SMOKE TRIAL DELAYED BY SICK JUROR

Court Room, Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Responsibility for the three-year affair between Dr. James Snook, former Ohio State professor, and Theora Hix, the co-ed he killed last June, was placed on the girl today by Max Seyfert, defense attorney, in his closing arguments to the jury.

Seyfert drew a picture of Miss Hix when she went to work as a stenographer three years ago in the veterinary building at Ohio State University, where she met Dr. Snook, describing her as the moving spirit in the affair that grew up between them.

Seyfert characterized as a "damnable lie" the state's contention that Dr. Snook's confession was voluntary and re-presented the former professor's story of the killing.

Seyfert started his argument, the second for the defense, after Newton Tracey, the alternate juror, had taken the place in the jury box of C. F. Butch, who suffered a sudden stomach illness last night. Myron Gessman, assistant prosecutor, made the second argument for the state after Seyfert finished.

Courtroom, Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The sudden illness of C. F. Butch, a juror in the Snook trial, of Dr. James H. Snook, delayed the start of today's session of the trial.

Butch was taken ill last night and the proceedings of the final day of the trial were held up until a physician examined him to determine whether he could carry on.

It was understood that Butch had suffered a stomach attack, but the extent of his sickness was not known pending the report of the physician. Newton Tracey, the alternate juror, was available to serve if the physician decides that Butch is unable to complete the case.

At 9:25 a. m., court convened and Judge Henry L. Scarrott announced that the physician had reported that Butch was suffering from a bilious attack and could not participate in the trial until evening at the earliest.

Prosecutor Chester said that the state approved the seating of the alternate juror. The defense attorneys agreed and Dr. Snook did likewise.

Max Seyfert then started the second closing argument for the defense, asking the jury to remember that if the prosecution is successful Prosecutor Chester "will expect the spoils of the victor in a political way."

Seyfert then pictured the girl as being responsible for the start of the three-year love affair between her and the former Ohio State professor.

"Dr. Snook is guilty of killing this girl in cold blood, death is too good for him," Seyfert reminded the jury that the state must be proved for a death sentence.

He assailed County Coroner Joseph Murphy for the report he made on the autopsy giving the cutting of the girl's throat as the cause of death, declaring that defense testimony had established that death might also have resulted from the hammer blows that Dr. Snook said he rained on the girl's head in a rage of irrationality due to fear that she intended to take his life and that of his wife and child.

Enraged Bull Kills Woman

Valencia, Spain, Aug. 14.—(AP)—A racing bull, intended for the Valencia arena, fought his way to freedom here today, killed one woman, wounded three horses, and frightened the populace. He finally was put in tow, however, and this evening awaited his turn against a matador.

The bull escaped while it was being taken to its pen, preparatory to bull fight. He raced through the streets, with the people scattering in every direction. Finding a door open, he entered the house of Vicente Porta.

Senora De Porta was in the kitchen busy with her work when the bull appeared in the room, and knocking her down, he found his way to a rear door and entered the stable where three horses were eating.

He buffeted the horses and reared on the street, searching for more victims. After having made a complete search of the house, Senora De Porta, when she regained the public thoroughfare, Senora De Porta was found in her kitchen dead from injuries inflicted by the bull.

Ask $3,500 In Campaign To Advertise Greenville; Big Program Is Planned

The campaign for raising the annual advertising fund for the city of Greenville will begin next Tuesday and continue until the sum of $3,500 has been raised. It was stated from the office of the Greenville Merchants Association today. The sum asked for this purpose last year was $2,500, and members of the association today stated that it was impossible to estimate in dollars and cents the amount of good which the city derived from the spending of this amount in advertising its advantages and possibilities.

Fourteen members of the Merchants Association will take part in the campaign. The captains of the four committees will be J. H. Waldrop, C. H. Forbes, L. A. Stroud and B. B. Sugg. Each of the captains will have two committee members to assist him in his work. The various committee follow.

Herbert Waldrop, captain; H. H. Duncan and Roy Kittrell, assistants. C. Heber Forbes, captain, Francis Bowen and Dock Horne, assistants. L. A. Stroud, captain; C. W. Wilson and C. M. Tolier, assistants. Tobacco Town: B. B. Sugg, captain; R. W. Gorman and J. Knott Proctor, assistants.

The advertising campaign will be conducted along more extensive lines this year than ever before because of the healthy growth which the city has experienced over the past several months. This has made it imperative that a larger sum than last year be asked for, and the Merchants Association is hopeful that subscriptions will be liberal enough to enable them to close the campaign in a comparatively short time.

The name of Greenville, the "Hub of Eastern Carolina," and also the shopping centre of Eastern Carolina has been disseminated to the most remote parts of the country, and today the city is enjoying substantial growth from the results of the activity of the advertising committee along this line.

If plans of the committee carry, this year will witness the launching of one of the most ambitious programs in the history of the city and this should be instrumental in placing before the reading public thousands of other facts regarding the advantages and possibilities of the capital of the greatest bright leaf producing county in the world.

SEEK DEPUTY IN DEATH OF S. C. SHERIFF

Harmon Moore Implicated in Murder of Willis by Negro's Confession.

Greenville, S. C., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Harmon Moore, former deputy sheriff, accused along with Blair Rook, negro, of the murder of John D. Willis, sheriff of Greenville county, today was still being sought by officers.

Moore was not at his home in Plains when Deputy Sheriff Mack Parsons and State Constable T. T. Henderson went to arrest him during the night. A systematic search of the county was being made.

A warrant, based on confession of Rook, who admits having been the actual slayer of Sheriff Willis was issued last night. The name of a second man accused by the negro as having been one of two men who employed him to kill Willis and paid him $50 of a promised $500 fee, had not been made public today and so far as known no warrant had been issued.

Willis was shot at midnight as he entered the rear of his home. The slayer fired from near the sheriff's garage. Rook in his confession made public yesterday told how he hid near the edge of the garage and fired three shots killing the sheriff instantly. The negro said he had never seen the sheriff, and only a description to recognize him by.

Mrs. Ethel Gray Willis and Henry Townsend, Chief Deputy to Willis, were accused of the crime but were acquitted nearly two years ago.

Officers searching for Moore, who was a deputy under Charles Rector, who was appointed sheriff after Willis' death, said that they did not believe the man had fled. They said he was supposed to be working for some construction company and probably had not heard of issuance of the warrant.

Sheriff Cliff Bramlett today declined to give the name of the second white man accused by the negro Rook. He permitted the negro to talk with newspapermen again. The negro clung to his story, given in his written confession and talked freely about the killing.

