JAMES W. GOOD LOSES BATTLE AGAINST DEATH

Secretary of War Died at Washington Last Night From Blood Poisoning

Washington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—In the east room of the White House where the nation has honored many of its distinguished sons, President Hoover and other officials tomorrow will pay a final mark of respect to James W. Good, secretary of war, who died last night after a valiant struggle against blood poisoning.

Those attending the ceremonies will include Vice-President Curtis, members of the diplomatic corps, delegations from the House and Senate as well as members of the family of the late secretary of war. The body will be taken to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for burial.

The public will not be admitted to the White House but after the services, employees of the war department will be permitted to enter to view the body of their late chief.

The body will be accompanied to Iowa by Mrs. Good, her two sons, Acting Secretary Hurley, General Charles P. Summerall, chief of the army staff, the Senate and House delegations, and a representative of the President who will be either a cabinet member or one of his private secretaries.

Washington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—The head of the nation was bowed in sorrow today at the death of one who stood high in the councils of the government, James William Good, secretary of war.

Official and diplomatic Washington joined in unstinted tribute to the fallen cabinet officer, praising him as an able public servant of high ideals and mourning his loss as a loyal and much-loved friend.

Preparations were made for a state funeral tomorrow in the east room of the cabinet and other high public officials, and for the transportation of the body to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Secretary Good's birthplace, for interment there.

Death came last night at the end of a week-long struggle against general blood poisoning, which set in after he had undergone a dangerous emergency operation for gangrenous appendicitis. Throughout the week, the best that medical science could offer fought valiantly for his life, aided by a vitality amazing to his physicians which served to keep him alive long after all hope of recovery had been abandoned.

"I have never lost a fight in my life and I am not going to lose this one," Mr. Good said to a physician in his last period of consciousness. The encroachments of the poison, were, however, more than his over-zealous body could bear and he died at 8:37 p. m. while Mrs. Good stood beside his bed.

President Hoover, who had kept in close contact with the sick room throughout the cabinet officer's illness, was notified at once, and with Mrs. Hoover hastened to Walter Reed hospital to offer their condolences to Mrs. Good and ascertain her wishes regarding the funeral.

Shortly afterward, it was announced that the ceremonies would take place tomorrow at the White House and that the body then would be placed on board a train, accompanied by a military escort, and conveyed to the Iowa city.

Mr. Good was stricken a week ago tonight. He called his fellow cabinet officer, Secretary Ray Lyman Wilbur of the Interior Department, an eminent physician, and Lieutenant Commander Joel T. Ebone, President Hoover's personal physician, to his assistance, and they took him at once to the hospital.

Secretary Good's death, the responsibilities of the War Department devolved upon Patrick J. Hurley of Tulsa, Oklahoma, the assistant secretary, a war veteran who is entitled to wear the distinguished service medal. Hurley stood high upon the list of those advanced as Mr. Good's probable permanent successor.

Doherty Acquires Fall's Property

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The far-flung lands of the Tres Ritos ranch, once the pride of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, today were the property of Edward L. Doherty, oil magnate.

An action described as an untangling of the affairs of the Tres Ritos land company resulted in Doherty's acquisition of the ranch at a special master's sale yesterday. Representatives of Doherty paid $122,461.81 for the Tres Ritos. Under an order of the Third District court, following a mortgage foreclosure action, the sale was made to satisfy a note given to the oil man on Dec. 29, 1928, for $124,000 at 6 per cent interest. The note covered a personal mortgage held by Doherty.

Governor Pleased at Progress Made on Farm Program

Raleigh, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Gov. O. Max Gardner, in comment on his visit to Belhaven tomorrow, when he will address the Eastern North Carolina Livestock association on his agricultural program, reported gratifying progress of his plan.

The governor, going into the different phases of his better protection and better marketing methods program, said that he was especially gratified at the progress made in certified seed and purebred stock selection. He also reported that his plan for State institutions with State farms to become self-supporting as far as possible was progressing favorably.

Governor Gardner again reiterated that the State, through its test and State farms. Was ready to aid and was going to administer farm aid by giving to the farmers of the State. In every section, the best certified seeds for their immediate use and at a reasonable cost.

HEAVY SALES OF TOBACCO HERE MONDAY

One of the Largest Sales of the Season Reported By Super- visor of Sales.

One of the largest sales of the season was made on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday, according to the official report of K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales made public this morning.

The market handled a total of 1,082,562 pounds of leaf for $343,753.57 at a general average of $22.51 per hundred pounds.

The report of the supervisor indicated that tobacco continued to bring good prices, and that the general market average was held down by an enormous amount of scrap tobacco offered for sale during the day.

Farmers are offering the last of the crop for sale at this time and this is accountable for the large volume of common tobacco marketed from day to day.

It was indicated that there was 1,100,000 pounds of leaf on the floors of the nine warehouses today with indications that the floors would be virtually cleared by the late afternoon.

British Malaya, the world's largest source of tin, supplied 57 per cent of the 1928 output despite ancient methods of mining.

Blaine Voices Opposition To Higher Import Duties On Cotton Mill Products

Washington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Hopeful of completing work on the cotton manufacturers schedule before nightfall the Senate resumed its consideration of the subject today with Senator Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, voicing opposition to those advocating higher import duties on such articles.

He asserted those seeking such increases had failed to make a case "either from the standpoint of labor or industry" and said cotton manufacturers were seeking to construct a tariff wall behind which they would form combinations of monopolies through mergers of the various industries.

"There has been no earnest or intelligent effort to improve either condition of the working man or themselves," he said. "They are and have been a crowd of grasping combinations and individuals. They enjoy all the luxuries of life, but the men and women in their industries are the ones in distress."

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Mass., said that while certain branches of the industry were prosperous, he could show the Wisconsin Senator where cotton mills had been closed, others operated only part time, and still more in bankruptcy.

Walsh said he intended to vote against many proposed increases in cotton textile duties, but was convinced that a "very serious depression" existed in certain branches of which higher tariffs would be a contributing aid in restoring prosperity.

Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, complained again of conditions in the southern mills where he said women and children were being worked day and night.

Senator Simmons, Democrat, N. C., said it was true that mills were being operated day and night in the south but these were a very limited number.

Answering Wheeler's arguments as ten dollars a week for sixty hours, Simmons said wages in dollars and

PRESIDENT TALKS WITH R. R. HEADS

Railway Men Unani- mous in Determina- tion to Help Maintain Business Progress

Washington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Railroad presidents who conferred today with President Hoover were unanimous in their determination to cooperate in the maintenance of employment and business progress.

