SAYS ACTIVITY OFF FARM BOARD HARMS WHEAT

Head of U. S. Chamber of Commerce Declares Production is Over-Stimulated

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Julius Barnes, chairman of the board of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and grain exporter, testified today before the Senate Lobby committee that the activities of the Farm Board were tending to overestimate the production of wheat.

Barnes said he was sorry that Farm Board policies had to be discussed because "business was willing to give the board a chance to get started."

He said he objected at a conference with Chairman Legge of the Farm Board to the board's plan of loaning money to wheat co-operatives at the current grain price with the understanding that the producers were to share in any subsequent increase.

Barnes was called by the Lobby committee after reports that he had promised the board's policies to President Hoover. This was subsequently denied at the white house and today Barnes testified that he had never discussed the board with Hoover and that he had only one conference with Legge.

He said he arranged this because of "growing bitterness" among grain men and that at the meetings there were three Minneapolis grain dealers.

As a result, he testified, the board announced a policy under which loans would be extended to local elevators at the same rates as to farm co-operative members.

In answer to questioning by Chairman Caraway of the committee, Barnes asserted that he favored a policy that would let the producers "live" but he also said he wished to preserve the independent grain dealer. He said he favored control by the producer of 40 per cent of the crop.

The Chamber of Commerce official was at times questioned sharply by committee members. Senator Caraway at one time describing him as "uncandid" after Barnes held it was unfair to read a letter written by another and then ask him in the views expressed against the board were his own.

This letter was written by Ben C. McCabe of Duluth and was read by Caraway. It predicted failure for the farm board.

Barnes said he believed the board would be successful but he added that he believed it should change its policy to eliminate discrimination. He asserted the board's policies placed the independent buyer at a disadvantage. He amplified this statement by saying that loaning the cooperatives money at 2 1/2 per cent while private dealers had to pay six per cent was "unfair and unsound."

Sire of Famous Race Horses Dead

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Fair Play, sire of Man O' War, the super-horse, and a score of other money winners, is dead of the infirmities of age. The great son of Hastings—imported fairly gold, foaled in 1905, passed yesterday at the Elmendorf estate of his master, Joseph E. Widener.

Fair Play flourished under the regime of the late Major August Belmont, and at the death of that sportsman was sold at the dispersal sale of the Belmont thoroughbreds in 1925 for $100,000 to Mr. Widener. The latter turned down many huge offers for the horse.

Fair Play became famous when he won Man O' War, which won every race in which he started except the one in which he was defeated by Harry Whitney's upset. Man O' War now is at stud near here, along with a number of other sons.

Fair Play was the sire also of such great stars of the turf as Mad Play, Ladkin, Stomboli, Baracade, My Play, Mad Hatter, Dunlin, Chatterton, Sporting Blood, Sands of Pleasure and Flare.

To Raise Famous House

New York.—Razing of the house which inspired the poem beginning "Twas the night before Christmas" is threatened for subway purposes. In the house at Elmhurst, Long Island, Professor Clement Clarke Moore wrote the verses that have thrilled generations of children. Borough President Harvey suggests that the house be moved to a city park and preserved.

Destroys Toys Collected For Charity Needs

Salisbury, Dec. 17.—(AP)—He may not be the meanest man in the world but he will run that chap a close second. Last night some unknown person broke into the First Presbyterian church but where Boy Scouts have repaired more than 500 broken toys in the past few weeks for charity distribution at Christmas. He took an axe, ripped off boards to a cabinet and then demolished a large portion of them.

The Scouts will keep on with their work as they have several hundred more toys to repair and Santa Claus will come at Christmas, but perhaps with a lighter bag of toys.

ACCEPTS SEAT IN THE SENATE

Dwight W. Morrow to Succeed Baird as Senator From New Jersey

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Dwight W. Morrow today formally announced his acceptance of the appointment as senator from New Jersey upon resignation of Senator Baird.

The Ambassador to Mexico will assume the new duties as soon as his work as a delegate to the London arms conference has been completed.

His statement read: "I appreciate highly the great honor which Governor Larson has conferred upon me and more generous action of Senator Baird. I have advised the governor that I will accept the office of United States Senator as soon as my public obligations, already assumed, have been discharged.

"Upon the completion of the work of the naval disarmament conference in London, I must return to Mexico for a few weeks where there are unfinished duties to be performed.

"I will be a candidate in the Republican primary in June. If the voters of New Jersey should elect me to the Senate, I will give my best to the service of the state and nation. I shall be sorry to leave Mexico from whose government and people I have received so much friendly and helpful cooperation, but I am happy in coming back to New Jersey where for 26 years I have lived and made my home."

Senator Baird was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Walter E. Edge, who was selected by President Hoover as ambassador to France. Baird will relinquish the office in favor of Morrow.

Students Win Fight for New Dean After Buenos Aires Strike

Buenos Aires, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Students at the National University Law school apparently have won their fight for designation of a new dean of the school after a strike and demonstrations which reached the stage of rioting and violence.

The superior council of the University in a session last night agreed with the law faculty to place Dr. Ricardo Rojas in charge of the school. Dr. Juan Ramos, opposition to whom as dean prompted the students' conflict, presented his resignation.

The students, when they learned they had won their point, surrendered the law school building to the new dean and went to their homes. The trouble began Saturday when the law school students struck in protest against the administration of Dean Juan Ramos. They seized the school building, barricaded the doors with furniture, and with 15 days supply of food on hand, prepared to hold their fort.

Police broke into the building Monday morning and dislodged the students, who reorganized and attempted to retake the building. Police dispersed them after some rough and tumble fighting.

Last night a group of about 70, armed with sticks, iron bars and impromptu weapons, regained the building and held it until word came of resignation of Ramos.

FORMER DRY AGENT FOUND GUILTY TODAY

Bootlegger Also Adjudged Guilty of Conspiracy to Violate Prohibition Law

Greensboro, Dec. 17.—(AP)—John S. Funk, former prohibition agent of the middle district of North Carolina, and A. S. "Guss" Dowdy, alleged bootlegger, of Danville, Va., indicted jointly for conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law, were found guilty by a Greensboro Federal court jury in a verdict which was returned this morning.

