TALKS ACROSS OCEAN FROM PLANE PHONE

By WILLIAM W. CHAPLIN, (Associated Press Staff Writer) Hadley Field, N. J., June 25.—(AP)—An Associated Press reporter, attached to the New York office, soared through the clouds above this flying field today and talked by trans-Atlantic telephone with Miss Martha Dalrymple, of the Associated Press staff in London.

It wasn't a "story" in the strict newspaper sense, but more in the nature of a social call negotiated in a successful experiment to link trans-Atlantic telephone service with airplane radio.

Participating in the gossiping party, but using separate connections, were representatives of other American Press associations and a representative of Reuters' Ltd., of London, a British news gathering agency, all of whom, talked with members of their London staffs.

After the take-off in a specially equipped plane of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Associated Press reporter adjusted his microphone and, as the plane whizzed at 90 miles an hour through the fog and clouds above the field, the operation went like this:

"Get the associated Press in London."

The reporter's call was picked up by the telephone company's experimental radio station at Whippany, N. J., and the plane radio was linked with the land telephone system and thence to the trans-Atlantic radio phone system.

The head phones on the reporter spattered and buzzed a few moments until London answered.

"AP," the reporter heard.

"Hello, this Chaplin, of the New York office. Is Martha Dalrymple there?"

"Miss Dalrymple came on the line. Hello, Miss Dalrymple."

"This is Bill Chaplin, of the New York office."

"For goodness sake! Where are you?"

"Well, at the moment over Hadley Field, N. J., altitude about 2,000 feet, speed 90 miles an hour."

The formalities of greeting were soon concluded and the conversation settled down to shop talk. Miss Dalrymple formerly was with the New York and Washington offices.

"How do you like London?" she reported asked.

"Fine," was the reply; "but I miss the New York and Washington reporters. Give my regards to them all, won't you?"

"I will," she reported answered, "and now before we quit haven't you some special message to mark this occasion?"

"Well," she laughed, "ah, well, then the connection was cut off by static."

The trouble was adjusted shortly, however, and although Miss Dalrymple's special message was forgotten the London staffer heard about the "pea soup" fog over New York, and yes, it was foggy in London, too, and from Miss Dalrymple: "Isn't it horrid?"

Revenue Employee Injured In Wreck

Statesville, N. C., June 25.—(AP) A. S. Carson, deputy commissioner of the state department of revenue, will be confined to a local hospital for three weeks, as the result of an automobile accident north of Elkin last night.

Mr. Carson is out of danger, attending physicians stated today, but he suffered a foot injury, and must remain here for treatment.

Mrs. Carson, who was injured slightly, left the hospital today.

The Carsons were returning from Raleigh last night, when Mrs. Carson, who was driving, lost control of the car and it skidded into a ditch overturning.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Carson, other passengers, were not injured.

Cargo Of Liquor Taken On Coast

New Bern, N. C., June 25.—(AP) Captain Peter Nelson and his crew of two were en route to Wilmington today with his yacht Eolis and a cargo of 100 cases of whiskey in tow of a federal patrol boat.

The yacht was captured 15 miles at sea Sunday by the government boat in charge of Captain Otis Meekins. Whiskey was concealed in the forward hold and under the floor.

Captain Nelson said he was en route to New York from Miami.

Board Candidate

W. H. Marshall, former mayor of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and well known agriculturist, has been mentioned for a place on the federal farm board.

OLD FRIENDS MEET BEHIND PRISON BARS

Washington, June 25.—(AP)—Friends and companions of long standing, Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil man, and Henry Mason Day of New York, vice-president of the Sinclair Exploration Company, shared imprisonment today in the Washington asylum and jail.

Day was just entering upon the routine of the jail experience, already familiar to his friend and employer, who went through that phase a month and a half ago. Both were serving sentences for contempt of court because of the shadowing of jurors during the Sinclair Fall conspiracy trial, while Sinclair was at the same time rounding out the latter half of his 90-day sentence, for contempt of the Senate for refusal to answer questions during its investigation of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve lease.

The New York man, facing a four months term as compared with the six months imposed on Sinclair, arrived at the jail, alone in a taxicab, at 6:40 last night, and cheerfully entered.

"I say now, as I said then, that I am not conscious of having committed any wrongful act," he declared. "I emphatically deny that anything I did in connection with the trial of Mr. Sinclair was done with improper, much less criminal, intent."

"After I have served out my sentence, I shall continue to live in New York. I am now and shall be able to look any man straight in the eye, as I have all my life. I have nothing to live down, I have something to live through for a time, and as a decent and law-abiding man, I am sure that I shall come out of this experience with at least the measure of confidence and respect that I have earned by the way I have lived and acted in business, in war and in private life."

Decision Of Dawes Not To Serve Rum Creates Sensation

London, June 25.—(AP)—Ambassador Charles G. Dawes' intimation that he will not serve liquor at the ambassadorial residence in Prince's Gate was today the subject of lively discussion in diplomatic circles and the American colony of London.

The official residence of the ambassador is certainly the only dry embassy home in London and Ambassador Dawes' action in eschewing alcoholic beverages is a departure from the rule of all American ambassadors before him.

Shouse Takes Slap At Tariff At Rocky Mount

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 25.—(AP)—The present tariff bill, now pending before the finance committee of the Senate, was classed last night by J. Shouse, secretary of the National Democratic executive committee, as being "the most outrageous piece of legislation which ever has faced the country."

Mr. Shouse's classification of the measure was read to the Rocky Mount Democratic Club from a letter received by Edwin H. Powell from the national secretary.

The secretary took issue with the statement of President Hoover, that the special session of Congress was called to make "limited changes in the tariff."

President Signs Canyon Bill

RECEIVER IS APPOINTED IN PAPER CASE

Petition Asks That Lavarre-Hall Newspaper Chain Be Dissolved.

