

FUND FOR POOR TAKES SPURT DURING NIGHT

Contributions More Than Double Here During Last Twenty Four Years

Renewed interest was manifested last night in the Merchants Association campaign for the poor, and contributions more than doubled the entire amount collected up to yesterday, according to information given out this morning from the office of the association's secretary. Donations totaled $145.50, bringing the entire amount to $296.00.

The largest contribution came from the John Flanagan Euggy company in the form of a check for $100.00. The next largest gifts, $10.00 each were made by Mrs. Addie T. Vandye and G. V. Smith. Other contributors were: Parochial Society, St. Paul's Episcopal church, $5.00; L. B. Garrison, $5.00; Mrs. L. B. Garrison, $5.00; Ruby Rose and Junius H. Rose, Jr., $5.00; cash $2.50; Student Volunteer group of Teachers College $3.00.

Gifts of a considerable amount of clothing were received from Mrs. R. L. Smith and Center Grove church, Asheville, N. C.

The report also indicated that even additional opportunity tasses had been taken by various individuals and organizations of the city, bringing the total already taken to approximately two dozen or more.

- Cases were taken by:
- Case No. 4. Taken by Fourth Period Civics Class of the Greenville High School.
  - Case No. 9. Taken by Friends.
  - Case No. 12. Taken by Circle No. 2 of the Christian Church.
  - Case No. 26. Taken by Third Period Civics Class of the Greenville High School.
  - Case No. 33. Taken by Mrs. E. B. Stulen.
  - Case No. 37. Taken by Mrs. J. S. Picklen.
  - Case No. 61. Taken by Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church.

Members of the Campaign committee of the Merchants Association and the Welfare Department expressed appreciation of the active interest manifested during the last several hours, and declared they hoped this would continue without letup until Christmas Eve when collections will be brought to an end.

A tremendous amount of clothing has been contributed and a big part of this has already been distributed among the most needy cases of the district. With a cold wave approaching, members of the committee redoubled their efforts today to provide ragged children with comfortable clothing in order that they might be able to combat the cold weather expected to hold this section in its grip during the holiday season.

These in charge of investigating the needy cases reported a continued increase in the number of families worthy of help, and there was some doubt whether the fund would be sufficient to carry relief to all of them during the present campaign. The public is urged to give liberally of cash and clothing during the next several days so that the spirit of Christmas may be carried into as many of the homes as possible.

"No, I will not," replied Mr. McLean.

"Do you care to enlarge upon that statement?"

"No, I have nothing further to say at this time," was the reply.

Goldsboro Will Clamp Down Lid On Next Sunday

Goldsboro, Dec. 19.—(AP)—They're going to close up Goldsboro, and clamp down the lid next Sunday.

A blue-coated minion of the law today was visiting drug stores, news stands and other establishments which have been accustomed to catering to Sunday trade to inform them that from now on the Sabbath will be observed according to an ordinance passed nine years ago.

This ordinance permits sale of drugs but none of the side lines in drug stores. News stands must halt business from 9:45 to 12:15 in the morning and from 7:30 until 9 at night. Filling stations no longer can justify "thirsty motorists."

The fine on conviction is not less than $10 nor more than $50 for each violation of the Sunday laws.

PROBE BLAST OF COAL MINE IN OKLAHOMA

Four Investigators to Enter Mines to Determine Cause of the Disaster

McAlester, Okla., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Four investigators today were to enter the Old Town Coal Company's mine in an effort to determine the cause of an explosion which Tuesday snuffed out the lives of 59 miners. Meanwhile relief agencies in all parts of the state worked at top speed, piling up a fund to aid destitute families of the mine's victims.

Work in the mine itself was at a standstill this morning, while batteries which supply the mine's electric power were being charged and the lighting system repaired.

Despite persistent rumors that two more bodies still were in the lower levels of the mine, Hugh Rice, manager, insisted every man had been accounted for.

Rescue work was seriously hampered by cold weather above ground. In the lower levels the rescue squads toiled in a temperature of 120 degrees. Hay said, with perspiration streaming down their faces and bodies. Then, on coming to the surface, the shock of the near zero weather at the surface left many of their weak and trembling.

McAlester, Okla., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Amid tears and tragedy comedy appeared at the mouth of the Old Town Coal Company mine where Tuesday 59 miners were killed by an explosion.