A White House statement issued after the conference said the railroads which they represented "would proceed with full programs of construction and betterments without any reference to recent stock exchange fluctuations; that they would canvass the situation as a further possibility of expansion, and that among the particular railroads it appeared that the total volume of such construction work already indicated an increase during the next six months over the similar period of last year."

The conference lasted for little more than an hour during which individual reports were made by the railroad presidents.

Besides the president, Secretaries Mellon and Lamont and Chairman Lewis of the Interstate Commerce Commission attending the meeting.

The statement made on behalf of the railroad executives was as follows:

"The railway presidents were unanimous in their determination to cooperate in the maintenance of employment and business progress. It was stated that the railroads which they represented would proceed with full programs of construction and betterments without any reference to recent stock exchange fluctuations; that they would canvass the situation as a further possibility of expansion, and that among these particular railroads it appeared that the total volume of such construction work already indicated an increase during the next six months over the similar period of last year."

"It was agreed that the question should be taken up at the next meeting of the railway executives convening in Chicago next Friday with view to securing cooperation of all railways in the United States in such a program. At that time steps will be taken to canvass the railroads to determine the exact amount of construction and betterments which can be undertaken over the forthcoming year and during the next six months."

Mill Workers Testifies About Strike Disorder In Marion Court Today

Marion, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Frank McCallister, a textile mill worker, testified today he heard Alfred Hoffman tell a crowd to "get organized" and go over to the Marion Manufacturing Company and "get them out if you have to pull them out."

Hoffman, an organizer for the United Textile Workers of America, is on trial on charges of insurrection and rebellion against the state, together with Del Lewis, Wes Fowler, Lawrence Hogan and J. Hugh Hall.

The entire morning session was given over to witnesses who quoted what they said they had heard Hoffman say to strikers on various occasions.

In a public meeting, Clyde Hall, said Hoffman declared he was going over to the Clinchfield textile mill village and "raise a little hell."

"What other statements did you hear him make?" Solicitor J. W. Pless, Jr., asked.

"That's about all," Hall replied.

Hub Smith, another mill worker, testified Hoffman said, after the Clinchfield mill opened that he "reckoned about all we can do is to go around and play the brass band for them at night. They can't

FOIL ATTEMPT OF ROBBER TO BREAK PRISON

Deputy Sheriff Critically Wounded As Prisoner Makes A Break for Liberty

Eastland, Tex., Nov. 19.—(AP)—Public feeling ran high here today against Marshall Ratliff, who led a gang of robbers in the full regalia of a Santa Claus, because of an attempt of the condemned man to escape from the county jail.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Jones was critically wounded and Ratliff was severely beaten in hand-to-hand struggle on a narrow flight of stairs in the jail.

Ratliff, whose use of a Santa Claus costume as a disguise in the Christmas time robbery of a Cisco, Tex., bank in 1927 made it one of the most spectacular in Texas history, has been sentenced to death but was returned here recently from the state penitentiary for a sanity hearing.

He had simulated paralysis and jail authorities were convinced he could not move. Last night, while feeding other prisoners, Jones and E. P. Gilbert, jailer, left the door to Ratliff's cell open. The prisoner slipped out and obtained Jones' gun from the jail office. Jones followed and they met on a narrow stairway. Jones went down with bullets in his abdomen, above his ear and through his knee.

Gilbert, hearing the firing, rushed down the stairs. Ratliff fired twice but missed, and was slugged with the butt of the gun, wrested from him by the jailer.

Gilbert's 20-year-old daughter, Mary, appeared with a gun and was prevented from firing at the prostrate prisoner only by her father, who struck up her revolver.

The robbery for which Ratliff is sentenced to execution resulted in the death of two peace officers and one of four robbers. Two were seized and used as shields by the robbers in a running gun battle.

Henry Helms, one of the robbers, already has paid the death penalty for his part in the holdup. A third was sentenced to life imprisonment but escaped.

Raise $20,000 for Orphanages At Lexington

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 19.—(AP)—Approximately $20,000 is available today for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners for a number of Kentucky orphanages as a result of the second annual one-day charity raise meeting held yesterday at the Idle Hour estate of E. R. Bradley, thoroughbred breeder.

Threatening weather reduced the attendance to about 5,000, as compared with the 8,000 of last year.

The feature of the six-race card was the $5,000 orphanage stakes at the Futurity distance, won by Mantah, Chestnut two-year-old filly by Cudgel-Paloma, with C. W. Moore's Gold Step second and Uncle Luther third. The winner apaid $22.60 in the mutuels to win.

In presenting a silver trophy to Brownwell Combs, Lexington, owner of Mantah, Governor Flem D. Sampson made a short address.

The crowd probably contained more notables than any other Kentucky racing crowd of equal size.

SAYS CITY HAS FINE LOCATION FOR AIRPORT

Noted Parachute Jumper Tells Ro- tarians of Advan- tages of Aviation

The old Matt Long flying field near the East Carolina Teachers college is an ideal location for an airport," Dick Hunter, well-known parachute jumper, who gave an exhibition in Greenville last Sunday, told members of the Greenville Rotary club assembled in regular weekly session at Rotary home last night.

Mr. Hunter pointed out that the lay of land was such that it would require very little work to put it in excellent condition for an airport. He stressed the fact that other cities of the country were becoming air-minded and urged the Rotarians not to overlook the great advantages of having an airport and air transportation.

The program last night consisted of the singing of Rotary songs, supper, introduction of guests, and discussion of the relationship between the buyer and the seller. President F. C. Harding, presided.

Mr. Robinson, local agent of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad was introduced by Bill Wahman, and he in turn presented L. U. Abbott, district passenger agent of the Coast Line, who discussed the education tours of Washington contemplated by his railroad. He told of the many things to be seen at the nation's capital and said that they were of great educational value to the school child.

He said arrangements were now being made to take as many children as possible from this section to Washington city.

E. F. Arnold, director of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture, told of his recent visit to Charlotte to attend the formal opening of the Foremost Dairy Products Company, a concern headed by J. C. Penny, department store magnate.

Mr. Arnold said he conferred with officials of the concern and that they said they would come to Greenville in the near future to make a survey of the locality with a view of the probable location of a similar plant in this city.

Carl Goerch, of Washington, well-known humorist, was one of the visitors of the evening and made a few brief remarks.