After less than four hours of deliberation, the jurors were in their box this morning at the opening of court, ready to render a verdict. The case was placed in their hands last night at 8:30 o'clock by Judge Johnson J. Hayes and at 11 o'clock, after failing to agree, were ordered locked up for the night.

Julius C. Smith, representing attorneys for the defense, made a motion to set aside the verdict for arrest of judgment and a hearing at the special term of court which convenes here on January 6. The motion was granted by Judge Hayes. Assignment of errors will be presented by the defense at that time.

Five defendants were re-arrested shortly after the verdict under bonds of $5,000 each. Dowdy, who was under a bond of $500 during the trial, was ordered by Judge Hayes to post $5,000 security as soon as the court ascertained that his security was so small. Funk has been bonded since the trial began.

The return of the verdict in the Funk-Dowdy case today concluded the current term of court in Greensboro but a special term will convene on the morning of January 6 and which time the remainder of the December calendar will be called.

Advocates Higher Newsprint Prices

Montreal, Dec. 17.—(AP)—L. A. Taschereau, Premier of Quebec, in an address last night, declared the governments of Ontario and Quebec would not be satisfied until paper manufacturers of the two provinces receive a "fair return" on newsprint paper.

He said both the government of Ontario and Quebec have come to the conclusion that $60 a ton is a fair price, which is an increase of $3 a ton over the present price, and that he had been assured by some United States consumers that it is not excessive.

Speaking at a meeting under the auspices of the Laurier Hebrew Political club in honor of P. K. A. Cardinal minister of marine and fisheries, he said neither provincial government would take any legislative action to fix the price of newsprint, but that both governments were determined that a fair return should be received.

Bank of Castalia Closes Its Doors

Raleigh, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The State Banking Department today had taken over the affairs of the Bank of Castalia, Nash county, following the closing of the institution yesterday.

Deposits of about $19,000 were in the bank when it was closed. State Banking Department officials estimated that the bank was capitalized at $12,600 and had resources estimated at about $30,000.

Business depression and "frozen assets" were said to have caused the bank to close.

Robbed of Jewelry

Beverly Hills, Calif., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Mrs. C. M. Braun, wealthy widow, reported to the police yesterday that she had been robbed of jewelry worth $38,000 while two women were telling her fortune in a darkened room.

Approve Proposal for Investigation of Haitian Trouble

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The House foreign affairs committee today approved the revised Porter resolution to authorize the President to appoint a commission of seven to investigate conditions in Haiti and report within six months.

The original resolution, which was supported by Undersecretary of State Cotton, merely provided for a commission "to study and review the United States policies in Haiti."

The measure approved today specified a commission of seven members to study and review conditions in Haiti and the policies of the United States in that republic.

It also would provide $50,000 for expenses of the commission.

Trans-Atlantic Fliers Forced Down In Brazil; Airman Slightly Hurt

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Major Tadeo Larre-Borges, Uruguayan flier, and his French companion, Lieut. Leon Challe, made a forced landing last night on the northeastern coast of Brazil after a 3,600-mile flight from Seville, Spain, across the south-Atlantic.

Both fliers were slightly injured and Major Larre-Borges was able to start for the town of Santo Antonio. To make certain, however, that the fliers were given every attention, physicians and others left Natal for the scene of the landing this morning to render aid.

The trans-Atlantic plane turned over on landing in a wild spot near the village of Maracuja and was wrecked.

From the meagre information which trickled to the outside world from Maracuja over a private telegraph line, it appeared that the fliers reached the Brazilian coast from Spain early last night, lost their way and then made a forced landing.

The wrecked plane was at a considerable distance from any habitation and it was not until a band of horsemen on their way to the coast reached it that word could be sent to Natal of the forced landing. The Brazilian authorities immediately made every effort to send aid to the fliers.

The head of the Brazilian postal aviation service ordered a plane to proceed immediately to Maracuja early today.

The village at which the fliers landed is near Turos. That city was the landing point of Captain Arturo Ferrarin and his companion, Major Carlo Del Prete, in July, 1928, when they established a new world's flight distance record recently broken by Captain Dieu-donne Coste, the noted French aviator, on a flight from France to China.

With news of the fliers' landing at Maracuja crowds of eager sightseers began to leave the surrounding countryside for the village.

Major Larre-Borges, who is a Uruguayan, made an attempt to fly from Europe to South America in 1927 but made a forced landing on the North African coast and for several weeks disappeared from view. Eventually he turned up under escort on a Moorish caravan which had held him for ransom.

Lieut. Challe is an experienced flier who made many long distance flights in 1926, establishing a world's non-stop record up to that time for a flight to Persia from France.

The two fliers took off from Seville, Spain, at 12:40 p. m., Sunday, Spanish time, or 7:40 a. m., Eastern Standard time.

Throughout the flight they made excellent time, averaging well up to 100 miles an hour until they lost their way. The fliers had shown particular anxiety regarding weather conditions on the coast, having sent several wireless messages asking for information.

Heflin Declares Forces On N. Y. Cotton Market Tried To Produce Panic

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The opinion "that certain forces" were in control of the New York Cotton Market and had sought to produce a panic, was expressed today by Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, at a Senate agriculture sub-committee hearing on speculative activities on the New York, Chicago and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges.

Heflin, who sponsored the resolution under which the inquiry was ordered, said he had "no doubt" whatever that a large speculative force in New York had deliberately tried to produce a panic in the minds of the farmer administration.

He added that had it not been for the Federal reserve board system, "the attempt would have succeeded."

"The question is," he said, "whether this country can let this go on. Something has got to happen and it's coming out of this committee."

The Alabama senator asserted that so far the sub-committee had heard only those who supported the cotton exchanges, but that after the Christmas recess, "witnesses on the other side of the question" would be heard.

Referring to a newspaper clipping which Heflin said assailed the hearings had depressed the market, he advised the sub-committee to "watch the effect" when the other testimony was taken.

"The idea," he said, "that these hearings have affected the market. They're trying to make the investigation unpopular. The purpose is to deceive the people so there won't be any investigation."