Flier Has Narrow Escape in Forced Landing in Penn.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Jack Webster of Hadley Field, Dunellen, N. J., on an air mail plane bound for Buffalo, N. Y., narrowly escaped death early today when he was forced to land his plane in an orchard a mile from Susequahanna near here. He suffered only minor cuts about the head.

Lost in the heavy fog and fearing that he would run out of gasoline, Webster brought his plane down into the orchard, striking two trees before it finally came to rest. One of the wings was broken.

Body of Girl Found in Bag

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Bound in a gunny sack the body of a girl apparently about 12 or 13 years of age, was found in South Minneapolis today. Her hands were tied and she apparently had been strangled. Two ice men, William C. Hoag, Minneapolis, and William Stokes, St. Paul, found the body and notified police who summoned Mr. and Mrs. Andrew K. Aune, whose daughter, Dorothy, has been missing since yesterday, in an attempt to identify the body.

COMPROMISE REACHED IN DUDLEY CASE

Legal Action Dropped Against Miss Murphy, of Zebulon, for Running Over Child.

Legal action has been dropped against Miss Lillian Murphy, Zebulon young woman, charged with running down and dangerously injuring Charles Dudley, three-year-old son of S. I. Dudley, on the Greenville-Bethel highway, late Monday afternoon. It was understood today.

Miss Murphy appeared before Magistrate C. B. Rowlett yesterday afternoon and agreed to defray expenses of the child incurred in treatment at the local hospital and to repair the damage she had done in every way possible.

The compromise was reached after it had been established that the accident, in which the child received a fractured skull, was unavoidable. The young woman was said to have made every effort to stop her car in time to avoid hitting the child but was confused by two other children who were in the road at the same time.

Mr. Dudley swore out a warrant against Miss Murphy yesterday morning, charging assault with a deadly weapon. When officers went to serve the papers, it was learned that the young woman was already in Greenville and had been at the hospital to determine the extent of the child's injury.

The condition of the youth was described as improved today, although it was impossible to say what complications might develop from the extensive fracture on the top of his head. He was conscious yesterday and this was considered as a good sign leading to ultimate recovery.

THREE KILLED IN HOLDUP OF GAS STATION

Two Bandits and Filling Station Owner Die in Battle at Sanford.

Sanford, N. C., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Three men, two of them alleged bandits, were killed and a woman seriously injured in a battle at a filling station on the outskirts of Sanford early today.

The dead men are Ola Birdsong and his brother, Lee Birdsong, said to be from some town in Kentucky and a man named Gaiher Edwards who operated the filling station. Mrs. Edwards is in a hospital here seriously wounded.

Mrs. Beulah Montgomery, who with her 18-month-old baby, was in a car with the Birdsongs, is held in jail pending investigation.

The Birdsongs and Mrs. Montgomery were up to the filling station about 3:30 o'clock this morning, according to the story told by Mrs. Edwards. The Birdsongs got out of the car and approached the station. As Edwards appeared in the door the men demanded money and Edwards pulled a pistol and started shooting at them. They returned the fire. When the shooting stopped both of the alleged bandits were dead and Edwards was in a dying condition.

Mrs. Edwards went to the aid of her husband and was shot in the shoulder and leg.

The Montgomery woman, who said her home was near Ft. Bragg, N. C., remained in the Birdsong car. She stopped a passing motorist who took Mrs. Edwards to the hospital and notified the Lee county sheriff.

The Montgomery woman told officers she had been visiting in Kentucky. About a week ago the Birdsongs told her they were coming to North Carolina and offered to take her to the home of her aunt near Ft. Bragg. She with her baby came with them. She denied any knowledge of their intention to rob the filling station.

It is rather puzzling why so few readers have taken advantage of the prize distribution in which over $6,000, including four automobiles and cash, is to be distributed within the next few days.

Although The Reflector has been commended on all sides for its generosity, the lack of interest being taken, the few people who are taking an active part is almost unexplainable. This is especially true in view of the number and value of the prizes that are to be distributed. More active candidates are wanted and nominations should reach this office soon to be included among the names of the candidates that will be first published.

It's time for the community to wake up to the fact that this newspaper is making the largest awards of prizes ever heard of in a like field. Never again will the people of Greenville and vicinity have such an opportunity to make so much money in their spare time. It is not a something for nothing proposition. It takes a little effort, but it costs you nothing to enter and win. Every active candidate is absolutely guaranteed 10 per cent of every subscription you turn in. You can't lose and therefore you are not taking any chance by entering your name and going after the big prizes.

There are three sets of prizes, one car and complete set of cash prizes to be given away in each of the three districts. Anyone entering in the country will not be competing against anyone in town except for the choice of first and vice versa.

$1,275.00 Can Be Made
If you have any desire to add from $625.00 to $1,275.00 to your yearly income, then enter your name today and get started because the sooner you get started and let your friends know that you are in, the better.

There are many towns and routes not represented. Actually, the response from the outside districts has been very slow and to think that two-thirds of the total distribution is guaranteed to that section. It almost behooves someone on the face of that to really get in and win a mighty fine prize.

The campaign office of The Reflector is located in The Reflector building, second floor. Stop in and at least do yourself the justice of having this fine proposition explained to you. Headquarters are open from 9 in the morning until 8 o'clock every evening. You are invited to call or phone 444 for detailed information.

Managers of the great Lanchashire cotton stoppage still seemed a long way off today although the situation was much improved by agreement of master spinners to accept the principle arbitration.

Manchester, Eng., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Settlement of the great Lanchashire cotton stoppage still seemed a long way off today although the situation was much improved by agreement of master spinners to accept the principle arbitration. More than 400,000 workers throughout Lanchashire neared the end of their third workless week firm in refusing to start work under the 12-1-2 per cent reductions in wages announced by employers on July 29.

Two Hundred Arrested As Indiana Police Mop Up Rum And Vice Ring

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Units of school age, a mayor, a police chief and men and women operators of scores of speakeasies were among the 200 persons arrested last night and early today as federal prohibition agents mopped up what they termed the Calumet district liquor and vice ring.

By one o'clock this morning 165 Chicago and Indiana harbor, the two cities against which the agents concentrated their drive. As rapidly as the prisoners could be taken to Crown Point for arraignment before a United States commissioner, the 250 raiders returned to the roundup which they said would not be completed until approximately 300 arrests has been made.

Mayor Raleigh P. Hale of East Chicago and his chief of police, James E. Regan, were among the first arrested. Nick Sudovich, catalogued as a lieutenant of scarface Al Capone and as one of the heads of liquor traffic in the Calumet district, also was seized. Federal authorities believe Capone, now in a Philadelphia jail, is the actual head of the alleged liquor and vice ring.

