METHODISTS GIVE VIEWS IN DRY ISSUE

Wickersham's Recent Statement Discussed In Denomination's "Clipsheet."

Washington, July 22.—(AP)—The Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, in its latest publication "Clipsheet," gives its interpretation of the much discussed reference to "modification" of the prohibition laws in the letter of George W. Wickersham, chairman of President Hoover's law enforcement commission, read at the recent governors' conference.

In that letter, addressed to Gov. Roosevelt of New York, the commission chairman suggested that enforcement responsibility be definitely divided between the federal and state governments and that, if this were done, "national and state laws might be modified so as to become reasonable and enforceable."

"Mr. Wickersham," the Methodist board says, "makes use of the unfortunate word 'modification' in a paragraph which seems to suggest an adjustment of state and federal statutes for the purpose of facilitating co-operation in enforcement. Interpretation of 'modification' to imply that state laws may be enacted which in fact legalize alcohol content in beverages prohibited by the federal constitution, is we believe, an entirely mistaken one."

"A standard must be set up and naturally it must be established by the federal authority. It is so established and it is now essential that all of the states should manifest good faith in conforming to this standard and in lending the entire assistance of the state apparatus to enforcement."

"In our opinion it will not be desirable that the federal government should surrender its liberty of action. Even now, citizens in considerable numbers complain that they are not receiving from their local and state police the protection that they are entitled to under the federal constitution. In such cases, where the rights of citizens to security from deprivations of the liquor traffic are ignored, the federal government has the unpleasant duty to intervene, but it is in all cases an unfortunate necessity and greatly to be deplored."

The statement says "it is not at once apparent" why the enforcement commission chairman's suggestions "should be considered revolutionary."

"Mr. George W. Wickersham, chairman of the crime commission, addressed a letter to the twenty-first annual governors' conference, making certain suggestions in regard to the enforcement of the prohibition laws which seem to have been considered sensational," the board relates.

"In brief, Mr. Wickersham suggested: (1) Enforcement in all the states of prohibition enforcement laws, and (2) A recognized definition of federal and state responsibilities in prohibition enforcement, with the federal government limiting its activities to a discharge of purely federal functions and the states doing the detail police and judicial work necessary for the suppression of the illegal retail liquor trade."

"The board of temperance, prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the other dry organizations and leaders have consistently recognized the division between the federal government and the states of responsibility in regard to prohibition enforcement, a division which is clearly and naturally indicated by our form of government."

Indianapolis, Ind., July 22.—(AP)—Confession of Gilbert Ammerman, 29, local taxi driver, that he participated in the $4,000 holdup August 20, 1928, of the Exchange State Bank at Golden, Ill., has exonerated Everett Howell of Quincy, Ill., who has served eight months in the Illinois state penitentiary on conviction of a part in the robbery.

"Identified" by the bank president as one of the bandits, Howell was sentenced to one year to life. John Barnhill, 35, of Peoria, Ill., arrested with him, and also convicted and sentenced, has been at liberty on an appeal bond.

FIVE KILLED IN ACCIDENTS IN THIS STATE

Scores Injured As Automobiles Wreck During Rain In N. C. Sunday.

Charlotte, N. C., July 22.—(AP)—Rainy weather combined with the heavy Sunday automobile traffic yesterday to cause numerous accidents on North Carolina highways. Five persons, four of them negroes, were killed and a score injured.

Mrs. Clarence Johnston, wife of a Cabarrus county farmer, was killed in the head-on collision of the Johnston car with that of Mumford F. Ritchie, Jr., 18, of Concord, on the Concord-Davidson highway. Miss Mary Johnston, 20, of George Hipp, 7, and Lois Hipp, 10, were injured, but are expected to recover. All were riding in the Johnston car.

Ritchie and members of his party escaped injury. Ritchie was arrested, but later released on bond. Four Durham negroes were killed at Bynum. All were passengers in the car of George Staley, negro, who drove his machine into the side of the Haw river bridge. Four other negroes were injured in the wreck. Staley was held without bond pending investigation of the accident.

Albert Chandler, of Philadelphia, and his brother, Carlton Chandler of Spencer, received injuries that necessitated confinement in a hospital when their car skidded and collided with that of a Mrs. Cates, of Greensboro, near Spencer. Robert and Edwin Chandler, brothers, and Mrs. Albert Chandler were injured but less severely. Mrs. Cates was unhurt.

Arthur Cornwall, of Chester, S. C., radio singer, was badly hurt in an accident between Fort Lawn and Bassomville, S. C. He was riding with W. Paul Stroud, of Chester, when the car skidded and overturned. Stroud was uninjured, but J. L. Cuthbertson, another passenger, was badly cut by broken glass.

Actress Leaves Hubby. Hollywood, Cal., July 22.—(AP)—Marie Astaire, screen actress, returning from New York after an absence of a year from Hollywood, announced that she and her husband, Walter Kane, stage actor, have separated. ## Two Convicts Killed In Riot At Dennemora Jail

Albany, N. Y., July 22.—(AP)—Two unidentified convicts were killed by prison guards today in a riot of more than 1,000 of the inmates of Clinton prison at Dennemora, the state department of correction here was advised.

A telephone message received by the department from Warden Harry M. Kalsar at the prison said that the situation was well in hand at noon and that half of the rebellious convicts had returned to their cells.

Albany, N. Y., July 22.—(AP)—Brief reports of the riot at Clinton prison, Dennemora, received today by the state department of correction, said the disturbance began shortly after 8 a. m., when the 1,500 convicts were leaving the mess hall after breakfast to march to the various shops. Two prison guards, Murphy and Manley, were hurt by the rioters. The guards evidently were not able to cope with the outbreak and the convicts swarmed throughout the yard.