Scorning all rescue workers a gaunt, black mule sauntered out of the shaft, solemnly surveyed crowds gathered around the mouth of the mine, and then ambled eagerly toward a pile of hay nearby. While onlookers laughed, some with a touch of hysteria.

Negro Killed By Rocky Mount Cop

Rocky Mount, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Police Sergeant William Bailey last night shot and killed an unidentified negro here who brandished a pistol when he attempted to arrest him for stealing packages from a parked automobile.

A pay envelope in the negro's pocket bore the name H. Wade, but no such person is known here. Keys to an automobile belonging to B. B. Kimbell, of Enfield, were also found on the negro. Kimbell's car, which had been stolen, was later found mired in the mud near the city.

Johnny Gardner and George Davis, of this city, discovered the negro removing packages from a car and attempted to hold him, but he drew a pistol and escaped. Bailey pursued the negro. When he attempted to arrest him, the negro drew the pistol again and told the officer he would kill him. Bailey then fired one time, fatally wounding the negro.

Lieut-Governor Speaks At Live-at-Home Supper Held In City Last Night

Some 200 farm men and women who are actively engaged in putting over the "live-at-home" farm program in Pitt county, responded to the call of the county farm and home demonstration agents in putting on a Pitt county products supper last night.

Lieut.-Gov. R. T. Fountain was secured for the speaker of the evening. In a forceful, clear-cut speech the lieutenant-governor drove home to the overflowing banquet hall the absolute necessity of a live-at-home program as the only solution to the present depressed agricultural situation.

J. E. Winslow, chairman of the Pitt County Board of Agriculture, presided over the meeting which was opened by singing "America" led by C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the Merchants Association, after which J. C. Galloway returned thanks. The next hour was devoted to the consumption of the Pitt county products set before the table which consisted of barbecued Pitt county pigs, corn bread, slaw, potatoes, collards, sweet milk, butter, peaches and real cream coffee.

The ladies had the tables beautifully decorated in holiday style with place cards carrying a live-at-home goal for 1930, which is as follows:

During 1930 let's live-at-home to this extent, that we:

- Have 1-2 acre year-round garden. Keep 50 hens.
- Have one brood sow.
- Have at least one cow.
- Have 2 acre permanent pasture. Produce all food and feed consumed.
- Market all surplus.
- Start a savings account.
- Beautify the home grounds.

After several selections from the Rotary quartet, which was introduced by W. H. Dail, Jr., Toast Master; J. E. Winslow, welcomed the crowd and explained the meeting was in response to Governor O. Max Gardner's call to North Carolinians to live-at-home. Miss Ethel Niece, home demonstration agent, was then called upon to outline the work the women in the county are doing and plan to do in 1930. Miss Niece presented a chest of Community Silver as first prize in the home lawn contest for 1929. The prize went to Mrs. R. L. McLawhorn, of Winterville, who responded by telling what she had done with her lawn. This was followed by a presentation of the program of the Board of Agriculture by E. F. Arnold. The audience was then treated to further selections from the quartet before hearing from the lieutenant-governor.

Following the lieutenant-governor's speech E. G. Flanagan was called on to tell the crowd of the progress being made on securing a model live-at-home demonstration farm for Pitt county and he explained the chairman of the Board of Agriculture had been advocating for the county. After paying tribute to Lieutenant-Governor Fountain's speech Mr. Flanagan explained that the governor had had in mind some time to establish a practical live-at-home farm some where in Eastern Carolina and that at a recent conference with the governor, the governor decided to honor Pitt county since Pitt was in the heart of the agricultural in the east and he suggested that the chairman appoint a committee to work with Governor Gardner in locating this farm. The chairman appointed the following committee:

E. G. Flanagan, chairman; Senator M. K. Blount, W. H. Woodard, J. C. Galloway, Blaine Sumrell, Dr. W. W. Dawson, J. E. Winslow, County Agent E. F. Arnold, Dr. R. L. Carr and W. H. Dail, Jr.

R. L. Little offered a resolution expressing the appreciation of the farmers of Pitt for this signal honor on the part of Governor Gardner.

Other speakers of the evening were Senator M. K. Blount, W. H. Woodard, W. H. Dail, Jr., Dr. R. L. Carr, J. C. Galloway and A. J. Mosey. All the speakers heartily endorsed the "live-at-home" program outlined for Pitt county.