Judson Blount, who was on the set program for the evening, spoke on the "Relationship of the Buyer and Seller." He confined his talk to a discussion of the mercantile business and showed how over a period of years these lines of business had become more and more public servants and had realized that service to the public and public confidence was the foundation of any business.

Martin Swartz, superintendent of the Water & Light Commission, also on the evening's program, traced the work of his utilities, showing the tremendous amount of service they rendered the community. He declared this service was rendered at a cost greatly below that which other communities had to pay for equal service.

Washington Lawyer Tell Senate Lobby Committee About Cuban Sugar Body

Washington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—John H. Carroll, Washington attorney, said today before the Senate lobby committee that he had been employed by the Cuba Company, sugar importers, to obtain information regarding charges against President Machado of Cuba, so if they came before the Senate foreign relations committee the Cuba sugar people would be prepared to answer them.

The witness said he was getting $4,800 a month and that he was paid a $10,000 retainer by H. C. Lakin, president of the Cuba Company.

Carroll testified he was a personal friend of President Machado, but added: "If charges made against him are true he is not fit to hold office."

A contemplated trip to Cuba too he said, had been postponed because of ill health. Among the matters he planned to inquire into were claims against the Cuban government by Joseph Barlow who maintains his property in Cuba has been confiscated.

Carroll said he had been told by Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, that charges against Machado were likely to reach the Senate foreign relations committee through claims American citizens were making.

Senator Borah, Carroll testified, had asked him if he would send the foreign relations committee a copy of his report to Lakin.

The witness said he had been em-

Students Face Expulsion On Liquor Charge

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The liquor raid upon the Gamma Eta Gamma law fraternity house is ended as far as the law is concerned, but those involved today faced discipline and possible expulsion from the University of Illinois.

One of the three fraternity members arrested in the raid, W. J. Sherman, of Crown Point, Ind., a senior in the University law school, pleaded guilty yesterday in county court to a charge of possession and was fined $500 and costs. The fine was paid by his father.

Sherman acknowledged owning the 12 gallons of assorted liquors seized in the raid and said he sold a quart to B. W. Hoare, student in the college, of engineering.

Sherman's plea brought dismissal of charges against the other two students taken the raid: Alfred J. W. Wiers, Hibbing, Minn., and Ernest Longbons, of Marion, Ill.

TWO ARRESTS FOR MURDER OF BROTHERS

Man and Girl Held in Death of Two Men Found in Well in Arkansas

Texarkana, Ark., Nov. 19.—(AP)—Acting on the theory that two brothers, whose shot riddled bodies members of their family found yesterday in an abandoned well, were the victims of a moonshiner's war, Miller county authorities today had taken a convicted prohibition law violator and a 20-year-old girl into custody to their investigation of the killings.

Foos Coe, 35, who recently served a sentence in the state penitentiary for violations of the liquor law and who now is under federal indictment on liquor charges, and his girl friend Ola Owens, were being questioned regarding the deaths of the youths, Arthur Matson, 24, and Lee Matson, 18. Other arrests were expected soon. Coe and the girl were arrested at his home a short time after the badly decomposed bodies of the brothers had been taken from the well near Artex, Ark.

Bodies of the brothers, missing since November 4, were discovered by their mother, two sisters, and an uncle.

The youths left home with premonitions of approaching trouble with enemies, members of their family said, and a search had been conducted for them for some time. Yesterday, the mother called the uncle, Irving Jones, and asked if he knew of an old well into which the boys' bodies might have been placed if they had been slain. The family went to the abandoned well and peering over the top saw a hand protruding.

They immediately notified Sheriff Fleet Magee, who with the assistance of deputies, recovered the bodies. Their wounds apparently had been made at close range.

Rocky Mount Youth Killed By Automobile

Rocky Mount, Nov. 19.—(AP)—William Joyner, 18-year-old school boy was instantly killed here this morning when struck by a car which police say was driven by J. R. Wells, of Sharpsburg, as the latter was coming into the city. The boy was en route to school at the time, and had stepped from behind an ice truck.

The boy was thrown several feet when the car struck him and the fender of the car was badly damaged from the force of the impact.

Well said he was driving 40 miles an hour, according to statements from the police, who also said that witnesses had stated to them that he was traveling at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

Wells was released to $2,000 bond pending hearing. Funeral arrangements for the child have not been made.

Two Claimed By High Waters in Alabama Rivers

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The drowning of Fred Drakeman, 49, in high waters of the Tennessee river today had brought to two the death toll taken by abnormally high streams in Alabama during the last week.

Drakeman's body was found lodged on a barn roof near his home at Athens. The body of R. L. Nathan, prominent attorney who drowned in the Muscle Shoals district several days ago, has not been recovered.

Clear weather last night brought the announcement from government authorities that danger to residents and land holders had passed. Major streams had dropped considerably, with the exception of the Alabama river, which still was rising at a rate of 3 of a foot an hour last night.

OFFICERS WILL GO ON TRIAL IN YANCEY COURT

Change of Venue Was Granted in Trial of 8 Deputy Sheriffs in Mill Rioting

Marion, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Eight McDowell county sheriff's deputies accused of shooting to death six textile strikers in a riot and gun battle at the Marion Manufacturing Company mill here October 2, will be tried for murder in Yancey county at a special term of court to begin December 9 with Judge G. V. Cowper presiding.

Judge Cowper named Burnsville, county seat of Yancey, for the trial yesterday after granting a change of venue. Governor O. Max Gardner then called a special court for December 9 and assigned Judge Cowper to preside over it.

Both prosecution and defense attorneys had urged the trial's removal from Marion because of feeling which followed in the wake of the killings and the probable difficulty of securing an unbiased jury.

Those who will go on trial are E. L. Robbins, W. A. Fender, Dave Jarrett, Jim Owens, Charlie Tate, Taylor Greene, W. T. Wiggs and Robert Ward.

The change of venue granted the officers and attorneys discussions of it interrupted the trial here of five men on charges of rebellion and insurrection and overshadowed its developments yesterday.

Alfred Hoffman, who organized locals of the United Textile Workers of America in the Marion Manufacturing Company mill, was implicated further in strike disorders by Sheriff Oscar Adkins, who was placed on the stand for the state late in the day.

Disorders attendant upon the strikes led to the charges against Hoffman, Del Lewis, Wes Fowler, Lawrence Hogan and J. Hugh Hall.

Adkins testified Hoffman was the leader of the strikers who refused on August 19 to permit workmen to unload coal and cotton at the Marion Manufacturing Company.

