House Backs Up Hoover By Rejecting Debenture Feature Of Farm Relief

Proposition Went Down By a Vote of 250 To 103 Following Roll Call Taken at Instance Of The Senate.

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—The House today backed up the views of President Hoover by rejecting the export debenture plan of farm relief. The vote was 250 to 103.

The debenture proposition, which Mr. Hoover had attacked twice in public statements and which he had termed a subsidy was voted down on a roll call vote taken at the insistence of the Senate which had approved it on two occasions.

A number of Senators had been represented, however, as demanding the inclusion of the plan in the bill in order that the House members could be recorded on it.

Today's action was regarded by administration leaders as paving the way for a recession by the Senate in its stand and a quick transmittal of a relief measure, minus the debenture to the White House.

Calling of the more than 400 names started a few minutes after Speaker Longworth rapped for order in noon.

Chairman Haugen, of the agriculture committee, raised the question by moving the House instructed members of the farm conference immediately to insist upon rejection of the proposition.

Hardly had Haugen started to speak before shouts of "Vote, vote, vote," rang through the chamber. Under the rules an hour's debate was in order but members clamored incessantly for the ballot.

The House acted on a bill largely of its own making. It had been passed early in the session to set up stabilization corporations to handle the problem of farm surpluses.

The Senate inserted into it a plan where debenture certificates could be used on exports of agricultural products and be redeemed by importers who could use them in paying duties.

Neither President Hoover nor the House would agree to the idea and the public conferees stood fast against the Senate pressure for it.

The motion on which the vote was taken read:

Resolved that the conferees of the House on the disagreeing vote of the two Houses on H. R. 1 (official designation of the farm bill), be instructed in conference to insist upon the striking out of section 10, the so-called debenture plan."

Although Haugen raised the farm question today the actual motion was offered by Rep. Tilson of Connecticut, the Republican leader, who in making it said:

"This vote will bring an out-and-out conclusion as to whether the plan shall go in or stay out. I believe it is the surest and quickest way of getting farm relief enacted."

A few minutes after the House clerk had announced the outcome of the ballot, Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic Senate leader, indicated he would carry out his announced intention of abiding by the decision of the House.

Robinson has been a leader of the move in the Senate in behalf of the debenture and has been insistent upon a direct vote by the House on the proposition. It now is expected he will recede from his position and not continue to press for further Senate approval of the plan.

Brother-in-Law Of Mrs. K. B. Pace Dead

Word was received here last night announcing the death in Goldsboro of Mr. Leslie Yelverton, brother-in-law of Mrs. K. B. Pace of this city. Mr. Yelverton had been in ill health for some time and owing to the turn for the worse in his condition a few days ago, his death was not unexpected.

ONE DIES IN PLANE CRASH EARLY TODAY

Havana, June 13.—(AP)—An American radio operator, name not given, was burned to death at Santiago, Cuba, this morning and General Taylor, air line official severely burned when a ten-passenger cabin plane of the Pan-American Airways crashed and burned after a take-off from that city this morning.

Radio Operator Mail-Passenger Plane Killed In Wreck Near Santiago De Cuba.

The following bulletin was issued by the Pan-American office here: "Airplane NC-9700 was forced down at 8:05 this morning about one mile west of Santiago De Cuba, just after the plane had departed from the temporary landing field which Pan-American Airways, Inc., has been using during the intensive rainy season.

"Pilot Elmore brought the plane down and it then took fire. The radio operator was killed by fire crew was successful in disembarking all passengers without serious injury. The weight being carried by the plane was under one-third of its normal capacity, a precaution which has been in effect during the rainy season here due to the consequent condition of the landing field at Santiago."

Rift Over Farm Relief Predominates Congress

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—The rift in Republican ranks in the Senate over President's Hoover's farm relief program seems destined to go unended for the present at least, with threats of trouble on the approaching tariff contest already sounded.

The lines for the tariff contest were laid yesterday in the Senate while the President still was struggling against the combination of Republican Independents and Democrats there on the export debenture issue. Senator Borah, of Idaho, demanded that the tariff revision be confined to agriculture. Senator Watson, of Indiana, the Republican leader, declared for as general revision as was proposed by the House.

President Hoover recommended "limited" revision. He is going to have to make a choice, apparently, between the Watson and Borah views, and Watson is the party leader and spokesman in the Senate.

While Borah, the outstanding Hoover campaigner, was threatening war against the tariff measure, another Hoover spokesman in the election contest, Senator Brookhart, of Iowa, was called in for the organization of a "Progressive party" with a view to the selection of a "Progressive candidate for president" in the event the export debenture plan, opposed by the president, does not become law in the farm relief or tariff measures.

Thirteen Republicans representing the solid Republican states of the northwest turned from the Hoover farm program almost lined up twice with the almost united Democratic minority for the export debenture farm relief principle. Now comes the threat against general tariff revision, as demanded by the equally strong eastern wing of the Republican party. It leaves the east against a large section of the west with the cleavage in the Republican fold apparently as deep as any of recent years.

SEARCH FOR ABDUCTORS OF LT. GOVERNOR

Several Thousand Men Hunting Bandits In Mountains Of Idaho Today.

Groffo, Idaho, June 13.—(AP)—Several thousand men and boys searched this mountainous country today for the four bandits who yesterday abducted W. B. Kinne, lieutenant-governor of Idaho, and two men who attempted to rescue him.

Kinne escaped uninjured after he had been tied to a tree by his abductors. W. L. Tribbey, of an Idaho loan association and Paul Kille, a lumber worker, attempted to rescue Kinne when the bandits halted his automobile. Kille was shot in the leg and clubbed on the head and Tribbey was badly beaten.

Robbery and the theft of Kinne's automobile apparently were the motives for the abduction.

Kinne, traveling from Lewiston to his home here, was attacked by the bandits shortly after leaving Lewiston. They boarded his car and ordered him into the rear. Near Groffo, Kinne said, a front tire blew out and the automobile catapulted into a ditch, bottomside up. No one was hurt.

