Floods, Tornadoes And Storms Claim 32 Lives In U. S. Over Week-End

Midwest, Southwest And South Today Also Counted Two Score Persons Injured And Property Damage of Hundreds of Thousands Following Outburst Of Elements; Arkansas Is Probably Hardest Hit.

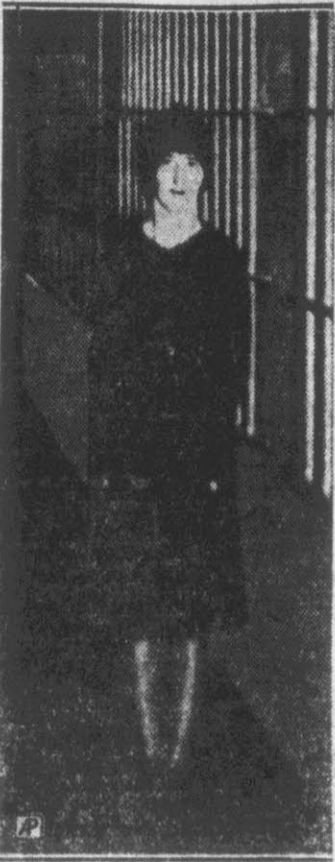

(By the Associated Press)
Outbursts of the elements—floods, tornadoes and wind, hail and rain storms—took 32 lives in the mid-west, southwest and south over the week-end; injured two score persons or more and did hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of damage.
Arkansas tornadoes killed 13 persons, 11 of them negroes, working on a plantation at Tillar. Arkansas also was fighting against the rising waters of the Mississippi river, 500 workmen reinforcing the levee at Krowlton's Landing near Snow Lake. After many hours' work, engineers believed that the danger of a break at that point had been averted.
A 15-minute storm at Louisville and at New Albany, Ind., across the Ohio river, cost two lives and did property damage of approximately half a million dollars. Wind and hail shattered windows in many buildings. At Walton, Ky., 400 boys were killed when lightning struck a barn on which they had perched to watch a ball game.
Five negroes were killed and 25 persons were injured when another of the series of tornadoes that carried about the south and southwest struck Danbury, Miss. A boat also descended upon Wham, La., but no loss of life was reported there. Two were killed at Oak Ridge, La., when a tornado struck there. Two negroes were killed near Shaw, Miss.
Colorado and Wyoming were pelted with snow in some sections while Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri were having flood and tornado worries. Three Indians were killed in Oklahoma tornadoes. A man was killed in a storm at Reece, Kans. A baby was crushed to death in a Texas storm; a boy was drowned at Wyandotte, Okla. Reece and Bolivar, Mo., were particularly hard hit by the midwest storms.
There was renewed alarm along the Mississippi river near Quincy, Ill., and Canton, Mo., with government observers predicting the highest stage in 75 years.

GEN. CALLES MOVES NORTH FOR ATTACK

Federals Prepare For What is Expected to Be Last Battle of Revolution.

Mexico City, April 22.—(AP)—Ten thousand federal soldiers under General Plutarco Elias Calles forced N. H. Ward today across the Southern boundary of Sonora for what may be the last big battle of the revolution.
At Masiaca and San Antonio, Sonora, fifty miles North of the federal's starting point, a rebel army of between 6,000 and 7,000 men was entrenched, apparently intending to contest the federal advance.
Between General Calles, main army and the rebel earth-works was General Talamantes with 2,500 federal cavalry and news was expected here hourly today of the initial clash of the encounter.
The positions at Masiaca and San Antonio represented a rebel advance toward the federal's of 25 miles from their former stronghold of Navojoa, and was believed to indicate their desire to oppose definitely the federal armies which almost without a clash forced them out of the State of Sonora.
In one sense the fight has been thrust upon the rebels, a gun boat, the Progresso, stationed in the harbor at Guaymas having taken a position commanding the railroad there and effectively cutting off their retreat. The gun boat Bravo put in at Mazatlan yesterday and was starting North to reinforce the Progresso at Guaymas immediately. General Almazan's army, closing in from the North, further heightened hazards of retreat.

Native Of Pitt Dies At Weldon

News has been received in this city of the death in Weldon last Friday night of W. M. Elks, native of Pitt county, who for many years had been living in Weldon. Burial was made in the Weldon cemetery Sunday afternoon.
Mr. Elks was well and favorably known by numbers of people in the county who will regret to learn of his death.

Raleigh Holds Primary

Raleigh, April 22.—(AP)—After a quiet campaign, Raleigh voters went to the polls today to vote for Mayor and three city commissioners in the primary which is preliminary to the election of May 6. Mayor E. E. Culbreth was opposed for re-election by Edgar J. Wicker. Seven candidates were in the running for the commissionerships.