The raids began at six o'clock last night following a secret conference of federal forces at South Bend yesterday afternoon. So swiftly did the agents strike that most of those arrested were taken in the cabarets, speakeasies and saloons where they worked.

Mayor Hale and Chief Regan were charged with conspiracy and a similar charge was made against Sudovich who was found in the cabaret he operates. In many places the agents found girls acting as barmaids, and they were sent with the others to Crown Point for arraignment.

There was no parallel for the raids since 1923 when federal men surprised liquor traffickers in Gary, sending 51 men and women to prison. Those imprisoned following the Gary raids was that city's present mayor, Roswell O. Johnson, a huge liquor conspiracy was charged at that time, and similar charges are involved in the present raids.

Mayor Hale was elected nearly four years ago and took Regan from the Chicago police force to head his law enforcement department. The two men were released early today on bonds of $25,000 each. At the time of their release it was stated that more than 100 warrants remained to be served.

Moscow-New York Flier Is Forced to Land in Siberia

Moscow, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The flight of the Russian military plane "Land of the Soviets," from Moscow toward New York has ended in a forced landing 178 miles from Irkutsk, Siberia. There was no information as to whether either of the men aboard had been injured or whether they would be able to continue their flight.

Tass, official news agency, said the plane had come down in an uninhabited region after taking off from Krasnoyarsk Sunday afternoon. Steps were taken to establish connection with the pilot, Semyon Shestakov, to determine whether he required assistance.

Two Men Held For Attempted Holdup Of Ramseur Bank

Asheboro, N. C., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Everett Ferree, of Greensboro, and his nephew, Paul Ferree, were held in jail here today pending hearing on a charge of attempting to hold up the Bank of Ramseur yesterday.

The two men were captured after they wrecked the car in which they were attempting to escape near Brown's Cross Roads. Both were found in woods near the wrecked car.

The attempted robbery failed when E. B. Leonard, cashier of the bank, yelled "police," instead of handing over the cash demanded.

He said Paul Ferree walked into the bank, asked for change for a bill and then pointed a pistol at him, demanding all the money in the place. Leonard ducked and yelled.

The robbers then ran to a car in which a man believed to be Everett Ferree was waiting and attempted to escape pursuers. Officer following them caught both soon after the car was wrecked.

BIG ZEPPLIN PREPARES FOR WORLD FLIGHT

German Airship to Take-off at Friedrichshafen Before Dawn Tomorrow.

Friedrichshafen, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Final preparations were made today for the Graf Zeppelin, mighty German dirigible, to take off before dawn tomorrow for Tokyo, in continuation of its round-the-world flight.

The zeppelin's five engines were gone over once again, a last inspection was given the fabric which clothes the rigid framework and food, supplies and the ship's cargo of mail were stowed away.

In the zeppelin company offices maps, charts and weather reports, furnished in part by Soviet meteorologists, were subjected to intensive scrutiny of Dr. Hugo Eckener, the ship's master, and his aides. They expected prior to departure to state somewhat more definitely the dirigible's course across northern Asia.

As time for take-off approached, recognition became more and more general that the Graf was undertaking a voyage which will test its air-worthiness to the utmost.

Particularly did the possible extreme northern route, northward from Leningrad to Umanak, seem a supreme test, although as a matter of fact weather conditions that far north were said to be better for an eastward flight than further south, by way of Irkutsk. Much of the route along the northern course would lie north of the Arctic circle.

The 20 passengers, who with 40 officers and crew will be aboard the zeppelin, already have gathered here from all parts of Europe. They were happy at the prospect of getting away tomorrow.

Otto Mann, chief de cuisine, told preparation of food for the voyage. The food, which will be eaten along the route, will be simple. It consists as the thing will be in northern and colder regions, a high proportion of fats will be eaten along such as bacon and ham.

There will be only one of the mascot aboard the zeppelin. Captain Hans von Schiller said, remarking: "Some friend of the zeppelin in New York gave us an amusing looking blue bird—I suppose it is a blue heron—with long legs, but it all over the ordinary white comedian. Knute Eckener, however, by putting dark rimmed spectacles on its nose. It now looks as if it were the airship's sage."

The mascot was to be left behind at the central gondola, watching the scene ahead.

Dr. Eckener was given yesterday at a luncheon at the beautiful Wessertal summer chalet, in which King Gustav of Sweden, and the King Gustav expressed to Dr. Eckener and the crew of the zeppelin his admiration of the work for the science of aviation and asked that the Graf be brought soon to Sweden.

Refused Audience Woman Communist To Speak Anyhow

Raleigh, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Refused an audience by the State Federation of Labor, in convention here, Sophie Melvin, 19-year old organizer for the Communist Youth League, will address an open meeting at the Wake County courthouse tonight. The young woman is one of 16 persons charged with the murder of O. F. Aarholt, Gastonia police chief, who was shot at the Leary strikers camp June 7.

The State Labor body not only voted down a resolution that would have given Miss Melvin the floor, but also adopted a blanket resolution declaring that at no time would the floor be open to any Communist.

Handbills circulated following the labor meeting's action, announced the meeting for tonight and attacked the American Federation of Labor.

The Federation in resolutions adopted pledged full financial support to striking employes of the Marion Manufacturing Company, Marion, N. C., who are backed by the United Textile Workers, branch of the American Federation of Labor, and condemned the present system of handling strike printing.

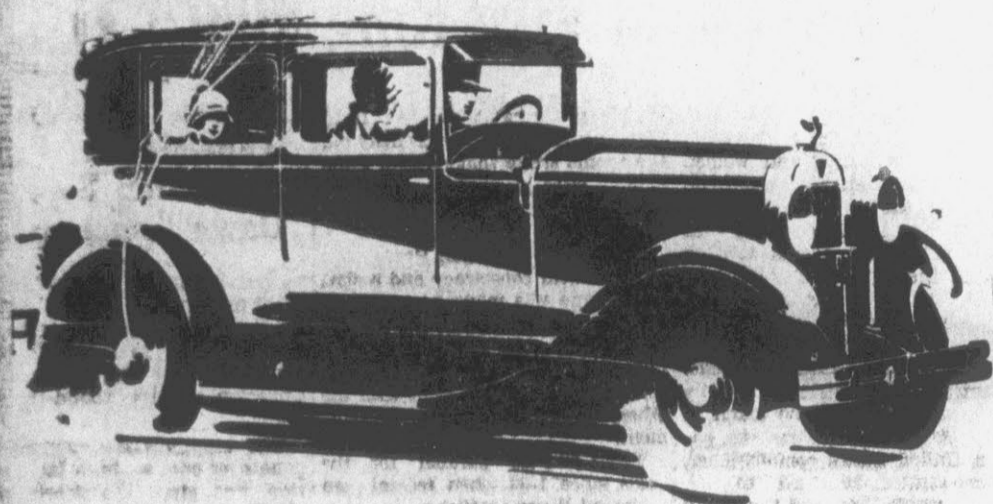

The latter resolution demanded that a separate department of printing be set up in place of the present Department of labor and Printing. It declared there should be a commission of labor "who is a friend to labor."

