THE WEATHER

North Carolina: Mostly cloudy tonight and Friday, probably rain in interior; slightly warmer in west portions Friday; gentle winds.

COLD WEATHER CLAIMS THREE LIVES IN WEST

Arctic Gales, Accompanied by Snow and Sleet, Advance South and East

Kansas City, Jan. 9.—(AP)—A wintry symphony sounded again today over some twenty states of the midwest, southwest and Rocky Mountains, the organ notes of a roaring northern gale sounding a bass accompaniment to the whistle and beat of snow, sleet and cold rain which swept for the third successive day over mountains and prairies and advanced farther south and east.

The Arctic melody became a dirge yesterday, as three deaths attributed to the storm were reported from Missouri, Oklahoma and Colorado. A multitude of traffic accidents cutting injuries to occupants of motor cars also were reported.

Heavy losses of livestock were feared as far south as Austin, Tex., with the storm and ice still advancing toward the gulf at Henrietta, Tex., two inches of sleet sleet covered the ground, a record in the annals of the weather bureau. Sub-freezing temperatures prevailed at El Paso, with snow falling. With a minimum temperature of 13 degrees at Amarillo, the mercury still was falling this morning.

At Okmulgee, Okla., 300 persons attending a revival meeting fled from a frame tabernacle not more than a minute before the roof weighted down by tons of sleet and snow, crashed to the floor of the auditorium. The congregation was warned by creaking timbers.

In the upper reaches of the Rocky Mountains range, where the storm originated over the week-end, sub-zero temperatures were the rule. Miles City, Mont., reported 15 degrees below zero, and Glasgow, where yesterday the mercury touched the minus-40 mark, this morning still cracked under a temperature of 15 below. Snow still swirls over the mountain Wyoming, and parts of Colorado.

The Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Illinois and portions of a half dozen other states today heard the weather man pronounce sentence of at least another day of snow. Eight inches of the feathery blanket lay on the ground here, drifting and covering the streets as fast as emergency crews of snow sweepers had passed.

The three deaths reported were those of James Akertide, 10, killed in Elk City, Okla., when his sled was struck by a skidding motor car; Grant Owens, 60, Grand Junction, Colorado, when car plunged off an icy trail west of there, dropping 200 feet; and Mrs. Elgie Brown, 25, Fordland, Mo., killed when cars of two snow-blinded motorists collided near her home.

San Francisco, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Rail today brought some relief to California, which for three days has been in the grip of a cold spell, but deep snow and blocked communication lines veiled the fate of six persons battling with the elements in the high Sierra.

Fears for the safety of John A. Nightingale, airport superintendent at Stockton, and his wife, and 7-year-old son, who are believed to be marooned in their snow buried mountain cabin 45 miles east of Sacramento, increased after attempts to locate the shack from airplanes and ground food had failed.

The apprehension also was felt for Henry Merma, John Melius, and Jewish Burgess, power company employees, who set out yesterday to carry provisions to the Nightingales cabin. Nothing had been heard from them last night. Merma carried a portable telephone but it was ascertained that all lines were down in that area and that the instrument would be useless.

Bitter cold, with temperature 15 below zero in some places, and low visibility hampered rescue work. Two airplanes were made ready at Stockton to resume the hunt for the Nightingale cabin today.

Pilots of three planes which flew over the area yesterday said the snow was so deep that they had been unable to sight any cabins. The Nightingales went to the cabin last Saturday, carrying provisions enough to last only through the week-end.

Crying Man Asks for Compensation

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Robert Dutch, having cried a greater part of the time since 1926 he says, wants compensation for it. Some caustic soda got into his eyes while he was working at a smelter, providing the basis of a petition for damages as filed in District court.

He worked at the smelter, his petition said, until last June when his crying necessitated that he quit. The tears are most copious in cold weather, his petition added.

Congressional Wets Plan To Present United Front; Meeting Called For Today

Washington, Jan. 9.—(AP)—An effort to organize the wet bloc of the House, on the premise that prohibition is a failure and modification imperative, was today's contribution to the controversy which has raged in Washington since the Christmas holidays began.

A meeting of House members not in sympathy with the prohibition law was called for this afternoon, marking one of the first coherent moves by congressional wets to present a united front in their attempt to repeal the Volstead law.

"This country," said Representative LaGuardia, Republican, of New York, one of the wet leaders, "has gone through the same thing that Canada and other countries which have prohibition have gone through. Canada and the other countries have changed their laws and now only this country and Finland remain."

"Conditions speak for themselves," he continued, "and the wets are taking conditions as we find them and putting them into the record."

"The dries are defeated. Prohibition has reached its peak. Our problem is to deal with the subject and put it to the fore—the one solution is putting the alcoholic traffic under proper regulation. The states that want it, should have it."

"Dry champions are now in dispute among themselves as to the facts and the country is alive to the problem. Prohibition has one last lease on life; transfer of administration to the treasury to the department of justice. If enforcement of prohibition falls there, that is the end of it."

Representative Linthicum, Maryland, is a leader of the Democratic group identified with the wet bloc.

LIVE STOCK CONVENTION NEARING END

Election of Officers to Feature Final Session at Raleigh This Afternoon

Raleigh, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Importance of the dual purpose herd, control of parasites, the importance of cottonseed meal in feeding beef cattle and hogs, and research work in swine production featured the morning meeting today of the Southern Livestock association which is holding its seventeenth annual convention at State College here. The last meeting of the convention is scheduled for this afternoon when there will be more technical discussions and the election of officers and selection of the place for the next meeting.

Some of the advantages of raising cattle which can be used either to produce milk or beef were recited by D. J. Lybrook, of the Reynolds-Lybrook farms, Advance, N. C. He declared that the dual purpose cattle were found sturdier than stock-raising cattle and that they produced milk virtually as cheaply as special purpose cattle. He recommended that three-fifths of a herd be used for milk and the other two-fifths for nurse cows for greatest efficiency.

Control of the ox warble, a fly which causes loss among cattle estimated at fifty million dollars a year in America, was discussed by L. I. Case, livestock extension specialist of Blacksburg, Va. He told how the fly lays its eggs on the hairs of the hocks of the cattle and how the larva penetrates the skin and bores its way up through the animal until it emerges from the backs some months later, causing the animal to lose much weight.

Injections of a benzol mixture into the back of the animal as the warble starts to emerge was recommended as a control measure. Some instances of human beings afflicted with the larva were cited.

