ZEPPELIN IS ALL SET FOR FLIGHT TODAY

Big Airship to Begin Around The World Flight About Midnight Tonight.

Lakehurst, N. J., Aug. 7.—(AP)—A company of adventurous souls prepared to embark today upon an historic voyage, circumnavigation of the earth in the German dirigible, Graf Zeppelin.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the airship, ordered passengers to be at the hangar at 4 p. m., today although actual start on the first leg of the journey was not expected to be made before midnight.

Some of those who have booked passage from here will not make the flight around the world, but will embark at the first stop, Friedrichshafen, Germany, the Graf's home port.

Among those who expect to remain about the airship until she arrives here again a month hence, flying out of the west, are: Com. Charles E. Rosendahl, U. S. N.; Lieut. J. C. Richardson, U. S. N.; William B. Leeds, son of the late late plate maker; Sir George Hubert Wilkins, explorer; Lady Grace Drummond Hay; Kary Von Weiland, newspaper correspondent; and Joachim D. Rickard, writer.

Commander Rosendahl, survivor of the ill-fated Shenandoah and former commander of the navy dirigible Los Angeles, and Lieut. Richardson are going as observers for the navy. C. P. Burgess, a civilian engineer, attached to the navy, will be a passenger as far as Friedrichshafen.

Other Americans who will leave the airship at Friedrichshafen are: Nathan Weiser and William Weber of New York; John E. Thompson of Brooklyn; and Morris Shumofsky, of New Rochelle, N. Y.

The passenger list of 16 includes several Germans who arrived on the Graf on her flight from Germany.

Lieut. Commander Zeno W. Wilks, U. S. N., who had charge of pumping fuel and lifting gas into the airship's storage bags, said the task would be completed 12 hours before the take-off.

Refueling the zeppelin was one of the last duties of Lieut. Com. Wilks as a naval officer. He has resigned to become hangar and construction superintendent of the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation at Akron, Ohio, where two dirigibles, larger than the Graf Zeppelin are to be built.

Forecasts indicated that weather conditions would permit the start as scheduled. Cloudy weather, with possible showers were in prospect, but Lieut. Reichelderfer said there would be no high wind to prevent the take-off.

Hans Von Schillen, one of the pilots of the Graf, said he expected the airship would reach Friedrichshafen early Sunday. The ship will be grounded there for four or five days and then set out for Tokyo.

The jump from Tokyo to Los Angeles each are expected to take four or five days with layovers of the same duration at each stop. The trip eastward across the United States is estimated to consume two or three days, which will bring the airship to her starting place here about September 3.

Weather reports will be supplied to the airship by radio as frequently as they are available. The jump from Friedrichshafen to Tokyo is regarded as the most hazardous, because mountainous clouds and rain may make navigation difficult and weather reports in that part of the world are meagre.

Judge Refuses To Dissolve Attachment On Hall Properties

Sumter, S. C., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Circuit Court Judge John S. Wilson yesterday denied a motion by William LaVarre to dissolve attachment on property of Harold Hall in South Carolina made in connection with the suit of Palmer, DeWitt and Palmer. New York newspaper brokers, against Hall and LaVarre for $13,175.

Palmer, DeWitt and Palmer allege the sum asked is due as commissions in the purchase of the Spartanburg Journal, the Spartanburg Herald and the Columbia Record. LaVarre contends Hall has no such South Carolina holdings.

PLANES BEGIN TOUR THROUGH EUROPE

Orly, France, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Despite threatening weather, 47 airplanes took off here today on a tour of Europe. The first stop was Basel, Switzerland.

The planes will cover twelve countries, making 25 stops with average distances between of 100 miles—cash prizes for best performances being offered.

SIXTEEN MEN INDICTED IN BANK INQUIRY

Alabama Grand Jury Also Urges Impeachment of Superintendent of Banks.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Capitales for the arrest of 16 persons, indicted yesterday by a Jefferson county grand jury as the climax of a four-week investigation into the closing of four banks in the Birmingham district, were issued today by Forney W. Bardon, criminal court clerk for service by the sheriff's office.

Twenty-six indictments were returned against the 16 persons. In addition, the grand jury urged impeachment of Judge C. E. Thomas, state superintendent of banks, on six counts.

The six articles of impeachment listed neglect of duty, willful neglect of duty, incompetence, negligence in office, malfeasance in office and disqualification to hold office.

The impeachment charges against the judge will come before the 8th Supreme Court, following presentation of the impeachment recommendations of the grand jury to the tribunal by Attorney General C. C. McCall.

Specifications of the grand jury including charges that Judge Thomas was advised of the failing condition of certain banks and of irregularities in others several weeks before the banks closed and that he failed to advise the state banking department of these conditions.

He was also charged with having owned shares in a Prattville, Ala., bank in violation of the state code which the grand jury said prohibits the state superintendent of banks from being interested in a banking institution over which he has supervision.

Young Reparations Plan Stoutly Defended Today At The Hague Conference

The Hague, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The Young reparations plan, which came in for heavy attack by Philip Snowden, British chancellor of the exchequer, at yesterday's opening session of the reparations conference, had two defenders today in the delegates of France and Italy.

Henri Cheron, French finance minister, and Senator Masconi, of Italy, both took the position that the new system of reparations payments and the new schedules of annuities were elaborated by the experts at Paris with great care after the greatest difficulties and must be approved if the present conference wants to get on with its mission of taking the thorns out of the last problems left over by the world war.

The French finance minister insisted that France had made repeated sacrifices in order to facilitate a compromise on the reparations problem and had reached a limit which she could not pass.

Senator Masconi, replying to Mr. Snowden's speech of yesterday, declared that Italy was receiving under the Young plan only what was due her.

Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann of Germany removed his country from any danger it might

LIQUOR CASES GIVEN AIRING IN COURT HERE

Several Defendants Sentenced to The County Roads in Dry Law Violations.

With its docket all cluttered with violations of the prohibition law, County court held its first sitting yesterday in two weeks with Judge W. L. Whedbee, presiding. It was the first time in months that such a great number of whiskey cases were given airing and work was not completed until late yesterday afternoon.

