

YOUNG JUDGE MUST DECIDE BLEASE CASE

Justice Gordon Must Act in Blease's Refusal to Appear Before Grand Jury

Washington, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Before Justice Peyton Gordon, youngest member of the District of Columbia supreme bench, today was the puzzling question of what to do about Senator Cole L. Blease, of South Carolina, a Democrat, who has refused to answer a subpoena to appear before the grand jury to tell what he knows of information given him about the death of Arthur S. Sweeney, a Washington detective, three years ago.

Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, also refused to answer a grand jury subpoena but his case was slightly different inasmuch as he wrote a letter to District Attorney R. W. Sappington, who gave him the information about the Sweeney case.

Justice Gordon's alternatives in the case of Blease were the subject of discussion today in legal and congressional circles. He could respect Blease's constitutional immunity or, as some suggested, he might issue an order compelling the senator in contempt of court.

The latter course, however, was "tried" in several quarters where it was said a senator was charged with an arrest, save on felony charges, while attending sessions of Congress or on his way to and from Congress.

Blease said he did not think the judge would be "so foolish" as to issue a contempt order, asserting the judge would be liable to imprisonment if he did.

Gordon has not indicated what his decision would be but if he should decide to issue the contempt order he might have for his precedent an order in 1867 by Justice Chase of the United States Supreme Court.

Every man charged with an offense to secure the attendance of witnesses.

"I do not know" the ruling continued, "of any privilege to exempt members of Congress from the service of the obligations in such cases."

The opinion was handed down during an action brought against a man on the charge of libeling the President of the United States.

Sweeney's death was held to be suicide after a police investigation but since then reports have been circulated that he was slain. The new investigation into his death began soon after the end of lengthy inquiry.

The death of Mrs. Virginia McPherson, a nurse, found strangled in her apartment. Her husband Robert A. McPherson, Jr. was indicted on a charge of murder but the indictment was found faulty and a second grand jury did not indict him.

Blease asserted he did not wish to appear before the present grand jury which he criticized for its failure to indict McPherson but that he would, if called by another grand jury, testify.

Blease reiterated today that he did not intend to go before the jury, but Heflin said he would appear if the district attorney again requested his presence.

City Aldermen Lift Ban On Public Dances During Christmas Holiday Season

The ban on public dances which has held sway here over a period of three years or more, was lifted temporarily last night when the Board of Aldermen in regular monthly session permitted two dances to be held during the Christmas holiday season. Dances previously had been made prohibitory by a tax of $1,000, but the Aldermen in a more generous mood than usually, reduced the tax to $50.00 per dance and told the boys to "go to it," but with a warning that the dances must be conducted in an orderly manner.

The dance question, which had been severely buried away for many months, was resurrected by a request from J. B. Kittrell, representing the Pitt County Post of the American Legion, that the organization be permitted to stage a "Charity Ball," on December 20th, for the purpose of raising funds for the poor people of the community.

Mr. Kittrell stated that the proceeds from the dance would be turned over to the Merchants Association and the Welfare Department to be devoted to the Christmas Cheer fund. He declared that the dance would be conducted strictly under the supervision of the Legion and that it would be kept clean and free from disorder.

The board decided to let the dance be held free of tax in that it was a purely charitable affair and looking to the relief of the countless numbers of poor people of the section.

Moreover, however, had this decision been rendered than Bernard Gardner asked permission to conduct a subscription dance on Christmas day. The request prolonged discussion, but the Aldermen decided to cut the tax to $50.00 during the holidays and told Gardner to "go to it." The matter of lifting the prohibitory tax entirely came up for discussion, but this was considered indiscreet and the matter was left as it was.

The board again received a warning from J. H. Waldrop, chairman of the finance committee, that they must remain within the limits of the budget carefully prepared by the finance committee several months ago. The admonition followed a decision to purchase 250 feet of small hose for the fire department, and brought the Aldermen face to face with the fact that the city finances were in such condition that they must stay within the budget or be forced to borrow from the banks from time to time to keep the financial ark afloat.

Mr. Waldrop described the shortage of funds, and said that for the first time in fifteen years the city had been forced to borrow $15,000 for running expenses. He urged them to hew to the budget line the remainder of the year and if business conditions were more favorable in the future, to provide for the needs in the next budget.

The board authorized the finance committee to borrow $5,000 for the general fund to meet expenses up to next May, but there was some question as to whether this would be necessary. It all depended on the condition of the city's coffers from time to time, but the authorization was given to meet any emergency.

Alderman Brown brought up the question of the need of more hose for the fire department. He said the small hose was needed for inside fire-fighting, declaring that this would have a tendency of greatly reducing loss from water damage. He also stressed the need of 500 feet of regular hose in order to give all fire trucks enough hose for any emergency. The argument of Alderman Waldrop concerning the financial state of affairs, caused the board to authorize only the purchase of the small hose, and that on terms.

Mayor Lanier explained to the board that he was arranging for the settlement of an account which the Norfolk & Southern railroad had owed the city over a period of several years as result of improvements to the tracks crossing Dickinson avenue. The total amount of the bill was given at approximately $600, and the mayor stated that compromise proceedings were under way.

