LINDY REACHES MEXICO AFTER LONG FLIGHT

American Ace Takes Circuitous Route To Prevent Passing Over War Zone.

Mexico City, April 3.—(AP)—Mexico's internal strife has cast its shadow over the romance of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Miss Anne Morrow. It is a different Mexico which the colonel is visiting now and both he and his fiancée seem aware of the change.

Some profess eyes to discern a certain quiet sadness in the demeanor of both because of the travail which the country which gave them their romance and which has been so friendly to them is undergoing.

Their emotions have had more practical outward manifestations. In flying here yesterday from California, Col. Lindbergh went many hundreds of miles out of his way to escape passing over war-torn southern Chihuahua and possibly being mistaken for a rebel airplane.

Instead of taking the short cut from El Paso to Mexico City, he flew the length of the Rio Grande to Brownsville, Texas, so as to traverse the comparatively peaceful area of Tamaulipas.

But even then he took precautions against mishap growing out of the disturbed condition of the country. When he arrived here he wore a parachute over his gray business suit, the first time he has been seen with one in Mexico City.

He quietly slipped it from his shoulders, without comment, as he stepped from the plane but there was in his action a mute testimonial of his recognition of the national situation.

Fifteen months ago when he landed at Valbuena Field after his nonstop flight from Washington, a hundred thousand Mexicans cheering and almost frantic in their expressions greeted him.

When he sighted his plane down on the same level stretch he found only a score or so of field attendants. Some were the Mexican aviators and army officers who made his former visits here so pleasant, engaged in the life and death struggle of Chihuahua and on the west coast.

Those left were not smiling—news of the victory at Jimenez had not come and there was apparent concern at the outcome of the encounter.

The visits to the Morrow country home at Cuernavaca which were a feature of the colonel's former trips here, it is understood, will not be repeated during his visit.

Several minutes elapsed after the landing at Valbuena Field before Miss Morrow appeared with her family. Lindbergh, apparently not expecting them, had attempted to obtain a taxi and was about to accept the offer of a lift in a government car when they drove up.

HOUSE PLANS TO CONTINUE LONG PROBE

Louisiana Representatives To Finish Impeachment Charges Against Governor.

Baton Rouge, La., April 3.—(AP)—Emerging from a fog of legal technicality, the Louisiana House of Representatives was prepared today to carry through to a finish its investigation of the nineteen impeachment charges against Governor Huey P. Long.

Subpoenas went out last night for witnesses to appear today for questioning before the House by a special committee of twelve as to their knowledge of the charges that cover the wide range from a plot to murder a representative to petty larceny.

Managers of the impeachment movement reported their forces in good order and announced confidence in the ultimate impeachment of the governor, who is in the center of one of the hottest political turmoils the south has known.

Long adherents, however, were prepared to spring new surprises as they did an ancient law dating back to 1855, which claimed nullified the present procedure and should force the impeachment over to another session.

They succeeded only in gaining a day's delay by arousing enough doubt in the minds of legislators to induce the profer to the question to the attorney general. In this opinion, submitted at last night's session, the attorney general sustained the impeachers and the House adopted the sub-committee's rules report by a vote of 64 to 23 and by unanimous vote made the impeachment resolution the special order of business for today.

Comely Divorcee Central Figure In Murder Probe

Tulsa, Okla., April 3.—(AP)—A comely divorcee, Mrs. Annett Abrams, who recently came here from New York City today was the central figure in the investigation of the death of William S. McCray following her admission that she "formented" the millionaire oil operator's widow, Mrs. Jeannette McCray, by telephone.

FRANCE PLANS LAST TRIBUTE FOR HERRICK

Nation to Bestow Highest Honor Ever Before Accorded Dead Foreigner.

Paris, April 3.—(AP)—Not in the history of France has a foreigner been honored in death as France tomorrow will honor United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick.

Every French regulation has been stretched to the utmost to make the last rites for the dead American an impressive memorial to Franco-American friendship.

The ceremony will be, as Ambassador Herrick would have had it, of extreme simplicity but only space will limit the grandeur of the obsequies for the man who once, though a foreigner, inferred a simple offer to give his life, if it was needed, for France.

Only a few of the thousands who have applied for tickets to the services at the embassy will hear the farewell words of Premier Raymond Poincare, who will speak in the name of the French government, General Pershing, who will speak for the American people, and Quiñones Delon, Spanish ambassador, speaking for the diplomatic corps.

There will be no flowers, no music. No women will be admitted, only some 300 representative men in severe mourning garb, all according to American usage. The next part of the ceremony, however, will be in French style, with a guard of honor of the French Legion of Honor, arms drawn, lending the only touch of color to a long solemn funeral cortege.

French ministers, high officials, military and naval officers, diplomats and American friends of the ambassador will follow the coffin about while French troops line the route to the American pro-cathedral where services will be conducted by Dean Beckman at 11:15 a. m.

The body will remain in the edifice until evening when, without ceremony, it will be taken to the railroad terminal to be put aboard a train for Brest where it will arrive Friday morning. Escorted by a military guard of honor it will be placed aboard the French cruiser Tourville, while troops present arms and cannon thunder the ambassador's salute of nineteen guns.

The Tourville is believed to be the fastest cruiser in the world but across the Atlantic it will maintain a funeral pace so as not to beat the Aquitania with the ambassador's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Parmlee Herrick to New York. The Aquitania leaves France Saturday. The two ships will keep in constant touch by wireless throughout the voyage.

It was announced definitely today that the funeral ceremonies would begin at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow (E. S. T.) and that the body would be forwarded to Brest tomorrow night.