Hoover Delivers Address Before Associated Press In New York City Today

New York, April 22.—(AP)—President Hoover, in an earnest appeal to his fellow citizens to observe the law, declared here today that life and property in the United States "were relatively more unsafe than in any other civilized country in the world."
In his first address since his inauguration, delivered at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, the chief executive said he was wondering whether the time had not come "to realize that we are confronted with a national necessity of the first degree, that we are not suffering from an ephemeral crime wave but from a subsistence of our foundations."
"In order to dispel certain illusions in the public mind on this subject," Mr. Hoover said, "let me say at once that while violations of law have been increased by inclusion of crimes under the eighteenth amendment and by the vast sums that are poured into the hands of criminal classes by the patronage of illicit liquor by otherwise responsible citizens, yet this is but one segment of our problem."
He explained that he cited the extent of murder, burglary, robbery, forgery, and embezzlement because only a small percent of these could be attributed to the eighteenth amendment, and he asserted that of the total number of convictions for felony last year less than eight per cent came from the source of the dry law. "What we are facing today is something far larger and more fundamental—the possibility that respect for law as law is fading from the sensibilities of our people," he continued. "No individual has a right to determine what law shall be obeyed and what law shall not be enforced. If a law is wrong, its rigid enforcement is the surest guaranty of its repeal. If it is right, its enforcement is the quickest method of compelling respect for it."
Mr. Hoover said there were two immediate problems before the government, to investigate the existing agencies of enforcement and to reorganize the system of enforcement in such a manner as to eliminate its weaknesses.
"It is the purpose of the federal administration," he added, "to strengthen its law enforcement agencies week by week, month by month, year by year, not by dra-

U. S. FAVORS FRENCH NAVAL TONNAGE PLAN

Hugh Gibson Tells Disarmament Conference of Nation's Attitude.

Geneva, April 22.—(AP)—Hugh S. Gibson, American delegate to the Preparatory Disarmament conference in session here, announced today the United States was disposed to accept France's proposal of limitation of Naval tonnage by Categories. The offer, he said, was made in the hope of facilitating a general agreement on Naval reduction.
The French proposal is that which provides for assignment of a total tonnage to each nation, this total to be divided among Categories of ships by specified tonnages as a basis of discussion.
Mr. Gibson's speech was made in an atmosphere of intense expectation and interest. He had every ear as he began, departing from his set speech to refer to the "hopeful" statement of Lord Cuesdun, British delegate, last week.
"I desire to lay emphasis on the fact," he said, "that for us the essential thing is achievement of substantial results. Methods are of secondary importance."
"My government is disposed to give full and friendly consideration to any supplementary methods of limitation which may be calculated to make our proposals—the French Thesis or any other—acceptable to other powers. If such a course appears desirable my government will be prepared to give consideration to a method of estimating equivalent naval values which will take account of other factors than displacement tonnage alone."
"In order to arrive at a basis of comparison in the case of Categories in which there are marked variations as to unit characteristics it might be desirable in arriving at a formula for estimating equivalent tonnage to consider certain factors which produce those variations, such as age, unit of displacement, and calibre of guns."

NEW STRIKE PENDING AT CHARLOTTE

Workers at Calvine Cotton Mill Expected to Walk Out This Afternoon.

Charlotte, April 22.—(AP)—Promises of the addition of the Calvine Cotton Mill here, a Chadwick Hookins plant unit to the list at which the National Textile Workers Union has called strikes came today almost simultaneously with announcement that the Dacotah mill at Lexington would reopen tomorrow.
Union leaders said that members would "walk out" at the Calvine mill within the next 24 hours, probably at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Owners of the Dacotah mill announced that the strike agitation which figured in closing of the mill last week apparently had died down and that work would be resumed tomorrow. Demands that the union be recognized and that three union men be reinstated were made on the Calvine mill management this morning.
Throughout the Piedmont district conditions in strike centers were reported quiet today. In South Carolina where employees acting without union affiliation struck against the "stretch out" system of operation several weeks ago negotiations between mill executives and strike committees continued.
In the North Carolina zone, where all strikes are being conducted by the National Textile Workers Union, there were no indications that any negotiations were under way. Deputy Sheriffs were on guard at the Lory and Bessemer City mills and the Pineville mill and Wennesaw mill in Lexington continued idle.
Reports from the Lory mill village at Gastonia were that all was quiet today with a force of Deputy Sheriffs replacing state troops. The last of five companies of National guardsmen sent to the plant three weeks ago, were recalled last night, one company returning to Charlotte and the men of the other dispersing to their homes in Gastonia.
A dozen or more pickets appeared in front of the Lory mill this morning but soon dispersed.
A dispatch from Union, S. C., said that after a conference between the management of the Monarch and Ottaway mills and the strike committee there this morning a call was sent out for the workers to gather this afternoon to hear the report from the committee.

