BUSINESS MAN SEES NEED OF FAITH IN PITT

Claude Tolar Says More Confidence Is Needed in Business in This County

In a communication to the Reflectors, Claude Tolar, local jeweler, sets forth a few facts regarding the local employment situation. He urges Greenville and Pitt county people to get away from long faces with "sad curves," as he denominates them, and to buck the line hard in 1930 in an effort to restore confidence in the greatness of the locality.

Speaking of the disposition of a number of firms to lay off employees with the advent of the new year, Mr. Tolar says, "Will you be good enough to join in this movement by urging all organizations to continue employing experienced employees it is possible for them to carry through 1930 and especially urge the older business men and organizations to take the lead in getting rid of the long faces with the 'sad curves,' pass out a little gift occasionally if it is only a smile or a slap on the back with a word of encouragement and, using the words of my friend Andrew Gump, 'let the past be a tomb of regrets long forgotten.'"

The communication follows: After discussing the employment situation and its relations to the program of President Hoover and Will Rogers for restoring confidence, I have been requested to bring the matter to your attention, insofar as it pertains to local business.

It is a well-known fact here that Pitt county and the territory surrounding Greenville was hardest hit of all in the crop failure caused by the almost flood conditions a few months ago. However, a general check-up over the country shows that a very serious condition and feeling exists in too much of a general way over the whole nation.

Of course, you are very familiar with the conferences that have been held in Washington and have done your bit in joining in with the featuring and publication of same. However, it has come now to a point when it is necessary to localize this program as much as possible, in order to reach the desired results.

It is unfortunate that I can not bring out the main points in this letter without mentioning one or two incidents of the holiday season just closing and a few of the changes that may take place in the very near future. I sincerely hope you will understand this entire letter, and especially this part, as being prompted only by my profound interest in the general welfare of our town community and same is not directed at or to any person or organization.

The first incident I shall mention came to me through a customer I had during the season just past. A man I would term a rich man, generally well-known throughout North Carolina and a man of great influence politically and financially. I know him by sight and reputation and when he entered my store I made my way up to the front to greet him and give him my personal attention. Much to my surprise the usual jovial and polite greeting of his was long with a very sad curve to his lips. Much to my surprise he selected a two dollar and fifty cent gift for a friend and stated he was not interested in looking at other items as he was not going to buy this year. Feeling I was baffled in doing so, I inquired the reason for such a radical change. I learned that all of his people were well, financial conditions with him were as good or better than could be expected and the political field was still interesting to him. To my further questions he merely answered, "I don't know, it's just a sad Christmas to me."

The second incident was the failure of many firms and organizations to remember their employees this Christmas with some little gift or check as has been their custom in the past. Personally I know many individual cases where this failure on the part of our local business leaders has taken the "pep" out of their employees and will no doubt react in a lack of cooperation during the coming year, regardless of how loyal they may try to be. The gift need not be large but should carry with it a sincere appreciation for services that a pay check will not cover.

The third and last incident, which is now impending, is the usual "shake-up" or change in employees that takes place each year at this time. This year is destined to be a year of more changes and a more serious condition of unemployment than ever before and it is this phase of the situation that the writer would urge you to give immediate attention through the editorial column of your paper.

It is rightfully customary for the younger and smaller business men to follow the leadership of the older and larger firms and corporations, especially in matters of such vital importance as maintaining our local pay roll at as high a peak as

America To Continue To Maintain Courts Abroad Despite Action Of China

Washington, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The Washington government intends to continue the maintenance of American courts for American citizens in China despite any present effort of the Nationalist government to do away with these extraterritorial judicial agencies.

When the Chinese system of jurisprudence has reached a stage of progress compatible with modern concepts of law, then the abolishment of these courts will be begun, but until that time, the United States is prepared to take stringent measures for their maintenance.

In adopting this attitude, the Washington government is following its established policy on extraterritorial rights in China, the fundamental principles of which were outlined to the Nanking government in a note dispatched by Secretary Stimson on August 10, last.

In this, he said, that even gradual relinquishment could not take place until the Chinese legal code has progressed to a point satisfactory to the United States.

London, Dec. 30.—(AP)—British official circles consider the Chinese action in announcing the abolition of extraterritoriality beginning next year as a gesture to back up Chinese opinion.

The view was expressed that actual abolition will be a gradual process over a long period of time.

Upon inquiry at Downing street, the Associated Press was informed that in spite of the mandate recently issued in Nanking declaring the abolition of extraterritoriality, the Chinese government has not yet denounced the extraterritorial clauses of its treaty with the British government nor has it made any further communications to the British government on this subject.

America Fights High Duties On U. S. Automobiles

Paris, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The American embassy is expected to make representations to the foreign office shortly against proposed increased duties on automobiles and parts which probably will curtail all of the American automobile business in France.

The government itself introduced the bill raising the duties on parts by changing from an ad valorem to a weight basis and it is known that preparations are being made for another bill radically raising the duty on complete cars by the same method.