Wisconsin Votes Down Prohibition Measures

Milwaukee, April 3.—(AP)—Anti-prohibitionists scored a victory in the referendum election yesterday when an overwhelming sentiment in favor of repealing the Severson state prohibition act was registered.

Return from 1,531 of the state's 2,579 precincts, representing every section of the state, showed 265,311 in favor of repealing the enforcement act and 103,092 opposed to repeal. On the other question of repealing the home brew penalty the vote in 1,531 precincts was: Yes, 192,065; No, 104,042.

As returns continued to add to the majority in favor of eliminating the prohibition enforcement act from the statute books through legislative action, voters claimed that the margin of victory would exceed 125,000.

This claim was made by State Senator Thomas M. Duncan, Socialist, author of the referendum, the result of which he maintained would be regarded as a mandate to the legislature, at its present session, to carry out the expression of the voters.

Yesterday's vote will have no effect upon the state enforcement law until the legislature acts, and the vote is not binding upon the lawmakers. There appeared no doubt, however, but that the legislature would shape its action by the result of the voting.

Returns compiled by the Associated Press indicated the majority in favor of repeal would be considerably less than was recorded in 1926 when the referendum memorializing Congress to modify the Volstead act to permit the manufacture and sale of 2.75 per cent beer carried by a margin of 172,690.

Most counties ran true to form but five which favored modification two years ago switched to oppose repeal of the state enforcement act. These were: Bayfield, Eau Claire, Juneau, Monroe and Trempealeau.

LITTLE HOPE FOR RESCUE LOST FLIERS

No Word Yet Received as to Whereabouts Of Southern Cross And Four Fliers.

Sydney, N. S. W., April 3.—(AP)—One clue came out of the wild Australian bush today to guide searchers for the airplane "Southern Cross," which vanished March 31 with Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and three companions who were on the first lap of a flight to England.

The Drysdale River Mission station signaled Captain Canteau, Australian Royal Airforce aviator out on a searching expedition, that an airplane had passed over the station on March 31 heading southward. This was the day on which the Southern Cross should have passed that way.

It was the slenderest of threads but was the first definite trace of the four fliers since they literally vanished into the air after sending a radio message that the motors of the plane were failing and that they were coming down through a blinding rainstorm into the bush "about 100 miles east of Wyndham."

The vast labyrinth of the Western Australian bush is one of the most savage stretches of country left on the habitable part of the earth. Captain Chateau telegraphed Sydney this afternoon from Wyndham that he had made a flight over the inaccessible Drysdale station and dropped messages explaining that search was being made for an airplane which could have passed over the Mission on Sunday.

Sydney, N. S. W., April 3.—(AP)—Friends of the missing Southern Cross aviators today hoped for a fortunate circumstance to overcome the otherwise almost certain hopelessness of their flight.

Only extreme good fortune, most though, could culminate in the rescue of Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith, his pilot Charles Uim, and the two men with whom Sunday flashed a mysterious message to the east and disappeared somewhere East of Wyndham, Western Australia.

In that message, which they ended with their characteristic "cheerio" they told of failing motors on their plane and a heavy rainstorm which obscured the ground from their view. They gave their position as "about 100 miles east of Wyndham" and then sank into the vastness of the Australian bush, peopled by wild uncivilized savages, some of them Cannibalistic Pygmies.

To add to the general anxiety there was the fact today that the search which was being made for them might be far off the right track. It was feared the rainstorms in which the plane had become lost forced it off its path, and that when Captain Kingsford-Smith dispatched his final message Sunday morning he may have been much further than he thought from Wyndham.

The immense area inland from Wyndham is practically unexplored—a wilderness of hills and rivers without any permanent beaten tracks and not the semblance of roadways. It is one of the wildest territories in the world.

Rebel Troops Trapped At Jimenez; Federals Continue To Close In

Bridges Leading Out Of City Burned By Federals In Effort to Prevent Evacuation Of Rebels; Federal Planes Continue Bombing; Calles Says Extermination Only Matter Of Hours.

Trapped within the city of Jimenez, rebel troops under General Escobar, today were reported desperately seeking a way to retreat to the north while powerful federal forces steadily closed in on them.

Bridges leading out of Jimenez were burned by the federals several days ago and a retreat by rail appeared almost impossible; federal planes bombed the rebels incessantly.

General Calles, reporting the victory, said that "extermination" of the rebels was only a question of hours.

Rebel losses have been placed at about 600; the federal losses have not been announced although General Ortiz, commander of the federal cavalry is known to have lost 25 dead in a battle with 1,300 rebels on Monday.

The rebel version of the battle of the north of Jimenez was interrupted today. The last rebel message yesterday afternoon reported the capture of 1,000 prisoners and the destruction of a federal plane.

Further federal victories along the west coast also were reported by the government, federal forces capturing La Cruz south of Culiacan, rebel stronghold.

Disorder among the rebel commanders on the west coast was indicated in messages received at Nogales. General Manzo, rebel leader, who unsuccessfully besieged Magdalena, apparently having been superseded.

Naco, Sonora, was on edge today in anticipation of further rebel raids.

The insurgents have given assurance that no more bombs will fall on the American side of the border. One American was injured yesterday when two missiles fell in Naco, Arizona.

Mexico City, April 3.—(AP)—Preliminary rebel retreat from Jimenez after two days bloody fighting there was halted this morning at a burned railway bridge north of the city. Jimenez late yesterday under cover of the heaviest fighting of the revolt, were stalled while soldiers attempted to repair the bridge.

REBELS CONTINUE BOMBING AT NACO

Naco, Sonora, Mexico, April 3.—(AP)—Eight bombs were dropped today on the federal entrenchments of Naco in a renewal of what has developed into regular daily Mexican rebel air raids. Seven of the bombs exploded, one was a dud. None of the missiles fell on the United States side of the line.

