INDEPENDENTS MAY REWRITE TARIFF BILL

Democratic-Republican Group In The Senate Seem to Have Upper Hand in Fight

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—The possibility was held out to Congress today that the tariff measure may be rewritten in the Senate by the Democratic-Republican independent group, which twice overruled President Hoover in the farm relief contest, and that it may be rewritten with a view to confining revision principally to agricultural products.

The group has shown its strength anew in its support of the resolution of Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, which proposed to instruct the finance committee to disregard the House tariff bill and limit revision to agricultural and related products and was defeated by a margin of only one vote—39 to 38. That vote left the Republican majority of the finance committee free today to proceed with its rewriting of the House bill as it sees fit for the next two months, but it made clear that the whole task will be gone over again after the measure was taken up in the Senate.

With all of its work for the extra session completed except the impending tariff bill, the Senate, in the meantime, has voted to take a recess tomorrow and carrying over to August 19. The House, having passed the tariff bill, was thus left with nothing to do while awaiting the Senate's action, so its leaders were ready to agree to the recess and extend their own until the middle of September.

The recess was proposed by Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, at the end of one of the hottest days of the summer, and the first overwhelming vote in the Senate at this season was forthcoming. Only twelve Republicans and eleven Democrats voted against it.

The quick work of both the Senate and House in enacting the appropriation of $151,000,000 asked by Mr. Hoover, to carry out the farm relief act, assured the recess. Within a few hours after the President had submitted the estimate for the appropriation, the amount was available, one of the speediest legislative transactions involving such a sum in many a day. The recess is just long enough to cover the time the finance committee is estimated to need for its work on the tariff bill. Determined to get the tariff bill through the Senate and out of conference with the House before the regular session opens in December, administration leaders insisted that no longer than two months be given over to the recess.

The Borah vote shows what a contest is in prospect when the tariff bill does get before the Senate. Only seven Democrats voted against the Idahoan while thirteen Republicans join the Democrats in support of his resolution.

The vote brought almost the line lineup which combined for a majority in the two bodies favorable to the export debenture farm relief plan to which Mr. Hoover was so opposed. It was not disclosed to what extent Mr. Hoover's views on the attempt to limit the tariff revision were known, but when Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, proposed the very language used by the President in his message to the extra session as an amendment broadening the scope of the Borah resolution, it was rejected, 39 to 38.

Senator Johnson, Republican of California, voted against the Jones amendment and then he voted against the Borah resolution. He explained that he did not want to kill the Borah resolution "by indirection."

Junior Order Meets At Charleston, S. C.

Charleston, June 18.—(AP)—The national convention of the Junior Order United American Mechanics closed its annual meeting here today, fifth representatives and visitors from all sections of the United States present. Officers will be nominated today and elected tomorrow. One of the features of the convention will be the appearance of the boys' band and the girls' club from the Ohio orphan home of the organization. More than 75 children from the home arrived yesterday on a special train with national officers and delegates from northern states. Mrs. Thomas P. Stone was in charge of the visitors on behalf of the city and C. O. Getty on behalf of the local order. Judge Albert H. Hill of Spartanburg, will appear as the personal representative of Gov. Richards who was prevented from attending. Andrew Rupel of New York, member of the national control board, was to respond.

HOOVER SIGNS CENSUS BILL EARLY TODAY

Measure Provides For New Census And Reapportionment Of House Of Reps.

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—President Hoover today called upon the committee on the Canadian border to prevent the systematic war being waged by international criminals against the laws of this country.

Mr. Hoover expressed the opinion that all the trouble encountered in the enforcement of the law on the border was due to the mechanism of criminals who were trying to violate the law.

Predict Developments In Columbus Hammer Slaying

Columbus, Ohio, June 18.—(AP)—Intent upon their hunt for evidence in the hammer slaying of Theodor Hix, 23-year-old co-ed, authorities today predicted "sensational developments" in their investigation as they centered their inquiry about Marion T. Meyers, who was taken from a cell at midnight and questioned before the girl's mutilated body early today.

DEFENDANTS REDUCED IN STRIKE CASE

One-Third Of Those Arrested In Gastonia Involved In Court Action Today.

Charlotte, N. C., June 18.—(AP)—The number of defendants in the Lora cotton mill strike ten colony shooting today was reduced to approximately one-third the number originally arrested.

When Sheriff Eli Lineberger, of Gaston county, appeared in Mecklenburg Superior court this morning in answer to a writ of habeas corpus, he brought with him 24 prisoners seeking bail. It developed that twelve of the thirty-seven held last night had been freed over night and that the thirteenth had been freed of charges in connection with the shooting. The thirteenth man, William Sedell, however, was still held in the Gastonia city jail on a charge of fighting.

The sheriff was ordered to produce Sedell in court on motion of defense attorneys. There originally were 75 prisoners. It also was announced that fifteen of the twenty-four still held were charged with murder in connection with the death of O. P. Aderholt, chief of police of Gastonia, who was fatally wounded in a battle between guards at the tent colony and police on the night of June 7. The others are accused of assault in connection with the wounding of three other policemen.

4-H CLUBS ON ANNUAL VISIT TO CAMP LEACH

Several Pitt County Boys And Girls Left Today For Week Of Work And Play.

Members of the 4-H Clubs of Pitt county left this morning for Camp Leach on the Pamlico river below Washington, to spend the remainder of the week in annual encampment. About 33 girls and 29 boys registered at the courthouse here this morning, but it was stated that several others who did not register would make the trip direct from home.

The camp will be held under direction of Miss Ethel Wiley, Home Demonstration Agent, and E. F. Arnold, director of the Farm Department, chaperoned by numbers of well known women of the community.