When Tribbey and Kille drove up they started to assist the wreck victims and were greeted with drawn pistols. In the struggle that ensued, Kille was shot in the leg and was battered into unconsciousness with a gun butt. The robbers then took Tribbey's car, loaded the three men in it and drove for the mountains.

They stopped near Greer, nine miles southeast of here, tied the men to trees, left one of their number to guard them, and drove away. Four hours later the three bandits returned got their companion and drove away again. Kinne and his companions escaped in a few minutes. Kille seriously but not dangerously hurt, was taken to a hospital here.

Kinne said the bandits intimidated that the need of an automobile to rob a store at Pierce, a lumber town in this section, caused the double holdup. The robbers took $200 from Tribbey and $14 from the lieutenant governor.

PLAN EFFORT FOR SETTLING S. C. STRIKE

Ware Shoals, S. C., June 13.—(AP)—An effort will be made by the State Board of Conciliation here Friday to settle the strike at the Ware Shoals Manufacturing Company where two thousand textile employes are idle.

It will be the first full meeting of the board, composed of J. C. Self of Greenwood, chairman; H. E. Thompson, Batesburg secretary; and W. H. McNary, Dillon.

As soon as the conciliation board's report is received by Governor Richards, steps will be taken to end the walk-out.

R. E. Campbell, chairman of the workers' relief committee, said today that more than half of the strikers were being fed by his committee. He estimated 350 families had no food except that given them by the relief agency.

At the same time he made an appeal for more funds for carrying on the relief work.

Plane Crashes In Attempted Take-Off

Capt Lewis Yancey (left) and Roger Williams were unhurt when their plane, the Green Flash, was wrecked in an attempted take-off from Old Orchard, Me., this morning, with Rome, Italy, as its destination.

Four other persons who sustained injuries in the crash were reported to be getting along nicely today.

STRIKERS ARE GIVEN LIBERTY AT GASTONIA

Gastonia, June 13.—(AP)—Twenty-four Loray mill strikers and strike sympathizers were free today for the first time since the shooting Friday night of Police Chief O. F. Aderholt and three of his patrolmen by strike guards.

Of the 47 who remained in jail today, 13 are charged with murder and the rest with assault. Tom P. Jimison, Charlotte attorney, has brought habeas corpus proceedings in Mecklenburg Superior court for the release of 19 of those still held, and has said he will seek freedom for them all through habeas corpus proceedings. Judge W. F. Harding is to hear arguments in the habeas corpus proceedings tomorrow.

The habeas corpus hearing was set after Tom P. Jimison, attorney for the strikers, had waived preliminary hearings for them in recorder's court where mill workers gathered yesterday to hear details of the fight in which Chief Aderholt was killed aired for the first time.

Shortly afterward prosecution attorneys began a private investigation and the 24 were released after questioning.

James Dombrosky, ministerial student, held at Elizabethton, Tenn., purportedly for Gastonia police in connection with the shooting, also was released when informed by authorities that he was not wanted here.

Striking Students Agree To Evacuate At Mexico City, Mex.

Mexico City, June 13.—(AP)—Striking students of the National University who seized the main building of the institution Tuesday and ran up a red flag over it have agreed to evacuate at noon today.

Their strike, however, will not end until the university autonomy measure authorized last week by a special session of Congress but not yet proclaimed, has been put into force by President Portes Gil.

The agreement to evacuate the building followed a conference of the President and student leaders in which he told them the autonomy measure was being drafted and would be invoked shortly.

No agreement was reached on their demand for resignation of Antonio Castro Leal, rector of the university.

Green Flash Wrecks In Attempted Take-off At Old Orchard Beach

Old Orchard, Maine, June 13.—(AP)—The French monoplane Yellow Bird, with three young Frenchmen aboard, today was speeding over the Atlantic on its way to Paris after a take-off from the beach here.

The light ketchet at Matineux Rock, 23 miles out to sea and about 80 miles east along the Maine coast from Old Orchard, reported that the bright yellow plane passed over at 11:13 a. m., just one hour and five minutes after it took the air here. The plane was then about 1,000 feet high and flying very fast.

While the Paris-bound plane was off to a good start, the Green Flash which Roger Q. Williams and Lewis A. Yancey planned to fly to Rome, was smashed on the beach. Both the fliers escaped injury as the plane nosed over, breaking its propeller and left wing and causing other serious damage.

Jean Assolant, youthful French pilot, who was married but three days ago, got the big Bernardi plane off the beach in easy fashion.

With him were Armino Lotti, Jr., sponsor and radio operator, and Rene LePeve, navigator.

It was reported that they had an untimed guest, a youth who stowed away while the motor was being warmed up. No confirmation could be obtained and Lotti told coast guards that he would not broadcast until he was 1,000 miles out to sea, which would probably be sometime tonight.

Approximately an hour behind the Yellow Bird a coast guard amphibian, piloted by Lieut. L. M. Melka was following the same course as a precautionary measure.

Melka was with the French plane for the first half-hour of its flight but turned about when he received a report that the Green Flash had crashed up.

Yancey and Williams said they were already considering several proposals made to them by persons who wanted to furnish them planes for another try.

The French plane got away two weeks ago but was forced to return after 20 minutes because of a leak in the main fuel tank.

The Yellow Bird today used a mixture of benzol and gasoline. The benzol was put in the fuel to reduce the detonation and vibration which caused the main tank to spring a leak on the first take-off.

The mixture will be about 40 per cent benzol for the first two hours of flight, it will then be cut to about 30 per cent, and later to 23 per cent.

It was determined late, that one-half of the propeller was broken when the Green Flash nosed over, the wing strut was broken and the landing gear smashed.

Yancey said the right wheel let go beneath them and the ship wobbled to the right and centered into a "nose over."

