Governor Paroles White Youth Today

Raleigh, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Gov. O. Max Gardner today paroled Howard Beckham, white youth sentenced in Guilford county in September 1928 to serve from three to six years for breaking and entering. Beckham, the governor said, was 16 years old when convicted alone with his step father, "a man of bad reputation", and a step brother who was much older than Beckham. Many recommendations for clemency had been made. Judge N. A. Townsend, executive counsel, made a thorough investigation of the case. The governor expressed opinion that the boy would have remained a good and law-abiding citizen had he not been forced to come under the influence of his step-father and step-mother.

Dr. Snook Denied New Trial Before Ohio Court Today

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Dr. James Howard Snook, convicted murderer of Miss Thecra K. Hix, today was denied a new trial by the Second Ohio District Court of Appeals.

Snook had filed an error proceeding, claiming he was not given a fair trial, and was not given sufficient time in which to prepare his case. The appeals court, however, affirmed the lower court's finding and sentence of death.

Counsel for Dr. Snook, after hearing the opinion, said they would move for a stay of execution, and would then appeal to the State Supreme Court.

The appeals court, in its opinion, said: "Upon a fair consideration of the whole case, consisting of 3,125 page, practically all of which every member of this court has read, we are unanimously of the opinion that no error prejudicial to the defendant has intervened in this record. The judgment of the lower court must be affirmed. Should it be desired to file a motion for a rehearing, it may be done and it will be overruled and exceptions noted."

PITT FARMER IS KILLED BY A. C. L. TRAIN

R. W. Jackson Crushed to Death By Passenger Train at Winterville

R. W. Jackson, farmer residing four miles from Winterville, was instantly killed by a southbound Atlantic Coast Line passenger train last night about 7 o'clock, according to information reaching this city today. He was about 43 years of age.

The direct cause of the tragedy remained a deep mystery today but opinion was advanced that Jackson stepped in front of the train with the intention of committing suicide. He is said to have been drinking heavily for sometime, although believed to have been perfectly sober at the time of his death.

Jackson was said to have been talking to friends on the railway station platform when the train blew for the station crossing. In full glare of the headlights, he is said to have walked deliberately in the path of the train as the locomotive prepared to come to a stop in front of the station.

The body was dragged a considerable distance and was so badly mangled that identification would have been almost impossible had not the tragedy been witnessed by persons at the station.

Jackson was married and is survived by a wife and several children. He was engaged in farming near Winterville.

Defers Naming War Secretary for Thirty Days

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—President Hoover does not expect to name a secretary of war to succeed the late James W. Good until the 30 day period of mouring is over, and it may be a considerable time after that before the position is filled.

It was said at the white house today the war department was in good hands under the direction of Acting Secretary Hurley. It was emphasized that no appointment would be made until after the official period of mourning.

Acting Secretary Harley has been mentioned as a possible successor to Good. Numerous other names have also been suggested.

NEGRO YOUTH FORFEITS LIFE FOR MURDER

Ernest Fox Was Electrocuted for Killing Crippled Grocer At Rocky Mount

Raleigh, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Ernest Fox, 19, negro of Rocky Mount, paid with his life in the electric chair at State's prison this morning for the killing of Jesse Taylor, 19-year-old crippled white grocer of Rocky Mount, who was murdered in his store in a negro section of Rocky Mount the night of May 26 last.

"God be with me; goodbye, everybody", chanted the negro a moment before Garland Jones, Wake county deputy sheriff, officiating as co-executioner at the prison for the first time, jammed in the big switch which sent the current coursing through the body of Fox to end his life.

The negro proclaimed his innocence to the last.

Rev. J. W. [illegible] and Rev. George A. Fisher, negro ministers, who were with Fox for sometime prior to the execution, and who accompanied him on his March to the little octagonal death chamber, said Fox swore to them that he was innocent of the crime for which he was convicted.

The ministers said they told the negro that it would be infinitely worse for him to die with a lie on his lips but Fox maintained that he was an innocent man.

Last night the young negro wrote a letter to newspapermen in which he proclaimed his innocence and blamed Rocky Mount Police officers for his conviction, asserting he was "railroaded" to prison and the chair. He specifically named officers Zimmerman and A. F. Powell, but officer Powell, who witnessed the execution, said that Fox confessed to the crime and that the confession was made without duress. Eddie Wagg, Rocky Mount newspaperman, corroborated officer Powell and said he was present when Fox confessed killing the young crippled grocer. Officer Powell and Mr. Wagg, however, were at a loss to explain why Fox went to the chair with a plea of innocence on his lips.

Representatives of approximately fifteen organizations of the city were in attendance and assisted in organization plans.

A social service council was named to direct the activities of the organization during the holidays. The council is composed of Mrs. J. L. Little, Mrs. J. L. Hassell, Mrs. R. L. Smith, Miss Lelia Higgs, J. F. Harrington, J. J. White and K. W. Cobb. K. T. Futrell was elected chairman and C. B. Rowlett secretary.

Members of the organization will report all cases to the central committee so that there will be no overlapping of effort in the campaign to carry relief into the homes of the destitute during the holiday season.

Additional office help has been placed at the disposal of Mr. Futrell in order to handle the work of the organization while the Christmas season campaign is on, and all persons interested in the activities are requested to call telephone 408.

It was the sense of the meeting last night that a permanent organization for continuing social welfare work should be perfected, and it was indicated that plans in this connection would be worked out immediately after the temporary organization completes its work during the holiday season.

Says Catholics Made Fight for Robt. McPherson

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Senator Blease, Democrat, South Carolina, said in the Senate today it was "coming talk around Washington" that the Catholic church had made the fight for freedom of Robert A. McPherson, Jr., exonerated by a grand jury yesterday of murdering his young wife, Virginia McPherson, the cause of whose death is still a mystery.

Blease said he could "scarcely believe" the rumors, but wanted the people to know what was going on in connection with the case. The South Carolinian has frequently criticized Washington police officials for their handling of the case and more recently attacked the special prosecuting attorney.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, interrupted Blease to say he did not believe any official of the Catholic church had "moved in the matter" and added "it is a pretty broad statement to say that the Catholic church would become involved in a cheap murder case."

Blease said he did no intend to bring the "religious fight" into his comments, but merely wanted the record to show "what was going on." He then had a clerk read a letter to him from an unnamed Washingtonian, saying the church might be using its influence in the case.

SENATE STOPS TARIFF WORK UNTIL TONIGHT

Members Vote to Recess Until Shortly Before Hour Set for Adjournment

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Unable to make any progress with the tariff bill, the Senate recessed at 12:30 a. m., until 9:45 o'clock tonight.

Chairman Smoot, of the finance committee, made several attempts to obtain action on amendments to various schedules including those affecting wool, silk, papers and books, but each time indications of extensive arguments.

Senator Couzens, Republican, of Michigan, a member of the committee, proposed the recess after stating everybody seems to be loafing on the job."

Much confusion reigned as Senators proposed recess until various times tonight, ranging from 9:30 to 9:59 p. m.

A compromise on 9:45 p. m., was reached after Smoot had expressed a desire to hold a quorum for at least a little while this afternoon to obtain action on a few more tariff amendments. The reaction to this was not encouraging so Smoot gathered up phis tariff books and called it a day.

Not one tariff rate was acted upon during today's brief session. Woolen goods duties were to have been taken up but these were put off after a long discussion, and silk was brought before the debaters.

As no action will be taken tonight on the tariff bill, the measure at recess time stood less than half completed. Committee amendments to nine complete schedules and two paragraphs in the wool group had been acted upon, leaving proposed changes in woolen goods rates, and the entire sugar, silk, rayon, papers and books and sundries schedules yet to be considered.

The free list then must be agreed and individual amendments to all fifteen scheduled disposed of before the bill is ready for passage.

The measure, which began to take form at hearings began last January, will come up again in the regular session beginning December 2, after the Vare case has been settled.

CONDITION OF FRENCH TIGER MORE SERIOUS

Former Premier Clemenceau Reported to Be Fighting for His Life

Paris, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Dr. Degen[illegible] member of the medical staff attending former premier Clemenceau, [illegible] today said that the death of "the Tiger" appeared only a question of hours.

The physician said that the former premier was suffering from a crisis of uraemia which already had lasted eighteen hours and could not possibly last another twenty four.

Unless an unexpected improvement is shown within a few hours Dr. Degennes concluded, the former premier cannot hope to surmount the present crisis.

Paris, Nov. 22—(AP)—Former Premier Georges Clemenceau this afternoon was making a magnificent fight for life.

Suffering intense agony, the 87 year-old French statesman was being watched constantly by his physicians and members of his family.

Seven injections of morphine gave him no relief from the pain caused by digestional disturbance and only injections of comphorated oil kept his heart going.

"Is there any hope," Dr. Degnes the Tiger's physician, was asked.

"I don't know," was the reply.

The physician said that M. Clemenceau was in the greatest pain and had to restrain himself from crying out.

One of Clemenceau's closest friends told the correspondents: "Clemenceau's extraordinary physical resistance is used up."

George Mandel, former cabinet chief for "The Tiger," visited the bedside this afternoon and stated said his condition is very serious and very disquieting.

J. Crawford Biggs, who represented the attorneys in their appeal for further fees, sometime ago asked Judge Meekins for a further hearing on the matter ut has advised now that he does not feel any further argument is needed.

WITNESS SAYS DEAD GAMBLER LOST $300,000

Meyer Boston Testifies About Poker Game in McManus Trial in New York

Criminal Courts Building, New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—Meyer Boston told the jury today in the trial of George McManus for the murder of Arnold Rothstein, that Rothstein lost $300,000, instead of $200,000, in the famous stud poker game two months before he was killed.

And for all but $2,000 of it, Boston said, the big boss of the gambling world in New York gave "I. O. U.'s."

