

Government Soldiers Still Hold Mazatlan After Two Day Fight

Fourth Week of Revolution in Mexico Finds Federals and Rebels in Grip of First Major Clash For Possession Of Seaport City; Relief Troops Rushed To Aid Of Federals.

(By the Associated Press)

The fourth week of the Mexican revolution found federals and rebels in the grip of their first major clash for possession of the important seaport of Mazatlan.

After a two-day battle in which heavy losses appeared inevitable, the federal garrison at Mazatlan, numbered at least 2 to 1, was still in possession of the city while relief troops were barely fifty miles away.

The main body of federal reinforcements numbering 1,000 men was at Tepic pressing on to bring aid to the beleaguered city.

Rebel reports that the city had fallen were denied by the government which reported being in telephone communication with the defending federals last night.

While the fighting raged on the west coast, the main contending forces began slowly to close upon each other in central Mexico.

General Calles and his staff today were enroute to Hermosillo, thirty miles north of Torreon to establish headquarters there for the drive on the north. General Almazan, leading an advance column, has already reached that place.

Meanwhile General Escobar, leader of the main rebel army, was headed southwest again for the border to join his forces in South Chihuahua.

Mexico City, March 25.—(AP)—Help for the beleaguered federal garrison at Mazatlan was within forty miles of that city today and danger of its capture by the rebel west coast army under General Francisco Manzo was believed past.

Federal reinforcements under General Evaristo Perez, military governor of the state of Nayarit, advancing northward, surprised the small rebel garrison at Rosario 40 miles south of Mazatlan, late yesterday and in a brief brisk encounter, captured the city. Three rebels were killed before their main body retreated.

Government announcements said that when the federal troops put in their appearance the rebel forces had all the citizens lined up with hands in the air submitting to a search for money and valuables. The town was thoroughly looted.

Its capture was believed here to have cut short any threat of a rebel advance into the state of Jalisco where, with Guadalupe, in their possession they would have constituted a definite threat at the Calles rear.

The Perez forces were the advance guard of the army of General Lazaro Cardenas, the body of which was at Tepic, enroute here from Torreon.

Advance of this main body, containing possibly 6,000 men, was being pushed with all possible haste in an attempt to drive the rebels quickly back up the west coast where it was hoped the forces of General Calles eventually could close on them from the east.

Meanwhile General Jaime Carrillo, commanding the federal garrison at Mazatlan, reported a partial cessation of the heavy fighting which continued for two days. Rebel reports of capture of the city created a small flurry at Chapultepec Castle here but at midnight last night communication was reestablished with Carrillo who reported "no chance."

This was taken to mean that the rebels had not advanced after an earlier reported withdrawal. Sunday, it was said, fighting became more desultory, finally ceasing, with the rebels gathering up truck loads of their dead and wounded and withdrawing to some distance from the city.

No estimate of their losses could be made but they were believed to be heavy. No report was made of rebel losses, but General Carrillo said he could hold the city against any further attack until reinforcements arrived.

In the north, General Andres Almazan moved his forces as far north as Hermosillo, about thirty miles north of Torreon, in what was considered the first move to purge Chihuahua of the rebels. More than a hundred miles of railroad tracks were torn up between Torreon and Chihuahua City and it was believed that the advance would have to be made almost entirely on the highways.

Yesterday marked the beginning of the fourth week of the revolution. The federals apparently have the

PARIS STILL PAYS TRIBUTE TO DEAD HERO

Thousands File Past Bier of Late Marshal Foch at Notre Dame Today.

Paris, March 25.—(AP)—The people of Paris again today for six solid hours passed before the bier of the late Marshal Foch which during the night had been conveyed from the Arc de Triomphe to the Cathedral of Notre Dame.

When the doors of the great edifice opened for the first time of the day at six o'clock this morning there was a line of people waiting to pass by the coffin of the allied generalissimo. Their numbers grew with each passing hour and many thousands were left waiting outside in the Sully square when at noon the doors were closed again so that workmen might prepare the Cathedral for the national funeral services tomorrow.

In the six hours that the doors were open this morning, 25,000 persons filed in an orderly and silent column past the black and silver mortuary chapel where the famous soldier lay guarded by two priests and two boy scouts.

Many workmen who were unable to approach the Arc de Triomphe yesterday in the great rush of more than a million pilgrims, got up a little earlier than usual today in order to go to Notre Dame on their way to work, there to pay their respects to the first soldier of France.

Those who spent the hours before dawn laboring in the great Central markets of the Capital walked across the bridges over the Seine by the hundreds soon after sunrise to take part in the public salute to the Marshal. Later in the morning women began to outnumber the men that poured through the carved portals of Notre Dame, representing the youth of France there were hundreds and hundreds of school children in the procession.

The priests who took turns standing guard the flag-draped bier were all soldiers at the front during the war. The boy scouts who were believed at frequent intervals were stationed there at a wish once expressed by Marshal Foch that the young generation might do honor to the old.

The first of the chapels to the right of the South Portal was the mortuary Chamber, inside and out it was draped in black upon which in silver embroidery shone the letter "F" and the seven stars of the Marshal's rank. Behind the coffin was a great embroidered crucifix. Four tapers burned at each side of the bier upon which rested as yesterday the Nept. cloak and sword of the Marshal as well as the crepe-wreath fanion.

Behind the bier, but in front of a decorative opening through which the spectators gazed upon the interior of the chapel stood a former soldier holding the furled regimental flags and on the other side a Nun knelt in prayer.

Only once during the morning was there a pause in the slow and steady rhythm of the passing column of pilgrims. This was at ten o'clock when the Marshal's widow came to pray a few moments before the body of her devout and illustrious husband.

Man Electrocuted For Killing Woman

Bellefonte, Pa., March 25.—(AP)—Alvarez Miquel, 28, of Pottsville, Pa., was electrocuted at Rockview Penitentiary today for the murder of Miss Louise Jacks, also of Pottsville.

On the night of January 3, 1928, Miquel surrendered to the police several hours after Miss Jacks had been shot to death. His defense was that the girl had been unfaithful to him and that he went to her home to get some insurance policies which belonged to him.

According to Miquel's counsel, he was ordered from her home by another man who was present. A gun fight ensued, and the Jacks girl was killed. All this, however, was denied by the prosecution which contended that Miquel shot in cold blood.

situation well in hand and are following out the policy of extermination mapped out by General Calles almost without a hitch. The situation is summarized here into a few words—that General Calles has succeeded in checking the immediate danger at all points and is now planning to drive the rebels back into the mountains of Sonora for annihilation as they are found.

EQUALIZATION BOARD TO MEET ON WEDNESDAY

Provisions Of New School Measure To Be Considered During The Session.

Raleigh, March 25.—(AP)—The State board of Equalization charged with administration of the 1929 school law which provoked a storm of debate at the annual convention of the State Education Association here last week, will meet Wednesday for the first time since the enactment of the law. Under the law, commonly called the Hancock measure, the powers and duties of the board were broadened to a considerable degree.