The rear part of the fuselage near the tail assemblage was badly dented and the left wing torn. The cowling over also bent the motor.

After learning that neither Yancey nor Williams was hurt, Melka said: "Isn't that hard luck."

Gasoline leaked from the tanks of the American plane and spread about the ground and the throng was pushed back for fear someone might toss a lighted cigarette or a match on the sand.

Dawes To Meet McDonald In Scotland Next Sunday

London, June 13.—(AP)—It was stated authoritatively today Ambassador Dawes would travel to Scotland Sunday to meet Premier MacDonald at Forres, a little town 17 miles from Lossiemouth, where the premier is spending a short vacation.

The new ambassador will be received by King George at Windsor Castle Saturday when he will present his credentials, the presentation taking place possibly within 48 hours of his landing at Southampton from the Olympic.

This procedure is necessary according to the code observed by diplomats which would not sanction an interview with the prime minister prior to presentation to his majesty.

At Lossiemouth Mr. MacDonald told an interviewer with regard to his prospective visitor: "We shall meet over the luncheon table and in the short space of three or four hours great questions of Anglo-American co-operation in the cause of disarmament and permanent peace will be opened."

GREENVILLE WINS FROM ROCKY MOUNT

Briles Field, Rocky Mount, June 12.—The baseball end of Rocky Mount's Landis Day followed diamond tradition this afternoon, and the home team lost to Greenville, 4-3, in one of those games which truly is not over until the final out.

Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, baseball commissioner; President W. G. Bramham, of the East Carolina League, and close to 2,500 fans saw the cellarites of the Class D. loop play a nifty brand of ball to defeat the home pride. The game was a pitching duel until the ninth, when both teams unlimbered a heavy scoring assault. However, three Greenville tallies in the last frame were one more than the locals could muster in their half.

Following a field day for players, Judge Landis tossed the first ball and President Bramham couldn't hang to the throw. He objected to the scoring of the play as an error, maintaining the judge had crossed signals on him.

With that as the starting gun, John Krider, local ace, who leaves tomorrow to join Macon, a step higher in the Brooklyn farm organization, squared off with "Fats" Duffy, hefty Greenville pitcher. A homer in the second by Clyde Kendall, former Guilford player, put Greenville ahead, and it was not until the eighth that the locals could score. Rocky Mount came within two feet of a run in the fourth when Gene Byrd's drive over left field fence was foul by that much, and then he fanned.

A walk, infield out and Alford's double tied the game for the Bucs in the eighth. Greenies hoped on Krider in the ninth and four safeties and two sacrifices netted three runs. Al Cohen's double set the locals to raving. Fayonsky's pinch single and Stewart's double put over two runs, and the hefty Mr. Duffy departed. "Specs" Garbee relieved him, and the be-spectacled one fanned Boucher and forced Pinch Hitter Simmons to pop up to send the home fans away disappointed.

Kendall had a homer and two singles, with two runs batted in, to lead the Greenies' bats. No Buc got more than one hit and from the second to the eighth the local went hitless. First fielding pulled Krider out of several bad holes in the early stages, three double plays rescuing him. Z. P. King was a big item in these.

Cohen, Stewart, Hiller and Williams also furnished field niceties. Young covered lots of territory in the center pasture for the visitors, who proved a scrappy lot and didn't look like cellarites.

PIRATE CREW TAKES GAME FROM GIANTS

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN, Associated Press Sports Writer
The Pirate charge remains unchecked, even with the Giants opposing it. John J. McGraw was forced to chafe in the New York dugout at Forbes Field yesterday as the Pirates gave his charges a one-run defeat in the ninth, after Burleigh Grimes had blown a fine early lead. The Buccaneers drove four hard smashes back at the venerable Jack Scott to score two runs after two were out and so to win by 7 to 6.

With the Cardinals held motionless by rain, the Pirates thus were able to eradicate that theoretical half-game deficit under which they had labored while leading the league champions in percentage. Donie Bush's men are now in one of those famous "virtual ties" with the Red Birds, but hold a percentage edge through the noted process of having lost fewer games.

The Pirates got extreme even with Carl (No-Hit) Hubbel, who as embarrassed them at the Polo Grounds a month ago when he shut them out without a safety. Eight hits and four runs sent Master Hubbel showered at the end of three innings, and Burleigh Grimes seemed to have a breeze for his eleventh straight. After a sixth-inning blow-up netting the Giants five runs, however, he was in danger of acquiring his first defeat until Grantham's single and Ott's fumble enabled Traynor to score from first base with the winning run in the ninth.

The Cubs defeated the Phillies by 7 to 3 in Chicago, as the Robins and the Reds lay idle in a Cincinnati rain storm. Malone fanned 12 Phils, running his mark to 58, the best in his league.
Action on the American League front further improved the standing of the Athletics who exacted more toll from the hapless White Sox, as the Browns turned upon the Yankees after three straight detours. This combination of events increased the lead of the Mackmen to eight games, a tidy nest egg to hold against the forthcoming series of battles between the champions.

Connie Mack employed Rube Walberg to clinch his third triumph over the White Sox. Rube took the game in his stride and won by 7 to 3, aided by Al Simmons' 14th home run.
The defeat of the Yankees may be attributed in part to Miller Huggins' daring in exposing Myles

Thomas to enemy fire in a starting role. Myles escaped with his life for two rounds, but the Browns cornered him in the third when seven hits netted eight runs and the ball game, which eventually was won by 9 to 4.
Red Heimach rushed to Thomas' rescue just in time to see George Blecholder, the St. Louis pitcher, cap the third round assault with his first home run of the season, or his life, with two Brownies aboard. Blecholder held the champions to eight hits, all told, but permitted Lou Gehrig to register his 15th home run in the eighth.
Washington pitching again faltered at the capital yesterday, and Cleveland defeated the home team by 9 to 5. Willis Hudlin also had his troubles, but Joe Shaute rescued him in time. The Indians hammered away impartially at the Messrs. Burke, Beal and Brown.
The Red Sox and the Tigers enjoyed an open date.