Utilization of cottonseed meal in finishing baby beef was discussed by W. L. Blizard, head of the animal husbandry department at Stillwater, Okla.

Also on the program were George S. Templeton, of Dallas Texas, who discussed the value of corn silage, sorghum silage and cotton seed meal in feeding commercial beef cattle; W. W. Shaw, swine expert of State College, Raleigh, who compared soil fertility and pork production; and L. V. Starkey, head of the animal husbandry department of Clemson College, S. C., who told some of the things experiment stations have discovered about pork production.

New Orleans Bids for Headquarters of Cotton Body

Washington, Jan. 9.—(AP)—New Orleans was the first of six southern cities today to present bids for the new $30,000,000 cotton corporation headquarters.

Senator Ramsell, Democratic, of Louisiana, spoke for the Crescent City when the growers national organization committee invited delegates before it.

Other cities represented included Memphis, Atlanta, Spartanburg, S. C., and Dallas. A delegation from Houston was expected Friday.

Young Mountaineer Goes on Trial for Murder at Marshall

Marshall, N. C., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Herman Anderson, 20-year-old mountaineer, went on trial in Madison Superior court today for second degree murder in connection with the death of Ambrose Randall, former deputy sheriff.

Anderson, arrested in November and held without bond, has maintained steadfastly that he slew Randall in self defense.

The former deputy was found lying in the road near his home in the Doe Branch section, a bullet wound in his neck. Anderson, arrested in the forest a mile away, admitted shooting Randall, but claimed the man was advancing on him with an open knife. Difficulty over Anderson's alleged attentions to Randall's daughter is represented as cause of the slaying.

Anderson's 14-year-old brother, the only eye-witness to the shooting, is expected to be an important witness in the trial.

New High Marks for Jan. Weather Along the Coast

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—New high marks for January temperature were on weather bureau records today at many points along the Atlantic Coast from Portland, Me., to Philadelphia.

The metropolitan area enjoyed a forecast of spring yesterday when balmy breezes from the south fanned the mercury up to 64, exceeding by six degrees the previous high mark for the corresponding day, set in 1897.

In Philadelphia the mercury went to 67 degrees to set a record there has only been exceeded once in the history of the weather bureau. On January 12, 1890, the mercury reached 72.

In the vicinity of New York, the mild weather, made necessary a swimming rescue, when Bertha Rubin, 23 years old, was seized with cramps after she had swam more than a mile in Flushing bay. She was taken out of the water by William E. Kelly, 22, who heard her screams and put out in a boat.

Crowds promenaded the boardwalk at Coney Island and drives and bridle paths in Central Park were well populated. Loungers took naps on park benches.

Melting snow and rain created fresher conditions in New Hampshire, Vermont and western New York. In Buffalo some streets were flooded and furnace fires were extinguished by water which filled basements.

Four Negroes Held in Connection With Double Murder

Bishopville, S. C., Jan. 9.—(AP)—The bodies of Willie Bristow, well-to-do negro farmer of the Cypress section, and his wife lay in an undertaking establishment, here while Lee county officers probed deeper into their deaths.

Officers held four negroes in connection with the deaths and sought three others for questioning.

The bodies were found yesterday in a shallow grave near the Bristow home. The pair had been missing five weeks.

Lee county officers said the two had been clubbed to death with an iron bar and their bodies dragged by mules through the woods to the grave where they were buried. The bodies were tied together with a strong rope. Their heads had been badly battered and were covered with gunny sacks.

Nephew of Chinese Minister to London Commits Suicide

Shanghai, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Sze Chun Yu, nephew of Alfred Sze Chinese Minister at London, committed suicide last night after loss of $20,000 through speculation in gold bars from Nanking.

The suicide was regarded here as a tragic note in the slump of silver on the markets. According to government experts the government's immediate loss as a result of the silver slump exceeds $10,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 9.—(AP)—The new Senate Republican organization set-up with Senators LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and Thomas, of Idaho, on the finance committee, was today formally approved by the committee on committees and will be placed before a party conference tomorrow.

Little trouble is expected in obtaining ratification of the new lineup giving recognition to the western independents and the "young guard" at the party conference. LaFollette, however, won a place on the finance committee over the opposition of the eastern old guard leaders, including Senators Reed of Pennsylvania, Moses of New Hampshire, and Birmingham of Connecticut.

SCHOOL FIGHT MORE SERIOUS AT BREVARD

Feeling at White Heat As Another School Fails to Open in Board Controversy

Brevard, Jan. 9.—(AP)—The inter-board political controversy waging in this county, which Monday closed five schools with a total enrollment of about 1,500 children, Thursday became more complicated when teachers at the Pisgah Forest school failed to follow the instructions of the local school committee to open school.

As a result, teachers and children were on the ground, but school was not in session Thursday morning.

Meanwhile, feeling is at white heat here. The local school committee Wednesday announced that it had decided to comply with the request of the Republican county Board of Commissioners and open school, in defiance of the Democratic County Board of Education, and ordered the school opened today.

Early Thursday, Superintendent S. P. Verner paid a visit to Pisgah Forest, and the result was that the school was not opened. Mr. Verner held a conference with the teachers at Pisgah Forest, and warned them of the dangers of conducting the school without orders from the county board of education.

Mr. Verner's visit was paid before he had been served with a restraining order forbidding him and members of the county education body from interfering with the opening of the school at Pisgah Forest. The restraining order was signed Wednesday at midnight by a county judge, English, who set January 17 as the date for a hearing on why the order shouldn't be made permanent. The date is the same as that set by Judge English for a hearing on a mandamus proceeding brought by school patrons in an effort to force the opening of the five schools. Defendants in the latter case are members of the Board of Education, County Superintendent Verner, and Purchasing Agent C. I. McNeely, the principals in the controversy.

The fight grew out of an order by the Republican County Board of Commissioners that the education board make its purchases, specifically of coal for the schools, through the purchasing agent appointed by the commissioners. The education board declared on the ground that it was not required by law to take orders from the Board of Commissioners. The commissioners refused to approve for payment bills for coal, and the schools did not open Monday, after Christmas holidays, for lack of fuel.

Judge Bragaw to Be Buried Friday

Washington, N. C., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Funeral services for Judge Stephen Cambreleng Bragaw, 62, one of North Carolina's outstanding lawyers, who died here last night, will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at St. Peter's Episcopal church here.