"There was a pile of cash on the table in front of Rothstein he pulled out a couple of hours before the end," said Boston.

"And did he keep that," asked Ferdinand Pecora, assistant district attorney.

"Yes," was Boston's reply.

Boston said he won $8,000 in the stud poker game, a feature of which was betting for large sums on the highest cards.

Continuing the description of the party, which was begun yesterday by Jimmy Meehan, the host, Marcel Bowe, who said he lost $5,700 and his brother, Sam Boston, Meyer and George McManus lost $51,000, of which he paid $20,000 in cash on the spot, the rest of his losses, Meyer testified. McManus paid up in the following two days.

New York Banker Asserts Senate Action on Tariff Influenced Stock Crisis

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Fred I. Kent, a director of the Bankers Trust company of New York, reiterated today before the Senate lobby committee that the action of the Senate coalition on the tariff bill was partially responsible for the recent stock market disturbance.

Kent, a small man who is rather deaf, told the committee he was sorry to cause any inconvenience. Before beginning his testimony he set up a mechanical contrivance to aid him in hearing.

He said he had been correctly quoted in a recent speech holding the Senate coalition partially responsible for the stock market decline, but he added that that was only one of the causes.

Other reasons for the fall in stock prices, the witness said, were the increased issuance of new securities during 1929, the increase in brokers' loans and an increase in the capital tax.

Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia a former secretary of the treasury, who is not a member of the lobby committee, asked Kent if he omitted to say that 90 per cent of the transactions on the stock exchange "were as much gambling as if they [illegible] on a roulette wheel."

"[illegible] had quite a little to do with it," the banker said.

Kent said the "Psychological effect on the people" because "the Senate did not function on the tariff bill" was a contributing factor in stock disturbances.

He testified the deposits of his bank were between $450,000,000 and $500,000,000 and that its loans to brokers were only about $40,000,000."

Asked by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, what effect the Federal Reserve Board warning that brokers loans should be restricted had, the witness answered:

"It had no effect on banks who were not borrowing from the Federal Reserve Banks."

"Did it have any effect on Charles E. Mitchell, of the National City Bank?" Walsh inquired.

"I can't speak for Mr. Mitchell."

"Did you make a speech denouncing Mr. Mitchell?" Walsh asked.

"I did not."

"If you were a sworn officer of a Federal Reserve Bank would you regard your duty to the stock market above the Federal Reserve Bank," queried Senator Glass.

"I would not."

The banker defended the action of Mitchell in making funds available to the stock market during a financial stringency several months ago for which Mitchell has been assailed by Glass.

The Virginian asked how the tariff had anything to do with "the unprecedented volume of [illegible] loans."

"That was only one feature of this development," Kent replied adding "the brokers' loans were good and were paid without asingle default and no one lost a dollars."

He asserted brokers' loans was a good investment for banks.

SNOW STORM SWEEPS OVER EAST TODAY

White Blanket Covers Much of New England, N. Y., Pennsylvania and West

New York, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A white blanket covered much of New England, New York and Pennsylvania today as a result of the first general snowstorm of the season in the east.

The storm, which swept in from the Great Lakes yesterday, brought with it a sharp drop in temperature and in some cases assumed blizzard proportions. The heaviest fall occurred along the south shore of Lake Erie, nineteen inches having fallen at Dunkirk, N. Y.

A fall of several inches occurred in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, western and northern Pennsylvania and western New York.

Numerous automobile accidents were reported, the wet and heavy snow clinging to windshields and obscuring the vision of drivers.

At Erie, Pa., four persons were killed when two automobiles were struck by a Pittsburgh-Buffalo passenger train of the New York Central, traveling 45 minutes late. The accident occurred during a heavy snow storm and the watchman failed to see the approaching train.

An air mail plane bound for Cleveland was forced to land near Collins Center, Erie county, N. Y. Ernest Basham, the pilot, said he ascended 13,000 feet to set above the snow storm, but was driven down because of the intense cold at that height. He said the temperature was 13 degrees below zero.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Winter has pitched his snow-frosted tent on the plains of the northwest and has sent his soldiers armed with icicle bayonets to the northern fringe of Dixie.

Three River Falls, Minn., stole whatever distinction there was yesterday in being the seasonally cold, having a temperature reading of 16 below zero, the red line, however, dropped below the cipher in many other thermometers in Minnesota, the Dakotas and Wisconsin.

The southwest and Rocky Mountains regions did not escape the cold. Temperatures went below zero in Montana, and there was sleet and raw weather in the Texas Panhandle, and unseasonal cold in Arkansas.

Winter began his first 1929-30 attack from the MacKenzie River basin in upper Saskatchewan. Chicago and the middle west had hints of coming cold earlier in the week, but yesterday was the first day heavy overcoats were absolutely necessary. At dawn today the temperature here had descended to six degrees above.

Railroads lading to the northland reported scores of reservations cancellations by hunters who preferred steam heat to the Arctic riggs of upper Michigan where snowstorms accompanied the cold.

Similar[illegible] was promised today for much of the middlewest, but there was not much assurance that temperatures would move upward appreciably. Tomorrow, however, much warmer weather was predicted; and this as a prophecy that warmed the hearts of thousands of persons who have tickets for tomorrow's football games.

Senate Will Ask Information About Power Body's Work

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—[illegible] formation about the work the Federal Power commission has accomplished was asked in a resolution presented by Senator Sackett, Republican, Kentucky, and adopted by the Senate today, preparatory to consideration at the regular session of a bill to extend the commission's life.

Sackett, off the floor, said there had been "some statements" that Broadcasting licenses had not been properly assigned and that some stations were operating without licenses.

The resolution asked for a list of all radio stations in the five administrative zones, the power allocated to each and the total power being used in broadcasting. It was amended by Senator Johnson, so that information also would be required as to whether any stations were broadcasting without licenses.

Unless the life of the commission is extended, it becomes only a judicial body after January 1.

NO WAGE REDUCTIONS FOR STEEL WORKERS

Mr. Campbell, who has been in conference with business and industrial leaders in New York, said that from all reports received general business conditions are sound.

BUILDERS TO CONFER WITH PRES. HOOVER

Chief Executive Will Meet Representatives General Building Field Today

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Pleased with the far reaching agreement entered into by industrial and labor leaders to maintain wage stability during the present business situation, President Hoover today turned to representatives in the general building field for cooperation in the nation-wide program for promotion of economic progress.

More than a dozen spokesmen for contractors, manufacturers, and real estate boards were in Washington for an afternoon conference at the White House, the last to be held this week and the fifth in the series of seven which Mr. Hoover has arranged as a means of offsetting any general effect of the fall in stock prices.

On Monday the chief executive will meet with Secretary Hyde, Chairman Legge of the Farm Board, and representatives of farm organizations. The conference with the spokesmen for public utilities, set for Monday, has been postponed until representatives of that industry have held a meeting to determine upon the precise program of expansion and construction they can undertake in the coming year.

Government officials generally today viewed the agreement against wage cuts and industrial disputes during the period of stabilization as perhaps the most outstanding development that will come from the conferences called by the President. This proposal caused prolonged discussion and accounted for the unusual length of both meetings yesterday, each of which lasted more than three hours.

After the White House conferences have been completed the United States Chamber of Commerce will carry on, a call having been sent to many trade organizations to send representatives here on December 5 for an exchange of views and the creation of an executive committee which will function as a cordinating body for business in cooperation with the Department of Commerce and other governmental agencies.

It is the present intention that representtives of the chamber of the executive committee hold sessions with representatives of a number of the smaller groups in the industrial, commercial and business committees to obtain their cooperation in the movement.

Those invited to confer with the President were William Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance Company; T. T. Flagler, of Atlanta, president of the Associated General Contractors; Samuel Hotchkiss, of St. Joseph, Mo., of the National Association of Builders Exchangers; Harry H. Culver, of Culver City, Calif., president of the National Association of Real Estate boards; and Wilford Kurth, of New York, former president of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Others in the group were B. C. Reimer, of Orange, N. J., president of the American Road Builders Association; Samuel Echels, of Harrisburg, Pa., president of the State Highway Associations; Arthur Bernsford, of Washington, president of the American Engineering Counsel; W. Wood, of Decatur, Ill., representing the American Institute of Steel Constructors; A. Trueschmann, of Chicago, president of the Home Modernizing Bureau; D. T. Rifle, of Pittsburgh, president of the National Building Trades Employers Association and A. M. Lewis, of Cincinnati, president of the Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

First N. A. A. Flying Club Is Organized At Philadelphia

Philadelphia.—(AP)—The first of the flying clubs to be sponsored under the recently announced flying club program of the National Aeronautic association has gotten into the air.

It is the First National Aeronautic Association Flying club of Philadelphia, associated with the Aero club of Pennsylvania. Several other clubs in various parts of the country are in process of formation under the N. A. A. plan by which club members and their planes are insured against accident.

A Belgian ace of the World war heads the membership roll of the First National club. He is Eric de Spoelberch, who has several enemy planes to his credit and who twice was cited for bravery under fire.

The Lafayette Escadrille has a representative in the club president, David W. Guy, who has one enemy plane to his credit.

Invent Plane Motor of 21 Working Parts

Houston, Tex.—(AP)—An airplane engine of only 21 working parts—about one-tenth as many as in an ordinary engine—has been built and tested in flight by two Houston inventors.

The engine, called the "Hurricane," its backers say, approaches the ultimate in simplicity of construction. It weighs 225 pounds, develops 150 horsepower and requires an average of seven gallons of gasoline an hour. Its designers, H. F. Lyons and Victor Toce, say it can be built more cheaply than engines now in general use.

Lyons and Toce have completed the engine after eight years of work. It operates on the two-cycle principle and has neither valves, rocker arms nor carburetor. It is an eight-cylinder radial type.