Alderman Waldrop reported that investigation of a paving bill against J. E. Winslow, indicated that Mr. Winslow had settled the bill when due, and that due to some confusion in the report of the paving contractor, he had not been given credit on the city's books. The matter was ordered closed.

Chief Pierce asked the board to place commodes in the city jail in place of increasing the sanitation of the establishment. In this connection, Mayor Lanier told of the need of improvement of the heating system of the city hall, and both matters were referred to a committee for action. The committee was composed of Aldermen Harvey, Hollingsworth, Boyd and Smith.

Alderman Boyd stated that the Free Will Baptist church had asked to be relieved of curbing and gutter tax. The matter was approved.

Alderman Boyd was empowered to rent several acres of farm land, a part of the cemetery property, for $175 a year or more. There were two offers presented for the property last night, but the board decided to leave the matter in charge of the chairman of the cemetery committee.

Mayor Lanier explained that suit had been filed against approximately two hundred city tax payers in an effort to collect back taxes on various properties. He said he was making progress in collection of paving contracts and hoped to be able to swell treasury funds considerably within the next several weeks.

MORE SUITS AGAINST PITT TAXPAYERS

Fifty Additional Suits Filed in Pitt Superior Court for Delinquent Taxes

Members of the Board of County Commissioners have filed suit against fifty additional delinquent tax payers of Pitt county, bringing the grand total of such suits to approximately five hundred, it became known today.

Notices of publication of the suits are carried in the columns of the Daily Reflector today. Notices of over four hundred suits have already been carried in this column of county papers, and the defendants in other ways have been given formal notice of the pending legal action against them.

All of the suits involved non-payment of taxes on various properties throughout the county, and have already resulted in the payment of several tax bills.

The action is the result of legislation passed at the last session of the State Legislature, which holds the commissioners of the various towns and counties responsible for failure to meet the requirements of the law.

Several counties in this immediate section of the State have taken similar action. In some counties more suits were filed than in Pitt, while in others the number was not quite so large. But in either case, the matter is put squarely up to the tax payer, and he must either make settlement of his taxes or have his property turned over to the county through regular court channels.

Publication of the notices has produced much interest in all sections of the State, and there has been a general rush for sheriff's offices as taxpayers attempt to make provision for the settlement of delinquent taxes.

SAYS REVOLT WAS AIMED AT NANKING

Military Leader Gives Facts in Connection With Recent Uprising in China

Nanking, Dec. 6.—(AP)—All doubts that the military uprising which began last Tuesday with the mutiny at Pukow was aimed against the Nationalist government were dispelled this morning when General Shih Yu-Shan, commander of the revolting division, issued a circular telegram from Pengpu explaining the purpose of the revolt.

General Shih stated that the revolt was aimed directly at Nanking. Recalling his former alliance with the Kuomintang or "People's Army" which recently abandoned its attack on the Nationalists in Honan and Hupeh provinces, Shih said:

"One year ago I made an alliance with Nanking, due to a desire to see a peaceful country, however, during the past two years corruption within the Nationalist government has been found shocking. Nanking has made no attempt for the relief of the suffering masses."

General Shih denounced the Nationalist government's foreign policy, saying its foreign ministry's unbecoming behavior had resulted in the "people's" failures.

He called attention to the recent Kuomintang activities in Honan and Hupeh and also the present uprising in Kwangtung province, saying there were "unmistakable examples of the people's dissatisfaction with Nanking."

The rebelling general asserted that his purpose is to rebel against Nanking, holding his troops ready for any move which the general public may advocate.

Mukden Approves First Plans For Settlement Of Railway Situation

Mukden, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Mukden political council today dispatched a message to Moscow approving the preliminary agreement reached between Chinese and Russian delegates for the settlement of the Chinese Eastern Railway situation.

After prolonged discussion over the preliminary agreement, which was negotiated by representatives of Russia and China at Nikolai-Ussuriysky, Siberia, December 3, the Mukden council, to which the Chinese delegates reported after their initial meeting with the Soviet delegate, decided to withdraw its objection to one of the Russian demands.

Accordingly the council decided to no longer oppose Moscow's insistence upon the reemployment of Esmentoff and Elmont, respectively former manager and assistant manager of the railway in other capacities. In the conversations at Nikolai-Ussuriysky the Chinese delegates had refused to grant this concession and referred the matter to the Mukden council upon their return here.

The Chinese council conceded this point in view of the Soviet delegates' promise that the Sino-Russian agreement of 1924 under which the railway was being operated prior to its being taken over by the Chinese last summer, would be fulfilled. This agreement binds Russia not to carry on propaganda work in the railway area.

It was reported that the president of the Chinese Eastern had resigned, thus making possible the appointment of the Nikolai-Ussuriysky arrangement for a new president.

Ten Yun-Sheng, Chinese commissioner of foreign affairs at Nanking, was appointed as delegate to represent Mukden in further discussions of the situation with Russian representatives.

