LOCAL HEALTH DEPT. ACTIVE DURING 1929

Report by Dr. Clem Ham Sets Forth Activities of Various Departments.

A summary of the activities of the Pitt County Health Department shows that the department has been very active in spite of the fact that the health officer, Dr. W. E. Futrelle, resigned June 1st and for two months the department was without a full time health officer. Dr. Clem Ham being elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation.

Dr. Futrelle, resumed his duties the first of August. The public health program in the county has progressed very satisfactorily as will be seen from the following report: The number of cases of contagious disease have decreased with a few exceptions. A total of 95 cases of diphtheria has been reported during the year, 28 cases of typhoid fever, 22 cases of scarlet fever, 7 cases of smallpox, 125 cases of whooping cough, 47 cases of chicken pox, 18 German measles and 3 cases of spetic sore throat. All cases of typhoid fever, diphtheria, small pox and scarlet fever were visited by some member of the department, the home quarantined and the family instructed in regard to preventive measures. All other contagious and communicable diseases in most instances were quarantined by mailing placard, literature and instructions to the family. The Health Officer and nurses visited and instructed 34 schools and 208 letters of instruction were mailed to principals of schools in regard to the presence of some contagious or communicable disease among families of children who were attending school.

Our records of immunization show that 1685 persons were vaccinated against Smallpox, 6418 were given 3 immunizing doses of typhoid serum, and 2870 children were immunized against Diphtheria and all children attending school, whether in the first grade or in an advanced grade were required to be successfully vaccinated against smallpox. An intensive Diphtheria control campaign was carried on in the county among school children and pre-school children in the early part of the fall.

There were 184 cases of Venereal disease reported to the department and 678 intravenous treatments given for syphilis. About one half of this number were given to prisoners in the county jail, convict camp and inmates of the county home. The other half were food handlers, employees, midwives and other were examined and found to be positive.

In the early part of the year a tuberculosis clinic for school children was held in a number of the county schools. The Von Prquet or skin test for tuberculosis was made on 1497 children, 233 were given chest and X-Ray examinations and 14 were found with positive tuberculosis and sanatorium treatment recommended.

One hundred and nineteen school and pre-school children had their tonsils and adenoids removed and 1493 were treated for dental defects. Forty five were fitted with glasses and 4 orthopedic corrections made, together with 14 nutritional corrections.

During the year the health officer and nurses examined 3231 school children. Of this number 1049 were found to have defects which could be corrected. In each case the parents were notified of the findings in the examination and were urged to have defects corrected. In our visits to the schools 77 children were excluded from school on account of scabies (itch) and 16 were excluded for pediculosis.

Sanitary and laboratory services included 212 visits to the county home, convict camp and county jail. In each case one or more patients were treated. Eight hundred and seven physical examinations were made on prisoners, food handlers, teachers, applicants for marriage, life extension, etc. Nine hundred and ninety one specimens were sent to the state laboratory for examination.

During the latter part of October a cancer clinic was held under the auspices of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, co-operating with the State Board of Health, 35 pre-cancerous and 53 negative examinations was the result of this clinic. In each case the patient was advised the proper procedure to take and a number of the pre-cancerous cases have already been operated on.

The maternity and infancy report shows that 476 pre-natal cases were registered, 1066 infants and 353 pre-school children. Six hundred and fifty eight home conferences were held, 626 office conferences, pre-school and baby clinic records show that 405 children were examined and 167 attended group conferences. At present there are 56 midwives who are regularly instructed and (Continued on Page Four)

MRS. FELTON PASSES AWAY IN GEORGIA

Only Woman Ever To Hold Seat in Senate Dies in Atlanta at Ripe Old Age.

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Felton, the only woman ever to hold a seat in the United States Senate, pioneer temperance worker and author, is dead at the age of 94.

She died in a hospital here shortly before last midnight suffering from bronchial pneumonia. She had contracted a cold on a trip to Atlanta last week from her Cartersville, Ga., home in the interest of the Georgia Training School for Girls, but did not submit to treatment until she had completed her mission.

The senatorship, which she held for a period of 22 hours in November 1922 upon appointment by former Governor Thomas Harwick, was her only public office, but in that brief time she made a dramatic speech upon the floor which attracted national interest. She had campaigned for Governor Harwick, Senator Tom Watson, whose death made the vacancy she filled, and her husband, the late Dr. W. H. Felton, who served several terms in Congress.

From her farm home "the grand old lady of Georgia" led a "simple life," but continued to be active in politics until her death. She was a vigorous supporter of former Governor Alfred E. Smith in his race for the presidency on the Democratic ticket.

In the 1928 campaign she said: "I was a pioneer in temperance work in the state (Georgia) and joined the W. C. T. U. forty years ago. If I am not the oldest of militant temperance women of the early days I am certainly the oldest in point of age. So far as possible I have held the banner high for nearly half a century. When I enlisted in the organization it was non-political. I am gratified to know that some Georgia women are now dragging a clean white and much honored organization in the mire and fifth of dirty politics in a mud slinging campaign."

Commenting on prohibition enforcement on another occasion Mrs. Felton said: "I was for temperance in the days when I was hissed at for talking against liquor, but I don't like this way of shooting people in automobiles when they fail to be searched."