Order Autopsy In Death Of Fla. Clubman

West Palm Beach, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—On the result of an autopsy, performed late yesterday upon the body of a Romeyn Pierson, Jr., wealthy resident of Ridgewood, N. J., and Boynton Beach, today hung the findings of a coroner's jury investigating the death of the clubman.

Pierson, well known in the fashionable winter colony and a member of many exclusive clubs, was found dead in his home early yesterday, under what appeared to be mysterious circumstances.

The coroner's jury yesterday was unwilling to accept the evidence it adduced at its first hearing as final, and ordered the autopsy. The post mortem was completed yesterday, but Dr. V. M. Jared, bacteriologist, who conducted it, refused to disclose his findings until today.

Refuse to Talk About Strike In South Carolina

Greenville, S. C., April 3.—(AP)—Officials of the Brandon Corporation and representatives of the striking textile workers of the Poinsett and Brandon units of the company here refused to make any announcements this morning after a conference at the mill offices.

August W. Smith, president of the corporation, said that he had no announcement to make in regard to the meeting.

Vernor Allen, chairman of the operations committee, left the office and was joined by a crowd of several hundred operatives who had been waiting outside. He held a meeting with them but newspaper men were not allowed to be present.

Doran Explains Prohibition Fund

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Commissioner of Prohibition Doran announced today that preparations for utilizing additional funds for the enforcement of prohibition laws were nearing a point where he could make public a complete outline of the dry situation.

"The bureau will endeavor to show exactly what are the present conditions," Doran said, "in states where there is no local cooperation, where officials are lukewarm or where public sentiment is adverse to the enforcement of the law, these facts will be shown. If there is hearty cooperation between local and federal authorities and if convictions are frequent in the state courts and by juries in all courts, that will be described."

Three Persons Burned To Death In N. Y. State

Rochester, N. Y., April 3.—(AP)—Eugene Leonard, 39, his daughter Lavina, 15, and son Eugene, Jr., 4 were burned to death today when fire destroyed their home at Chil Station, near here.

The mother, Mrs. Jennie Leonard, 35, and Cleta, a 12-year-old daughter, were seriously injured when they jumped from an upper floor. Leonard was in the barn when the fire, the cause of which was undetermined, broke out. He rushed to the house to find the first floor ablaze. Mrs. Leonard and her daughter jumped before they could be persuaded to use a ladder which a neighbor had erected.

Despite warnings that rescue was impossible, Leonard dashed up the ladder and entered a second story window. He did not appear again.

Missing Girl Is Located At Greenville, S. C.

Augusta, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Corie Key, 17, who disappeared from her home here more than two weeks ago and since the object of a search conducted for her and Marvin Silvers, 24, in whose company she is alleged to have been seen, was found yesterday in Greenville, S. C.

Her father said Silvers was still missing. He is being sought on two charges, automobile theft and violation of the Mann act, the first a state charge and the other sworn out in federal court. The automobile belonging to the girl's father, was found at Greenville.

MAJOR LEAGUE CLUB TO TAKE ROCKY MOUNT

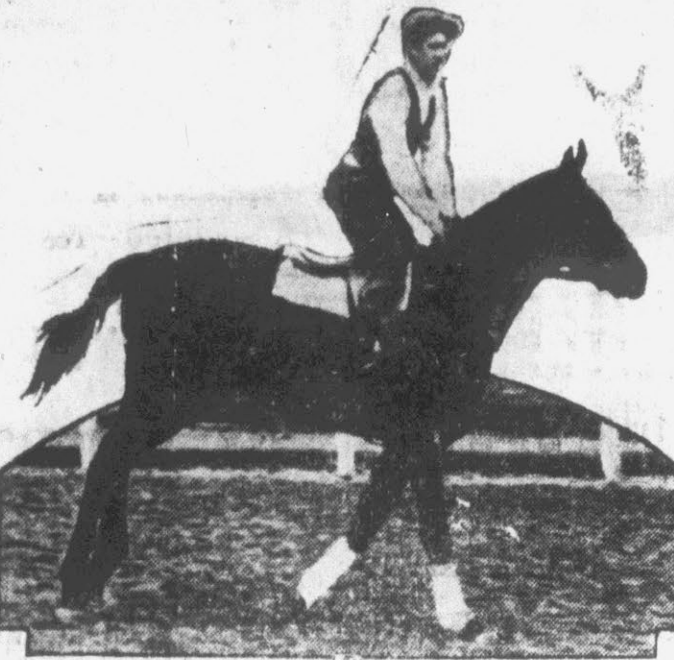

Rocky Mount, April 3.—(AP)—The Rocky Mount Telegram will say this afternoon that a major league baseball club, the name of which has not been disclosed, will operate the Rocky Mount ball club this season.

Training will start not later than Monday. All of the men under contract of the local club have been ordered to report immediately and the vanguard of players is expected tomorrow. New uniforms for home games and for the road have been ordered and will be received here before the opening of the season, the paper will say.

None of the men on the "inside" would make any statements concerning the major league club.

Rocky Mount baseball fans will have to raise $3,000 and supply the ball park.

Lee Cooper, brown colt by Wrack-Gottfroy, has been entered for the Kentucky derby by Mrs. C. Denmark. The horse is working out at Louisville.

Training Camp News Briefs

New Orleans, April 3.—(AP)—The conclusion of a second attendant remained today for the Cleveland Indians after a 10 to 1 drubbing at the hands of the New York Giants yesterday. The Red Skins got only three hits.