In the majority of cases, involving charges of selling whiskey and driving cars while under the influence of liquor, the defendants were given direct sentences to the county roads. In two or three instances they were given a chance of paying a heavy fine or going to the roads, and some of them accepted the road sentence when unable to raise enough money to pay the fines.

George James, colored, charged with possessing whiskey for sale, drew 12 months on the county roads.

Henry Spencer, colored, appearing on a charge of driving an automobile with insufficient lights, was sentenced to 30 days in jail, sentence to begin any time within twenty-four hours should he be found in Pitt county.

Albert Sheppard was given six months on the roads on a charge of trespass.

Ed. Curington, colored, paid a fine of $25.00 and cost of action for possessing whiskey for sale.

Wade Brewington, drew six months on the roads for possessing whiskey for sale.

William McRoy, colored, paid a fine of $100 and cost following conviction of receiving and possessing whiskey for sale.

Willie Lane, colored, paid a fine of $100 and cost and was given a suspended sentence of 12 months on the county roads, capias to issue and sentence to begin any time he is found guilty of violation of any of the prohibition laws.

Given the privilege of paying $50.00 and cost or going to the roads for 90 days after being found guilty of carrying a concealed weapon, George Hollis, colored, accepted the term on the roads.

Found guilty of driving an automobile while drunk, Leroy Gooding, colored, paid a fine of $50.00 and cost and has his license revoked for a period of 90 days.

Neal Nobles, colored, charged with larceny, was sentenced to 6 months on the roads, but was given the privilege of paying out for the sum of $50.00.

Adjudged guilty of driving an automobile while drunk, Charlie Hardee, was ordered to pay a fine of $100 and cost and not to drive a car within the next six months.

Hugh Sawyer, colored, paid a fine of $50 and cost and was instructed not to drive an automobile again in 90 days.

run of becoming involved in a dispute over the appointment of the German payments in a short declaration which he read this morning.

But he reserved the right to enter into the discussion in committee and to bring up the political consequences of the adoption of the plan when the time was ripe.

Herr Stresemann said the German government was ready to accept the Young plan as a basis for the settlement of the reparations problem. The details he would not discuss, because they concerned first of all the creditor governments.

Premier Venizelos of Greece as recognized spokesman of the lesser nations, put the objections of the smaller powers into form in an interview with the Associated Press correspondent.

Both M. Cheron and Premier Venizelos were very moderate in their remarks, although setting forth clearly the attitude of their countries.

The French minister of finance appealed to the powers represented at the Hague in the name of peace, to accept the conclusion of the expert embodied in the Young plan because there should be no question of beginning all over again the work which the experts had accomplished.

Everybody Wins In Big Gift Distribution Plan

Although it is hard to realize the magnitude of the special opportunity which the Reflector is offering home people through its $6,000 automobile campaign, and the ease with which one can acquire ownership of one of the valuable and popular model prize cars, nevertheless one has to investigate the merits of this generous proposition to readily realize it is the one big opportunity of a lifetime.

You owe it to yourself at least to investigate and at the earliest possible moment. The campaign manager will be glad to explain the entire plan in detail to you, then you will be the judge as to whether or not you wish to carry it.

Now as the campaign is just starting, is the time to get under way with your work. There are hundreds of subscriptions to be written in the next few weeks, which will aid in placing a worker at the wheel of his own car.

There are always scores of people who express the wish that they would like to own "one of these cars" but very few seemingly act on that desire. It is not the wishers but the doers who will win these handsome prizes within the next few weeks. All that the Reflector can do is to give away the prizes and invite our readers to apply this campaign offer personally.

If You Won? Just place yourself in the position of a possible winner of one of the four automobiles, or your share of the hundreds of dollars in cash that are given away for a few short weeks of spare time and effort and act upon in this great distribution. Experience is absolutely unnecessary, the only qualification being the spirit of wanting to do something big for yourself.

It is really surprising how simple your part of the campaign will be. You will find many people now taking the Reflector and hundreds just waiting to give you vote value on their subscription. The least that anyone can do, and each one owes it to him or herself to do it, is to find out all about this starting offer. Just the mailing of the nomination or the information coupon will bring this information. The time to do it is now, today, which simple act will start you out the coming year in a manner far beyond your most hopeful dreams.

There are three districts in the campaign, three sets of prizes with a big motor car positively guaranteed each district, then a car which may go in either of the districts. Two cars and a complete set of cash prizes can go to any one district. You compete only with candidates living in your district, but you are free to secure subscriptions anywhere.

Spare Time Pay Working in your spare time you can make at the very least one dollar of every week you collect on subscriptions, new or renewal. Or you can earn one of the big cash prizes. And there are four big automobiles. Any one of which you can own for your very own if you have the desire to give your spare time in return for them.

TWO WHISKEY MAKERS LAND IN JAIL HERE

Two distillers and a similar number of whiskey distilling plants fell into the hands of Pitt county officers in a series of raids staged in Greenville township yesterday, according to information given out at the office of Sheriff Whitcomb today.

The distillers, Josh Taylor, white, and Louis Williams, colored, were brought to Greenville and lodged in the county jail to await trial at the next session of County court.

The officers surprised Taylor and Williams while they had their still, a giant steam plant, going at full blast. Several gallons of whiskey and approximately a thousand gallons of beer were captured with the plant.

The other still was captured in the same locality and only netted the officers about 500 gallons of beer. The plant was not in operation.

This was the largest raid participated in by county officials in several months, although they reported the capture of two stills and an operator the first of the week. While the manufacture of whiskey drops off considerably during the summer months, the next four or five months is expected to witness a revival of the industry to take care of the fall and winter trade. It is during this season of the year that officers are kept busy in an effort to curtail the traffic as much as possible, and captures from now until next spring will be ordinary occurrences.

OFFER PUBLIC OPPOSITION TO SUGAR TARIFF

Representative of Producers and Growers Appear Before Senate Committee.

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Opposition to the Snook sliding scale sugar tariff plan was voiced today by domestic and insular possession sugar interests before the Senate finance committee at a public hearing.