One of their first acts was to set fire to the carpenter shop, which burned, with prison officials powerless to extinguish the flames. Employees in the power plant extinguished the fires under the boilers when the rioting began, thus preventing the burning of the power house.

NEGRO BANDIT JAILED AFTER HOLDUP IN PITT

Accessory to Robbery Of Filling Station Near Farmville Also Held Here.

Ruben Hicks negro bandit of New Bern was held in the county jail in this city today charged with the serious injury of Joe Tripp during the robbery of Tripp's filling station, on the Greenville-Farmville road about two miles east of Farmville, early Saturday morning. Walter Brimage, Farmville negro was also held charged with being an accessory to the crime.

Both the negroes were taken into custody at Farmville shortly after the holdup had been staged and were brought to Greenville and placed in jail. They will be held in prison without bond until the August term of Pitt county Superior court when they will face trial.

The condition of Mr. Tripp, who was beaten over the head with a cart round by Hicks, was still uncertain today. While conscious and able to converse intelligently of the robbery, attending physicians were unable to say how seriously his condition is. It was thought at first that Mr. Tripp had suffered a fractured skull, and while the fact had not been definitely determined today, the doctors held out hope that this condition had been avoided.

After flooring the filling station operator with the cart round which he had stolen from a cart that previously had stopped at the station, the bandit stole a sum of money estimated at $30.00 and escaped to Farmville. He had hardly reached town and turned the money over to Brimage before county officers took them into custody.

FOUR PERSONS DIE IN WRECK OF AIRPLANES

Accidents Occur At Chicago And The Other In The State Of Nebraska.

Chicago, July 22.—(AP)—Four persons were killed yesterday in two airplane crashes in the middle-west—one here and the other at North Platte, Neb.

Jens Jensen, 28, and Miss Hilda Schaufelberg, 21, were killed and Miss Pauline Taylor, 28, was critically injured when Jensen's plane fell. The engine stalled and the plane went into a tail spin, landing near the Akers airport, west of Chicago.

County police said they learned the women had given Jensen, who was not licensed as a commercial pilot, $5 to take them aloft. "Frozen" controls were believed to have caused the North Platte accident.

Henry Oldham, pilot for the Midwest Aviation Corporation, was instructing Mike Ryan in flying. They had been in the air nearly an hour and were about to land when the crash occurred near the North Platte municipal airport. Both Oldham and Ryan were killed. They lived at North Platte.

REPUBLICANS PUSH WORK ON TARIFF ISSUE

Members Of Tariff Committee Want Rewrite Complete In Time For Congress.

Washington, July 22.—(AP)—Republicans of the Senate finance committee focused their attention today upon the difficult task of re-writing the House tariff bill.

Party leaders are insistent that they finish the job in time to have a report ready for submission to the Senate in August. Chairman Smoot is hopeful but not confident that this can be done, although he shares with other members of the administration group the desire to have the legislation out of the way on the statute books before the regular session of Congress begins in December.

Increasing discussion of the possibility that the committee Republicans may decide to cut down on an extensive scale to prevent, in the House's budget only non-commercial answers from the chairman, never going beyond his remark that "some will go down and some will go up."

While the Republicans are working out their draft of the bill, the Democratic members of the committee, excluded from those sessions, plan to meet in another room to develop their own program in preparation for the long, hard contest to come in the Senate. Democratic leaders have repeatedly expressed themselves as having no desire to prevent enactment of the legislation before the special session ends, but they are determined to prevent, if possible, many of the increases which have been proposed.

The Republican independent group, which does not include any of the members of the committee, is preparing, meanwhile, to work for limitation of upward revision of tariff rates, chiefly to agricultural products. Some members of that group, recalling the success of its coalition with the Democrats during the farm relief debate in forcing the House to vote on the export debenture proposal, are counting on obtaining support for their tariff position from the minority ranks.

The first task before the committee Republicans today was consideration of the proposed changes in the basis of fixing valuations for foreign products. The House voted to allow the fixing of valuations on the basis of American prices in some instances, instead of requiring that they be based on foreign costs.

Troy, N. C., July 22.—(AP)—Alleged to have been implicated in sales of narcotics over various sections of the country for a long time, T. L. Garret, alias Smith, said to be from Charlotte, and Charlie Outlaw, alias C. Johnson, alias C. Nelson, alias C. Plumber, of Darlington, S. C., are today behind the bars of the Montgomery county jail.

Their arrest was effected yesterday afternoon by narcotic agents L. H. Fouche and C. E. Miller, who had been registered at a local hotel for five days awaiting the arrival of the two men.

According to the officers, approximately a dozen ounces of morphine the value of which is estimated in thousands of dollars, was found in the possession of the two men, who refused to talk. A Buick sedan was also confiscated.

Garret was arrested when he drove up to the hotel. Outlaw was located two miles away, at the house of a negro. Morphine and money was found caught near-by the officers, said.

JONES TURNS DOWN JOB AS POLICE HEAD

Police Patrol Lieutenant Sends Letter Of Regret To Mayor Of Greenville.

Lester Jones, lieutenant of the State Highway patrol, today declined to accept the position of chief of police of Greenville recently offered by the Board of Aldermen. In declining the offer the former chief of police said in his opinion, it would be detrimental to him to accept the appointment.

Mr. Jones said he appreciated the interest the aldermen and people of Greenville had taken in him and that it would be a pleasure for him to serve the city, but circumstances at this time prevented him doing so.

The letter in detail follows: Hon. J. C. Lainer, Mayor, Greenville, North Carolina.

My dear Mr. Lainer: In reply to yours of recent date advising me of my election as Chief of Police of Greenville, North Carolina, I beg to advise that after due consideration, it is my opinion that it would be detrimental to me to accept the appointment.

I fully appreciate the interest that you and the members of the Board of Aldermen have taken in me and it would be a great pleasure to me to serve you gentlemen, but under the circumstances, I am forced to decline the appointment.