Tokyo, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Advice received here today stated that the administration of the Chinese Eastern railway had informally announced that Lu Jung-Huan, chairman of the board of directors of the railway, and Chang Ching-Hui, governor of Harbin, have been relieved of their posts in accordance with the protocol signed by representatives of Russia and China at Nikolai-Ussuriysky on Tuesday.

Despite the fact that he suffered a fractured vertebra in an automobile wreck on the Grifton-Kinston highway last Tuesday night, the cessation of Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Grifton, member of the Board of County Commissioners of Pitt county, was described as more favorable today.

Two medical experts were called from Richmond yesterday, and following their examination it was stated that while seriously hurt, Dr. Dawson stood a good chance of recovery.

Raleigh, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Gov. O. Max Gardner today announced court assignments for special judges for the first three months of 1930.

Special Judges G. Vernon Cowper of Johnston and Thomas S. Johnson of Lumberton will hold special terms in Wake county.

Judge Cowper will hold a one week's civil term starting January 13; and Judge Johnson will hold court for civil cases starting February 17 for one week.

Judge Cowper will also be in Lee county for two weeks starting January 27; then Wake county for two weeks beginning March 3; in Craven county for one week beginning January 6; in Person county for one week opening January 20; and in Beaufort for one week beginning February 17. The terms, except for a criminal session in Craven and a mixed session in Person will all be for civil suits.

Judge Johnson will start two weeks of civil court in Pitt county January 13; and will hold other civil terms as follows: Wake, two weeks, starting February 17; Buncombe two weeks, starting February 3; Buncombe, two weeks starting March 3; and a criminal session in Davidson county starting January 6.

Judge Clayton Moore will hold one week of civil court in Chatham county starting March 3; and civil terms of three weeks and two weeks respectively in Craven and Guilford counties starting January 27 and February 17, respectively.

Judge John H. Harwood will be in Graham county for two weeks of civil court beginning January 20; in Lincoln county for one week of mixed court beginning January 20; for one week of criminal in Guilford beginning January 27; for two weeks of civil in Macon beginning February 3; and for two weeks of mixed in Forsyth February 14.

FUNDS FOR THE POOR CONTINUE TO TRICKLE IN

Five Poor Families on Opportunity List Taken; Other Case Reported Today

Cash contributions to the Merchants Association's campaign to carry over into the homes of the poor people of the community, today had reached the $23.00 mark, according to a report issued from the office of the secretary at the noon hour.

The report indicated that a considerable amount of clothing had been contributed by a citizens responding to the plea for second hand clothing to provide for numbers of ragged children coming under supervision of the Association and the Welfare Department, who have charged of the campaign.

The report also showed that four of the twenty-five "opportunities" listed in the columns of the Reflector Wednesday had been taken by different organizations and individuals with the prospect that numbers of others would be applied for before the week is over.

The Association also presented an additional opportunity list containing twelve destitute families seriously in need of clothing. Some of these cases are widowed mothers with several tiny children dependent upon them for support. Other cases are just as bad and go to show how serious is the situation prevailing among the poor element at this time.

Members of the committees of both organizations said that scores of more cases were at this time being investigated and approved, and that additional lists would be made public from time to time. The Merchants Association and Welfare Department are using every resource at their command to provide for these cases, and it is hoped that the campaign is being carried into every home when the campaign is concluded Christmas Eve night.

The public is urged to watch the large barometer in front of the Merchants Association office on Evans street from day to day so that they may keep informed regarding the progress of the campaign.

Situation in Haiti Said to Be Serious

Washington, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The situation in Haiti which led to a proclamation of martial law was described today by Secretary Stimson as being "regarded as exceedingly serious" because of popular excitement and danger of outbreaks by "irresponsible elements."

Anxiety arose at the important coffee port of Aux Cayes where there are 25 Americans yesterday morning, a formal statement by the secretary said.

The high commissioner of Haiti, Brig. Gen. John H. O. Russell, has expressed fear that a similar serious situation may break out at other ports.

The serious view of the State Department head was reflected in other quarters in the city.

While nothing was forthcoming from the White House, it became known that full information on conditions in the West Indian island were asked from all available sources by President Hoover. There were indications also that some specific information on the White House view might be made public later in the day.

Gave Away Money and Got It Back

Joliet, Ill., Dec. 6.—(AP)—George Weyer started out Tuesday to be a philanthropist and wound up with his money all back in the bank.

He went to the bank Tuesday and asked how much his balance was. They told him it was $17,000 plus.

"Too much money to be lying around," decided Weyer, so he drew out $10,000.

He moved on down the street. He came to the Guardian Angel Home and entered.

"Here's $2,000 for your excellent institution," said Weyer. "But, tut, tut don't try to dissuade me. I've got money, a good job and no one to support."

The next stop was at the Providence High school where he gave the sisters in charge $7,200. Later he dropped into the Salvation Army and gave away the rest of the money.

"Money irks me terribly," he explained.

Yesterday, however, was another day. He went to the police station and told everything.

"We've been waiting for you," the police said. "The people you gave the money to have been calling you. It looked fishy to them."

