Truce Declared In Attack On Juarez; Hostilities Are Ended

Federal and Revolutionary Leaders Reach Agreement to Halt Hostilities As Rebels Prepare To Enter The City.

El Paso, Tex., March 8.—(AP)—A truce in the battle of Juarez was declared this afternoon. This was informally announced after a conference between Gen. Miguel Valles, head of the rebel forces, which captured Juarez; General Mathias Ramos, of the federal garrison and Brig. Gen. George Van Horn Moseley of the American forces in El Paso. They conferred on the International bridge reaching an agreement to halt hostilities.

Heavy fighting for the possession of Juarez across the border at El Paso began today between a body of 600 loyal troops holding the town and 2,000 rebels who made a surprise attack under cover of an irrigation ditch.

Severe fighting took place only ten blocks away from the thickly populated district of south El Paso. American military authorities took widespread precautions to guard against trouble along the border. Troops at Fort Bliss being called out during the night and stationed along the International boundary line.

The federal troops in Juarez, although greatly outnumbered were fortified at street intersections and atop buildings ready for a desperate struggle.

The central government at Mexico City, decisively victorious in its campaign to recapture Vera Cruz, turned its attention toward the situation in the border.

Rebel troops were "centered" in Torreon in Western Coahuila while the federal forces were massing at Guadalupe for a counter-offensive. General Antonio Villareal, aspirant for President on the anti-revolutionist ticket was believed in command of the rebels at Torreon.

While Sonora rebels were driving southward through Sinaloa, the government was preparing a counter-stroke against them, and 10,000 federal troops were reported marching northward.

The government was jubilant at its victories in Vera Cruz, so much that censorship was lifted on press dispatches.

The Vera Cruz campaign seemed at an end. Federal troops took over the city in support of troops who had turned against General Aguirre, the revolutionary commander who was forced to flee.

Aguirre was believed trapped between two loyal contingents while his escape to sea was cut off by Naval vessels.

The city of Monterey, captured by the revolutionists and then recaptured by federal troops, resumed communication with the outside world after being cut off for 48 hours during which heavy fighting took place.

General Escobar, commander-in-chief of the rebels, left Monterey for Torreon after taking $345,000 in gold from the local branch of the Bank of Mexico.

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was expected to inaugurate officially an mail service between Mexico City and Brownsville tomorrow despite the revolution.

American Boy Hurt By Stray Shot From Juarez Engagement

El Paso, Tex., March 8.—(AP)—A stray shot from Juarez today wounded an American boy in El Paso. His name is Louis Chavez, six.

Several American automobiles were struck by bullets from the Mexican side. One on El Paso home a bullet crashed through a window. No one was reported injured, however, besides the boy.

Firestone Greeted By Court Summons At Charlotte, N. C.

Charlotte, March 8.—(AP)—A reception committee of one was on hand to greet Harvey Firestone, rubber magnate, when he passed through this city today.

He was Deputy Sheriff Graham C. Taylor, who bore a summons from the Mecklenburg county sheriff's office calling upon Mr. Firestone's company to defend itself in a $3,000 civil suit.

Deputy Taylor, while admitting that any other official of the company would have accepted service, explained that it is not every day a process server gets the opportunity to board a multi-millionaire's private car.

Lindbergh to Fly To Texas Saturday Opening Air Mail

Mexico City, March 8.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who has only just regained the use of his right arm injured in the crash-up of his airplane here more than a week ago after a pleasure flight with his fiancée, is back in his favorite role of a good-will flyer.

President Portes Gil today was to turn from his active direction of the war against the insurgents to christen the tri-motored plane in which the Colonel will inaugurate the new air mail service between this city and Brownsville, Texas. The flight will be made tomorrow starting at 7:45 a. m. Lindbergh will carry as his passengers Juan Gillermo Villarsana, chief of the civil aviation section of the department of communication, and probably two local newspapermen.

Aldermen Call Primary For Monday, May 6th; Library Gets $1,000.00

A non-partisan primary election was called for Monday, May 6th, by the Board of Aldermen sitting in its monthly session at the City Hall last night. The primary will be held for the election of a mayor and one alderman from each of the five wards. Harvey Ward was appointed as registrar and tax lister for 1929.

Several other matters were considered by the board last night, principal among them being the awarding of contract for curbing and gutter in College View and West Greenville. J. G. Clark and Company were the successful bidders. Their bid was $5,315.00. There was only one other bidder, Frank Ray, his bid being $5,405.50.

An appropriation of $1,000.00 was made to the public library for erection of temporary quarters on the Evans street school property. A representative of the library commission appeared before the board asking for the appropriation in order to eliminate rent, which the library is paying for the building at present occupied. The library lost its home in destruction by fire of the Evans street school building some time ago, and since that time has been temporarily located in a building on Evans street below Five Points.

A representative of the Merchants Association appeared before the board and asked for enforcement of the one hour parking ordinance on principal business streets of the city and the issuance of courtesy cards to out-of-town motorists. The ordinance committee was instructed to meet with the committee from the Merchants Association to work out plans for presentation at the next meeting of the board.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to investigate the advisability of acquiring a portion of Evans street school property for city offices, asked another month in which to complete their investigation.

FOUR KILLED BY BLAST AT SCRIBNER, NEB.

Thirty Persons Also Injured When Dynamite Explodes During Barn Fire.

Scrivner, Neb., March 8.—(AP)—Four men were killed and thirty persons were injured in an explosion of dynamite late last night during a barn fire at the home of Carl Hollander, county supervisor.

The dynamite had been stored in the barn for blasting of ice choked streams.

The dead: Gus Pittack, Fred Feltner, Guy Clark, one mechanic, a stranger in Scrivner.

Four of the injured may die, doctors said.

Pittack, Feltner and Clark were city firemen, they were caught by the explosion which occurred without warning ten minutes after the fire was discovered.