Frank A. Dillingham of New Jersey, representing the domestic sugar producers and Porto Rican growers opposed the sliding scale proposal in general and the Snook plan in particular. He endorsed the House duty of three cents a pound on world sugar and 2.40 cents against Cuban raw sugar.

The sliding scale, he said, which provides for a minimum rate of one cent a pound and a maximum of three cents depending on the New York wholesale price, with 20 per cent off for Cuban sugar, had a tendency toward price fixing.

There was no incentive to improvement of agricultural and manufacturing operations under a price-fixing scheme. Dillingham argued, adding that the Snook scale also would end free trading in raw sugar and fall short of giving the domestic industry the "protection it needs."

Under questioning by Senator Edge, Republican, New Jersey, the witness said he also opposed payment of a bounty out of government funds to domestic growers.

Three Ex-Convicts Captured in N. Y.

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Three ex-convicts, one of them the man who escaped from Atlanta penitentiary in 1923 with Gerald Chapman, were arrested in the Bronx today.

Detectives had searched for nine months for the trio on charges of holding up and beating Julius DeBrosky, Bronx poultry dealer. The men are: Morris Price, 32, of Philadelphia, who escaped from Atlanta as Frank Gray and who told police he had been arrested so many times he has "lost count"; George Smith, 37, alleged beer runner, and Abraham Groat, 33.

POU WILL NAME NEW EXECUTIONER

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 7.—(AP)—North Carolina will have no difficulty in securing a state executioner to take the place of J. E. Thomas, who quit because he was "sick of my job," after throwing the switch at 15 executions.

Half a dozen applicants have come forward for the position since Thomas resigned ten days ago.

George Ross, Pon superintendent of state's prison, is expected to announce Thomas' successor within a few days.

The state pays the executioner $25 for each "job."

Dr. Snook Tells Story Of Three-Year Love Affair With Woman He Murdered

Court Room, Columbus, O., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Dr. James H. Snook today told the jury in his first degree murder trial the story of his three-year love affair with Theora Hix, the medic co-ed he killed last June 13. It was a story that detailed their meeting in June 1926, a re-appearing friendship that grew to intimacy and ended on a lonely rifle range near the edge of the city where the girl's body, battered and slashed, was found the day after she went there for her last tryst with the former Ohio state professor.

Dr. Snook testified in a cool, un-dramatic voice. He was as calm a ruffian as in the trial.

He went to the witness chair after his wife, Mrs. Helen M. Snook, and his 67 year old mother, Mrs. Abner Snook, had faced the sea of faces in the crowded court room to tell their belief that in the last few years Dr. Snook had changed.

Both women kissed him before they took the stand and his wife remained at the defense table until he started to testify. Then she left.

The wife who refused to desert him after he was arrested for the killing of "the other woman," testified that she had no knowledge of the affair between her husband and the girl.

Both the wife and mother testified that recently Dr. Snook had displayed a mental unrest that had been in contrast to the calm and placid disposition that had been his before he met Miss Hix.

Dr. Snook said he did not recall

THREE DIE IN PLANE CRASH IN KENTUCKY

Pilot and two Passengers Killed as Rebuilt Plane Burns at Campbellsville.

Campbellsville, Ky., Aug. 7.—(AP)—A rebuilt plane piloted by a youthful unlicensed student pilot, and powered with a motor of a type declared obsolete by the War Department, fell into an alley in the center of the town late yesterday, and the pilot and his two passengers met death as the wreckage was consumed by flames.

Hundreds of persons saw the plane go into a spin at an altitude of about 500 feet and crash to the earth, but were helpless to rescue the three from the flames.

The pilot was Francis Mitchell, 25, of Louisville, and his passengers were Carl E. Carter, 23, drug store owner, and Flave Courts, 21, a clerk in the store.

Mitchell and Irwin Volzht, Jeffersonville, Ind., owner of the plane, had flown it here the day before and had been taking up passengers on sight-seeing trips. Volzht saw the crash from the landing field a mile and a half from the town, which they had rented from a farmer.

Mitchell had between 25 and 50 hours in the air as a pilot, friends at Louisville said. He had been employed about a year with the Fairchild Company in New York as a mechanic and also in the same capacity by the C-4-tise-Robinson Company St. Louis.

Volzht bought the plane from a previous owner in April. It had been smashed last fall at Glasgow, Ky., but had been repaired and had flown many hours since then.

Mrs. Annie Lewis Dies at Farmville; Funeral Monday

Farmville, N. C., Aug. 6.—Mrs. Annie Vines Lewis died suddenly at her home near here Sunday morning about 7 o'clock. Mrs. Lewis was apparently in very good health when she retired Saturday night. One of her daughters, who was sleeping with her rose early and left her mother intending to call her later.

Mrs. Lewis, whose husband, William A. Lewis, preceded her by two years, was a former resident of Tarboro, making Farmville and the community her home after her marriage in July 1902. She celebrated her 46th birthday on July 26.

Large numbers of sorrowing friends of this section and of Tarboro and Rocky Mount attended the funeral services held at the home on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and beautiful and touching was the tribute paid by Elder S. D. Denny of Wilson, to the fine, sacrificial spirit of the true mother, whose chief concern lay in her home and the rearing of her nine sons and daughters. Surviving are three daughters: May, Anne Daniels, and Blanche; six sons: William, Thomas, Charles Rouse, Ben Taylor, George and John Reding, her mother, Mrs. Maniza Vines of Rocky Mount, two sisters; Mrs. E. J. Gordon and Mrs. Fred Bunn of Rocky Mount, three brothers; Will and Whit Vines of Norfolk, Va., and Charles Vines of China.

"I frequently had conversations with her at certain times of the day when I had to go to her office to have some stenographic work done. At first we talked about how she happened to come to the veterinary building to work. She said she did not have enough money for her school work and consequently was forced to accept employment part of the time.

"In general our conversation was discussion of her affairs. She spoke of being left alone then (during the summer of 1926) most of the students had gone away and she mentioned that her 'boy friend' had gone also. She didn't speak much about her 'boy friend' at that time.

"During the first two weeks of our acquaintance we talked about companionship marriages. She said she thought companionship marriage was alright 'but when you lost your companion, it wasn't.