CITY SCHOOLS AGAIN GET ON THE A-1 LIST

State Department Gives Elementary Schools Highest Rating Obtainable.

All the Elementary Schools of the Greenville City system have again been placed on the list of standard schools, in the 1-A group by the State Department of Education. Superintendent Rose received notice of this, this morning. The 1-A rating is the highest rating that an elementary school can obtain in this scheme. The Evans Street school, Intermediate school, Training school, and the West Greenville school are the schools receiving this rating. The State Department of Education started this scheme of rating the elementary schools in the year 1924 and since the scheme was started the Greenville Elementary schools have received this rating every year. This whole idea has been an effort on the part of the State Department of Education to raise the level of the elementary schools throughout the State.

It is also an effort on the part of the State Department of Education to make the people realize that the lower grades of school systems ought to receive as much consideration in the way of trained teachers and equipment as the High Schools receive. In the year 1924 there were 26 county standard schools and 36 standard schools of which Greenville had 3. During the past year there were 208 standard county schools and 118 standard city schools. Some of the elements which go into the rating of these schools are as follows: Enrollment, average daily attendance, quality of teaching, type of buildings, kind of equipment, and library facilities. It is interesting to know that in 1924 there were only twenty nine thousand volumes in the libraries of the standard elementary schools and during the past year it showed that the standard elementary schools have two hundred and seventy five thousand volumes.

It is an interesting fact also in regard to circulating records in the year 1924 when all the standard elementary schools showed only 228,000 borrowers of books from their libraries and in the past year the figures show that 1,200,000 borrowers of books from the elementary libraries. 1-A is the highest group, 1-B is the next highest, 2-A next and 2-B next.

El Paso, Texas, July 22.—(AP)—Official recommendation for a large border patrol and the lifting of regulations prohibiting federal officers from firing at suspected border runners attempting to cross the border at night may result from the slaying Saturday of Ivan E. Spotten, border patrol inspector, by rum runners.

Declaring it was almost murder to send inspectors on patrol duty, H. C. Horseley, chief of the border patrol, indicated his support of the action of the Department of Labor would contain such a request.

Scotten, 26, a former Texas athlete, was shot when a band, believed to be rum runners, attacked a group of federal officers from ambush. In a pitched battle that followed one of the attackers was known to have been killed, the officers reported. The remainder of the band escaped and no trace of them has been found.

Scotten was the fourteenth border patrolman killed on duty. Federal officers estimated that during the time the fourteen were slain, 100 or more liquor or siren smugglers have been killed in battles with federal men in or near El Paso. The El Paso district is said to be the most hazardous and dangerous of any along the border.

The discovery of a Mexican's body in the sand hills west of El Paso and just over the boundary in Mexico caused federal officers to believe, they said, that a war between rival liquor hi-jackers is under way. The man's body was surrounded by several liquor cans, shot full of holes.

Edmonton, Alta., July 22.—(AP)—Captain Ross G. Hoyt's attempted flight from New York to Nome, Alaska, and return, has ended in a crash near Valemont, B. C., he was on his way here from White Horse, Yukon, on the third leg of his homeward trip.

The United States Army flier escaped injury, but his Curtiss Hawk plane was wrecked. Hoyt had been expected to arrive back at Mitchell Field, N. Y., today if he maintained his pace. He had battled wind and rain since Thursday with practically no sleep and had covered nearly 6,000 miles. He left Mitchell Field at 2:38 p. m., New York time, Thursday.

Bad weather in Alberta forced him down. He lost 12 hours on the northward flight and tried to make up lost time. A message sent from Fairbanks, Alaska, told of a "touch trip" to Nome and return, with rain and low clouds the entire distance.

From Fairbanks Captain Hoyt flew back to White Horse, a distance of 500 miles. He hoped to be again at 11 a. m., yesterday. Yukon time, hoping to cover the 1,100 miles to Edmonton and the 1,000 miles more to Minneapolis by this morning. From Minneapolis he would have had 1,025 miles more to New York.

Two Persons Killed In Mexican Train Wreck. Mexico City, July 22.—(AP)—Two were killed and 50 injured when the passenger train yesterday from Jalapa to Vera Cruz was derailed at Lasrappo, Vera Cruz. Two second class coaches overturned. A relief train was sent from Vera Cruz.

Russo-Chinese Crisis Tense As Powers Try To Avert Hostilities

Chinese President

Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, president of the Nanking government, has summoned government officials to discuss the Russian situation.

Japanese Dispatch From Nanking Says The Nationalist Government Has Decided To Appeal To League Of Nations In Event Russia Should Take Some positive Action On Controversy.

(By the Associated Press.) The Russo-Chinese crisis entered its second week today with a tense situation growing along the Manchurian border as the powers sought to avert hostilities.

Although the governor of Manchuria reported that Russians opened attack on the Chinese on the eastern border of Manchuria Saturday, there were no northern dispatches to support the likelihood of a definite Russian invasion.

Japanese dispatches from Nanking said the Nationalist government had decided to appeal to the League of Nations in the event that Russia should take some "positive" action in the controversy.

Official Chinese reports said the diplomatic body at Peking expected that the United States would form "an international arbitration commission" of Kellogg pact signatories to consider the situation.

Meanwhile, efforts will be continued to induce the Chinese and Russians to withdraw their heavy forces along the border where clashes might easily occur.

Red cavalry were reported near Manchuria at the western end of the Chinese Eastern Railway, while white Russian bands numbering 2,000 were said to have formed a defense line with their arms.

Soviet airplanes were reported to have been fired on over Pogranichnaya, border city on the Eastern terminus of the railway.

Tokyo dispatches from Harbin said Wan Fu Ling, governor of Kailuankiang district of Manchuria, would be appointed commander-in-chief of the western front with 60,000 troops, and Li Chen-Sheng, governor of Kirin district, commander-in-chief with 300,000 men on the eastern front.

