CONDUCTOR TO GIVE FACTS IN MURDER PROBE

Joseph Lewark Will Tell Jury of Activities of Husband of Mrs. McPherson

Washington, Nov. 15.—(9P)—Joseph H. Lewark, street car conductor, characterized as a "government surprise" witness, said today before he entered the room where a grand jury is investigating the death of Mrs. Virginia McPherson, young nurse, that he would testify he saw her husband, Robert A. McPherson, Jr., on an "Owl" trolley down town the night she was strangled to death.

McPherson was indicted on a charge of murder in connection with his wife's death largely as a result of an investigation by Robert J Allen, patrolman now suspended from the force as outgrowth of the police department before his inquiry caused, the indictment, however, was found to be faulty and another grand jury is considering the case. It has the opportunity to hear evidence gathered by department of justice agents who entered the affair after charges had been made that the police had bungled their investigation.

As Lewark was waiting to testify, relatives, friends and associates of McPherson were in the grand jury room to support his claim that he did not see his wife, from whom he was estranged, on the night of the murder, but after visiting an aunt, went direct to the home of his parents and to bed.

Melvin Ryne, taxicab driver, has testified he carried McPherson to his wife's apartment late on the night his wife died.

Lewark said he had known McPherson a long time and could not be mistaken in his identification.

"I knew him as a member of a group of boys with whom I associated when I used to live in Petworth," he said.

Mrs. McPherson, who has relatives in North Carolina, was strangled with a pajama cord. The case at first was declared a suicide, but was revived when Allen's investigation interested Senator Overman of North Carolina, who asked for a new inquiry.

Negroes Admit Plot to Wreck Southern Train

Raleigh, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Raleigh police today admitted that two negroes, held in jail here, had admitted a boast to wreck a Southern Railway passenger train on the outskirts of Raleigh for the purpose of robbing the mail car. The passenger train escaped harm but a show train was wrecked with serious damage to the locomotive and several freight cars. No one was hurt.

The wreck of the show train occurred last Monday morning about 4:30 o'clock. It was running ahead of the passenger train due here from Greensboro about 4 o'clock, which was running late.

The engine of the train ran into a blind siding and crashed into two oil cars. Investigation at the time disclosed that the switch had been thrown and the light turned to show green as if the main track was open as usual.

Local detectives and Southern Railway agents, keeping the investigation secret, found that suspicion pointed to Frank Warren and Leroy Cule, two negroes already in jail today on another charge, store breaking, and questioning today brought admission from the negroes that they had thrown the switch and changed the light. Not however, until the men said they planned to rob the mail coach, was the motive known.

New York Society Gives Poverty Party

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)— With the stock market collapse as their inspiration, a group of Park Avenue society folks held a "poverty party" at the Club Plaza last night at which guests wore old clothes and ate frankfurts and sauerkraut.

Their clothing, however, merely was "old" in a relative way. Dowagers appeared in gowns of a year ago; the younger woman in gowns of last month, and men, who apparently had no old clothing, wore ordinary business suits instead.

The food, which at the better Park Avenue affairs would be something startling in buffet, was served from ordinary tables. Covered by red cotton cloths, light was by candle.

The sponsors of the affair explained its purpose was not to have a bit of pleasantry at the expense of poverty, but just an occasion for a bit of good, clean fun. It was observed, records the New York Times, that at midnight the guests were pelting each other with French bread.

Pitt County Begins Suit Against Several Hundred Delinquent Tax Payers

Pitt county has started suit against approximately 500 delinquent tax payers of the county, and notice of suit was carried in the columns of the various county papers this wek.

The suit involves non-payment of taxes for the year 1927 and previous years and is in accordance with legislation passed at the last sitting of the North Carolina Legislature.

The cost of the suit is heavy, it was stated by county officials today and it was suggested that defendants make settlement as early as possible to avoid further penalty.

Notices of the various suits are carried in sections two and three of today's edition of the Daily Reflector. Notices of other suits were carried by other county papers.

This is the first time that the county has started suit against delinquent taxpayers upon such an extensive scale, and the action has created more than general interest in all sections. ConsiderabieC property in virtually all sections of the county is involved in the suits, and the next several days is expected to witness unusual activity among defendants as they arrange for settlement of their taxes.

Other counties of the state have taken similar action in an effort to impress the taxpayers with the importance of settling taxes long overdue, and county coffers no doubt will be swelled considerably the next several days as defendants make settlement.

Daniels Declares U. S. Draws Near Doors of League

Detroit, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, in the Wilson cabinet, today expressed the belief that America has discarded its traditional policy of "alliances with none," and by successive steps is approaching the door of the League of Nations.

Although official leaders have felt committed since 1920 not to urge entry into the League, he said in an address prepared for delivery before the Civic Club here. America has been constantly associated with all international efforts to achieve the goal of the league, permanent peace.

"Let us thank God and take courage," he said, "that two recent events advanced us toward the goal that has always been near our hearts."

"These," he said, "were the ratification of the Kellogg-Briand treaty for the renunciation of war, and the personal discussions of President Hoover and Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain.

"The fact that the mind of the British Pacifist and the Quaker peace lover seem to run together, and in the right direction, has heartened and cheered lovers of peace all over the world," he continued. "It is the best augur of the closing year that these two English-speaking nations, through their executive spokesmen are seeing eye to eye, both ready to submerge national pre-eminence to the weal of mankind."

Predicts Fight On Long Skirts and Tight Waists

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Elsie Hill, of Reading, a leader in the women's part, predicted today that a fight against long skirts and tight waists at the convention of the Connecticut League of Women voters by Mrs. Ruth M. Dadourian, wife of Professor H. M. Dadourian, of Trinity College, would probably be taken up by the National Women's Party at its convention in Washington which opens December 7.

Miss Hill, wife of Professor Albert Levitt, of the Brooklyn, N. Y., law school, said that she agrees with Mrs Dadourian that something ought to be done to combat the attempt to force women into long skirts and tight waists and proposes a boycott by all women against the style changes.

The Connecticut League of Women voters yesterday defeated Mrs. Dadourian's resolution asking it "to use its influence against the dictation of the new style." The league regarded the subject as outside of its province.

LABOR LEADER IS INDICTED IN PERJURY CASE

Mecklenburg Grand Jury Returns Bill of Presentment Against C. D. Sailors

Charlotte, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The Mecklenburg county grand jury today returned a presentment against O. D. Saylors, of Gastonia, organizer for the International Labor Defense, charging that he had committed perjury in his testimony before Judge Thomas J. Shaw regarding the alleged Gastonia anti-Communist mob of September 9.

Saylors declared in the committing magistrate hearing that A. L. Bulwinkle, former Congressman, and Solicitor John G. Carpenter were members of the mob.

The presentment was filed for the consideration of the next grand jury which comes into office in January, no indictment having been returned at this session. Bulwinkle and Plummer Stewart, Charlotte attorney, were witnesses before the grand jury.

The presentment read:

"The grand jury of Mecklenburg county, the State of North Carolina, do present that C. O. Saylors did on the 13th day of September, 1929, commit perjury in the matter of an investigation before Judge Thomas J. Shaw . . . when he swore that A. L. Bulwinkle and John G. Carpenter led or were in a mob."

The document was signed by W. E. Price, foreman.

Bulwinkle assisted Solicitor Carpenter in the prosecution of the seven textile labor leaders and strikers charged with second degree murder in connection with the fatal shooting of O. F. Aderholt, Gastonia chief of police.

SEES TAX CUT DURING MONTH OF DECEMBER

Tilson Believes Relieves Reduction Proposal Will Be Passed by Christmas

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Representative Tilson of Connecticut, the Republican House leader, predicted after a call at the White House today that the treasury tax reduction proposal would be passed by the House before the Christmas holidays.

Tilson said he canvassed the possibility of early passage of a tax bill with the President and was confident no objection would be interposed in the House to this course.

The treasury proposal is for a one per cent reduction in the individual and corporation rates.

The House leader said he had held conferences with various groups in the Senate and felt little difficulty would be met there.

"The plan of the Secretary of Treasury is simple and involves no material changes in the revenue laws and should be passed quickly", he said.

He added a resolution to carry out the reduction would be referred to the Ways and Means committee as soon as the December session convened.

DOCTORS SAY SEC. GOOD IS SOME BETTER

Improvement Noted in Condition of War Secretary During the Morning

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—For the first time since Secretary Good was taken ill, his physicians announced today they had noticed signs indicating a slight improvement in his condition.