All the injured are being cared for at the Scrivner hospital. A general call was made to all surrounding towns for doctors and nurses. Most of the injured are members of the city fire force.

The explosion was felt at West Point, 15 miles north.

The fire started from an undetermined cause in the barn where County Supervisor Hollander had stored the dynamite which was to be used in blasting ice on the Elk-horn river.

Firemen approaching the place were told by a spectator that there was no danger of explosion as there were no caps with the dynamite. Hardly had this assurance been given before a tremendous blast rocked the countryside.

Cimaha, Neb., March 8.—(AP)—A unit of six nurses from the Omaha Red Cross nursing service has been ordered to Scrivner, Neb.

Dr. A. C. Stokes, chairman of the Omaha chapter of the American Red Cross, has offered Scrivner authorities whatever aid may be needed in the way of surgical dressings and other supplies.

COTTON MILLS PLAN $100,000 IMPROVEMENT

Local Mills to Make Addition to Present Building and Install New Equipment.

The Greenville Cotton Mills, located on the western end of the city, has announced improvements involving the expenditure of $100,000. The announcement was made yesterday afternoon by M. H. Long, manager. The improvements will consist of additions to the present building and the installation of new equipment.

Complete arrangements have been made for the carrying out of the contract for the work will be awarded in the next few days, Mr. Long said.

It was stated that additions to the main building would give ten thousand extra feet of floor space. The equipment will enable the mills to change the type of product to a heavier material than manufactured at present.

It was also stated that there was a greater demand and ever ready market for the new product.

Action of the mill owners in making these improvements is taken as evidence of their confidence in Greenville and the future of the city as an industrial center. At the city of their entry in the cotton mill business in this city Mr. Long and his associates planned to carry out a program of expansion as soon as they felt conditions would warrant it and if they had proved Greenville to be a logical center for such an industry.

Mr. Long stated yesterday that the changes were but the beginning of a program of expansion which would be enlarged upon from time to time to take care of the growing demand for the product which they plan to manufacture after the change has been made.

The enlargement of the mills will result in the employment of more labor and the distribution of a greater payroll at the end of each week. It had not been ascertained how much extra help would be employed, but a considerably larger force will be necessary to keep step with the improvements and the constant increase of demand occasioned by the manufacture of the new type product.

Two Arrested For Firing Woodland

Will Summs and Henry Ward, both colored, of Paeonius township, were arrested this morning by Chief Warden F. L. Hooker of New Bern, on a charge of violation of the State forest laws by setting fire to woodland in Paeonius township. The defendants were given a hearing before a local magistrate this afternoon and required to pay the fire fighting expense and costs.

The North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development is putting forth special effort all over the State to apprehend those responsible for forest fires, and is insisting that the fire wardens do their duty and bring such violators before the courts.

SENATE TO FIGHT OUT WORLD COURT QUESTION

Washington, March 8.—(AP)—If the root formula designed to clear the way for the adherence of the United States to the World Court is accepted, the question of America's admission will probably be fought out in the Senate.

All members of the Senate who have publicly expressed an opinion declared that Senate ratification seems to be necessary even if the suggested redraft of article IV of the 1928 protocol is agreed to by the countries concerned.

HOOVER HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF HIS CABINET

Considerable Concern Over Mexican Situation Evident in Official Circles.

Washington, March 8.—(AP)—President Hoover's first cabinet meeting was held today while bullets were flying into American territory from the Mexican side of the border and there was no doubt of the concern felt by Washington officials over the turn the revolt in Mexico had taken.

Officials, while keeping a close watch on the situation, declined to discuss any steps the American government might have in contemplation except to say that the commanding officers on the border had blanket authority to protect the interests of the United States and its citizens.

Soon after the cabinet conference Secretary Kellogg, who has visited the White House a dozen times since the Rebellion Mexican forces began to approach American territory, said that any statement of the American attitude must come from President Hoover. It was announced, however, that an embargo had been placed against the shipment of commercial airplanes into the Southern Republic.

Jurist Commission to Consider Revision World Court Statutes

Geneva, March 8.—(AP)—The council of the League of Nations, meeting in private session today, decided to send the question of the admission of the United States to the commission of jurists which will meet on March 11 to consider revision of the World Court statutes.

The council increased the power of the committee so as to enable it, in considering revision of the Court's statutes to examine the proposals which have been brought forward by Elihu Root, noted American jurist.

The question will be officially handled at a public session of the council tomorrow as that body wishes to accord it the public discussion it should have and to give public testimony of its pleasure over the American initiative.

It is understood that Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British foreign secretary, will introduce the necessary resolution which is now being drafted.

The committee of jurists will be empowered to take up the question of American membership in its entirety. This includes consideration of the American note to the powers in February and the Root formula for settlement of difficulties raised by the American reservation concerning advisory opinions.

STILL SEARCH FOR SLAYER OF THOMAS WALSH

Eddie Wilson Charged With Killing Former Bodyguard Of Rothstein at Miami.

Miami, March 8.—(AP)—Search for Eddie Wilson, alleged gambler and gangster who is named in a warrant charging the murder of Thomas "Fatty" Walsh, former bodyguard of Arnold Rothstein, was continued today by Dade County Sheriff's officials after an all night hunt had proved unavailing.

Wilson was still thought to be in hiding within the Miami area, despite the fact that he had had opportunity to leave this section between the time the Walsh was shot in a gambling place in the Miami Biltmore hotel early Thursday and the time his disappearance was reported.

Suspicion centered on Wilson after an all day investigation had brought to the surface the fact that he had quarreled with Walsh shortly before the killing. The two men, it was understood, had previously had a number of minor difficulties, but Sheriff M. P. Lehman learned from what he considered an unimpeachable source late yesterday that Wednesday night's quarrel between them had been of greater intensity than their other differences.