Among the new functions given this board are supervision of county school budgets, with authority to determine whether any items are excessive; supervise and direct the methods used in the transportation of school children, and to approve or disapprove in whole or in part any county's voucher for participation in the $6,500,000 equalization fund appropriated by the legislature to any county "that refuses or fails to conduct its school administration upon a business-like, efficient, and economic basis."

Superintendent A. T. Allen, of the State Department of Public Instruction, said today he expected to issue within the next few days a call for the meeting of county superintendents and chairman of the boards of education of all counties participating in the equalizing fund, which is required by the new law. Under the act, this meeting will be held not later than April 22. Mr. Allen did not indicate what date he expected to set for the gathering.

The Hancock law makes it the duty of the superintendents and chairman to attend the meeting, and prescribes that the meeting shall last not less than five days nor more than one week. A per diem of $5 and mileage of ten cents is allowed for the officials attending.

"At said meeting," the law provides, "instructions shall be given by or under the direction of the superintendent of Public Instruction with reference to methods of efficiency, and sound economy in the organization and operation of the public schools. Comparison of costs of operating schools including transportation problems and such other matters as the State Superintendent of Public Instruction may deem wise and necessary shall be considered and studied."

Mr. Allen said he had not as yet asked the Attorney General's office for a formal ruling upon some of the debated points of the law, although he has discussed the measure informally with Attorney General Dennis G. Brummitt. His plans, however, to draw up a list of questions to be submitted for opinions.

At the Teachers' Convention, a special committee was appointed to confer with the Attorney General in regard to some phases of the law.

SIX DIE FROM ACCIDENTS IN N. C. SUNDAY

Three Killed In Plane Crash at Charlotte; Automobiles Claim Other Three.

Charlotte, March 25.—(AP)—North Carolina today counted six dead as the Sabbath toll of automobile, train and airplane accidents.

In Charlotte two men and a woman, George L. Vickery, Mrs. J. G. Galloway and Fred Kendrick, were killed in an airplane which plunged to earth in flames at the municipal airport.

Miss Lula Louise Coyle, 19, was killed instantly by a train which struck her as she stepped on the Seaboard Air Line tracks at Hoskins, in Charlotte. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coyle.

James M. Wall, 24, a teacher in Scott's high school near Statesville, and Tom Miller, a negro, were killed in an automobile collision on the highway between Newton and Statesville. Miss Cynthia Reeves and Miss Paul Lentz, also high school teachers, and Paul Feinster were injured. They were occupants of Wall's car.

At Wilmington, Mrs. J. A. Coppell of Thomasville, N. C., early this morning was not expected to live as the result of injuries received when an automobile plunged from the road into a ditch. Mrs. F. D. Roberts was injured seriously and J. A. Coppell and F. D. Roberts were slightly hurt in the same accident.

Two Spanish Aviators On Flight Across Atlantic; Bound For Rio Janeiro

Seville, Spain, March 25.—(AP)—Two Spanish aviators, bachelors and neither over 30 years old, this morning presumably were winning their way across the Atlantic Ocean on an attempt to make a non-stop flight to Rio Janeiro, Brazil.

Captains Francisco Jomez and Ignacio Iglesias, Spanish aces in the Moroccan campaign, left Seville in a secret take-off yesterday afternoon at 5:42 (2:42 p. m. E. S. T.) in their Spanish made airplane "Jesus Del Gran Poder." They have not been reported since.

Their cruise lay down the West coast of Northern Africa to Capo Blanco, Mauritania, thence across the open ocean probably to Pernambuco, Brazil, by way of the Cape Verde Islands.

From Pernambuco to Rio Janeiro it is approximately 1,200 miles. From Brazil by way of Cadiz to Capo Blanco it is 1,200 miles. The distance between Capo Blanco and Pernambuco—which with the exception over open water—is approximately 2,400 miles, the total projected flight being about 4,800 miles.

The machine was capable of something better than 100 miles an hour. Barring mishap they should have entered the sea stage of their journey about dawn today Eastern Standard Time. Arrival at Rio Janeiro could hardly be expected under even extremely favorable conditions before some time early tomorrow afternoon.

At its take-off the five-ton airplane was loaded to capacity with about 1,000 gallons of gasoline and 50 gallons of oil.

It made a perfect start and quickly attained an altitude of 1,000 meters. The start was made with the utmost secrecy and residents of the city knew nothing of the departure until they heard the roar of the motors as the ship flew over the town.

In addition to fuel the aviators carried mineral water, chocolate, eggs, milk, oranges and bananas. A sealed barograph was placed in the plain by the Royal Aero club of Madrid.

Start on the trip to Rio Janeiro marked partial realization for the two aviators of a dream of years. Last year they were ready to attempt the Atlantic crossing, either to Havana or to Rio Janeiro when a government military order frowning upon trans-Atlantic flying forced abandonment of their project. They started for Karachi, India, instead, coming to grief, when their plane crashed in the Mesopotamian Desert.

They brought their plane back to Seville and repaired it. The plane is a Monoplane of the long distance Breguet type, with a single Hispano 500-horsepower motor. On its Indian flight it carried no radio. Its name, "Jesus Del Gran Poder," is Spanish for the words "Jesus of the Great Power."

There have been six successful flights across the South Atlantic, and one failure.

In June 1922, Captain Sacadura and Courtinho (Portuguese) flew from Lisbon to Rio Janeiro by way of the Canary Islands. In January 1926 Commander Ramon Franco (Spanish) flew from the Cape Verde Islands to Fernando de Noronha, off the Brazilian coast.

HOOVER AND STIMSON TO HOLD CONFAB

President to Confer With Secretary Of State at White House Tomorrow.

Washington, March 25.—(AP)—President Hoover and his new Secretary of State will have their first meeting tomorrow with the arrival of Henry L. Stimson after his long trip from Manila by way of San Francisco and New York. Mr. Stimson had been invited to the White House today but after his arrival in New York he found that he would be unable to come to the Capital until tomorrow afternoon.

The Chief Executive and Mr. Stimson have a host of subjects to discuss and in order that they may facilitate the work ahead the new official will be a White House guest for the remainder of the week. The Root formula for American adherence to the World Court, the Mexican situation, and European reparations are some of the questions facing Mr. Stimson, but perhaps the foremost is the reorganization of the diplomatic corps and the selection of new high officials of the State department.

Frank B. Kellogg, who has remained in his post at the urgent request of President Hoover, will be officially relieved of duty when Mr. Stimson takes the oath of office, but he will remain here until Friday on which date he sails for Europe where he will spend several weeks on a vacation tour.

The new and retiring secretaries will meet daily so that Mr. Stimson could be acquainted with intimate details of the problems pending before the department and the actions that have been taken in such current affairs, as the Mexican Rebellion and the preparations for the preliminary arms conference to be held at Geneva next month.

Hugh S. Gibson, Ambassador to Belgium, who is chairman of the American delegation to this conference, also is a White House guest and he and the new secretary thus will have opportunity for extensive conversations concerning the meeting and the attitude of the United States with respect to the several proposals that will come up for consideration at Geneva.

