CREAM ROUTE TO BEGIN ON JANUARY 3RD

Arrangements Completed for Regular Milk Route in This County

Arrangements have been made to establish a cream collecting route through Pitt county to begin Friday, January 3, 1930. The county farm agent has an agreement with the Farmers' Creamery of Louisburg to pick up cream starting on the above date via Fountain, Farmville, Greenville and Bethel.

A farmer can place cream on the route anywhere between Fountain, Farmville and Greenville on the hard surface road on Friday of each week beginning January 3, 1930 and same will be collected and paid for monthly by the Farmers' Creamery. On Saturday morning cream will be picked up from Greenville to Bethel. Farmers who wish to deliver cream should make a small stand by the roadside on which to place the cream cans. He should then give his name and address to the cream truck driver or to the county agent, who will in turn number his can and arrange for regular deliveries each week.

With the establishment of this cream route the farmers will have a permanent market for dairy products provided enough farmers are interested in milking cows to provide a sufficient amount of milk to justify this company in keeping up the route.

The by-product, skim milk, is an excellent feed for calves, pigs and chickens, and a check for cream each month in the year is not had for the farmer. Skim milk takes the place of fish meal, tankage or meat scraps in the ration for pigs and chickens, and farmers who milk cows certainly should grow pigs and chickens for the market.

There is a saying that "prosperity follows the dairy cow." This is true provided the dairymen grows his own feed and we might suggest to those who contemplate milking a few cows that they provide in their farm program to plant the following to take care of as many as five milk cows:

One acre sorghum; 1-2 acre early planting; 1-2 acre later planting; 4 acres corn; 5 acres soy bean hay; 10 acres of pasture—real pasture—lespedeza, carpet and dallas grass.

Pitt county ought to be full of good Jersey and Guernsey cows and chickens. If every farmer had from three to five cars, Pitt county would be marketing a million dollars worth of milk. It would give the tenants a chance to earn a living in the winter time and the farmer's cash with which to pay his labor. Our soils would be getting richer all the time instead of poorer. "As the soil so the people." Let's organize the farm home into a well balanced production unit and then cooperate in marketing something each week in the year. This will enable us to finance our business in a more economical way. It means that the farmers must begin looking forward to drawing a $150 check often enough to pay his expense bills, rather than waiting all the year to draw a $200 or $300 check which really belongs to somebody else when his bills are paid.

Spanish-American War Veterans Form Organization Here

The J. Thomas Smith Camp of Spanish-American War veterans was organized at a meeting held in the county house in this city last night. The organization was perfected under direction of James S. Robertson, of Rocky Mount, commander of the John Cotton camp, Millard W. Temporary officers elected were T. F. Nobles, Greenville, chairman; P. T. Atkinson, Greenville, secretary; Wyatt Parker, Farmville, treasurer.

The camp was named in honor of the late Captain Thomas J. Smith for many years head of the Greenville police department, and one of the best known men of the community.

Captain Smith organized a company in Greenville for service in the Spanish-American war, many of whom returned to this section to enter private life after the war was over.

Failed to Practice What He Preached and Paid $3 Fine

Evansville, Ill., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Many persons besides Daniel J. Underwood have been known to preach what they don't practice, but Underwood's failure cost him $3 and costs. Underwood sells traffic equipment. Yesterday was a good day for him. He sold the city of Evansville $1,000 worth of equipment including stop and go lights and signs reading "Caution," "Go Slowly," and "Speed Limit 25 Miles an Hour." "What is the charge against this man?" inquired the court. "Speeding," said the arresting officer. "Why, Mr. Underwood, I'm surprised at you," said the court, adding the $3 and costs.

FLIER LANDS IN LOWLANDS OF TAR RIVER

Parachute Jumper Is Thoroughly Soaked in Exhibition Yesterday Afternoon

Eddie Graaf, member of the "Aircrafters" flying organization giving exhibitions at the old Matt Long Flying Field, near the East Carolina Teachers college, landed in about three feet of water in the lowlands of Tar river while completing a parachute jump late yesterday afternoon. Aside from getting thoroughly soaked with mud and water, the airman came through his experience unscathed.

The parachute performance was a part of the afternoon program of the flying outfit and was witnessed by two or three hundred people who thrilled at the various exploits pulled off in the air during the afternoon hours.