Augusta, Ga., June 25.—(AP)—Judge A. L. Franklin here today appointed Thomas J. Hamilton, editor of the Augusta Chronicle, temporary receiver for the Hall-Lavarre Newspapers and ordered William Lavarre, part owner of the Chronicle and the three South Carolina papers, to show cause why he should not be enjoined from taking away operating control of the papers from Harold Hall, the other member of the firm.

This action followed the petition brought before Judge Franklin, of the Richmond County Superior Court today by Hall. The order was made returnable next Tuesday.

In addition to the Augusta Chronicle, the other members of the Hall-Lavarre chain are the Columbia, S. C. Record, the Spartanburg, S. C. Herald, and the Spartanburg, S. C. Journal.

The petition was filed by Hughes Spalding, Atlanta attorney, and Henry H. Hammond, Augusta. It asked that the partnership be dissolved, that Hall be given ownership of his stock, that the stock standing in the name of Lavarre be delivered to the court and that a stockholders meeting of the Augusta Chronicle Publishing Company, scheduled for Tuesday be enjoined. It also asks that Lavarre be enjoined from making any transfer at all of the stock and that the defendant be restrained from disposing of $129,900, which was transferred as a trust fund to the account of Lavarre.

Hall charged that Lavarre is incapable of managing the newspaper properties and that Hall himself was to become president and treasurer with executive control over the papers.

"Said Lavarre has failed and refused to recognize this term of the partnership," the petitioner declared, "and is undertaking to operate independent of your petitioner and executive management of the Columbia Record and the Herald Publishing Company, publishing the Spartanburg Herald and the Spartanburg Journal."

Hall's request set out that "his (Lavarre's) attempt to operate the same has resulted and will result in great damage to the properties and the loss of much operating income."

Unfavorable publicity resulting from the loan made by the International Paper Company, was given as a reason for the failure of Lavarre to deliver his stock to the International Paper Company. Hall charged that Lavarre tried to get the petitioner to repudiate the control of the company by requiring it to give better terms "which your petitioner flatly refused to do and notwithstanding the embarrassment of the situation notified said defendant that he would not waver on the obligation of the International Paper Company."

Mystifying Entries In Bishop's Stock Dealings Described As Mistakes

New York, June 25.—(AP)—Mystifying entries concerning the stock transactions of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with the defunct firm of Cable & Company, were described as "mistakes" at the opening of a hearing into the firm's bankruptcy.

Harry L. Goldhurst, a member of the firm, was asked yesterday to explain two entries which apparently indicated that Bishop Cannon had made a profit of $400 on a $10,359 deal before he had made any deposit with the company.

One entry, dated November 2, 1927, read: "As of August 14, 100 shares Lehigh Valley."

The other entry, dated November 3, indicated that "as of September 22" the stock had been sold at a profit of $400.

The ledger showed that Bishop Cannon made his initial deposit of $500 with the company on September 21.

The witnesses examined the page and said he believed the entries were "mistakes."

Gunboat Searches In Vain For Missing Spanish Plane; Britain Assists In Search

Ponta Delgada, Azores, June 25.—(AP)—The Portuguese gunboat Ziare, after searching for 57 hours for the missing Spanish aviator reported today there still was no trace of the plane.

The Portuguese mailboat dire today from Madeira Islands and leaving tomorrow for the other islands of the group, has been instructed to keep a keen lookout for the missing plane.

London, June 25.—(AP)—H. M. S. Eagle, aircraft carrier, bound for Portsmouth from Gibraltar, was ordered by wireless today by the admiralty to divert from its course to assist in the search for the missing Spanish aviator. Planes leaving the Eagle could cover a wide area once the carrier reaches the Azores.

Madrid, June 25.—(AP)—Fear increased here today that disaster had overtaken Major Ramon Franco and his three companions in their Dornier "16" hydroplane which disappeared Saturday morning in the course of a trans-Atlantic flight adventure.

Premier Primo De Rivera particularly was pessimistic, remarking that "The Jupiter" as the plane sometimes was designated, perhaps could float for a few hours in a sea as calm as a mill pond. Unfortunately, he said, it was believed a heavy sea was running, and if the plane fell it probably sank immediately.

Efforts to locate the missing plane which set out from Cartagena at 4:50 p. m. Friday, intending to stop at the Azores enroute to New York, increased today. Two huge sea planes left the airbase at Marchica, stopped for refueling at Punta Sebo, Huelva, and then disappeared over the sea in the direction of the Azores.

NEW BRITISH PARLIAMENT IN SESSION

Capt. Fitzroy Elected Speaker Of The House In First Meeting Of Labor Body.

London, June 25.—(AP)—The new British Parliament held its first session today under the Labor government and re-elected Captain E. A. Fitzroy, Conservative, as speaker.

Not a vote was cast against the popular presiding officer who was lauded in the nomination speeches for his impartiality.

A round of cheers greeted the result of the vote to which the speaker responded by thanking the house or conferring upon him "the greatest honor it is able to confer upon one of its members."

The house adjourned shortly afterwards and will get down to work next week with the reading of the speech from the throne.

Premier MacDonald and former Premier Baldwin arrived in Parliament amid the cheers of their various supporters just before the official time of the assembly. The Labor members occupied the whole of the government side of the house, the Conservatives had two-thirds of the opposition side and the Liberals were in the first and second benches below the famous gangway. The Liberals cheered as former Premier Lloyd George, their leader, appeared at the bar, gave the customary three knocks, and being formally admitted, summoned the "Faithful Commons" to the upper chamber to hear the royal commission read insinuating the new Parliament.

After the black rod had made his traditional entry into the House and summoned the Commons to the upper chamber to hear the royal commission read insinuating the new Parliament, Premier MacDonald and former Premier Baldwin rose, met on the floor and shook heads heartily amid general cheers.

The ministers, former ministers and members of the House then trooped along in the wake of the black rod and the clerk of the Commons to the House of Lords, only three women members were present at the outset. Lady Astor, Miss Lee and Miss Meagan Lloyd George.

