

Report Increase In Use of Cotton Goods in America

Washington, Oct. 10.—(AP)—An increase of 20 per cent in the use of finished cotton goods for the first seven months of 1929 over the same period last year was reported today by a committee on new uses for cotton.

The committee is composed of representatives from the departments of commerce and agriculture and the textile industry. It has received reports from the cotton textile institute on the men's clothing market indicating consumption in that field could be enlarged.

Further, the committee is studying use of cotton bags for shipment of foodstuffs. Recently two carloads of oranges were packed in cotton bags for shipment. The committee also is observing an experiment by District of Columbia authorities in the use of cotton instead of paint for traffic markers.

Kansas City Will Get Largest Cigar Factory in World

Kansas City, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The largest cigar factory in the world, with an annual payroll of $4,000,000 and an investment of $3,000,000 will be opened here by the American Cigar Company, subsidiary of the American Tobacco Company, as soon as equipment can be installed.

Announcement of decision to open the plant here was made last night by Frank W. Harwood, vice-president of the company. The factory will be devoted exclusively to production of a cigar now manufactured by the Niles and Moser Cigar Company of Kansas City.

Demand Personality Books
Lake Placid, N. Y.—There is quite a rush on public libraries by girls who desire to become charming. Such has been brought out at a meeting of the New York Library Association. Books that tell how personality may be developed are scarce and more in demand.

PRAIRIE DISTRICTS OF MANITOBA UNDER SNOW

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Prairie districts west of Winnipeg were covered with snow today. At Brandon and Virden the fall was especially heavy.

Three Trainmen Died in Collision

Portage, Pa., Oct. 10.—(AP)—An east bound passenger train and a west bound freight train crashed head-on, west of the Pennsylvania passenger station here late last night, killing three trainmen.

The dead are W. T. Johnson, of Youngwood, Pa., engineer of the passenger train; W. C. Reed; Altona, Pa., engineer of the freight train; and G. L. Burkholder, Jeanette, Pa., fireman on the passenger train. J. C. Flenner, fireman of the freight train, leaped to safety.

CONVENTION TO COME TO CLOSE HERE TONIGHT

This imports solely, man should mount on each new height in view, since all things suffer change save God and Truth.

The order was called to refreshment at 1 o'clock immediately after a quiet hour service conducted by Mrs. C. W. Hearne, who chose as her theme, "Comradeship With God."

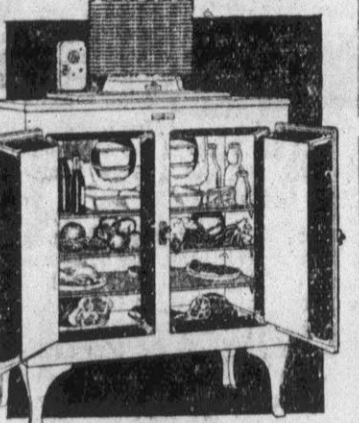

A word concerning the hospitality of the Greenville people would not be amiss at this point. Delectable luncheons were prepared and served both days by lavish and willing hands and Mayor Con Lanier's welcoming speech seems to have been endorsed by the whole city.

WAGGONER SENTENCED TO FIFTEEN YEARS IN JAIL IN FRAUD CASE

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Charles Delos Waggoner, Telluride, Colo., bank president, was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment today on his plea of guilty to mail fraud in connection with a scheme to obtain $500,000 from six New York banks by means of forged authorization papers.

NOT A DOLLAR FOR REPAIRS NOT A DOLLAR FOR SERVICE

NO wonder the owner of a General Electric feels a glow of pride when he says, quietly, "Yes, we have a General Electric." For what electric refrigerator can match his in efficiency, in quietness, in stamina, in trouble-free service?

The record of more than 350,000 in use with no owner having spent a dollar for repairs or service is one which truly challenges comparison.

The mechanism of the General Electric is so simple... it never needs oiling... it is hermetically sealed. It has an accessible freezing regulator. It makes plenty of ice cubes.

And, of course, it automatically maintains a temperature several degrees below 50—the figure which medical authorities agree is the danger point in food preservation. Come in today and ask about our conveniently spaced payment plan.

Social & Personal

Mrs. B. O. Turnage, Mrs. Joe Parker, Mrs. John Hooker, and Mrs. Leslie Smith, of Farmville, were here today.

Mrs. Plato Monk, of Farmville, spent sometime in Greenville today.

Mrs. E. T. Dickinson and Mrs. Penn Watson, of Wilson, were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Allan Osborne, of Kinston, visited friends in Greenville yesterday.

Major Frank W. Wilson, of Denver, Colorado, arrived last evening to visit his father, W. B. Wilson.

Miss Ada James and Charles Heber Forbes went to Kinston this morning.

Miss Ollie Suther, of Durham, and Warren Hollingsworth, of New Mexico, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Whitchard, Jr., today.

Mrs. I. F. Lee, of Chapel Hill, is visiting friends in Greenville.

Thompson—Albritton.

This morning at eight o'clock at the Episcopal rectory, Miss Bessie Lee Albritton and Charles B. Thompson were married. Rev. W. A. Lillycrop performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of blue panne velvet, with hat, shoes and coat of black.

Only members of the families and a few intimate friends were present.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left for a wedding trip through the Valley of Virginia.

Mrs. Thompson is the attractive daughter of B. G. Albritton. She has always made her home in Greenville and has a large circle of friends. Mr. Thompson formerly of Aurora, is manager of Carolina Gas Company, and has made many numbers of friends since he came to this city. They will make their home in Greenville.

Wilcox—Wilson.

Morristown, N. J., Sept. 29.—"Eagle's Nest," the home of former Judge C. Franklin and Dr. Grace Flanders Wilson, on Court street, was the scene today of a gathering of relatives and immediate friends to witness the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Ruth Irene Wilson, to Stanley Dewey Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy H. Wilcox, of Springfield, Mass., at high noon. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Lois Wilcox, of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, the bridal party entered the room where the bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. M. A. Reinhardt, a friend of the family, performed the ceremony before a bank of palms and radioli.

The bride had her sister, Miss Margaret Wilson, as her only attendant, while Mr. Wilcox had Mr. Burdick, of Philadelphia, as his best man. The ushers were Leonid J. J. Smith, of New York City, and Charles F. Moore, of Short Hills. The bride was attractively gowned in blue, with champagne chiffon and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and lily of the valley.

The maid of honor wore a gown of blue and white, with champagne chiffon and carried gladioli, with red delphinium.

The bride's mother wore black extension with white beaded pasties.

The entire and a corsage bouquet of Morrisies of the valley.

The bridegroom's mother wore tips of black satin.

In elaborate wedding breakfast quarters served following the ceremony. There were 125 guests present, including some having attended the wedding of the bride's parents in the same house 27 years ago. Guests were made present from Springfield, Mass., at New York City, North Carolina, Short Hills and Morrinstown.

Mrs. Wilcox is a graduate of Packer Collegiate Institute of Brooklyn, and of the University of Michigan.

Mr. Wilcox is a graduate of the Massachusetts Agricultural College.

The couple immediately departed.

Surprised At Way It Helped

Cardui Taken By a Missouri Lady Who Had Been Weak, Nervous.

Poplar Bluff, Mo.—"My health has been much better since I began taking Cardui," declares Miss Kate Grisham, 644 Maple Street, this city. Miss Grisham tells how she had suffered:

"I was weak and nervous, felt tired and ached all the time. My back and limbs ached so badly I could hardly stay on my feet long enough to cook a meal.

"I spent most of my time resting and trying to get enough energy to do my work.

"I worried along, trying first one thing and then another. I seemed to get no better.

"One day I read about Cardui and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and was surprised the way it helped me. I got another bottle. My strength began to come back and I gained in weight. I am less nervous. I can do my work, and no longer feel those tired, aching pains."