W. L. Clayton, Houston Texas cotton merchant, who was on the stand against today said "nothing has been brought out here that would have the effect of depressing the market."

The Alabamian said he thought selling of hedges might be responsible for the decline and suggested legislation might be enacted to prevent such sales, but Senator Walcott, Republican, Connecticut, said he believed it would be as impossible to prevent "puts and calls" on the New York Stock Exchange as it would be to stop hedging on the cotton market.

"I believe it would be unwise," Clayton observed, "to say that those who speculate shall do so only on one side of the market."

Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, said he believed there was some significance "in all this barish talk, and I believe we can get the facts."

"This powerful influence is emanating from somewhere," he added, "and we haven't found anything in the statistics to justify the situation."

He suggested the sub-committee should go to the "center" of the situation and demand "books and papers," if necessary.

Clayton predicted more active buying of cotton by spinners after the Christmas holidays.

FOUR MEN GO ON TRIAL FOR KILLING BOY

Two Brothers Paint Contrasting Pictures in Connie Franklin Case Today

Court House, Mountain View, Ark. Dec. 17.—(AP)—Two brothers painted highly contrasting pictures of the disappearance of Connie Franklin from the St. James community last March in opening statements today to the jury trying four men on charges of murdering Franklin.

Prosecuting Attorney Hugh Williamson said the state would prove that Connie Franklin was beaten to death on what was to have been his wedding night and his body buried.

Ben Williamson, counsel for the defense, asserted the defense would show that Franklin walked unharmed from the St. James community near here and had returned nine months later to tell a jury he was not slain.

The jury was completed early today, the second day of the trial of Herman Greenway, Hubert Hester, Bill Younger and Joe White. The twelfth juror, a world war veteran who distinguished himself there was accepted after fifty-eight veniremen had been questioned.

The prosecutor, in outlining his case to the jury, declared testimony would show that Franklin's sweetheart, beaten to death with knuckles and rocks and that she was assaulted by two of the defendants. She was named as the only eye witness to the alleged murder.

On the following night, Sunday March 10, the prosecutor said testimony would show that Teuben Harrell, a deaf mute, was strolling through the woods near the scene where the Rummier girl says her lover was slain and saw Herman Greenway, one of the defendants bearing a body toward a fire. At a spot in this vicinity, he said, Sheriff Sam Johnson later found bones which he said had been identified as those of a human.

In closing, he said the man claiming to be Connie Franklin, would be proved an impostor.

Ben Williamson in his statement said it would be shown by the defense that Franklin and some of the defendants became intoxicated on the night of March 9 as they were on their way to Mountain View to obtain a marriage license for Connie and the Rummier girl. They did not complete the trip. The next day, he said, Tiller told Franklin she wished to postpone the wedding until fall and thereupon he told her if she did not marry him at once, she would never see him again.

A natural wanderer, Williamson said, he drifted away from St. James to be seen in this section ten days ago from a farm at Humphrey, Ark. Williamson said his movements from the time he left St. Joseph would be traced by witnesses.

"We will prove to you that no such crime as the state alleges ever occurred in the St. James community he concluded."

Seeks Divorce From Sunday

Los Angeles, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Process servers with divorce papers today were looking for George M. Sunday, for whose arrest police of Los Angeles and Oakland, Cal., already hold warrants for.

Mrs. Harriet M. Sunday, who last month swore to warrants for her husband and Mrs. Mauryne La Salle, clerk model of Indianapolis and Hollywood, charging adultery, yesterday asked the Los Angeles superior court to grant her a divorce from Sunday, who is the eldest son of the Rev. William A. Sunday, evangelist. She names Mrs. La Salle as co-respondent.

Mrs. Sunday asks $5,000 attorney's fees, $1,250 per month alimony and custody of the two Sunday children, George Jr., 15, and John, 13. She says that Sunday's income from his Los Angeles real estate business and other sources is $3,000 per month. She alleges that Sunday drank to excess, called her "vile names" and was physically and mentally cruel to her.

Sixty Miners Are Entombed In Oklahoma

McAlester, Okla., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Sixty miners were reported entombed in the Old Town Coal Company's mine at North McAlester by an explosion which occurred shortly before 11 a. m. today.

Rescue crews were rushed to the mine and immediate efforts begun to free the imprisoned miners.

Officials of the mining company said sixty men went to work in the mine this morning and none had left before the explosion.

Unable to enter the mine through the opening, the rescue crews started sinking a shaft near the Old Town depot of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad. The imprisoned miners were believed in a tunnel almost under the depot.

The Bureau of Mines rescue station here reunited first aid crews from mines throughout this region and rushed them to the scene. Whether any of the miners were killed outright, had not been learned.

Five More Opportunity Cases Taken by Individuals and Organizations Today

With cash donations of $20.50 reported during the last 24 hours, the Merchants Association Christmas fund for the poor people of the community had climbed to the $105.50 mark at the noon hour today, according to a report issued from the office of the secretary.

The report also indicated that five more "opportunity" cases had been taken by various individuals and organizations of the community, bringing the number of cases taken to around two dozen or more.

Contributions were: Mrs. W. B. Brown, $10.00; Cash, $5.00; Mrs. F. G. James, $5.00; Joe Griffin, colored, 50c; Mrs. Nannie D. Holliman, $1.00; Miss Frances Eagwell, $1.00.

Opportunity case taken follow: Case No. 15—Taken by Circle 1 of the Christian Church.

Case No. 20—Taken by the Social Service Dept. of the Methodist Church.

Case No. 32—Taken by Red Cross.

Case No. 40—Taken by Circle 3 of the Christian Church.

Case No. 53—Taken by Bible Class of the Memorial Baptist Church.

With Christmas barely over a week away, contributions to the fund are expected to roll in rapidly from now on, members of the committee said today. Every effort is being put forward to provide a sufficient amount of money, clothing and fuel to take care of the deplorable situation existing in various parts of the locality, and giving from now on must be far more liberal than it has been if this objective is obtained.