While in camp the youngsters will be given lessons in home demonstration and farm work. They will also have plenty of time for recreational features, and plans indicated one of the most successful encampments in years.

The 4-H clubs of Pitt county have established an enviable reputation over the last two or three years, not only from the work accomplished but from the standpoint of actual achievement. The boys scored outstanding recognition in hog raising, and the girls in various features in connection with home demonstration work.

The camp will be visited next Thursday evening by members of the Greenville Kiwanis Club. They were visited last year by the Rotarians, and provided a feast which club members have not forgotten even to this day. It had not been determined today how many Kiwanians would make the trip, but it was urged that representation be as large as possible.

Several automobiles and trucks were required to move the club members and their paraphernalia to the camp this morning. They were all concentrated at the courthouse and shortly after 10 o'clock the last truck pulled out, literally groaning beneath its load of things to tempt the appetite of the youngsters during the stay at the camp.

The crowd will return Saturday morning. Chaperones were: Mrs. F. F. Arnold, Miss Ella Fleming, Mrs. C. L. Parker, Mrs. L. F. Clemens, Miss Bruce Ellis, Miss Alice Robinson.

Wife Of General Obtains Divorce. Reno, Nev., June 18.—(AP)—Waiving all claim to alimony, Mrs. Henrietta Louise McArthur obtained a divorce from Major General Douglas McArthur, noted United States Army officer and son of the late General Arthur McArthur, here yesterday. She alleged that General McArthur had failed to provide her with the common needs of life.

SMUGGLING OF BOOZE MOUNTS ON THE BORDER

Customs Border Patrol Across Entire Country Strengthened to Meet Situation.

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—Assistant Secretary Lowman announced today that confidential reports from Treasury agents indicated an unprecedented gathering of bootleggers and smugglers along the Canadian border from Vancouver to the Atlantic seaboard to smuggle liquor into the United States.

The White House, he said, had transmitted to him a telegram of Minnesota citizens protesting the killing of Henry Virginia by customs border patrolman White. Besides this 150 other telegrams, both protesting against and approving the Treasury stand, he added, had been received on this case.

Youngster Awaits Sentence To Chair

Macon, Ga., June 18.—(AP)—A native Canadian youth, Earl Manchester, who came south to seek work and was "mothered" by an aged woman who he said cast a "strange influence" over him and persuaded him to commit murder, today awaited sentence to the electric chair. He was convicted of murder yesterday, upon his confession that he killed James Parks, his roommate, for a promise of $1,000 of $14,000 in insurance money Mrs. J. C. Powers, their landlady, expected to collect on the young printer's life.

THREE WOMEN MISSING IN PLANE CRASH

Folkestone, Eng., June 18.—(AP)—Boats and tugs searched a wide area of the English channel today in search of the bodies of three women still missing in the crash of the nightliner, City of Ottawa, off Dungeness yesterday with the loss of seven lives, including at least one American.

Adolph E. Meister, 73, vice-president of the Garfield Manufacturing Company, of New Jersey, was the known American victim, while a "Miss Roberts, of London," whose body is still missing, was believed to be of American parents.

The casualty list today read as follows: Dead and body recovered: Adolph E. Meister, 73, vice-president of the Garfield Manufacturing Company, of New Jersey. Leon T. Malcolm, vice-president of the Malcolm and Southern Furniture Company, of Hamilton, Ontario. Alfred Smith, of Melbourne, Australia.

Miss Ickerson, address not given. Missing: Mme. Bosiger, of London. Miss Roberts, of London. Mrs. Koracki, Mayfair Hotel, London, believed to be the stage name of Mrs. Gerzon, of Amsterdam.

Those rescued and suffering from shock were Mrs. and Mrs. Fleming, relatives of Mrs. Ickerson; Miss M. Smith, daughter of Alfred Smith; H. W. Tatham, an American, possibly of Minneapolis, Minn., or Sacramento, Cal.; Captain R. J. Brailly, pilot, and M. Barnett, flight engineer.

It was revealed today that the City of Ottawa had been in service since March, 1926, and had flown 250,000 miles, yesterday's trip—if it had been completed—being its thousandth channel crossing. One theory advanced in connection with the accident was that the door of the air liner's saloon may have been opened after the plane crashed in the water and water pouring through it drowned those at the back. Some passengers scrambled through emergency exits to safety.

FOUR KILLED BY GAS FUMES IN MANHOLE

Employees Of Lowell, Mass., Die In Attempt To Rescue Companions From Hole.

Lowell, Mass., June 18.—(AP)—Four employees of the city sewer department were killed by sewer gas in a manhole in a vain attempt to rescue companions who had ventured into the manhole before them and had been overcome.

The dead are Frank Donohue, Maurice Fitzgerald and Hugh and Thomas Roark, brothers, a fifth man, James Keene, was rescued but is in a critical condition at a hospital.

The men had been assigned to investigate complaints that sewer gas was escaping from the manhole, which is situated near the town 17 of the American Hide and Leather Company.

Donohue, the first to enter the manhole, was immediately overcome. When his companions saw him collapse, Hugh Roark entered the manhole in an effort to save him. Despite the deadly fumes, Roark struggled half way up the ladder with the unconscious man and he, too, collapsed, and both fell to the bottom of the ladder.

Fitzgerald, then Thomas Roark and finally Keene ventured into the manhole in an attempt to bring out their companions, but they also succumbed to the gas.

Three firemen were severely affected by the gas in removing the bodies of the four victims and in rescuing Keene.