Houston, Texas, April 3.—(AP)—George Grantham, second baseman, was added to the list of Pirate cripples yesterday, and Manager Donie Bush was wondering today how to keep the jinx from Earl Sheely, first asst., the only regular on the infield. Grantham was hit on the shoulder during yesterday's exhibition with the Yankees and had to retire.

Brandon, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—The rowing seemed today likely to be in the Red Sox starting line-up at the opening in Boston; Todd, first base; Regan, second; Rhyme, shortstop; Reeves third, with Piagstead, Rothrock and Scarritt ranging from left to right in the infield. Berry, Heving and Alex Gaston run pretty even for the catcher's berth. Big Ed Morris, judging by his last year's record, is the outstanding pitcher although he has not been particularly brilliant this spring.

Miami, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—The Braves have finished their Florida season with 11 victories and 10 defeats. President Manager Emile Puchs left for New York yesterday with the prediction "this club will keep hustling and trying."

Salisbury, N. C., April 3.—(AP)—Back in Philadelphia Manager Connie Mack is not optimistic over the training season showing of the Athletics, but Captain Eddie Cillions who is taking the regulars up north, is enthusiastic.

Collins is giving young Joe Hassler plenty of work at short, which is taken to mean that Hassler will play that position at least until Boeys' arm improves.

Greenville fans haven't recovered from the nausea produced by an inexorable jinx trailing at the heels of the Tobacconists last season, but should Bangs be able to round out a winning club he will no doubt draw the largest attendance of any club in the league. There are larger towns in the circuit but none can lay claim to more ardent support of the national pastime than can Greenville. Crowds were fairly large last season with a losing team. It is a settled fact that the big grandstand and bleachers would be crowded to capacity if the club could hit a winning stride and hold it.

The pack, thirteen less than those who arrived here from Trenton yesterday, started at 7:10 this morning with Paul Simpson, Burlington, N. C., entry, setting the pace with an elapsed time of 12:20:17.

Herbert Hedeman, of Australia, Ed Gardner, Seattle negro, John Sale, of Passic, N. J., and Peter Gavuzzi, England, all veterans of last year's grind, were well to the front as the band trekked over the road to Wilmington.

Tommy Thevenow Badly Injured in Auto Wreck

Winter Haven, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—Tommy Thevenow of the Philadelphia Nationals, lay in the Lakeland hospital today fighting for life after being injured in an automobile accident last night while driving in a rented car from Winter Haven to Lakeland, twelve miles away, to visit friends.

Thevenow, who was driving swerved to avoid an approaching automobile and their motor overturned in a ditch. Both men were hurled from the machine and Thevenow received a broken jaw, broken nose, deep cuts on the face and possible internal injuries. Three hours after the accident he was still unconscious at the Lakeland hospital. Physicians said he was in an extremely critical condition. Elliott was discharged from the hospital after having ten stitches taken in his face.

Manager Shotton and members of the team rushed from the Phillies' training camp to the hospital and waited the results of x-rays taken as soon as possible. Only a few hours before the accident, after the final game with Columbus yesterday Shotton said he would not be surprised if the double play combination of Thompson at second and Thevenow at shortstop would carry off the league fielding honors this year. Wilbert Robinson, portly boss of the Brooklyn Robins, rated them the best pair at present in the National league.

Greenies Showing Form In Daily Workout Here

Daily workouts are continuing in the camp of the Greenville club of the Eastern Carolina league in preparation for the opening of the season April 19th. The twenty odd players have shown considerable development since practice started here about two weeks ago and are in excellent condition for the number of exhibition games which have been scheduled to put them in trim for the big fight the latter part of the month.

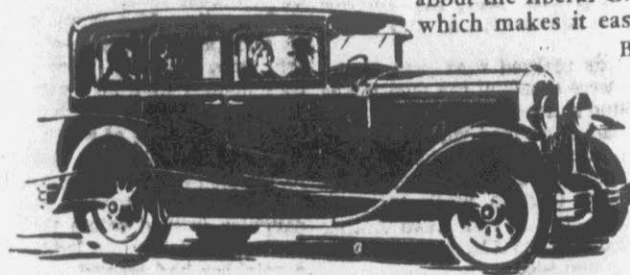

Although the Tobacconists dropped the first exhibition game with Henderson at Zonoke Rapids, they are not disheartened and plan to go into the next fight more determined to win than ever. Both the infield and outfield have exhibited real skill in handling the ball the last few days, and are in much better shape than when they met Henderson in the opening exhibition encounter.

President Guy Smith said that although the first three or four games would be played away from the city he had made arrangements for the playing of several games on the local lot before the season actually gets under way. Fans who have been watching the boys go through daily workouts with considerable speculation will then have an opportunity of seeing what the Greenies can really do in the blind-buffing dust of a real battle.

Manager Lester Bangs at the outset promised to put a winning team on the field. He has not forgotten the promise and is bringing his best experience into play in an attempt to develop a team into a perfectly working machine. Of course, he encountered lots of trouble right in the beginning. Managers always do. But he has met the situation with steady nerve, and as eye for detail, and the next time his club goes into the field stellar performance may be expected.

CHANGES IN FLOWERS AS WELL AS DRESSES

The Easter parade of well dressed folks shows us that the ladies of today no longer wear a garden full of flowers attached to their dresses. The most fastidious dressers request the smallest corsages and shoulderettes. While the tiny wrist corsage could almost be pinned upon the lapel of a man's coat and not seem out of place.

There is, of course, a reason for this—a dainty woman with a gown of georgette or silk does not want to tear or mar the beauty of her dress by a huge bunch of flowers.

Even the sweet girl graduate says she will no longer carry what her sisters have always carried in the way of flowers—she intends to show her individuality in flowers as well as dress.—(Adv.)