Graaf sailed off the plane while at an altitude of several hundred feet. It was the same kind of jump he had performed hundreds of times, but this time he had a north-east wind to deal with and the chute, at the mercy of the wind, continued to drift until it came down in the heart of the lowland.

The pilot of the plane from which Graaf leaped made several desperate efforts to veer the course of the chute, but this proved futile, and the big umbrella-shaped thing continued to drop until it came down in the muddy waters in a stone's throw of the river.

Numbers of persons who saw the predicament of the flier rushed to his rescue, but he was up and out of the swamp land by the time they reached him.

The "Aircrafters" will put on an exhibition tomorrow afternoon. Graaf will appear in one of the most spectacular and dangerous acts ever before presented in this section of the state, and performed only by one or two other aerial artists in this county.

Former Wife of Turk to Marry Young Aviator

San Francisco, Dec. 7.—(AP)—The Examiner today said that Sidie Wirt Spreckels, former wife of Ernest Suid Chakir of Turkey, has become engaged to marry Lieut. Rogers Alan Gardner, young army aviator, in spite of opposition on the part of the officer's family.

The newspaper asserted that opposition to the match because of the disparity in age and because of Mrs. Spreckels' previous marriages had caused the transfer of Gardner from Crissy Field here to Langley Field, Va. Gardner is 27 years old, having been graduated from West Point in 1925. San Francisco is his home.

Mrs. Spreckels was reported to have left here soon after Gardner's transfer, informing friends that she was going to marry the lieutenant in Washington, D. C.

Sidie Wirt, a native of Kansas, first married Harry Williams, an advertising man. This marriage ended in divorce. Later she became the wife of John D. Spreckels, Jr., San Francisco millionaire, who was killed in an automobile accident several years ago. She met Ernest Suid, during a visit to the Near East and they were married in 1923.

FACTS ABOUT THIS CITY TO BE BROADCAST

Local People to Give Program From Raleigh Station Monday Evening

Resources and possibilities of Greenville and Pitt county will be broadcast from the radio station at Raleigh next Monday evening between 6:45 and 7:00 o'clock, according to information given out today from the office of the secretary of the Greenville Merchants Association.

While many facts in connection with the section will be presented to radio fans, the major part of the program will be confined to Greenville, as the principal shopping center of Eastern Carolina. C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Merchants Association, will do the broadcasting.

Prior to the talk by Mr. Rowlett, a local quartet composed of E. Story, second tenor, E. E. Williams, first tenor, Bill Lee, baritone, and D. M. Sellers, bass, will render two song numbers. They will also give two selections following the talk.

The program will continue for a period of fifteen minutes, and during that time radio fans in many sections of the country will be given an idea of the many things this city has to offer as the principal shopping center of the eastern section of the state.

It will be the first time the city has been given an opportunity of appearing in a regular set program on the radio, although tobacco sales have been broadcast all through the fall and winter months from the Raleigh station.

Secretary Rowlett expressed himself as well pleased with this opportunity of being able to "sell the world" of this great bright leaf tobacco market, and he has prepared a talk that will make "em all sit up and take notice. It is not a regular line of propaganda that has been prepared, but actual facts dealing with the growth and possibilities of the locality, and the outlook of the city in its effort to keep abreast of the times in the field of trade and industry.

Greenville and Pitt county people are urged to tune in on the Raleigh station next Monday evening, and for the first time hear voices from home send their messages of a "greater Greenville" to the outside world. It is a program in which everybody will be interested because it deals with things of interest to home folks as well as those casting about to find a land of opportunity for their future efforts.

Final Taps Sound for Veteran Ed. Dillard

Taps sounded for Nash County's oldest and only surviving son who wore the Grey last Thursday night at 11 o'clock when the Great Commander issued his eternal call for Edward Dillard, thus making extinct Nash County's once large band of followers of Lee, which had for many years been fastly dwindling.

Pneumonia and other complications, due to old age, had caused Mr. Dillard's confinement to his home for three or more weeks, and his death was not unexpected. The final rites were held at the Spring Hope Baptist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were conducted by the Reverend N. B. Strickland, pastor of the local Methodist church, in the absence of Dr. W. R. Cullom, pastor of the Baptist church, who was kept away by illness. Interment followed in Maplewood cemetery, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives, who, together with the many and beautiful floral tributes, attested the general love and esteem in which this Old Soldier was generally held.