Cardui is a reconstructive tonic, extracted from herbs of long-known medicinal value.

TEA AT WOMAN'S CLUB

One of the most delightful of the early fall social events was the tea which was given by the members of the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. M. W. Leibert, international president of the King's Daughters, Mrs. Hortense Moyer, state president and all delegates and visitors in attendance at the annual convention now in session. Members of the Patient Circle King's Daughters and all club women of the city were also invited.

The club house was most artistically decorated by members of the Garden Club, who decided to have their annual dahlia exhibit at this time.

The guests were welcomed at the front door by Mrs. H. E. Austin and Mrs. Travis Hooker, who introduced them to the receiving line, which was composed of Mesdames J. H. B. Moore, M. W. Leibert, W. H. S. Burgwyn, R. T. Frye, J. B. Cherry, Hortense Moyer, J. L. Little, J. C. Angier, W. T. Uetishi, Thomas McGee, J. B. Spillman, R. L. Wright, E. L. Henderson, W. L. Hall, R. L. Smith, and J. H. Rose.

Mrs. R. C. Deal and Mrs. J. Key Brown escorted the visitors to the dining room door where they were greeted by Mrs. W. H. Woolard and Mrs. O. G. Guiley and invited into the spacious banquet hall in which tea and sandwiches were served from a beautifully appointed table at which presided Mrs. M. K. Ford and Mrs. J. B. Kittrell. Assisting Mrs. M. L. Wright in serving were Mesdames K. B. Pace, Knott Proctor, Luther Bowling, E. L. Hillman, H. H. Duncan, P. G. Dennis, S. B. Currin and J. L. Wooten.

Before leaving the guests were invited into the "dahlia room" by Mrs. E. B. Allbrook and Mrs. E. F. Arnold, where many handsome blooms were on display. Each guest was requested to register before not quite so long. On opening

DUNCAN DANCERS RECEIVE OVATION AT CARNEGIE HALL

A representative of the Duncan Dancers has been in town getting everything in readiness for the appearance of the great Russian dancers on next Tuesday evening, October 15, at the East Carolina Teachers College.

They opened their second season in America at Carnegie Hall on the evening of Sunday, October 6, and received a veritable ovation, with encore after encore, and with exclamations from the audience of "marvelous," "magnificent." The great hall was filled to overflowing. They are appearing in New York every night this week, and will leave on their first southern tour at the end of the week. They will be in Lynchburg on next Monday evening and will come from there here, making this the second stop of the season on tour. The only southern appearance of last year was one night in Richmond.

There are thirteen in the company. Irma Duncan, the leader and the successor of the great Isadora, and ten girls whose earlier training was under the great Isadora herself. They are just from Moscow—and are the best from the famous Moscow School of Dancing. The pianist is a musician of note. The mistress of the wardrobe is an important member of the company.

Many of the numbers given at Carnegie Hall are on their program here, but the program here will not be quite so long. On opening nights when the critics are on hand and the art-loving New York public wants a long, full evening, the program is usually lengthened, but the best of what they have will be given here.

Calvary church here November 6 to 11 inclusive.

The Rev. S. W. Taylor, of Greensboro, president of the conference will preside at all sessions of the gathering. The Rev. C. W. Bates, who will be host to conference is completing his thirteenth year as secretary of the conference.

The area of the conference embraces all of North Carolina and parts of South Carolina and Virginia. There are 93 pastoral charges in the conference, many of them within a 40-mile radius of Greensboro.

Among the prominent ministers and laymen expected to attend are John C. Bloomfield, of Pittsburg, Pa., President of the Central Conference; James H. Straughn, of Washington, treasurer and promotional secretary; G. W. Haddaway, Baltimore, executive secretary of the Board of Missions; and Dr. E. P. Branson, of Chapel Hill.

PRESS AGENTS GALORE.

When Irving Cobb startled us out of our humility a few years ago with the assertion that all North Carolina needed was a press agent, nobody stopped to think that North Carolina has press agents . . . literally thousands of them in the loyal sons and daughters who have left the State for one cause or another to make their home and their fortunes.

Letters coming back home from these wanderers from the native hearthstone now speak of undying loyalty to the State of their birth. It isn't the stubborn inferiority complex loyalty that would label all our critics as wittlings and scorners. It is the intelligent, enthusiastic loyalty of men and women who have had the stamina to hold their own outside the State and who have watched proudly the State of their birth making a place for itself in the sisterhood of commonwealths.

This Home Coming next week with the old fires of love and loyalty stirred into fresh glow, suggests that North Carolina, purely as a practical matter of its own promotion, should not again let the tie that binds the State with its absent natives, go unrenewed for twenty-five years.

It has been that long since North Carolina invited its sons and daughters home for a real home coming. The re-establishment of the bonds should not be temporary. In most of the larger cities outside the State, native North Carolinians have organized North Carolina clubs. Largely they are social now but they invite the suggestion that one of the duties of the State Department of Conservation and Development should be the promotion of the organization of North Carolinians outside the State into groups whose influence may do more for the State beyond its borders than all the press agents who could be assembled.

After all, the most potent witness to North Carolina's advantages is the successful man outside the State who can speak of it with pride and understanding as the State of his birth, a State of which he need not be ashamed.—News and Observer.

N. C. Manufacturer
Dead at Baltimore

Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Hugh G. Chatham, 66, president of the Chatham Manufacturing company, of Winston-Salem and Elkin, N. C., died early today in a Baltimore hospital, according to word received by relatives here.

Mr. Chatham's death was sudden. He left Winston-Salem a few days ago to enter a hospital in Baltimore, where he underwent an operation, but pneumonia developed, and he died today.

For many years, Mr. Chatham was prominent in the business and political world of North Carolina, being president of the Chatham Manufacturing company, one of the most widely known blanket-manufacturing companies of the United States, selling many blankets to the federal government.

Mr. Chatham was a former chairman of the State Finance committee, in addition to serving on several other important committees. He also was a former president of the North Carolina railroad and a promoter of the Elkins and Allegheny railroad.

Born at Elkin, Mr. Chatham spent his early life there, where his father owned a woolen mill. He moved to Winston-Salem in 1906, and began the operation of the blanket company here, in addition to handling the affairs of the Elkin plant.

Mr. Chatham is survived by four brothers, Paul, of Charlotte; and R. M. Alex and Don Chatham, of Elkin; one sister, Mrs. M. E. Mossinger, wife of the secretary of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company, of Winston-Salem; one son, Thurmon, and one daughter Mrs. Ralph Hanes, both of Winston-Salem.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at an early hour this morning.

GAVE HIS BALL GAME
TICKET TO WRONG MAN

Chicago, Oct. 10.—(AP)—You could have knocked Policeman William Shea over with a feather yesterday when a long arm reached out, handed him a box seat to the world series ball game, and then disappeared.

Officer Shea was on duty at the exit turnstile of the Addison street "L" station. Trains were disgorging passengers and there was a big crowd clicking through. Officer Shea stood there shouting: "This way to the ball park."

Out of the mass of masculinity whirling through the turnstile the arm came, and a hand shoved the ticket into the policeman's hand.

At the time Shea realized what had happened, the unknown Santa Claus had gone.

Officer Shea reported at once to Lieut. Thomas McGrath and asked permission to use the ticket, which was granted. He went to the park and plunked himself down in the choice seat.

A little later a very angry man from Maquoketh, Ia., began pestering the policemen. He said he had handed his world series ticket to a policeman at the "L" turnstile, thinking it was the entrance to the park. Eventually he came to Lieut. McGrath who realized what had happened. He escorted the man from Maquoketh into the park just in time to see the ninth inning and in time to see what a nice seat he might have had.

North Carolina registers 65% increase in EIGHTS

As proof of the tremendous growth in public preference for eight-cylinder cars, registration figures in this state for the first seven months of 1929 tell their own story. Eights above $1000 showed an increase of 65 per cent while Sixes in the same price field decreased 27 per cent.