ITALY SEEKS EQUALITY IN NAVAL ISSUE

May Not Take Part in Decisions of Conference if Ambition is Not Recognized.

London, Jan. 25.—(AP)—There were hints today from Italian sources that unless Italy's plea for Naval equality with any other European continental power was granted she might prefer to take no part in decisions of the five-power naval conference, which is ending its first week here.

Meanwhile exhorted by their colleagues among the sea powers to settle their differences between themselves France and Italy tried again to smooth over their political disagreement. On the outcome may depend in large measure how comprehensive a plan of naval limitation is to be written at London.

In order to carry forward the intricate negotiations in which he has found himself, Andre Tardieu, French premier, cancelled his plans for a week-end at Paris, and he and Dino Grandi, Italian foreign minister and spokesman and counselor of Mussolini, sought solution of their divergencies by direct conversations.

The importance of their meeting was not minimized in any responsible quarter. All three other delegations, the American, British, and Japanese, in turn expressed earnest hope a way may be found to clear the conference horizon of this cloud of uncertainty.

Signor Grandi yesterday explained the Italian viewpoint at length to Colonel Henry L. Stimson, secretary of state and head of the American delegation, and during the evening Ambassador Morrow, who is considered one of the ablest negotiators on the American delegation, called on Premier Tardieu.

Big Navy Dirigible Sighted Over City

The navy dirigible Los Angeles, on a training flight from its hangar at Lakehurst, N. J., to St. Augustine, Fla., passed over Greenville yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

Ed S. Williams, county coroner and local undertaker, is authority for this statement.

Mr. Williams said he was returning home from an inquest into the death of a negro man early Friday morning when he was attracted by the throbbing sound of motors overhead. He gazed skyward and saw the giant, dimly-lighted hulk of the navy airship as it drifted over the western section of the city.

Mr. Williams said the ship was making slow time, but apparently picked up speed when it got a distance from the city as it vanished rapidly from sight. He said he could easily distinguish the giant form of the ship by reason of lights carried on both ends of the craft.

GRAND JURY REPORTS TO COURT HERE

Report Submitted to Judge Johnson Says County Offices in Fine Condition.

Delayed in completing their work because of bad weather, members of the six months' grand jury of Pitt County Superior Court submitted their report to Judge Thomas L. Johnson, of Lumberton, during the closing days session here yesterday. The jury, the second to serve for a period of six months in the history of Pitt county, was drawn last Monday morning with R. T. Allen as foreman.

The report contained no outstanding recommendations. It showed that all county offices and institutions were in good condition and were being well cared for, and praised Judge Johnson for the just and efficient manner in which he conducted the court.

The report follows: To Hon. T. L. Johnson, Judge Presiding at January Term 1930. The Grand Jury of this the January Term 1930 of the Superior Court of Pitt County beg leave to submit the following report.

The Grand Jury carefully considered and passed on all bills submitted, that they had witnesses for and presentments have been made in all cases, when the evidence justified.

The Grand Jury has visited the various offices of the County as follows: Clerk of the Superior Court, Register of Deeds, Board of Education, Tax Supervisor, Auditor, Treasurer, Sheriff, Welfare Department and County Farm Agent. We found in each instance that the affairs of the County well cared for, the records well kept and the offices are efficiently managed.

The Grand Jury visited the following institutions or departments: The County Home and under the management of Mr. Corbet we found it in good condition. The inmates appeared to be well cared for and satisfied with the care and attention they are receiving. We found the property well taken care of.

The County Jail was carefully inspected by the Grand Jury. The prisoners appear to be well provided for and the sanitary condition of the building was good.

The Road Camp was also visited by the Grand Jury. We found the cages or sleeping quarters in good condition and the grounds well kept. The sanitary condition in and around the Camp was good and the general condition of the prisoners we saw at the camp was good or they looked to have had good attention.

We commend Judge Johnson for the just and efficient manner in which he conducts the Court and express our appreciation to him for his services and courteous treatment to all. The Solicitor and all Court officials, including the Grand Jury Officer, performed their duties well and efficiently and we thank them for their work and cooperation with us.

Respectfully submitted, this the 24th day of January 1930.

CHIEF JUSTICE TAFT HAS GOOD NIGHT'S REST
Asheville, Jan. 24.—(AP)—"An unusually good night's sleep" for Chief Justice William H. Taft was reported by his attendants at Grove Park Inn this morning. The ex-president remained in his room most of the morning with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Helen Taft Manning, president of Bryn Mawr College.

NEGRO WOMAN ACQUITTED IN MURDER CASE

Several Other Cases Disposed of at Concluding Session of Criminal Court

Dora Green, charged with the murder of Douglas Williams, also colored, was found not guilty by a jury sitting at the concluding session of the criminal term of Pitt County Superior court in this city last night. The case required very little time in disposing of and the jury deliberated only a short time before returning a decision.

The charge against the woman grew out of the fatal stabbing of Williams at her home on Bonner's Lane last Wednesday night. She and Williams had quarreled over a letter which he had received from a northern city, and in defending herself against an attack by the man, the woman stabbed him through the heart and lung with a fork. Williams died from the injuries the next day.