Repeated statements at the White House that consideration of diplomatic appointments and American adhesion to the World Court on the basis of the Root formula would await Mr. Stimson's arrival has led to the opinion in some quarters that Secretary Stimson is to have a free rein in handling State department matters.

However, there has been a feeling among some of Mr. Hoover's friends and many political observers here that the chief executive would closely supervise the operations of the department even if he did not in fact act as his own secretary as did Woodrow Wilson.

Mussolini Wins Fight at Polls

Rome, March 25.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini and the fascist party won an overwhelming victory in yesterday's parliamentary elections returning today showed.

Practically complete returns were a 50,532 vote or 95 per cent against only 136,198 "No" or opposition votes. Lost and voided votes totalled 6,824.

As a result of the election the slate of 400 candidates, representing not geographical constituencies but organizations and industries and the nation as a whole, was elected for the new parliament, the voter had no choice but to vote "yes" for all or "no" for all, since the ticket could not be split.

Preparations Begin For Big Dress Parade Here; Easter Goods On Display

The big dress parade of the year will get under way with the advent of Easter next Sunday. Public buildings and streets will be thronged with fashionably dressed men, women and children obeying the call of the season to dress up and prepare for the coming of the balmy days of spring and summer time.

To meet the demand of countless thousands of shoppers in this trade territory, Greenville merchants today had on display probably one of the most complete lines of Easter styles ever shown here before. The "dolls" are in keeping with those offered by the world's greatest fashion centers. They combine all the grace and beauty within the creative power of the world's greatest sartorial artists and are more outstanding than in recent years.

Ladies' ready-to-wear stores are vying with one another in presentation of their offerings. Windows have been decorated in such way that they immediately catch the eye of the woman asking herself the ever-present question, "What shall I wear for Easter?" The "dolls" are dazzling in colors and designs and offer sufficient contrast to please the most fastidious buyer.

The masculine ready-to-wear has not been neglected on this Easter. The big clothing concerns have come to their rescue with such a collection of styles that even the "hard Easter" to suit no longer has to scratch his head and deliberate for hours before buying.

Mr. Man has been unable to compute with the fair sex in past year because his demands were not so exacting. But this year he is in the race, and Easter will be garbed in more combinations of distinctive design than ever has been his before.

Color, color, color—more color—and brighter colors—will dominate the Easter parade this year. This will not be confined to the feminine element alone, but the "head of the house" will find himself faced by lots of color or the drab, dull materials he has been parading around in for years and years. Dame Fashion has decreed that he dress up in keeping with the styles of fair femininity, and if he fails to do so there is nobody to blame but himself.

With all of these styles of display, local merchants today began preparations for entertaining more shoppers than any pre-Easter season in years. Bright, sunny weather has been considered to give them a distinct advantage right at the beginning of the week and from now on the stores will be crowded to capacity both morning and evening as men and women settle the inevitable question, "What shall I wear for Easter?"

Four Killed As Airplane Crashes in Pennsylvania

Mount Airy, Pa., March 25.—(AP)—Four persons were killed when a Ryan Monoplane struck a tree as it was flying low attempting to ascertain its position while over the National Guard open-air ground near here today.

The pilot had a card in his pocket reading: "John L. Campbell, Eastern Factory representative of the Mohanty-Ryan Aircraft Corporation, St. Louis."

Another victim had a card bearing the name of Harold W. Lloyd, Worthington, O.

DEATH TOLL FROM STORMS STILL MOUNTS

Tornadoes and Floods Claim 48 Lives In The South Over The Week-End.

Atlanta, March 25.—(AP)—The death toll from the series of tornadoes, storms and floods that ravaged the south over the week-end had mounted to 48 today, with several unverified casualties expected to rise the total above 50. In addition, property damage in the afflicted communities has been unofficially estimated at well above $1,000,000.

Casualties were reported from six states. Tennessee was the hardest hit, with 31 deaths, caused by flooded mountain streams that trapped many persons in their gorge-like valleys when they went out of their banks under a deluge of rain.

Five persons were known to have drowned in Kentucky, while two additional deaths have been reported but not verified. Three lost their lives in Georgia, two in a tornado and one by lightning; and five were killed in Alabama, three in Mississippi and one in North Carolina at tornadoes.

The mountain freshets in Tennessee and Kentucky, rushing rapidly toward their outlets in the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers were steadily falling today, with a proportionate rise in the two latter rivers. Residents of the flooded mountain sections of the two states were restoring their homes and business houses.

Below is a list of the storm and flood dead in the six states:

Tennessee—Harriston—29, with the two bodies recovered; in floods, Rockwood—8, all members of a boy scout troop; trapped in flood, Webster—3; drowned by flooded mountain stream.

Kentucky—Barbourville—3; boys drowned in Cumberland river; Pines 1; man drowned in barn lot. Typo 1; boy swept from bridge.

Alabama—Merrellton; 5 negro children killed in tornado.

Georgia—Americus 2 negroes killed in tornado, Alpharette 1; man killed by lightning.

Mississippi—Harriston 3 negroes killed in storm.

North Carolina—Small Creek; 1 boy killed in south.

Spanish Dictator Plans to Retire

Madrid, March 25.—(AP)—Prime Minister de Rivera, Chief of the Spanish dictatorship, feels that he is no longer young enough to remain at the head of the present regime. The dictator has issued a semi-official note foretelling a change in government and stating that he was not young enough to continue for another five years at his post.

Had he been younger, the man who has been virtually dictator of Spain since the autumn of 1923, that he would have asked King Alfonso to continue his confidence in him for another period of five years.

Both the Senate and House agriculture committees, the former beginning today and the latter Wednesday, have made extensive preparations to start anew the sifting of ideas, with the hope of producing a proposal which will win the approval of President Hoover, farm leaders and the new Congress when it meets in special session April 15.

Intended to stabilize the price level of farm products, stem the post-war overproduction and depression, and to provide for the solution of future problems, the sifting out of the piling up of surplus, some form of farm relief legislation has had a prominent place in the discussions of Congress since 1927.

Twice—in 1927 and 1928—Congress passed agricultural aid measures, but each time they were vetoed by Calvin Coolidge. In 1928 a farm relief bill was passed by the House but failed to be adopted by the Senate, while two other measures previously were defeated in the House.

Mr. Coolidge based his veto of the two measures, which were known as the McNary-Jensen bills, upon their provision for an emergency fund for the purpose of financing the marketing of the farm surplus product. The fee was a method devised to have the farmers contribute their share of loans and marketing costs to reimburse a governmental revolving fund proposed for the marketing of the products.

The farm relief proposals, which the House Committee on Commerce expected to vote out before April 15, undoubtedly will not contain the equalization fee. The Republican national convention, soon to convene at St. Louis, and the Republicans are in power.

With the exception of a few measures provided for specific agricultural commodities, the forthcoming legislation, if approved by President Hoover, will be the first measure to formulate a general program of economic relief for the $10,000,000,000 industry ever enacted by Congress.

Since 1923 when farm relief was brought to the attention of Congress by northwestern wheat growers, the legislative proposals have passed through an extensive process of evolution.

