FLIERS ESTABLISH ENDURANCE RECORD

Mitchell and Newcomb Stay In The Air Over 174 Hrs. At Cleveland

Flying City Of Cleveland, Two Fliers Landed at 12:39:50 Amid The Riotous Acclaim Of 75,000 Persons; Twenty-four Contacts Made By Refueling Plane Piloted By Ernest Basham.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 6.—(AP)—Holders of a new world's record for endurance flights of 174 hours and 59 seconds, pilots Roy L. Mitchell and Byron K. Newcomb today rested their weary bodies after remaining in the air from a week ago Friday afternoon until 12:39:50 this morning, they brought their plane to earth at Cleveland airport.

They exceeded by one hour, 28 minutes and 59 seconds the old mark set recently in Fort Worth, Texas, by Reginald Robbins and James Kelley, who remained aloft 172 hours, 32 minutes and 1 second.

Weariness brought the airman to a landing and the riotous acclaim of 75,000 persons after a flight which became more hazardous and difficult as the days aloft cut down their physical endurance.

The climax of the attempt came but a few hours before it ended, and the two men said it nearly killed them. They survived a severe electrical storm which damaged their refueling plane in a forced landing and stopped all other air traffic to fight on for the record, attained twelve hours later.

Exhausted, the airman immediately were taken under guard to a hotel, to sleep throughout the day if they desired.

"We broke the record. That's enough. All we want now is sleep," Newcomb said.

Resting with them was Ernest Basham, pilot of the refueling plane, who completed 24 contacts during the flight to replenish the supply of gasoline, oil and food.

Roads were jammed for miles. And the airport was crowded with spectators when the record was equaled shortly before midnight. The crowd increased as the Stinson-Detroit monoplane, City of Cleveland, rode through the darkness, concealed in the murky atmosphere high above the airport.

The waiting crowd watched anxiously as the next hour passed, and joined in a terrific outburst as the record was set at 12:10:52. Rockets and flares were released in salute to the airman, a display of fireworks added to the brilliance of lights at the field.

A little later the cruising light of the ship appeared as the pilot dropped from the altitude of 3,000 feet which they had held early in the night. Twinkling against the darkness the lights swung about the airport, straightened out to the east and then climbed again.

Thinking the flight was to continue, the crowd tried to disperse, but few had left their places at 12:37 when a red flare, the signal of a landing, was dropped from the plane.

Less than ten minutes later the wheels touched earth. Then the crowd charged. Police were helpless. As the pilots swung the ship around hundreds crowded the ship, hanging to the wings and tail as it taxied to the hangar of the Stewart Aircraft Corporation, backers of the flight.

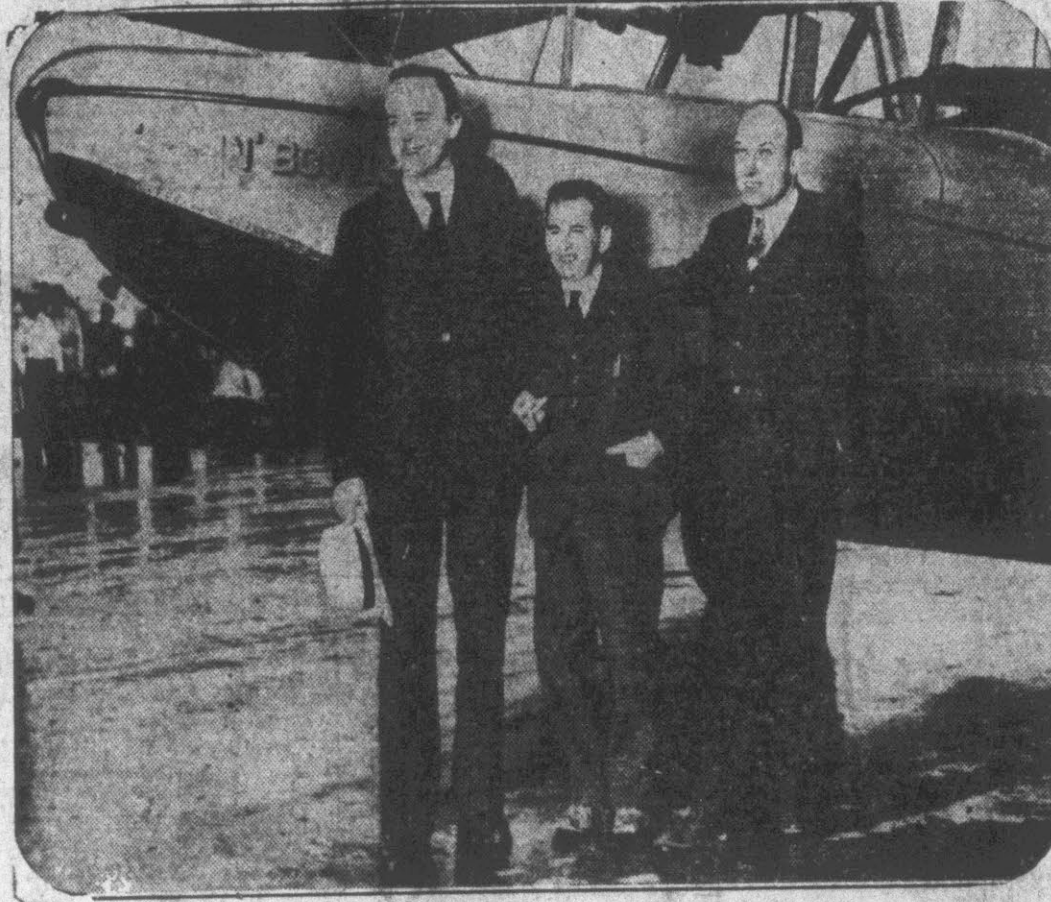

Fort Worth, Tex., July 6.—(AP)—Reg. L. Robbins and James Kelly, holders of the endurance flight record shattered last night by Roy L. Mitchell and Byron K. Newcomb, were all enthusiasm for the new champions.