Sheriff's operatives expressed the belief that the Wednesday night quarrel had brought to a head the prior differences to result in the shooting of Walsh by Wilson.

Wilson was the proprietor of the gambling place that occupied a luxurious fourteenth floor suite of the Miami Biltmore hotel. The place was leased by K. E. Gaylor, and Walsh and Arthur Clark, who was wounded at the time Walsh was killed, here understood to be associated with them.

Yesterday's investigation brought out a hint that there had been an argument between Walsh and Wilson on a distribution of earnings in the place although this could not be definitely established.

Wilson was being sought today through the Miami area, investigation having maintained that he had remained here with the idea of gaining a greater amount of safety than could be accorded through departure over a series of watched trails.

House Passes Highway Patrol Measure Today; Local Matters Passed

Raleigh, March 8.—(AP)—While the Senate debated the Asheville annexation bill without reaching a final vote today, the House passed the Harris-Hargett highway patrol bill, providing for a force of 37 patrolmen, after disposing of a mass of local matters.

An amendment to the Harris-Hargett bill was adopted, providing that all appointments be confirmed by the governor. The measure now goes to the Senate, which had passed a patrol bill providing for a force of 125 men, and a drivers' license fee. The House bill carries no drivers' license.

The House killed Representative Winston's bill to limit private prosecution in criminal cases.

In consideration of the Asheville bill, an amendment by Senator Weaver was adopted 25 to 11 exempting a portion of South Biltmore from possible annexation.

The school aid bill was set by the Senate as a special order for consideration tonight. Jule Warren, secretary of the North Carolina Educational Association, issued another statement denouncing the bill as passed by the House, which has been recommended by the Senate committee, with amendments reducing the amount of state aid carried.

Bills passed by the House today were as follows:

Hutchins: To authorize a special tax for Yadoc county for election expenses.

Duplin: To designate banks of Duplin county as county depositories.

Williams: To authorize bond issue by Swain county.

Yancey and Boren: To amend charter of High Point.

Carr: To authorize transfer of certain Duplin county bonds.

Yancey: To protect taxes in Avery county.

Yancey: Relating to leasing of school property in Avery county.

Hart: To extend time for filing claims for gasoline tax in Onslow county.

Senate Bill: To amend fee bill of Johnston county.

Hart: Relating to Anson superior court.

Stinson Begins Endurance Flight At Bay City, Mich.

Bay City, Mich., March 8.—(AP)—Eddie Stinson and Randolph Pare, Detroit aviators, made a successful take-off from the ice of Saginaw Bay this morning in an attempt to establish a new non-refueling airplane endurance flight. Flying their Stinson-Detroit monoplane, the "Sally Sovereign", they made a graceful take-off with none of the difficulties that marred their attempts last week. The plane carried approximately 800 gallons of gasoline which Stinson hopes will keep it in the air close to 80 hours. They seek to better the record of the Germans, Ristice and Zimmerman, of 65 hours and 31 minutes.

Drinking and Petting Among High School Pupils To Be Probed

Racine, Wis., March 8.—(AP)—Rumors of widespread drinking and petting at Junior High school parties were recognized by the Racine Board of Education today when a sweeping investigation was ordered.

School functions at the Washington and McKinley Junior High schools are mainly under fire, but the board's inquiry will include all phases of student activity throughout the city.

It is charged the youngsters have been bringing liquor to school parties.

Principal Thomas E. Sanders of the Washington school, denied knowledge of such actions at parties there. Principal H. C. Kilbourn of McKinley school said at one party four boys brought home brew but drank outside. He learned of it next day and severely reprimanded them, he said.

Hohenzollern Banker.

Berlin—Louis Ferdinand Hohenzollern, who is a grandson of Wilhelm, and is going into banking in Buenos Aires, has shown himself something of a financier already. He bet that he would learn Spanish in two months. He won.

Winthrop W. Aldrich of New York, brother-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and his personal representative in the fight against Stewart, was on his feet instantly with congratulations on Col. Stewart's fairness in the conduct of the meeting.

He congratulated Stewart, too, "for your legal counsel, and also the employees of the company who aided us in checking the grades and who were most courteous and honorable."

"Why," replied Col. Stewart, "that's the kind of people these boys are out here."

And this the meeting adjourned.

In a way, the result was a paradox. The vote was nearly two to one against Col. Stewart, but the individual shareholders stood two to one behind him, viz:

Shareholders for John D. Rockefeller, Jr., 15,204.

Shareholders for Col. Stewart, 31,136.

Only 17 of the 7,901 employe-stockholders voted against Col. Stewart, it was announced.

"It would be idle for me to say I leave the Standard Oil without regret," said the 62-year-old Stewart. "Its affairs have been my life. I have seen it grow under the present administration from a $167,000 corporation with 4,690 stockholders to practically a billion dollar corporation with 56,293 stockholders. One cannot dissociate himself from such an intimacy without a wrench."

With Col. Stewart to defeat went L. Stephens, general counsel; and in this defeat the issue between Rockefeller and Stewart was sharply defined. The fight against Stewart had been predicated upon the Rockefeller belief that Col. Stewart was "morally unfit" to continue the direction of the company because of his connection with the Continental Trading Company deal. Stephens knew of Col. Stewart's handling of the Continental deal before it became a matter for investigation by the United States Senate. His removal from the board yesterday was regarded as having been brought about for that reason.

Stephens, however, will be retained as general counsel.

When the board met following the stockholders' vote, they abolished the office of chairman of the board, which Col. Stewart had held. Mr. Seubert was named executive officer.

Col. Stewart by reason of his years of service with the company is entitled to an annual pension of approximately $75,000. His salary as chairman of the board was $125,000 a year.

Former President Of Corporation Elected Executive Secretary, With Power Similar To That Exercised By Col. Stewart.