"This remark led us to discuss books of that nature."

Dr. Snook said that after the last auto ride he proposed to drive

PEACE TREATY SIGNED AMONG TONG FACTION

Chinaman Shot Down at Chicago Just as Peace Negotiations Were Underway.

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Peace reigned throughout the United States again today between the On Leong and Hip Sing Tong factions after three days of warfare in which five Chinese were killed and several wounded.

A new treaty was signed here today by National leaders of the rival Tong factions after they had been served with an ultimatum by U. S. attorney Charles H. Tuttle "to make peace or pack up."

Word of the signing of the treaty was telegraphed to Tong leaders in Chicago, and Boston, where killings had occurred and also to Philadelphia and San Francisco, and other cities having large Chinese settlements.

Before word of the signing of the peace had been sent out and while negotiations were pending another shooting occurred in Chicago where Joe Wal, a Hip Sing tongman was severely wounded.

George J. Minter, an assistant U. S. attorney said that the warfare which broke out in Chicago last Sunday and resulted in the killing of one Chinese there, two in Boston one in Newark, N. J., and one here, was the result of poaching on commercial territory claimed by each of the rival gangs.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Just as the troubled air of tong warfare was being cleared with news of peace negotiations in New York, a shot rang out in Chicago's Chinatown last night and Joe Wal, a Hip Sing Tongman, fell seriously wounded.

The usual Oriental methods employed by Tong gunmen were discarded by Wal's assailants in favor of the typical system of the Chicago gangster. Wal was hit on the spot by a supposed friend who led him into the hands of three enemy top guns. He was forced to accompany them to his safety then shot in the back.

Chin Jen, member of the On Leong Tong, was named by Wal as the man who shot him and was being sought by police.

Police believed another shooting was narrowly averted when Chin Bing, a Hip Sing Tongman, was captured as he approached the home of Willie Lee, on Leong Tong leader, with a load of pistol in his hand. Bing, believed to be an imported gunman, was seized by police guards who had been ambushed around the Lee home since the tong trouble started Sunday.

Forest Fires Rage In North Manitoba

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 7.—(AP)—All available planes and men were engaged today in fighting new forest fires which have broken out in northern Manitoba.

Some of the fires, which raged northeast of Lake Winnipeg, menaced valuable pulpwood areas, but the fire fighters managed to get control of the situation and prevented the flames from spreading to those areas. The fires are still burning, but reports received here indicate that there is little danger of timber of much commercial value being destroyed.

For the Love of a Lady

By JEFFERY FARNOL

SYNOPSIS: A dream of a gypsy face, smeared with blood—and Helen awakens—to know the truth she seeks. In early morning she seeks her brave rescuer, the erstwhile gardener, to thank him, but learns that he has disappeared. Viscount Brocklehurst comes to bleed with Helen, to implore her to marry him, to scornfully refuse and then, immediately, falls into a cunning trap. Casually Brocklehurst informs her that the gardener, Dick Fullmore, has been arrested and lies wounded at an inn. Helen, now aware of Sir Richard's gypsy disguise and desperately concerned for him, rides off with Brocklehurst to see the prisoner. His vicious plot is about to succeed.

Chapter 39
TWO CAPTIVES
The ceaseless grind of rapidly-spinning wheels, trees and hedges flitted by to vanish in swirling dust-cloud, but Helen, lost in anxious thought, sat heedless of it until Viscount Brocklehurst laughed softly.

Roused by this unexpected sound she started from her reverie and for the first time troubled to glance at him in the opposite corner of the chaise.

Suddenly she sensed in his bearing a subtle and ever-growing menace, a nameless evil... and then, once again, he laughed, and Helen, dreading she knew not what, cried upon him angrily.

"Sir, either be solemn or disclose the reason of your so sudden mirth."

"Then, madam, I may now explain myself—a little—say, somewhat." He turned, with a certain glowing deliberateness of manner—and meeting his look she recoiled, drawing her cloak instinctively against some shameful evil. Looking on her thus, he smiled and spoke:

"Helen mine, the game I thought lost—is won! Here's the reason of my laughter—thou art mine. Thou didst think to choose this man or that to thy husband—ah, well, I have chosen for thee, and I have chosen—myself!"

"You?" she cried in shuddering contempt. "I'll die first!"

"This is yet to prove," he answered, and laughed again, and knowing at last what his laughter meant, panic seized her and, despite proud, courageous spirit, she covered, and glanced wildly about like the trapped creature she was.

"Vile fool," she cried. "Do you dream aught shall ever... compel me to your base will?"

"Indeed, Helen—a man's life. Refuse me and Richard Guyford dies—ah, doth this touch you?"

"Then—oh, then—was you betrayed him? Twas you!"

"Nay, feign, the fool betrayed himself. Yet will I save him alive, to please thee..."

The chaise lurched violently and swung away from the road towards a small, dismal building with a weather-beaten sign above the door with a faded legend:
THE TRAVELER'S JOY

BY JOB TUCKER

Before this gloomy "Joy" the chaise now jerked to sudden stop, whereupon down from rumbled seat clambered two unlovely fellows whose growling speech and rough garments smacked of ships and the sea. Master Oldcraft stepped forth of the dingy tavern, bowing and rubbing his hands.

"All's right, my lord!" quoth he. "I shall not waste your precious time. My lads are a-bringing him now."

Turning about he whistled shrilly, and from behind the tavern his two fellows appeared, leading a horse, whereupon a man was fast tied, a gypsy-seeming fellow. A square face and comely despite its pallor and the blood which smeared cheek and brow.

"Oh... Gracious God!" gasped my lady, leaning out from the chaise window. "Oh... 'tis Richard!"

"Guyford, lady?" inquired Master Oldcraft gently.

"Yes... I yes... Oh, let me out!" And she strove desperately to open the chaise-door.

"And there's your identification!" said the Viscount. "Take him away."

"No!" cried my lady wildly. "Richard! What have they done to thee?"

The bloody head was slowly lifted into the dulled eyes came a gleam of recognition, the powerful body writhed in its bonds and a hoarse voice whispered:
"Dick... always and ever... Dick full-o'-love for thee!"