Several Persons Found Guilty of Violating Dry Law

Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Twenty-four residents of Mullan, Idaho, including the mayor and city councilmen as well as the sheriff of Shoshone county, convicted on a charge of conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition law, will appear in court here tomorrow to hear their sentences.

The two dozen defendants were convicted last night when the jury, after more than 21 hours of deliberation returned its verdict. Five others were acquitted.

Caught in a federal "roundup" which resulted in the arrest of more than 200 persons in the northern Idaho mining area, the 29 persons were accused of helping to keep Mullan a "wide open" town. The government charged that city and county officials "licensed" liquor dispensaries, gambling places and disorderly houses using the fees to pay expenses of the municipality.

City and county officials admitted that because the city was financially embarrassed, a system of licensing business places had been adopted as a means of raising revenue, but asserted that the officials did not deliberately license a place to sell liquor.

Sanford Man Held on Murder Charge

Sanford, Dec. 30.—(AP)—John W. Hall, of Eugene Springs, 18, of Sanford was held today without bond on a charge of causing Hall's death by hitting him on the head with a hammer.

Hall died yesterday at a local hospital from injuries he received Friday. Witnesses at an inquest into his death said Gunter hit him on the head with a hammer from an argument at a filling station on a highway near Lemon Springs. The coroner's jury ordered Gunter, son of the superintendent of Lee county highways, held without bond for trial at Lee Superior court.

Sackett Named Ambassador to Berlin, Germany

Washington, Dec. 30.—(AP)—President Hoover intends to submit to the Senate next Monday the nomination of Senator Frederick M. Sackett of Kentucky as Ambassador to Germany and the early resignation and departure of the Senator for Berlin are expected.

Under senatorial custom a member of that body appointed to another position is given confirmation immediately, the nomination being called up out of order as a mark of courtesy to the appointee.

Senator Sackett would succeed Jacob Gould Schurman, resigned.

Republican party leaders here look for Governor Sampson of Kentucky to appoint as Senator to succeed Mr. Sackett, Representative John M. Robson, Republican, of the 11th Kentucky district who was the governor's campaign manager in 1928.

FATHER SLAYS FIVE CHILDREN THEN SUICIDES

Vernon, Texas, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Evidence of a tragedy of poverty which wiped out a family of six persons in the midst of surrounding Christmas cheer, the bodies of a father and his five children lay today in a county morgue. The children apparently were killed by their father, who then committed suicide.

The dead were: J. H. Haggard, 56, farmer, and his children, Simon, 18; John, 10; Alta, 15; Alma, 12; and Dorothy, 6. The mother died three years ago.

A note reading: "All dead. I had rather be dead. Look in cellar," found on the door of the house, was interpreted by authorities as conclusive evidence that the slaying was the final act of a father stricken by grief at his inability to provide for his family on Christmas.

Justice of the Peace H. C. Justin returned no verdict after an inquest yesterday, but indicated that a verdict would be suicide in Haggard's case, and death by gunshot wounds in the case of the children.

The black farm home where the six lived was a two-story building when the bodies were found by a Mexican who stopped at the house, and contained only the barest necessities of life. Authorities believe the deaths occurred on Christmas day or the day following.

Great Number Also Injured By Wind Sweeping Through England and France

London, Dec. 30.—(AP)—At least seven persons were killed and a greater number injured by a southern gale which swept England, western France, and the intervening seas over the week-end.

Although the gale subsided Sunday night the weather bureau said an atmospheric depression hovering over the Eastern Atlantic indicated another was expected.

A woman and her daughter were killed and four others severely injured in Manchester when their house was wrecked yesterday. At Havre, France, the tug Abelle sunk and three of its crew drowned. A huge elm fell at Hazelbrook and killed two men.

Considerable damage was reported from the South and West Britain and in Normandy. Telegraphic communications were interrupted in many outlying districts. Theatrical of the broadcasting station at Chelmsford was blown away, preventing proposed transmission to America of the Archbishop of Canterbury's sermon.

Rain which accompanied the gale greatly increased floods in some districts, particularly in North Wales where the river went out of its banks and swamped a wide area. Many ships were drowned and roads submerged.

BANKS FAIL TO OPEN AT SPARTANBURG, S. C.

Spartanburg, S. C., Dec. 30.—(AP)—The Carolina National and the Dollar Savings banks here failed to open their doors today.

Notices posted on the doors of both institutions said the affairs were in the hands of the state bank examiner "by order of the board of directors."

The body of Milton Stafford, 26, of Greensboro, was found early this morning lying on the roadside in a suburb of the city, apparently struck and dragged for some distance by an automobile.

Miss Campbell died at Hickory yesterday from injuries she received in an automobile collision two weeks ago.

Senator Heflin To Seek Senate Investigation Of Fascist Activity In U. S.

Washington, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Asserting the announced dissolution of the Fascist League of America was believed by many patriotic Americans of Italian blood to be "deceptive propaganda" to throw the American people off their guard, Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, said today he would seek a Senate investigation of the Fascist activities in this country.