Additional "opportunity" cases are being reported to the Welfare Department from day to day as investigators go about their work of determining persons worthy of assistance. It was stated authoritatively that conditions among the poor were much more serious than at first supposed and that suffering would be very pronounced during the winter months if proper arrangements are not made for the care of the families.

OFFICER GIVES TESTIMONY IN STRIKE TRIAL

One of Six Men On Trial at Burnsville Tells of Disorders at Marion Mill

Burnsville, N. C., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Broadus L. Robbins, middle-aged constable of Marion township, and one of eight deputy sheriffs on trial here charged with murder of six men during a cotton mill strike disorder in Marion October 2, gave his version of the disorder today.

Robbins was the third defendant to testify. Webb A. Fender and Marion Manufacturing company, William Twigg, employees of the Marion Manufacturing company, where the battle took place, who were special deputies on the day of the disturbance, testified at last night's session of court.

The Marion constable began his story by reviewing past labor troubles in the Marion vicinity when, he said, he observed a threatening attitude of the mill strikers toward officers. He said he had been constable of Marion township 18 years.

Robbins proceeded on the stand by 14 character witnesses for the defendants. The witnesses included A. M. Kistler, of Morganton, president of several banks and a member of the state highway commission; police officers J. M. Walton and S. D. Ollis of Morganton; G. F. Harmon, mayor of Old Fort; J. H. Giles, former representative in the legislature from Burke county, and several employees of the Marion mill.

Defense testimony in the trial set here on a change of venue drew near an end today. The other defendants, Dave Jarrett, Jim Owens, Charles Tate, Taylor Greene and Robert Ward were expected to follow Robbins on the stand.

Robbins said about 75 per cent of the crowd of strikers carried on the morning of October 2. The constable said he heard Sheriff Oscar Adkins of Marion "beating the crowd" to stand back.

"Someone in the crowd" Robbins testified "yelled, let's go home and get our guns and shoot it out with them." Somebody followed "hell, we don't have to get our guns, we've got 'em here."

Soon after tear gas was released by the officers, Robbins related, the shooting began.

"Shots came from the crowd. I saw one man, W. G. Hall, brother of Randolph Hall, shooting directly at me. I drew my gun and fired twice at him." Randolph Hall, James Jones, Samuel Vickers, James Roberts, Tilden Carver and Luther Egan received fatal gunshot wounds in the fight.

The witness testified he fired "to save my own life."

Robbins said he "heard a lick and saw Sheriff Adkins down and old man Jones on top of him," he said he saw firing from both sides, and saw Deputies Greene and Tate each fire one shot.

"Did you hear any shots fired after the crowd started to run away?"

"No, sir," he said, emphatically. After the shooting, Robbins said, he helped to put Jones in the sheriff's car and drive to town with him.

"Jones was cuffing and Ward and me were holding him. When we got near town Jones quieted down and got pale and we took him to the hospital instead of the jail," Robbins said. Jones died of a gunshot wound. The way in which he received the wound has never been established beyond question.

Under cross examination, Robbins said Jones was one of the "strongest men I ever got hold of."

"And isn't it a fact that he required four men to put him in the car, and that he was at death's door when he reached the hospital, a mile away," Robbins was asked.

"I don't know about him being near death," said Robbins.

HERBERT A. WHITE.
Whereas, on Monday, December 9th, 1929, God in His all-wise providence, removed from our midst Herbert A. White, at the zenith of his usefulness, and while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we cannot understand Mr. White's life as one of devotion to his family, to his friends and to the well of the entire community. Honesty, integrity and love for his fellow man characterized his entire life. He had a fund of knowledge always at the disposal of his friends who sought his advice in every phase of human endeavor. No attempt will be made to review his career, suffice it to say that Herbert White lived a full, christian life and that all his dealings were beyond reproach. We realize the fact that in the death of Mr. White, the Home Building & Loan Association has lost a most loyal and efficient officer, who served as its secretary-treasurer since its inception with marked ability and great success. He nursed the Association in its infancy, and left it a full grown million dollar industry to live after him and perpetuate his good name. Under the management of Mr. White the Association has the distinction of never having lost a penny.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Home Building & Loan Association has lost by the death of Mr. White a most valuable and efficient officer whom we honored and loved with great affection. Be it resolved, therefore, that a copy of these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the Association, that a copy be furnished to the bereaved family and the local paper. Most respectfully submitted.

Grimsland P. T. A. News.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Grimsland High school met at their regular meeting Monday night December 9. The regular business meeting proceeded, with Mrs. S. A. Porter presiding. The fifth, ninth, and eleventh grades won the star for having the largest percent of parents present.

The problem of an undernourished child in school was taken up. Different patrons of the school agreed to give a hot lunch to her every day. Another assumed the responsibility of collecting suitable clothing. This is an example of the work our P. T. A. is endeavoring to do. Miss McKee has visited us to help select the children that are undernourished. We are hoping to accomplish some of the objectives that Dr. John Cotten Taylor spoke of in the first meeting of the year. At the conclusion of the business meeting, the P. T. A. was entertained with several delightful songs by Misses Alma Marks, Mary Lee Elks, Dorcas Jackson and Mr. Clifford Godley.

EXPRESS APPRECIATION OF TINY TOT CIRCUS AID

The Patient Circle of The King's Daughters and Sons and the Pitt County Chapter of the American Red Cross wish to express their deep appreciation to the press for advertising, to Mr. J. H. Ross, superintendent, Miss Keeter, and Mrs. Gene Robeson, Miss Helen Gray, teachers, and the children of the Model School annex for the beautiful thought of bringing Christmas cheer and good-will through the medium of our organization to the under-privileged child by presenting the Tiny Tot circus for our benefit. Every character was wonderfully portrayed and they executed their characters so well we can not discriminate. But we wish to thank each individual child for his part in same and to the public for their liberal patronage. You made it possible to aid old Santa in distributing toys at Christmas, which will brighten and cheer them.

Through recommendations of the Central Council we distributed to twelve needy families nice warm clothes, fruits and groceries, $3.85 in cash with which flour, coffee, meats and vegetables were purchased. We alleviated their dire necessities at once. The thanks and appreciation of the beneficiaries was very beautiful and their beaming countenances would have repaid you for your splendid work.

