. S., Vol. 1, call the term requested in the face of existing protests."

"The County Commissioners of Pitt County have advised the Governor that the funds are not available with which to meet the expense of this term, and have entered formal protest against his calling it. In view of this situation the Attorney General advises, that while the Governor could override the protest of the County Commissioners, he does not think it best to comply with Pitt County Bar's request."

Six Men Shot To Death By Chicago Gangsters

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Six members of the North Side gang of George "Bugs" Moran, were lined up against a wall and summarily executed and two others were probably fatally wounded today by a band of men who invaded the North Side headquarters of the gang posing as police officers. After robbing the men to raise their hands, the gangsters shot them down in cold blood.

The assassins pulled up before the Moran gang headquarters in two large automobiles. They rushed into the Cartage Com-

Lindbergh Plans Rest In Florida

Miami, Fla., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Location of Harry Rogers and his three companions at Pine Key made it unnecessary for Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh to carry out his plans to lead the search for the fliers again today.

Rogers, veteran pilot, failed to return last night after helping in the earlier rescue of two persons whose plane had been forced down near the Florida Keys. These two were picked up by a ferry boat.

Lindbergh spent several hours over the Florida Keys aiding in the search and had made known his intention of joining the rescuers early today. Before he took off, however, word was received that Rogers and his companions were on Pine Key, at the north end of Andrews Island. His amphibian plane had been forced down late yesterday by lack of fuel.

The flying colonel expressed relief when he was informed that the fliers were safe and made plans to take his first rest from flying in four days. A conference with Pan-American Airways officials was the only definite thing known about his program today.

A survey flight from New York to San Francisco and Los Angeles for the Transcontinental Company is to be one of Lindbergh's next duties, but he plans to spend several days in Washington before starting the coast-to-coast trip by plane.

Wife Of Slain Man Suicides

Willimantic, Conn., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Further interest in the slaying of County Detective William E. Jackson was aroused today by the suicide of Mrs. Gertrude Jackson, his widow.

Before she shot herself she wrote a note. It was turned over to the medical examiner. Police hoped it would aid in solution of the mystery of her husband's death.

Trenor A. Rice, special deputy sheriff and former boarder at the Jackson home, was indicted last week for killing Jackson.

Jackson was shot two weeks ago when seated in the kitchen of his home. Mrs. Jackson took a rifle from the kitchen and used it in an upstairs room yesterday. The note, unsigned and sealed, was discovered after Mrs. Jackson's daughter, Juanita, and others found her body.

Investigating authorities have worked on the assumption that Jackson's killing was inside job. Rice, a friend of the family, was arrested after he had acted as a pallbearer at Jackson's funeral.

Some of Rice's relatives freely advised that he was shielding a woman.

They Are All Wild Over Lindy

Milton, Mass., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's future sister-in-law, Miss Constance C. Morrow, member of the class of 1931 at Milton Academy, says he is "wonderful."

Envious school mates wanted to learn all about the romance of the airman and her sister, but Constance was unable to gratify their curiosity.

The first of the three Morrow girls to meet Lindbergh, she recalled the details of his reception in Mexico City, while on his good-will flight to Latin-America and his visit to the Morrow home there.

Schoolmates said she was simply wild to get home to learn all about it.

"She was as surprised by the engagement announcement as we were," one of them remarked.

HEAR GERMAN DELEGATE ON REPARATIONS

Dr. Schacht Tells Of Economic Conditions Of Germany At Paris Conference.

Paris, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank, still had the floor today at the meeting of the experts committee on reparations.

For two days the members of the "young committee" have listened attentively to the first German delegate's exposition of economic conditions in Germany.

When he finishes the committee will have before it the basis for its work, that is, what Germany hopes for in the way of reduction of payments prescribed in the Dawes plan and why she thinks the reduction should be granted.

Definitely posed against Dr. Schacht's contentions as to Germany's capability to pay according to the report of S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations. On this report those differing most from the German position are seeking their claims for continuation of the payment schedule or something approximating it.

The controversial stage of the committee sessions is still ahead. While listening to the German, there has been more or less complacency, with some questioning statement of the French viewpoint is certain to precipitate discussion of a more argumentative nature.

Dr. Goddard To Speak Here Friday Night

Dr. O. E. Goddard, D. D., will speak at Jarvis Memorial church next Friday evening at 7:30. Dr. Goddard is foreign secretary of the Board of Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He is the author of "The Methodist Evangel," a textbook now being used during the Missionary Cultivation Period of the entire church; it will be used in the School of Missions at the church here Friday evening.

He has recently visited the foreign areas of the church and has great message about the future outlook of the Master's Kingdom in those parts. His coming to Greenville is a distinct opportunity for both the church and community. The pastor not only extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend this meeting but would urge that a large congregation be there to hear Dr. Goddard's message.

EDISON ON HIS 82ND BIRTHDAY

Thomas A. Edison posed for photographers at Fort Myers, Fla. on his eighty-second birthday.

BAD WEATHER GIVES AWAY TO SUNSHINE

Charlotte, Feb. 14.—(AP)—King Sol broke through leaden skies in eastern North Carolina today to melt snow and sleet which fell in many sections yesterday while other parts of the state escaped with only cold weather.

Elizabeth City, Fayetteville, Wilmington, Raleigh, Goldsboro, and Rocky Mount all had snow flurry with the white covering "stealing" on the ground at several places.

Greensboro did not have snow but the low temperature of the night aused trees to be coated with ice this morning following a damp heavy fog. Charlotte had a partly cloudy day yesterday with a low temperature last night of 25. The sun was shining brightly today.

All places which suffered from the snow or sleet yesterday reported clearing skies and rising temperatures today.

FOUR FLIERS ARE LOCATED AT PINE KEY

Miami, Fla., Feb. 14.—(AP)—A radio message received here early today from Nassau, New Providence Island, said Harry Rogers and his three companions were safe at Pine Cay, where their Sikorsky amphibian plane was forced down late yesterday by lack of fuel. Pine Cay is on Red Bay at the north end of Andros Island.

Rogers, with Ralph Dalstrom, assistant pilot, and Floyd S. Whalton and J. Angus, mechanics, took off yesterday in search of another plane piloted by Stephen Callaway, which later was found by a ferry. Rogers and his men asked that 70 gallons of fuel be dispatched to them immediately to enable them to return to Miami.

One Pan-American Airways plane set out this morning to continue the search for Rogers, begun last night by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, before word of the men's safety was received here.

Lindbergh, who returned late yesterday from Panama, where he took the first airmail from the United States, took up the hunt for Callaway as soon as the flyer was reported lost. On his return to the airport here, he learned that Rogers also had been lost and again left in his plane for an early night search along the Keys off the lower East Coast. He returned at 9:30 p. m. with the announced intention of resuming the search this morning.

Steamer Aground On Turner's Lump

Lewis, Del., Feb. 14.—(AP)—The Norwegian steamer Hertha, from Cuba for Philadelphia, went aground on Turner's Lump, off Assateague, Va., during a snowstorm yesterday and was floated ashore. The coast guard crew from Assateague went to the steamer's assistance. The Hertha, which has a cargo of sugar, apparently was undamaged.