Bring Charges Against Two In DeKing Rum Case

Aurora, Ill., April 3.—(AP)—Indictment of a deputy sheriff for manslaughter and possible perjury action against a county dry agent will be sought at a special grand jury session next week, as a result of recommendations by a coroner's jury investigating the fatal shooting of Mrs. Lillian De King.

The jury, composed of six Aurora business men, found the slaying of Mrs. De King during a county dry raid at her home March 25 was "unnecessary." It recommended that the grand jury "inquire into all conditions surrounding the raid that led to the shooting."

The verdict held that Deputy Sheriff Roy Smith, who fired the "hot" that killed Mrs. De King, be held on a charge of manslaughter.

"We believe from the evidence," the verdict continued, "that the warrant upon which the raid was based was the result of a false affidavit by Eugene Boyd Fairchild, an attaché of the state's attorney's office."

High School To Give Minstrel Tomorrow Night

Everything is in readiness for the Carolina Minstrel to be presented at the high school auditorium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, by the students of the school. They have rehearsed faithfully and the coaches express themselves as being well pleased with the work of the cast. The final rehearsal will be held tonight at which time the few remaining rough spots will be ironed out and the last instructions will be given. Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 there will be a street parade by the cast of the minstrel and this parade will be headed by the high school band, conceded to be the best high school band in this part of the state.

The end men who will take part in the show and who will no doubt bring more smiles to their hearers' faces than have been there for a long time in this era of tight money, are Harry Forbes, Bob Eason, George Respass, P. T. Anthony, Ray O'Brian, and Ray Briley. O'Brian promises to be very effective in his rendition of "I'm Sorry, Sally," and "I Can't Give You Anything But Love." Another bright spot of the night will be the singing of old-time barbershop harmony by Harry Forbes and Arthur Godley.

The girls who will appear in the chorus dances have designed and made their own costumes. This work was done under the direction of Mrs. Picklesimer. The girls will appear in all ballad numbers that are sung.

WOULD REVERSE RANK OF HOSTESS

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Vice-President Curtis has asked Secretary Stimson of the State Department to reverse the ruling of former Secretary Kellogg that his hostess, Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, a sister, should rank below the wives of Ambassadors and Ministers at official dinners.

The testimony of 12-year-old Gerald De King contradicted the deputy's account in some particulars. The boy said his mother had not risen from the table at which she sat telephoning when the deputy fired. His father, Joseph De King, was unable to testify concerning the shooting, having been knocked unconscious by a blow from the deputy's clubbed gun a few seconds before.

The elder De King testified that no search warrant was produced at either of the two visits made by the raiders the night of March 25. However, William Hale Treadwell, one of the deputies, testified that he had a warrant and that when he started to draw it from his pocket at the De King home, De King said: "Put that back in your pocket or I'll blow your head off."

Treadwell also testified that some

Men of Sixties To Hold Reunion At Charlotte

Charlotte, April 3.—(AP)—This city is to play host to the Confederate Reunion in June but city officials were wondering today what they would do with the business sessions of the veterans.

Construction of an auditorium-Armory was being rushed to provide a convention hall, but yesterday Charlotte voters failed to endorse a special $200,000 bond issue to finance the work, and within an hour after the ballot tally was announced the contractor, who was working his men day and night, had withdrawn them.

Mayor Redd is understood to be planning now to sell the old Municipal auditorium for $175,000 to defray the building costs on the new one.

AN ELECTRICAL AGE

The people of the United States use as much electricity as all the rest of the world combined. We have almost five times the generating capacity of any other nation.

The amazing part of our electrical development is that it has been mainly accomplished in less than a generation. Since 1912 the population of the country has increased but 25 per cent; yet generation of electricity has increased 615 per cent, the number of people living in electrically wired homes 470 per cent, and the number of customers receiving service 510 per cent.

In other words, electrical consumption has increased 20 times faster than the population. In the past seven years electricity has been extended for the first time to 9,000,000 new homes, the increase averaging well over a million homes yearly.

The result of this unprecedented development is seen in more efficient industry and in more comfortable homes with their labor saving devices. In 25 years electrification of urban America has been made almost complete.

Now the greatest remaining field is rural electrification. As swiftly as is possible the advantage of electricity that are enjoyed by city dwellers are being brought to the farms and the smallest villages. What has been accomplished for industry and the city home is being accomplished for agriculture and the farm home.

MR. MELLON ON TAX REDUCTION

Secretary Mellon's mention of tax reduction in his radio speech Saturday evening carried no promise of an immediate cut, but merely summed up the principles which he said he would like to see followed "whenever revenues justify such action." That is an uncertain date. For the current year the Treasury will barely avert a deficit. It is a piece of sheer good luck that the Wall Street boom has swollen tax receipts sufficiently to enable "the government to make both ends meet."

So far as now can be foreseen, expenditures during the next few years are likely to keep pace with the probable growth of Federal revenues. Eventually, of course, the war debt will be paid off, and that will appreciably lighten the burden of taxation. The interest which is saved from the redemption of government bonds under the law of 1919 is not employed in reducing taxes but is used for further debt reduction, and the time when the debt will be completely extinguished is not near enough to require the Treasury experts to sit up nights working out new programs of tax reduction. Yet it is gratifying to observe that Mr. Mellon now shows more interest in reducing taxes on the earned incomes of small taxpayers than in getting further cuts in the surtaxes on large incomes. Our only regret is that this interest at present is necessarily academic.—N. Y. World.

ABOUT TOWN

"Another evidence of the growth of Greenville is seen in improvements which the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company is making in the local office." mentioned a reader of the Reflector today. "The expenditure of $25,000 should greatly increase the facilities of the exchange and enable it to render more efficient service in the years to come. The managers of the company did the right thing by planning three or four years ahead. It is a wise man that builds for the future, and the telephone company in providing sufficient equipment for at least three years is indicative of the foresight of the directors."