Rengo dispatches said Red cavalry had advanced to within half a mile of Manchuria, at the western end of the Chinese Eastern Railway, where the rival armies were camped less than a mile apart. Japanese representatives of both Manchuria and Pogranichnaya have fled to Harbin upon the advice of their consuls, who viewed the situation as dangerous.

A detachment of Chinese heavy artillery with 30,000 men arrived at Tsitsihar from Shanhaikwan, this (Chihli) province.

At Pogranichnaya the Chinese were said to have fired upon the four Soviet planes which had been given demonstrations over the city. The planes were not struck and as warning to the Chinese dropped a number of bombs on Russian territory.

In explanation of the border situation it was pointed out that the communications were slow and the purported attitude of the houses of governments toward the controversy, choosing rather to settle it by peaceful means than war, had not yet been conveyed to the rival military forces.

Both C. T. Wang, at Changhai, and Rudzutak at Moscow, Saturday professed to wish for amicable solution of the difficulty, and it was believed that as a result tension would decrease. This has not been the case at least in Manchuria, although it may eventuate within a day or so.

In contrast to the peaceful utterances of Dr. Wang and M. Rudzutak some pointed out the firm and vigorous tone of the Nationalist government's manifesto to the world and President Chiang's message to the army to rise up against "Red imperialism."

Tokyo, July 22.—(AP)—The foreign office today stated it was still officially without information that Secretary of State Stimson and Foreign Minister Briand, of France, are giving their attention to the Russo-Chinese crisis and its relation to the Kellogg pact.

The government has been kept informed through the press, but it is understood that the only official Washington newspapers of Saturday morning on Secretary Stimson's press conference Friday afternoon. On account of this situation, therefore, it is stated that the Japanese official attitude is that no comment can be made or adherence to the Franco-American move for peace announced, because of lack of information whether any such move actually has been made.

The foreign office spokesman today professed to be mystified by Washington press dispatches and expressed doubt whether communications really have been made to Russia and China, adding that if

WILL ASK FOR HEAVY PATROL ON THE BORDER

Slaying Of Patrolmen By Rum Runners In Texas Brings Recommendations.

For the Love of a Lady

By JEFFERY FARNOL

SYNOPSIS: Sir Richard, accused as murderer of his cousin at the inquest, and facing a hopeless mass of evidence given by perjuring enemies, decides to quit his hiding-place in the inn. The next day Helen D'Arcy sees a vaguely familiar country youth working on the lawn about her home. In answer to her surprised question, the rustic youth says his name is Dick-Dick Fullalove, the new "odd man." Viscount Brocklehurst comes to press his hopeless suit. Walking across lawns with Helen, they discover a ragged slip of paper—a note—which Brocklehurst grasps eagerly and starts to read its contents when Helen demands it.

Chapter 25.
A SINISTER CLUE
Reluctantly, the Viscount passed the note to Helen's hand, and laboriously she deciphered the awkward scrawl:

"I write this to inform you it is now certainly known that upon the murderer's pistol-hand was a cat's-eye ring. Which ring is yet in possession of murderer. Find this and the man stands confessed. Diligently search the Guyford Arms chambers and effects of the divers gentleman. . . your labors will not be . . . vain. "Strange!" murmured Helen. "How came this here, I wonder?" "Ah . . . cat's-eye ring" muttered the Viscount.

"It was my ring" she said thoughtfully. "But you gave it to Guyford, eh, madam?" "Never!" "Why then . . . tis very evident he found it!" "Nay, 'twas the murderer found it."

"And is he not the murderer proclaimed?" "True," nodded my lady, "proclaimed but not proved."

Now at this moment was a tuneless whistling, and down one of the paths came a man trundling a wheelbarrow, a tall, gypsy-seeming fellow, to whom my lady beckoned and, crumpling up the paper, tossed it into the barrow.

It was evening as Master Titus Oldcraft clattered into the yard of the Guyford Arms and espying a tall, gypsy-seeming fellow, what chanced to be gazing at all and sundry, Master Titus gruffly called to him to take his horse. When the country fellow moved not, and gaped only more, Titus cursed him roundly but at this moment Viscount Brocklehurst rode into the yard, and Titus, having the very greatest respect for the Viscount, instantly checked his furious tirade and, taking off dusty hat, bowed with utmost deference.

The Viscount nodded sulkily, and rode on across the wide yard, but having dismounted he stood a moment eyeing the dusty Oldcraft with eyes furtive yet keen.

"You're the constable fellow, ain't you?" inquired the Viscount. "From London, ain't you?" "Ay, my lord, I am. All day and night too, my lord, if necessary."

"Well, well—how's your luck?" "Bad, my lord; bad, I must confess," sighed Oldcraft, shaking his lank head. "I've no luck so far, but I'm on his track, my lord—"

"Are ye so, are ye, now?" "Indeed, my lord—though 'tis very evident the country folk hereabouts are aiding him, my lord."

"Ha, d'ye think so?" "My lord, I'm convinced of it. They're aiding and abetting him, my lord, comforting, sustaining, ah, and warning him, my lord. This very morning word comes of him being at Hittington, so to Hittington we go, only to hear he's gone on to Seaford, so there we go, and hear he's just did off to Brightingelton, so thither we gallop and plaguey hot, my lord, but—"

"Plan" cried the Viscount pettishly. "I do but chase a shadow! The devil, 'y must seek him nearer home, man!"

"Does 'y lordship mean his house of Wear?" "Ay, or thereabouts!" nodded the Viscount. "But then are ye quite sure the murderer is Sir Richard Guyford?"

"Who else, my lord?" "Ay, that's the question—why?—the dead man had other enemies aplenty," said And then, what's all this I'm hearing of a cat's-eye ring, eh?"