Whiting, Ind., March 8.—(AP)—Edward G. Seubert today replaced Col. Robert W. Stewart as head of the $900,000,000 Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

Mr. Seubert, who has been president of the company, was not given Stewart's office as chairman of the board, that post having been abolished at the directors' meeting yesterday. Instead, he was named executive officer, with authority similar to that exercised by Col. Stewart.

The forces representing John D. Rockefeller, Jr., which controlled yesterday's annual stockholders' meeting at which Col. Stewart was removed from the board of directors, made no attempt to name Stewart's successor as executive. They were interested only, they explained, in removal of Col. Stewart, whom Mr. Rockefeller had regarded as "morally unfit" to continue direction of the business.

The Stewart defeat had been freely predicted, but the size of it was a surprise. When the vote was counted, the result was:

Shares voted for John D. Rockefeller, Jr., 5,510,313; shares voted for Col. Stewart, 2,384,966.

This was Col. Stewart's 11th year in service as executive head of the corporation since Col. Stewart himself, president, and when the result was announced—a defeat more sweeping than even his own enemies had dreamed—the matter of the Seubert board completely disappeared.

Col. Stewart looked upon the nearly 1,800 stockholders who had been drawn to the meeting by the spectacular tilt between the younger Rockefeller and himself.

"Let's have the news," said Col. Stewart. "It may be bad news to some of us, but I'm sure we will all take it standing up."

The tellers reported, and Colonel Stewart himself, without a sign of tremor or emotion, announced the result.

Winthrop W. Aldrich of New York, brother-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and his personal representative in the fight against Stewart, was on his feet instantly with congratulations on Col. Stewart's fairness in the conduct of the meeting.

He congratulated Stewart, too, "for your legal counsel, and also the employees of the company who aided us in checking the grades and who were most courteous and honorable."

Stephens, however, will be retained as general counsel.

When the board met following the stockholders' vote, they abolished the office of chairman of the board, which Col. Stewart had held. Mr. Seubert was named executive officer.

Col. Stewart by reason of his years of service with the company is entitled to an annual pension of approximately $75,000. His salary as chairman of the board was $125,000 a year.

Winthrop W. Aldrich of New York, brother-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and his personal representative in the fight against Stewart, was on his feet instantly with congratulations on Col. Stewart's fairness in the conduct of the meeting.

He congratulated Stewart, too, "for your legal counsel, and also the employees of the company who aided us in checking the grades and who were most courteous and honorable."

"Why," replied Col. Stewart, "that's the kind of people these boys are out here."

And this the meeting adjourned.

In a way, the result was a paradox. The vote was nearly two to one against Col. Stewart, but the individual shareholders stood two to one behind him, viz:

Shareholders for John D. Rockefeller, Jr., 15,204.

Shareholders for Col. Stewart, 31,136.

Only 17 of the 7,901 employe-stockholders voted against Col. Stewart, it was announced.

"It would be idle for me to say I leave the Standard Oil without regret," said the 62-year-old Stewart. "Its affairs have been my life. I have seen it grow under the present administration from a $167,000 corporation with 4,690 stockholders to practically a billion dollar corporation with 56,293 stockholders. One cannot dissociate himself from such an intimacy without a wrench."

With Col. Stewart to defeat went L. Stephens, general counsel; and in this defeat the issue between Rockefeller and Stewart was sharply defined. The fight against Stewart had been predicated upon the Rockefeller belief that Col. Stewart was "morally unfit" to continue the direction of the company because of his connection with the Continental Trading Company deal. Stephens knew of Col. Stewart's handling of the Continental deal before it became a matter for investigation by the United States Senate. His removal from the board yesterday was regarded as having been brought about for that reason.

Stephens, however, will be retained as general counsel.

Greenville Eliminated By Lexington In Cage Tournament At Raleigh

Raleigh, March 8.—(AP)—Durham and Lexington retained their places in the Class "A" division of State College's invitation basketball tournament for high schools here this morning by eliminating High Point and Greenville, respectively. The scores were: Durham 24, High Point 11; Lexington 21, Greenville 18.

In class "B" Plymouth and King's Mountain were eliminated by Smithfield and Mebane, respectively. Smithfield won over Plymouth, 18 to 12, while Mebane defeated King's Mountain 26 to 17.

In the second of the day's class "A" contests, Garland lost to Baker, 22 to 20, while the second "B" class game went to Williamson which defeated Clayton 22 to 14.

Raleigh, March 8.—(AP)—Lexington eliminated Greenville from class "A" of North Carolina State College's invitation tournament for high school basketball teams this morning by the score of 21 to 16.

The line-up: Lexington (21) Greenville (16) Mauney (6) Bostic (7)

Forward Tucker

Swings (8) Burnette (7)

Greason Guard Hicks (2)

Staples Guard Cason

Half score: Lexington 13, Greenville 6. Referee, Holden.

Class B.—Mebane 26, Kings Mountain 17.

Class A.—Durham 24, High Point 11.

Class B.—Smithfield 18, Plymouth 12.

Forty-four survivors from a field of 64 high school quints which yesterday started in the fourth annual invitational basketball tournament at State College got into action today as a total of 32 games run off between 9 o'clock this morning and 10:30 this evening.

The only hitch in yesterday's scheduled program came when Jack McDowell's Asheville high quint one of the favorite in Class A, failed to appear for its game with Lafayette high.

The officials waited for a time and then declared the game defaulted to Lafayette, which, as a result moves to the second round to meet the winner of the Greensboro-Wilson tilt staged as one of the closing battles of last night state, with the victory, 30 to 17.

Practically all of the teams entered in the tournament had arrived by yesterday afternoon although the day's play brought into action only four quints in classes A and B, however, 16 games were run off in Class C, comprising rural schools, and the starting field of 32 teams that group had been reduced to 16. In each of the other groups 16 teams were entered.