Heflin said he was "astounded" at Secretary Stimson's statement last week declaring an investigation had shown no improper acts by the Fascist organization in this country against the United States government.

"Somebody in the state department has evidently deceived Secretary Stimson about this matter," he said, adding that: "A thorough investigation of Fascist activities in the United States will show a shocking and horrible condition to have been produced wherever that lifted its hideous head."

The Alabama, author of the resolution, calling for the state department inquiry, said the Fascist organization "never thought of the disbanding scheme" until after his resolution was introduced.

"Mussolini's Fascist leaders here have announced that they would take the charter and all records to Rome," he said. "I wish to serve notice on them now that I shall ask that the charter, records and all other papers connected with the activities of the Fascist order be kept in the United States for examination by the Senate committee."

One of the gravest dangers confronting the American people today, he asserted, is "alien influence" coupled with the "cowardice we see displayed by public officials who ought to be firm and outspoken against these deadly evils, but who seem to be intimidated by these foreign influences and their boid and arrogant agents who hat the free institutions of our country."

Slight Lull Occurs Today In Prohibition Controversy; President Remains Silent

Washington, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Prohibition, which has turned the Christmas season of Washington into days of sizzling charges about the administration of dry laws, has apparently failed to disturb the traditional calm of the White House.

Ears which were attuned to expected utterances by President Hoover in reply, mainly to the ex-coriolation of present enforcement methods and personnel by Senator Borah of Idaho, and the accompanying or following face-ups from west or dry leaders, heard only that the first official move there in the controversy would come after the House approved a resolution for a joint committee to study consolidation of dry law enforcement agencies. Then the White House will transmit to it recommendations prepared by the law enforcement commission.

With word that President Hoover did not think that the present force called for any White House action or statement, a temporary lull came today in the series of statements from senators and members of executive departments.

Representative Cochran, of Missouri, a wet, did say that he intended to work for modification of the Volstead act but he skirted the row now continuing and there was general silence on the emphatic statement yesterday by Rear Admiral Billard, commandant of the coast guard, that the coast guard "means business" in its war on the liquor smugglers.

It has been made clear at the White House that President Hoover considers the prohibition problem one that cannot be solved overnight. It is also understood that he is vigorously opposing any effort to dramatize the speeding up of the solving of the enforcement problem.

Billard Made This Assertion After He Had Heard That Three Runners Had Been Killed and One Other Wounded in an Encounter with a Coast Guard Boat off Newport, R. I.

Washington, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The first official move of the White House in the prohibition controversy now going on in the capital will come when the House or representatives approves the resolution for the joint committee recommended by President Hoover to consider consolidation of federal enforcement activities.

The Senate already has passed the resolution approving the appointment of members of the committee from the Senate.

After the committee is named President Hoover will transmit to it the reports of the law enforcement commission dealing primarily with reorganization of the prohibition enforcement methods. These reports, it was said, have been prepared and are merely awaiting the appointment of the committee.

In the meantime, it was said, the President will take no part in the debate. His position, it was stated, will be that of a spectator on the sidelines.

It has been made clear at the White House that President Hoover considers the prohibition problem one that cannot be solved overnight. It is also understood that he is vigorously opposing any effort to dramatize the speeding up of the solving of the enforcement problem.

EXPOSE PLOT TO EXTORT BIG SUMS MONEY

Chicago, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Rumblings of war in gangland had their echo today in the disclosure of widespread plots of preying racketeers.

The Herald and Examiner said prolonged wire-tapping by police had disclosed plots of racketeers to extort millions of dollars from labor unions and business places. The newspaper said one gang alone had 22 labor organizations on its list.

Meanwhile, gangland was said to be awaiting the release of "Scarface Al" Capone from a Philadelphia jail for the outbreak of a war of finally and supremacy with the Moran-Aiello clans. Added thereto, police said, is the third for revenge that George "Bugs" Moran seeks for the massacre of seven of his men last St. Valentine's day—and these slayings have been charged to Capone rivalry.

In their prey on legitimate business "rackets" are said by Gordon Hostetter, secretary of the employers' association, to net $136,500,000 a year.

A common form of extortion was the attempt last Friday to obtain $10,000 from the head of the Tire and Rubber Workers' Union—an attempt that brought death to three racketeers, snared in a police trap.

The schemes of racket leaders for future easy money took on such important aspects that loop offices were maintained. One of these operated as a construction company office by the Moran-Aiello gangs—was raided Saturday. Several alleged racketeers were arrested.

Commissioner Crevier Whelan—ostensibly here for a study of "raffic conditions"—returned to New York yesterday but before leaving is said to have pledged cooperation in forming the Twin-City alliance against crime.

Two Va. Officers Shot From Ambush

Oxford, N. C., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Shot from ambush two Virginia officers lay in a critical condition at a hospital here today. A man who fled as they rode a liquor still in the state line was sought as their assailant.

Bernard Puryear, a deputy sheriff, and Mack E. Tuck, a Clarksville, Va., policeman, were suffering from gunshot wounds in the head and back. Little hope was held for Tuck's recovery.