The three remaining political appointments in the Labor administration were completed today. Ben Smith, former taxi driver and now member for Bermondsey and Rotherhithe, London, was appointed treasurer of the royal household.

John Hayes, member for Liverpool, Edgell, was named vice-chairman of the royal household, and Tom Henderson member for a Glasgow division, comptroller of the royal household.

Goldhurst described Bishop Cannon as a good customer of the house buying stocks on the partial payment plan.

Bishop Cannon at Washington said he had purchased stocks from Cable & Company on the partial payment plan.

The witness said he was authorized to buy stocks for the southern dry leader up to $40,000.

He denied that the bishop had any interest in the profits or losses of the company or that there was any arrangement whereby Bishop Cannon was to bring customers to the house. He also denied that Bishop Cannon's account was used for advertising purposes or as a sales talk.

Goldhurst and Charles W. Cable, who was paid a salary for the use of his name for the firm, are under federal indictment for using the mails to defraud in connection with the operations of the company which was raided as a bucket shop.

C. Edward Benoit, attorney for the receivers, indicated that Bishop Cannon may be called as a witness in the bankruptcy hearing.

EDGAR F. MAY PASSES AWAY

Burial To Take Place At Family Cemetery In Craven County Tomorrow.

Edgar F. May, 69, died this morning at 5 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John R. Barker, on East Third street. He leaves surviving him his wife, who is now with her son in California; one son, Roy E. May, Long Beach, California; two daughters, Mrs. John R. Barker, of Greenville, and Mrs. H. R. Bradley, of Chicago, Ills.; two half brothers, C. C. May, of Grifton, and W. G. May, of Los Angeles, Calif.; one half sister, Mrs. A. T. Hill, of Lynchburg, Va., and a number of nephews and nieces in Pitt, Craven and Jones counties.

Funeral services will be held at the family cemetery near Jasper, in Craven county, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. May has lived in Cleveland, Ohio, for several years. A few weeks ago he came to live with his daughter. He has been sick in bed ever since he arrived here.

AFTER LONG LIBERTY MAN BACK IN JAIL

Chicago Publisher Returns To Georgia To Complete Sentence Started In 1922.

Chicago, June 25.—(AP)—Robert Elliott Burns, who escaped seven years ago from a Georgia prison chain gang and became publisher of a successful Chicago real estate magazine, was to return today to Georgia to complete his prison sentence. His return would be voluntary, he told Judge Joseph B. David of the Superior court, yesterday, when habeas corpus proceedings in his behalf were dropped.

Burns, who had established himself here as a real estate promotion expert and publisher, suddenly saw the chain gang loom before him several weeks ago when Georgia authorities learned his whereabouts. Burns had been sentenced in 1922 to from six to ten years at hard labor after he and two companions were arrested for a five-dollar robbery. After Burns had worked for three months on state highways chained to other convicts, a negro prisoner broke the iron band about his ankle and he escaped.

For the next seven years he progressed from a stockyards laborer to a high position in the real estate field. His magazine is reported to have earned $29,000 last year.

Two years ago Burns married his landlady, Mrs. Emily Pacheco. 33 years his senior, after, he said, she had learned of his prison record and threatened to expose him. Several months ago he left her and went to live with Miss Lillian Sale.

When arrested on the request of Georgia authorities, Burns declared he believed his wife, because of jealousy, had exposed him to prison officials. She denied that she had.

Friends, including American Legion officials and prominent real estate men, rallied to Burns' aid and petitioned Governor Emerson not to grant extradition. Several days later, Burns' war record was attacked as fictitious and he was accused of embezzlement and bribery. These charges have not been settled.

Burns' attorney said that habeas corpus proceedings were dropped yesterday so that his client might return voluntarily to the jurisdiction of Georgia authorities and be freed by executive clemency, petition for which has been filed.

Texas Woman Kills Another Through Mistake

Cumby, Tex., June 25.—(AP)—Mistaking Mrs. W. F. Reid of Cumby for another woman, Mrs. Oscar Cross, 35, shot and killed her in front of the postoffice here yesterday.

Mrs. Cross, who was at liberty today on $10,000 bond, made a statement to county attorney Emmett Thornton, that she intended the bullets for a Dallas woman. In her statement she gave no specific reason for wanting to kill the woman but said she felt trouble with her was of such a nature to justify an attempt to shoot her.

PRES. HINDENBURGH DRAFTS MANIFESTO FOR HIS PEOPLE

Berlin, June 25.—(RP)—President Von Hindenburg, in collaboration with his cabinet, has drawn up a manifesto to the German people, which he will sign and have published June 28 on the tenth anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Versailles.

His arrest marked the climax of the third attempt of state legislative agencies to compel the mayor to disclose the sources of $400,000 he is reputed to have spent in the last 10 years.

It was ordered in a joint resolution after the mayor had appeared as a witness before a joint session of the Senate and Assembly and had invoked the protection of the 14th amendment to the constitution of the United States in his refusal to answer ten key questions.

The ten key questions all had to do with whether Mayor Hague had accounts in various banks at stated times and where he obtained the cash he paid for a number of real estate investments.

The mayor answered freely that he had no other gainful occupation than political office for 34 years and that his highest salary during that time had been $8,000.

He added an ironical touch to the proceedings when, learning that the assembly lacked a Republican majority to pass the resolution ordering his arrest, he instructed Democratic members to vote for it.

CALLS FOR FAIR SHOW ON DRY LAW

Wade Ellis Would Withhold Federal Funds From States Not Helping To Enforce Law.

Washington, June 25.—(AP)—Calling for a "fair and square show down" with a view to more effective prohibition enforcement, Wade H. Ellis, assistant to the attorney general during the Taft administration, has advanced the proposal that federal government funds for this purpose be withheld from states which are not co-operating in upholding the dry laws.

His plan, he believes, would inspire "a greater sense of personal and local responsibility" under the concurrent power for enforcement granted in the eighteenth amendment and would "have an immediate and electrical effect all over the country."