As a result of yesterday's competition in class C, the following teams moved to the second round: Landis Plainview, Middleburg, Derita, Candler, Townsville, Conway, Princeton, Bessemer, Jamesville, LeGrange, Mt. Holly, Apex, Welcofe, Magnolia and Wingate.

Two games were played simultaneously in the big Frank Thompson gym, with the same procedure to be followed today.

Coaches of State College and members of the institution's southern conference championship squad served as referees and scorers for the games.

By the close of play tonight only a dozen teams will remain in the running, and these are carded for semi-final battles tomorrow morning, with the titular events in each group to be run off Saturday evening at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock. Only during the final games will the two-at-a-time program be dispensed with.

Invites Yankees To Catalina.

Los Angeles, March 8.—(AP)—William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Chicago Cubs, now training at Santa Catalina Island, has invited Col. Jacob Ruppert to bring the New York Yankees to Wrigley Field for training next year. Wrigley said that should the Yankees come west a series of pre-season games might benefit both teams.

Prepare For Races At Daytona Beach

Daytona Beach, Fla., March 8.—(AP)—Racing drivers who will attempt to break the world's record for the Straightway Mile today settled down to await the day when the sands of the beach speedway are considered smooth enough for the tremendous speed the cars are expected to make.

The trials must of necessity be made at low tide, when the receding waters expose a great expanse of firmly packed sand. Low tide today was expected to occur at about 12:30 p. m., but the drivers considered it unlikely that the beach would be in suitable condition today.

Major H. O. D. Segrave, British driver, yesterday took over his "Golden Arrow" entry to the beach speedway to allow photographers to take pictures of the car in motion. Ridges on the beach, however, caused him to abandon this plan through fear of injury to the machine.

J. M. White of Philadelphia, owner of the 36 cylinder Triplex which last year made the present record of 207.55 miles per hour, as yet has chosen no driver for his car in the official speed trials. He has said that if he is unable to decide on a driver before the tests are made, he will pilot the huge car himself.

Cardinals Reverse. Avon Park, Fla., March 8.—(AP)—Complete reversal of form was displayed by the St. Louis Cardinals between their last two games—one last fall in the Yankee world series and the other yesterday in the Florida Grapefruit League when three rookie hurlers held the Philadelphia Athletics to three hits while their teammates batted out a 2 to 0 victory.

Today the two clubs clash again, at the A's park in Fort Myers.

Fighter Has Operation. Los Angeles, March 8.—(AP)—Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight champion, underwent a throat operation at a hospital here yesterday. Doctors who performed the operation, said it was successful.

Rockie Making Good With Sox. Dallas, Texas, March 8.—(AP)—Elkin Wilson, a young right hander rookie from Milford, Texas, may answer the supplication of the White Sox for another good pitcher.

Wilson pitched seven innings of steady baseball for the regulars in yesterday's camp game, holding the "Gooches" to six scattered hits and winning, 6 to 2.

Concert to Close Music Conference

Asheville, March 8.—(AP)—The meeting of the music directors of the Southern States comes to a close here tonight with a concert by a choir of 250 voices of southern singers and an All-Southern High School students orchestra.

An informal banquet was held at which an address by Dr. E. N. C. Barnes, director of public music in Washington, D. C., was featured.

Officers elected last night were: Mrs. Grace P. Woodman, supervisor of music in Jacksonville, Fla., President; William C. Mayforth, Converse College, Spartanburg, S. C., Vice-President; J. Henry Francis, Charlotte, second Vice-President; Miss Minnie D. Stensland, Knoxville, secretary; Lesia A. Martell, Bastin, N. C., treasurer; C. D. Kutchinski, Winston-Salem, auditor. Miss Grave Vandys Moore of the North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro, was elected a member of the National Board of Directors.

Tiger Pitchers Cut Loose. Phoenix, Ariz., March 8.—(AP)—Detroit Tiger pitchers were permitted to cut loose yesterday for the first time since the training season opened. Of the veterans, Lil Stoner looked especially good, while Johnny Prudhomme, and Lefty Barnes, recruits, also pleased Manager Harris.

RICHMOND AWAITS DUCKPIN BOWLING CONGRESS

Duckpin bowlers from all over the country will gather in Richmond, Va., March 11-April 3 for the national duckpin congress. Howard Campbell of Washington, (left) is all events champion, and Irene Michou of Washington (right) is woman's champion. The alleys at Richmond form the background; G. L. Isemann of Washington (center) is secretary of the congress.

PHILLIES TO PUSH OUT OF THE CELLAR

Winter Haven, Fla., March 8.—(AP)—Supporters of the Philadelphia Nationals hope and believe that they have lost the jewel of consistency since the last season ended. The Phillies have consistently finished last in the National league race of late and any change must be for the better.

Early signs at the training camp indicate that Burt Shotton, now a sophomore manager, at least has a chance to push his team out of the cellar.

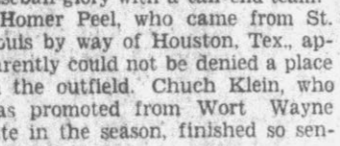

A large question mark remains after the pitchers' names but the rest of the lineup has been so improved that even if the pitching is no better than it was in 1928 it will show more results.

Manager Shotton is able to offer a good infield, fair outfield and two excellent catchers. He finds his stock on the shelves for emergency call low but may be able to do something in the way of replacements later.

The most encouraging development for Phillies fans is the field. Tommy Thevenow seems certain to play.

He pitched seven innings of steady baseball for the regulars in yesterday's camp game, holding the "Gooches" to six scattered hits and winning, 6 to 2.

U. S. ENTRY IN BRITISH CLASSIC

rationality that he will be given a chance to repeat. Lefty O'Doul former Giant, and Dennis Southern may divide outfield assignments, the veteran Cy Williams will be held in reserve.

Virgil Davis and Walter Larian, at 24 and 26 years of age, take rank with the great young catchers of the game and will share the receiving burden. A pair of Georges, Susce and Sheflort, seek the other catching place.