Judge Bragaw served on the Superior court bench of the state by appointment of Governor Kitchen and was well known throughout the state. He practiced law here except for the few years that he served as judge.

He was for many years an alderman of the town of Washington and also served as its mayor. He is survived by his widow, two brothers and one sister.

Says Hoover's Secretary Asked Him to Work Out Sugar Scale For Tariff

Washington, Jan. 9.—(AP)—R. L. Purdon, sugar expert of the commerce department, told the Senate Lobby committee today he had been asked by Walter Newton, one of President Hoover's secretaries to try to work out a sliding scale for sugar duties in the pending tariff bill.

Purdon said he understood several government departments had been asked by Newton to work on a sliding scale, to ascertain if it was practical.

Purdon added that he worked out several different sliding scale proposals and Chairman Caraway of the Lobby committee, asked him what became of them.

"I still have them," he replied, as a laugh rose in the audience.

Purdon added that he understood his proposals had been transmitted to Chairman Smoot of the Senate Finance committee through the White House.

Later, he said, he was asked by Smoot to discuss the sliding scale with representatives of sugar interest in an attempt to work out a satisfactory sugar tariff.

A sliding scale was considered by Smoot but the plan was dropped when opposition developed.

Questioned about a "highly confidential" memorandum sent by William H. Baldwin, New York publicity man to Junior Owens, secretary of the American bottlers of carbonated beverages, Purdon said the information might have been obtained from him.

He added that nothing in the memorandum could be considered as confidential.

The bottlers association has been conducting a campaign against a high sugar duty in the tariff bill.

Purdon said he had consulted with his superiors before beginning the work on the sliding scale and had spent several months in it.

He said he had consulted a number of representatives of sugar companies and with Senators Watson, Shortridge and Harrison and representatives Longworth, Tilson, Hawley and Snell.

MISSIONARY WORK THEME OF INSTITUTE

Prominent Methodists Attended Session at Jarvis Memorial Church Yesterday

The District Missionary Institute at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church yesterday opened at 10:30 with a large delegation from the district. Rev. J. H. McCracken, presiding elder of the district, led the devotional reading a part of the tenth chapter of Romans. From this he brought an inspiring missionary message laying it heavily upon the mind of the ministers and lay workers the necessity of sacrificial and heroic living. He said the gospel of Jesus Christ and the church is inseparable, and that we need strong preachers alive with the Holy Spirit, and a church of willing workers if we are to carry out the commands of Jesus Christ.

Brother H. I. Glass brought a very forceful message on "Stewardship." He asked that we examine our own lives and answer the question for ourselves "Why are we carrying on a program of Missions?" He says that the true missionary spirit is not a command that compels us, but rather a command that impels us, and that we must carry forward the program of missions in order that the Cross of Jesus Christ may live in our lives.

Rev. F. S. Love, conference secretary of missions, gave some encouraging facts from our Missions Board on financial conditions. "In spite of depressions the year closed with more money in the treasury than the year before," said Mr. Love. He pleads for the breaking down of race prejudice, and that this be a year of prayer for world friendship.

Dr. G. L. Morelock, general secretary of lay activities, Nashville, Tenn., brought greetings from our General Board, after which he brought a most inspiring message to the lay workers of the church, using the words from the Holy Scriptures, "Go Ye Into All the World," and the words of Wesley, "The World is My Parish, saying that the church today is looking not upon the world with the words of Wesley in mind. He urged the laymen to support the program of the church as planned by our General Boards. Due to Dr. Morelock's travel, study and interest he told some most helpful and interesting things about the missionary work being done throughout Southern Methodism. He closed this great message by urging the people to share the opportunity of evangelizing the world, and asking the question "are you facing life with a passion to save men?"

The meeting adjourned with a one o'clock luncheon. We felt that it was a great day for the work of the church and the on going of the Kingdom work. A great interest was manifested and we pray that great good may come because of it.

Freight Train Leaves Tracks at Arcadia, S. C.

Spartanburg, S. C., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Traffic on the main line of the Southern Railway was delayed five hours this morning when 25 cars of a northbound freight were derailed at Arcadia, four miles from Spartanburg.

No one was injured and railway officials were unable to assign a cause for the wreck other than it was the result of a break in air connections.

Cars were thrown across the double track trestle at Arcadia Mills and many of them badly damaged. The tracks were torn up for some distance.

EDWARD W. BOK SUCCUMBS TO BRIEF ILLNESS

Noted Editor, Author and Philanthropist Dies at Estate Near Lake Wales, Fla.

Lake Wales, Fla., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Edward W. Bok, who came to this country as an immigrant boy from the Netherlands and carved out for himself a distinguished position in public life an editor, author and philanthropist, died at his estate near here today. He was 66 years old.

Mr. Bok became ill shortly after his arrival with Mrs. Bok from Merion, Pa., four days ago and his condition became critical yesterday. He passed away at 4:35 A. M., today, suffering from an acute heart attack.

As the donor of a $100,000 prize for a plan by which the United States might co-operate with other nations in attaining and preserving world peace and the writer of "The Americanization of Edward Bok," an autobiography Bok became widely known. Relating his details of first employment in America as a messenger boy at the age of 13, his efforts to educate himself and his success as a journalist the book was received as an outstanding work of its kind.

Following his retirement in 1919 as editor of the Ladies Home Journal, a magazine for whose success he was largely responsible. Mr. Bok spent much of his time in Florida. Within a short distance of his estate rises one of his principal philanthropic enterprises—a million of 61 bells erected on a bird sanctuary.

For the dedication of the Mountain Lake singing tower and preserve Calvin Goodidge then presided, made a special trip from Washington last February 1 and delivered an address in which he accorded high praise to the accomplishments of Mr. Bok.

Mr. Bok, his friends said, considered the town and its grounds a tribute to his grandparents, study of the old world who found enjoyment in music.

In his 30 years as an editor Mr. Bok was associated with Cyrus H. K. Curtis, wealthy Philadelphia publisher, and in that city he was known as a patron of the fine arts.

He married a daughter of Mr. Curtis, the former Mary Louise Curtis, and they had two sons, Curtis, who resides at Rosemont Pa. and Cary, who lives at Merion, Pa.

The sons as well as Mr. Curtis were summoned to Mr. Bok's bedside yesterday, but had not reached here early today. Funeral plans were held in abeyance pending their arrival, but information at the Bok home was that the services and burial probably would take place here.

The funeral services will be held here tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The body will be buried in a crypt at the base of the singing tower that was prepared when the owner was built.