Curb Market Here Has Good Sales. The Curb Market, which has been operating under a shed by the Joyner Warehouse since May 1, has sold to date $2414.64 worth of produce up to an including August 10. Market days are Tuesday's and Saturday's of each week. Last Saturday the producers on the market sold $196.42 worth. One hundred and two Greenville cars were counted parked on the market in addition to a number of customers who are nearby and walked to the market. The producers at this time are offering a large variety of fresh, crisp choice vegetables to the people of Greenville.

The local farmers who make this market are delighted with the way the people of Greenville are supporting their market and, consequently, are planning to make the market a year around affair. Each grower has agreed to grow a fall garden with from five to ten different vegetables each, which will assure the patrons of the market a good variety of vegetables from which to choose this fall.

Quite a number of the farmers who sell on the market, realize from $3.00 to $20.00 worth of sales each day and should be able to make sales of from $30.00 to $50.00 per day when the market is properly established and the farmers are able to give a constant supply of vegetables and farm produce needed by the people of Greenville. The farmers of Pitt county are endeavoring to establish the best curb market in Eastern North Carolina.

Farmville Rotes Hold Big Outing. Farmville, Aug. 14.—Riverside, a bathing resort near Washington, was the scene, Tuesday, of the annual summer outing to which local Rotary Agns have been looking forward for several weeks.

Fishing, boating and bathing were enjoyed during the afternoon by the Rotarians and their wives, and an elaborate dinner was served at dusk. An entertaining program arranged by Elt Joyner, Dave Oglesby and Jim Gregory had as outstanding features, a speech by John Holmes, the silver tongued orator of the group, vocal numbers by local talented singers of radio fame, Messrs. John Dwight and Elbert Holmes, and piano selections by Dr. John S. Hooker, popular physician of this place.

Age To Wed. Augusta, Me.—Names are withheld but two members of the Maine Three-quarters Century Club, aged 93 and 95, became engaged at the last annual meeting and their wedding will feature the next convention.

DOZEN CASES COMPLETED IN COUNTY COURT

Session Continued Today With Several Other Actions Awaiting Consideration.

Unable to complete its docket yesterday, County Court, with Judge W. L. Wheabee presiding, continued its sitting here today, and indications were that if work was not completed at the half-holiday hour the session would be resumed tomorrow morning.

Twelve or fifteen cases were disposed of yesterday. The charges ranged all the way from carrying concealed weapon to assault with deadly weapon and larceny. The session was distinctive in one instance in that not a single violation of the prohibition laws was given hearing during the day. One case involving a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of whiskey in violation of the traffic laws, was given attention and the offender paid a heavy fine and at the same time saw his license revoked for a period of 90 days.

Marvin Gardner, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, appealed to Superior court after being fined $25.00 and cost of action.

Will Sprull, colored, carrying a concealed weapon, was found guilty of the first charge and ordered to pay a fine of $50.00 and cost.

Amos Weaver, colored, charged with larceny, paid a fine of $25.00 and cost.

Buster Evans, colored, assault with a deadly weapon, judgment suspended upon payment of cost providing the defendant should pay Everett Vance the sum of $10.00.

Alfred Forbes, colored, larceny, judgment was suspended upon payment of cost. He was fined $50.00 and cost in another case.

Heber Whitehurst, colored, assault with deadly weapon, 3 months on the roads. He drew an additional 3 months for carrying a concealed weapon.

Artillery Carmon, colored, assault with a deadly weapon, paid a fine of $15.00 and cost and was ordered to pay a $5.00 doctor's bill.

Judgment was suspended in the case of Ashley Page, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Convicted of a charge of assault, Fred Ernal, colored, paid a fine of $10.00 and cost.

Eli Bowen was sentenced to 30 days in jail on a charge of malicious injury to real estate, but sentence was suspended providing he should pay Joseph Tripp the sum of $4.00.

D. B. Carter, driving an automobile while drunk, paid a fine of $50.00 and cost and had his license revoked for 90 days.

RETURNS FROM CONVENTION OF DeSOTO CAR DEALERS

J. Vance Perkins, of the Sunrell Motor Company, has returned from Charlotte where he attended a convention of DeSoto dealers of North and South Carolina. A train load of DeSotos was unloaded in Charlotte while the convention was in progress. This was the biggest shipment of any make car delivered in Charlotte in five years.

PITT RANKS HIGH IN SALE OF POULTRY

Report of Department of Agriculture Shows County Ranks Eleventh in Sales.

Despite the fact that Pitt county is the largest tobacco growing county in the world, she also ranks high in the sale of poultry in North Carolina. The sales records issued by the State Department of Agriculture show that Pitt county poultry sales for 1929 with a 125,550 pounds, ranks eleventh of all the counties of the state. In other words, there are only ten counties in the state of North Carolina which exceeded the sales of Pitt county. The poultry industry in Pitt county is growing rapidly as indicated by the following record: In 1925, 11,000 pounds were sold; in 1926, 37,317 pounds were sold; in 1927, 32,049 pounds were sold; in 1928, 59,484 pounds were sold, and in 1929 125,550 pounds were sold for more than $30,000. Even our neighbor county, Beaufort, which boasts of its livestock industry sales headed with a million pounds of pork last year, was exceeded in poultry sales by Pitt to the amount of 33,666 pounds, and in addition to sales reported by the State Department of Agriculture, more than 5,000 pounds of poultry for Pitt county were handled through the county agent's office, which did not go through the state department.

In fact, there is not a county in Eastern Carolina whose sales equal that of Pitt county. It appears that Pitt county farmers are determined to make their county an outstanding one in the livestock industry in this section. In addition to the poultry sales handled through the county agent's office, they have this year handled 14 carloads of hogs, the sales of which have amounted to better than $28,000. They are now conducting a dairy program for the county, through the farm agent's office, which will mean substantial increase in dairy development.

According to County Agent E. F. Arnold, more and more stress will be laid on livestock until the farming program of Pitt county is balanced to the point where the farmers will have at least five sources of annual income bringing in money to the farmers of the county throughout the year.

State to Attempt to Connect Two Men With Plot to Get Man's Insurance.