Extra Innings For The Sally

Atlanta, June 13.—(AP)—Two of the four games in the South Atlantic Association yesterday went into extra innings and a third was called at the end of the ninth because of darkness with the score even.
After trailing for eight innings, Knoxville fired away in the ninth to score four runs, overcome a two run lead, and then turn back Macon 6 to 4. McNair, New Smoky shortfielder, starred afield.
Greenville scored in the ninth after Columbia had assured the lead in her showing of the inning, ending the game in a 10 to 10 deadlock—darkness intervening.
Charlotte put over a trio of tallies in the tenth to break a tie and defeat Spartanburg 9 to 6. The margin had been tied and changed three times previously. Although earning only one run, Asheville scored one in the tenth to untie the score and humble Augusta 3 to 2. Gribble pitched well for the losers but was supported loosely.

Bulls Gain Half Game On Patriots

(By the Associated Press.)
The Durham Bulls gained a spare half a game on the pace setting Greensboro Patriots in the Piedmont League yesterday by taking both ends of a double header from Salisbury while the leaders were edging out Henderson.
All three games went by fair line margins. Durham winning the first 8 to 7 and the second 3 to 2, while the Patriots took their 10 to 9.
In the other Piedmont game Dan Boone, the High Point pilot, hit a circuit blow that drove in three runs and gave his team a 7 to 3 victory over Winston-Salem.
Kinston and Wilmington supplied the thrills in the East Carolina loop with a heavy hitting contest that went 14 innings before the Patriots succumbed. Kinston won 4 to 8 to 7 count.
Goldsboro and Fayetteville divided a double header, the Bugs dropping the first 5 to 4, and then winning a 2 to 1 mound duel to even matters. Greenville, battling from the cellar, defeated Rocky Mount 4 to 3.

DENY RUMORS ABOUT PRINCE OF WALES

London, June 13.—(AP)—The Daily Mail today said an unnamed "high court official" had denied emphatically that there was a word of truth in reports linking the name of Princess Ingrid of Sweden with members of the English royal family.

To maintain a slender figure, no one can deny the truth of the advice: "REACH FOR A LUCKY INSTEAD OF A SWEET"

Malicious Propaganda
No amount of malicious propaganda, an insult to public intelligence and good faith, can sway public belief in this fact: Lucky Strike is a blend of choice tobaccos whose toasted flavor thrills the taste, whose toasting process eliminates impurities, and, as 20,679* physicians testify, makes Luckies less irritating. Toasting elevates Lucky Strike to a plane of quality which no other cigarette can approach. The constant care of experts assures the quality of Luckies. Its choice by millions proves its superiority and is the truthful answer to selfish claims.

KIWANIANS TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

The regular twice-a-month meeting of the Greenville Kiwanis Club will be held at the Rotary building Friday night at 7 o'clock. The program will be in charge of George Woodward and will deal with the "Shing Industry of Eastern Carolina."

The regular monthly meeting of the T. E. L. Class of the Immanuel Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. W. O. Bilbro Friday night at eight o'clock, with Mrs. Callie Moye Dail as assistant hostess.

We are anxious for all members to be present.

King's Daughters Meet

The King's Daughters met at the home of Mrs. Frank Wilson Thursday, June 6th. After discussion of considerable business, delightful refreshments were served by the hostess.

RUBBER IS MAIN FACTOR SAYS MR. RUFFIN

It's not often that you can get a tire dealer to talk about anything but tires. They're his business, his hobby, his life—almost. But Mr. Ruffin, dealer in Goodrich tires here is different. At least he is willing to talk about something besides tires, although it had to be rubber.

"Did it ever occur to you," Mr. Ruffin asked, "that Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jim Bottomley and all the various kings and princes of Swat would be plumb out of luck if it wasn't for the little live rubber core in the baseball that they lumm out of the lot every so often? Well, that's just what makes home runs possible. The heart of a baseball is rubber—it's the rubber that makes the baseball live."

"Right now baseball manufacturers are getting ready for next season. Funny how many baseballs are used during a season. Probably millions of them. I just learned from a Goodrich man that one firm has recently ordered 20,000 dozen rubber fillers for baseballs for next year. That means 240,000 live little centers for baseballs for just one firm."

Famous Onslow County Hams!!

The psychological moment has come! To my many customers, 20,000 lbs. of these hams on hand, bought and to be paid for by W. H. Allen, the National Bank, or somebody. They are beauties, sweet and delicious. Greenville and the suburbs has a population of about 12,000. These hams will be absorbed and eaten by the 15th of July and all those who share in this eating will be released, satisfied, pacified and gratified.

Sold the hustler and wide-awake merchant W. L. Dunn, Pinetops, 300 pounds of hams and 100 bags of meal yesterday.

Volunteers To Stage Tag Day Here Saturday

The Volunteers of America will have a tag-day, Saturday, June 15, to raise funds in order to carry on their work in Greenville, Pitt and other surrounding counties.

In the past three months we have held 58 religious services, given 168 meals, 49 beds, and supplied needy families with groceries—found work for the unemployed, visited and prayed with the sick.

Mrs. Capt. Summers is organizing a Mothers' Club at the cotton mill. This is in order to have a linen closet for the sick. Any donations of sheets, pillow cases or material of any kind for the purpose will be greatly appreciated. Phone 520-W.

Captain and Mrs. Ed Summers are the officers in charge. Their address is 1302 Myrtle street.

People Urged To Fly Flag Friday

Post Commander of Pitt County Post No. 39, of the American Legion, is making request through the paper that all people will please fly the American flag tomorrow, June 14th, 1929. This is National Flag Day and is observed throughout the United States. At sunset tomorrow afternoon, the Boy Scouts of Greenville will stage a flag ceremony on the High School grounds.