Australian Ballot Passes In Senate

Raleigh, Feb. 14.—(AP)—While the Senate continued its wrangle before passing the Australian ballot bill on third reading today, the House was busy with the consideration of local and minor public bills, passing more than a score of the former and a dozen or more of the latter.

Several amendments were proposed to the Australian ballot bill which came up for its third reading after being approved yesterday 40 to 9 on second reading. Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Pennsylvania, obtained favorable action on a proposal to separate Senate Constitutional and State tickets instead of having a combined ticket for the three classes of offices. Amendment received included a proposal by Senator Bacon to mark the ballots with distinctive party emblems, and by Senator Canada to give the State the right to determine the method of printing under jurisdiction of the Supreme Court rather than Secretary of State.

Senate bill: To furnish Senate Court justices copies of reports received to their homes.

Senate bill: To provide that when a candidate in the primary under the commission form of government receives a majority, he alone can run in the general election.

Brooks: To permit suit for contribution from a joint tax levied.

Williams of Warren: To amend statutes relating to form of bond to be given by banks, when they stand on parity with national banks.

Williams of Warren: To amend geographical error in 1927 banking laws.

Hovatt: To extend laborer's lien on timber for wages to cover cut logs.

Young of Durham: To require clerks of court to give notice of filing of caveats.

HOOVER PLANS TO LOOK OVER FLOOD AREAS

President-Elect To Spend Friday And Saturday Inspecting Everglades.

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 14.—(AP)—After President-elect Herbert Hoover has completed his tour of the Everglades flood district, which will occupy Friday and Saturday of this week, he will prepare to leave his pre-nuptial headquarters here for Washington some time Monday. The president-elect will return to Washington physically rested for the first time since he opened his candidacy for the presidency, his ten days of fishing having gone far through their recreational features to give him the rest that he needed.

The trip into the Everglades is for the purpose of surveying the need for federal aid in flood control in the sector where more than two thousand persons were drowned in 1926 and 1928.

Mr. Hoover will leave here Friday in the company of Governor Doyle E. Carlton of Florida, Representative Reid of Illinois, chairman of the House flood control committee; Major General Edgar Jaquin, chief of army engineers, and other state and federal officials.

"Chinese Lindbergh" for his activities along the lines of aviation, and C. S. Fox of the Miami Chinese chamber of commerce, were on the list of callers to be received by Mr. Hoover today. They were to pay their respects.

He also was to see Will Muse, editor of the Mason City, Iowa, Globe-Gazette, and Leo M. Chantrelain, publisher of the Minneapolis Journal.

Mrs. Hoover, who arrived last night with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Richard of New York, after their trip aboard the "Saunterer" from Fort Myers, will not accompany her husband on the Oklawaha trip but will meet him at Palm Beach at the conclusion of the trip.

On the schedule of the president-elect, after his return to Washington, will be a number of duties which must receive attention before March 4. Included in these are the completion of his inaugural address, final plans for the extra session of the 71st Congress in April, which will consider enactment of farm relief and tariff revision, and conferences at his Sireet home with a number of party leaders.

Draw Jurors For Civil Court Here

The following jurors have been notified to appear for service at the February term of Pitt County Superior court, which convenes in this city next Monday morning with Judge F. A. Daniels of Goldsboro, presiding:

W. B. Tyson, J. W. McLawhorn, S. K. Jackson, Ayden township; B. M. Whitehurst, Jr., J. W. Martin, Bechtel township; R. E. Wolloughby, J. W. Crawford, Beaver Dam township; J. W. Faucett, L. C. Yenters, Ivey Cannon, W. Harvey Elks, J. R. Tucker, L. F. Williams, Calvin Evans, Chocod township; J. S. Fleming, Carolina township; L. E. Turnage, W. Leslie Smith, Farmville township; T. W. Moore, W. H. Pedder, A. S. Pierce, Falkland township; F. H. L. Phillips, Fountain township; W. E. Clark, Jack Moyer, W. A. Cherry, D. C. Moore, Jr., E. R. Dudley, C. F. Hirdce, Preston Hampton, J. R. Overton, St. Orrenville township; W. D. Chapman, P. C. Moore, R. A. Wall, E. A. Edwards, Swift Creek township; P. F. Cox, Winterville township.

Trotzky Held By Soldiers At Constantinople

Constantinople, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Heavy guards of soldiers held Leon Trotsky, deposed Soviet war chief, prisoner at the Russian consulate today while the city wondered at what spot he would write the next chapter of his tempestuous life history.

Anzora, Constantinople, Broussa, Berlin are a few of the places which have been suggested but there has been almost nothing which might indicate where he really will be sent. The train to Anzora last night left without his being aboard.

Among various conflicting rumors is one that he will be kept in the consulate here pending a decision to send him either to Anzora or Broussa. Prevalence of malaria and the hot summers at the former place probably would be detrimental to Trotsky's health.

Meanwhile existence of 200 "white" Russians in Constantinople, exiles from the Soviet republic, is causing Turkish officials some worry lest an assassination attempt be made against the Communists while he is here.

CIVIL COURT TO OPEN HERE NEXT WEEK

One-Week Term To Be Presided Over by Judge Frank Daniels Of Goldsboro.

The regular February term of Pitt County Superior Court for the trial of civil cases will convene in this city next Monday morning with Judge Frank A. Daniels, of Goldsboro, presiding.

The calendar arranged for the January term, which was abandoned on account of the illness of Judge Daniels, has been adopted for this term. It consists of a number of cases of more or less interest to litigants in this section.

The calendar follows:

Monday, February 18, 1929.
Gray Corey vs. Walter Briley et al.; G. W. B. Garris vs. L. P. Ellis; O. H. Roebuck vs. J. M. Short et al.; P. A. Wayne vs. G. T. Stokes; Commercial Investment Co. vs. V. A. Jackson; Commercial Investment Co. vs. Carter Cobb Motor Co.; J. E. Davenport vs. A. J. Cox; T. M. Moore vs. A. H. Bailey; R. F. Butt vs. Ben Carr.

Tuesday, February 19, 1929.
C. M. Krouse vs. Norfolk Southern R. R. Co.; Mrs. S. W. Scott vs. D. C. Ross; J. B. Williams vs. Mrs. Julia Blanchard; S. E. Pollard vs. J. L. Brown; R. G. Jackson vs. J. C. Resbury; Pagan Grimes vs. Thomas Ann Grimes; W. E. Sawyer vs. Westbrook Motor Co.; Pitt County vs. Edwin Tripp and Annie Tripp; Virginia Land Corporation vs. J. L. Simons, trustee; Edward Adams and wife vs. W. J. McLawhorn; Joe Sutton vs. Mrs. Bettie Nichols; Brunson vs. Mrs. J. L. Westbrook.

Wednesday, February 20, 1929.
Annie Foscoe vs. Greensboro Mutual Life Ins. Co.; Daniels McVickers vs. R. D. Harrington; Sumner Motor Car Co. vs. J. J. Stroud; Edward B. Ferguson vs. The First National Bank of Tarboro et al.; Hamilton Brown Shoe Co. vs. B. G. Abeyonnis; Detroit Harvester Co. vs. George E. Cherry.

