H. E. AUSTIN PASSES AWAY AT HOME HERE

Head of E. C. T. C. Geography Department Succumbs to Long Illness

H. E. Austin, head of the department of geography at East Carolina Teachers College, died today at 1 a. m., at his home on Eighth street. He had been in declining health for more than a year and for several months had not been out of his house.

Professor Austin had been prominent in the affairs of Greenville for the past twenty years. He was a member of the first faculty of East Carolina Teachers College, first serving as head of the department of science, and later as head of the department of geography. He was one of the best-loved teachers that the college has had.

He was prominently connected with the Masonic order, the Kiwanis club, the Red Cross, the Methodist Episcopal church and other civic organizations. He was Past Commander of the Bethlehem Commandery of Knights Templar. He also held the position of Grand Captain of the Hosts in the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the State. For many years he was also secretary of the students loan fund of the Knights Templar of North Carolina.

He was born in Belvedere, Vt., and was reared in Holden, Mass. He was educated at Worcester Academy and Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester, Mass., graduating from the latter institution in 1890. He later did graduate work at Clark University.

For seventeen years he taught science in the Baltimore Normal School, Baltimore, Md., from which institution he came to Greenville in 1912 as the first teacher of science in what was then East Carolina Teachers Training School. For many years he served in the capacity of vice-president of the college in that he assumed the responsibilities of the president in his absence. For some eight years he served as chairman of the appointments committee, picking and placing the graduates of the college into teaching positions throughout the state. As a teacher he was thorough, sympathetic and liberal-minded. His students loved him.

He was married to Miss Lillian Denny, of Worcester, Mass., in 1894. His wife and four children survive him. His children are Edward E., Waldo Ebert, Elizabeth, and Mrs. R. W. Johnson of Holden, Mass. He is also survived by his father, W. E. Austin of Holden, Mass., who is now 90 years old.

The funeral will be conducted from his residence on Eighth street Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., by Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, assisted by Walter Patten, pastor of the Greenville Christian Church.

His body will be carried to Holden, Mass., for burial. Burial services at Holden will be in charge of the Knights Templar and will take place next Tuesday afternoon.

Number Thirteen Had No Terrors for Illinois Man

Evansville, Ill., Dec. 14.—(AP)—The "number 13" and the noun "Friday" have a tendency to make children "down some folks' backs," but not Raymond J. Locco's.

Locco was to go to trial yesterday on a charge of driving while intoxicated—and yesterday was Friday, the 13th. Several circumstances were pointed out to him. The number of letters in his name added up 13; he lives at 850 Hawthorne Lane, and 8-5-0-0 adds 13; Hawthorne Lane has 13 letters; Locco is 49 years old and 4 and 9 add 13; besides, there has been 12 convictions this month by the bureau of accident prevention and Locco's would be the 13th.

But Locco insisted upon going to trial.

"They'll only fine me $1000 he predicted.

"Even so," said the clerk of the court, "but a fine of $10 and $3 costs adds $13."

Justice of the Peace James G. Barber crossed Locco up. He fined him $100, which does not add 13.

CHEMIST KILLED IN OKLAHOMA BLAST

Greenville, Okla., Dec. 14.—(AP)—One of four chemists employed in the gasoline experimental station of the United States Bureau of Mines was killed and the other three burned or critically injured in an explosion which, with the ensuing fire, demolished the station last night.

The body of R. R. Bradenthaler was recovered from the smoldering ruins, while Meredith Miles lay in a hospital so severely burned that it was feared he would not recover.

The cause of the explosion was not determined.

Charges Former Wife Attempted to Murder Him

Los Angeles, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Helen Lois Andrade, 56 was held here on a charge of assault to commit murder, sworn to by her former husband, Albert F. Andrade, millionaire rancher of Arizona and Mexico.

The arrest followed Andrade's report last night that his former wife fired five shots at him; his present wife, Mrs. Judith Lavender Andrade, and their six-week-old baby.

Police were called to Andrade's home by Mrs. Mary E. Warren, widow of Walter Warren, United States consul to Honduras. Mrs. Warren fainted after placing the call and was treated at a hospital.