Norris Proposes To Put Debenture Plan In Tariff; Big Fight Is In Prospect

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—The warm late summer and early fall days will bring to Congress a second contest over the export debenture plan of farm relief which is expected to be even more intense than the first.

The issue has been formally presented again by the introduction of an amendment by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, to put the debenture plan in the tariff bill, and unless all signs fail a lively time will be had before it is disposed of.

The Norris proposal virtually is the same as the one finally torn out of the farm relief bill by the insistence of President Hoover and the House of Representatives, and much weight in shaping the general make-up of the tariff bill. Debenture advocates have repeated measures against some of the schedules in the tariff act seriously in mind, if their proposal against is objected to.

LIMIT USE OF FIREARMS ON THE BORDERS

Customs Patrolmen Permitted To Carry Nothing But Service Pistols Now.

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—Activities in administrative circles to meet the rising tide of discussion in connection with the use of firearms in the government's effort to check run running along the Canadian border were viewed by some Washington observers today as indicating that President Hoover himself has taken a hand in the matter.

Meanwhile, Assistant Secretary Lowman of the Treasury, in charge of prohibition enforcement, has announced the issuance of a new order designed to reduce the likelihood of unnecessary shooting, limited the arms of customs patrolmen along the border to service pistols. Heretofore, some of the patrolmen have carried rifles and shotguns.

That order is ascribed by the Washington Post today to President Hoover, who, the newspaper says, "hemmed in on all sides, by prohibition protests and pressures for a time will direct prohibition enforcement himself under a semi-civilian law agreement." Citing visits at the White House yesterday by Senator Wesley Jones of Washington, author of the Jones law, and Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, it also says "Mr. Hoover has asked for reports on recent killings" and "has conferred with Treasury and justice department officials."

Another side of the picture has been presented by Mr. Lowman and Prohibition Commissioner Bryan. The latter announced that the anti-run running campaign along the Detroit river, where combined prohibition coast guard and customs forces have been increased recently, had noticeably reduced the liquor smuggling.

The killing of Arthur Gordon near Plattsburg, New York, by a customs official, one of the series of incidents along the border which has aroused such widespread discussion since the concentrated campaign was undertaken several weeks ago, was described as an accident by Mr. Lowman after receipt of detailed reports.

Inspector William J. Cheatham, and P. L. Conroy, his statement related, had interpreted an old-timer automobile and were giving chase after "the run runner" had taken advantage of a collision to leap a fence and run across a field toward nearby woods. Cheatham, the report said, "discharging his gun, accidentally, as he fell, and Gordon was found wounded shortly afterward.

Another announcement by Mr. Doran disclosed dissatisfaction with enforcement conditions in the northern New York district, where Palmer Canfield has been administrator since January. Sale of illegal beer has increased in the district in recent months, the commissioner said, and breweries at Troy and Albany have been seized. Special agents will conduct an investigation he announced, and their findings will be considered with a report from the administrator.

Name Committee To Investigate Orphans' Home

Winston-Salem, June 18.—(AP)—The special committee authorized at the recent session of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, to conduct a sweeping investigation into the affairs of the Odd Fellows home at Goldsboro, has been appointed by Grand Master Rommie F. Simmons of this city, consisting of E. W. O'Riordan of Winston-Salem, chairman; W. J. Green of Greensboro; D. F. Lanier of Oxford; A. T. Walston of Tarboro, and John L. Wade of Fayetteville.

Following the announcement of this committee the grand master stated that he had authorized the grand secretary, H. A. Halstead of Mooreville, to write letters to lodges and individuals, notifying them that this special committee will hold its first meeting Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the home in Goldsboro, and any one having charges or information of any kind to present may do so at that time.

There has been a great deal of discussion in the ranks of North Carolina Odd Fellows for the past two years or more over the management of the home it was brought out at the session of the grand lodge, and it was pointed to as one of the reasons for the decrease in membership of the order in this state.

GOLD BULLETS

by Charles G. Booth

SYNOPSIS: A lead bullet solves a 30-year-old murder. Andrew Ogden is enraged when Furie admits violating the remains of Ogden's brother in the Torridity mine. Furie produces a flattened lead bullet found in the skeleton. For the first time, Ogden realizes that his brother did not kill himself as the bullet in the gun he carried was gold, that Dillon shot him probably because he had been his accomplice and feared exposure. Ogden then reveals the whole story to Jerry and sends him to Torridity to guard the skeleton. Lucy interrupts the story with a surprise—she and Jerry were married after her mad dash to the mine.

Chapter 44.

"WHO IS DILLON?"

I stared unbelievably at the circle of gold on the end of the ribbon. Married! I had lost her! It pinned me into my chair until an uprush of anger at Jerry gave me release. He must have felt the wind of its coming.

"I know what you are going to say, Uncle John!" he poured forth in grief-stricken tone. "I'm a cad to have done such a thing! I don't blame you. Dad dead and not buried—this murder charge hanging over my head—it was a beastly thing to do! Get it out of your system. It's coming to me, God knows!"

"Oh, Jerry!" Lucy cried distressfully. "And then, so gently that my anger softened: 'It isn't coming to you! Please keep quiet while I tell him about it, dear.'"

Her dark eyes, tender, earnest, yet untroubled, held mine.

"Jerry is trying to shield me. It was entirely my fault. He didn't know about his father until this morning. We started back as soon as I told him."

"You didn't tell him until this morning?" I exclaimed incredulously.

"If I had told him when I found him he wouldn't have married me."

"Hardly!" Jerry mumbled. "You young idiots!" I roared, recovering myself. "Couldn't you have waited until this thing was cleared up?"

"Don't you see?" Lucy said patiently. "If a man doesn't need a wife when he's in trouble, when does he need one?"