Jr., N. R. Skinner vs. Claude Coward.
Thursday, February 21, 1929.
H. K. Mulford vs. E. G. Harrett; Drs. W. H. and G. G. Dixon vs. A. D. Bowen; Drs. W. H. and G. G. Dixon vs. L. B. Evans and wife; Cyclone Fence Co. vs. Mrs. Jack L. Westbrook; V. A. Jackson et al. vs. Sinclair Renting Co.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams vs. Joseph Tyson; Central Shoe Co. vs. John Sateed.
Friday, February 22, 1929.
The Bank of Grimesland vs. Heber and Katie Harder; J. T. Nelson vs. Florence Nelson; J. I. Smith vs. R. G. Jackson et al.; Fleishman Morris & Co. vs. G. A. Clark & Brothers; J. J. Perkins vs. J. L. & J. B. Williams; J. L. Gardner vs. W. E. Gardner; J. L. Gardner vs. W. E. Gardner; Henrietta Cox vs. Webb Weaver.

Miss Ann Morrow Becomes Famous

Mexico City, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Miss Anne Morrow is learning rapidly what being a celebrity is like. In the light of no more than the reflected glory of her engagement to Col. Lindbergh she has received a flood of telegrams and cablegrams of congratulations and felicitations which have nearly overwhelmed her.

As plain Anne Morrow, former Smith College student, and daughter of Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, she might attract little more attention on a walk down the street than many another pretty demure girl.

But as fiancée to Colonel Lindbergh she is very much in the public eye and seems due to remain there for some time to come. Messages received thus far are from friends, former classmates at Smith College, friends of the family, and many from people whose names she has never even heard—friends and well-wishers of Colonel Lindbergh. The messages are from all parts of the world.

Ambassador Morrow himself was not spared. Mexican and American friends alike told him how much to be congratulated he was at the prospect of the trans-Atlantic aviator for a son-in-law.

In Mexico the announcement has matched the turbulent political situation in interest. Everywhere there is the presumption that the wedding will take place in this city. Such is the feeling that if it is held here it undoubtedly would be a gala ceremony at which every citizen of this capital, from lowest to highest, would feel compelled by friendly interest and enthusiasm to take a part if no more than that of on-looker. No announcement has been made as to where the ceremony will be held.

New store to be opened Friday, February 15th, at 10 o'clock. Featuring a complete line of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear of the latest style. All moderately priced. Ladies' shoes and millinery. The only store in Greenville carrying ready-to-wear from head to foot, for ladies only. Watch tomorrow's paper for name. Store located between Moseley Bros. and Lautares Candy Palace.

BASKETBALL EXPLODES DURING HIGH GAME

Coshkosh, Wis., Feb. 14.—(AP)—If it had happened in Chicago they would have blamed the gangster; but when the basketball blew up during a game here the crowd, after the first shock, realized it was for natural causes.

Frank Androsko was poised in approved court fashion under the basket, prepared to receive the ball from a teammate. It came toward him with great speed and exploded just when he was about to make the catch. Androsko was thrown against the wall several feet away and his jersey was torn.

The referee is still wondering what he would have done if the ball had exploded a second or two later during a toss for basket by Androsko.

THREE ALABAMA COACHES RESIGN

Auburn, Ala., Feb. 14.—(AP)—In an official statement issued today, Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Alabama Polytechnic Institute here, announced the resignations of three members of the school's coaching staff, all graduates of the institution.

Simultaneously with the announcement of the resignations of coaches J. E. Pitts, R. E. Brown and E. R. Moulton, the president of the school stated that Head Coach George Bohler would be retained and that Earl McFadden, present coach of Cloverdale high school at Montgomery, and a former Auburn gridiron luminary, had been signed as assistant football coach.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE
Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed in trust executed and delivered by E. A. Ballance and wife, Penina Ballance, to J. B. James, Trustee, February 6th, 1922, and recorded in Book H-14, page 569, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, the undersigned will offer for sale for cash before the court house door in Greenville, at 12:00 o'clock, Noon, on Friday, March 15th, 1929, the following described real estate: Being lots or tracts Nos. One (1), two (2), five (5), six (6), of the P. A. Ballance farm as will appear by reference to map made by J. E. Croak, which is duly of record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County in Map Book

2, at page 91; Tract No. 1 containing 52 acres; tract No. 2 containing 44.7 acres; tract No. 5 containing 44.8 acres and tract No. 6 containing 43.2 acres.
This February 12th, 1929.
J. B. James, Trustee.
Feb. 14-11w-4w.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE
Under and by virtue of that certain decree entered by J. F. Harrington, Clerk of the Superior Court on February 11th, 1929, in the case of Pitt County against Richard Knight, the undersigned Commissioner will offer for sale for cash, before the court house door in Greenville at 12 o'clock, Noon, on Friday, March 15th, 1929, the following described real estate:

DR. PAUL FITZGERALD
Dentist
Office
Rooms 300-302
NATIONAL BANK BUILDING

J. D. AMAN
CONTRACTOR
Sanitary Plumbing and Heating
The very best of work at reasonable prices
Phones:
Office 734—Residence 380-J
417 Cotanch Street

For High-Class WALL PAPERING AND PAINTING CALL Southern Decorating Co. 205 Evans Street L. E. ALLEN, Manager

Special prices on tailored-made clothes for men and women. We will remodel your old clothes and make them look new, at a reasonable price.
Extra Special Prices on Remodeling Furs.
GOLDSTEIN'S
Fifth St., Next to White's Theatre.

ANNOUNCEMENT LITCHFIELD MOTOR CO. has been appointed Frigidaire dealer in Greenville

Visit Our Show Room Now—Special Exhibit

We are happy to announce our appointment as Frigidaire representatives in Greenville and vicinity. And we cordially invite you to visit their show room. Bring your family and friends. A special exhibit of the latest Frigidaires will be arranged for your inspection.

See these beautiful new models. The cabinets are finished in white Duco or Tu-Tone porcelain enamel. The porcelain-enamelled linings are seamless and have rounded corners. Inside and out, Frigidaire is clean . . . and easy to KEEP clean.

Open the cabinet base and examine the sturdy Frigidaire mechanism. You'll be amazed at its quietness . . . You don't hear it start, stop, or run. You'll be impressed by the self-evident power . . . Power that freezes ice cubes and deserts easily and quickly . . . Power that provides correct food-preserving temperatures automatically and constantly. You'll be pleased to learn what users say about the cost of operation being less than the cost of ice.

Besides the household Frigidaires, you'll see equipment adaptable to more than a hundred types of commercial establishments. In fact, here are models for every purpose . . . Sizes for every requirement . . . Prices for every purse. And new low prices on all household Frigidaires. Let us explain how easily you can buy Frigidaire on G. M. A. C. liberal terms.

FRIGIDAIRE

The QUIET Automatic Refrigerator

Litchfield Motor Co.