"It means, he explained in a radio address broadcast under the auspices of the District of Columbia Sons of the American Revolution, "merely that where the people of any one of the states show, by their legislation and administration, that they want the bootlegger, or the saloon, the United States government will let them enjoy the company of their choice."

"Almost immediately, or as soon as they realize that the problem had been squarely put up to them, they would see about to solve it."

Those states would be forced to do one or two things; either, first, they would try to induce other states to join them in repealing "the eighteenth amendment; or, second, finding themselves in the clutches of a law which they would not repeal, and of an outlaw which they could not regulate, they would conclude to enforce the mandate of the constitution."

On the subject of crime in general, he suggested strengthening of the judicial machinery, and said that newspapers could be the greatest force in law observance. Stating the situation had been growing worse for 30 years, he declared:

"We know that homicide mortality per annum in the United States had grown from about two per 100,000 in 1900, to seven per 100,000 in 1915, and 12 per 100,000 in 1922.

"We know that the money cost of crime in the United States from robbery, banditry, insurance and the maintenance of penal institutions is about $13,000,000,000 a year, or approximately the total of the war debt."

"We know that in the city of Chicago there are not less than 10,000 criminals at large waiting for a chance to attack law-abiding citizens; that there are 30,000 in the city of New York, making up in total case a force three times the size of all the policemen in those communities."

Mayor Arrested For Contempt Of N. J. Legislature

Trenton, N. J., June 25.—(AP)—Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, vice-chairman of the National Democratic committee, was under arrest today for contempt of the New Jersey legislature in refusing to answer questions concerning his private wealth.

The warrant, served last night by a sergeant at arms, ordered his incarceration in the common jail of Mercer county (Trenton), but he was given 24 hours of liberty in which to seek a writ of habeas corpus. He obtained the writ three hours after his arrest from Vice-Chancellor John Fallon of Hoboken, who set 2 o'clock today for a hearing.

His arrest marked the climax of the third attempt of state legislative agencies to compel the mayor to disclose the sources of $400,000 he is reputed to have spent in the last 10 years.

It was ordered in a joint resolution after the mayor had appeared as a witness before a joint session of the Senate and Assembly and had invoked the protection of the 14th amendment to the constitution of the United States in his refusal to answer ten key questions.

COTTON MARKET, N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York June 24 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 5 points; with July lower under further liquidation. There seemed to be some commission house buying of later months, probably on a less favorable view of the weather. Early offerings of July were absorbed by trade buying against sales of later months, probably on a less favorable view of the weather. ### GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 24 (AP)—Sensationally adverse crop conditions both in winter and spring wheat territory hoisted the wheat market fast today, but profit-taking wiped out part of the gains. Houses that were conspicuous buyers last week led the selling this development on today's bulge in price. Cables from Europe indicated notable uneasiness over the North American crop outlook.

Wheat closed nervous 9/8 to 1 1/4 net higher; corn unchanged to 1/2 down; oats 1/8 to 1/4 up; 1-8 up; and provisions varying from 5/8 decline to a rise of 1/8.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 24 (AP)—Beginning of the mid-year call money stringency today brought a good deal of selling into the stock market which retarded but failed to check completely the recovery in stock prices which has been under way for more than a week. Trading showed a marked expansion in volume due to increased activities of pools which are counting on a huge reinvestment demand next month.

Except for a sharp increase in California crude production most of the week-end trade news was favorable. Steel operations in the Youngstown district were reported to be at practical capacity. Retail trade is reported to have received considerable stimulus from the warm weather of the past few days and the demand for copper is reported to be increasing.

Call money advanced unchanged 1/4 per cent but advanced to 8 1/8 per cent calling the loans and threatened to go higher. Time money and commercial paper rates held steady.

Predictions of a big "railroad market" this summer appears to be on the way in realization. Wheeling, Pennsylvania, New Haven and Union Pacific moved into New York ground. New York & Harlem, which ordinarily changes hands in small lots, ran up 8 points.

Wide fluctuations again took place in the high priced specialties. Adams Express added 35 points to its 40 point gain of last week by taking the 75% which contrasts with a low of 48 1/2 a month ago. R. H. Mace, Marmon Motors, United Aircraft and Frank G. Shattuck sold 1/4 to 7/16 points higher.

New peak prices for the year also were established by Columbia Carbide, Westinghouse Electric, Corn Products and a few other specialties.

Baldwin Locomotive extended its decline to 1 1/2 points and General Electric, Standard Gas & Electric, Amerenda Copper, Johns Manville, Greene-Cavans, Commonwealth Power and Public Service of New Jersey sold 1/2 to 3/4 points higher.

trans-Radio Company broadcast messages relayed by the Lisbon wireless station from the Portuguese warship Visco Da Gama, which picked up the following message from the plane: "We arrived at 8 a. m. and intend to resume our flight at 3 p. m. tomorrow, Sunday."

It was on this last report the Spanish premier's announcement of arrival of the plane in the Azores evidently was based. He later told Noticias Del Lunes that he had found the reports "inexact."

TALKS ACROSS OCEAN FROM PLANE PHONE

By WILLIAM W. CHAPLIN, (Associated Press Staff Writer) Hadley Field, N. J., June 25.—(AP)—An Associated Press reporter, attached to the New York office, soared through the clouds above this flying field today and talked by trans-Atlantic telephone with Miss Martha Dalrymple, of the Associated Press staff in London.

It wasn't a "story" in the strict newspaper sense, but more in the nature of a social call negotiated in a successful experiment to link trans-Atlantic telephone service with airplane radio.

Participating in the gossiping party, but using separate connections, were representatives of other American Press associations and a representative of Reuters' Ltd., of London, a British news gathering agency, all of whom talked with members of their London staffs.