Any rumors that they might attempt to set a new mark were still finally by Robbins and at least temporarily by Kelly. Robbins has no intention of shooting for a new record, he said, positively. Kelly thinks it would be foolish to do it at least until this "wave of enthusiasm for new records has come what deserved."

Both fliers wired congratulations to the Cleveland pilots.

"Their feat would have been greater than ours. I feel they had only equalled because they seemed to be battling unfairly," Robbins said. "I am glad pilots went to it. I am a longer time than you sign to get your feet quick."

CHICAGO-BERLIN PLANE WEATHER BOUND

A message today from "Untin Bowler" stated that they were held up at Great Whale, Hudson Bay Trading Post, on account of fog, rain and low visibility. From Great Whale the plane will go to Mount Evans, Greenland.

French Cabinet Supports Poincare On Debt Issue

Paris, July 6.—(AP)—The French cabinet meeting again today in special session staid firmly upon Premier Poincare's decision that ratification of the American and British debt accords must be unequalled. Any reservations must be expressed separately. The ministry was unanimous in its attitude.

Paris, July 6.—(AP)—Premier Raymond Poincare's "Armistice Day cabinet" has been permitted to survive at least another week-end. The premier yesterday averted an immediate crisis by avoiding a vote of confidence but there was considerable conjecture as to just what would happen when Parliament resumes next Tuesday.

The same difficulties to ratification without reservation of the American and British debt accords, which the premier faced yesterday still existed today and there was possibility the opposition would discover new ones over the week-end. Widespread popular resentment

Highway Patrol Handles 2,000 Cases This Week

Raleigh, July 6.—(AP)—Approximately two thousand violators of the state's traffic laws have either been cited to appear in court or notified to have their vehicles fixed at once to conform with the traffic laws and regulations by members of the state highway patrol during the first week of their service. It was announced today by Captain Chas. D. Farmer, commanding the patrol.

Dr. Cory Speaks Upon Evangelism At Kansas City

Kansas City, July 6.—July 6.—(AP)—The industrial enslavement of children from five to ten years of age in non-Christian lands, is one of the challenges faced by churches in their world evangelistic enterprise, Dr. A. E. Cory, Kingston, N. C., told the International Convention of Christian Endeavor here last night. The speaker urged the delegates to respond to the "great call of world evangelism as requested by our foreign missionary agencies."

Dr. Cory, who has spent many years in the foreign field, said that when he was a boy the need of missionary work in other lands was visualized by the portrayal of pictures of babies being thrown into the Ganges river as a sacrifice to appease the heathen gods.

Tracing the response of the churches to stop the practice and the abolishment of it by law, he said: "As compared with the sacrifice of life in the Ganges by one action, the present system of industrial practices in non-Christian lands by which thousands and hundreds of thousands of children are deprived of their heritage to live what we call normal lives, is more inhuman."

The woman companion picked up his pistol and pursued the gunman, who fled into an alley. Another man, apparently an acquaintance, seized the hysterical woman and drove away with her in a taxi-cab. Maloney was taken to a hospital. He had been shot in the right knee, right thigh and the abdomen. Doctors said he would recover.

DECLARE WAR ON FORCES OF EVIL IN CITY

Ministers To Speak on "Public Morals" At Various Churches Tomorrow.

"Public Morals of Greenville" will be the subject of the pastors of various city churches tomorrow. The discussion of this subject is the outgrowth of a communication issued by the Ministerial Association yesterday, in which the citizenship was called upon to assist in improvement of certain evils existing in the city.

Just what the nature of the evils are was not divulged in the communication by the Ministerial Association, but they are of sufficient seriousness to cause the ministers to issue a "call to arms" and begin a campaign to bring about an improvement in the situation.

The discussion of such a grave matter is expected to draw tremendous crowds to all of the churches, and services no doubt will be the most outstanding of the year.

"The ministers of the city desire to say that there have come to them recently several reports and complaints of evils prevailing in our city and community which reflect upon the good name and moral standing of our city," the communication declared. "Some of these evils can be openly verified by observation and other reports substantiated by credible testimony."

"We sadly deplore these conditions and urge all good citizens of Greenville to stand together in rooting out these evil vices and wrongs. We urge uncompromisingly a strong and unyielding public sentiment against all immoral conditions and unwholesome practices."

"Persons who openly violate the law with impunity and who bring reproach upon the good name of the city should be held accountable and punished accordingly."