The first proposal, providing for the creation of a Federal Farm Corporation, which would buy surplus to farmers in payment for their products, was drafted in 1924 and two years later reached the floor of the House where it was defeated by a margin of 75 votes.

After his election in 1921, President Coolidge to prevent his party's platform promise, called a conference of farm leaders. Awaiting its report, Congress devoted an effort to legislation at the next session.

That conference's recommendation called for legislation to encourage co-operative marketing organizations, which it proposed, should be placed under the federal control through a licensing system. This was written into a bill which was introduced the next year, was defeated in the House after strenuous opposition by co-operative organizations.

Representative Dickinson, Republican Iowa, then proposed a substitute measure on co-operative marketing without the licensing plan. This was adopted in the House but the Senate failed to act upon it.

The McNary-Hauten equalization fee idea was brought out during the 1927 session, after a concerted drive by agricultural leaders and organizations. It survived two passages through Congress only to wind up on the rocks of the president's veto, and now apparently has been laid definitely aside for something else—just what remains to be seen.

TRAINING CAMP NEWS BRIEFS

Winter Haven, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—George Susce, rookie catcher from Pittsburgh, is given credit by his team mates for instilling a lot of life and action into the sometimes lowly Phillies. When he is in, the game the entire action is upped up.

"He can't keep that pep," said Fred Hater, the coach, shaking his head. "It's too good to be true. They'll take it out of him. But I'm going to tell him he can't make this club unless he does keep it."

Fort Myers, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Eddie Collins, captain of the Athletics, said today he didn't expect to see much active service as a player this season.

He is entering upon his 24th year in the American League.

San Antonio, Tex., March 25.—(AP)—After a strenuous week-end which saw them win two games from the Chicago White Sox, the Giants settled down to camp routine today. The next exhibition game will be played on Wednesday when the New Yorkers meet the Pirates.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—As the Yankees training season draws closer to its close, it becomes more and more apparent that the customers who patronize the ruppert rifles next summer may gaze upon a $150,000 ball player sitting upon the bench. Miller Huggins has all but decided to employ Leo Durocher as his regular shortstop this season, leaving the expensive Lynn Lary on the bench.

Huggins believes Durocher is a better defensive player than the more famous infielder from the Pacific Coast.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Wilbert Robinson, Manager of the Brooklynns, announced today that henceforth the Robins pitching would be shared each day by two men instead of three.

San Antonio, Tex., March 25.—(AP)—How to win a baseball game from the Giants was still an unsolved problem before the White Sox today.

The Giants took their second straight victory, yesterday, 4 to 3, in ten innings. Misplays by Antry and Cassell were responsible for the defeat.

Los Angeles, March 25.—(AP)—Fifteen of five straight victories over the Detroit Tigers, the Cubs headed eastward today for more opposition.

Hack Wilson left a homer into the right field bleachers with the bats clacked yesterday as the Cubs dropped the Tigers 8 to 5 before 18,000 spectators.

Augusta, Ga., March 25.—(AP)—Jack Simpson and Jack Mooney, of Atlanta, are the new South Atlantic doubles tennis champions. They won their title yesterday by defeating Fred C. Bagus and Dr. W. Rosenbaum, of New York in the final match of the annual tournament, 6-0, 6-2, 3-6, 4-6, and 6-2.

Earlier in the day the Atlanta pair eliminated Marcel Painville, and Tamio Abe, Japanese star, in the last semi-final match of the tourney, 6-3, 6-1 and 7-5. Painville, Canadian champion, several days ago won the singles championship.

Mrs. Harrison Smith, of Philadelphia, paired with Abe, defeated Miss Florence Leboutillier of New York and Ty Cobb, Jr., of Augusta, for the mixed doubles title.

Leaguers In Two Workouts In City Today

Spring training of the Greenville baseball club of the Eastern Carolina League got under way at the fair grounds this morning. Between fifteen and twenty players were on hand and went through the first training period in a way that presaged great things for fans during the coming months. The workout was continued this afternoon. The club will go through two training periods daily until everything is gotten in trim for the opening of the league next month.

The players were led to the field by Manager Lester Bangs. The only last season's men on the diamond today were "Deacon" Jolith, Mattox and Cherry. Fred Barron is expected to reach here in time for the first work-out tomorrow morning.

Those appearing on the diamond today were: David Bryan, C. J. Rose, C. C. Sunderlin, R. E. Dawson, Cherry, Theo. Garbee, J. K. Snyder, Jolith, Warren and Mizelle. Dan Pasquella, catcher, Newton Edwards, Andrew Hart, outfielders; S. H. Freed, Joe Mattox, Herman Jones, Robert Lee, infielders; Curry, catcher.

President Guy Smith said this afternoon that he was expecting three or four more men within the next day or so. The arrival of this contingent will complete the list of those signed up.

Speaking of the situation at Rocky Mount, caused by the withdrawal of President Fenner, members of the local club said today that in all probability Rocky Mount would be ready to get down to business in real earnest by Thursday. It was understood the club had plenty of support in a financial way and that as soon as things can be straightened out they will be ready

NO UPHEAVAL IS EXPECTED IN BASEBALL

Atlanta, March 25.—(AP)—Unless the unexpected happens in baseball there will be no drastic upheaval when all the 1929 returns are in for the National league. Spring indications point to four club in a fight for the first division places, and the favored quartet is made up of those finishing in the first four places last year.

Rearrangement of the order in both upper and lower brackets seems likely. The champions, the St. Louis Cardinals, will find their high position definitely menaced by Chicago, New York and Pittsburgh. Some students of the game have concluded that St. Louis is not greatly improved while the Cubs, Giants and Pirates are definitely better.

The outlook for the clubs who finished in the second division last year is not promising in view of the improved condition of their rivals who were more fortunate last season. The Phillies, chronic tail-enders, have perhaps taken the longest strides and with a break in luck should get out of the cellar.

A majority of baseball's close observers forecast a long and bitter struggle with the competition continuing to the strength. Each of the four first division clubs of last year has made a definite addition to its strength. The Cubs have Rogers Hornsby and his devastating bat, the Giants expect Fred Leach to strengthen their outfield, the Pirates have Jess Petty, a star left hander, and the Cardinals' infield has been braced by the acquisition of Charlie Gelbert, a great young shortstop.

Supporters of the Cubs believe that the addition of Hornsby has made the club. The batting leader of the league will add a punch and his strong offense is expected to carry his mates with him. If Manager Joe McCarthy gets better results from his pitching staff, his club should play a prominent part in the finish fight.

His infield reserves have not been strengthened but an already strong catching staff has been bolstered by a hard hitter in Tom Angley, the former cracker and Georgia Tech star.

The New York Giants have been gratified to find Andy Reese a greatly improved performer at second base and if he carries his terrific spring hitting streak into the regular campaign it will be difficult to oust him from the infield. Carl Hubbell, who showed himself a capable left hander on his first appearance, is better now, and Leach and Edd Roush, apparently recovered from his indisposition of last year, will form a stronger outfield combination.