According to Deputy Sheriff Tuck, a companion, the officers raided a still last yesterday and found four men near the liquor plant.

Three were arrested and the fourth man had secreted himself in a swamp and opened fire.

Rev. Gordon Poteat Delivered Sermon at Immanuel Baptist Church

Declaring Christ to have been a bright, cheerful fellow with the word "cheerio" always on his lips, and not the pale, effeminate creature as suggested by the paintings of great artists, Rev. Gordon Poteat, of Denver, Colorado, delivered the sermon at the 11 o'clock service at the Immanuel Baptist church in this city yesterday morning.

A native North Carolinian, and a relative of the distinguished family of Poteat, who have long taken a prominent part in the religious and educational life of the state, the Colorado man brought to the local congregation a message of surpassing power and excellence. It was one of those messages that grips the attention of a congregation from announcement of the sermon subject and holds it until the final word has been spoken.

Dr. Poteat, who had been attending a family reunion at Raleigh, was accompanied to Greenville, by his aunt, Miss Ida Poteat, of Meredith college, and Mrs. John Poteat, wife of one of his brothers. While in the city they were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Everett.

The sermon was heard by a crowd that filled the large auditorium to capacity. The minister used as his subject, "The difference Christ Has Made in the World." He brought out many points in connection with the early life of Christ, and told of the superstitions that gripped the lives of the people of his day.

He said that when Christ came into the existence of civilization of a then small world was at the mercy of evil spirits. People thought their lives depended upon making propitiations to some jealous god, or the use of some particular form of magic to cheat evil spirits at their own game.

He told of the important part which astrologers played in the lives of the people of that ancient period. They were not men who made a special study of the stars purely for scientific purposes, but pretended that the movement of certain celestial bodies held the fate of the people in their peculiar influences.

He said there were still some fools who believed in the "horoscope" but that was because they had not become truly awakened to the teachings of Christ.

He said the people of today were inclined to pat themselves upon the back over the things they had accomplished in the way of art, science and invention, but he did not see that they were intellectually superior to Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, or other great philosophers of the ancient civilizations.

The difference between the life of the two periods was the change wrought by the coming of Christ. His teachings have set aside the superstitions with the passing of each year, and any progress that has been made by man has come about largely through the great truths of life as enunciated by the lowly Nazarene as he stood on the shores of Galilee and preached the divine doctrine of peace on earth, good will toward men.

He urged his hearers to follow in the footsteps of the Babe in the manger, that the comfort of His teachings would instill faith in the human heart and safeguard from the fallacious and superstitions that made life such a misery for the ancients.

Whereas, the Honorable R. A. Nunn has held our Courts for the last half of the year, 1929;

And whereas, as Judge he has conducted the Courts and discharged his duties in such a manner as to command universal admiration and increase the great respect which is due the Court, and to maintain that confidence in the administration of justice so essential to the preservation of free institutions;

BETHEL WOMAN ENTERTAINS HER BRIDGE CLUB

Bethel, Dec. 30.—On Thursday evening, Mrs. V. N. Whitehurst entertained the members of her bridge club with their husbands and a few others at eight tables of bridge in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bundy, who are moving to Greenville in the near future.

The house was decorated with holly and other Christmas greens, which together with red candles and a large illuminated Christmas tree gave an appropriate air of Christmas. The tallies were also suggestive of the Yuletide season. Little Miss Nell Parker Whitehurst, daughter of the hostess, gave out the tallies.

After the playing was finished the hostess served chicken salad, sandwiches and coffee. High score prize for ladies was won by Mrs. L. N. James, for men by Mr. William J. Bundy, and for guests by Mrs. S. C. Ives. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bundy were remembered with a lovely gift. Guests, besides husbands of club members, included Mrs. Selma Carson Moore and Mr. Red Young, of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ives and Misses Lily Everhardt, Martin Austin, Inez Swann and Leclair Jacobs of Bethel; Mrs. R. W. Richardson of Diver; and Mrs. F. E. Price of Augusta, Ga.

SAYS PEOPLE DESIRING ENFORCEMENT ALL LAWS ARE PURE 'FANATICS'

New York, Dec. 30.—(AP)—In his annual report, published today, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, declares that those who want enforcement of all laws are "fanatics" demanding the punishment of violators of some particular law.

"If law enforcement meant the enforcement of all law," says the report, "then the social order, at least in the United States, would quickly be afflicted with paralysis, partly because of the absurdity of many of these laws and partly because of their open conflicts with each other."

"There is no ground whatever for the conventional statement that the violation of one law or disrespect for it leads to the disregard of all law. The contrary is the case. Lawlessness is selective and unbroken human experience goes to prove that on may hold a law in utter contempt and yet have high respect for the great body of the law of the land in which he lives."

New Ford Body Types Will Be Here Tuesday

Presentation Tuesday of new and smarter body types and a group of new colors for the Model A Ford was announced today by E. G. Flanagan, local Ford dealer, who emphasized the fact that no mechanical change is contemplated in the car because of the thoroughly satisfactory performance it has been giving.