The tendency is the same the nation over. In 43 states, * Eights above $1000 increased 94 per cent. Sixes declined 18 per cent. Nobody can doubt the evidence. We are passing into an eight-cylinder era!

Studebaker today leads the world in the manufacture of Eights—Eights that are champions—holders of 11 world records for speed and endurance and more American stock car records than all other makes combined—Eights which are remarkably economical—smooth, flexible, brilliant.

Drive a smart new Studebaker Eight—President, Commander or Dictator—each backed by Studebaker's 77 years of manufacturing integrity. Your new car will be worth more a year from now—if it's an Eight!

*5 states do not compile registrations by engine types.

JUNIOR WORK EMPHASIZED AT MEETING

Delegates to Annual Convention of King's Daughters Royally Entertained

EVA HORTON SHACKLEFORD
The Junior work of the King's Daughters and Sons was emphasized at the Wednesday afternoon session of the 40th annual convention now in session here, the principal address being prepared by Mrs. C. D. Riggsbee and read in her absence by Mrs. A. V. Cole, both Durham women.

Mrs. Riggsbee pointed out the necessity of organizing Junior Circles in each city and town of the State, saying that the leader of tomorrow must be trained today. She also took into account the young people themselves and the personal benefits they receive from membership in the Order and real service to others. The Junior Circle reports were very encouraging and bore Mrs. Riggsbee out in her declarations of mutual service and benefit. Miss Ada Jones of the Stonewall Jackson Juniors of Greenville spoke very interestingly of the activities of her group and much enthusiasm was aroused.

The report of the Building committee of the proposed chapel at the Jackson Training school given by Miss Sasdale Shaw of Rockingham and an informal ballot were events of importance on the program of the afternoon.

The devotionals were conducted in a most impressive manner by the International president, Mrs. Morris W. Leibert of New York.

The delegates and visitors were taken for a drive at 4:00 o'clock around Pitt county's capital city by members of the Greenville Junior Circle. Among the interesting places pointed out by the youthful chauffeurs and guides were the East Carolina Teachers College, an institution of learning unique in its scope and recognized throughout the south as an asset of incomparable value, the Rotary Home which enjoys the distinction of being the only one in the world.

At 5:00 o'clock the Daughters were further entertained at a brilliant tea given by the Woman's Club at its handsome new club house on Third street. The entire lower floor was most elaborately and artistically decorated for this occasion, baskets of fall flowers being used with fine effect. The handsome dainties were particularly admired.

Mrs. H. E. Austin and Mrs. T. E. Hocker greeted the guests at the door invited them into the west room and introduced them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. J. B. Moore, Mrs. Hester Moore of Greenville; Mrs. Morris W. Leibert of New York; Mrs. W. R. S. Burgwyn of Raleigh; Mrs. J. C. Anger of Durham; Mrs. W. T. Gutsch of Raleigh; Mrs. J. L. Little; Mrs. J. B. Cherry, Mrs. Thomas McGee, J. B. Spillman, R. H. Wright, E. L. Henderson, W. L. Hall, R. L. Smith and J. H. Rose of Greenville.

Mrs. R. C. Deal, Mrs. J. K. Brown, Mrs. E. B. Woolard, and Mrs. O. C. Guisey directed the guests into the spacious dining room where Mrs. J. B. Kittrell and Mrs. M. F. Fort were seated at either end of the table pouring tea, with Mrs. L. H. Bowling, Mrs. R. S. Neal, Mrs. K. B. Pace, Mrs. Knott Proctor, Mrs. Herman Duncan and Mrs. E. L. Hillman assisting in serving a variety of sandwiches.

Receiving in the east room was Mrs. E. B. Allsbrook with Mrs. E. F. Arnold presiding over the register.

In the evening the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, where all of the meetings are being held, was well filled with delegates and many outsiders who were interested in seeing and hearing a speaker and a leader, who is well-known and honored throughout the United States and other countries, not only because of her rare ability as an executive but as a woman of charming personality and cultivated mind.

An organ recital of merit was given by Mrs. Ray Tyson at the first number on the program and this was followed by a Devotional service conducted by Rev. W. A. Litcher of the Episcopal church. After an anthem of the Greenville Choral society directed and accompanied by Miss Genie Thomas and Mrs. Guy Smith, the assemblage was introduced to Mrs. Leibert by the beloved Honorary State President, Mrs. W. H. S. Burgwyn of Raleigh. Mrs. Leibert speaking on "Our Heritage," urged her hearers to a better appreciation of the legacy left by the King and His Daughters and Sons, traced the origin from the tiny organization of ten women who met in New York City in 1889 to its present 2,500 circles with 75,000 members in this country and foreign lands. She described the Order as "an organization whose power and influence for good is felt throughout the world. It is a union of Christian effort and a marshalling of Christian forces for human betterment." In impressing its ancient history she said that "before the churches thought of such an organization of love and charity we had it, and from the first it bore for what its name and motto indicate. The badge came from the Knights Hospitalers of the 11th century and the watchword, 'I. H. N.' was the pass word of early and much persecuted Christians of Waldens. The motto is: 'Look up and not down, look forward and not back, look out and not in and lend a hand.' The object, as described by Mrs. Leibert, is to make religion a vital force in daily living and to stimulate Christian activity. Besides the work done by local circles the Order supports 130 institutions, 6 city playgrounds, 5 Junior camps, 171 Near East Orphans, tuberculosis camps, and Indian Hospital, scholarships among the mountain whites and 12 scholarships at Chataqua, N. Y. "Thus, concluded Mrs. Leibert, we not only assist humanity but we elevate character, purify desire and teach people to forget self and live for others, and just as War gave Sherman, Grant, Dewey and Pershing an opportunity to develop unsuspected powers so also is developing these hidden forces among its followers. It is a force of loving action and spiritual life harnessed to human needs."

After the denedication an informal but very delightful public reception, complimentary to the International President was held in the church parlors.

ALL FARMVILLE TO ATTEND CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

Farmville, Oct. 9.—The Visitation Campaign resulted in the largest church attendance on last Sunday in the history of Farmville possibly. All the churches were well filled at the morning services, and at the evening services all were agreeably surprised at the unusually large attendance. No special programs were offered by the churches at either time, the people simply wishing to participate in divine worship. Next Sunday will be Membership Day. All of the churches have a goodly list of persons who will be received into church fellowship, and every member of the community is being urged to attend church on that day.

The fifty visitation teams of two each, who went out daily last week on definitely assigned tasks were everywhere kindly received and given consideration and co-operation. Besides the workers greatly enjoyed their work and received benefit. A spirit of fellowship and friendliness was created that will be of great value in the work of all the churches. It ought to greatly enlarge the value of the churches as spiritual factors and forces in the community.

A valuable part of the campaign was the suppers and conferences of the evangelistic workers each evening before they went out on friendly visits in the homes and offices. Heartening results were obtained each evening. Some forty workers from all the churches sat down to eat together and went out on the same mission. Each time the director, Dr. Vickers, gave definite instructions while the workers dined together. "Let nobody fail to be at church Sunday," is the slogan for the week.

MRS. FIELDS HOSTESS TO MERRY MATRONS

Farmville, N. C., Oct. 9.—Fall flowers in contrasting colors were tastefully arranged in the Fields home on Church street Tuesday when Mrs. R. A. Fields entertained the members of the Merry Matrons club and an invited guest, Mrs. W. R. Willis. In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. W. Turnage, vice-president presided. In the program from Mary Thomas Hobbs course on "Planning and Furnishing a Home", which is generally conceded to be the most interesting studied by this group, the first paper on "Wood Work" was read by Mrs. J. Loyd Horton and the second "Floors" was prepared by Mrs. M. V. Jones and read by Mrs. B. O. Turnage. The hostess was assisted in serving a perfection salad course by Mesdames W. Leslie Smith, J. W. Parker, B. O. Turnage, and J. Loyd Horton.