After the take-off in a specially equipped plane of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Associated Press reporter adjusted his microphone and, as the plane whizzed at 90 miles an hour through the fog and clouds above the field, the operation went like this:

"Get me the Associated Press in London."
The reporter's call was picked up by the telephone company's experimental radio station at Whippany, N. J., and the plane radio was linked with the land telephone system and thence to the trans-Atlantic radio phone system.

The head phones on the reporter spluttered and buzzed a few moments until London answered.

"Hello, this Chaplin, of the New York office. Is Martha Dalrymple there?"
"Hello, Miss Dalrymple."
"Yes."
"This is Bill Chaplin, of the New York office."
"For goodness sake! Where are you?"

"Well, at the moment over Hadley Field, N. J., altitude about 2,000 feet, speed 90 miles an hour."
The formalities of greeting were soon concluded and the conversation settled down to shop talk. Miss Dalrymple formerly was with the New York and Washington offices.

"How do you like London?" she reported asked.
"Fine," was the reply, "but I miss the New York and Washington reporters. Give my regards to them all, won't you?"

"I will," she reported answered, "and now before we quit haven't you some special message to mark this occasion?"
"Well," she laughed, "ah, well, then the connection was cut off by static."

The trouble was adjusted shortly, however, and although Miss Dalrymple's special message was forgotten the London staffer heard about the "pea soup" fog over New York, too, and from Miss Dalrymple: "Isn't it horrid?"

Revenue Employee Injured In Wreck

Statesville, N. C., June 25.—(AP) A. E. Carson, deputy commissioner of the state department of revenue, will be confined to a local hospital for three weeks as the result of an automobile accident north of Elkin last night.

Mr. Carson is out of danger, attending physicians stated today, but he suffered a foot injury, and must remain here for treatment.

Mrs. Carson, who was injured slightly, left the hospital today.

The Carsons were returning from Raleigh last night, when Mrs. Carson, who was driving, lost control of the car and it skidded into a ditch, overturning.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Carson, other passengers, were not injured.

Board Candidate

W. M. Marshall, former mayor of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and well known agriculturist, has been mentioned for a place on the federal farm board.

Henry Mason Day Joins H. F. Sinclair At Washington Asylum And Jail.

Washington, June 25.—(AP)—Friends and companions of long standing, Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil man, and Henry Mason Day, New York, vice-president of the Sinclair Exploration Company, shared imprisonment today in the Washington asylum and jail.

Day was just entering upon the routine of the jail experience, already familiar to his friend and employer, who went through that phase a month and a half ago. Both were serving sentences for contempt of court because of the shadowing of jurors during the Sinclair Fall conspiracy trial, while Sinclair was at the same time rounding out the latter half of his 90-day sentence for contempt of the Senate for refusal to answer questions during its investigation of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve lease.

The New York man, facing a four months term as compared with the six months imposed on Sinclair, arrived at the jail, alone in a taxicab, at 6:40 last night, and cheerfully entered.

"I say now, as I said then, that I am not conscious of having committed any wrongful act," he declared. "I emphatically deny that anything I did in connection with the trial of Mr. Sinclair was done with improper, much less criminal, intent."

"After I have served out my sentence, I shall continue to live in New York. I am now and shall be able to look any man straight in the eye, as I have all my life. I have nothing to live down, I have something to live through for a time, and as a decent and law-abiding man, I am sure that I shall come out of this experience with at least the measure of confidence and respect that I have earned by the way I have lived and acted in business, in war and in private life."

"I will," she reported answered, "and now before we quit haven't you some special message to mark this occasion?"

D. N. BRANCH DIED SUNDAY

Winterville Community Man Laid To Rest At Family Burying Ground Monday.

D. N. Branch, 70, of the Winterville community, died Sunday morning at 6 o'clock. Funeral services were conducted from his late home yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Elder W. H. Laughinghouse. Burial followed in the family burying ground.

Mr. Branch was one of the best known and most industrious farmers of his community and was held in high esteem by a host of friends.

He is survived by several sons and daughters—J. L. D. J. Billie, Edward, Jesse, Charlie and Harvey Branch, all of Pitt county, and Mrs. W. W. Buck, Mrs. L. J. Edwards, and Mrs. O. J. Tucker, all of this section. He is also survived by thirty-one grandchildren.

Funeral services were: Active: A. W. Ange, R. L. Worthington, R. T. Cox, H. D. Tucker, Jack Jones and J. E. Buck. Honorary: Claude Harrington, E. F. Tucker, Charlie Worthington, Robert Hart and R. T. Tyndall.

RECEIVER IS APPOINTED IN PAPER CASE

Petition Asks That Lavarre-Hall Newspaper Chain Be Dissolved.

Augusta, Ga., June 25.—(AP)—Judge A. L. Franklin here today appointed Thomas J. Hamilton, editor of the Augusta Chronicle, temporary receiver for the Hall-Lavarre Newspapers and ordered William Lavarre, part owner of the Chronicle and the three South Carolina papers, to show cause why he should not be enjoined from taking away operating control of the papers from Harold Hall, the other member of the firm.

This action followed the petition brought before Judge Franklin, of the Richmond County Superior Court today by Hall. The order was made returnable next Tuesday.

In addition to the Augusta Chronicle, the other members of the Hall-Lavarre chain are the Columbia, S. C. Record, the Spartanburg, S. C. Herald, and the Spartanburg, S. C. Journal.

The petition was filed by Hughes Spalding, Atlanta attorney, and Henry H. Hammond, Augusta. It asked that the partnership be dissolved, that Hall be given ownership of his stock, that the stock standing in the name of Lavarre be delivered to the court and that a stockholders meeting of the Augusta Chronicle Publishing Company, scheduled for Tuesday be enjoined. It also asks that Lavarre be enjoined from making any transfer of all of the stock and that the defendant be restrained from disposing of $129,900, which was transferred as a trust fund to the account of Lavarre.

Hall charged that Lavarre is incapable of managing the newspaper properties and that Hall himself was to become president and treasurer with executive control over the papers.