"Horses, you, Skag—you will ride with me."

And now came Job Tucker, the landlord, a leering, bowlegged man, leading two saddle-horses, upon the nearest of which the Viscount was mounting when Master Oldcraft ventured to touch his arm.

"What of your lady, my lord?"

The Viscount glanced towards the chaise and beckoned to the landlord.

"Have ye a place where my lady may lie secure, Tucker—secure, d'ye hear?"

The man leered towards the chaise and nodded:

"There be such things as keys an' bolts, my lord. Sh'll be safe enough, I warrant me!"

Loosing his horse, the Viscount wrenched open the chaise door.

Come, my lady, said he, and held out his hand, but Helen never moved. "Out—out with ye," he cried in sudden, wild fury. "Out, I say, or these men shall drag thee forth—has, must they handle thee, madam?"

Avoiding the hand outstretched to her, my lady stepped from the chaise and immediately, at gesture from the Viscount, was whisked up in powerful arms and borne into the dingy tavern, and thus, dumbly submissive with shame and terror, was carried upstairs and locked securely into a small and dingy chamber.

"Look to her now!" cried the Viscount, pocketing the key. "Look well to her, Tucker, man; let me find her safe when I return or, by my soul, I'll be the death of some of you."

So saying, he hurried downstairs to find Jonas Skag already on horse back.

"Are you armed?" cried he.

"Sure—by, my lord."

Then the Viscount swung to stride and, calling on Skag to follow, followed majestically away.

the girl out a country road and she agreed.

"On the way back some remark was made about my being married," Dr. Snook said, "and she got out of the car four blocks from where she lived."

He said he talked to her at intervals during the next four or five weeks and shortly after they began discussing books on sex and three or four weeks after, that intimate relations began.

Dr. Snook said Miss Hix often asked his advice about personal matters. During the summer of 1926, he said he taught her to shoot, and gave her the gun he later claimed he thought she had with her the night she was slain.

Seyfert dwelt at length on the girl's training with a gun. The testimony had a bearing on the ex-professor's claim that he feared for his life when the girl threatened him on their trip to the range where she was killed.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by John M. Tripp and wife, Sallie H. Tripp, on the 15th day of December, 1922, and recorded in Book T-14, page 366, we will on Saturday,

21st day of August, 1929
12 o'clock, noon,
at the courthouse door in Greenville, N. C., Pitt County, sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder the following land, to-wit:

A certain piece or parcel of land situated in Carolina Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, on the North side of Grindle Creek bounded on the North by R. D. Harrington, on the East by the County Road, leading from Greenville to Whichards on the South by Grindle Creek, on the West by lands of W. M. CUBS OFF ON CONQUEST OF EAST TODAY

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Urged on by the enthusiastic support of a million Chicago fans, the Cubs are on the march seeking a final conquest of the east. In two swings along the Atlantic seaboard this year, the Bruins have won 19 games and lost nine; a continuation of that pace through the 16 engagements of the impending invasion would send the young men of Joseph McCarthy back to the west late this month all but assured of their pennant.

Despite a 5 to 4 defeat by Brooklyn before a mid-week crowd of 35,000 at Wrigley field yesterday, the Bruins are eastward bound with their lead of seven and one-half games intact. The Pirates also lost to the Giants by 5 to 3—and must face the Clan McGraw in another game today.

Chicago burned with baseball enthusiasm yesterday as it had at no other time since the dim and distant days of Tinker and Evers and Chance. For the first time in the history of William Wrigley's enlarged plant, amazed club officials had to slam the gates shut at a mid-week game, with 55,000 yelling madmen and mad-women inside and perhaps 25,000 more milling about in the streets outside.

Brooklyn got a jump of two runs on Pat Malone in the first two innings, and led throughout except for a brief spell in the seventh when Ray Moss weakened and yielded his post to the Veteran Johnny Morrison. Beldam tore the north side ambient as the Cubs rallied for two runs which meant a lead of 3 to 2, but the Robins regained command in their half of the eighth when Malone was knocked from the box by the force of a three run rally. Ken Penner, a hoosier recruit, put down the disturbance and Rogers Hornsby brought the Cubs to within one of a tie in the home half by clouting a homer, but Morrison was too in brief time left.

Bill Walker performed upon the mound against the Pirates and pulled out of a mean hole in the ninth to preserve the slender lead. Giant hits and Pittsburgh errors had given him in the eighth. With the bases filled by three singles and two men out, he forced Pie Traynor to roll weakly to the infield for the final out. Walker also received Petty support—only one of the three Pirate runs being earned.

Jes Petty went the route for the Buccaneers, and permitted the Giants to bunch their hits where they would do the greatest damage. Paul Wanner, who has been in a batting and fielding slump, was benched to give him a chance to rest up a bit.

Rain interfered with the Cardinals-Brave game at St. Louis and the Phils and the Reds were not scheduled.

While Chicago was cheering its Cubs, American league contenders were, in effect, marking time. The Athletics bowed to the Browns by 8 to 3 in the first game of a double-header, but came back strong to win the second by 11 to 3 behind Eddie Rommel's knuckled ball. The Senators trimmed the Yanks by 13 to 9 in the opener, but Freddy Helmach pitched a three-hit shut out in the nightcap, winning for the Champions by 8 to 0.

This combination of events left the Athletic margin stationary at eleven and one-half games with the Yankees on deck at Shibe park for a double-header today and a single clash tomorrow.

Mr. Ruth and Master Fox warmed up the American league home run race with a pair of circuit clouts yesterday. Jimmy hit one in each game, his twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth, and entered into a tie with Gehrig, but the Babe boosted his own total to twenty-seven, taking the league lead. Ruth's first was delivered after Burke had walked three men, his eleventh home run with the bases filled in his major league career.

Cleveland nosed out Detroit by 6 to 5, and entered into a tie with the Browns for third place. The Sox, white and red, were not scheduled.

EAGLES SWEEP SERIES WITH THE GREENIES

Kinston, Aug. 6.—The Eagles beat Greenville 4-3 today to sweep the series. The game was fast and well played.

Roper was the star afield, and he wielded his bat almost as readily as Garbee, who led both teams with the willow.