Coroner E. S. Williams investigated the case a short time later, but being unable to determine the cause of death, ordered that an autopsy be held to ascertain whether or not the prongs of the fork had actually penetrated the man's heart, resulting in his death. The autopsy revealed that both the heart and lung had been pierced by the instrument.

The woman was immediately placed under arrest and held for hearing at this term of court. She claimed that she acted in self-defense, and this fact was established in the evidence produced during the hearing.

Williams is said to have told a friend before he died that the woman was jealous of his correspondence with the party in the northern part of the country, and that this precipitated the quarrel that resulted in the fatal stabbing.

Freddie Grimes, Ayden negro, was sentenced to from ten to fifteen years in the penitentiary in the final session of court yesterday. He was charged with the killing of a young negro at Ayden and wounding another.

Cliff Newton, white man of Farmville, drew a sentence of 12 months on the roads for assault upon Mrs. Estelle Newton, a second cousin. Newton was alleged to have painfully bruised Mrs. Newton by pushing her against the side of a house.

George Hollman, was given six months' suspended sentence to the roads on a charge of possessing whiskey.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—(AP)—One police officer was shot and seriously wounded by another early today as they fought over the question of who was to drive the patrol wagon.

Policeman George Sirovatka, driver of the patrol, was taken to a hospital with bullets in his abdomen, chest and left arm. Officer George Polaski said he shot Sirovatka after Sirovatka had fired first.

REACH FLOOD SUFFERERS IN BIG LAKE AREA

Persons Suffering From Cold and Hunger Rescued From Frozen Ark. District

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 25.—(AP)—The Red Cross hoped to reach at least 200 more persons today.

The refugees were being taken to Blytheville and housed in box cars and tents. Many of those rescued were ill. Their food and fuel had been exhausted. A baby two days old was found in one house which was in the grip of frozen waters.

The mother, Mrs. Clay Lott, was in a critical condition at Blytheville. The situation throughout the St. Francis valley remains serious, but the outlook was considered brighter than it has been since rainstorms more than two weeks ago sent all rivers to flood stages. Rivers were falling in their upper reaches today.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 25.—(AP)—The plight of twenty persons marooned on cut-off Island, without food or fuel, was added to Southern Indiana's story of misery today as Red Cross workers continued efforts to relieve the suffering of families isolated by the ice-choked flood waters of the lower Wabash river.

Cut-off Island, in Wabash river basin opposite New Harmon, Ind., was brought to the attention of relief officials yesterday when three men reached here safely after a hazardous trip in a small boat. They brought with them the father of two of the men, to the rescue of whom they had gone a week and only to be marooned themselves.

The court room, packed during the trial, was full to overflowing as the foreman arose and announced the verdict. Many of Ward's neighbors in the room pressed forward to congratulate him.

JURIST FLAYS ACTIVITIES OF SOVIETS IN N. C.

Judge Johnson Tells Kiwanians of Dangerous Doctrine of Foreign Element.

Judge Thomas L. Johnson, of Lumberton, who has been presiding over the criminal term of Pitt County Superior court in this city the past week, was the principal speaker at the regular twice-a-month meeting of the Greenville Kiwanis club last night. He spoke on the subject, "North Carolina."

He brought out many facts in connection with the progress of the state, present labor troubles, and the possibilities of the future.

President B. B. Sugg, presided over the meeting last night and Judge W. A. Darden was in charge of the program. A delightful musical program was furnished by Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, Misses Carolyn and Agnes Fullilove and Mrs. R. A. Tyson, Jr. The Misses Fullilove, generally known as the "sweetheart" of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion, appeared in two solo numbers. Mrs. Tyson acted as accompanist for each of the numbers. The usual supper was enjoyed and club dues were rendered under the direction of E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

Judge Johnson was introduced by Judge Darden as one of the most outstanding jurists of the state, and the next Governor of North Carolina.

Referring to the pessimism prevailing in many parts of the state at this time because of crop shortages and financial stringency, Judge Johnson declared that in his opinion the situation was only temporary and that the future of the state was just as bright now as it had ever been before.

He said the progress of North Carolina had been greater during the past century than ever before, and that the same possibilities existed today as they existed in the past.

He cited the system of hard surfaced roads connecting every part of the state, and said that they had opened up new possibilities to every branch of industry and had thrown the various cities of the commonwealth in closer contact than they had ever before.

He told of the amount of unfavorable advertising which the state had received in past months as a result of labor troubles among textile workers in the Piedmont section of the state, and denounced in scathing terms activities of Communists and Soviets that brought such a condition about.

He said the activities of the Communists not only meant trouble for the manufacturing element of the state, but to everybody—people of all sections with the future of the commonwealth at heart.

He said the Soviets preached a doctrine that undermined the very foundation of progress and industrial advancement. "They would haul down the flag of our government and erect in its place the Soviet flag of Russia. They teach children there is no God and urge disloyalty to the flag." He declared that law must continue to be supreme in the United States and that it should be through the courts that the Communists were doing in the preaching and practice of their dangerous doctrine.

LEGION HEAD TO SPEAK IN CITY TUESDAY

Col. John Langston, of Goldsboro, Will Deliver Address at Round-up Meeting.