Mr. Dillard was twice married. His first wife was Anna Wealthy Williams, and to this union two sons were born. Of these, Paul Dillard of Spring Hope, survives, while the other, Ed Dillard, preceded his parents to the grave by many years. His second wife, Mary Eliza Morgan, preceded Mr. Dillard to the grave in 1922. To this latter union seven children were born, five of whom survive. They are Mrs. T. H. Mallison, of Spring Hope, Mrs. Walter Ward, of Greenville, Mrs. O. C. Haas of Mt. Vernon, Ind.; Mrs. Milton Cone, of Richmond, Va., and J. J. Dillard of Waycross, Ga. Besides these are a number of grandchildren.—Spring Hope Journal.

SAVE OCCUPANTS OF BURNING BUILDING

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Firemen carried fifty-four persons to safety in a burning six-story tenement on the Bowery, near Bleeker street, early today when the flames swept up the stairways. Four of the rescued, including a woman and two boys, were slightly injured. The fire started in a hallway, from a cigarette.

Five Killed In Clash With Marines In Haiti; Government Sends Aid

Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, Dec. 7.—(AP)—A body of 1,500 men which attempted to invade the city of Aux Cayes late yesterday afternoon armed with machetes, clubs and stones, clashed with a Marine patrol. Five of the invaders were killed and twenty wounded.

The invading band came from an outlying section. They met a Marine patrol of twenty men under command of Captain Roy Slink of the national guard. For an hour a parley was held and the soldiers were surrounded. They fired three volleys over, and then opened effective firing with machine gun and six automatic rifles, none of the defenders was injured.

Reports from Aux Cayes this morning said that the city was quiet with members of the band dispersed. Aux Cayes officials reported that in their judgment yesterday's action had prevented looting.

A search made in Jacmel yesterday was reported to have revealed evidence of the smuggling of automatic pistols. Reinforcements arrived there this morning and prepared to make further searches and arrests. The city was quiet and under control as were all other points.

Washington, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Troubled times in Haiti have caused the Washington government to mobilize Marines for dispatch to the tiny island republic. Detachments from the barracks at Quantico, Virginia, and Paris Island, South Carolina, were concentrated at the Norfolk Naval base. The U. S. S. Wright was made ready there to transport approximately 500 men to a "secret" destination for "duty beyond the seas."

President Hoover prepared a special message to Congress on the Haitian situation. Although it had not been made public, it was understood to contain a resume of the current disturbance on the island and a statement of the administration's plan for reinforcing the present Marine garrison there.

Dispatches from Port-Au-Prince, meanwhile, said the situation had quieted considerably, with the customs service functioning normally and striking students ready to return to their studies. The disorders were precipitated by the students and customs workers and led to a declaration of martial law.

The administration took action late yesterday after Secretary Stimson had received dispatches from the American high commissioner, Brig. General John H. Russell, saying that he feared a "serious situation" might develop.

President Hoover's message was sent to the capitol in the usual manner, by a white house messenger, but both houses of Congress had adjourned when he arrived. Disclosure of its contents was deferred until the assembling of the House of Representatives today. The Senate was in recess until Monday.

A detachment of four officers and 273 men boarded a river boat last night at Quantico for the journey down the Potomac to Norfolk and five officers and 120 enlistment men entrained at Paris Island for the same destination. Marine garrisons at Norfolk are expected to supply 72 men for the expeditionary force. Quantico townspeople and comrades who were left behind gathered at the dock to see the detachment off. The Garrison band played "Auld Lang Syne," and then, as the boat pulled away, burst into the stirring song of the Marine Corps, "The Halls of Montezuma."

Major General Smedley D. Butler, commandant of the Quantico base, was among those at the dock.

The board of trustees, which was appointed by Mr. Fox consists of himself, John Otterson, president of electrical company, and H. L. Stuart, of Halsey, Stuart, and company, a Wall street banking house. Federal Officers Arrested 66,195 Persons in Year
Washington, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Federal prohibition officers arrested 66,195 persons during the fiscal year which ended last June 30 and by state officers in the arrest of 11,156 more.