"Oh that part's all right," said Weyer. "It isn't the money itself, but I got to thinking that if the money had stayed in the bank it would have earned interest. If they had, they really want me to have it back, who am I to hurt their feelings?"

Today the money's in the bank—Weyer's bank.

Senate Again Refuses To Seat William Vare; Wilson Is Also Denied

Washington, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The floor of the Senate was closed tightly and definitely today against William W. Vare, a 37-year-old Pennsylvania Republican, who sought a seat in the United States Senate.

By a vote of 58 to 22 it was decided that the $785,000 expenditure of the Philadelphia in the primary election of 1926 and the charges of fraud and corruption in that contest barred him from taking the seat to which he had been certified as elected.

But, a few minutes later, the effort of William B. Wilson, Vare's Democratic opponent, to obtain the place, was thwarted. The Senate approved a resolution by Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, based on the report of its elections committee that the former secretary of labor in the Wilson cabinet had not been elected.

The end of the Vare controversy, which has occupied the Senate for three years, left the question of a new senator from the Keystone state in the hands of Governor Fisher. He is a Republican and his appointment of a man for the place will not change the complexion of the state's representation, but it will give the state two votes where it had only one—that of Senator David A. Reed—while the contest was going on.

The decision against Wilson was 65 to 15. He had labored here and in Pennsylvania for months after month in conducting his contest for the Vare seat.

Vare, still disabled from an illness which almost cost him his life, was in the seat which he had fought for when the vote on his right to occupy it was taken. His physician was nearby.

Looking on from the members' gallery were Mrs. Vare and two daughters. Directly opposite them, in another part of the gallery sat William B. Wilson who listened to the recording of the vote which marked his defeat in a long fight. There was a tense atmosphere in the large crowd which had gathered to witness the end of the bitterly fought case.

Vare, who had come to Washington to enter a personal device as to his campaign activities and expenses, had a smile on his face as he entered the Senate chamber, where he knew he was to be found as not eligible. He walked with difficulty and used a cane.

In voting that Vare should not be seated the Senate adopted a resolution offered by Senator Norris, the Nebraska Republican Independent, who campaigned for Wil-

Assign Work For Superior Court Judges

Raleigh, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Gov. O. Max Gardner today announced court assignments for special judges for the first three months of 1930.

Durham Negro Sentenced to the Electric Chair Durham, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Nathan Blake, 24-year-old negro of Patterson township, was found guilty in a jury verdict today of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Will Hill and was sentenced by Judge E. H. Canner of Sentham to die in the electric chair January 6.

The jury, after deliberating about 30 minutes, returned a verdict of guilty of first degree murder with a recommendation of mercy.

Although plans had not been completely worked out for the ball, it was stated that it would be one of the most colorful spectacles held here in years. Preparations will be conducted upon an elaborate scale, and nothing will be left undone in an effort to attract as many people as possible.

In their decision to hold the ball, the Legionnaires were prompted by the desire to render outstanding aid to the raising of funds for the community pool. It is noted that the burden upon the poor is worsened by the ever before and after all organizations are assisting the Merchants Association and the Welfare Department in carrying on the destitute people.

Members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion will stage a "Charity Ball" here on the night of December 20th in connection with the campaign of the Merchants Association and the County Welfare department to raise funds for carrying relief to the poor people of the community during the Christmas holiday season. The entire proceeds of the dance will be devoted to the fund for the poor.

The decision to hold the ball was reached at a meeting of the executive committee of the Legion last night, and members immediately appeared before the Board of Aldermen to ask permission to carry out their plans. The Board not only gave the desired permission, but said the dance might be conducted free of all tax in that it was for charitable purposes.

Where the dance will be held had not been decided upon today, but members of the Legion committee were working out plans in this connection and said they hoped to be able to report within the next few days. The ball will be the only one of the kind ever before conducted in the city and is expected to attract the attention of hundreds of people in that it is staged solely for the purpose of raising funds for the poor.

Admission will be charged both dancers and spectators in order to swell the fund as much as possible, and it is believed spectators will outnumber dancers two to one, although it is hoped the floors will be crowded with dancers.

Two Mexican Politicians In United States

Houston, Tex., Dec. 6.—(AP)—Mexico's two leading candidates in the recent presidential election—the loser and the winner—both were on this side of the Rio Grande today, the winner en route to Hot Springs, Ark., the loser motoring to "points east" of El Paso.

Pascual Ortiz Rubio, revolutionary party candidate who polled the largest majority ever accorded a presidential candidate in his homeland, was on a special car which left Houston at 11:30 o'clock last night.

Jose Vasconcelos, defeated candidate of the anti-re-electionist party, passed through El Paso Wednesday, his coming known only to a few intimates who withheld the news until today. With friends there he left word for the people of Mexico—that he would not return until "called there by armed forces to avenge the outrageous treatment of my followers at the polls."

It was claimed by the anti-re-electionists that the revolutionary party took possession of polling places denying the Vasconcelistas the ballot.