Mrs. Thomas McGee,
President of the Patient Circle,
Secretary of A. R. C.
Mrs. J. L. Hassell,
Chairman.

ROTES DONATE SUPPER FUND TO THE POOR

Eat Frugal Meal and Turn Saving Over to Local Fund for the Poor

The epicurean palates of Greenville Rotarians were denied their regular supper menu last night when the Rotes partook of a frugal meal in order to be able to donate the saving to the fund now being collected in behalf of the poor people of the community. The curricular meal was decided upon at the last meeting and actually went into effect last night when a menu consisting of sandwiches, shrimp, cold peanuts and coffee comprised the evening's repast. The sandwiches and peanuts were donated to the club by Cooper Taylor, of the Lane Packing Company, and the shrimp by Rotarian Charlie Flynn of the Washington Packing Company.

It was not stated how much saving was derived from the plan, but whatever it was will be turned over to the Merchants Association to be used in the movement to carry Christmas cheer to the several hundred people reported to be suffering from dire want at this time.

The program last night was in charge of the International Relations committee, and consisted of a talk by Frank Cooper, a former resident of this city, but who for the past several years has been employed in South Africa. Mr. Cooper gave a keen insight into the living conditions of the South Africa territory, and told in an interesting way of the customs of the natives.

Another speaker of the evening was Harold Pezzarini, who also spoke on South African conditions. He told of the industrial life of the country and gave interesting sidelights on the diamond industry, the major industry of the country. He told of government control of the diamond fields, and how so many diamonds were released each year to maintain a desired price level. He graphically portrayed the rush of humanity to new diamond fields, and the difficult time the government had in safeguarding the property.

Carl Goerch, Washington humorist, was also one of the guests of the club, and made several humorous remarks concerning the curtailed supper. President F. C. Harding presided over the session. Aside from surprising the Rotes with the addition of shrimp to their menu, Rotarian Fletcher presented each member of the club with a can of shrimp to take home with him. It was purely an advertising feature, he explained, but he just wanted to let everybody know that they can get the things in Washington and had plenty for future consumption.

Government Acts When Firemen Go Out on a Strike

Montevideo, Uruguay, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Strikes may be legal but when the firemen here quit their engines and ladders because Congress adjourned without voting them a raise in pay, the government merely called them to the colors and assigned them to their regular duties as soldiers.

The same procedure was adopted when a score of policemen who voted to walk out in sympathy with the firemen, but when they still balked regular troops were called to arrest the "deserters." Troops occupied police headquarters to prevent additional defections.

Passengers Saved When Ship Wrecks

Wellington, New Zealand, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Two hundred passengers and crew were landed safely when the steamship Manuka, 4334 tons, was wrecked today at Long Point, between Bluff and Wunedin. The cargo, including a collection of British picture valued at approximately 25,000 pounds, was lost.

Speedy Relief for Sore Throat

The Doctor's Prescription Requires No Gargling. No longer is it necessary to gargle and choke with nasty tasting medicines to relieve sore throat. Now you can get almost instant relief with one swallow of a doctor's prescription. This prescription was refined so often and became so popular that the drug-gist who originally filled it decided to put it up under the name Thoxine and make it available to every one. The remarkable thing about Thoxine is that it relieves almost instantly, yet contains nothing harmful. It is a pleasant tasting, and safe for the whole family, and is guaranteed to relieve sore throats or coughs in 15 minutes or money back. Just ask for Thoxine, 50c, 60c, and $1.00. Pitt Drug Co.

winning one of the cash prizes for your effort, but will have the consolation of possessing one of the outstanding homes in the city during the holiday season.

Have you contributed to the Merchants Association fund for the poor? If not, why not get busy at once and give as liberally as it is possible for you to give.

The idea of placing Christmas trees on the sidewalks in front of stores in the principal business district is a good one, and should greatly beautify those sections during the holiday season.

The movement was started by the Merchants Association last Friday and since that time numbers of trees have appeared along Evans street and Dickinson avenue, showing the fine spirit of co-operation existing among the business men.

Lighted by hundreds of tiny lights, the trees will add much to the brilliant electrical display along the principal business thoroughfares, and will enable Greenville to win recognition as the best dressed city in this part of the state.

This is the last week in which to do your Christmas shopping before the coming of Christmas week, so why not get busy and purchase the majority of your gifts.

The stores began remaining open at night last night, and from now on they will cater to the shoppers from this great trade territory both day and night.

Greenville is recognized as the principal shopping center of the section and it matters not where you live, you will find it to your advantage to inspect local stocks before buying elsewhere.

If you have not completed solving your Christmas gift problem, why not include a year's subscription to the Daily Reflector. This would be appropriate indeed for the former Greenville man or woman living in some other community.

The Reflector is one of the oldest institutions in this part of the state. It has been going into the homes of the community as a daily for more than 45 years and much longer counting the time it was operated as a weekly.

SHIRES LOSES RING BATTLE TO THE BEAR

Chicago, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Napoleon met his Wellington. Arthur the Great! Shires has met his big bear.

Flushed and self-admittedly great cause of his unofficial one round fight over his erstwhile white manager, Russell Blackburne, at his 21 second knockout over dangerous Dan Daly of Cleveland his professional ring debut a week ago, "The Great" Shires tackled George Trafton, the "Big Bear" of professional football last night and got the beating of his life.

Before a howling throng of 5,000 spectators, who packed the White City Arena to its creaking rafters, Trafton met and decisively conquered the loquacious, punch-slacking Sox first baseman. Packing the enormous blows behind his pommies, he battered Shires to the floor three times and won the decision by a wide margin after five rounds of toe-to-toe milling.

It was the first setback for the great one, but it didn't finish his career. As a physician attending to his split lip and damaged chin, announced with no little hauteur, he was ready and willing to accept his agreement to meet the emphyse of the Cub doughnut.

Jack Wilson, sometime in January, for did he feel disgraced by his feat. He halfway admitted Trafton's superiority but pointed out that he was outweighed by 40 pounds.