New York was the scene of the largest number of arrests by government agents, Prohibition Commissioner Doran reported today, that state having a total of 3,265. Kentucky was second with 3,963; Pennsylvania third with 3,647, and Texas fourth with 3,487. The state of New Hampshire had the smallest number 17, and Kansas the next smallest, 14.

STORM CLAIMS MANY LIVES IN BRITISH ISLES

Twenty-Six Dead As Hurricane Rages Along Coast; Property Damage Heavy

London, Dec. 7.—(AP)—A hurricane which swept in from the Atlantic raged over the British Isles and nearby coasts today, spreading destruction and confusion in its wake. Scilly Island reported a wind velocity of 108 miles an hour, while 80 and 90 mile velocities in other parts of England were common.

As many as 26 already were dead in the furious storm, 19 of the victims losing their lives in sea mishaps in which huge waves and wind swamped smaller craft before they could make port.

Considerable anxiety was held for those vessels which either were not reported or were known to have been in difficulties.

Throughout the night the gale tore through London, smashing windows and unroofing smaller buildings. Crowds leaving the theaters last night were surprised at the violence of the blast which at that time was accompanied by a spectacular electric display and a torrential downpour.

The Hunarian steamer Honved, it was believed, would ride out the storm after dragging its anchors and drifting toward the shore at Little Hampton. The cable ship Leocadia stopped by unable to help because of the enormous seas. A lifeboat which was launched from Selsey to help the Honved was not heard from, giving rise to some anxiety.

A small Dutch steamer, the Merwe was driven ashore near New Haven and the crew of eleven landed by breeches buoy. The steamship Frances Duncan founded off Land's end with a loss of 16 of her crew of 21. The other five clung to wreckage until picked up by the steamship Alice Marie. An Irish fishing boat with three men disappeared in the storm.

Spanish dispatches said several trawlers were sunk in Ferrol Harbor while the Spanish cruiser Principe Alfonso broke its moorings and swung into the cruiser Jaime, damaging it slightly. The gale blew with great violence along the entire coast of Spain.

Spanish sources also reported an Italian steamer on fire and asking aid off Mogador, Morocco. Its position was believed precarious since no other ships were reported in the vicinity.

A woman was killed and another injured when a wall was blown over at Eastbourn. Heavy rain flooded streets in that city and in Dover and Folkestone.

County to Get Three Months' Dental Clinic

Pitt county has been fortunate to secure a state dentist to hold a four months' clinic in the county, the work to begin in January. Dr. L. C. Holliday is now working in the colored schools.

A number of the leading counties hold a dental clinic each year. It costs about $900 for 12 weeks and the state gives an additional month which makes four months, or half of an 8-months' term. If a clinic could be held soon correct the evils of bad teeth and would mean much for the educational progress of the county. The state furnishes the outfit, materials, etc., and treats all children under 12 years of age. This would reach many children who would otherwise be neglected.

The $900 that the county invests in these dental clinics each year means a saving of many times that amount in students repeating grades in school, to say nothing of the health value to the children which is most important. It would mean a big saving in dollars and cents to the parents in caring for the physical defects of their children and better health in later life. It means a big saving in school progress. It eliminates many repeating grades in school, usually due to ill health and enables many more to graduate from high school and college. In this day of keen competition the child without an education is handicapped for life. Bad teeth often mean poor health, which means dropping out of school and failing to get an education.

Can Pitt county afford to miss this great opportunity to conserve and preserve the health and education of our children? The dentist examines and treats about 1200 children in four months.

Christmas Fund for Poor People Reaches $33.00

The Merchants Association Christmas fund for the poor had reached the $33.00 mark today with a contribution of $10.00 from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harrington.

Members of the Association and the Welfare Department, who are directing the campaign, said they thought the fund would pick up sharply next week as local people began to realize the seriousness of the situation confronting poor people.

Additional worthy cases will be made public next week. Several such cases have already been published, and some have been taken by various organizations.

The public was urged to give liberally and in this way help carry relief to the sufferers during the holiday season.