To Celebrate 25th Anniversary. Farmville, Oct. 9.—At the regular meeting of the Farmville Literary Club held this week at the home of Mrs. E. C. Beaman, plans were completed for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of this organization. The event will be in the form of a public reception, which will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. J. W. Parker. The following committees and chairmen were appointed: Invitation, Mrs. J. Y. Monk; Decoration, Mrs. J. I. Morgan; Refreshment, Mrs. W. C. Askew; Mrs. Annie Lang.

Mrs. R. A. Fields; Music, Mrs. G. A. Jones. Mrs. R. T. Martin was elected as secretary to succeed Mrs. Claude Barrett at this time. In continuation of Elizabeth Lay Green's course in Modern Drama, Mrs. R. A. Fields read a paper on "The Work of Herivel", and Mrs. J. H. Harris discussed Herivel's play, "Know Thyself." A sweet course was served. Special guests were Mrs. Eugene Clayton and Mrs. Chester Beaman.

Invitations Issued. Farmville, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The following invitations have been issued to out-of-town friends of the Farmville Literary Club: "The Farmville Literary Club invites you to be present at the celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary, Friday evening, October eighteenth, from eight until eleven o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Parker, Farmville, North Carolina, 1904-1929." The public has been given a cordial invitation to share in the pleasures of the celebration and no invitations have been issued in Farmville, except to the presiding officers of other clubs and to charter members. The receiving lines will be composed of present officers, several of the State Federation of officers including the president, Mrs. E. M. Land, of Statesville, and second vice-president, Mrs. J. M. Hubbard of Farmville, the ex-president and charter members of the club, some of who are living in other cities and states. A special feature will be the musical program.

Eastern Stars Meet. Farmville, Oct. 9.—The local order of the Eastern Star met in the Masonic hall this week. Communications were read calling attention to the district meeting November 5th, at Oriental, and requesting this chapter to take part on the program. Other business of interest was disposed of, after which a poem "They Stayed at Home," was read by Mrs. A. C. Hodges. Mrs. G. M. Holden read a selection "The Gang," "The Black Ball," was discussed by R. A. Joyner and a poem, "Why," was read by Mrs. J. W. Parker.

APPEAL SCRIPPS CASE BEFORE COURT TODAY

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The appeal of Mrs. Josephine Scripps of Mizanar, Cal., from a Federal court decision denying her claim of more than $5,000,000 in the estate of her late father-in-law, E. W. Scripps, founder of the Scripps-Howard chain of newspapers, was before the United States District court of appeals today. Mrs. Scripps, the widow of the late James G. Scripps, who served as editor-in-chief of the group of Dailies, instituted suit in the Federal District courts seeking an accounting and judgment of the late Scripps' estate, but the case was dismissed by Judge Smith Hickenlooper. The hearing scheduled today was on her plea to reinstate the action.

Hair Rats Are Gone! AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Modern woman, freed of the restraint of long tresses, realizes the comfort and sanitation of the bobbed head. The shears in the hands of AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE have severed the bonds of another archaic dogma.

"toasting did it" —

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 4 to 10 points on buying, especially influenced by steady Liverpool cables, favorable cotton cloth statistics and prospects for unsettled weather in the south. December sold on to 18.75 and March to 18.90 on the call, but the advance was checked by southern hedging and local selling which caused reactions of a few points after the opening. The trade bought on the setback, however, and the market was steady at the end of the first half hour active months showed net gains of about 2 to 5 points.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Action of the corn market operated as a wet blanket on all grain values today. Persistent selling of future deliveries resulted from the government crop report pointing to a probable yield of 1,862,000,000 bushels of corn in 11 leading states this season, compared with 1,756,000,000 bushels indicated a month ago. Influenced by corn, the wheat market made only poor response to continued unfavorable wheat crop advices from Argentina.

Wheat closed heavy 1 1/4 to 1 5/8 lower than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 7/8 to 1 1/4 down; oats 1/2 to 3/4 off, and provisions unchanged to a setback of 1/8c.

ing off in the demand for steel from the automotive and building industries, most speculators were not looking for any large increase in the steel corporation's tonnage. In the short space of two hours, steel common gained more than it lost in any full session of last week's declining markets. Other steels rallied in sympathy, Republic gaining 5 points.

Extreme gains of 8 to nearly 12 points also were registered by the American Tobacco issues. Ingersoll Rand, Western Union, American & Foreign Power, Motor Products, Worthington Pump, American & C. I., Auburn Auto., General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, Allied Chemical and Johns Manville, the first three reaching new high ground for the year. Among the many stocks to advance 4 to 6 points were Atchafalaya, American Water Works, American Rolling Mills, Consolidated Gas, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Brooklyn Union Gas, Detroit Edison, Standard Gas & Electric, Corn Products and International Telephone.

Seaboard Air Line preferred crossed 39 to a new high for the year but Missouri Pacific preferred ran into some profit taking after attaining a new peak.

RECOMMENDS FUND FOR HYDE CHANNEL

Washington, Oct. 10.—(AP)—In addition to the initial expenditure of $30,000 for improving the channel from Pamlico Sound to Encehard, in Hyde county, North Carolina, Major General Brown of Army Engineers has recommended to Congress that $2,000 annually would be required to maintain the channel. General Brown at the same time disapproved of improvement of Longias Bay, Hyde county.

The best beauty preserver is a new kitchen stove

This new labor-saving range offers a sensible way to avoid the tired look . . .

MADAM, if a day's work in the kitchen leaves you with tired lines in your face, you don't need a beauty treatment. You need a new stove.

This beautiful new oil range, with its 27 time and labor-saving features, has in less than a year shown 10,000 women the way to easier housework.

It has a new design especially planned to save steps . . . a new burner arrangement which enables you to cook more dishes at a time . . . and an all-grate top which gives you room to keep them warm.

Its finish, of shining smooth porcelain enamel, is not only beautiful, but easily cleaned. And it lasts a lifetime.

Swift, Clean Heat

Cooking heat as swift and clean as gas is furnished by five Superflex burners, one a "Big Giant." Meals are cooked in a hurry, while the bottoms of your cooking vessels stay clean and shiny.

The built-in oven, constructed on Perfection's famous "live heat" principle, bakes perfectly.

Two other conveniences are: an enamel tray below the burners, which slides out for cleaning . . . and a reversible reservoir, easily filled.

Wide Choice of Models

This beautiful range comes in all white or with a trim of gay color: apple green, golden sand, sea blue or cherry red. It is equipped with long Perfection or short Puritan chimneys. A similar model burns gasoline.

Other new Perfections, without built-in ovens, can also be had in the three different styles. Prices, $18 to $164. Your dealer will doubtless offer you the convenience of time payments.

PERFECTION STOVE COMPANY
7 Walnut St. Philadelphia, Pa.

SEVEN time and labor saving features on the oven alone! It is built-in . . . air-insulated . . . enamel lined. Has accurate heat indicator . . . five rack positions . . . counter-balanced drop door. Bakes with "live heat" which means speedier baking and better flavored foods.

THE LUXURY HUSBAND

that he must make his own SYNOPSIS: Ray Lowther, learning his fortune is lost, flees from Barbara Landon, his wealthy wife, because he feels her wealth and his poverty make marriage impossible. They are still in love, three years later, when they unexpectedly meet on ship-board, but Ray refuses to change his opinion. When Barbara makes a desperate effort to convince Ray she needs him, he relents and they are married. Ray insists, however, that he must make his own living by writing jazz compositions and playing in an orchestra. Ralph Henderson, an Englishman with eyes on Barbara's fortune, is chagrined by her marriage but lays a clever plot to separate her from Ray. He invites them both to a house-party, where he hopes Barbara will be disappointed in her husband and grasp the opportunity of marrying Henderson's prospective title—and

Chapter 10
A LUXURY

Barbara was not a little surprised when, some 10 minutes later, Ralph Henderson knocked on her study door and, upon her opening it, said:

"I've come to offer my congratulations. I hope you'll be happy. You must let me buy you both a bottle of champagne on the strength of it."