He described the car as follows: "Redesigned along ultra modern lines, the new bodies will have a distinctly refreshing appearance, with all the beauty and charm of contour, line and proportion usually associated only with custom coach work and large cars."

Entire Front Raised
"The entire front of the Model A is raised and in beautiful proportion to the new body types. Moulding treatment is new, and fenders are of more generous dimensions, flowing with the lines of the car. A new treatment in the contour and sweep of the bodies, with a graceful forward pitch, gives the impression of fleetness."

"Every line from the flat radiator cap to the tip of the low, graceful curve of the rear fenders is new, clear cut and extremely smart."

"Rustless steel will be used for radiator shell, headlamps, hub caps, all are bright and shining, and will stay so, for in this rustless steel the chromium is not on the outside, like a thin veneer, but is alloyed with the iron. Moisture, whether from water, steam, ice or snow will not rust it."

Change in Radiator
"Perhaps the most striking change to catch the eye is the new radiator. Still retaining the Ford individuality, the contour of the shell is entirely attractive, blending beautifully with the new fender lines and other changes. The top follows somewhat the lines of the old shell, with narrower lines down each side, which curve into a junction at the starter opening in the center of the lower section."

"The general effect is one of greater height and less width, which, combined with the sweeping curves, contributes much to the trimness and smartness of the whole car."

"This effect is heightened by a sturdy tie rod, finished in black enamel, which rises in a graceful arc from each fender. It supports the license bracket, and the headlights, which are higher than before."

Sturdier, Smaller Wheels
"Additional strength has been built into the body by the construction of the cowl, the sides of which extend in one piece up along the windshield pillar to the roof line. Not only does this give sturdiness, but it reduces the possibility of squeaks. While cowl lights are standard equipment only on the Town Sedan and Cabriolet, all body types have been wired for them, and they may be installed at small cost."

"A sturdy, compact design of the wheels has been produced. They are smaller in diameter and consequently nearer the road. As before, they are made complete, in one piece, all of the steel spokes being electrically welded to the hub shell and rim. The angle at which the spokes are placed helps to distribute the force of road shocks and gives greater strength."

Easy Riding Qualities
"With the use of the smaller wheel the tire size has been increased from 4.50 x 21 balloon to 4.75 x 19 balloon. This adds to the comfort of the passengers in a car already remarkable for its easy riding qualities.

"A variety of colors has been added and may be obtained by the purchaser without additional cost. Much study has been given to this matter and an especial effort made to please the women motorists."

"The most notable changes in the body types have been made in the Tudor Sedan, the Coupes and the open cars."

Tudor Sedan, Roomier
"The Tudor Sedan, most popular of the five passenger closed cars is roomier. More room has been given for occupants of the rear compartment. Access is easier around the folding seats in front. In its exterior appearance, the car is much improved. It still retains the crown roof effect with rounded corners on the rear quarter, the beauty of which is accentuated by new body belt and moulding treatment."

"The Coupe is entirely new, with lower roof line. French roof quarters emphasize the low effect and the long lines of the new moulding treatment. Panel effects carried out by the moulding on the rear deck adds much to the smart appearance of the car. No head-room has been sacrificed inside by lowering the roof line and driving is made more comfortable by an adjustable seat."

Open Cars Are New
"The Sport Coupe, which has a rumble seat as standard equipment, has all the lower body lines of the coupe. The two open cars, Phaeton and Roadster, are entirely new in design, with long, lower lines and more beautiful appearance."

"On these cars, the new moulding, flowing back from the radiator, joins the body belt in a panel at the cowl, giving a streamline effect."

"No change will be made in the price of the various types."

SUNDOWN STORIES

SNOW LADY'S PARTY

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
The Snow Lady was so busy sending out snow for the holiday season and attending to the messages that came in asking for snow that she could not pay much attention to John and Peggy.

But she asked them to look about her place and to see other members of the family who might be around. They heard the Breeze messengers coming in asking for snow, and they saw the telegrams brought by the Wind asking for snow for the new sleds, for the pleasure that snow would give.

It was very exciting seeing them come like this, and they watched the Snow Lady as she kept sending more and more members of the Snow Flake family out on their adventures into the world.

How they did laugh and scamper and run races and play as they started off! How they tossed about this way and that as they began their trip.

And then John and Peggy looked all over the palace and saw the gorgeous rooms and the beautiful staircases and the chandeliers made of icicles.

But what interested them most of all were the family portraits and statues all over the palace. There were so many of them.

All the famous members of the snow family had had their portraits made at some time or other, and as John and Peggy said:

"Really, some of them are very grand, but some of them look quite as plain as the snow men we make in the winter."

THE YEARS

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER
"We're going to have a rather unusual adventure this evening," the Little Black Clock told John and Peggy. "I've used my wonderful magic, and I've turned the time back ever and ever so far."

"You will see?"