"The Memorial Baptist church has extended a call to Rev. W. A. Fleischman, pastor of the Baptist church at Louisburg," commented a citizen today. "This information will be received with a degree of interest on all sides. The church has been without a pastor since the first of January, and the filling of the vacancy will have a tendency of awakening renewed interest in the life of the congregation. If Mr. Fleischman accepts the call he will be tendered a regular Greenville welcome—one that should make him perfectly at home—ready to render distinct service of a greater and better Greenville."

"The Eastern Carolina Exposition will open in Farmville next week, and Greenville people should begin laying plans for supporting the queens to represent them at the annual carnival of this district," said a business man today. "Virtually all important towns in the Eastern part of the state will have their queens at the Exposition and if we fail to support our representatives as we should, somebody else will walk away with the honors. "Everybody will agree that Greenville pulchritude ranks with the best in Eastern Carolina and it would be ungenerous to permit our queens to go over to Farmville and lose with thousands of their friends almost within a stone's throw of the Exposition building. "Think the matter over, Mr. Greenvillean, and be on hand every night the voting for queens is in progress."

"That is gratifying news coming from tobacco town regarding improvements under way at the Export Tobacco Company," declared a citizen today. "Addition of a redrying plant and extension of the main building should do much towards increasing their accommodations for the handling of leaf next season. It is such improvements as this that enable the Greenville tobacco market to forge to the front from year to year and increase its lead for the honor of the greatest leaf market in the world. "Other improvements are being contemplated at this time, and if they should materialize, the market will be in position to handle between 85 to 90 million pounds of leaf next season."

"That is encouraging news emanating from Rocky Mount regarding participation of that city in the Eastern Carolina league," an interested observer intimated this morning. "Rocky Mount has been in indecision as to what they would do since the withdrawal of the president of the club, but indications at this time seem to point to a favorable settlement of the situation. Rocky Mount is one of the best towns in the league for an organization of this kind and it would be a pity if its citizens should put out of the circuit at such a critical time. "Other towns are determined to continue play despite the unfavorable trend of events at this time and if Rocky Mount will hold on

HEAVY DOCKET GIVEN HEARING HERE TUESDAY

County Court Sends Out Several Men To Fill Depleted Ranks Of Chaingang.

Holding its first session in two weeks, County court yesterday disposed of twenty or more cases covering everything in the crime category. So congested was the docket that Judge W. L. Whedbee found it necessary to continue the session over until a late hour last night, establishing something of a precedent in length of a single day's sitting.

The charges ranged all the way from giving worthless checks to larceny and violation of the prohibition law. Heavy fines predominated the majority of cases but Judge Whedbee seemed to think the superintendent of county roads was in need of help and sent out several hefty members of the colored race to fill the depleted ranks of the chain-gang.

Richard Gorham, colored, charged with transporting whiskey, was sentenced to six months' service on the county roads.

John T. Owens, charged with driving while drunk and without state license, paid a fine of $50.00 and cost and was ordered not to drive again in a period of 90 days.

Payment of a fine of $10.00 and cost was required of F. P. Cox, appearing on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon, Fred Washington, colored, drew six months on the county roads.

Bill Smith, colored, larceny, six months on the roads. He was given a six months concurrent sentence for driving while drunk.

Joe Speight, colored, was ordered to pay a fine of $50.00 and cost or go to the roads six months. He was charged with reckless driving.

Ray McLawhorn, colored, driving while drunk, was given the privilege of paying $50.00 and cost or going to the roads 90 days. He paid.

Fined $25.00 and cost for having whiskey for sale, Louisa Edwards, colored, appealed to Superior court under bond of $100.

Napoleon Womack, colored, paid $50.00 and cost for assault with a deadly weapon in preference of going to the road for six months.

Jarvis Parke, colored, drunk $10.00 and cost.

Silva Parker paid $10.00 and cost for assault. Sara Vines, held in the same case, appealed to Superior court when she was ordered to pay $50.00 or go to the roads four months.

Lizzie Braxton, colored, whiskey for sale $25.00 and cost.

West Willis, colored, paid $25.00 and cost instead of going to the roads 90 days.

Tom McLawhorn, larceny, drew a fine of $25.00 and cost and 90 days on the roads.

Frank Rollins, colored, driving while drunk, appealed to Superior court when he was ordered to pay $50.00 and cost and instructed not to drive again in 90 days.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of cost in the two cases of A. T. Denton, charged with giving worthless checks, but the defendant filed notice of appeal to Superior court.

Alfred Tripp, colored, assault, drew a fine of $50.00 and cost and 90 days on the roads. He was given a similar sentence on a charge of using profane language. Chester Williams held in connection with the same case, drew similar sentences.

Jesse Foreman, colored, larceny, $25.00 and cost and 90 days on the roads.

Remus Dunn, colored, worthless check, was allowed the privilege of paying $11.85 and cost or going to roads 90 days. He was also fined $10.00 for failure to list his taxes.

REVISION OF FARM TARIFF IS PROPOSED

Hyde Tells Senate Agriculture Committee of Needs For Relief of Farmers.

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Revision of the tariff on farm products, reduction of transportation costs by the development of inland waterways and federal assistance in marketing through a farm board were recommended to the Senate Agriculture committee today by Secretary Hyde as the basis for a sound agricultural relief policy.

The secretary read his views from a prepared statement. Although he had had a long conference with President Hoover last evening, he emphasized that he was "speaking for himself alone."

"I have not within less than a month," he said, "had the opportunity to consider the problem in detail and I shall not attempt to present any detailed piece of legislation. You gentlemen are very much more fitted for that task than I."