Shattuck was asked about a letter which Larkin wrote to Secretary of Agriculture Hever, told the Senate Lobby committee today he had not discussed the sugar tariff with the president.

"I had talked with Mr. Newton," he said. "I had not talked with the president."

Then the president gave you no instructions at all," asked Senator Robinson.

"Absolutely not," Shattuck said. "I never received any instructions from the president."

Walsh asked if Shattuck didn't know that Larkin was "counting heavily" on his relations with Hoover.

"I don't think he was counting so much on my relations with the president," Shattuck said.

Robinson read a letter Larkin wrote which said "Shattuck was employed 'reluctantly' because of his relations with the president."

"I think that was only an inference," Shattuck said.

Robinson asked Shattuck if he knew Larkin had written a number of letters referring to Shattuck's relation with Hoover.

"I certainly did not," he answered quickly, rising and raising his voice to a shout.

ARGUMENTS STILL ON AT BURNSVILLE

Defense Attorney Bitterly Attacks State Testimony in Strike Trial

Burnsville, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Arguments were continued today in the trial of eight deputy sheriffs charged with killing six men in a textile disorder at Marion, N. C., October 2.

Two addresses were made to the jury last night, one by E. F. Watson of Burnsville, the defense counsel, and Charles Hutchinson of Burnsville, one of the several attorneys retained in behalf of the American Federation of Labor, to prosecute the case. Testimony ended yesterday eight days after the trial opened.

Wallace Winborne, of Marion, from which city the trial was sent here on a change of venue, continued the arguments today. Winborne, a defense attorney, bitterly attacked the state's testimony.

"The state witnesses weren't fair with you and they weren't fair with these defendants," he charged. "Not one admitted that a single shot was fired from the ranks of the strikers, and yet, the mill building which the strikers were facing was scarred with bullet marks and window lights were shot out."

Winborne reviewed previous disorders in the vicinity of Marion. He said that the testimony in this case showed that the strikers had "little regard" for the law and that state national guardsmen in one of the early strikes took a "basket full of pistols from the crowd."

The attorney said Sheriff Oscar Adkins "acted in good faith" when he went to the Marion Manufacturing Company mill, where the disorder occurred, October 2.

"What did he do? I'll tell you. He appealed to Ed Johnston, the captain of the picketers, to help him uphold the law. And when Johnston went out in the crowd and talked with them, the crowd answered back, 'there'll be no work in that mill today.' The sheriff says millions appealed to the crowd saying 'I don't care whether a single man comes through the gate, but if anyone wants to, he has the right to work. I don't care how much you jeer, but men, for God's sake, stand back and let those who want to work come in. The here in the name of the law and if you don't stand back, I'll have to arrest you.' That's what the sheriff said and did the crowd stand back? No."

D. F. Giles, of Marion, of special prosecution counsel, was the next speaker.

He said that "regardless of how we view this thing, we can't get away from the fact that this is a struggle between capital and labor. These officers were thinking of one thing, they were thinking of destroying a labor union."

"Troops were called to the district first because a pair of mules balked at Clinchfield. The troops were called the second time because the officers—the battalion of death—murdered six men and wounded a large number of others," Giles said. He charged that the officers were in sympathy with the mill interests.

PLANS READY FOR CHARITY BALL FRIDAY

Plans for the American Legion "Charity Ball," to be given at Gorman's warehouse tomorrow night, have been completed, and decorators were at work today transforming the mammoth warehouse building into a thing of beauty.

J. B. Kittrell, chairman of the charity ball committee, said this morning that the dance would be the most gorgeous spectacle ever staged in this city, and he expected hundreds of people to be in attendance from this and surrounding communities.

A portion of the warehouse building will be enclosed entirely and brilliantly decorated for the occasion. Hundreds of tiny Christmas lights, augmented by the glow of Japanese lanterns, will furnish an atmosphere in keeping with the season. Favors will be distributed at the end of each of the two or three grand marches arranged for the evening.

The total sum derived from the dance will be devoted to the Merchants Association fund for the relief of the poor people of the community. It is the first time an effort has been made to raise money in this way, and the Legionnaires are attempting to raise as large a sum as possible. Adequate room has been provided for the hundreds of spectators, and the enclosure will guarantee comfort even if the weather is cold.

Funeral Services for J. L. Wilkerson Held This Afternoon

Farmville, Dec. 19.—The funeral of John L. Wilkerson, 47, was held at his home two miles from here this afternoon and interment was made in the family burial grounds nearby.