"Oh!" I gasped. "I felt as if I hadn't known Lucy until this moment."

"You always said I was a funny little thing, Uncle John, but you've been such a dear!" She kissed me and I began to melt like butter.

"Jerry was in serious trouble. If he should be arrested I wanted my right to stand by him to be a legal one. You've always taught me to think things out for myself and what I did seemed right. It nearly killed me to deceive him. You—you won't scold us, will you, Uncle John?"

"Scold them! How could I? Clever Lucy! She had known what she was doing when she made Jerry tell his story first. It was a splendid thing she had done, marrying a man with a murder charge over his head, even though she believed him innocent; but it was the most of romantic, audacious, illogical thing Lucy would do."

"It was fine of you, dear," I told her gently, pressing her tightly to me. "Jerry, if you ever fall this girl of yours I'll take you apart with a jackknife."

"I hope you will, Uncle John," he mumbled earnestly. "Lucy is too fine for me. And she's trying to make it easy for me, but—well, I can't help feeling that I failed dad. He told me to stay there until he came. When Lucy told me about him—this morning—one top of what I'd done—it pretty nearly finished me."

The boy suddenly dropped his head into his hands. Lucy ran over

TROUBLED WITH GAS AFTER MEALS

"Didn't See a Well Day for Weeks—No Food Agreed With Me," He Says.

Kansas City, Mo.—"After each meal, distress would come on me, and I would suffer bad pain," says Mr. Peter Seeger, a Missouri Pacific railroad engineer, residing at 329 Elmwood Street, this city.

Mr. Seeger explains that the pain seemed to come from indigestion, as he had a sensation of gas, or bloated feeling in his stomach. "I found that, by taking a pinch of Black-Draught, dry, after meals, I would be relieved," he says.

"I would carry Black-Draught to work with me. I took it for about a year and a half.

"None of my food agreed with me. I would frequently taste what I ate, long after my meals, and I did not see a well day for weeks. I began taking a pinch of Black-Draught after each meal, and kept this up for weeks. Gradually the pain left me, and I began to feel better. I could be troubled with gas, and could eat what I liked.

"I have been well now for a year, but I still keep Black-Draught, and take it to avoid constipation."

Get a package, today, and try it. Only 1 cent a dose.

Wistful but still defiant, Lucy kissed her uncle, asked forgiveness.

to him and put her arms around him.

"He didn't want to come away," Lucy said tenderly, "but I told him I'd stay there until he did—and that he didn't love me—and that if he didn't want me then he needn't have me ever—"

"Didn't want you!" Jerry burst forth, lifting his head and seizing her shoulders. "And with this he kissed her very competently indeed."

"When she said shed stay down there until I changed my mind—Oh, damn it, Uncle John! what could I do? I gave Furie $20 to keep his eye on the mine—and what was in it. I hoped we'd be back the next day, but the sandstorm held us up most of the night. That's all."

"Furie earned his $20," I said grimly. "Don't feel too badly, son. I imagine most of us would have done the same under the circumstances. Er, what, Henry?" and I turned to Deacon.

"Young fools!" he growled. "I suppose it's the sort of thing that's done nowadays."

I chuckled reminiscently. "So Jim told. But if I remember rightly, the young lady who became Mrs. Deacon wouldn't have you unless you eloped with her in the romantic manner."

Henry raised a hand, grinning. "All right, John. They are forgiven." I suppose he was thinking of his imprisonment behind my poor door.

"Let's get back to Dillon." "Dillon, yes?" Jerry exploded. "Dillon's our man. Do you know who he is?"

"Quietly, my boy," I protested. "Tell me: you were wearing white flannels Friday night?"

"Yes. But I changed into these khaki duds before I left."

"Where?" "In that little room off the library."

"You left your flannels in that room?"

"Yes."

"Were your keys in one of the pockets?"

"They were."

"What time did you leave your father?"

Another Change For Coast Guards

Detroit, June 18.—(AP)—Charges that a United States coast guard cutter turned a machine gun on two men and a woman in a speed-boat on the Detroit river were sent to the Canadian government at Ottawa today by Chief of Police James Proctor of Sandwich, Ontario. The woman was said to be a "Mrs. Johnson" of Sandwich.

The men in the boat, Carl Raymond of Monroe, and James O'Connor of Newport, Mich., reported to Chief Proctor that the windshield of their boat was shattered by the coast guard fire, although he and Mrs. Johnson escaped injury.

Police and residents of Sandwich said repeated bursts from the machine gun were audible ashore for several seconds. Both men in the boat said they were not challenged before the coast guardsmen opened fire.

They could not say whether they were in American or Canadian water at the time, being near the middle of the river.

Chief Proctor addressed his protest to the Dominion Department of External Affairs and said that "While I appreciate the very difficult duties that the American officers are trying to perform, I feel that a matter of this kind should be brought to your attention before more serious trouble ensues."

Deputy Sheriff Up For Murder

Little Rock, Ark., June 18.—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff George Johnson, charged with murder in the slaying of Glenn Quay, 22, at Newport, was held today in the state penitentiary here after his removal from two jails yesterday in fear of mob violence.

Quay was shot through the back by Johnson as he broke away from the officer after being arrested on a charge of intoxication. The young man's dash for liberty was made near the police station door, and the fatal shot was fired as he darted into an alley.

Johnson first was removed to the county jail at Batesville after a crowd of men, incensed at what they described as unwarranted use of a pistol by an officer, gathered about the local jail.

The deputy sheriff refused to make a statement on his arrival here in custody of Chief of Police Martin of Newport and several other officers.