Pittsburgh is conducting an infield experiment and has been retarded in the outfield arrangements by the absence of the Waners. The signing of one of the poisonous brothers relieved the tension in part but the Pirates will not be happy until they have the elder as well.

Jess Petty supplies a touch to the pitching department has long needed. Pittsburgh has not had an experienced southpaw in many seasons.

The Cardinals will take the field with a rearranged infield, including the sensational international league recruit, Gilbert, at shortstop. He has given every indication of being as good as he was touted and should develop into one of the stars of the game. Carey Selph, another recruit infielder, having a slight slowness on double plays, has also lived up to his press notices. The return of Walter Roettger to physical fitness will add batting strength to the outfield.

Cincinnati has uncovered some promising youthful outfielders, giving Manager Jake Hendrick food for thought. The gray-piled-of-the-Reds must decide if any or all of them are ready for promotion to the baseball field. Elias Johnson, a young pitcher, may be helpful.

After a hard fight over the condition of the arm of Glenn Wright, his new shortstop, Manager Wilbert Robinson has been able to turn his attention to his outfield where he has a difficult problem in working out an arrangement that will be satisfactory both from a defensive and offensive standpoint. He may introduce a new face. There is no suggestion that he has found a pitcher in the new crop to replace Petty but Dazzy Vance will continue to throw them by the opposition batters.

The Phillies for the first time in years will be able to present a tight infield combination in Don Hurst, Frasco Thompson, Tommy Therevnow and Red Whitney. There is a woeful lack of reserve strength but the first stringers will rank high. In spite of the loss of Leach, the outfield seems to have held its own and with fair pitching, Burt Shotton should improve his position.

The Boston Braves will be an experiment from the Manager to the trainer. President-Manager Emil Fuchs will direct play from the bench, a new field of endeavor for the former Judge. A new training system has also been introduced along very modern lines.

Friday will be Courtesy Day.

NO TWO TEAM IS EXPECTED IN AMERICAN

Atlanta, March 25.—(AP)—If early star gazers have read correctly signs in the American league baseball sky there will be no two team race this season. In 1928 the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics thundered to the wire neck and neck; the Yankees finally nosing out the A's. The St. Louis Browns in third place, were 16 games back.

It may be found that the Yankees and Athletics have shown less improvement than the other six clubs in the circuit. On their performance last year they were well able to leave well enough alone but the opposition seems to have taken up the challenge in earnest.

Of the four second division clubs in 1928 Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Boston, the Detroit Tigers, under new management and partially renovated, seem to furnish the most serious threat to the teams higher up.

Yyn Lary, the high priced new shortstop of the Yankees has found himself at home and mark Koenig doubtless will do well enough at third base. Tony Lazzeri's arm remains something of a question mark but his hitting power has not been lessened. With Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig able to swing their big bats, most of the experts agree that little or nothing can be done about the pennant chase without consulting Manager Miller Huggins. Herb Penock probably will pitch some good ball games and at least one new pitcher should be ready.

Connie Mack has stood on the personnel of the Athletics but has rearranged the infield. Jimmy Foxx the hitting catcher-third baseman and first basemen, will be the regular first sacker. Jimmy Dykes, who literally can play anywhere, is the leading third base candidate, the A's infield, under the new arrangement, may prove to be stronger. Manager Mack has only one extra outfielder of experience, Homer Summa, late of Cleveland and will need at least one more. An already strong pitching staff has been made stronger by recruits but the starting moundsmen will remain the same.

Stanley Harris making his bow to Detroit fans as manager of the home team, seems to have a great chance to move the Tigers up from their sixth place position of last year. Roy Johnson, the Pacific Coast recruit, should help an outfield that was fair before. George Uhle, former star Cleveland pitcher, may carry the club's destiny with him. If he has a good year the clever "Bucky" Harris will be happy. Other questions for the manager may be how well will Dale Alexander field and Will Schuble carry on at short. The big first baseman's hitting is not in dispute.

The St. Louis Browns, who hustled themselves into third place last season, have retained their fighting spirit. A clever fielder has been added to the infield in the person of third baseman Eddie Grims and another recruit infielder, Leonard Dondero, may be heard from. "Rip" Collins, a pitcher who has "everything," according to the other players, should win some games. Some of the St. Louis pitchers will have greater responsibilities for manager Dan Howley cannot reasonably complain if Alvin Crowder and Sam Gray fall short of their 1928 performances.

Washington's Senators will be built about the personality of the beloved Walter Johnson, who has his chance as a Major league manager after a brief apprenticeship at Newark. "Barney" would like to have another pitcher or two and he may have trouble in filling Bucky Harris' second base berth. Buddy Myer at third base and Ossie Bluege, transferred to shortstop for a combination setting his mind at rest on that side of the infield, Adolph Liska and Archie Campbell, a former Yankee, have shown promise and if they convince him that can win now and then, Manager Johnson will feel much better.

Cleveland will offer an outfit largely made over from 1928 with the exception of the battery forces.

The Indians may have the satisfaction of breaking in two recruit outfielders able to make the grade in Dick Portar and Earl Averill and Falk, long a Chicago White Sox, will be a valuable man for Manager Peckinpaugh. Jackie Tavener has fitted into the Cleveland machine at shortstop and Joe Sewell will play good ball at third base. Jim Zinn, a clever minor league pitcher, will have another chance under the big top.

The Chicago White Sox will depend on the fast young men who joined the team last autumn to keep them in the running with the exception of Johnny Kerr, drafted from Hollywood, at second base. Long without a capable southpaw pitcher, Manager Lena Bianburne hopes this shortage has been met by the arrival of Bob Welland from Moline.

Dan Dugan, a collegian may be along later.

Some time must elapse before Manager Bill Carrigan will know how good his latest cast of the Boston Red Sox is to be. He has seen enough to convince him that it is a stronger combination than last year. Bob Reeves former Washington infielder, is one of the most promising of his big lot of players, but the collegian is not alone. The Sox will have many new faces.

Two Big Fights Set For Chicago

New York, March 25.—(AP)—There are two big fights in Chicago this week. Tonight comes the welterweight battle between Jackie Fields and Young Jack Thompson, Pacific Coast stars. On Thursday night there will be light heavyweight titular battle between Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia titleholder, and Mickey Walker, the aspirant.

At Philadelphia tonight Benny Bass the harding featherweight contender, battles Harry Forbes of Columbus, O. in a ten rounder. Baby Joe Gans, the Los Angeles Junior welterweight, meets Young Ketchell of Chester, Pa., in another ten rounder on the same card.

Billy Wallace, slugging lightweight from Cleveland, tackles Joe Medell of Chicago in a twelve-rounder at Cleveland tomorrow night. Mushy Callahan, of Los Angeles, junior welterweight titleholder, battles Jackie Carr, of Glendale, over a ten round route at Hollywood Thursday night.

Graf Zeppelin On Cruise Over Central Europe

Friedrichshafen, Germany, March 25.—(AP)—The Graf Zeppelin, Mighty Mistress of the Air, left her hanger here early today and later was reported sailing over the Mediterranean on the second long cruise of her career.