OFFER PRIZES FOR THE BEST DECORATIONS

Merchants Association to Give $50.00 for Best Christmas Displays Here
The Merchants Association announced today that prizes of $50.00 each will be given away for best Christmas lighting and decorations. This will be divided $35.00 for the best decorated and lighted home, and $15.00 for the best display of business houses.

For the business houses the displays and lighting effects may be in the display windows, outside or both, but, in the residential sections only the outside lighting and decorations will be considered by the judges.

In order to compete for the prizes, the decorations must be in place by Wednesday, December 13. The names of the winners will be announced through the columns of the Daily Reflector Monday the 23rd and the awards at the Merchants Association office on Christmas eve day.

Members of the Association expressed hope that decorations this year would be far more elaborate than last year, and everybody is urged to take part in the contest and in that way make the city one of the best decorated in this section of the state during the holiday season.

Decorating in the business district has already gotten under way, and from now on many new decorations are expected to appear in the various business houses as well as in the residential district. It was believed that far more homes and stores also would participate this year, and convert the city into a veritable fairyland carrying out the spirit of the season.

The offering of prizes last year created considerable interest, and competition was keen, considering the fact that it was the first year prizes had been offered for decorations. It is hoped by members of the Association that the competitive spirit will be even more in evidence this year and that it will bring forth more decorations than in any other city of the state.

Dollar Ordered Before Custom Officers Today

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—R. Stanley Dollar, president of the Dollar Steamship Company, was directed to appear before customs officials today to answer charges of failing to declare goods valued at $3,700 purchased abroad.

Mr. Dollar landed from the Levitan yesterday with Mrs. Dollar and their two children after a trip around the world.

CHILDREN OF ITALIAN KING VISIT PONTIFF

Prince Humbert and Princesses Giovanna and Maria Pay Respects to Pope

Rome, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Crown Prince Humbert and his younger sisters, Princess Giovanna and Maria, today paid their respects to Pope Pius XI. They were accompanied on their drive from the Quirinal palace to the Vatican by Count de Vecchi, Italian ambassador to the Holy See, who presented them to the Pope. It was the first time they had seen the Pontiff.

Troops stood at attention as the children of King Victor Emmanuel passed by. The crowds cheered the trio, particularly their future king, Humbert's name has been on every tongue since announcement of his engagement to Princess Marie Jose of Belgium and an attempt against his life in Brussels several weeks ago.

The children drove along the same route followed two days ago by their father and mother, who paid their initial visit to the Pope Thursday. They were met at the boundary line of Vatican City, by Commendatore Erafini, governor of the city and the Papal gendarmes.

An imposing group of ecclesiastics met the visitors in the courtyard of San Damaso and led them to the Papal anti-chamber; from there they went to the throne room where they were met by the Pope. Count de Vecchi, who had already met the pope, presented first Crown Prince Humbert, then Giovanna and then Maria. The three knelt and kissed the Pope's hand. Plus raised them immediately to their feet.

The Pope looked for the first time upon the three handsome members of the House of Savoy. He saw the Crown Prince as a tall, stalwart, frank-faced young man of 28; Giovanna as a dark-haired pretty girl of 22, and Maria as a beautiful girl who will celebrate her fifteenth birthday the day after Christmas.

The prince and princesses saw a kindly faced old man of 72, with keen, sharp eyes and a firm mouth and chin.

The Pope spoke cordially to the Crown Prince. He congratulated Humbert on his forthcoming marriage to Princess Marie Jose of Belgium, which will be celebrated January 8, and gave his blessing.

Humbert is known as a friend of the church. He is a close personal friend of Cardinal Gamba, of Turin, where the prince makes his home, and it is expected that Cardinal Gamba may perform the prince's wedding. The prince also comes from the north of Italy, as does the Pope, who was Cardinal-Archbishop of Milan before he was elevated to the Papacy.

The royal children were presented to Cardinal Gasparri, Papal secretary of state. Finally they visited St. Peter's. There they worshipped before the Tomb of the Apostles.

On their return to the Quirinal palace they again were cheered by the populace.

Russian Reply Reaches Paris

Paris, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Only today did the reply of the Maxim Litvinoff, speaking for Soviet Russia, to the American note on the Sino-Russian Manchurian conflict reach the American embassy at Paris for transmission to the State Department at Washington.