Senator Censured by Senate for His Attack on Member

State Capitol, Richmond, Va., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Senator R. H. Stubbs, of Middlesex, was censured by the Senate today for his attack yesterday on Senator Saxon W. Holt, of Newport News, in the first resolution of his kind adopted by the Virginia Senate in many years. The resolution was introduced by Senator Layman, of Craig, and adopted without recorded vote. Senator Stubbs sat solemnly in his seat throughout the brief proceedings.

The resolution asserted that Senator Stubbs "violated the rules of order of the Senate, was called to order, and on persisting in said violation, was directed by the president to take his seat." Senator Stubbs was also censured for giving to the press an advance copy of the "unparliamentary statement."

Senator Stubbs was excluded from the Senate Democratic caucus preceding the opening of the legislature on motion of Senator Holt, the exclusion resulting from Senator Stubbs' anti-Smith activities in the past two years.

Yesterday Stubbs launched an attack on Senator Holt on the Senate floor and was asked to take his seat by the presiding officer when the Middlesex senator offered as his opinion that Senator Holt was better fitted as "an advance agent for rum runners."

ROUSE—CARSON. A wedding of unusual interest to their many friends in Eastern North Carolina, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Carson, on Cotanche street, at eight o'clock Friday evening, January 2d, 1930, when their daughter, Hazel, became the bride of Mr. Jimmie S. Rouse, of Kinston. Rev. I. H. Pressley, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony, using the ever impressive ring ceremony. The wedding was witnessed by a host of friends and relatives.

The living room was beautifully decorated with an improvised altar which was banked with ferns, palms ivy and long-leaf pines. On each side of the altar stood towering baskets of calla lilies, also, tall cathedral candles, the glow from which illuminated the lovely room. The hall which was thrown en-suite, was also decorated with ivy, carnations, roses and ferns.

Prior to the ceremony the guests were entertained with a programme of nuptial music with Mrs. H. I. Stevens of Willow Springs, N. C., a cousin of the bride, presiding at the piano. "Melody in F" by Rubinstein was the first selection rendered. Mrs. Stevens wore a dress of brown transparent velvet with a shoulder corsage of sweet peas.

Then followed two vocal selections by Mrs. I. H. Pressley, accompanied by Mrs. Stevens; she sang, "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me." Mrs. Pressley wore a dress of rose-beige georgette with a shoulder corsage of sweetpeas. The pianist, rendered the bridal chorus from Lohengrin for the entrance of the bridal party and "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn, for the recessional.

Entering the room first were the two ushers, Jesse Bowers of Kinston and McAlvin Turner of Bethel. They took their places at the altar.

Miss Louise Carson, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore an attractive dress of independent blue crepe, made princess with long uneven hemline. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The little flower girls, Misses Bertha and Gladys Riggins, wore frocks of pink crepe-de-chine, and carried baskets of pink rose petals, tied with bows of pink tulle, scattering petals in the pathway of the bride.

The next to enter was the ring-bearer, Master Moody Pressley, wearing a Fauntleroy suit of black velvet, and carrying the ring in a pink rose.

The bride and groom entered together and took their places at the altar. She was lovely in her dress of Imperial blue-transparent velvet, with gloves, hat and slippers to harmonize. She carried a beautiful bouquet of Bride's roses showered with lilies of the valley and silver ribbon.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rouse left on a motor trip to an unknown destination.

Mrs. Rouse is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Carson of this city. She is an attractive brunette and has a very charming personality.

Dental Clinic Conducted In Negro Schools

A total of 423 children were examined in five colored schools of the county in the dental clinic recently conducted under the direction of Dr. L. C. Holliday, colored, of the State Board of Health, according to information given out today by Dr. Clem Ham, director of the Pitt County Department of Health.

The clinic was held in schools at Greenville, Paeotous, Farmville, Winterville and Ayden. Children receiving examination and treatment were under thirteen years of age.

The clinic continued for a period of four weeks, the first work being done on November 23.

It was estimated that a clinic would be conducted among the white schools sometime this month. It will be in charge of Dr. Pringle, representing the State Board of Health.

Lions Club. Farmville, Jan. 9.—The Lions Club, an organization recently formed here by Commissioner Lyle Ormsbee, of Chicago, and sponsored by the Kinston club held its regular meeting this week with Robert Lee Smith presiding.

A report from the charity fund donated by members at Christmas was heard and plans were made for the charter night meeting, to be held this month. Members of the organization, which is composed mostly of the younger men of the town, include: Robert Lee Smith, president; Arch J. Flanagan, first vice-president; Cecil Johnston, second vice-president; Harold Suggs Asker, third vice-president; C. A. Lilly, secretary and treasurer; Gentry Galloway, lion tamer; John E. King, tail twister. Directors are James R. Lang, Robert D. Rouse, W. J. Turnage, Jr., J. Leroy Parker, Hal Turnage, Harry Cooke, J. V. Johnston, D. L. Lang, Julian Rumley, C. H. Flanagan, J. L. Ricks, Lath Morris and Robert G. Lang.

U. D. C. Meeting. Farmville, N. C., Jan. 9.—Mrs. C. L. Beaman was hostess this week to the Rebecca Winborne chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. G. M. Holden, president, occupied the chair, and the chaplain, Mrs. A. B. Walters, led the devotional. An attendance prize for the year was offered by Mrs. Holden during a brief business session.

A poem, "Questioning," read by Mrs. J. Y. Monk, was very appropriate for the first meeting of the New Year, and two interesting selections, "Lee's Home, a Shrine," and "Stonewall Jackson," by Lloyd George, were read by Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt and Mrs. J. W. Parker. A congealed salad course was served after the program.

TWO SMALL FIRES IN FARMVILLE WEDNESDAY. Farmville, Jan. 9.—Local firemen answered two calls on Wednesday; the first in the early morning provided to be a small house adjoining Will Boyd's store, across the Norfolk and Southern Railroad from the "business section of the town, and the other was the wood house of Joab Tyson, which caught from burning grass in Mr. Tyson's garden.

Farmville, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Mrs. J. Loyd Horton entertained her card club very delightfully on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Wilson street. Potted plants and red cut flowers were used as decorations. Assisting the hostess in serving a delicious salad course were her daughter, Miss Jean Horton, and a sister, Miss Nell Keel, of Danville, Ky.