D. C. Moore, Jr., Commander of the Pitt County Post No. 39 of the American Legion, was interviewed today with reference to the participation of the local post in the week designated by the state commander of the American Legion, department of North Carolina, as "Round-Up Week."

Post Commander Moore first quoted State Commander George K. Freeman, of Goldsboro, as having said, "This the eleventh year of the American Legion's existence finds greater demand being made upon us for constructive work than ever before. The ranks of our disabled comrades are constantly increasing, making necessary continued leadership for dependent orphan children of our deceased comrades is increasing, requiring a large membership in the Legion to furnish funds, leadership and administration to insure them opportunities to which their fathers' and mothers' heroic service entitles them. The restlessness of our people due to adverse conditions in many sections of the state demands some unselfish organization to lead in community service. The growth of opinions subversive to our form of government require constant vigilance on the part of men and women who, having dedicated their lives to service of state and nation, stand undaunted in the face of such movements for strict adherence to the principles upon which our government was founded and in the observance of which it has been maintained. These and the supreme importance of seeing that the Universal Draft bill (which will certainly tend to take the profit out of war as this bill provides that in cases of war money-power as well as man-power shall be drafted), and other demands to ex-serve men are so compelling that the Legion has decided to put these matters frankly before every ex-service man and endeavor to enroll them in the American Legion before February 1."

"In the past we have not really tried to secure our membership so early," continued Commander Moore, "but this year we feel that we should do so in order that our post, district, division and department officers may devote their full time and attention to these pressing needs, and that the legislature and congress may know that our large membership entitles us to speak for the ex-service men."

"We now have more than 7,500 members of the Legion in North Carolina, by far the largest membership we have ever had at this time of the year. Commander Freeman has designated the week of January 26 to Feb. 1 as "Round-Up Week" to secure 9,000 more members necessary to give us our state's quota this year. On Monday, the 27th the Post will set to work its committees arranging for a meeting of the Post to be held Tuesday night at 8 p. m., at the Greenville High School Auditorium when Hon. John D. Langston, of Goldsboro, will deliver an address on the aims and purposes of the Legion. On Wednesday our membership committee will canvass every ex-service man of the community to offer them an opportunity to enroll. On Thursday active posts will assist less active posts in this work, and on Friday this post will send its cards by special courier to Williamston, N. C., where they will be turned over to the district commander. Saturday the district commander will personally dispatch these cards from that point to department headquarters. Department (state) headquarters will announce the results over the radio Saturday night."

When Sheriff Whitehurst and Chief of Police Preston Person showed up in Lake City to bring their man back to Greenville, however, they encountered unexpected difficulties. They were told that the crimes of Stokes in that state had been of such nature that they were determined to hold him for trial. The officers returned home empty-handed and it looked like the young sign painter would remain in South Carolina.

A few days later Governor Gardner was asked to issue requisition papers for Stokes, and armed with these Sheriff Whitehurst went to Florence where Stokes was being held in jail and returned him to Greenville. The sheriff was accompanied by a detective representing the railroad.

Although Stokes was sentenced to serve the term in penitentiary for participation in the freight car robbery at Ayden, he is still charged with the theft of the automobile jumping a $250.00 bond and the crimes alleged to have been committed during his stay in South Carolina.

Says Labor Body Fight Communism
Asheville, N. C., Jan. 25.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor is the unrelenting foe of Communism in America, William Green, president of the Federation, declared here last night to an audience at the Central Labor union.

Green asserted that, "under hypocritical garb these foreign agents representing a foreign country and seeking world 'revolution' have entered the southland" for the purpose of promoting "hatred and enmity."

The speaker declared the A. F. L. would battle the so-called Communist labor organizations to a finish. He asserted the A. F. L. was standing between the communists and the workers.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—(AP)—It was the first time in six years that Leo Edelstein had been over to see his mother.

Mrs. Ida Edelstein is blind and an invalid. Under a court order her son, manager of a chain of shoe stores, has been contributing $12 a week to her support.

After talking with her, Edelstein slipped a piece of paper in her hands and went away. When her daughter came home, Mrs. Edelstein said: "Leo was here, and he gave me a check for a present."

STOKES GIVEN TERM IN THE PENITENTIARY

Two Other Principals of Freight Car Robbery Found Guilty in Criminal Court

Ray Stokes, of Ayden, charged with the robbery of freight cars of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, was sentenced to serve from three to five years in the state penitentiary at Raleigh by Judge Thomas L. Johnson, of Lumberton, who presided over the criminal term of Pitt County Superior court which came to a close in this city last night.

E. E. McLawhorn, defendant in the same case, was sentenced to 15 months to the penitentiary while Duron Corbett, third party in the crime, was released upon payment of $100 and a third of the cost involved in the action.

The case was one of the hardest fought during the entire term of court and required nearly a day and a half in finally completing. Hearing was begun Thursday at the noon hour, and the case was received by the jury shortly after 12 o'clock yesterday. The jury returned a decision at 6 o'clock. Although Stokes submitted to the charge when the case opened, the other two defendants pled not guilty, and started a stubborn legal skirmish to bring about their release.