It appeared the delay was caused by the fact that the French embassy at Moscow was obliged to translate from the Russian into French and then put into code for transmission to Paris. At Paris the foreign office decoded the message and handed it over to the American embassy at 9:40 a. m. The embassy proceeding to translate it into English and code it for transmission to Washington.

FINDING RELIGION

By The Rev. Charles R. Brown, D. D. (Dean Emeritus of Yale Divinity School)

The man in the crowd will seek solitude to find religion, and having found it will return to the crowd to aid those who have not experienced the benefits of religious faith.

The man who seeks religion will get away from the crowds.

Meetings of men and women with Jesus were very casual. They were not made on appointment.

In a crowd once when Jesus was passing through Jericho was a small man who was striving to look at Jesus. None would make way for him because he was despised. He was a tax collector, a publican, a wealthy man.

This man, whose name was Zachaeus, climbed a tree and was able to have a view of the Master.

Jesus saw him and told him to come down. They went to Zachaeus' house to eat. After they had talked Zachaeus saw the truth of Jesus' words and promised to make restitution four-fold to all from whom he had taken wrongfully and to give half his wealth to charity.

Then he went back to the crowd to help those in need.

ABOUT TOWN

ABOUT TOWN... It is gratifying news indeed that Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Grifton, injured in an automobile wreck on the Grifton-Kinston highway last Tuesday night, has good chances of recovery.

Practically the entire community was grieved to learn of the accident, and it is a source of pleasure to learn that the veteran county commissioner and doctor will be able to be out again when he fully recovers from his injuries.

Dr. Dawson has taken an active part in the government of the county over a period of many years, and it is to be hoped he will have many more useful years before him.

Members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion are to be congratulated for stepping in and helping to raise funds for the city's poor with the Charity Ball December 20th.

The Legion has always endeavored to serve the community to the best of its ability, and it is certainly on the road to render a great service in this undertaking.

It is to be hoped other organizations follow the lead of the Merchants Association, the Welfare Department and the Legion, and see how much money and clothing can be raised for destitute families before the Christmas holiday season actually gets under way.

The situation is truly one of the most serious this community has been up against in years, and unless the contribution is what it should be there is going to be much suffering in our midst during the cold winter months to come.

Seventeen more days to Christmas! Have you done your Christmas shopping? Be among the hundreds of thrifty and get busy right away and provide yourself with the many things you will need to make the holiday complete.

Shopping has already gotten under way, and unless you shop early you will be among those who will not be able to get the pick of the stocks assembled for your inspection by local merchants.

This is one year the business houses have provided something that will appeal to every member of the family and you can't get away from the fact that you should take advantage of the offerings as early as possible.

Look over your savings account and then get your shopping under way.

You will have more time for Christmas activities when the holiday season actually rolls around.

Herbert Waldrop, chairman of the finance committee of the board of aldermen, is eternally hammering away at members of that organization attempting to get them to stay within bounds of the budget set for this year.

And the board of aldermen is attempting to co-operate with him in an effort to hold down expenses as much as possible until conditions become improved in this locality.

But the board of aldermen, like every other organization, fails to think of lots of things in arranging budgets and is forced to cast about in an effort to meet the emergencies.

Such matters have harassed the board ever since the budget was drafted, but the chairman of the finance committee is inexorable as fate itself, and insists that the aldermen should show to the line until another budget is drafted.

It is rather an embarrassing situation, but considering the financial condition of the city, it really looks like the aldermen are going to be forced to disregard emergencies and stick to the budget. It would certainly be the safest plan and might eventually mean more and better things for the city.

If you don't think people are interested in their activities, consider the "Tiny Tot Circus" parade here yesterday afternoon.

It attracted a crowd almost as large as Barnum-Bailey or Ringling Brothers circuses would have attracted.

Main streets were literally crowded to capacity as countless hundreds of people craned their necks to get a better view of the diminutive paraders.

The parade was conducted under auspices of one of the local schools. It was a credit, and goes to show what is being done to train the youngsters in the first stages of dramatics.

But the circus was even better than the parade, and numbers of people sat agape as the youngsters pulled off a performance that would have done credit to much older children.

When making out your list of Christmas gifts do not forget to include a year's subscription to The Daily Reflector.