"No, we won't do that," Adkins testified Hoffman said, using profanity as he answered his request that strikers permit the cotton to be unloaded.

Julius Parker, bookkeeper for the mill, testified Hoffman "egged them on" when strikers attacked the workmen unloading the cotton.

In selecting Yancey for the trial of the eight deputies, Judge Cowper picked a county which has no textile mills. The village of Burnsville is a scant forty air miles from Marion but it lies over the "Big Ridge" which a towering chain of mountain peaks forms.

Judge Cowper said he anticipated no difficulty in obtaining a jury in the farming community.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE TO MEET IN CITY

Annual Fall Ceremony and Frolic to Be Staged Here Tomorrow

Enoch Legion No. 69 of the Loyal Order of Moose will hold their annual fall ceremonial and frolic in this city on Wednesday, November 20th.

Mr. Jno. R. Barker, chairman of the local committee announces that a splendid program has been arranged for the entertainment of the visiting Legionnaires and candidates, and a good time will be had by all.

This is the first time that Greenville has been honored with a Legion meeting as a local lodge has only been recently formed here with 100 charter members, of which the Legion is a part.

There will be several prominent speakers, as well as officials of the Legion attending this meeting. Some who are expected to attend are L. K. Wilkins, of Wilson, Past Great North Moose; C. C. Rich, of Raleigh, Past Great North Moose and Supervisor of Organizations in the eastern district; Edgar Womble, of Raleigh, Past Great North Moose; A. H. McIver, of Sandwood, South Moose; W. H. Walker, of Sandford, West Moose; V. M. Edgerton, of Goldsboro, Past Great North Moose; M. Duhlin of Durham, Custodian; A. L. McIntosh, of Wilson, Argus; H. B. Winstead, of Raleigh, treasurer; C. N. Winstead, of Raleigh, Herder; and C. A. Muschowitz, of this city, East Moose.

Registration will start at 1:00 o'clock at the Pythian Hall on Evans street. A large class of candidates are expected from Raleigh, Sandford, Goldsboro, Fayetteville, Durham, Wilson, Rocky Mount.

A street parade and banquet will be features of the program as well as the contest for the two loving cups, which are known as the James J. Davis and Enoch Legion cups. A spirited fight is expected for the cups as Sandford now holds the Legion Loving Cup having won it from Wilson at the last frolic.

Ceremonial frolic will begin at Moose Hall at 3:00 o'clock. Street parade will form at hall at 4:30 march about the city to the court house where public meeting will be held, to which the public is invited. The banquet will be held at the Woman's club beginning at 8:30 for which a splendid program has arranged for the Legionnaires their ladies and other guest.

Attempt to Save Doctor From Jail In English Court

London, Nov. 19.—(AP)—A wife's death-bed deposition today is before the august lords of the judicial committee of the privy council in a supreme effort to save Dr. Benjamin Knowles from life imprisonment for her murder.

Dr. Knowles and his wife, Madge Clifton Knowles, a former music hall artist, lived happily, he professes, in a lonely bungalow in the hill station of Ashanti on the Gold Coast of Africa.

More than a year ago, after a luncheon party, which by the testimony of others, was a cheery affair, Mrs. Knowles was shot, dying of the wound. Dr. Knowles was tried before the Supreme Court of Kumasi without a jury on a charge of murder, was convicted, and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The wife's dying deposition was that the gun had lain on the table near her bed; she picked it up and accidentally caught it in the front of her dress, discharging it and inflicting the fatal wound. The Kumasi court judge ruled it was for the crown to decide whether the deposition was truthful or was untruthful in a generous attempt to save her husband.

Widow Placed On Probation In Rum Charge

Franklin, Ark., Nov. 19.—(AP)—Disposing of charges arising from July raids on women bootleggers, Federal Judge Frank A. Youmans has placed Mrs. Velma Brown, widow of a physician, on probation for two years and continued the case of Mrs. A. G. Halter because a physician said she was an expectant mother.

Mrs. Clyde Little, 19-year-old bride of six months, faces trial today. Her husband pleaded guilty, but denied his wife had taken part in liquor selling.

The sentencing of O. K. Cox, 76, and his two daughters, Mrs. Maggie Parsons and Mrs. Ruby Farris, who pleaded guilty along with eight other women, six of them negroes, has been postponed until December 30th. A case against Mrs. Eunice Smith, a third daughter of Cox's, has been continued.

France Boasts Long Skirts Washington—For long skirts, it seems, the government of France is responsible. Senator Walsh of Massachusetts told the Senate he had been informed on highest authority that French designers had followed a government suggestion to sell more cloth.

Goes On Trial for Murder at Oscilla, Ga.

Oscilla, Ga., Nov. 19.—(AP)—More than three years after the disappearance of Harry Loving of Huntington, W. Va., one of three men charged with killing him went on trial today in Irwin Superior court. The case against Harry K. Slight was prepared by Solicitor General Roy S. Foy, who accuses Slight, Aubrey Carlisle Hoover and James Hoover of participating in a plot to kill Loving, bury his body as that of Slight and collect $90,000 insurance which the latter carried.

According to Mr. Foy an investigation made at the request of Loving's mother showed that her son was hitch-hiking to Florida with the Hoovers and was killed on the night of September 27, 1925, when Slight's farm home near here burned.

A body found in the ruins of the residence was buried at Seneca, S. C., as that of Slight, but he later was located in Los Angeles and tried and acquitted here on charges arising from the fire. Slight contended that on the night in question three men attempted to rob him. He said in a struggle in which he choked one of them a lamp was overturned. He explained that he lost his memory and did not regain it until he reached California.

A charred body has been exhumed at Seneca, but the solicitor said it was beyond positive identification.

Aubrey Hoover, arrested in Daytona Beach, Fla., and his brother taken into custody at Providence, R. I. last spring, will not be brought to trial at this time, the prosecutor declared.

A jury of eleven farmers and an automobile salesman was selected an hour after the case was called.

To Determine Fate of Freshman Caps At State College

Raleigh, Nov. 19.—(AP)—The freshman class committee of North Carolina State college was engaged today in collecting final data to be considered tomorrow when, at a meeting of the entire class, it will be decided whether or not to ask the house of student government of the college to abolish the wearing of the traditional freshman caps.

The committee of three, appointed by the class last week after upper-class had succeeded in getting the first year men to drop a plan to immediately burn all "F" caps, today had opinions from Dr. E. C. Brooks, president of the college; Dr. R. R. Sermon, athletic director; Dean E. L. Cloyd. A decision by majority vote of the Blue Key, honorary fraternity, and expressed opinions of several upper class student councilmen and all favored abolition of the cap, or at least found it of no value to the college or students.