Quay was shot Sunday night and the officer arrested and charged with murder yesterday. Johnson will be held until his preliminary hearing is arranged.

because I'm a Swift's Premium Frankfurt made by Swift & Company—and that means I'm as wholesome and pure and delicious as meat can be!

You would understand why I am proud if you could see how carefully I am made! Only the best cuts of pork and beef are mixed with the purest of spices to stuff my immaculate casing. No sinews or excess fat in me!

I'm plump—but I'm all good meat—tender and juicy—with high food value.

I'm only a frankfurt but I'm as Premium as any ham!

When you buy "Swift's Premium" you know that you're getting the best there is—whether it's a Swift's Premium Frankfurt, a Swift's Premium Ham, or Swift's Premium Bacon. "Premium" is the highest honor that an organization of experts can bestow upon meat. It's the Swift standard.

Every product that bears the name of Swift's Premium must measure up to high standards of quality. Strict standards. In every department—in every activity—in every detail—these standards are strict.

Swift & Company, through its nation wide system of packing plants, produce plants, branch houses and refrigerator cars, brings meat and poultry, butter, eggs, and cheese to the retail stores from farms and ranches hundreds of miles distant.

Tucker-Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Tucker announce the marriage of their daughter Susan Corinne to Mr. Arden Livingston Tucker on Tuesday, the eighteenth of June. One thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

Chilcot, North Carolina

Will be at home after the first of July.

Four hundred East Eighth Street Greenville, North Carolina

Chilcot, N. C., June 18.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Tucker was the scene of a quiet wedding this morning at seven-thirty o'clock, when their daughter, Susan Corinne became the bride of Arden L. Tucker, Jr., of Greenville, in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. J. Bamber, pastor of the Eighth Street Christian Church, Greenville.

The bride was lovely attired in a dark blue georgette ensemble with accessories to match. Her flowers were sweetheart roses and delphinium.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tucker left for a motor trip through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, Washington, D. C. and other points. After July first they will be at home in Greenville.

Mrs. Tucker is a graduate of East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville. For the past three years she has been a successful teacher in Wakeleton school, Zebulon.

Mr. Tucker is a young business man of Greenville, and for the past two years has held a position with Turnage and Winslow.

Calhoun-Woolard.

Mr. H. D. Calhoun and Miss Lillian Thomas Woolard were married here last Sunday and left immediately for Richmond and other points to spend their honeymoon. They will be away several days, after which they will return to Greenville to make their home.

Mr. Calhoun for the last three and a half years has been in the employ of Curtis Perkins, local men's clothing, coming here from Rocky Mount.

Mrs. Calhoun was connected with the J. C. Penny Company as cashier. Both of the young couple have numbers of friends who will be interested in learning of their marriage.

Return From Honeymoon.

After their honeymoon in western North Carolina and South Carolina beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Blades, Jr., passed through Greenville Sunday night enroute to Elizabeth City where they will make their future home.

LIBRARY WILL CLOSE

HER LONELY VIGIL REWARDED

Mrs. Jean Assolant, 24-year-old bride of the Yellow Bird's pilot, is shown as she followed the course of her husband's plane until it landed safely on the west coast of Spain, forced down by falling fuel 800 miles from its Paris destination.

Miss Whittington To Give Recital

Miss Margaret Whittington, Snow Hill young woman, will give a debut recital at the Snow Hill High school auditorium, Thursday evening, June 20, according to information given out today. The recital will be under the auspices of the Colonel Alexander McAllister D. A. R.

Miss Whittington is said to be one of Greene county's loveliest and most gifted daughters. For the past year she has been studying music in New York City under the direction of Miss Dicie Howell, in voice, and Gordon Stanley, in piano.

Miss Howell, it is understood, will be present and listen to her student in her initial recital before home-folk.

Tobacco Curing Begins In Beaufort County Tomorrow

This year's first curing of tobacco in Beaufort county will begin tomorrow. According to information from that section this morning J. H. Woolard, who resides about five miles from Washington, will begin curing tobacco tomorrow. This is the first curing of the season in that county that has been reported.

BRADLEY AND OUT-OF-DOORS

You've seen her in the water—the girl who swims like she means it . . . She wears a snug, comfortable Bradley. And you've seen her on the beach—when the men aren't too thick—surrounded by chaps waiting to risk their lives in the briny deep for her . . . Yes, she does wear a Bradley, all-right. One of those new, snappy Bradleys with the color literally poured into it—and poured to stay!

King's Daughters Plan To Launch Big Baby Contest

A baby contest will be launched by the King's Daughters of this city at the Hill Home Drug Store, Thursday, June 20th, according to announcement made, today. The contest will continue for a period of ten days and during that time thousands of votes are expected to be cast for favorite children of the city.

Nominations will be received until Saturday, it was announced, and after that time interest will be centered in the effort to determine the two most beautiful children in Greenville. Two prizes will be offered to the contestants, the first being for children from one to three years of age and second for those between 3 and 6 years old.

GAS PAINS

Warren's Drug Store guarantees LEE'S LAXATIVE and CATHARTIC COMPOUND and is dispensing it to many Stomach Sufferers.

You can be so distressed with gas and fullness that you think your heart is going to stop beating. Your stomach may be so distended that your breathing is short and gaspy.

You are dizzy and pray for quick relief—what's to be done?

Just two tablespoons full of LEE'S LAXATIVE CATHARTIC COMPOUND and in thirty minutes the gas disappears, the pressing on the heart ceases and you can breathe deep and naturally.

Boone Man Held In Murder Charge

Boone, June 18.—(AP)—Dewey Ward today was in jail here on a charge of murder of his daughter, Ralph Eggers, with an axe Sunday. Ward claims self defense.