Five thousand miles of travel lay ahead, with four days of cruising, over France, Italy the Northeastern and Eastern shores of the Mediterranean, the Balkans and countries of Central Europe before the Giant Dirigible should return to Friedrichshafen.

Departure was at 15.54 a. m. (6.54 Sunday, E. S. T.) being delayed somewhat by the late arrival of some of the 27 passengers, among them two women. Besides the passengers the ship carried a crew of 48 and a total load of 55 tons.

There was more gaiety at departure today than on the setting out on the trans-Atlantic venture last year, but there was less excitement. At 12.45 the brightly lighted silvered craft was dragged from its hanger onto the flying field where several hundred watchers had gathered to see the start.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, March 25.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 3 to 12 points, with active months selling 12 to 15 points net lower in the early trading under liquidation combined with some southern and local selling.

Sentiment was evidently influenced by reports of favorable weather in the south and relatively easy cables. While offerings were absorbed by covering and trade buying, prices were within a point or two of the lowest at the end of the first half hour.

Private cables reported local London and continental liquidation in Liverpool as result of better weather reports from the south. They also said there was fair cloth demand from China but poor demand from India owing to political unrest.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, March 25.—(AP)—Despite profit taking on upturns, the wheat market was higher most of the time today, commission houses and pit speculators becoming good buyers. Corn reports from Oklahoma and Kansas were of a mixed character, but as a rule were considered as generally favorable.

Wheat closed nervous, 3-8 to 1-1/8 net higher; corn 1-4 to 5-8 up; oats varying from 1-2 decline to 1-8 advance and provisions at 25 setback to a rise of 2.

STOCK MARKET

New York, March 25.—(AP)—Heavy selling for both accounts imparted a decidedly reactionary trend to the price movement in today's stock market. Scores of leading industrial and rail broke through their February lows, the nervous resistance points, and at least 30 dropped into new low ground for the year. A few issues were run up 3 to 8 points in the early trading but these gains were practically wiped out, and by early afternoon a long list of issues were selling 2 to 10 points below last week's final quotations.

Call money renewed at 9 per cent but the rate was advanced to 10 when banks called from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 in loans, and was expected to go higher within the next few days. Heavy withdrawals of funds from New York have been made by out of town institutions, particularly Chicago, where individuals and corporations were asked to make available their surpluses for collateral loans in that city.

Wall street traders continued to show alarm over the credit situation. Unconfirmed reports were in circulation around Wall street that banking and stock exchange authorities had virtually served notice on pools to suspend operations because of the seriousness of pool stocks, which was stimulated by reports that some of the large operators, previously identified with the "bull" market, had either liquidated their speculative holdings or taken a short position in the market.

Another advance of 1/8 of 1 per cent in bankers' acceptances, placing them 1/2 of 1 per cent above the prevailing Federal Reserve discount rate, also had a depressing effect on sentiment.

Selling was particularly urgent in the merchandising and automotive groups, many issues in the former group having sold at 20 to 30 times their earnings, while the liquidation in the latter group was inspired by reports of unusually large stocks of cars in dealers' hands.

Among the busy issues to establish new low prices for the year were Union Pacific, Rock Island, Reading Railroad, Sears Roebuck, Kress, Jordan, Bank Motors, Gardner Motors, Coca Cola, Postum, Mack Rubber, International Match, preferred, Johns Manville and Anaconda Copper (new stock).

DON'T DESTROY THE BEAUTY OF SPRING

Yesterday we noted numbers of automobiles pass laden with spring flowers which was another evidence that winter has passed and spring is here, but the sad part of it is that this season always brings with it a veritable destruction of the beauties which nature supplies us. At this season of the year the blossoming woods become beautiful, but there are too many supposed lovers of nature that cannot resist the temptation to alight from their automobile and raid these blossoming forests with a view of bringing some of the beauty home with them.

of a Federal Farm Board for aiding co-operatives and for the building up, with the assistance of Federal funds, of farmer-owned stabilization corporations to protect the farmer against the depression of seasonal surpluses. He also denounced subsidies, fees and taxes as methods of farm relief. This meant the end of McNary-Haugenism, but beyond that it left Congress with a fairly free hand. Consequently Senator Brookhart, than whom Mr. Hoover now has no more zealous supporter, is talking of an initial appropriation of a billion and a half, while more conservative Congressmen think that a fourth or a fifth of that sum will be ample.

ABOUT TOWN

"Greenville has been made the distributing center by another nationally known concern," observed a reader of the Reflector today, commenting on the organization of the Kelvinator concern. "Several large organizations have realized the importance of establishing themselves firmly in this community, and this is going to mean much in the forward march of the city in the future. More industries mean more people and more people mean more money for their support, therefore, the financial status of the community should undergo quite a change within the next several months. I wish Greenville to go forward from now on. Possibilities are unlimited and where such a condition exists, just what can keep people from progressing. The Easter cantata given by the Greenville choral club at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon was everything expected," declared a citizen today commenting on the splendid way the program was presented.

has been counted. The Easter season will be observed by series of evangelistic services in two of the city churches, and the public is urged to attend each evening. A member of the Ministerial Association said today that the services will be inspirational in that they deal with the death and resurrection of Christ. This season of the year is of special significance to the church-goers, and they should turn out on an hour the special message, which the ministers are to deliver. "I am proud for the pig club boys," said a business man today. "They are setting an example which boys of other communities should endeavor to emulate. The thrill of these youngsters was plentifully evidenced by competition for the prize trip to Richmond. Should they continue to display so much interest in this kind of industry, other institutions than the banks may offer them special inducements in the way of trips to other communities. "Pitt county has long needed encouragement in hog raising, and now that youth has received encouragement we may expect to see the industry greatly increase in the days to come."

"It is to be regretted that W. E. Pepler must withdraw from participation in the Eastern Carolina league," declared a ball enthusiast here today, but his action will hardly cause disorganization of the league. "While local interests may not care to operate the Rocky Mount club, it is easy to believe that outside capital will take a risk and put the club back in running. "Rocky Mount is not the only town that suffered financial setback last season. Greenville found itself in the same boat, but this has not discouraged promoters. They have faith in ability of the city to support a winning club and it is this faith that is sustaining them during the approaching season. "While action of the Rocky Mount baseball head is disappointing, it is not likely to put a damper on baseball ardor in this community. The other towns want this brand of sport and are going to have it."

I'm building a garage (Says Bill the Builder)—and I'll be gum swizzled if I'll park Henry under a tree for another night's lodging. Henry is a good, faithful steed, but he gets rheumatism in his universal joints from exposure to the night air. So it's a swell room with private bath and all modern conveniences for Henry, and I saved the price of two new tires and a wash and polish, because I bought my lumber from J. J. CHORAL CLUB GIVES EASTER CANTATA HERE

"Seven Last Words Of Christ" Presented at Presbyterian Church Yesterday.