Mrs. Everington Died Yesterday; Funeral Today

Mrs. Lizzie Everington, aged 59, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock of rheumatic heart disease, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Sutton, near Greenville, with whom she lived.
Mrs. Everington had been in failing health for several months, but her death came as a surprise as she had seemed improving for the past few weeks.
The funeral was conducted from the home this afternoon at two o'clock by Rev. W. L. Noble of Winterville, and interment followed in the family cemetery near Greenville.

Jessie May Lee Buried in Kinston

Jessie May Lee, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lee, of the Cotton mill community, died Saturday morning at 8:30 following an illness of about a year's duration.
Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon from her late home at 3 o'clock by Rev. W. S. Harden, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Burial followed in the Kinston cemetery.
She was a member of the local Presbyterian church. She had made her home in Greenville about two years. Besides her father and mother she is survived by three sisters and two brothers.

Senate Committee Votes To Retain Debenture Plan In Farm Relief Measure

Washington, April 22.—(AP)—In spite of the emphatic opposition of President Hoover, the Senate agriculture committee voted today to retain the export debenture plan in its farm relief bill.
The vote to retain the debenture plan was 8 to 6. Those voting for retention were Senators Norris of Nebraska, Frazer of North Dakota, and Norbeck of South Dakota, Republicans. Wheeler of Montana; Hefflin of Alabama; Thomas of Oklahoma

Harry Sinclair Must Go To Jail Unless Pardoned

Washington, April 22.—(AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that Harry F. Sinclair unless pardoned, must serve three months in jail for refusal to answer questions before the Senate Teapot Dome Committee.
Sinclair had appealed from a recent decision of the court which upheld the sentence of three months in jail imposed upon him, but the highest court today refused to consider that opinion.
Sinclair's sentence calls for him to serve the sentence in a "common jail." It has been expected that he would be committed to the District of Columbia jail here, although there has been some speculation as to whether he might be sent to the workhouse at Occoquan, Va., a few miles from Washington.

Hoover Voices Opposition To Export Debenture Plan; Says It Would Ruin Farmer

Washington, April 22.—(AP)—President Hoover stood today, definitely and emphatically ranged in opposition to the expert debenture plan of farm relief.
"I am convinced that it would bring disaster to the American farmer," he said in a letter to Chairman McNary of the Senate agriculture committee, which wrote a debenture provision into the tentative bill it introduced last week.
The chief executive's letter was in response to a request from the committee for his opinion on the proposal, which did not figure in the discussion of farm relief during the presidential campaign, and was forwarded with statements analyzing the plan by Secretaries Mellon and Hyde and the commerce department.
The committee, to which the Senate referred the bill for formal action and a report today, was promptly called by Chairman McNary to meet this morning for consideration of the communications from the White House. Prior to this meeting, its membership was represented as being closely divided on the question whether to leave the debenture provision in the bill or report the measure back to the Senate with the plan eliminated.
The mooted provision in the tentative Senate bill would authorize the proposed Federal Farm Board to put the export debenture plan into operation upon application of farmers' co-operatives. The President's vigorous declaration against it, Republicans leaders are convinced, has assured its defeat in the Senate if it should be brought to a vote there.
The House meanwhile, was prepared to conclude general discussion of its farm bill today and proceed to the amendment stage tomorrow with the expectation of

CITY SCHOOL WINS OUT IN CONTEST

High School Commercial Students Victors In Typewriting And Shorthand Tests.

The Northeastern District Typewriting and Shorthand contest was held at Greenville High School on Saturday, April 20.
There were twenty-nine typewriting contestants and sixteen shorthand contestants. These contestants were from Rocky Mount, Wilson, Edenton, New Bern, Kinston and Greenville high schools.

TEN DIE IN AUTO WRECKS IN THIS STATE

Four Also Reported Injured in Two Auto Crashes Occurring During Yesterday.

Charlotte, April 22.—(AP)—North Carolina counted ten dead and four injured today as the toll of two Sabbath automobile accidents.
Five of them died at Gastonia, where the Crescent Limited, passenger train of the Southern Railway, smashed an automobile bearing two families from Mount Holly, N. C., to the Lory mill district there.
The heroism of two women figured prominently in the accident. Mrs. J. D. McCurry of Mount Holly, hurried her infant son to the street pavement just before the train killed her husband and four members of a neighbor family. Both Mrs. McCurry and the child escaped with slight injuries.
An unidentified woman broke from a crowd to drag McCurry free of the burning wreckage but not in time to save his life. Others killed were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parton and two of their children, "Bud" and Ring. Another child, James Parton, was not expected to live.
Four Sunday motorists were killed near Monticello, where their automobile overturned. They were Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Burgess, their daughter Mary, 16, and Mrs. Mollie E. Hudson, all of Rainsor, N. C. Two other children of the Burgess family were injured.