Women do read Sunday newspapers, and THE NEW YORK WORLD has scored another scoop by including as part of the regular Sunday edition a new section devoted to women and things that interest women. This new section is written by a staff of brilliant women writers, each one a specialist in her subject. Articles on styles both here and abroad, homemaking and housekeeping, cooking and health, society and club news, gardening and poultry—all-in-all, the most interesting Women's Section published in any Sunday newspaper. It will be well worth your while to tell your newsdealer that next Sunday you want THE WORLD.

Farmville, Jan. 9.—As an expression of love and esteem for their superintendent, James R. Carr, familiarly known here as Jimmy Carr, the pupils of the Sunday school of the Christian church presented him with a handsome Hamilton watch on Sunday morning during the closing exercises. The speech of presentation was made in the presence of the assembled body by the pastor, Rev. R. S. Tandy.

Mr. Carr recently accepted a position in Greenville as agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and moved his family here this week. He had been superintendent of the Christian Sunday school for the past six years and both he and Mrs. Carr were very active in the various phases of church and community life here.

Farmville, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Quite novel and most enjoyable was the hobe party given by Mrs. Stephen Gardner on a recent evening, honoring Miss Eunice Edge, of Rocky Mount. Invitations, sent to 20 of the younger boys and girls, requested that rags and tatters and tramp clothing would be in vogue and a prize was offered for the best dressed hobe.

Stunts and game were enjoyed after the guests arrived, and sandwiches were served at the neighbors' houses, when begged for at the back doors. Then the merry party was told to go to the Farmville drug store for further refreshment. Here they were arrested at a policeman, being called in by the store proprietor, who could not collect from his customers. They were carried to jail and sentenced by the mayor, but allowed to return to their homes on probation.

It's a gland food, now used to correct the known cause of so much excess fat. Doctors now employ it the world over. And now, without starvation, multitudes are gaining new youth and beauty, vim and vigor. You see the results wherever you look. Fat is the exception now. Marmola prescription tablets embody this modern method. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Some of your own friends, doubtless, can show you what they do. Let them bring you what they have brought to so many. The results will delight and amaze you. A book in the box explains the effects. Go now and ask your druggist for a $1 box of Marmola. You owe that to yourself.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?

Our Superior Court judges are giving much attention to the causes of crime, and the way to eliminate same.

One distinguished judge struck the key note when he said that courts were too dilatatory about punishing criminals and they got off too easily. He is right. If a man knew that he would be tried and convicted within thirty days after he killed a man he would hesitate about doing it. The fear of death before their eyes would halt
many of them.

In England a man may be cock-sure he is going to get it in the neck if he takes a life, unless there are strong reasons for believing that he did it in self defense.

But the maudlin sentiment of people, and opposition to capital punishment, and the neglect of children by parents which of course, is fundamental, is responsible for crime.

Nowadays the criminal is made a hero, when he should be the most despicable being on the face of the earth for the purpose of saving the rest of society.

Another reason is the prevalence of firearms. In England they do not allow the sale of firearms, except for gunning purposes. Pistols are not allowed to be sold.
Policemen are not even allowed to carry them. Over in this country, thugs can carry pistols, shot guns, and machine guns if he likes,
and get away with it.

The solons are meeting in Florida now trying to find out what is the matter with America, and we can tell them that there is too much political corruption lined up with criminals on one side, and too much maudling public sentiment on the other,
which results in too much indifference and glorification of crime. When public sentiment and the courts get down to business you will see a change in thirty days
as to the attitude of criminals towards the law and its enforcement.—Wilson

ABOUT

The election of J. J. White to the secretaryship of the Home Building and Loan Association of this city is another of the deserving honors which have been accorded this rising young business man the last several months.

Mr. White is one of those young men who is forever and eternally using his influence in behalf of a greater and better Greenville and he has risen to positions of responsibility where he will have an opportunity of offering a more outstanding service.

It is fitting indeed that he should take up where his father left off in directing the activities of the Home Building and Loan Association and the future is brighter for greater expansion than ever before.
This organization has been instrumental in erection of hundreds of homes since its inception in 1906 and with the deft touch of the new secretary at the helm there is every reason to believe the high standards of the organization will be carried on into the future.

A demonstration test on the farm of C. E. Williams at Mount Olive, in Wayne county, seems to indicate that the Herman variety of soybean is one of the best general purpose varieties of this crop to grow under eastern Carolina conditions.

Eight different varieties were used in the demonstration, reports of County Agent A. K. Robertson, who co-operated with Mr. Williams in handling the test. Each of these varieties was suitable to eastern Carolina conditions and was planted side by side on April 29, on a Portsmouth sandy loam soil. The various varieties were fertilized with an 8-4-1 mixture at the rate of 500 pounds to the acre and were cultivated alike throughout the season.

A study of the results shows that the Herman was the first variety to make hay. It was cut for this purpose on August 17. The Ootootan was the latest being cut so late that the hay was being ruined by the flood of October 1. The Biloxi made the highest total yield of hay, producing 7,600 pounds and acre,
while the Laredo and a local variety known as the Mount Olive were lowest with a yield of 5,800 pounds
an acre each.

The Herman was also the first variety to mature seed, being ready to harvest on September 25. Seed from the Biloxi, Ootootan, and Mount Olive were ready for harvest exactly two months later, on November 25. These three were the latest varieties. The Tokio led in total seed production with an acre yield of 32.7 bushels, while the Laredo was lowest with 17.3 bushels.

However, says Mr. Robertson, the Herman seed seemed to be the best all-around variety in the demonstration. It made 7,200 pounds of hay, 30 bushels of seed, and matured
both before any of the others.

The theft of automobiles is becoming alarming in this community, several having been reported missing the last several weeks.

The majority of those responsible for the thefts have been apprehended and sentenced by the courts, but it is questionable whether the punishment was equal to the crime.

The theft of an automobile is just as important as the theft of money, in that it represents to the owner several hundreds of dollars which he put into the purchase.
When he loses his car, it means he is out the amount of money he spent for it, and should the car be damaged or destroyed while the hands of the thief he has no way of restoring the property except by the purchase of another car and paying for it with his own money.

The thief pays the penalty of the law, but he does not pay for the car, hence when we get back to the question of loss, the car owner is the man who actually suffers.

Something must be done to discourage the stealing of cars, and about the only way to accomplish this is for the courts to deal out sentences of a more severe nature.
It is mighty easy for a crook to pick up a car in the crowded business districts, but the courts should make it so uncomfortable for him when detected that the idea of riding on somebody else's property will never occur to him again.