"My lord, I've heard no mention of such."

"Not . . . not heard on't? 'Tis said the murderer wore a ring set with a cat's-eye stone. 'Tis whispered everywhere—are ye deaf? Are ye blind?"

Thrusting sudden hand into the pocket of his flower-embroidered waistcoat, the Viscount fumbled there impatiently, and presently drew thence a crumpled paper, and thrust into Master Oldcraft's ready hand the note lady Helen had tossed into the gardener's barrow.

"Well?" demanded the Viscount, while Oldcraft stared at this torn paper. "Well?"

"Very well, my lord, ay, unless it be a hum, my lord, a hoax."

"Tush!" exclaimed the Viscount. "My lord, whence had ye this?" "I picked it up in the garden at the Moat House."

"And how," said Oldcraft, frowning at the letter, "how should it come there, my lord?"

"A T k z . . . shrdlcmfwcmfwbgvbkq . . . 'Twas found and there it is, hoax or no."

"Why, it may be no hoax, my lord. W' your lordship's kind permission, I'll keep it—"

"Why, then, keep it, man. Act on it or do what ye will."

"Act on it?" repeated Oldcraft. "Doth your lordship mean search the apartments of you gentlemen?"

"Do as 'y will, fellow, all's one to me."

"Pray, my lord, how many gentlemen lodge here at present?" "You should know this," retorted the Viscount.

"Why, my lord, so I do. There was my lord Carberry, but he's gone back to London. There's Mr. Trumpington, but he's away—which leaves Captain Despard and—"

"Myself," nodded the Viscount. "Very true, my lord. As to this cat's eye ring now—hath your lordship any suspicions, any—"

"No, not I! I'm no constable, so—"

"Here, chancing to catch sight of the country fellow gorging at him over the half-door, Viscount Brocklehurst stopped to point at him with his whip:

"Ha, will 'y stare at your betters, rascal, will 'y peep, will 'y pry?" "Ay!" quoth the fellow and knocking an eyebrow, he chuckled.

"What . . . who—ho is he?" "A half-wit, I judge, sir," answered Master Oldcraft, also scowling at the fellow in question. "Now concerning this—cat's-eye ring, my lord," persisted Master Titus, "to search this inn I must have a warrant."

"Well, Sir John Parre, is a justice—"

"True, my lord, but Sir John is away at Lewes and—"

"Tush!" exclaimed the Viscount, and strode away into the house.

whither, after momentary hesitation, Master Oldcraft ventured to follow him.

The next morning was hot, slumberous and still; the country fellow sprawled upon one of the broad, hospitable settles before the Guyford Arms; a stalwart, loose-limbed fellow in patched and stained smock-frock, his gaitered legs and heavy boots dusty with travel. Motionless he lay, long legs outstretched, dozing.

After some while, Tom Pitt appeared, soft treading despite heavy, spurred boots, but on his way to the inn-yard paused a moment to stare with his narrow countryman asrawl on the western worm settle.

"You're a stranger hereabouts, eh, friend?" he questioned. The countryman snored gently, whereupon Tom Pitt stooped to peer under the wide-eaved hat, but seeing no more than a dark, sunburned cheek, ventured to poke the sleeper gently with his whip.

"A stranger, eh?" Pitt repeated, and at the same time gave vigorous shoves and pulls to the sprawled body of the sleeping youth.

The man stirred, muttering sleepily. "Romany . . . my son—"

"Aha, a gypsy!" quoth Pitt, and betook himself to the stables, whence he issued presently on horseback, and trotted away, while from the shadow of shapeless hat the countryman watched him out of sight with eyes remarkably keen and wideawake.

Photographer Dies When Engine Goes Into Ravine in N. H.

Mount Washington, N. H., July 22.—(AP)—Several hundred persons, including the governors of seven states, who assembled here Saturday to witness the final run of the celebrated old locomotive, "Old Peppers" up Mount Washington, returned to their homes today sobered by a tragedy which claimed the life of one person and brought destruction of the old engine.

V. S. Rossiter, of Arlington, Mass., a photographer, was hurled to his death as the locomotive, out of control, sped down the steep slope. The accident occurred after the engine had reached the top of the mountain a feat which it first accomplished back in 1869. Rossiter, it is believed, held on too long in an attempt to save his camera, after something had given away causing the engineer to lose control. The other passengers jumped to safety. The engine tore up the rails and crashed into a ravine where it was blown into bits when the boiler exploded.

Many of those who had assembled as guests of the state of New Hampshire and the Boston & Maine Railroad, to see "Old Peppers" rededicated after having served as a museum piece since 1893, were marooned for hours in the bitter cold on the second highest peak east of the Rocky Mountains. The ill-fated locomotive, in crashing over the trestle, tore up so many ties that immediate repairing was impossible.

The governors, who had come here from the annual governors' conference at New London, Conn., last week, included, Hammill, Iowa; Christianson, Minnesota; Caulfield, Missouri, and Dern, of Utah.

BOGIE LEADS BOAT RACE ON MISSISSIPPI

off from Canal street Sunday afternoon at 3:04:30.

The "Bogie" soon jumped into a commanding lead. The first sighting at Donaldsonville, La., at 7:20 p. m., gave the Memphis entry a margin of 15 miles over the "Martha Jane."

The first stop, at Baton Rouge, for refueling of the "Bogie," found the boat gaining rapidly and on up the stream it was given an estimated fifty-mile advantage over the palatial yacht. The race was pitched on a five-cent bet.

Plaquemine, La., 20 miles below Baton Rouge, reported that the New Orleans boat was holding a speed of about 20 miles an hour when the craft trailed the "Bogie" to reach that point at 11:45.

The record the boats are trying to beat was set by the world famed old packet Robert E. Lee, when that steamboat beat the Natchez to St. Louis by about six hours, arriving on the Fourth of July, 1870.