"No more revolutions," has been the theme of the president-elect and his party during the stay in Texas. It was reaffirmed at a luncheon dinner in Houston at which General Perez Trevino acted as the president's spokesman.

Tennessee Man Held On Murder Charge

Union City, Tenn., Dec. 6.—(AP)—The fatal wounding of Lexie S. Parks, 63-year-old invalid, as he rode through the city's crowded downtown business district last Saturday and conflicting stories told by the capitalist's chauffeur, Jack Pugh, today gave authorities a complex problem to unravel.

Sheriff Jack Hubbs said Pugh, a young man of 24, now in jail, would be formally charged with murder. Parks died yesterday.

"I am shielding someone in a way," Pugh has told officers adding that if he talked a "scandal" would be created.

Returning from his Saturday ride a cook saw Parks wounded when Pugh removed his coat. Pugh said it was the first time he had known of the wound. Parks was unable to talk. Pugh was arrested.

Pugh changed his story Sunday and said a man leaped on the running board of the automobile as they passed a corner, shoved a pistol into the car, fired and disappeared into the crowd of shoppers, police could find no one who had heard the shot or seen the supposed assailant jump on the running board although many had seen the coupe pass the corner mentioned.

With Parks regained his speech he related the same story his chauffeur had told.

Monday Pugh said "the shot was intended for me—for a reason, but I won't tell you who fired it."

On Tuesday he whispered to an officer the name of a man he charged with the shooting. The investigator would not tell the accused man's name but said the man was one of Parks' best friends and that Pugh's story was foolish.

Sheriff Hubbs said he had learned that on Saturday Pugh, with Parks in the car, stopped at his rooming house, went to his landlady and got his pistol he had left in her care. The landlady, said the gun was empty.

Parks is survived by his wife, also an invalid, three daughters and a son who is cashier in a bank here.

SAYS NATION SHOULD HOLD TO YOUNG PLAN

Berlin, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Dr. Halmar Schacht, president of the Reichs Bank, believes European "politicians are trying to spin what economists carefully construct," and that the nations concerned should get back to the Young plan as a basis for current financial arrangements.

In a formal protest issued over his signature the Reichs Bank head, who was principal German delegate at the Paris Young plan conference, complained the creditor states were trying to get more from Germany than had been specified in the Young plan, which, he said, all present at Paris were agreed capacity to pay.

Supreme Court To Meet Tuesday

Raleigh, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The North Carolina supreme court will hold its last session of the fall term for hearing arguments next Tuesday when 27 cases from the 23rd judicial district are docketed, but only 20 will be argued as one has been decided.

The state's highest tribunal will continue through December and part of January to hand down opinions but the fall term will be adjourned about the middle of January.

The examination for applicants for the bar examination will be held January 27 and the spring term of the court will convene February 4.

Notice of intention to take the bar examination will have to be in the hands of Edward Sewell, clerk of the Supreme Court, by noon December 15, he said today. Mr. Sewell emphasized that this did not mean in the mails by that time but in the supreme court clerk's office in Raleigh at that hour.

Trial of Deputy Sheriffs Delayed

Burnsville, N. C., Dec. 6.—(AP)—Because of inability of A. Hall Johnston, of Asheville, special prosecutor, to be present on Monday, the trial of eight McDowell county sheriff's deputies on charges of "murder arising from the slaying of six textile strikers at Marion on October 2" will be delayed until Tuesday. The trial was originally set to begin Monday when Judge G. C. Cowper, who will preside, granted a change of venue from Marion to Burnsville.

ANTI-BET AGITATION DIES AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans.—Horses, jockeys, rainers and all the racetrack anglers-on have started their trek in New Orleans for the hundred days racing opening at Jefferson Park.

And with the advent of the season the anti-betting agitation seems to have died on its feet and the promoters look for an uninterrupted meet.

More than a thousand horses are expected to be stabled at the track first at Jefferson Park, then the fair grounds and back to Jefferson Park for the close.

The card carries seven races daily for the meet at Jefferson. New Year's racing moves to the fair grounds for the month of January and back to Jefferson in March.

HOME GROCERY STORES WILL OPEN BRANCH IN FARMVILLE TOMORROW

The Home Grocery Stores, which has already gained recognition as the most popular chain grocery in Greenville, are continuing their expansion program and are branching out into other cities. Over a period of but a few months the firm has established five stores in this city, all of which are enjoying splendid patronage. Tomorrow they will open their sixth unit in Farmville, which is the first to be established out of Greenville. This new place is located on Main street of that city and opposite Bell's Warehouse, and will be conducted under the same system as the other stores which cannot be excelled by any other chain grocery operating in this part of the state.

Other than being prepared to serve the grocery trade with the most select and high class of various grocery items, the Farmville store has, like a majority of their other stores, installed a modernly equipped sanitary meat market and will carry a complete line of all kinds of choice meats found only in up-to-date markets.

File Suit For Estate of Late Mrs. Wiggins

Raleigh, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The Lora Wiggins estate, a Gasconia of the manville-Millers company, the Myers mills Inc., there and the Gastonia Gazette, many with several, individuals in a suit or damages which J. Frank Flowers, of Charlotte, as attorney plans to bring on behalf of the estate of Mrs. Ella May Wiggins, Besemer City textile striker who was slain near Gastonia on September 14.