Andrade said his former wife ambushed him at his home. He said she recently lost a suit to obtain half his property through a Superior court suit. She obtained divorce 12 years ago. He married Judith Lavender, daughter of John Lavender, the late shipping magnate, six years later.

SUGG ELECTED PRESIDENT OF KIWANIS CLUB

Club Makes Arrangements in Relief of the Poor During Holidays

B. B. Sugg, prominent tobacconist, was elected to the presidency of the Greenville Kiwanis club at the regular twice-a-month session of that organization held at the Rotary building last night. He succeeds Ralph Deal, member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers College, who served for a period of one year.

Other officers elected were: H. L. Rivers, vice-president, and B. W. Mosley, trustee. Four directors to serve for a period of two years each were also elected. They were: J. C. Galloway, A. D. Franks, W. S. Brown and Dr. S. M. Crisp.

In addition to the $300 which the club gives annually for carrying on its underprivileged child work, it was decided to authorize the directors to make other donations to the Christmas fund now being raised in behalf of the community's poor people.

On Christmas morning at 8:30 o'clock, members of the club will meet at the Rotary building, and each member will make a personal call to some needy family with a basket of provisions and other supplies.

The clubs enjoyed its usual supper and song numbers last night, and adjourned following the adoption of the plan of carrying relief to the poor Christmas Day.

Five Dangerous Criminals Escape At Oklahoma Pen

McAlester, Okla., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Five men, believed to be among the most dangerous inmates of the state penitentiary here, were at large today after digging under the walls of the prison and escaping last night.

Details of the escape were very meager. Dr. John O. Newell, warden, and the deputy warden refused to discuss the case, but it was said the men were reported missing at the 6 o'clock roll call last night.

A hurried search of the prison revealed the hole under the wall, and prison guards and a pack of bloodhounds immediately took up the trail of the missing convicts.

McAlester police and the Pittsburg county sheriff's office were asked to watch for the men, but names of the missing men were not known by either of these forces, although it was said one of the men who escaped was named Underhill.

This was believed to be Wilbur Underhill, serving a life term for the murder of George Free in a drug-store holdup at Okmulgee on Christmas night, 1927.

Three of the convicts were believed to still be in the neighborhood of McAlester and the search was being centered in the surrounding territory, although one report, that two of the men had boarded a northbound M. K. and T. train also was being investigated.

BROKER'S MESSENGER INHURTS HUGE SUM

New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Carrying large sums of money through the Wall Street district, James Caldwell, 19-year-old messenger for the Guaranty Trust Company, dreamed of the day when he, perhaps, might have as large a sum.

Today the bank's huge organ said, James' mother is in Boston making the final settlement with the executors of a $100,000,000 Scottish estate which will give the boy an inheritance of approximately $1,250,000.

DONATIONS TO CHARITY FUND MOUNT SLOWLY

More Interest, However, Exhibited in the Drive During Last Several Hours

Greater interest was exhibited in the Merchants Association's campaign fund for the poor during the last twenty-four hours, and contributions exceeded any single day since the campaign began, according to a report issued from the office of the Merchants Association today.

The donations consisted of cash and clothing and carried the total cash contribution to the $70,000 mark. Cash contributors were: Miss Martha O'Hagan, $10 and cash $2. Other contributors were: W. C. Bowen, quantity of clothing; W. C. Clark Coal Company, five tons of coal; Edward Batchelor, quantity of clothing; Miss Maggie Dougherty, clothing; Mrs. Joseph Palmer, clothing; Mary D. and John Horne, Jr., dolls, doll furniture and clothing.

The committee also reported that four additional "opportunity cases" had been taken by the following organizations and individuals: Case No. 25, T. E. L. class of Immanuel Baptist Church; Case 44, Mrs. L. L. Reeves; Case 10, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dall; Case 45, Circle No. One, St. Paul's Episcopal Church Guild.

With Christmas slightly over a week off, members of the campaign committee expected contributions to show quite an increase during the next few days. They continued to emphasize the need of clothing for children, and said suffering would be acute if this demand was not met.