Other than one small child of the slain man, there were no known eye-witnesses. Mrs. Eggers testified at the coroner's inquest that the child ran to her screaming: "Mamma, Dewey is cutting Daddy up with an axe."

Ward declared that Eggers attempted to kill him with the axe. He said he took the axe away from Eggers and struck him with it.

ABOUT

CROPS WARRANT AN EARLIER OPENING

The early curing of tobacco in this section this season is reason enough to justify an earlier opening of the tobacco markets. With indications that within another week curing will get under way throughout the belt indications are that farmers will sustain heavy losses if they have to hold this tobacco for a late opening, as has been the case for the past several years. The matter of the opening dates for the various belts will be decided by the sales committee of the United States Tobacco Association when it meets in annual session next week, and it is to be hoped that those who are urging an earlier opening will be successful in their efforts.
Surely this advanced state of the crops should prompt the date-setting committee to decide on earlier openings throughout all the belts lest the growers lose heavily as a result of being unable to keep their crops in condition if they have to wait for a late opening.

ROASTING THE SENATE

The Senate is in disfavor with organs of Republican Standpatism and Privilege.
The real reason is not what it has done or has not done.
That body, it is true, has "done many things it ought not to have done and left undone many things it ought to have done." But the present clamor against it is that it is not a machine for recording the will of the administration forces and that it is a body of free and open debate. The latter is the real gravamen of its offending.

The New York Tribune in an article on "The Decline of the Senate" says "it has been slipping rapidly in the last six or seven years"—the very years in which Progressive Republicans and Democrats united to expose the Teapot Dome scandal, driving unfit men out of the cabinet, and refusing to be merely a recording agency of reaction. The Tribune inveighs against that "bloc," which it says "brought the Senate so low that it has twice gone on record as approving a debenture plan." It says the "popular election lowered the quality of the Senate in many ways—it encouraged demagogy and independence of national party organization." Perhaps one reason, not given, why The Tribune dislikes election of Senators by the people is this: That under the popular election
New York has two Democratic Senators and Massachusetts one, whereas if

near the North Carolina-Georgia line, about 14 miles south of here, sometime last night.

Blaine and Cunningham, each about 30, live at Franklin.
The wreck is believed to have occurred about 11 o'clock last night, but was not discovered until five o'clock this morning, when Sam Corn, driving along the road, observed the car at the foot of a bank about 50 feet high, and stopped to investigate.

The car, a new Ford sedan, was headed south, and apparently had failed to make a long curve just north of the state line. It toppled over the bank, and when found this morning was standing on its nose.
Mashburn and Blaine had both been thrown clear of the machine, but Cunningham, the driver, remained under the wheel. The car was practically demolished. Mash-burn was killed instantly, it was believed.

BEGIN DRIVE
FOR REDUCING
ARMAMENTS

Dawes and MacDonald Begin Campaign
For Disarmament In England Tonight.

London, June 18.—(AP)—In two widely separated sections of Britain tonight America's new ambassador, Charles G. Dawes, and the new British prime minister, Ramsay MacDonald, will make speeches which are expected to have far reaching consequences, both in Anglo-American relations and in the history of the world.

Ambassador Dawes' speech is to be before the Pilgrims' club at London. That of the prime minister will be before the town council of the village of Lossiemouth, Scotland, which has watched his rise from birth in poverty to head of a great government.

Since the simple announcement that the two speeches will be made and will provide the beginning of negotiations for a disarmament program, in which other governments would be invited to participate, neither speaker has consented to tell in advance what he will say.
The original announcement, written in Mr. MacDonald's hand, after his conference with General Dawes on Sunday, said: "We have had a conversation regarding the present position of the question of disarmament as between the United States and Great Britain. It has been informal and general, and most satisfactory."
His Excellency, General Dawes, proposes to refer to the subject at the Pilgrims' dinner on Tuesday night, and I shall do the same at Lossiemouth and that is intended to be the beginning of the negotiations."

The announcement concluded with a statement designed to set at rest conjecture that a purely Anglo-American naval agreement might be projected. It said: "We both wish to make it clear that other naval powers are expected to co-operate in these negotiations, upon the successful consummation of which the fate of the whole world depends."
That brief announcement, in which General Dawes concurred, has whetted public interest to a high point, both here and abroad which forecasts a new era of friendship between the United States and Great Britain—with its consequent beneficial effects to the world in general—will be inaugurated.

Anti-Smith Faction
Gather Roanoke

Roanoke, Va., June 18.—(AP)— Anti-Smith Democrats of Virginia assembled here today to hear S.
Howie Williams, of Lynchburg, sound the keynote address at their state convention, called to nominate a ticket for state offices in opposition to the Democratic party with which they broke last year.
Bishop Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who organized the group and led it in the fight against Alfred E. Smith for the presidency, was not present.
Working into the early hours of the morning, the anti-Smith executive committee had completed its plan for the convention, calling for adoption of a platform and nomination of candidates at an afternoon session, the forenoon being devoted to the keynote address and permanent organization.
Three names have overshadowed all others in discussion of the nominee for governor, Dr. William Brown, of Washington and Lee University; Frank Lyon, of McLean, executive committee chairman, and Dr. Dice Anderson, president of Randolph-Macon Woman's College.
Of these three only Dr. Brown had made any pre-convention utterance—announcement that he would run for governor as an independent if nominated by both anti-Smith

Democrats and Republicans.
Dr. Brown, favored by a number of the anti-Smith leaders, is also acceptable to influential Republicans, and his nomination was looked upon as a basis for the co-operation of the two organizations that united to carry Virginia for Hoover last fall and give the Republican party its first state victory in many years. The Republican convention meets in Richmond June 26.