PILOT BLAMED FOR COLLISION OF AIRPLANES

Lieut. Howard Keefer Held Responsible For Loss of Six Lives At San Diego.

San Diego, Calif., April 22.—(AP)—Lieut. Howard Keefer, army pilot, was blamed today by the San Diego board of air control for the mid-air collision of his army pursuit plane and an airliner that cost six lives, including his own, here yesterday.
A statement by J. Allison Moore, president of the board, issued after an investigation, declared that Keefer had been stunting and otherwise violating air traffic rules.
The tragedy, the second of its kind in San Diego in three days, and the most disastrous in the history of the city, occurred shortly after the air liner, owned by the Maddux Air Lines, Inc., and carrying five passengers, took off for Phoenix, Ariz. Ground observers said Lieut. Keefer, who was following the liner in his swift pursuit plane, evidently miscalculated the distance and crashed into a wing of the big plane.
The two planes were seen to lurch simultaneously. The army ship rolled over a few times and then fell into a canyon. The liner held its course for a minute or two but loose parts began to break away and it fell in a heap.
Besides Lieut. Keefer, the dead were:
Maurice Murphy, of Beverly Hills, Calif., pilot of the air liner.
Miss Cecelia Kelley, 21, newspaper reporter of Kansas City, Denver and Phoenix.
Arturo Guajardo, prominent lawyer of Baja, Calif.
Miss Amelia Guajardo, his daughter.
Louis D. Pratt, pilot of the air liner.
Miss Kelley and Senor and Senorita Guajardo were passengers.
Thousands of persons saw the collision and the fall of the planes. Keefer was seen to jump and release his parachute, but it caught on a wing of his plane and he dangled there until the wreckage struck the earth.
Pratt was decapitated when the plane crashed. Murphy evidently made a desperate attempt to bring his crippled transport safely to the earth. Fragments of the big plane began falling and it started making wide circles. It rolled, dipped and went into a nose dive. For an instant it returned to an even keel and then plunged straight down, a shower of wreckage.
Miss Kelley and Senorita Guajardo were still alive when spectators reached the wreckage but they died a few minutes later.

N. C. SCHOOL MEN TO TALK SCHOOL LAW

Educators And Board of Equalization Begin Five Days' Session at Raleigh.

Raleigh, April 22.—(AP)—County superintendents of education and chairmen of boards of education, numbering 200, met here today for five days of study of the state school system, with a view to promoting economy and efficiency.
At the same time the State Board of Equalization, charged with distributing of the $6,500,000 equalizing fund for schools and with general supervision over the schools in the participating counties, was called to meet in connection with the school men. It was expected that the board would meet independently, also, for a continuation of its inquiry into comparative school costs. Secretary Leroy Martin was prepared to submit data along this line, which he had assembled since the last meeting of the board.
Five main topics were outlined for the school officials by Supt. A. T. Allen, of the State Department of Public Instruction, who arranged the training course in compliance with the mandate of the General Assembly.
For today the topic was "County Wide Plans of Organization for the Economical Operation of Rural Schools." Supt. John C. Lockhart of Wake county, was designated to lead the discussion.

An Unlimited Amount Of Money

To Loan on Greenville Dwellings, Apartment
Houses, Business Property And Farm
Lands of Pitt County

While you may be able to obtain funds through other agencies, I am confident, that taken all-in-all, this loan system is FAR SUPERIOR, MORE CONVENIENT, MORE EASILY HANDLED and more to the GENERAL ADVANTAGE of the borrower, for the following reasons:

Loans are for periods of five, ten or fifteen years.

All payments of both interest and principal are credited on your note immediately.

The loans are paid back through semi-annual or annual payments.

They can be taken up at any semi-annual or annual period, either in full or in part.

This loan program will enable you to sell your property, in my opinion, for at least ten to fifteen per cent more money due to the easy method of re-payment.

If you prefer, can arrange for no payments of either principal or interest to fall due except on an annual basis and that date to be November First of each year.

There is no life insurance required in connection with these loans.

There are no MONTHLY PAYMENTS which is highly objectionable to many and especially to the borrower who operates farms or depending upon revenues from the farms.

The money is always promptly available and no waiting for indefinite periods, as is in the case, with the smaller loaning companies and associations.

There is no withdrawal fee or loss suffered in case you wish to prepay your loan before maturity.

You are not subjected to fines.

Rate of interest six percent and of course as you pay on your loan the interest item becomes less from year to year.