In addition to the pitchers brought over from the 1928 season, three new ones appear to have won places on the staff. Jack Milligan, back from Syracuse, is a left hander of promise. Two right handers from the Southern Association, may win starting positions for themselves.

Luther Roy, late of Birmingham and with previous major league trials, and Phil Collins, up from New Orleans, where he pitched in 49 games will be given extended observation.

Holdovers include Ed Baecht, Ray Berge, Alex Ferguson, Bob McGraw, Lester "Sugar" Sweetland and Claude Willaughby.

Sweetland, another Florida product, has more stuff than most southpaws but can deliver it only on occasions through lack of control. He was the only Phillie pitcher able to display any success against the champion St. Louis Cardinals last year. June Green has seemed to be a better hitter than pitcher and he may join the fast growing colony of pitchers who have been converted to more regular work elsewhere.

"My Thirty Years at Sea"

by CAPTAIN GEORGE FRIED

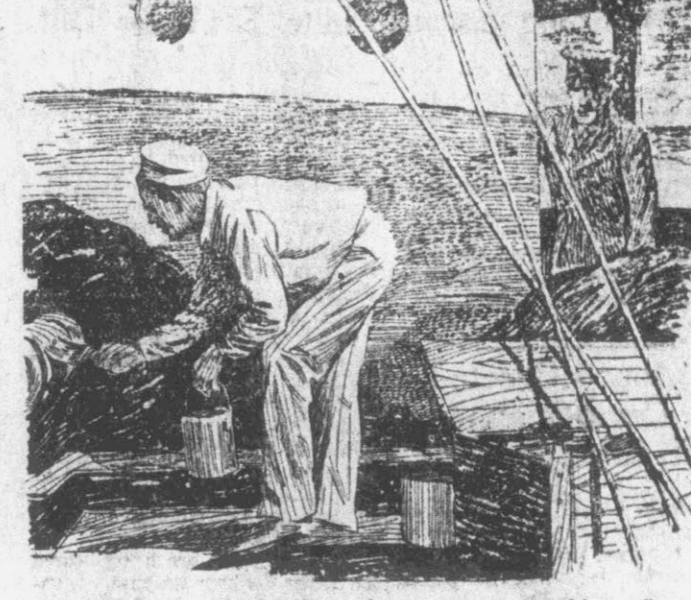

Men of the sea are no different fundamentally than those ashore and promotion or failure as a seaman depends solely on the man himself. Fried compares a ship's organization with that of a big corporation, both dependent upon the same essentials for success.

By CAPT. GEORGE FRIED (Copyright 1929, Associated Press) CHAPTER XI

I have been asked what part I have played in making rescues at sea as captain of a vessel. My an-every one busy while on watch and to create the impression that a certain amount of work must be done in a given time. This work must be done in ship shape order and in seaman-like manner. Every man must be an example for the next on watch so that the master is surrounded by executives capable of doing things properly. So when I say I did comparatively little as my share of a rescue job I mean that every man on the ship has a duty to perform, and we all assist one another.

It is not often that I come in direct contact with many of the answer is that I do comparatively little when the whole job is considered. A ship is very much like a big building that houses a large business organization of several hundred men. Unless that organization functions smoothly and has men of ability in the ranks, it is doomed as a commercial failure.

... He didn't know it, but I was keeping my eye on him...

A vessel is no different. The captain is indeed like the president of a big corporation. He cannot supervise the work of everyone in the organization so he deals directly with the heads of the departments. One of my rules is to keep men employed on my ship, with the possible exception of those engaged in duties on the bridge. The safe navigation of the vessel depends upon the men in this department yet, strange to say, one of the latest men I believe I have ever encountered was a quartermaster on one of my ships. At the particular time I happened to see him at work he did not have enough energy to turn the wheel and keep the ship on the prescribed course. He had no excuse to offer me for his laxity except that he was too tired. And I knew of ourselves in the near closing days of the Legislature with uncertainty as to what the pending measures will do. All will be made clear by a State system paid for by a State tax, one-half on visible property and the other half by taxes levied by the State.

That is the road to an equitable settlement, and the only road. But if the Legislature is not ready for this step, it cannot do less than provide a seven and a half million dollar equalization fund. — News and Observer.

ABOUT TOWN

"Honors are always coming to Greenville," said a citizen today, and they never come singly. "A few days ago we were patting ourselves up the shoulder for the splendid showing Billy Brown is making at the University of North Carolina. Yesterday we started patting ourselves again when it was determined that Johnnie Mason, former Greenville high school student, had been a member of the State College Southern conference basketball team.

"This is the first time in years Greenville or Pitt county boys have scintillated in college athletics. Everybody is proud of the achievement of these two young men and hope they may continue to bring honor to their town in the future."

"Help make the long, seemingly endless days of the inmates of the poor house more enjoyable by subscribing to the 'radio fund' now being raised by the Reflector," suggested a prominent business man today.

"Contributions yesterday had been liberal but only the half way mark has been reached. Think of the condition of the numbers of poor people dependent upon the county for support. You can help make their lives more happy and interesting by subscribing to the radio fund."

"Glad to hear about Smith and Sugg's proposed improvement of the Star Warehouse building," a member of the local tobacco market said this morning.

"This progressive firm of warehousemen are always doing something to improve their condition. The extra space will give them about 75,000 square feet, and one of the largest warehouse buildings in North Carolina.

"This may not sound like a broad statement to the uninitiated, but it is. The beauty part about it, however, is the veracity involved. It is the truth and those aware of the remarkable progress of the Greenville tobacco market know it is."

"This is the third or fourth improvement to take place on this market for next season. Others will be announced from time to time. When the market finally opens we will be ready to handle the greatest volume of tobacco in history."

"I'd like to hear some more talk about the local baseball club," mentioned a fan today.