LOCALS PULL WIN OVER ON FAYETTEVILLE

The rejuvenated Greenville ball club continued their winning streak yesterday by defeating the Fayetteville Highlanders in the opening game of the series here by the score 9 to 7. It was the fourth straight victory of the local club, they having won two games from Rocky Mount and Goldsboro the latter part of last week.

Greenville will conclude the series this afternoon, and then leave for four games away from home, two with Winston and two with Wilmington.

The Highlanders got away to a running start with the game yesterday by collecting four runners in the very first frame, but after that eventful inning they were not able to score any more until the seventh, eighth and ninth innings, when one runner crossed the plate in each frame.

Greenville, on the other hand, only accounted for three runs in the first, but in the third they started a barrage that culminated in three more runners reaching the home plate. After that moment, the Highlanders went four innings without permitting further scoring, but in the eighth the bats of the rejuvenated ones again got busy and when the noise had subsided, three other rallies had been checked up to their credit.

Patterson started out on the mound for the visitors, but he lasted less than an inning when he was pulled in favor of Stephenson. For three solid innings after the disastrous third, Stephenson had things going his way, but the locals started a rally in the eighth that resulted in Fayetteville calling another heater to the mound in the form of McCrea.

Jeffries pitched a remarkably fine game for Greenville after the disastrous first inning, but in the ninth the visitors staged a dangerous looking rally and Duffy was sent in as a relief hurler. The trick worked and the Highlanders walked off the field with another loss chalked up against them, despite a desperate fight to bring about victory.

Another change in the lineup of the Greenville club yesterday indicated the drastic effort officials are making to bring the team from the cellar position. The change—one of the most conspicuous since the beginning of the season—was at second base where Hiller played in the place of Ralph Williams, veteran player who was given his release last Saturday night after playing with the club the last two seasons. The change of Hiller from third to second caused the switching of Young from the outfield to the third position.

The Highlanders obtained a total of fourteen hits off Jeffries, and none off Duffy. Greenville managed to connect for a total of 9 hits, which were sufficiently well spaced to count largely in the scoring. The box score:

Greensboro Still Increasing Lead

(By the Associated Press.) Greensboro lengthened its lead on the Piedmont League by a full game yesterday when the Patriots hit hard to defeat Winston-Salem, 8 to 5, while High Point was overwhelming the second place Bulls from Durham, 14 to 6.

Home runs by Cox and Parrish helped Greensboro on her way, while circuit trips by Mitchell, Williams, Tankersby and Jones, all in the first inning, started the Patriots on their rampage.

Henderson opened the series at home by beating Salisbury 7 to 4. In the Eastern Carolina League, Simmons, Rocky Mount pitcher, held the limelight with a three-hit game against Winston. Rocky Mount won the game, 3 to 0. Fayetteville outbatted and outfielded Greenville but failed to outscore them and lost, 9 to 7. A ninth inning rally won for the Wilmington Pirates in their game against Goldsboro. The score was 5 to 3.

Sprinter Lowers Record For Mile

New York, June 18.—(AP)—Leo Lermond, of the Boston A. A., paid to his credit today the second fastest outdoor mile ever run in this country.

Lermond, who only a year ago was the best of America's crop of two-milers, clearly demonstrated his right to head the list of present day milers in this country when he turned in a 4:13 performance for the eight furlongs in a benefit track and field meet at the Yankee stadium last night.

Lermond's time was the fastest any American has done the mile since 1915 when Norman Taber of Brown, reeled off the distance in 4:12 3-4 at Cambridge, Mass. Taber's time, incidentally, stood as a world's record until Paavo Nurmi lowered it to 4:10 2-5 in 1922.

The Boston A. A. flier had the advantage last night of being pushed to the utmost by Gus Moore, young negro cross-country star of the Brooklyn Harriers. Moore, who holds the national cross-country title, led Lermond most of the way but wilted in the final dash to the tape and finished some 30 yards back of the Boston flier. Joe Hickey of New York University, intercollegiate A. A. A. mile champion, was third, and Wilbur C. Getz, Alfred University, holder of the national collegiate A. A. title, was in fourth place.

Panama Negro Meets Spaniard

New York, June 18.—(AP)—Al Brown, lanky Panama negro, and Vidal Gregorio, of Spain, meet in a 15 round bout at the Queensboro stadium tonight to determine which shall reign as "defending bantamweight champion of the world" in the eyes of the New York State A. C.

The tussle tops a card for the benefit of the National Sports Alliance Relief Fund for aged and incapacitated athletes of all sports.

Brown has rated in the front rank of the 118 pound list for several years. Gregorio, a newcomer to American rings, has built himself a reputation as a fighter who fights, but the experts generally are picking the lanky Brown to outbox the Spaniard all the way. Brown rates as an 8 to 5 favorite.

Kid Chocolate, Cuban negro, boxes Terry Roth of New York, in the tenth round semi-final. Pete Meyers of San Francisco, battles Tony Vaccarelli of Harlem, in a return ten rounder.

Ruth Returns To New York

New York, June 18.—(AP)—Much improved in health, Babe Ruth is back in town but he still needs a few days of rest before getting back into the New York Yankee lineup.

The Babe has been spending the past week on a fishing trip near Washinton in an effort to recover from a severe cold that forced him out of the Yankee lineup almost a month ago.

Ruth probably will not get into uniform until Friday, when the Yankees play their crucial series with the Philadelphia Athletics.