Negro Youths Held On Theft Charge

Ollie Adams and Willie Walker, colored youths of this city, were confined in the city jail today awaiting action of the Welfare department on a charge of larceny of a carton of Castoria from Eldridge's Drug Store, on Dickinson avenue.

The boys slipped into the rear door of the store this morning about eight o'clock while clerks were busy waiting on customers in front of the building. Nothing probably would have been known of the theft had not the boys been noticed selling the Castoria on the streets at greatly reduced prices. They confessed stealing the medicine when arrested.

College Offers Entertainments During Summer

The program for entertainments for the summer term of East Carolina Teachers College is one of the most attractive ever offered by the college. The series is a combination of various kinds, each the best of its kind, and the whole giving delightful entertainment for the summer months.

There are eight attractions offered during the summer, coming at convenient intervals throughout June and July and the first of August. A season ticket will be offered and tickets will also be sold for each attraction.

The first of the series will be given on Friday evening of this week, June 15, an evening of dramatic entertainment by Miss Gay MacLaren, one of the most noted readers and impersonators of the day. The first of next week, on the eve-

Two plays by the Conner-Miller Players, the company that has so greatly pleased summer school audiences here in past years and is so popular throughout the country for college and university summer entertainments, will present two plays on two successive evenings, July 5 and 6. The South Sea Islanders will give one of their attractive feature entertainments on the evening of July 10. The cartoonist, often called the "Chalk Talker," will be the feature attraction for July 13.

The Mafreim Dancers who were received with great enthusiasm last summer will give a wonderful dance program on the evening of July 23. Sidney London, a famous humorist, will close the series on August 8th.

Everything will be done to make these entertainments attractive to the public as well as the college group. Electric fans and comfortable seats will be furnished.

New Finance Body Makes It Easier To Buy Ford Cars

One of the developments of the past year which created national interest in both automotive and financial circles was the organization of Universal Credit Company for the purpose of financing exclusively the time sales of Ford products throughout the country. Ultimately service of a similar nature will be provided in all countries where Ford products are sold.

Universal Credit Company is a specialized financial institution created to provide uniform and authorized time payment plans at low cost for the purchase of Ford products on an installment basis. The company in the first year of business, just closed has made sound and gratifying progress. The reputation accorded the authorized Ford Finance Plans by the public and Ford dealers in the 21 large cities where branch offices have been established is indeed impressive.

Today UCC has purchased installment contracts in excess of $75,000,000 which establishes a new record in installment financing for an institution which has only been in operation for one year. It is anticipated that the volume of business handled will exceed $25,000,000 monthly from now on. In the short space of a year, the UCC organization has grown from an organization of ten people to one employing almost a thousand.

Already there has come a realization that the Universal Credit Company was created primarily for the sound financing of the Ford dealer and the purchaser, and not with the primary object of profit. Its establishment is thus squarely in comformity with the reiterated Ford policy of creating and developing every possible economy from mine to consumer, for the benefit of the public.

The purpose is to reduce the cost of credit, to the individual who buys one time, commensurate with sound business policies. This reduction in the most of credit is made possible by the many economies that arise from the operation of an authorized plan, on the basis of nationwide volume, and dealing exclusively with the Ford dealer organization. Simplicity of forms, special book-keeping and statistical machinery and general uniform of procedure all under centralized control and management, are constantly contributing to cut these costs.

This cost of credit is just as vital as the cost of any of the material that goes into the building of the automobile. It is in every sense a commodity which becomes a part of the completed article before it is ultimately sold to the public.

Thus the Universal Credit Company's low finance charges are equivalent to a price reduction on the Model A car and other Ford products.

Then there is that important matter of good will. A buyer delights in dealing with an organization that gives him prompt, courteous service, that deals fairly with him, that maintains scrupulously the standard of its product and that is of reliability and confidence and appreciation of the seller and his product.

Railroads Prejudiced. Washington, June 13. — (AP) — Failure of the Abilene and Southern Railway Company and other railroads to provide export and coastwise rates on cotton and cotton linters from points in various southwestern states to Corpus Christi, Texas, no greater for like distances than similar rates to other Texas ports was found today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to be unduly prejudicial.

ABOUT TOWN

"It is gratifying to note that two Greenville men have been signally honored by two prominent state organizations," asserted a business man today, referring to news stories carried in the columns of this paper yesterday.

The election of Dr. Paul Jones of Farnville, to the presidency of the North Carolina Dental Society is a well deserved honor, as was the election of S. O. Worthington of Greenville, to the office of vice grand chancellor of State Pythians. "Both these men have taken an active part in the work of their organizations, and the honor conferred upon them at the annual meetings shows that their worth has been recognized."

"Felt like Sunday in the business section of the city when a majority of the stores and business houses closed in observance of the regular Wednesday half-holiday," declared a citizen this morning. "I don't know where the folks got to, but it is a settled fact that they spent the afternoon out of the city. Some of them went to Rocky Mount to witness the ball game between the Bucs and Greensies, but where the rest hied off to nobody knows."

"These half-holidays will do much to improve the health of the average clerk and store employe who is forced to work from day to day with only Sundays off. They will put new springs in his footsteps, a glow in his cheeks and prepare him for strenuous days of business of the fall of the year."

"Greenville business men did the right thing when they signed up to close. Sixty-odd merchants signed the closing petition, and not a single one of them failed to live up to the agreement during the first closing period yesterday."

"That Kinston ball club has proved a 'thorn in the flesh' to members of the Greenville ball club all this season," affirmed a follower of the Tobaccoists today, referring to the number of wallpings which the Eagles have handed us the last several weeks.

"Not content with evacuating the cellar in our favor, the birds had the audacity to come over here the first of the week and take two in a row. If that isn't gratitude! They most certainly should have been content with the several other games we were gracious enough to drop to them the first of the season."