The secretary's physicians said they hoped the improvement might continue without complications but it was said that Good was still in a critical condition.

Early this morning he seemed to have regained strength to some extent.

The principal danger at the present, his physicians said, was from complications and added he would be watched closely to ward off pneumonia.

The vitality and resisting power which the secretary has shown has been a source of amazement to his physicians.

It was said an operation such as his ordinarily would have proved immediately fatal and they were very hopeful that Mr. Good would continue to show his resisting qualities.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Dr. H. H. Bass, of Durham, State chairman of the American Society for the Control of Cancer. He spoke on the subject "The Treatment of Cancer by High Frequency Currents versus Operative Surgery in Lesions of the Mouth, Tongue and Throat."

Dr. Bass is considered something of an authority in the treatment of cancer and only recently conducted a clinic in this city under auspices of the State Board of Health and the American Society for Cancer Control. His address last night brought out many points in connection with the treatment of cancer and was listened to with more than general interest by the attending physicians.

Papers were read by Dr. C. Joyner of Farmville, and Dr. DeWitt Klutts of Washington. Dr. Joyner's paper dealt with the subject, "A Summary of Thirty Years Practice of Obstetrics", while that by Dr. Klutts was on the subject "Biliary Tract Complications of Abdominal Infections."

Sheriff Gives Graphic Description Of Rioting Around Marion Mills

Marion, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Testifying against five men charged with insurrection and rebellion against the State, Sheriff O. F. Adkins today said members of a mob that halted him and his deputies in their effort to eject a striker from a textile mill house had cursed the officers, shouting "dam the law" and "to hell with the law."

So threatening was the demeanor of the mob that he immediately returned to Marion from the Clinchfield mill village where the crowd had gathered and had requested the governor to send troops, he testified.

The sheriff was the first witness in the trial of Alfred Hoffman, organizer for the textile union, and Del Lewis, W. L. Hogan, and West Fowler, all strikers, and J. Hugh Hall.

An objection by the defense to the admission of testimony regarding statements that came from unidentified members of the crowd was overruled by Judge G. V. Cowper, presiding, who declared it competent evidence in stating that it showed "concerted action" on the part of the crowd in which the defendants were included.

Three of the defendants, Hogan Fowler, and Lewis, were in the crowd, Sheriff Adkins testified, and cursed and threatened him and the officers as they move the furniture out. Lewis and Fowler had sticks, he said.

At the opening of his testimony, Sheriff Adkins produced orders requiring him to remove two families from the Clinchfield mill houses. These were put in record.

"Did you take a truck along to move the things, Solicitor J. W. Pless asked.

"Yes, sir", the sheriff replied.

The truck was left on the highway with the driver as he and his deputies went to a strikers house, the sheriff said.

"When we returned, the truck and driver had gone and a crowd of 40 to 45 were in the road where the truck had been", he said.

"Where did you go then ?"

"We went to the strikers house".

The sheriff testified that Will Webb, one of the strikers but not one of the defendants, had "hollered out that we had come down there with a lot of bootleggers and we had better get away and leave their living alone."

Textile labor disturbances in the Clinchfield mill and the Marion Manufacturing company mill villeges followed strikes called by the Textile Union, a branch of the Textile union.

Sales and Show Jubilee Week Opens Here Monday

Everything is in readiness for Greenville's special Sales and Show Jubilee Week" scheduled to begin on Monday morning and to continue throughout the week. It will be a season of special selling and amusement, the like of which has never before been presented to the people of Eastern Carolina.

The event is being sponsored by the Merchants Association and the executives of the organization with several firms participating have spent weeks making preparations that will make the occasion paramount in the minds of those who do their shopping in Greenville. It is not a sale where the merchants will select a few items from their stocks for bargain selling, but every firm participating has agreed that there shall be no reservations, and that every department of their stores will be effected. Merchandise will be offered at the greatest reduction in price that has ever been the experience of the public to witness, and a visit to the various stores participating will be proof sufficient to convnice the shoppers these are facts.

Practically every merchant has had buyers on various markets making large purchases to replenish their merchandise in preparation for the event, and the stocks will be as full and complete as at the beginning of a season. These reductions will not only be effective on wearing apparel, but in practically every other line of merchandise wil these bargain prices prevail for the week.

Thrifty buyers will find this occasion a good time to check upon the real necessities of the family, as well as an opportunity to look over their Christmas lists and save money on their remembrances.

There may be other occasions that call for some concrete remembrance, if so, this will be found the psychological time to find them.

Another outstanding feature connected with the events of this particular time will be the special program being put on by White's theatre. This local playhouse desiring to co-operate with the merchants in making the occasion even more interesting, has arranged for three exceptional good all talking, singing and dancing pictures for the week. The first of these, "Cocoanuts", will be shown on Monday and Tuesday nights. This picture has won favor on all of the circuits and is one of the outstanding productions since the beginning of the talkies. On Wednesday comes "Sherlock Holmes", which as a detective story there a few its equal, and the fact that it is a talking picture you won't recognize it as the silent picture you have seen under the same title. Then on Thursday, Friday and Saturday comes "Hollywood Revue". This is a sing-

N. C. BAPTIST CONVENTION TO MEET HERE

Adjourned Session to Meet in March to Celebrate 100th Anniversary

The North Carolina Baptist convention will meet in adjourned session in Greenville, March 6-7 to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of its founding. The sessions will be held in the Memorial Baptist church and a program of interest to every Baptist in the State will be provided for the occasion.

The decision to hold the celebration was reached at the annual convention in Shelby yesterday. Rev. A. W. Fleischman, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church, called attention of the convention to the approach of its hundredth anniversary and extended an invitation to meet in Greenville where organization actually occurred.

The convention adopted a resolution to meet here in March in continuation of the Shelby meeting, and plans for the centennial celebration will be worked out in the near future.

The convention was organized March 26, 1830, in the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. I. Gorham, members of the Missionary Baptist church. The church was represented at the meeting by Elder Thomas D. Mason, George Stokes, and Redding S. Blount. The meeting actually began as the Baptist Benevolent society, and the following resolution was adopted without a dissenting voice: "Resolved, that this society be transformed into a State Convention."

The sermon of the first convention was preached by Elder Samuel Wait, and later in the day the society gathered for the purpose of completing the convention business. Others prominent in the convention organization at that time were such men as Meredith, Waite, Armstrong, Patrick Dowd, Charles W. Skinner, James Daniel and Joshua Lawrence and others.

It is an established fact that Rev. Thomas D. Mason assisted in the organization of the Greenville Baptist church and that he was its first pastor, still serving in that capacity when the convention was organized in 1830.

From only a handful of Baptists at that first meeting the demoninations has developed from year to year until today it claims a total membership of 386,000.

The purpose of the convention at its first sitting was an educated ministry, State paper and mission. From these three objectives have come Wake Forest College, the Biblical Recorder, and its present mission boards.

The convention at Shelby was featured by similiar objectives, and continued its fight for the same things that dominated the thoughts of the pioneers who used their influence in early work of the denomination, and especially the founding of the organization in this city.

The celebration is expected to be one of the outstanding in history of the convention, and many of the most distinguished members of the various churches of the State are expected to be in attendance. In the meantime, the members of the Memorial Baptist church will make elaborate plans for entertainment of the visitors during their two-day stay, and will work out a program of interest to everyone.

Recognition for Early Users of Nitrate of Soda

An attempt is being made to find some of the farmers who pioneered in using nitrate of soda as a fertilizer in North Carolina. As a feature of the centennial celebration of Chilean nitrate of soda, suitable recognition is to be conferred on the farmer now living in this state who first used "Soda" and also on the farmer who has used it for the longest period of time.

It is thought that Pitt county will have several representatives among the early users of nitrate. Any farmer who has used nitrate of soda for 25 years or more should report his experience, for he may, unknowingly, be the first or the oldest user in the state. Names may be sent to County Agent E. F. Arnold who will forward them to the committee which will make the awards.

The users of mineral fertilizersin the United States, according to County Agent Arnold runs back to the last half of the past century. When the first farmers used mineral fertilizers there was much doubt about the value of the practice. It was a newfangled idea, about which very little was known. But as a result of modest farm tests and experimental research, it has now become an economic necessity in the agriculture of the county.

The first shipment of nitrate of soda was brought to the United States in 1830. Since then it has been used by four generations of American farmers. Today, with the exception of lime and marl, it has probably been utilized the longest of the inorganic substances now used for agricultural purposes.