Ocilla, Ga., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Contents of a modest South Carolina grave with a headstone bearing the name of one of three men indicted yesterday for murder, today were ordered exhumed by Solicitor General R. S. Foy, in his effort to connect the men definitely with what the state has described as an "insurance murder plot."

Sheriff W. C. Tyler said action of the solicitor followed "general talk" that the grave held only the charred bones of a goat. Through examination the state will attempt to prove that in the grave in reality is buried Harry Loving, Hunting-ton, W. Va. youth, allegedly an insurance plot victim.

Harry K. Sligh, Irwin county farmer, whose name is inscribed on the headstone, and who disappeared after the burning of his home two years ago to be located several months later following futile efforts to collect $90,000 insurance on his life, and two brothers, James and Aubrey Carlyle Hoover, were charged formally with slaying Loving.

are unavoidable, while in many others they might have been avoided had the drivers been more careful. "Not only watch yourself, but also watch the other fellow. You may be doing your best to stay out of trouble and the other man may not be. Therefore, the necessity of being on the job every moment. "Human life is too precious to be risked as some people are risking it through reckless operation of automobiles. Learn to drive sanely, maintain your equilibrium, and in the long run you will profit by it."

"Our drive to solicit funds for advertising Greenville will get under way next Tuesday," said a member of the Greenville Merchants Association. "Every merchant and business man knows what this campaign has meant and is still meaning to the industrial development of the city and community. "We are asking for $3,500 this year against $3,500 last year. The city is growing and more money, therefore, is necessary for advertising purposes. In fact, in order to maintain the healthy growth which we have experienced in past months it is going to be necessary to advertise more people know what we vertise more extensively and in that way to offer the homeseeker and investor. "When the subscription committees from the Association visit you, make it a point to contribute as liberally as possible. It is money spent in a great cause, one of the greatest causes of the day—the cause of industrial expansion—could there be a greater cause?"

"Remember, Mr. Citizen, that the ball club needs your assistance if it comes out all right financially this season," said an official of the club today. "There is one way you can help and that is to attend as many games as possible the remainder of the season. Look up the schedule and determine when the club plays on home grounds and then turn out to see the boys play. It will do you good and at the same time show the boys that you are behind them. "Everybody has had some splendid diversion through the many games played here this season and they should be appreciative enough to support the club until the final ball has been tossed ringing down the curtain on the present season. "Don't forget the games to be played here this week. Make it a point of attending them and those to follow and rest assured those who follow and rest assured those who guide the destinies of the team will appreciate the support."

"Did you begin reading the new story started in the columns of the Reflector the first of the week?" questioned the manager of circulation of this paper today. "If you did not it is not yet too late to do so. This is one of the really great pieces of fiction of the present day and has many gripping chapters. "This is one of the many splendid features to be read in the columns of the Reflector during the fall and winter months, and if you want to take advantage of them you should let us have your renewal now before the busy season begins. "Think the matter over at once, and then get in touch with the circulation department to see how your subscription is running."

warning sent out by the police department. "Dog owners should listen to the parment that failure to confine dogs will be subject to prosecution," said a well known man today. "The police department is confronted with numbers of complaints regarding the appearance of dogs in residential districts where small children play from day to day. It is natural that parents should be alarmed. A dog's bite may result in the death of a child before medical aid becomes possible, therefore, it may be a silly seen that parents are justified in being alarmed at the visit of dogs to the playgrounds of their children. "If you have a dog, do not wait for the police department to tell you to keep the animal off the streets. Help improve the situation by providing a place of confinement for the animal and in that way save yourself the displeasure of being called into court to answer to why you failed to obey police orders."

LEGAL NOTICE
 The following rules and regulations were adopted by the Board of Conservation and Development at its meeting at Morehead City on July 8th and 9th, and are now the law governing these features and parts of "Inland Fisheries" to which they refer and to the extent expressed:
 It shall be unlawful for any fisherman to use more than one pole while fishing in "Inland Waters" of North Carolina.
 It shall be unlawful to fish with trot lines in "Inland Waters" of North Carolina.
 It shall be lawful to net for minnows to be used or sold for bait with nets not to exceed eight feet in length and two and one-half feet in depth and with a mesh not to exceed one-fourth inch; no sport fish of any size to be taken. All such netting as well as the tanks in which minnows are kept to be subject to frequent inspection by Wardens; Provided, that in the State Lakes, if found advisable special permits may be issued to waters which have been, or may be, stocked with minnows as a public health measure.
 It shall be unlawful to fish by

Death Treasure
 by R. A. J. WALLING

SYNOPSIS: Hired for the mysterious Roger Pell runs as deep in the village of Blackwater as the excavations for archeological treasures under Newplace Abbey, which attracted him to the community. Bertram Fotherbury, new owner of the ancient abbey, is friendly toward him but especially intent is the antipathy of Marling, the Newplace parson. Grenofen, who tells the story, is a newcomer and has grown to like Pell but is more concerned with the flashing blue eyes of Veronica Seabroke. Professor Laxton, eccentric antiquarian expert, interests himself in the Newplace diggings and especially in the profound enigma of Blackwater: Who is Roger Pell?
 Chapter 3
TONGUES OF HATE