The Kinston manager was credited with seven putouts, five assists and also three hits one of them a two-bagger, in four tries. His work was spectacular at times.

The visitors outthit the locals, 11 to 7, and Garbee took four successful pokes at the ball in five times up. One of his hits was a double, Skelton, who hurled for the Greenies and lost the game by one bad inning, smashed out two hits, one of them a two-bagger that came near being a home run.

The Greenies put on a rally in the ninth that netted one run and left the bases filled.

The locals secured four hits in the second inning to score three runs and get a lead the visitors could not overcome.

Augusta Wolves Still Winning

Atlanta, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The Augusta Wolves climbed to second place in the South Atlantic association yesterday by winning over Knoxville 5 to 1 while Spartanburg was losing a close battle to Charlotte 6 and 5. The Wolves scored three runs on Pitcher Bates in the first inning. Charlotte hit in the early innings for the lead which they maintained over the Spartans to the end.

Frickson, of Columbia, and Yeargin of Greenville, staged an odd time pitching duel with the former gaining a 1 to 0 verdict. He limited the Spinners to three singles while Yeargin was soured for two extra base blows and a pair of singles. Leading by one run in the ninth, Macon artillery fired away to score four more and assure a win over Asheville. The score was 5 to 1.

Annie had the Greenville chaps puzzled yesterday. He gave one hit in seven innings and whiffed eight.

BEGIN TALKING WORLD'S SERIES TICKETS AT CHICAGO

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—There is no use trying—you cannot buy a world's series ticket or even order them at the Cubs' park.

With the Cubs leading the National race by 7 1-2 games, hundreds of inquiries about world's series tickets are received daily. William Veck, president of the Cubs, said today, however that the question of tickets would not be discussed until it is certain the Cubs have won the National league flag. "Absolutely not," he said, "nothing doing until we win the championship. We still have 53 games to play and anything can happen in that time. But we are all pulling for the Cubs to win."

Cinderella

and the Three proud cigarette brands

A Modern Fable

Once upon a time a Mighty Prince set forth to find a perfect cigarette. Being very wise, he netted down his search to the four National favorites... that quartette of popular sister brands known as the "20 for 15¢" family. The three elder cigarette brands rushed forward to meet the Prince with all the proud pomp in the world... each vying with the other in urging, her charms upon him. "Smoke me!" said the eldest, "I am the class of the field." "Smoke me!" said the second, "for I am beyond compare." "Smoke me!" said the third, "all the world acknowledges me to be the best." Then, from the background, the youngest brand... the Cinderella of the family... quietly spoke up. "If you please, Sire," she suggested, "why not smoke all four of us... and compare us fairly and impartially, letting your taste decide which one of us you like best?"

"Why, that's a common sense idea!" exclaimed His Highness. Whereupon he covered the names of all four brands with paper masks; lit them and smoked them reflectively, with all brand prejudice removed.

One cigarette seemed to capture his fancy, far and beyond the others. "I don't know which cigarette this is," he declared, "but, unquestionably, it is the cigarette for me."

Whereupon he removed the mask and found it to be... Well, Cinderella is the "storybook" name but in America today that winning brand is known as OLD GOLD.

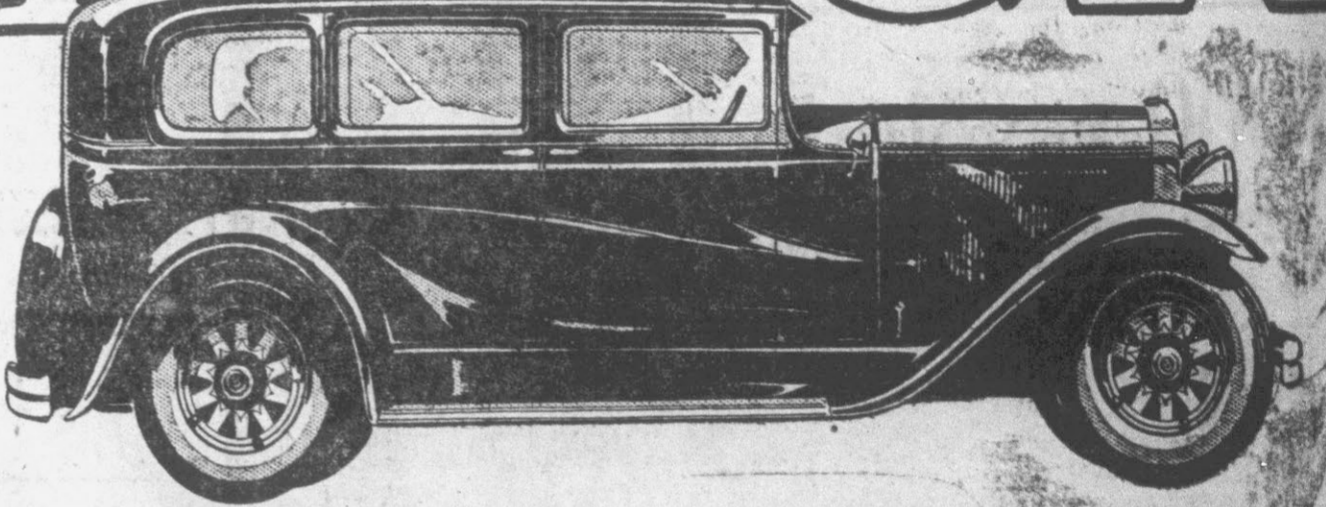

MORAL: It is easy to make big claims, but you can't smoke claims. The only sound way to discover the cigarette you like best is to let your taste decide.

Pollard Wins Out In Election For Gov. of Virginia

Richmond, Va., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Dr. John Garland Pollard, who stumped Virginia for Alfred E. Smith and is generally regarded as among the Virginia Democratic leaders Bishop James Cannon, Jr., has asked anti-Smith Democrats to repudiate, was swept into the Democratic nomination for governor of the Old Dominion in a political landslide in yesterday's Democratic primary.