"Standards of living in a community do not as a rule rise higher than the public sentiment that supports and sustains them, and it has been observed that officers of the law do not generally enforce the laws unless supported and encouraged by a backing of strong and healthy public sentiment. Therefore, we urge and call upon all people who love righteousness and decency to unceasingly protest against unlawful and evil practices in our city and community and to insist that evils prevailing be corrected."

KILLER SHOT BY GANGSTER AT CHICAGO

Southside Saloon-keeper Wounded By Unidentified Man on Street Last Night.

Chicago, July 6.—(AP)—George Maloney, South Side saloon-keeper, was wounded three times last night by an unidentified man at 65th street and Cottage Grove avenue, in the heart of the busy Woodlawn district.

Police saw in the shooting a reprisal attempt for the slaying December 31, last, of Hugh "Stubby" McGovern and William "Gunner" McPadden, who were killed in a pistol battle with Maloney in the Granada Cafe, just four blocks away. Maloney recently was convicted of manslaughter for McGovern's slaying but is free on bond pending an appeal.

Crowds leaving a nearby theatre scrambled for cover when the gunman opened fire on Maloney, who was walking with a woman companion. Maloney crumpled to the sidewalk as he reached his own weapon.

The woman companion picked up his pistol and pursued the gunman, who fled into an alley. Another man, apparently an acquaintance, seized the hysterical woman and drove away with her in a taxi-cab. Maloney was taken to a hospital. He had been shot in the right knee, right thigh and the abdomen. Doctors said he would recover.

Rough Beach Holds Up Hop Off To Rome

Old Orchard, Me., July 6.—(AP)—A beach which had been rutted by the pounding of the surf today forced Lewis & Yancy and Roger Q. Williams to postpone their proposed take-off for Rome in the monoplane Pathfinder.

With weather conditions over the Atlantic described as "not the best, but they will do," by Dr. James H. Kimball, New York meteorologist, the two fliers retired last night with the decision as to the hop-off contingent on the beach. Informed at dawn that the sands were "washboarded," the aviators went back to sleep.

FLIERS STILL HOLD THE AIR IN CALIFORNIA

Mendell And Reinhardt Send Note Of Congratulations At New Record Makers

Culver City, Calif., July 6.—(AP)—A new goal was set today for L. W. Mendell and R. B. Reinhardt as they left the half-way mark which they set in their quest for the endurance refueling flight record.

At 12:29:30 a. m. the fliers had been in the air 59 hours since their take-off last Tuesday morning.

When informed that Roy L. Mitchell and Byron K. Newcomb had set a new mark of 174 hours, 59 seconds at Cleveland, the two pilots dropped a note of congratulations, adding a promise that they would surpass the new record.

Fog, which has harassed them intermittently since they first took the air was absent last night.

To equal the new record the 220-horsepower motor must keep up its steady drone until 1:30:39 p. m. next Tuesday.

With the clear weather making their task more simple, the fliers informed ground officials that they were certain they would keep the biplane in the air 400 hours. They said they were getting plenty of sleep, which was a problem during the early hours of the flight because of the fog.

Ku-Klux Klan Moves Back To Atlanta, Ga.

Washington, July 6.—(AP)—The Washington Post today says "The Ku Klux Klan has abandoned Washington as a national headquarters and is now back in Atlanta, Georgia, the place of its birth."

Two reasons are given for the transfer. One official is quoted as explaining that the national headquarters was moved to Washington because this was believed to be the best place to direct its campaign against the presidential candidacy of Alfred E. Smith.

"Well, the campaign is over now," he is quoted as saying. "Will we move back again? That may depend on who the candidates are."

The other reason ascribed is that "The Klan has just erected two new buildings in Atlanta, one a factory where the regalia is turned out, and the other an administrative building for the officials and clerks of the organization."

Klan officials who have been stationed here included H. J. Ramsey, imperial secretary; the editor of the Courier, whose identity is kept a secret; and the imperial auditor, together with about 30 employees.

Admiral Eberle Dead At Capital

Washington, July 6.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Edward Walter Eberle, retired, died here today.

Admiral Eberle died at the naval hospital here where he was undergoing treatment. He had served in the navy since 1881 when he entered Annapolis naval academy and had had a distinguished career which included that of direction of naval operations.

An ear infection of long standing was the immediate cause of the admiral's death.

ARGUMENTS STARTED IN MURDER CASE

Rafe King Case To Be Continued Over The Week-end At Chester, S. C.

Chester, S. C., July 6.—(AP)—Prospects for a verdict tonight in the case of Rafe King, who has been on trial here the entire week for the murder of his wife, Fay, Wilson King, were eliminated early this afternoon, when it was announced that the trial will continue over the week-end, with the case going to the jury Monday.

Arguments began this morning, shortly before 11:30 o'clock, with David Hamilton opening for the prosecution. There will be twelve speeches in all, six this afternoon and six Monday. Each attorney has been allotted two hours, but the lawyers stated it was certain all of them would not take that much time.

A conference among the lawyers resulted in it being announced that they would argue in this order:

Prosecution—David Hamilton, W. C. Finley, Angus H. MacCaulay, John A. Marion, Colonel Arthur L. Gasson and Solicitor Harry Hines.

Defense—Paul Hemphill, James Glenn, B. G. Falls, J. M. Hemphill, Thomas F. McDow and Clyde Hines.