Stokes, sign painter of Ayden, was the outstanding character of the trial by reason of the difficulty experienced by county officers in returning him to Greenville for trial. Held in South Carolina on a number of charges, two of which are said involved the robbery of a filling station and freight car, Pitt county officers were forced to make two trips to Florence before they obtained release of Stokes. Extradition resulted from requisition papers issued by Governor Gardner several days ago, and which were honored by the South Carolina authorities.

Stokes came to grief at Lake City, S. C., several days following the theft of an automobile from Miss Estelle Green of Greenville. He is said to have taken the automobile to a Lake City garage for repairs and then offered to sell it. After hearing two or three different stories as to how Stokes obtained possession of the car, the garage owners wired Greenville for information about the car. They were told to have the man arrested and held until the arrival of local officers.

When Sheriff Whitehurst and Chief of Police Preston Person showed up in Lake City to bring their man back to Greenville, however, they encountered unexpected difficulties. They were told that the crimes of Stokes in that state had been of such nature that they were determined to hold him for trial. The officers returned home empty-handed and it looked like the young sign painter would remain in South Carolina.

A few days later Governor Gardner was asked to issue requisition papers for Stokes, and armed with these Sheriff Whitehurst went to Florence where Stokes was being held in jail and returned him to Greenville. The sheriff was accompanied by a detective representing the railroad.

Although Stokes was sentenced to serve the term in penitentiary for participation in the freight car robbery at Ayden, he is still charged with the theft of the automobile jumping a $250.00 bond and the crimes alleged to have been committed during his stay in South Carolina.

MANY DREAD THE FIRE.

"My advice is, no matter
what the temptation, to refuse absolutely to buy, or sell stocks on margin," says Clarence Saunders, the originator of Piggly-Wiggly. "It is gambling, nothing else."
Saunders is competent to speak. He went to New York with sixteen million dollars in gold when he saw his control of his company
slipping. The New York Stock Exchange suspended
its rules, giving a five-day
extension for stock deliveries. Saunders went home broke and New York called him "the boob from Tennessee." He has come back and now operates 500 stores.

The many who were ruined in the smash last fall give the same advice that Saunders gives to those tempted to go up against the wheel. It is: Don't. The burnt child

ABOUT TOWN

The election of J. L. Kilgo to the presidency of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade will be received with interest by members of the tobacco industry in this part of the state.

Mr. Kilgo has been affiliated with the tobacco business for a number of years. He knows what it takes to make the market go, and that he will put that knowledge to work in the interest of the local market.
We have not the slightest doubt in the world.

Jack is also an optimist—one of those kind of fellows who believes there is sunshine behind every cloud and who does not despair
when everything goes dead wrong.

This spirit should mean much to the future activities of the market and enable it to keep the rapid pace
established in past years.

The Lions Club is coming to the relief of the poor people of the section by raising money through a Charity Ball to be given here on February 7th. Although the place where the ball will be held has not been decided upon, it has been stated that the attraction will be one of the outstanding of the year
in a social way.

Not so long ago the American Legion staged a ball for raising money to relieve the poor, but the weather was bad and attendance was not as large as it should have been under ordinary circumstances.
With favorable weather, the Lions are hopeful they will be able to raise a very large sum of money for the poor and in that way help a situation which is described as unusually serious.

The public should make an effort to attend the ball and in that way
do their part in this effort to carry relief to the hungry, poorly clad men and women who will be without employment until business conditions improve.

"Buck the line hard—never give up—and things will come out all right in the future." James Pick-len, retiring president of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade told members of that organization at the annual meeting Thursday evening.

Speaking of the conditions prevailing in this section at present time, Mr. Picklen declared that they were serious, but only temporary, and should improve with the production of another crop. He urged his co-workers to "get up and hit 'em again" employing a phrase which he acquired during college days, and that the future

would hold just as many opportunities for service as the past.

He believes in the resources and possibilities of this great agricultural region, and thinks there is no reason to become discouraged over a temporary situation.

It is gratifying to note that the public is contributing so liberally to the relief commissary established on Dickinson avenue the first of the week for the purpose of feeding and clothing the people who have suffered from crop shortage and unemployment existing in this community at present.

With such a spirit of generosity
in evidence there is every reason to believe we shall be able to cope with the situation in a highly satisfactory way and enable the section to emerge from the dark cloud with the silvery lining in plain view.

If you haven't contributed to the fund, Mr. Citizen, make it a point to do so at once and in this way assure yourself of doing your best in behalf of humanity.

Dr. R. L. Carr is to be congratulated upon the time he is giving to the operation of the relief commissary on Dickinson avenue to relieve the condition among the poor of the section.

Always exhibiting an interest in the welfare of the citizenship, Dr.
Carr responded instantly to the appeal for somebody to take charge of the commissary, and that he will give highly satisfactory service as he has given in many another case of community interest cannot be doubted in the least.

He is assisted by members of various women's organizations who are also rendering invaluable aid in the feeding of the hundreds who have applied to the commissary for help.

This is the first time this part of the country has been forced to resort to such measures to care for its poor, and the citizenship is to be congratulated along with Dr.
Carr and his workers for the splendid response to the call for help.