To Replenish U. S. Whiskey Supply

Washington, July 22.—(AP)—Five or six distilleries will be given permission by the prohibition bureau in the near future to resume the production of whiskey in the United States to replenish medicinal supplies.

In making that announcement, Commissioner Doran, said the nation's government guarded supply of medicinal whiskey had dwindled since distilling was halted under the eighteenth amendment to 9,549,071 gallons.

About 1,500,000 gallons are withdrawn from this stock each year and, taking probable evaporation into consideration, the total is considered sufficient to meet legal requirements for only five years.

About 2,000,000 gallons, the commissioner announced, will be produced next year so that the requirement for four-year aging can be complied with and, allowing for evaporation of 400,000 gallons, provide a full year's supply in storage in 1934.

The distilleries will resume operation under government supervision and will be allowed to produce about 1,400,000 gallons of bourbon and 600,000 gallons of rye.

FIRST UNION SERVICE HELD SUNDAY NIGHT

Rev. W. S. Harden Delivered Opening Sermon Of Summer Series At High School.

The first of the series of union services scheduled for the city during the summer months was held in the auditorium of the new high school building last night at 8 o'clock. The service was well attended despite inclement weather and much interest was manifested in the opening message by Rev. W. S. Harden, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The services will continue every Sunday night hereafter until the latter part of August. The final sermon will be preached by Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church.

The services last summer were held on the court house lawn, but owing to the fact that the benches used at that time were destroyed by fire it was decided to change to the new high school auditorium one of the most commodious places of the kind in the city. While the crowd last night was small to what it would have been had it not been for the continuous rainfall at the church hour, much enthusiasm was manifested by those present and the song service under the direction of J. H. Rose, was lively and formed a splendid setting for the evening's message.

Mr. Harden spoke on the subject, "From Misery to Happiness." His text was taken from the twenty-second chapter of Job: "Oh, that I were in months past as in the days when God saved me!" The speaker pictured Job as the most miserable man in the world, yet not as miserable as the Christian who has once been active but has become cold, indifferent and back-slidden.

The reason for that, Mr. Harden said, was because he had just enough religion to make him miserable—just enough to keep him dissatisfied and not enough to make him happy. Another reason was that he had tasted some of the real permanent joy for active service and had lost them.

The cause of this back-slidden condition is sin and usually begins by the sin of omission. This was true in the case of Job, although he did not realize it at first.

Mr. Harden held out the possibility of a person not only getting over his misery but becoming the happiest person in the world by doing as Job did, confessing his sin and asking God to forgive him. Any person who will do this, he said, will experience joy of forgiven sin and renewed fellowship with God.

Springfield, Mo., July 22.—(AP)—An open safety pin and a piece of pongee cloth, eight inches wide and a yard long, was removed from the esophagus of Mrs. Mary Blais, 30, of Springfield, by Doctors W. C. Cheek and Jay Sibly here yesterday. Relatives of the woman were unable to explain how Mrs. Blais happened to swallow the pin and cloth Saturday night.

The pin's point was lodged in the wall of the cloth wadded down on top of it.

Describes Husband As Public Menace

Atlanta, July 22.—(AP)—Describing Robert Edward Burns, Chicago editor and fugitive convict recently returned to the Georgia chain-gang, as a hardened criminal, a "menace to society," and a fraud in his claim of world war distinction, Mrs. Burns has written the state prison commission asking that her husband's petition for clemency be denied.

Mrs. Burns admitted in an affidavit filed with the commission that she "tipped off" Chicago authorities to the editor's identity as an escaped convict, but denied any motives of jealousy, although she said her husband had left her for another woman.

Burns escaped from the chain-gang in 1922, after serving but a few months of a six to ten year sentence for an armed robbery which netted him less than five dollars. He went to Chicago and founded a commercial magazine from which he was reported drawing a $20,000 salary when apprehended.

Burns was re-arrested in Chicago in May. His appeal for clemency will be heard during the first week in August.

GREENS TAKE TWO STRAIGHT FROM SCOTS

Fayetteville, N. C., July 20.—Stan Johnson, Highlander curve ball pitcher, and Skelton, robust Greenville twirler, were pitted this afternoon in a beautiful pitchers' battle which the Greene pitcher won, 3 to 2, on sacrifice hits by his mate.

Nalbock started the game with a double to left, was sacrificed to third and came home on Hiller's fly to Finlator. Hiller doubled in the fourth and scored on Kendall's hit over second. Crump, who bunted to gain first, went to second when Hiller scored, was sacrificed to third, and scored on Edmond's fly to MacKie. Skelton secured the only hit issued by Johnson after that inning.

The Greenville pitcher was in several tight places but pitched himself out. In the sixth he walked Bennin to fill the bases, forced in Crowe by walking Johnson, but retired the side by fanning Partridge and Frisbie.

PIRATES GET INTO NATIONAL LEAD AGAIN

(By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Donie Bush's Pittsburgh Pirates have cruised back into the National League lead, displacing the Chicago Cubs whose latest tenure of office lasted just twenty-four hours. It took two fine pitching performances to reinstate the Pirates to the top of the heap; Rem Krenmer, the big Frenchman who has been making a gallant come-back this season, held the New York Giants to five hits as the Corsairs triumphed, 5 to 3, while over in Brooklyn the old Cub nemesis, Dazzy Vance, gave the Bruins five scattered safeties and beat them, 3 to 1. The net result was to drop the Cubs back into second place, a game behind Pittsburgh.

Krenmer had to be at his best to hand up his 12th victory of the season. The Pirates got only eight hits but bunched five of them with Fred Leach's mull of a fly ball to score four runs in the fifth. In the home half of the same inning the Giants tallied twice on three hits. All the Pirates hits were made off Larry Benton, the other Giant twirler, Fitzsimmons and Mays setting the opposition down in order over the last four innings. The triumph gave Pittsburgh an even break in the series and a record of 11 wins and four losses in the east.