"Why, that's—that's splendid of you, Henry," she said, overcome with gratitude for his having taken it in what she considered such a sporting manner.

"You're not going to let me down on the house party, are you?" he asked anxiously. "Of course, I shall expect you—your husband, too. You know I've invited the guests by wireless."

"What else could I do but accept for both of us?" Barbara remarked later to Ray. "I'd forgotten it completely until that moment. Bit of a blow to my pride the way Henry's taken it. I was vain enough to think he'd be furious."

"He's too clever to be furious," Ray remarked under his breath.

That same afternoon, just before the boat docked at Southampton, Len Hickson found Ray packing in their cabin.

"I hear you're leaving us," the little banjolel remarked, "and I can't say that I blame you. A man would be a mutt to work when there's no need for him to do so. Lucky devil, you!"

Ray felt his temper rising.

"You're wrong about my not working, Len. I'm going to work and work hard."

Len laughed derisively.

"I guess your chief work will consist in keeping the other men off Baby Millions. No harm meant, sonny," he added hastily. "Didn't mean to speak disrespectful of the wife. Fine girl, I'm sure, but if you don't see to it that you're in clover the rest of your life, you're a bigger fool than I think you are."

Ray muttered something between his teeth; he saw the futility of arguing with Len and, as soon as possible, he left him and went up on deck.

Here he hoped at least for a few minutes' peace and quietness; but no sooner had he stepped out of the passageway than he heard Barbara's name mentioned.

"Did you hear that Barbara Landon's married that young saxophoneist?" one woman's voice was saying.

"Of course, my dear," another replied. "Amusing, isn't it? They say he hasn't a cent to his name but she has more than enough for both of them. And I guess that a penniless husband is a little luxury that Barbara Landon is well able to afford!"

They both laughed and passed on down the deck while Ray stood motionless, his hands clenched by his sides. So that was how they regarded him!—As a luxury—a luxury Barbara was able to afford! He would have to get used to luxuries such as that, he told himself bitterly. Comic, wasn't it? He, Ray Lowther, regarded as a luxury; as though he saw some ironical humor in the situation, he threw back his head and laughed.

A week later Barbara and Ray were dining at the Savoy hotel in London when suddenly Ray uttered an exclamation of surprise and half rose to his feet.

"Why! if it isn't old Bill Foster over there! You remember the fellow I told you about in Chicago who gave me my first chance in the orchestra. This is great! I must rush over and have a word with him."

"Where is he?" asked Barbara.

"Over there at the piano. . . . Excuse me a moment, I'll bring him over to our table if he'll come." It happened to be an interval. After Bill Foster had almost embraced Ray in public, he consented to be led towards the little corner table where Barbara was sitting.

As they came within sight of her, Bill nudged Ray.

"A sure were some picker when ophone. You'd like it here. Three hundred a week and, taking into consideration the private shows we play at, we're doing fine."

Ray was leaning across the table, his eyes shining, his attitude tense.

"Bill, it would be wonderful."

"Well, I'll let you know if there's anything doing—Been doing much stuff of your own, lately, Ray? If you've anything good I wouldn't mind giving it a tryout here," and, turning towards Barbara, he added, "Guess you're proud of your husband. We'll hear great things of him some day. His stuff's good—don't you agree with me?"

"There was a slight pause and Ray committed a little rucfully; Barbara isn't interested in his composing, Bill."

Barbara flushed and was more than glad, a moment later, when the pianist rose to leave.

"Mighty glad to have met you," he said as he held out his hand. "You're lucky, know, for Ray's a dandy chap," and to Ray he added, "See you later, boy."

Barbara found Ray curiously distant during the next few numbers; his eyes were fixed upon the orchestra and once she heard him saying, as though to himself, "Gee, would it be great. . . ."

"I wouldn't be good enough for your bunch, Bill."

"Forget it, you play a dandy sax-and playing my old sax again now."

"You'd rather be playing in the band than dancing with me?" she asked, a hurt note in her voice. Then, with a sudden vehemence: "Oh, how I hate that old saxophone of yours!"

He saw angry tears in her eyes and reached under the table for one of her hands.

"You know, dear, I'd rather be with you. But, do try to realize how much my music means to me."

She swallowed twice.

"I'm sorry, Ray. I'll try."

But she did not.

Had he been a composer of classical music, or a pianist on the concert platform—in that, she told, herself, would have been different.

"You don't mind my having a tuning in?" he asked later that night.

She said, "Of course not." But, all the same, she did mind.

She felt vaguely afraid of the in-

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (ad. 1)

FEAR SENATE CAN NOT END TARIFF WORK

Republicans Troubled Over Slow Progress the Measure is Making at Present

Washington, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Fears that the Senate cannot complete its work on the tariff bill before the end of the special session and that the administration would not favor its revival in the regular session were added today to the worries of the Republican leadership.

Senator Robinson, Arkansas, Democratic floor leader, still insisted that the Senate would be able to dispose of the bill by Nov. 10. But Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, was by no means so optimistic.

Despite the efforts of the majority leader to keep down feeling and prevent contention, the ranks of the regulars were already showing the strain of their frequent defeats at the hands of the Democratic-Republican-Independent coalition during consideration of the administrative sections of the bill.

Watson believes that the Republican regulars will be in a much better position after the rate schedules are reached late this week or early next week, but he is unable to ignore the signs of stress shown at a meeting of the Senate Finance committee majority.

Senator Reed, of Pennsylvania, on whom has fallen the brunt of guiding the measure through the Senate thus far, has declared that unless more assistance is given him in his task he is ready to relinquish the responsibility. Again there has been evidence that the repeated opposition victories were disheartening the young Republican senators.

Consideration of rate schedules, on which the Republican leaders expect the group of Democrats and western Republicans to break was to have started today or tomorrow but has been further delayed by injection of the Philippines independence issue into the situation.

A proposal by Senator Broussard, to levy tariffs on imports for the Philippines and return the revenue to us derived to the islands treasury if independence is granted still little used action.

The Senate refused to table this proposal by a vote of fifty-four to thirty-four before rejection substitute by Senator King, Democrat, Raah, which would have granted independence to the islands after a long, institutional contention there had worked up self government by vote of 10 to 36.

Beyond disposal of this issue the Senate must dispense with numerous individual amendments calculated to occupy it until the latter part of this week or early next, before reaching the rate schedules.

SUNDOWN STORIES

THE EXPLORER

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
"An explorer," began the Little Black Clock, "is some one who goes somewhere to see what he can find that is new and different."

"Oh, we know that," said John. "We often go exploring ourselves. We went exploring in an old cave once."

"What did you find?" asked the Little Black Clock.
"Bats."

"Did you like them?"
"Pretty well," John answered. "Peggy was afraid they might get in her hair. But she was awfully brave. She crawled right into the cave anyway."

"You know all about exploring and what it means," the Little Black Clock said. "But Peggy needn't be nervous about bats getting in her hair. They don't want to do that. That's nothing but gossip."

"But here, I'm turning myself back, back, back. The year is 1492 and—just a moment!"

"Do you see him?"
"Oh, Christopher Columbus," said John.
"Christopher Columbus," cried Peggy.

"You do know him, don't you?" the Little Black Clock asked. "He was long before your day."
"But he's like his pictures and monuments—at least enough like them," John answered.

The Little Black Clock had turned the time back so that they were on a boat. There was water all around them. But on the boat was Christopher Columbus!
He was discovering land! Tomorrow—The Gleaming Light.