The controversy, had its origin last week when the freshman class protested the action of the upper-class "court of customs" in disciplining a member of the freshman football team who did not wear his cap as directed. More than 400 of the rats gathered on the college campus and were about to burn their caps when student councilmen intervened with the result that the matter is being considered on a basis of arbitration.

County Forum Organized At Hickory, N. C.

Hickory, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Catawba county forum, an independent, county-wide civic club, was organized at a dinner meeting in the Balls Creek Consolidated school last night for the purpose, according to the constitution adopted, of "Fostering the active interest of every member of the organization in the civic, commercial, agricultural, social, educational and moral welfare of the county."

The organization perfected last night was the outgrowth of a movement to establish a county club, affiliated with the national county clubs association. At a previous organization meeting it was decided to make the group an independent unit, so negotiations with officials of the national association were dropped and adjustments are now being made with R. E. Price, of Rutherfordton, to remove the Catawba county forum from obligation to the national association.

TUNNEYS TO SAIL FOR HOME THURSDAY

SUNDOWN STORIES

A TOY JOKE

(By Mary Graham Beamer)

Peggy adored riding the rocking-horse in the big, old-fashioned playroom where the Little Black Clock had brought them.

John had a ride too, but it was when Peggy was riding the rocking-horse that she heard the joke he had to tell.

"It just amuses me so much," the rocking-horse said, going backward and forward and laughing in a funny, hollow voice. It was just the sort of voice a rocking horse should have and quite, quite different from the voice of a real horse.

"I'll explain," the rocking-horse continued. "A few years ago I was so very popular. Everyone loved me. You can see that from the uneven way my tail looks.

"Now, everyone might not think that that was a proof of great affection, but a rocking-horse knows that it is.

"They used to stroke my tail so often that it became a bit uneven—some of the hairs were pulled out through affection and love.

"They loved to ride me and I loved to have them. But then more and more of these toy motor trucks and automobiles came into the playroom and they became so proud.

"Poor rocking-horse, they used to say to me, when we toys were talking among ourselves, poor rocking-horse. You can only go backward and forward when some one rides you. We only have to be wound up and we can go all around the room."

"And now! Now!" The rocking-horse laughed some more. "The motor trucks and the toy automobiles aren't nearly so popular as the toy planes which will fly around the room so those proud, spobbish auto toys are quite put in the background, and I'm just where I was all along."

And the Rocking-Horse felt happier than ever for John and Peggy rode and rode. They didn't go any distance at all. But what did it matter? They were moving backward and forward all the time!

VISCERA OF WOMAN FAILS TO REVEAL TRACE OF POISON

Atlanta, Nov. 19.—(AP)—The Atlanta Constitution said today that the dissection of the viscera of Mrs. Frances Clementine Tucker, who died in a hospital here twelve years ago, has failed to reveal any trace of poison according to a report from B. F. Robertson, analyst, of Clemson College, S. C.

The body of Mrs. Tucker recently was exhumed at Anderson, South Carolina.

She died of pneumonia, according to Dr. Worth E. Yankey, who attended her here.

having indigestion and heartburn nearly every time I ate anything. My liver became sluggish and I'd have spells of constipation and biliousness that brought on severe headaches. Then rheumatism set in all through my body and often kept me in bed for weeks at a time. "I gained eleven pounds from three bottles of Sargon and every rheumatic pain I had disappeared! I can eat anything I like without any bad effects and those Sargon Pills, completely rid me of constipation and biliousness. The beauty about these Pills is that they don't upset your stomach like so many laxatives but act directly on the liver and stimulate it to regular action. My headaches are gone and I'm on the job every day, feeling brimful of strength and energy." Andrew J. Graddick, 1718 Laurel St., Columbia, S. C.

Prejudice Thrives Where Ignorance Hives!

AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE beckons all to cultivate knowledge. Tyranny, intolerance and poverty wither as schools grow in this great land of opportunity.

"toasting did it" —

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Saturday night, over a coast-to-coast network of the N.B.C.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

Enjoy a Hike. The Sunday school class of Miss Alice Mae Elks of the Christian church, enjoyed an evening hike at Rock Springs, Saturday, Nov. 16.

When they first arrived they began gathering wood for fire to roast weiners and marshmallows.

After getting the fire made they all enjoyed some stunt given by Winifred Etheridge and Marjorie West.

They were accompanied by Miss Myrtle Kuykendall of Teachers' College.

After enjoying the stunts they began to roast weiners and then came the fun of roasting marshmallows.

On their way back they stopped back of the college to see how many different kinds of flowers they could find.

After a few minutes of playing they went home laughing and telling Miss Elks and Miss Kuykendall what a nice time they had and thanking them for going with us.

Those present were Elizabeth Carrio, Lillian and Winifred Etheridge, Mary Bell Fleming, Mary J. Jones, Frances Thigpen, Doris Tucker, Marjorie West and Edith Forrest.

Why Women Leave Home

New York—Why women leave home by Mrs. Louis Slade, regional director of the New York League of Women Voters; Grandma wove cloth at home. Men started mills. It was once a disgrace if the housewife failed to can her own fruit and vegetables. Men started canning factory. Mother baked the bread. Father started a bakery. Now women must go out into the business world to see that men carry on these home occupations in an honest manner.

High School Band Will Be Guests of U. S. Army Band

The members of the Greenville High School Band will be the guests of the United States Army Band and of the College at the matinee in the campus building of East Carolina Teachers College on next Monday afternoon, Nov. 25. Mr. Capel, the manager, sent the scores of a composition by Capt. Standard, the conductor, to the band as a gift.

The matinee was arranged especially for the school children, and the notes on the program explaining the numbers are written so that the children can follow the music with greater understanding.

Every teacher should welcome the opportunity to have the children in her grade or classes see these representatives of the United States Government in their uniforms and to hear them play. They will have a chance to see and understand the different instruments used both in a band and in an orchestra. The conductors make this program educational in every sense of the word. While it is arranged for children, grown people can get as keen enjoyment from it as the children.

The hour for the matinee is 3:30. If any grades or groups from any school wish to come with their teachers and sit together, these groups should arrive early or should make arrangements ahead.

They could either phone to the office of the college, in the administration building, or drop a note to J. Herbert ReBarker, at the college address.