I returned home from my visit with Laxton determined to sound out Pell. The opportunity came the next day and I told him of Laxton's pertinent inquiries. Again Pell seemed on the verge of a confidence. "Hmm," said he. Then after a pause, "Look here, Grenofen, you and your mother have taken me for granted. I'll ask you to go on taking me for granted till the whole thing blows up. Then you'll be amused." That ended the promised confidence. Fotherbury received a letter from Laxton the next day, advising that he would be in Blackwater the following Monday. Fotherbury invited me, Commander Seabroke, Royle, Gomerfield, Dr. Eastley and Mr. Marling to his library Monday afternoon to meet Laxton and hear a paper, being prepared by Pell, on the progress of the excavations. On Saturday morning, I, too, received a letter from Laxton and a queer message it was. He expected me to motor to Blackwater Sunday, asking the privilege of staying with us at Woodcot, and requested that I say nothing to anyone about his presence. The letter was typewritten, including the heading, "British Museum." By chance I noted the envelope and discovered that the letter ostensibly originating in the British Museum, had been posted at Tavistock in Devon, 200 miles away. At Pell's inn, I learned he had gone for the day and would be back Sunday evening. I had barely returned to Woodcot, when Marling and Dr. Eastley came to see me. "That fellow Pell's flitted," Marling blurted out. "The whole thing's blown up. Mr. Grenofen, as soon as a real archeologist butted in, Pell's bubble was pricked." I stared amazed at Marling. "In that case," said I, "it seems rather a good thing he's flitted." "Without answering me, Marling continued: "Would you think it a good thing if Miss Seabroke were involved in Pell's flitting?" I felt a jumble of nerves but Marling babbled on about the ghastly farce Monday's meeting would be. He asked that I intervene to keep Professor Laxton from attending. This I refused to do and then Marling asked me to get in touch with Miss Seabroke. Again I declined. "I thought," Marling said then, "you possibly had enough interest in Miss Seabroke to prevent her name being mixed in scandale." "What scandale?" I demanded. "You force me to a thing I didn't want to say. Pell is an ex-convict." So Marling's bombshell burst. Why was he dragging me into this business and using Veronica for the purpose? Unwillingly, he admitted he had made the same charge to Eastley, Seabroke, Royle and Gomerfield. He evaded my question as to Fotherbury but convincingly disclosed himself as the viceroy of the anti-Pell feeling source of all the anti-Pell feeling of his statements. Then the thought processes began to function again and I realized that mystery man Pell was, but I could not believe him a criminal. I had only Marling's word and was thoroughly prepared to doubt that verily. After further futile pleas that I head off Laxton, they left. On sudden impulse, I ferried to Passage and went to see Royle at his cottage and found Somerfield with him—both in a state of abjection and, as I guessed, because of Veronica. Veronica had left Blackwater a week before to spend a fortnight with Mrs. Fairfax, a friend in Kensington. Royle and Somerfield, at a loose end had phoned Mrs. Fairfax to invite Veronica to a new crook play that night. Mrs. Fairfax informed them that Veronica had

Veronica stood in the road—badly frightened but unharmed. left for home that morning when a young man called for her. She thought him one of them. They thought it was I. "You thought of me. Next guess—pell?" "He must have ben one of 'em." "One of whom?" I asked, surprised. "Didn't I tell you that soon after shed gone another man called with another card. I would say that it was that blighter, young Fotherbury." "Why not call on Veronica this evening," said I, "and ask what sort of a trip she had on the road to—?" "Bully idea!" they both shouted. I did not, however, put the question to Veronica that Saturday evening, for she was not at home and Mrs. Seabroke told us she was returning until the following Wednesday or Thursday. I sat at Woodcot later, gazing

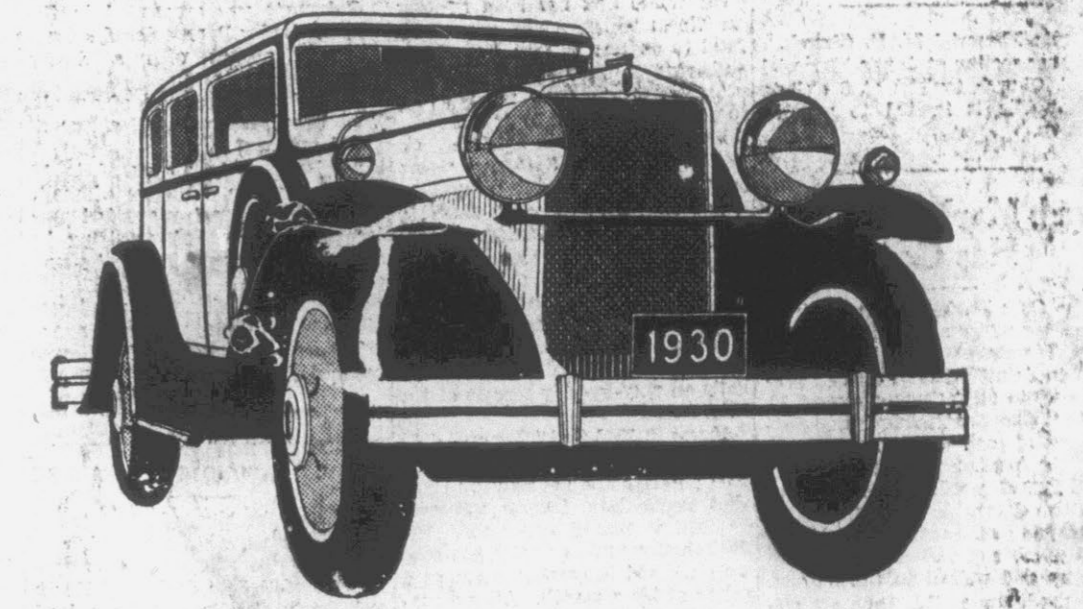

They lingered until after tea myself on tenderhooks lest Laxton should turn up and his elaborate plan for secrecy thus be spoiled. It was so relieved when they prepared to go that I said I would walk down to the main road with them. Just after we had come in sight of the road, we saw first one and then another figure flit by the bottom of the lane, running. "Hello!" said Somerfield, and loped down the remaining yards. Royle and I following. "Somebody in a deuce of a hurry," said Royle. Listening, we heard quick footsteps, which suddenly stopped. Then a man's voice. Then a woman's. Then a little squeak as of alarm. Instantly we all three sprung. In a hundred yards we came up her, leaning against the bank and panting. "Veronica!" Royle cried. "There he goes!" exclaimed Somerfield, dashing after a shadow. THE 1930 HUPMOBILE SIX

It is a Hupmobile in every detail of its construction... Powered by the selfsame Hupmobile motor which made the Century Six a spectacular success... Built to Hupmobile's rigid standards of precision manufacture... It is 100% a Hupmobile—but a more powerful Hupmobile. With its time-tested Hupmobile engine made still smoother and sweeter running... It is 100% a Hupmobile—but a handsomer Hupmobile. Made still smarter by cleverly tailored sheet metal, by new, lower-slung lines... It is 100% a Hupmobile—but a still sweeter riding and driving Hupmobile. Made more comfortable by more seat and leg room, by many engineering refinements, adding to speed, safety and ease of control... Today, Hupmobile's long renown as "The Car of the American Family" takes on a new significance.

GREENS STOP WINNING PACE OF THE SCOTS

Fayetteville, Aug. 13.—(AP).—The winning streak of the Highlanders came to a close today when Greenville, with Skelton on the mound, defeated them six to five. The game was played in a soggy field and was started 45 minutes late.

The big Greenville twirler kept his nine hits well scattered while Withrow gave way to Stephenson in the fourth after three hits and two walks had scored three runners. Only one run was scored after that inning by the Greens and that was due to a free trip to first, a balk and a single.

Run-making was started by the Highlanders in the first but was halted until the fifth when Watson hit a home run with Mackie on base. In the ninth Mackie hit for three bases with Crow on base but the rally died when Watson lifted to Nalbock.