Six Charged With Embezzling Bank

Flint, Mich., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Complaint charging six former employes of the Union Industrial Bank of Flint with embezzlement were placed in the hands of Prosecuting Attorney Charles D. Beagle this afternoon. The warrants have not been issued.

Those named in the complaints were: John S. De Camp, former senior vice-president; Elton D. Graham, former vice-president and cashier; Milton Polock, former vice-president; Ivin P. Christensen, a former assisant cashier; Mark H. Kelley, former assistant cashier, and Russell A. Runyon, former discount manager.

Defalcations aggregating more than $3,500,000 were discovered in the funds of the bank a little over a fortnight ago. Several of the accused group of officers are said to have confessed misuse of the bank's funds when they were caught in the stock market collapse. With surety and security recoveries it was said the net shortage would not exceed $2,000,000.

Several other former employes of the bank are alleged to have been implicated. It was intimated by bank officials and Prosecutor Chas. D. Beagle that warrants for them would be issued later.

Expect Surprise Woman Witness in Rothstein Hearing

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Unconfirmed reports of a surprise woman witness for the state were circulated today as preparations went forward for the trial Monday of George A. McManus for the killing of Arnold Rothstein, gambler.

The woman, according to reliable reports, was said to be Mrs. M. A Putnam, of Asheville, N. C., and although her identity has not been officially confirmed she is reported to have had a room on the same floor of the Park Central Hotel where Rothstein was shot last year. Reports were that she heard the fatal shot and looked into the corridor.

Assistant district attorneys are said to have questioned her but District Attorney Job Banton and his associates would say nothing of her. Early this week, when the district attorney's office was interviewing witnesses in the case, a woman who had not figured previously as a witness, was seen outside Mr. Banton's office. Efforts to ascertain her identity were unsuccessful. Mrs. Putnam is said to be in the city now.

McManus' trial opened last Tuesday but was adjourned until Monday because of the illness in Milwaukee of "Titanic" Thompson, a witness for the state. Authorities have said the trial will go on Monday regardless of whether Thompson is sufficiently recovered to come to New York.

State College Would Abolish the "Rat" Cap

Raleigh, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Freshmen at North Carolina State College today are preparing an appeal to the student body, student council and faculty for abolishment of the traditional "rat" cap or some change in the rules governing its wear.

At one time yesterday the first-year men at the State Technical School, 400 of them, had gathered and were threatening without further ado to burn their "rat"caps in protest against the imposition by the "court of customs" of a sentence of wearing a comical dress at all times for 13 days on Comiskey, a freshman football player, who was found guilty by the upper classmen's court of violation of the rules for wearing the regulation rat cap.

Henry G. Love, of Burlington, vice-president of the student council, succeeded in quelling the threats of burning the caps at the rebellious session yesterday afternoon and then last night the freshman held another meeting at which time Joe Moore, graduate and assistant secretary of the college Y. M. C. A., as well as J. Chopin, of Winston-Salem, president of the student body, assured the first-year men that the caps could be legally abolished if it is the will of the student body. The first-year men, however, were advised not to destroy their caps without permission as they would probably be replaced of they do so.

After the meetings the rats held a session and named a committee consisting of H. N. Murray, Chairboro, chairman; Sam Gurneau, of Superior, Wis., and J. Stroup, of Searcy, Ark., to represent them in presenting their protests and also in discussions ensuing.

Twelve Held for Dry Law Violation

Raleigh, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Twelve men were under charges of violation of the prohibition law today and two stills had been seized as the result of a series of raids starting at midnight Wednesday night and continuing for 18 hours.

P. M. Caudle, deputy prohibition administrator for Eastern North Carolina, led the group of raiders which twice visited a 300 gallon still near Louisburg, the second visit resulting in the arrest of seven men, and then swooped over another illicit manufactory near the Wake-Granville county line between Neuse and Creedmoor where three white men were seized. Two negroes to round out the dozen had been taken at the Louisbourg still, on the first visit.

Dine Overcome By Gas Fumes; Two Men Dead

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Gas fumes, apparently spontaneously generated from paint in a small enclosed compartment on the battleship New York yesterday, caused nine men to be overcome, two of whom died.

The two men who lost their lives were Lieut. R. H. Hollenbeck, who had gone into the compartment, known as a blister, to open it for fresh air, and Boatswain Mate Thos. George Weber, who attempted to rescue him. Both men were overcome and fell about 20 feet, suffering injuries from which they died.

Seven enlisted men also were overcome in the attempt to rescue the two men. It was not until pure air was forced into the compartment through a hose that the actual rescue was effected. At the hospital today it was said the seven probably would recover.

The New York, which is the flagship of Rear Admiral H. H. Christie commanding battleship division three of the scouting fleet, had been undergoing modernizing, which included the construction of "blisters" a sort of double hull for protection against submarines.

The "blisters" had been painted and closed, the gas is believed to have been generated by paint and metal during the time they had been closed. Lieut. Hollenbeck had been detailed to inspect them after the air vents had been opened.

Lieut. Hollenbeck's address was given as Chicago; and Weber's next kin was listed as Anna T. Webber, New York.

Terrorists Bomb Home of Official At Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Terrorists struck at the city administration today when they bombed the South Side home of James Breen, first assistant corporation counsel.

Breen and his wife were thrown from bed by the explosion, but were not hurt. The property damage was estimated to be $5,000. Several patients in the Evangelical Deaconness hospital nearby were frightened by the detonation.

Breen said he had received no threats and was unable to account for the attack. He suggested it probably was the work of someone whose enmity he had incurred in his duties in the citys legal department.

The bomb was exploded on the front porch of the house shortly after midnight. It tore a hole in the roof, drove in the front door, shattered windows, loosened plaster throughout the residence and toppled pictures, china and bric-a-brac to the floor.

NEAR DEPUTY SHERIFF HAS BEEN SLAIN

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Fears were expressed today by northern Indiana officials that Deputy Sheriff O. B. Jarman, of Rome, Ga., had been slain by companions of Elizabeth Brooks, alias "Honey" Sullivan, alleged "bandit queen," whom he was taking back to Georgia.

Jarman or a man, purported to be him, presented extradition papers, signed by Gov. Harry G. Leslie of Indiana to Sheriff Lyle of Lake County Tuesday for the young woman. She was wanted in Rome with two male companions in connection with a $12,000 payroll robbery.

Since Tuesday nothing definite has been heard of either Jarman or Miss Brooks, although it was learned that the deputy's superiors on Wednesday had received a telegram saying that he was having difficulty in securing the extradition papers.

During the King's stay in London he interviewed Prime Minister MacDonald and nearly all the cabinet ministers. He visited several theatres and wound up last night by seeing the war play "Journey's End."

SMITH—WHICHARD.

Pretty Early Morning Wedding.

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding solemnized this morning at eight o'clock when Mrs. Jennie Hall Whichard became the wife of Jesse Smith. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. A. W. Haskins, on East Ninth street, where the bride had been making her home. The living room was appropriately decorated to carry out a green and white color scheme. The mantel before which the vows were spoken, was banked with greenery interspersed with white chrysanthemums and snapdragons, and flanked on either side with tall floor baskets filled with trailing ivy and chrysanthemums, and the scene was lighted by the soft glow from white tapers.

As the bride and groom entered, Mrs. M. K. Blount rendered the wedding march and softly played "To a Wild Rose" during the ceremony. Rev. W. S. Harden spoke the words that made them and wife. The bride was stunningly gowned in a brown and tan ensemble suit of tweed with brown accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a motor trip to Washington, D. C., and other points. On their return they will make their home on East Ninth street.

The ceremony was attended by relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom. They are both popularly known here, and have a wide circle of friends.

The bride is formerly of Bethel, but has lived here for the past several years. The groom is a native of Greenville and is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith. He is the founder and senior member of the Smith Electric Company.

P. T. A. ORGANIZED AT CHICOD HIGH SCHOOL

On Thursday night, October 24, a meeting was called to organize a Parent-Teacher Association at the Chicod High school. Much interest was manifested in the meeting. Forty-seven members joined and pledged their support to the organization and the school.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Curtis Spencer; vice-president, Mrs. E. E. Moore; secretary, Mrs. Ferne Randolph; treasurer, Mrs. P. S. Moore; chaplain, Mr. Blainey Harper.

Miss Ida E. Seidel, rural supervisor, and Superintendent R. G. Fitzgerald, were present at this meeting. Each contributed interesting talks regarding the organization of our new school and the part that each individual must play in making the school a success.