It was stated that numbers of "opportunity" cases yet remained to be taken and hope was expressed that different organizations would get busy and make arrangements to care for these families during the holiday season. All of the cases so far handled through the campaign committee have been fully investigated and described as deserving of assistance.

Cash donations have been coming in more slowly this year than in past years, and every effort will be made from now on to increase the sum as well as the offering of other things necessary to carry relief to the poor. The public was urged to give as liberally as possible during the next few days and help make the campaign a greater success than ever before.

Expect Decision In Calles Case Sometime Today

Laredo, Tex., Dec. 14.—(AP)—The next word in the debate between the Federal government and the state of Texas as to whether General Plutarco Elias Calles will face arrest when he passes through Laredo en route to Mexico sometime next week was expected today from John A. Valls, district attorney here.

Valls yesterday deferred until after Friday the 13th his answer to a threat of the State department of Mexico, who now is in New York, would be protected by armed force, if necessary.

The sheriff here has a warrant for Calles' arrest charging conspiracy in the deaths of General Lucas Blanco and Col. Antelmo Martinez, whose bodies, handcuffed together, were found in the Rio Grande in 1922.

Official notice that the American government would use armed force to protect Calles was served on Valls by Richard Boyce, American Consul at Nuevo Laredo, across the border, after the district attorney advised the secretary of state that Calles would need an official certificate attesting his diplomatic immunity. Calles already has a Mexican diplomatic passport issued by this government.

This advice was in a letter to the department of state which said in part that if Calles were able to produce "a certificate from the secretary of state under the great seal of that office, attesting diplomatic immunity, he will be allowed to proceed unmolested."

"Otherwise," the letter continued "the law will take its course as in ordinary cases."

WINTER RACING SEASON OPENS IN FLORIDA

St. Augustine, Fla., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Racing enthusiasts from all over the country gathered here today for the opening of the winter season in Florida.

Hundreds of horses, representing some of the leading stables in America, were primed for the bustle call them to post at some time during the 27-day meet at Keenee park, midway between Jacksonville and St. Augustine.

The inaugural day attracted additional interest because of the threats of Fred O. Eberhardt, Tallahassee newspaper publisher, that he would enjoy operation of the track if there were any evidence of wavering on the race.

Says Prices Of Cotton Declined Because Supply Exceeded World Demand

Washington, Dec. 14.—(AP)—W. L. Clayton, of Anderson, Clayton & Company, a Houston, Texas, cotton firm which has been charged with exercising a "depressing" influence on the cotton market, testified today before a Senate agricultural sub-committee that the price of cotton declined this year because the supply "temporarily was greater than the demand."

The reason Clayton gave for the low price of cotton was similar to that assigned by Gardner H. Miller, president of the New York Stock Exchange, who had previously told the committee the "law of supply and demand was responsible."

Among the causes for the excess of supply over demand which Clayton gave were rapid dumping of crops, "hand to mouth" buying by spinners and a general decline in commodity prices due to stock market slumps which were "both a result and a contributing cause."

Clayton estimated that the speculators of the world were carrying as of December 1 through the purchase of future contracts from 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 bales of American cotton.

A still more fundamental and "dangerous" cause, Clayton said, was the increase in production of cotton in other countries, united with the "increase cost and deterioration of the American crop."

The cotton broker said reports from Japan, China, Germany and England told constantly of their increased use of foreign grown cotton. He said that 150,000 bales of American cotton were replaced in Japan last year by Indian cotton.

J. B. Hencken, president of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, also had said that increased growth of American cotton in other countries, particularly India, had contributed to the present slump in values.

"The quality of American cotton has been constantly deteriorating," Clayton said. "Where a few years ago staple less than 7-8 inch in length was virtually unknown, during this season 20 per cent of the crop was less than 7-8 inch staple and not tenderable on future contracts. On the other hand foreign cotton has been constantly improving in the staple length and character."

Today's appearance was the second time that Clayton has been before a Senate sub-committee inquiring into cotton slumps in two years. Charges, similar to Hencken's assertion, against his firm caused him to come to Washington in March, 1928. He denied at that time that his firm engaged in speculation or was a bearish influence in the market.