The basketball season will be under way at the local high school next Friday evening, and we are told that Greenville teams expect to make a good showing among the cage experts of the Northeastern Athletic conference.

Greenville people evinced considerable interest in basketball last season, and hope was expressed by high school athletic directors that this interest would again be manifested this season.

It requires quite a sum of money to run the various departments of athletics of the high school during the course of a season, and unless the public supports them as it should they emerge at the little end of the horn at the conclusion of the season.

It matters not what you may have planned for Friday evening, why not cancel your engagement and go out to see the youngsters in the first real clash of the year. It will be well worth the price of admission and will show that you are doing everything possible to help the boys and girls break away from the red side of the ledger.

MAN CHARGED WITH MURDER
IN BOMB CASE

Leroy Brady Held Responsible for Sending Bomb to Woman
in Holiday Package

Seat Pleasant, Md., Jan. 9.—(AP)— Leroy Brady, Washington automobile mechanic and brother of Herman Brady, was charged with murder today in the death of Mrs.
Naomi Hall Brady, wife of Herman,
and her younger brother and sister,
in a bomb explosion here New Year's day.

Herman Brady, who, with his brother, was taken into custody a few days after the crime, is still in jail and as yet no charge has been placed against him. Officers said they expected him to be an important witness when his brother comes to trial.

The bomb which caused the death of Mrs. Brady, her small brother and sister, and the injury of four others of the family of John S. Hall, Mrs. Brady's father, was delivered at the home of a neighbor a day or two after Christmas and was in turn taken to the Hall home. It was addressed to Mrs. Brady and thinking it was a belated Christmas package members of the family gathered around her as she opened it.

[Thomas Campbell, 1777-1844]

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Why let over-indulgence ruin the flattering curves that make the modern figure so seductive? Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Eat healthfully but not immoderately
—when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, light a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the irresistible youthfulness of the modern figure.

you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

*Be Moderate!... Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

SHIRES FOUND NOT GUILTY OF RING CHARGES

Chicago, Jan. 9.—(AP)—His standing as a pugilist in Illinois free of blemish, Charles Arthur (The Great) Shires today hoped to recover his boxing good health in Michigan.

The Great Man yesterday was declared innocent by the Illinois State Athletic commission, of any wrongdoing in connection with his bout with Dangerous Dan Daly in the White City arena December 9, as were Promoter James C. Mullen, Nelsie Blumenthal (Shires' manager), and Eddie Meade, who handled Daly in the bout. Today the Michigan boxing commission was ready to listen to Charles Arthur's responses to questions concerning an alleged attempt to fix his postponed bout with Battling Criss at Detroit.

Daly, suspended for life by the Illinois State Athletic commission yesterday for having made false affidavits concerning his age, real name and previous boxing experience before his bout with Shires, still had plenty to say. Still insisting he had folded up for Charles Arthur, Daly who failed to appear at the meeting yesterday to speak in his own defense, said he had been talked out of coming to Chicago for the hearing. He said Eddie Edwards, an associate of Eddie Meade, went to Columbus, O., Sunday, took Mr. and Mrs. Gary (Dangerous Dan's real name) back to Cleveland with him and told him that it would not be necessary to appear in Chicago.

He said he was shocked to learn that he alone, had been punished by the Illinois commission. He charged, for the first time, that Meade had given him the name of Daly, and that both Meade and Mullen had felicitated him on his "acting" in the bout. He also insisted Shires was a party to the alleged fix.

Shires was confident the Michigan Boxing association would clear him of charges that an attempt had been made to put his bout with Battling Criss in the bag, and planned to meet the latter in Detroit after he fights Al Spohrer, Boston Brave catcher, in Boston tomorrow night.

Chicago, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Since becoming a professional fighter just a month ago today, Charles Arthur Shires "The Great" Shires, has earned exactly $8,000 in four engagements, $2,900 more than he got for playing first base for the Chicago White Sox all last season.

The Great man got the $8,000 in the short period of 30 days, compared to five months of baseball playing for $3,100. Shires' contract with the White Sox called for $8,500, but fines plastered on him, ate up more than $3,000.

Shires expects to increase his ring earnings to more than $10,000 by meeting TI Spohrer catcher for the Braves in Boston tomorrow night.

Memorial Baptist Scouts Win From Christian Troops

The Memorial Baptist Boy Scout Troop defeated the Boy Scouts of the Christian Troop last night in the High School Auditorium by the score of 42 to 13.

During the first half the game was closely fought and the half ended with the score 16 to 13 in favor of the Baptist, but in the second half the winners ran away with the losers. The all around floor work of Jack Nobles featured for the Baptist Troop. Bruce Ellen and Red Flanagan also played an excellent game. For the Christians the playing of Woolard and Ethridge was outstanding.

Next week the Baptist meet the Methodist Troop which should be a hard fought game.

The line-up: Baptist Troop... Christian Troop Forward Woolard (6)
Center Ethridge (5)
Guard Smith (2)
Guard Langston
Hodges (4) Kiltrell Substitutions: Baptist, Flanagan (4); Sumerell; Staton. Christians: Forrest. Referee: Perkins.

White Sox to Train in Texas
Chicago, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Spring training for the Chicago White Sox will start at the San Antonio, Texas, camp on February 17 when the battermen and recruits begin to limber up for their two months' conditioning grind.

Donie Bush, newly appointed manager of the Sox, was under instructions today to have the balance of the squad report on February 28.

The schedule of 17 exhibition dates with the New York Giants probably will be augmented by three or four additional dates, some of these are now in the making for San Antonio or points in the neighborhood which desire to see the major leagues in action.

SIGN SHARKEY AND SCOTT FOR MIAMI BATTLE

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Madison Square Garden officials have removed one cause for wrinkled brows and lost sleep by signing the two principals for the second battle of the Palms at Miami, Fla. But they still expect to have abundant worries before the fight takes place, February 27.

After Tuesday night's conference had settled the details, the first step in the preparation was completed yesterday when the managers of Phil Scott, the London fireman, and Jack Sharkey, the Boston sailor, affixed their signatures to a contract calling for the principals to divide fifty per cent of the net proceeds. The last disputed point in the negotiations between the Garden officials and Jimmy Johnson, Scott's American representative who settled when they agreed that the British heavyweight should get only a 20 per cent cut if the gate falls below $200,000.