The meetings are to be held once a month. Interesting programs of local interest are to be planned and given at each meeting. The program of work of the P. T. A. will include the beautification of the school grounds and the standardization of the high school, and also the elementary school.

There are great opportunities and possibilites for an organization of this kind in a new consolidated school.

Resolutions of Respect.

In the passnig of Mr. Laura White we the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of Jarvis Memorial M. E. Church, South, Greenville, N. C., regret having lost one of our oldest and most beloved members. As a loving tribute we offer the following resolutions:

First, that in the death of Mrs. White, we have lost a dear friend, an honored member, a true Christian and her loved ones have sustained a loss that cannot be measured.

Second, that she loved the church and was loyal to the society of which she was a life member. Although it was impossible for her to be with us during the last few years, she was always cheerful and vitally interested in our work.

Third, that we pray that the comfort and blessings of the Heavenly Father may rest upon her family and that the good in her life be a great benediction to those she left behind.

Fourth, that a copy of these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of our society, a copy sent to the family, to the N. C. Christian Advocate, and to the Daily Reflector.

a square meal, everything soured on my stomach so bad. Gas would form and Id have heartburn and feel weak and dizzy. An itching rash broke out on my skin, and my nose and throat often became inflamed. The purgatives I took to clear up my system seemed to do more harm than good.

"Four bottles of Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills got rid of every trace of gas and heartburn, and my digestive organs have never been in better shape. I believe now that a disordered liver was causing that rash because as soon as the Pills got in their good work, all that trouble cleared up and my nose and throat don't get inflamed like they used to. I cant remember when I've enjoyed such fine health.

"My wife has started Sargon too and she says its wonderful how much stronger she feels already. We expect to always keep some on hand."—Edward Deese, 16 N. Brevard St., Charlotte.

CHRISTMAS CLUBS.

Eight thousand banks in the United States within the next few weeks will pay out six hundred million dollars to nine million persons who during the year have been saving through the Christmas Savings Clubs plan. While many get the idea that because of the name of the plan all of this money is spent recklessly during the Christmas season statistics show that a large percentage of this money saved through the weekly thrift plan goes to constructive purposes. Each year the plan is attracting a larger number of depositors who use it not only to save what money they might need for Christmas buying, but to provide funds to take care of taxes, insurance premiums mortgage installments or the like, that might fall due at the season of the year when the funds from the Christmas clubs are available. This installment saving plan is proving of great benefit to the county and no doubt will continue to attract new depositors each year.

Don't forget the annual Red Cross Roll Call in this county begins next Monday. Everyone in the county should join.

"SONS OF JACKASSES"

Senator Moses was entirely correct in his designation of certain Senators as "Sons of Jackasses." In fact, he might have gone beyond the Senate to find a great many more who would come within the terms.

The great majority of "Sons of Jackasses" are mules, just plain everyday mules, and mules are the bearers of burdens in this world of ours. They aren't lovely animals. Their destiny is labor, stern and unending. They pull plows, they drag wagons over roads that civilization has not yet made smooth, they lead the way over mountains, and through wildernesses. Where there's a job to be done that requires strength, and uncomplaining devotion to toil, whether it be on country roads or on city strets, you will find the mule. When men go to war there are the mules hauling the artillery and the ammunition, and all the sinews of war for the fighting man. Armies must have lots of mules.

Senator Moses and his like are the race horses of politics. Pampered and petted, the best of care and food come to them. The plaudits of admiring thousands acclaim their beauty and wisdom. The mules of politics work that they may play.

But there is no play for the mules. Instead of plaudits they are kicked in the ribs and cursed; instead of box stalls with cork flooring, they sleep in ramshackle barns knee deep in slushy manue. Theirs is the lot of drenching rain, blistering sun, snow and mud. Who ever heard of a mule blanketed on Winter nights?

Senator Moses is right. The poor "Sons of Jackasses" are the tools of the race horses of the Senate. Why should not the race horse have all the best of it? Always it has been so and quite naturally he complains at the prospect of change. But remember, Senator Moses, the mule is a stubborn sort of animal. Perhaps he may have a notion to take the box stall and play around awhile and let the race horse do a bit of work for a change. Who knows? — News and Observer.

"BLACKENING" THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Whether, in order to advance the cause of the protective tariff in the South, it would be better to "blacken" the Northern Democracy or to "whiten" Southern Republicanism was one of the weighty problems of statesmanship which at the beginning of this year were vexing James A. Arnold, the manager of the Southern Tariff Association. A field worker of this organization had conceived the brilliant idea that if Negro Democrats could be elected to Congress from Chicago, Harlem, St. Louis and other centres with a large colored population, and that if at the same time the Negro could be eliminated as a factor in the Republican Party in the Southern States, then the solid South would become solidly Republican almost in the twinkling of an eye.

Mr. Arnold, while on the grill of the Senate sub-committee investigating lobbying, disclaimed responsibility for the plan, but he was interested to the extent of discussing it with Senator Curtis, then Vice President-elect, and with Senator Watson, Republican leader of the Senate. As a result of these and other interviews he wrote to the author of the scheme: "Our line of approach is much more acceptable to politicians and to Negroes of equalizing by blackening the Democratic Party than by whitewashing the Republican Party. The Negroes will go in revolt over the plan of kicking them out of the party, or out of leadership. They will have to take themselves out of the way for the present."

No doubt it will interest colored folk to read of this plan to use them as a pawn in the contest for bigger tariff favors, but they will hardly comply with Mr. Arnold's mandate and "take themselves out of the way for the present." And as for this divine principle of protectection, what blunders are committed in its name!—New York World.

ABOUT TOWN

Greenville was glad to welcome members of the Tri-County Medical Society assembled in session with the Pitt County Medical Society at the Country club last night.

The gathering of the medicoes is always of more or less interest to the public in that matters of importance of public health are invariably discussed.

For instance, the society had as its guest last night no other than Dr. H. H. Bass, of Durham. Dr. Bass is North Carolina chairman of the American Society for the Study of Cancer, and is an outstanding authority on cancer troubles.

His discussion before the society last night dealt with the cancer, an infection or growth that is taking a heavy toll of life among the American people at this time. The information imparted by Dr. Bass was not only interesting, but it should prove a source of great help to county doctors in reaching decisions in important cancer cases coming under their supervision.

It is impossible to estimate the far-reaching effect of conferences of this kind, and it is hoped the society will have more speakers of the kind on its program in the future that it may be able to more completely solve the great issues of present moment.

Members of the local chapter of the American Red Cross are busy at this time preparing for the annual roll call next Monday, and indications at this time point to one of the most successful campaigns in years.

The important part which the Red Cross has taken in the life of the American people in years past has gripped public attention as no other thing has been able to do, and it is a foregone conclusion that the people of Greenville and Pitt county will respond to this annual call for new members.

The role which the Red Cross has played in the relief of storm-stricken areas is familiar to almost every man and woman in the country, and it is a settled fact that nobody is going to let this opportunity to further the work of the organization pass by without notice.

Should this section lie stricken from some great disaster, this hand of mercy would bring aid just like it carried it to other communities affected in a similar way. It is a body of workers attempting to improve the condition of human-kind by ministering in time of distress, and it is nothing but the simple duty of the public to help carry on the plans in every way possible.

You will not be asked to give anything. All required of you is the payment of $1.00 for a year's membership. The amount of good accomplished by your subscription is inestimable. It may be the means of saving some human life, or carrying relief to an entire family when the "wolf knocks at the door" of those gripped by some great misfortune.

See that you have your dollar ready when the committees visit you next Monday, and in this way assure yourself of having rendered a distinct service in behalf of humanity.

The County Sunday School convention conducted in St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city Wednesday and Thursday of this week should have a pronounced effect in the life of the various Sunday school workers of the county in the future.

Greenville is always glad to welcome a convention of this kind, realizing as we do the important part which they play in the lives of the young men and women of today striving to render a distinct service to their respective communities.

It is impossible to estimate the good which the county will derive from the convention. Each of the churches represented will feel the effect of the inspirational messages of the Sunday School leaders, and workers should return to their churches greatly inspired over the outlook which the future holds for them.

The Sunday School does more to would the moral fabric of the youth than any other single agency. It has even a more far-reaching influence than the home, in that it is the foundation upon which the successful home is founded. Take the Godly influence of the Sunday School worker from the home and in the course of years the foundation of this nation would be more insecure than it has ever been before.

The Sunday School has a great mission, and realizing the fact, its workers are striving to increase the scope of their activities so that they may be able to accomplish more good with the passing of each year.