Radio Program to Be Dedicated to This State

A program dedicated to the State of North Carolina is to be broadcast from Station KNX Friday evening at 10:30, Eastern Standard time.

Songs and music, typical of North Carolina, together with descriptions of familiar landmarks will make this radio program of unusual interest. Radio vision, if perfected, would bring the actual scenes of this state before the eyes of the country—but in its place words and music will recall former residents of North Carolina to the cities of their childhood.

KNX, the most modern 5000 watt station in western America, is located in Hollywood, Calif., and broadcasts on a wave length of 1060 kilocycles or 285.5 meters.

Each Friday at the same time, KNX broadcasts a program sponsored by Pacific Ready-Cut Homes, Inc., dedicated to one of the 48 states. This is the first time a radio station has attempted to acquaint the nation with the cities and towns of the various states and no other program has met such general popularity all over the country.

It should prove especially enjoyable to residents of Greenville to hear Friday evening's program that will originate on the Paramount motion picture studio's lot, in the main studio of KNX.

Robert Hutchins Becomes Head of Chicago University

Chicago, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Robert Maynard Hutchins became today, at the age of 30, the fiftieth president of the University of Chicago.

Inauguration of this tall, almost boyish young man was made brilliant by the attendance of representatives from 300 colleges and universities not only in the United States but in Canada and Europe as well. One hundred and twenty-five of them were presidents of the schools they represented.

Some came from the largest and proudest schools of higher learning in the world; but none among them was so proud as William J. Hutchins, president of Berea College, Ky., for it was his son who was being honored.

Yale University gave to the University of Chicago its first president 38 years ago when William Rainey Harper was inaugurated; and it is from Yale that Mr. Hutchins has come.

The inaugural services in the university chapel were set for 11 a. m., designated as the 157th convocation of the university.

More than 2,000 special guests, including former Governor Frank O. Lowden, were to attend the induction.

Lindbergh Gets An X-Ray Picture Made of Shoulder

Englewood, N. J., Nov. 19.—(AP)—A set of X-ray plates of the shoulder which Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh dislocated in the airplane mishap at Mexico City last winter were being prepared today.

Rumors that Colonel Lindbergh had suffered serious injury in an airplane accident were given wide circulation yesterday when it was learned he had visited the Englewood hospital Sunday to have the pictures made.

Attendants at the hospital said he told them he had been troubled recently with sharp pains in his right shoulder and on the advice of his physician had decided to have the X-ray made.

A nurse in the office of Dr. Walter Phillips of Englewood said that the doctor had treated Colonel Lindbergh Sunday for a "slight dislocation of the shoulder." She said her understanding was the injury had been suffered "at home."

HEELS READY FOR BATTLE THANKSGIVING

Chapel Hill, Nov. 19.—The Tar Heels were back home today and all set to get down to nine days of intensive work in preparation for their Thanksgiving day battle with Virginia, to be played in Kenan Stadium here.

Saturday's 26-7 victory over Davidson proved highly gratifying to coaches, players, students and supporters alike.

The Tar Heels' record 33-point a game scoring average slipped to 32, but "32-per" isn't bad at that.

More encouraging still was the fact that a quartet of Tar Heel backs came through so well that the injured stars Wyrick and Magner were not needed, and the fact that Old Man Injury passed the Tar Heels up, to leave the team in good shape for Virginia and Duke.

Reference to the quartet of course means Jimmy Ward, Strud Nash and Rip Slusser, the devastating halfbacks, and Johnny Branch, the midsize sophomore quarterback.

The veteran Ward sidestepped 62 yards to one score, and pulled the old "sleeper" trick for a 22-yard pass and another, thus running his string of touchdowns to nine to take over the lead in the Tar Heel scoring chase.

Nash ran his usual great game and drove one touchdown across, skirting the ends, and on one at Slusser did his usual shining at tempt, a 17-yard one, scored. Branch ran a jam-up all-round good game at quarter.

Coach Collins had carried his stars Wyrick and Magner, along and had them sitting conveniently on the bench, but under such circumstances the boys never get the call.

With nine days to go before the Virginia battle, it is practically certain both these boys will be back in shape.

Cast About for Southern Star Outfit

Atlanta, Nov. 19.—(AP)—With the curtain about to fall on the current gridiron season, football experts are beginning to meditate on their selection for the 1929 All-Southern honor team.

Conference celebrities have had only a couple of games in which to add to their laurels before the pams of the year are handed out.

Perhaps the greatest difficulty will come in the naming of the two halfback choices. In addition to several of last year's stars have blossomed forth anew this season have blossomed forth anew this season there are a half dozen sensational Sophomores who will have to be considered.

Both halfback members of the 1928 all star team—Billy Banker of Tulane and Warner Mizell of Georgia Tech—again were in harness this season. Banker has been running riot and is considered by many as a sure bet for one of this year's halfback posses. Sharing honors with the Tulane flash are McEver, Tennessee's southern scoring leader; Spear of Virginia Poly; Magner of North Carolina; Suther and Campbell of Alabama; Thomson of Georgia Tech; McMillan of Clemson and Bolneau of South Carolina.

Clyde Crabtree, Florida's all southern quarterback last year, will be a contender for the job on the 1929 eleven. Bobby Dodd, of Tennessee, Earl Lushap of Georgia Tech, Baumbach of Tulane and Downes of Georgia also have shown brightly as field generals.

Heading the list among the full-back candidates are Tony Horn of Alabama and Rainey Cawthon of Florida. Both have been vital cogs in their team's play. Benny Zebstein of Georgia; McCarter of Clemson; Scowen of Tulane and Spaulding of North Carolina are other great line plungers as well as valuable men on the defense.

Included among the outstanding Sophomores are "Shipwreck" Kelly and the Phipps brothers of Kentucky; Johnny Branch and Slusser of North Carolina; Hugh Miller of Alabama; Amos Leonard of Vanderbilt; Rhame and Culp of South Carolina; Monk Dorsett of Florida; Bob Worrell of Swannee and Thompson of the Mississippi Argles.

Other backs who have received popular accord are Parker of Vanderbilt; Goodbraun and Bethea of Florida; Spicer of Kentucky; Roberts and Waugh of Georgia; Williams of Washington and Lee; Justus of Clemson; Hicks of Alabama; Dunn and Hawkins of Virginia Military Institute; Smith and Reeves of Louisiana State; Hackman of Tennessee; Ike Armstrong of Tulane; Crawford of Auburn; Berger of Maryland and Bule and Godfrey of Duke.