Mr. Wilkerson was apparently in his usual health and state of mind when he dressed about 7:00 Wednesday morning, walked into the kitchen, where his wife was busy about breakfast, got a drink of water, and walked calmly to the back of the stable and shot himself with a rifle, using a wagon pin to pull the trigger.

His body was found about thirty minutes later by his little daughter, and the shot which ended his life was heard by members of the family, who thought at the time that it was fired by rabbit hunters of the vicinity. A man of genial nature and friendly disposition, Mr. Wilkerson had not revealed his feelings of depression, but it was thought that failures of this year and other financial worries, caused him to take his life. An insurance payment due on the 23rd of the month had caused some concern and anxiety.

Surviving are his wife, who was formerly Miss Michel Joyner, and three daughters: Mrs. Dennis Andrews, Miss Virginia and Nannie Gray, three sons: Charles, John Moseley, Dalton, four sisters: Mrs. Herbert Stugs of Greene county, Mrs. Lizzie Smith Taylor, and Mrs. Robert Barrett of Farmville, Mrs. C. W. Merchant of Baltimore, a brother, C. L. Wilkerson, a former resident of Greenville.

DEADLOCK IS REPORTED IN MURDER CASE

Mountain View, Ark., Dec. 19.—(AP)—The jury in the Connie Franklin murder trial reported to Judge S. M. Bone soon after 11 o'clock this morning that it was deadlocked regarding a verdict. The jurist ordered the jurors to continue deliberations on the fate of four men charged with torturing and burning Franklin alive.

The foreman, T. O. Moore, asked the judge whether the charge could be reduced to second degree murder. The original instructions permitted a verdict of second degree murder with the penalty fixed at imprisonment of from five to twenty years.

The foreman said in reporting the deadlock that he did not believe an agreement could be reached. Judge Bone said the trial had been expensive to the county, already in debt and without funds to pay the witnesses, and urged that every effort be made to agree so that another trial would not be necessary. The jurors retired again.

To Proceed With Snook Execution Unless Court Acts

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Warden H. E. Thomas of Ohio penitentiary, said today that unless the state supreme court acts on the appeal of Dr. James H. Snook before midnight tonight he has authority to proceed with the professor's electrocution for the murder of his ex-co-ed paramour, Theora Hix, last June 13.

A stay of execution granted Dr. Snook, deposed Ohio State University professor, expires at midnight. Under the law, the warden said, he has authority to proceed with the execution any time between midnight tonight and midnight tomorrow.

Warden Thomas refused to say when the execution would take place if no further order was received from the supreme court. All legal papers for the electrocution are in his hands.

In the meantime the supreme court had one more consultation in which to act on the case. That meeting will be held late today when a number of other cases are to be considered but Chief Justice Carrington T. Marshall declined to say whether the court would take up the Snook appeal at that time.

Warden Thomas indicated that the execution may take place if no further respite is forthcoming from the supreme court.

PASSENGERS SAVED WHEN SHIP SINKS

Algonquin Rams Fort Victoria During Fog in New York Harbor

New York, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Rescued when their ship was rammed and sunk at the fog-hidden entrance of New York Bay, 250 passengers of the steamship Fort Victoria was rammed amidship by the Clyde liner Algonquin at 4 p. m. yesterday as the Bermuda-bound ship stopped off Ambrose Lightship to drop her pilot.

The Algonquin was outwardsbound for Miami and Galveston with 189 passengers.

The pilot boats Sandy Hook and New Yorker, the first vessels to respond to the S. O. S. signals of the two ships picked up the life boats of the Fort Victoria with her passengers and most of her crew of 165.

Captain A. R. Faranels and 12 of his crew remained aboard the Fort Victoria until she sank at 7:30 p. m. they were rescued by one of the tugs which were trying to keep her afloat.

The Algonquin, with her bows stove in but not dangerously damaged, anchored near the scene of the collision to wait for the fog to thin before returning to her maiden voyage.

Despite the thick fog which had hung over the harbor all week the Fort Victoria left her pier on schedule at 11 a. m. with her fog siren sounding, she crept down the bay at reduced speed, feeling her way.

Most of the passengers were below decks when the engines were stopped just outside the lower bay to permit the harbor pilot to recover the side. This was 12 miles from Manhattan.