Usual custom of alternating speeches followed until J. McDow's speech will be followed by Roy E. Hoxey, also of defense, who then will be followed by Solicitor Harry Hines, who will close the arguments.

Presentation of defense witnesses ceased at 11 o'clock this morning, after Dr. H. M. Roe, of Chester, had been recalled to the stand. He was asked, after hearing the evidence, which manner of death Mrs. King met her death by choking or poisoning.

There was a protest from the state and Judge Henry would not allow the question. The defense then rested.

Only two rebuttal witnesses were put on the stand by the state, Mrs. W. Clyde Reagan, of Charlotte, and Dr. John C. Caldwell, of Chester. Mrs. Reagan was asked what of a suit King wore at the wedding, and she replied it was a dark blue suit.

Dr. Caldwell was asked if it was the unanimous opinion of the doctors at the inquest that Mrs. King met her death by choking. After some sparring the state withdrew the question.

Decision of the defense that it was through care as a surprise, only four witnesses being heard today.

Dr. C. B. Waller, professor of chemistry, Spartanburg, S. C., testified this morning that he believed it impossible to wash away bloodstains from woodwork, even if a strong commercial preparation were used. The chemist was called by the defense in an effort to refute prosecution testimony, which indicated that the King home had been freshly scrubbed when neighbors came to the home to search for the body of the woman. Dr. Waller said part of the stain would have remained.

Dr. Waller also testified the frequent washings of the stomach of the dead woman with embalming fluid might have removed any poison from her stomach. He said, however, "it would be hard to say."

The chemist had made an analysis of fluid found in Rafe King's suit in the attic and said it was acriflavine, used in treatment of a venereal disease. It is not poisonous, he declared.

Another witness, Mrs. Albright Petty, tenant on the King farm, testified Mrs. King had a fear of becoming a mother and said she would kill herself before she would do so.

H. O. Nichols, Chester photographer, testified he made pictures of the King home at Sharon.

The only other witness put on by the defense was Miss Margaret King, whose testimony explained the non-appearance of King's parents in the court-room today. She said her mother and father were ill.

David Hamilton, the first speaker for the prosecution, spoke scathingly of the defendant, charging that "the same evil intent that would crucify this flower upon the cross of passion also would kill and murder her." Later he declared that the "womanhood of South Carolina is on trial here today." He finished at 12:35, one hour after starting.

Paul Hemphill, for the defense, argued that the facts in the case are in "very narrow compass." He declared there is no motive for King to have killed his wife.

Players Please In "Mice And Men"

The Coffey-Miller Players last night at East Carolina Teachers' College gave a brilliant performance of that fine romantic comedy of the late eighteenth century, "Mice and Men." The vivacious, sparkling interpretation of the heroine, Peggy, by Miss Miller, was infectious and the calm serene part of the philosopher guardian and would-be lover as played by Jess Coffey made an excellent combination. These twin stars, with the support of a fine company, achieved a new triumph to add to their reputation here.

This evening the amusing modern American comedy, "Tea for Three," will be the friend that has "his angle that the triangle can be square." Miss Miller is the wife who has her angle that "it might be a right angle." Miner Coburn plays the part of the husband who does not know much about angles. The maid is merely a maid, the valet is quite a valet, and the waiter just a waiter. The scenes go by in a flash, beginning with "luncheon for today, then 'tea for three, this afternoon,' 'dinner is served this evening,' and 'tea for three tomorrow afternoon.'

The eternal triangle has a number of highly amusing and interesting angles. The play is very much lighter than the one last night.

The settings used last night and those that will be used tonight are "vignette sets," which means the sets are reduced to a minimum. The wails between scenes and acts are also reduced to the minimum, and yet there is sufficient setting for carrying on the play well.

Don't forget Pythian Concert
Class Thursday, the 11th.

Free Concert At College Tonight

A free concert will be given this evening at 8:30 o'clock by the Hampton Quartette in the auditorium in the Administration building of East Carolina Teachers' College. These singers from the famous school for negroes, Hampton Institute; are noted for their fine singing of the negro spirituals and for restoring the true negro ways of singing these.

The concert will begin promptly at 8:30, giving people time enough to get supper before the curtain rises for the performance of "Tea for Three," the modern American comedy to be presented this evening at 8:30 o'clock by the Coffey-Miller Players. An evening of amusing, delightful fun with light comedy is a delightful close of a July week.

Ballard's X Road News

Mrs. Lucy Raspberry and Miss Mary Joyner spent the week-end with Mrs. Annie Flanagan.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Tyson, accompanied by Mrs. Tyson's father, Mr. William Sugg, attended a reunion at Mr. Sugg's sister's at Moncure Friday.

Little Misses Laura Jane and Sybil Grey Allen visited their aunt Mrs. Eborn Pittman, of Kinston, recently.

Miss Ina Belle Worthington, who has been teaching at Graham, is at home for the summer.

Mrs. Eva Tucker and children were guests of Mrs. Nannie E. Tucker Sunday.

Mrs. Fannie Cobb of Farmville was visiting relatives here last week.

Mrs. Frank Holoman and children spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pollard of Farmville.

Miss Seba Flanagan of Farmville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elbert Moyer Tyson.