"Said Lavarre has failed and refused to recognize this term of the partnership," the petitioner declared, "and is undertaking to operate independent of your petitioner and executive management of the Columbia Record and the Herald Publishing Company, publishing the Spartanburg Herald and the Spartanburg Journal."

(Lavarre's) attempt to operate the same has resulted and will result in great damage to the properties and the loss of much operating income.

Unfavorable publicity resulting from the loan made by the International Paper Company was given as a reason for the failure of Lavarre to deliver his stock to the International Paper Company. Hall charged that Lavarre tried to get the petitioner to repudiate the control of the company by requiring it to give better terms "which your petitioner flatly refused to do and notwithstanding the embarrassment of the situation notified said defendant that he would not wetch on the obligation of the International Paper Company."

Decision Of Dawes Not To Serve Rum Creates Sensation

London, June 25.—(AP)—Ambassador Charles G. Dawes' intimation that he will not serve liquor at the ambassadorial residence in Prince's Gate was today the subject of lively discussion in diplomatic circles and the American colony of London.

Shouse Takes Slap At Tariff At Rocky Mount

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 25.—(AP)—The present tariff bill, now pending before the finance committee of the Senate, was classed last night by J. J. Shouse, secretary of the National Democratic executive committee, as being "the most outrageous piece of legislation which ever has faced the country."

Mr. Shouse's classification of the measure was read to the Rocky Mount Democratic Club from a letter received by Edwin H. Powell from the national secretary.

The secretary took issue with the statement of President Hoover, that the special session of Congress was called to make "limited changes in the tariff."

Mystifying Entries In Bishop's Stock Dealings Described As Mistakes

New York, June 25.—(AP)—Mystifying entries concerning the stock transactions of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with the defunct firm of Kable & Company, were described as "mistakes" at the opening of a hearing into the firm's bankruptcy.

Harry L. Goldhurst, a member of the firm, was asked yesterday to explain two entries which apparently indicated that Bishop Cannon had made a profit of $400 on a $10,359 deal before he had made any deposit with the company.

One entry, dated November 2, 1927, read: "As of August 14, 100 shares Lehig Valley."

The other entry, dated November 22, indicated that "as of September 22" the stock had been sold at a profit of $400.

The ledger showed that Bishop Cannon made his initial deposit of $500 with the company on September 21.

The witnesses examined the page and said he believed the entries were "mistakes."

Gunboat Searches In Vain For Missing Spanish Plane; Britain Assists In Search

Ponta Delgada, Azores, June 25.—(AP)—The Portuguese gunboat Zaire, after searching for 57 hours for the missing Spanish aviator's reported today there still was no trace of the plane.

The Portuguese mailboat dye today from Madeira Islands and leaving tomorrow for the other islands of the group, has been instructed to keep a keen lookout for the missing plane.

London, June 25.—(AP)—H. M. S. Eagle, aircraft carrier, bound for Portsmouth from Gibraltar, was ordered by wireless today by the admiralty to divert from its course to assist in the search for the missing Spanish aviator. Planes leaving the Eagle could cover a wide area once the carrier reaches the Azores.

Madrid, June 25.—(AP)—Fear increased here today that disaster had overtaken Major Ramon Franco and his three companions in their Dornier "16" hydroplane which disappeared Saturday morning in the course of a trans-Atlantic flight adventure.

Premier Primo De Rivera particularly was pessimistic, remarking that "The Jupiter" as the plane sometimes was designated, perhaps could float for a few hours in a sea as calm as a mill pond. Unfortunately, he said, it was believed a heavy sea was running, and if the plane fell it probably sank immediately.

NEW BRITISH PARLIAMENT IN SESSION

Capt. Fitzroy Elected Speaker Of The House In First Meeting Of Labor Body.

London, June 25.—(AP)—The new British Parliament held its first session today under the Labor government and re-elected Captain E. A. Fitzroy, Conservative, as speaker.

Not a vote was cast against the popular presiding officer who was lauded in the nomination speeches for his impartiality.

A round of cheers greeted the result of the vote to which the speaker responded by thanking the house or conferring upon him "the greatest honor it is able to confer upon one of its members."

The house adjourned shortly afterwards and will get down to work next week with the reading of the speech from the throne.

Premier MacDonald and former Premier Baldwin arrived in Parliament amid the cheers of their various supporters just before the official time of the assembly. The Labor members occupied the whole of the government side of the house, the Conservatives had two-thirds of the opposition side and the Liberals were in the first and second benches below the famous gangway.

The Liberals cheered as former Premier Lloyd George, their leader, appeared at the bar, gave the customary three knocks, and being formally admitted, summoned the "Faithful Commons" to the upper chamber to hear the royal commission read insinuating the new Parliament.

After the black rod had read his traditional entry into the House and summoned the Commons to the upper chamber to hear the royal commission read insinuating the new Parliament, Premier MacDonald and former Premier Baldwin rose, met on the floor and shook hands heartily amid general cheers.

The ministers, former ministers and members of the House then trooped along in the wake of the black rod and the clerk of the Commons to the House of Lords, only three women members were present at the outset. Lady Astor, Miss Lee and Miss Megan Lloyd George.

EDGAR F. MAY PASSES AWAY

Burial To Take Place At Family Cemetery In Craven County Tomorrow.

Edgar F. May, 69, died this morning at 5 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John R. Barker, on East Third street. He leaves surviving him his wife, who is now with her son in California; one son, Roy E. May, Long Beach, California; two daughters, Mrs. John R. Barker, of Greenville, and Mrs. H. R. Bradley, of Chicago, Ill.; two half brothers, C. C. May, of Grifton, and W. G. May, of Los Angeles, Calif.; one half sister, Mrs. A. T. Hill, of Lynchburg, Va., and a number of nephews and nieces in Pitt, Craven and Jones counties.

Funeral services will be held at the family cemetery near Jasper, in Craven county, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. May has lived in Cleveland, Ohio, for several years. A few weeks ago he came to live with his daughter. He has been sick in bed ever since he arrived here.