"That's all right," said a man standing nearby, "you'll hear plenty when the boys begin soliciting stock. If you want to hear some talk—you'll get enough of it then. "Loosen up the strings of your pocketbook and let that do whatever talking you may have. The players will do the rest when they begin training the latter part of the month. Keep these facts in mind, and be ready to become a stockholder in the greatest ball club Greenville has ever had."

"The special session of Congress which President Hoover has called for April 15th, should hold special interest to the millions of farmers throughout the country since legislation looking to their relief will be considered," a well known Pitt county grower asserted while in the city this morning.

"Just what kind of relief is in store is a matter of speculation at this time. Congress has been talking relief since time immemorial, but if anything of the kind has been provided it is not evident at this time. Action of a constructive nature is very necessary at this time, however, and if Mr. Hoover fulfills some of his promises to the farmer he will tell Congress what to do and show them how to go about getting it done."

Woman For Politics.
 New York—Woman's place is in the home, in the opinion of Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, M. C. but, she added, at a luncheon of the League for Political Education, the walks of home have widened to include politics.

Approve Charleston.
 St. Clairsville, Ohio—The Charleston is physical education and an admirable diversion from recreation, the Richland township school board has decided. A petition of parents for the dismissal of a girl teacher who showed the pupils how to do it has been denied. The decision was by five men after an exhibition.

TRUCE DECLARED IN ATTACK ON JUAREZ; HOSTILITIES END
 The federal machine gun fire took a heavy toll. Bodies could be seen from this side of the border, sprawled on the pavement of Sixteenth of September Street, one of the main thoroughfares of Juarez. As the firing continued, the belief that the city had surrendered. Fifteen of the civilian volunteer defenders of Juarez threw down their guns and made a wild dash for the International bridge when the battle opened. They were halted on the American side of the bridge and arrested by United States border patrolmen. Their ammunition was confiscated and they were taken away.

The rebel troops captured Fort Hidalgo in Juarez but were repulsed with five killed when they attacked the headquarters of General M. Ramos, commanding the federal troops on top of the hotel Rio Bravo. The rebels apparently were reforming for another attack. The rebels hidden in a house in the part of Juarez where the fighting is most severe, told his paper by telephone that he was lying at full length on the floor and that bullets were sizzling overhead through the walls of the building. The known dead in the battle thus far include a rebel captain and two privates and two federal soldiers. After attacking the city first from the northwest, the second rebel contingents attacked from the east but was repulsed after a concentrated machine gun fire was directed at them. They retreated and are believed forming for a second effort. The Mexican consul here and a Mexican Army aviator prepared to take off from El Paso in a plane brought by the Mexican government here yesterday. The plane will be used in an attempt to bomb the main body of the rebel troops.

CHILDS LOSES CONTROL OVER RESTAURANTS

Founder of Famous Chain Concern Defeated At Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

New York, March 8.—(AP)—The name "Childs" on a country-wide chain of restaurants was little more than a trademark today. William Childs, its founder and his family were out of control of the company. William Childs went down fighting, but was stopped at every turn by his opponents who voted proxies representing 80 per cent of the company's 411,000 shares of stock.

From the platform where he presided over the annual stockholders meeting yesterday as chairman of the board of directors, Childs at last conceded victory to the faction headed by William A. Barber, former Attorney General of South Carolina, and in a voice choked with emotion announced he was through.

"This company," he said, "is the child of my efforts. When you take it away I am through. Defile it if you will but I shall never come back. I wonder what will happen to this thing that Wall Street wants. I want nothing to do with such a board that will come out of a deal like this. I am surprised we are turned down, but might makes right and nothing is so strong as money."

The Childs faction withheld their proxies from filing which brought charges from the floor that they were seeking to prevent a legal quorum and adjourn the meeting.

Then after conceding the Barber faction's majority, Childs sought to arrange a compromise through the appointment of a neutral board. This was defeated when Joseph F. Cotton, counsel for the Barber group voted the 80 per cent of stock against it.

Then Childs delivered his valedictory address and the new board of directors was elected, replacing William Childs, his wife, two brothers and two nephews.

The new board consists of Barber, Holliday D. Meeds, Jr., of the New York Banking House of Laird, Bissell and Meeds; Clement B. Ford of the Boston and New York Banking House of Tucker Anthony and Co.; LeRoy W. Baldwin, president of the Empire Trust Co.; S. Willard Smith, a former president of the Childs company recently deposed by William Childs; Augustus Nulle, managing director of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel; Roman O. Williams; Richard M. Allerton and Cecil F. Jordan.

The Barber faction charged that Childs had brought about a drop in the earnings of the company by his policies which included mincing meat on the menus.

Artificial Lung Proves Success In Deep Sea Test

Key West, Fla., March 8.—(AP)—The newly developed artificial "lung" for use in escape from disabled submarines on the ocean floor, has been proved successful from a depth of 200 feet in the final tests conducted in Florida waters.

Lieutenant C. B. Momsen and Chief Torpedoman Edward Kalinowski, yesterday overcame the tremendous pressure 200 feet down when they stepped out through a hatch on the deck of the submarine S-4, and rose to the surface approximately nine minutes later unharmed.

Momsen, who invented the Oxygen mask device, which somewhat resembles the gas mask in use during the war, and Kalinowski have made repeated successful tests with the "lung" from varying depths, but today was their first venture at great depths. They first left the submarine at 160 feet, then returned and the under water boat was towed to deeper water, where they re-tested their feat.

The men, in escaping from the sub, enter a water tight hatch on the deck, singly, standing erect, each man allows sea water to enter the hatch through a valve. When the air inside the hatch has been compressed to an equal pressure with the water outside, the water stops rising in the hatch.

Both Momsen and Kalinowski were aided in making their way to the surface by lines attached to the submarine and held on the surface with buoys.