Cox and Skelton got three hits each for the visitors, and Mackie three for the home club. Rhinehardt fanned in the first inning but the ball got away from Clemens and went to the dugout. Rhinehardt taking second and Mackie scoring. The box:

Patriots Still Hitting Hard

(By The Associated Press) The Patriots kept the batting punch working yesterday and rolled over Winston-Salem 8 to 7 in ten innings to cling to their lead of two and one-half games in the Piedmont.

Brandon turned the trick for the Pats with a single that scored Kilpatrick from second. Dabague had passed the Greensboro shortstop who then swiped second.

The Bulls, in hot pursuit of the league-leading Pats, were victimized High Point 4 to 0. Weaver led the pointers down with one hit.

The Colts battled their way from the cellar with a 4-2 victory and a clean sweep of the Henderson series. Packard hit a homer in the eighth without an out on that won for the Colts.

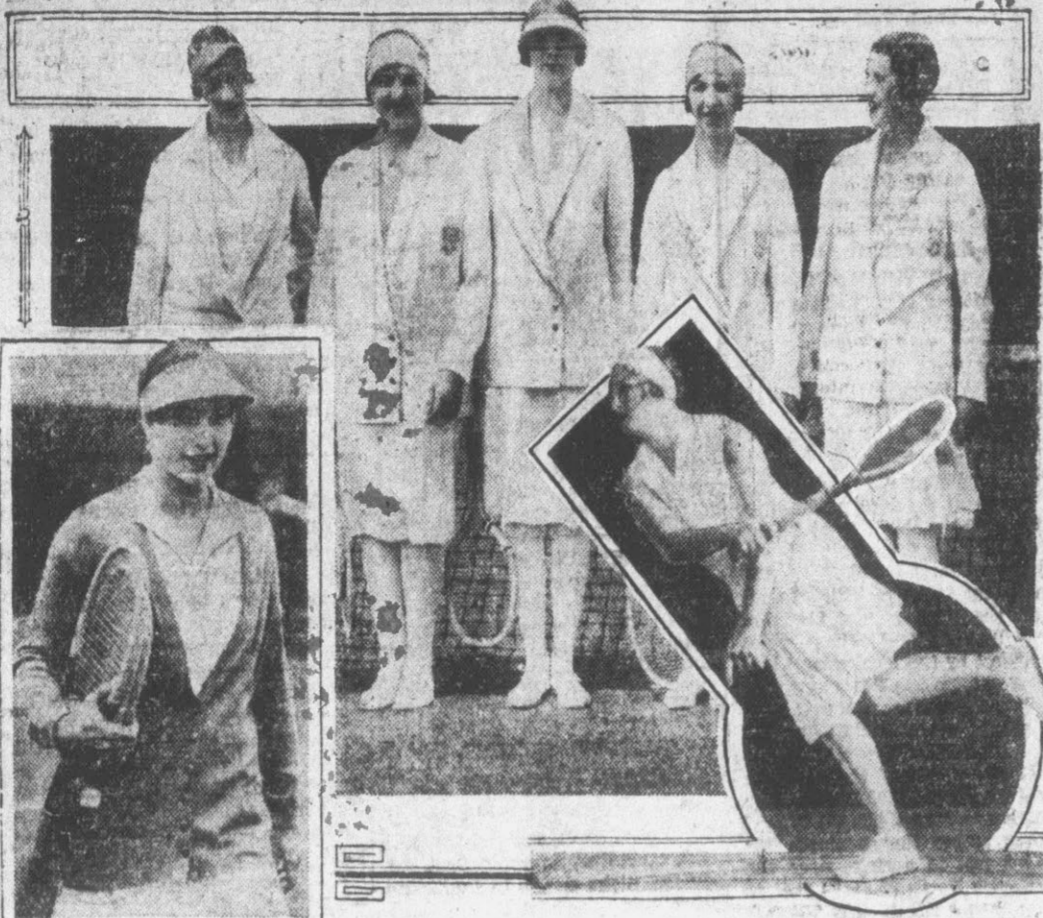

Rocky Mount beat back Wilmington's challenge in the Eastern Carolina 4 to 1. Moos scattered six hits among the Pirates and got good support.

Kinston duffed Goldsboro 6 to 5, but failed to break through Coats' (lane's perfect defense while the Bucs scored three, receiving aid through an error. Fayetteville's run of five straight victories snapped before Greenville's attack. The Greens drove Withrow from the box in the fourth and won 6 to 5.

MACKMEN WIN FINAL GAME OFF DETROIT

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN (Associated Press Sport Writer.) The Athletics are skipping merrily along again as Eastern American league clubs prepare for the second series of their final western invasion. Following Rube Walberg's brilliantly pitched effort against the Tigers on Monday, old John Pius Quinn turned in a neat game yesterday to shade Victor Sorrell by 4 to 3 in the Mackmen's last appearance of the season in Detroit. It now remains only for Mose Grove to turn in a good game, and he probably will get his chance at Cleveland today.

Grove's next effort will mark his fifth attempt to wrest his eighteen-year-old title from the victors of old man percentage. He last won on July 25.

The victory of the Athletics gave them three out of four in Detroit and enabled them to stretch their lead to 12 and one-half games, their greatest margin of the season. The Yankees were nosed out in Cleveland by 3 to 2.

Quinn gave the Tigers eight hits, two more than the Macks exacted from Sorrell, but the game was not nearly so close as the score sounded. Home runs by Sammy Hale and Jimmy Foxx, his twenty-seventh, provided Quinn with his winning margin.

Fred Heimach turned in high class ball against the Indians for eight innings only to weaken in the ninth when he walked Fonseca and permitted Grover Hartley to single with one gone.

Wiley Moore then rushed to the rescue, not of the Yankees but of the Indians. Hodapp greeted him with a triple which drove in the two runs needed to win.

As Ferrell pitched his usual strong game against the Yankees. He was in trouble only in the third when the Hugmen rapped him for their two runs. The defeat marked the third reverse for the Champions in four games at Cleveland, and ran the Indians' string over the Hugmen for the season to 12 out of 17.

Ed Morris tossed a fine game down the throats of the White Sox to enable the Red Sox to escape from Chicago with the last game of the series, 8 to 2. The Browns turned on the Senators, 14 to 2, in the get-away game at St. Louis.

With half of the National League clubs idle because of the advancement of games in the schedule at Brooklyn and Philadelphia, the Cubs found the Pirates taking the afternoon off. By way of cashing in on this situation, the Bruins nosed out the Braves by 4 to 2 in the last game of the series at Boston, and increased the Chicago lead to eight and one-half games.