Revealing his plans while on a trip here, Mr. Flowers said he would file summons in the suit tomorrow and ask an order allowing him 20 days in which to file complaint. He said the suit would be for $50,000—more possibly for $100,000. Mrs. Wiggins was slain when a mob attacked a group of Besemer City members of the National Textile workers union near Gastonia, Va. Allegations will be made in writing the newspaper and the two mills a defendant in the suit were not revealed by Mr. Flowers.

COURT MARTIAL MEMBERS NAMED FOR NORTHCUIT

Bremerton, Wash., Dec. 6.—(AP)—Members of the court martial who will hear the military trial of Lieut. Harold W. Northcutt, who disappeared from his post at Norfolk, Va., and was arrested in Seattle more than a month ago have been named by Rear Admiral H. J. Ziegemeier, commandant of the Bremerton Navy Yard, where Northcutt is held. Although no charges have been filed against Northcutt it was believed at the navy yard he would be charged with desertion and leaving the United States without permission.

Mountaineer Held for Murder Today At Morganton, N. C.

Morganton, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Gub Mitchell, mountaineer, was held today by Burke county officers, being charged with the murder of Herman Mull, his kinsman, at 3 o'clock this morning at Mitchell's home at the "Laurel," mountainous section of Burke county. Meager reports as to the shooting had it that Mull was slain when he censured Mitchell for beating an old man, Joe Mitchell, another winnman. Blockade liquor was blamed for the slaying. Mitchell was arrested by Sheriff Ballenger this morning about 15 miles from Morganton in a mountain home. He was the sheriff said in a drunken stupor. Sid Mitchell, his brother, is held on suspicion that he aided the man's escape. A coroner's jury today decided that Mull came to his death by a pistol wound in the hands of Gub Mitchell.

Bandits Fail in China

Shanghai, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Four armed men today tried to hold up the Compradore of the Hongkong Shanghai Bank in the heart of the international settlement. While his body guard was making a run making some purchases the bandits forced the chauffeur to alight, but the body guard returning opened fire on them from the shop. The bandits fled firing, one of their bullets wounding the Compradore who is in a critical condition. Three of them escaped but Chinese policemen shot the fourth dead.

HELD FOR INVESTIGATION IN SHOOTING AFFAIR

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 6.—(AP)—James Davis, who said he fired five shots to prevent a masked bandit from making away with several hundred dollars at stake in a hotel room dice game, was held in jail today pending the completion of a coroner's investigation into the fatal wounding of A. M. Searcy, socially prominent real estate office secretary.

Davis told Coroner J. D. Russum, a man, who police said was identified as Searcy, invaded the room last night, lined the players up at the point of a pistol and seized the money. Davis said he gave chase because most of the money was his and upon overtaking the man as he fled through a window opened fire with a gun he had obtained from his overcoat.

What Congress Is Doing

Friday Senate: Continues debate on Vare resolution with vote at noon. Interstate Commerce committee takes up bill to continue Federal Radio Commission indefinitely. Public lands committee holds a hearing on Mexican land grants. House: Consideration of Interior Department annual supply bill begins. Hearing begins on Hawley bill to ratify agreement between United States and France on four billion dollar war debt.

Thursday Senate: Debate Vare resolution and agree to vote at noon Friday. Bill to ratify French war debt settlement was favorably reported by Senate finance committee. SALVATION ARMY BEGINS CHARITY DRIVE

The public is asked to notice the Salvation Army kettle as it stands on the street. It is there for the purpose of collecting funds to bring cheer to the needy homes.

How dear to my heart is the old Christmas Kettle

That stands on the sidewalk its story to tell.

It tells of the poor, the helpless and hopeless

It tells of the many so willing to give

It tells of a people who lift up the fallen

It tells us once more of the spirit of Christmas

That Christ has been born in so many good hearts

While under the spell of this beautiful spirit

To Devil of Selfishness, baffled, departs

Reducing Christmas Fire Losses

With cold weather and the Christmas season upon us we again call attention to the dangers of fires at this season, and urge citizens to exercise extreme care in an effort to cut down fire losses this Christmas.

Members of the Merchants Association and the Welfare Department who have charge of the Christmas campaign for the poor people of the community say the need for clothing for small children is very acute, and have called upon the public to contribute freely to the relief of the situation.

That the plea should be heeded instantly cannot be questioned. These children are members of poverty-stricken families where parents are unable to work and care for them. It is one of the many situations confronting the community of each section of the country and it is to be hoped that the people will rally to the cause.

Cash donations to the Christmas fund yesterday reached the $18.00 mark. But from now on the importance of more in other districts far removed. They are home folks, people who live and have their being in your midst, and you should give to them just as freely as you would have them give to you were your situations reversed.

Think the matter over and send in a contribution to the Welfare Department or to the Merchants Association that will cause the mercury to bound upward in the big thermometer in front of the Merchants Association office.