East Fifth Street PHONE 165

Great Values!
Reductions So Unusual That Remarkable Savings May Be Effectuated.
Quality—Service—Price

RICE Fancy Blue Rose 6 lbs. 29c

LOOSE MEAL OR GRITS, 3 POUNDS . . . . . 10c

Fig Bars CRISPO 2 lbs. 19c

IONA CRUSHED CORN, NO. 2 CAN . . . . . 10c

Grits QUAKER 3 pkgs. 25c

SYRUP Table Size 27c Can	N. B. C. Crackers FANCIES 3 PKGS 25c ROBENAS 25c 6 5c Pkgs. Crackers 25c	OATS 3 pkgs. 25c ASTOR RICE 3 pkgs. 25c
---------------------------------------	--	---

Scot Tissue Waldorf
3 ROLLS 25c 2 ROLLS 11c

2 IN 1 POLISH, CAN . . . . . 10c

Old Dutch Cleanser 3 Cans 19c

CLEAN SWEEP BROOMS . . . . . 35c

THE SEASON'S BEST IN
Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

Social & Personal

Mrs. Leslie H. Bowling of High Point, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. L. Carper.

Mrs. Swanson Graves and sons, Swanson, Jr., and James, of Washington, spent yesterday and today with her mother, Mrs. Pattie Forbes.

Mrs. Hunter Fleming of Kinston, spent yesterday with her mother, Mrs. H. L. Carr.

W. S. Tyson, Charles Heber Forbes, Jr., Joe Moye and Davis McWhorter left yesterday for Florida and Cuba.

Mrs. L. A. Neill of Coleraine and Mrs. J. P. Neill of Ahoskie, who have been the guests of Mrs. S. M. Crisp, left yesterday.

MRS. HEARNE ENTERTAINS
END OF CENTURY CLUB

The End of the Century club held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Hearne on Third street.

Mrs. S. E. Gates, Mrs. Hill Horne and Mrs. J. H. Rose were guests for the afternoon.

After the business hour the meeting was turned over to the hostess who also had charge of the program.

Mrs. Hearne and Mrs. J. H. Rose gave a melodrama, "Enoch Arden." This is a reading of Tompkinson's Enoch Arden with piano accompaniment by Richard Strauss. This poem is a wonderfully interpreted by Strauss and the lives of the characters are beautifully portrayed in the accompanying music.

The haunting beauty of the words is reflected in a beauty of melody and harmony appealing in sadnes yet uplifting withal. This is a lovely composition, always an old time favorite with many, but as Mrs. Rose read it on Tuesday it was something never to be forgotten. This soulful reading with the exquisite melody accompanying it made a deep and lasting impression on all who heard it.

At the conclusion of the program a tempting salad course was served.

Reported.

Meeting of Round Table Club.

A most enjoyable meeting of the Round Table was held at the residence of Mrs. L. R. Meadows on Tuesday afternoon.

From the moment of entering the house, it was evident that the season was that of St. Valentine, and very appropriately, the subject of the afternoon's study was "Poetry—a division of the subject, 'Woman in Literature.'"

Mrs. Herring, who had charge of the program, introduced as guest speaker, Miss Ella Wilkes of East Carolina Teachers' College. Miss Wilkes said that poetry was not "her line," but that she indulged in it because she loved it. She introduced us to some of the modern women writers of poetry, reading several selections from each, love-poems of childhood predominating. The club was especially interested in the beautiful and touching poems of Aline Kilmer, widow of Joyce Kilmer, whose poem, "Trees," is so well known.

Joyce Kilmer left his wife and two babies to go to war, and was

Mrs. Leslie H. Bowling of High Point, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. L. Carper.

Mrs. Swanson Graves and sons, Swanson, Jr., and James, of Washington, spent yesterday and today with her mother, Mrs. Pattie Forbes.

Mrs. Hunter Fleming of Kinston, spent yesterday with her mother, Mrs. H. L. Carr.

W. S. Tyson, Charles Heber Forbes, Jr., Joe Moye and Davis McWhorter left yesterday for Florida and Cuba.

Mrs. L. A. Neill of Coleraine and Mrs. J. P. Neill of Ahoskie, who have been the guests of Mrs. S. M. Crisp, left yesterday.

Mrs. Hearne Entertains
End of Century Club

The End of the Century club held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Hearne on Third street.

Mrs. S. E. Gates, Mrs. Hill Horne and Mrs. J. H. Rose were guests for the afternoon.

After the business hour the meeting was turned over to the hostess who also had charge of the program.

Mrs. Hearne and Mrs. J. H. Rose gave a melodrama, "Enoch Arden." This is a reading of Tompkinson's Enoch Arden with piano accompaniment by Richard Strauss. This poem is a wonderfully interpreted by Strauss and the lives of the characters are beautifully portrayed in the accompanying music.

The haunting beauty of the words is reflected in a beauty of melody and harmony appealing in sadnes yet uplifting withal. This is a lovely composition, always an old time favorite with many, but as Mrs. Rose read it on Tuesday it was something never to be forgotten. This soulful reading with the exquisite melody accompanying it made a deep and lasting impression on all who heard it.

At the conclusion of the program a tempting salad course was served.

Reported.

Meeting of Round Table Club.

A most enjoyable meeting of the Round Table was held at the residence of Mrs. L. R. Meadows on Tuesday afternoon.

From the moment of entering the house, it was evident that the season was that of St. Valentine, and very appropriately, the subject of the afternoon's study was "Poetry—a division of the subject, 'Woman in Literature.'"

Mrs. Herring, who had charge of the program, introduced as guest speaker, Miss Ella Wilkes of East Carolina Teachers' College. Miss Wilkes said that poetry was not "her line," but that she indulged in it because she loved it. She introduced us to some of the modern women writers of poetry, reading several selections from each, love-poems of childhood predominating. The club was especially interested in the beautiful and touching poems of Aline Kilmer, widow of Joyce Kilmer, whose poem, "Trees," is so well known.

Joyce Kilmer left his wife and two babies to go to war, and was

Have you tried the new Stimulator at our Shoppe. Come in for a demonstration. You'll like it!

THE VANITIE BOXE.

Bring out your Hidden Loveliness

There's hidden beauty in every woman's face... beauty that becomes visible under the subtle accent of modern make-up. Dorothy Gray helps you find this new loveliness with her exquisitely pure and skillfully blended cosmetics.

Dorothy Gray's Compact Rouge, in four becoming shades, emphasizes the beauty of your skin tone and the contour of your cheek. Her creamy-smooth lipsticks make your mouth softer, your teeth whiter. A discreet use of Eye Shadow emphasizes the size, color and expressiveness of your eyes at evening, while Lashique brings out all the enchantment of fringing lashes and sleekly arched brows.

There are but a few of the exquisite Dorothy Gray preparations which may be found at our Toilet Goods Department.

C. Heber Forbes

CAMMIE GRAY GUILD MEETS THIS EVENING

The Cammie Gray Guild will meet at 7:30 this evening at the home of Mrs. A. W. Harris, 1127 Dickinson avenue. There will not be a class meeting.

Name Omitted.

In announcing the names of new members inducted at the last meeting of the Rotary club, the name of W. V. Wahmann, manager of Swift & Company, was inadvertently omitted.

AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MRS. KITTRELL

The American Legion Auxiliary held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. B. Kittrell on Fifth street. Twenty members and two visitors were present. After prayer by the chaplain, roll was called and minutes approved. Reports were heard from the finance, rehabilitation and Fidac committees, and also the treasurer and district committeewoman. We were urged to enlist new members as North Carolina's quota for 1929 is 5,000 new members.