If your present loan is maturing and in need of re-financing, or if the loan you are now carrying is burdensome or not to your liking, it will pay your to inquire into this most satisfactory loan program.

I have made many loans in Greenville and Pitt County and have taken quite a few out of other loaning organizations, for the simple reason, that this loan system is generally more satisfactory. Can be carried without undue or heavy payments as are always required through the short term periods and monthly payment method.

If you wish to borrow money why not get your money from a source which will enable you to repay same without being pressed.

You won't regret seeing me. Ask the fellow who is now using this program.

Meeting Of College Study Club.

The last meeting of the College Study Club for the year was held on Friday afternoon, April 19, at the home of the president, Mrs. R. H. Wright. Fourteen members were present, and the guests of the afternoon were Mrs. M. E. Henderson, Mrs. J. L. Little, Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Mrs. Marianne Murphy, Mrs. Jeter and Mrs. A. A. Henderson.

Members responded to roll call with interesting current events, many of them relating to doings in Washington and at the White House.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. E. L. Henderson; vice-president, Mrs. L. R. Meadows; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Re Barker; reporter, Mrs. R. J. Slay.

Mrs. Re Barker had charge of the program, which proved to be one of the best we have had. The subject was Grand Opera. Brief sketches were given of the careers of several of the well known opera singers, illustrated with pictures and music on the Victrola.

Grand opera, as we know it, originated in Italy, and at the present time America ranks third among the countries producing grand opera performances, France being second. The reason that grand opera selections are nearly always sung in a foreign language is because the English tongue does not readily lend itself to euphonious musical sound; and the reason the most familiar selections from grand opera never become "popular music" is because they cannot be successfully whistled.

Singers and selections on the program were:

Duet, Caruso and Scotti, "Ah, Mimi," from La Boheme.

Solo—Galli Curci, "Caro Nome," from Rigoletto.

Duet—Caruso and Louise Homer, "Home to our Mountains," from Il Trovatore.

Duet, Caruso and Scotti, "Swear in this Hour," from Force of Destiny.

Solo, Gigli (successor to Caruso), "Come, Love, with Me."

After this musical treat, guests were invited into the dining room where a feast for the palate was prepared. The hostess was assisted in serving by her daughter, Mary. The house was beautifully adorned with red roses from the garden of the hostess.

CELEBRATES SIXTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A goodly number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kittrell on Cotanch street, Saturday afternoon at 3:30, in honor of their 60th wedding anniversary.

A most inspiring picture greeted the guests on entering the living room, this devoted "bride and groom" seated side by side with faces radiant and happy, bade their friends welcome. They were assisted by their loyal daughter, Mrs. Carlos Harris, more affectionately known as "Miss Dessie."

A prayer service was held with them, many of their favorite hymns being sung. Rev. E. L. Hillman made a very impressive talk, paying tribute to their long years of devoted companionship, assuring them of the far-reaching influence of a Christian home such as theirs.

Miss Lill Wilson, in a few appropriate words, presented to Mr. and Mrs. Kittrell a box of candy and a lovely basket of flowers as a small expression of the love and esteem of those present.

All gathered around the happy couple and sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," thus bringing to a close a great service, long to be remembered by everyone who had met there to do them honor on this grand occasion.

Six Planes Begin Hunt For Fliers Lost in Australia

Sydney, N. S. W., April 22.—(AP)—Six airplanes were headed today toward the fastness of the Tanami Desert, Northern territory, where the plane Kookaburra of Lieutenant Kieth Anderson was seen yesterday with a body beneath one of its wings.

The planes, carrying food and medical supplies, sought to learn the fate of Lieutenant Anderson and Robert Hiltchcock, who 13 days ago started in search of the then lost Southern Cross, only to come to grief themselves.

The Kookaburra was sighted yesterday by a searching plane, the Atlanta, in charge of a pilot named Brain. Brain was on his way to Wave Hill to join the party searching for the fliers when smoke attracted his attention.

Drawing nearer and flying over it he saw beneath him the Kookaburra a body stretched out under one of its wings. Swooping lower he thought he could make out Lieutenant Anderson.

He dropped a parachute containing water but when the figure beneath the plane did not move he concluded he was dead.

KEEPING STEP

Progressive along many lines and boasting of a geographical location that makes it the logical distributing center, Greenville apparently is still asleep when it comes to aviation, the newer and quicker mode of transportation. Already certain sections of our state are enjoying a faster mail service because they have provided airports and in certain instances this is being followed by passenger and light freight service, and no doubt the near future will see enlarged activities along this line. Such service by air lines is a great advantage to any community, but to get such service it is up to the community to make the first move by providing suitable airports to take care of this mode of transportation.