Clayton in his testimony today defended the exchanges. Without them, he said, the speculators could not have carried the cotton they did since they rarely bought actual staple.

"Speculation, operating through the futures exchanges," he said, "ordinarily bears the market; risk of such temporary surpluses. And it did so this year despite the fact the speculative attention had been largely diverted from commodities to the stock market."

He said there was no material decline in prices until the "stock market crash" in October, which unfortunately coincided with the peak of the crop movement.

CITY BEGINS SUIT AGAINST TAXPAYERS

Legal Action Started Against Approximately 170 Delinquent Citizens

The city of Greenville has filed suit against approximately 170 delinquent tax payers, it became known today with the publication of notices of suit.

The suits were filed in the Superior court, and notices of publication were carried in the columns of the Daily Daily Reflector today.

It is the first time that the city has attempted the collection of taxes upon such an extensive scale, and the action is expected to arouse more than general interest throughout the city.

The suits are the results of legislation passed at the last sitting of the North Carolina Legislature, and commissioners of the various cities are held responsible for failure to abide by it.

The county recently filed several hundred suits against delinquent tax payers, and similar action has been taken by other counties and cities throughout the state.

The city has made an effort to reduce the cost of each case as much as possible and it is incumbent upon defendants to get busy and make arrangements for settlement as early as they can in order to avoid increased costs.

Approve Porter Resolution for Probe of Haiti

Washington, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The House foreign affairs committee today approved the Porter resolution to authorize President Hoover to appoint a commission to inquire into the Haitian situation.

QUICK TRUCE IN MINERS STRIKE BRIGHTER NOW

One Hundred Accused Leaders of Striking Miners Held in Illinois Jail

Taylorville, Ill., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Prospects for a quick truce in the miners' strike affecting a half dozen coal mines and about 3,500 miners in this district appeared brighter today with nearly 100 accused leaders of the striking miners either in jail or held under bond.

Officials of the United Mine Workers union, opposing the walk-out called last Monday by the National Miners union, rival organization, they felt satisfied the surrounding coal fields would be back to normal by Monday with probably two or three of the mines involved expected to resume operations to one extent today.

The disturbance spread yesterday into the Belleville district where 50 pickets succeeded in keeping about 40 men from going to work at Lumaghi mine No. 2.

Sixty warrants charging inciting riots and disturbing the peace remained today to be served on the strikers by the details of Deputy Sheriff which have been sworn in while five national guard companies, with a strength of some 200 men, were still stationed in the Christian county courthouse here, there was little on schedule for them to do, one detail was guarding the county jail where some 60 of the arrested strikers were held in quarters with only 15 available beds.

Despite the military atmosphere which has permeated the coal fields the guardsmen have been called on only two or three times, principally yesterday when a detail assigned to Peabody mine near Culp's, west of here, took into custody 23 persons 17 of them women and young girls, for refusing to disperse. Previously, guardsmen had arrested Freeman Thompson, one of the strike leaders, holding him in military custody for two days before turning him over to the sheriff under charges of inciting a riot and disturbing the peace. Thompson later was released under $2,400 bonds.

Arkansas Murder Case Will Go to Jury Next Week

Mountain View, Ark., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Thwarted in their many attempts to establish beyond dispute the identity of a youth, who says he is Connie Franklin, state and defense attorneys today prepared to submit the question to a jury, which next week will hear the case against five men accused of torturing and burning Franklin to death. A term of Circuit court has been called for Monday.

Tiler Rummel, 16, who said Franklin was slain by a band of nightriders while she and the farm hand were on their way to be married and Rueben Harrell, a deaf mute and reputed eye witness to the killing, have denied that the young man is Franklin.

The latest attempt to identification brought a denial from Coleman Foster, who said he was the "best friend" of Connie Franklin before his mysterious disappearance, that the youth here is the man he knew by that name. A few hours later, seven persons who said they knew Franklin before he came to the St. James community "positively" identified the youth as Franklin. Among them were a Mr. and Mrs. Saterlee of O'Neil near here, at whose home they said Franklin stopped on his way to St. James.