John and Peggy went with the Little Black Clock and somehow the place where they went looked a though it might be the back of the world.

Just as the back of a house is different from the front, so this seemed like the back of the world. It was so different from anything they had ever seen.

"I've not turned the time back too far—but still quite, quite far," the Little Black Clock said, and now there appeared some tall, handsome young men.

Then there were others—younger than these—and there were eleven boys who looked very much alike and others who seemed quite different.

"I've brought John and Peggy," the Little Black Clock cried.

"Good!" they all said. "We can almost wish you a happy New Year."

It seemed that the eleven who looked alike were the Months of the year. February was not so tall as the others, but had the same general appearance, except that each of the months wore a suit that looked not unlike the kind of Month he was. March wore a most untidy suit.

John and Peggy met the Years too—they were so fine and noble looking!

And they met the Weeks and Days—splendid—all of them.

"This is where the years' and

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

needs and wants if our people want it bad enough to work for it.
So our suggestion for a New Year's resolution for every person in our county is this: "Resolved that we quit talking and thinking hard times and go to work." Such a resolution, if carried out, would drive all thought of hard times from our section.

ABOUT TOWN

Don't let the New Year come in and find hundreds of children in Pitt County without adequate warming to keep their tiny bodies warm during the cold winter weather.
You have had an opportunity to contribute to this cause for several days, but somehow something has kept you from doing so. Why not get busy at once and give something to the relief of the suffering poor. You will feel better by doing so and they will be able to pass through the long siege of winter under much better conditions than otherwise.

Start the New Year right by subscribing to the Daily Reflector. This paper will offer the same superb news service, in the future as in the past and no home can feel it is adequately protected in a news way without receiving the paper each afternoon.
The biggest news breaks in this and other nations occur during the day time, and a few moments after they happen a complete record is flashed over the Reflector's leased wires for the information of its readers.

It is the same locally. You have the advantage of keeping in closer personal touch with your own community by reading the Reflector. Every matter of any importance is handled in detail from day to day, and this feature alone is worth the price of subscription.
Don't let New Year's day go by without sending in your check for a renewal.

Greenville merchants are going to start the New Year off by endeavoring to give the best possible service to the thousands of people in this great trade territory.
These men have something to look forward to in the future, an objective to reach, and that is to live up to the reputation of being the principal shopping center of Eastern North Carolina. This is a responsibility that rests heavily upon the shoulders of every individual merchant, and it is going to inspire them to do everything possible to keep faith with their patrons in the long days to come.

If you have not been trading in Greenville in the past, Mr. Shopper, pay the city a visit in the future and see what our merchants have to offer. Their stocks are complete at all times, and you will be able to choose from a variety of goods unsurpassed by no other city in this section.
President Hoover is waiting on reports of the governors of various states to determine the extent of construction work promised for the coming year.

The reports so far received by the chief executive have been of an encouraging nature, lending hope that activities in the building world will do much towards relieving the unemployment existing in various sections of the country.
No doubt many states will be materially benefited by the construction programs, but the great agricultural regions more than likely will be affected only in a minor way. This makes it imperative for the farmers to turn their thoughts for relief into other channels, and especially the growers of this great tobacco region.

This brings home to us the fact that it is going to be necessary for our growers to turn their attention to the cultivation of the things which they produce at home. For instance, instead of confining their time to the production of two or three crops, they must diversify and experiment along other lines.
This should mean more to this section than all the building programs we could get under way, and it is to be hoped the farmers realize the fact and do what they can in making the live-at-home movement an actuality.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Dec. 30.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 1 point to a decline of 1 point. Liverpool made a fairly steady showing and there was some covering by near month shorts while offerings were light. The demand was decidedly limited, however, and the market eased off a point or two during the early trading under realizing. At the end of the first half hour, March was selling around 17.35 and July 17.80, or about 1 to 2 points net lower.

Favorable week-end reviews of the cotton goods market were probably reflected by some of the early buying and there were reiterated reports of a firm spot situation in the south, but they evidently failed to create much buying interest. Liverpool cables reported hedging and continental liquidation of late months, absorbed by trade calling.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Extensive year-end readjustment of speculative accounts brought about an irregular price movement in today's stock market.

Prices headed upward at the opening but turned heavy around midday when fresh selling broke out in the copper, rubber and merchandising issues.

Many of the early gains of 1 to 5-1/2 points were cut down, and several of them were converted into net declines by early afternoon.

This was the last day in which stocks could be sold the regular way for the purpose of establishing income tax losses, and it was apparent that much of the day's selling was for that reason.

Tax sales for cash may still be made tomorrow but stocks sold in the ordinary manner on that day will not be cleared until January 2.

Filing of a bankruptcy petition against the Stutz motor company of America, Inc., was one of the most interesting developments of the day's business news. Ford Motor plants are reported to have enlarged their payrolls but news from other industrial centers was rather negative in character, due to the shutdowns and reduced operations incidental to the inventory season.