Tom Rogers Delivers Goods

Atlanta, June 18.—(AP)—Manager Tom Rogers, of the Macon Peaches, in the Sally League entered the second game of yesterday's double header with Knoxville as a pinch hitter in the final inning and delivered with a single to give his club a 2 to 1 win. Knoxville scored in the tenth to capture the first game 3 to 2.

Led by Keyes, who drove in five runs, the Asheville Tourists, league leaders, opened the week with an easy 11 to 2 win over Augusta. The Tygers erred seven times afield. Columbia rallied for five runs in the second inning to best Greenville 6 to 4. Spartanburg hit three pitchers hard to measure Charlotte 13 to 7. The winners collected but seven hits.

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, June 18.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today, unchanged to a decline of 6 points in response to indifferent Liverpool cables and a favorable view of early weather reports.

Trading was quiet but there was very little demand in evidence and prices eased under comparatively small offerings. July sold off to 28.47 and December to 28.86 during the early trading. With the market showing net losses of about 4 to 5 points at the end of the first half hour.

According to one private report, the condition of the crop has shown little change during the past week but the decline has been checked and improvement is now occurring over almost the entire belt.

Private cables reported American buying and covering in the Liverpool market but said business in cotton cloth and yarns was restricted with advices from India discouraging.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 18.—(AP)—Wheat scored price gains in the late dealings today, notwithstanding earlier setbacks. Advances were ascribed largely to reports indicating need of soaking rains in the northwest. Central and southern sections of Alberta province, Canada, also were reported as badly short of moisture.

Wheat closed strong 1 to 2 3/8 above yesterday's figures with corn 3-4 to 1 up; oats at 3-8 decline to a shade advance and provisions varying from 2c setback to a rise of 17c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 18.—Stock prices made further recovery in today's market, although there was an increasing tendency to take profits on the rallies before the mid-year credit stringency began to make itself felt. Operators for the advance succeeded in bringing forward new leaders whenever the general list showed signs of weakening but public participation was still on a relatively small scale.

Call money remained unchanged at 7 per cent, with indications in the early afternoon that the rate would be maintained all day. Return of the June 15 checks for payment at the banks has been offset to some extent by the heavy accumulation of funds here by large corporations in preparation for mid-year payments, and by the temporary employment in the call market of funds received in connection with stock subscription "rights."

Official announcement of the organization of the Niagara Hudson Power Corporation to acquire a substantial stock interest in the Buffalo, Niagara & Eastern, Northeastern Power and Mohawk Hudson Power corporations stimulated speculative activity in the public utility and electrical equipment stocks. American Water Works, Consolidated Gas, Public Service of New Jersey, Standard Gas & Electric, General Electric and Westinghouse Electric all moved into new high ground. The gains ranging from 3 1/2 to 7 1/2 points.

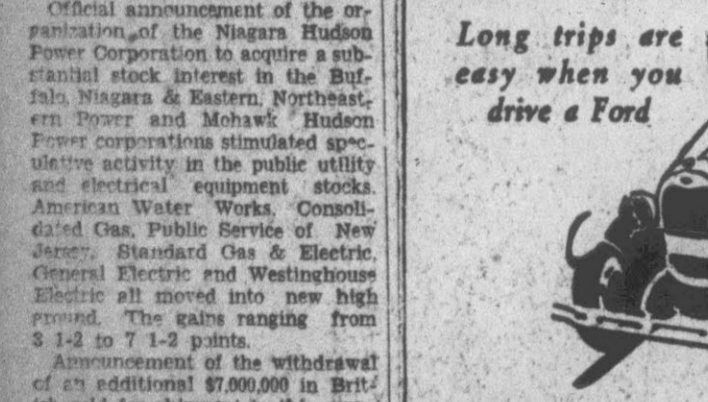

Announcement of the withdrawal of an additional $7,000,000 in British gold for shipment to this country coupled with the prospect of further shipment from Canada and the Argentine, also had a bullish effect on sentiment on the theory that its arrival would help to ease the credit situation, recent tightness of which has been the chief deterrent to securities speculation.

Shares of chemical companies, many of which are enjoying unusually large current earnings, also were in brisk demand. Allied Chemical and Commercial Solvents each running up about 5 points. Some selling developed in the motor and accessory shares during the morning but the persistent demand for Graham Paige and Electric Auto Lite, which sold 4 and 4 1/2 points higher, respectively, and a heavy turn-over in Willys Overland helped to revive confidence in that group.

Montgomery-Ward and Sears Roebuck ran into further selling, falling back nearly 3 points each. Losses of a point or two were scattered throughout the list.

Hoover Asks Aid In Enforcement Of Prohibition

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—President Hoover today signed the census and reapportionment bill.

The new act has a two-fold purpose: provision for the regular decennial count of the population and the setting up of a plan for reapportionment of the House of Representatives. This will be the first reapportionment since 1910.

The census count will be for the calendar year 1930, and the House members will be apportioned upon it.

Under this reapportionment, a number of states will gain additional representation while several states will lose seats.

The size of the House will be retained at its present number, 435 members. Disposition of the census-reapportionment question was one of the major tasks listed by President Hoover for the special session. This and farm relief now have been acted upon. Of the others the tariff bill is pending before the Senate finance committee and the Senate has refused to approve a resolution

Constable Held On Murder Charge

Buchanan, Ga., June 18.—(AP)—Constable Luke Bellenger was held here without bond today pending preliminary hearing Thursday on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of Greedy Phillips, youthful sawmill hand.

Phillips was shot Saturday night after he and three companions riding in an automobile, failed to heed Bellenger's order to halt, according to the officer's version. The constable was attempting to arrest them on a complaint that they were disturbing the peace.