Greenville people, and especially members of the library commission, will be delighted to learn that Mr. Harper D. Sheppard, donor of the Memorial Library to be erected in this city, is hearty in his approval of plans for the beautiful structure.

In a letter to members of the building committee, Mr. Sheppard said he had no idea the committee would be able to do so much with the $50,000 set aside for the structure, and commended them for the splendid effort which they put into the enterprise.

Mr. Sheppard also declared he thought the various departments of the library, as provided in the plans of the architect, should be able to meet the demands of the city. He expressed keen appreciation of the department set aside for the boys' activities, and the sections devoted to other community projects.

In other words, he thought the structure up-to-date in every sense of the word, and fully capable of taking care of the needs of the city for many years to come.

Greenville people are proud of the spirit that prompted Mr. Sheppard to give the library as a memorial to his father, a former county official, and feel sure the building will not only be a credit to the man it honors but to the city itself.

President Hoover has declared that the word "work" is the keynote to the future prosperity of the American people.

The thought seems to be a mighty good one, and no doubt would be filled with wonderful results should that great mass of idle men and women throughout the nation at this time be provided with lucrative jobs. The trouble with conditions at this time is not that the people need to work but the providing of work for them to do.

The President seems to have got tightening No. 17 bolt is deplored would not take a more interesting job at lower pay. The manufacturer who damns Ford for posing as an example accepts him in that attitude when he also turns to the study of standardized processes and possible wage increases. His policy in lay-offs is that which was all but universal a few years ago. As for unionizing his shops, that surely is a matter for the employees themselves to determine. Meanwhile in wages they are getting about all that unions could demand.

Withal, Mr. Ford is a most interesting human being, a welcome variant of the business-man type. All his doings, his shop methods, his rural fiddlers, his jig dancing, his interest in samplers and old candlesticks, his Wayside Inn and his amazing museum purchases are good copy for the press and of never-failing interest for readers. His action as a pioneer and exemplar of wage-raising will win him from a world of workers a ready forgiveness for some of his eccentricities.—N. Y. World.

Greenville people are proud of the spirit that prompted Mr. Sheppard to give the library as a memorial to his father, a former county official, and feel sure the building will not only be a credit to the man it honors but to the city itself.

President Hoover has declared that the word "work" is the keynote to the future prosperity of the American people.

The thought seems to be a mighty good one, and no doubt would be filled with wonderful results should that great mass of idle men and women throughout the nation at this time be provided with lucrative jobs. The trouble with conditions at this time is not that the people need to work but the providing of work for them to do.

The President seems to have got somehow in this direction through recent conferences. In fact, many of the big concerns of the country have outlined plans for extensive improvements during the coming year. They will affect a certain class of people in some parts of the country, but there will be others where there will be no change.

The President has made the right start, but he should see that these activities in the world of industry are not confined to any particular locality. It must be felt in every nook and crook of the country before a revival of prosperity is experienced.

The great farming regions of the southland will feel a little of the great programs outlined. The men of the agricultural districts must go without work until another growing season rolls around, and the same is true of thousands of other people depending upon farm activities for their support.

Employment must be more broadly distributed before the desired relief sought by the President is obtained, and a few more conferences might be necessary in order that the people of the South may feel the effect of this great movement for business improvement.

Gratifying indeed to note that the Red Cross Roll call this year was a greater success than any other campaign in the past three years. It shows the people of Pitt County are truly appreciative of the splendid work which the organization is accomplishing in behalf of humanity in different parts of the country.

And the beauty part about the campaign lies in the fact that part of the money paid in for membership stays at home to be spent for relief work right among our own people. It may be devoted in any purpose considered worthy by members of the local chapter, and that in itself is worthy of consideration.

In times of disaster and distress the Red Cross is always on the job, and this would be true of this section should we be victims of violence of the elements or some great catastrophe. This arm of mercy is always at the service of humanity and every dollar paid out for membership is spent in a wonderful cause.

National Business Clinic Will Be Established For Correcting Ills Of Trade

Washington, Dec. 6.—(AP)—A permanent national business clinic to diagnose and correct the ills of American trade when symptoms of depression become apparent is to be established within the next few days as the first direct result of President Hoover's widely attended general business conference.

It is to take the form of a committee composed of prominent business executives whose duty it will be to maintain a close and continuing watch over the trends of business in all its phases, quickly recognizing signs of retardation in any particular branch, give warning and recommend remedies.

To oversee the organization of this permanent council, forty men were selected from the many who attended yesterday's meeting and heard President Hoover sing out the "Good old word—work", as the key to business progress.

Most of the forty remained in Washington or will return after quick trips to their offices and under Barnes' direction the organization of the permanent council, the membership of which is not limited to those comprising the forty, will proceed.

Little work was planned for today, but tomorrow the project is to be advanced through a series of informal group conferences which will cover the field of available personnel and consider the question of organization.