English Tennis Star Weds Minister's Son

London, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Eileen Bennett, noted English tennis star, and Edmund Fearnley Whittinghall, son of the Rev. O. F. Whittinghall of Chalfont St. Giles, Buckinghamshire, were married at St. Margaret's Westminster, today.

Miss Bennett wore a picture gown of cream silk velvet embroidered with pearls and diamonds. The gown had a train six yards long, and was heavily embroidered with pearls and diamonds. The bride wore a scarlet ring velvet picture frock, scarlet velvet hat and scarlet shoes.

Mr. Whittinghall, who is twenty-eight, is a portrait painter.

Two Old Rivals Meet Saturday

New York, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Two of football's oldest rivalries will be renewed on Saturday, Yale meets Harvard at Cambridge and Lafayette clashes with Lehigh at Bethlehem, Pa.

For the Blue and Crimson it will be the 48th meeting since 1875. Lafayette and Lehigh have played 63 games since 1834 with 1896 the only year since that time that these two rivals did not clash.

Advance forecasts indicated victories for Yale and Lafayette. After a early upset by Georgia in the South, the Bulldogs of Yale have come along at a great rate, bowling over Brown, Dartmouth, Army and Princeton. A tie with Maryland is the only entry on the debit side.

Harvard apparently has great potential strength but the Crimson has been a disappointment this season. After losing the Army, Harvard was crushed by Dartmouth and then went west to show a 14-12 beating at the hands of Michigan. Yale will be out for revenge for the 17-0 reverse of last year. Of the 47 previous clashes, Yale has won 27; Harvard 14; with six ties.

Stribling Loses Fight by Foul

London, Nov. 19.—(AP)—William L. (Young) Stribling's first ring appearance in England ended in defeat. The Georgia heavyweight lost on a foul to Primo Carnera, huge Venetian exponent, in the fourth round of their 15-round encounter at Royal Albert Hall last night. Each thousand fans, including the Prince of Wales, packed the famous hall and were rewarded with some spectacular milling.

Stribling amazed the crowd with his skillful work in the first two rounds when he evaded all of the giant Italian's wild swings and gave Carnera a bad beating about the body.

In the third round Stribling knocked the Italian on the jaw and Carnera went down for a count of six. Carnera got up in a wild fury and floored Stribling for a count of nine. The American was dazed but slowly got up and succeeded in holding his rival at bay for the rest of the round.

Early in the fourth round Stribling landed a right and left to Carnera's body. The referee ruled the blows were foul and Stribling was disqualified.

Carnera, weight 293, had an advantage of 95 pounds, and towered eight inches above his American rival.

Sea Dog to Return
 Hoboken, N. J.—After 54 years at sea, Captain Piet Van Den Hauw, commander of the Holland-American line fleet, will retire when his 75th birthday celebration reaches Rotterdam. Then he is going to make a tour of ports at which his ship have called. Born on his father's freighter he has spent the 80 years of his life on the water except for nine years at school.

DEACONS WILL SEE NEW BLUE DEVIL BACKS

Durham, Nov. 19.—(AP)—When Duke takes the field against the Demons of Wake Forest Saturday a new set of Blue Devil backs likely will wage the offensive. It seems probable Taft Russ, Kid Brewer and Glenn Roosen will be in the backfield.

There are two reasons why these young men may start the game; first, the Duke coaches want to develop enough men for two full backfields by the time Carolina is met; and second, the three sophomores named have shown great form in the last two or three games.

All three were stars with last of great promise and has been imaged by freshmen. Russ is a passer proving steadily. All he needs is experience.

Brewer has been kept idle due to an early season injury but he showed Saturday against State that he is ready to go at top speed.

Roosen displayed the prettiest bit of pass receiving Saturday that any Duke man has shown this year. And in the last three games played he has turned in at least one brilliant run per afternoon.

Duke will get a full week's work-out for the Wake Forest game. The squad was worked hard yesterday and indications were that today, tomorrow and Thursday would see no let up. The coaches were not satisfied with the team as a whole, or with several individuals in Saturday's game.

DEMPSEY TO PROMOTE BENEFIT BOXING SHOW

Chicago, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey will promote a Christmas benefit boxing show for Chicago's needy at the Coliseum next Tuesday night. It will be an all-heavyweight card with Les Marrier, former University of Illinois boxer, meeting George Hoffman of New York in the ten round main event.

DROWSY, DIZZY, BILIOUSNESS

But After Taking Theodor's Black-Draught, Lady Says She Feels Fine.

Wofford, Ky.—Mrs. Orpha Hill, of this place, says: "I think Theodor's Black-Draught is the very first medicine I ever knew anything about. When I was a child, if I did not feel well, or if I had a cold, my mother gave me Black-Draught."

"When I was married, it became a family medicine in my own home, as it was in my mother's. I take it for headache, and especially for constipation."

"When I get bilious, my skin gets yellow and I have a very bad taste in my mouth, and a drowsy feeling all during the day. My eyes burn and I get dizzy, or my head is swimming."

"When I take Black-Draught, it seems to drive the impurities out of my system, and I feel fine."

"My children are grown now, and Black-Draught still has its place on my medicine shelf. I am seldom without this old reliable remedy. I certainly recommend it."

Insist on the genuine Theodor's Black-Draught, in a yellow package. Only 1 cent a dose.

why smokers graduate to CAMELS

The phrase "I've Graduated to Camels" originated with a Camel smoker. It expresses the experience of millions who through Camels have learned to know real smoking pleasure.

As taste in smoking develops, it naturally leads toward better quality. New smokers may not be critical but when they once experience the true mildness and surpassing fragrance of the Camel blend, they realize that here is a real superiority. It is for smokers of such discernment that Camels are made... for them, the choicest tobaccos are selected... and this quality is maintained for the millions who know genuine smoking pleasure.

when they learn the difference they flock to Camels

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 1 to 5 points on steeper late cables from Liverpool and a private report that estimated ginning prior to November 14 at 11,500,000 bales, pointing to a crop of about 14,500,000 bales. The advance met some realizing and perhaps some selling on the rather disappointing opening of the stock market, but offerings were light and the market held steady.

Active months showed net advances of about 2 to 4 points at the end of the first half hour. Liverpool cables reported that Bombay sewing and local liquidation had been taken care of by covering in that market and reported scattered cloth sales to India, but said the low rate of exchange was restricting business with China.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Almost 5c a bushel fresh upturn in wheat prices accompanied big buying today, largely for eastern interests said to include a widely known speculation. Word of moist Argentine wheat did much to stimulate purchases. In parts of Cordoba Province, Argentina, black rust conditions were described as "terrible," and the wheat crop nearly a failure.