Mrs. Chester Harris invited the auxiliary to meet with her in March. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

—Reported.

Miss Westmoreland In Hospital

Friends of Miss Eulalia Westmoreland will regret to learn that she is in Pitt Community hospital.

"We Three"

New York—Captions of timely cartoons: "The Lone-some Eeple" (New York Herald); "We Three" (Herald-Tribune).

Gets School Budget

Tavistock, N. J.—To the 56 year old Joseph Logan is devoted the entire school budget of the borough. The sum of $150 has been appropriated for his tuition in Haddonfield. He is the son of an employe of the Tavistock country club, which occupies most of the borough.

Day Of Prayer

The world day of prayer for missions will be observed at the Christian Church tomorrow afternoon. Special prayer service from 2:30 to 3:30. Everybody come.

New store to be opened Friday, February 15th, at 10 o'clock. Featuring a complete line of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear of the latest style. All moderately priced. Ladies' shoes and millinery. The only store in Greenville carrying ready-to-wear from head to foot, for ladies only. Watch tomorrow's paper for name. Store located between Moseley Bros. and Lautares Candy Palace.

MONEY TO LEND

First and Second Mortgages White and Colored Apply to
HAGOOD REALTY CO.
NEW BERN, N. C.

MAJOR AARON TYSON SOCIETY TO MEET

A preliminary meeting of the Major Aaron Tyson Society, children of the American Revolution, will be held at the home of the state director, Mrs. Thomas McGee, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All D. A. R. are requested to send their children. All others of revolutionary ancestors are eligible. Mrs. R. L. Smith, organization president, will preside.

Litchfield Motor Co. To Handle Frigidaire

The Litchfield Motor Company has been appointed local Frigidaire representatives, according to announcement made today. Many styles of the Frigidaire are on display at the show rooms on East Fifth street and the public was today extended a cordial invitation to visit the place and see what is being done in mechanical refrigeration.

W. L. Clark, who has been considerable experience in the electrical business in this city, will be connected with the Frigidaire department of the concern.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

4-H Leaders' Meeting.

The second leaders' training school for 4-H leaders will be held in the clothing laboratory of the Greenville high school, Saturday, Feb. 16, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. All leaders are invited to this meeting. The bags started at the January meeting will be completed and the aprons started.

Clothing Leaders For Women's Clubs To Meet.

All leaders for the 1929 clothing program in the Home Demonstration clubs will meet in the grand jury room in the court house Tuesday, Feb. 19 from 10 to 12:30 a. m. and from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. Millinery will be the subject for the day. Bring with you any old straw or braid hats that you may cut up and clean for trimming. There will be eleven shades of felt to choose from for making your hat.

"Make Half the Income Do the Work of the Whole"

All club members in the 4-H clubs and the women's Home Demonstration clubs have for their goal this year "Make half the income do the work of the whole." The entire program has been built around this goal. At recent meetings of the 4-H girls they have decided to cut down their hose bill by darned every stocking as soon as it gets thin instead of waiting until there is a large hole. They will also wash out their own hose each night. Each member will keep account of the amount she spends on hose this school year and the number of pairs she finds it necessary to buy.

If you have property to sell, consult with us. It will pay you well. H. A. White & Sons, Realtors, General Insurance, 403 Evans St., phone 49. Est. 1895.

WE Examine Eyes—Fit Glasses—Grind Lens—W. L. BEST Op-tom-e-trist

TOMORROW EVENING FRIDAY JOHN CHARLES THOMAS
America's Premier Baritone
EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE
Campus Building—8:30
Price—$2.00
Season Tickets Presented at the Door.

Ballard's X Road News

In the death of Mr. W. H. Avery this community loses one of its oldest citizens, a life-long resident, a quiet, good man, he leaves a wife and large family of sons and daughters to mourn for him. The entire community extends sympathy.

Monday morning a group of colored children on their way to school at Warren's Chapel, a colored church, saw lying near the dirt road that leads from the highway north by the home of Major Best (colored), the dead body of Neal King, also colored, supposed to have died from exposure.

"The alder by the river shakes out her powdery curls." And other unmistakable signs tell us that spring is on her way even though winter still holds us in his chilly grasp.

Mrs. Moses Tyson is spending some time with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sugg, near Walstonburg. Little Miss Jean Horton of Farmville, spent the week end with little Misses Margery and Nannie Smith Flanagan.

Mrs. I. U. Joyner and daughter, Miss Mary Emma Joyner, spent yesterday with Mrs. Herbert Bundy near Farmville.

Mr. J. T. Pilgreen and family attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Nellie Davenport, near Simpson, Monday.

Mrs. Sheba Flanagan of Farmville spent the week-end with her daughter Mrs. Elbert M. Tyson.

We are very glad to know that Mrs. Leon Jones has returned from the hospital.

WE Examine Eyes—Fit Glasses—Grind Lens—W. L. BEST Op-tom-e-trist

TOMORROW EVENING FRIDAY JOHN CHARLES THOMAS
America's Premier Baritone
EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE
Campus Building—8:30
Price—$2.00
Season Tickets Presented at the Door.

WE Examine Eyes—Fit Glasses—Grind Lens—W. L. BEST Op-tom-e-trist

TOMORROW EVENING FRIDAY JOHN CHARLES THOMAS
America's Premier Baritone
EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE
Campus Building—8:30
Price—$2.00
Season Tickets Presented at the Door.

THE NEW SPRING MODE

So Colorful and Feminine, Youthfulizing and Becoming

We are all excited over the new merchandise which is arriving daily—beautiful new stocks of colorful raiment, first harbingers of the long days of sunshine and fashion, correct to the smallest detail. Do come in and feast your eyes on these lovely new things.

Coats, Ensembles, Suits, Dresses, Hat Showing Now.

Blount-Harvey Co., INC.
DEPARTMENT STORE
GREENVILLE, N. C.

Full Rows

VOL. 11, NO. 4 Virginia-Carolina Chemical Corporation Copyright 1929

Laughs at Weevils

They've found a new cotton called the Acala variety, that laughs at the boll weevil. But just to keep things in balance, they've found a new boll weevil that laughs too. Acala cotton, first discovered in southern Mexico in 1906 by this government, is a superior upland type, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is one of the earliest and most prolific of the kind and produces better and longer fiber than other large-bolled varieties. It grows so fast it beats the weevil, and Acala cotton brings a premium in communities that are careful not to mix their seeds. As for the boll weevil, he's called the Thurberia. But that's another story.

Depends On The Man

There are many farms in this country with a business too small to support a family well. But there are limits to the size that a given man has the ability to operate, says the 1927 Yearbook of Agriculture. . . . Another way of saying that it all depends on who's farming.

Look With Your Eyes!

Cigarette advertising just up and borrowed the "blindfold test" from fertilizers. Used to be a smart aleck thought he could pick the best fertilizer by a blindfold test—so if

New Ground Is Scarce

Prior to the Civil War it was a common practice among tobacco farmers, especially those of the Old Belt, to clear new lands every year or two in preparation for the tobacco crop. The forest of wooded areas in time became limited, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and so the tobacco growers have been forced to go back to the older cultivated areas—to fields deficient in plant food and organic matter. These have to be supplied artificially in special grades of fertilizer.

Increase the Markets!