J. C. Penney Manager
Offers Suggestions
for "Thrift Week"

Mr. C. P. Earhart, manager of the local J. C. Penney Company store, believes that, the 1930 Thrift Week is ushering in a new era of prosperity. Business is improving.
People are working more seriously
than ever to maintain their standard of living and this standard is set to a safe and sane program of saving.

As an important factor of the thrift week program each home of us should take a personal inventory of our stock in hand. Mr. Earhart offers the following suggestions:

- 1.—Save regularly. Draw up a budget so that you can "pull your money where it is to go instead of wondering afterwards where it went." This will enable you to see ahead more clearly, to find and put a stop to "leaks" and to save a certain sum regularly. Local banks are featuring thrift suggestions. Remember that it will become easier to swing into step as you go along.
- 2.—Spend wisely. Be generous but not extravagant in your buying.
Keep posted on values. Read your daily papers. Watch the windows and shelves of your favorite stores and compare prices. Women spend about 75 per cent of the family savings. Don't try to keep up with the Joneses. They may have a larger income than you or may be running into debt. Fit your scale of living to your own earnings regardless of others. When you spend money for entertainment, be sure you get the utmost value for your money. Don't barter your future for a little pleasure. There is a world of difference between recreation and mere entertainment.
- 3.—Teach your children the value of money. However little money you give them, let it be in the form of an allowance. Give it regularly and make them responsible for it. Show them how to keep account of it. It will teach them to spend wisely for they will soon learn that too much money for luxuries means a decided check on what they have for other things and they will avoid making similar mistakes in the future. Teach them to buy their own clothes, starting with the simpler articles, and watch how much better they will take care of their clothes almost from the start.
- 4.—Go into debt wisely. To incur debts for current expenses or for luxuries is to take a step backward.
Installment buying is always a temptation to go farther into debt than is justified. It often becomes increasingly difficult to meet installment obligations. The happiest people are the ones who save and pay as they go. But going into debt for insurance or for a mortgage when you purchase a home is a wise procedure for it really amounts to going into debt to save.
Always invest any money for you can invest in conservative advice that is freely given. Whether you have a bank account or not, your local banker will be glad to talk things over with you.

Mr. Earhart points out that Mr.
J. C. Penney, founder of the organization that bears his name and which does a nation-wide business, is an excellent illustration of what thrifty habits can do for an individual. Starting out at the age of eight with a capital of two dollars in pennies and silver which he had saved, little James, who lived on a farm, bought a pig which he fattened and sold at a profit. Part of his profit went to buy some clothes, and part went into the bank. Later ventures in the world of business
netted more money until at the age of twenty odd $500 had been atherred together which Mr. Penney paid on his partnership in a store.
This was at Kemmerer, N. Y.

In his January message to his more than twenty thousand associates and employees, Mr. Penney stressed the principles that started him on the road to fame and fortune. He said:

"It is relatively easy now for a man to acquire financial independence. This is accomplished by the constant use of those qualities which we have proved essential in our own organization—Honesty, diligence,
thrift and industry."

Cardui.

Italy, Texas.—Mrs. Rhoda Holley
of this place, says: "I was very much run-down. At night I suffered from sleeplessness, and I was restless and nervous. My joints ached.

"I was very weak and at times could scarcely leave my bed. My work was a drag. Some days I could do nothing at all.

"My mother asked me why I did not try Cardui, which she had read about. I thought that was a good idea, and began taking it at once.
I soon began to feel better.

"The improvement in my health was noticeable after I had been taking Cardui about a week. I was less nervous and I slept better. I was so grateful that I continued it for some time. I took several bottles and think it is a fine medicine.
I gained after taking it, both in health and strength."

Thousands of women have written to tell how they have obtained re-

Christians Swamp Methodists

Last night the Christian resumed basketball activities and swamped the Methodist Scouts, 22-7.

The Methodists were minus their star forward, Blount, who is out on account of injuries, and the Christians were aided with Taylor Carr, a new Scout from Farmville.

A game with the second terms raged between quarters and again the Christians won 8-0. However, the Christian team was aided with a few of their first team's players so the odds were against the Methodists. While no special star shine for the Christians, Turnage of the Methodists starred all around.

DANCE AT WOMAN'S CLUB THURSDAY EVENING

One of the outstanding social events of the season was the dance Thursday evening at the Woman's Club given by the members of the Junior Woman's Club. The members of the Greenville Cotillion Club and a number of others were guests.

The banquet hall was attractively decorated for the occasion, long leaf pine, ferns and cut flowers carrying out a yellow and green color note were profusely used.

Music was furnished by Carl Hinnant's orchestra. Dancing was enjoyed from nine until twelve. Sandwiches and bottled drinks were served by Mrs. Bryce Sigmon and Mrs. Virginia Arthur. The chapters were Mrs. Hortense Moyer, Mrs. W. E. Hooker, Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, Mrs. C. S. Forbes, Mrs. S. T. White, Mrs. L. C. Arthur and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James.

The Junior Woman's Club was recently organized and is already a very active organization.