Mrs. Mason Tripp has been quite ill for several weeks. We hope she may soon be well again.

We appreciate the filial devotion which prompts Mr. Harper Sheppard to build a memorial to his father, the late Henry Sheppard, whose long and faithful service as an official of this county should never be forgotten.

Mr. Harper Sheppard is a native of this township, Beaver Dam.

There is still a great need of orthodox evangelical services at Ballard's—the cry for help is insistent—who will answer?

King And Queen Note Anniversary Of Their Wedding

London, July 6.—(AP)—King George and Queen Mary today received felicitations on the 38th anniversary of their marriage. Tomorrow both will join with Britain's millions in a thanksgiving service for his majesty's recovery from his recent long illness.

The royalties, in simple morning dress, will go by open carriage tomorrow to Westminster, Abbey where a special Thanksgiving service—postponed once before when his majesty suffered a relapse—has been arranged for the occasion.

Aside from a few reserved seats for the royal family, members of the diplomatic corps, and others, the church will be open to the public. The church seats only a few hundred and the king has asked that all worship with him at their own churches. The ceremonial will be enacted throughout the empire.

Entering the abbey at the great west door their majesties will be received by the clergy, headed by the Dean of Westminster and the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The ceremony will be comparatively brief.

Part of the service will be from that used on the occasion of the recovery of King George III in 1789, and another from that used in thanksgiving by Edward VII when he was Prince of Wales.

Four Held For Murder In Raid By Dry Officers

Tecumseh, Okla., July 6.—(AP)—(AP)—Four men, including W. W. Thompson, a federal prohibition enforcement agent, were charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of James Harris and Oscar Lowrey, his brother-in-law, during a liquor raid at the Harris farm near here Thursday.

The farmers were shot by Jeff B. Harris, who accompanied Thompson on the raid. He and Tom Lewis and Jack Williams, are the others against whom charges have been filed.

Prohibition Commissioner Doran at Washington and Beede Mobrum, prohibition director for Oklahoma, denied that Jeff B. Harris was a regularly employed federal agent. H. K. Hyde, assistant United States attorney at Oklahoma City, said Lewis and Williams had been deputized to assist Thompson in the raid.

Jeff B. Harris, admitted investigators said, that he wounded the two farmers.

THE MORAL DIFFICULTY

By The Rev. Caleb R. Stetson, D.D.
(Rector of the Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, New York.)

Difficulties encountered by many people today in accepting religious faith are of a moral rather than in intellectual character.

There is much honest doubt in the world, but very often doubt is only self-deception. Thus we hear much of the intellectual difficulties of faith when the difficulty really is a moral one.

IT ALL DEPENDS ON PUBLIC SENTIMENT

Through the columns of this paper yesterday the local Ministerial Association appealed to the righteous people of our community for support in ridding our city of the vices and evils now so prevalent, and tomorrow from the pulpits the ministers will continue their appeal.

We are not among those who believe that our community has gone completely to the dogs and that righteousness here is conspicuous by its absence, for we are confident that the majority is on the side of righteousness. However, we do feel that there has been too much of a "Let George do it" attitude among our good people when it came to making a fight against these prevailing evils and as a result vice and immorality have flourished almost unmolested.

cessful. No community can be better than the public sentiment that backs up its ministers and its law enforcement officers. We can have a moral and righteous community if we are willing to put our shoulders to the wheel and help make it such.

ABOUT TOWN

"I've been confused about the day of the week all day," said a business man yesterday afternoon, as he started to write something with a Monday dateline.

"This confusion always prevails after a holiday, however, for when a working man has a day off that day invariably seems like Sunday regardless of where he goes or what he does. He simply can't get away from the impression that it is Sunday and tomorrow will be blue Monday—work day.

"I guess I'll get straightened out by tomorrow and will be able to go until Monday comes without making any more mistakes. But I'll bet a nickel that I was not the only one off as it pertained to dates yesterday."

"A distinct honor has come to another Greenville man," observed a reader of the Reflector late yesterday afternoon as he read about the election of Frank Harrington, to the presidency of Superior Court Clerks of North Carolina, recently in session at Blowing Rock.

"The election of Mr. Harrington to this high office reflects the active part which he has taken in behalf of the state organization during the past several years. The Greenville man believes in going forward and it is a settled fact that the clerks will find more things constructive for consideration this year than ever before.

"Greenville people are always glad to hear of one of their fellowmen receiving some distinct recognition, and they are especially interested in the honor upon Mr. Harrington by reason of the active part which he has played in civic improvement of the community where he has resided, the most of his life. He has always stood for things constructive and that is one of the reasons why his value has been recognized outside of his own community."

"We have invited all dairymen of the community to attend a meeting at the office next Monday," said C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Merchants Association, today.

For the Love of a Lady

By JEFFERY FARNOL

SYNOPSIS: Helen D'Arcy—an heiress and beautiful—once voiced scornful disdain for Sir Richard Gyfford but her haughty contempt has vanished. Sir Richard is in danger of death in an impending duel with his cousin, Julian, a scoundrel, whom he whipped for blackmailing Angela, Helen's friend. Captain Despard and Viscount Brocklehurst, two of Helen's suitors, are plotting with Julian to force Helen into marriage and thereby gain her fortune. Helen rides to the Gyfford estate and by a ruse contrives to have Richard rescue her from danger. In a pledge of friendship, he gives his ring to her and she places a locket and chain about his neck.