Vance struck out ten men in giving the Robins' their first victory of the season over the Cubs. Pat Malone weakened in the seventh and the Robins scored two runs and then added another in the eighth off Charlie Root. The only Cub run came across in the fourth when Rogers Hornsby hit a home run.

The St. Louis Cardinals lost both ends of a double bill with the Boston Braves, 4 to 2, and 4 to 3. Lester Bell drove home all the Braves' runs in the first game, three with a home run and the other with a single. Sisler's double with the bases filled in the ninth gave the Braves the second game.

Red Lucas pitched good ball after a shaky start and Cincinnati downed the Phillies, 8 to 5.

Over in the American League, the Philadelphia Athletics lengthened their lead over the New York Yankees to 10 1-2 games, beating Detroit, 10 to 7 in 11 innings, while Cleveland was, downing Huggins' men, 6 to 4.

Kyle Graham, a rookie from the Pacific Coast League, gave the A's plenty of trouble, but they got to him in the eleventh for four runs. The Tigers could score only one run in their half. Bing Miller was the big gun in the Athletic attack, getting five hits, two of them doubles, and driving in three runs.

Waite Hoyt had another off day at Cleveland and the Indians pounded him for 10 hits and all their runs in the first 7 innings. Miller weakened in the latter inning and gave way to Wesley Ferrell who was effective in the pinches.

The rampaging Chicago White Sox, slugged three pitchers for 12 hits to shut out the Boston Red Sox, 10 to 0. Ted Lyons gave the Red Sox only four hits and none got as far as second base.

The St. Louis Browns bunched hits to down the Washington Senators, 8 to 5. Sam Gray, although touched for 12 hits, bore down in the pinches and succeeded in earning his 13th victory of the season.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor.

New York, July 22.—(AP)—The Athletics have passed the tests that baseball observers asserted, would decide the American League pennant race.

The Macmen stood off the world's champion Yankees in the first big test and now, after a crucial trip through the west that started somewhat poorly, have come back home with their big lead substantially intact, well-prepared for the final drive.

Connie Mack has experienced too many disappointments in recent years to start building air castles or additions to Shibe Park when two months of campaigning remain but the veteran leader now has every reason to feel confident he will hear the roar of the world's series crowd once more, after a lapse of 15 years.

The Yankees have made a gallant fight to stay within hailing distance of the Athletics. But the team's general decline, which actually set in last season in spite of a glamorous world's series performance, has been checked.

The "breaks" of baseball have been mostly against the men of Miller Huggins. He failed to solve his worrisome in-field problems. Waite Hoyt and George Pipgras, the two pitching aces, lost some of their effectiveness. Inally, Babe Ruth, after a come-back that seemed to inspire the club, has experienced further damage.

All circumstances considered, the Yankees probably will be fortunate to keep either the Browns or the Tigers from forcing them out of second place before the season closes.

Unless Rogers Hornsby smashes through to win the National League batting championship again—and for the eighth time—a whole new set of title holders probably will be crowned in the Major Leagues.

With the National League champions, St. Louis, about to share the chutes with the Yankees, the world's series prospect is for a combination involving the Athletics with either Pittsburgh or Chicago.

Hornsby still is very much in the running for National League batting honors but Goose Goslin, 1928 American League hitting king, is too far behind to overtake such clubbers as Heinie Manush or Jimmy Cox, the leading contenders now for this honor.

The leading pitchers of a year ago, on the won and lost basis, Alvin Crowder of the Browns and Arty Benton of the Giants, have slumped. Meanwhile lefty Grove, ace of the Athletics, and Burleigh Grimes, Pirate veteran, has established leads that the rest of the twirling talent will find difficult to overcome.

BREMEN MAKES RECORD SPEED OVER ATLANTIC

Newest And Fastest Greyhound, Shattered Its Own Record In Run Sunday.

New York, July 22.—(AP)—The liner Bremen, newest and fastest greyhound, today was near the end of the speediest trans-Atlantic voyage.

Messages from the ship to the office of the North German Lloyd Line, indicated a Sunday's run of 783 miles, one mile more than the world's record she had established on Saturday.

Her speed at one time was 28.25 knots an hour; the day's run showed an average speed of 25.2 knots.

Captain Leopold Ziegenbein said in a radio message that he expected to pass Ambrose Lightship, at the entrance to New York harbor, at 3:30 P. M. today. This would enable the ship to dock at 5:30 P. M., four days, 18 hours and 18 minutes after she left Cherbourg.

The present record, held by the Mauretania, is five days, two hours, 34 minutes. Since the voyage of Columbus, which statisticians say would have consumed 69 days had he followed the path of present day liners, the time for the trans-Atlantic passage has been reduced as man's ingenuity increased. In 1819, the side-wheel steamer Savannah made the voyage from Savannah, Ga., to Liverpool in 26 days. This was reduced to 11 days, 4 hours in 1840 by the steamer Acadia, which set a new record for 9 days, 21 hours in 1840. In 1880, the liner City of Paris established a record of five days, 19 hours, 18 minutes, which remained unchallenged until 1926, when the Mauretania set the present record.

New Yorkers probably will receive letters and postcards before the Bremen docks. Arrangements were made to catapult a plane from her decks when she sighted the first course marker in America waters, Nantucket lightship.

Plans were made for a welcome to the new champion by the city's official reception committee.

MISSOURI ROBIN FORCED DOWN BY LEAKY OIL LINE

St. Louis, July 22.—(AP)—The "Missouri Robin," second of two sister endurance planes to go aloft at Lambert-St. Louis Field in an attempt to set a new record for sustained flight, landed at 7:51 a. m., today after having been in the air 117 hours, 20 minutes. A leaky oil line which they were unable to repair, forced the fliers, Joe Hamner and W. Gentry Shelton, to bring the plane to earth.