Without warning the black bow of the Algonquin clove the fog and clashed through the plates of the amidship, tearing a gaping hole in her port side.

The ship rapidly developed a list as water poured into her forward hold and flooded the fire and engine rooms, stopping the generators. An emergency dynamo was started to furnish power for the radio and a few lights.

Captain J. W. MacKenzie of the Algonquin, ascertaining that his ship was in no danger, stood by, joining his S. O. S. calls to those of the Fort Victoria. The Algonquin being a coastwise boat, had no special pilot, as required for the Fort Victoria in the bay.

Passengers upon landing said there was no panic or confusion, although many were badly frightened when order to don life preservers and go to their boat stations. The Fort Victoria carried boats but one was stove in by the crash.

The passengers praised the conduct of the officers and crew, saying that they appeared to know just what to do and went about the task of abandoning ship calmly. The rule of women and children first was strictly observed in filling the boats.

After the passengers and crew were off, the Algonquin was lashed to one side of the Fort Victoria and four salvage tugs to the other in an effort to tow her to a drydock or into shallow water, but the stricken vessel continued to list to starboard and finally went down.

ASHEVILLE HAVING LOTS OF TROUBLE WITH ITS BABIES

Asheville, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Three days ago a blue-eyed baby boy was abandoned in a downtown department store in Asheville. It was turned over to the juvenile police.

The following morning police arrested Mrs. Emma Lee McGrath, her father-in-law's unoccupied home at 95 Woodrow with a man not her husband and she told them she was the baby's mother. The next day she changed her story and said the abandoned baby was not hers but that her child had been left with an aunt, Mrs. Alice Harris, of West Asheville.

Authorities were skeptical. Today Judge Carl B. Hyatt, of the juvenile court, went to Mrs. Harris' home and found Mrs. McGrath's story was true. She had left the baby there but for too long a time to suit Mrs. Harris, who understood she was to care for it but for a day or two.

The court took custody of baby No. 2 and today at noon it was taken to Mission hospital to take its place beside baby No. 1.

Relatives maintained baby No. 1 was Mrs. McGrath's but juvenile court officials and police were inclined to believe that it was not and that baby No. 2 was hers as she said. The court wired Mrs. McGrath's father-in-law, T. H. McGrath, who is in Chicago at the bedside of the husband, J. L. McGrath, who is seriously ill. The wife asked the father-in-law to return home to explain the baby situation and to aid in determined the custody of whichever baby is that of Mrs. McGrath.

Mountain View, Ark., Dec. 19.—(AP)—The jury in the Connie Franklin murder trial reported to Judge S. M. Bone soon after 11 o'clock this morning that it was deadlocked regarding a verdict. The jurist ordered the jurors to continue deliberations on the fate of four men charged with torturing and burning Franklin alive.

The foreman, T. O. Moore, asked the judge whether the charge could be reduced to second degree murder. The original instructions permitted a verdict of second degree murder with the penalty fixed at imprisonment of from five to twenty years.

The foreman said in reporting the deadlock that he did not believe an agreement could be reached. Judge Bone said the trial had been expensive to the county, already in debt and without funds to pay the witnesses, and urged that every effort be made to agree so that another trial would not be necessary. The jurors retired again.

IT WILL BRING HAPPINESS TO OUR COMMUNITY

With two hundred Pitt county farmers enjoying a
-at-home banquet here tonight and expressing a determination to see to it that Governor Gardner's
-at-home program was carried out on every farm in the county, the movement toward better days in our county appears well under way.

Have one-half acre
year 'round garden.
Keep fifty hens.
Have one brood sow.
Keep at least one
cow.

Have two acres of permanent pasture.
Produce all food and
feed consumed.
Market all surplus.
Start a savings account.

Beautiful the home
and grounds.
Such an objective for the farmers of Pitt County needs to be further comment for the inauguration and carrying out of the same by our farmers would bring desired results that would speak for themselves. We urge every farmer in our county and action to adopt such a plan of activity for the coming year.

ABOUT TOWN

Pitt county people will be interested in the announcement that Governor Gardner has selected this county as a site for his experiment in a "live at home program." The matter has been up for discussion or sometime, but no definite announcement was forthcoming until the governor decided that the experiment farm should be located in Pitt county.

A "live at home" program such as that outlined by the governor is the only salvation of the farmers of this state. They have confined too much attention to the production of principal crops in the past without giving any time to the production of things they use at home.