The Seven Last Words of Christ, a sacred Cantata by Dubois, was presented by members of the Greenville Choral club at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. Dwight Holmes of Farmville, well known tenor, assisted in the production. Miss Gene Thomas, director of public school music of the Eastern Carolina Teachers College, directed the singing. The Cantata was given in celebration of the Easter season and graphically portrayed the Crucifixion of Christ. The wording of each song group was so descriptive that that audience could almost imagine themselves as actual witnesses to the tragedy at the Cross. The singers, twenty-two in number had caught the spirit of the theme in the long days spent in practice and sang probably as they had never sung before.

The introduction to the Cantata was sung by Miss Brown, soprano. It furnished the proper atmosphere for the seven parts that followed. As the voice of the singer drifted through the building, the audience was swayed by the mood of the selection and caught a mental vision of the Savior as he hung upon the cross. They could feel His bitterness of this last dark hour; his extreme humility in accepting the fate which an unappreciative people had bestowed upon him.

The wording was particularly pathetic: "All ye people traveling on life's highway, hearken to Me, look upon Me; is there sorrow like unto my sorrow. For the Lord Omnipotent the Almighty hath dealt bitterly with me and My people; call me never more Naomi, every more call me Mara."

The first word opened with a baritone solo by Mr. Joliff. This was followed with a soprano solo by Mrs. Karsnac with chorus. It described Jesus as the blood-thirsty crowd milled about the Cross. The music at this point was extremely touching, the words in themselves expressive of the agony of the moment. "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do. Then cried out the people, 'Take him, let us crucify him; Let his blood be on us and on our children.'"

"Then crucified they Jesus and two thieves, one on His right hand and the other on His left hand."

The second word came in the form of a duet by Mr. Joliff and Mr. Holmes and chorus. It was short yet descriptive. "Verily, though today shalt be with me in Paradise. Amen. So I tell Thee, O Lord, remember me, when Thou comest into Thy kingdom."

A soprano solo by Mrs. Knott, Proctor, baritone solo by J. H. Rose and tenor solo by Mr. Holmes and chorus formed the Third Word. It graphically described the Holy Mother's grief as she watched her son dying on the cross.

"Women Behold Thy Son. See the Holy Mother singing, watches as her son is dying. Bleeding on the cruel cross, he could see her without weeping, as she kneeleth vigil keeping. Bowed by her grief and fearful loss."

The fourth word was a baritone solo by S. P. Allen. It depicted the feeling of the Christ as he realized that he had been forsaken offered a supreme sacrifice upon the cross. The words were extremely touching and rendered effectively. All those who were my friends have now forsaken me, and whom I have loved. Even the vine that once I planted and that often I tended; why has all thy sweetness more and more turned to bitterness, that though dost crucify me?"

The fifth word was presented by Mr. Joliff, Mr. Spain and chorus. "And the Jews then passing by Him called on Him and mocked Him, wagging their heads at Him and crying to him. Ah Thou that wouldst destroy the temple, if Thou be Jesus, Son of the Father, now form the cross descend Thou, that we may see Thee and believe Thee, when we behold it. If Thou art king over Israel save thyself now."

The sixth word indicated acceptance of His fate by Christ. It was sung by Mr. Spain and chorus. "Father into Thy keeping I commend my soul. For Thou art my Father and my God, Thou art my Savior in time of trouble."

The seventh and final words were sung by Miss Brown, Mr. Joliff, Mr. Holmes and chorus. It concluded the tragic scene at the cross. The organ chimes, under the deft hands of Mrs. Guy Smith, who played throughout the program, pealed forth from time to time sounding the death knell as the Savior of mankind yielding up his life in behalf of humanity. The wording of the lines and the touching way they were sung, proved very effective.

"Once more Jesus spoke, crying with a loud voice, 'It is finished.' And Jesus bowed down his head and yielded up the Ghost."

And about the sixth hour there was darkness, obscuring the sun's light, and darkness covered the earth until about the ninth hour; and the veil of the temple was rent, and the trembling earthquake, rocks were rending, graves were opening and saints arose."

Then followed the prayer, a song of praise. "Thee we adore, O Savior Bless Thee, and praise Thee forever. For Thy Holy Cross Thou has the world from sin redeemed."

Members of the club taking part in the Cantata were:

Sopranos: Miss Brown, Mrs. Proctor, Mrs. Karsnac, Mrs. Tyson, Mrs. Morton, Miss Meade, Miss Greene, Miss Howell.

Altos: Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Coppedge, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Harvey, Miss Kuykendall, Miss Biser and Miss Gorell.

Tenor: Dwight Holmes, S. P. Allen, Sprull Spain.

Bass: Mr. Joliff, Mr. Rose, Mr. Griffin, Mr. Smith.

Organist: Mrs. G. V. Smith.

Director: Miss Eugenia Thomas.

Two Killed In Wreck Of Plane At Pensacola

Pensacola, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Lieut. Frederick W. Roberts, flight instructor at Correy Field, U. S. Naval Air station, and Alvin Crossman Hutchins, flight student, were killed when their plane collided with another plane here early today.

Harry Edward Nettmay, aviator, metalmith third class and Pilot of the second plane was thrown clear of the wreckage, his clothes covered with flaming gasoline.

Lieutenant Roberts was giving Hutchins ground instruction while seated in a plane resting on the field when Nettmay, also a flight student, took off in a three plane formation. The Roberts plane was directly ahead, and the two planes struck and telescoped. Both immediately caught fire, burning Roberts and Hutchins beyond recognition.

American Flier Taken by Rebels

Nogales, Ariz., March 25.—(AP)—Negotiations for the release of flying "Buzzy" Morrison, American aviator who was captured by Mexican revolutionaries, were under way here today.

Morrison had been employed to fly for the federal army at Naco, Sonora. He was taken prisoner Saturday when he made a forced landing behind the rebel lines.

The flier sent a message through the Associated Press to his parents in Reno, Nev., yesterday. His message was:

"I am O. K. being treated royally by the rebels, love, Buzzy."

Harry Kerns, Mayor of Nogales, said Morrison probably would be turned over to United States authorities here.

Morrison is the son of Dr. S. C. Morrison of Reno and is well known in Denver at St. Louis aviation circles. He is 24 years old.

To Investigate Sinking of Rum Runner in Gulf

New Orleans, March 25.—(AP)—Representatives of three governments, the United States, Great Britain and France today were to study the facts surrounding the sinking of Coast guard shell fire of the Schooner Im Alone, rum smuggler that flew the British flag, to determine if there will be any international correspondence of the subject.

It has settled down to a question of miles. If the smuggling craft was encountered within the twelve mile limit of the Louisiana coast and pursued far out into the gulf and there sunk, officials said the government forces were within their rights. But if the liquor laden boat was anchored beyond the limit they said there might be complications.

Commanding officers of the two coast guard patrol boats, Dexter and Walcott, swore at a preliminary inquiry that the Im Alone was at least one mile within the banned waters while the captain of the Schooner swore his ship was at least two miles outside.

The British Vice Consul in New Orleans sat in at the inquiry and when it developed that a French seaman had lost his life in leaving the sinking Schooner under a rain of shell fire, the French consul was notified. Both the British and French consuls plan to confer today to decide on a course and representatives of the department of Justice, Coast Guard, prohibition and immigration bureau of the United States already have begun a collective inquiry.