Sponsors of the "Hurricane" believe its unusually light weight, few working parts, low fuel consumption and low cost of construction will make it particularly suitable for use in small, privately owned planes.

A plane equipped with the engine attained speeds of between 90 and 110 miles an hour. The engine has been sent to an Indianapolis engineering laboratory for further tests and refinement.

Motorists Warned Against Monoxide

Washington — (AP) — With the coming of winter weather, when doors and windows are likely to be closed, the American Automobile Association warns motorists against carbon monoxide gas.

The most simple way to avoid its effect is not to remain in a closed garage with the car running. A window or the door should be opened. Enough of the poisonous gas is expelled from the exhaust of an automobile to cause death within a few minutes in a small closed garage, the association says.

Deaths from the gas, it was said have nearly doubled since 1923 when census bureau figures show 2,373 persons died from it.

Treatment of persons overcome by the gas is recommended as follows:

"The victim should be removed to fresh air as soon as possible.

"If breathing has stopped or is weak and intermittent, artificial respiration should be given persistently until breathing has been resumed or the heart stopped.

"Pure oxygen, or a mixture of 5 per cent carbon dioxide in oxygen, should be administered."

GIANT TURBINE SAVES 50 PER CENT IN COAL

Schenectady.—(AP)—A new type of double-decked steam turbine generator, requiring 50 per cent less coal than nothers, has been perfected by the General Electric Company. It is rated at 110,000 kilowatts.

Steam is passed into the upper turbine at 1,200 pounds pressure. After producing 55,000 kilowatts the steam flows to re-heaters. From there it passes into the low-pressure turbine below and produces another 55,000 kilowatts.

The Ford Motor Company plant at Dearborn, where one of the turbines is being installed, must build a tunnel three and a half miles long and 15 feet wide to the River Rouge, in order to obtain the 600,000,000 gallons of water daily necessary to keep the machinery cool.

East Lansing, Mich.(AP)—H. A. Keister, Bangor, Mich., poultryman, has some industrious hens.

One hen has completed a year's record of 315 eggs for the greatest individual output in the seventh international egg-laying contest, sponsored by Michigan State college.

A. J. O'Donovan's pen of white leghorns from Katonah, N. Y., walked off with the contest by scoring 2,538 points and laying 2,424 eggs. The pen of L. F. Heasley, Door, Mich., produced 2,676 eggs, but gained only 2,492 points. Two-ounce eggs were graded on the basis of one point.

The average egg production during the contest was 204.86 eggs, compared with 197.7 for the previous high in 1927. One hundred pens of ten birds each were entered in the contest.

BEARS AND CARDINALS TO CLASH TOMORROW

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—(AP)—California's Bears and Stanford's Cardinals finished training and did a fadeout today, not to reappear until the kickoff Saturday in the game on the outcome of which depends the 1929 football championship of the Pacific coast conference.

Undefeated and united in conference play, California must defeat its most ancient college rival to clinch the title. Comparative records favor the Bears.

Greenville Gets First Visit From King Winter Today

With leaden skies giving forth a mixture of rain, snow and sleet, Greenville and Pitt county today felt the first real sting of King Winter.

A slight flurry of snow visited the city about 10 o'clock this morning, but melted as fast as it hit the ground. It was followed by rain and sleet that continued intermittently during the fore part of the afternoon.

With the weather bureau predicting a continued siege of cold, citizens today began putting more cover on their beds, mending worn furnaces and getting ready for an emergency. It was believed, however, that the worst part of the weather would be experienced in the western part of the state where lower temperatures were forecast.

BANDITS FLUSTRATED IN PLAN TO HOLDUP TRAIN

Belgrade, Jugoslavia, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Reports the Simplon Orient express had been held up by bandits, and two of its passengers killed while the remainder were robbed proved today to be greatly exaggerated.

While the train was still in Jugoslavian territory yesterday approaching the frontier station of Tsaribrod it was fired at by bandits who were believed to be Bulgarians.

Train guards returned the fire of the brigands who were driven off without bloodshed to either side. The train returned to the nearest station on Jugoslavian erritory where patrols were dispatched to make sure the line was clear. Receiving a favorable report the passenger train continued its journey, three hours late, without further incident.

Kelvinator Puts Out New Line of Refrigerators

The Kelvinator Corporation, Detroit, Mich., announces a new line of domestic electric refrigerators. The line consists of twelve self-contained models in sizes and capacities to meet the needs of every modern home. There are five DeLuxe, four Standard and three Utility Models. All of the new models will be equipped with the new Ice-O-Thermic tubes.

These tubes are an exclusive Kelvinator feature, fully protected by pending application for patents. The Super-automatic ice-o-thermic tube is a simple device which automatically changes the load as it rises up and down inside the refrigerator. It is really a governor, and is to the Kelvinator, what the governor is to a steam engnie

All of the cabinets of the DeLuxe standard and utility models are of new design, and are of massive, sturdy appearance with heavy door construction, artistically designed hardware in modernistic style. The cabinets are beautifully proportioned, and are at a low convenient height to give the maximum degree of accessibility and convenience. All porcelain panels are separated by rubber trim strips, which not only blend harmoniously with the design, but protect the porcelain. Latches are of the trigger type, closing with the slightest touch. Provision is made for lock if desired. The rubber ice trays which proved so popular in the past, will be retained in the new line. A glass defrosting tray at the bottom of the freezing compartment is standard on all models.

Inform President Congress is Ready for Adjournment

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Formalities were carried out punctiliously today, when the joint committee of the Senate and house informed President Hoover that Consession labors and is ready to adjourn.

Although the usual form of address was used to tell the president that Congress had completed its work, Senator Jones of Washington, the acting Republican leader, the spokesman of the group, added "so far as possible."

The committee members said Mr. Hoover then informed them he had no further communication for Congress.

Upon leaving the white house Representative Tilson of Connecticut the Republican leader, said the members of his branch of Congress "did not have their tongues in their cheeks" when the president was told Congress had finished its work.

"How about the Senators?" he was asked.

"Oh, they had on their best poker faces," Tilson replied.

In addition to Jones and Tilson, the delegation consisted of Senator Walsh of Montana, Representative Garner of Texas, and the Sergeants at arms of both branches.

High School to Present Splendid Play November 26

While the reported activities of the Greenville high school this year have been mainly athletic, so far, it is not true that no other extra-curricular work of worth and distinction has been "in the works". One of the principal things to be done during the year, the school play has been for six weeks gradually shaping up under the capable hands of Miss Hunter and Miss Powell.

This play, which is to be presented next Tuesday in the school auditorium, is one of the best modern plays obtainable being none other than the phenomenal success, "Peg O' My Heart", written by J. Hartly Manners. Played by all kinds of casts, in all the English speaking countries of the world, this play has, in all probability, given pleasure to more audiences than any other romantic comedy of modern times.

Our coaches have been successful in selecting an especially responsive group of young people and in casting each one in the part which fits like the proverbial glove, with the result that we ma yreasonably look forward to a performance that appears, not like the amateurish school production, interesting chiefly for the personal knowledge we may have of the characters who take part, but like a smooth and pleasing stock or road company, who seem to live their parts in all naturalness. We have no hesitation in prophesying that the audience which sees Peg and her associates next Tuesday evening will be thoroughly satisfied.

PRINCE OF WALES FAILS TO TAKE PART IN DANCE

Glasgow, Scotland, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Ladies of this and surrounding bailiwicks were keenly disappointed last night at a dance aboard the Transylvania in dock here when the Prince of Wales sat and watched instead of dancing.

The Prince looked very tired after a busy day in Edinburg. He sat with the Duchess of Montrose and despite many anxious glances from the fair dancers he did not take the floor.

Continue Search for Lost Flier in Arctic Region

Nome, Alaska, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Four parties were scouting the tundra in the vicinity of North Cape, Siberia, today in search of Carl Ben Eielson, noted arctic pilot, who has been missing since November 9, while Pilot Frank Dorbadt was waiting here, ready to conduct a search from the air when the weather moderates sufficiently to make a flight possible.

Eielson, in co-operation with Dorbadt, was engaged in transporting passengers and furs to Nome from the Swenson Fur Trading Company's ship Nanuk, ice-bound near North Cape.

They also were to take off passengers on the Soviet ship Stavropol, locked in the ice near the Nanuk.

They made one trip from the Nanuk, landing six passengers and a quantity of furs in Nome. They were forced down at Teller, Alaska, by storms on their second trip, but took the air again. Then Dorbandt was forced to return to Teller, but Eielsen continued.

His plane was sighted by a party of natives within sixy miles of the Nanuk, while the motor of the plane was heard ten miles close to the ship by a Russian trader. The trader did not see the plane, owing to heavy fog. Word received from him yesterday, however, was that he believed Eielsen was flying inland. He said there was a mountain about ten miles from the coast at that point, on which Eielson might have crashed.

O. L. JOYNER.

An Appreciation by David J. Whichard, Jr.

It is not my purpose here to undertake to recount what the life of O. L. Joyner has meant and will continue to mean to this community, for I feel that no more need be said than was expressed in these columns yesterday in these few words: "He was an honest, upright, God-fearing citizen, a loving and dutiful husband and father, and a true friend with lines of friendship marked by neither color, race nor creed." I do feel, however, that I would like to express my personal appreciation for Mr. Joyner, although I feel helpless in attempting to do so, for I have not the words to express the fullness of my heart and the love for him that I inherited from my father and that has continued to grow from my contact with Mr. Joyner since my father's death.

As a child I began to know Mr. Joyner as my father's closest and best friend and never have I witnessed a greater love even between two brothers, and now as I gaze backward over the years, I realize the true feeling between these two men whom I loved, and note a certain similarity in their lives. In times of joy each turned to the other that he might share the happiness and in times of sorrow there was no sympathy so comforting to one as that handclasp and word of understanding on the part of the other. While I have not the words to describe it truthfully I believe that never was there lived or written a more beautiful friendship than theirs.