The Reflector has been going to the homes of Pitt County people over a period of many years, and you could not give anything that would be more fully appreciated.

To the former Pitt county resident living in some other part of the country, the Reflector would be a source of much interest every day of the year. Think how you like to get news from home while away from the city, and give the other fellow credit for feeling the same way about it.

Be sure and include the Reflector in your Christmas list and rest assured of receiving keen appreciation for the gift.

CRACK PITT ELEVEN TO NEED REBUILDING. Pittsburgh (AP) - Pittsburgh's great 1929 football machine will have to be almost completely rebuilt for next season since graduation will take a toll of no less than eight Panther stars.

Wallinck and Baker alone will remain of the backs that saw any real amount of action this season and veterans in the line who will be back include Uly and McCurdy, tackles, Hirschberg and Collins, ends and Daugherty, center.

Men of the reserves and of the 1929 plebes must fill the gaps for such acres as Toby Uansa, Tom Parkinson, Charley Edwards, and for such linemen as Joe Donchess, Captain Luby Dimeolo, Ray Montgomery and Marclay Barnes.

A dense private forest almost in the heart of San Francisco is the breeding ground for coyotes, which keep a paid hunter busy at the city's Golden Gate park to protect fowl.

Farmers Sell Your TOBACCO IN GREENVILLE. Sales so far this season total 47,543,714 pounds for $9,093,780.81, averaging $19.12 per hundred pounds. We are selling tobacco daily from practically every county in Eastern Carolina and the farmers say it is paying them to sell in Greenville, even though some of them travel at least 125 miles. Those in position to absolutely know, say we are highest market and have keener buying competition than any market in the East. Since Last Season - Three of the warehouses have made large additions, which gives the market increased floor space of about two acres. Some of the factories have made enlargements to their buildings, installing additional redrying facilities and other equipment. The Greenville tobacco market is decidedly in better position to handle, daily, larger quantities of tobacco than ever before. Tobacco Warehouses - Greenville tobacco market has nine (9) large and modern brick warehouses with close to 14 acres floor space, sufficient to accommodate 2,225,000 lbs. of tobacco daily. These warehouses are managed by men of years of experience. Buyers and Factories - Greenville tobacco market has four (4) sets of buyers, representing all the important companies in the world, using bright tobacco. Nine (9) larger and modern tobacco factories are located here, additions having been made to several of them since last season, while one new plant has been built. Roads and Locations - Greenville tobacco market is located in the heart of Eastern North Carolina. Seven fine hard surfaced roads lead into Greenville. Tobacco growers living 125 miles from Greenville to tobacco market sell their tobacco in Greenville and return home same day.

Official Sales Card. Table with columns for warehouses (Joyne's, Moye & Juett, Planters, McGowan & Cannon, Johnston's, Gorman's, Farmers, Smith & Sugg, Forbes & Morton) and rows for dates from DECEMBER 9 to 19. Includes averages as reported by government report for 1928.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Arthur school met on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3rd. Business disposed of, Mrs. G. T. Tyson gave a report of the county P. T. A. meeting held in Greenville at the college on November 21st. Voicing the sentiment of those who attended, she said that the given program was so interesting and beneficial that they hoped to attend all future sessions of the council.

The address of Dr. Andrus of the State of New York, was just to the joint and exactly what we as parents and teachers needed.

The Christmas lesson: Luke 2:7-21 was impressively read by Mrs. Phillips, followed by a vocal number, "Somewhere Voices are Calling," given by Miss Reel, accompanied by Mr. Howell, the principal, then introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Hollar of Teachers College. The subject, "Spiritual and Moral Training of the Child," was presented forcefully and helpfully. The real meaning of Christmas, not getting but giving, as Jesus gave Himself that the world might be saved, so let us give not to those who may give to us in return but to the needy poor. —Reported.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at unchanged prices to advances of 4 points in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables and some further pressure covering. The demand was limited, however, and prices eased under realizing or liquidation while there seemed to be some selling here for southern account.

January sold off from 17.40 to 17.32 with the active months ruling about 1 to 3 points net lower at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables reported an inactive and featureless market with prices higher on trade calling and covering in the absence of selling pressure.

Advts from Manchester said that the cloth market situation was discouraging but that curtailment of productions to prevent an accumulation of stocks.