AFTER LONG LIBERTY MAN BACK IN JAIL

Chicago Publisher Returns To Georgia To Complete Sentence Started In 1922.

Chicago, June 25.—(AP)—Robert Elliott Burns, who escaped seven years ago from a Georgia prison chain gang and became publisher of a successful Chicago real estate magazine, was to return today to Georgia to complete his prison sentence. His return would be voluntary, he told Judge Joseph B. David of the Superior court, yesterday, when habeas corpus proceedings in his behalf were dropped.

Burns, who had established himself here as a real estate promotion expert and publisher, suddenly saw the chain gang loom before him several weeks ago when Georgia authorities learned his whereabouts.

Burns had been sentenced in 1922 to from six to ten years at hard labor after he and two companions were arrested for a five-dollar robbery. After Burns had worked for three months on state highway chains to other convicts, a negro prisoner broke the iron band about his ankle and he escaped.

For the next seven years he progressed from a stockyards laborer to a high position in the real estate field. His magazine is reputed to have earned $20,000 last year.

Two years ago Burns married his landlady, Mrs. Emily Pacheco, 33 years, his senior, after, he said, she had learned of his prison record and threatened to expose him. Several months ago he left her and went to live with Miss Lillian Sale.

When arrested on the request of Georgia authorities, Burns declared he believed his wife, because of jealousy, had exposed him to prison officials. She denied that she had.

Friends, including American Legion officials and prominent real estate men, rallied to Burns' aid and petitioned Governor Emerson not to grant extradition. Several days later Burns' war record was attacked as fictitious and he was accused of embezzlement and bribery. These charges have not been settled.

Burns' attorney said that habeas corpus proceedings were dropped yesterday so that his client might return voluntarily to the jurisdiction of Georgia authorities and be freed by executive clemency, petition for which has been filed.

Texas Woman Kills Another Through Mistake

Cumby, Tex., June 25.—(AP)—Mistaking Mrs. W. F. Reid of Cumby for another woman, Mrs. Oscar Cross, 35, shot and killed her in front of the postoffice here yesterday.

Mrs. Cross, who was at liberty today on $10,000 bond, made a statement to county attorney Emmett Thornton, that she intended the bullets for a Dallas woman. In her statement she gave no specific reason for wanting to kill the woman but said she felt trouble with her was of such a nature to justify an attempt to shoot her.

PRES. HINDENBURGH DRAFTS MANIFESTO FOR HIS PEOPLE

Berlin, June 25.—(AP)—President Von Hindenburg, in collaboration with his cabinet, has drawn up a manifesto to the German people, which he will sign and have published June 28 on the tenth anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Versailles.

CALLS FOR FAIR SHOW ON DRY LAW

Wade Ellis Would Withhold Federal Funds From States Not Helping To Enforce Law.

Washington, June 25.—(AP)—Calling for a "fair and square show down" with a view to more effective prohibition enforcement, Wade H. Ellis, assistant to the attorney general during the Taft administration, has advanced the proposal that federal government funds for that purpose be withheld from states which are not co-operating in upholding the dry laws.

His plan, he believes, would inspire "a greater sense of personal and local responsibility" under the concentrated power for enforcement granted in the eighteenth amendment and would "have an immediate and electrical effect all over the country."

"It means, he explained in a radio address broadcast under the auspices of the District of Columbia Sons of the American Revolution, "merely that where the people of any one of the states show, by their legislation and administration, that they want the bootlegger or the saloon, the United States government will let them enjoy the company of their choice."

"Almost immediately, or as soon as they realize that the problem had been squarely put up to them, they would see about solving it."

These states would be forced to do one or two things; either, first, they would try to induce other states to join them in repealing the eighteenth amendment; or, second, finding themselves in the clutches of a law which they would not repeal, and of an outlaw which they could not regulate, they would conclude to enforce the mandate of the constitution.

On the subject of crime in general, he suggested strengthening of the judicial machinery and said the newspapers could be the greatest force in law observance. Stating the situation had been growing worse for 30 years, he declared:

"We know that homicide mortality per annum in the United States had grown from about two per 100,000 in 1900, to seven per 100,000 in 1915, and 12 per 100,000 in 1925."

"We know that the money cost of crime in the United States from robbery, banditry, insurance and the maintenance of penal institutions is about $12,000,000,000 a year, or approximately the total of the war debt."

"We know that in the city of Chicago there are not less than 10,000 criminals at large waiting for a chance to attack law-abiding citizens; that there are 30,000 in the city of New York, making up in each case a force three times the size of all the policemen in those communities."

Mayor Arrested For Contempt Of N. J. Legislature

Trenton, N. J., June 25.—(AP)—Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, vice-chairman of the National Democratic committee, was under arrest today for contempt of the New Jersey legislature in refusing to answer questions concerning his private wealth.

The warrant, served last night by a sergeant at arms, ordered his incarceration in the common jail of Mercer county (Trenton), but he was given 24 hours of liberty in which to seek a writ of habeas corpus. He obtained the writ three hours after his arrest from Vice-Chancellor John Fallon of Hoboken, who set 2 o'clock today for a hearing.

His arrest marked the climax of the third attempt of state legislative agencies to compel the mayor to disclose the sources of $400,000 he is reputed to have spent in the last 10 years.

It was ordered in a joint resolution after the mayor had appeared as a witness before a joint session of the Senate and Assembly and had invoked the protection of the 14th amendment to the constitution of the United States in his refusal to answer key questions.

The ten key questions had to do with whether Mayor Hague had accounts in various banks at stated times and where he obtained the cash he paid for a number of real estate investments.

The mayor answered freely that he had no other gainful occupation than political office for 34 years and that his highest salary during that time had been $8,000.

He added an ironical touch to his proceedings when, learning that the assembly lacked a Republican majority to pass the resolution ordering his arrest, he instructed Democratic members to vote for it.