Dr. Pollard, a professor of the college of William and Mary, had piled up a tremendous majority over his two primary opponents, G. Walter Mapp and Rosewell Page, on the basis of unofficial returns from 1,302 of the state's 1,681 precincts. The vote stood: Pollard 87,467; Mapp 25,760; Page 3,882.

In his campaign against Dr. William Moseley Brown, nominated for governor by anti-Smith Democrats and Republicans, political leaders believe Dr. Pollard will have the staunch backing of the entire Democratic party. Mr. Mapp hastened to offer his support in a telegram sent to Dr. Pollard from his Accomack county home, while Rosewell Page, in his final statement to the voters, offered his support to the party nominee in the event he was defeated.

Virginians looked forward today to a campaign far more spirited than the primary with the possibility of many of the issues of the 1928 campaign to be brought to the fore. Bishop Cannon, who organized the anti-Smith Democrats last year, has already served notice in a statement from Washington that he regards the Virginia election as an election on the prohibition issue and urged anti-Smith Democrats to repudiate the state leaders who supported Smith and "Raskobism."

State's Attorney Quizzed in Diploma Probe at Chicago

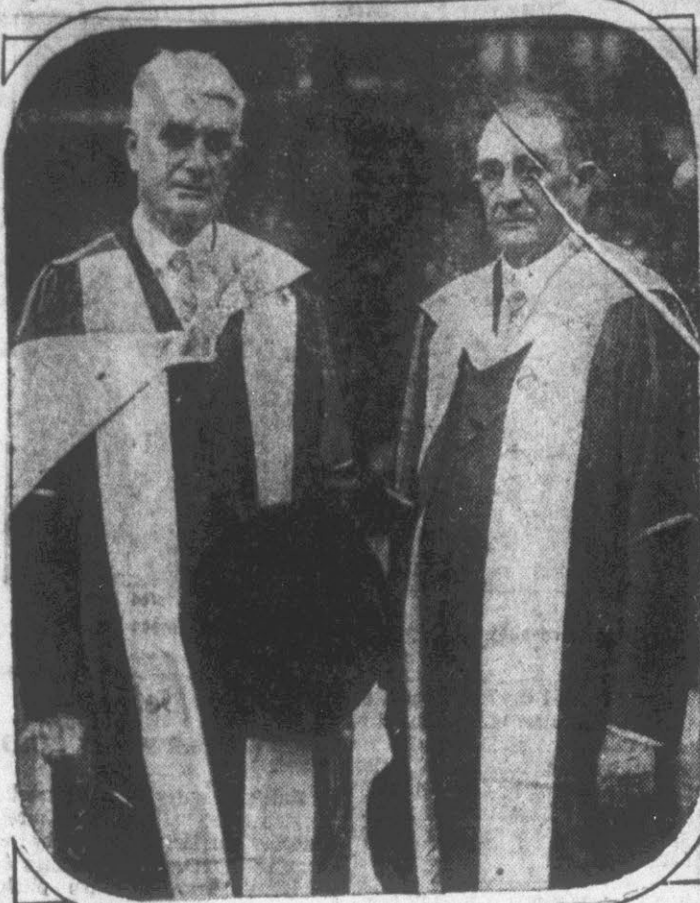

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—An assistant State's Attorney, who until recently was head of the indictment department of the State's attorney's office, was seized for questioning early today when investigators were told that he had disclosed the State's plans to persons involved in the medical diploma mill investigation.

The attorney, Clarence E. Nelson, admitted, prosecutors said, that he had loaned an official secret document concerning the case to George Kohn, a friend of many years and former school chum.

Kohn, questioned last night by Patrick Roche, chief investigator, and assistant State's Attorney George Bellows, named Nelson as the man who had loaned him a statement made to investigators six weeks ago by Albert Carl Barrow, who since has been indicted. Kohn said he had used the statement to frighten Barron into returning money to several purchasers of forged medical certificates.

Nelson stated that Kohn had asked to borrow Barron's statement.

AMERICAN SURGEONS HONORED

The attorney declared he had not suspected Kohn's motives and thought they were purely of an impersonal and disinterested nature. Discovery of the "Leak" in the State's plans climaxes a day of important developments. Officials earlier had seized a safety deposit box which, they said, contained original or forged copies of diplomas from practically every accredited medical school in the country.

Father Not Done When He Brings Home The Bacon

Chapel Hill, N. C., Aug. 5.—(AP)—The old idea that a father's responsibility as a parent ends when he brings home the bacon was exploded here this morning by Mrs. Marion H. Miller, associate director of the Child Study Association of America, in an address before the university's parent-teachers' institute on "Worthy Home Membership."

Sense of responsibility is essential above all else in a worthy home, Mrs. Millere declared. The home, she said, is the child's first and most important teacher, and father must be a teacher as well as a provider, she added.

"We cannot over estimate the influence of the home in the child's development," the speaker continued. "The home's influence starts first, is continuous, lasts longest, and is greatest because of the peculiar intimacy and emotionalism surrounding it."

Mrs. Miller listed as the six sense of responsibility, willingness things she considered most important for the worthy home to have, to cooperate, feeling of sincerity, friendliness, tolerance, and an inquiring mind looking for a broader understanding.

REFEREE HURT IN DUEL
Mexico City Aug. 7.—(AP)—Miguel Martinez accepted an invitation to act as referee at a duel between two of his friends.

The duellists fired at 20 paces, both balls piercing the referee's chest. Martinez is dying. Both duellists, unhurt, fled.

New York—Sergeant Sammy Baker, Mitchell Field, N. Y., and Baby Joe Gans, California, drew (10).
Washington, Pa.—Tony Herrera, Chicago, knocked out Billy Callahan Detroit. (2).

No airplane can test an oil like this

"Bob" Robinson, the well-known Jacksonville, Fla., "speed demon," who set a new dirt track record for South Carolina, insists on using "Standard" Motor Oil whenever he races in any state where "Standard" Motor Oil is sold, because it protects and adds power to his motor.

THE motor of a racing car turns over more than twice as fast as the average airplane motor. Here is a real test for motor oil!

Only an oilier oil can withstand the searing heat, relentless pressure and continual piston-pounding of such terrific speed.