"I didn't want to meet that big user and I've got a mind to sock manager on the jaw," he grunted. "But I fought the best I could had my own laugh at the kickers who paid five dollars a seat. 'em laugh at me all they want let 'em fight I'm dumb. I got a grand ($3,000) for the fight and will get $10,000 more for swinging socks with Hack Wilson."

Shires fought a courageous fight last night but Trafton's grit, light and superior boxing ability was too much for him. Only at the start of the battle did he look like the "great one" who sent Daly sleep. At the top of the bell, he sped like a panther from his corner, rocking the "big bear" with a storm of wild rights and lefts. Trafton weathered the storm and carried the attack to Shires' reafter. Three times in the first round, Trafton's looping left hooks hit the Texan to the canvas.

After that round and what actual punches the two tired fighters could deliver, it was all Trafton. Three-fourths of the remaining three rounds, he gave Shires a few almighty smashes and then walked around like any bear in a zoo with a very tired Mr. Shires walking over him, five feet away.

But the large crowd, which paid more than $15,000 to see the fight, more than satisfied, realizing the two had fought every ounce of their vitality. The little arena was an uproar, which was deafening when the two started each round by toe-to-toe milling. Friends of both rubbed to their corners between rounds offering advice. Women and men stood up during the fight swinging their fists to convey advice and twice the noise was so great that Arthur and George fought overtime because the referee couldn't hear the bell.

The two met in the shower bath after the fight, shook hands, commented each other for "making kickers out of those fight fans," and then went arm in arm to a club.

Trafton was in a jovial mood. "I'll fight anybody for another $10,000," he chuckled. "That's any game. How long has this been going on?"

GREATEST JAPANESE TENNIS PLAYER QUITS

Tokyo, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Ichiya Kumagai, acclaimed the greatest tennis player Japan ever produced, has announced his retirement from tournament play, having reached the ripe old age—for tennis—of 40.

Henceforth he will confine his tennis interest to coaching promising young players and engaging in an occasional mild game for exercise and recreation.

Kumagai recently proved that he is far from "through" by winning the doubles championship of Japan with Takeichi Harada, 29-year-old veteran who is planning a return to Davis cup competition this season after two years absence. The Japanese team, under Harada's leadership is to challenge in the European zone in 1930 instead of in the American zone as it always has done before.

LAST TICKETS SOLD FOR NEW YEAR'S GAME

The last of the tickets was disposed of yesterday. There has been no public sale of tickets, all having been mailed in response to applications.

The gate will approximate $200,000. Most of the tickets were sold at $5 with a few at $6 and the remainder at $3.

BETHA HEADS FLORIDA FOOTBALL TEAM

Gainesville, Fla., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Leroy "Red" Betha, halfback, was elected captain of the 1930 Florida football team at a banquet of his teammates here last night.

Jimmy Steele, guard, was named alternate captain. Both are juniors.

SPORTS SLANTS

With crafty old Pop Warner planning a warm reception for West Point at Palo Alto during Christmas week, there is still time to give three rousing cheers for the "Warner system," even though it has had to yield no small part of the spotlight to the "Rockney method" for 1929.

Pop, after busting the bubble of California's hopes in the big game on the coast, journeyed East to see two of his former pupils, Andy Kerr at Colgate and Jack Sutherland at Pittsburgh, direct two of the strongest aggregations to be found anywhere.

Pittsburgh's clean sweep of nine straight games in the East has been pretty well hollowed, but Colgate, somewhat unobtrusively, came smashing along to make one of the greatest finishes of any eleven in the East or anywhere else. It's time something was said for Kerr and the Maroon of Hamilton, home of such All-Americans of the past as Ellery Huntington, Earl Abell and Belford West.

Colgate was tripped up in its second game of the season by Wisconsin, an upset that caused the expert so rash elsewhere, but the Maroon won seven straight games after that setback, yielding only one touchdown as Hart, Dowler and complany piled up 218 points. Colgate beat Columbia, Syracuse and Brown in succession by scores of 33-0, 21-0 and 32-0—a total of 86 points against three strong and sturdy teams. The Maroon slaughtered the Brown team that Yale and Dartmouth were barely able to outpoint. Not even Pittsburgh's mighty machine put on any greater exhibition of sustained power than that in tallying 85 points in successive games against 20 for Washington and Jefferson, Carnegie and Penn State.

The East has had its Ben Tieknor and Tony Siano as star players this year, the Pacific Coast its Rieckels and Heinecke, but the Rocky Mountain zone would like a scrutinizing eye kept upon Marvin Jonas, star Utah center, who has another year of varsity competition.

"Jonas" writes Lesley Goats, the Salt Lake City observer, "has never left the field on a losing side in three years of high school, one year of freshman and two years of varsity football. That's one for Mr. Ripley."

In six games this year 18 centers faced Mr. Jonas, an average of three a game. They can't stand the pace.

Jonas helped open the gaps for "Powerhouse" Pomeroy, the Utah plugging fullback on a team that most critics regard the strongest ever produced in the area of the Rockies.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION SELECTS MEMPHIS AS NEXT CONVENTION CITY

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Speeding up the annual business meetings, the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association already has elected officers, chosen Memphis as the 1930 convention city and awarded the basketball tournament to Jackson, Miss., leaving the disposal of a recommendation for an investigation into alleged subsidizing of athletes by members' schools for its final session today.

However, the proposal to probe the status of professionalism was expected to bring about a stormy session. Although the president and the executive committee are strongly in favor of the resolution, much opposition has arisen from various coaches and representatives.

The resolution would authorize the president to appoint a commission to make a searching investigation into the practices of member schools of awarding scholarships, jobs or other types of assistance to athletes and the methods employed by members in the operation of their athletic programs.

Dr. J. M. Provine, of Mississippi College, who has been president of the association for the past nine years was unanimously re-elected for another term. Robert T. Hinton, of Georgetown College, Georgetown, Ky., was named secretary-treasurer for another year.

CUBS OUT AFTER ANOTHER CATCHER

Chicago, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Operations and treatments have failed to improve the condition of Leo Hartnett's ailing arm, and the Chicago Cubs are looking about for another catcher.