Staufner-Lucas.
Wilson, N. C., June 25.—Of interest to their many friends throughout this and other states was the marriage this morning of Miss Clyde Lucas and Mr. John J. Staufner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Lynch at the First Baptist Church, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends.

The bride, a beautiful brunette, was lovely in a becoming ensemble of tan crepe Elizabeth, with accessories to match, and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Staufner is the oldest daughter of Mr. Daniel Lucas of Lucama, but for a number of years has made her home in Wilson, where she has a host of friends. Mr. Staufner, formerly of Lancaster, Pa., is a prominent business man of Hickory, N. C.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Staufner were entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Cherry Hotel by Miss Mary Lee Smith of Greenville.

After an extended wedding trip through northern states, Mr. and Mrs. Staufner will be at home in Hickory, N. C., after July 10.

The following announcements have been received:

Mr. Daniel Lucas announces the marriage of his daughter Clyde to

Famous Harpist Wine Hearts Of Audience Here

Alberto Salvi and his famous harp won the hearts of those who heard him last evening in his harp concert, at East Carolina Teachers College. Marvellous tones, rich and resounding, then delicate and fairy-like, sweeping through one number like a full orchestra, then coming in another as faint strains from the land of eyes, came from that precious golden-stringed harp when the fingers of the master played over the strings. Master of his instrument, his fingers flew back and forth over the strings, while he threw himself into his theme, seeming to forget all else besides giving the message to his audience.

He had a program of wide interest playing numbers that one does not usually hear on the harp. A glance down his program showed that he was not only a virtuoso but a composer. Of the thirteen numbers, six were arrangements for the harp of classical numbers, among these Debussy's "Prelude," Marcel's "Notturmo," Chopin's "Fantasie Impromptu," Nevin's "Mighty Lak a Rose," Saint-Saen's "Swan," and the Barcarolle from "Tales of Hoffman." Three numbers were his own compositions, "The Fountain," "Valse de Concert" and "Scherzo." The other numbers were Zabel's "Fantasie in C Minor," Bach's "Gavotte," Dizi's "Etude No. 2" and Serrao's "Minuette."

He harpist was generous with his encores and played familiar things that everybody liked.

The college girls were enthusiastic and at the close of the concert crowded around the harp to get a nearer view of the marvelous instrument. Again the artist was un-failling in his courtesy and cheerfully explained it to the inquisitive group.

This evening he will appear in Raleigh at State College, and then go to the university and other colleges in North Carolina.

The Coffer-Miller Players will give two plays next week, on two successive evenings, July 5 and 6, "Tea for Three" and "Mice and Men."

ABOUT TOWN

"It is a source of much gratification to Greenville people to note that the local club won second place in batting averages recently made public by Eastern Carolina league teams. "Aside from this distinction, the Tobaccoists speeded up in the field and won third position. With such a record as this we ought not to be down at the bottom of the ladder. These figures are first club figures and indicate that the boys are playing ball if not winning as many games as they should. "We have made a new start now and with favorable weather and good breaks it ought not to be so many more days before we shall find ourselves turning in victories in keeping with activities on the field and at bat."

"We are expecting good results to be obtained from the meeting of the Merchants Association to-night," said a member of the organization speaking of the quarterly meeting to be held at the Rotary club at 7 o'clock. "These meetings are always looked forward to with more than usual interest by the members in closer personal touch with one another. "The gathering tonight is of more than usual importance because of the fact that the president and secretary will be present to tell of some of the vital things the state has done and is doing at this time. Every member is urged to be present and hear these men as they describe the conditions prevailing among the merchants."

"How did you like the new story beginning in the columns of the Daily Reflector yesterday?" the business manager inquired of a subscriber who dropped in for a short chat with the department. "It started off mighty good," the visitor said, and if it is half as good as 'Gold Billed,' it will be going some. This new feature of the Reflector is read daily by hundreds of readers and it is hoped the paper will continue to provide others of the kind as long as possible. "Hottest weather of the summer," declared a visitor to the city yesterday, as he made his round of city business hours. "You bet it is," was the usual rejoinder, "but it is time for hot weather and I for one am glad to see it. My hope is that it will remain that way for a long time to come so that everybody may have an opportunity of doing like they did during long, hot days last summer."

"Fish are biting good all over Eastern Carolina at this time, said a Greenville angler today, following trips to several of the good fishing streams in this section. "I went down to a certain stream with a couple of boys the other day and we caught more fish in two hours than we would have in a whole day under ordinary circumstances. "I am for fishing when they bite this way, and my office will be on the banks of numbers of streams while this fish greed is in vogue. When I stay in the city more than one day at a time you may know they at last have declined to bite."

"Regardless of whatever you may do, boost your home town," is the advice of a local business man who recently returned from a convention at which taking stock of the home town was one of the real features. "It matters not how small a town may be it has certain features that would prove attractive to other people, but these other people would never know of them without somebody telling of the advantages. "Think of how many things in your home town that would prove interesting to the outside world. Then get facts about them and talk them in such way as to interest people. "Try the experiment and I believe it will bring rich returns."

"Our appeal is simply this: Don't aid and abet those who are actively breaking a law which your Government is actively trying to enforce. Don't muddle the minds of your readers by confusing an active law with an obsolete law. Don't encourage anyone to think that it is either smart or clever, either courageous or honorable, to outwit your Government. Don't excuse the bootlegger or his patron. Don't vilify enforcement officers who are trying to do what the law requires them to do and what they have sworn to do. If you want to castigate any of them, try it on those who are shirking their duty. Don't caricature or cast aspersions upon those private citizens who are not only obeying the law but trying to help the Government. This will not weaken their determination. It will only encourage law breakers and add to the cost of enforcement. In short, throw your vast influence on the side of your Government and not against it."

Noted Humorist Dead Paris, June 25.—(AP)—George Courteline, one of the most noted humorists in France, died today on his 72nd birthday. The noted author underwent the amputation of a leg four years ago to halt the spread of an infection and his other leg was amputated only last week.