"The signal defect in the present system of marketing farm products is the lack of any means, not of coordinating production, but of increasing consumption so that it will reasonably keep pace with production. This is the producer's business, but today, except in a few striking instances, it seems to be nobody's business."—Samuel Crotcher in The Country Gentleman.

Must Be Intelligent

As a rule, blue-cured tobacco is grown under restricted conditions of plant-food supply, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. In other words, the right soil for it usually does not hold enough plant food. "It is only by the intelligent use of fertilizers that the desired product is obtained," says the Department.

Two Men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Two men were taking inventory of an estate, says Mixed Goods. They listed everything in the house, then went to the barn. One of the items there read "Two jugs, half full." They later drew a line through the "half full" and went on with the listing. The writing was worse from there on. The final item was "One revolving door mat."

Tennessee Stops Georgia Techmen

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 14.—(AP)—The onward rush of Georgia Tech's leading basketball team quintet was effectually checked last night when the University of Tennessee stepped into an early lead, held it throughout the game, and won, 30 to 28, to send the Yellow Jackets down to their first conference defeat of the season.

The percentage column shows Tech still in the vanguard of contenders for the current season championship honors, but the Jackets are closely pressed by Washington and Lee, North Carolina and the University of Georgia.

The present standing, however, will have no bearing on the championship, which will be decided at a conference tournament in Atlanta at the close of the season.

In the only other conference game of the night North Carolina nosed out North Carolina State in a last minute rally by a 35 to 34 score. The North Carolina quintet now has won ten games, one more than Georgia Tech, although the Tar Heels have lost two conference contests during the season.

No conference games were scheduled tonight.

Dempsey May Name Big Fight Referee

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 14.—(AP) Promoter Jack Dempsey may step in and end the debate over a referee for the Sharkey-Stribling boxing match February 27 by personally naming the third man in the ring.

Dempsey has told Johnny Buckley, manager of the Boston sailor, and "Pa" Stribling, pilot of the ### Georgia battler, that unless a selection has been made by tomorrow he will do the selecting himself.

So far, the managers have been unable to agree on any one of a list of officials submitted by Dempsey. The elder Stribling believes a southern referee should have been included in the list, and there, apparently, the matter rests.

Another conference will be held tomorrow morning. While the principals in the Flamingo Park battle went forward with their routine conditioning work, Miami and Miami Beach took stock of its available housing facilities for the incoming rush of ticket holders for the fight.

Accommodation for 25,000 temporary visitors will be sought, and city officials in a statement last night said private home and apartment owners would be asked to provide rooms for the overflow from hotels.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By the Associated Press)

Cincinnati—Bushy Graham, Ulica N. Y., knocked out Babe Keller of Toledo. (2).

Philadelphia—Vince Forgnone of Philadelphia, outpointed Babe McGary, Oklahoma. (10); Cuddy Demarco, Pittsburgh, outpointed Frank Sacco, Philadelphia. (10).

Newark, N. J.—Big Bill Hartwell, Kansas City, and Al Walker, Jacksonville, Fla., drew. (15).

Los Angeles—Jimmy Lundy, of Butte, Mont., defeated Charley Lupica, Toledo. (10).

Try Our Want Ads. Our Want "Ads" Pay.

Heydler Scores Untidy Ball Parks

Rocky Mount, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The untidy aspect of minor league parks and the slovenly appearance of many minor league players were scored here yesterday by John A. Heydler, president of the National League.

The league president enroute to Florida, declared in many cases the stands lack paint, players wear dirty uniforms and the general appearance of the field is such that it inspires no civic pride.

"People in the big cities on the other hand," he said, "take pride in their fields because they are clean, freshly painted and easy to look at."

He complimented the appearance of the Asheville, N. C. park, declaring it "was unusually attractive. I have not forgotten the good impression I got from attending games there."

Mr. Heydler declared the Chicago Cubs stand a fair chance to win the National League pennant this year.

"Anything I may tell you about baseball is guesswork on my part," he declared, "but the Cubs have a great baseball club with a terrific hitting array and if their pitchers stand up they will be good. But John McGraw has a good club and he will be on the bench again this year."

Mr. Heydler said six of the National League clubs seem to have a chance at the pennant.

"Chicago, New York, St. Louis and Pittsburgh have strong clubs; Brooklyn looks good on paper and the Phillies are a greatly improved aggregation and will do more this season than they have done in several years," he said.

CUBS BOUND FOR CATALINA ISLAND

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Confident of bringing Chicago its first National League pennant in eleven years the advance guard of the Cubs was bound for Catalina Island and its training camp today.

Manager Joe McCarthy headed the party, which was composed almost wholly of batterymen. Several pitchers and catchers will board the train enroute, while the second detachment leaves on Feb. 24.

McCarthy was happy but reticent about discussion of pennant chances.

"With Rogers Hornsby batting and fielding for us, it looks like we are going to win the flag at last," McCarthy said. "But don't be too confident. We need a good pitcher, especially a reliable southpaw, and we need him badly. Then we may have more than our share of accidents. But let's talk about the weather."

The early party expects to get to work Monday or Tuesday.

SALLY CLUB OWNERS TO MEET AT CHARLOTTE

Charlotte, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Club owners of the Sally League will meet here at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon to draft a schedule for the coming season which will be satisfactory to all parties.

Judge William G. Bramham, president of the Class B circuit, has issued an official call for the meeting and five schedule drafts have been received for consideration. This year the League has been unable to agree on a schedule, owners having refused all drafts submitted by mail, necessitating a special meeting to try and get a satisfactory playing program.

J.C. PENNEY CO.

315-317 EVANS STREET

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Enjoy Your Shopping Where Courteous Service and Money-Saving Values are the Rule

Dresses

in two great offerings! A real opportunity!

$6.90 and $9.90

Fashionable frocks for fashionable and thrifty women! All selected one by one for their charm—frocks for every sort of occasion included. Satins and silk crepes—in black, tans, blues, and other favored shades.

For Women :: Misses :: Juniors

Two Big Towel Values

Because of an immense purchase of turkish towels for over one thousand stores, you can buy these splendid double thread terry towels—plain white or white with a colored border—at these two amazing savings.

Size 18 x 36

15c

Size 22 x 44

25c

Crinkle Spreads

To Dress Up the Bedroom

Fresh, dainty crinkle cotton spreads in colored stripes on a cream background—size 81x105. With one of these spreads you can make your bedroom more charming—at very small cost.

$1.49

Table Damask

Mercerized 64 Inches Wide

A splendid quality for every day use—and the patterns are attractive. Your choice of plain white or white with a colored border. Yard

49c

12 Momme-Jap Pongee

A material of countless uses and a quality that is excellent—all silk, 12 momme, red label pongee in natural color only. A splendid value for, yard

Natural Only

33c

All Silk

Spring Styles and New Patterns In

Apron Dresses

At the Same Saving Price

Housewives the country over know this saving—and this season they will be more delighted than ever with the charming styles and splendid fabrics. If you have worn them before, you will not miss this selection—if you haven't, now is a good time to start. Sizes 34 to 44.

79c

A "Marathon" Hat Leader

"The First Shot" is offered in a variety of shades. Snap brim, cut welt edge. Fine value, at—

$2.98

"The Target" Satin Lined

Smart lines, attractive colorings, well-made in every detail. Raw edge, curl snap brim.