With the present crop failure in this county, the farmer would not be hard pressed in the slightest degree if the word had been given to the production of the things his family consumes from day to day. The truth is, if he had a smokehouse loaded down with meat, and his barns filled with feed for his livestock, the outlook of the next several months would be decidedly different from what it is at this time.

Pitt county people ought to consider themselves fortunate in having the county selected as a site for the model farm. The experiment will be carried on in our very midst, and should give us a careful insight into the kind of farming Governor Gardner thinks is necessary to restore peace and plenty in this great agricultural land of ours.

Now that the Merchants Association has seen fit to extend the time limit in the Christmas decoration contest, it is to be expected that numbers of new decorations will spring into being during the next several hours.

The time limit will expire tonight and after that time judges will be busy making their rounds to determine the winners of the contest.
The sum of $35 will go to the residential districts, and $15 to the business house providing the best decoration.

While Greenville unquestionably is the best dressed city in Eastern Carolina people will get down to brass tacks today and decorate in real style by nightfall.
If you never competed for a prize in a similar contest before, why not try it now and in that way join the merchants and home owners in their effort to really dress up the city for the Yuletide season.

The Merchants Association fund for the poor is not mounting as rapidly as campaign members hoped it would, and unless interest becomes more pronounced during the next several hours it is going to be impossible to care for the scores of needy families.

If you haven't contributed to the fund, why not get busy at once and do so. It is a cause in which every thinking man and woman should be interested in that it is launched exclusively for the sake of carrying relief to suffering humanity.

Investigators continue to report
new cases from day to day, but it is going to be impossible to provide for them unless donations come in more rapidly the remainder of the week. Think of the blessings which have been bestowed upon you during the year, and then compare your condition with the countless numbers of people at the pangs of starvation. The situation is deplorable in the extreme and deserves considered action if the desired objective is reached.

Don't forget to tune in on Raleigh tonight and hear C. B. Row-lett, secretary of the Greenville Merchants Association, tell something about the opportunities of this great and thriving community.

Aside from the talk, you will be furnished with numbers by a quarter and by Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, familarly known in this section as the "Sweetheart of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion."

These programs are broadcast principally for the purpose of informing the outside world of what Pitt county has been doing during the last ten years, and what she expects to do in the future.
You should be intensely interested in these things, especially since we are in the midst of a period of expansion. The program begins at 6:40. Be one of the half million or more people to tune in.

Six Cardinals Get Red Hats

Vatican City, Dec. 19.—(AP)— Pope Pius XI, on the eve of Friday's celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of his priesthood, today imposed the red hats on six newly created Cardinals, thus inducing them into the sacred college of princes of the church.

The Pontiff was assisted in the ceremony, which was held principally in the consistorial hall, by Cardinal Gasparri, Papal secretary of state. The cardinals were introduced singly to the Pontiff, who then endowed them with the Episcopal gown, the pectoral cross, the cardinals cord of red and gold, and the red beretta, or skull cap.
The new cardinals were the Patriarch of Lisbon, Monsignor Emanuele Goncalves Cerejeira; Lavranio, of Palermo, Sicily; Mino-ermo, Sicily; Minoretto, of Genoa; MacRory of Armagh, Ireland; and Verdier, of Paris; and Monsignor Pacelli, Papal Nuncio at Berlin.

The bring the total number of Cardinals to 63, of whom 33 are of Non-Italian nationality, and 30 Italian. The United States has four representatives in the college.
Germany has four while France has seven.

After imposition of the Berretta
the Cardinal Patriarch of Lisbon read, in the name of his companions, a speech of profound gratitude for the Pontiff's so particular benevolence. The Pope replied that he was grateful that the Lof permitted him to raise to the college such worthy persons on the eve of the golden anniversary of his priesthood.