That's why Ralph De Palma insisted on using "Standard" Motor Oil when he won two out of three races at Trenton, N. J., last year. Why Herman Schurch and the late Ray Keech chose "Standard" when they tied each other for the North Carolina State record. "Bob" Robinson, who hung up a new record for South Carolina, and "Doug" Wallace, famous "racing ace," use it whenever they are in a state where "Standard" Motor Oil is sold.

Ask for "Standard" Motor Oil at your dealer's. Fill your crankcase with this rich-bodied, oilier oil. Get added miles of service from your car.

"STANDARD" MOTOR OIL
The Oilier Oil

There's a good reason why "Standard" Motor Oil is an oilier motor oil—a better lubricant. First of all the crude oils from which "Standard" Motor Oil is made are selected for their lubricating qualities. These basic stocks are refined to the correct consistencies for various types of motors. The oil is next especially processed so that it will cling to and constantly protect each moving part of the motor. All this, together with countless tests and experiments costs time and money. But no effort is too great for the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey to give you an oil that is worthy of the name "Standard."

LOCAL MOOSE GIVE PROGRAM IN THIS CITY

Series of Monthly Entertainment Inaugurated at Parkinson's Dining Room.

Inaugurating a regular series of monthly entertainments, members of the Loyal Order of Moose, their wives and sweethearts, gathered at Parkinson's Dining Room last night and enjoyed a program that was decidedly one of the most outstanding in the history of the local organization. The entertainment consisted of vocal and instrumental numbers, interpretative dancing and readings presented by entertainers from Goldsboro and Burlington. Refreshments were served between the presentation of the various numbers.

About two hundred persons were present and entered into the spirit of the occasion that left no doubt as to its success. H. L. Davidson, organizer of the Loyal Order of Moose, acted in the capacity of master of ceremonies, and told of some of the things which the order is doing in behalf of the dependent families of its membership. He introduced C. A. Musselwhite, officer of the Greenville lodge, who also spoke briefly of what the organization is doing.

The entertainers were Dr. Z. B. Spence, and daughter, Miss Wilma Spence, Jeanette Holland, Tennys Thornton, Buster Starr, of Goldsboro, and Mrs. L. M. Cannon, of Burlington, daughter of Mr. L. S. Parkinson, operator of the dining room bearing that name.

Mrs. Cannon's part on the program consisted of a number of readings ranging all the way from the humorous to the pathetic, and she injected into each number such a spirit of realism that her audience felt that they were actually seeing the part enacted before them. She was encored liberally from time to time and was gracious in her response.

Dr. Spence and daughter, who have appeared here before in similar entertainments, delighted their hearers with a number of musical numbers. Miss Spence acted as accompanist while her father sang several light numbers from time to time. His first number was a greeting to the Moose with his own wording. This scored a great hit and formed a fitting beginning to the entertainment. He also produced much merriment in a couple of numbers in which he yodeled in a way that would have done credit to a native of the far-off islands of Hawaii.

With his daughter playing a lively number at the piano, Dr. Spence filmed his performance with a stick twirling act that brought out his versatility as an entertainer of outstanding merit. He put the tick through such bewildering motions that it made his audience dizzy to watch him, but when he had completed the act he was greeted by liberal applause.

Misses Tennys Thornton and Jeanette Holland were liberally applauded in the presentation of the passion dance and an encore number. Dressed in the costume of natives of the land of fantastic fancy, they amazed their audience with a series of steps and contortions of the body that would have done credit to veterans of the stage.

Buster Starr, with about fifteen numbers resting lightly upon his broad young shoulders, gave a program of whistling and mimicking that was entirely out of the ordinary run of entertainments of the kind. Using two good fingers of the left hand, with the right hand swinging like he would have done in the playing of a violin or some such instrument, the youngster warbled in a way that would have made a canary bird ashamed of himself. He also mimicked Baby Dorothy Johnson and one or two other celebrities of the stage.

Misses Ruth and Myrtle Blanchard appeared in a vocal and instrumental number.

Quell Disorders In Mine District

Bucharest, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Clashes between troops and striking miners in the Lupeny district which have resulted in heavy loss of life, quieted down today while fresh military reinforcements took control of the situation.

Officially the dead were numbered at 32, with 80 others seriously injured, but it generally was believed that the number of dead will be larger, present estimates going as high as 58.

The electric work shops from which the mines are pumped out fell into the hands of the strikers who damaged the engines but later gendarmes recaptured the buildings. The number of strikers has been placed at 3,800 but apparently miners from other shafts were prepared to join the movement.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 2 points on May but generally 1 to 6 points higher on covering and some local buying inspired by relatively steady cables and talk of continued hot weather in the southwest.

The advance to 19.03 for October and 19.40 for March was checked by realizing, however, and a little more selling developed after the posting of the weather map which showed some rain in the Texas Panhandle, by the end of the first half hour October had declined to 18.93 and March to 19.38 or to about yesterday's closing quotations.

Trading was generally quiet, with some trade buying reported on the decline. Private cables said there had been covering and foreign buying in the Liverpool market influenced by the talk of drought in Texas.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—With a decided falling-off shown in the movement of domestic winter wheat to primary terminals, and with a better export demand, wheat prices rallied briskly today. Primary receipts for three days this week were reported as 2,000,000 bushels less than for the corresponding time last week. Late estimates of wheat purchases today for shipment to Europe were 1,000,000 bushels or more, chiefly wheat from the United States, and there were liberal sales of wheat here to be taken to Buffalo.

Wheat closed unsettled 3 to 4 1/2 cent higher; corn 2 to 3 5/8 up; oats 1/8 to 1 3/8 advance and provisions varying from 40 decline to a rise of 2 to 5.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The stock market rallied briskly under the leadership of the steels today, when call money dropped from a renewal rate of 10 to 8 per cent. The upturn, however, was not until after further liquidation of the utilities. The market turned dull on the decline, but actively picked up rapidly when the list started upward.

Speculative confidence in the market was restored by private London cables indicating that no change would be made in the Bank of England discount rate tomorrow, by the cessation of selling pressure against some of the public utility stocks, and by the announcement that freight car loadings in the week ended July 27 had set a new high record for the season.