Handwriting experts are among the 75 witnesses summoned for the trial of the five men charged with murder.

The experts will be asked to compare the handwriting in a letter written by a Connie Franklin to the state hospital for nervous diseases at Little Rock, and that of the youth who says he is Connie Franklin.

Hungary Probes Husband Murders

Szolnok, Hungary, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Husband murders on an extensive scale by middle-aged and older Hungarian women are being investigated by the government here. Bodies of more than 30 persons have been exhumed for examination.

Szolnok has but 40,000 inhabitants, but a surprising number have been charged with participation in the murders, which have involved not only husbands but other relatives.

Officials have received anonymous letters saying the murders still continue.

One of the accused who already had testified is Juliane Lippka. She is alleged to have murdered seven relatives including her mother, her husband, an uncle. She charged another woman, Lydia Ota, aided her.

Paris—Wanted: A drinking song, something to go with the drink of wine glasses. The Society of the Friends of the Wines of Paris is offering a prize for it. The winner will have glory principally. The prize is $40.

Asheville Woman At Liberty Today In Murder Case

Asheville, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Frisby, accused by her father-in-law of murdering her husband, was at liberty today, her freedom gained through habeas corpus proceedings.

Judge Walter Moore, who heard her habeas corpus action, ruled yesterday that there was not sufficient evidence to hold her. The warrant under which she was arrested was sworn to by John R. Frisby, of near Marshall, who blamed her for the death of his son and her husband, Ernie Frisby, whose bullet-torn body was found in his home near Marshall in August, 1928.

The elder Frisby, himself tried and acquitted for the slaying, said he left his son's home one afternoon while Ernie Frisby and Mrs. Frisby were there and that when he returned the son was dead.

MERCHANTS TO PLACE TREES ON SIDEWALKS

Association Starts Movement By Erecting Tree in Front of Offices

Continuing their efforts to make Greenville the best decorated city in Eastern Carolina during the holiday season, members of the Merchants Association today requested merchants to place electrically lighted Christmas trees on the walks in front of their stores.

The association started the movement by placing a tree twelve feet high in front of its office on Evans street. The tree was placed in the hole usually used for the flagpole and will add much to the appearance of the business district both day and night, and especially at night, when the dozens of tiny multi-colored lights will twinkle a message of peace and good-will to the thousands of people thronging the business district.

The association specified the use of pine trees in order that the supply of holly in this section may not be further depleted. It was said that the young pines proved just as effective as holly and would retain their natural freshness throughout the holiday season.

Persons visiting Greenville the last few days declared the city the best decorated in this section of the state, but they were told the spectacle is nothing new compared to what it will be when decorations have been completed.

The Merchants Association has offered cash prizes of $35.00 to the best decorated home and $15.00 to the best decorated business houses. The offer last year created active competition among hundreds of people, and it is expected to arouse similar interest this year.

Numbers of the merchants were busy today putting the finishing touches on their windows, and the entire business district is expected to be a thing of beauty and splendor next week when holiday shopping gets under way at night.

Thousands of colored lights are already in evidence along main streets at this time but they will be greatly augmented by finishing touches to the decorations next week.

Commutes Sentence of Negro Slayer

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Twice reprobated, Percy Miller, Bertie county negro, who was convicted of murdering the Winston chief of police and sentenced to death, will escape the electric chair altogether.

Acting upon recommendation of N. A. Townsend, executive counsel, Governor O. Max Gardner late yesterday commuted the negro's sentence to life imprisonment. On two occasions as the time drew near for Miller's electrocution Judge Townsend asked Governor Gardner to grant a reprieve so that he might study the case further.

National guard troops guarded Miller during his trial. He was accused of shooting Pat White, Windsor official.

Speed In Wrong Place

Wilmette, Ill., Dec. 14.—(AP)—A policeman last night arrested Dick Hanley, for speeding.

Hanley tried to explain why he was, football coach at Northwestern University, and all that.

"So you're Dick Hanley, eh?" said the policeman. "Well, I'm Knute Rockne. Let's go over to the station house and meet Fielding H. Yost, D. Clarence Reapers, and the boys."