"And that fellow Emmons—well, he is nothing more than an inexorable jinx to us. He has won every game he pitched against us and they are numerous. It looked like we were going to break his charm the final game of the series here, but he continued to weave his spell around Greenville batsmen and walked off the diamond with another victory chalked up in his favor. "We had rather take on Rocky Mount or Goldsboro either in preference to the Eagles. We can lick the leaders every now and then, but Kinston—that's out of the question."

"Don't forget the cultivator demonstrations to be held in this county Friday," reminded members of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture today.

"This will be one of the most important showings of cultivators probably ever held in the county before, and many prominent farmers are expected to be in attendance."

"Representatives of some of the largest cultivator manufacturers in the country will be present to display their wares, and their instructions should be of interest to every body capable of appreciating the important part which this implement plays in modern farm life."

"Then, too, there will be an expert from State College to explain some of the best ways to use the cultivator. His sidelights on the farming situation should be highly instructive. If you are a farmer, don't fail to attend the demonstration and get in line for more profitable farming."

"Remember the important part which your father has played in your life and find some way to honor his next Sunday—'Father's Day,'" suggested a leading citizen yesterday afternoon.

"This occasion should mean much to the American public as does Mother's Day. It is of equal significance, in that when you think of mother you naturally associate her with the gray-haired, stooped figure whose business it has been to provide food and clothing for his family ever since time immemorial. "Merchants are planning to make the occasion a great one for Greenville. They have displayed hundreds of gifts for father, and many of them will find their way to appreciative firesides on this Sunday. "Honor Dad this year, for next year you may not have that opportunity."

The French fliers are off on their way to Paris, and while they are speeding over the wastes of the broad Atlantic they will not be alone for the thoughts and wishes of the people on each side of the ocean will be with them and many anxious moments will be spent ere word is received that the intrepid sirmen have reached safety.

Removal of the pile of junk including the old heating furnace from the library site on the old Evans Street School property would add much to the appearance of the place. If this furnace is to be used in the new school building as was at first planned, why not move it to the new building. If it is not going to be used, let the junk man or somebody have it so they can move it away. It's getting to be an eyesore where it is.

PITT COUNTY MEN HONORED

Pitt County received three honors yesterday in the election of its sons to high offices in state fraternal, business and professional circles. At its meeting in Wrightsville, the North Carolina Dental Society elected Dr. Paul E. Jones of Farnville, as its president for the coming year; the North Carolina Merchants Association in session at Hickory elected J. H. Blount, of this city, as its vice-president; and S. O. Worthington, of this city, was elected vice grand chancellor of the state Grand Body K. of P., at its meeting at Greensboro. Each of these three native sons of Pitt County have been particularly active in the bodies to which they have been elected as officers and citizens of our county should be proud that our sons are receiving this deserved recognition of their services.

COME ON, TEAM!

That was a good show you put up for Judge Landis yesterday, boys, and the outcome was such as to make the hearts of all our home town fans pound for joy. For some time we have been occupying the cellar but that is no reason why we should continue to do so. Those who saw you in action yesterday declare that the cellar is no place for a team that plays such a brand of baseball. Let's show them that they are right. A little pep on the part of everybody including the fans, and we can climb out of the cellar again and take our place at the top where we belong. There is no better time to start than right now. Let's do it.

with that quality in improved "Standard" Gasoline that sweeps you to the forefront when the traffic light says "Go" . . . carries you on and cuts you in ahead of "lazy-motored" cars . . . reduces the necessity of shifting gears—and makes you proud of your mightier car.

NO matter whether your car be a saucy, speedy roadster or a stately, powerful sedan—this improved "Standard" Gasoline helps it conquer traffic. It's a richer gas, a more volatile gas. Limbers up like a sprinter and beats other cars to the "crossings." It's an all round flexible gas, too. Puts its back behind a ten-ton truck as easily as it skims the hills with a touring car. That's because its range of boiling points is carefully attuned. Improved "Standard" Gasoline is gassier. And yet it doesn't waste itself in flashy acceleration alone. In any situation it's dependable . . . it's the champion.

TECHNICALLY SPEAKING, "the rapid advance of high-speed and multiple cylinder motors to meet changed traffic conditions demands 'quicker acceleration' or 'flexibility of control.' To secure rapid acceleration in traffic you need a richer mixture, a greater force instantly to push the pistons." It is in their brief instants that the improved "Standard" proves itself a richer and more volatile gasoline—it's the champion."

"STANDARD" dealers and attendants at "Standard" Service Stations practice daily those little courtesies which have earned them the reputation of giving "service with a smile." But the free water for the radiator, free air for the tires, free road maps to show you the way, are all incidentals to that bigger service—the dispensing of clean, rich improved "Standard" Gasoline. It's clear as crystal. Sold everywhere at red "Standard" pumps with the familiar "Standard" globes.

"STANDARD" Improved GASOLINE

GOLD BULLETS

by Charles G. Booth

SYNOPSIS: Marked cards! Everything lost in the mad poker game with Joe Lundy. Peterson, desperately realizing in a few hours his brother will be hanged. Fitch, a desert rat, reveals to him the cards used in the disastrous game were marked—so cleverly that the markings could not be seen by the naked eye—but the lenses in Lundy's spectacles are magnifying glasses, part of his cunning plot. Peterson returns to Lundy's office and accuses him of cheating. They both fire but Lundy's bullet misses and Peterson's golden slug strikes Lundy in the head.

Chapter 40.

"BULL" AND "NAP"
"Dad was pretty badly shaken," Jerry continued, "but he couldn't pretend to regret he didn't feel Lundy was a rascal and he'd brought it on himself. Dad slid over to the door, expecting this would be the end."

"When he opened the door he saw the rush he had expected hadn't begun. It didn't look as if it were going to, either. The row was worse than ever. It didn't take dad long to realize that the shooting upstairs had been identified with that downstairs and that it was supposed to be part of the general justification."