Arrival here yesterday of Captain John Randall, Canadian skipper and his crew of seven smugglers with the body of the drowned seaman, Leon Maingay, brought the first detailed information of the sinking of the Schooner Friday after a chase of two days and two nights. They brought in irons by their conquerors aboard the Dexter and Walcott and lodged behind bars at the customs house. Captain Randall was bitter in his denunciation of what he termed the violation of the freedom of the seas and likened the incident to submarine warfare. He gave a vivid account of his losing race with the two guardians of the coast, ending in his boat being literally shot from under him. He was forced to jump for his life when his charge, with her hull peppered with shell fire, struck her nose twenty feet into the sea, and her stern ten feet into the air and dived to her grave in Eigsbee deep, with 2,400 cases of liquor. The struggling crew was rescued by the guardsmen but the Frenchman died.

Umbrella Sweller.
New York, March 25.—(AP)—Worn out by the exertion of shattering three umbrellas over the masters' heads, Reena Beletel, beauty prize winner, called a policeman when a fourth accosted her. She told the judge she was too tired to hit him.

Old Love Songs Returning.
Paris, March 25.—(AP)—Pre-war love songs are coming back. "The girls are tired of Jazz and syncopation," says the man who yields the baton at the Cafe O'Harcourt, which sets the pace for the latin quarter. "They want love songs and waltz music."

My Thirty Years at Sea

By CAPTAIN GEORGE FRIED

When a disaster occurs at sea the rescuing ship is bombarded by wireless for details of the event. As soon as he could do so Captain Fried prepared a graphic account of the rescue of the Florida and dispatched it to the Associated Press. He was acting in his capacity as honorary member of the Associated Press staff, an appointment from because of his aid in getting the world of other news events.

By CAPT. GEORGE FRIED (Copyright 1929, Associated Press) CHAPTER XXIV

Shortly after I set out to the assistance of the Florida, messages literally poured into our radio room asking for stories and photographs of the rescue. The newspapers, news and photographic agencies seemed to be more certain of the outcome than we were on the ship. None of us knew whether we would make it and furthermore, we were in no position to leave our watches to answer these many radiograms.

Editors of newspapers throughout the United States were sending duplicate messages and when we failed to respond they would inquire if they had been delivered. Then in desperation they would appeal to the passengers. Being in communication with other vessels as well as the Florida, however, our wireless transmission work was confined to the more serious work of the rescue before sending out description of what we were trying to do. I can appreciate the zeal and efforts of the newspaper editors to give their readers the first details and I cannot blame them, but I hope they can appreciate my position and will forgive us for our apparent disregard of their pleas for stories and photographs.

When the rescue was effected I sent a brief radiogram to the United States Lines for transmittal to the press. With our work completed, most of us being on the point of exhaustion, we turned in. I had been on the bridge without even taking time to get a meal, from 4 a. m. on January 22 to midnight of January 23, or 44 hours altogether. I was wet to the skin, the rain having penetrated my heavy overcoat which I did not change. I did not want to take the time.

After a few hours sleep I began work on a detailed account of the event. I conferred with Captain Pavatore of the Florida, consulted my notes in the log book and had a talk with Mr. Manning so that I could prepare an accurate story. As I got the pieces together I fully realized the handicaps under which the newspaperman works. This story I ordered sent to the United States Lines so that it could be turned over to the ship news men.

"It was Miss Earhart and I who had it to The Associated Press."

I also forwarded a copy to The Associated Press direct, fulfilling my obligations as a reporter on the staff, knowing also that that organization with its world-wide service would give it the widest distribution possible, relieving the anxiety of many other editors who would receive it over the Associated Press wires.

After the rescue of the Antioch crew the Associated Press presented me with a fine watch for giving the organization the story of that episode. In addition I was made an honorary member of The Associated Press staff. So ever after when I met ship news men I sort of felt that fraternal spirit that all members of that profession seem to possess.

Now when my ship comes into New York Harbor and one or more of the newspapermen—these outposts of American journalism—do not come aboard to say hello, I miss them. Their greeting is just as important to me as entering the ship at the Custom House it seems. Not that I might have news but knew it was Miss Earhart and her companions. I felt that they were lost. I could see an aerial wire hanging from the plane and endeavored to reach her by radio but was unsuccessful, afterward learning that their radio equipment was out of order. As they flew over our ship a second time with dropped a note but the wind carried it into the sea. Immediately I thought of printing our position with white wash on the boat deck but before this could be accomplished, they sped off in the direction of Liverpool.

I sent a flash to The Associated Press, letting the world know that the trio was still aloft and headed in the direction of land and probable safety. Later I was gratified to learn that the Friendship landed with the first woman ever to make a trans-Atlantic flight.

KELVINATOR

Announces the Greatest forward steps in Electric Refrigeration

- ① Silence—Positive and Permanent
- ② Flexible Rubber Trays for Ice Cubes

AGAIN, Kelvinator brings revolutionary new features and advancements to electric refrigeration.

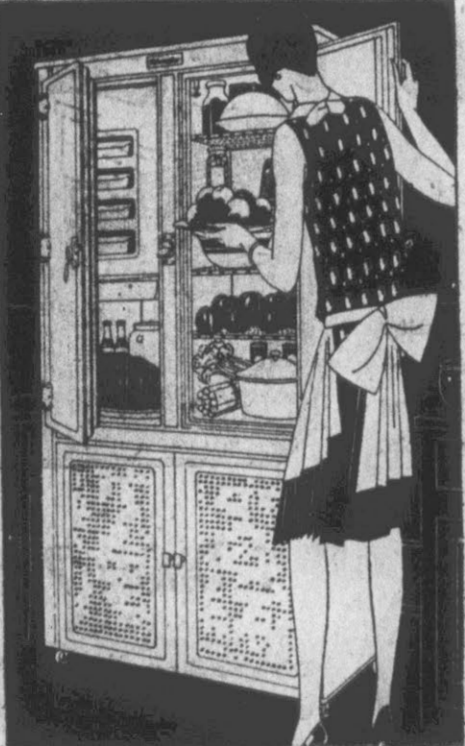

The first is a silence so positive, so nearly perfect, that the constant cold in the refrigerator becomes the only evidence that the mechanism is running.

The second is the flexible rubber tray which replaces the metal grid for the ice cubes.

The new Kelvinator, as always, is wholly automatic—without regulation or attention by the housewife. It rapidly freezes desserts, salads and ice cubes. Summer and winter alike, it provides the proper temperature to preserve food, with a reliability that is unequalled.

See the beautiful new Kelvinator 1929 models at once, if you would learn about the latest developments in electric refrigeration.

Enjoy your Kelvinator at once. Buy it NOW on Kelvinator's attractive ReDis-Co monthly budget plan, as thousands are already doing. Do not wait.

Both Women and Men Appreciate This Wonderful Convenience

Made of purest and highest grade rubber, the Kelvinator rubber tray flexes easily, releasing the ice cubes in a flash—one, a dozen or all of them. No holding of metal trays under the faucet, no wasted ice supply, precious minutes saved. K-370