SAY STRIKERS FIRED OPENING SHOTS OF RIOT

Youth Testifies At Burnsville Hearing Today; Court Closes Until Monday

Burnsville, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Kermit Fender, red-haired, freckle-faced son of W. A. Fender, one of the deputy sheriffs on trial here charged with death of six men in a cotton mill strike disorder at Marion October 2, testified today that the first shots were fired from the ranks of strikers.

Fender, a 17-year-old employee in the cloth room of the Marion Manufacturing Company mill, in front of which he and strikers took place, said he was on his way to work in the mill when he saw the crowd at the mill gate.

"Pretty soon the crowd began pushing toward the mill gate, where the officers were. Tear gas was turned loose and I heard two shots fired from the center of the road, where the strikers were."

The boy said he stood "between the mob and the mill gate. 'I was standing there when one of the bullets hit me in the leg, just above the knee. I got behind a post. The people were still running by me after the shooting was all over."

State witnesses had testified that the officers in the mill gate continued to fire as the crowd of strikers ran down the road in front of the mill.

Under cross-examination by Charles Hutchins of Burnsville, of special prosecution counsel, young Fender was asked how much he had paid toward a fee for Clyde Hoey of Shelby, of defense counsel.

"Three dollars," Fender said. "Aren't you afraid Mr. Hoey will strike on you on such a small fee?"

"No, sir."

Defense testimony, which was begun yesterday after the state rested, was expected to continue through Monday or Tuesday.

The trial of Fender and the seven others, B. L. Robbins, Dave Jarrett, Jim Owens, Charles Tate, Taylor Greene, William Twigg, and Robert Ward, was sent to this little town in the mountains of Western North Carolina, on a change of venue from Marion.

R. P. Parker, a mill worker, testified today he had been warned by a union man in the crowd of strikers "not to go to the mill gate. You are likely to get killed."

Parker said he saw Sheriff Adkins and James Jonas, one of the six strikers killed in the battle, grappling just as pistol shots were fired from the crowd of strikers.

After four other witnesses had testified, the court took a recess at 12:20 until 9:30 Monday morning.

Judge G. Vernon Cowper, presiding, announced that Deputy Sheriff C. A. Proffitt would go with Juror John Ayres this afternoon to the funeral of the juror's grandchild, infant Martha Lou Ayres, and that the remainder of the jury will stay at a boarding house.

Congressman Quits Committee Position Because of Negro

Washington, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Representative Algood of Alabama, liked the idea of serving on an honorary committee of the House until the distinction had to be shared with a negro. Then, he quit.

The southern Democrat presented his resignation from the committee on enrolled bills to speaker Longworth late yesterday because Representative DePrester, of Illinois, a negro, had been made a member also. His withdrawal was accepted by the House.

Algood explained that since the enrolled bills committee was honorary it offered no opportunity for service to his district and said "Now that the Republican from Chicago has been added to it I do not desire the honor."

America Will Get Radio Treat From Abroad Christmas

New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—An attempt is to be made to give radio America a Christmas present from abroad.

Plans are being perfected by the National Broadcasting company to pick up programs originating in England, Germany and Holland on Christmas and rebroadcast them through its entire network. Details of the programs are being arranged in addition NBC will make available to the world via short waves on Christmas Eve, a Christmas card, sent to be picked up from Madison Square Garden, New York. More than 15,000 stations will participate, with about 400 clubs and societies invited. The program also will go to the American network.

MARKETS
COTTON MARKET

New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 1 to 4 points under week-end liquidation and some southern or local selling, the latter being promoted by relatively easy Liverpool cables. The census report placing domestic consumption for November at 54,150 bales against 64,798 in October, and 611,173 in November, 1928, seemed nearly enough in line with expectations to be without any particular effect on the market but prices held fairly steady at the initial decline.

At the end of the first half hour January was selling around 17.07 and May 16.62 or 3 to 4 points net lower while December was relatively easy, showing a net decline of 7 points.