The journey from the sub to the surface is made slowly, to allow the body to acustom itself to the changing pressure, which grows lighter as the diver ascends. Too great a rise in the surface would cause "bends", a painful and sometimes fatal condition experienced by divers, who have not been sufficiently decompressed from the water.

WIND CAUSES MUCH DAMAGE IN WATAUGA

Two Buildings Destroyed by Fire And Telephone and Telegraph Service disrupted.

Blowing Rock, March 8.—(AP)—Thirty-six hours of the strongest wind experienced in Watauga county's history today had left a trail of destruction in its wake—a home burned, a church destroyed, an old factory building demolished, a small unit of Mayview Manor torn loose from the main structure, and telephone wires down throughout the country.

Trees were uprooted and windows blown out by a gale whose velocity was estimated at 75 miles an hour. Rough estimates place the damage at between $10,000 and $20,000. No one was killed, though one injury was reported.

In Blowing Rock disaster began about noon yesterday when the home of Mrs. Mattie Story was found to be in flames, and the flames found it practically impossible to fight the flames. The terrific wind picked up the stream of water and whipped it away from the blaze, carrying the water as much as half a mile across the village. The house was destroyed. Fireman Harley Mudge was injured when he leaped from a truck to attack a hose.

Later in the day a small unit of Mayview Manor was wrenched loose from the main building.

A glass door in the Stoner post-office building was blown out while five electric light wires, lying in the street, was cause for fear of life and property.

The summer home of Lloyd Summerville, of Charlotte, in Mayview Park, was reported damaged, with trees uprooted and electric wires down.

In Boone workmen were tearing down an old factory building, formerly the home of the Blackburn Pipe Company, when the wind relieved them of their task. Tearing the building off its foundations, the gale completed the wrecking contract.

Just east of Boone the Oak Grove Baptist Church was blown from its foundations, and was reported so badly wrecked that it can not be restored.

Blowing Rock was cut off from telephone and telegraph communication with the outside world until this morning.

Still Starts Big Forest Fire Near Buena Vista, N. C.

Asheville, March 8.—(AP)—A copper still fiercely bubbling away at the production of corn whiskey over an apparently unguarded flame in Piner's Cove east of Buena Vista near here, caused a 200-acre forest fire that raged for several hours before being extinguished only after hours of fighting early this morning.

Foresters sighted the smoke from the burning forest about 4.30 yesterday afternoon and hastily organized a crew to fight it. Forcing their way through a flaming laurel thicket on the mountain side of the cove, they found the flames spreading rapidly from a still that was in operation. Its operators had fled, abandoning both the still and its product.

Believe Woman Was Killed For Robbery

Anderson, S. C., March 8.—(AP)—The body of Mrs. Clara Adams, 56 of Elebert county, Georgia, lay in a morgue here today while officers pursued a theory that she may have been murdered with robbery as a motive.

The woman's body, with bullet wounds in the head and breast, was found in the Saluda river, 27 miles from here, Wednesday and was identified as that of Mrs. Adams by her husband, W. L. Adams of Dewey Rose, Ga., yesterday. He told officers she had left home in December with about $1,000, traveling alone in an automobile. No trace of the machine has been found.

Preparations were being made this morning to remove the body to Georgia for interment.

Godfrey Ludlow To Give Recital Here March 22nd

Godfrey Ludlow, the great Australian violinist, will be in Greenville two weeks from today. He will give a violin recital at East Carolina Teachers College on the evening of March 22nd. This is the third attraction in the winter and spring series of entertainments, which is included in the season ticket.

Radio fans are more interested in this than in any other of the entertainments offered by the college. Every time he is scheduled to play, radios are tuned in all over the country.

The vibrant quality of his playing, the magic that transforms a familiar selection into something stirring and arresting, make his admirers eager to see the man and to see how he handles the bow. This opportunity will soon be given.

Greenville people should help the college to spread the news throughout eastern Carolina that they can have this chance to hear the famous violinist by coming to Greenville.

Merchants Get Four Members

Four new members were added to the role of the Merchants Association today as committees continued soliciting new members in the membership drive started last week. The additions today follow:
Hackney-Ruffin Tire Company, McGowan Battery and Parts Company, Williams and Waldrep Market and Nichols Market.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, March 8--(AP)--Cotton opened firm today at an advance of 7 to 12 points. Active contracts sold about 10 to 12 points higher right after the opening on renewal of the recent Liverpool cables and reports of small fertilizer sales for February.

The advance into new high ground attracted profit taking, and prices eased off 5 to 6 points from the best at the end of the first half hour.

Private cables reported covering, trade calling and some rebuying in Liverpool. They also said there encouraging sales of cotton cloths to China, with some trade improving.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, March 8--(AP)--Despite early advances, wheat tended downward in price today toward the last. Prospects that the government report late today on growers' reserve stocks of domestic wheat would be construed as bearish continued to curtail buying and to increase offerings.

Wheat closed nervous 1-8 to 1-2 net lower; corn 3-8 to 1-2 to 5-8 advance; oats unchanged to 7-8 up and provisions varying from 90 decline to a 1-2 of 2.

STOCK MARKET

New York, March 8--(AP)--Speculation for the advance was resumed on a broad scale by today's stock market after an early period of weakness. Early losses of 1 to 2 points were quickly wiped out, and the general market turned upward under the leadership of Radio (old stock), which rallied from a low of 28 1-2 to 31 1-2 points, in enormous volume at rising prices.

The initial outbreak of selling undoubtedly was inspired by the unexpectedly large increase of $140,000,000 in brokers' loans and the statement of Paul Warburg, international banker, that control of the money market had passed from the Federal Reserve board to stock exchange operators. Strong buying support was provided on the break, and a general recovery was in full swing before mid-day.

Call money renewed at 10 per cent with the supply so plentiful that the rate was expected to work lower. Time money, commercial paper and banker's acceptance rates held firm around the year's high levels.