"But just then he saw Fitch break away from a group of men near the front door and come slowly down the hall to the stair. Dad quickly shut the door. Fitch's casual gait didn't indicate he suspected something was wrong."

"Dad had intended to submit the cards and Lundy's other pair of glasses to the miners, but with Lundy dead and the miners full of his cheap whiskey, he doubted if this were wise. They'd be more than likely to lynch him and Uncle Jerry, and inquire in the merits of the case afterwards. He thought of the north window. No, he must do better than that."

"He slid over to the door and opened it an inch or so. Fitch was loitering on the stair. Shutting the door, he hurried into that storeroom. Professor Dryden Popp's wax figures stood in two rows near the door. Dad grabbed Napoleon Bonaparte and, after pulling the table out of the immediate range of the light above, planked him down side-wise on the chair Lundy had occupied. Dad rolled Lundy into the shadows behind the table, stripped him of his gray shirt, and drew it over Napoleon's head and shoulders. Then he crowns Napoleon with Lundy's hat, set Lundy's glasses on his nose, and lowered the light."

"Someone knocked on the door. Dad dropped into the chair, faced Napoleon, and casually lighted a cigarette. He let his hand slide round his gun belt, at the same time blowing a cloud of cigarette smoke between himself and Napoleon."

"The door opened. Dad glanced over his shoulder. Fitch was looking in. Nodding casually to him, dad exhaled more smoke into Napoleon's face. Sweat started out on his forehead and trickled down his cheeks, his heart seemed to be climbing into his windpipe."

"I want to talk about that evidence, Lundy," he said calmly. "Fitch drew back and shut the door. Dad crept over to the door and peered out again. Fitch was leaning over the gallery rail. Downstairs the hullabaloo was worse than ever."

Dad bent over Lundy and went through his pockets, but he found neither the mining transfer nor the check, although he recovered the original stake he had lost to Lundy on the final hand. The check and the transfer weren't in the safe, Lundy's desk, or the pocket of Napoleon's shirt."

"Dad didn't dare wait any longer. He'd stop payment of the check when he got out of the valley. Lundy's heirs would probably find the transfer and his loss would be the Peterson's feet collided with something soft and heavy—Jerry's body.

Two Brothers. But dad stopped to look at the dummy and that second impulse took him. "Why not make it two of a kind?"

"If he'd thought about it first for say, two solid minutes, he wouldn't have done it, for he hadn't one chance in ten of putting it over. He glanced through the door again. Fitch still hung over the gallery rail, smoking. Shutting the door, dad peeled off his shirt and hustled then, the door-latch clicked. "Dad dropped behind Napoleon's chair, puffing out cigarette smoke. The door opened an inch or so and Fitch's face appeared in the crack. Dad had to press his hands to his naked body to quiet the pounding of his heart. The door opened again. Fitch must be coming in. Dad's hand slid around to his 45. "What yuh want?" he snarled, in a fair imitation of Lundy's high-pitched voice. "Fitch stopped. 'Nothin', Joe. I was jest takin' a look-see.' "Git out, then!" dad shouted in the same voice. "Fitch slammed the door shut."

Dad stood up, breathing hard. Of course, Fitch had no reason to believe the two figures he saw were not dad's and Lundy's, but I don't think one man in a hundred could have carried it off. "It wasn't likely that Fitch would look in again for a while. Dad slammed the marked cards into a pocket and raised the sash of the north window to the top. Climbing through, he dropped to the roof of the lean-to beneath it, then to the ground below. He listened. Nothing happened. He hadn't been seen, evidently. He remembered, then, that he'd forgotten to bring Lundy's magnifying glasses. Well, he wasn't going back for them.

"He came to the mine property and called Dillon by name. But Dillon didn't answer. Dad called again. Still he didn't answer. "Dad peered into the shadows of the overhang. Had Dillon laid some sort of a trap for him? he wondered. The quickest way to find out was to move towards the mine door, and this he proceeded to do. There was no sign of Dillon anywhere.

"Jerry!" dad shouted. "There was no answer. 'Jerry!' he roared. 'This is Alex!' "Uncle Jerry didn't answer and dad took out his keys. His hands shook so that he could hardly get the key into the lock and turn it. "It was Uncle Jerry he had stumbled over. He lay on his back dead with a bullet wound in his chest." (Copyright, 1929, Wm. Morrow Co.)

PAIN IN HIS SIDE RARELY LEFT HIM

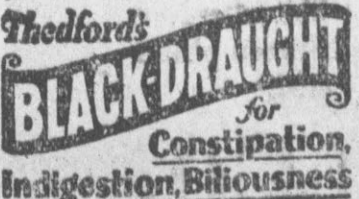

Sometimes a Thumping Sensation Made Him Nervous, and His Head Ached.

Crystal, W. Va.—"For several years I suffered with indigestion," says Mr. W. M. Barger, of this place. "I had a pain in my right side, which rarely ever left me. When I woke up in the morning, it was always with a bad taste in my mouth, and I frequently was troubled with sour stomach."

"Sometimes a thumping would start in my side, which made me very nervous. I was all out of sorts. At times, I would have headache so bad, I would have to leave my work."

"Black-Draught was recommended to me by a friend, and so I began taking it. I started by taking a small pinch after each meal, and before very long I was feeling much better. I kept up the medicine for some time, and my improvement was so great, I felt better than I had felt in years."

"The pain in my side left me, and the sour stomach quit altogether. I have found Black-Draught an effective preventive for sick headache and constipation and those troubles which come from constipation."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET, N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, June 13.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 5 to 10 points owing to a late rally in Liverpool. Rather a less favorable view of the weather news and continued in the south. Much of the buying was attributed to covering, but offerings were light and prices advanced to 18.09 for July and 19.04 for December or about 11 to 13 points net higher. Orders seemed to be more evenly divided at these figures, however, and the market was quiet at the end of the first half hour with prices showing slight setbacks. Private cables said local buying and trade calling had absorbed liquidation in the Liverpool market but that sales of cotton cloths were unimportant and that yarns were freely offered.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 13.—(AP)—Anticipating House rejection of debentures and expecting prompt shipment of farm relief, traders took aggressively to the buying side of the grain market today. Announcement of the vote in the House knocking out debentures was followed quickly by more than a cent a bushel upturn in wheat prices on top of earlier gains. Corn advanced sharply with wheat.