$3.98

"the Avenue" Smartly Styled for Younger Men

With Waist Seam Vest and Pleated Trousers

$24.75

In a Variety of the Season's Newest Fabrics

Medium and Light Shades

COATS

in an unusually interesting presentation

$14.75

For Women :: Misses :: Juniors

Smart cloth coats—with fashionable furs applied in effective, new ways. Here is an opportunity that points definitely to present thrift and future satisfaction!

WALLACE BERRY transport pilot No. 3298, now appearing in "Tong War" tells how the movie stars are guarding their throats with OLD GOLDS.

"A year or so ago, Hollywood didn't think much about its vocal chords or its voices. We were all in the silent drama then.

"But the coming of the 'Talkies' has changed things. Lovely stars, leading men, 'heavies' and ingenues are guarding their throats with zealous care . . . and smoking OLD GOLDS.

"It didn't need the 'Talkies' to win me to OLD GOLDS. I've been smoking them ever since they came to Hollywood, two years ago. But it's an added satisfaction to know they are kind to the voice, when the voice has assumed a new importance!"

(SIGNED) Wallace Berry

Why not a cough in a carload?

OLD GOLD Cigarettes are blended from HEART-LEAF tobacco, the finest Nature grows . . . Selected for silkiness and ripeness from the heart of the tobacco plant. . . Aged and mellowed extra long in a temperature of mid-July sunshine to insure that honey-like smoothness.

On your Radio OLD GOLD PAUL WHITEMAN HOUR Paul Whiteman, King of Jazz, and his complete orchestra, broadcasts the OLD GOLD hour every Tuesday from 9 to 10 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, over entire network of Columbia Broadcasting System.

eat a chocolate, light an Old Gold, and enjoy both!

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 3 to 10 points. Active months sold about 8 to 17 points higher in the early trading on covering and trade and commission house buying inspired by the census report showing domestic consumption of 608,800 bales for January against 588,142 last year.

The advance to 20 23 for May and 19 00 for the new October contract met realizing by traders who had bought recently in anticipation of large consumption figures. There also appeared to be some southern selling and prices eased off after the first flurry of demand had been supplied.

At the end of the first half hour the market showed reactions of 6 to 12 points, from the best. The more active positions were selling within 2 to 3 points of yesterday's closing quotations.

Open	High	Low	Close	P. Close
Mar. 20.15	20.17	19.91	19.97	20.03
May 20.18	20.23	19.97	20.00	20.12
July 19.86	19.92	19.63	19.67	19.78
Oct. 19.74	19.82	19.47	19.47	19.66
Dec. 19.64	19.65	19.36	19.40	19.58
Jan. 19.64	19.69	19.40	19.42	19.61

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Scarcity of offerings developed toward the last in the wheat market today, and all deliveries ascended to above any price level heretofore attained this season.

A feature of the late advance was that leading commission houses became persistent buyers of the July delivery of wheat, and that exporters were said to be good buyers at Winnipeg. Earlier the wheat market had averaged lower, and for the time being less apprehension was shown to the crop outlook in Europe and also in the United States, but previous speculative sellers were hurrying to reverse their position as the day neared an end.

WHEAT

Mar.	High	Low	Close
1.29	1.30 3/4	1.28 3/4	1.29 3/4
May	1.33 1/4	1.30 3/4	1.32 3/4
July	1.36 1/2	1.32 3/4	1.35 1/2

CORN

Mar.	95 3/8	95 3/4	96 1/4
May	1.00 1/8	99 1/4	1.00 1/8
July	1.02 3/8	1.01 3/8	1.02 3/8

OATS

Mar.	52 1/4	52	52 1/4
May	53 1/4	52 3/4	53
July	50 1/2	50 1/4	50 3/8

RYE

Mar.	1.14 1/4	1.12 7/8	1.14 1/4
May	1.14 7/8	1.12 7/8	1.14 7/8
July	1.12 1/2	1.11 5/8	1.12 1/2

LARD

Feb.	12.06	12.02	12.05
Mar.	12.40	12.32	12.40
July	12.72	12.65	12.72

RIBS

Mar.	13.62	13.40	13.62
July	14.15	14.10	14.10
July	14.75	14.67	14.67

BELLIES

Mar.	13.62	13.40	13.62
July	14.15	14.10	14.10
July	14.75	14.67	14.67

STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The stock market drifted lower today on selling inspired by the bearish commission house advices and the growing uneasiness over the possibility of an early increase in Federal Reserve discount rates. Early losses of 3 to nearly 12 points in the active issues were cut down, and in a few cases made up, by the mid-day rally, but the higher prices failed to hold and the market turned soft again in the early afternoon.

The rise in bankers' acceptance rates yesterday was interpreted in some quarters as foreshadowing a rise in the discount rate on the New York Federal Reserve bank, directors of which meet after the close of the market. Some bankers doubt that such action will be taken at this time because of the belief that it would nullify the recent action of the Bank of England in raising its rate in order to check the flow of gold from London to New York. Call money rebounded at 6 1/2 per cent but was available in the outside market at 6. Time money rates, however, continued firm around the highest levels in years.

Case Threshing, which dropped 22 points last week sold 25 points above its previous quotation. Marine preferred and Island Creek Coal moved into new high ground on talk of special developments. American & Foreign Power, Johns Manville, St. Joseph Lead and Canadian Pacific made up their early losses of 3 to 6 points in the mid-day rally, the first named touching a new high at 117 3/4, and Radio, Allied Chemical, Union Carbide, General Electric, Electrical Auto Life and Westinghouse made substantial recoveries from their low levels in the mid-day rally, but fresh offerings appeared on the bulges.

N. Y. STOCK LIST

2:30 Prices:

All Chem & Dye 26 1/2
Am Beet Sug 18
Am Can 113
Am Car & Pdry 90
Am Loco 106
Am Sug 84 1/2
Am Sumatra Tob 53 1/2
A. T. & T. 211
Am Tob B 173 3/4
Am Wood 23
Ansonia 134 1/4
Armour A 16

Wants

RATES: 10 per word, (minimum 25c), per insertion, this size type. Larger type, double price. Persons not having regular account with this office must send or bring cash with copy. No want ads taken over telephone.

CABBAGE PLANTS

Millions of thoroughbred cabbage plants for sale. Jersey Wakefield and Charleston Wakefield. Special prices until further notice: 20 cents for 75 cents; 700 for $1.00; 1,000, $1.25; 5,000 for $4.00; 10,000 for $7.50. Can supply order of any per hundred; 300 for 50 cents; 500 size. Fine stocky plants. L. C. Arthur, Greenville, N. C. phone 91-J. Jan. 13-1mo.

SEED PEANUTS

POLAND CHINA PIGS
Pure Virginia Bunch Peanuts, selected seed for two years.
Poland China Pigs, at farmers' prices. See W. H. Dall, Jr. Feb. 7-eod-12t.

MONEY TO LEND ON GREENVILLE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY.