It was natural that I should have grown into manhood loving and respecting Mr. Joyner, and when he extended to me the interest he had always shown in my father, I realized that in him I had a true friend, to whom I could turn for advice and assistance. Like most men, Mr. Joyner's lot in life was not a bed of roses, for he too, had his worries and his ups and downs but never have I found the occasion that, with it all, he could not find time to listen when I wished a sympathizing ear into which to pour my worries or wished advice as how to best solve what appeared to me to be insurmountable problems. Many is the time he has put his arm around me and said, "Son, your Daddy faced these things and harder ones, and came through, you have enough of him in you to do it too. Go to it, and if you need my help you have but to ask it."

How much like a father talking to his own son, and it seemed as if it brought wise counsel from my own father, even though I no longer had him to turn to for advice.

Thus through the years, first through my father and then me, the friendship of O. L. Joyner has meant much to The Reflector and to him is due a large part of the credit for what progress the paper has made. Even in his final days, as he lay on his bed with life gradually slipping from his body, this friendly and fatherly interest continued, and as I entered his sick room just a few days before the end came, his first concern was if all was well with me and if certain of my business undertakings had proved successful. My reply in the affirmative brought an expression of satisfaction to his face as he said, "I am glad. I have been thinking of you lots. I was always interested in your father and in you, and I want to see you do well."

"This was the last conversation I had with Mr. Joyner, and as I stood last night by his bier and looked into his face, knowing that this was only the mortal body that had sheltered such a great soul, it seemed as if I could picture the rejoicing in the Realm beyond the grave when my father and his other dear friends greeted his immortal soul to that peace and happiness of a Heavenly reward truly earned during his three score years of life. And as I stood there the words of his favorite poem, used by him in a tribute to my father, came back to me and I realized how well these same lines fitted the life of O. L. Joyner:

"So live that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to dreams."

ABOUT TOWN

The death of O. L. Joyner brings to an end the activities of one of the most picturesque figures in the tobacco industry in this part of the State.

As founder of the Greenville tobacco market Mr. Joyner played an important part in its development during the thirty-five years of its history, and he saw it grow from an infant in swaddling clothes to a giant industry ranking as the second largest in the world.

It is impossible to measure the value of such a man to the development of a community. He always stood for the things which he believed would be of benefit to his fellowman, and death came at a time when he was beginning to realize the fullfillment of his dream of seeing this section develop into one of the truly great tobacco growing districts of the world.

Fighting the ravages of illness as bravely as he ever fought any battle in the realms of industry and business, this pioneer had the profound sympathy and admiration of thousands of friends during the closing days of his life. He was thoughtful of the welfare of his fellowmen even to the last, and countless thousands of farmers will benefit from the wise counsel he gave them during the critical stages of financial depression the past year.

Greenville and Pitt county will feel the loss of this pioneer citizen, but his achievements will not be dimmed by the passing of the years. The things that O. L. Joyner did are a monument that will stand out conspicuously in the future life of the locality.

Right at a time when it looked like the nation was scared "stiff" by stock market collapses and depressed finance, Henry Ford comes along and announces an increase of pay for the thousands of men employed in the manufacture of his automobiles.

This news should have a powerful effect in offseting the argument that every branch of business is faced by a crucial period next year. Henry Ford has faith in the future, and his action in increasing the wages of his employees should be a distinct encouragement to millions of people who have been lending an attentive ear to hard times talk.

Henry Ford probably knows more about what he is doing than any other man in the country. He has been able to guage financial conditions of the nation with unerring skill over a period of many years and it was this faculty that enabled him to amass so many millions of dollars in one of the world's greatest industries.

Now that Ford has taken the lead, other men prominent in the financial life of the nation no doubt will follow along the path he has blazed. His action should have a tendency of injecting new enthusiasm in the hearts of the workingman, and cause him to look hopefully to the future, confident things will come out at the big end of the horn.

Have you prepared that bundle for the Boy Scouts tomorrow? If not, why not get busy at once and get up some old clothes for the poor people of the community?

Charity Bundle Day campaign will get underway in full blast tomorrow morning, and Boy Scouts will visit every home in the city in an effort to collect as much clothing as possible for the unfortunate people of the section.

The bundles will be distributed through the County Welfare Department, under direct supervision of R. T. Futrell, one of the best informed men in the county on the needs of the poor element.

Cold weather has set in and from now on countless numbers of people are going to suffer great hardships unless the more fortunate of our population help provide for them. Ragged children, hungry and cold, will wander helplessly about the streets in quest of necessities of life unless you give to this cause for their relief.

The Scouts are hopeful of setting a record for this part of the state. Some cities have reported collecting as much as four tons of old clothing in similiar campaigns, and surely Greenville, the center of the greatest bright leaf producing region in the world, will be able to give just as liberally as any other city.

Think the matter over, Mr. Citizen, and when the Scouts call have your bundle ready for them.

One more day and the Red Cross drive will be brought to an end. If you have not renewed your membership to this organization get busy today and do so before the local committee reports to national headquarters.

Pitt County has always supported the Red Cross in a way that brought the highest commendation from officials of the organization, and surely they will do just as well this year.

The great part which the Red Cross has played in time of disaster is familiar to everybody. Even tiny children know that the sign of the Red Cross means something great and good—a cause launched in the cause of humanity.

Bear steadily in mind the fact that other disasters are likely to happen in the future as in the past and that the strong arm of this great organization will be needed just as much as ever. It is at times that the dollar you give for membership counts in behalf of humanity. It carries relief to those unable to provide for themselves, literally saves the lives of untold numbers of defenseless women and children when they are at the mercy of some great castrophe.

Think over these things and then get in touch with members of the local committee and let them know you want to renew your membership or if not a member, to become one.

Five Women Die In Auto Wreck At Dallas, Tex.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Five women were killed here today when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a motor car of the Santa Fe Railroad.

The accident occurred on the East Grand avenue pike near White Rock Lake during a blinding snowstorm, the first of the winter. The railroad car was operating on the Paris-Dallas line of the Senta Fe system.

A negro, who was driving the car for the women, was taken to a hospital. Before losing consciousness he gave his name as "Rabbit" Gatt and said his home was in Leonard, Texas.

Among the effects of the women were papers bearing the names of Mrs. Dolly King, Fort Worth, and Mrs. E. G. King.

FOREST FIRE LOSS REMAINS UNREDUCED

New York, Nov. 21—(AP)—That no substantial gain whatever in reducing American forest fires has been made in the last 12 years is the conclusion reached by A. C. Coonradt, assistant professor of mechanical engineering at New York university, after an extensive study.

Professor Coonradt's report is made to the American association for the advancement of science.

It appears, he says, that the strenuous efforts of forestry officials and of the co-operating rail roads and lumbering interest to reduce fires have been about offset by increasing fires due to greater industrial activity and growing population.

TIDAL WAVE DEATH TOLL ON INCREASE

Thirty-Six Lives and Heavy Property Loss Reported in New Foundland

St. John's, N. F., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Toll of a tidal wave which lashed an isolated section of the south coast of Burin Peninsula, after an earthquake last Monday, was variously estimated here today at 26 to 36 lives and property loss of great extent in small fishing villages.

With land communication severed for three days by a severe storm preceding the earthquake and tidal wave, first word of the destruction brought was wirelessed yesterday from steamers which had put into the port of Burin.

A message from the Burin telegraph station listed the names of 26 men, women and children as dead.

It distributed the deaths as follows:

Lamaline, one; Point Augual. 8; Taylors Bay, 4; Lord's Cove, 4; Kelly's Cove, 2; and Port Aux Bras. 7.

This list conflicted with an earlier statement by Premier Richard A. Squires, to the Newfoundland Weekly at Boston that 36 or more had perished. He reported the wall of water had killed 18 at Lord's Cove and Lamaline; nine at Burin; seven at Kelly's Cove and two at Stepaside. Families yere reported homeless and in need of aid.

A relief steamer was en route today to the stricken area with provisions, medical supplies, doctors and nureses. The minister of marine and fisheries was in charge of relief operations.

The Burin Peninsula, fringed with high precipitious cliffs, sticks finger-like to the southwest from the mainland of Newfoundland. It is only 350 miles from where scientists estimated the submarine disturbance centered in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The tidal wave, 15 feet or more high, struck along the coast for a distance of 30 miles, it was reported.

Briton to Burn Daytona Sands In Drive on Record

Daytona Beach, Fla.—(AP)—The crystal sands of the ocean speedway here this winter will see a new spectacular assault upon the world's largest automobile speed record of 231 miles an hour.

This time it is to be Kaye Don, well known British driver, who will attempt to wrest the title from his fellow countryman, Sir Henry Segrave.

Segrave set the present record here last March when he exceeded by 23.7 miles an hour the previous mark held by an American, the late Ray Keech of Philadelphia.

Segrave since has announced his retirement from automobile racing and has taken up motorboating as a hobby. His record-holding car, the Golden Arrow, has been placed in a museum in England.

Dates for the forthcoming speed classic, for which no American entries yet have been made, formally have been set for March 1 to 15, although they are subject to a change.

Don, who is wel known in racing circles on the European continent, will be a newcomer in the American high speed classic. He is a veteran driver.

The American Automobile Association, which has supervised previous automobile trials here, has been advised that Don's machine is under construction. Little is known on this side as to the specifications except that it is to be equipped with two 1,000-horsepower motors in line. It is believed to be of the four-wheel drive type.

Indications that the world's record also might be attacked by another British driver before long is seen in an announcement by the American Automobile Association that Capt. Malcolm Campbell of England, a former record holder, is considering a combeback.

He set a record of 206.95 here in February, 1928, in his 12-cylinder Blue Bird before Keech came along in a giant 36-cylinder machine and boosted the mark up to 207.55.