SPECIAL (2 days only) Friday and Saturday "GOLD-RIBBON" BRAND COFFEE AND CHICORY 29c Don't fail to take advantage of this REMARKABLE OFFER! Only 2 lbs. to each customer This exceptionally low price is made possible through the cooperation of dealers listed below and the roasters of "GOLD RIBBON" Brand COFFEE and CHICORY. CHICORY is a plant resembling very closely the sugar beet in appearance and after being processed in drying, roasting and grinding, has a flavor and color very similar to coffee. It has held a place for ages as a healthful food. Its use as a beverage was permanently established in Europe during the Napoleonic Wars, when, due to the blockade of the continent by the British Navy, coffee, tea and cocoa could be procured only with difficulty. To quote the National Dispensary "Chicory is thought to increase the appetite and promote the digestion." When Perfectly Blended with coffee as in our "GOLD RIBBON" Brand, it adds strength, improves flavor and color, and prevents coffee from becoming stale on standing. Double strength—for best results use only half as much "GOLD RIBBON" Brand COFFEE and CHICORY as of ordinary coffee. If you have never tried "GOLD RIBBON" Blend you may now do so at this previously unheard of low price. Get your "GOLD RIBBON" Brand COFFEE and CHICORY at any of the following stores: J. E. # HUSBAND HELD IN CONNECTION WOMAN'S DEATH

Woman Also Held as Material Witness in Burning of Mrs. Southers

Hendersonville, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Her husband in jail and Miss Margaret Banks under bond as a material witness, a Henderson county coroner's jury Thursday prepared to investigate the death of Mrs. Fred Southers, who was burned to death at her home at Naples, this county early Wednesday morning.

Southers has said that he returned to his home early Thursday, after spending the night away from home, to find his wife's clothing in flames. In an attempt to smother the flames, he wrapped her in a blanket, he said. Authorities said Thursday that the blanket had the odor of kerosene about it. Souther's hands bear slight burns.

At the inquest set for 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Coroner A. L. Beck was expected to make public the contents of the letter written by Mrs. Souther to Miss Banks the day before her death. She had given the letter to her sister, Miss Jean Fowler, with the request that it be mailed. It had not been mailed when Coroner Beck arrived to make an investigation Wednesday, and Miss Fowler turned it over to the coroner. He has intimated that its contents throw light on the tragedy.

Southers said he went to spend Tuesday night with a sick friend. Later, he said, he left with another man and woman, who he admitted later was Miss Banks. When it started raining, he said, the three stopped at Miss Banks' house and spent the night. He has declined to name either the sick friend or the man with whom he left the house of his sick friend.

When Southers notified neighbors that his wife was terribly burned, they found the body in a corner between the wall and the kitchen range in the kitchen. The wall paper was burned. Southers said her clothing apparently caught fire from the fireplace in the living room.

The woman was lying on the floor, her clothing burned off, her hair burned away, and her face badly disfigured by the flames. Neighbors called Dr. John F. Brumberger, but when he arrived he found the woman was dead, and notified the authorities.

It was learned Thursday that Mrs. Southers, who has nine living children, had her husband indicted during the past year on a charge of non-support. "Southers was a laborer."

Only Mrs. Southers and two small children were at home Tuesday night, Southers said.

SPORTS SLANTS

It is not too late to give a short but snappy cheer for another able alumnus of Krute Rockne's well-known football coaching school—Chuck Collins, head coach at the University of North Carolina.

The achievements of Collins with the Tar Heels this year rank with those of Slip Modigan of St. Mary's, Jimmy Pheilan of Purdue, Elmer Layden of Duquesne and the Great Rock himself, aided and abetted by Tom Lieb.

North Carolina won nine of its ten games and rolled up the staggering total of 346 points to beat the record of any Tar Heel gridiron crew in history. The team was knocked out of the Southern Conference race by a 19-12 defeat at the hands of Georgia. This happened a week after North Carolina had started its downfall of Georgia Tech's champions. Otherwise the Collins crew beat all opposition by top-sided margins, including a 42-0 triumph over the Maryland team that held Yale to a draw and a 49-7 victory over Duke that was as impressive as Pittsburg's, showing against the same outfit.

Collins is another of the boys in the "Four Horsemen" cast who have gone out and "made good" in the coaching game. He played end on the famous 1924 team at South Bend.

It appears there are some strings attached to the British Lawn Tennis association's endorsement of the plan for "Open championships" openly arrived at, sponsored by the American ruling powers of the August U. S. L. T. A.

Britain endorses the idea "in principle," but with the restriction that only one such open tournament be held annually in England, further that every amateur shall be "officially" prohibited from advertising or permitting his name to be advertised commercially in his own advantage in connection with any match or competition in which he is entered or is a competitor.

In other words, it would be a violation for the enterprising promoter of an open championship to ballyhoo the prospect of Big Bill Tilden versus Vincent Richards or Rene Lacoste vs. Karel Kozeluh in the main bout.