Chapter 12
FATAL WORDS
Upon a marble seat hard by lay Sir Richard's coat, an old military cloak turned up and lined with scarlet, and, sinking upon the seat, Helen D'Arcy drew this cloak about herself, beckoning him to sit beside her.

"Come," said she softly, "tell me of your mother."
Thus, inspired by her unwonted gentleness, sympathy and understanding, he forgot his taciturnity and told her of the mother who was to him only a reversed dream and led on by her subtle questioning, described his early years; himself a lonely child in the ungentled household of his careless, widowed uncle, Julian's father. He told of his impishhood and wayward youth and the follies of his early, reckless manhood.

"Heaven bless you," he answered, seeing the trouble in her eyes, "such accidents are extreme rare, so pray let your apprehensions sleep! And then, almost ere she knew, he had caught her hand to his lips.
"Richard," said she, "I am wondering why a just Providence doth not smite such as you: your cousin Julian dead! Oh, the man's a monster, a fiend, a murderous devil, a hateful, despicable wretch, an odious reptile, a very rogue incarnate!"

"Oh, mock as you will! said my lady angrily. "But he is a dangerous villain, a creature better dead!"
"And, Helen, I wonder if you are blood-thirsty as you sound?"
"I repeat, such a man were better dead!" she retorted; and then, clenching passionate hands, uttered words which though he little heeded at the time, he was to think upon very often in the future.

and rider were out of sight then turned and hurried towards Gregory in the kitchen garden. "Greg," said he, "go saddle me the bay."
Now my lady, reaching the highway, reined her mare to a center to a walk and often glanced back as if expecting pursuit; thus evening had come as she reached a place where the road narrowed.
"Halt, ma'am!" cried a voice vaguely familiar, and a masked man swung his horse across her path and she caught the dull gleam of a pistol barrel; also, she saw this grim figure was shrouded in an old military cloak turned up and faced with scarlet.

"How then, sir," said she in lofty disdain. "You will play highwayman because I once so named you? This the ring you want of me, I think?"
The man bowed; and then she heard him whistling softly between his teeth.
"Why then, sir, take it! The next time we meet, be so obliging to pass by at a distance!"
Drawing forth her purse she hurled it to the dusty road so fiercely that her loose gauntlet flew with it.

"There—take it sir!" said she, in choking voice. "Ay—and with it—my lasting contempt! Now—out o' my road!"
The horseman bowed, reined back his mount, and my lady galloped away like a whirlwind.

BUGS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL WITH GREENS

Goldboro, N. C., July 5.—After taking the first game of a double-header from Greenville here today, 16 to 4, the Goldbugs dropped the nightcap to the visitors, 6 to 0.

The Teagumens landed on three Worm pitchers in the first contest, but in the second game Rakel, on the mound for the locals failed to stem the tide of Greenie hits, while Ludke held the Bugs to four scattered bingles.

Freshour started on the mound for the Worms in the opener, but was taken out in the first after allowing five hits and four runs. Garbee followed and was also knocked out in the third. Crump, who had been playing first base, went in to pitch. He fared well until the seventh inning when they secured eight hits and scored nine runs. McCary knocked a home run over the right field fence in the nightcap.

CARDINALS STILL LOSE

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Guns were spiked generally along the baseball front yesterday as the major league games moved into position for another series of inter-sectional battles, but the Cardinals found time to lose their tenth straight game while waiting for the other teams to swing into action. The champions were accommodated yesterday by nobody but the Phillies, who obligingly dropped 20 out of 22 to St. Louis last year.

Jess Haines made as if to slip a fast one past Charlie Klein, first Philadelphia batsman in the ninth inning, after Klein had refused to bite at two wide hooks, the fast one was Klein's liking and he drove it high over the right field wall of Baker Bowl to give the Phils a 10 to 9 decision. It was his twentieth home run, and enabled him to keep pace with Chick Hafey, of St. Louis, who picked up his own twentieth early in the game. Bottomley and Whitney were other home run hitters.

The defeat left the Cards sagging at the bottom of the first division, only three games ahead of an improved Brooklyn team. The reverse marked the sixteenth for St. Louis in the last eighteenth games.

The Reds, who hold the Giants in no awe, will come to the Polo grounds for two games on the Sabbath after a farewell brush with Pittsburgh today. And the fast-moving Pirates will settle themselves at Ebbett's Field. Brooklyn will entertain at the Polo grounds today.

The trip of the Cubs to Boston is particularly important for the Bruins who have been none too successful away from Wrigley Field since McCarthy took charge in 1926. The Bruins did have a good record in the east last May, and Chicago supporters hope for another such showing. Any contender who can make two conquests of enemy territory in a season, and get something near an even break on the third trip, usually has taken many strides toward a pennant.

As the Pirates and the Cubs give each other heart failure in the dash toward the National League stretch, Cornelius McGillicuddy moves serenely toward his seventh flag with his two nearest rivals, the Yankees and the Browns, nine and one-half games to the rear. The Mackmen open a series at Chicago today as the Yankees and the Browns begin a fight to see which shall hold second place for the moment.