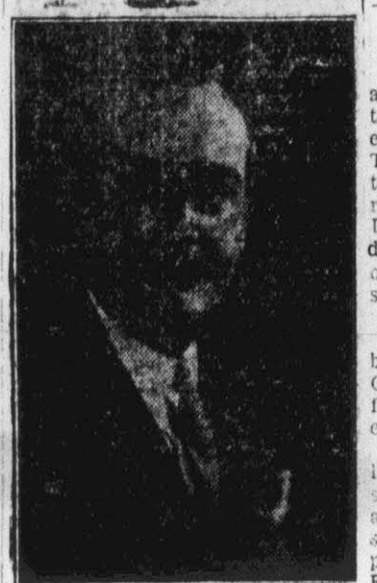

Liverpool cables reported hedging together with local and continental liquidation in that market influenced by weakness in Egypt.

The amount of cotton on ship-board awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 212,238 bales against 236,155 last year.

$300,000 LIFE INSURANCE for CHARLES STORES EMPLOYEES

CHARLES COPLON, President
 CHARLES STORES COMPANY, INC.

New York, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Three hundred thousand dollars in life insurance will be the Christmas gift of the Charles Stores Company, Inc. to the employees who have been associated with the company for six months or longer.

Three hundred and seventy seven of the six hundred employed are eligible for this group insurance which was written by Elmer G. Leterman, vice president of Stetebins, Leterman and Gating, 1540 Broadway, one of the leading insurance brokers of the country, and contracted with the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, Mass. The individual policies vary in amounts from $500 to $5000.

In making this announcement today, Charles Coplon, president of the Charles Stores Company, home offices 370 Seventh Avenue, New York City, said, "We have taken out group life insurance which will cost the individual policy holder nothing. The premiums have been paid in full for this year and will be paid each year by the Charles Stores company so long as the policy holder remains in our employ."

"After due deliberation, our stock holders decided to present our employees with life insurance instead of the customary one week's pay. We feel that in so doing we are demonstrating to our people that we are sincerely interested in their welfare even, as, in subscribing to group insurance, we are co-operating with President Hoover who has requested every citizen to do his bit to stabilize business and promote the welfare of our country."

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Wheat slid down today to the lowest prices here since Nov. 18. Assertions that export demand for North American wheat would remain slack until after January 1, had a tendency to promote speculative selling, and the market closed at virtually the day's bottom level.

Wheat closed heavy 2-1/4 to 2-3/4 lower than yesterday's finish; corn 1 to 1-1/8 off and provisions unchanged to a setback of 15c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Heavy buying of the railroad shares, presumably in expectation of favorable merger developments, featured today's brief session of the stock market. Renewed liquidation developed in the industrial and public utility groups, forcing many of the leaders down 1 to 3 points, but irregular recoveries took place in the last hour of trading.

A high light of the day's news was that a corporation plans to spend $300,000,000 for expansion and settlements over the next three years. Reports from several of the leading cities of the country indicated that Christmas trade to date compared favorably with a year ago although the weekly mercantile reviews called attention to a recession in some of the jobbing and wholesale lines.

The erratic action of the market during the past few days has scared many small traders out of the market until the price trend becomes more clearly defined. Brokers reported an increase in so-called "amateur short selling," as well as heavy bear operations by professional traders, pool activity is more cautious in character.

Cotton Consumption Falls Off Slightly

Washington, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Cotton consumed during November as announced today by the Census Bureau totaled 54,150 bales of lint and 63,408 of linters, compared with 64,798 and 82,747 in October this year and 611,173 and 69,353 in November last year.

Cotton on hand November 30th was held as follows:

In consuming establishments, 1,671,829 bales of lint and 1,682,305 of linters, compared with 1,360,567 and 1,434,478 on October 31 this year, and 1,566,542 and 1,311,589 on November 30 last year.

Imports for November totaled 35,502 bales, compared with 19,815 in October this year and 40,291 in November last year.

Exports for November totaled 1,648,760 bales of lint and 1,255,555 of linters, compared with 1,251,300 and 1,192 in October this year and 1,277,772 and 23,805 in November last year.

Cotton spindles active during November numbered 29,649,394 compared with 30,134,716 in October this year and 30,595,640 in November last year.