Greenville to Hear Grand Opera

"The Barber of Seville" is considered the greatest comic opera that is worthy of a place among real operas. The Festival Opera company will give this at East Carolina Teachers College on the evening of February 4. Their arrangement of having the singing in English and having the dialogue spoken, instead of having it sung in recitative, makes this one of the most interesting productions of this opera ever given in America. A truly great voice adorns each character. The audience will be able to follow the plot and enjoy all the dramatic features and yet will hear several great singers—a contralto soprano, a basso, a baritone and a tenor.

An evening of uproarious laughter, musical gems sung by some of the greatest voices of the day, heart appealing dramatic moments, and a happy ending, and the features promised as summed up by the press notices.

The most popular features of both a dramatic and an operatic performance are preserved so that the general public will get a full evening's entertainment, and yet the music is so fine and the singing so excellent that the discriminating musicians also have what they care most for.

Notice Christian Scouts

Every Scout who is associated with the Christian troop is required to be at the church Thursday. The church will be warm and a big meeting will be held.

It is absolutely necessary for you to be there. All who are not will be reported for the "Black List." Everybody be there at all costs. Come in uniform, absolutely. This is the first meeting in which you are required to be there and we hope it will be the last.

A new patrol is to be organized and a senior patrol leader has been appointed. He is Taylor Carr of Farmville. Come and get acquainted. Be there.

—By Order.

Washington To Play Here Monday

Following the hotly contested basketball game last night in Washington, in which the Greenville team lost by the narrow margin of two points, the boys will resume play on Monday when the Washington Collegiate Institute team will play in the Greenville gymnasium. This should be another close one, for the Institute players have already defeated Washington High School, and so would seem to have an edge on the defenders of the Green.

The Greenville boys are steadily improving, and playing on their home court with a good crowd of supporters on the side lines, they will welcome the larger and heavier team from Beaufort. Their attack will be one of speed, by which they hope to offset the weight of the visitors. With Bullock back in shape, they will take the floor in better condition than they have yet possessed this year. The game begins at 7:30.

Fields Scores Victory Over Vince Dundee

Chicago, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The Dundee family of Baltimore will receive no more professional attention from Jackie Fields (born Jackie Finklestein). Welterweight champion of the world.

Fields last night in the Chicago Stadium, the younger of the Dundees of Baltimore. And having won his title-form Joe. The elder believes that five beatings should convince any family.

Vince had given Fields vigorous competition on three previous occasions. But last night came within a whisker of being knocked out after the second round of their 10-round engagement; Dundee took a terrific leathering. He was knocked down four times in the third round. And was in distress later in the fight. He went down under Fields' vicious attack twice for the count of eight. Once for nine and was on the floor for the fourth time when the bell ended the third round. He made a game stand, and in the final round, used everything he had left, but was a decisively beaten fighter.

The show drew about 8,000 customers, who paid in $25,000—just a little more than enough to pay expenses—a disappointing turnout considering their last meeting in Chicago several months ago, which was a fair-taker.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Jan. 25—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 1 to 3 points under some liquidation and a little local selling promoted by relatively easy Liverpool cables. Offerings were light, however, and prices held steady during the first half hour with many fluctuating from 17.43 to 17.48 compared with 17.48 at the close of Friday. There was some further March liquidation which appeared to be taken by the trade against sales of later deliveries.

Week end reviews of the cotton goods situation evidently contain no fresh incentive. Liverpool cables said that London, Continental and Bombay selling had been taken by trading buying at the decline in that market.

The amount of cotton on shipboard at U. S. ports at the close of business yesterday was estimated at 125,000 bales, against 155,000 last year.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 25—(AP)—Despite unofficial estimates that Argentina has harvested 50,000,000 bushels more wheat than the Argentine government has reported, wheat prices here displayed notable firmness today. After an early dip that resulted from man overnight accumulation of selling orders and from prospects that considerable enlargement of the amount of wheat affloat on ocean passage would be announced Monday, the Chicago market averaged most of the day.

Export business in North American wheat today was small, but bids for fair sized amounts were at hand, although at prices below the prevailing market level.

Wheat closed irregular, ranging from 1-4 c net decline to an equal advance.

Corn closed 1-4c off to 3-8 up. Oats unchanged to 1-4c higher, and provisions unchanged to 17c down.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 25—(AP)—Wall street witnessed a firm Saturday market today despite rather heavy week-end profit taking in some of the recent leaders. Increased activity and strength was noted in a number of low medium priced oil and automobile accessory shares, probably due to a revival of pool operations, but the best gains were recorded in the high priced industrial and public utilities.

Dow Jones reported that operations of the U. S. Steel Corporation were now slightly in excess of 75 per cent of capacity, as against a low level of 50 per cent in the holiday period, but steel interests were reported as regarding as ridiculous the reports that the rate would be stepped up to 60 per cent within two weeks and to 100 per cent by March 1.

Bank clearings showed a further falling off in volume, as compared with a year ago, and the weekly mercantile reviews as reported further irregularity in general business. Price movements in the stock market generally were believed to reflect the usual week-end readjustment of speculative accounts, with an increasing tendency noted on the part of small bear traders to cover their commitments.