The Indians turned back the White Sox by 11 to 10 in a groggy game at Cleveland yesterday prior to the arrival of Boston in Cleveland and of Washington in Detroit for two stirring series. The victory gave the Indians an edge of four games to two in the extended holiday engagement.

Water wells sometimes are as highly valued in dry western Texas as oil wells. One ranchman was so pleased when drillers struck water that he gave them a banquet.

Split Season For The East Carolina Circuit

Durham, July 6.—(AP)—Goldboro and Rocky Mount have yielded to the majority to make the vote unanimous for a split season to begin the last half games with those of Monday, July 8th. Judge W. O. Brahmham, president of the league, announced here today.

The clubs, according to Judge Brahmham, have yielded against their own wishes and judgment and solely because it is made to appear to them that to do so is for the vital interest of the whole circuit.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, July 6.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 8 to 13 points under week-end liquidation promoted by uncertainty over the showing of the government acreage reports on Monday and relatively easy Liverpool cables.

There was some trade buying to fix prices and after selling off to 17.82 at the start, July rallied to 18.03, or 3 points net higher. Later months rallied 6 or 7 points from the lowest on covering.

The selling continued, however, and the market was no better than steady at the end of the first half-hour, with active months showing net declines to 1 to 1 points. Another private report was issued this morning, placing the increase in acreage at 32 per cent and the area under cultivation at 48,496,000 acres. Private cables said there had been liquidation and selling by the continent and Bombay in the Liverpool market. The amount of cotton on shipment awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 65,000 bales against 63,000 last year.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, July 6.—(AP)—Heavy general profit taking sales which set in today after new advances in price sent the wheat market down-grade in lively fashion at times. A break of 4c a bushel on wheat was witnessed in some cases. Showers scattered over the drought region northwest had much to do with bringing about the reaction as did big receipts of domestic wheat in the southwest.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-1/8 to 3-1/4 under yesterday's finish; corn closed 1-4 to 1-3/4 down; oats 5-8 to 1-1/4 off, and provisions varying from 5c decline to an equal gain.

STOCK MARKET

New York, July 6.—(AP)—The stock market encountered rather heavy week-end profit-taking in today's two-hour session, but vigorous resumption of bullish operations in the main, and some of the specialties checked the decline and losses were generally reduced before the close.

The gain of $327,000,000 in Federal Reserve brokers' loans announced last night, had a chilling effect upon speculative sentiment for the moment, and tended to augment the normal week-end liquidation, although an increase of that magnitude was clearly indicated by the large gain in stock exchange member loans as June 29, announced earlier in the week.

Although the upturn in brokers' loans as reported by the Federal Reserve carried the total to within $24,000,000 of the record level reached on March 20, the gain was attributed largely to the heavy new financing, coincident with the mid-year money pinch, and did not cause the apprehension that large increases have caused previously. Wall street is now inclined to the opinion that the Federal Reserve Bank has accepted a "hands off" policy toward the stock market for the time being.

Another reduction of 1-8 of one per cent in the shorter maturities of bankers' acceptances today was regarded as heightening the prospect of better credit conditions during the coming weeks. It is expected that the final clearing of mid-year settlement checks may keep money fairly firm next week, but marked improvement is looked for later.

Cash Thrashing was a buoyant feature of the market, jumping 28 points to a record price at 350. Eastman Kodak was again buoyant on rumors of a split-up and reached a new record above 300, rising more than 8 points. Peoples Gas jumped 5 points to a new top, and Allied Chemical, United Carbon, Simmons, Underwood Elliott Fisher, Ludlum Steel, Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific preferred were sent to new peaks.

Transactions were generally light, owing to the absence from town of many traders. Total sales approximated 1,250,000 shares. The market closed fairly steady.

Interest Revives In The American; Money Pouring In

Chicago, July 6.—(AP)—Turnstiles at American league parks, all but rusty for three years because of Yankee domination of the pennant race, are clicking merrily again and the half-starved club treasurers are becoming fat with gold.

Interest in the race this season is so keen, President E. S. Barnard of the junior circuit reports, that despite poor weather and numerous postponements of Saturday and Sunday games, the total attendance may exceed that of 1928 by more than a million.

The change in leadership has been one of the biggest causes for the interest and larger gates," Barnard said. "For three seasons, New York was in front. This year we find Philadelphia leading but with New York and St. Louis hanging on tenaciously and Detroit also having a chance.

"With Philadelphia playing away from home for a few weeks starting today, there is an excellent opportunity for both St. Louis and Detroit to narrow the gap existing between them and the league leaders.

"A number of promising young players also have helped swell the attendances. They are adding color to the sport and as they will be the stars of the future, the fans come out to see them in action. They are building up their individual followings already, and they should increase in size as the season gets older."

CAR STRIKERS QUIET TODAY IN LOUISIANA

New Orleans, July 6.—(AP)—After two nights and a day of wild disorder, striking street carmen and their sympathizers rested today while representatives of the company and union sought to find a common ground for negotiation.

The disorders which swept through Canal street all of yesterday and spread into other regions continued into the night, resulting in the burning of five street cars, the throwing of dynamite into the Police and setting fire to the Clisborne avenue street car bridge.