"I have long been interested in the ends, to be accomplished by relief rather than by the legislative method. While I make no pretense of being an expert, I do claim the same earnestness of purpose which dominates your body in its quest for solution of this vexing problem."

Mr. Hyde proposed a board relief program including governmental assistance in marketing, revision of tariff on agricultural products and development of inland waterways. This, he said, would require a period of years and could not all be carried out in the special session.

Asked by Chairman McNary if the bill he introduced last fall which did not contain the controverted McNary-Haugen equalization fee provision would meet the immediate requirements, Secretary Hyde replied that passage of a bill similar in intent to this measure appeared to be the clear mandate of the country.

A strong federal board, he said, was necessary, with authority to loan money to stabilization agencies to take up seasonal surpluses and feed them on the market slowly to maintain a more constant price level.

Keener Again In Trouble At Army School

West Point, N. Y., April 3.—(AP)—For the second time in three months, Christian Keener (Red Cagle), star half back and captain of the 1929 team, has fallen into the bad graces of officials at the United States Military Academy.

He has drawn a sentence of 22 "punishment hours." That means he will devote approximately twenty-two hours of his spare time during the next month or so marching at attention along a 100-yard gravel stretch within the quadrangle of the academy.

The charge was the over-staying a leave of absence. For a similar offense early in January Cagle was sentenced to a half-month of punishment tours. He finished that punishment on January 20.

Last Saturday Cagle accompanied a group of cadets to New York on an educational trip through the Metropolitan Museum of Natural History. After the trip the cadets were given a few hours off but were ordered to make the 11:45 p. m. Weehawken ferry in order to make connections with the midnight train for West Point.

Just where Cagle spent his "free time" has not been revealed. According to his friends, he missed the ferry by a minute or so because of a tie-up in traffic. He didn't appear in West Point until some hours after the rest of the cadets.

Red will march two hours each Wednesday and three each Saturday until his sentence is completed. That will take him a little more than a month.

Under army regulations providing that no cadet on punishment tour may participate in athletics, Cagle automatically is barred from the way track team until his sentence is served. He is a member of the weight tossing squad.

Trouble Breaks Out Among Three Insurgent Leaders

Nogales, Ariz., April 3.—(AP)—Intimations that trouble has broken out among Generals Francisco R. Manzo, Ramon F. Iturbe, and Roberto Cruz, commanders of rebel forces along the west coast, were made at Nogales, Sonora, revolutionary headquarters last night.

Telegrams received at headquarters the last few days from the south have been signed by either Cruz or Iturbe, indicating that Manzo has been deprived of the command of the western forces. At the outset of the revolution a month ago he was proclaimed second in command, being responsible only to General J. Gonzalo Escobar.

Manzo led the recent attack upon Mazatlan, which was repulsed by federals under General Jaime Carrillo. Since then he is believed to have retired to the Sinaloa-Sonora boundary.

The Nogales Herald today published a report that Tepe, captain of Navarri, an important point on the west coast rail line from the border to Mexico City, had been occupied by rebel forces. The report said the revolutionaries took the city without firing a shot and that federals under General Juan Preco, governor of Navarri, had retreated toward the south.

SEND TROOPS TO GASTONIA MILL STRIKE

Two Companies Of National Guards Sent to Protect Loray Cotton Mills.

(By The Associated Press) Gastonia, April 3.—(AP)—Governor O. Max Gardner today was asked to order out National guard troops to protect the Loray Mills here, where a strike of operatives is in effect.

The request was made by Sheriff Eli P. Linenger of Gaston county and Chief of Police, O. F. Adersholt of Gastonia after futile efforts had been made by deputy sheriffs and police to stretch cables around the plant.

The temper of the crowd at the mill which became the object of a strike by members of the National Textile Workers Union, yesterday became hostile when the attempt was made to stretch the ropes. Prior to that time there had been many good-natured gibes hurled at officers and mill executives but little of an untoward nature.

Gov. Gardner ordered adjutant General Metts to direct the calling out of troops and the first order was for the local Howitzer Company to mobilize for immediate duty. The adjutant general stated that he would order out all troops necessary and it was understood here that another from Charlotte and held ready if necessary.

The near riot at the mill, which is a branch of the Manville-Jenkes Company of Pawtucket, R. I., followed closely on rejection of the demands of the strikers by J. A. Bauch, general manager of the mill. The committee, composed of Leo Small, chairman, and Tom Webb, Roy Stroud, Bertha Crawford, W. E. Floyd, Ed Spencer and Miss Myrtle Stroud, was admitted to the mill office where they were received by the manager.

Gastonia, April 3.—(AP)—Acting in an effort to forestall any serious situation that might grow out of the strike of several hundred operatives of the Loray Mills here, executives of Gaston county cotton mills met at the city hall this morning to discuss ways and means of bringing about peace.

Several score of executives were present at the opening of the session.

The situation at the Loray Mills, a unit of the Manville-Jenkes Co., of Pawtucket, R. I., today was quiet. The big plant, employing approximately 2200 operatives in two shifts, was closely guarded by police and deputy sheriffs. Groups of hickets were noted in the streets endeavoring to induce workers who had not gone out to join the strikers.

The strike was called yesterday morning by the National Textile workers union, which has been quietly organizing in the Loray Mills for several months. The strikers claim that the strike was called because five workers, members of the union, were discharged after a meeting of the union last week.

Fred Erwin Beal, organizer for the union who is leading the strike, made public late last night a series of demands to be presented to mill officials by the strikers. These demands, adopted at a union meeting last night, include a forty hour five day week, recognition of the union, minimum wage of $20 weekly and certain changes in working conditions.