"Build a birdhouse and the birds will come," is an old saying which is proving more than true of human fliers than of the feathered variety. Experience shows that aviation follows airports, that commercial air lines establish their terminals in cities offering the best landing fields and other terminal facilities.

If we are to continue our march of progress and keep abreast of the times we must recognize the great advantages offered by aviation. The community which overlooks today's great opportunity for providing for air traffic, not only for the future but for the present, will ere long be found in the same position as those which refused to encourage the railroad in its pioneer days. Will we invite aviation by providing for it, or will we wait until other cities around us have reaped the benefits and in self defense must establish an airport or be listed among those towns still living in the past?

Exercise removes fat. Yet some women have double chins.

ABOUT TOWN

"Martin Wright hit the nail on the head when he advocated a place of recreation for children of Greenville," declared a member of the Kiwanis club who heard the talk.

"What to do with leisure moments is one of the greatest problems confronting the American public at this time. Many a life has gone down to the mire of sin and degradation because of the wrong use of leisure moments.

"I would like to see some organization get busy and see what can be done about the playground movement. It is a matter in which every parent should be interested because it vitally concerns the life of their children—the future citizens of tomorrow."

"By their playing you shall know them," said a Greenville baseball fan today commenting on the splendid showing which Greenville and Kinston made in the two first games of the league season here last week.

"The playing of both organizations was way beyond that of last season and leads to belief that we are going to see some fast ball this year. It is to be hoped this is so as both towns certainly got their share of the mediocre variety last season and especially during the later part of the season when they viewed with one another for honor of the cellar.

"We expect to get good results from group organization of our membership," declared a member of the Greenville Merchants Association today.

"This will bring the members of each industry in closer contact with one another and enable them to thresh out the various problems without interfering with activities of any other lines of business.

"But there is one thing that each of the groups will study, and study closely. That is the question of credit. This has been one of the

"With proper support there is no reason on earth why Kinston and Greenville fans should not enjoy just as good ball as any other town of the league. They have the material and if they do not develop it, then it is their fault and they have no one to blame but themselves."

"The opening of baseball season should remind everybody of the importance of watching their subscription to the Reflector," said the manager of the department of circulation today.

"It looks, like winter time has come again," observed a well known figure of the business district as he came up Main street this morning, puffing and blowing from exertion of walking.

"I just hope it is here to stay. The first warm spell several days ago was so deceptive that it caught everybody arrayed in summer time apparel, expecting the balmy weather to continue.

"But, maybe, however, the weather man has definitely made up his mind to give us something to be proud of and that the next several days to come will witness the prevalence of warm weather."

"The opening of baseball season should remind everybody of the importance of watching their subscription to the Reflector," said the manager of the department of circulation today.

"Almost everybody likes to read of what is going on in the baseball world and especially in the Eastern Carolina league where the big fight is just two days old. The Reflector carries a complete report of what is going on in the realm of the world's greatest sport, and the ab-scriber that misses a single copy will lose track of events.

"Watch the label on your paper. If your time is about out, send us your check and stay on the lists."

"It is going to take proper financial support to put out a winning ball club in Greenville this season, and it will be necessary for the public to attend local contests to make this possible," declared a stockholder of the organization today.

"If you haven't made a habit of going out to see the boys in action, try it. This is one of the most popular kinds of recreation of the day, and one of the best plans to relieve the mind of the tired business man or employee confined most of the day.

Greenville Club Goes On Batting Spree And Swamps Kinston Eagles

The Greenville club of the Eastern Carolina League went on a hitting spree here Saturday afternoon and defeated Kinston by the score of 21 to 8. Both clubs banged the ball hard at times, but the locals had the advantage and sent four visiting hurlers to the showers in the vicious attack with the stick.

"Deacon" Joliff, veteran of many a battle of the Virginia League and "Iron Man" performer of the local club last year, went all the way for Greenville. He held the Kinston club to a minimum of hits all through the game, except in the fifth and sixth innings, when batting rallies gave the Eagles six of the eight runs of the game.

Shoaf started out on the firing line for the visitors, but somehow his curves didn't work. The Tobaccoists connected with his delivery in such an effective way that he was retired in favor of Bonds in the second frame. Bonds went to the showers in favor of Ellison in the sixth. Ellison didn't fare any better and retired before the inning was over in favor of Culbreth.

A sandy-haired youth by the name of Jones led the stick attack for Greenville. Out of five trips to the rubber he was credited with five two-base blows, which, coming at psychological moments, resulted in a considerable number of the tallies which the locals piled up during the day.