Cash money was firm at 6 per cent with indications that the rate would not go above that level, despite the heavy year-end currency demand. The time money market was quiet, but a brisk business was reported in the years' acceptances, with no change in rates.

Rubbers were reactionary, all the Fisk issues sagging to new low levels for the year, while U. S. Rubber first preferred dropped 3 points and Goodyear 2 1-2. A fresh outbreak of selling in Sears Roebuck carried that issue down more than 2 points to 82 1-2, or just 2 1-2 points above the low established in the November break, but it quickly snapped back above 83.

Columbian Carbon ran up 5 1-2 points in the early trading but lost all its gain. J. I. Case sold 4 1-2 points higher, R. H. Macy 4 and General Electric Westinghouse, Detroit Edison, Simmons Co., Air Reduction, Warren Bros., A. M. Byers and First National Stores were marked up 3 points or more before the rise was checked by the mid-day selling movement.

EDISON WARNS GOVERNMENT TO STAY OUT OF BUSINESS

Chicago, Dec. 30.—(AP)—An admonition to "keep the government out of business" was given by Thos. A. Edison in an interview appearing today in the Illinois Manufacturers' News.

"One of the highest duties of the President is to keep the government out of business," Mr. Edison said. "That is his biggest job, and I should include in that job the clearing out of the bureaucracy, which are growing up in Washington and becoming a wasteful nuisance."

This was the last day in which stocks could be sold the regular way for the purpose of establishing income tax losses, and it was apparent that much of the day's selling was for that reason.

Local Man Speaks At Winston-Salem T. P. A. Banquet

The T. P. A., as an organization, is responsible for the Department of Commerce being a part of the President's Cabinet; has given to the citizens of North Carolina the hotel inspection law making it necessary for hotels to be inspected in order that your wives and daughters know they will have clean modern places to stop; it has abolished the Pullman surcharge and has provided for better traveling conditions," said J. B. Kittrell, of Greenville, the champion application writer of the United States, in his address last night at the fifth annual banquet of Post DD of the North Carolina Division, T. P. A. The banquet was held in the ballroom of the Robert E. Lee hotel with John M. Brown toastmaster.

More than two hundred and fifty members of the post and their friends enjoyed one of the best affairs of its kind in the history of the post. The ballroom was attractively decorated for the occasion with huge banks of pine and cypress trees in the windows and with large cords of festoons running about the walls from the various lights. Mixed with these were many lovely bushes.

A number of state officers were introduced, among these being State President J. J. S. Callaway, of Henderson; Past President Walter B. Davis, of Greensboro; Vice-President T. B. Apperson, of Winston-Salem; Chairman of Board of Directors, A. H. Holland, of Winston-Salem; Vice-Chairman, O. W. Patterson, of Greensboro; Director, Ed J. Lancaster, of Winston-Salem; Director, A. COLLEGE CAGE SEASON READY FOR OPENING

Atlanta, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Hopes of North Carolina State to repeat its performance of last year in winning the Southern Conference basketball title rest upon the shoulders of a handful of sophomores.

Coach Gus Tebell believes that if the newcomers are as potent as Sophomores as they were as freshmen they will fit snugly into the positions left vacant by the graduation of three regulars of last season.

The Wolfpack mentor is building his 1930 edition around a great running guard, Captain Maurice Johnson and two returning veterans Haar, forward and Wright, guard. If Tebell can uncover a center to fill Frank Goodwin's post and a couple of accurate shooting forwards he will be all set for another successful season.

Jimmy Brown, ace of the state championship Frosh squad last winter, "Hunky" Warning, a 6-foot-4-inch center, who is being groomed for Goodwin's place and Woodward and Taylor, forwards, are the most promising of the Sophomores.

The conference campaign gets off to a fast start this week with 16 games booked, and a dozen more teams have their eyes set on the crown.

Duke, nosed out in the final tournament game last March by the State tilters, will be back for some old-fashioned revenge. Harry Councillor, the dynamic midget forward, Bill Weber, All Southern guard and Cronson, Lank center, are the big guns of the Durham squad.

With several lettermen returning, Maryland looks for a good year. Captain Bill Evans and Madigan, forwards, Hetzer, center, and Radice, guards, are the veterans and John Ritzer, shapes up as the other member of the quintet. Berger, a Sophomore center, is also a likely candidate.

Georgia has four veterans around which to mould its team and unless something goes awry the Bulldogs will have to be counted in the running for quite some distance.

If their Sophomores develop varsity form, both Florida and Georgia Tech will offer formidable machines. Emmelhainz and Hirsch, forwards, and Ira Baker, all first year varsity men, seem slated for berths on the Alligator five, while Faines is a leading candidate for the pivot post on the Tech quiet.

Tennessee and Tulane, conference leaders in football, will also offer strong contenders for basketball honors. Hackman and McEver, the famous Tennessee half back combination, will line up as forwards, with Hug at center, and Brand and Lucas at guards. The Green squad will be constructed around "Precher" Roberts at center, with Magnum and Glover at forward posts, and Ford and Dawson handling the defense.