While property damage was estimated at $50,000, last night's troubles brought a minimum of human injury. So far two strikers have been killed, one shot through the shoulder and hundreds hurt by flying bricks, sticks and splintering glass.

The quiet of today was attributed mainly to fatigue, the rioters having worn themselves out by long hours of fighting against the operation of street cars. Police continued to maintain heavy guards around the company's property by the addition of special police.

Hot heads among the strikers were all set at midnight to deliver a mass attack against imported non-union carmen but the special train which brought them in was shunted out on sidings until the strikers lost trace of it. The operators, brought in from the east and branded by union leaders as "professional strike-breakers" were held today on the special train outside of New Orleans ready to come in if the temper of the strikers cooled.

Vexed at losing the out of town carmen, the crowd attacked the Canal street bar in the early hours of the morning and after stoning the buildings and parked street cars, started the fire. The police sought vainly to break up the crowd with tear gas bombs but they would scatter and then reassemble.

Firemen tried to prevent dynamite thrown into the Poland barn from exploding by drenching it with water, but it went off. Miraculously the explosions did little damage. All up and down Canal street, tracks were blocked and torn up and several hours' labor of a crew before cars can be operated.

The city commission council let stand its order to the Public Service, Inc. to postpone further efforts to operate cars and the police were making some headway breaking up crowds.

RESTRAIN DISPOSAL OF $12,000 FINE

San Francisco, July 6.—(AP)—An order temporarily restraining the State Athletic Commission from disposing of $12,000, the fine imposed on Ace Hudkins, Nebraska middleweight fighter, was issued yesterday by Superior Judge E. P. Shorthall.

The commission was summoned to show cause, on July 12, why the order should not be made permanent.

Purses of Hudkins and Charley Belanger, Canadian light heavyweight, were held up after their ten round fight here June 28, because it was claimed they "didn't fight."

FIVE PERSONS ARE PAROLED BY GOVERNOR

Raleigh, N. C., July 6.—(AP)—Governor O. Max Gardner today paroled five more prisoners, making 15 given their freedom this week.

Jake Wright, white man, sentenced in Randolph county in 1924 to serve eight to twelve years for manslaughter, was given his freedom.

The governor said that he had received many strong recommendations for clemency for Wright, including one from the trial solicitor, and that he was informed that the "old man" had committed the homicide when some rowdy boys gathered at his place of business. He said that he had decided to give Wright, who has a good prison record, another chance.

David Bryan, negro, sentenced in 1916 in Craven county to serve 30 years for murder in the second degree, was paroled.

The governor reported that he had hundreds of applications urging pardon.

D. L. Thomas, Herford county man, sentenced in March, 1927, to serve two years for operating an automobile while under the influence of whiskey, had his sentence suspended upon condition that he refrain from further drinking.

Wade Pipes, sentenced in November, 1926, in Caldwell county, to serve 18 months for larceny, was paroled by the governor, who said he was acting solely on the request of the prosecutor of the case who said that he "did not really believe Pipes guilty of the crime for which he was convicted."

Raphael Crawford, sentenced in Surry county in February, 1929, to serve eight months for violation of the prohibition laws, was also paroled. The trial judge recommended the parole.

Hoover Visits Fishing Preserve

Madison, Va., July 6.—(AP)—The presidential party of seven was sequestered today from the cares and stress of administration duties at the Hoover fishing preserve in the Blue Ridge Mountains near here after their hard drive yesterday over over rain soaked roads from Washington.

With the president were Mrs. Hoover and their son, Herbert, Jr., Dr. Vernon Kellogg, permanent secretary of the National Research Council, and Mark Sullivan and William Hard, news writers. They expect to return to the capital late tomorrow.

The party was led into the mountains by Mrs. Hoover and her son, who drove alone in her car to the point where the narrow trail to the camp branches off from the highway. There the whole party assembled and, transferring to smaller cars completed the trip.

Selection of the next meeting place left to the newly elected board of directors

Although the board will not pick the convention city until its fall meeting, it is generally believed that Asheville will be chosen again. Invitations were extended by Gulfport, Miss., and Hendersonville, N. C.

Col. Urey Woodson, of Owensboro, Ky., was appointed chairman of the committee on postage and legislation by President Pohn S. Parks, of Fort Smith, Ark. The other members of this committee are: Major E. B. Ehlman, of Nashville, Tenn.; Col. Robert Erwin, of New Orleans; E. K. Raeylord, of Oklahoma City; H. Gall Braxton, of Kingston, N. C.; and W. T. Anderson, of Macon, Ga. All were reappointed except Colonel Erwin, who was added to the committee.

Resolutions were adopted, commending the retiring officers and standing committees for their work in behalf of the association during the past year, thanking the golf committee and donors of prizes for making the annual tournament a success, and extending the association's sympathy for the death of eight executives of southern newspapers. They were: Capt. W. T. Sheehan, Montgomery Advertiser; Capt. William Rule, Knoxville Journal; Col. W. S. Copeland, Newport News-Press and Times-Herald; Charles B. Gillespie, Houston Chronicle; James E. Holloman; Atlanta Constitution; Tom Finley, Jr., Dallas News; Mrs. John G. Cashman, Vicksburg Post, and Walter Cain, Nashville Banner.