Cotton on shipboard awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 157,000 bales against 192,000 last year.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Stock prices made further recovery in today's stock market in the face of heavy week-end profit taking sales. Extreme gains in the active issues ranged from 2 to nearly 20 points, with the public utilities, steel, business machine and chemicals giving the best demonstrations of group strength. Trading was in heavy volume for a half holiday session, the day's sales running well over $600,000,000 shares.

Reports of excellent holiday trade rumors of further stocks prospects of additional increased and extra dividend payments and widespread predictions of good business next year provided the background for the advance in prices while many traders showed a disposition to take profits in anticipation of a technical reaction, these offerings were more than offset by the demands of pools and investment interests.

U. S. Steel common was marked up about eight points to just below 180 or nearly 30 points above the low reached in the November break. Republic and Vanadium Steel each climbed more than four points.

Western Union soared nearly 20 points and International Telephone extended its gain to seven before the advance was checked by profit taking. Otis Elevator converted a loss of eight points into a gain of similar extent. Other active issues sold 5 to 8 points higher.

TOT CIRCUS SCORES HIT IN THIS CITY

Attraction by Children of City Schools Wins Favorable Comment

The Tiny Tot circus given in the High School auditorium last night was far greater than its audience had expected.

Such a vast and well-timed program for children is unique. It is to be more than praised; it is to be admired. Greenville may feel proud of the natural talent seen in many of its children last night, and thankful for the able training they are receiving in all activities as evidenced by the work of the circus under the direction of Mrs. Robeson, Miss Grace Hunter, and Miss Helen Gray Jones.

In the setting of a regular circus tent, one was conscious of a big guiding motive, of a big achievement for 150 tots, who, among other treasures as inheritance for nature life, may carry in memory the time when they, amid the gaiety and cheer of a public performance, learned many habits of wild animals, learned where they from how they walked, how they were trained; learned what makes a real clown; fun, and thoughtfulness for others, a smile; how a band master feels and acts; lions, tigers, and frizzly bears; tight rope walker; three bears and Goldilocks.

Band Concert.

Trick Animals; elephants; monkeys; Bernice baby carriage.

Acrobats (Tiny Tumblers of the first grade).

3—Freak in front of curtain.

The fat lady, the two-headed boy, and the fire eater.

4—Concert. Rabbit Dance.

Mother Goose Children; Pantomimes; Little Boy Blue; Little Jack Crier and Little Miss Muffett; Little Bo Peep; Jack and Jill; Mistress Mary, and the Queen of Hearts.

There was a large crowd on Evans and Fifth streets yesterday at 4:30 to view the grand parade of all the actors and animals of the circus and the usual circus parade followers.

The ring master, Edward House, in full ring master dress and dignity, opened the program of the evening by a formal speech through the megaphone. The grand parade across the stage followed.

For the main show, which had a great audience, children were seated on the grand stands on the stage. On one grand stand, there was the great band master, Ramsey, with his band. On the other grand stand, were all the people of Fairyland, story-book land, and the animal kingdom. The ballroom man, the lemonade man, and the policeman had their beat up and down before the circus audience.

The four jolly clowns furnished not only mirth throughout the program, but joined the 18 helpful Brownies who drew the cages, carried and arranged in an orderly manner the varied equipment for all the stunts of the show.

The program given to the audience was illustrated with circus drawings. The events were:

- 1—Speech by ring master. Parade
- 2—Circus song; clown song; clowns.
- Tiny Tumblers.
- Trick Animals; wolf; Irish clowns;

SMITH & SUGG MARKET REPORT

Prices with Smith and Sugg have been as high or higher on most grades since Thanksgiving. We urge that you bring on your tobacco, as the market will probably close in ten days for Christmas Holidays. We have four complete sets of buyers and competition as keen as any time this season. Smith and Sugg want to thank all their friends for their patronage during entire year, enabling them to sell more tobacco this year than up to same date last year.

As a matter of fact, Greenville market has equalled if not surpassed its last year's record, because the shortage in Pitt county's crop is greater than the shortage of our market's high 1928 record. We have our same organized warehouse force and are giving the best possible service.

Yours to serve,

STAR WAREHOUSE—Smith & Sugg