TEN ACRES OF LAND SINKS IN TEX. OIL FIELD

Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars' Loss Threatened in Sour Lake Region

Beaumont, Tex., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars in oil land was threatened today through the unexplained sinking of ten acres of land in the Sour Lake oil field, 25 miles west of here, which has created a deep lake where only yesterday stretched an expanse of waving marsh grass and small trees. Sides of the pit still were crumbling today as the fall of earth continued.

Derrick and storage tanks were being removed from the edge of the great hole, estimated at from 50 to 150 feet deep, which filled with water yesterday as the surface steadily fell through hour after hour. Thirteen wells were shut down and an abandoned derrick, a boiler and six settling tanks, were engulfed.

Geologists of all the larger oil companies operating in this section were here today to study the muddy lake, approximately a quarter mile wide and slightly longer, which lapped the very border of the producing field. Theories as to the cause of the phenomenon were as different as they were numerous but the consensus is that drainage of the immense pool of oil beneath the surface left a cavity which the sinking crust is filling.

Fear that further extension of the depression, endangering scores of valuable wells, was expressed widely.

Effort on adjacent oil wells was almost immediate. One well making 10 barrels a day before the new lake was formed now is making 250 barrels. On the other side of the great depression a well making 150 barrels a day Tuesday is spouting salt water today. This well was brought in Saturday with an initial flow of 250 barrels a day.

In comparing notes on the phenomenon geologists recalled that there have been a score or more of similar occurrences in the Gulf area within the last 25 years. In all other cases however, the depression has been but a few feet deep.

Several years ago a section of the Goose Creek oil field in Harris county, sank. This field is near the coast on land but a few inches above high tide. After the field sank Gulf waters rushed in and covered the area to a depth of a foot or more.

The state of Texas, which claims ownership to all lands covered by tide water, entered suit against oil companies operating at Goose Creek to recover title. In the trial of this case geologists testified that the sinking evidently was due to the taking of great quantities of oil from the land, thereby leaving a cavity. The state lost the suit.

At Batson, in Hardin county, about 30 miles northwest of Beaumont, a section of the field sank about 20 years ago. Later it was ascertained that this sinking was due to a flowing well which had been brought in through broken casing.

BOY CONFESSES KILLING UNCLE

Medidan, Miss., Oct. 9.—(AP)—Bernie C. Daniels, 15, is in jail here, following a reported confession by him that he killed his uncle, James Daniels, near the North Bend community of Neshoba county, when the uncle first tried to kill him.

The body of the older Daniels was found several days ago in a swamp and the nephew was taken into custody for questioning.

Simple Pleasant Way TO LOSE FAT

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?

How would you like to lose a load of unhealthy fat that you don't need and don't want and at the same time feel better than you have for years?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent abdomen and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?

How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure and also gain in ambition and keenness of mind?

Get on the scales to-day and see how much you weigh—then get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last you for 4 weeks. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.

Now you can laugh at the people who pay hundreds of dollars to lose a few pounds of fat—now you will know the pleasant way to lose unsightly fat and you'll also know that the 6 vitalizing salts of Kruschen (Salts that your body, nerves and glands must have to function properly)—have presented you with glorious health.

After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends—“One 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts is worth one hundred dollars of any fat person's money.”

Leading druggists America over sell Kruschen Salts—you can always get it at Greenville Drug Co.

Farmers Sell Your TOBACCO IN GREENVILLE

Prices have shown a continued gain this week, advancing about $4.50 per hundred. Yesterday's sale of 709,680 pounds brought an average of $19.65.

We are selling tobacco daily from practically every county in Eastern Carolina and the farmers say it is paying them to sell in Greenville, even though some of them travel at least 125 miles.

Those in position to absolutely know, say we are highest market and have keener buying competition than any market in the East.

Since Last Season—

Three of the warehouses have made large additions, which gives the market increased floor space of about two acres. Some of the factories have made enlargements to their buildings, installing additional redrying facilities and other equipment. The Greenville tobacco market is decidedly in better position to handle, daily, larger quantities of tobacco than ever before.

Tobacco Warehouses—

Greenville tobacco market has nine (9) large and modern brick warehouses with close to 14 acres floor space, sufficient to accommodate 2,225,000 lbs. of tobacco daily. These warehouses are managed by men of years of experience.

Buyers and Factories—

Greenville tobacco market has four (4) sets of buyers, representing all the important companies in the world, using bright tobacco. Nine (9) larger and modern tobacco factories are located here, additions having been made to several of them since last season, while one new plant has been built.

Roads and Locations—

Greenville tobacco market is located in the heart of Eastern North Carolina. Seven fine hard surfaced roads lead into Greenville. Tobacco growers living 125 miles from Greenville tobacco market sell their tobacco in Greenville and return home same day.

ECONOMY DEMANDS

That every automobile owner should have the oiling, greasing, washing and polishing of his car done at the place of business of the dealer who is best qualified to render efficient service. Especially so when you know the dealer to have an efficient shop, modern equipment, and a true knowledge of the car. In our shop we have all of this combined with neatness and courtesy. It is to the especial interest of the Ford owner to bring his or her car to our shop for service for more than one reason.

FIRST: Our mechanics know the Ford car so well that in greasing it we do not overlook any of the numerous and often vital points of the car to be greased. The average greaser only greases the parts that are immediately visible.

SECOND: We know paint and what is best for it. We know how to prolong life and luster by properly washing and polishing. Our knowledge of paints and varnishes is such as is not found outside of first class body plants.

THIRD: The oils and greases that we use are of the very best. We challenge anyone to prove the contrary.

FOURTH: A visit to our garage will readily show that for neatness and modern mechanical equipment we are unexcelled. There is nothing that could happen to any automobile that we cannot repair.

FIFTH: Our charges are reasonable. We will wash your car for $1.00, oil and grease with genuine Alemite for $1.00. All other work is priced accordingly.

OPPORTUNITY WANES IN BIG PRIZE RACE

Only Two Days Remain in Which to Enter Contest on Big Point Vote Schedule

Only two days more. What do these two important days hold in store for you? It is only a matter of a few hours and opportunity will be gone forever. A few more working hours and the votes will again be reduced in anticipation of the lowest vote schedule of the entire Reflector $6,000 campaign.

Your ultimate success depends to a great extent on what you can accomplish between now and the final hour of the period. At 9 o'clock, Saturday night, October 12th. These next few hours offer a two-fold opportunity. Remember both the points which apply on the two special cash prizes of $300 and $200, and the votes which apply on the original list of capital prizes, are reduced after Saturday night. These next few days every NEW yearly subscription will count 40,000 extra votes, after Saturday night they will only count 20,000 extra votes. Then too, there will only remain two short weeks, after Saturday, in which to win these wonderful extra gifts of $500 and $200 cash.

A good many seem to be of the opinion that they can win the prizes they desire, during the last week of the campaign. Just stop and consider the vote value of subscriptions new and later. Why one NEW five-year subscription turned in by Saturday night would count 440,000 votes, while during the last period of the campaign this same subscription would only bring 190,000 votes. In other words one big subscription now is worth almost as much as three big subscriptions during the final period. Then too remember that a club now would count 36 POINTS winning the special cash prizes and the following week it would only count 24 POINTS. There fore while you are taking advantage of this big point schedule in winning the special cash awards you are also building up your vote standing toward the winning of one of the grand capital prizes—and with less subscriptions.

Let's Go! Let's make Saturday the most important day in the history of this campaign. Let's win our prize by Saturday night at 9 o'clock. It can be done!

Ball Fans Begin Long Wait Outside Shibe Park Today

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Unmindful of the wintry winds which sent chilly blasts down Lehigh avenue, several-eyed-in-the-wind baseball fans began a long camp before the bleacher entrance at Shibe park early today to await the opening of the gates at 10 A. M. tomorrow for the third world series battle between the Athletics and the Cubs.