Increased selling to realize profits ensued and wheat as well as corn reacted, wheat closing unsettled 3-4 to 1-1-4 above yesterday's finish; corn 1-8 to 1-1-3 up; oats unchanged to 3-8 advance and provisions unchanged to a rise of 2-8.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 13.—(AP)—Reduction in the call money rate to 7 per cent stimulated a revival of bullish activity in today's stock market. Buying continued of a rather selective character, however, with such important groups as the Steels, Motors, Coppers and Oils taking little part in the up-swing.

Public Utilities were again in the forefront of the advance, with the rails joining the upward movement in the afternoon trading.

Call money renewed at 8 per cent, dropped to 7 1/2 and then to 7, presumably in reflection of the accumulation of funds here in connection with mid-month dividend interest and Federal income tax payments. There was no quotable change in time money rates but the undertone of the market was described as easier.

Wall Street generally looks for a general relaxation in rates as soon as the July 1 payments are out of the way.

There was little in the day's news to influence the price movement. Adjournment of the oil conservation conference at Colorado Springs without having reached an agreement caused disappointment in some quarters, but hopes still was held in trade circles that a satisfactory solution of the over-production problem would be found. There was relatively little selling of the oil issues on the announcement of the recess.

The spirited advance in the Public Utilities received its primary impetus from merger rumors, which involved practically every large company operating along the Atlantic seaboard.

Commonwealth Power soared 9 points and American Water Works, North American and Standard Oil and Electric climbed 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 points, all to new high records. Peoples Gas jumped 10 points.

Auburn Auto continued its sensational gain by soaring 16 points to a new high record at 291, or 70 points above the low price recorded after its listing a few weeks ago. General Electric extended its gain to 40 1/2 points by touching a new peak at 289 1/2. Union Tank Car ran up more than 11 points and Case Threshing Machine certificates, Johns Manville, Motion Pictures, Gillette Safety Razor and Safeway Stores sold five to ten points higher.

Underwood, Elliott, Fisher, Southern Dairies, A. Youngstown Sheet and Tube and Olden Company all reached new high levels.

Atchison, which has been under rather steady pressure since President Storey denied rumors of a stock dividend, led the railroad group with an early gain of 6 points.

Bandits Escape After Theft At Salisbury, N. C.

Salisbury, June 13.—(AP)—Three unmasked bandits last night held up Lindsay McDaniel, in charge of a Main street service station, and robbed the place of $11.50 and a number of tools and flashlights.

The men were chased through traffic on downtown streets by police, but escaped.

The robbers entered the filling station, McDaniel said, forced him into a rear room and robbed the station while traffic was passing along two much-traveled streets. They then entered their car and sped away just a moment before Chief of Police Rankin arrived.

Border Shooting Declared Justified

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—Congressional irritation over the use of guns by federal agents enforcing the prohibition and anti-smuggling laws was regarded today as having been alleviated slightly—but only slightly—by the finding of Representative Robert H. Clancy of Michigan, in his personal investigation of the fatal shooting of Archibald Eugster, 21, on the banks of the Detroit river.

Eugster's death was the second within a week since the intensification of the government's effort to stop liquor smuggling across the Canadian border and aroused considerable unfavorable comment in Congress. Clancy, who demanded a thorough investigation by the attorney general and went to Detroit to look into the matter with Rep. Clarence J. McLeod of Michigan, announced there last night that he had found the shooting justified.

Jonah Cox, the customs border patrol inspector involved in the Eugster investigation, was absolved of all blame by Clancy and Prosecutor James E. Chenot after one of the slain youth's companions on the night of the shooting admitted that they had been attempting to run 35 cases of liquor across the river and had failed to halt when ordered to do so by the agent.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

The General Electric Refrigerator was designed and built after fifteen years of painstaking development by the Research Laboratories.

All its mechanism is enclosed in a hermetically sealed steel casing and placed upon top, leaving the cabinet space entirely for food storage. The mechanism thus enclosed is dirt-proof, worry-proof, so automatic you do not even oil it, so quiet you hardly know when the motor is running.

You may purchase any model you wish on deferred payments.

Hoover Invited To Make Speeches Independence Day

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—President Hoover is considering three invitations to make Independence Day addresses and the sponsors of each still are hopeful.

They would take him to Philadelphia for the annual celebration at Independence Hall, to New York for the Fourth of July meeting of newly naturalized American citizens, and to Asheville, N. C., to speak at a meeting of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association.

The president's views as yet are unknown other than that if he makes a Fourth of July address he will leave the national capital to do it. This was learned when a delegation called at the White House with an invitation to speak here.

However, there have been indications that of the three invitations to Philadelphia is proving most appealing. Mr. Hoover is said to like the idea of launching an Independence Day message to the American people from the very spot upon which were enacted the stirring events which gave rise to the holiday.

Should he accept the New York invitation, Mr. Hoover would speak at a celebration which last year was addressed by Alfred E. Smith.

Senator Tyson, of Tennessee, and Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, have been active in supporting the Asheville invitation. Both have called at the White House to urge its acceptance. It was presented several months ago by a delegation from the Publishers' Association.

BYNUM MAN HONORED FOR BRAVERY OVERSEAS

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—The award of a silver star citation for gallantry in action east of Verdun during the world war to John L. Culbertson, of Bynum, N. C., was announced today by the War Department. The citation said Culbertson, formerly a corporal in Company "H" 322nd Infantry, 81st division, passed through areas swept by enemy machine guns and "by disregard for his own personal safety was able to keep up liaison between elements of command."