So we say, Greenville is proud of the honor of being host to such a gathering and is hopeful that the coming years will bring more of them so that their influence will hallow the lives of the various homes and make our foundation more secure than ever.

Duke Lineup for State Likely to Be Same As Those Against L.S.U.

Durham, Nov. 15.—Duke likely will take the field against State tomorrow identically the the same as it did against L. S. U. last Saturday. The coaches of the Blue Devils are reluctant to make any changes in the winning combination even though the early season regulars are all back in good shape and anxious to go.

But there wil llikely be plenty of work for everybody. In late games it has been the policy to insert replacements frequently and Duke now has plenty of them to use.

Kid Brewer, with a week's hard scrimmage under his belt, should be ready to gain some ground tomorrow and will be used at fullback, but Ock Godfrey will start.

Red Davis, guard, and Charley Rupp, versatile lineman, are fit again and no doubt will get n the aigme. Davis was a start at Navy but has been out since due to an injured back. In the meantime, Fred Taylor, the big boy of the line, has played great football and the coaches are reluctant to move him out, so Taylor is the probable starter at left guard again.

Duke is a big favorate to win this game although stiff opposition is expected from Gus Tebell's boys. State nas had a disastrous season, as has Duke. But Duke's record is a little better.

State won from Wake Forest by the margin of a safety but has lost to Washington and Lee, Clemson, Michigan State, North Carolina and Davidson. The last game was decided on the breaks and State fought a hard battle throughout.

Duke has won from Mercer, L. S. U., and lost to Pitt, Navy, Villanova and Boston college.

Each team has played six games. State scoring only 20 points while Duke has scored 95. State has had 144 points scored against at while the Blue Devils' opponents made 187.

FLOOD FINISHES WANE OF DWINDLING VILLAGE

Hamburg, S. C., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Hamburg, one-time thriving village on the banks of the Savannah river opposite Augusta, Ga., now is a town with hardly more than a name.

Once prosperous as a railroad terminus, and once prominent as the scene of the famous Hamburg riot of reconstruction days, the town had dwindled to almost nothing, and a few weeks ago a flood on the Savannah river did the rest.

The flood left a mass of mud and wreckage of what previously had been two filling stations and about 25 small shacks.

Peanut Market Opens Today At Edenton, N. C.

Edenton, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Open quotations on the new crop of peanuts reached four and a half cents a pound today, and Suffolk, with local prices fractionally below that mark, as the market opened for the season.

Suffolk and Edenton are rated among the largest peanut markets in the world, and the quotations were of interest to growers of eastern North Carolina and southern Virginia.

The four and one-half cents a pound quotation was for extra large Virginia's, with number one, number two and shelling stock grades ranging porportionately lower. This top price is half a cent more than the growers expected, but half a cent less than the amount estimated as necessary for the farmers to break even on the crop.

Announcement of the first quotations came on top of a statement by J. Rives Worsh, president of the new peanut association. Co-incident with the opening of the news crop sales, the United States Department of Agriculture is establishing grading stations at Edenton and Williamston in this state, and at four points in Virginia, with the hope of aiding the farmers in standardizing quality and obtaining better prices.

Cruiser Collides With Freighter in Fog Early Today

Boston, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Radio messages received at the local navy yard today from the cruiser Marblehead said that the Marblehead and the freighter Evansville had collided in a fog 25 1-2 miles off Mantucket early this morning.

Messages received from the Marblehead indicated that she had not suffered severe damage, but that the bow of the Evansville was bent int. No one on either vessel was injured, the messages said, and no assistance was needed. It was presumed that both were proceeding under their own power.

The Marblehead was due at the local naval base at 11 o'clock this morning but was delayed on account of the fog.

Reported Mutiny of British Troops Arouses Interest

London, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Revelation in the House of Commons yesterday that there had been a mutiny of British troops in Jamacia has aroused considerable mistification and curiosity here.

The government, while admitting the mutiny occurred, is unable to state when, or the circumstances.

Answering a question in the House of Commons Tom Shaw, war minister, said three soldiers of a Scottish regiment stationed in Jamacio had been convicted by court martial "on two charges of joining in mutiny of forces belonging to his Majesty's army." He said no details of the affair had been received.

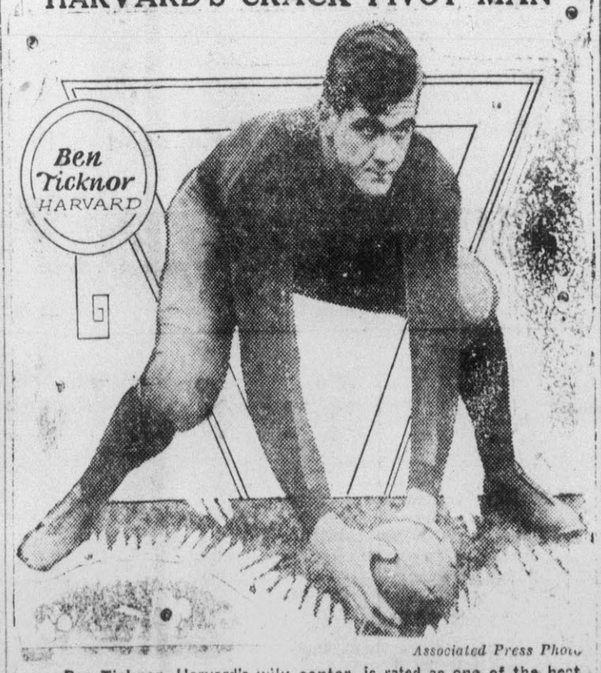

BOK TOWER DEDICATION HAS CHOIR OUTGROWTH

Winter Haven, Fla., Nov. 15.—(AP)—A choir is the outgrowth of the chorus of 600 voices formed last winter for the dedication of the Bok singing tower at Mountain Lake.

Hundreds of singers from nearly every community in Polk County will comprise the choir, which will have units in Winter Haven, Bartow, Lakeland and Lake Wales and will give concerts in each town.

The entire group will give concerts in each city. Henry W. B. Barnes, who directed the chorus at the Bok tower dedication, is director.

U. S. EXPORTS REFLECT GAIN IN OCTOBER

Shipment of Goods to Other Countries Increases $98,000,000 Over August

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Exports of merchandise from the United States during October totalled $530,000,000, an increase of $98,000,000 over the previous months. With the exception of October and November, 1928, when exports totaled $550,014,000 and $544,912,000 respectively, October exports exceeded those of any previous month since January, 1921, when the total was $654,300,000.

In making public the figures the Department of Commerce also announced that imports of merchandise during October amounted to $392,000,000, an increase of $39,000,000 compared with the previous month and a gain over all months since last March.

The increase in exports was attributed largely to the movement of raw cotton, flour, meats, electrical and agricultural machinery, mineral oils and automobiles.

Increased imports during September were accounted for principally by heavier receipts of rubber, raw silk, sugar, copper and newsprint.

For the ten months ending October exports amounted to $4,374,000,000, an increase of $25,000,000 over the corresponding period of 1928, and in excess of any similar period since 1920.

Imports for the first ten months were valued at $3,752,000,000, an increase of $327,000,000 over the similar period of last year. This also was an increase over any corresponding period since 1920.

Gold exports during October totaled $3,205,000, as compared with $1,205,000 the preceding month. This also was a large gain over October of last year when the total was $992,000.

For the ten months ending in October exports of gold totaled $13,748,000 as compared with $536,208,000 for the corresponding period of 1928. Imports of gold for October totaled $21,321,000, compared with October, 1928, when imports totaled $14,331,000.

Silver imports for October totaled $5,403,000, compared with $7,319,000 for the same month last year and $4,111,000 for the preceding month. Exports of silver gained in October to $7,314,000 from $7,252,000 in October of 1928, and from $4,374,000 in September of this year.

Commerce Department officials explained that the wide discrepancy in imports and exports of gold over certain periods was caused by varying interest rates here and abroad. Gold ordinarily flows into the United States when interest rates are high and goes out when they are low.

Recommend Probe of High Cost of S. S. Literature

Charleston(S. C., Nov. 15.—(AP)—An investigation into the high cost of Sunday School literature has been recommended by the memorial committee of the South Carolina Methodist conference in session here with Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon, of Charlotte, N. C., presiding.

During yesterday's session reports were submitted by ministers and presiding elders on the work accomplished in their territory during the past year. In many sections of the lower part of the state economic depression was commented upon. Practically all ministers noted, however, marked increases in church membership and activities.