Another doubtful detail was settled by word from Miami concerning the Florida boxing law. The articles set an indefinite length for the bout because of some uncertainty as to whether a 15-round fray would be permitted. It was later learned that there is nothing in the state law to limit the bout to 10 rounds although that is the customary distance in Florida. A local ruling by the Miami commission set a ten round limit but its chairman, Louis Mac Reynolds, explained that it concerned only younger and smaller fighters.

BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR INDIGESTION

Kentucky Man Tells How He Suffered From Pains In Stomach.

Bronston, Ky.—"I have used Theford's Black-Draught thirty-five or forty years, keep it in the house all the time, and would not be without it," says Mr. H. G. Grandstaff, of this place.
"I am 71 years old, and am reasonably stout. I attribute my good health to Black-Draught, as it is about all the medicine I ever take."
"I take Black-Draught mostly for stomach trouble. I think it practically relieved me. I take it when I feel any trouble coming on."
"I used to have pains in my stomach. I would also feel bloated and uncomfortable after meals, and then have a headache and dullness about the eyes. After I found out about Black-Draught, and would take small doses after meals, I was relieved."
"I don't have to take Black-Draught all the time—just occasionally."
Theford's Black-Draught is a purely vegetable cathartic or laxative medicine, composed of selected medicinal herbs and roots. Good for children, men and women, and those of advanced age.

STATE AGAIN COVETS TITLE OF THE SOUTH

Atlanta, Jan. 9.—(AP)—There are three good reasons why North Carolina basketball fans believe that State will retain the southern conference court championship won last year by the North Carolina State University quintet.

They are:
1. North Carolina State.
2. Duke.
3. University of North Carolina.

Should the champions falter, the Blue Devils and the Tar Heels are right behind to ward off the opposition. The State five barely nosed out the Duke tossers in the conference tournament last year and the Blue Devils are back again stronger than ever.

Although losing three veterans from his titular team, Coach Gus Tebell, State's football and basketball professor, has built a formidable machine around two returning regulars and a corp of sophomores and reserves.

With Captain Maurice Johnson and Larry Har firmly entrenched at guard and forward berths, respectively, Tebell plans to use Jimmy Brown, ace of the State championship frosh guard last year, at a forward post, Wright and Bill Drake at guards, and John Gammon and "Hunky" Waring at center.

Duke will depend on its speed and deception to out-manuever its opponents. The same team that finished in second place last year is back and the Blue Devils are outgunning for the crown. In a pair of pre-season games the Durham Hoopsters rang the net for 182 points, with Crosson, giant center, accounting for 68.

Councillor, the midgeet spark plug, and Rogers, an accurate shooting floorman, are handling the forward berths, with Werber, all-southern guard, and Captain Farley at the defensive posts.

The prospects are very pleasing at Chapel Hill, where a flock of veterans returned. Coach Jim Ashmore of the orth Carolina university quintet has good material aplenty and looks for a great season.

MINOR LEAGUE CLUBS FACING BRIGHT SEASON

By Mike H. Sexton (President, National Baseball Assn.)
Rock Island, Ill., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Warm, balmy spring weather and more conservative business methods by Class B, C, and D leagues are the only ingredients necessary to make 1930 a banner year for minor league baseball clubs.

All leagues and clubs have strengthened their positions during the fall meetings by many sales, trades, purchases of players and by the formation of new alliances, making the outlook bright.

Many indications point to greatly improved weather conditions for 1930. A return to balmy spring weather such as prevailed prior to 1920 will do much to re-awaken baseball interest and materially increase attendance. The late, cold and disagreeable spring weather of recent years has done much to lessen our patronage. When the baseball fan cannot sit in to watch their favorite clubs in the early spring games, they soon become impatient and see other lines of amusement and recreation. Thus many of them are lost for the entire season.

In our Class AA leagues, furnishing a grade of baseball almost equal to that of the Major Leagues, we are enjoying a very healthy business. Class A clubs, operating in cities of 150,000 to 400,000 population, also do very well. It is only in the smaller cities—Class B, C, and D leagues that serious financial difficulties are encountered. Many of these troubles could be avoided by the exercise of more conservative business methods.

A greater effort on the part of all small leagues to provide well balanced clubs in each city rather than the wild stermuous scrambles for pennants would do much to improve conditions and attendance.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.
Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 6 to 13 points. Net gains of 12 to 20 points developed during the early trading on covering or rebuying by recent sellers who appeared to be influenced by relatively steady Liverpool cables and possibly by reports that the $30,000,000 Coopers & Lybrand Association would be ready for business on Monday. March sold up to 17.30 and July 17.10 but met some realizing and southern selling at these figures and the market was a few points off from the best at the end of the first half hour. Private cables said Liverpool had been influenced by local buying and covering with the advance check by the failure of the Bank of England to reduce its discount rate. Reports from Manchester indicated an improving home trade but a smaller turnover in the Shanghai market and inactivity in the market for cotton yarn.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Assessments that Argentine wheat for February shipment is under selling the United States wheat in Great Britain had a depressing effect today on the wheat market here. However, the market rallied at the last, helped by word that the trading basis for export wheat at the Gulf of Mexico was firmer, with No. 1 hard wheat quoted at 4 1/2-2 over the price of Chicago May delivery and with No. 2 hard at 1-2 to 3-4 over May. In both cases the export basis is the highest yet this season. Wheat closed nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to 3-8 higher; corn closed 1-2 to 5-8 to 1 advance; oats 3-8 to 1-2 to 1-2 to 58 up, and provisions showing 2 to 7 to 10c gain.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Speculative sentiment in the stock market apparently turned for the better overnight, and prices of a large assortment of issues rallied 1 to 10 points on an increased volume of trading. Resumption of pool activities, which led to a brisk retreat of the short interest in several stocks. Probably accounted for much of the buying, although brokers reported a steady underlying investment demand for the high grade issues.

Call money dropped from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent for the third successive day. Time money and commercial paper rates continued easy.

Except for report of a further upturn in steel activity and the resumption of dividends on the Wash. preferred issues, there was not much in the day's business news to stimulate the market. The cautious attitude shown by manufacturers in planning their campaign this year is reflected in that of investors, many of whom are reported to be standing on the sidelines until the course of spring business becomes more clearly defined.

One of the most disturbing market factors is the large blocks of stocks taken over by investment houses for supporting purposes during the recent break, and the large volume of securities tied up in small bank loans, which are believed to be over-hanging the market. While brokers' loans have been sharply liquidated, bank statements indicate that large blocks of stocks are still being carried for investors.