But it was left to Pasquella, Tobaccoist catcher, to pull the greatest sensation of the day. It came in the form of a home run over the center field fence. It was the longest drive probably ever seen on this diamond before and resulted in the scoring of an additional runner. The four hundred yard drive sent the grandstand wild, and from then on Kinston didn't stand any more chance of overcoming the lead than Greenville did in losing it—and that wasn't much with the boys banging the ball like they did.

Les Bangs again set an example for his followers with the bat. Out of five trips to the rubber, the versatile manager secured four safe blows. He was followed by Edwards, who was credited with four safeties out of six trips up. "Deacon" Joliff was not content with pitching airtight ball when it was needed, but stepped up to the plate and knocked out three safe blows.

Alford and Bleiding led the batting attack for the visitors. They got three hits each, two of Alford's counting for extra bases, as did one of Bleiding's. Knigton scored one run in the first, one in the second, two in the fifth and four in the sixth. The sixth inning rally was featured by a terrific batting rally, but Joliff pulled himself together and retired the side before they had the opportunity of catching up with the lead which his teammates had piled up earlier in the game.

Both clubs played airtight ball in the field. There was nothing outstanding or spectacular in any part of the contest except Edwards' running catch of a fly in the latter part of the game. The big fellow scooped low for the ball, got it and then went into a nose spin that sent the grandstand and bleachers wild. It was a pretty piece of fielding and came at a time when the wind had been giving the ball such peculiar twists that it was almost impossible to pull a piece of clean fielding.

Greenville left this morning for Rocky Mount to take on the Railroaders for a couple of games today and tomorrow. Wednesday and Thursday they will play in Goldsboro, returning home Friday and Saturday for two games with the Pirates from Wilmington.

BRITTON AND DUNDEE STILL GOING STRONG

New York, April 22.—(AP)—A glance over the National Boxing schedule for this week brings back to mind that Jack Britton and Johnny Dundee, whose combined age totals 78 years, still are going strong.

Britton, at 43, has been in the ring since 1904. He lost his world's welterweight title some years ago but still is able to outpoint men half his age. His opponent this week is Red Herring, Utica, N. Y., welterweight. They will meet in a ten round match at Memphis tonight.

Dundee, who in his 17 years of fistie activity has held the featherweight and Junior lightweight championships, also jumps into action tonight, facing Eddie Kid Wolfe of Memphis. In a ten round bout at New Orleans, Dundee, now 35 years old, has lost virtually all of his old time speed but still is a fair match—and sometimes more than a match—for younger foes.

Another ex-champion, Tony Canzoneri, is the ace in the deck at Madison Square Garden this week. Although only 23, Canzoneri already has won and lost the featherweight title. He has been doing much of his recent battling with Junior Lightweights and he meets one of the best in that class at the garden on Friday night—Sammy Dorfman, clever East sider.

Kid Chocolate, the Cuban sensation, still unbeaten, should not have much difficulty with Vic Burrone of New York, in a ten rounder at the St. Nicholas arena here tonight. The "Kid" won his last bout, against Bushy Graham, on a foul, after taking a somewhat artistic lacing for six rounds.

George Courtney, the Oklahoma cowboy, takes another step in his campaign for the light heavyweight championship in Philadelphia tonight against Tom Kirby of Boston, whose specialty is an extremely irritating left jab.

On the Pacific Coast, Young Corbett, the standard four-door contender, and Mushy Callahan, junior welterweight champion, are the principal box office cards. Corbett meets Pete Myers at San Francisco tonight. Callahan may find Doug Myers of Pocatello, a trifle hard to handle at Los Angeles tomorrow night.

Other bouts on the National card include:
Tonight:
At New York: Broadway arena, Pete Sansol, Norway, vs Sammy Farber, New York, bantamweights, ten rounds; at Philadelphia Bruce Flowers, New Orleans, vs Bucky Boyle, Allentown, Pa., lightweights, ten rounds; at Cleveland, Stanihlaus Loayza, Chile, vs Frankie Chatterton, Cleveland, lightweights, 12 rounds; Johnny Grosso, New York, vs Ros Rosales, Mexico City, heavyweights, eight rounds.

It was the first Yankee Sunday at home in 1929 and 40,000 fans paid to see a game which was terminated by rain at the end of the fifth inning.

The Athletics success was all but clinched in the very first inning. Young Henry Johnson walked four of the Macks and permitted a two other of their number to collect safe hits, before the veteran Tom Zachary was summoned to the rescue. The net result was four runs, an almost the ball game. Jimmy Dykes put on the finishing touches with a home run in the fifth with one Athletic abrad.

Almost everything happened in the 16 to 9 triumph of the Tigers over the Browns at St. Louis. O'Burke, Alexander and Whitfill hit home runs and Richardson, rookie shortstop of the Detroit team, permitted the Browns to work the hidden ball trick at his expense.