Whether he will come to Daytona Beach in the event he decides to try again is not known here.

At any rate, regardless whether Don or Campbell succeed in establishing a new record, the title is doomed to remain abroad for another year at least unless America can produce a machine and a driver capable of bettering Segrave's mark of nearly four miles a minute.

It has been rumored that several Americans are interested in the construction of a record contending machine, but so far they have made no public announcement.

J. M. White of Philadelphia, who owned the three-motored iron steed in which Keech set his record, temporarily has dropped out of the high speed racing picture since Lee Bible, a Daytona Beach mechanic, crashed to his death in it in attempting to regain the title for America here last March.

He has said, however, that he may come back in 1931 with a machine capable of developing a speed of 250 miles an hour.

Death of Kentuckian Recalls Sheep-Cattle Fights of the West

Cheyenne, Wyo. — (AP) — The bloody days of the west, when sheep men invaded the domain of the cattle men considered their heritage, is fiction to this generation.

To Kels P. Nickell, who died in Jackson, Ky., recently, it was a page from his book of life.

A blacksmith who saw in sheep a potential fortune, Nickell turned to raising them in the Iron country of Wyoming where none had contested the cattlemen's rule of the range.

Hardened by many years in the west, Nickell stubbornly fought for life and the right to place on the range for his 3,000 head of sheep. The story of that fight is a saga of the west.

He was shot from ambush and severely wounded. He was marked for death by Tom Horn, professional man killer, and became involved in a brawl with a cattleman who was Horn's intimate. The cattleman emerged with knife wounds.

Nickell's 16-year - old son, Willie was ambushed near his father's ranch. He was wearing his father's coat and was astride Nickell's horse when he was shot to death, apparently mistaken for his father.

Then began a relentless man hunt for Horn, who was captured six months later. At his trial in Cheyenne, the prosecution offered a 'confession," damaging statements which were gained through a ruse.

Fors, deputy United States marshal, inveigled Horn into a drinking bout. His tongue loosened by drink, Horn made statements which were copyed by a court reporter concealed in an adjoining room. The "confession," with circumstantial evidence, convicted him.

He was sentenced to be hanged after a 14-day trial. There followed months of legal delay during which the desperate man sought to foil justice. Once he escaped with another prisoner after clubbing an an undersheriff, but was recaptured.

A plot to liberate him by dynamiting the jail was exposed by a prisoner to whom Horn entrusted messages. The prisoner turned them over, not to Horn's friends, but to a Cheyenne newspaper, which scored the biggest scoop in the journalistic history of the state.

Protesting his innocence to the end, Horn died coolly on the gallows, and it was the comment of the period that not until he dropped through the trap did prominent cattlemen breathe easily.

Nickell survived the threats on his life, finally to retire to the south.

ROCKNE'S CONDITION BECOMES SERIOUS

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Knute Rockne probably has seen his 1929 Notre Dame football team in formal competition for the last time.

The infection in Rockne's right leg, which forced him almost out of action eight weeks ago, has made its way into the left leg, and his physician, Dr. Robert L. Sensenich, has ordered complete rest, even though the team must face Northwestern at Evanston Saturday and Army in New York, a week hence.

Dr. Sensenich hastened to add that Rockne's condition is no cause of real alarm, but said recovery would be long delayed unless the Coach gets absolute rest from now on.

Dr. Sensenich described the ailment as thrombosis prelbitis, or the clogging of a vein by a blood-clot.

Dislikes Wrist Watches on Cops

Jersey City—John Beggans, municipal director of safety, dislikes to see cops wearing wrist watches. "I wish they would give them back to their sisters," he said when an officer explained his absence from post by saying he was hunting for a lost watch.

SECTIONS OF SOUTH VISITED BY SNOW FALL

Several States Reported Blanketed in White During This Morning

Atlanta, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Weeks in advance of usual scanty falls, sections of the south today were blanketed in snow which still was falling and already had been the indirect cause of one death.

Old timers who read weather signs in nature shook their heads knowingly and repeated their predictions of a "hard" winter. Weeks ago, some of these weather prophets pointed to "heavier bark on trees" more plummagé on poultry and similar signs as indications that a cold winter was in prospect.

Arkansas, Tennessee, North Alabama, Kentucky and Western North Carolina were blanketed while elsewhere temperatures sagged and predictions for snow were made for north Georgia, other sections of North Carolina and Virginia tonight or tomorrow.

The white blanket spread over a good portion of Arkansas and brought temperatures as low as 20 degrees in the Ozark mountains in the northwest. Snow began falling in parts of Tennessee last night and continued today, while at Sheffield, Ala., a three-inch blanket greeted citizens this morning with the end not in sight.

The one death was that of Luther Monday, of Atlanta, who was struck by a motorist while crouched beside his car making repairs during the snow storm at Smack Over, Ark., yesterday.

A slight fall of sleet was recorded over north Georgia this morning, but it lasted only a short time and turned to rain.

Freezing and sub-freezing temperatures for tonight and tomorrow were forecast for Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama, Louisiana and will extend nearly to the coast, but with warmer temperatures following close behind.

Match Seekers Feel Fist of Ex-Champion

Pittsburg—A bunch of the body were whooping it up in a downtown hotel the other night, celebrating a football victory.

Somebody needed a match and two collegians went out to get it. They surveyed the long hall of the hotel. The hour was late. There was no sound, except in the room from which the two had come.

"Let's try this one," one of the paid gleefully suggested. hey banged on the door. Aroused from his sleep the male occupant showed his displeasure.

There was an argument. Suddenly a fist shot out and one of the intruders reeled.

Somebody called an attendant.

"Lucky you didn't get anything worse," he remarked. "Of all the rooms in the hotel, you had to pick the one occupied by Benny Leonard."

FARMER DRAWS LIFE SENTENCE

Ocilla, Ga., Nov. 22—(AP)—A 37-year-old farmer, Harry K. Sligh, whom the prosecution said conceived and executed a plot to kill Harry Loving, 19 years old, Huntington, W. Va., for the collection of $90,000 insurance, today was under sentence of life imprisonment.

Sligh was convicted of murder yesterday by a jury which also recommended his punishment after deliberating for nearly 29 hours. Defense attorneys said they would seek a new trial.

SUNDOWN STORIES

THE DUCK'S BILL

(By Mary Graham Bonner)

The Little Black Clock had brought John and Peggy to a farm. It looked like a very old-fashioned kind of a farm, and the Little Black Clock said that it was, and that he had put the time back quite a distance.

"Of course not the way I turned it back when we saw the water clock, but I've put it back for tonight's trip, too."

Near the farm was a little brook, and wading in the brook were some ducks.

They were having a meal and were enjoying themselves so much. Between nibbles they quacked-quacked their pleasure at what they were finding.

It was fun to watch them. They ducked their heads down in the water, they shook themselves, they waddled up on the banks and they seemed to keep very busy without doing much of anything.

"The leader duck is saying something," the Little Black Clock said, "Let's listen."

The leader duck had just had his dessert. At least Peggy decided it was his dessert, for, as she said, he had been eating steadily and had certainly reached dessert time by now.

"That was just the right size for my beak or my bill," said the leader duck, or as he called himself, Leader Drake.

"And," he added, "I've decided something. Friends of the brook, hearken to what I say."

Tomorrow—"The Saying."

THREE MEMBERS OF OREGON INELIGIBLE

Eugene, Ore., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Because faculty members believed their scholastic standings such that two weeks absence just before examinations would endanger their grades, three members of the University of Oregon football team today were declared ineligible to make the trip to Miami, where the Webfeet meet the University of Florida in an intersectional football game December 10. The players are Austin Colbert, tackle; Irvin Schultz, substitute tackle and Charles Spear, backfield.

TWO COMPLETE SETS OF BACKS FOR DAVIDSON

Durham, Nov. 22.—The average person has but one thing to do on Thanksgiving Day—and that is to eat as much turkey and cranberry sauce as his capacity will permit. But with the Duke football coaches and players there are two goals and neither has anything to do with a turkey or cranberries.

Duke is going to Davidson Thursday to tame the Wildcats and polish up the team for the big game with Carolina December 7, in the new Duke Stadium.

It is likely two complete sets of backs will work against Davidson, each as a unit. Neither set has been decided but a god guess would see Sam Buie on one and Flop Beaver on the other, for these two men are Duke's best punters.

There are two good fullbacks, Kid Brewer and Ock Godfrey. There is not much difference in their play to date. Brewer probably has an edge as a defensive back, in fact, he is rated the best defensive back on the squad.

But there will be plenty of work for both in the two remaining games.

Glenn Robeson and Sam Buie probably will be the halfbacks on the same team with Taft Russ and Flop Beaver filling these positions on the other combination.

Insecure Track Conditions Cause of Enfield Wreck

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Insecure track conditions were held by the Interstate Commerce Commission today to have been the primary cause of an Atlantic Coast Line passenger train derailment which took place near Enfield, N. C., on July 10 and caused injuries to 50 passengers and railroad employees.

Northbound train No. 84 on the Coast Line left the rails while traveling at a fairly high speed at a point where track repairs were in progress.

"This accident was caused by insecure track conditions," the report to the commission said. "That a dangerous condition had developed on the stripped track seems apparent. It does not appear that Road Master Fowler, in the charge of the work, is entirely free from responsibility. Steps should have been taken to insure that no unsafe condition developed.

Greenville High Plays Washington on November 27th

The last scheduled game of the N. E. A. C., with Wilson high school, was played this afternoon too late for results to be reported in this edition, but the athletic authorities of the local high school have an announcement to make, to the effect that they have succeeded in arranging a game with our old rivals, Washington, for Wednesday, November 27, in Greenville. This announcement will be received with much joy by the fans who have been following the career of the Greenville team this fall, especially those who have not had a chance to travel with the team to its game in Washington last week.