A woman was at the head of the line. She was Mrs. J. Franklin Kratz and she pointed to a dwelling opposite the bleacher gate as her home. From there she had carried the equipment to make her comfortable during the long vigil—a rocking chair, sandwiches, hot coffee and blankets.

Oakland, Calif.—Freddie Fitzgerald, Youngstown, Ohio, outpointed Young Jack Thompson, Los Angeles, (10).

HOLD BANK TELLER FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

New Orleans, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Henry Louis White, 27, teller for the American Bank and Trust Co., was being held today in default of $10,000 bond on a charge of embezzling $21,000.

The warrant against White was made out yesterday by District Attorney Eugene Stanley, acting on complaints of bank auditors.

To Attempt to Stop Oil Well Fire With Powerful Explosive

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Two men crouched behind metal shields continued today to pit their skill against a gigantic roaring torch flaming high in the air over what once was the Sinclair Oil and Gas company's well, in the Oklahoma City oil field.

Trundling loads of high explosive near the 100-foot pillar of fire, and directing final connections of a battery of approximately 20 steam boilers, M. M. "Mac" Kinley and his brother, F. T. Kinley, prepared to snuff out, in one giant puff, the flame which roared by 50,000,000 feet of gas a day, has whipped and writhed over the Sinclair lease shortly before 3 A. M. today.

Fifty more than five miles from the downtown business district, the fire has cast a weird glow over the city's streets at night, and in the southern section of the city, three miles from the well, has made street lights almost unnecessary at night.

Sometime early today—the Kinley brothers were reticent regarding the exact time—one man, crouched low behind a metal shield that grows sizzling hot despite streams of water which constantly drench it, will creep toward the plume of flame which has roared high in the sky for more than two days. Clad in a heavy asbestos suit, he will drag 200 quarts of nitro-glycerine almost to the mouth of the well. There he will place it so that the force of the explosion will be directed at the base of the flame, and then scurry away from the broiling heat.

When he is safely out of range the charge of explosives will be fired.

The force of the explosion is expected to hurl the flame above the gas raining from the hole. A heavy blanket of steam, played from the battery of boilers onto the mouth of the well, is expected to retard the flow of gas until the flame has burned out.

With the fire extinguished the gas will be allowed to run wild while debris, which could not be removed before the explosion, is dragged from the well, then a new derrick will be erected in place of the twisted, white hot steel skeleton which was dragged away piece by piece yesterday, and efforts will be directed toward confining the flow.

NOTICE OF SALE UNDER EXECUTION

J. O. Proctor & Bro., use of C. M. Jones, assignee, vs. William Gaskins.

By virtue of an execution or vendee directed to the undersigned from the Superior Court of Pitt County, in the above entitled action, I will on Monday, 11th day of November, 1929, at noon, before the court house in Greenville, sell to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said execution, all the right, title and interest, which the said William Gaskins, the defendant, has in the following described real estate, to-wit:

1. That tract of land in Chatham township near Black Jack, bounded by the lands of James Allen, M. A. Nashby Mills and John S. Gaskins, containing about 30 acres, more or less. The same being the tract of land deceded to William Gaskins and wife by John Bryant Hudson, and the same being of land allotted to William Gaskins as his homestead, under an execution issued in the above entitled cause.

This Sept. 27, 1929. S. A. WHITEHORST, Sheriff of Pitt County, Oct. 10-11w-4wks.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND

By virtue of power vested in me by that Deed of Trust which was executed to me on the 27th day of March, 1929, by Claud Rouse and wife, Daisy Belle Rouse, and which is duly recorded in the Register's Office for Pitt County in Book M-17 at page 223, I shall offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, at public auction at the Court House door, in the town of Greenville, at 12:00 o'clock noon, on Monday, September 30th, 1929, all of the right, title, and interest of the said

Daisy Belle Rouse, being a one-ninth (1-9) undivided interest in fee, in and to the following described parcel of real estate, lying, being, and situated in Greenville Township in the County of Pitt, and State of North Carolina, to-wit: Bounded on the north by Benjamin Teel's land; on the East by Elcany Teel's land; on the South by the James Reeve's land, and the Gorham land, now the Whitehead land, and containing fifty acres, more or less, and being the same tract of land which the late C. C. Meeks died seized and possessed, the said Daisy Belle Rouse being one of the children and heirs-at-law of the said G. C. Meeks.

This August 31st, 1929. Albion Dunn, Trustee. 9-2 11w-4wks.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

Notice is hereby given that I have this day qualified as administrator of the estate of A. W. Haskins, deceased, late of Pitt County. All persons having claims against the estate are asked to file them with me on or before September 4th, 1930, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery. All persons indebted to the estate will please make immediate settlement.

This the 5th day of Sept., 1929. Octavia W. Haskins, Admrx. Greenville, N. C. Sept. 5-11w-6wk.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER EXECUTION TO SATISFY OWELTY CHARGE

PREDICT RAIN FOR NEXT GAME OF BIG SERIES

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Baseball fans in this world series on the verge of going into ecstasies because of the double victory of the Athletics over the Cubs, found something to worry about today.

The weather man predicted a possibility of rain Friday, the day of the first series game here, and the fans fear he may be right. There is an unfavorable atmospheric condition hovering about in the offing, according to the forecaster, with cooler weather and lowering skies on tap for today.

Rain is the worst thing that could happen on Friday, in the opinion of fans, who have waited 15 years to see a world series finale, and they are hopeful something can be done to stave it off until after the final battle.

With the jubilant Athletics on their way home from Chicago, ticket speculators boosted prices substantially today. Two victories since the devastating Cubs, the speculators contended, put gold borders on the pastboards for the three games to be played here. They were broad in the land early quoting $90 to $100 for a three-game pair of tickets that cost the original purchaser $33. Heretofore the prices asked ranged from $50 to $75.

Fifty "John Doe" warrants, said to have been issued for the arrest of speculators, seemed to have little effect on their activities. "Sandwich men" advertising ticket agencies have appeared in such numbers that at times they have the appearance of cluttering up pedestrian traffic.

If the A's had come back from Chicago two down, tickets would have been worth about $2 per game, speculators said.

Counterfeit tickets for the series games have made their appearance here, and a number have been sold. The fact that spurious pastboards were in circulation was revealed to officials of the Athletics club by ticket speculators, and as a result two men were in jail today with the disposition of their cases undetermined.

One speculator's office, where tickets are bought and sold, reported the purchase of a block of seats last night and upon checking up with the club found that the seats were in a section not listed at Shibe park. Further examination revealed the stock upon which the counterfeits were printed, and the printing itself differed slightly from that of the genuine tickets.

CUBS AND A'S MOVING ON TO PHILADELPHIA

By BRIAN BELL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Chicago, Oct. 10.—(AP)—With most of the pre-series dopp' scramble beyond repair, the Cubs and Athletics today moved from Chicago to Philadelphia to resume play tomorrow.

The enthusiasm of the American leaguers as they returned to their home and fireside knew no bounds for they had done all that they could to Chicago, winning the only two games played. The Cubs on the other hand were a grim but determined ball club as they left home, not to return unless they can take two of the three games scheduled at Shibe park.

Optimism, however, was rampant among the National league representatives even after the second defeat in a contest in which the Chicagoans never were in the game. A crowd of 49,987 had few chances to cheer.

Even the groundkeepers have tangible proof of their faith in the club after the A's had dashed laughing from Wrigley field with a 9 to 3 rebuff of the Cubs in their bag, workmen took their places on the diamond and with meticulous care placed the playing surface in apple pie order for a baseball game that will not be played this season unless their beloved Cubs can execute a strong comeback.