Beal was assisted in organizing the union here by Miss L. M. Dawson, a New England Textile Union organizer. George Pershing, who says he is connected with the daily worker, New York communist organ, is also assisting in direction of the strike and yesterday afternoon delivered an address to the strikers.

At strikers' headquarters this morning it was announced that James

G. Davis of New York, President of the National Textile Workers Union, was expected here today.

The union leaders have made no definite statement as to the number of workers on strike. J. A. Bauch, superintendent of the Loray Mills, said the mills were working with approximately 75 per cent. of the normal day shift and about half the night shift. Reports of alleged incendiary utterances by strike leaders last night caused heavy guards to be placed around the mills.

The mill executives also began issuing handbills carrying alleged information as to the results of strikes in other sections of the country and the union organizers, and designed to counteract handbills the strikers have been distributing among the mill workers.

The Loray Mills are situated on the outskirts of the city of Gastonia. In the Loray settlement there are approximately 8000 persons composed entirely of the mill workers and their families.

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, April 3.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 1 to 7 points and sold about 10 to 12 points net lower during the early trading under liquidation and some local and Wall Street selling, inspired by relatively easy cables, a favorable weather map and a favorable view of the weekly weather report.

May eased off to 20.43 and the new October contract to 10.86 under this early pressure, but offerings were absorbed by covering. There also seemed to be some buying in anticipation of a bullish report on oil weevil survival at midday. This steadied the market, which recovered the greater part of its losses. Active months ruled only 2 or 3 points below yesterday's closing quotations by the end of the first half hour.

Private cables said there had been hedging and liquidation of near months in Liverpool but that the Continent was buying later deliveries.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 3.—(AP)—The spectre of higher Federal Reserve rediscount rates arose in Wall Street today to haunt speculators for the advance, and stock prices broke sharply after an early period of strength. Oils were under liquidation from the start as a result of Washington advices that the proposed national-wide oil curtailment agreement would be in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, the losses ranging from 1 to 5 points.

Early advances of 1 to nearly 10 points in the general list were cut down, or wiped out, and a long list of issues sold 1 to 8 points below yesterday's final quotations.

Credit conditions continued tight. Call money renewed at 10 per cent but banks called $35,000,000 in loans and the supply of fresh funds was so scarce that the rate threatened to go higher. Time money was quoted at 8 1/2 to 9 per cent. While Wall Street was not greatly surprised at the increase in stock exchange member loans to a new high record, the fact that they were nearly 50 per cent higher than a year ago caused some misgivings in conservative quarters.

Several of the leading oil shares lost all the gains recorded yesterday on buying influenced by the hope that federal authorities would approve the curtailment program of the American Petroleum Institute. President Reeser of the Institute expressed the belief that the statement of the attorney general would not have the effect of stopping the curtailment movement although it would retard its complete success. Houston dropped 5 points. Indian Refining certificates 4. Standard Oils of California and New Jersey 5 1/2. Mexican Seaboard 3 and Texas Oil, Skelly, Richfield, Pan American B. Marland, Prairie, Standard Oil of New York and Atlantic Refining all fell back 2 points or more before the selling movement was checked.

Wright Aero jumped 8 points to 260 and then tumbled to 250. International Telephone was hammered 7 1/2 points below last night's close. A. M. Byers 5 1/4. Greene Cananea Copper 4 1/2 and Canadian Pacific Anaconda and Montgomery-Ward each dropped 4 points, selling off the list named being influenced by the reported liquidation of the Mercier holdings.

Midland Steel Baldwin Advance Rumely Issues, Curtis and Bethlehem Steel were prominent in the early advance, but the gains were not maintained, a slow recovery started in the mid-afternoon but trading turned dull on the rally.

Blackmail Plot Unearthed in N. Y.

New York, April 3.—(AP)—A blackmail plot in which pigeons were to be used has been revealed by police after failure of an elaborate attempt to trace the birds to their owner.

Several weeks ago, Dr. Louis A. Loisin, of West 38th street, received an express package containing two pigeons. Tied to the neck of one was a silk bag in which was a note threatening him with death unless he placed $10,000 in the bag and released the birds.

At the direction of police he prepared a note in which he explained to the blackmailers that he had been reluctant to entrust so much money to such uncertain means of transportation. He suggested that an appointment be made so that the money might be turned over personally.

After the pigeons had been fattened to slow their speed they were taken to the roof of a mid-town building and released, with one of the birds carrying the doctor's note. At the same time a score of detectives with binoculars stationed themselves with binoculars on the roofs of high buildings from 27th to 42nd streets. They watched the pigeons circle and saw them fly across the Hudson river into New Jersey where they were lost in the haze.

Three days later Dr. Loisin received a letter, sent from the general post office, stating that the chance of arrest was too great under the doctor's plan and containing a threat of death for the doctor's entire family if the $10,000 were not forthcoming. The letter said the pigeons would be expressed to him again.

Since that time police have been guarding the physician's home.

held up at the first burned bridge north of the city. Two other trains were stalled still further behind.

Leon reported bombing the rebel trains and firing upon them himself with his machine gun, commenting that some of the bombs fell "exactly on the enemy columns." Each rebel troop train, he said, had seven coaches with a considerable number of troops on the tops of the cars.

He reported seeing a great number of dead soldiers on the streets of Jimenez with many dead horses lying about. The railroad station was burning at the time of his flight. He fired with his machine at a closed car which preceded the rebel retreat along a highway near the railroad. The occupants fled from the car which was wrecked in a ditch. He believed those in it to be rebel leaders.

Federal commanders estimated the rebel dead during the two days fighting at 600, with many deserters and many wounded. Little was said of Federal losses.