More important even than the victory itself was the continued fine showing of Hal Carlson who won his sixth straight. The Reds trimmed the Giants by 3 to 1 in the last of five games at the park grounds, and at the same time broke the spell Fred Littsmons had held over them. Big Fitz had a record of five victories over the men of Hendricks until yesterday, four of them by the short-off route. Eppa Rixey allowed ten hits but kept the scattered to win the odd game in five.

BUCS LEAD IN FIELDING AND BATTING RACE

Not content with leading the league in the standing of clubs column in the last half of the season of the Eastern Carolina league, Rocky Mount also stepped out and captured both batting and fielding honors on all games up to an including Monday, August 5th, according to a compilation released for publication this week.

Wilmington, winners of the first half, came in for next honors, winning second place in batting and fielding. Kinston occupied the bottom of the list.

In the individual batting list, giving all players who have participated in fifteen games or more, and are batting 200 or more, Reils, Rocky Mount third baseman, slugged his way to first position with a percentage of 364. His closest contender was Cooper, of Kinston, with an average of 346. Kendall, Greenville left fielder, was credited with seventh position.

The list of averages follows:

COTTON MARKET

New York, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 13 to 9 points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables, while there appeared to be some realizing or reselling by buyers of yesterday which may have been influenced by uncertainty as to the showing of the weakly weather report. Trading was comparatively quiet, with a moderate demand promoted by talk of continued need of rain and high temperatures in the Midwest, and prices held fairly steady at the decline.

October was ruling around 18.22 and March 16.80 at the end of the first half hour, or about 2 to 10 points net lower. Liverpool cables said that covering and consignment buying had been supplied, by realizing in the market there.

A fair inquiry for cotton cloth was reported in Manchester from India but yarns were said to be low.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The wild "bull" movement, which has been in progress in some of the high priced industrials and rails since last Friday's drastic break, showed signs of slowing up today under heavy selling inspired by the fears of another large increase of Federal Reserve brokers' loans this week. A sprinkling of issues, including U. S. Steel common, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric and Consolidated Gas, were whirled up 8 to 16 points to new high records in the early trading, but sagged 2 1/2 to 6 1/2 points below their highs in the early afternoon selling movement.

Meanwhile, the rapidity of the recent advance induced heavy profit taking and some short selling in other stocks, giving the general list an irregular appearance. At least a score of the recent favorites dipped 2 to 8 points below yesterday's final quotations. Several of the large commission houses urged extreme caution in the making of new commitments, and this tended to bring in selling from small traders and investors throughout the country.

Conditions for the "bid" were, however, generally favorable for stocks of high current earnings power on the theory that the reaction in the market was likely until general business showed signs of slowing up. Weekly steel trade reviews reported some reasonable curtailment in demand but no appreciable reduction in output. The latest batch of earnings reports gave further testimony to the prosperity enjoyed by most corporations in the first half of the year.

Credit conditions showed some of another relaxation despite the bullish stock market activity of the last few days. Call money remained at 10 per cent, as against 8 yesterday, and dropped to 8 in the early afternoon. This was the first time in six weeks that call money has been quoted as low as 8 per cent. Time money rates also were shaded slightly. Meanwhile, London cables announced the shipment of more than $50,000,000 in gold to New York Wall Street, which was held in gold provides the basis for $10 in credit.

Percent of activity and sentiment in the all shares, presumably based on the reaction in price activity reported last week by the American Petroleum Institute, was 60 of the 100, and Standard Oil of New

Two Seriously Hurt in Wreck

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Two brothers, both more than 60 years old, were in a serious condition today as the result of two automobile accidents yesterday. One was run down as he left the bedside of the other at Mission hospital.

Frank A. Summer, 76 years old, was at his home, 381 Merrimon avenue, suffering internal injuries and a fracture of the arm. He was run down on Woodfin street just after he had left the bedside of his brother, V. Summer, 69, of 265 Haywood Road.

Z. V. Summer was taken to Mission hospital shortly after noon yesterday suffering fracture of the hip and shoulder. He was reported resting well today, though his condition was said to be serious. Mr. Summer was injured when his automobile overturned down an embankment near Lake Lure. He was alone at the time of the accident.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by James A. Adams and wife, Lila Adams, on the 11th day of April, 1923, and recorded in book A-15, page 1, we will on Saturday, the 24th day of August, 1929 at 12 o'clock noon, at the courthouse door in Greenville, Pitt County, sell at public auction for cash, to the highest bidder the following land to-wit:

A tract of land bounded on the North by the lands of Wiley Langley; on the East by the lands of Thomas Teel and R. D. Harrington; on the West by the Nobles land and on the South by Tar River and particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a stake on the North bank of Tar River and running North 5° E 1551 feet to a stake; thence North 12° 30' W 290 feet to a stake; thence North 15° 30' E 535 feet to a stake near the road; thence North 85° E 50 feet to a stake; thence North 85° E 784 feet to a stake on a ditch; thence with the ditch South 20° W 100 feet; thence South 5° W 2080 feet to a stake; thence South 5° W 191 feet to a stake; thence South 53° 20' East 424 feet to a gum; thence South 46° 45' East 318 feet to a stake; thence South 3° 20' West 1180 feet to Tar River; thence in said river to the beginning, containing by actual survey 77.05 acres of land.

This sale is made by reason of the failure of James A. Adams and wife Lila Adams to pay off and discharge the indebtedness secured by said deed of trust to the North Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank of Durham.

A deposit of 10 per cent will be required of the purchaser at the sale.

Strikingly Beautiful
 — these Persian Designs

Whittall Rugs
Quinn-Miller & Co.
 "The Live Furniture Dealers"

BECAUSE no other race has quite caught the true spirit of rug design, many of the Whittall Anglo-Persians we have selected for your approval are Oriental in theme and coloring. And, to enhance this beauty, there is the charm of a texture unsurpassed in quality. These are the reasons why we so confidently recommend Whittall Rugs to you.

Let us show you these latest examples of modern weaving.

There's new hill-climbing ability— just give the Roosevelt a little heavier toe and watch eight cylinders really go to work.

There's comfort made possible by extra-long springs and extra-deep cushions.

There's power, punch and get-away that no other car at the price can possibly cope with.

There's sureness and confidence of control that takes all the fight and tension out of driving.

There's a Roosevelt ready for you today.

The first Straight-8 in the $1000 field

the Roosevelt
 MARMON-BUILT

There have been any number of four-cylinder cars at this price. Today there are many sixes at this figure. But there is only one straight-eight—the Roosevelt.

You can do things with this Roosevelt that have never before been possible with any car selling around $1000.

There's power, punch and get-away that no other car at the price can possibly cope with.