Alma Rubens Cured of 'Dope' Addiction

Los Angelesfi Nov. 15.—Alma Rubens, stage and film actress, may be released within a week from the Patton State hospital, where she has been confined for four months undergoing treatment for narcotic addiction. Plans for her release were announced yesterday in word received here from Early Jensen, director of state institutions at Sacramento.

Miss Rubens will be taken to a mountain retreat for thirty days, Jensen said, after which she must report to Patton. If the report is satisfactory, she will be formally discharged. The superintendent of the state hospital was quoted as having reported that Miss Rubens has been "completely cured."

Miss Rubens was committed to the institution last July on petition of her mother, Mrs. Theresa Rubens, and her husband, Ricardo Cortez, motion picture player.

U. S. Army Band to Appear Here On November 25

Greenville is fortunate in being included among the fifty cities throughout the United States which the United States Army Band, "Pershing's own", will visit in their inspirational and educational tour. This is a part of their good-will tour which last summer included the capitals of Europe, with long engagements at the two expositions of Spain, in Seville and Barcelona.

This was the first Eupropean trip ever made by a United States service band sanctioned by the War Department and Congress, officially. They were, in a way, ambassadors of good-will, representatives of the government of the country. When the entertainment committee of East Carolina eachers college engaged the band for the two concerts on November 25 they knew full well that this would be one of the greatest attractions of the season that could be secured for a fall engagement. Now that the Band has returned from the summer in Europe literally wreathed in laurels, and has started on its tour of their own country.

ALABAMA HARD HIT BY SWOLLEN STREAMS

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Prospects of clear and colder weather heartened flood - stricken Alabama today, although streams, rapidly rising as a result of almost continuous rainfall over the state since Sunday, were expected to overflow their banks and inundate thousands of lowlying acres as the waters moved toward the gulf.

Extensive property damage, with possibility that many families in lowland areas would be forced to evacuate their homes at least temporarily, was expected to result.

Birmingham was recovering from unprecedented flood conditions and more than 200 negro families forced from their homes yesterday and last night as streams inside the city limits rose to record heights, were returning to their dwellings today as the water receded.

In Central Alabama, Northport was completely cut off from Tuscaloosa by an overflow of the Warrior river. A slight drop had been reported this morning from sixty five feet to 4.9 feet just above Tuscaloosa.

TOWNSEND TO DIRECT PROBE COTTON MART

Senator From Delaware Elected at a Meeting of Senate Committee Today

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—A Senate agricultural committee ordered to investigate the New York, Chicago and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges organized today by electing Senator Townsend, Republican, Delaware, chairman, and adjourned until Tuesday.

After the meeting which lasted only a half hour, Townsend said the sub-committee had discussed a course of procedure but had made no definite plans for the investigation, which is to inquire into speculation of the exchanges.

The chairman said that at the next meeting definite plans would be made and witnesses summoned, among them probably the presidents of the three exchanges.

The investigation was ordered yesterday by the Senate when it adopted without a record vote a resolution by Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama.

The Alabama Senator, who acted as spokesman for the three Democratic members of the sub-committee, said he would issue a statement calling upon all persons in the south who have information as to the cause of depression in the price of cotton and "manipulations" of the exchanges to present it to the investigators.

Besides Heflin, the other minority members were Senators Smith, South Carolina, and Ransdell, of Louisiana.

The Alabaman added that the sub-committee was looking to the Democratic members to guide in a general way the course the investigation will take.

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT LOSES THROUGH CARELESSLY ADDRESSED MAIL

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The Postoffice Department lost approximately $5,000,000 last year on carelessly addressed mail, a large part being the direct result of business firms having an exaggerated idea of their own prominence.

Many firms doing a large advertising business have labored under the impression that not having a street address indicated great importance in the hometown and impressed customers with that fact that "even in New York and Chicago we are so well known the postman needs no help in finding us."

Last year approximately 200,000,000 letters had to be especially handled by clerks hired to fill out inadequate addresses, the service in New York City alone costing $500 a day. Of the 200,000,000 inadequately addressed letters 25,000,000 found a final resting place in the dead letter office.

Rotten Eggs in Student Revolt At Iowa School

Des Moines, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Student revolt against the attitude of Drake University authorities toward the campus warfare with Iowa State College as a prelude to the school's football game at Ames tomorrow flared into open indignation early today with a rotten egg bombardment of the home of R. D. Davies, dean of men.

Davies last night refused to consider a petition asking for the reinstatement of six Drake students who were suspended for painting signs on Iowa State buildings and sidewalks yesterday. He told the group who presented the petition that it would have to come through the student council before he would consider it.

In retaliation, a dozen or more students came to his home shortly after midnight this morning and at 1 a. m. rushed to the house and plastered the front of it with eggs.

They disappeared in three automobiles before they could be identified.

Shortly before the egg episode, an effigy of Dean Davies, bearing a sign "Dean Hawkshaw" was hung on the campus in front of the administration building.

The six suspended students included all the Drake cheer leaders. More than 300 students signed the petition asking that they be reinstated to lead the cheering section at Ames Saturday.

Davies, upon hearing of the petition, remarked "it will not matter a great deal to me if there are no cheer leaders."

Both the Iowa State and Drake campuses received deluges of paint as a result of yesterdays activities, students from each school invading the other's campus.

Rockne Directs Notre Dame Squad From Wheel Chair

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Knute Rockne, keen student of football psychology that he is, has returned to active direction of his Notre Dame forces at the psychological moment.

Seated in a wheel chair, propped against an ambulance, Rockne worked just as hard and displayed as much spirit as his players. Rarely did he single out a player for criticism and when he did so, he did it in a joking vein that had its effect on his squad, from the best regular to the lowliest reserve. When practice was over Rockne had to forego his usual pessimistic mien and smile.

"We are going to have a hard battle and we are going to need a lot of breaks to win," he said, "but Southern California is going to meet a fair club Saturday, no fooling."

Every member of the varsity squad was in shape for the battle, which may decide Notre Dame's right to claim the national championship.

Rockne will make the trip in an improvised ambulance and direct his team from a wheel chair.

Offer Reward for Bandits Who Raided Pre-Nuptial Party

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 15.—(AP)—A reward of $35,000 if taken alive and $70,000, if dead, was offered today for seven men, who armed and masked, raided the suburban home of John L. Carson, Jr., last night during a pre-nuptial dinner party in honor of a prominent young society couple.

Lining the eighteen guests and half a dozen servants against a wall, the robbers stripped them of jewelry valued by the guests at about $400,000. They also obtained a small amount of cash and fur wraps taken from an upper floor.

The most valuable item in the lots of stolen jewels was a triple string of matched pearls, owned by Mrs. Ray Van Clief, one of the guests who estimated its value at between $250,000 and $300,000.

Mrs. Philip Metz, wife of one of the business executives of the Buffalo Evening Times and a daughter of Norman F. Mack, estimated the value of jewelry taken from her at $65,000.

Miss Eleanor Cameron, of Cameron, Texas, who, with her fiance, Courtland Van Clief, was the guest of honor at the party, also was said to have lost valuable jewels.

When the seven bandits interrupted the party, the guests at first though they were the victims of a prank being played by friends. After two of their number, a man and a woman, had been felled by blows of fists or revolver butts, they realized they were being robbed.

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 14 to 19 points in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables and buying was also was also promoted by the firmer opening of the stock market. January sold up to 17.43 and May to 18.00 during the first few minutes making net advances of about 18 to 21 points on the active months Southern selling was comparatively light but the higher prices met considerable realizing and after the initial demand had been supplied, prices eased slightly and the volume of business tapered off to some extent. The undertone was steady at the end of the first half hour, however, with prices ruling about 13 to 15 points net higher.

Liverpool cables reported covering with local, Continental and Bomba buying and said selling pressure had diminished. These advices also reported a fair cloth inquiry from India but said many others were unworkable.

GRAIN MARKET

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN,
Associated Press Market Editor

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Big export buying of United States and Canadian wheat today, probably 3,000,000 bushels together with stock market gains, helped cause higher prices on wheat. Besides, reports were at hand telling of widespread black rust in Argentina threatening severe damage if hot humid weather developed. Trade dispatches indicated rust was general throughout Santa Fe, Cordoba and entire Rios provinces, but was held in check by prevailing cool temperatures.