The Cubs were forced to use four pitchers in the second game and every baseball indicator pointed to the renomination of Charlie Root as the Cubs' flinger to open the play in Philadelphia. Root, who stepped eight-ninths of the Athletics in the first game but threw a home run ball to Jimmy Pox, will have three days rest when game time arrives tomorrow.

Old Jack Quinn, the veteran of veterans, probably will get the call from Connie Mack although the tall tactician, as silent as he is tall, can summon any one of half a dozen pitchers to the mound. The ancient John Pius was all warmed up yesterday in spite of some of the coldest baseball weather on record. He can throw almost as slow as that of Ehmke, and has a "spitter" too.

The first two games of the series have been glorious triumphs for the bubbling A's, but disastrous defeats for the experts before play began. The close observers declared that the Cubs would be almost unbeatable in their own ball yard and would find in a line-up of seven regulars batting from the right side of the plate to slaughter left-hand pitchers.

The national league champions won no games at home to start the series and scored no runs against Lefty Bob Grove, as left-handed as any pitcher in the game, in the 4-3-4 innings he pitched when he went to the relief of Earnshaw. The big right-hander was shelled from the hill in the only decisive offensive gesture the Cubs were able to make in two days.

Among the bitter reflections the Cubs took with them on their ride from west to east, was a strike out record of some kind. Ehmke forced 13 Cubs to miss third strikes Tuesday and Wednesday, 13 more fan-dered, although this bit of destruction was divided between Earnshaw and Grove. Earnshaw struckout seven in four and two-thirds innings and Grove bagged six victims in one-third of an inning less.

The chore of naming a world's series hero is not yet in order but when the final reckoning is made, Jimmy Pox probably will be considered. The Maryland boy, for the second time in two days, sent the A's out in front with a home run, the second being more productive than the first in that two of his mates rode home with him. Al Simmons ran the total of Philadelphia home runs for the series to three with a circuit-smash good for two runs. The home run onslaught was enough to win the game.

Perce (Pat) Malone, strikeout king of the national league, started as though he might break the Emke record established less than 24 hours before. He sent three visitors back to the bench in the first inning, caught another napping in the fourth when the Macks had run their string of runs to six.

Sheriff Blake, Hal Carlson and Art Nehf followed in order but it made no difference by this time who was pitching, although George Earnshaw was forced to seek cover when a bombardment of five hits, good for three runs, was launched against him in the fifth. Grove left-handed his way through the rest of the game with a crackling fast ball which the Cubs could nick for only three hits, no two in one inning. Nehf had the satisfaction of pitching in his fifth world series. He was a Giant in the others.

Earnshaw, like Malone, had a world of stuff but lacked control. He had to use all his skill to pitch himself out of a hole of his own making in the third when he filled the bases with passes.

The Cub's warhorse, Rogers Hornsby, slowed down to a walk in the first game, was more potent in the second but he could not hit in the early innings when hits would have meant runs and changed the complexion of the game. The Rajah, the club's leading hitter, had one single but he twice spruck out in the pinches.

Hack Wilson, held hitless by Ehmke, had a perfect day at bat with "three for three."

McLarnin Knocks Out Sgt. Baker

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Jimmy McLarnin has learned that the bigger fellows can fall just as hard as the little ones if they are hit on the right spot. The young Irishman from Vancouver made his debut as a full-fledged welterweight last night against Sergeant Sammy Baker and the result was a first round knockout.

Baker, a leading contender in the class not long ago and still the possessor of a good hard wallop, never had a chance against McLarnin's slugging. It took one minute for him to establish a firm connection between his right fist and Baker's head.

The heavier McLarnin put so much power in his wallops that Baker did not recover for several minutes after he was counted out. Another surprise came from the weights, for McLarnin tipped the scales at 144 pounds and had to concede only two pound advantage to his adversary.

Akron, O.—Gorilla Jones, Akron, knocked out Jack Höfner, St. Louis. (2); Patsy Pironne, Assilon, O., outpointed Lynn Jordan, Pittsburg, (6).
—London Johnny Cuthbert, a British middleweight, champion, knocked out Nipper Pat Daly, (8).

HEAVY GRID SCHEDULES UNDER WAY

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The season of heavy schedules for eastern college football teams begins in earnest with this Saturday's games.

The season of traditional rivalries begins in Pittsburg with the battle between Pitt and West Virginia, and is continued in New York where N. Y. U. meets Fordham. The Pitt Panthers have a good chance before them to avenge last year's 9-6 defeat. They are fresh from a one-sided triumph over Duke and expect to have their full strength for the Mountaineers. West Virginia still is in the experimental stage after a defeat and a tie.

A near-tradition has arisen in the annual Nebraska-Syracuse battle, which promises to be one of the most exciting of the week's inter-sectional clashes. Their past six battles have brought three victories apiece. Both teams look strong although a scoreless tie with Southern Methodist marred Nebraska's record last week.

The members of the old big three have two good battles on their programs. Yale jumps from the first game right into the middle of a hard season with its pilgrimage to Georgia. After returning, the Elis must meet Brown, Army and Dartmouth in succession with Maryland as the only possible rest before tackling Princeton and Harvard. Princeton tackles Brown for the first time in a quarter of a century then goes on to meet Cornell, Navy and Chicago. Harvard has a comparatively easy opponent in New Hampshire before moving into a schedule as hard as any of them.

Navy has the rather doubtful honor of entertaining Notre Dame in the leading inter-sectional game of the week, but the Midshipmen have a few comparatively soft spots on their later card and can recuperate after their battle with the ramblers. Army, on the other hand, continues its tuning up against Division but goes from there into one of the longest and toughest schedules of them all.

New York—Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver, B. C., knocked out Sergeant Sammy Baker, New York, (1); Eddie Guids, New York, and Patsy Ruffalo, New York, drew, (10).
—Cincinnati—Freddie Miller, Cincinnati, outpointed Al Crisp, Oakland, Calif., (10).

TWO CAROLINA TEAMS TO PLAY OUT OF STATE

By the Associated Press

Traveling in opposite directions two North Carolina football teams are to be seen in action in extreme geographical sections of the country, as Davidson College will battle the United States Military Academy at West Point, and the University of North Carolina takes on Georgia Tech, at Atlanta.

Carolina will get into action one day ahead of the Wildcats, the clash between Tech and Tar Heel having been moved up to tomorrow, in order to avoid a conflict with the Yale-Georgia game, which is to be played at Athens Saturday.

Today finds the Tar Heels in the camp of Georgia Tech ready to battle the undefeated champions of 1928. However, the "Heels" must go into the fray without Pete Wrywick, quarterback. Pete is suffering from a back injury, and Johnny Branch, star sophomore, is to general the Tar Heels. Henry House, fullback of North Carolina, also is out of the game, a leg injury keeping him out.

"Chuck" Collins, football star of North Carolina, will send Jimmy Ward, three-touchdown star of the game with Maryland, against Tech and the boys who play Friday here in him, is one of the stars of the Tar Heel backfield. Ray Farris, captain and guard, is another player calculated to worry Tech. Farris is a "five-threat" linesman, good in the line on defense and offense, but also capable of passing, kicking and running with the ball from kick formation.

Forced by injuries to make a change in his backfield, "Chuck" Collins' case won't be comparable to that of the Davidson Wildcats, who leave today for the army game, as wildcat coaches shifted their lineup, hoping to get more weight in the center of the line. Milton, a big tackle, has been shifted to the pivot position, but Coaches Younger and Lison would not state definitely that the change was permanent.

State College was scheduled to leave this afternoon for Florence, S. C., to help the Clemson Tigers put on an added attraction at the Pee Dee Fair tomorrow. Word from Clemson's camp indicated that the Tigers would have full strength to throw into the game against State, but the Wolfpack must play without the services of John Lepo, captain, who is out with a stomach disorder. Lepo is one of the best tackles in this section.