The forthcoming East-West football contest at San Francisco between all-star teams offers the nearest thing to a test of All-American selections that has been arranged so far.

Dutch Clark of Colorado College, All-American quarterback in 1928, has joined the Far Western forces along with Bert Schwarz of Cali-

Army Warriors Off for California

West Point, N. Y., Dec. 18.—(AP)—The army football team, 113 strong, was en route today on the longest trip ever taken by the gridiron warriors of the military academy. They were due to reach Galesburg, Ill., this afternoon on the first leg of the trip to Palo Alto, Cal., where they will encounter Stanford in the final game of the football season, December 23.

The departure of the "West Point Special," a 13-car train which provides every possible comfort for a travelling football team, was made a ceremonial occasion yesterday. Major General W. R. Smith, the academy superintendent, gave permission to the cadets to give final vocal encouragement to the departing squad. General Smith previously had ruled that the cadets could not be present at the departure on account of examinations.

The arrival of the train at Galesburg at three o'clock this afternoon will be another important occasion. The players, officials and others who bring the party to a total of 149 members, are to be the guests of the city. The team will practice on Knox Field.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 3 points today on covering and a moderate demand which was supposed to include some buying for trade account.

The advance met realizing but there was very little southern selling and after slight setbacks, the market steadied again, with prices ruling about 1 to 4 points net higher at the end of the first half hour.

Business was very quiet and comparatively small orders caused moderate fluctuations. Weather conditions in the south were considered unfavorable for the movement, but some thought of low temperatures might kill off boll weevil.

Cables received in the trade here from Liverpool said there had been scattered buying at the opening with some long liquidation later.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Wheat values underwent a sharp break today, especially toward the last, selling was based to a considerable extent on surmises that official figures tomorrow regarding the acreage and condition of United States winter wheat and rye would show an increase. Storms crippling wire service did much to restrict business and the market evinced little disposition to rally.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Stock prices continued to hit the tobacco today as selling pressure was renewed against amusement, public utility, merchandising and specialty shares. At least a dozen issues were carried to new low levels for the year, or longer, and a long line of others were carried 1 to 5 points below last night's closing quotations. Only a few issues moved against the general downward trend.

Acute weakness of international combustion issues, coincident with the announcement of the appointment of a temporary receiver for that company, and another had break in the Fox film were believed to be principally responsible for the general unsettlement. International combustion common sank 5 1/2 points to a new low at 53.8 and the preferred stock market 8 points to 21 1/2, which contrast with the year's highs of 103 1/2 and 121, respectively. Fox dropped 8 1/2 points to 26 1/2, which compares with the year's high of 105 3/8.

Overnight news failed to provide much market interest. The appearance of selling pressure against the merchandising issues were based on privately circulated rumors that holiday business was not as bright as had been pictured in some quarters. R. H. Macy dropped 5 points. Sears Roebuck 4, and Arnold Constable and Gible Bros. preferred sank to new low levels for the year.

New Lows for the year also were registered by Kolster and Zenith radios, Fairbanks Morse and Pathe A. While Continental shares sank to the lowest level since it was listed a week ago. Some of the selling in this group is believed to have been for the purpose of establishing income tax losses.

Farm Boy's
Interest Bares
Neolithic Era
Lewistown, Ill.—(AP)—A country boy's curiosity in a few "wattleless clay pipes" that had been an eyecore to generations of his farm folk ancestors brought him distinction.

Dr. Don Dickson in boyhood trudged barefoot over these clay pipes, his youthful imagination stirred each time a whitened skull-stone spear-head, or bit of shell bead was exposed by a heavy rain or fresh plowing.

"Indians," his father would tell him. "Just a few wattleless redskins who went to their happy hunting ground hearabouts."

And then the elder Dickson would complain because the "pesky mounds" made the cultivation of his farm difficult.

Two years ago, Dr. Dickson began excavating one of the smaller Christmas Wreaths and pot plants on display at Eureka Laundry office, under Proctor Hotel, Greenville Floral Company, 18-66

GETS LUCKY BREAK WHEN ARRESTED FOR SPEEDING

When the motorcycle buzzed up alongside him, Hess explained he had to be in Rutherfordton in two hours.

"That's all right, but you'd have been in Charleston, S. C., in about 30 minutes at the rate you were going. You're on the wrong road," the officer explained.