Under heavy profit-taking sales at the last, wheat closed unsettled, 33-4 to 41-2c above yesterday.

Corn closed 11-4c to 11-2c up on 13-8c to 13-4c advanced, and provisions varying from 5c decline to an equal gain.

STOCK MARKET

By STANLEY W. PRENOSIL,
Associated Press Financial Editor

New York, Nov. 19.—Trading showed a further falling off in volume in today's market with prices rallying briskly after an early period of heaviness. There were a few soft spots scattered throughout the list, but most of the leaders sold 1 to 1 1/2 points above yesterday's final quotations.

Absence of any forced or panicky liquidation as a result of the announcement of the first stock exchange failure just before the close of yesterday's market, coupled with the beginning of President Hoover's conferences to stimulate business, helped to revive confidence in the market. Except for an increase in the annual dividend rate on Consolidated Gas of Baltimore and a few favorable earnings reports, there was little in the day's business news to influence the price movement.

Call money was in plentiful supply at the renewal figure of 5 per cent, with loans in the outside market reported at 4 and 4 1/2 per cent. Other monetary markets also showed an easier undertone.

The quiet, orderly character of the day's trading was widely hailed by brokers as a constructive development. After the violent convulsive movements of the past month, most brokers were agreed that a period of comparative rest and narrow fluctuations was needed until the effect of the recent securities decline on business could be ascertained.

While some brokers continued to urge their customers to stay on the side lines for the time being, others continued to make buying recommendations for seasoned, dividend paying stocks.

U. S. Steel was again a leader, steady accumulation of that issue carrying it up to 164-1/4, with the stock at no time selling below 160 where strong support was apparent. A brisk demand also developed for such issues as American Can, American Telephone, General Electric and Johns Manville, some of which had opened with moderate declines.

Odd lots buying orders again appeared in rather large volume, testifying to a renewed demand for stocks by small investors. Few blocks of more than 5,000 shares changed hands during the three hour session.

Battleboro Boy Badly Hurt When Struck By Auto

Rocky Mount, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Paul C. Pope, Jr., nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pope, of Battleboro, was reported in a critical condition at a local hospital today as a result of injuries received yesterday when he was struck by an automobile on the highway near his home.

The boy's skull was reported to be fractured, his collarbone broken and severe bruises about the body.

The accident was regarded as having been unavoidable, as the boy is reported to have jumped off the back of a wagon loaded with cotton, and into the path of the approaching automobile.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR FLORIDA FRUIT SHIPMENTS

Washington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Under new regulations announced by the Department of Agriculture, areas into which Florida citrus fruit may be shipped between November 21 and January 31 after sterilization are as follows:

Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Georgia, Idaho, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, and Porto Rico.

Regulations were also revised for shipment of green tomatoes into these states under permit.

Gardner Grants Second Reprieve to Doomed Negro

Raleigh, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Gov. O. Max Gardner today granted a second reprieve of 3 days to Percy Miller, Bartle county negro sentenced to be electrocuted for the killing of Police Chief Pat White of Windsor. The negro would have been executed Friday.

Judge N. A. Townsend, executive counsel, this morning held a hearing on the matter of commutation for Ernest Fox, Rocky Mount negro also scheduled to die in the chair Friday.

T. T. Thorne, Rocky Mount attorney, appeared in behalf of the negro. He based his appeal on the question of admissibility of a confession alleged to have been made to a member of a grand jury which was inspecting the jail in which the negro was confined before trial. The confession was allowed to be presented as evidence though another said to have been made to officers was barred. The question of the mentality of the negro was also questioned by Mr. Thorne.

At the conclusion of the hearing Judge Townsend told Mr. Thorne he would hold the matter open until tomorrow so that an affidavit can be secured from a "Mr. Cooper" of Rocky Mount, who Fox has told Judge Townsend gave him the money found on his person shortly after the killing and which was one of the chief points used against him as circumstantial evidence at his trial.

Harvey Fox, father of the convicted negro, and J. H. Taylor, father of Jesse Taylor, the man Fox is charged with murdering, also attended the hearing.

Adjoins Hearing of City Against Electric Concern

Raleigh, Nov. 19.—(AP)—The State Corporation Commission today decided to adjourn the hearing scheduled to start this morning in the case of the City of Wilmington against the Tidewater Power Company until the counsel for the city had had time to study the answer and exhibits of the power company.

The City of Wilmington, acting in its own behalf and for all towns served by the Tidewater Power Company, has asked the Corporation Commission to make a thorough investigation of the physical value of the properties of the Power Company, alleging that the rates for gas, electric power and electric lighting are too high and should be revised downward. The city also alleges that the rates are so high that they are in keeping new industries from locating in Wilmington.

This afternoon no date for resumption of the hearing had been set. About two dozen interested parties were here for the opening of the hearing today.

Earth Shocks Recorded Along Atlantic Coast

Boston, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Severe earth tremors shook the Atlantic coastline northward from Long Island Sound to Nova Scotia and Newfoundland yesterday on the 174th anniversary of the heaviest earthquake ever recorded in the New England area. No loss of life or serious damage was reported.

The Westward fault, which runs southwestward from the Bay of Fundy off Cape Ann under the Atlantic ocean, was believed by Prof. K. T. F. Mather, Harvard geologist, to have been the source of the disturbance.

The shocks, which began at approximately 3:35 p. m., became severe in two minutes, and continued to be reported on the Harvard seismograph for an hour, were reported from all over New England, part of New York State, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, and shaking buildings, rattling dishes and pictures, slamming doors and swinging light fixtures were noted in the scores of communities.

Employees 400 feet above the ground in the custom house tower in Boston felt the structure sway and loud alarm was felt by persons working in the state house and business buildings in the city. The highest tide of the year, possibly influenced by the earthquake, was fettered by Massachusetts coastal cities.

Constable Held on Murder Charge

Benton, Tenn., Nov. 19.—(AP)—Constable Gus Swann was held on a $5,000 bond today following his indictment on first degree murder charges late yesterday for shooting Orville Burger to death when the latter offered him a drink.

Swann surrendered voluntarily after the shooting last August, and said the 25 year old youth offered him a drink and fled when the constable attempted to arrest him. When he gave chase Swann said Burger turned and threatened him with a rock. Physicians said the youth had been shot in the back.