However, it may be that those who saw the bitterly fought tie game in Beaufort county, will be as much interested as those who did not, or more so. "That game did not prove a thing", one follower said, "we think we are better and Washington thinks they are."

"What we want is another chance to clean up the slate with a win for the best team", seems to express the general sentiments, and a large crowd is assured for the season's last appearance of the Greenville team.

SPORTS SLANTS

The agitation of a few years ago to abolish football scouting, led by T. A. D. Jones of Yale, seems to have all but expired. The Elis alone among major colleges have adhered generally to the non-scouting policy with such of their opponents as will agree to it, but Harvard and West Point after experimenting, have not been among them. The Crimson opposed the idea from the outset, yielding only under pressure. The Army has decided that scouting is a legitimate military maneuver, essential to the march against enemy gridiron strongholds.

Scouting is in a high-poweder, systematized basis in the Middle West, especially the Big Ten. Special facilities are afforded the visiting scouts. Far from being obliged to operate with any secrecy, they are welcomed, dined and entertained by many of the big schools who set aside choice seats for these eagle eyed observers. No guarantees, however, go with the information they obtain.

Many of the scouts never see their own team perform. They are like the advance men of a circus, always one or two jumps ahead of their own forces.

The arguments in favor of scouting, as they are summed up in the Carnegie Foundation's report, are that it gives the better team a better opportunity to win, relieves the strain upon a coach, removes suspicion and distrust which develop in non-scouting agreements which are difficult to enforce.

Opponents of scouting, on the other hand, point to its cost, running as high as $800 for each scout or $3,500 for a season; its savor of over-emphasis on winning and, lastly, the element of professionalism in high-powered scouting methods.

"Yale athletic officials, coaches and athletes," says the Carnegie report, "appear to be unanimous in their conviction that the absence of scouting decreases the importance of victory at football and augments the attractiveness of the game as a diversion." Among Canadian universities, where the English influence may be predominant scouting is considered unsportsmanlike and the athletic authorities of Dominion institutions have agreed not to make use of it.

Whether or not athletic ability is inherited and, if so, to what extent, it is interesting this year to note the presence of T. Truxton Hare, Jr., in the Yale line, Willie Heston, Jr., in the Michigan backfield, Paul Stagg at quarter-back on the team coached by his father A. A. Stagg at Chicago, and a son of Dan McGugin, Vanderbilt coach, on his squad.

A famous Harvard rowing coach one time in describing the effect on the participants of a grilling four-mile race said:

"The way the boys perform the first mile depends on their training; the second mile depends on their personal life habits; the third mile depends upon how their fathers lived: and the fourth mile depends upon their ancestors generally."

SHELDON CLARK OFFERED PRESIDENCY OF STADIUM

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Sheldon Clark, wealthy sportsman and vice-president of the Sinclair Refining Company, today had under consideration an offer of the presidency of the Chicago Stadium Corporation; and he indicated he probably would accept it.

Mr. Clark said last night a committee from the stadium directorate had offered him the position vacated by P. T. (Paddy) Harmon, planner and promoter of the huge indoor sports building, resigned Tuesday. He added he had promised his answer within 24 hours, and indicated he would accept the position but without pay.

Milwaukee, Wi.—Sammy Mandell Rockford, Ill., knocked out Joe Azzerilla, Milwaukee, non-title, (2); Johnny Ryan, Cudahy, Wis., outpointed Fernandez Gonzales, Mexico, (8).

GAMECOCKS TO PLAY FLORIDA AT COLUMBIA

By DILLON L. GRAHAM

Atlanta, Nov. 22.—Puzzled by their inability to solve the unorthodox formations employed by the University of South Carolina eleven, the Florida Alligators entrain at Gainesville today for Columbia where they play the Gamecocks tomorrow in the only Southern conference football game on tap for the week-end.

Reports from the Saucian training camp are that the Gators have made little headway in perfecting a defense to halt the "crazy quilt" and other trick plays with which Coach Billy Laval has fortified his Carolina proteges.

Coach Charley Bachman of the Florida team announced last night that 29 gridders, headed by Captain Rainey Cawthon, would make the trip.

The North Carolina State Wolfpack was en route to Philadelphia today where they meet the strong Villa Nova squad Saturday in the only intersectional game of the day in which a Dixie team participates. The Pennsylvanians have turned back the overtures of two other southern outfits, Duke and Oglethorpe, but the Carolina boys believe it is their turn to change the tune.

Clemson and the Citadel are ready for their clash at Clemson college.

The Gengals have taken a series of drubbings in recent weeks and will be in a terrible rage when they face the artillery of the Cadets Saturday in their annual skirmish.

Duke will battle Wake Forest at Durham as a sort of a preliminary to their later conference engagement with North Carolina University.

In addition to its bearing on the conference title, the Kentucky-Tennessee encounter on Thanksgiving Day will hold something of a traditional interest for the Wildcats and Volunteers. Several years ago a beer keg, bearing the colors of both institutions and on which was inscribed the score and date of the game, was given to the winning team. Annually since that time it has been a reward for the victors. Tennessee won two years ago and retained the keg last year because of the tie with Kentucky.

Should the Wildcats win this year, they would recover possession of the trophy in addition to eliminating the Volunteers from among the championship contenders.

Take Steps to Thwart Uprising in the Urkaine

Kharkov, Ukraine, U. S. S. R., Nov. 22.—(AP)—The state political police today took steps to thwart a wide-spread counter-revolutionary activities which they announced they had discovered here. All accused of participation will be tried before the Supreme court.

Their announcement charged S. Efremov, member of the Ukranian Academy of Science, and M. Chekovsky, who was premier of the independent Ukranian government proclaimed by General Simon Petlura in 1920 with heading the activities, which were said to be backed by a considerable organization.

Other Russians identified with General Petlura's "Ukrainian National Republic" were said to be involved in the new plot with close contact with at white Russian organization abroad and with a group in Poland which calls itself "The government of the Urrainian National Republic."

The police said the plotters hoped to restore to original owners all factories, estates, and other properties which have been nationalized by the Soviet union. They were charged too with training their youth as counter-revolutionists, particularly in methods of terrorizing officials of the Soviet government.

The alleged counter-revolutionaires were said to favor payment of the old Czarist debts to foreign countires.

General Simon Petlura in 1918, 1919 and 1920 attempted to stir up a independent Ukranian government but late in 1920 met with reverses after Poland had recognized Ukranian Independence. He later was assassinated in Paris and his assassin exoperated by the French court.

JACK DEMPSEY DETERMINED TO PROMOTE FIGHTS

St. Louis, Nov. 22.—(AP)— Jack Dempsey, here to referee a fight card last night, declared he would stand or fall as an independent promoter.

Dempsey said reports that he would go into partnership in the fight promotion with Charles Wrigley were without foundation, that he was not taking on any new associates. He also said he was not acting in the interest of Madison Square Garden, and that he would not consider an offer to take Paddy Harmon's place with the Chicago Stadium if it were offered him.

Will 1929 Tar Heels Go the Way of 1914?

Chapel Hill, Nov. 22.—The Tar Heel football prophets who know their history are wondering quite a bit over the obstruse theorem of of whether history repeats itself.

If it does, assuredly, the high-powered 1929 Tar Heels are in for a jolt in their annual Thanksgiving battle here with Virginia.

Reference, of course, is to the football situation in 1914, to the fate of Captain Dave Tayloe's famous team that se a scoring record for Tr Heel teams that still stands.

"Doggie" Trenchard, the famous Princeton athlete, put ont a team at Carolina that the dopesters said was unbeaable.

And it seemed so. Tyloe, Tandy & Co. opened against Richmond college with a bang—and a 41-0 score.

They made it 65 on Virginia Medical college and 48 on South Carolina—a margin of victory in that series, incidentally, that the 1929 Tar Heels lacked 8 points of equalling.

They slipped and let Georgia score a touchdown, but the score was 41-6 at that.

It was 40-0 on Riverside, and Vanderbilt, with one of the strongest teams in the south, was turned back 10-7.

Wake Forest was passed the sour pill of defeat twice. V. M. I. and Davidson got a dose apiece.

With 10 games down, the gretest scoring Tar Heel team of all time had 356 points to all opponents' 29. Only Virginia remained to pass.

It may have been overconfidence, Captain Tyloe's girl friend may have kicked him, or what not—the Tar Heels still wonder. Have it as you will, this great Tar Heel team returned from Charlottesville a humiliated team, pasted with a 20-3 defeat at the hands of the Cavaliers.

If history repeats itself, the stage would be well set this year. The 1929 Tar Heels to date are averaging 32 1-8 points a game, just a fraction below the 1914 record, and leading the Conference in scoring against Conference teams.

The Tar Heels have the great record, and despite a close loss to Georgia are doped to win as many Conference games as any other Conference outfit. Virginia has had the "in and out" season. Btu, does history repeat?

CONGRESS TO COME TO END DURING NIGHT

Capitol Hill to Be Quiet One Week Prior to Convening of Regular Session

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)— A congressional session notable for the many factions which arose to influence the trend of legislation tonight will reach its conclusion.

For one week, there will be quiet on Capitol Hill, and then, the legislators will be back to take up the work of the regular session, including a renewal of the bitter tariff controversy and a steady grind that is expected to continue until late spring.

The renewal of tariff debate is expected to bring to the fore again the several groupings into which the Senate was divided in the closing days of the extraordinary session. Throughout the special session the nominal leadership of the House kept that branch of Congress in order, but at the other end of the capitol it was a different story.

First of all, the Republican senators from northwestern states asserted their usual independence of administration guidance and combined with the Democratic membership to form a coalition that repeatedly defeated the legislative maneuvers of the "old guard" Republicans.

Then, in the closing days of the session, a new faction arose unexpectedly. It consisted of newer Republican members, who declared itself closely associated with President Hoover, and successfully opposed a move sponsored by "old guard" leaders to adjourn the special session.