Wheat closed 7-8c to 1 1-4c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1-4c to 5-8c down, oats 1-8 to 1-8@1-4c advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The recovery in stock prices, which started yesterday, gained considerable momentum today from a series of constructive financial developments. Trading failed to maintain the pace set yesterday, or the day before, but there was a steady demand for the seasonal dividend paying issues, scores of which were carried up 1 to 20 points. A few specialties recorded even larger gains.

The reduction from 504 1-2 per cent in the New York Federal Reserve re-discount rate, which accompanied a further decrease of $710,000,000 in Brokers' loans, was followed today by a lowering of acceptance and time money rates and a drop in the call money reneway rats to 5 1-2- per cent, the lowest level since August 1928. Little business was being done in the time money market because of the rapid changes in rates.

The day's business news was rather mixed in character. Youngstown dispatches reported a lowering of steel operations in the valleys due, in part, to a reduced demand from automotive manufacturers. Directors of Prairie Pite line and Prairie Oil companies declared extra dividends out of large profits piled up earlier in the year.

Arthur Reynolds, chairman of the Continental-Illinois Bank and Trust company, was quoted as stating that "the slump in the stock market has had some effect on business and will be further felt over the next few months" although he expressed the opinion that 1930 should be a good business year.

Otis Elevator ran up several points Edison 3, and Ingersoll Rand, American Machine and Foundry, J. I. Case, American obacco B, R. H. Macy, and allied chemical, sold 16 to 20 points higher. Several other issues moved up several points and cased off on week-end proft taking.

SOUTH'S GRID TEAMS READY FOR BATTLE

By DILLON L. GRAHAM
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Atlanta, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Seeking the victory that has been denied them for six years, the Auburn Tigers invade Athens this afternoon for their annual feud with the University of Georgia Bulldogs.

Not since 1922, when they edged out a 7 to 3 verdict, have the Tigers been returned victors over the Red and Black and with the Bulldogs in a surly mood resulting from a series of recent defeats indications are that the Alabamians will have to wait at least another year to break their string of losses.

Heavy rains in the Knoxville vicinity yesterday gave promise that the Vanderbilt-Tennessee battle on Saturday would be played on a wet field. The moisture brought gloom into the Volunteer camp for Dan McGuggin's Commodores are said to be at home in the mud.

One of the major problems facing McGuggin is the finding of a pair of ends who can halt the flank movements of Gene McEver and Buddy Hackman, the Volunteer touchdown twins. To date no team has erected a barrier around which this pair could not step.

Both teams are undefeated in Southern Conference clashes and tomorrow's encounter is expected to eliminate one from among the championship contenders.

Tulane and Duke, both unconquered, risk their banners against Sewanee and North Carolina State in the only other games having championship bearings.

A revamped Georgia Tech Tornado will face a strong and rugged Alabama eleven in Atlanta in another of the major conbicts of the day. Indications are that this game also will be played on a rain soaked gridiron.

Florida, playing before a large home coming crowd, encounters the Clemson Bengals at Gainesville, Fla. Virginia Poly clashes with Maryland at Norfolk and Louisiana State battles Ole Miss at Baton Rouge.

Both morning and afternoon games are programmed at Lexington, Va. Kentucky, braced for a comeback into the win column, will meet Virginia Military in the morning booking, while Virginia scraps the Generals of Washington and Lee in the afternoon bill.

North Carolina's Tar Heels, the Mississippi Aggies and South Carolina's Gamecocks leave family ranks to engage Davidson, Millsaps and Furman.

Oglethorpe and Wake Forest are the only Dixie teams scheduled for interscctional warfare. Oglethorpe treks to Cincinnati to meet S. Xavier while Wake Forest goes north to face Navy at Annapolis.

Student Mortality to Be Considered by U. N. C. Alumni

Chapel Hill, Nov. 15.—"Student fortality" will be the theme of the first of two sessions of the annual Alumni Assembly, which will be held at Chapel Hill November 27-28, according to an announcement made today by Maryon Saunders, University Alumni Secretary.

The Alumni Assembly is the annual business meeting o fthe General Alumni Association, and all alumni clubs and classes are expected to have representatives at the gathering.

The first session will begin with a dinner Wednesday evening, Nov. 27, at the Graduate club. The second session will be held hursday morning following a breakfast of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association. Business matters consume the program of the second session.

Francis F. Bradshaw, Dean of Students of the University, will lead the discussion on student mortality at the Wednesday evening meeting.

Alumni attending will learn of the statistics on students who drop out of the University before completing their course, and will hear discussed the reasons for the mortality.

Dean Bradshaw has been giving consideration and considerable time and study to this subject, and will have some interesting and valuable information for the alumni. President Chase will introduce the subject. W. T. Shore, president of the Alumni Association, will preside at the meeting.

HEELS LIKELY TO USE VETS ON DAVIDSON

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 15.—With only a last light workout to go, the whole squad in fairly good shape, and the transportation reservations calling for places for a squad of 50, Tar Heel followers were busy speculating today on the probable lineup Coach Collins will hurl against Davidson on Richardson Field Saturday.

There isn't much to choose between a dozen backfield men, and so the problem centers chiefly around the line the Tar Heels will start against the fighting Wildcats.

The second-string line showed almost as well against South Carolina as the veterans.

Nelson and Parsley, ends, showed up especially well. Dortch and Thompson, tackles, looked good; and the center trio of Crew and Hudson, guards, and Gilbreath, center, proved as impenetrable for the Gamecock backs as the veteran center trio.

It's a known fast that Coach Collins is trying to get his men in tip top shape, to fill the hard engagements, not only with Davidson, but also with Virginia and Duke. He gave them three days of rest this week for exactly that purpose.

But will he risk starting his second string line against the Cats when state title hopes are hanging in the balance?

That's the question. The first team line is in good shape after a week of rest and comparatively light work, and, despite prevalent gossip, seems more likely to get the call.

That would mean Holt and Fenner, ends; Koonig and Adkins, tackles; Captain Farris and Fysal, guards; and Lipscomb, center.

Wyrick and Magner, veteran quarter and left half, are in shape to be used if necessary, but Coach Collins will probably save these boys unless things come to the worst.

It seems likely that the Sophomore Johnny Branch will start at quarter, calling signals to a veteran trio of Ward and Nash, halves and Spaulding, full.

Has Narrow Escape From Marriage

Evanston, Ill., Nov. 15.—(AP)—R. V. Robinson was just passing by. He did not intend to getmarried; but he had, in his own words, "a very narrow escape."

Leave Mr. Robinson for a moment and consider Sebastian Fersinger and Miss Etta Frame, who did want to get married. She said as much of justice of peace Harrison.

"If you insist upon being married" said the justice. "I won't argue. However, you need a best man. Pardon me while I get a best man."

Justice Harrison went outside. Mr. Robinson was passing by. "How" said Justice Harrison, "would you like to be a best man?"

"I don't mind", said Robinson.. "Anything to help out".

Back in the justice's courtroom, the folks lined up.

"Do you" inquired Justice Harrison, "take this woman to be your lawful wedded wife?"

"I should say not" said Mr. Robinson, reaching for his hat. "I'd be willing to be the best man, but I won't marry anybody".

Justice Harrison reached for his glasses, put them on and looked the situation over. He had placed the best man where the bridgroom should have been, and vice versa.

"My error", said the justice; and soon thereafter Miss Frame became Mrs. Fersinger, and Mr. Robinson went home.

THE LUXURY HUSBAND

SYNOPSIS: Rita, obsessed by an intuition that Ray still loves her. When she learns that Barbara is the wistful, sad-eyed girl who frequently sat alone at the Golden Dollar, Rita realizes she cannot allow Ray to be parted from Barbara. Rita and Barbara become friends, and that night Rita telephones she has a plan to reunite the man she loves with his estranged wife.

A few weeks later, a brilliant first night crowd is gathering for the opening of "The Knave of Jazz," Ray's revue, in which Rita is billed for a specialty dance, "The New Yorker."

Chapter 41

BEHIND THE SCENES

Opening night for "The Knave of Jazz."

The state of tension in the audience was as noting compared with that which had prevailed behind the scenes since early afternoon. Hopes an emotions ran riot. Chorus girls flustered and giggled over their make-up; and producer bustled hither and thither; all and sundry dead sure the show would flop.

Ray moved about like an automaton, his face white, his eyes glassy, not hearing even the encouragement of Pete Anheim.

Rita had been apportioned a little cupboard of a dressing room all to herself. Red and white American Beauty roses stood in a long corner of the room was a faded Japanese screen.