Among those drafted by Barnes on this task were many of those who responded in the "roll call of industries" yesterday with statements on business prospects in their own fields of endeavor. These included R. H. Ashton of the association of railway executives, J. A. A. A. president of the United States corporation, President Louis B. Swift of Swift and company, Will H. Hayes, representing the motion picture industry, John G. Longsdale, president of the American Bankers association, and many others equally prominent.

The permanent committee is intended to be an important factor in President Hoover's plans for the American economic future.

Its establishment was suggested and approved at the chief executive's conference nearly two weeks ago with a group of outstanding industrialist and manufacturers.

Charlotte and Goldsboro Meet at Chapel Hill

Chapel Hill, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Charlotte high school's undefeated Wildcats, champions of the west, and the Goldsboro Earthquakes, eastern champions, clashed today for the high school championship of North Carolina.

The contest found Charlotte with two ailing backs, Funderburke and McMaheen, while Goldsboro's full strength was in the best of shape for the fray.

Teneriffe, Canary Island, Dec. 6.—The German seaplane Arado, six D-1594 arrived here from Seville today on an exploratory flight for establishment of an air service between German and South America.

SUNDOWN STORIES

The Air Circus
By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Certainly the Little Black Clock could turn the time way ahead when John and Peggy could go to a circus up in the air.

They started now for the big circus tent. Their plane took its turn in landing upon a special landing place under the huge circus tent. The circus tent was inside a very large dirigible, which reminded John and Peggy of pictures of a Zeppelin they had seen. But it was much, much larger. Not only was there a great tent inside it, but there was a smaller tent for the animals, and a tent where the circus performers sat and rested.

Attached to the under part of this huge dirigible was the landing platform, where the planes of those who had come to the circus were parked.

Standing outside the tent was a man dressed in bright red, urging all to come inside.

"Buy your tickets here, ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls. Right this way, to the big tent, where you will behold the marvels of this and every age—the finest trapeze performers, the greatest acrobats—the funniest of clowns.

"Step this way, ladies and gentlemen. This way, ladies and gentlemen. This way to the big tent."

John and Peggy and the Little Black Clock went along with the crowd. No one seemed to notice them. That was natural. Everyone was interested in the circus.

It didn't seem possible that they were way up in the air. Why, as Peggy said, it even had the clear, good old familiar smell of a regular circus!

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 1 to 6 points in response to steady Liverpool cables. There may have been a little lower private estimate of the crop. The demand, however, was limited and the market eased slightly after the early buying orders had been supplied. The selling was attributed chiefly to further liquidation in small lots and small southern selling on the reaction from 17.29 to 17.25 for January. The general market was quiet and about net unchanged to 1 points higher at the end of the first half hour. One private crop report published this morning estimated the crop at 14,826,000 bales and ginning to December 1st at 12,797,000. Another placed the crop at 14,704,000 and the ginning at 12,802,000. Members of the New York cotton exchange on the average expect a crop estimate of 14,900,000 bales, the highest individual estimate being 15,300,000 and the lowest 14,650,000. According to a canvass made here this morning.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Protracted strength in wheat values here developed during the late dealings today. Previous sellers turned generally to the buying side of the market owing to signs that a liberal sized export business is domestic winter wheat was going on.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-2 to 1-4 net higher; corn finished 1-2 to 3-4 advance; oats 1-8 off to 1-8 up, and provisions varying from 7c decline to an equal gain.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The unexpected four for one stock split-up by the General Electric Company, one of America's premier industrial corporations, turned the course of stock prices upward today after an early period of irregularity. With the exception of the tobacco, which were heavy on the announcement of cigarette price cuts all leading groups participated in the advance, the gains ranging from 1 to nearly 20 points.

General Electric, which sold as low as 168 1-8 in the November break, crossed 180 points on the announcement of the split-up and the proposed increase in dividend on the new stock. Other electrical issues rallied in sympathy, Westinghouse climbing 8 1-2 to 150 or 50 points above last month's low. Western Electrical Instrument advanced more than 3 points.

Amusement shares in which a large short interest developed, rallied briskly. Keith-Albee-Orpheum preferred jumped 8 1-2 points and Radio-Keith-Orpheum and Fix Film advanced 3 points or more. A flurry of buying also lifted several of the New York traction stocks up 2 to 3 points.

Allied Chemical was marked up 12 1-2 points, and Brooklyn Union Gas, Eastman Kodak, Erie Railroad common, American & Foreign Power, Columbia Carbon, Standard Gas & Electric, International Harvester early gains to 5 points or more, and Western Union extended by early afternoon.

Officers Seek Assailant of Roxboro Man

Durham, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Death of Lemuel Clayton in a hospital here last night from gunshot wounds received at his home in Roxboro last Monday caused Person county officers to redouble their efforts to locate the assailant, Charles Clayton. The two men are not related.

No trace of Charles Clayton has been found since he abandoned his automobile here Monday after the shooting. After driving from his home to Lemuel Clayton's Monday and wounding him, Charles Clayton drove back to his home and then disappeared. Motive for the shooting is unknown to officers.

Mrs. Lemuel Clayton, wounded in the fusillade fired at her husband, is in a hospital here, but is recovering.