There was talk that the new group harbored a desire to unseat the regularly constituted Republican leaders. A meeting was called for a discussion of procedure and then called off. Denials that any attack at "old guard" leadership were issued. Then, the young Republicans lost out on the very question which brought them into prominence. A second effort to adjourn the Senate was made and carried through to a successful conclusion, on a new alignment of the voting.

"Combustion" Fire Riddle Attacked By Government

By FRANK J. WELLER
(AP Feature Farm Editor)

Washington, (AP)—Spontaneous ignition, always a problem to industry, finds the federal government determined to solve its mysteries.

A conference here, in which federal authorities conferred with representatives of American and Canadian industries, brought out that knowledge of spontaneous combustion is slight.

"No one knows what it really it," says D. J. Price, who has made investigations for the bureau of chemistry and soils.

"Heretofore it has been considered the result of bacterial action. Now we know that bacteria is destroyed by heat of 150 degrees, Fahrenheit, whereas the temperature in stored material must rise to 600 degrees or more to cause ignition.

"Undoubtedly bacterial action is a primary step in the heating process. Since bacteria does not survive, 15 degrees of temperature, it must at some point set up an agency that increases the heat to the point of ignition. We believe it to be a chemical activity, but what it is no one knows."

Dr. Charles A. Browne, chief of the bureau's chemical and technological research, advances the new theory that spontaneous combustion is due not only to heat developed by bacterial action, but to the much higher temperature following the oxidation of certain compounds produced by the bacteria.

United States losses from fires reported to be caused by spontaneous ignition are estimated at $20,000,000 annually. This figure does not include the loss "from unknown causes," amounting to approximately $200,000,000, a considerable portion of which authorities believe due to spontaneous ignition.

Va. Election Sounds Knell of Coalition Against Democrats

Richmond, Va.—The Democratic gubernatorial victory in Virginia appears definitely to have terminated the wedding of ambitious Republicans and dissatisfied Democrats.

That was the view of republican leaders who seemed to regard the overwhelming victory of the Democratic party as divorcing the Republicans from the coalition union with the anti-Smith Democrats.

Their dream of riding to power behind William Moseley Brown burst when he was overwhelmingly defeated by John Garland Pollard governor-elect.

Republican leaders said that the coalition was definitely ended and Henry W. Anderson, member of the president's law enforcement commission and one of the backers of Brown, said he expected the Republican party would resume its role as the minority party in Democratic Virginia but with increased strength.

While Republicans and Democrats of the coalition blamed each other for the debacle, the triumphant Democrats who backed Pollard hold that the opposition misconstrued the victory of President Hoover in Virginia last November.

They contended that it was significant only as indicating the refusal of thousands of Democrats to vote for a wet candidate and did not herald the end of Democratic domination of the state.

Democratic leaders insisted as they did throughout the gubernatorial campaign that no national issues were involved. Pollard said the victory could not be considered approval or disapproval of Smith or Raskob," although the names of the former Democratic presidential nominee and the national democratic committee were mentioned by the coalition.

Bishop James Cannon's call for a repudiation of "Raskobian liberalism" and Democratic leaders in Virginia who supported Smith, as well as the insistence that prohibition was an issue, apparently was disregarded in view of the "bone dry" record of Pollard.

Election results indicated that the coalition failed to coalesce, for which Frank Lyon, anti-Smith chairman, blames the Republica- party. Lyon said the Republicans diverted attention from the national issues, including prohibition and a "protest" against national Democratic party leadership by an attack on the Democrats in state administration which caused Democrats to return to old party lines.

Democratic chieftains in Washington hastened after the election to predict that four other "Hoover" in the south would follow ranks.

Gov. Harry F. Byrd, whose administration camp under coalition fire, hailed the landslide for Pollard as an endorsement of Democratic administrations form Fitzhu Lee to the present, a view apparently shared by Chairman Lyon of the anti-Smith Democrats.

The optimistic Democratic camp predicts that the three congressional districts electing Republican representatives in 1928 will send Democrats to Congress next year.

Virginia elects a Senator next year and Democrats expect no republican opposition to Senator Carter Glass—an opposition that they looked for in the event that Brown had been elected.

GARDNER BACK HOME AFTER HUNTING TRIP

Raleigh, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Gov. O. Max Gardner was back in his offices here today after delivering an address at Belhaven Wednesday and going goose hunting at Lake Mattamuskeet yesterday.

Governor Gardner and his party, Tyre Taylor, his secretary, Fred Latham of Beaufort County, O. B. Moss, Nash county legislator, and a guide found geese plentiful and within half an hour after going into their blind the entire party had bagged the legal limit of five fowls each. The Governor got his five birds in five minutes.

Market Report
Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 3 to 10 points under further liquidation and local selling promoted by relatively easy Liverpool cables. Reports of unfavorable weather for saving the remainder of the crop in the fields brought in some buying at the decline however, and the market steadied up during the early trading.

January advanced from 17.56 to 17.63, with active months generally ruling within 2 or 3 points of yesterday's closing quotations at the end of the first half hour. Early weather advices indicated snow at a number of points in the south which would interfere with picking and lower the grade of cotton while the opinion was expressed in some quarters that it might lead to its abandonment in the fields in some sections.

Liverpool cables reported continental buying supplied by scattered liquidation and American selling in that market.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Free selling that broke out in the wheat market today after early brisk advances turned values sharply downward in the late dealings. One reason for the selling was that export demand today for wheat from North America was only fair, total purchases for trans-Atlantic shipment from the United States and Canada being 700,000 bushels. A late spasm of weakness in wheat quotations at Liverpool today was in some quarters ascribed to heavy selling from Chicago, possibly closing out spread trades with Winnipeg or this city.

Wheat closed unsettled at 1c to 1 1-2c per bushel lower than yesterday's finish. Corn closed unchanged to 1-2 off; oats 1-4 to 3-4 to 1-2 down and provisions unchanged to a rise of 17c.

STOCK MARKET

By STANLEY W. PRENOSH,
Associated Press Financial Eutor

New York, Nov. 22.—Wall Street witnessed an old fashioned trading market today in which the general list failed to make much progress in either direction. Several of the recent speculative favorites sold down 1 to 7 points, while a fairly long list of public utilities, rails and specialties were marked up 1 to 12 points. Trading was fairly heavy in volume.

Otis Elevator ran up 12 points, Peoples Gas 10 1-2, Jersey Central 10, J. I. Case 9 1-2, U. S Industrial Alcohol 7 1-4, Stone and Webster 6 1-2 and Underwood Elliott Fisher, Wright Aeronautical, Delaware and Hudson, Brooklyn Union Gas, Safeway Stores, American Machine and Foundry, American Water Works and Missouri Pacific sold 4 to 6 points higher, although some of the gains were reduced by profit taking.

On the other hand, General Electric fell 7 1-4 points but rallied several points from the low and Anaconda, Air Reduction and U. S. Freight fell 4 to 5 points before they met effective support. U. S. Steel common was under pressure during the greater part of the session but fluctuated within a range of a few points, American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Johns Manville, Atchison and Union Pacific also encountered rather heavy selling.

Governors of the Stock Exchange voted to resume the five-hour trading session Monday, but authorized a three-day holiday beginning on Thanksgiving day. Most of the brokerage houses already have cleared up the recent accumulation of work, but the extra holiday apparently was voted to give employes and brokers and their employes a vacation after their strenuous labors of the past month or six weeks.

Call money opened at 4 1-2 per cent, the lowest renewal rate since March 1928, with loans in the outside market available at 3 1-2 per cent. The decline of $585,000,000 in federal reserve brokers' loans last week, bringing the total down to $3,587,000,000, is believed to have placed the market in the most thoroughly deflated condition since the loan figures were first tabulated in 1926.

There was nothing in the day's news to account for the selling in today's market but in view of the approaching two day holiday and the fact that prices had been rallying for three days, a nominal setback in the trading favorites was regarded as natural. Professional traders are now centering their activities in making quick turns in the market rather than in accumulating large blocks of stock for investment. Brokers, however, report a steady investment demand for seasoned dividend paying issues, particularly in those industries which are likely to be least affected by any recession in business.

Regular Congress To Give Hoover a Chance at Mending

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—President Hoover hopes to reunite his sundered party in the Senate during the regular session of Congres, beginning December 2, on a new legislative program.

Prohibition and law enforcement probably will be the spearhead about whic hthe President will seek to collect the Republican forces and split the Democratic opposition in Congress.

On a program to reorganize the prohibition service under the department of justice, Republican chieftains see the oportunity to bring the Republican west and east together again and by the same stroke to divide the northern and souhrn Democras.

Hoover, beand HRD FWYYYYR However, before Mr. Hoover can get the regular session of Congrss to work on these new policies, the tariff bugaboo remains to be disposed of. The tariff controversy, along with the farm relief contest, has brought about the deepest schism in Republican ranks in the senate in years.

The tariff issue goes into the regular session. That means it goes into the approaching Congressional campaigns, in all probability. What effect it may have is a question demanding close consideration in Washington—in Congress and at the White House.

Immediate attention of both the Senate and the House in the regular session will be demanded by other problems. By previous agreemen, the Senate will take up the three-year-old controversy over the right of William S. Vare, Republican Senator-elect from Pennsylvania, to a senate seat.

The house will be busy until Christmas time on the appropriation bills.

Even after the Senate passes the tariff bill, weeks of controversy are in prospect between the Senate and house in an attempt to smooth the differences between the adminisration-dominated house and the Democratic-Republican independent controlled Senate.

In session already for a yer, the senate is beginning to weary of the grind, particularly with one-third of the membership up for re-election next year and anxious to get home. The prospect for keeping Congress at work longer than late spring seems, therefore, unlikely.

The regular sessiopn will see the same leaders in control as in the extra session. Speaker Longworth again will reign over the house and Vice-President Curtis will continue as presiding officer of the Senate.

Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, is expected back from a rest trip to take ove rthe helm of the majority party in the Senate, while Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader, will be guiding the minority.

Over in the House, Representative Tilson of Connecticut will take up the Republican floor leadership again and Representative Garner of Texas will go into action for the firsttime in a regular session as the Democratic pilot.

Illinois Jurist Gives New Ruling On the Dry Law

Peroia, Ill., Nov. 22.—(AP)—An act of Congress 139 years old was used by Federal Judge Louis Fitzhenry yesterday to decide that, under the Jones law, the buyer of liquor is a felony—unless he reports this knowledge of liquor sales to federal government.

This decision was contained in an opinion upholding the constitutionality of the Jones law.

The opinion pointed out a Congressional act of 1790 making a felon of any person who knows of a felony and does not report it to the proper authorities. The Jones law made a felony of the sale, transportation or possessing of intoxicating liquor.

Even a guest in a home where liquor is servel is held by Judge Fitzhenry to be equally guilty with the seller and subject to the same penalty if he neglects to inform authorities of the violation.

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—James J. Britt, chief counsel for the Prohibition Bureau, expressed the opinion today that the government would not take advantage of a decision of Federal Judge Fitzhenry in Peoria, Illinois, that any person who buys liquor and does not report it commits a felony.

$2,000,000 For School.

Washington—Most of the $2,000,000 estate of Judge Edwin B. Parker is left to create a school of diplomacy. The purpose is described in the will as "to teach high-minded young men of proven character and ability subjects calculated to equip them to render practical service of a high order to the United States Government in its foreign relations." An unnamed local university is to be endowed for a graduate school. Judge Parker was a member of the mixed claims commission.

THE NEW SUPER-AUTOMATIC KELVINATOR

With Ice-O-Thermic Tubes . . . Introducing Amazing New Advantages in Balanced Electric Refrigeration

On display Saturday

TODAY, with the announcement of the new Super-Automatic Kelvinator, electric refrigeration enters a new and wider sphere of usefulness for thousands of home-makers the world over.

If you, for one, have sought an electric refrigerator that completely divorces from your mind all worry as to the proper care of food, you will find your highest expectations realized in this new Kelvinator.

Nothing to Regulate—100% Automatic

Kelvinator, never deviating from its path of making electric refrigeration even more trouble-free, more convenient and more economical, has designed its newest product to be 100% automatic in operation.

There is nothing to regulate—whether you want speedy freezing of ice cubes and desserts or delicate foods kept at their palatable best for hours and days at a time.

Ice-O-Thermic Tubes—A Startling Advance In Electric Refrigeration

A new Kelvinator discovery—Ice-O-Thermic Tubes—makes possible far faster freezing of ice cubes. For example, the mere placing of a tray of water in a special ice compartment concentrates intense freezing power in this direction. Ice is ready in a remarkably short time. Desserts in a correspondingly brief period. Yet food compartments remain always at the same safe temperature—between 40 and 50 degrees—neither too warm nor too cold.

Not content with bringing you the finest automatic care of food and far faster freezing of ice cubes, Kelvinator surrounds this more efficient service with fresh beauty and sterling quality in cabinet construction.

New Metal Cabinets—Will Last a Life-time

Each new Kelvinator—and they are priced as low as $185, f. o. b. Detroit—is of rugged metal construction, porcelain-lined throughout to permit easy cleaning. Massive chromium-plated hardware in dull finish adds both to the attractive appearance and durability of these models. Larger models are equipped with separate cold storage chambers and are electrically lighted.

To know how much more value your refrigerating dollar now commands, see the new Super-Automatic Kelvinators on display at our showrooms. You will be surprised to learn how easily you may enjoy Kelvinator's many new conveniences immediately under the Kelvinator ReDisCo monthly budget plan.

as low as $185 F. O. B. Detroit

Features Which Place Kelvinator Years Ahead in Modern Refrigeration —

1. Ice-O-Thermic Tubes giving new fast freezing of ice cubes and desserts. Fully automatic—no regulation needed.
2. Balanced Refrigeration—separate temperatures for food preservation, cold storage and ice freezing.
3. The Cold-Keeper—Holds cold over longer periods—thus reducing operating periods of mechanical unit.
4. Greater Economy—Less current consumed, because of infrequent starting and stopping.
5. Abundant Ice Supply—Capacities up to 35 pounds of ice at a single freezing. New flexible rubber ice tray.
6. New Metal Cabinets, Porcelain-Lined—Will last a life-time without deterioration. Larger models electrically lighted.
7. Generously Powered—Each Super-Automatic Kelvinator shows; 100% over-load capacity under test in room with 100 degree temperature.

Farmers Sell Your TOBACCO IN GREENVILLE

Sales continue heavy with prices holding up well. Last week nearly four million pounds were sold for an average price of $21.23 per hundred.

We are selling tobacco daily from practically every county in Eastern Carolina and the farmers say it is paying them to sell in Greenville, even though some of them travel at least 125 miles.

Those in position to absolutely know, say we are highest market and have keener buying competition than any market in the East.

Since Last Season—

Three of the warehouses have made large additions, which gives the market increased floor space of about two acres. Some of the factories have made enlargements to their buildings, installing additional redrying facilities and other equipment. The Greenville tobacco market is decidedly in better position to handle, daily, larger quantities of tobacco than ever before.

Tobacco Warehouses—

Greenville tobacco market has nine (9) large and modern brick warehouses with close to 14 acres floor space, suffiicient to accommodate 2,225,000 lbs. of tobacco daily. These warehouses are managed by men of years of experience..

Buyers and Factories—

Greenville tobacco market has four (4) sets of buyers, representing all the important companies in the world, using bright tobacco. Nine (9) larger and modern tobacco factories are located here, additions having been made to several of them since last season, while one new plant has been built.

Roads and Locations—

Greenville tobacco market is located in the heart of Eastern North Carolinaa. Seven fine hard surfaced roads lead into Greenville. Tobacco growers living 125 miles from Greenville tobacco market sell their tobacco in Greenville and return home same day.

Goldsboro, Nov. 2[illegible].—(AP)—Judgment for $90,000 is asked against the directors of the defunct Farmers and Merchants Bank of Mount Olive and the Citizens Bank of Mount Olive in a civil action instituted today in Wayne County Superior court by A. S. Grady, receiver for the failed bank.

Individuals named in the suit are S. L. Warren, J. W. Wilkins, C. H Knowles, W. F. Martin, W. H. Kornegay, E. B. Sutton, Perry O'Berry and Mattie M. Williams, executrix of the estate of G. W. Williams. All of these parties were members of the board of directors of the bank

The action alleges negligence in the management of the bank's affairs and seeks judgment for $50,000, the amount of the capitalization of the state institution and $40,000 alleged to be the maunt of loss over and above the capitalization figure which was suffered by tsockholders and depositors.

It is alleged in the complaint that the directors made loans knowing that the parties to whom the loans were made were insolvent. An alleged list of some 100 such loans, ranging from $15.50 to $7,500 is included in the complaint filed.

The Citizens Bank of Mt. Olive is made a party to the action in that this bank took over the task of liquidating the failed bank after directors of the institution which had closed its doors signed an agreement to protect the citizens against loss.

N. C. Republicans Plan Attack On Brownlow Jackson

Raleigh, Nov. 2[illegible].—(AP)—The Raleigh News and Observer said today that Brownlow Jackson, United States marshall and chairman of the State Republican executive committee, is the center of an attack bein planned to be made before President Hoover by North Carolina Republicans friends of three present office holders who were not nominated again for their jobs at the recent executive committee at Greensboro.

Those planning the attack, refusing to talk for publication, have collected data which they intimate will prove that Mr. Jackson has violated the instructions of the department of justice to United States Attorneys, marshals, clerks and commissioners.

The instructions, contained in the handbook of the department of justice, among other stipulations sat forth "that no presidential appointee or other unclassified employ of the department will hereafter be permitted to hold a position as a member of any political committee which solicits funds; to act as chairman of a political convention; to assume the active conduct of a political campaign.

The attack is apparently to hinge o nthe fact that Mr. Jackson has served as chairman of the State Republican executive committee for nearly five years and in 1926 and 1928 in his capacity as chairman presided at conventions of his party and also that he actively conducted the campaign in the State in those two years.

The friends of the three Republican office holders who were not named again, the trio being Irvin B. Tucker, United States Attorney; R. W. Ward, marshal; and A. L. McAskill, collecter of the Port at Wilmington, say that Mr. Tucker and others promptly resigned from the committee in 1921 when appointed to office.

Seventeen Opinions Handed Down By N. C. Supreme Court

Raleigh, Nov. 2.—(AP) — The North Carolina Supreme court, in 17 opinions handed down yesterday, laid down in several of them the principle that the individual circumstances govern the liability of an automobile owner for an accident due to the negligence of an employe, different opinions containing opposite conclusions.

In the High Point city council election case, involving the contest of the election of W. A. Davis, the Supreme court held that though the charter of the City of High Point provides that the council shall be the judge of qualifications and elections of members this legislative enactment did not take the original jurisdiction from the Superior court nor did it require the action to be instituted in city council. The case was before the court on appeal of defendant from an order of Judge Hoyle Sink overruling a demurrer. The order was upheld.

In two opinions the City of Fayetteville was upheld in its right to carry on the business of supplying electric current nine miles outside of the city limits and the Carolina Power and Light Company was upheld in its refusal to supply an individual or Company, the Holmes Electric Company, its power to be used entirely for the purpose of redistribution for profit.

Smile at Disaster

New York—The most impressive spectacle America has had to offer to Edgar Wallace, English writer of mystery stories, is the way men and women came up smiling tho ruined in Wall street. "I never have seen disaster faced with such courage and good humor; never heard fewer squawks."