Utah Copper, which is traded infrequently, jumped 25 points on one sale today. National Bellas Hess preferred ran up 10 points, and Western Union 9 1/2. Otis Elevator, American Water Works, Atlas Power, Grant Stores, R. H. Macy, Auburn Auto, American Tobacco B and Johns Manville sold 3 to 5 points higher.

Revival of activity and strength in the U. S. distributing issues was based on reports that important railroad interests had brought into the company. Public utilities were in good demand all day. Renewal of selling pressure against Fox Film carried that stock down 1 1/2 points, and Radio-Keith-Orpheum yielded in sympathy. Motors also were heavy, although the losses were held to fractions.

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Speculative sentiment in the stock market apparently turned for the better overnight, and prices of a large assortment of issues rallied 1 to 10 points on an increased volume of trading. Resumption of pool activities, which led to a brisk retreat of the short interest in several stocks. Probably accounted for much of the buying, although brokers reported a steady underlying investment demand for the high grade issues.

SOLDIERS OF ITALY SALUTE NEXT QUEEN

More Than 22,000 Men in Arms Pass in Review Before Prince and Bride

Rome, Jan. 9.—(AP)—More than 22,000 men of arms, the pick of Italy's contingents, passed in review today before the new Princess of Piedmont, Italy's future queen, who until her marriage to Prince Humbert yesterday was Marie Jose of Belgium.

As the columns passed the royal stand at the Parioli race track just outside the city they made "eyes right" in honor of the royal spectators. The families of both the prince and the princess witnessed the ceremony.

The Crown prince commanded his own regiment, the 92 Infantry, from Turin and composed principally of his own native Piedmontese. It was well in the van.

The Paroli ground was ideal for the ceremony. It lies on the left bank of the Tiber with the height of the Villa Glori on the east, the dome of St. Peter's in the background, and Mount Mario with a range of pine groves on the west.

On one side of the royal reviewing stand was located the stand occupied by members of the diplomatic corps. Another stand on the other side held the cabinet, members of the Senate and Chamber, and the Fascist grand council.

The kings, princes, their suites and foreign military attaches all on horseback, made a brilliant spectacle with their gorgeous uniforms and spirited mounts. They were cheered and applauded by a large crowd.

The climax of the review came in an aerial funnel formation by 300 airplanes brought from all Italy's air corps for the purpose. Slower machines gyrated on the smaller circles with the faster ones gradually making up the outer circles, thus forming a conic figure in the sky. The feat is considered one of the most difficult in aviation.

This evening the squares before the Quirinal palace will be lighted brilliantly and a special fireworks display set off on the historic hill to the west of Rome, lighting up the statue of Garibaldi, here of the struggle for Italian unity.

Tomorrow morning the royal pair will review a procession of Roman school children in the Piazza di Siena, and in the afternoon they will witness a procession of civil authorities from all over Italy. Tomorrow evening the governor of Rome will be their host at a gala performance at the Royal Opera House.

They will not start their honeymoon until Saturday, leaving then probably for the Royal Hunting Lodge at San Rossore, near Pisa.

Happy Woman Tells How She Lost 19 Pounds of Fat in 27 Days

During October a woman in Montana wrote—"My first bottle of Kruschen Salts lasted almost 4 weeks and during that time I lost 19 pounds of fat—Kruschen is all I claim for it—I feel better than I have for years."

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat."—Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

If you want to lose fat with speed get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts from the Greenville Drug Company or any live druggist anywhere in America with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.

CROWN JEWELS ON DISPLAY IN RUSSIAN BANK

Dazzling Gems of Nation's Rulers Placed in Steel Cage for Inspection

Moscow, Jan. 8.—(AP)—For better safe-keeping Russia's $264,000,000 collection of crown jewels, probably the finest array of gems ever assembled, have been placed in a huge steel cage in the state bank, in a great coffer resembling a steel-barred cell in an American prison.

The dazzling gems, which date from the time of the extravagant Catherine the Great to the last Czar, are placed in plush-lined leather cases on long tables within the cage, where they may be viewed by Americans and other foreign visitors.

Upon presentation of proper credentials visitors are admitted to the great steel cage to see this extraordinary display of diamonds, rubies, pearls and emeralds, much the same as they would be allowed to see a prisoner in a cell. No object in Soviet Russia today, except it be the body of Vladimir Ilyich Lenin, which lies in state in a wooden tomb in Red Square, attracts the attention and excites the curiosity of visitors quite so much as the crown jewels.

It is by no means easy to secure a permit to see this gorgeous assemblage, in the collection of which the emperors and empresses of Russia of centuries past ransacked the diamond marts of two hemispheres. Special guards within the steel-barred jewel-cage keep a vigilant eye on the precious treasure, which forms a part of the government's gold reserve for the issue of the paper money.

The principal gem in the great collection is the magnificent crown worn by Catherine the Great at her coronation in 1762, which is valued by the Soviet government at $24,000,000. Eager to see how it feels to wear a royal crown, many American visitors to the state bank have tried to put this crown on their heads, but were prevented by Soviet guards.

Other Americans have been attracted by the huge Orloff diamond, which is as big as a bisected egg and weighs 196 carats. This superb stone was presented by Count Orloff, one of Catherine the Great's lovers, as a birthday remembrance to his sovereign.

Ever since the 1917 revolution the Soviet government has been holding the crown jewels for cash, or to exchange them for tractors, locomotives, or other pressingly-needed articles. If the government, however, has placed a high antiquarian valuation on the gems, very few foreigners have offered to buy any of them.

Storm Museum to See Movie of the Einstein Theory

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—A crowd of 4,500 stormed the American Museum of Natural History last night in an attempt to see a motion picture on the Einstein theory. Police reserves were called to restore order when museum attendants were overwhelmed.

The Amateur Astronomers' Association, under whose auspices the picture was shown, sent tickets to the 1,500 members in the city. At the time set for the exhibition police estimated there were three persons for every ticket assembled at the entrance of the museum. The auditorium seats only 1,400.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilled iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data. At the far end of a passageway between glass cases of specimens, the crowd encountered a heavy wooden door leading into the auditorium where the picture was to be shown. The door was burst from its hinges.

Museum guards who were helpless against the stampede called police reserves. After a 20 minute battle order was restored. Two showings of the film were given to accommodate the throngs.