Behind this sat Barbara—Barbara in such a high state of nervous tension that she kept locking and unlocking her fingers incessantly. Rita, powdering her long slim arms before the mirror, along seemed calm.

Now, bending near the mirror, she threw out over her shoulder: "Do you think you've got the steps down pat?"

"Yes. . . . But really, Rita, I don't think we had better go thru with it. Don't you think the whole idea's rather crazy?"

"Sure it's crazy. But if it weren't for the crazy things of life we'd all commit suicide. Say, while you're dancing don't forget to keep your hands going at the same time as your feet. You've simply got to put the New Yorker across, Barbara."

Barbara swallowed twice, chewing the paint from her underlip.

"I know. You're all sorts of a sport to have given me this chance, Rita. But do you honestly think it will do me any good?"

"You mean with Ray?"

Barbara nodded.

"Sure! Do you think I would have gone to the bother of coaching you if I hadn't? I tell you, you've got to do something drastic to show him that you are now one of us."

Barbara's rueful smile was by way of confirmation. Rita, as she turned her attention to her hair, mentally reviewed the scheme she had put into motion for the reconciliation of Ray and his wife.

As to marrying Ray herself—that dream had foundered the moment she had identified Barbara as the sad eyed, wistful little girl she had so often seen sitting alone in the booth at the club. That proved without question that the girl was still in love with Ray. Also, that she regretted the impending divorce. From that moment to this it had never occurred to Rita to take her own happiness at Barbara's expense.

The very fact that she should be the means of bringing them together was comic in itself. Regarding the scheme she had devised for furthering this end Barbara had been right in denoting it as crazy. Too, it was theatrical in the extreme. But Rita, trained to the stage; saw everything in terms of the theatrical.

Ray had always made a point of stressing the unsympathetic attitude his wife had adopted towards his work.

Chiefly the idea of overcoming this had Rita planned the whole thing. Towards the end of the last act she was to introduce a new dance, the Ne wYorker. During this number Ray was to step onto the stage playing his saxophone. Rita's idea was, that Barbara, instead of herself, should take her place on the opening night and go through the dance. This should give Ray sufficient proof that Barbara's snobbish ideas had changed.

At the same time her appearance in this revue, the score of which he had written, would be a public assurance that she was now at one with him in his profession.

Having made herself up to her complete satisfaction, Rita thought it time to go above. The five minutes warning had already sounded.

"Cheer up, old girl, and wish me luck," she said, squeezing Barbara's arm as she passed out of the door.

Barbara found the suspense of that first act unbearable. Anything she would have given to have been out in front. How was the audience reacting to it?' They must be enjoying it—they must. The mere thought of failure appalled her. She knew the dregs of disillusion that would then be Ray's.

She could see Ray standing before the public at the final curtain keeping a stiff upper lip while hiscoul rocked in agony. It must be a success! Too, added to her fear for him was the sure and sickening knowledge that with the success or failure of "The Knave of Jazz" lay the rise or fall of her own hopes. Crushed, defeated, irretrievably she would lose him.

Suddenly she found herself praying, a strange sort of prayer.

"Make them like this show. Please, please. . . Otherwise it will break Ray's heart. . . "

She paused abruptly. Faintly at first, growing louder, she heard the din of applause—tremendous applause. She wrung her hands and cried, "Thank God, thank God," without being in the least aware that tears were streaming down her cheeks.

The next moment Rita had burst into the dressing room. Rita, springing about, shouting in her excitement and throwing an absurd galloiwog mascot from one end of the dressing room to another.

"It's a success! It's a success. A huge, roaring, howling success. Did you hear the hand? The first act's our weakest. If that's gone across so big the next is going to be a riot. You wait and see. . . "

Half laughing, half crying in her excitement, she dashed once more for the door.

"I'm off to see them all."

Along the corridor she rushed, bumping into men and girls.

Now she had found Ray, a stunned, dazed Ray, as though too much good fortune had turned his brain. She put up her arms and shook him by the shoulders.

"It's a success, Ray—we've put it across! We've put it across!"

They were in each other's arms, rocking to and fro in an ecstasy of joy.

"Rita—I've got you to thank for it all—every bit of it. But oh, girl, to think that we've actually put it across."

She closed her eyes, something was swelling in his throat, instinctively her arms tightened about him. She wanted so badly to feel him close to her . . . for the last time . . . for the last time.

Oh! the temptation in that moment to forget the little wife in the dressing room. Why should she sacrifice her happiness for any girl? Why should she?

If only she could forget Barbara . . . forget that somewhere down deep in his heart Ray loved the poor little rich wife he had deserted.

For one moment longer she clung to him, her grease paint rubbing off against his shoulder. Then, setting her teeth, she wrenched herself free from him.

"So long, Ray, I want to find Pete."

While to herself she muttered as she continued her headlong way:

"You've got to be a sport, darn you. You've got to go through with it now!"

Rita carries on —against the longings of her heart. Continue the story tomorrow.

SUNDOWN STORIES

NOVEMBER WIND

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

It was quite remarkable that no matter how many adventures they had they never felt tired.

It was all because of the Little Black Clock's magic.

He could take them off on adventures and present them with several sleeping hours besides, so they would not lose their sleep and feel all worn out.

This evening he had told them he would turn the time back only one evening.

They walked along with the Little Black Clock until they were in the deep pine woods. It was lovely walking through here.

The pine trees were swaying in the breeze. As they swayed they sang a little in the way that pine trees do.

Just then the children saw a big house made of autumn leaves.

Most of the leaves were brown and yellow and looked dry and crisp, though others were of brighter shades.

It was the finest house of leaves either of the children had ever seen.

"We'll go right inside," the Little Black Clock said.

The leaves were piled high all around the house and some of them were held in by strong old logs. At one side there was a hopening and through this they all walked.

"Anybody at home?" called the Little Black Clock.

"Whew-whew-whew-whoo-whew—eeeeee," came the answer.

"Hello, November Wind. I've brought you some guests."

"Whee-whew-whew-woo-wee", — shouted November wind.

"Sit down, lady and gentleman. Sit down in my November house."

MONARCH CLUB TO ORGANIZE IN THIS CITY

National Representative Here Perfecting Plans to Establish Unit

National Representative Chris J. Meetze, of the National Monarch clubs is in Greenville to establish a unit of the National body in this city.

A get-to-gether meeting will be held at the Proctor Hotel tonight at 8:00 o'clock to outline the work and explain the organization to men who will be present to hear of the organization.

Rocky Mount Monarch club will sponsor the Greenville Monarch club and will have a delegation at the meeting tonight for that purpose.

Meetings will be twice a week until the club is established in this city, only gentlemen who do not already belong to a service club are eligible.

Invitations to some gentlemen have already been sent out and they are expected to be present tonight at the meeting.

The National Monarch Service clubs was incorporated in the District of Columbia in February, 1924 by a few business and professional men of Washington and Virginia.

Headquarters of the National Monarch clubs is located in the National Press building at 14th and F street, N. W., Washington D. C.

Clubs are now established in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Washington, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and New York.

Dr. Chas. H. Rominger, Phd., professor of religious education and social science of Cedar Crest College for young ladies at Allentown, Penn. is the president of the organization. N. L. Garner of High Point, N. C. is vice-president; Walter U. Varney, Arlington, Co. Va., second vice-president, and Samuel M. Cathey of Asheville is third vice-president; P. P. Woodbridge, secretary and treasurer, and Edw. W. Wickey, Washington, D. C., counsellor, and Chris J. Meetze of Manassas, Va. is National representative.

Monarch clubs are similar to Rotary, Kiwanis, and such service clubs, two owners, partners, managers, executives, or representatives of their respective businesses are selected to make up the membership of each club.

All selections for membership must be made by those in each city where the club is being organized, the representative calls upon only such men as have been selected to become members of the organization. Such a method ensures not only a class of outstanding men, but also a harmonious group.

Monarch clubs are not permitted to engage political or religious discussions or, as an organization to participate in campaigns to raise funds other than for its own use.

The entrance fee to the Monarch club $25.00 payable when the officers have been selected and the organization is assured; if any person desiring to pay entrance fee when charter is signed it can be done and deposited with some one in the city wherethe club is being in the city where the club is being been elected.

The annual dues to the Monarch club are recommended as $12.00 per year, and the by-laws forbids assessments being levied, unless by unanimous consent of the club.

Clubs are now located in this State at Charlotte, Asheville, Raleigh, Durham, Greensboro, High Point, Winston-Salem, Gastonia and Rocky Mount. All other clubs work in perfect harmony with the Monarch clubs.