No bonus or brokerage charge. Loan canceled immediately in event of death of borrower, and all payments on principal refunded. Call 280-W. Miss Mamie Ruth Tunstall. 8-6t

TIME AND PLACE—THERE IS

a time and a place for everything under the sun." The time for Chiropractic is when people are sick, or better still, before they get sick. The place for Chiropractic is wherever there are sick people. Now is the time and my office is the place for you to start on the road back to health. Dr. Virginia O. Johnson, Chiropractor, Phone, residence 199; office 361.

ROOMS FOR RENT—IN FRONT

of College. Mrs. C. W. Wilson, 463-J.

WANTED—IF YOU HAVE A VACANT

6 room house that will be vacant in 30 or 40 days, notify Box 363. 14-2t

GREENVILLE BUSINESS SCHOOL

National Bank Building. Short-hand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping and allied branches. Call or write Mrs. C. M. Tolar, Principal, phone 675-W. Feb. 2-1mo.

FOR RENT—ONE BEDROOM.

Convenient to bath. Mrs. Alice Keel, 409 Jarvis St., phone 143-W. 14-3t

New store to be opened Friday,

February 15th, at 10 o'clock. Featuring a complete line of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear of the latest style. All moderately priced. Ladies' shoes and millinery. The only store in Greenville, carrying ready-to-wear from head to foot, for ladies' only. Watch tomorrow's paper for name. Store located between Moseley Bros. and Lautares Candy Palace.

White's Theatre

TODAY—LAST TIME

"Naughty Baby"

With

ALICE WHITE and JACK MULHALL

Also COMEDY.

NEW THEATRE

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

"The Air Legion"

Also COMEDY.

LINDY'S FIANCEE IS

POETICALLY INCLINED

Northampton, Mass., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Miss Anne Spencer Morrow earned the distinction of being the outstanding undergraduate poet while at Smith College where she graduated last year. Following in the footsteps of her mother, Elizabeth Cutler Morrow, who also attended Smith, she devoted to poetry the time usually bestowed upon athletics or social activities.

Last year she won the Mary Augusta Jordan prize, given annually by the alumnae to a senior for the most original piece of literary work in either prose or verse. Miss Morrow won the prize with a poem written for the Smith College monthly, of which she is an editor.

Rising Mercury At Wilmington

Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 14.—(AP) Rising mercury was forecast here this morning after a day of sleet and snow yesterday.

New store to be opened Friday,

February 15th, at 10 o'clock. Featuring a complete line of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear of the latest style. All moderately priced. Ladies' shoes and millinery. The only store in Greenville, carrying ready-to-wear from head to foot, for ladies' only. Watch tomorrow's paper for name. Store located between Moseley Bros. and Lautares Candy Palace.

CITIZENS MILITARY TRAINING CAMP

Information Blank
To—Arthur B. Corey,
Blount Bldg., Greenville, N. C.
Please send me information as to how I can enroll in one of the six Citizens' Military Training Camps to be held this summer.

Name

Address

The Government pays necessary

expenses. Camps are to be held in 1929 at Fort Benning, Ga., Camp McClellan, Ala., Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., Fort Bragg, N. C., Fort Moultrie, S. C., Fort Screven, Ga. Feb. 12-29-tf.

Be Influenced

By This Symbol

On the right you see a symbol which appears in the advertising of certain funeral directors throughout the country. It is the unmistakable mark of one who has won for himself a place in the profession which entitles him to the respect and the confidence of his community.

When we are called, our service is the same to all. It is our high aim to be in every way worthy of the confidence imposed in us by those we serve.

WILLIAMS FUNERAL PARLORS

527 DICKERSON AVE., PHONE 127
GREENVILLE, N. C.

RELIABLE MAN WITH CAS AS

direct factory representative in Greenville and nearby counties. No experience necessary. Unusual opportunity for advancement. Must be willing to start on reasonable basis. Synco Motors, Company, Battle Creek, Michigan

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOM BUNGALOW

situated on the Greenville-Farmville highway, about three miles from Greenville. Convenient to school and church. See H. R. Allen. 11-14-18

FOR RENT—TWO COMFORTABLE

rooms in a heated home. Phone 681-W. 502 W. 4th St. 12-4t

GIVE US THAT ORDER

now. Don't be putting it off from day to day. It is strange how some people wait until the snow begins to fly, before ordering their coal supply. Order it now and get quick delivery, and be warm when the freeze comes. W. C. Clark Coal & Wood Yard, phone 131.

HERE'S A SHOVEL FULL

of advice that ought to put a few tons of coal in your cellar right now. We can guarantee delivery of as many tons of high-character coal as you may need—buy it. W. C. Clark Coal & Wood Yard, phone 131.

WE HAVE A NICE ASsortment of Boyemaco Ornamental Curtain Rods. Home Furniture Co., phone 79. 13-tf

DR. E. P. SPENCE

Dentist
Over Key Brown's
Telephone 761.
GREENVILLE, N. C.

MONUMENTS

Quality
DEES MONUMENT WORKS
GREENVILLE, N. C.

KEY'S KILPAIN

Tablets and Powders
For Headache, Toothache, etc.
Manufactured by
J. Key Brown, Druggist

FOR RENT—TWO NICELY FURNished bedrooms with heat and private bath, just one block from Five Points. Mrs. W. R. Minshew, phone No. 626. 12-3t stock of Oil-air, Blue Bird and New Perfection Oil Wicks, specially priced, 28c. Cash and carry. Home Furniture Co., phone 79. 13tf.

WE CARRY A LARGE

Now you can own the car you want a big selection of Good Will used cars at special prices

First-of-the-year sales of new cars have brought us many top-value trade-ins. We have priced them amazingly low to move them right out again. We want to start the year ahead with low inventory. Buy now the car you have always wanted at clearance prices. Every one is "Good Will" reconditioned and completely equipped. Never before such a big assortment. Never before such amazing low prices. Order your favorite model—today.

Big in every way except in price

A GREAT FUTURE is being created in the automotive world these days. People are all agog about a new low-priced six that offers every desirable big car quality. It is the New Pontiac Big Six. Since the Pontiac Big Six went on display, men and women of every type have been coming to see and drive it. But most of the buyers belong to one particular group. They have taste. They love fine things. They want to step up the quality of their automobiles—and the New Pontiac appeals to them—for it's big in every way except in price!

EDWARD'S AUTO SALES CO. THE NEW PONTIAC BIG 6 at $745

PRICES LOWEST of the year!

During This Week

Absolutely rock bottom prices prevail on our entire stock of fine furniture! We are determined to bring about the biggest volume of the year by offering sensational values and remarkable easy terms! Below are merely a few of the items you may find during this wonderful event!

$5.00 Down

The lowest terms—Pay no interest!

$5.00 Down Will Deliver This Suite

Here is an excellent suite for very little money. The well-made table is beautiful veneered in walnut and extends to full six feet. The chairs have cut-out backs and Jacquard upholstered seats. In point of construction and quality of materials, this suite is unexcelled at anywhere near our low price.

EASY TERMS

$5.00 Down

$5.00 Down Will Deliver This Living Room Suite.

Beautifully designed and richly upholstered in attractive Mohair. The loose spring filled cushions are reversed in Damask. Note the ornamental carve of the frame and attractive beauty of this low priced suite.

TAFT & VANDYKE

Let Us Do Your Job Printing