The res of the American league program succumbed to the weather, as did the first scheduled Sunday championship game in Boston in the history of baseball. The Giants sat idly about the lobby of their hotel as a wind-driven storm of rain played about Braves field.

The National league sabbath campaign was confined almost exclusively to the repulse of the Cardinals by the Cubs, 4 to 0, for the third Chicago victory in four attempts. Guy Bush let the National league champions down with four hits as Rogers Hornsby collected one more than that for his own personal account. Some 50,000 fans turned out for the festivities on Wrigley field.

ATHLETICS BEAT YANKS

Robert Moses Grove of the Philadelphia Athletics, already in this very young season has won as many games from the Yankees as he won all last year. He was combed hard at times at the Stadium yesterday in the 2 to 4 triumph of the Macks, but he accomplished what he failed six times last year to accomplish.

COTTON MARKET

New York, April 22.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 4 to 13 points under a renewal of last week's selling movement which was stimulated by relatively easy cables and a favorable view of weather conditions in the South. There was some trade buying and covering by shorts on the decline but the selling continued active and prices were 14 to 18 points net lower by the end of the first half hour with May selling at 19.75 and December at 19.21. In the case of July contracts which sold at 19.09 the market showed a decline of about 114 points from the high price touched toward the end of March and part of the early buying was supposed to be in anticipation of rallies on an improved technical position. Private cables reported general liquidation uncovering stop orders in the Liverpool market but said there was a slightly better cloth inquiry from India.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, April 22.—(AP)—Prospects of delay to farm relief, counted as one of many factors today that sent wheat values below any level heretofore reached this season.

Wheat closed heavy 1 5/8 to 2 1/2 net lower; corn 1-8 to 1 down; oats 3-8 to 7-8 off and provisions varying from 22 decline to a rise of 5.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 22.—(AP)—Easing credit conditions stimulated a general recovery in prices in today's stock market. Buying orders were distributed over a fairly broad list, gains of 1 to 7 points being quite common, with larger advances by a few high priced specialties. Trading showed a tendency to increase on the rally, indicating a broadening of public participation in the market.

Call money renewed at 7 1/2 per cent, and was in fairly plentiful supply at that figure. Time money which ruled firm around 9 percent during the credit stringency around the first of the month, was quoted as low as 8 for the short maturities. Bankers' acceptances were reduced 1-8 to 1 per cent. The second reduction since March.

A few soft spots cropped out in the motor group as a result of the poor earnings statements being published by some of the smaller companies. Jordan showed a net of nearly $800,000 for 1928, and Hupp's first quarter earnings were only $1.10 a share, as against $1.90 in the corresponding period last year.

Public Utility stocks were in brisk demand on merger rumors and reports of new alignments in the eastern field. Adams Express soared 16 points. American Telephone ran up more than 6 points to a new high record at 236. American & Foreign Power, American Power & Light, Federal Light and Traction, North American Co. and Western Union sold 3 to 5 points higher.

RUPTURE EXPERT IN WILSON

W. B. SEELEY, noted rupture expert, famous for his ability and skill in handling difficult cases, will personally be at the Hotel Cherry, Wilson, Friday, April 26th, only; 10 a. m. to 6 p. m., where those desiring to escape a surgical operation may consult him without charge.

Mr. Seeley says the patented rupture retainers he now uses will hold bad ruptures with ease, will strengthen on tissues, cause muscles to contract and close opening. Any pricking of the body—any kind of work can be undertaken with safety.

For two generations we have cared for many thousands in every walk of life. Physicians and Surgeons as well as Financiers and Farmers; U. S. Government Employees in Army, Navy, Post Office and Department of State; Men, Women and Children.

CAUTION—Elastic trusses with leg straps should never be used; they squeeze the delicate parts against bone and slowly produce dangerous complications necessitating operation.

Master your rupture now. It will be too late after Strangulation sets in. Operations that have torn out will be given special attention.

Associated Press Pays Tribute To Melville Stone

New York, April 22.—(AP)—The Associated Press at its annual meeting today paid tribute to Melville E. Stone, for years general manager and counsellor of the organization.

Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times, offered a resolution which was unanimously adopted in which he praised Mr. Stone's services and genius. It was resolved to send a steel engraving of Mr. Stone to all members of the association and to place a marble or bronze bust of him in the executive offices in this city.

Mill to Resume Work at Lexington

Lexington, April 22.—(AP)—The Dacotah Cotton mill, which has been closed since April 12, will resume operations tomorrow morning, mill officials announced today. Overproduction was given at the time or the shutdown as the reason for closing the mill.

At the Wennonah mill, where a strike was called by the National Textile Workers Union three weeks ago, the situation today apparently was unchanged.