North Carolina is faced with a dearth of forward material, but Coach Jim Ashmore has veteran guards and centers back and hopes to spot some net ringers from among the new comers.

South Carolina, Virginia, Clemson, V. M. I., Sewanee, V. P. I., and Washington and Lee will have all booked strong conference opponents and will be in the thick of the scrap all the way.

Chuck Collins to Remain at U. N. C.

Chapel Hill, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Head Football Coach Chuck Collins has withdrawn his request for release from his contract at the University of North Carolina.

The grid mentor whose team last season licked everything it played, except Georgia, will continue to direct the Tar Heels for another year at least. It will be his fifth year at Chapel Hill.

Collins recently received what he termed a tempting offer from Georgetown University, Washington. He returned to Chapel Hill yesterday from his home in Oak Park, Ill., where he spent the Christmas holidays and conferred with North Carolina athletic officials regarding the matter.

The next result of the conference was that Collins decided to withdraw a request he had made for release in order that he might accept the Georgetown offer. "The athletic officials did not divulge the details of the conference or reveal whether any new agreement with Collins was reached."

Neither Collins nor Charles T. Woolen, graduate manager of athletics, however, left any doubt about whether Collins would remain with the Tar Heels for another year.

"I will be back at Carolina next year," Coach Collins said. "There was nothing to all of that stuff anyway. A lot of this about my going to Georgetown could have been left unsaid."

Mr. Woolen said: "Coach Collins will be back at Carolina next year."

"What did you do about raising the pay?" he was asked.

"There are still details to be worked out," he replied, "and we are not saying anything about pay or any other details yet, just that he will be back."

HITTERS HAD BIG YEAR ON THE DIAMOND

By BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

New York, Dec. 30.—As the official averages of the National League are released, the evidence grows that 1929 was a hitters' year in baseball.

The pennant winning Chicago Cubs made a new record for runs batted in when they drove 933 tallies across the plate. This broke the old record of 820 established by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1925. If the Cubs had not smashed the old high mark, three other clubs would have done so for the Phillies, the Pirates, the Pirates themselves, and the Giants drove in more runs than the three-year-old record.

The Cubs also received the most bases on balls and to square accounts struck out he most, the base on balls totalling 589 and the strikeouts 567.

The hard hitting Phillies out-slugged their fellows, amassing an average of 467 with total bases of 2,559.

The Cubs were legitimate champions for they led the league at home and abroad. The Giants were second on the road but sixth at home, doing only a little better than an even break at the Polo Grounds. The Cubs had a per cent of .675 at home and .613 abroad.

Rogers Hornsby headed the sluggers for the second year in a row, his percentage of .681 surpassing by 48 points his winning average of 1928. Hack Wilson, another Cub, made a new league record for runs batted in with 159, beating by seven Hornsby's record of 1922 when he was driving in runs for the Cardinals. Wilson also was the most accomplished player in the league at missing third strikes. He struck out 83 times.

Meivin Ott of the Giants led the league in drawing bases on balls, 113, and Jimmy Welsh of the Giants and Braves was hit the most times. Of the regulars, Pie Traynor, Pirates, proved the most difficult batsman to fool entirely. He struck out only seven times.

Jim Bottomley, Cardinals, for the sixth consecutive year batted in more than 100 runs.

TWO FOOTBALL STARS DO SOME FIRE FIGHTING

San Jose, Cal., Dec. 30.—(AP)—Two football stars, Jack Cannon of Notre Dame and Tony Holm of Alabama, engaged in an unexpected workout in evening clothes here last night.

The two players, here for the East-West game in San Francisco on New Year's Day were guests at a dinner party at the Mountain View home of Paul H. Pretz, former commandant of the Mare Island Navy Yard.

Just as the dinner started the guests were aroused by the crackling of flames, and saw the garage and servants' quarters adjoining the Pretz mansion here ablaze.

Cannon and Holm took charge of the situation, and with emergency fire fighting equipment kept the flames from spreading to the main building.

Further Attack On Subsidizing College Players

New York, Dec. 30.—(AP)—A further attack on the subsidizing of athletes by colleges and universities was launched by Howard J. Savage of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching in a speech prepared for delivery at a luncheon of the Sportsmanship Brotherhood today.

In his first public address since publication of the now famous Carnegie report on commercialism in college athletics, Mr. Savage declared that although the practice of recruiting high school and preparatory school athletes probably is diminishing gradually, the situation is still "so serious that it should engage the attention of every sportsman."

"The recruiting of athletes is not a simple matter and its rights and wrongs are not so immediately obvious as one might wish," said Mr. Savage. "The practice seldom, and probably never, exists without the use of subsidies. As the fisherman baits his hook so the recruiter baits the subsidy before the eager eyes of the preparatory or high school athlete. So widely recognized are the practices that a compulsory practice has developed among school boys, known as 'shopping around' in which the school boy without waiting for overtures from the college or its recruiter, may offer by (responding and even by telegraph his athletic services to the highest bidder among the colleges."