Hartnett has had two tonsil operations, and serums and light treatments have been used, but without results. Hartnett, however, has not yet given up hope and is continuing with powerful electric light treatments in an effort to bring his throwing arm back to life.

WANEE HEAD COACH RESIGNED LAST NIGHT

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 17.—(AP)—H. Kirkpatrick, head coach at Wane, since the middle of the 28 football season, telegraphed his formal resignation to officials last night. His brief message stated: "I hereby respectfully tender my resignation as head coach at Sewanee."

Commenting on his resignation, Coach Kirkpatrick said, "There was nothing left for me to do."

Kirkpatrick succeeded Dr. Mike Bennett as head coach about the middle of the 1928 season. Dr. Bennett remained at Sewanee in the capacity of athletic director, when a proposed conference between Kirkpatrick and Dr. Bennett headed here yesterday, failed to materialize, Kirkpatrick wired his formal resignation to vice chancellor Finney at Sewanee.

NATIONALISTS ON OFFENSIVE AGAIN IN CHINA

Collapse of Insurgents North of Hankow Expected Nationalists Advance

Shanghai, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The battle-worn Nationalist government appeared to be on the offensive in China again today after following up its triple victory over three rebellious factions which almost caused its downfall.

Instead of being in the precarious defensive position disclosed by reports a few days ago, advances indicated that the tide had turned once more in favor of Nanking and that Nationalist soldiers were entering rebellious territory with the forces apparently crumbling in the face of the advance.

At Canton, where the Nationalist won a bloody battle December 9, the rebellious "Ironside" division of General Chang Fak-ai and the Kwangsi rebels, who co-operated in an advance upon the southern metropolis, were reported crushed. General Chang, who with his division withdrew from the Nationalist army some time ago and turned against the Nationalist government, was reported to have committed suicide because of his defeat, but the report remained unverified and uncredited.

Collapse of the insurgents north of Hankow under command of General Tang Yun-Sheng was expected in Nationalist quarters as the result of government victories in that area. That's recent advance caused the evacuation of many foreigners from Hankow, important central China city.

Nationalist forces also claimed to have the rebels in a precarious condition north of Pukow.

These successes seemingly gave Nanking the advantage but conditions remained otherwise unsettled in many places. Most of the foreigners who make their homes in Nanking, the Nationalist capital, remained here. They came to Shanghai recently when the threat of the rebels menaced the capital. Two American missionaries started for Nanking last night to determine whether it was safe for other foreigners to return.

American authorities said they did not contemplate defense of the United States consulate there in case of disorder but would evacuate Americans to ships in the Yangtze river. British and Japanese authorities have made plans to defend their consulates if necessary.

Man Hunt Fails To Bring About Killer's Capture

St. Joseph, Mich., Dec. 17.—(AP)—A nation-wide man hunt today had failed to bring about the capture of Frederick Burke, alias Frederick Dane, bank robber and killer who Saturday night fatally wounded Patrolman Charles Kelly of St. Joseph, who sought to arrest him after a traffic accident.

Burke is alleged to have had a part in the holdup November 7 of the Farmers and Merchants bank at Jefferson, Wis., in which $352,000 in securities was stolen, the St. Valentine's Day massacre at Chicago last February in which seven gangsters were lined up against a garage wall and mowed down with machine gun fire, and numerous other crimes in middle western cities.

Police in various cities of the middle west, on the lookout for Burke, expect "fireworks" if he is recognized. They have been warned by Chicago officers that he is a desperate character. Burke is presumed to be on friendly terms with the Al Capone gang of hoodlums in Chicago.

Meanwhile Viola Daniels, 37, the woman who peeped here as his wife, is being held on a charge of receiving stolen goods. She also is known to police, having served a term in the Missouri penitentiary for Jefferson City under the name of Mattie Howard for the murder of Joseph Morino in 1921.

A raid on the luxurious home on Lake Shore Drive near here, in which Burke and Viola Daniels had lived for several months, resulted in the recovery of $315,850 worth of securities stolen from the Jefferson, Wisconsin bank and the discovery of an arsenal which included machine guns and a large supply of ammunition.

Gambler Dying of Wounds From Pistol Battle

New York, Dec. 17.—(AP)—A three-gun gambler who tried to shoot his way out of an office on the fourth floor of a midtown building was dying in a hospital today, victim of the unerring aim of a one-gun sleuth.

Patrolman Harry Browner, on plain clothes duty with the vice and gambling squad, saw the gunman, Pierre Guillot, 42 years old, take bets from several men in a restaurant at Seventh avenue and 41st street. He trailed Guillot to the street and then to an office in a building in West 41st street.

Four other men were in the office as Browner entered. He announced his identity and ordered them to line up against the wall. He said Guillot reached for a pistol, but that he wrenched it from him. He then picked up the telephone to call the patrol wagon.

As the detective lifted the instrument, Guillot drew two other pistols and dropping behind a desk started firing. The detective dropped behind another desk and returned the fire. The other men fled. After the detective fired four shots, Guillot ceased shooting. He was found to have three bullet wounds in the head and one in the shoulder. All four shots that the gunman fired missed.

Heflin Defies State's Action; Will Run Again

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 17.—(AP)—The state executive committee, which excluded Senator J. Thomas Heflin from the 1930 Democratic primary by barring the candidacies of those who did not support the party's presidential nominee last year, today was confronted with the prospect of combatting independent campaigns by Heflin and others affected.

The senior senator from Alabama said he still would seek re-election when informed of the decision at Washington and John A. Locke, Birmingham attorney, who has announced his candidacy for governor and who also was counted out of the primary by the committee ruling said he still would make the race.

In a statement Locke described the 21 members of the committee who were cutvoted 27 to 21 in balancing on the ruling yesterday as "Progressive Democrats." Continuing said:

"A conference of these Progressive Democrats who attended the meeting of the executive committee has called a state-wide meeting in Birmingham, December 20."

Locke declared plan for his race would be completed at that time.