The "St. Louis Robin" first of the planes to take the air, continued its flight, entering its tenth day at 7:17 a. m., and passing its 218th hour at 9:17 a. m., (C. S. T.)

Montgomery, Ala., July 22.—(AP)—Governor Graves said today that 19 officers and 200 picked men from the Alabama National guard would be sent to Eufaula, Ala., for the arraignment tomorrow of Lester Houser, negro slayer, with instructions to "protect the negro at any hazard."

The negro is expected to be indicted by a special Barbour county grand jury today for the slaying last week of Jack Hines, and an assault on Miss Beatrice Clark, both of Eufaula.

A detachment of 50 guardsmen will be dispatched to the little southern Alabama town on a special train this afternoon to throw up a barrier about the county court house there, preparatory to the arrival of the remainder of the guard, between nightfall tonight and noon tomorrow, with the negro, the governor said.

"The guard will be commanded by Brigadier General Walter Bare," the chief executive declared, "and will have orders to protect this negro as fully as hazard. The guardsmen will be fully armed."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET, N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, July 22.—(AP)—The cotton market today opened 11 to 14 points lower under selling influence by relatively easy Liverpool cables and private reports of rains in northwest Texas. There was enough buying to steady the market around the initial prices and cause slight rallies. October eased off from 19.38 to 19.18 and January from 19.44 to 19.24 by the end of the first half hour, making net declines of about 20 to 25 points. Private cables reported profit taking and liquidation in the Liverpool market on the reports of Texas rains. Liverpool was credited with selling some cotton here during the early trading.

STOCK MARKET

New York, July 22.—(AP)—Chief speculative interest shifted today from the stock market, which developed increased irregularity, to the grain markets, wheat advances 8 to 8 1/2 cents a bushel in Chicago and as much as 6 1/2 cents in Winnipeg. Credit conditions were slightly easier, call money remaining at 7 per cent for the first time in about two weeks, with a fairly plentiful supply available.

Renewed weakness of the motor stocks and heavy profit-taking in the rails contracted with the strength of the public utilities and electrical equipment issues on the Stock Exchange. In the general list, the main price tendency appeared to be downward, with selling influenced by the speculative belief that a technical "reaction" was in order.

Outside the sharp rise in grain prices, increasing the potential purchasing power of the agricultural regions, the day's principal business news developments consisted of another series of favorable earnings statements. Several of the conservative commission houses urged a lightening of long commitments which undoubtedly brought heavy selling into the market.

General motors sagged to another new low level below 67 in reflection of speculative disappointment over the June sales statement.

Packard, Chrysler, Marmon and Murray Corporation also fell back 1 to 2 1/2 points.

Coppers pointed upward at the opening but turned heavy around midday when heavy offerings of Anaconda and Kennecott carried those issues a point or more below last week's final quotations.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube was marked up 3 points to a new high of 159 1/2, but Republic dropped 2 points and Ludlum 1, while U. S. Steel, common, and Bethlehem were in rather free supply.

Merger rumors provided the ground work for the advance in the public utility issues. North American moving up 4 points to 166 7/8, and Detroit Edison 3 1/2 to 325 1/4, both new high records.

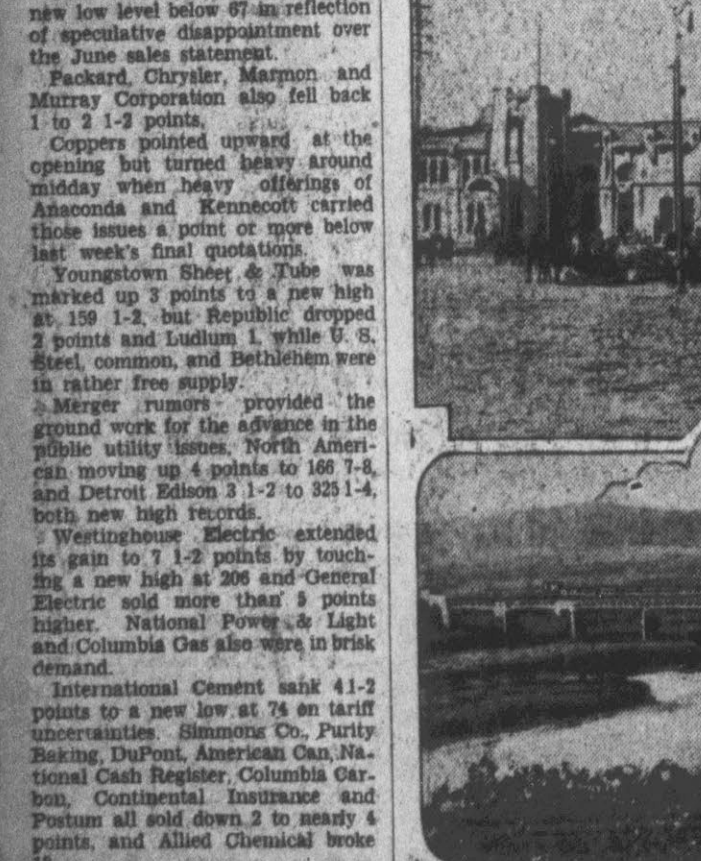

Westinghouse Electric extended its gain to 7 1/2 points by touching a new high at 206 and General Electric sold more than 3 points higher. National Power & Light and Columbia Gas also were in brisk demand.

International Cement sank 4 1/2 points to a new low at 74 on tariff uncertainties. Simmons Co., Purity Baking, DuPont, American Can, National Cash Register, Columbia Carbon, Continental Insurance and Postum all sold down 2 to nearly 4 points, and Allied Chemical broke 18.