Asheville Doctor Murders His Wife And Then Suicides

Asheville, Jan. 25—(AP)—With bullet wounds through their heads, the bodies of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Lambert, prominent Asheville residents, were found last night in their down-town apartment.

Owner W. E. Baker said position of the bodies indicated Dr. Lambert shot his wife to death as she sat by a window sewing and then fired a bullet through his own brain. The couple was believed to have been dead since late Thursday.

Friends believed depression resulting from recent financial reverses was responsible for the act.

Dr. Lambert, a native of Brooklyn N. Y., came here a number of years ago and was well known in this section. Mrs. Lambert was a niece of the late Mayor J. E. Rankin, of Asheville, and was a member of a prominent western North Carolina family.

Announcement of funeral arrangements was deferred until friends and relatives of the family had communicated with a son, Leighton Lambert of Houston, Tex.

GOVERNORS SECRETARY WEDS MT. OLIVE GIRL

Windsor, Jan. 25—(AP)—Miss Eva Louise Flowers of Mt Olive and Tyre C. Taylor of Raleigh and Charlotte were married at 8 o'clock this morning here at the home of Judge and Mrs. Francis D. Winston.

Judge and Mrs. Winston introduced Mr. Taylor and Miss Flowers and the ceremony, performed by Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Darst, Bishop of the Eastern Carolina Diocese, was held at "Windsor Castle" in recognition of the friendship of the young couple and the Winstons.

There were no attendants. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a southern honeymoon.

DODGERS SIGN UP THREE VETERANS

New York, Jan. 24—(AP)—Signed contracts have been received by the Brooklyn Dodgers from three veterans, Del Bissonette, Glenn Wright and Jake Flowers, and two recruits, Jim Richardson and Bob Ray.

Bissonette, Wright and Flowers, three-quarters of the infield manager Wilbert Robinson hopes to have on the field in the coming campaign, all were troubled with ailments of various descriptions last season. Bissonette now is recovering in a hospital here from successive operations for sinus trouble and rheumatoid. Wright hopes long treatment has mended his lame throwing arm and Flowers believes an injury was the cause of his trouble.

Sally Lergie Reis, a third baseman, came up from Rocky Mount, of the Eastern Carolina league.

BIG ITALIAN SCORES QUICK WIN AT N. Y.

By ALAN GOULD

New York, Jan. 25—(AP)—Whatever else may be said about the American debut of Primo Carnera, biggest of all the heavyweights, it ranks distinctly as the greatest social and artistic success of the winter, regardless of what happens beneath the palms of Miami.

Without a hitch in any feature of the arrangements, the bally hoop or his own showmanship, the 269-pound Italian giant knocked out Big Boy Peterson in exactly one minute and ten seconds of the main act in Madison Square Garden last evening. An appreciative capacity crowd of 18,000 roared like a lot of small boys at a circus as the big, barrel-chested Carnera handled the blonde Scandinavian as though his 269 pounds were a mere featherweight.

Carnera displayed amazing speed and agility for his tremendous size. He also exhibited a wide range of punches in the brief period of action but he could not fail to look impressive against an opponent who was knocked down four times for counts of three, eight, four and ten from an assortment of left hooks and right uppercuts. He took the final count while on his haunches, shaking his head like a shaggy dog and pawing at his chin. He was lugged to his corner without giving any indication he knew exactly what had happened.

Big Boy Peterson, who had been named second for fully three minutes after the fight under the friendly ministrations of his seconds, who could not have been more impressive if they had rehearsed that part.

At no moment of the proceedings did Peterson make any menacing gestures toward his huge, dark-haired opponent. Twice Big Boy waved his left hand in the general direction of Carnera but he was back peddling so fast at the time that it took only a light tap on the side of the head to send him sprawling to the floor for the first time. Thereafter, Peterson spent most of his time on the floor, blinking. All told he spent 25 of the 70 seconds that the "fight" lasted reclining on the canvas in a variety of poses.

As far as actual fighting was concerned, the customers got a much better run for the money in the semi-final in which Larry Johnson, crack Chicago negro light heavyweight, scored his 15th successive knockout at the expense of Fred Lenhart, Spokane, Wash., a rough and ready customer. Johnson knocked the far westerner down four times before he put over the finishing blow after two minutes, five seconds of the seventh round of what was to have been a ten round bout.

Add Warren, of Chapel Hill, N. C., gave Ora Buck Weaver, Medicine Lodge, Kan., heavyweight, a thorough trouncing in the first round.

Phil Scott, British heavyweight

who is to meet Jack Sharkey at Miami, Feb. 27, was introduced from the ring just before the big fight and got a loud chorus of boos for his pains. The customers evidently remembered Scott's last previous appearance at the Garden when he won on a much-disputed foul by Otto Von Porat.

50 horsepower six cylinder engine

Not until you drive the new Chevrolet Six can you appreciate what a wonderful improvement has been made in its famous six-cylinder valve-in-head engine. With its capacity increased to 50 horsepower, it has great reserve energy for sweeping up the steepest hills—for swift acceleration—and for sustained high speeds. Its power flows evenly and smoothly. And it is extremely flexible in traffic. In fact—it does everything you could possibly want a motor to do. Yet it is remarkably economical in its use of gasoline and oil. Come in today for a demonstration.