Candidates for federal, state district or circuit offices, who "bysted" the presidential ticket were excluded by the committee from the primary next August, but the matter of determining upon the qualifications of those seeking county offices was left to county committees.

The committee, however, invited all voters who believe in the principles of the Democratic party to cast their votes in the primary, the only requirement being that they support the party nominees in the general election.

SUNDOWN STORIES

Wind Whistle Horn
By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
"I've turned the time ahead this evening," the Little Black Clock said, "and we're going to have a ride in an airplane."

"To be sure, airplanes were popular long before this time, but we're going to have a special kind of trip."

John and Peggy got into the plane, and they took off from their very own roof.

How different everything looked! They went over such tall, tall buildings.

"What we used to call skyscrapers were really just little bits of buildings," John said.

Peggy could hardly believe that the buildings were real. They almost seemed to her to be like a kind of fairyland, with towers reaching way up into the clouds.

The traffic in the air was very heavy, and the funniest thing was that people blew horns to show that they were passing others, just as in the old days people blew automobile horns.

"What I wanted you to hear particularly was the horn on this plane," the Little Black Clock said, and they listened while the pilot from time to time blew his horn.

"It sounds like the wind whistling," John said.

"Good guess," said the Little Black Clock. "This horn is called the 'wind whistle horn.' It makes a sound very much like the wind whistling, and can be heard very well. Besides, it has a deep blowing noise like a horn, too, so it's the idea kind to have on a plane."

How quickly everybody flew through the air.

"People are in such a rush these days," the Little Black Clock said. "That was what my father said when we used to go riding in the car," John remarked.

"I guess people will always say it," the Little Black Clock answered.

DISTANT EARTHQUAKE RECORDED IN N. Y.
New York, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The seismograph at the American Museum of Natural History registered a distant earthquake of marked intensity which began at 6:14 a. m. today and lasted until 8:57 o'clock. The distance from New York was estimated at 4,750 miles, and scientists at the museum believed the disturbance probably occurred on the floor of the Pacific Ocean near the Aleutian Islands.

The Fordham university seismograph registered the first shock at 6:19 a. m., and a second at 6:18 o'clock. The distance from the vibration center was estimated to be 4,650 miles, believed by Fordham observers to be either in the North or South Pacific Ocean bed.

LIVE STONE AGE MAN CHIPS BEE BOTTLES
Honolulu, Dec. 17.—What a live Stone Age man does with a beer bottle is related by an eye witness. Dr. Stanley D. Porteus of the University of Hawaii.

The stone age ancursors of Europeans passed 4,000 and more years ago into a higher stage of civilization, but the Australian bushman is regarded by anthropologists as an actual stone age survival.

Dr. Porteus studied these natives recently while head of the anthropological expedition of the Australian National Research Council into central and northwestern Australia.

"The natives of the northwest," he says, "are particularly skillful in chipping stone or glass spear heads. The only tools are a sharp, edged bone or stick, some stones an a piece of soft bark."

"Give a native a beer bottle and in an incredibly short time he will have chipped for you a symmetrical spear head of deadly sharpness and of symmetrical outlines with regularly barbed or serrated edges."

"However, these blacks are not quite so much of the stone age as those of the center, where stone knives and tomahawks are actually being made and are in use today."

RADIO ADS INCREASE

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 2 points today in the response to relatively steady Liverpool cables. There may have been some buying on the assumption that yesterday's decline had improved the technical position.

Further southern selling caused some irregularity during the early trading, but the market had a fairly steady undertone and after showing net advances of about 5 to 6 points on the active months, with March selling up to 17.16, held within a point or two of the best at the end of the first half an hour.

Liverpool cable advances reported Continental buying, hedging and local liquidation in that market and said there was a fair inquiry for cotton cloth from India but that many offers were impracticable.

A private report was published estimating ginning prior to December 13 at 13,500,000.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Dec. 17.—The stock market finally turned upward today, after drifting about uncertainly during an extremely dull forenoon, with sales during the first two hours of trading totalling less than a million shares.

Operators for the advance were encouraged by the comparative stability of the market during the early afternoon, as several leading shares were bid up from 2 to 1 1/2 to 6 points. The rapid drying up of the selling movement which depressed prices sharply yesterday, was particularly pleasing to the bull element.

Call money was firmer than for several days past, but held officially at 4 1/2 per cent. News bearing on the credit situation, however, was largely favorable. The decline of $1,000,000 in security loans of weekly reporting member banks, as reported by the Federal Reserve, was particularly pleasing, as it occurred in a week when Brokers' loans increased $33,000,000, and indicates that banks are at last making progress in liquidating security loans. During recent weeks when Brokers' loans declined abruptly, bank loans on securities went practically unchanged.

Also, a downturn in foreign exchange rates was viewed with satisfaction indicating at least a temporary check to the outgoing movement of gold. It was reported from Washington, Dec. 17.—The Treasury and Reserve officials were unconcerned over the gold movement.

The firmness of call money reflected primarily the cash payment today for the government's initial offering of treasury bills, totalling $100,000,000.

Corporation news was largely restricted to dividend announcements of smaller concerns. Crucible steel, however, announced a payment of 3 per cent in stock and Newmont mining, a stock dividend of 5 per cent. Howe Sound directors declared a 50 per cent extra dividend.

U. S. and Republic steel rose 4 points each. Western Union, General Electric, and Johns Manville, American Can, A. M. Byers, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, National Biscuit, and International Harvester rose 3 to 4. The upturn embraced all groups, with the exception of the metals, which failed to make notable headway.

Considerable irregularity appeared during the early trading, and a few rather volatile stocks declined sharply. Otis Elevator selling off 10, and Allied Chemical 5.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Argentine reports confirming some of the most extreme crop damage advice received prior to the Argentine harvest did much today to lift wheat values here. Dispatches at hand indicated that a large part of the wheat in southern Buenos Aires province is not much above chicken-feed grades.

Wheat closed firm, 13-8 to 13-4 a bushel higher than yesterday's finish.

Corn closed 1-4 to 1 A 11-8c advanced, oats 1-4 A 3-8c to 3-4c up, and provisions varying from 2c decline to 10c advance.
